West saw this danger and discarded, but his didn't faze South. He went up with dummy's king and led back the suit. East was in but could not lead a trump so South got to ruff one diamond which was all he needed.

Today's question is "What is an elimination play?" The answer is that it is a name given to a group of plays in which declarer eliminates all the cards in one or two suits and then throws an opponent in to force him to make a lead that will be favorable to declarer.

Vihlen Pleads With Harriett To Reconsider Jail Waiver

By MICK LOCHRIDGE
Herald Staff Writer

Seminole County Commission Chairman Sid Vihlen Jr., Friday appealed to Sanford Fire Chief George Harriett to reconsider refusal to waive a state life safety code restriction for the Seminole County Jail.

Harriett's refusal to waive the provision — the 28 inch width of corridor doors — could prevent prisoners from returning to the facility, according to Vihlen, because the county then would be "in direct violation of life safety codes."

Harriett said if he were to waive the provision, he would be held responsible for the safety of the prisoners and sheriff's department personnel.

"If you waive something then the liability will rest with the person who gave the waiver," Harriett said.

Vihlen also has appealed to Olin Greene, director of the state fire marshal's office, and said the two will talk Monday about waiving the corridor width provision.

County Fire Inspector Joe McLean said the jail facility is nearly complete on restoring the facility, which was burned in the June 9 fire that killed 11 persons. County prisoners currently are being "farmed out" to area jails at an average cost of $1,000 per day.

Vihlen is asking Harriett to reconsider the waiver on the practical difficulty or unnecessary hardship which will be incurred with the construction of widening the corridor doors.

Vihlen also asked Harriett to keep in mind the county plans to build a new jail facility within 24 months.

The widening of the corridor doors was the major point in a list of 32 deficiencies found to exist in the second story jail facility by Robert Johnson, chief investigator for the state fire marshal's office. A 14-point plan compiled by a jail study committee — of which Harriett was a member — also listed minimum requirements which would provide for safety conditions in the jail.

County officials sought to have city, county and state fire entities approve the 14-point plan, thus relieving the county of the liability of having an unsafe jail. Harriett says that "until further notice" he will not waive any of Johnson's recommendations and that he is following "city policy" by refusing established state law.

Harriett also pointed out that a prisoner's "civil rights would be violated" if he were placed in a jail which has deficiencies. A prisoner, aware the jail did not meet all the safety requirements, could refuse to be placed in the jail, Harriett said.

Harriett, when preparing the 14-point plan for the jail, explained to commissioners and sheriff's department personnel the corridor door provision and said the state fire marshal may cite the less than 28 inch width as a deficiency.

Harriett and Vihlen both stated intentions were to have the corridor width requirement replaced by other safety requirements, could refuse to be placed in the jail, Harriett said.

6 Jailed On Drug Charges

Seminole County vice officers and Florida Department of Criminal Law Enforcement agents Friday raided two Altamonte Springs apartment complexes and arrested six persons on drug related charges.

Sheriff's Lt. Ray Parker said the raids were conducted jointly with Orlando and Orange County authorities, along with the state officers.

Parker said a quantity of drugs and paraphernalia were seized in the two raids, conducted by executing search warrants at both apartment complexes.

Parker identified those arrested as:

- Joseph John Lambusta, 31, Apartment #1, Capistrano Apartments, charged with felony possession of controlled substance and paraphernalia. Bond $5,000 by court order.
- Michael Stephanie Boyle, 19, 1330 Delancy Dr., Casselberry, charged with felony possession of controlled substance. Bond $5,000 by court order.
- Monika B. Mang, 21, Capistrano Apartments, charged with felony possession of controlled substance. Bond $5,000 by court order.
- Robert Eugene Smith, 23, North Lake Apartments, Altamonte Springs, charged with felony possession of controlled substance and paraphernalia. Bond set at $10,000.
- Karen Anita Smith, 19, North Lake Apartments, charged with felony possession of controlled substance. Bond $5,000.
- Tanya Marie Sherry, 20, Orlando, charged with felony possession of controlled substance. Bond $5,000.

Parker said the raid on Lambusta's apartment was touched off by Orange County State Attorney Robert Egan, who obtained a search warrant in connection with a probe of embezzlement of state sales tax money.

Repairs were being painting, cleaning, hammering and sawing since July 15, two days after a fire that damaged the third floor and soaked most of the second and main floors with water.

"We're on our way back to being operational," Jesse Harry, superintendent of the school, said today as he reviewed the work at the school — once the famous Mayfair Hotel and home of the old New York Giants baseball team.

Harry explained that the school was being brought to state fire code standards in a "crash" repair program which was caused by the last fire, one of a series of blazes during the past year that has plagued the school.

"We should be ready for classes on Sept. 2," Harry said, but felt it would be best to keep the building closed until complete repairs could be made.

According To State Attorney Organized Crime In Seminole Area

By GLENN McCASLAND
Herald Staff Writer

State Attorney Abbott Herring says organized crime exists in Seminole County, but on a different level than in other areas of Florida and the nation.

Herring told The Herald in an interview that while vice-related crime — gambling, prostitution and the like — is almost non-existent, crime such as robbery and burglary is organized.

"There is no question about it. Some of the robberies and break-ins recorded in Seminole County are organized," Herring said. "Drug traffic is also organized and is connected with the armed robberies and break-ins."

Herring said his office is currently involved in several investigations connected to organized crime, but would not detail what these probes concern.

"There has been a major change in the past years where street crime is concerned locally. We have had more juveniles involved in armed

School Near Fire Code Standards Repairs Brighten Naval Academy's Outlook

Sanford Naval Academy has been in "dry dock" for repairs since last month's fire that caused fire department officials to order the private school closed until it could be brought up to state standards.

Repairs were being painting, cleaning, hammering and sawing since July 15, two days after a fire that damaged the third floor and soaked most of the second and main floors with water.

of the State Fire Marshal's office inspected the school and found 18 fire code violations. When a fire occurred in February at the school, it was revealed that few, if any, of the violations had been repaired.

Harry said after the July 13 fire that the Bernarr Macfadden Corp., which operates the school, had planned to do repair work during the summer, but that this would be a costly operation.

CAT GETS TRANSFUSION

Quake Damages Buildings, Injures 15 In California Town

OROVILLE, Calif. (AP)—California's strongest earthquake in 4 1/2 years jolted a 200-by-300-mile area, damaging dozens of buildings and causing 10 to 15 minor injuries in this Sierra Nevada foothills town.

The tremor, the most severe of four that hit Northern California Friday, measured 6.1 on the Richter scale of earthquake intensity.

It was the strongest quake to hit California since 64 persons died in a 6.6-magnitude Los Angeles earthquake on Feb. 9, 1971.

"It's like nothing that ever hit here before," said Don Shaffer, editor of the Oroville Mercury-Herald. "Part of a bluff fell into the Feather River where it goes through town."

Lockheed Admits Political Pay
WASHINGTON (AP)—Lockheed Aircraft Corp. admits it funded at least $22 million to foreign government officials and political groups since 1970 to sell its airplanes abroad.

The payments are under investigation by the Securities and Exchange Commission and the Senate subcommittee on multinational corporations.

Lockheed is refusing to disclose the names of those who took the payoffs, or to identify the several countries involved.

Lockheed said it believes the payoffs are in line with local business practices, and that disclosure could seriously injure Lockheed, possibly prompting recall of millions of dollars in advance payments put up by foreign customers.

Economy Defies Predictions
WASHINGTON (AP)—The nation's economy may be proving once again that it goes and down as predicted by most economists, both in and out of government.

The latest statistic to go in a different direction from what was widely predicted was the unemployment rate, which fell in July to 8.4 per cent, even though nearly all government economists thought it would increase to nearly 9 per cent.

The difference between an 8.4 per cent rate and a 9 per cent rate is about 600,000 jobs, a big number by any count.

The jobs rate in June was 8.6 per cent.

"I was surprised. Quite frankly, I thought it could be up around 9 per cent," said James L. Paie, assistant commerce secretary for economic affairs. He said it might be a sign the economy is improving faster than expected.

Judge Predicts Gurney Jury To Stay Out For Two Weeks

TAMPA (AP)—The judge in the bribery conspiracy trial of former Sen. Edward Gurney and three others says he wouldn't be surprised if the jury needed another week to return a verdict.

The panel enters its sixth day of deliberations today.

"For a case that's gone this long, I wouldn't consider two weeks of deliberations excessive," U.S. District Judge Ben Krentzman told reporters in a hallway outside his chambers Friday.

Krentzman indicated he had no intention of applying any pressure for longer sessions.

"I wouldn't bother them. You saw the evidence," he said, stretching out his arm about waist high to refer to some 500 pieces of evidence the 13-member panel has to consider in the 23-week-old case.

Wounded Youth Is Freed
GAINESVILLE (AP)—A state attorney has dropped charges against a 15-year-old accused of robbery, saying the youth—crippled by a policeman's bullet—has suffered enough.

State Atty. Eugene Whitworth said Friday he was dropping charges against Ed Howard of Miami "as a matter of justice." Howard was struck by the policeman's shot when the youth resisted arrest.

The Alachua County Grand Jury had indicted Howard in the robbery of $49 from a convenience store on Nov. 29, 1974. The same panel cleared Gainesville policeman Peter Francher of wrongdoing in the shooting of the youth the same night.

Still pending is a lawsuit for damages and medical costs filed Jan. 30 by Howard's father, Ralph.

County Directs OMAE To Expedite Budget
The Office of Management Analysis and Evaluations (OMAE) has been directed by the Seminole County Commission to provide it with an alternative budget for consideration in an effort to expedite budget work.

Eleanor Anderson, management analyst with OMAE, said the balanced "basic budget" should be ready for commission review Wednesday or Thursday. Three Commissioners—John Kimbrough, Harry Kwiatkowski and Dick Williams—gave the OMAE staff the go-ahead on Chairman Sid Vihlen Jr.'s recommendation the staff supply the board with a basic budget proposal.

Commissioners then will make policy decisions on any new or expanded programs, according to Mrs. Anderson. Commissioners are attempting to budget the county's operation for the 1975-76 fiscal year based on the 5.34 certified millage, which will mean cutting more than $4 million from more than $22 million of app. operation requests, Mrs. Anderson said.

'Get Most For Least Dollars' Harper: Business Approach Is Best

(EDITOR'S NOTE) Third profile in a series of five of members of the Seminole County School Board.

By ED PRICKETT
Herald Staff Writer

E.C. Harper Jr. is a good old boy from Sanford. In his own words Harper is an "old country boy—I've been here all my life."

Don't let that fool you. Besides being as his friends will tell you a shrewd and capable businessman Harper is a member of the School Board, the Seminole County agency responsible for million-dollar decisions concerning the county's youth.

Harper, one of two Democrats on the board (Pat Tolson is the second), ran for office in an effort to increase efficiency in the school system.

Eight months later, he says he's still "trying to get the most for the least amount of dollars."

Has he succeeded? Well, not yet, he'll tell you. But he's still trying and firmly believes it takes "one or two years" before a board member realizes his full potential. Harper "suffered" through the Rosenwald controversy, a controversy he feels took up too much of the board's time before the U.S. Justice Department ruled in favor of turning Rosenwald into a center for special learning.

Harper is persistent. Ask his wife. She'll tell you about a young college student who asked her to fix him up with a certain girlfriend—one of her prettiest roommates.

Well, it turned out Sue Collum's girlfriend was going steady, and Sue Collum became Mrs. E.C. Harper Jr. Now, Sue Collum had another girlfriend named Donna Lou, a Sanford girl who everyone knows married a bright and ambitious young attorney who ended up as governor of Florida.

In Harper's downtown Sanford office hangs a picture of Reubin Askew. It's inscribed: "With warmest personal regards," Reubin. Harper himself, however, doesn't see himself as a politician. Much like fellow boardman Davis Sims, Harper prefers the title of businessman.

It's a businessman's approach he takes towards teacher-board salary negotiations. "The Seminole Education Association (SEA) theory is to shoot for the moon. But we (the board) can't afford $10,000."

Then the good ole boy comes through, and he adds, "Not that we wouldn't like to." Harper keeps us with board activities. Three or four times weekly he's down at the central office doing his homework. He views his position as a job, a job he likes to do well. He doesn't like citizens yelling and pointing fingers. Just present a rational approach, he says, and your chances of positive board action increase.

Harper is high on School Supt. Bud Layer. "Bud is an excellent administrator. He has an excellent and perceptive mind, and we're lucky to have him here," says Harper. Sitting on the board gives one the view of a social psychologist, he says. His plans are to continue to serve and to learn and Harper wishes every citizen had the opportunity to become a board member.

After all, as Harper will tell you, "This is an experience."

Stone To Address Chamber Affair

U.S. Sen. Richard (Dick) Stone, D-Fla., will be the featured speaker at Monday's "Personality Breakfast," sponsored by the Greater Sanford Chamber of Commerce, at 8 a.m.

The freshman legislator will discuss happenings in the Senate and how he's fared during his few months in office as well as highlight legislation that directly affects Floridians.

Stone was elected to the U.S. Senate last November after winning the democratic nomination over a field of 11 candidates.

He was born on Sept. 22, 1928, in New York City and moved to Miami when he was just six months old.

A well learned man, Stone graduated from Georgia Military School, Milledgeville, Ga., and received an A.B. cum laude in economics from Harvard in 1949 and earned his law degree in 1954 when he graduated from Columbia University School of Law.

Stone served as Miami City attorney and was twice elected to represent Dade County in the Florida Senate (1967-1970) and was elected Florida Secretary of State in 1970.

As a member of the U.S. Senate, his committee assignments include Agriculture, Interior and Veterans Affairs, all of which are of prime concern to Central Floridians.

An advocate of open government, he says, "Government in the Sunshine symbolizes my belief in public access to government officials."

To prove his point, Stone even went so far as to remove the doors to his office.

Too, he has steadfastly refused to attend committee meetings that are closed to the public, except those dealing with vital national security matters.

Stone and Senator Lawton Chiles (D, Fla.) have pushed for an end to secrecy in Senate committee meetings and have established a nine-member appointed commission to recommend the best qualified lawyers for federal judgeship vacancies in Florida.

Stone maintains constant communication with his constituents by commuting on weekends between his family home in Tallahassee and a rented apartment in Washington.

Married to the former Marlene Singer, the Stones have three children—Nancy, Amy and Elliott.

Stone will be the guest of honor at an "Invitation Only" informal barbecue Sunday, 7:30 p.m., at the Mayfair Country Club.

Seeks Professionalism In Decision-Making Browning Tries To Make Government Efficient

By JANE CASSELLBERY
Herald Staff Writer

WINTER SPRINGS—As a successful businessman, 32-year-old councilman Donald E. Browning has tried to initiate more efficient business methods and record keeping in city government.

He considers that his single most important contribution as a councilman. He feels the council should be as professional as possible in decision making. "Historically there has been a lot of haggling and bickering," he said, "but we have reduced some of the sensationalism and politicking and get a lot more done."

"Managing a third of a million dollar business is a sobering and professional responsibility, we can't use any less criteria than we do in every day business life," he said.

He believes in the past the city has sometimes indulged in false economy when it seemed the way to go, but in the final analysis proved more expensive.

Robbery Count Lodged

By BOB LLOYD
Herald Staff Writer

A 17-year-old Apopka juvenile is scheduled for trial as an adult this week in circuit court on a grand jury indictment charging robbery.

Robert Anthony Preston Jr., 17, of 3221 Walton Road, Apopka, was indicted June 28 in connection with the Nov. 24 robbery of the Little Food Town Store, SR-411 at the Orange-Seminole County line.

Assistant State Attorney James Figgitt is prosecutor in the Preston trial, one of nine cases docketed for the week before Circuit Court Judge Joe A. Cowart Jr. Sanford Attorney Ned Julian Jr. is Preston's defense counsel.

A second juvenile, Christopher Paul Vammen, 15, of 115 Maitland Ave., Altamonte Springs, was indicted earlier in the robbery case. Vammen pleaded guilty in March to use of a firearm in commission of a felony and the state dropped a robbery charge. Circuit Court Judge A.J. Hosemann Jr. sentenced Vammen to the state Division of Youth Services as a delinquent child.

Doris Jean McArthur, 27, and Paul Richard McArthur, 28, both of P.O. Box 3087, Forest City, are docketed for trial on charges of buying, receiving and concealing stolen property in a case involving scrap metal allegedly stolen from R and M Manufacturing, Sanford, according to court files.

Gerald Pay Clay, 40, and Diane Isola Benedetti, 21, both of 115 E. Amelia St., Orlando, face trial on charges of possession of stolen motor vehicle and possession of controlled substance. They were arrested June 10 at Butler Plaza, Casselberry, by Florida Department of Law Enforcement agents who reportedly found more than 800 drug capsules and pills inside the recovered vehicle.

In separate drug cases, Ralph Dale Bass, 23, Orlando, and Byron J. Pafford, 21, Azalea Park, face trials on charges of possession of controlled substances.

Albert Eugene Capps, 22, of Orange Boulevard, Lake Monroe, is accused of larceny of a motor vehicle in connection with a June 12 incident on SR-46 west of Sanford.

Other cases docketed for trial this week include:

—Eugene Samuel Leonard, 30, Sanford Route Three, on aggravated assault in connection with an incident July 7 at Mayfair Circle, Sanford, involving a pistol.

—James Earl Umler, 33, SR-427, Altamonte Springs, breaking and entering with intent to commit a felony and grand larceny in connection with a June 22 burglary and theft of household items from an Altamonte Springs residence.

—Nathaniel Dailey, 27, 1811 W. 15th St., Sanford, indicted for forgery in connection with a series of checks stolen from a Sanford business establishment.

improvement in record keeping. "Previously in some departments such as Road and Bridge it was difficult to have any type of audit trail without documentation, but now we have established basic procedures. In the police department I am pleased at the attention to detail paid by the chief," he commented.

Browning noted a "tremendous increase" in personal involvement by citizens now compared to when he first came to the city. He credits that to the leadership of Mayor Troy Piland, who chairs the meetings. "He allows us to have a more professional meeting and has done a lot to make the citizens feel welcome, allowing everyone to express their views."

Browning, who serves as police commissioner, was appointed in March, 1974 to fill the Group 5 City Council seat left vacant when Piland stepped up to the post of mayor. In the December municipal election he campaigned and won a two-year council term.

Armed Robbers Strike Twice In Casselberry

By GLENN McCASLAND
Herald Staff Writer

Gunmen robbed a Casselberry apartment complex office and a Burger King Restaurant Friday, making off with an undetermined amount of cash after pistol-whipping one of their victims.

Sheriff's detectives said two men robbed the Marbeya Club Apartments office, SR 436 and Lake Howell Road, about 1:45 p.m., and then one man held up the Burger King Restaurant at Butler Plaza in Casselberry about 10:38 p.m.

Sgt. Oscar Redden Jr., said one of the Burger King employees was struck over the head with a pistol during the robbery, but was not seriously injured.

Officers were searching for a light colored automobile seen driving away from the Butler Plaza parking area minutes after the robbery.

Redden gave these details: A black male, about 5-6 and 180 pounds, entered the Burger King from the front door and jumped over the service counter where he grabbed employe Marc Dacigro, 16, 2646 Tierra Circle, Winter Park, and shoved a gun into the youth's side.

The gunman forced the youth into the office along with Mike Westberry, 19, 513 Highland Drive, Casselberry, and Mike Cechik, 37, DeLand, both employes. The gunman ordered Cechik to open the office safe and then struck him about the head with the gun when he failed to move fast enough.

Organized Crime Seen In Seminole and Fulemwidier point to an organized effort to reach persons in need of drugs.

And as a result, the robbery and burglary rate has gone up. "If a person has a $200 a week habit and makes $125, he's got a problem," one narcotics agent said. "That means stealing property to sell to pay for the habit."

The agent says that police have no way of telling how much the drug traffic is costing the average citizen in property loss each year in Seminole County.

Muggings have increased in Seminole County — several in recent weeks have been reported in Sanford — leading officers to feel the incidents are drug related.

Herring says that because of the increase in street crime, his office is seriously considering adding more personnel to Fulemwidier's investigative branch.

"We had four investigators, but are now down to three. I'm not certain that will remain at that figure and we may add even more to the staff," Herring said.

Herring revealed that police in Seminole County are cooperating with his department in providing "every kind of data possible about any organized crime activity" and that this cooperation is paying off.

"It is a slow process, but it will eventually pay off," Herring said.

Man Involved

A Sanford man identified as Francis Eugene Noe, was being held in county jail on $10,750 bond after sheriff's deputies said he attempted to stab Sgt. Oscar Redden Jr., during an incident inside the jail's booking section Friday night.

Noe was charged with reckless driving, driving under the influence of liquor, aggravated assault and introducing contraband into a jail facility.

No New Leads In Hoffa Case

BLOOMFIELD HILLS, Mich. (AP) — The family of Jimmy Hoffa fears he has been abducted, but police admit they still do not have a single clue to the mysterious disappearance of the former boss of the Teamsters union.

"We don't know anymore than we knew at this time yesterday," Bloomfield Township Police Lt. Curt Grenier acknowledged late Friday, 48 hours after the one-time leader of the nation's largest union vanished from this Detroit suburb.

"We have no leads. We have no evidence that he has been kidnaped. We have no evidence he is not alive," Grenier said.

However, the Detroit Free Press today quoted Hoffa's daughter, Barbara Crancer, as saying that "investigators" believe two associates of Anthony "Tony Jack" Giacalone, a longtime Hoffa friend and reputed Mafia leader, may have taken her father hostage.

Bloomfield Township police said their investigators were unavailable for comment on the report.

Hoffa's son, James P. Hoffa, said he also believes his 62-year-old father has been abducted, although he expressed confidence the elder Hoffa was still alive.

"I believe it's an abduction. There's no evidence it isn't. We have no reason to believe it isn't," said young Hoffa, an attorney.

But no ransom note has been delivered for Hoffa, who was last seen outside a plush restaurant here Wednesday afternoon.

In an interview with The Associated Press on Friday night, the family confirmed that the elder Hoffa told them he was going to the Machus Red Fox Restaurant to meet Giacalone.

Crown At Stake Perez, Vincent Battle Tuesday

By LOUIS SAPHIS
Herald Boxing Writer

ORLANDO — Sanford's Victor "Taco" Perez and Orlando's Joey Vincent meet for the vacant southern junior middleweight championship Tuesday at the Orlando Sports Stadium.

Despite the importance of the crucial match Vincent announced Thursday, "I have completed the majority of my training. I will finish up with only roadwork and exercises."

When asked how many rounds he worked in preparation for this fight, Vincent answered, "Nine. I worked three with Jimmy Clay (an amateur from Winter Park) and six with Gene Wells."

In contrast, Perez has worked over 200 rounds with Wells and

Junior All-Stars Open Drive For State Title Monday

By TOM KEYSER
Herald Sports Editor

ST. PETERSBURG — The Sanford Junior League All-Stars did not take the easy road, but they reached their destination anyway.

The All-Stars came out of the loser's bracket a week ago to win the District IV tournament and gain a berth in the State Junior League Tournament that begins Monday at St. Petersburg.

The All-Stars battle West Palm Beach at 2 p.m. Monday. A victory will boost the All-Stars into a 6 p.m. Tuesday game.

The state tournament is single elimination, and one loss will send the All-Stars home. The district event was double elimination.

Eight teams are competing in the state event.

The All-Stars are to leave Sanford at noon today after a final workout Saturday at 4 p.m. at the Junior League field behind Sanford Memorial Stadium.

Manager Earl Smith said Sanford's Smith said, "Even his breaking pitches are fast."

If Sanford survives West Palm Beach in its opening game, Duane Lee will pitch

Billy Martin Back In Yank Pinstripes

NEW YORK (AP) — Billy Martin will be managing his fourth major league team in seven years and it will be with his first team and first love—the New York Yankees.

The Associated Press learned Friday night that the fiery Martin will be back in Yankee pinstripes, replacing Bill Virdon, who had a contract running through 1976.

The announcement of the change was expected to come Saturday before the Yankees' annual Old Timers Game.

The New York Daily News, which carried a similar story in its Saturday edition, said the agreement between Martin and the Yankees was sealed earlier this week in a meeting in Denver, where the controversial former Yankee second baseman had gone to make a speech.

Yankee General Manager Gabe Paul returned to New York from a business trip Friday night and, when asked about the reports, would only say, "I can't comment on that."

However, Brad Corbett, owner of the Rangers and the man who fired Martin two weeks ago, said Friday night that Paul had called him earlier in the day and asked for permission to talk with Martin about a job.

Martin's return to New York brings his full circle in a controversial career, which started with the Yankees in 1950, moved him to Kansas City in 1957 before stops in Detroit, Cleveland, Cincinnati, Milwaukee and Minnesota, his final team as a player, in 1961.

Martin, 47, who began his major league managerial career in 1969 with Minnesota, was fired by the Twins, Detroit

Assistant To Take Gibson Post

TAMPA (AP) — Hunter "Chip" Connor, an assistant under Gibson at both USF and the University of Virginia, has been named to succeed the late Bill Gibson as head coach.

"Connor's selection was a natural for us," said Dr. Joe Howell, vice president for Student Affairs.

"He not only has the personal and professional credentials for a major college basketball coach, but he will give the USF program continuity and maintain the momentum Bill Gibson developed," Howell said Friday.

Connor, 32, an assistant under Gibson at both USF and the University of Virginia, has been named to succeed the late Bill Gibson as head coach.

"Connor's selection was a natural for us," said Dr. Joe Howell, vice president for Student Affairs.

"He not only has the personal and professional credentials for a major college basketball coach, but he will give the USF program continuity and maintain the momentum Bill Gibson developed," Howell said Friday.

Edgar "Mad Dog" Ross. Still, the good-looking, 26-year-old hasn't finished. "I intend to keep working hard till Monday and then fast for the 24-hour period before the weigh-in on Tuesday."

Perez is the type of fighter every trainer dreams of working with. His dedication is second to none. But his natural abilities are limited.

His face can patch hard with his left hand but only fair with his right. He is quick on his feet but not quick enough to be an accomplished boxer.

He takes a good punch but his defense allows him to get hit far too much.

Normally he doesn't get cut but he can be hurt. (He comes in with his head too high and it led to serious cuts in fights with Eddie Davis, Art Cirillo and in the first match with Vincent.)

Perez is on the threshold of a for title because of his effort in the gym and in the ring. He wins fights from men who have more ability. He does it on heart and determination.

Vincent has gotten as far as he has on pure ability. Most boxing experts agree, "Vincent has as much natural talent as any man who has ever performed in Central Florida."

But they add, "what a waste he really is. Instead of fighting for the southern crown, Joey should be going after the world title."

Not only has Vincent stayed away from the gym in his boxing career but he has also gotten mad and comes down for three years and since coming back in 1973 he has been quite active. In the past five months he has fought five times and taken time off for a broken finger to mend.

A two-fisted dynamite puncher, Vincent has all the moves that make up a champ. He can take you out with either hand and he is hard to hit unless he gets mad and comes down for with the girl he calls "Joey Vincent's woman." Her first name is Pam and her official title is his "trainer."

Perez works an eight-hour day, five days a week.

Vincent is unemployed. When he does work it is as aouncer in a bar.

Perez is quiet and not used to all the publicity he is getting. Vincent is a "white All." He is always ready with a clever remark and always knows just what to say.

According to Vincent, "I hope they hate me all the way to the bank. Let them like Perez. But it won't do him any good off the ring and pick him up off the floor. I am a better fighter and I will win. It's that simple."

To that Perez counters, "Vincent is right about that, the fight will never go the limit. But he is mistaken as to who will be the winner. I will shut his mouth once and for all before the seventh round."

Zinn Beck Set For Festivities Monday Night

Sanford's Zinn Beck, the oldest active major league baseball scout, will be honored Monday night when the Orlando Twins face the Montgomery Rebels at Orlando's Tinker Field.

The evening, appropriately, will be called "Zinn Beck Night."

Beck, who will be 90 next Monday, has lived in Sanford for 24 years. He has been involved in organized baseball for 69 years, the last 38 with the Twins' organization.

Calvin Griffith, president and owner of the Twins, will be on hand Monday night to honor Beck. Other baseball notables, including Sanford's Bert Chapman, ex-Florida State League president John Krier, and Julian Stenstrom, former manager of the Twins, also will be present.

Many Sanford city officials will be on hand to honor Beck. "We especially want to see all the baseball fans in Sanford turn out," Greater Sanford Chamber of Commerce Executive Manager Jack Horner said.

Ceremonies prior to the game at 7:30 p.m. will be centered around Beck.

The chamber, Flagship U.S. Banks of Seminole and Sanford, McDonald's, Stromberg-Carlson, First Federal Savings and Loan of Seminole, Chase

All-Stars Score Steelers; Gilliam Keys Late Charge

CHICAGO (AP) — "We won the game despite a pitiful performance," said Terry Bradshaw, describing the Super Bowl champion Pittsburgh Steelers' come-from-behind victory over the College All-Stars.

His coach, teammates and most of the 54,562 crowd in Soldier Field on Chicago's lakefront agreed.

In fact, Joe Greene, the All-Pro tackle who leads Pittsburgh's defense, echoed, "I feel like I got the hell kicked out of me. I was so bad..."

The fierce young All-Stars who throttled the Pittsburghers for three quarters and prevented Greene and Co. from reaching their quarterback most of the game left the Steelers scowling.

"Don't want no more of that," muttered running back French Fugate as he slowly made his way to the locker room.

And Coach Chuck Noll found solace in the fact that, "We were able to win it in the fourth quarter after getting our butts kicked off. If their whole game plan was to physically knock our heads off, it was successful," he added.

The Steelers did, however, win the 41st renewal of the All-Star game by a 21-14 count, putting it away on a pair of fourth-quarter touchdown heaves by Joe Gilliam who replaced Bradshaw in the final period.

"We played well, but we made the mistakes an All-Star team is going to make," said Coach John McKay of Southern California who two years ago coached an All-Star team that

Then the hope is that the Yankees would be back in the October classic next season, when they return to the Bronx and Yankee Stadium after two seasons in Shea Stadium while the "House That Ruth Built" was undergoing a facelift.

for Earl Smith on league-champion Moose, batted .550 and .500 respectively during the regular season. Bussard, who played for Elks, batted close to .430.

Manager Smith will start the following lineup Monday: Chris Higgins rightfielder, Bussard pitching, Smith's shortstop, Edmonds first base, Lee third base, Mike Lee second base, Pat Johnson centerfield and it's a "toss up" for the other two positions.

Smith will choose between Marty Roberts, Ricky Wells, Michael Wright, Ken Perry, Wayne Kelly, Steve Drizick, Wayne Lively or Greg Rapa.

Smith earlier had pitched Sanford to a 5-4 win over Ormond Beach to force a second game.

Smith is Sanford's reliever and third starter. "He mixes his pitches up pretty good," Manager Smith said. "When he's on, he throws good. But he's had some control problems lately."

Smith walked eight against Ormond Beach in the first half of the finals.

In the district, Sanford batted .218 as a team and committed 13 errors in five games. "We'll have to do better than that if we're going to do anything at state," Smith said.

Joe Smith and Edmonds, who played drive which ended in Gilliam's interception of a 33-yard pass. "I was so bad..."

"We got mentally tired," McKay said. "When you don't move the ball the way we didn't in the second half, then that happens."

Robert Brazile of Jackson State, who played a great game at defensive end for the Stars, said of the late Pittsburgh drive, "The Steelers wanted to win...you could see it in their eyes when they came off the ball."

"I feel like I got the hell kicked out of me. I was so bad..."

— Joe Greene

"We were able to win it in the fourth quarter after getting our butts kicked off..."

— Chuck Noll

"It's hard to get up for an All-Star game," said Bradshaw. "We got nothing to gain and everything to lose."

Randy White, Maryland's great lineman, said, "I think they might not have thought we were as good as we were."

But Greene said he expected "they'd be good athletes...I guess I just kept thinking, how had I was when I was a rookie. We beat them on experience."

Apparently so, because the professional champions now have a 30-2 record in the mid-summer series and haven't been beaten since Green Bay dropped a 20-17 contest in 1963.

Rice, Yastrzemski Join To Give Bosox Close Win

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS. "I was only following orders," said Jim Rice. But he wasn't trying to avoid taking the blame. It was the credit he was wanting.

Rice's bat started down on the third base line but ended up in left field. And Carl Yastrzemski, who had started out on second base, wound up crossing the plate with the ninth-inning run that gave the Boston Red Sox a frantic 8-7 victory over the Detroit Tigers Friday night.

In the rest of the American League, Texas trimmed California 2-1, New York edged Cleveland 5-4, Kansas City blanked Oakland 6-0, Chicago beat Minnesota 5-1 in a rain-shortened 5-13 inning and Baltimore swept a two-night doubleheader from Milwaukee 6-4 and 3-1.

But in the bottom of the ninth, with the Tigers ahead 7-6, Denny Doyle beat out a bunt-single to short and continuing to second on Gene Michael's wild throw. Yastrzemski then singled, Doyle homered and moved to second on what turned out to be a pivotal throw to the plate by right fielder Billy Baldwin.

Perry hurled a two-hitter to give the Rangers their victory over California.

Right-hander Ed Figueroa had blanked Texas on four hits before Griever tied the game with a leadoff homer, his eighth of the season. Howell's fifth homer came on Figueroa's next pitch.

Orlans 6-1, Brewers 4-1. Tony Davis' grand-slam homer, his second in five games against Milwaukee, gave the Orioles their first-game triumph.

Westbury, N.Y. (AP) — Surefire Hanover, the $100,000 substitute in Stanley Dancer's harness racing stable, is favored to win the $122,250 Dexter Cup Trot at Roosevelt Raceway tonight, the second leg of trotting's Big Five.

Surefire filled in for Bonefish, the colt Dancer regards as his best 3-year-old trotter, and easily won the $200,000 Yonkers Trot two weeks ago, the opener of the Big Five as well as the Triple Crown.

With Dancer again keeping Bonefish out of competition on a half-mile order to point him for the Hambleton over a one-mile track, Surefire is favored at 4-5 to take the Dexter.

The Yonkers, the $225,000 Hambletonian Aug. 30 and the $100,000 Kentucky Futurity Oct. 3 comprise the Tricorn. The Dexter and the $100,000 Colonial Sep. 13 round out the Big Five. A sweep of the five races would earn more than $50,000 for the winner.

MIAMI BEACH (AP) — Tennessee staged a late 58-point rally for a stunning upset of one of the nation's strongest bridge teams in semi-finals of the Grand National Bridge Tournament early today, ousting New York City's expert team.

Tennessee won 141-33 while Dallas fought off an intense drive by Los Angeles to win 133-132.

Dallas, with three of the continent's most highly-ranked players, and Tennessee, with newcomers to top-level play, clinched a 64-hand match today and tonight for a chance to represent North America in 1976 world play at Monaco.

Tennessee, playing Reece Rogers and Mike Cook of Memphis against Alan Sontag and Peter Weichsel, and Ron Smith and Bernie Yomov of Nashville against Matt Granovetter and Jimmy Cayre, came back after trailing by 32 at the end of 48 hands.

Simon Ready For Seafair. SEATTLE (AP) — George Simon, whose sparkling red, white and blue unlimited hydroplane, the Miss U.S., burst his way to victory in the 30th annual Seafair regatta this time for Sunday's Seafair regatta.

There's a little red lever in the Miss U.S. cockpit and another on the boat's stern. When pulled, the lever releases iron gas, which is supposed to smother any flames.

Simon's boat, the new year, did not have that luxury this time. The boat caught fire in an early heat and burned to the water line while crews tried in vain to douse the flames.

When driver Tom D'Eath pulls the pin and hits the button, the boat is lit. "They tell us it will put out just about any fire. We've got more than what they tell us is the required amount for the job."

East Germany Rallies To Win. SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — East Germany scored three goals in the second half Friday night to defeat Mexico 3-2 before 14,365 in a soccer match.

In the third game in three days for East Germany, the goal was scored by Mexico in the 30th minute when Ricardo Chaviradin stole the ball on a breakaway down the right sideline. At the half it was 1-0. Ten minutes into the second half, East Germany's Gerd Kraische kicked the ball to Hans Doerner, who headed the ball to Reinhard Lauck for the score.

Mexico tied it 2-2 with an 18-yard kick by Bernardino Garcia. Two minutes before the end, East Germany's Hans Riedinger scored on the ball 35 yards from the goal and lofted it for a score.

Golfer Dies Of Hemorrhage. BUENA VISTA, Calif. (AP) — Gary Sanders, a 25-year-old golfer who was scheduled to undergo an operation for cancer, has died of a massive cerebral hemorrhage.

Sanders, an All-American for three years at the University of Southern California, died Friday at Beach Community Hospital, two days after suffering the stroke at his Buena Vista home. He had just returned from the Canadian Open, where he played after learning in late June that he had cancer of the lymph glands.

He was scheduled for surgery on Monday at the UCLA Medical Center.

A family spokesman said doctors were looking into whether the cancer condition was a cause of the hemorrhage.

Sanders is survived by his widow Linda, who is three months pregnant, and a daughter, Brandy, 2.

Surefire filled in for Bonefish, the colt Dancer regards as his best 3-year-old trotter, and easily won the $200,000 Yonkers Trot two weeks ago, the opener of the Big Five as well as the Triple Crown.

With Dancer again keeping Bonefish out of competition on a half-mile order to point him for the Hambleton over a one-mile track, Surefire is favored at 4-5 to take the Dexter.

The Yonkers, the $225,000 Hambletonian Aug. 30 and the $100,000 Kentucky Futurity Oct. 3 comprise the Tricorn. The Dexter and the $100,000 Colonial Sep. 13 round out the Big Five. A sweep of the five races would earn more than $50,000 for the winner.

Tennessee, playing Reece Rogers and Mike Cook of Memphis against Alan Sontag and Peter Weichsel, and Ron Smith and Bernie Yomov of Nashville against Matt Granovetter and Jimmy Cayre, came back after trailing by 32 at the end of 48 hands.

South Counted his winners and saw that he had a potential of 10. All he had to do was to knock out the right ace first. So South grabbed the first trick, decided that he might as well try clubs first, led out his king of clubs and wound up making four notrump.

"Pretty good guess, wasn't it?" he asked North.

"A fine, but unnecessary one," was the reply.

North pointed out that if South ducked the first spade he could knock out either ace and make his contract. No guess would be needed.

Also, if West abandoned spades, and led a heart South could duck one heart and be safe if hearts broke 5-2.

By Oswald & James Jacoby

The answer is that it is a form of squeeze in which declarer sets up a card in a defender's hand as a prelude to squeezing him. It was supposedly first played in a whist game in Vienna around 1850. We will show one in Monday's article.

BELLY DANCING

"Little Egypt" first introduced belly dancing to the U.S. back in 1893, but its origins go far beyond that. Now it's enjoying a new surge of popularity with women of all ages and walks of life. Some say they're taking it for the exercise. Others admit it's for their husbands. Most purely enjoy the glamor and mystique of learning a new form of dance.

An Old Ritual Gaining New Popularity In Seminole

Lindsay Savelle practices hip thrust.

By JAN MONAHAN Herald Staff Writer

Most working girls hate Mondays. But five employees of the U. S. Flagship Bank of Seminole, Sanford, look forward to it because there's something special for them at the end of the day.

Belly dancing class. No, it's not a new gimmick to keep employees happy. They're co-workers — four bookkeepers and one teller — who decided to take advantage of group rates at Veda Sereem's "Art of Belly Dancing" studio in Casselberry.

They're among the growing number of women from age 8 to 58 and of all walks of life — housewives, nurses, teachers, secretaries, accountants — who are currently being lured by the strains of the mysterious middle-eastern music and exotic dance form.

The interest is so great that Veda Sereem (Mrs. Trudy Dartozos in private life) took a cue from the number of calls she was receiving at her Winter Springs home for lessons that she opened her studio in October at the Greater Mall. In less than eight months, she outgrew one studio and took over another twice its size in the same mall.

It's the mystery and femininity of a dance which "Hoordescents," "Rib slides" and "Belly ripples," that attracts most women, according to Veda, herself a mother of one son.

First introduced to the U. S. in 1893 at the Chicago World's Fair by "Little Egypt", its real surge in popularity began about 1972 with the publication of the book: "Belly Dancing - A Fun Way To A Trim Shape," says Veda. So, women who might have previously been a little embarrassed about showing interest in what was originally a form of fertility rite, could now learn to belly dance because it's "good exercise."

"To do the basic steps you use all the muscles in your stomach, hips, legs, arms and torso," says Veda. "A 20 to 30 minute workout takes stamina. If a woman attends her two hour long classes a week and then exercises at home like she's supposed to," she's bound to tone up and lose weight," she explains.

There is one common reason our banking women give for attending the class. Other justifications are: "It gets me out of the house one night a week" — Mrs. Carol Lee of Sanford. "It's something, I've always wanted to do" — Mrs. Lindsay Savelle. "It's a good experience learning something I didn't know anything about" — Mrs. Becky Donaldson. "My husband and daughters really enjoy watching me practice" — Mrs. Alice Sundvall. "I feel better and it gives me more energy for other days of the week," Miss Joann Skinner.

There are no tricks to learning belly dancing and the local girls agree, "anyone can do it," but the hardest part is learning the basic step. "It's just a matter of bending the legs and putting the weight where it belongs," says Veda, but her students say that making the movements smooth and graceful takes practice.

Most of the girls are taking the class for their own personal enjoyment. Now in the sixth of a 10 weeks series of beginner classes they intend to join the intermediate class which follows. Most say that if they improve they would consider performing for an audience. This, according to Veda, is another bonus. "It draws out a shy person and gives her more poise and confidence."

There is argument about whether belly dancing originated in old Persia or Egypt and there are a variety of forms, some relating heavily to sex, but Veda teaches Egyptian and Arabic forms which she says are "the most sophisticated dances with lots of class. I teach what I consider a very graceful dance."

Called belly dancing, because the midriff and navel area are usually exposed and the center of movement, Veda explains that a routine can be from eight to 45 minutes long. Belly motions are too strenuous to do for more than a minute or so and therefore a great majority of the dance is devoted to other steps and movements of the hands, arms, feet, legs and body. This also gives a routine variation to make it an interesting presentation.

Volunteer Corp Cares About Youngsters

Volunteerism is caring. That's the conclusion I drew after attending a recent meeting of Youth Programs Inc. (YPI) held at the First Federal Savings and Loan of Seminole Building in Sanford.

Discussion at the meeting surrounded the volunteer's role up until this point, and the amount of tax dollars saved by the state as a result of recent upgrading of laws concerning juveniles and the consolidation of state and county agencies under one umbrella.

YIP, incidentally, was started in Orange County in 1971 by Col. Eugene D. Minietta, USAF (Ret.) — he started YOP because, quite simply, he "cared" about young people.

Since then, YIP has grown and expanded into six counties, and the ultimate goal is to have youth counselors in every county.

Minietta was guest speaker at the recent YIP meeting, which was chaired by Marilyn Gordon, Coordinator of Volunteer Services in Seminole County.

Minietta said that studies have indicated that volunteers have been more successful dealing with disturbed youngsters than have professionals — in a majority of cases.

He also pointed out the amount of tax dollars saved by using volunteers as unmeasurable.

She Wants 'Ex'-But Unwed

Dear Abby
By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: Do you think it's possible for a divorced couple to resume a happy, close relationship without remarriage? This question has been haunting me for several months, but I hesitate to suggest it because I'm afraid that my conservative ex-husband would react negatively.

My "ex" and I are fairly sophisticated people in our 60s. We were divorced two years ago after a five-year marriage that didn't work out. (The divorce was mutual.)

I am still very much in love with him, and I think he's still in love with me. We both love to travel, and I cannot think of a better traveling companion than my "ex."

I want very much to resume our relationship—but not as his wife. What are your views on the subject?

DEAR NAMELESS: There are built-in factors in second marriages for people of your age that could cause considerable conflict. (Family ties on both sides, money matters, old habits, old habits, old children and their children, etc.)

DEAR ABBY: A letter in your column dealing with how to punish a child appropriately prompts this letter.

When a child makes a commitment, he gives his word, and it's unfair of a parent to lay a punishment on the child that will necessitate his breaking his word.

For example: The night of the senior-class play, the father of one of the most important members of the cast phoned to say that his son could not be in the play as a punishment for something he had done. A hasty (and unfortunate) substitution was made. Was this fair to the rest of the cast?

Another incident: Our school has an outstanding girls' softball team. They had won three consecutive games, but on the night of the fourth and most crucial game, the star player didn't show up. A frantic call was made to her home. Guess what? Her mother was punishing her by refusing to let her play in that game!

ABBY please tell parents that children that will not involve others. Deny them telephone or TV privileges, take the car away from them, get more work out of them around the house. But for heavens sake, don't force them to break a commitment that will punish the innocent.

BALTIMOREMOM
DEAR MOM: Well said. Parents, are you listening?
DEAR ABBY: My husband and I bought a very expensive, king-sized bed. It squeaked, so

Yanceys Return
This weekend, we have someone who, instead of going places, is coming back to Sanford. Dorothy McKeynolds called to say her sister and brother-in-law, Martha and Ned Yancey, have returned to Sanford after 25 years.

Martha will be remembered as the former Martha Stevens, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. J.P. Stevens Sr. of this city. Ned is the son of Charlie Yancey of Jacksonville, formerly of Sanford, and the late Mrs. George S. Yancey. Martha and Ned both grew up in Sanford and finished school here.

Ned taught school at Seminole Junior High in 1938-39. The couple has been living in Decatur, Ga. and have two sons and a daughter who live in Atlanta, Ga. Martha has retired as a Dorothy Gray training supervisor and Ned is retired from the Justice Department. They belong to the First Baptist Church.

Martha says she is enjoying remodeling and decorating their retirement home at 2100 Cordova Dr. Her brother will be bringing her much joy. Her husband, Frans, is staying in Deltona and visits every afternoon, but he speaks no English either. Their only means of communication with Americans is through Fred Meerschaert, Deltona Corporation's representative in Belgium, who was acting as tour guide for the small group of Belgian tourists, of which Suzanne was one.

Suzanne and Frans have three daughters ages 10, 12 and 14 back home in Brussels, Belgium, and while they are naturally anxious to get home, they cannot repeat often enough how kind everyone has been during their forced stay in the Sanford area.

Godspell

A Joy-Filled Show

For months now, whoops of joy, shrieks of agony and strains of the sweetest music have emanated from behind the closed doors of the Fellowship Hall located behind Sanford's First United Methodist Church.

Contain your curiosity for just another two weeks!
On Aug. 13, the doors will swing open to the public for the opening night performance of Godspell, to be presented by Sanford's Fellowship Players nightly at 8 o'clock through Aug. 17. Godspell is a joy-filled, fun-filled musical based on the gospel according to St. Matthew with great appeal to young and old alike. The five-night run of the show will be the climax of months of rehearsal for the talented group of local young actors who make up the Fellowship Players.

Directed by Anna Lea Heard, Godspell stars Foreman Heard as Jesus and Chip Johnson as John the Baptist. Johnson also plays Judas. Other players include Martha McDonald, Buddy Echols, Allyson Dupree, Walt Morgan, Anthony Sutton, Martha Hardwick, Joanne Brubaker and Anna Lea Heard.

The crew managed by Tom McDonald include Pat Smith, master electrician; Terry Lodge, follow spot; Sandra Orwig and Tom McDonald, props; Dee Raulis, costume mistress; Roby Sawyers, house manager; Chuck Hardwick and Bill Young, set.

Musical director is Dickie Aiken. Pianists are Linda Priefauf and Dickie Aiken, and drummer is Sherwood Mobley.

The Fellowship Hall is located on the corner of Magnolia Avenue and Fifth Street. For reservations, call the First United Methodist Church office during business hours, or the Heard residence at 101 E. 7th Street between 7:10-8:30 p.m.

New Shop Manager First Of Her Kind
"Isn't it great? We're getting there!" smiled Faye Roberts, recently appointed manager of Sterch's Furniture Store on French Avenue in Sanford — the first woman in Sterch's 67-year history to be promoted to this position in any of the company's 69 stores in the Southeast.

Mrs. Roberts has been employed by Sterch's ever since the company opened its Sanford store in October, 1970. She has served as office manager since 1972, and this month becomes store manager.

"The work's not all new to me; I've had to fill in when former store managers have been on vacation. But there's still a lot to learn," said Mrs. Roberts. "I'm enthusiastic about it. This is an old line company and I'm excited to see they can welcome change by promoting a woman to this position of responsibility."

Mrs. Roberts, wife of L. E. Roberts of Sanford, has two grown sons, Earl and Marty, and a married daughter, Gail Miller of Pensacola.

Thank you

STATE ATTORNEY

Abbott Herring Finds His Life Never Dull In World of Law

By GLENN MCKEAN
Herald Staff Writer

In 1974, Herring filed 1,156 felony cases over the 12-month period. As of June 30, he had processed 1,000 cases.

Herring finds the public is more aware of the law and more interested in the work of the state attorney's office. He says the public is demanding better protection of cases.

Looking more like a scholar or a statesman, Herring has decided that his career is not a job, but a calling. He says he is not a lawyer, but a public servant.

The growth in the state attorney's office has been significant. In 1974, the office had 22 employees. Now, it has 100. Herring says he is proud of the growth and the dedication of his staff.

Herring's office is a busy one. He is responsible for the prosecution of all felonies in the state. He also oversees the state attorney's office in each of the 15 counties.

Almost a year ago a number of my family had a heart attack, a left branch block, through rest and very special treatment, I have been told that isn't important, but I give her a cholesterol diet, and I use in doing so?

DEAR READER:—Left branch block is a serious condition, the special service-like issues that carries the stimulus to the left side of the heart usually because of damage. This shows the left side of the heart's conduction by about 50 percent, and it is a very serious condition. That means that the heart is not getting enough blood to pump, and it is a very serious condition. That means that the heart is not getting enough blood to pump, and it is a very serious condition.

Dear Bernice:
I've been dating a boy for three years, most of the time unhappily. He is stubborn and selfish, yet I've never been able to break it off. My birth date is Dec. 31, 1951 and mine is Oct. 24, 1953. ... Paralyzed

DEAR PARALYZED:
IN COMPARING YOUR HOROSCOPES I SEE MANY STRONG FACTORS THAT ATTRACT YOU TO ONE ANOTHER. THE PROBLEM: YOU'RE EXTREMELY RELUCTANT TO MAKE CHANGES, REVISIONS IN YOUR LIFESTYLE ARE MADE ONLY IF YOU'RE FORCED BY EXTREME CONDITIONS. YOUR CHART SHOWS YOU TEND TO VIEW THINGS ON AN ALL-OR-NOTHING BASIS. AS LONG AS YOU SEE MERIT IN A RELATIONSHIP YOU'LL HOLD ON. HOWEVER, ONCE YOU'RE CONVINCED WRONGS OUTWEIGH THE RIGHTS, YOU'LL TERMINATE THE SITUATION.—BERNICE

Asks Citizens To Speak Out On Cuban Trade

Stone Urges Ford To Work With Congress On Energy

By GLENN McCASLAND
Herald Staff Writer

U.S. Sen. Richard Stone, D-Fla., today urged President Ford to sit down with Congressional leaders and hammer out something that makes sense in energy legislation.

Stone issued his appeal to Ford during an appearance at a Greater Sanford Chamber of Commerce-sponsored "personal breakfast" at the Civic Center.

The senator also said he opposed lifting the trade embargo on Cuban goods.

"President Ford should not call back the Congress, but should ask the leadership and committee chairmen to return from our recess and sit down with him at the White House and hammer out something that makes sense to all persons involved," Stone said.

The senator said that Ford "wants one package" and "The President will veto what we passed and we'll be right back where we started."

— Senator Richard Stone

"Congress wants another" on the energy problem. "We passed a measure and went into recess," Stone continued. "The President will veto what we passed and we'll be right back where we started."

Stone said that by "old-fashioned give and take" in the White House talks with the Congressional leadership, something which would be acceptable should appear.

"The pressure of the country's needs would compel a reasonable agreement," he said. "Then Congress should go back into session long enough to enact a program which would give us some energy leadership or direction."

Stone, who has spent the weekend meeting people in five Central Florida counties, also urged Sanford and Seminole County residents to "make your voice heard" regarding the possible lifting of trade bans with the Castro regime in Cuba.

"Many people automatically assume to start trading with Castro is good. That is the way the New York City and Washington papers are reacting," Stone said.

State Director Backs Harriett On Jail Waiver

By MICK LOCHRIDGE
Herald Staff Writer

The director of the State Fire Marshal's office says he supports the refusal of Sanford Chief George Harriett to waive minimum provisions regulating door widths in the Seminole County Jail.

"There should be no waivers that would jeopardize a person's life safety and having doors less than 28 inches wide would be jeopardizing life safety," Olin Greene, a state fire marshal's office director said today.

The jail has been closed and undergoing repairs since a June 9 fire claimed the lives of 10 prisoners and a jailer.

Doors in the second story of the jail range in width from 20 to 26 inches, a fire marshal's investigator discovered last week. Florida's life safety codes set minimum door widths at 28 inches.

The Sanford fire chief's refusal to waive the life safety code provision prevents prisoners from being returned to the jail, according to Seminole County Commission Chairman Sid Vihlen Jr.

Last week, Harriett refused to waive the restriction despite appeals from Vihlen. Harriett claims he would be held responsible if the waiver resulted in an accident.

Greene said he planned to talk with Vihlen today.

Meanwhile, Sanford City Manager Warren "Pete" Knowles has sent to City Attorney Vernon Mize a 1974 memo from previous

Pelley Seeks Impasse Declaration

SEA, Board In Salary Deadlock

By ED PRICKEIT
Herald Staff Writer

While School Board members prepared for an executive session later today, the board's chief negotiator asked the Public Employee Relations Commission (PERC) to officially declare an impasse in ongoing negotiations with the county's 1,462 teachers.

Chief Negotiator Harry Pelley said talks between the Seminole Education Association (SEA) and board negotiators will end tomorrow and a $150 to $200-a-day arbitrator will be called in to resolve unsettled issues unless talks today and tomorrow produce a contract agreement.

"If we do not reach agreement by the end of the day tomorrow, negotiations will cease."
— School Board Negotiator Harry Pelley

The Pelley team has offered teachers a $200-a-year cost of living adjustment. SEA negotiators claim the county can afford more and have asked for an $8,600 beginning salary for teachers who presently start at $7,800 a year.

"If we do not reach agreement by the end of the day tomorrow, negotiations will cease," Pelley said. He also said teacher salaries will come up during today's executive session with the board.

At present, however, the board's top offer is still $200, Pelley said.

By law, talks were at impasse Aug. 2 (Saturday) but Pelley on approval from School Supt. Bud Lauer — asked PERC to try to resolve the 75-page SEA contract proposal by the end of the day.

Steve Rosenthal, SEA's chief negotiator, today rejected Pelley's call for an arbitrator and reiterated SEA's earlier demand for a mediator to settle items tabled by both teams.

Rosenthal was pleased to learn about today's executive session between Pelley and the board. "Good," he said, "now maybe we'll be able to break loose on some items."

PERC has presented Pelley with three names of arbitrators to choose from. Fees range from $150 to $200 daily. The cost would be split between the board and the SEA.

During today's meeting, Rosenthal turned down all three names, choosing instead to let PERC assign a special master. Rosenthal also reiterated SEA's demand for a mediator to try and resolve five articles which have been tabled. But Pelley said he received a call Friday asking if a mediator was needed.

"I informed officials I felt no need of a mediator," Pelley said.

"I'm sorry, that's not our opinion," Rosenthal told Pelley.

SEA was the first to ask for a mediator. Pelley all along has insisted on a special master. A special master is an arbitrator assigned by PERC.

His decisions are binding pending board approval. A mediator simply makes recommendations and attempts to get both parties to agree on a contract without going to arbitration.

SEA has also asked that

June 27 Murder Still Unsolved Mystery

Sanford police said today that the investigation into the slaying of George Helmsdollar Jr., of Orlando, at the Greyhound Bus Depot on June 27 remains "still at dead center."

"We have nothing new to report," Capt. C.B. Fagan said. "Our department is following several lines of inquiry, but there isn't anything to report."

Helmsdollar was found shot to death about 10:30 p.m. Friday, June 27, in front of the bus station. A young man, with long blond hair, was seen running from the area.

"We have talked ourselves blue in the face questioning people," Fagan said. "It's like a blank wall."

The detective said public response to department pleas for help in the case has been "tremendous."

"We have solved a number of other crimes — several break-ins, a narco case or two and one aggravated assault — but still have no clues in the murder," Fagan said.

More than 200 people have been questioned in the two-month old investigation with little results. Four guns, seized during the probe, have been sent away for tests, but Fagan said the tests had not turned up anything positive.

Helmsdollar, who lived at 5410 Lee Ann Dr., Orlando, apparently was shot shortly after he made a call from one of two telephone booths at the bus station. His late model automobile was found parked near one of the booths when officers arrived.

Fagan said Helmsdollar had driven to Sanford from Orlando to visit a friend. The victim apparently had just called the friend minutes before the shooting.

Helmsdollar and his wife, Eula, were in the process of obtaining a divorce at the time of the slaying, according to police reports.

The Helmsdollars have three sons and had operated the Hilltop Day Nursery in Orlando while Helmsdollar worked for another concern as well.

"We don't plan to stop the investigation," Fagan said. "One of these days — soon, I hope — we'll get a break. Then the work will be worth the time."

Fagan was being assisted by Detective Lt. Bill Lykens and members of State Attorney Abbott Herring's investigative staff.

Longwood To Consider Proposed Tax Increase

By DONNA ESTES
Herald Staff Writer

LONGWOOD — Property owners here will be paying higher taxes for the 1976 fiscal year beginning Oct. 1. The city's offers would receive an additional $43,290 in revenues, a 31.4 per cent increase in property taxes over the current budget, under Grant's plan.

Although the first in a series of workshops on the 1976 budget is expected to be called by Grant this week, the exact time and date have not been announced. Copies of submitted budgets from most department heads were turned over to city council members Saturday.

The submissions did not include the official funding requests from Public Safety Director Doug Keller for the police and fire departments.

But, Keller previously stated publicly he would not request more funding for the police department than allocated in the current fiscal year.

Grant's recommended three mill tax levy is a reduction from the 1974 four mill levy. However, with the reappraisal of all real estate in the county recently completed by Seminole Property Appraiser Terry Goemmel, the three mill reduced levy will actually call for an increase in taxes.

Goemmel, in accordance with state law, certified the city's millage level — the rate whereby property owners' taxes would be kept the same — at 2.81.

At 95 per cent of taxable value, the city's tax base this year is $63,168,867.60, according to Goemmel's office, up from the 1974 level of $37,512,074.

Included in the $65 million figure is more than $11 million in new construction in the city during the 1974 year.

According to the law, the $11 million plus in new construction was not included within the scope of the certified millage since it did not exist during the preceding fiscal year. Thus, the city, even under the 2.81 certified millage, would have received $14,700 in additional property tax revenue from the new construction alone.

If the city council approves the three mill level suggested by Grant, it must advertise its plans to raise taxes and hold a public hearing on the budget before the new rate is set, according to the law.

To comply with the state "home rule" law, a second public hearing must be held on ordinances necessary to adopt a budget and set the millage. The city's charter requires ordinances on both the budget and tax levy.

Among the budgets submitted to council members over the weekend was one from Percy White, chairman of the Land Planning Agency, the city's new designation for its planning and zoning board.

Dale Claims 'Best Interest' Sought In Utility Purchase

CASSELBERRY — The county's top ranking utility official today said the county will do "whatever we legally can do" to insure City Council's $2.2 million purchase of General Waterworks Corp. is in the best interests of citizens.

Topping tonight's agenda for the 7:30 meeting is the final agreement for purchase of the Winter Park-based utility which has extensive operations in Seminole County.

Bill Dale, the county's director of environmental services, says the purchase "has not been okayed by the county" and that "citizens have called in to protest."

About 5,000 county residents are served by General Waterworks, according to Dale.

Dale said the county's "not necessarily opposed" to the city's taking over the utility, but he said the county just wants to be sure of the "ground rules."

Meanwhile, city officials last week approved a $2-million bond sale. The money from the bond sale will be used to purchase the utility, city officials say.

Casselberry Utility Director John Lane says the General Waterworks system is "basically sound" and the system can be utilized to meet the city's needs.

But Councilman John Zacco has consistently questioned the city's need for an additional utility system. Zacco has been outweighed 4-1 each time he's voted against the purchase.

Zacco says the city's growth rate doesn't warrant the purchase, but Council Chairman Edith Duerr says many apartment complexes and homes are almost finished and will soon need additional services which will strain the city's capacity.

A private investment firm, Harvey Hennen Co., was chosen to sell the bonds. Zacco also opposed Hennen's selection.

Also on tonight's agenda during a work shop is a request for a motorcycle shop on Winter Park Drive and SR 48.

ONE WAY TO BEAT THE HEAT

Mark's all, 10, of 395 South Sunland Drive, Sanford, finds there's more than one way to beat the 90-plus degree heat that's been interrupting only slightly over the past few days by intermittent showers. "I'd rather drink his can of soda pop, Mark politely dumps it on his head. Temperatures here yesterday soared up to 92 degrees before leveling off at 85 overnight.
