Sanford Farm Items

Mr. Burke has the timber on the ground for his residence and has let a contract for clearing land.

Captain R. B. Smith and Richard Tingle of Georgia, both of whom have purchased in Sanford Farms division, have arrived at Monroe and will proceed to get busy on their places. They brought a fine pair of mules and wagon with them and are prepared to do teaming, plowing and harrowing for any one who may need their services.

Look out for the real estate man who has his office in his hat. He has a package for you in the shape of a gold brick and if you dicker with him you will make the discovery after the "Hot" one has made his getaway.

If you want to dispose of your improved property, drop us a line or call in and list with us. We have a large correspondence and will be able to place properties that we can commend.

Agent J. W. Bell, now has a fine launch which he uses to come to Sanford when the mule is too tired to get about.

Some fine brands of knocking going the rounds now. If you are a new comer here and want to find out the status of the business from a losing viewpoint go to a man who has made a failure and he will string you a tale of woe that will do you for several moons. But if you want to hear of the other side, go to the man who has made a success of growing vegetables and he will tip you off a few things that will do your heart good.

There is an element who do not want to see new settlers coming in. They take the narrow minded view that additional acreage will be cause of over production and over production is their ruin. This is a narrow selfish way to look at the matter, but those who do look at it in that manner never fail to make a hoot that can be heard some distance away.

Remember this is a vegetable growing community. Our whole town and the activities in the entire Celery Delta are based upon the growth and marketing of vegetables. No factories here to amount to anything. Just vegetables. We have hundreds of farmers, 2500 acres of land tilled, 2700 flowing artesian wells, a refrigerating plant with a hundred tons capacity per day, facilities for handling 4000 solid cars of vegetables per season and the lusty boys who get out and do the biz. Sissy Willies had better hike from the Celery Delta if they expect to find the dough hanging on the trees awaiting their august arrival. Get around and do things and you will make good. The Celery Delta is no place for a grouch or a liver that is out of whack.

Title Bond & Guarantee Company sold three of its five acre tracts last week. They come here, look the ground over and then go to Monroe to buy the farm.

Mrs. J. W. Bell received news this week that her brother who formerly resided in Belfast, Ireland, had died quite suddenly. Stress of circumstances are such that Mrs. Bell will not be able to go to the country of her birth at this time. She has the sympathy of the entire community.

Mr. Larry Vorce, red hot hustler from Omaha has his eight room house up and is now placing the finishing touches on it. Mr. Vorce is going ahead with his crops and the seven and one-half acres Title Bond & Guarantee Company cleared for him is looking fine.

We are having a great many calls for improved property of all kinds. If you want to sell or rent your house or land list it with us. We do things.

Remember, we have a place especially fitted up in our office where you can write your letters or drop in for a few moments rest. The pleasure will all be ours by your comfort. When in Sanford, make your headquarters with us.

We have renters for some houses and for rooms, furnished and unfurnished. Let us know what you have and we will send you tenants.

From the vast number of inquiries received by this company, Sanford surely will be the Mecca of half of the population of the North this winter.

For Rent

We have desk spaces for rent in our offices. Light, telephone and other conveniences. Title Bond & Guarantee Co.

NEWS OF THE WORLD

Items of Interest Gleaned From Various Sources

HAPPENINGS DURING THE WEEK

Here the Readers Will Find a Brief Historical Spring Flowing For Hurried Readers

United States Senator Alexander Stephens Clay of Georgia died at the Robertson sanitarium at Atlanta last Sunday after an extended illness. His death was as peaceful as it was sudden. He had been talking with his son, Herbert, a few minutes when he suddenly ceased speaking and fell back with a slight gasp.

Confronted by a more delicate situation than ever, as the result of the occurrences of the past two days, the governments of Mexico and the United States are making every effort to restrain their citizens from acts of violence and to smooth over the difficulties. The already serious problem before the two nations, resulting from the burning at the stake in Texas of Antonio Rodriguez and the riotous demonstrations against Americans in Mexico City and elsewhere was further complicated by the shooting of Jesus Loza, by Carlos B. Carothers, an American at Guadalajara, Mexico, and the assassination of Chief of Police W. C. Temple of Anadarko, Okla., by a Mexican.

Six persons are dead and twenty-six injured, four of whom it is thought will die, as the result of the running down of a street car on the Kalamazoo City lines of the Michigan United Railways Company by a fast west bound express train on the Michigan Central railroad. All of the dead and injured were passengers on the street car.

Waycross is kicking because the Bell Telephone Company proposes to increase telephone service at the rate of 50 cents per phone per month. City officials grant all kinds of fool franchises and then kick because the grasping non-resident owners of the franchises raise rates and give poor service.

Mario Smith a ten year old girl of Asburg Park, New Jersey was assaulted and murdered by a negro. The assailant has been captured and will no doubt receive the same treatment accorded to such brutes in every part of the United States.

"Bad Jake Noble" aged 22, who shot and killed Jailer Wesley Turner of Breathitt county, in Jackson last Tuesday night, was shot to death by a Sheriff's posse in Knox county today. Only meagre details have been received, but it is reported that when the posse led by the sheriff of Knox county called on Noble to surrender he made a demonstration to resist and was promptly riddled with bullets.

Reports from various parts of the country indicating a falling price in meats is reflected by similar reports from local dealers. They say that the decline has already begun. The wholesale price of beef went down three-fourths of a cent in the last week. One of the leading dealers said that sirloin steak that brought twenty-four cents a pound was now selling at twenty-two cents. Porterhouse steak is down three cents a pound, selling now at twenty-five cents. Fresh pork products show the greatest drop. Roast cuts are selling at eighteen cents a pound that previously sold at twenty-two cents. The best grades of ham and bacon show little change. The market men attribute the lower prices to the enormous corn crop, combined with lower feed prices.

Representative Champ Clark, of Missouri candidate for the speakership of the next House of Representatives, reached Washington last night. "I have not been commissioned," said Clark, "to arrange any program for the Democratic party and I am not going to try to do it. In the very nature of things, the Democrats of the House and Senate will have to get together and consult about what they want to do and should do when the new Congress organizes."

The trial of Robin Cooper for his part in the murder of United States Senator E. W. Carmack, of Tennessee, was postponed at Nashville on Monday. It was safe to predict that young Cooper will never be punished for this atrocious murder, for which his father was convicted and then pardoned by Gov. Patterson.

Sanford High School

The High School building is now nearly completed and school was opened there for the first time Monday morning, thereby relieving the crowded conditions in the Grammar School building. The High School, which would do credit to a much larger city than Sanford, is a splendid brick structure three stories high, handsomely finished and equipped with all modern conveniences. Assembly hall and recitation rooms are large and well ventilated. The spacious auditorium will have a large seating capacity and it will fill a long felt need in Sanford. The building will be steam heated throughout.

Under the able management of Prof. N. J. Perkins the schools have made wonderful progress during the past few years. He is ably assisted in the High School by Miss Clara Guild, principal, and Miss Alice Teiberly. It is with pardonable pride that Sanford parents now congratulate themselves, knowing that their children may now receive superior educational advantages at home.

Big Auction Sale of Horses

I wish to call your attention to a car load of New York State horses, the property of P. G. Waldron, that he has shipped here for me to sell regardless of their value. Among them are many useful horses that you could use. They are all acclimated and ready for immediate use. The York state horses are known for their durability and ruggedness. These particular ones have been at hard work all summer in the Catskill Mountains and are now being sold for want of use as the season is over. There are some good drivers, matched and singles, express and general purpose horses. They are now at my stables where they can be seen, tried and driven by intending buyers. Exchanges can be made any time before the auction sale opens, when every remaining horse must and shall be sold to close them out, and this positively without reserve.

You will find it to your advantage to attend this sale, or come any time before, and get one at private sale. Mr. Waldron's horses will be sold this Saturday, November 19, beginning at 11 a. m., at my stables. Rain or shine. E. E. BRADY.

Good Government League

On Thursday night of last week a number of Sanford's representative citizens met and organized the "Good Government League of Sanford," with B. F. Whitner, Jr., president; C. R. Walker, vice president; H. H. Deane, secretary and treasurer.

The main purpose of this organization is to uphold our city officials in the enforcement of all municipal laws, the membership, individually and collectively, pledging their support to this and every other effort for the advancement and uplift of our city.

This League is not a political organization, its purposes are made clear by the name chosen. The large attendance and deep interest manifested at this initial meeting are harbingers of great good for Sanford.

Hunters are Busy

The hunting season opened last week and Sanford sports are busy. Several deer have been bagged already and many birds have fallen to the Nimrods. Sanford section is full of game and the hunters never need to come back empty handed.

Sanford Library

The lovers of good fiction will enjoy the new volumes just received:

"The Romance of a Plain Man," by Ellen Glasgow, is the life story of a Virginian who makes his way by sheer force of personality and pluck.

"Susanna and Sue," by Kate Douglas Wiggin is the sweetest and simplest of stories and Sue is a fit companion for Rebecca, Timothy and the other lovable Wiggin children.

"Anne of Aronlea" and "Kilmeby" are two love stories charmingly told by L. M. Montgomery.

"The Wizard's Daughter" is one of a collection of short stories written by Margaret Collier Graham. Each one full of human interest, a blending of humor and pathos.

"The Land of Joy," by Ralph Barbour, is a college tale with a forward look into the great world beyond. (Given to the library by Mrs. Frank.)

"The Calling of Dan Matthews" by Harold Wright. Critics say they are "masterful creations"—Dan, the man of convictions, the old doctor who is philosopher and poet, and crippled Dannie who loves everything and everybody.

Five volumes—"The Crystal Hunters" by G. M. Fenn, "The Young Gunbrain" by G. Waldo Browne, "The Hero of the Hills" by G. Waldo Browne, "Englishman's Haven" by W. J. Gordon, "The Wild Man of the West" by R. M. Ballentyne, are given to the Children's Corner by Mrs. M. Frank. Boys who delight in tales of adventure and pioneer life will enjoy them all.

Musical Club

The Musical Club will meet Saturday afternoon in Mrs. Munson's studio. All the members are earnestly requested to be present. Following is the program:

Early music schools and their respective contributions to the development of music—Mrs. J. C. McDaniel.

Polophony, causes of development and importance—Miss Gelsie Butt.

Discussion, English glees, madrigals and old ballads.

Song—Miss St. John.

Song (Old Roundel Style), Mrs. Herndon, Miss Bowler, Miss St. John and Miss Veda Ward.

Crop Conditions in South Florida

R. G. Snow, staff correspondent of the New York Packer, has completed a circuit through South Florida and gave The Herald the following report on truck crop conditions at several leading points.

There is an increased acreage of truck in Manatee county. The growers down there are diversifying their crops, however, and celery will not be more than 50 per cent of last year's acreage.

There will be a large acreage of cabbage throughout the vegetable belt. Probably a record year will this be on cabbage acreage.

Bartow is planting heavily on truck, very little celery being included.

Lakeland, Plant City, Galloway, and Kathleen strawberry growers were damaged 40 per cent. Increase in acreage will cover shortage.

Truck will be late in all shipping districts and it now appears that the big rush season won't be on before January.

Christy Mathewson, star twirler of the New York Nationals, signed a contract with the club to-day for the seasons of 1911, 1912 and 1913. This is the first time he has ever signed a contract calling for more than one season.

Wednesday Club

There was a large attendance of the members of the club Wednesday afternoon, to enjoy the opening papers of the interesting, as well as entertaining program for the winter's study. "Western Planting", the inception and beginning of the plans and efforts in England, to colorize America was most interesting, given by Mrs. J. N. Whitner.

"Eastward Ho!" and "A Farewell Blessing," stirring poems, that owed their inspiration to those eventful times, were much enjoyed, as read by Mrs. T. R. Phillips.

"A Great Trust, The London Company," "C. C. Worthingtons paper" was a continuation of the colonization scheme; in a shach description of the part, the London Company played in the settlement of Virginia; and the new world, "The Butler Phamphlet", incidental to the same times and events, with its many quaint touches of humor and given by Miss Guild, was most interesting.

Following is program for November 23rd.

Reading "The Marvelous Land", (Chandler)—Mrs. S. O. Shinholser.

Powhatan and His People—Mrs. C. R. Walker.

The Hero of James Town—Mrs. A. D. Key.

Virginia (Map Study)—Mrs. S. O. Chase.

Dressmaking Establishment

Madame Josephine of New York will open a first class dressmaking and ladies tailoring establishment in the Yowell building this week in connection with the store of N. P. Yowell & Co. Such an establishment has long been needed in Sanford and Mme. Josephine will enjoy a liberal patronage. Young ladies will be taught the art of dressmaking and a large force of assistants will be required. The rooms in the second floor have been especially fitted up for the business and the ladies of this section are cordially invited to call upon Madame at once and look up the latest styles and modes.

Accident to W. T. Field

While trying to prevent a boat from striking the city dock last Friday W. T. Field, the popular real estate man had his right foot badly bruised. Mr. Field noticed the boat coming up to the wharf and endeavored to keep it from scraping on the posts by veering it off with his foot. He kept the boat from injury but his foot suffered by his consideration for other people's property. Dr. Forster rendered medical aid and Mr. Field is able to hobble about on crutches.

Little Folks' Entertained

The primary department of the Baptist Sunday school, consisting of three classes of little folks from three to seven years of age, enjoyed a pleasant afternoon in the class rooms of the church last Monday. A large number of the children were present and heartily entered into round games for an hour or two, after which the dainty little lunches brought by each were spread and thoroughly enjoyed.

Church of the People

"Quitters" is the subject of Rev. George B. Waldron's sermon at the People's Church next Sunday night. Come and find out who they are. In the morning he will answer the question for housekeepers: "Martha or Mary—which are best?" Services open at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. All are welcome.

LOCATING AT SANFORD

Many Home Seekers Come to Sanford During Past Week

IN SEARCH OF BEST TRUCK LAND

Sanford Appeals to the People Who Are Desirous of Investing for Quick Returns

Despite the fact that Sanford has sent out no advertising matter this fall the home-seekers are coming in every day and this week there were several hundred people stopped over here to view the splendid truck farms in operation and many have invested in lands here preferring to pay a little more for the real article and wishing to settle in a district already tried and tested, and one where all the advantages can be given to their families. A ride to Cameron City on the street cars gives the visitor a greater idea of the wonderful development of this country than any other source of information for the broad vista of beautiful farms just now appearing in vivid green with the lettuce and celery crops starting and the ever changing landscape discloses the very garden spot of the world.

Mr. Jesse Spurlin and family arrived this week from Ohio and brought twelve other Buckeyes with them. Mr. Spurlin recently purchased a large tract of fine celery land and thinks so well of his investment that he wants his neighbors to do likewise and several of them have already purchased lands.

The Howard Packard Co., made sales last week in Eureka Hammock amounting to $30,000 and several other big sales are noted this week.

Thus it will be seen that Sanford still reigns supreme as the place for the man who wants to see his dollars grow and regardless of the many cheaper lands upon the market the land in the Sanford Celery Delta will never be found begging for purchasers. For the man who wishes cheaper lands outside of the flowing well district there are plenty of bargains and there are hundreds of acres in this vicinity for the homeseeker no matter what his desires may be.

The idea is to purchase land near Sanford for the name spells success and throughout the United States the name is synonymous with the best of everything in winter garden vegetables.

CURBSTONE GLEANINGS

A Budget of Opinion "Just Between You and Me"

EVEN THE GATE POST NOT IN IT

A Chiel is Among Ye Taking Notes, and Faith, He'll Prent 'Em"—So Says Saunterer.

Special Correspondence to The Herald.
According to the Woman's World the south is awakening. Well, so is the north awakening to the possibilities of the south and the immense resources awaiting development. The following from the World sounds good:

"The south is beginning to awaken to the possibilities for the development of its resources and to a realization of the value of those resources. Tangible testimony to the existence of this desirable condition was given at the recent meeting of the Southern Commercial Congress in Atlanta, Ga., when the congress redrafted its organic law and systemized its plans for the development of the sixteen states in whose behalf the organization is at work. The campaign, under its direction, has now proceeded far enough to give both its leaders and the southern public definite ideas of its value and effectiveness."

The people of the south have realized for some time that, while the ultimate development of their section is certain, the speed of that development and their own share in the profits thereof depend largely upon their own effort. The purpose of the congress, outlined at its first meeting, has been to quicken the southern effort in that direction. Since that initial meeting there has been a notable awakening to the value of southern resources and opportunities in north and south alike.

Viewing the south as a whole in its relation to the radical changes which will follow the completion of the Panama canal, it is evident to anyone who thinks over the matter that the south is destined to the most marvelous rapid development of any section of the United States, and that the next decade or decade and a half will see a shift of population into the south running up to the millions. At present it would be possible to place five million additional families in the south, giving each family forty acres, and yet in no way disturb existing agricultural development or crowd the present population."

I noticed several weeks ago in a Jacksonville paper that M. M. Smith, President of the Peoples Bank of this city had been honored by the vice-presidency of one of the largest banking and investment companies of the south recently organized at Jacksonville. I hastened to ask Mr. Smith the particulars of such an honor bestowed upon him, but could glean nothing from him, for his extreme modesty never permits an interview upon any of his achievements. And this reminds me that a book could be written about the wonderful rise of Mike Smith, as he is familiarly called by his thousands of friends in Orange county and other counties in the state. From a humble position in the turpentine business in Georgia, not so many years ago, Mr. Smith has by indomitable pluck and energy, coupled with business sagacity, wrested a fortune from the lands of Florida and clearly demonstrated what an energetic man can do in this country. He has reversed the ancient theory that a southern gentleman never worked and the hookworm never has found a place in Mr. Smith's system. He puts in fourteen hours per diem and when he is not burning up the road between Winter Park, Sanford and Orlando, he is down in DeSoto, Lee, Manatee or some other county, turning over some of his rich holdings and adding to the pile of simoleons already accumulated. He is a natural born financier and takes chances upon making good that would appall an ordinary man.

His busy life and chase after the nimble dollar has not warped his benevolent nature or public spirit and he takes a deep interest in every improvement of the county and is never too busy for a friendly chat with his many friends. In his own home circle the broad side of Mr. Smith's nature is most apparent, and in him his children have father and mother combined. In fact M. M. Smith is my ideal of a self made man and one that is a power for good in the community. I rejoice in his success and take pleasure in paying him this well deserved tribute.

O, policeman in blue!
Get on your guard,
The cows are in town
In every one's yard.

There were several complaints this week of people who were bothered by the cows breaking into the yards again. It seems that the pasture is drying up on the edge of the city and the cows have a longing for the beautiful green grass that is cultivated with so much care in making Sanford beautiful. The cow ordinance caused a great commotion when it was passed several years ago, but what would the people do now if the cows were allowed to roam at will. Some of them had a touch of it this week when the cows happened to break into the sacred precincts again.

The traction cars now carry a precious freight each day. In the morning and evening the cars are laden with school children and over sixty of them are transported from the celery delta to the splendid schools of this city. Such a sight brings forcibly to our minds the glorious possibilities of our favored section, where the people can reside six miles from Sanford, happy and contented on their farms and yet give their children all the benefits of the finest schools in the entire south. In the next twelve months the traction line will be built to Orlando, taking in Rollins College at Winter Park, and then our children can take a college course, attending college during the day and spending each night at home.

I have always contended that in our traction line we had the greatest gift of man and the school children only strengthen this belief. The traction line was built by our own people, financed by our own people and is kept up by our own people, which is certainly worthy of more than a passing notice. I have predicted several times that in five years we would have a solid city from Monroe to Cameron City, aided and abetted by the traction line and my predictions are coming true.

I may be more zealous in boosting the city than some people and many of my friends in other localities think I am stretching the truth about Sanford, but such is not the case. Few of our own people realize the possibilities of this great celery delta or stop to prognosticate about our future, but there is no doubt about this section, regardless of misfortunes that are apt to strike us just as they strike every section.

The Sanford section today has a brighter future than any part of the great southland, and we can receive a blow and recover from the effects of it quicker than any other section and the real investor is getting wise to the fact that the real place to make an investment is right here. We have no experiment to work out but the real, bona fide article, time tried and tested and found true to name.

A man who has money to invest wants something more than a handful of soil forty miles from nowhere. He wants a farm where the money crops have already been raised, where he can live close to a hustling city, where his family can move in the circle of friendship and society, where his children can receive the advantages of schools and colleges, where his freight rates are cheaper and where his money has a chance to come back to him in larger chunks.

That is Sanford today and what Sanford will continue to be, getting greater every season and better both in resources and citizenship.

The Sanford people have the goods and the real article does not need signs on the fences and pages in magazines. A glance over the names of the new residents find them from every walk of life, and they come to Sanford with the idea of investing and making this city their home. We have no free lands, they are just a little bit higher than the "just as good," but the man who buys is assured of results by what his neighbor has done. He is assured of living in a good community among good people. He is assured of all that goes to "make life worth living" and he can make his start in the fastest growing section of the county that has gained seven thousand people in the last three years.

Therefore I take my hat off to the men who have made the Sanford traction line possible. I take my hat off to the other boosters who have labored long and zealously for a Greater and Better Sanford. We have our little differences of opinion, but when they have been adjusted we go on with renewed vigor toward building up our section, and I leave it to the new man who comes today to see our city.

Prentice Peabody Memorial

It will be very gratifying to the many Sanford friends, of the late Prentice Peabody; whose sudden death caused such universal regret in his old home; to learn that a movement has been started by the South Georgia Epworth League, of which he was president; to erect a memorial as a loving tribute to his memory.

The Epworth League has planed a memorial school building, to be erected on the Orphans Home property, at Macon Georgia. It is to cost $5,000, and is to be known as the Prentice Peabody Memorial.

This inscription is to be placed on the building, "Erected to the Memory of E. Prentice Peabody by the South Georgia Epworth Leaguers".

SANFORD TRACTION CO

Two Electric Cars Will Be Put On At Once

The growth and development of the Sanford celery delta is further guaranteed by a recent transaction made here between the Sanford Traction Company and the Atlantic Coast Line railway, by which the traction company, has obtained through a lease covering a period of twenty years the right to use the tracks of the Lake Charm branch of the Coast Line, running from Sanford to a point of intersection with the Sanford and Everglades railway in Palm Hammock, where the cars of the traction company will continue over the rails of the Sanford and Everglades railroad, thus describing a complete belt line passing through the celery delta to Sanford, making a continuous trip of sixteen miles, the fare for which will be 25 cents.

Something may be gleaned of the importance of Sanford as an agricultural center when the fact is known that this work is being done by local capital which owns the traction line and Sanford and Everglades railroad, both of which run through the richest farming country of Florida, the quality and stability of the land being such as to justify progressive citizens of Sanford in investing their money in the project.

The company now has two seventy-five passenger cars in service and makes hourly runs from Sanford to Cameron City. The company finding these facilities to be insufficient to properly care for the increasing traffic have ordered from the Federal Battery Company, two Edison Beech storage battery electric cars which will cost $10,000 each. These cars are expected to arrive at once and will immediately be placed in service. Then the traction company will be able to double up on its schedule.

A crew of seventy men are now at work laying the last four miles of rails necessary on the Sanford and Everglades railway, which will complete the belt line and give to Sanford local transportation of a very superior nature.

The traction company has recently secured a franchise to extend its lines to Orlando and some of the right-of-way between Sanford and that place has been secured.

Greatest Play of The Season
Good plays and good books should elevate the morals and have an effect upon the lives of those who see the plays or read the books. Sanford seldom has the opportunity to witness as good a play as "The Game" produced here last week by the Mabel Paige Co. A story of love and politics in which the game is played for all it is worth and a story that holds one in its grip from the time the curtain raises until the fall in the last act.

Tim Mayo, the square politician who played the game to keep the cheap politician from working ruin among the masses, was portrayed by Ed Lawrence and faithfully carried out by this polished actor in every particular. Had this play been cast for Mr. Lawrence the effect could be no greater or more satisfactory.

As Nellie Mayo, Miss Paige was good of course but it gave her small chance for the strong emotional character that has made her famous.

Miss Irvin as Nance Mayo, the fallen woman and wife of Tim Mayo was excellent as was also Miss Jackson as Kate Desmond, the widow, a sweet, gentle and lovable character.

Mr. Oelrich as the sheriff, Mr. Ponco as the private secretary, Mr. Miller, as Douglas King, the young lover, and Mr. Ritchie as Gentleman George were all good and seemed cast for the part.

"The Game" tears the veil from the corruption and graft of the one and the grief and heartaches of the other. A play with a moral and one that grips the heart in its very intensity, human to the very core and presented in a most capable manner.

"The Game", should add popularity to the Mabel Paige Co., and lustre to their fame and can be recommended to the public as one of the best plays ever presented to an audience.

Our New Train Service

One of the best indications of the prosperity and progress of this section of Florida is to be found in the action of the Atlantic Coast Line Railway in inaugurating an additional train service between this city and Sanford beginning to-day. Heretofore the train service between these points has been such as to make it impossible to leave Sanford or intermediate points, spend the day in Tampa on business and return the same day. The old service compels shoppers coming to the city to spend the night here or else leaves on a night train arriving here early in the morning.

Besides the past good service, which only the general prosperity and increased growth of the section have rendered inadequate, the railway today places an additional train each way on the run between this city and Sanford. The train will leave Sanford at 8:20 a. m., arriving here at 12:55 p. m., and reach Sanford at 8:50 p. m. The first train arriving here to-day brought a large number of passengers and the report that residents along the railway are delighted with the new service.

Orlando, Kissimmee, Lakeland and Plant City and other towns along the railway between here and Sanford will be greatly benefitted by the service, and the railway convenience in general use, as the new train will connect with branches going to interior points. The train will afford the same service between these cities as does the "Sunny Jim" train between Tampa and Ocala, by means of which Ocalans are able to shop in this city and return the same day.

The action of the railway in granting the additional service is greatly appreciated by Tampa merchants as well as patrons along the railway lines and follows representations made by the Tampa Board of Trade and by patrons of the system. The railway has placed the additional train on as an experiment, but it is believed that its success will be so certain that it will be continued.—Tampa Tribune.

WHAT AN ACRE WILL YIELD ON FLORIDA'S VOLUSIA FARMS JUST ACROSS THE RIVER FROM SANFORD

Much is being said and written about the high cost of living. Various solutions are being offered. Too much gold in the country, say some, the upward revision of tariff, say others. The call of the cities, say the editor, not enough people to till the land, say the agriculturalists. But whatever the cause, effects of the increasing price in living is being felt by the man in the street and none of the excuses put forward by students or social problems reduces the price of canned food one cent.

Yet analysis of the question by James J. Hill, the great railroad man and agriculturist, comes nearer to the real cause than perhaps has been reached by any other leader of opinion.

Too Few Left on the Farm

As we said last week: "So great has been the inducement to engage in manufacturing that there are no longer enough skilled farmers left on the land to produce the food at the prices that the people in the towns and cities can afford to pay".

This is the greatest argument that can be used to induce people to return to the land. Farming today is not what it was in the day of your grandfather.

Modern Farming is the Best Possible Career

for men of brains and initiative as well as for the humblest worker. No other career give you so much independence, none as free from enslaving conditions, none as conducive to thoroughgoing manliness as farming on Florida's Volusia Farms.

The man in business has more chances against him than has the farmer. Competition forces thousands to the wall. Wages are kept down. If an increase in wages is desired it has to be fought for by disastrous strikes which the wage-earner seldom wins. The little man is starved out. You are being starved out. You were likely talking about this very thing to your good wife only yesterday.

If You are a Man who Can Work and have a little money to help over the initial stages of starting in a new country.

Volusia Farms is the Place for You.

The Following Figures Rather Underestimate the Money Yield of the Various Crops

Strawberries, per acre	$ 500	Peppers	$ 500
Peas	200	Cantaloupes	400
Beans, string	200	Cucumbers	300
Potatoes, Irish	250	Eggplant	400
Potatoes, Sweet	200	Grapefruit	750
Cabbage	260	Tangerines, Kumquats etc.	500
Beets	350	Oranges	500
Onions, Bermuda	400	Pecans	1,000
Tomatoes	700

These are the kind of crops you can grow at Volusia Farms two to four times a year on the same land; frequently two crops in various stages grow together side by side. If you live in Chicago, ask any Water Street commission house about our figures. Inquire of Chase & Co., at any of their numerous branches throughout the country.

All the figures in the previous column and all the instances of intensive agriculture in Florida or elsewhere pale in financial interest alongside the figures of market gardening in France and Belgium. Success Magazine quote a little farm of 2½ acres which gives employment for a full working day to eight people and which the writer of the article asserts, yields nearly 125 tons weight of produce during the season.

Wasn't it a Frenchman at Kansas city last year who demonstrated that one acre intensively and diversely cultivated would produce enough to support a small family—not merely enough to eat but enough to sell?

Have You Written for Your Copy of our Liberal Volusia Farms Money-Back Contract

????

You can buy 5 acres, or more, of Volusia Farms for only $30 per acre; 5' per acre cash, balance only $1 per acre per month. No taxes and interest. If you can pay all cash, you can buy at $27 per acre. Every acre you buy is bought with the understanding that if, within one year after completion of your payments, you decide you do not want your farm, we will refund every cent you paid us and give you 6 per cent besides, and take the farm off your hands. This, and more, will we write in your contract

Study the Art of Farming

More than half the farms in France are but 2½ acres. The rent of one of these farms would buy a large slice of Volusia Farms. A French 2½ acre farm rents for from $500 to $1,250 a year, and the Frenchman has enough money left at the end of his season to put in the bank or buy securities. French farms produce yet you are apt to be incredulous when we tell you that by ordinary methods you can grow three and four crops a year on Volusia Farms. The Frenchman is forced to use hotbeds and glass houses. At Volusia Farms the sun does all this for you—and does it in winter-time, too; so that you can ship your produce north at a time of the year when highest prices are possible. When Florida is shipping table vegetables no other State in the Union is growing anything.

Seven Crops a Year

To the man who makes of his Volusia farming an art there is absolutely

No Limit to what an acre will Produce

It rests with the farmers—with you. If you have a little money and are a man who can work, you'll find life at Volusia Farms wonderfully interesting, marvellously different each day as you watch the fruit of your labors. Write for our free book, "Resources of Volusia Farms". It tells you lots of things you don't now know.

Mrs. Jiles M. Berry

In a city like ours, where we all know each other so well, the death of a prominent member of the social world seems like a personal loss to all.

More than once, of late, death has come and called home a choice spirit, whose loss cast a gloom over the whole city, but never has it been felt more acutely than in the death of Mrs. Jiles M. Berry.

For so long a time her home has been such a prominent center of the social life of Augusta, that her loss will be felt by many as if it were a member of their own family that had been taken.

Mrs. Berry was so utterly an embodiment of sunshine, always so bright and happy herself and so anxious for all around her to be happy that it seems almost impossible to associate sorrow and death with the thought of her, and almost wrong to give way to grief.

She was a woman, who seemed to appeal to every one. The young people loved her as much as those of her own age—indeed she was especially known as the friend of the young people and always loved to speak of herself as "Mother Berry." Her children's friends learned to know that they were all "children" to her and to love her with a peculiar devotion.

Her personal beauty seemed a fitting reflection of her beauty of soul and character—and her death was peaceful and beautiful as was her life, for she simply "fell on sleep" and passed away as gently and quietly as a baby slumbers.

Think of us, dearest one, while'er life's waters
We seek the land;
Missing thy touch, thy voice, and the true helping
Of thy pure hand.
Till through the storm and tempest, safely anchored
Just on the other side,
We find thy dear face looking through the shadows
Not changed, but glorified.
—Augusta Chronicle.

Mrs. Berry was a sister of Mrs. F. A. Schumpert of this city.

A Little Journey to the Hearts of Business Men

BY A BUSINESS MAN.

THERE are quite a lot of people—and good people at that—who hold that a State in a state of development, like this State, for instance, should be represented in the United States Senate by a business man.

And these people are entitled to their opinion, which is, in turn, entitled to serious consideration.

Therefore, let us put a senatorial candidate on the scales, apply the Bertillon system and get active with the commercial stethoscope.

JOHN N. C. STOCKTON IS A SENATORIAL CANDIDATE

HE IS ALSO A BUSINESS MAN.

He established, and for many years successfully conducted a large banking business in Jacksonville.

He established and brought success to another large bank in another large city in this State.

He led the fight against railroad freight rebates and aid to favored business men, and the practice was discontinued.

He, as early as 1893, was a front rank man in the movement for a Railroad Commission, and the bill was enacted by the legislature of 1897, of which he was a member. This has secured more reasonable and equitable rates and better service to shippers.

He was president of the Jacksonville Board of Trade, when that organization needed an active man, enjoying the confidence of business men, to resurrect it after the yellow fever epidemic of 1888.

He was part of the movement for municipal ownership in Jacksonville, and the Jacksonville Electric Light plant was built when he was chairman of the Board of Public Works, in which was vested this power at that time.

He was Chairman of the Jacksonville Board of Public Works when brick pavements were begun, and the tablet in the City Hall bears his name.

He was a successful phosphate miner.

He was a success as a naval stores operator.

He achieved success in the real estate business.

He helped build many churches and other institutions for the moral uplift, and was chiefly instrumental in constructing one of the handsomest churches in Jacksonville.

He preserved his credit and his reputation for fair dealing in all his various business activities.

John Stockton is not a dollar chaser, but he has done well for himself and for his friends in the engagements of commerce.

He is more than a business man, but as we are considering only this side of him in this little hint to those wise in trade and traffic, we end as we began:

JOHN N. C. STOCKTON IS A CANDIDATE FOR UNITED STATES SENATOR

HE IS ALSO A BUSINESS MAN.

Early Irish Potatoes in Florida
The people of our United States have associated in their minds for many years certain products of the soil, both fruit and vegetables. With certain States, and it is common to hear such expressions as Florida oranges, Texas pecans, Virginia apples, Delaware peaches, Georgia peaches, Oregon prunes, Kalamazoo celery, Florida lettuce, Florida celery, Maine potatoes, California pears, South Carolina rice, etc. Florida has become especially prominent before our nation as a producer of open air, winter grown tender vegetables and fruits as beginning in the fall, after the frost has laid low vegetation in States north of us, continuing on to June a constant supply goes North, East and West of grape fruit, oranges, pine-apples, strawberries, cucumbers, beans, English peas, tomatoes, egg plant, green corn, sweet peppers, beets, squash, cauliflower, cabbage, okra, lettuce, celery, early Irish potatoes, etc. Much has become known through advertising and press publicity of the snug fortunes accumulated by growing celery, head lettuce, tomatoes and the vegetables on the East Coast, West Coast and at Sanford, and other

Florida points, and the net profits claimed on these products have staggered the planters in other States who have been inclined to doubt until they have been convinced by the indisputable evidence open to all.

The people have however, become somewhat familiar with these facts, and are ready to admit that wonderful profits are possible in the production of these high class vegetables, some of which are considered luxuries, but they are surprised when told of the good results already obtained in Florida from the culture of Irish potatoes.

Some eighteen years ago potatoes for early market were grown at Hastings, St. Johns county; that is to say this was the beginning of potato culture as an established, distinct crop. New acreage has been added each year until within that district there is now a total of 5,000 acres devoted to this industry, with an annual crop of some 200,000 barrels.

Flowing wells there are easily obtained, four or six-inch are the usual dimension, four-inch well irrigating forty acres, and a six-inch well eighty acres, the trench system is used. Planting there usually dates from January 10th on for several weeks, digging and marketing begins April 10th to 15th, continuing until the close of the season, June 1st. During this marketing period a potato train goes forward every night, of thirty to forty cars. The average price obtained ranges around $3.50 for number ones, and $2.50 number twos, per barrel f. o. b. cars. The expense per acre, including plowing, riding, fertilizer, cultivating, etc., is reckoned about $75.00; the planters net around $100 per acre, beside the second crop of corn, hay, or long staple cotton that is brought on without any additional fertilizing. The planters of Hastings have demonstrated the fact that the potato crop is one of the surest of all the many money crops of our State.

Other sections of the State have begun to grow early potatoes, keeping their eyes open to the fact that they must dig and market their crops before the movement at Hastings.

Sanford is located about 70 miles further south, this, with some 30 square miles of protection on the north furnished by the placid waters of Lake Monroe makes her planters confident that they can by earlier planting on tiled land, market their crops before Hastings begins, by doing this they will secure fancy prices, with a consequent handsome net profit per acre.

The potato grown almost exclusively in Florida for market is the Spaulding Rose number four. Some Red Bliss and other varieties are grown in a small way, as some planters are seemingly careless as to comparative yields.

Here in Sanford much interest has been aroused in the Polar potato. It is white, of fine quality, oblong in shape and a wonderful cropper. One of our Florida planters reports for 1909, 138 barrels of this wonderful potato from one acre and this year 590 barrels from five acres. I should like to see some of your subscribers in every Southern State make plantings of this variety. Sanford growers are delighted with their yields of last season, and will plant more extensively this winter.—Henry H. Deane, in Southern Cultivator.

The English Sparrow

The English sparrow was brought to America in 1850, but it was not until 1860 that the species was firmly established in this country. The sparrow's fecundity is amazing. In the latitude of New York and southward it hatches, as a rule, five or six broods each season, and from four to six young ones in a brood. Assuming the average annual product of a pair to be twenty-four young, of which half are females and half are males, and that all live together with their offspring, it will be seen that in ten years the progeny of a single pair would be in the billions.

 Act of March 3rd, 1879.

Sanford beautiful.

Herald will give a beautiful piano most popular young lady in the splendid new High School building ready for occupancy and is one of best in the South.

Primary election for the nomina-United States Senator will be January 10th and 31st.

A daily service on the river between Sanford and Jacksonville gives our city a hustling appearance about boat time.

With all the new buildings erected in Sanford during the past twelve months there is still a dearth of store rooms and residences.

The Sanford section will come in for a share of advertising as soon as the speculation is circulated. Get a copy of it and send it to your friends.

The Reporter Star wants Pine street changed to Printer's Row. The Herald is now located on Herald Square and Orange county printers will soon become quite cheery.

The Plant City Courier is now twenty-years old, but under its present active editor has no whiskers on it. May the earlier live another twenty-five and be great a power in the community.

Sanford schools have been neglected in news columns lately. The fact that there are 560 pupils enrolled so far, with in the high school, is worthy of special mention. Then our new high school building costing $20,000 will soon be ready for occupancy, which gives us another chance to crow.

The Sanford Herald, R. J. Holly, editor, has just moved into its handsome new office, a splendid concrete structure. Editor Holly is making a splendid paper of course and his many friends here and elsewhere, and the members of the tripod ride are all glad to know that he is doing so admirably. Orlando Reporter-Star.

The Reporter Star claims The Herald of Orlando an injustice by a mistake figures last week. We gave the wets in Orlando when it was only 116.
 We take it back Bros. Keller and Walsh. We feel as badly about it as you and if the blow is more than you can bear come to Sanford for a week. There were only 4 wet ones to the bad here and you can breathe easier.

A correspondent writing from Sanford says that at least 150 families have come into that section, having bought farms and located in and near Sanford. Every available house in the delta is occupied, it is claimed, and the late comers are finding it difficult to obtain even a suite of rooms for light housekeeping. This is an unusual and unexpected condition for so early in the season.—Times-Union.

The Sanford Herald building, a handsome concrete building, is now complete and editor R. J. Holly has moved his paper into the new home. When it is remembered that the Sanford Herald is only a little over two years old it must be admitted that its growth in that short time has been nothing short of wonderful.
 The hustling, wide awake editor richly deserves all the success that has come his way, for his paper has been a booster for Sanford from its beginning and thereby a strong factor in the upbuilding of the town.—Sanford Cor. Tampa Tribune.

As every liquor dealer in the state has placed himself on record as favoring local prohibition there can certainly be no objections to the coming legislature passing a law prohibiting the shipping of liquor from wet counties into dry counties.
 Again, the Model Saloon-League has many followers among Florida liquor dealers, and the legislature should help the movement by raising the license to something like $5,000 for retail dealers and $50,000 for wholesale dealers. To help the liquor dealers make their business respectable, the law should also be amended to make it a jail sentence, not a fine, to illegally sell liquor. Give the man a chance to make his business respectable.—Schools Advocate.

BONDS FOR GOOD ROADS
 The Herald has never advocated improvements that would prove a burden on the tax payer. Like every public spirited newspaper The Herald has stood for improvements for the city and county.
 When the question of bonds for brick roads came up this paper was heartily in favor of the bonds and at this stage has no cause for a change of heart. There is no cause for an endless array of figures proving this and that and in the end proving nothing.

The tax payer is willing to pay for improvements providing he can get a run for his money. We have now come to the end of the string regarding good roads in Orange county. The bond issue solves the question for all time. Regardless of what the demagogues will tell you about the extortionate taxes in the event of bonds, the fact remains that there will be no difference in the levy.

In the event that bonds do not carry the levy will be raised from six mills to ten because the present levy is insufficient to carry on all the improvements needed.

Such being the case the people of Orange county are confronted with the problem of either retrograding or voting for bonds and having the best system of good roads in the south. Without bonds we get no roads and have higher taxes. With bonds we get what we pay for at once and we will have a chance to enjoy the roads during our lifetime.

The Herald will in the next twenty years pay as much in taxes as any one and our pocket book is not as heavy as the usual tax payer can boast. What touches your pocket touches ours and this paper is only advocating the best measures for the greatest number of people.

The Herald is of the people and for the people and would not saddle a needless debt upon the people.

If it is good we are for it, and the bond issue seems good from every standpoint.
 No man ever does things unless he is in debt, no city ever becomes a city without a bonded indebtedness and just why Orange county, the greatest in the state, should be afraid of bonding for improvements is a matter of conjecture.

Every man should study the bond issue for himself, and remember that the bonds will not be a burden upon you, all reports to the contrary notwithstanding.

"THE COUNTRY WEEKLIES"
 If the prohibition amendment is defeated it will not be charged to the Florida weekly papers. Nine-tenths of them have been devoting nine-tenths of their space to the advocacy of the amendment for several weeks.—Tampa Tribune.

Does the Tribune know what a great thing—a great truth—a great commentary on the American people—it said then?

Does the Tribune know that in every state, and all the states of the Union, all great questions, moral and political, that have been settled right, have been settled by the people who are represented by the "weekly papers"?

Does it know that the people of the United States represented by the "weekly papers" are the majority, and that they have the highest average of intelligence, education, moral, stamina, property interests, and good, sound, common or horse sense?

Does it know that in all contests—never is there one solitary exception—where any certain interests wish to establish or retain any certain thing that is not for the best welfare of the state or country at large, they always—never is there one solitary exception—look to the city centers for votes to win, and rightly expect the weekly papers, part of the state or country to go against them?

The Tribune is right. Saloons are an unmitigated curse to Florida, as to any other state, and "nine-tenths" of the "weekly papers" are opposed to them, and the whiskey interests are looking to the worst voting elements of such cities as Tampa, Jacksonville and Pensacola today to preserve their calamity-causing business.

"The country weekly" represents the people who at all times are the moral and material support and salvation of our country.—St. Petersburg Times.

It is remarkable, the strength and prosperity of the rural press of Florida and nothing more surely indicates that the advancement of the state in all moral and material matters is solidly based.
 For many years the weekly newspapers of this state were not a cause for pride to its people, but there was here and there a splendid specimen to set a good example and afford encouragement to the editor who knew how but was unable to do his best. The editors worked hard and earnestly and ambitiously, and the effect was seen in better papers, these brought more patronage as new people came in and strengthened the various communities. The growth of the press of Florida has been during the past ten years a phenomenon, and both publishers and people are to be congratulated. The state that can furnish forth such a goodly press as Florida does is safe, the editor that prints a good paper in Florida is safe, and the situation is one of much satisfaction. Let the good work go on upon the same line.—Tampa Times.

The Orlando Sentinel draws a peculiar distinction in its discussion of the proposition in Orange county to vote $1,000,000 for brick thoroughfares. It says it looks something like a scheme for the benefit of the towns in the thickly settled portion of the county, and adds: "Build up the farming portions of the county and the towns will need no $1,000,000 boost to make them prosperous." A little more light on how to build up the farming portions of the county without good roads is now in order. It is the general experience that good roads build up the farming communities and the towns get their benefit after it has strained through the farms.—Tampa Times.

Commenting on the power of the press
 the Pensacola News says:

"Editor Bob Holly, of the Sanford Herald, did not 'see the light' and declare for the amendment until a week before the election. Orange county rendered its verdict for local option by a majority of 281."

In view of the fact that Sanford only gave a majority of 4 votes against the amendment several others seemed to have "seen the light" also and the power of the press is apparent.

W. B. Crawford, former editor of the Pensacola News has formed a law partnership with P. A. Vans Agnew of Kissimmee and the new firm of Vans Agnew & Crawford have out their shingle in the hustling city of Kissimmee. Both gentlemen are well known throughout Florida and the firm will enjoy a lucrative practice. The "press gang" has lost a valuable member but legal circles have gained one.

CULLED FROM THE STATE PRESS

An Epitome of the Week's Most Important Happenings in the State's Domain.

Through the enterprise of The Tampa Daily Times the people of Tampa and south Florida will, within a short period, be furnished with their first opportunity of witnessing an aeroplane flight—in fact, several aeroplane flights and contests.

The Florida Citrus Exchange is making efforts to secure lower and uniform rates for fruits and vegetables, shipped from the state and in this commendable effort the Exchange will have the aid and co-operation of the Florida East Coast Growers Association.

It is said that 18,000 pounds of fish were caught at one haul last week by Capt. J. L. Sweat, of St. Petersburg.

Osceola County Commissioners have found the publicity proposition so profitable that they have increased their investment. They have been subscribing for 1,000 copies of the Kissimmee Gazette and 1,000 copies of the Kissimmee Journal, which have been sent regularly to prospective settlers, and now they have ordered 500 copies of the St. Cloud Tribune every week, which makes 2,500 papers sent weekly from the county to advertise its resources.

The town of Alachua was the scene of another killing Saturday evening at about 5:30, when W. F. Cox shot and instantly killed Bud Martin, emptying the contents of both barrels of a shot-gun into his body.

Hon. Frank Clark, member of Congress from this district, is authority for the statement that Florida's population under the present apportionment will give four representatives in Congress. If the new basis of apportionment does not exceed 205,000 Florida will still be entitled to four representatives. The Republicans will not increase the ratio much, because they will lose representatives in strong Republican States.

PAOLA POINTS

Special Correspondence to The Herald: Weather still cool and delightful and the young people are making the most of the beautiful moonlight nights.

Another "pillau" was held at Robbins Lake Saturday night and carried to a successful finish. The merry crowd reported it "the best ever".

A surprise party was given in honor of Miss McClain, our popular young school teacher Friday evening at the home of J. B. Thompson. A most pleasant time was enjoyed by all.

Two hunting parties, have been out this week and each brought in a deer.

Mrs. Elizabeth Bullock of Steubenville, Ohio, arrived last week to occupy her winter home at Island Lake. She was accompanied by several relatives who will also spend the winter here.

W. H. Taylor, now stationed at Center Hill, spent Sunday at his home in Paola.

The box and crate mill at Twin Lakes station has been shut down for nearly two weeks, owing to the mishap to the engine, but is now running full time.

On Monday night the Jacksonville sleeper was put on the Leesburg train for the winter season. The heavy freights running over this branch shows there is "sometime doin'" all along the line, if the orange crop is short.

Big Auction Sale of New York State Horses Saturday, Nov. 19th

P. G. Waldron has arrived here with a car load of first class horses that have been used all the summer up in the Catskill mountains. The season having closed and having no further use for them, he will sell them here at E. E. Brady's stables, Sanford, this Saturday at eleven o'clock at auction, to the highest bidder without reserve, and those in search of horses should be on hand, as there are bound to be some bargains, owing to the fact that Mr. Waldron has decided to close every one out no matter what they bring, before he returns north. The York State horses are well known for their strength and durability, they require no acclimating and are ready for immediate use. Every one of these horses are to be guaranteed as represented at the auction sale.

Acquitted in One Case, Guilty in One

Mr. H. W. Metcalf was acquitted of the charge of having in his possession a copy of the official ballot, but was convicted of attempting to aid a voter named Nelson Hill, colored, by means of a mechanical device, namely, a fac simile of the ballot with an "X" on it. The jury was several hours in arriving at a verdict and it was nearly eight o'clock last night when they filed into Judge Beggs' court and read their findings. In the absence of Mr. Metcalf, who we are told will ask for a new trial at the Judge's sitting this afternoon at 2 o'clock, Judge Beggs did not sentence Mr. Metcalf. County Solicitor George A. DeCottes was assisted in the prosecution by Attorney L. G. Starbuck. Later, in court Thursday morning, Judge Beggs fined Mr. Metcalf $15 and costs.—Reporter Star.

LAKI MARY MELANGE

Special Cor. to The Herald.
Orange growers are mourning the loss of some of the oranges as a result of the recent storm. The crop will be short this year, we learn.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel McBride are at home after five weeks trip to Wilmington, Delaware, Mr. McBride's former home and a side trip to New York. He reports that the clay and stone hills of the historic Brandywine Creek did him good.

Not to be outdone Lake Mary citizens have organized a Social and Industrial League, with Dr. W. H. Evans as president, A. E. Sjoblom, vice president; Mrs. Barney Ingersoll, treasurer and Samuel McBride, secretary. It is the aim of the League to improve Lake Mary in laying out walks, roads and planting trees, etc.

Wm. White of Philadelphia is visiting his sister, Mrs. Jones.

Lake Mary school has the largest number of scholars enrolled that it has had for several years. Miss Leonora Arnette of Longwood is the efficient teacher.

An entertainment of the school for the benefit of the same is to be held at the school house Saturday night.

Mrs. Mary Kendrick, who has been ill for weeks is very low and not much hopes are entertained for her recovery.

The election day has passed and the result is as follows: Drys, 8; Wets 15. A. E. Sjoblom was elected Justice of the Peace; J. G. Martin, constable. Some are still wondering who the Drys are. Can account for seven, but who can tell the eighth?

WEST SIDE ITEMS

Special Correspondence to The Herald:
Just give us a chance over on this side and we will come to the front with "flying colors", yet; the election is over and perhaps farming will get its full share of attention, one can look around and see how badly everything has been neglected. Farmers, get busy!

Mrs. A. B. Russel of Orlando has been visiting her mother, Mrs. J. S. Caldwell.

Dr. A. A. Armstrong of Fair Haven N. J. is spending the winter in Florida, and is very pleasantly located at the home of Mr and Mrs. L. C. Denmark.

We are delighted to see preparations for a much needed light at the bridge. It is very dark there and much danger of all kinds of accidents.

The Bide-a-Woo Club met at the home of Mrs. Crigal last week. It was the first time in several weeks, on account of sickness, that all the members, consisting of eighteen, were able to be present. All were so pleased and had so much to talk about that there was very little use for the thimbles that afternoon; however all

W. C. T. U. Reorganized

Last Thursday afternoon at the Baptist church, there was a meeting for the purpose of re-organizing the Woman's Christian Temperance Union.

Through the earnest efforts of Mrs. A. E. Phillips and a "faithful few" the W. C. T. U., has been held together for many years and accomplished much good in a quiet way. A number of new names have been enrolled for membership, a full set of officers elected, and the work will now be carried on with renewed zeal and enthusiasm. The W. C. T. U., is very broad in its many phases of work and study and will furnish the opportunity for educational advancement as well as real christian work. The study of social science will prove a helpful and interesting feature of the organization. The following officers were elected: President, Mrs. Wildman, Vice president from the different churches, Methodist Mrs. Henry Wight; Baptist Mrs. R. C. Maxwell; Presbyterian, Mrs. J. N. Whitner; Episcopal Mrs. A. D. Key; Congregational Mrs. G. B. Waldron; Recording Secretary, Mrs. W. H. Williams, Corresponding secretary Mrs. Geo. Fox Jr., Treasurer, Mrs D. C. Robb.

A New Work For Men

Last Sunday night, following the concert by the Sunday School children, was launched the new Brotherhood of the Peoples Congregational Church. While this Brotherhood will aim to strengthen all the activities of the church as now carried on, it is purposed to go much further by developing new opportunities for men in social and athletic lines. One of the plans of the near future is a reading and social room freely open to all members every day and evening of the week; where will be found daily, weekly and monthly papers and magazines that appeal to men, writing-tables, easy chairs, etc. Encouragement will also be given to athletic sports and events. It is hoped that the work will ultimately expand into some institution like the Young Men's Christian Association, so popular and useful in many of our cities. All men over sixteen years are eligible to membership in this new Brotherhood. A special committee is at work on the constitution to be reported at the next meeting of the Brotherhood Monday night next in the Congregational church at 7:30. All men who believe in helping along a thing of this sort are urged to be present that night, to join the organization and to help unite in plans that shall carry the movement forward to success.

State Committee Names Dates

The State Democratic Committee met in Jacksonville on the 11th inst., to straighten out the situation caused by the death of N. B. Broward, primary choice for the United States Senate. Twenty-four of the forty-seven counties were represented, and they ratified the decision of a former meeting of the committee to call the primaries for January 10 and 31 to nominate a successor to N. B. Broward.

The various counties will have to provide funds for the election and in case of failure there will be no primary in the county not providing funds. Many complications, one which is the payment of poll-taxes, was not touched upon by the committee. As far as practical results go, no positive decision was reached by the executive committee.

Rollins-University Football Game

The football team from the University of Florida defeated the Rollins College team on the Rollins grounds Saturday by a score of 38 to 0. Although the game was never in doubt, it was more interesting than the score would indicate. The Rollins boys, although outweighed and outplayed, fought every inch stubbornly, holding Florida repeatedly from downs, and twice taking the ball from their opponents inside their own five yard line. The University team was in fine condition, and played a game of football which it would be hard to beat, while the Rollins team was weakened by accident and sickness, which necessitated the substitution of several green players during the game.

Said to Him

"Jack you're the best fellow in the world, but you must pay more attention to your personal appearance. My friends make slighty remarks and it hurts."

There is a big difference in trying to be a "dandy" and looking "nice" all the time.

Some young men are simply careless, while others are afraid they can't afford good clothes. No matter what the reason may be, its time to get over it.

To-day, tomorrow or the day after, the "personal" appearance of a young man may decide his future. Not simply with the one girl, but with the business house contemplating employing hiring him.

It doesn't cost so much to look right, but that depends on where you get your clothes. The right materials draped to the figure properly and made in the mode of the present tick-o'-the-clock, afford the proper combination.

We have these very essentials, and its worth your while young man to come and "see" us and

Sanford Farm Items

Mr. Burke has the timber on the ground for his residence and has let a contract for clearing land.

Captain R. B. Smith and Richard Tingle of Georgia, both of whom have purchased in Sanford Farms division, have arrived at Monroe and will proceed to get busy on their places. They brought a fine pair of mules and wagon with them and are prepared to do teaming, plowing and harrowing for any one who may need their services.

Look out for the real estate man who has a package for you in the shape of a gold brick and if you dicker with him you will make the discovery after the "Hot" one has made his getaway.

If you want to dispose of your improved property, drop us a line or call in and list with us. We have a large correspondence and will be able to place properties that we can commend.

Agent J. W. Bell, now has a fine launch which he uses to come to Sanford when the mule is too tired to get about.

Some fine brands of knocking going the rounds now. If you are a new comer here and want to find out the status of the business from a losing viewpoint go to a man who has made a failure and he will string you a tale of woe that will do you for several moons. But if you want to hear of the other side go to the man who has made a success of growing vegetables and he will tip you off a few things that will do your heart good.

There is an element who do not want to see new settlers coming in. They take the narrow minded view that additional acreage will be cause of over production and over production is their ruin. This is a narrow selfish way to look at the matter, but those who do look at it in that manner never fail to make a hoot that can be heard some distance away.

Remember this is a vegetable growing community. Our whole town and the activities in the entire Celery Delta are based upon the growth and marketing of vegetables. No factories here to amount to anything. Just vegetables. We have hundreds of farmers, 2500 acres of land tilled, 2700 flowing artesian wells, a refrigerating plant with a hundred tons capacity per day, facilities for handling 4000 solid cars of vegetables per season and the lusty boys who get out and do the biz. Sissy Willies had better hike from the Celery Delta if they expect to find the dough hanging on the trees awaiting their august arrival. Get around and do things and you will make good. The Celery Delta is no place for a grouch or a liver that is out of whack.

Title Bond & Guarantee Company sold three of its five acre tracts last week. They come here, look the ground over and then go to Monroe to buy the farm.

Mrs. J. W. Bell received news this week that her brother who formerly resided in Belfast, Ireland, had died quite suddenly. Stress of circumstances are such that Mrs. Bell will not be able to go to the country of her birth at this time. She has the sympathy of the entire community.

Mr. Larry Vorce, red hot hustler from Omaha has his eight room house up and is now placing the finishing touches on it. Mr. Vorce is going ahead with his crops and the seven and one-half acres Title Bond & Guarantee Company cleared for him is looking fine.

We are having a great many calls for improved property of all kinds. If you want to sell or rent your house or land list it with us. We do things.

Remember, we have a place especially fitted up in our office where you can write your letters or drop in for a few moments rest. The pleasure will all be ours by your comfort. When in Sanford, make your headquarters with us.

We have renters for some houses and for rooms, furnished and unfurnished. Let us know what you have and we will send you tenants.

From the vast number of inquiries received by this company, Sanford surely will be the Mecca of half of the population of the North this winter.

IN FAVOR ROAD BONDS

Citizens of Sanford Held Meeting Tuesday Night

ACTIVE CAMPAIGN TO BE MADE

Question Will be Put Before the Voters in Plain Statement Before the Election

A citizens meeting was held in the parlors of the Sanford House Tuesday for the purpose of formulating ways and means to stimulate interest in the approaching bond election to be held on December 7th for the purpose of voting a bond issue of one million dollars, said money to be used in the construction of a system of trunk lines of brick highways through Orange county.

Addresses were made by Hon. J. N. Whitner, D. L. Thrasher, W. D. Holden, D. A. Caldwell, George H. Fernald, Norman DeForest and others who are prominently identified with the movement. It was clearly shown that this issue of one million dollar's worth of bonds invested in hard surfaced roads as projected would prove a splendid business investment, in that it would make accessible, now isolated sections of the county, would bring the various portions of the county into a closer commercial relation, would cause the sections now passed up by the settler to become valuable as farms and groves, would increase the population, increase commerce, increase taxable values on now isolated land and decrease the taxes on the lands now easy of access and which are practically bearing the entire burden of taxation.

It was further shown that by an equitable system of taxation throughout the county that the funds necessary to care for the interest account in connection with the bond issue, and to also care for the construction and maintenance of a complete system of clay laterals to connect with the brick trunk roads, could be constructed. It was further shown that the clay roads now on the main thoroughfares were put to such several usages that it was next to impossible to keep them in repair and that by relegating the clay to the portions of the county that are practically without a road of any kind would not only furnish those sections with a splendid convenience but would place the clay roads where they would last many times longer than they now last.

The meeting then went into executive session and committees were appointed to further the interests of the bond issue. The executive committee is composed of Hon. J. N. Whitner, B. A. Howard, Chas. H. Leffler, George H. Fernald and Thomas K. Bates. A sub-committee was appointed to draft a letter showing the fallacies of the arguments presented by the small number of citizens who do not favor the bonds. The members of this committee are Harry Ward, W. D. Holden, J. N. Whitner, D. L. Thrasher and Thomas K. Bates.

This letter will be mailed to each voter in the district covered by this committee which comprehends Sanford, Paola, Longwood, Upsala, Lake Mary, Monroe and possible Oviedo. The third committee was appointed to circulate a petition in favor of the bond issue and secure the signature of every voter in the above districts who are in favor of good roads and the natural development of Orange county. The members of this committee are D. M. Robinson, Norman DeForest, G. H. Leffler, J. O. Packard and F. F. Dutton.

At the close of the meeting a call was made for funds to carry on the campaign of education until the election and every person present subscribed liberally to the movement. The county commissioners are now constructing a piece of brick road on Celery avenue, in the edge of Sanford, similar to the roads they propose to build throughout the county. There will be about fifty yards of this sample road and it is earnestly hoped that every voter in the district will give it a thorough inspection before making a derogatory opinion as regards the bond issue.

Doudney-Vaughn

The marriage of Mr. Alexander Vaughn and Mrs. Bessie Downing Doudney was solemnized in the Episcopal church Tuesday morning at nine o'clock, the Rev. B. F. Brown officiating. The altar was pretty decorated with cut flowers, chrysanthemums and star jessamines being used very effectively. Though no invitations were issued and the wedding was a very quiet one, a large number of the friends of the contracting parties assembled in the church to witness the interesting event. Mrs. Fannie Munson presided at the organ and promptly at the appointed hour to the strains of the beautiful bridal march by Schubert the wedding party entered the church. The groom was unattended and entered from the vestry room, the others from the entrance and down the center aisle. The first attendants were Miss Flora Vaughn and Mr. Arthur Vaughn, daughter and son of the groom, coming in together followed by little Miss Abbie Doudney. Next came the bride leaning on the arm of her oldest son, Mr. Guernsey Doudney who gave her away. The bride wore a very becoming going away gown of blue voile, with silk trimmings and a stylish hat of the same pretty shade; the hat having a touch of white. The beautiful and impressive ring ceremony of the Episcopal ritual was used, and the bride and groom knelt at the altar where they plighted their troth, receiving the blessing from the minister who pronounced them man and wife. Immediately after the ceremony the happy couple drove to the depot and left on the East Coast train for a short wedding trip. After their return they will be at home to their many friends at their home at the south end of Park avenue. Mrs. Vaughn has resided in Sanford for many years and is much liked for the many charming traits that makes her a very attractive woman. Mr. Vaughn is an old resident of Sanford, and is one of the best known and most highly esteemed men in Orange County. At present he is on the board of county commissioners and a large land owner. Mr. and Mrs. Vaughn have many friends who will extend to them every good wish for joy and happiness in their wedded life.

At a large mass meeting held in Orlando, Wednesday Nov. 23rd., of representative citizens from over the entire county, the Anti-Saloon organization was continued intact with a slight change of the personnel. W. P. Watson, of Orlando, was elected county chairman and E. A. Curtis, sec'y and treasurer. N. P. Yowell, L. G. Starbuck, of Orlando, and D. L. Thrasher, and C. H. Leffler, of Sanford, as county executive committee, with power to add to such committee as many as necessary. The meeting was largely attended by Orange County's best business men, who are earnest and enthusiastic over keeping out the saloon. Hon. W. L. Palmer, made a very fine address outlining the situation from a sound business standpoint, which should be adopted in our coming campaign. We should by all means conduct our campaign with sound reason, and love and good will towards all men. We can all fight under this command, with victory assured.
