

ARRESTED FOR FORGERY

Man Who Gives Residence as Sanford Arrested in Jacksonville

Robert P. Barnes, white, who claims Sanford as his home, but who says he was stopping at the Prospect House during his stay in this city, was arrested by Policeman McKewn yesterday afternoon on a county warrant charging him with forgery.

It is alleged that on Tuesday night Barnes walked into the saloon of Murray & Galbraith, 107 West Bay street, and stated that he wanted to purchase some liquor to be shipped to Sanford; that he selected the various brands desired, the bill amounting to $10, and that he then presented a check with the signature of L. Cameron attached.

Mr. Murray, who had been attending to his wants, knew Mr. Cameron to be a business man in the city and as Barnes appeared so sincere in his dealings it was never dreamed that the check was no good. The amount of the check was $25 and Mr. Murray promptly paid Barnes the difference of $15.

Yesterday morning when the check was presented for payment at the bank it was pronounced as a forgery and the police were notified. During the afternoon Policeman McKewn happened to run across Barnes on West Bay street and he was promptly taken in charge and sent to police headquarters.

When searched checks of all descriptions were found on his person, and as they were taken from him he had no excuses to offer. He practically admitted his guilt. Only thirty-five cents were found on his person; the man stating that he was robbed of the remaining $15 Tuesday night. His case will come up for a preliminary hearing before Justice Howell this morning.—Times-Union.

Breton-Runkel Trio

The Tampa Tribune says: With last night's performance at Ballast Point, Ted Breton, Miss Corinne Runkel and Dave Runkel, leave Tampa for Plant City, where they will play this week. They will then proceed to Sanford where they will put in the winter at Johns' opera house.

Many good fellows in the line of theatricals have come to Tampa. Many have some talent, and many have had both talent and good fellowship, but none of them have ever displayed more of each than Ted Breton: It is with genuine regret that Tampanians see him go. His original concoctions of comedy and musical melange at Ballast Point have been a delight to those who have taken the time to go out there. Taking a little license, it is really a pity that such a genius as Ted Breton is in his line should have escaped those whose business it is to pay for talent and originality with the coin of the real.

Miss Runkel, also, possesses much talent. During her stay here she has demonstrated her adaptability to almost any role that might be offered whether it be in comedy, drama or musical comedy. She is creative, original and entirely pleasing in all of her interpretations, and since she and Mr. Breton have been at Ballast Point there is little doubt but that they have enjoyed the reputation, at least, of putting on the best show going in Tampa.

New Factory Getting Ready

The new sash, door and blind manufactory of W. P. Carter & Co. will soon be in operation, and promises to be one of the best in the state. The factory will be located in the building formerly used as the ice factory, and recently purchased by Mr. Carter. Workmen are busy this week taking out the machinery of the old ice plant and shipping it to Jacksonville.

Carter & Co. are to be congratulated upon their valuable site as a location for an enterprise of this kind.

Jacksonville's Carnival

October 26 to 31 is to be a week of merry-making in Jacksonville, for during that period the Jacksonville Carnival Association will hold a great carnival. Attractions never before seen in the South will be brought here, and it is expected that the city will be filled with visitors. The merchants of this city have strongly endorsed the proposed carnival and urge their patrons throughout the state to attend. Very low rates for the round trip will be given by the railroads and steamboat lines running to Jacksonville.

MOST MODERN PACKING HOUSE

Chase & Company Will Soon be Ready For the Citrus Crop

A visit to the new and mammoth packinghouse of Chase & Co. is a revelation to one who has not been keeping informed upon the marvelous improvements being made in orange packing machinery. The new house recently constructed by this well-known firm is not only the largest but undoubtedly the best and most improved packinghouse in the state.

The new machinery recently installed is of the latest improved type from California, and built according to the U. S. government specifications, having already demonstrated the idea of so handling and packing citrus fruits as to reduce the loss by decay to a minimum.

The house has two floors, giving a floor space of between 25,000 and 30,000 feet, the roof having a fireproof skylight gives ample light upon the pit where the fruit is packed. The oranges come into the house in the field boxes and after that the machinery does the rest. The boxes are placed upon moving arms which slowly roll the fruit into the hoppers upon rubber rolls, being carried down the slides and sized into their respective places by means of rollers which vary and can be regulated very easily according to the size of the fruit.

Here they are wrapped and packed into boxes which are sent along a moving track to the patent nailing machines where one clamp does the work of two men and the boxes are ready to be loaded into the cars.

Mr. Chase has added a new brushing machine this year which consists of a side and bottom of brushes and a top of revolving brushes, all made to polish up the grapefruit, and it is safe to say that when this golden fruit passes through this bunch of revolving brushes, the Northern epicure can eat the fruit, rind and all.

Workmen are busily engaged putting the house in shape, and a large gas engine will furnish the power for all the machinery. When the golden globes are ready to move northward, the house of Chase & Co. will do their share of packing and loading and do it in record time.

In ten days or two weeks they will exhibit the finest in this line ever shown in Sanford.

CELERY AVENUE IMPROVEMENTS

Many Handsome New Residences in Course of Construction

Celery avenue property owners are keeping well abreast of the movement of improvement so manifest heretofore. During the past few weeks many new residences have been contracted for, while several are in course of construction or nearing completion.

W. H. Corwin is having built a fine residence on the avenue near Mr. Rossiter's place, which will cost $500. Next door to Mr. Corwin's a handsome $2,500 house is being erected for Walter Birkley.

At the corner of Celery and Cameron avenues, and next to the home of G. C. McDougall a $1500 house is nearing completion. This is the property of W. C. Ralner.

The beautiful residence of Mr. Compust near the Whitner place, and facing the river, has been completed.

High School's Good Showing

For the benefit of those who are interested in our schools, it will be interesting to know that up to the present time over 400 pupils have been enrolled. At the opening of the school last year 285 pupils were enrolled which clearly demonstrates the growth of Sanford and that many parents recognizing the excellence of Sanford's High School have removed to this city to give their children the benefit of a superior education. Over fifty pupils are enrolled in the High School department.

The High School Literary Society elected the following officers at the meeting Monday night:

President, Henry Penkoly, of the senior class.

Vice President, Eugene Roumillat, of the junior class.

Secretary, Earnest Betts, of the sophomore class.

Treasurer, Clarence Mahoney, of the freshman class.

The pupils are becoming interested in their studies, and the perfect order being maintained demonstrates the ability of Prof. Perkins and his able corps of assistants.

Kindergarten School to Open

Mrs. R. C. Maxwell and Miss Nell Whitner have returned from Jacksonville, where for two weeks they have been studying the improved methods of kindergarten work. These ladies will take charge of the kindergarten department of the school in connection with the first grade, and this department will be opened on Monday next. This will be good news to the people of Sanford as the vacancy caused by Mrs. Mahoney's death seemed destined to remain for some time. Under the direction of Mrs. Maxwell and Miss Whitner, and being isolated from the remainder of the school, the little tots should have every advantage, and the parents can rest assured that the "young ideas can be taught how to shoot." The school opens Monday in the old school building on Palmetto avenue.

For Free Delivery

Messrs. Stevens & Woodruff are busily engaged in putting up the names of the streets at all intersections, and as soon as the city can be plotted, these gentlemen will place numbers on all the houses, and Sanford will then be ready for free delivery of mail. This will be one more step toward making a Greater Sanford.

Get Your House Numbers

Buy your house numbers of A. E. Hill at 4 cents each. Any child can put them up or Stevens & Woodruff will place them for eight cents, making your total cost 20 cents.

LOCAL LEGISLATION

Council Met in Regular Session Monday Night

FRANCHISES IMPORTANT TOPIC

Nothing Done in Regard to Franchise For Electric Lights—Meet Again Next Monday

The city council met in regular session last Monday night, with all members present and the galleries full of spectators who were very desirous of viewing the deliberations of the city council at close range.

After the reading of the minutes of last meeting and calling the roll council waded into the business at hand and took up the adjustment of taxes that had been up for discussion before. The taxes of Dr. Phillips' drug store were reduced to $2,500.

Moved by Alderman Robinson and seconded by Alderman Evans, that the ordinance granting to S. O. Chase, A. T. Rossiter, A. P. Connelly, F. P. Forster and J. N. Whitner, their associates and assigns, be placed back to its second reading, for the purpose of substitutions and amendments.

Upon call of the roll on the above motion, two-thirds of the council present voting in the affirmative, the motion was adopted.

Moved by Alderman Robinson and seconded by Alderman Robbins, that the ordinance granting to S. O. Chase, A. T. Rossiter, A. P. Connelly, F. P. Forster and J. N. Whitner, their associates and assigns, be amended by adding a further explanation in the title as to the purpose of the ordinance, so that the nature thereof may be better understood. That said ordinance shall be entitled: "An Ordinance granting to S. O. Chase, A. T. Rossiter, A. P. Connelly, F. P. Forster and J. N. Whitner, their associates and assigns, certain rights and privileges pertaining to street railroad in the City of Sanford, Florida." That the engrossed ordinance with the amendments and the amended title be substituted for the original ordinance and amendments; and that the ordinance as engrossed be read and subjected to any further amendments that may be adopted.

This brought forth a discussion as to whether the original form had not been lost in making changes and whether the changed version could be placed upon its second reading. After being read and compared by Alderman Thrasher and duly discussed, it was moved and seconded that the rules be suspended and the ordinance be placed upon its third reading and final passage. The vote was taken, resulting as follows: Thrasher, Stevens, and Evans, nay; Robbins and Robinson, yea. Motion was lost.

Not wishing to tie up the matter indefinitely, it was finally agreed upon that the ordinance granting this franchise be referred to the mayor for examination, with authority to consult with a competent attorney as to its adaptability and legality. The ordinance granting a franchise to the Sanford Electric Light & Power Co was not acted upon on account of the lateness of the hour, and because several members wished to look into the matter further.

It was resolved that hereafter it shall be the duty of the building committee to pass upon the building or repairs of all buildings, tents or booths, or moving of same within the fire limits of the city, and the building committee shall be governed by the ordinances. Person contemplating such buildings, repairs or moving any such structure within the fire limits, shall first obtain a permit from the building committee to do so. The mayor, marshal and police shall demand the exhibit of such a permit before permitting such improvements to proceed.

The treasurer's report disclosed the following: Total receipts on hand and in bank Sept 1, $960.55. Total expenditures, $200.07. Balance on hand, Sept. 5th, $691.48.

Council adjourned to meet next Monday night, when the matter of the franchise for electric lights will probably be settled.

Notice to Bicycle Riders

The ordinance relative to riding bicycles on the sidewalks in any part of the city, and riding after dark without a light and bell, will be strictly enforced from this date.

T. J. LEE, City Marshal.

M. M. Smith has 1,000 acres of celery land. Sold on easy terms.

That Picture

I saw a picture in a store—a picture in a gilded frame. The sketch was bad, the colors poor; the artist failed to sign his name. But though its beauties none could see, what memories it brought back to me! It showed old "mammy" washing clothes beneath the pear tree's checkered shade. Where chickens scratched and dust-clouds rose, and little mechanics played. And as I looked I seemed to hear her cracked voice falling on my ear:

"Blow, Gabul; blow yo' hawn! Jesus gwine ca' ay me home. Oh, heah dem angel' 'tween singin'. An' a-heah dem hebbent' haws a-ringin'. O-o-o-oh, Sis' N-a-a-ncy! Jesus gwine ca' ay me ho-o-ome. Oh, Lawd, look down fum yo' high place Saba dia po' sinnah by yo' grace; O-o-o-oh, Breh Bakh-leal! Jesus gwine ca' ay me home. His grace dun mek dis nigguh free— Jesus gwine ca' ay me ho-o-ome. De debbel lak tuh kotch dis nigguh aho'. But de Lawd he open de hebbent' do'— Jesus gwine ca' ay me ho-o-ome."

Good morning to your nightcap. How are you?

I have lived in Florida a long time, and I tell you frankly that in my opinion it is the best country in all creation. I make this remark because in the last few days I have heard several men talking about going to Cuba and some to Porto Rico. All I can say is, don't. Shoals of young men have been attracted to these islands by tremendous advertising, and the supply is already in excess of the demand. By the scores young lawyers, doctors, dentists and other professional men have gone to these countries only to find that there was no opening for them. Many of these people are anxious to get away, and no small number are stranded. If you are making a living—and any man ought to be able to do that—be content to stay in Florida. It is a good state. You will find no better.

A pop-eyed scientist says that those who have heart disease should never marry. To show you this old fossil has wheels I wish to remind my readers that it is only those with heart disease that marry. I used to be a patient and have never been convalescent since.

The smallest souls I know of are the ones who think there is nothing in this life but politics. We have some of them—not many—here in Sanford, and they belong to both parties. A man who carries his politics into the church, into the social circle, and into his business, and will not advertise in a newspaper because he does not like its politics, is next to no man at all. Business is business; politics is politics, but the man who mixes his politics with his business and with the other affairs of life is a dunce.

I notice that THE HERALD has never been stalking for advertising in Jacksonville, Orlando or elsewhere outside—to draw trade from Sanford. On the contrary, THE HERALD has since its inception been the aspiring friend of Sanford merchants, and already it has the goodwill of every Sanford business man whose goodwill is worth having. The solid and substantial mercantile houses of the city are the best friends and most generous patrons of THE HERALD. They may not always be in evidence in its columns—but it ever has this confidence, because they realize it is always loyal to Sanford, and can never be used as an engine to operate against the trade of Sanford in the interest of any carpet bag concern. Our home merchants fully understand that THE HERALD is read by the classes of people upon whom they can rely for patronage—and they understand, too, that everyone reads THE HERALD. I don't doubt about that.

The municipal election is not far off, yet very little talk on the subject is manifest. It is about time now for the friends of the favorite candidates to make a noise like a campaign. Trot out your favorite horses, and let's have no dark horses in the field.

But three more months and the glorious leap year prerogative of seeking out a mate and taking the initiative in love-making enjoyed by the feminine divinities of creation will have passed. Those matrimonially-inclined maidens who have not taken advantage of their opportunities should hasten to do so before the year closes upon their hopes of marital bliss. The time in which to angle for, to hook and land a husband is short, but an enterprising maiden, with the long evenings and the winter Sundays in her favor, will make the most of her opportunities. Realizing that four years must pass before she will again have the conceded right to go forth into the highways and byways seeking whom she may marry, the uncoupled female will seize a coupling pin now and standing in the way of the procession will promptly fasten onto her affinity before it is forever too late.

The following from the Gainesville Elevator is too good to be passed up and I reproduce it since it embraces the sentiments of the Saunterer and comes from my old friend Editor Bullock:

"If your friend goes wrong, even grievously wrong, it is base in you to desert him. Then, more than ever, does he need your help, and on the supposition that he has been your true friend, he is entitled to it. Of course, you can neither approve or condone his wrong-doing. It may become your painful duty to tell him with the utmost candor what you think of his faults, but never to kick him while everybody else is engaged in the same business. To do that requires no courage—nothing but a little cheap bluster."

Lake Monroe is now higher than it has been for years, and what a magnificent body of water it now appears!

It would seem to one of a conscientious disposition that the scandal-mongers of this city had combined to see how much evil they may do.

Never, in this city's history, has so much vituperation been sent out as in the past few weeks. Innocent people have been subjects of the calumny and viciousness of one or two women who have nothing more to do than go around and talk about their neighbors. Some men, too, stand upon the street corners and make remarks about people who are by far their superiors.

I believe that for the good of the town in general, some of these, who have none but evil words for their fellows, should be brought to justice, and an example made. There is too much of this backbiting and—must I say it—lying.

It has come to such a state that a young lady cannot walk upon the street with a young man (unless he be hypocritical enough to join the ranks of those who feel themselves to be the censors of public morals) without hearing disparaging remarks made as to her character.

This thing must be stopped. I shall expose all—male and female—who are discovered in maliciously slandering their fellow beings. Names will be given, and I hope to purge Sanford of this most detestable evil. Just at present a married woman is busily engaged circulating damaging stories about one of our young men, but I am pleased to know that so far her statements have met with a cold reception, and have in every instance been proven to be false. What this woman expects to accomplish by thus trading people is not apparent, but it would seem that her own affairs would occupy her mind and time.

The Wall Street Journal, which is edited for the financial kings of the country, recently contained the following half-dozen cautions. Considering the importance of the men for whom these were written, I suppose they must be meritorious, consequently I give them to you:

Never mix your bile with business. It is not good form, outside of cannibal society.

Of all frauds nobody is creating himself quite so nefariously as the one who never wearies in doing the other fellow well.

Above all things be loyal to the enduring human relationship. Otherwise the honesty that is in you may be transformed into a living lie.

It is ever so much easier to pick flaws by the hour in the other fellow's makeup than it is to sit for five minutes in cold, hard judgment on yourself.

Don't be nettled if other people call on you to help them out of trouble. It is a compliment to you for even a lost dog to assume that you have sympathies.

It is a good plan to sharpen the edge of one's honor on the grindstone of truth every morning so that our actions and thoughts may have a clear-cutting edge whenever it is necessary to draw the line of demarkation between the right and the wrong.

I like that suggestion of THE HERALD's to have a kindergarten established in connection with the public school. There are many advantages to be had from this almost necessary adjunct to our schools. Most important of which lies in the fact that the little ones receive the rudiments of the primary course when their minds are most susceptible to learning. Again, they become accustomed to association with other children, as well as to discipline by others than their parents, so that when they do enter the primary school they are better qualified to take up the studies. In addition to all this, a good kindergarten teacher instructs the young in social etiquette, which is also to be much desired in the young.

Yours for Progress,
THE SAUNTERER.

FLORIDA ORANGE CROP

Larger and Better Fruit Than Ever Before

TOTAL ABOUT 4,000,000 BOXES

According to the Annual Estimate Recently Made by the New York Packer

The New York Packer makes its annual estimate on the orange and grapefruit crop of Florida in its last issue and also gives reports on the crop from over 2,000 of its readers in Florida.

Every indication points to at least a 4,000,000 box crop in Florida this year and provided there is no freeze or other climatic conditions which would injure the growing crop it may run close to 4,500,000 boxes. At least 75 per cent. of the Packer's reports show an increase in the crop at different stations of from 10 to 35 per cent. and in some instances 100 per cent. When we take into consideration that last year the railroad records show that there were over 3,000,000 boxes shipped out of Florida, and in some places the fruit was not taken from the trees at all, it is easy to understand why the present increase will bring the total above the 4,000,000 mark.

A dollar a box for oranges on the trees is considered a pretty good buy if buyers get good fruit, and never in the history of the State of Florida have the oranges and grapefruit been cleaner and of more substantial makeup than they are this year. If blight or some other trouble does not get hold of the crop it will stand as a fair test as to just what a fine crop of oranges and grapefruit will do in the commercial world.

But there is one thing which should be called to the attention of the growers of Florida, and that is this: The insane desire to rush the fruit to market before it is ripe.

We will admit that every season a few boxes of green grapefruit sell up to $6 to $7, but thousands upon thousands of boxes of such stuff go to the dump because the buyers will not take them. A little green grapefruit goes a long ways.

Walk through the auction rooms of New York this week and see the samples of early oranges and grapefruit displayed there. Some oranges are little larger than marbles and as green as gourds. What are they good for? They do not bring freight charges. It seems a sacrilege to spoil the prospects of what this fruit might have been a month hence if left to ripen on the trees. The first few boxes of grapefruit that arrived this year brought good prices. The balance went begging.

Last week a representative of The Packer saw a big New York house selling several boxes of green grapefruit at $7. The salesman looked at The Packer man, after the buyer had gone away, winked his eye and said: "I don't know what he will do with it. It is not worth carrying home."

Don't ship green oranges and grapefruit to market. Don't take a chance. Let the fruit ripen on the trees. Don't try to get into the market first because you think the poor quality might be unnoticed on account of the extreme scarcity. Whenever you start out to fool others you fool yourself.

Several Florida papers have taken up the fight in behalf of those who do go into the market early with green stuff. The editors of those papers live in Florida. They do not live in New York, Philadelphia, Boston, Chicago, or any of the markets where this fruit is sold. If they did they would tell a different story. To ship that green trash is about the poorest piece of business judgment that any grower could follow.

Keep it at home.

Former Sanford Ball Player

William Setley, a well-known baseball umpire, is in the city en route to Cuba, where he has been engaged to umpire several games during the winter season. He is accompanied by his wife and little girl. Mr. Setley has not visited Florida in seventeen years, and, naturally, he found many changes when he alighted from a train at the union station. When he was last here he resided at Sanford and played ball with a club that was then considered one of the fastest organizations in the South. It was made up of six professional players and three Sanford boys, and some rattling good games were played.—Times Union.

The older residents of Sanford will remember Billy Setley, the great twirler who made the Sanford team famous in the early days.

Sanford Foundry Improvements

The Sanford Foundry and Machine Works are putting in more machinery in the shape of a new and improved lathe and a drill press, and when installed this will give this new enterprise greater facilities for handling the constantly increasing business. They can now fill any orders in castings and repairing on short notice.

BURGLARS AT WORK

Tender-Hearted, Light-Fingered Gentry Are on a Visit to Sanford

Burglars effected an entrance into the office of J. E. Pace on Monday night by prying the staple and lock from the outside door of the warehouse. After getting into the office it was an easy matter to ransack the safe, as Mr. Pace leaves it unlocked, not wishing to put any burglars to the trouble of blowing it open. A screw driver and coupling pin was used to open up the deposit boxes, and the burglar was rewarded by finding two handsome gold watches and several fraternal lodge pins, amounting to between two and three hundred dollars. Whether the marauder was scared after securing the booty or was too tender hearted to rob Mr. Pace, will never be known. At any rate, the watches were left on a table in the warehouse and nothing was missing from the office. Mr. Pace is of the opinion that the work was done by amateurs, and fearing the watches would prove a means of detection they were discarded at the last moment. Up to the present time no clue to the perpetrators has been discovered.

The Misses DeLaney Millinery Opening At Orlando

The Misses DeLaney are pleased to announce their millinery opening Wednesday and Thursday, October 14th and 15th. On these dates they will have on display a large assortment of millinery, and foreign and domestic pattern hats, personally selected from the largest millinery houses of New York, Baltimore, St. Louis, and Indianapolis.

Miss Dunn and Miss Ethel DeLaney, who have recently returned from the markets, spent much time and care in selecting goods and studying the styles in order that they might give to their patrons the very latest, as approved by close followers of fashion.

They also have a nice line of this season's innovations, such as the Directoire and Salome shapes, also the Charlotte Corday, which is fine this season, plumes and aigrette decorations, the beautiful shades of Tanpe, Mulberry, etc. A most cordial invitation is extended the public to visit their store on above mentioned dates.

Will Distribute Our Literature

W. D. Holden is in receipt of letters from Frank Ironmonger, Florida Passenger Agent of the Clyde Line, and Willbur McCoy, immigration and agricultural agent of the A. C. L., in which they state that Sanford is to be congratulated upon its recent special edition and promising to aid and assist in every way in the distribution of this literature throughout the North. The Coast Line subscribed for 300 copies, and Mr. McCoy, in addition, will distribute 1000 or more copies.

This means that Sanford will be known far and wide as the Mecca for the home-seeker and the tourist.

SIDEWALK TALK

Do you realize the necessity for a substantial foundation as a part of that sidewalk which you intend building? A nicely finished top lends beauty, but not stability. This can be attained only when the same care is exercised in selection of materials for the foundation as for the top coat.

With this fact in mind, I am importing clean hard crushed stone, which when mixed with standard engineering specifications, gives an absolutely dependable foundation.

If you want a walk in which you can take pride in the years to come, be sure that that foundation is right. This is one of the characteristics of my work. Let me figure on such a walk for you.

MUST HAVE ELECTRIC LIGHTS

The ordinance granting a franchise for an electric light and power plant did not go upon its second reading at the meeting of the city council last Monday night, but this does not signify that this movement has been shelved, or is dead. The council is merely safeguarding the interests of the people, and while one or two members of this august body are expected to fight much improvements at all times, the majority can be depended upon to grant this franchise.

It matters not one jot or tittle who obtains this franchise, providing they can guarantee the construction of a plant within a reasonable time and give the people of Sanford this much-needed improvement.

Our city today occupies the unique position of being the only city of its size in the United States not lighted by electricity, and regardless of whether the present petitioners or the Sanford Light & Fuel Co. put in the plant, Sanford has outgrown the present methods of lighting, and the time has come when the council cannot turn a deaf ear to the public clamor for electric lights.

The HERALD commends the action of the council in the mature deliberation with which these franchises have been received, yet no time should be lost in reaching a decision and getting the work started. The company that erects a lighting plant will shoulder the expense and stand the losses in revenue if the business does not fulfill their expectations, and since the tax-payers are not called upon to shoulder any additional expense there is no valid reason why a franchise for an electric light and power plant should not be granted to some company.

Sanford needs electric lights and paved streets and Sanford will get them.

The announcement that "this factory will close if Bryan is elected," has come at last. We were afraid that perhaps the present campaign would end without such rot, but with the declaration of a manufacturer at Hammond, Ind., that ruin will settle down upon the country if Mr. Taft is defeated, a familiar ring is given the political struggle. This fool or knave takes himself seriously in his announcement, but no right-thinking man will pay any attention to him. However, with his announcement the campaign may be said to be on in earnest.

The new members of the city council were elected last winter upon a platform pledging them to work for certain much-needed public improvements, among these being electric light.

Will these gentlemen, constituting a majority of the board, stand together for this purpose?

We believe they will. We do not think any of these gentlemen will join the obstructionists.

We doff our hats to Messrs. Whitner, Holden and Rossiter for taking such an interest in Sanford's welfare as to appear in person before the board of county commissioners at their meeting and set forth the needs of our section of the county regarding good roads and drainage for the same. Such public spirited men are the kind that aid in making history in the rapid growth and development of the Celery City.

The News of Havana, Fla., has completed its first three months of existence and reports itself in a healthy condition. The paper is ably edited by our erstwhile associate, R. A. Gray, and deserves the very liberal patronage accorded it by the business men of Havana. Long may The News live and prosper.

Sanford will get her share this season of the tourists, tourines, and tourettes, which being translated into English means men, women and children seeking Florida's climate for health and recreation.

The idea of a traction line for Sanford is causing our city to be quoted over the United States as the most up-to-date in the south for its size.

Over 400 pupils enrolled in the Sanford school, compared to 268 for last year, demonstrates the rapid growth of our city.

First street will soon be paved with vitrified brick. With electric lights our city will soon be in the lead.

Sanford must have light! Not from burning bugs or candles, but from electricity.

GREATEST SEASON IN YEARS

It is our opinion that the season of 1908-9 will be the greatest season in a dozen years for the Florida farms and groves. Over wide areas of the northern farming district severe droughts have prevailed this past summer, and the cabbage and potato crops are notably short. Cabbage is quoted higher in New York and other northern markets now than for many years at this season, and the same is true of potatoes. This means also that certain other crops, beets, carrots and turnips, these staple, cheap vegetables, will be short by spring. When these staple vegetable crops are short and the old crop is selling high in the early winter, the Florida trucker has a market at big prices for everything that he can grow. This shortage in these crops makes everything else high.

Let every man around Sanford who has land, old or new, put in a crop of something. Put in strawberries, potatoes or cabbage. Any of these crops will do well on new land. If you are a little short on celery plants, put something in the land; every bit of it will pay. We have had no such market conditions for many years as will exist next spring. Remember, the easiest and cheapest crops to grow will be very profitable, and possibly as much so next spring as is usual with celery.

If you have the time and the money, if you are a new comer, get right into the game and clear your recent purchase and get it ready to plant by January, and put it in potatoes. If you can't get it ready by January, get it ready in March and plant some corn.

The evidences are abundant that more home-seekers will come to Florida this season by many thousands than ever in any one season before. The more things we have growing, the more attractive our proposition will look to these home-seekers. This season's operations in the Sanford district should result in doubling our population within the next fifteen months.

GOOD TEST OF IRRIGATION

The continuous rainfall of the past three months has fully demonstrated that Sanford's sub-irrigation method can take care of any amount of rainfall, even a deluge like that of this season. There is more water in the St. Johns river and Lake Monroe than there has been in the past thirty years, which demonstrates that Sanford has just passed an old time rainy season.

And yet should these rains continue for the next six months the celery farms of Sanford would not be inundated. No better example of this sub-irrigation method could be demonstrated and practically decides the question of Sanford's location being the best in drought and deluge that the world affords.

The seed beds are in prime condition, only a small percentage being injured by the velocity of wind and rain, and none being damaged by water.

One of the oldest celery growers in Sanford remarked to a HERALD scribe this week "that the prospects for a good crop this year were never better."

The first number of "The Florida Fruit and Produce News" has just been issued from Jacksonville. James McComb, Jr., is editor and Joel A. Dean, for twelve years one of the editors of the West Palm Beach News, is business manager. It is printed in magazine form and contains sixteen pages of reading matter of vital interest to the fruit and vegetable growers of the state. We have long believed that there was a field for such a publication, and with two such capable men as Messrs. McComb and Dean at its helm, success must surely follow and the growers of the state be largely benefitted by its publication.

The Inverness Chronicle is now an all-home print paper, and in place of the offensive "medical ads." is now found a great mass of delectable reading matter, gotten up in that inimitable style of Major George Butler. As a news-gatherer our friend, the Major, has no peer. We accept his invitation and shall watch, with great interest and joy, the Chronicle flourish and grow.

The Apopka Citizen was sold last week by L. D. Geiger to Newton & Williams of the Winter Garden Ricochet. We wish them success in their undertaking.

WEATHER REPORT.—Less rain than last week.

Let there be light!

DO NOT ADVERTISE

We notice that the banks of St. Petersburg, Gainesville and several other Florida towns are making special efforts in the advertising line. In fact we do not know of a banking town in the world having a newspaper where its banking institutions do not carry a regular advertisement, except the one town of Plant City. Just what kind of crazy ethics has gotten into the minds of our local bankers that would prevent them from advertising is beyond us.—Plant City Courier.

THE INFANT IS GROWING

The HERALD is not yet two months old and yet the business has increased so rapidly that new material is being added to the plant in order to take care of the influx of work. A wire stitcher, round cornering, loose leaf ledger and perforating machines, and several other new and up-to-date additions were made this week, and another job press has been ordered. With this equipment THE HERALD can handle all the job printing for this section of the state.

In both the newspaper and job departments large additions of type and other materials have been made, and a folding machine and mailing machine will be added to facilitate the handling of the increasing list of subscribers.

The HERALD expected a liberal patronage, but never in our wildest dreams was such a rush of business looked for within such a short period, and, as in the past, THE HERALD will strive to give the people the best weekly paper in the United States.

TRUTH CRUSHED TO EARTH

By comparing the lies of the erstwhile United Press and the present Associated Press reports, we could approximate the truth, but since the United Press is among the things that were, we must do our guessing from reports furnished by that bitter partisan purveyor of Dives' sensa-chais. The Associated Press is the king of monopolies, and will serve you with the blue pencil expurgations of the trusts' censor. The reports are rankly partisan and more misleading than ever. Every reader must do his own guessing, and is served only with plutocracy's purple prunes. The said exponent of opulence and the mental tool of impudent wealth can now indulge its penchant for mendacity ad libitum. It is the chief cook and bottle washer, and

How merry we live who doctors lie. We humbug the people and pocket the fee. The only way now to arrive at the truth of the news report is to guess at it, and if at first you don't succeed, try, try again.

Editor Jordan of the Punta Gorda Herald, in commenting on the recent suspension of the Fort Myers Breeze, says:

It was evident that its editor, like some of the rest of us, was trying to do too much—set type, gather news, write editorials, answer letters, entertain pleasant visitors, keep the books, make out and collect bills, solicit business, keep up the office supplies, look after every detail of the mechanical and other departments, and at the same time do the shopping and wood-chopping for the family. It takes a very active and vigorous and capable young man to do all these things successfully, and, if he has any nerves, he will break down in a few years.

This is not one of Jordan's famous fish stories, but he states a real fact, well known to every struggling country newspaper man.

A West Coast editor complains that it is a little too cold now to sleep in "the altogether." He might crawl under the canopy of heaven or wrap himself in the velvety curtain of night and try that.

Birthday Party

Master Henry McLaulin being all of seven years of age last Monday, invited a number of his young friends to help him celebrate this momentous occasion. The event was arranged for a butterfly party, and the decorations and favors were all of the most gorgeous designs and hues.

The children were armed with butterfly nets, and in the park a number of paper butterflies were thrown into the air and the children gave chase. The one getting the greatest number received a prize. After the chase, refreshments were served, and each child presented with a basket of butterflies. The affair was delightfully planned and carried out, and each and every one of the children will long remember Henry McLaulin's birthday party. Among those present were:

Misses Helen Peck, May Thrasher, Sarita Lake, Carolyn Spencer, Norma Herndon, Maud Miot, Ethel Sigletary, Esther Miller, Gussie Sharp; Masters Joe Miot, Reginald Holly, Robert Holly, Walter Conley, Hawkes Conley, Tom Anderson, Pierce Griffin, Lee Peck, James Higgins, Owen Higgins, J. D. Woodruff, Victor McLaulin, Henry McLaulin.

Refusing to Stay Buried!

"I present myself as an example of one who has outlived the venomous attacks of my opponents. You heard me called a demagogue twelve years ago. You saw them bury me and then chant their song over my grave, and now they have to explain how it happened that I am not dead."—William J. Bryan at Iowa Chautauqua.

Death of George Garrett

George Garrett died yesterday at the home of his sister, Mrs. Frances Korel, at Clyde's station. Mr. Garrett had been afflicted with lung trouble for several years, and came to Florida about one year ago for his health.

The funeral will be held today, interment being made in the new cemetery.

LAKE MARY NEWS

Special Correspondence to The Herald:

Mr. J. B. B. Stryker, wife and baby have returned, after spending several months in New Jersey.

Mr. and Mrs. John Ring have moved back to Lake Mary. They are old residents of the town and everyone is glad to see them back. Mr. Ring will accept a position with The Planters' Manufacturing Co.

Rally Day was observed at the Presbyterian church last Sunday. A large crowd were out and everybody had a good time.

Last Monday night, about 11 o'clock, Mr. A. E. Sjoblom was shot twice by Mr. Gaudie Nylan, one bullet grazing his breast and the other entering just below the left lung. The injuries are not fatal, but are very serious. Messrs. Sjoblom and Nylan were wrestling and Nylan being thrown on the floor, lost his temper and fired the shots.

Mrs. J. F. Sundell is laid up in bed with a sore foot.

Last Thursday morning, at 10 o'clock, Mr. H. Perdue and Miss Sankey Bellamy were married at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. Perdue. That night a few people were invited down to supper, and later in the evening a crowd of serenaders came, who were treated to peaches and cake. Quite an enjoyable evening was spent. Mr. and Mrs. Perdue always make it pleasant for the young people at their home.

Mr. Goodhart Sjoblom has returned, after spending a month with relatives in Ohio.

An ice cream social was held last night at the school house.

Bishop Gray will hold services at the Episcopal church tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock.

WINTER PARK

Prof. Susan A. Longwell has returned from her summer vacation at Springfield, Ohio, to fill her usual position in Rollins College as professor of English Literature and Philosophy. Miss Longwell is one of five of the former teachers who will return.

All lovers of athletic sports will welcome back to Rollins both James Story and James Windham. Citizens of the town take a large interest in the success of the Rollins teams and hope they will be even more successful this year than last.

There is great activity on the usually quiet shore of Lake Maitland. Dr. Litch is breaking camp to make room for Mr. McDonald, who is expected soon.

Mr. Benedict from Hastings was in town over Monday night and stopped at the Ingraham House. Mr. Benedict came to place his son in college.

Mr. G. W. VanSickle and family have returned from Rurant, Fla., where they have been camping for two weeks. They report a delightful time and good weather during their stay.

GENEVA GLEANINGS

Mrs. Robinson and Mrs. Fultz arrived from Chicago on October 1st and are settled for the winter in their pleasant home on Lake Geneva.

Capt. W. R. Moore and family sail from New York October 24th on the Clyde Line, and will reach Geneva and "El Capitan Grove" on Monday, the 12th. The captain writes that he will be very glad to get back to Florida one time.

Our new steamboat is scheduled to make their first trip on the 15th. They have chartered the steamer "Alligator," and propose to make daily trips between Sanford and Lake Harney during the orange shipping season. Here's success to them.

Steamer "McNell" was a whole day late making her trip last week. We hear she took down 1,200 boxes of grapefruit and oranges from the Raulerson groves on the east side of Lake Harney. The shipment was made by J. T. McLain.

Miss Mayme McLain has been very sick with fever, but is reported better. Orange buyers are not falling over one another to get the crop out here, as they did last season.

The fruit is here, the quality is as good as ever, and the growers usually quite willing to exchange their golden fruit for the golden (or silver) simoleons. Come out and look us over, gentlemen.

THE COUNTRY NEWSPAPER

Suspension of a South Florida Paper Calls Forth the Following

The Fort Myers Breeze has suspended publication. The able editor gives several reasons, which are no doubt valid, but in severe truth there is but one reason why any paper suspends publication—it does not pay. If a paper is a paying proposition, it may be bought for consolidation purposes, or it may change hands, but it never just simply quits. The weekly press of Florida is able and strong in all that pertains to the inside of the various offices whence it is issued, but it is sometimes thought that there is too much inside, too much brain, too much devotion to work and duty compared to the knack and tact for money which is unfortunately a more or less necessary accompaniment to the publication of newspapers.

And then it may be true that the people upon whom a live and active newspaper must depend for support are not sufficiently appreciative and do not give it the patronage it deserves. And then there are doubtless cases in which the community is fairly well disposed, but in which the publisher overestimates the resources which the community ought of right be asked to bestow. There is, perhaps, no calling more complicated than the publication of a weekly newspaper. One of the first things the average publisher is sure to do is to push his paper to a point where it calls for every dollar that comes in during rush and prosperous times. When things slack up he takes courage and keeps up his scale of expense, hoping to make good when things turn—and sometimes they do not turn soon enough.

And again, it is seldom the case that a good, live newspaper in a small town is valued by the community at large for what it is worth as a unit and factor in the general prosperity, as a representative of the community as a whole. A town is judged by its newspapers more than by any and all other of its institutions, and quite rightly. There is no duty more imperative upon the people of Florida than a liberal and sufficient support of their newspapers. The patrons get their money back twice—in direct return of reading and advertising, and again in the impression and influence the live newspaper has and makes upon the outside world.—Tampa Times.

Quaint Quibbles from Sis Hopkins

Some men can drive a crooked bargain, but few women can drive a horse or a nail straight.

I never thought much of women's rights 'till I hung onto a strap in a Jacksonville electric car.

Ma says modest maids should be careful not to keep their eyes on the ground lest they soil them.

Ma says some people think they are charitable when they give away the things they don't want.

A man often finds himself in a calaboose by drinking whiskey which was approved of by every judge at the bar.

When a man looks at a girl crossing the street on a rainy day, it is curiosity. If he continues to gaze, it is admiration.

Farmers usually send their sons to an agricultural college with the expectation that they will learn so much they won't have to work.

When a farmer's boy gets to mending the harness with cotton string instead of copper rivets, you can make up your mind he is set on being a brakeman on steam cars, or a cage driver with a circus.

Capt. Marks at Home

Having returned to Sanford, after an absence of four months, I am at home again, ready to give my best efforts to sell any property that is listed with me and to do notary work, draw and execute all kinds of deeds, mortgages, contracts, bonds, etc. I will appreciate any business intrusted to me.

Respectfully,

5-11 RICHARD H. MARKS.

LUCAS PAINT

Used in Uncle Sam's Paint Shop. During the past year the U. S. Navy has consumed 891,000 pounds of Lucas White Paint and 278,700 pounds of LUCAS COLORS, sufficient to produce more than 100,000 gallons of paint, equivalent to 50 carloads of 200,000 gallons each, and which would make a train more than one-half mile long.

In addition to this Uncle Sam has used during the past year more than 25,000 gallons of LUCAS VARNISHES, ENAMELS and other products.

Uncle Sam's preference is not a matter of favor, but of QUALITY and RESULTS.

In Uncle Sam's service, as in everybody else's, LUCAS PRODUCTS have an unbroken record for satisfactory results.

St. Cloud Tract Little Has Purchased

FIRM MAKES DEAL

Tract of Land Near Kissimmee Will Be Put Upon the Market at Once

It has the world-famous St. Cloud Station changed hands. Mr. W. Reese of Middletown, Del., purchasing it entirely from Mr. W. B. Markin. The price paid has not been made public, but it is understood to run high into the thousands.

Tract has laid idle for years, or ever since the death of its original owner, Mr. H. H. Diason, the company into whose hands it fell persistently refusing to part with it except as a whole, and as about 3,000 acres, it was almost impossible to find a purchaser, but it has been sold to a man backed with sufficient capital to develop it, the tract of a dozen years ago will return.

There is no place in the United States that excels the St. Cloud plantation in richness of soil or natural advantages. Experts from far and near have made a thorough examination of the soil on this famous place, and without exception have reported that it was not surpassed in fertility by any section of the United States, and was capable of producing any variety of vegetable planted, but that it was best adapted to the cultivation of Irish potatoes and celery. Almost the entire plantation is a rich muck, and it will require very little if any fertilizer to produce a good crop of anything planted.

It is the intention of Mr. Parker to cut the place up into tracts of from 20 to 100 acres and sell or rent them to those who desire to engage in the growing of truck of any variety, but he will go extensively into the cultivation of potatoes and celery. He will assume personal charge of the place as soon as he returns from the north, which he is expected to do in a short time.

While the transfer of the property was made to Mr. Parker, it is understood he is the head of a company that is well qualified financially to thoroughly develop it, and that nothing will be left undone nor a dollar failed to be expended until the place has been brought to the highest state of perfection.

It is reliably stated, that quite a number of truck growers have already been secured to settle on the place, and when they have demonstrated what the ground can and will produce, there will not be acres enough in the tract to accommodate those who will desire to engage in the same business.

Those who have examined the soil on this plantation, and who are competent to judge, give it as their opinion that it will produce at least seventy barrels of potatoes to the acre, and when they sell at $4.50 per barrel in the eastern markets, one can readily see the future that is in store for those who are fortunate enough to acquire a small part of this fertile ground.

This plantation lies directly along the line of railroad, about eight miles from Kissimmee, is wholly cleared of all superfluous timber and is thoroughly ditched. To put the land in proper condition for cultivation will require only a small outlay of money and very little time, which in itself will be a great inducement to those seeking small tracts to invest their money in some of this property.

Mr. Parker is now closing up his business interests in Delaware, preparatory to moving here with his family, and is expected to return before the end of the month. While north he will make arrangements for the transporting of the household goods of those who are to become settlers on his place.

The citizens generally are highly gratified that old St. Cloud is to be made available again yield her portion of the necessities of life, for while so doing she will at the same time add to the business and prestige of our town.

Before leaving Mr. Parker made application to become a member of the Board of Trade, which is the best of evidence that he is alive to the necessity of such an organization and desires to be numbered among Kissimmee's builders.—Kissimmee Gazette.

This valuable tract of land was sold through The Marks Real Estate Agency of this city, and the fact that such a large tract of land was disposed of in such a short time speaks well of this Sanford real estate firm. Celery City real estate men can sell Florida dirt at any time and place.

AMENDMENTS TO BE VOTED ON

Three Constitutional Amendments that Will Appear on November Ballot

At the approaching general election three amendments to the State constitution are to be voted upon, and very little is known of these proposed amendments, as practically nothing has been said heretofore in regard thereto. One was voted upon at the election two years ago and defeated. This amendment is to increase the salaries of the judges of circuit courts and the supreme court, and to give the legislature the power to name the amount of salary. At present this power is vested solely in the constitution, fixing circuit court judges' salaries at $2,500, supreme court judges' salaries at $3,000, and the criminal court judges' salaries at $1,000. The proposition two years ago was to increase the salaries of circuit court judges to $3,500 and that of supreme court judges to $4,000.

Another amendment is to transfer from the constitution to the legislature the right to create judicial circuits as may be necessary. This is to meet the increase of court business that may arise from an increase of population.

The third amendment is to levy a tax of one mill annually for the benefit of the University of Florida, at Gainesville, the Florida Female College and the Colored Normal at Tallahassee and the Deaf, Dumb and Blind school at St. Augustine.

WHERE TO REGISTER

Sanford Voters Have Two Places for Registering

It behooves every man of Sanford to see that his name is upon the registration list in order that he can vote in the National election in November. There are two places where this can be done, as Sanford has been divided since the primary election, on account of the great increase in the number of voters. All those living west of Park avenue in District No. 25, should call upon City Clerk, M. L. Scott, where the books will be opened.

The books for District No. 3, for all those living east of Park avenue, will be open at the office of the Marks Real Estate Agency, in charge of F. J. Powers.

Every voter should see that his name is on the list before the expiration of the time for the books to close.

Extra copies of this week's Herald can be obtained at this office. Send a copy to your friends and keep them in touch with the Celery City and its wonderful resources.

AN EXPLANATION

Principal of the High School Explains About First Grade Pupils

To the Editor of The Herald:
As there seems to be some confusion in the minds of some of the patrons of the first grade, regarding the work and hours of attendance, I desire to make a statement about it.

As is generally known, the grade meets its teacher in the building formerly used by the kindergarten. There are enrolled in the grade seventy-five little folks, the majority of whom have never been to school. With such a large enrollment the grade must be divided into two sections, because seventy-five children are too many for one teacher to have at one time. Each section of the grade will be given two and one-half hours in school, so that the teacher will give the regular five hours to her work. The morning session will begin at 8:30 o'clock; the afternoon at 12:45.

As has been said above, many of the children have never been to school; some have been to kindergarten; some have been to other schools, and some have been in school here. This, naturally, makes the classification of the children difficult. So, these first weeks have been hard ones for the teacher, but if the patrons will give us a little time, we hope soon to have everything in systematic working order. If the hours have been a little irregular at first, it was because so many children came at one time that the teacher would have to hear the lessons of some and send them home so as to make room for the others, but as soon as parents and children learn what section they belong to this difficulty will be done away with.

—N. J. PERKINS.

Viewed the Macaroni Farm

Misses Allie Knox and Estelle Smith of Winter Park, were in the city Wednesday and being very desirous of viewing the macaroni farm of Murrell & Minshew were taken over the farm by Mr. Murrell. The ladies were favorably impressed by the macaroni culture and will endeavor to have Rollins College plant an acre of these toothsome delicacies for the benefit of the students, macaroni being a great brain food.

And Still They Come

H. T. Avant, a prominent cross-tie and lumber merchant of Jacksonville, purchased the hand property on Celery avenue through the J. N. Whitner agency last week. He has purchased a block from the Holden Real Estate Company, adjoining the Gabbett place, on which he will immediately build a residence. Mr. Avant is a man of considerable wealth and will be a very valuable addition to Sanford citizenship. The Herald extends to him a hearty welcome.

Building Association Growing

The Sanford Building and Loan Association is growing rapidly, new subscriptions coming in daily. One gentleman is in receipt of a request for 300 shares from parties living in a neighboring city who realize the value of Sanford real estate. Another new shareholder will take fifty shares, and at this rate the amount of stock will reach 1,000 shares. A notice of meeting is published in another part of The Herald.

BETTER PRICES FOR TRUCKERS

Northern Commission Houses to Act With That End in View

W. F. Holmes, secretary of the Truckers and Fruit Growers Association, organized here, says the Dayton Gazette-News, has been in correspondence for some time with northern commission houses regarding the handling of carload lots of celery and other vegetables. He has received letters from commission houses in Indianapolis, Baltimore, Philadelphia, Boston and Cleveland, which have been shown us, promising the hearty cooperation of the commission houses in the matter of getting Florida products on the market. Besides these letters, he is in receipt of many others, which all point the same way—that the Florida trucker will get better prices this year than last, and that every effort to protect the interests will be made by the northern selling agents.

If produce is packed properly and care taken in handling, it looks as if prices would surely prevail.

The autumn session of the British parliament was opened Monday.

The great Pennsylvania Railroad Company is coining employees of the road and urging them to vote for Taft. The section foremen are instructed to line the section men up, and the same tactics are used as in 1890. The following blank has been distributed all along the line:

"In order to learn how the men stand politically, I am sending you a blank to fill out. This will not affect your position, whatever, regardless of how you vote.

"For Taft—
"For Bryan—
"For Hisgen—
"For Debs—"

This is an innocent looking request on the face of it, but the railroad men are aware that it is a hint to line up for Taft. This move on the part of the Company has created much indignation among railroad men, who take the position that their political affiliations are strictly personal matters.

Serious charges of graft in the transport service of the Government at San Francisco, were made Tuesday. It is said that work amounting to large sums of money has been torn out and other contracts for repairs given the same company. Over a quarter of a million of dollars is involved in the graft operations.

In a shooting affair on Forsythe street, Jacksonville, W. R. Coulter shot Justice L. D. Howell, who also shot Coulter with the same pistol. SANFORD'S SMALL GARDENS

Vegetables Seem to Spring up and Grow Over Night

The inhabitants of Sanford are proud of the City's reputation as a center for the growing and shipping of vegetables and few indeed are those who do not have a small kitchen garden near the house where the most delicious lettuce, radishes, turnips, peas, celery, collards, and other vegetables are grown the year round. A stroll over the city at the present time presents to the eye of the visitor the pleasing picture of a green vista made up of growing vegetables and seed beds, and the remarkable growth made in these gardens supplied with Sanford's great sub-irrigation method is wonderful. Sanford soil needs but little fertilizer to hasten the growth, and the seed once planted seems to spring up over night and in a short time the owner of a small garden can harvest the fruits of his industry and not only supply his own table with a great variety of succulent vegetables, but can market a quantity to the local grocers as well.

It is a well known fact that with a few chickens and a small garden in Sanford a living is assured to anyone who is inclined to give the garden any attention.

Many of our business men plant a small acreage in order to give themselves a recreation after business hours, and every morning these staid merchants can be seen pushing a small plow or pulling the bell cord over a mule, and breaking up the land.

THE THEATRICAL SEASON

No Dark Nights at Sanford Opera House This Season

Commencing next Monday night, the Opera House will be opened for the season by the Breton-Runkel Company, and every night thereafter this famous company will hold the boards, giving a first class entertainment each night at popular prices.

The Breton-Runkel Company are no strangers to Sanford theatrical lovers and the announcement of their engagement brings gladness to all. For the past five months the company has been playing to good business at Tampa, and Manager Johns is very fortunate in securing them for a continuous run here this winter.

Their repertoire embraces all the latest and best dramas and comedies, and when anything new comes out in New York, Mr. Runkel is the first to produce it in the south. Monday night "Pald in Full" will be given, to be followed by "The Girl of the Golden West," "Salome," "The Sheath Gown," "The Office Boy," "The Doctor," and many other good plays. During the action of the play a number of the best and most up-to-date moving pictures will be shown with beautiful electrical effects, and there will also be good music, songs and vaudeville interspersed throughout the evening. Change of plays and pictures will be made each night, and the admission is only 10 and 20 cents.

Miss Corinne Runkel is a favorite in the south—particularly in Florida, where she has been seen the past two seasons, and it is safe to say that Sanford people will accord her and the supporting company a hearty and substantial welcome next week. Those who have seen the Breton-Runkel Company will testify to the ability of each member as an actor, as well as to their behavior as ladies and gentlemen.

Samples of engraved visiting cards and invitations in the latest and best styles may be seen at The Herald office.

DEEPENING ST. JOHNS

Jacksonville Board of Trade Working To That End

DEEPER CHANNEL TO SANFORD

Congressman Frank Clark Says Survey for Channel to Sanford Has Been Made

A spirit of genuine enthusiasm in the interest of bringing to a successful realization everything that was for the good of Jacksonville and the state of Florida predominated at a representative gathering of the members of the Jacksonville Board of Trade Wednesday afternoon, says the Times-Union. A movement to secure an appropriation from congress for the dredging of the channel of the St. Johns river to a greater depth; the adoption of a resolution endorsing the project of the Gulf Coast Inland Waterway Association; the adoption of a resolution expressing the hope that the people of the state will patronize made in Florida products, and the remarks of Hon. Frank Clark, congressman from the Second district, in which he promised with proper cooperation, to secure greater and better things for the state, all went to make up the tenor of the enthusiasm that pervaded the big auditorium.

Hon. Telfair Stockton spoke in the interest of a greater depth for the channel of the St. Johns river. "We now have a 24-foot depth of channel and let us start a movement to get congress to appropriate a sufficient amount for the deepening of the channel to thirty feet, so we can float the fleets of the world."

Leland J. Henderson, secretary of the Apalachicola Board of Trade and secretary of the Gulf Coast Inland Waterways Association, spoke in behalf of a project to construct an inland waterway from the Mississippi river east along the gulf to connect with a canal across Florida.

Hon. Frank Clark heard Hon. Frank Clark was introduced and spoke along the line of improvements for the St. Johns river.

"I did not come here to speak," said Mr. Clark, "but to hear others speak on subjects of importance to the best interest of our state.

"You are standing in your own light when you don't make a move in the direction of supporting any movement which would tend to increase the opportunities of your city and state."

He spoke of the great benefits that would accrue from a chain of inland waterways connecting the Mississippi river with inland waterways along the coast and through Florida by canal to the Atlantic.

A survey is now pending before the committee on ship canals and railways for a canal across Florida, he said. Half of the committee was in favor of the survey, and the others had expressed a willingness to support the movement. That the project was patent upon its face, carrying conviction of its feasibility. That it would cost as much as the survey is made, millions of dollars will be spent in throwing dirt and the money will all go into the pockets of Floridians. That the committee on canals and railways stands ready to hear the subject as soon as he said so. He wanted the board of trade to name a committee and date for going before this committee in Washington the coming winter and pushing the project.

Channel for St. Johns

He said he had an idea on the river and harbor bill for a survey for deep water from Jacksonville to Sanford in the St. Johns river. That the survey had been made; the government engineer here had made a favorable report, which was approved by Col. Kingman, who is in charge of all government operations in this territory. He said that there was only to run the gauntlet at Washington and the appropriation would be forthcoming.

He spoke of the necessity of getting deeper water for the St. Johns to the southward, in order to allow the people residing along the route better means for transporting agricultural products, etc., to Jacksonville. And on the other hand, to allow people to buy articles here and have the same cheaply transported to their homes along the river.

He could remember when the people residing in other cities and towns were prejudiced against Jacksonville, but that sentiment had changed and all were proud of the metropolis.

Inland Waterways Mayor Sebring offered a resolution that the board become a member of the Gulf Coast Inland Waterways Association; that a committee of three be appointed by the chair to attend the meeting of the association at Columbus, Ga., and that a committee, to be known as the inland waterways committee, be appointed. The resolution was adopted.

Dexter Hunter offered a resolution that the board co-operate with Congressman Clark in his movement for deeper water for the river and the canal across the state, and the expenses of the river and harbor committee of the board be paid to Washington, in order that the board may urge the congressional committee to act favorably upon the projects.

POLITICAL PROGNOSTICATIONS

The St. Lucie Tribune's Statistician Makes Interesting Figures

Taft cannot hope to carry all the 32 states that Roosevelt carried in 1904.

Taft cannot hope to carry any of the 13 states that Parker carried in 1904.

Bryan will surely carry all the 13 states that Parker carried in 1904.

Bryan will surely carry some of the 32 states that Roosevelt carried in 1904.

Thus we reach the meat of the question.

How many of the states that Roosevelt carried in 1904 will Bryan carry in 1908?

Bryan did carry in 1900—the following states that Parker didn't carry in 1904; Colorado, Idaho, Missouri, Montana, Nevada.

That is five out of 32 electoral votes.

That Bryan is sure to carry this year, in which he will succeed where Parker failed. Then, there is Oklahoma voting for the first time this year, with 7 votes, sure for Bryan—a total of 39 to be added to the Parker total of 140, making the certain Bryan vote this year 179. He will need 242 votes to win, so, on the basis of the above figures, he will have to carry enough of the other Roosevelt states to give him 63 electoral votes, in addition to the states sure to be for him.

What combination of states will give Bryan the necessary 63? Here are a few of the possible ones, every state cited being recognized as doubtful:

New York, Indiana, Minnesota—65.

New York, Indiana, Nebraska, South Dakota—66.

New York, Minnesota, Nebraska, Kansas—68.

New York, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Nebraska—71.

New York, Wisconsin, Minnesota—63.

New York, Indiana, Nebraska, and any one of the other doubtful states.

Or, without New York, he may win on either of these combinations:

Indiana, Minnesota, Nebraska, Kansas, Wisconsin, South Dakota, Wyoming—64.

Illinois, Indiana, Kansas, Nebraska, Wyoming—63.

California, Kansas, Nebraska, Indiana, Oregon, Wyoming, Delaware, South Dakota, West Virginia—64.

Of course, the figures, however we construe them, make it appear inevitable that Bryan must carry New York to be elected. But New York is not indispensable, if there is sufficient change of votes in the middle west to give him the majority of the doubtful states of that section.

There is no state cited in the above calculations that is not liable to cast its vote either way. Not one of them is to be regarded as a "cinch." The fight that is being concentrated in each of these debatable states for the Democratic ticket ought to bring results—and The Tribune has not yet seen an election forecast, whether emanating from Republican or Democratic sources, that doesn't encourage Democrats in the belief that their ticket will be elected.

Struck a Rattler

While M. M. Smith and Freeman J. Hunter were gliding along in the gray automobile en route to Sanford from Winter Park one day this week they noticed a large rattlesnake coiled in the road. They were upon his snakeship before they had time to avoid a collision, and when the swift car struck him, the snake was tossed up on the step of the car near the feet of Mr. Freeman. By the time Mr. Smith had stopped the car and looked around Freeman was out of the car and hoofing it down the road at a 2:40 clip, and would probably be running yet if Mr. Smith had not called him back.

The snake was still living, but was quickly dispatched and measured five feet and two inches, his caudal appendage being decorated with eleven rattles.

FLORIDA GAME LAWS

Something About Its Limitations and Proscriptions

NON-RESIDENTS PAY A LICENSE

For Privilege of Hunting Within Borders of the State—Some Birds Unprotected

With the approaching game season it will probably be of interest to sportsmen generally to know just what the law is relating to game. Just now, when the closed season is about at an end, violations of the law are most numerous.

Under the laws of this state it is illegal to hunt, chase, kill or molest any wild deer, except during the months of November, December and January. The law provides a maximum fine of $100, or imprisonment for six months.

It is equally unlawful to have deer meat in one's possession during the closed season. In addition to this the law is very explicit in regard to selling the flesh or hides or shipping same from state.

Game Birds

When it comes to game birds, especially turkey and quail, the law is very clear just how many birds of each species may be killed by a single hunter, and the number which a party of two or more persons may kill in a day's hunt. Here is the law:

"No person or persons shall have in his, her or their possession, or shall hunt or kill any wild turkey or quail or partridge in any part of this state, save only from the first day of November until the first day of March, of any year. No person shall kill more than two wild turkeys, nor more than twenty quail, and no party of two or more persons shall kill more than four wild turkeys or more than forty quail in any one day. And no person shall kill more than five wild turkeys in any one year, and no person or persons, firm, corporation, association or company shall sell, expose for sale or have in his, her or their possession for sale in this state, any wild turkey, quail or partridge. Any person or persons, corporation, association or company violating any of the provisions of this section shall, upon conviction thereof, be punished by a fine of not less than $25 or more than $100, or be imprisoned in the county jail not exceeding 60 days or less than 30 days."

May Shoot Ducks Now

It is legal to shoot ducks from October 1 to March 30. If shot at any other season of the year the person so doing is liable to a heavy fine.

One section of the law provides that it shall be unlawful to kill, catch or have in your possession, living or dead, any wild bird other than a game bird. No part of the plume, skin or body of any bird protected by this section may be sold or hid in possession for sale. Only the following are considered game birds: Swan, geese, brant, river and sea ducks, rails, coots, mud hens, gallinules; the semicola, commonly known as show birds, plover, surf birds, snipe, woodcock, sandpipers, tatters and curlews; wild turkey, grouse, prairie chicken, pheasants, partridges and quails; also turtle doves and wild pigeons and robins. It is unlawful to destroy the nest or eggs of a wild bird or have either in one's possession.

Unprotected Birds

Birds which are not included in this section and are unprotected are:

The English sparrow, sharp-shinned hawk, commonly known as the little blue darter; Cooper's hawk, commonly known as the big blue darter; great horned owl, crow, rice bird, meadow lark, jackedaw and butcher bird are not included among the birds protected by the two preceding sections. Nothing in said sections shall prevent any citizen of the state of Florida from destroying birds which are found injuring grapes, fruits, gardens or farm products on his premises, or from taking and keeping in a cage any cardinal red bird or mocking bird for his own pleasure or amusement; provided the same shall not be sold or shipped out of the state.

A license is exacted from non-residents who come here to hunt. The tax is $10 for the season.

Notice of Meeting

On account of a delay in receipt of charter, the meeting of the stockholders of the Sanford Building and Loan Association, called for last Tuesday night, was adjourned to next Tuesday night, October 20th, at 7:30 o'clock, at the office of the Holden Real Estate Co.
