King George

 pire was released at 1:30 A. M. today by Buckingham Palace so it could be announced simultaneously in the parliaments of Australia and New Zealand that the royal tour of those countries set for 1949 had been abandoned.

The King's five physicians announced they had decided "that it would be hazardous for His Majesty to embark upon a long journey which might delay his recovery and which might well involve serious risk to a limb."

The official medical bulletin described the King's affliction as "an obstruction to the circulation of the legs which has only recently become acute." It said "a defective blood supply to the right foot causes anxiety." Newspapers and palace sources agreed this meant a blood clot.

King George will continue to discharge duties which can be handled from his office in the Palace. All outside appearances will either be abandoned or delegated to his wife, Queen Elizabeth; his daughters, Princess Elizabeth and Princess Margaret; and his son-in-law, Prince Philip, Duke of Edinburgh. News of the 52-year-old King's illness, his first serious ailment since 1917 when he underwent an operation for duodenal ulcer, eclipsed the empire's rejoicing at the birth of a son and possible future king to Princess Elizabeth a week ago.

Messages of condolence poured into the Palace from all quarters. While it was apparent that the King's present condition is not critical, there was no attempt to minimize the gravity of his ailment. The doctors who signed the bulletin were Sir Maurice Cassidy, an authority on heart trouble; Col. Sir Thomas Dunhill, head of the surgeons attached to the royal household and the man who performed a hernia operation last year on Winston Churchill; Prof. James Leagmouth, a specialist in brain surgery; Sir Morton Smart, an authority on diseases of the muscles and joints; and Sir John Weir, the King's family physician. They agreed that the King's condition was the result of "the strain of the past 12 years." George became King in 1936.

"He ascended the throne," commented the Times, "unprepared by any training for the succession, in a year of wars and no respite from anxiety as the world moved with accelerating pace to calamity."

 ing and Tientsin increased as the Reds took over Paoing. The Communist radio claimed the city yesterday, the government announced its evacuation today.

Without full air support for the defense of Suchow, the Nationalists were expected to be in for a rough time. The Communists apparently had regrouped and reformed completely after last week's heavy battering. They had been caught unprepared on the Suchow plain and the Nationalist Air Force blasted them in clear days and moonlight nights with bombers and fighter-bombers.

Eastward from Suchow, General Huang Po-Tao's Nationalist Seventh Army Corps was believed almost reduced to nothing. His forces took the full force of last week's Red assault in the defense of Nienchuang, 35 miles east of Suchow.

The official central news agencies said forces moving from Suchow to the relief of Huang's battered outfit were only about 10 miles away. But other sources said there seemed little hope that any appreciable number of Huang's troops still would be able to fight. Another government force, the 12th Army Corps, was working slowly toward Suchow from the southwest.

 comment on either action. Caldwell said he had understood the $800,000 previously released for the Lanterna sanatorium would bring the state $1,200,000 in federal matching funds and he was not in favor of releasing any more "at this late date" in his administration.

L. L. Lanier, business manager for the tuberculosis board, said the $800,000 with periodic federal payments, would keep the construction job going through next June, but he wondered about signing a $1,839,835 contract without full release of funds.

The Budget Commission released $250,000 of $378,277 requested by the University of Florida for $50,000 in salary increases, constructing an emergency computer power plant, replacing the roof on P. K. Young demonstration school, installing chairs and furnishing in the new gymnasium-auditorium, converting the old wooden gymnasium into a classroom and office building and miscellaneous renovation projects.

When the cabinet boards had finished setting on more than a hundred items of business, Warren Mason, Nathan Mayo, Warren Breen and Kenneth Thompson, from Thompson's home field at Waukesha, Wis., was a "straggler."

"Hundreds of men fought their way through the woods looking for him," Breen said. "And Les Schutte, the local pilot, risked his life by spending eight hours in the air during weather that turned back outside search planes. Something ought to be done about it."

Breen, who had been directing the search through remote snow-covered wilderness, said first word of Breen's whereabouts came from newspapermen who had been called by Ernie Roth, the singer's manager. The Sheriff sent deputies the 60 miles from Hayward to Giddens when he was unable to get a call through busy telephone circuits last night.

In a 45-minute telephone interview with the Associated Press today, Breen pleaded, "Get it right, will you? Tell everybody it wasn't a gag."

"We just were lucky enough to land the plane without hurting anything after we ran out of gas. We thanked God we got out of it."

GIDDENS, Wis., Nov. 23, (AP)—Sheriff William Sands said today that singer Bobby Breen's weekend disappearance was "a publicity gag that's going to require a lot of explaining."

But the 21-year-old former child movie star said, "Honest to God, there's nothing fidedy."

Breen and his pilot were located last night at the Northwestern Hotel here, where Breen registered Sunday night under the name of Benedict.

The Sheriff said yesterday's day-long search for the single-eyed Stinson monoplane which carried Breen and his pilot, Kenneth Thompson, from Thompson's home field at Waukesha, Wis., was a "straggler."

The delegation has been concentrating on drawing up answers on the currency problem for Argentine Foreign Minister Juan A. Bramuglia, November president of the Security Council.

These answers were said to be ready, except for minor details of the final draft. They were expected to be submitted by the U. S. in Paris later in the day. Russia answered last Saturday.

U. S. sources said that despite all the moves here to settle the case, the fact remains that Russia has shown no sign whatever of removing the Berlin blockade. Until the blockade is lifted the west will not agree to a settlement, these sources said.

The Berlin dispatch said the alleged statement of the AMG official indicated that attempts in the U. N. to resolve the Berlin situation along the lines set down in the Moscow directives are doomed to failure.

The Moscow directives outlined steps for currency control by the four powers. They were not carried out on the Berlin line. This control is the point on which Bramuglia and his five other "neutral" associates on the Security Council are now concentrating in an attempt to find a solution.

 ada in reaffirming support of the Nov. 29, 1947, division of the Holy Land between Arabs and Jews.

Jessup told the political committee the United States believes Israel should have the territory given her by partition, but should make concessions if she wants to keep other territory. Israel now has military control of the disputed Southern Negev Desert, which the Bernadotte Plan would turn over to the Arabs, and of Western Galilee, which Israel would get in exchange under that plan. The Negev was assigned to Israel and Western Galilee to the Arabs under the original U. N. partition.

Jessup said there are certain features common to both the Bernadotte Plan and the original partition plan, and that any territorial changes should take the Bernadotte report into account. Jessup added that the United States supports the British proposal for internationalizing Jerusalem.

Britain has contended Israel should not get the Negev, but has left the way open for amendments to the resolution. A British spokesman said American and British delegates were trying to reach a common policy in the middle east. The spokesman said the widest differences between the British and American positions was that the Americans wanted to give the proposed conciliation commission "more responsibility and less authority." He said the British feel the assembly should take the greater responsibility in defining a settlement in detail and the commission should get authority to carry out an assembly decision.

West Accused Of Wrecking Israel Plan

Russians Say U.S., British Oil And Military Interests Defeated Partition

By EDWARD CURTIS
PARIS, Nov. 24, (AP)—A Soviet bloc delegate said today British-American oil and military interests wrecked the United Nations partition plan for Palestine.

Andrei A. Galagan of the Soviet Ukraine told the General Assembly's No. 1 political committee that it should order troops from the neighboring Arab states of Egypt, Trans-Jordan, Syria, Lebanon and Iraq out of Palestine.

He said an independent Arab state should be set up alongside the new Jewish state of Israel and opposed giving the Arab section of the Holy Land to "the British puppet of Trans-Jordan."

British and American oil interests, Galagan said, have planned pipe lines in the Middle East that would be carrying 2,000,000 barrels of oil daily by 1952.

"It is essential for them to get Middle East oil," he said. "This may hold up a Palestine settlement. They have taken steps tantamount to wrecking the Nov. 29, 1947, partition plan."

"Who are the genuine authors of the Bernadotte report?" he asked.

The Ukrainian read reports he said were from American magazines and newspapers. These, he said, claimed that Robert M. Clinton of the U.S. State Department and Sir John G. Goble of the British Middle East office in (Continued on Page Six)

Berlin Money Plan West Agrees On

PARIS, Nov. 24, (AP)—The Big Three Western powers agreed today to let the Security Council neutrally examine a detailed Anglo-French project for currency controls in Berlin which was drafted last September. This decision was taken at a special meeting of the three Western delegates to the Security Council and their economic experts after a Paris newspaper, France-Soir, reported the Western Powers were split on this issue.

Spokesman for the American, British and French delegations all denied there was any difference among the Western nations except on what they describe as a secondary question of procedure. The spokesman said these Western replies on the currency issue were identical. In discussion of the joint reply, the British and French wished to submit a more detailed statement, but the Americans urged an earlier shorter reply. An American source said, and all three then adopted the American approach.

First Steps To Build Pool Taken By City

Commission Instructs Architect To Draw Plans And To Write All Specifications

The City Commission last evening authorized Donovan Dean, Lakeland architect, to prepare the necessary plans and specifications for a swimming pool at the City can call for bids for its construction.

This action on the long-deferred swimming pool project was taken by Mr. Dean had outlined and explained features of construction, including strength of a steel reinforced concrete block pool.

Acting Mayor Les P. Leber said that it was time that something was done to initiate action on the pool and Commission Pandell, O'Connell and John Kiefer agreed to defer location for the pool was decided upon, but it was tentatively agreed that it will be at the east end of Fort Mellon Park. Commissioner Andrew Caraway was absent.

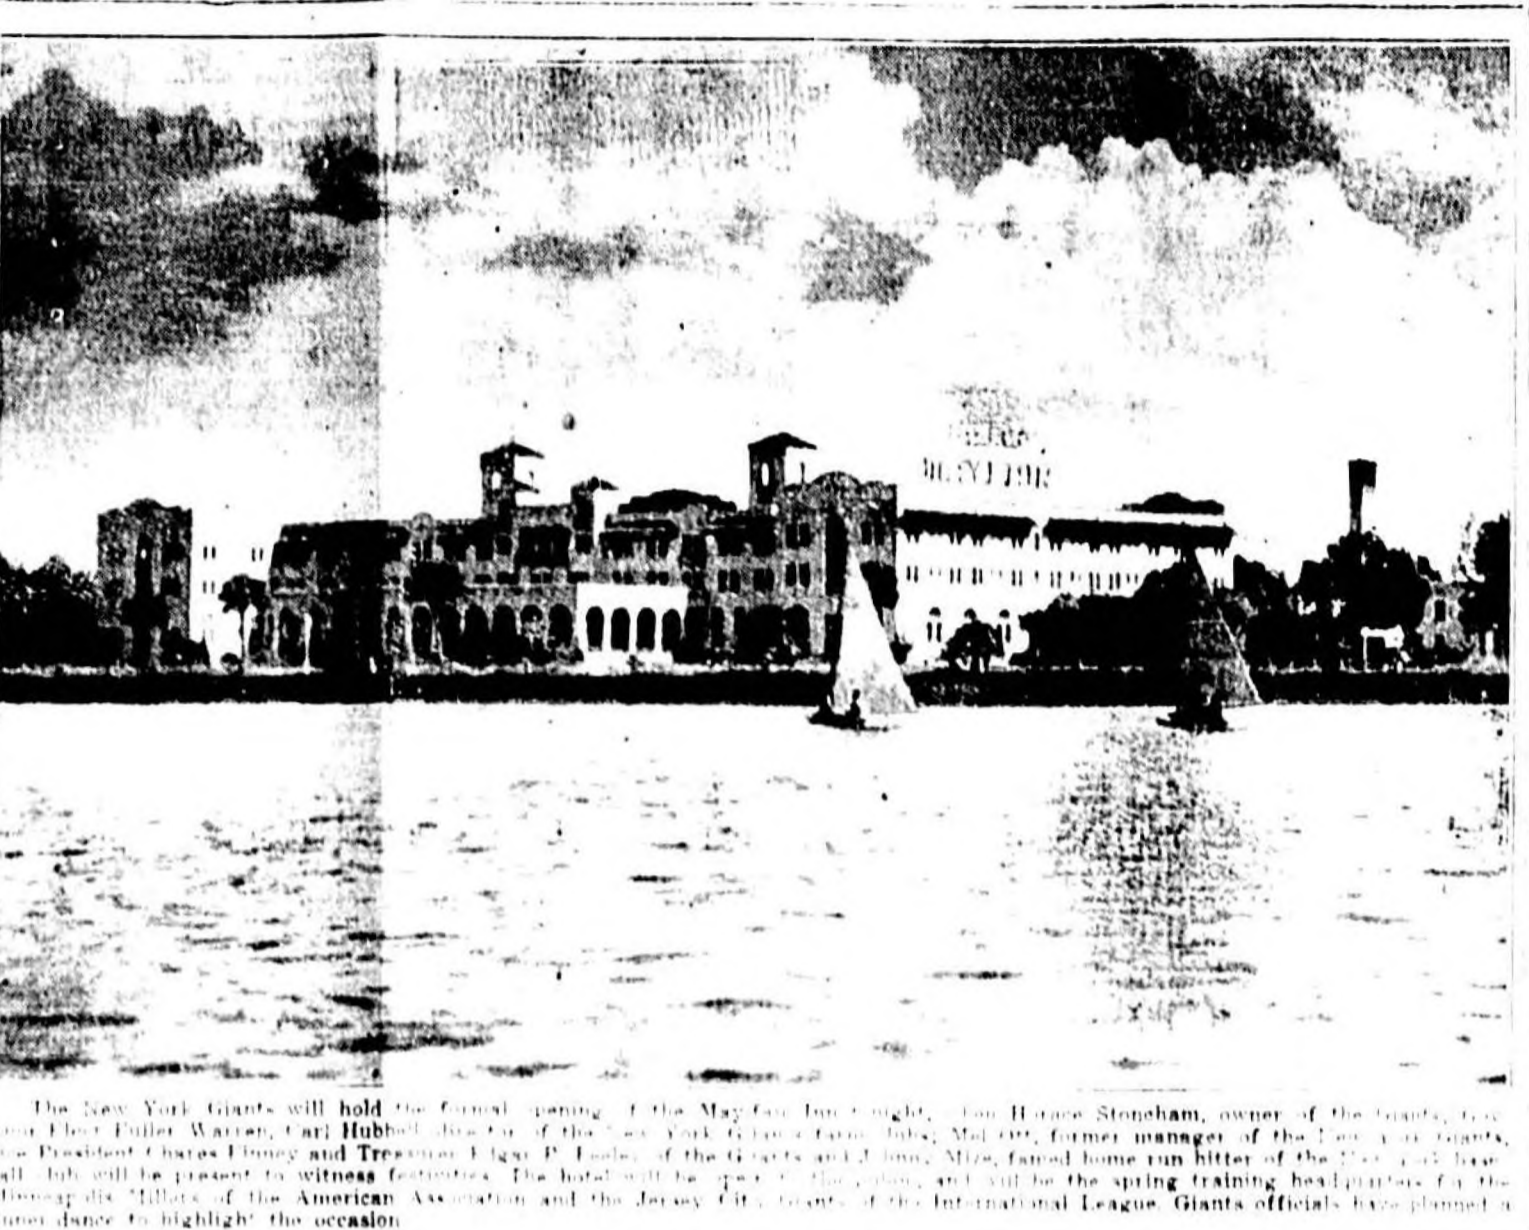

W. H. Stemper, nominee for City Commission, was present and was asked his opinion concerning the pool. He declared that he favored going ahead with the project. Les Raitigan in turn stated that the new pool would be vital in making any recreation program successful for youth a success, as evidenced by the interest that children showed in the lagging City recreation program when they were allowed the use of the Mayfair Inn pool.

City Manager H. W. Sawyer pointed out today that the complete block type of construction had been approved by the A. P. Michael engineering consultants of Orlando, and by Robert M. Angus, Jacksonville engineer. It will be required that the contractor guarantee the pool against construction defects for at least one year. A tentative plan call for a 36 by 100 foot, above the ground pool shallow at one end and deep at the other, and with dressing rooms under the promenade deck. The cost has been estimated at $10,000 to $12,000 and will be defrayed by City recreation funds. Concrete will be poured into the pool, the same blocks and steel reinforcement will be both vertical and horizontal.

Action was deferred on the rezoning ordinance, placed on its first reading on Nov. 4 of the six lots at the southeast corner of French Avenue and Eighteenth Street, which have been purchased from the Speer brothers by the County School Board, which now holds the deed to the property.

The purchase of the property by the Schools was authorized by the State Board of Instruction. Superintendent W. A. Weston said this morning, and was tentatively approved by the County Board, pending state (Continued on Page Six)

Koo Appeals To Truman To Assist China

President Receives Chinese Ambassador Following Discussion With Marshall

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
WASHINGTON, Nov. 24, (AP)—Chinese Ambassador Wellington Koo appealed to President Truman today for American moral and material aid for the hard-pressed Chinese Nationalist government.

Koo said he was "encouraged" by the White House interview, but he declined to say on what he based his encouragement.

Mr. Truman received Koo after holding his second foreign affairs conference of the week with Secretary of State Marshall a little earlier. The White House did not disclose any details of the Truman-Marshall talk.

Koo said Mr. Truman "has been well informed about the situation and has shown a most sympathetic attitude toward the Nationalist Government."

He also said that he had been assured that the United States would continue to support the Nationalist Government in the present struggle.

Koo said he had been assured that the United States would continue to support the Nationalist Government in the present struggle.

While President Truman was at the White House, he was also interviewed by a group of reporters. He said that he had received a personal letter from Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek.

It is generally understood that the Chinese leader asked for public statement of American support for the Chinese government, which is fighting against the Communist forces. Koo in effect requested that appeal.

Meanwhile Chinese Communists were believed by neutral observers to be pressing a tactical retreat, avoiding a final, all-out assault on the Nationalist government.

Public Apology, $300 Is Price To Be Paid By Breen

HAYWARD, Wis., Nov. 24, (AP)—A public apology and about $300 is the price alder Bobby Breen will pay for the 36 hours a posse spent slogging through snow-choked forests looking for him while he relaxed at a hotel under an assumed name.

The apology—Breen's idea—was issued early today. The money—Sawyer County District Attorney Winslow Davis' bill—is payable at once.

Breen spent most of yesterday explaining to Ashland and Sawyer County authorities why he didn't do a little harder to report his whereabouts after his chartered plane was forced down Sunday. The plane was piloted by Kenneth Thompson of Waukesha, who remained with Breen at a Glidden hotel while searching parties combed the wilderness of the ground and a flyer dared hazardous (Continued on Page Three)

Civil Rights Is Misrepresented, Pepper Declares

Senator Assests His Party's Carrying Out Demo Platform

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24, (AP)—Senator Pepper (D-Fla.) said today that the civil rights program has been grossly misrepresented by the press.

He said the program would not include any rights, and added that the proposed civil rights program would only be to create a commission to study the situation of the Negroes in the United States.

Pepper said he feared carrying out the program would be a disaster.

Nearly 50 Cities Act To Ban Sale Of Some Comic Books

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24, (AP)—Nearly 50 cities have taken steps today to ban the sale of comic books deemed objectionable. The United States Conference of Mayors reported today.

The conference said in a statement that this is the result of "increasing and persistent" demands by parents, church and civic leaders for city governments to do something about the problem.

In making public the results of a survey, the conference said it found most cities have sought the cooperation of wholesalers and dealers "in some plan of voluntary control or self-censorship."

Adopted or pending in a number of other cities are ordinances and resolutions to set up official censorship committees or impose legal controls.

The conference noted that the (Continued on Page Three)

Demand For Hunting Licenses Increases

With the search for deer, turkey, quail, squirrel and marsh hens starting at dawn today as the hunting season opened, the sale of hunting licenses has increased at the office of County Judge B. W. Ware, where yesterday 27 county and 118 state licenses were sold.

Last year on the day before the hunting season started, 68 county and 104 state licenses were sold. A summary of hunting and fishing rules may be secured at Judge Ware's office. The season for duck, goose and coot will be open on Dec. 10. The first five days of the present season will be open for hunting and closed on Monday and Tuesday thereafter.

The days bag limit is one buck deer with one or more horns of not less than five inches; two turkeys, 10 quail, 12 eat squirrels, three fox squirrels, 50 marsh hens. Only two deer and four turkeys may be shot by the hunter during the season.

World Bill Of Rights Proposed For Children By Health Group

By MICHAEL GOLDSMITH
GENEVA, Nov. 24, (AP)—Adoption of a far-reaching world bill of rights for children has been proposed to the United Nations by the World Health Organization.

The draft bill is expected to come before the next general assembly of the United Nations. It declares it is "the duty of every nation" to meet the obligations detailed in the seven articles of the bill.

The WHO draft proposes:

1. "The child must be protected irrespective of considerations of race, nationality, religion, political belief, economic or social condition."
2. "The child must be given the means requisite for his normal physical, mental and social development, including the provision of adequate housing, nutrition and education."
3. "The child has a right to the best care of his health, which is a state of complete physical, mental and social well-being, and not merely the absence of disease or infirmity."
4. "The child should live within a family in an atmosphere of love and security, which is inseparably the best environment for his development."

C of C President Calls For Overhaul Of U. S. Tax Laws

ALBANY, N. Y., Nov. 24, (AP)—The Chamber of Commerce of the United States called today for an overhaul of the country's tax laws.

In a speech prepared for an Albany Chamber of Commerce meeting, Shreve said that the present tax structure "discourages risk-taking through equity (Continued on Page Three)

Schools, Businesses To Be Closed Thursday To Observe Thanksgiving

Sanford citizens will rest Thursday from their regular pursuits to observe the Thanksgiving holiday, and places of business will be closed, and special services will be held in churches throughout Seminole County.

During the morning hours of from 9:30 to 10:30 o'clock Union Thanksgiving services will be held at the First Methodist Church, and the Rev. H. L. Zimmerman, pastor of the Holy Cross Episcopal Church, will deliver the Thanksgiving address.

Members of all churches are invited to attend the service which will be held under direction of the Sanford Ministerial Association. Special hymns of Thanksgiving will be sung by the Methodist Church choir. The Rev. Zimmerman, the speaker, arrived a month ago from Huntingdon, Pa. to assume the rectorate of the Episcopal Church.

Offices at the City Hall, and Court House will be closed for the holiday. The Post Office will be closed and no regular or rural mail will be delivered. Special delivery mail and perishables will be delivered, and mail will be boxed. The Herald will have an early edition.

Stores were due to remain open all day today, in order to permit shopping prior to the holiday. Local groceries are vivid with the colors of fruits and vegetables, and some have bright bouquets of golden and white flowers at entrances. Meat counters which during war time became nearly empty now are full of steaks, (Continued on Page Two)

GETS DOUBLE BARGAIN

NEW YORK, Nov. 24, (AP)—A Brooklyn housewife got a double bargain in Gimble's Department Store yesterday.

Mrs. Stella Panga, 50, gave birth to a baby girl in the store's infirmary and immediately afterwards store officials announced they were giving her a layette free.

Mother and baby are now doing nicely in a Brooklyn hospital.

BEAUTY WORKSHOP

TALLAHASSEE, Nov. 24, (AP)—A two-week workshop and clinic for training Florida beauty shop operators and cosmetology teachers will open at Florida A. & M. College for Negroes Nov. 26.

The state department of education and the state board of beauty culture will cooperate with the college in putting on the course.

TRAIN DERAILED

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., Nov. 24, (AP)—Three cars of the Southern Railway's Tennesseean were derailed near Fackler, Ala., at about 8:30 A. M. today, the company's office here announced.

The announcement said no passengers received serious injuries and that the train continued to Chattanooga after a delay of approximately four hours.

PARIS STOLEN

A set of air horns valued at $55 and a defroster worth $80 were stolen during the night from a produce truck parked at Second Street and Oak Avenue. Access to the interior of the truck was made through ventilation whereby the door was opened. Charles Richardson is the driver of the truck, said Police Chief Roy G. Williams.

POPE GOES TO VATICAN

VATICAN CITY, Nov. 24, (AP)—Pope Pius XII will return to the Vatican Saturday after four months at Castel Gandolfo, it was announced today.

The Pope will participate in spiritual exercises beginning Sunday for the pontifical court in preparation for the Christmas season.

FBI Arrests Man For Aiding Fugitive

MIAMI, Nov. 24, (AP)—The Federal Bureau of Investigation reported today the arrest of James C. Charles, 28, for harboring and aiding a fugitive to escape from this country.

Crawford H. Carson, FBI agent in charges, said Charles gave his former employer, Harold A. Brand, $25 in an effort to prevent his discovery and arrest by the FBI in connection with the national stolen property act.

Carson said Brand is charged with transporting a stolen diamond bracelet valued at $24,000 from Philadelphia to Atlantic City, where he was an auction gallery operator. Carson said Brand also is accused of concealing assets in contemplation of bankruptcy. The FBI official said the man fled to Europe.

BIBLE VERSE TODAY

WITHOUT THE ICE AND THE COLD IN THE FAR NORTH,
 HUMANITY COULD NOT EXIST
 ON THIS PLANET. ALL PARTS OF GOD'S PLANS ARE NECESSARY.
 He can't forth His ice like morsels; who can stand before His cold?—Ps. 147:17.

Another good thing about Thanksgiving is that you are so apt to over-eat and get indigestion that you almost die, and while writhing in the throes of abdominal pains, you have an opportunity to consider the status of the world objectively and to ponder its plight from a new perspective. It is better to accept those ills we have than to fly to others we know not of.

People of Sanford have special reason to be interested in reported progress on the construction of the Coosa River newspaper mill near Childersburg, Ala. Not only is this the forerunner of gigantic new industry for the South which may some day be one of its greatest assets, but also it will be supplying the paper upon which your daily news will be printed.

In Des Moines, Iowa, a farm state which surprised depositors when it went for Truman in the recent election, the news leaks out about one family which has been on relief for 14 straight years receiving from the government without work of any kind as much as a thousand dollars a month. What has happened in Iowa has happened in thousands of cases all over the United States. We wonder why these is a shortage of labor, and yet we pay people not to work more money than they could earn in some legitimate occupation.

The House Un-American Activities Committee says that the churches have become a Communist target. Of course they have. So have the newspapers, the radio, the movie industry and the labor organizations. So is everything else that is anything or stands for anything in this country. The Communists are active and energetic.
 While many of us are sleeping, they are busy, infiltrating, getting in anywhere they can do the most harm. That is why the churches, as well as every other worthwhile organization, will have to be constantly on guard.

We hope the public will take seriously the remarks of Highway Patrolmen R. D. Harrison who spoke on highway safety at the Rotary Club Monday. A whole new class of people are rapidly becoming automobile drivers, a class of people who before the war could not become automobile drivers because they could not afford it. Now every one can afford a car, and as fast as they become available everyone is becoming a driver, whether he knows how to drive or not. The next session of the legislature will have to strengthen the requirements for drivers' licenses, stiffen the penalties for reckless driving, or the lives of everyone will be endangered.

Intelligent negroes should ponder the federal court ruling on segregation in the University of Oklahoma, as well as the plight of an Ambrose College fraternity which sought to admit a negro to its inner councils. Does it profit a man to seek to force his way into a group where he is not wanted? Whether the objection to him arises out of a blind prejudice against the color of his skin, the slope of his forehead, or the way he chews his food, there is nothing to be gained from associating with people you do not like, or who do not like you.
 Whether bucking the current of human emotions, fighting continuously against human nature, resisting to admit fundamental truths, or the way to a happy fruitful life,
 we seriously doubt the wisest man, and generally the most useful man, is the one who seeks the best of all ways to make his life

Civic Organizations

That was a most encouraging and enthusiastic meeting which the Merchants Association held the other night at the Mayfair Inn. When President Morrison reminds us that local bank deposits have increased from $2,319,000 to $7,940,000 in the past seven years, that postal receipts have jumped from $46,274 to $307,404, that there is not a single box for rent at the Post Office and that more space is needed for the Christmas business, there is ample justification for optimism.

Just how much of this growth should be credited to the Merchants Association or other organizations like it we are not prepared to say, but we firmly believe that all of them are playing a vital part in the progress of our community. One cannot hear the report on the vast range of activities engaged in by the Merchants Association during the past year without coming to a realization that without it, and without the other civic organizations which are also striving to build a better community, Sanford would become hopelessly stagnated.

It is not always easy to discern at any one of these meetings that progress is being made. It is seldom that we can come away from a merchants' meeting, or a Chamber of Commerce meeting and headline a story, "Tourist Advertising Authorized," "Housing Project Is Begun." We, too, sometimes become discouraged that not much is being done. And yet, as we look at it collectively from year to year and compare the Sanford of today with ten years ago, we can see that progress is being made. Giant oaks from little acorns grow.

Those who have had a part in Sanford's civic organizations, especially those who have accepted the responsibility of leadership, are showing the civic pride and community spirit which great cities and great nations are made. As Mr. Keith said the other night, "It is just as important to clean up your own backyard as to lead the Fourth of July parade and the man who doesn't take an interest in the welfare of his town lacks the vital thing which makes a true patriot."

Nuts And Bolt

Something really important has been accomplished in the agreement among Great Britain, the United States and Canada to standardize the threads of nuts, bolts and screws. Probably it had never occurred to most persons that a British nut will not fit on an American bolt, but every mechanic and machinist who has worked with imported machines knows it.

Probably never has so small a matter caused so much trouble—the difference is only five degrees in the angle of the threads. This has meant that when machinery or anything else put together with bolts or screws was exported from one country to the other, a supply of spare parts from the country where it was made also had to be shipped to ensure maintenance. Many a piece of equipment has been held idle for many weeks while a repair part was brought from overseas. Equipment ordered on contract for export sometimes has been made according to the screw thread standard of the customer, involving special tools.

During the recent war the disadvantages were very evident, restricting the interchange of parts for weapons, vehicles and other paraphernalia of war.

It will take time to put the agreement into effect, but in the end, American, British and Canadian machines will appear with interchangeable nuts and bolts. Most Americans will not notice the change, for the American thread has been specified as the standard.

Warren Sought Florida Chair For 30 Years

By MALCOLM B. JOHNSON
 TALLAHASSEE, Nov. 24.—(AP)—Faller Warren has aimed at the governorship of Florida for 30 years. He will reach his goal with inauguration Jan. 4.

The Jacksonville lawyer with a gift for keeping himself before the public started his long political pull by winning a seat in the state legislature a few months after he reached voting age and while still a student at University of Florida.

From then on, he didn't stop running until he was elected to succeed Millard F. Caldwell, who is barred by the state constitution from serving two consecutive terms as governor.

Warren's Democratic nomination last May assured him of the governorship, but while awaiting the formality of election over a Republican opponent he plunged into a series of public hearings and studies on questions that will confront him.

He flew to California to seek information to help bring back prosperity to a sick Florida orange and grapefruit industry.

He flew home with a lot of economic data—and the promises of several movie leaders to come to an inaugural show he wants to be the biggest in history as a means of making people more aware of their government.

Warren campaigned on a platform that included a pledge to work for reduced costs of government, better conservation of natural resources and laws requiring fencing of livestock (which now may roam at large on highways).

His father, a school teacher, died when he was a child. His mother was a pioneer home demonstration agent.

His sister, Alma Warren, will be his official hostess. He has been twice divorced.

He made his first formal bid for the governorship in 1940, ran third. But kept on running.

He didn't let up even while serving as a Naval gunnery officer on a merchant ship during the war. Every port he hit he looked up Florida boys and wrote

THE WORLD TODAY
 By DEWITT MACKENZIE
 AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

The serious arterial ailment of King George VI of Britain (for one gathers that the term "serious" is justified) is a matter of more than ordinary concern, since it comes in the midst of a great crisis in the history of the empire and commonwealth.

It is at moments like this that we view the ruler in the light of a symbolic figure whose kingship is the chief bond which has held the vast Commonwealth together. That bond is a delicate one, whose strength comes largely from the character of the wearer of the crown.

It's tough on a fellow to be regarded as a symbol when he is all that's left of a time when he doesn't wear a crown, but plain, garden variety of sympathy—and happily in the present instance the king is getting not only respect but the very sympathy to which he is entitled because of service to his people.

King George is what my young son would call a "good guy." That's as apt a description as I could figure out for his willing and humble servant of his subjects, and I've been watching him in action for 32 years, much of that time at close range.

We can go further, I think, and say without exaggeration that George VI has rendered his country a greater service than perhaps any of his modern predecessors in the long line of British sovereigns. That's a sweeping statement, but I call your attention to this:

George was thrust suddenly upon the throne at a moment when Edward VIII and "the woman I love" had rucked it most dangerously. These are perilous days for kings, and Edward threw stones at the gods.

So George came into a somewhat doubtful heritage. To make matters worse the nation shortly was plunged into a second world war and this was followed by an economic crisis which has shaken England to the foundations.

A less steady and adaptable and loyal ruler could easily have completed the damage growing out of the abdication.

George's demands long and special training. George naturally had been given some of this as a possible occupant of the throne, but it was Edward, Prince of Wales, who had been schooled with utmost care from babyhood for rule. Probably no British king in history had such extensive and intensive training as he did—and he might have made a mighty name for himself. But the call upon George was wholly unexpected, and he lacked his brother's background.

However, George VI attacked his job with good-will and energy. And always by his side was his understanding and helpful Scots queen. With her aid he even overcame a grievous impediment of speech so that he could make the addresses which are part of the King's duty.

Thus it is that, on this trouble of illness descends on the House of Windsor, we find the King and the Royal family exceedingly close to the people. Ample evidence of this was seen in the affection showered on the minutes of Buckingham Palace when Princess Elizabeth's baby was born the other day. George, the prince belongs to every family in the kingdom.

The gravity of the king's malady is clearly shown by cancellation of his proposed tour of the dominions. That has been regarded as a tremendously important mission, especially in view of the changes which the empire is undergoing. Only a major difficulty could cause abandonment of this trip.

 Honorable City Commission
 Sanford, Florida
 Re: Bus line and taxi price fix

Dear Sirs:

I had intended to be present at your meeting tonight to represent my clients, in connection with the above subject, but find that the meeting has been postponed until Tuesday, when I will be out of town, and I therefore take this opportunity to present to you my clients position.

On November 19th in "The Sanford Bulletin" there is headlined a story "Bus Service Still In Doubt". "Elimination of Unfair Competition Asked". In the above story S. A. Allen stated that he did not want to meet the same fate as three previous bus lines "namely, that of having too much unfair competition as to cause failure of his service."

The public generally, by these kind of stories printed in newspapers, is being greatly misinformed by Mr. Allen, in that, Mr. Allen came into Sanford and opened a taxi business in competition with local people who have driven taxis here for years well knowing that the city ordinance provided for a minimum fare of $1.00 and a maximum fare of $5.00 per person within the City limits of the City of Sanford.

Knowing this to be true, Mr. Allen has unsuccessfully sought to get other taxi operators to agree with him to raise taxi fares within the City limits.

Being unsuccessful in these efforts, he now seeks to open a bus line to which all local taxi operators at the recent meeting of the City Commission had no objection, but in opening his bus line he wants to raise taxi fares by zoning the City and making the minimum rate $25 for fifteen blocks and a higher rate for further distances claiming that unless the City raises taxi fares his bus line cannot survive or meet taxi competition.

Mr. Allen well knew of the existing ordinance at the time he applied for his bus line, yet he now seeks to penalize the people of Sanford by raising taxi fares by ordinance in order to prevent people from riding in taxis at $15 and forcing them to ride his buses at $10. This smacks of monopoly for Mr. Allen and not unfair competition in any respect. It further leaves the people no choice but to ride the bus at the price of $10 against riding a taxi at the price of $25 if Mr. Allen's proposed ordinance is passed, whereas under present price citizens may ride in taxis for $1.00 or on the bus for $10 according to their desires.

We call this to your attention in order that the people may be informed of the coming incident in which Mr. Allen is attempting to eliminate local taxi operators and secure all of the business for himself.

We charge this to be true because Mr. Allen is attempting to raise taxi rates within the City limits, and is now and has steadfastly in the past cut taxi rates for out of city transportation in order to take business away from our local taxi operators connected with out of city limits fares.

Mr. Allen therefore wants to

Negro Group Sets $1,000 TB Goal

A goal of $1,000 was set Monday evening by the Negro Committee of the Seminole County Tuberculosis and Health Association to aid the Association in its fight against tuberculosis.

This program was decided upon at a meeting of the Negro Division held at the Afro-American Life Insurance office, Dr. C. C. Kingling, president of the Negro TB Committee declared, "The work of the TB Association is vitally important to our people and we feel a real responsibility toward helping the Association reach its goal."

Montee Harris is general sales chairman for the County Negro Division. She has urged that negroes buy and use Christmas seals and in this manner help to carry on the far reaching program of the Association. The seals have been prepared for mailing and will be placed in the mail within the next few days.

Hollywood

HOLLYWOOD, Nov. 24—(AP)—It's Bud Abbott's lament: Consider the plight of the straight man.

Lou Costello is the more prominent member of the Abbott and Costello team, in more ways than one. All eyes are on the comic, and he's the one that draws the laughs. But where would he be without Abbott?
"Lou is the funniest man in the world," admits Bud, "when he wants to be." Meaning: when Bud is "feeding" him.

Feeding is special craft in show business. A feeder is the mug who tosses straight lines to the comics. Amos feeds Andy. George Burns feeds Gracie; Harry Stafford feeds Baby Snooks. You get the picture.
"I trained for this job for a long time," Bud confided on the "Africa Screams" set.
"I was in show business before Lou was born. I worked with many comics in burlesque, waiting for the right one to come along. When I saw Lou, I said 'this is it!'"

Bud declared there are only a few comedians, such as Milton Berle, Joe E. Lewis and Henry Youngman, who can do single acts. The others need feeders. He cited that as the reason the late Rags Ragland never clicked in the movies.
As evidence of his craft, Bud declared, "I know every move of Lou's body. I know just how he is going to react. When we go out on the stage of the Roxy Theater in New York, we have a camera man who can choose from any of the thousand routines and I'll have the questions for him."

Success is a matter of the straight man's timing, he added. "I can make anyone a comedian—even you."
As a demonstration, Bud tried out the "who's on first" routine. All I had to do was answer "who," "what" or "I" in response to Bud's rapid-fire questions. The results were hilarious, at least to me.

For proof of Bud's indispensability, he cites "The Little Giant," in which the duo did no routines together. It was their worst film grosser.
Bud doesn't worry about his partner's getting the lion's share of the spotlight. They are so closely identified as a team that even when one of them walks down a street, someone will remark, "There goes Abbott and Costello."

"Besides," the straight man smiled, "we split the take 50-50."
Hollywood sighs and sounds. Cecil B. DeMille using a public address system to coach William M. Cagney and Hedy Lamarr in an intimate "Samson and Delilah" scene. . . . Abbott and Costello rushing to a pool game between scenes. . . . A photograph of a constant program of music outside Betty Grable's

Miss Williams Weds Rev. C. G. Swaggerty

Miss Betty Jean Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. Williams of Lake Monroe, became the bride of Rev. Charles G. Swaggerty, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Swaggerty also of Lake Monroe, last Sunday at 3:00 P. M. The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. G. L. Brainard at the Lake Monroe Baptist Church before a large group of friends and relatives.

The church was beautifully decorated with white gladioluses and fern with lighted candles furnishing illumination for the ceremony. The candles were lighted by Herman Swaggerty and Joseph Warren.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attractively gowned in a soft blue suit, her flowers were white roses.

The bridal couple was attended by Miss Virginia Swaggerty, sister of the bridegroom, and Ennis Williams, brother of the bride. Miss Swaggerty wore a suit of light gray gabardine with a white rose bud corsage.

Following a wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Swaggerty will return to the home of Mrs. W. C. Hill at 2300 Mellenville Avenue. Mr. Swaggerty is employed as a bookkeeper for Raymond Bell, realtor, and Mr. Swaggerty is bookkeeper for the Sanford Oviedo Truck Growers.

World Bill

The orphan and the waif must be sheltered and succored. The child must be the first to receive relief in times of distress.

"The child must enjoy the full benefits provided by social welfare and social security schemes. The child must receive, through the discovery and development of his individual abilities, a training which will enable him, at the right time, to earn a livelihood and to conduct his life so as to become a responsible member of society."

"The child must be protected against every form of exploitation and must be provided with adequate recreation, leisure and rest."
"The child must be brought up in the consciousness that his maximum of achievement and satisfaction will be gained by the devotion of his energy and talents to the service of his fellowmen. The ability to live harmoniously in a changing total environment is essential to the healthy development of the child, and must be promoted. The child must be given opportunity and encouragement to assume social responsibilities at first in his family and later in the local, the state and the international community."

The draft, as drawn up by the WHO did not specify up to what age children should be regarded as entitled to the rights conveyed by the bill.

Association of Comics Magazine Publishers has been set up by the industry to do a self-policing job. It said, however, only 13 of the 35 publishers have so far agreed to abide by an adopted code.

The code, among other things, would bar "sexy, wanton" pictures, "sordid, vulgar and obscene language, and ridicule of or attack on any religious or racial group in comic books. The code also said "crime should not be presented in such a way as to throw sympathy against law and justice."

The conference said that Los Angeles County, Terre Haute, Ind., and Tacoma, Wash., were the first localities to enact laws to regulate comic books.

Other regulatory ordinances are pending before city councils in Cleveland, Cincinnati, New York, New Orleans, San Francisco and Kansas City. Among the latest cities to set up censorship committees, the conference said, are Oneida City, N.Y., and East Hartford, Conn.

Mrs. J. C. Mitchell of Sanford, Mrs. Tom Kirkland and children Tommy and Joan left today for Montezuma and other points in Georgia where they plan to spend the Thanksgiving weekend with relatives.

Judge Turns Tables In Divorce Suit

ATLANTA, Nov. 23.—For years, Judge Virlyn B. Moore has been a sympathetic ear toward those who want a divorce from their wives.

He has heard literally thousands of such cases so many that he is considered a local authority on matrimonial woes.

In court yesterday the judge crossed the hall to take the witness stand and ask for a divorce from his wife of 10 years and custody of their seven-year old daughter.

Judge Moore charged he made only $13,500 a year and his wife spent $20,000.

Mrs. Moore, asking for alimony, asserted the judge considered the marriage "more of a business arrangement" than a family relationship. She said he was always "fussing" about finances.

The court took the case under advisement.

Mayfair Opens With Dinner - Dance Tonite

The Mayfair Inn, recently purchased by the New York Giants will be formally opened for its winter season tonight with a dinner and dance which will be attended by many prominent officials of the organization including Horace Stoneham, president; Edgar P. Feely, treasurer; Mel Ott, John Mize, Carl Hubbell and Hal Gruber, manager of the local club.

Other well known dignitaries expected to attend are Governor-elect Fuller Warren, Frank Winchell, manager of the Tourist and Convention Bureau of Jacksonville Hotels, Senator B. C. Pearce of Palmetto, L. Bernard, State Hotel Commissioner, and Congressman-elect A. S. Herlong.

About 300 reservations have been received for the occasion which will begin with the serving of cocktails at 6:00 o'clock in the large lobby of the hotel. Dinner will be served in the main dining room beginning at 7:30 o'clock. Dancing will begin at 9:00 o'clock in the lovely ballroom overlooking the lake to the music of Paul Cella and his seven-piece orchestra. Miss Nancy Mae Hogle, Forecaster, Mass., who is spending the winter in DeLand, is the vocalist for the Coble orchestra and was heard over Radio Station WTRR last summer.

Lewis O. Doty, manager, stated this morning that he has received wonderful cooperation from the people of Sanford in preparing for the opening, and thanked all those who had helped in making a success of plans for the coming season.

New furniture has been added to the lobby of the inn and the third story has been completely furnished. Mr. Doty, who was formerly with the Hotel Stevens in Chicago, was ably assisted by Mrs. Doty with decorations and the winter quarters for New York Giants and will also accept reservations for seasonal guests.

Rain, Cloudy Weather Predicted Tomorrow

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.—(AP)—Rain or cloudy weather is in store for many parts of the nation on Thanksgiving Day.

Show will hit some sections of the Midwest and the northern half of Florida, but sunny and mild in Florida, the Gulf states and California.

Here's the forecast from the Weather Bureau today:
The weather on Thanksgiving Day will be rather cloudy over a large area of the Eastern and Northern States. Snow flurries will occur in Nebraska, Eastern Dakota, and in the northern Rockies. Rain is expected in western Washington and Northwest Oregon by Thursday but sunny skies and mild temperature will prevail in Florida and the Gulf states westward through the Rockies and California. Seasonal temperatures are expected throughout the United States but some colder weather will move into the northern plains during the day.

Senator Prepares

The senator said the South has done little to aid the negro despite criticism which has been directed at the area.

It is his desire, he said, to give the country a true picture of the situation and correct what he called the prevailing erroneous opinion that nothing is being done to help the negro.

When he launched his plan, Stennis wrote all southern governors that it is his purpose to show that our southern states have realized and accepted their responsibilities with respect to solution of the South's economic and social problems peculiar to our section and which must be solved successfully locally.

The governors were told that the information they sent would be used for a public statement and not for any political purpose. Replies from the governors indicate they favor the idea.

Seminole-Leesburg To Tangle In Grid Game Here Tonight

Deal And Dunbar Are Named Co-captains; Contest Is Annual Homecoming Affair

By ARTHUR BECKWITH, JR., Herald Sports Editor

Traditional rivalry between the Seminole High School Celery Feds and the Leesburg Yellow Jackets will be at its peak tonight for Seminole's annual homecoming game at the local football field when the two clubs meet at 8:15 o'clock.

Coach Carl Kettles sent his charges through a lengthy drill yesterday to set up defense patterns for the double wing attack employed by the Jackets. "We are looking for some mighty tricky things to come from Coach Floyd Jagers' boys," Kettles said this morning.

The Feds will be at full strength for the contest, except for right end Wally Tyre, who will sit on the sidelines tonight due to a sprained foot. "Otherwise we will be in good condition for the game," Kettles added.

The Seminole aggregation will be fighting for second place in the East Florida Conference standings. The Feds have won five and lost one in conference competition.

while the Sand Crabs of Daytona Beach have topped four and dropped two in the East Florida circuit. Sanford must win the contest tonight to remain on the second rung of the ladder.

The local aggregation has at least one more game to play. They will meet the Ocala eleven in Ocala on Dec. 3 in an out of conference battle.

Miss Mary Kenis and Miss Marilyn Messler will be Seminole High School sponsors for tonight's contest, and will be escorted by Gaylon Cabblerhouse and Jimmie Ludwig. The annual homecoming dance will follow the game, and will be held at the Sanford Armory.

Don Deal and Cedrick Dunbar have been designated as Sanford's co-captains for the game.

Either Richard Bass, Britt Yates or E. B. Smith will take Tyre's place at right end. Charles Thomas will probably start at left end. Ed Myers and "Peanuts" Galloway will start at tackles and Charles Lansing or Richard Bass may start at right guard. Gene Harper will open at left guard. Howard Dague will be the starting center. The backfield will include Charles Anderson at spinner, John Keeling at blocking back and either Deal, Dunbar or Fred Cooper at the wings.

COMMENTS From The SIDELINES

By ARTHUR BECKWITH, JR., Herald Sports Editor

Jack McDowell, who has coached Rollins football teams for 20 years, old the Daytona Beach Quarterback Club Monday night that he will resign his post as far mentor next month.

He also declared that Coach Ray (Bear) Wolf should be retained as coach at the University of Florida for next year.

McDowell said that he would complete his 20th year and resign as Rollins coach in about ten days. He indicated that his plans are uncertain as to what he will do in the future.

"I ought to have a bloody towel around my head. I declare I never had a season so tough," he told the Daytona Beach organization. He later said that lines for the football game of Miami will become the football power in the state.

McDowell has resigned from the coaching post at Rollins many times before, but he has always been signed back there on the side.

In previous years the "resignation" has only brought an increase in pay for the Rollins men. In 1947, increased funds for the Rollins football team or something of the kind. However, this time may be the real McCoy, but we are not inclined to believe he will leave Rollins.

There is another way to look at the Rollins problem. McDowell may have been contacted by the University of Florida to replace "Bear" Wolf as skipper for the Fighting Gators, since "The Bear" is running into opposition from many circles in the state. McDowell's statement that Wolf should return to the gator beam may have been a much propitiously to throw Mr. and Mrs. Football Fan off the track.

Whatever the outcome may be we feel that it will be interesting.

Palatka Azaleas

Roy Germany, acting president of Palatka Baseball, Inc., outlined the fate of the Azaleas at the Crescent City meeting. "Our status is still undecided," he declared.

Azalea directors have until Jan. 1 to meet the $1,300 guarantee with the National Association of Minor Leagues.

Raymond Goble, manager of the scheduled to go to Palatka over Miami Tourists last year, was the next weekend to discuss purchasing the club, but he has never arrived according to reports. The purchase price of the club has been set at about $7,500.

Leashure was not represented at the meeting, and their status has been declared as "in doubt." The Palatka franchise may be transferred to Ocala.

Texas A And M May Be Nation's Losingest Eleven

Alumni Of School Paid $20,000 To Oust Homer Norton

NEW YORK, Nov. 24. (AP)—Texas A. and M., where the alumni paid $20,000 to get rid of Coach Homer Norton after last season, stands a good chance to be the "losingest" football team in the nation this fall.

The Aggies have lost nine straight games. They wind up their season tomorrow against Texas with Texas heavily favored.

Nineteen other college teams haven't won a game this year, an Associated Press survey showed today, and 15 of them won't get another chance. Their schedules are completed.

One of the most prominent of the always-beaten teams is Navy, loser in eight straight, with Army coming up Saturday.

Eight of the 20 teams have played tie games. Trenton, N.J., Teachers, which lost six and played a scoreless tie, didn't score a point until the final game of the season when they made one touchdown.

Tulsa, a bowl favorite of several years ago, has lost eight and tied one. Virginia Tech, which played in the Sun Bowl only two years ago, hasn't won a game in eight starts, but has played one tie.

Both Tulsa and Tech have one game remaining.

Until last Saturday, the name of once-mighty Carnegie Tech headed the losing list with 25 straight defeats. Tech won its first game since 1942 last week, 7-0, against Grove City, Pa.

The losers, and their records:

Nine games

Eight games

Seven games

Six games
Trenton (N.J.) Teachers (one tie); Westminster (Utah); Penn College (Iowa); Ferris Institute (Mich.) (one tie); British Columbia (one tie); Livingston (Pa.).

Five games
St. Mary's (Minn.).

Four games
Concordia (Minn.) (one tie).

Three games
Augsburg, (Minn.) (two ties).

Beau Jack Says He Is Ready For Bout

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 24. (AP)—Former lightweight titleholder Beau Jack, who thinks he's ripe for a crack at the welter crown, added weight to his argument last night by pounding Chuck Taylor of Coalport, La., into helplessness. Jack was awarded a technical kayo after two minutes, 43 seconds of the third round of their scheduled ten rounder.

Employing his usual weaving, bobbing style, Jack pushed the fight to Taylor all the way. The payoff blow was a bolo punch that came up from the canvas to connect with Taylor's jaw.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Television on the Farm

Buck Childs' home has become mightily popular ever since he got that television set—one of the few sets in our town, outside of Andy's Garden Tavern.

Not only do the kids stay home nights, but the neighbors drop in to see whatever's being telecast. And Buck and the missus always make them welcome, with a mellow glass of beer or ale (with cider and cookies for the youngsters).

While I guess everyone admits that television still has far to go, it's not hard to see that it will some day be as much a part of American home and farm life as the temperate glass of beer that Buck serves, and the hospitality that goes with it.

And from where I sit, anything that adds to gracious living in America—brings folks together for temperate, quiet entertainment—is a boon to this home-loving land of ours. (We're thinking of buying a television set ourselves!)

ARMY

some of the people today is that their memories are too short.

A number of writers have been comparing the performances of Gil Stephenson, Army's 183-pound sophomore back, from Columbus, Ga., with the feats of Blanchard and the West Point official family falls to see eye to eye with this opinion.

A check of the 1946 game, in which Army beat Navy 21-18 because the Middies failed to kick three extra points and because time ran out on a furious last period Navy attack, reveals that the West Point citizen wasn't talking through his hat.

Navy has lost through graduation only four of the players who started that memorable game; Army has lost three. Among the Navy backs who will see action Saturday are Reeves Basinger, Jr., Bob Horne, Pistol Pete Williams, Bill Hawkins, Alvin McCull, Bill Earl, Jim Green and Jim Wille. Most of them played—and starred—in the '46 Army game. All were on the squad.

Hawkins and Basinger each scored one touchdown. Through Navy has lost all eight games this fall, with Basinger and Horne throwing passes from the winged-T used by Coach George Sauer the Middies are among the top five ground gaining teams in the East when it comes to forward passing.

Of the 45 members on the 1946 Navy squad, 26 are back. For Basinger, Horne, McCull and others it will be their last football game.

Army, too, loses a number of veterans. Nineteen of their players wind up their football careers. Thirteen of these are slated to see action. They are Bert Aton, Frank Barnes, Tom Hullock, Rudy Cosentino, Sal Fancher, Phil Feir, Joe Henry, Davis Parrish, Jim Rawers, Winfield Scott, John Shelley, Bob by Jack Stuart and Captain Bill Yeoman, crack center who is a brilliant backer-up on defense.

Pitt Tackle Named Lineman Of Week

NEW YORK, Nov. 24. (AP)—Nick Bokkovic, Pitt tackle who started the football world with the touchdown run that upset Penn State, gained further honors today. He was named lineman of the week in the Associated Press poll.

Bokkovic is a 210-pound sophomore from Youngstown, O.

He gained the top spot in the poll over the excellent play of Irvad Ecklund, Oregon center; Dominic Tomasi, Michigan guard; Len Szafaryn, North Carolina tackle; and Gerald Weatherly, Rice center.

Three southeastern conference players were nominated—Brooks, Georgia Tech end; and Gain of Kentucky and Copp of Vanderbilt, tackles.

CIO Takes Tough Attitude On Reds

By the Associated Press
CIO convention delegates who took a tough attitude toward the left wing elements in their group were asked today to use "statesmanship" in helping write a new labor law.

Senator Wayne Morse (R-Ore) told the convention, now in its second day at Portland, Ore., statesmanship is needed for adoption of future labor laws, fair to both unions and industry.

The delegates yesterday swamped a minority effort to head off approval of a report by CIO President Philip Murray which contained praise of the Marshall Plan.

action. No immediate use of the property is planned, he said, but it may be used for loading of school buses. If re-sold from residential to commercial, it may be used for the schools for buildings. It is hoped later to purchase other lots near the school athletic grounds that front on Eighteenth Street.

The bid of the Georgia-Florida Tractor Co. for purchase of drag line machinery of the one fourth yard size was approved. Hill Hardware Company's bid for 500 feet of two and half inch fire hose was accepted.

Notification was received from the South Atlantic Gas Co. that they would be unable to install a gas main, due to cost estimated at $4,885 to serve newly erected homes built by Theodore Judd at Fourteenth Street and Park Avenue.

Fred Bender, realtor, told of a plan to develop a colored subdivision near Twentieth Street outside the city limits and asked the opinion of the Commission on the matter. He was requested to make out a tentative plan of the development.

Modern Women Seek 2-Way Help Like This

What is so for woman's oldest problem, functional monthly pain? Many a girl and woman has found the answer in CARDUI's 2-way help. You see, CARDUI may make things lots easier for you in either of two ways: (1) started 3 days before "your time" and taken as directed on the label, it should help relieve functional periodic pain; (2) taken throughout the month like a tonic, it should improve your appetite, aid digestion, and thus help build up resistance for the trying days to come. CARDUI is scientifically prepared and scientifically tested. If you suffer "at times certain time", get CARDUI today.

She said that children who had been drinking milk recovered more rapidly from the operations than those who had not had milk. Each child should receive a quart of milk daily at least two months preceding an operation of any kind, she said.

Miss Maude Ramsey read a resolution on the death of Mrs. H. A. Swanson, a charter member who died recently. A letter was read from Mrs. Edward Kischer, executive secretary of the Seminole County Tuberculosis and Health Association, in which she asked the club's assistance again this year in the Christmas Seal Sale.

The club voted to continue sending money to help pay for nursing books which are sent to foreign countries in cooperation with the International Relations Committee of Pilot International. Classification of members was read and announcement made of the Christmas party to be held at the Tourist Center on Dec. 14 and to which the husbands are invited to attend. Members were urged to bring toys to the party to be turned over to the Elks Club for the annual Community Christmas Tree. Mrs. J. C. Mitchell presided over the business session.

He said he had "never advocated the federal government breaking down local power," and contended the civil rights question was not an intrastate matter.

Pepper said he will give President Truman full backing in "carrying out his promises to the people."

The Florida senator supported Mr. Truman during the campaign. He made numerous speeches in the President's behalf and helped raise campaign funds.

"The people have the right to expect the Democrats to carry out their platform and keep the pledges made to them," he said.

"If we do carry it out, the next Congress will do more for the people than has been done since the early stages of the New Deal, and it will be one of the greatest Congresses in the history of America."

Pepper said he expected the Taft-Hartley Act to be repealed and "we'll immediately go back to the Wagner Law. We will build soundly on the Wagner Act until we get what we want."

He advocated use of the filibuster as a means of delaying legislation in the Senate.

"It's power," he said, "was a reason we lost the League of Nations and that helped cause us World War II."

with the Russians our mutual interest in agriculture, it would not be so difficult to discuss our differences in other fields. It is most heartening that several eastern European nations are members of the FAO. I hope this will continue to be true."

He invited both Russia and Argentina to join the FAO. He said: "I hope that every country, old or new, will become a member of the Food and Agriculture Organization. I should like to see that large agricultural country, Argentina, become a member. I wish that the Soviet Union would also join."

Mr. Truman also pledged to the delegates of the UN FAO member nations that he will send to the new U. S. Congress a new international wheat agreement if one can be negotiated.

"Moreover," he said, "I look to the general pattern of the wheat agreement as one which might be followed for other commodities."

He said that "hunger has no nationality. Abundance should have none, either."

"One of the ways to restore stability to the world is to produce plenty of food and see that it is distributed fairly," he added.

Mr. Truman said it is appropriate that the U. S. is host to a United Nations meeting during "our cherished Thanksgiving holiday."

He said the real spirit of this holiday is the sharing of the harvest. This spirit, he said, has brought many nations together in the FAO.

One of the first and most difficult problems is the rebuilding of nations which suffered heavily during the war, Mr. Truman continued adding:

"We are making a great deal of headway through the combined efforts of many nations in the European Recovery Program."

He promised that the U. S. will continue to send its experts in the field of agricultural improvement wherever the FAO believes they are needed.

West Accused

Cairo visited Count Folke Bernadotte on Rhodes a few days before the late U.N. mediator was assassinated in Jerusalem in September.

Galagan said these accounts told how Bernadotte originally planned to give to Israel that part of the Negev desert in Southern Palestine in which there are Jewish settlements. Then McClintock and Troutbeck wrote into Bernadotte's recommendations the complete exclusion of the Jews from Negev, he said.

Bernadotte's Palestine report recommended that Negev, given to the Jews under the U.N. partition, be turned over to the Arabs instead. He suggested also that the Jews be given western Galilee, originally assigned to the Arabs by the U.N.

A British resolution, now being debated by the committee, calls for putting the Bernadotte plan into effect.

Bernadotte also was under pressure from the United States and Britain to keep open the pipe lines and refinery in Haifa, Galagan said.

Galagan added that "British agents such as Abdullah and Glubb Pasha provoked the invasion of Palestine to prevent partition by force of arms."

Abdullah is king of Trans-Jordan and J. B. Glubb Pasha is chief of the British-subsidized Trans-Jordan Arab legion.

tion interruptions, federal mediators called a joint session of management and labor representatives in the shipping strike.

There was no indication, however, of an early settlement in the shipping dispute.

Ship operators issued a statement through their association saying they are "unanimously resolved" not to make any further offers to the 65,000 striking dock hands. The AFL International Longshoremen's association said the union would stand pat on eleven demands, including a wage increase.

On the west coast, employers denied reports that striking CIO longshoremen had begun offered and refused a 15 cent hourly wage increase to end the 83-day-old West Coast shipping tieup.

Other developments in the labor field included:

The American Federation of Labor, in convention in Cincinnati, O., announced it is ready to discuss peace with the International Association of Machinists, the CIO and the United Mine Workers.

President William Green said the peace movement is in accordance with a convention resolution calling for a unified labor movement. The machinists left the AFL in 1946. Unions which created the CIO were suspended in 1938. The miners withdrew last year.

In Portland, Ore., Supreme Court Justice William O. Douglas told the CIO convention that labor leaders can do a better job than conventional diplomats in defeating world-wide Communist propaganda and bridging the gap between America and Europe.

Douglas asserted conventional diplomats will "fall miserably" unless they understand the rise of the labor governments of the world and share an understanding of the labor struggle.

The Communist radio said Red forces destroyed the Nationalist Seventh Army Group east of Suichow. The loss of Suichow would open the gates to Nanking, the capital, less than 200 miles away, and clear the path to Shanghai, 165 miles southeast of Nanking. Officials at Shanghai talked of "total war" plans.

The vote reflected a Communist demand for an investigation of government charges that the Communist ordered and helped pay for the current coal and dock strikes.

The Communists also wanted a probe into alleged foreign financial support of Le Populaire, the newspaper of the pro-government Socialist Party.

Since V-J Day More Than 132,500 New Telephones Added in Florida

$55,000,000 of new facilities have been provided for more and better service

Look at the record of telephone growth in Florida — about two-thirds as many new telephones have been added in the past three years as were in service in Florida in 1945. This phenomenal progress was possible only through the all-out effort of telephone folks to meet the increasing needs of the state.

Yes, Florida's telephone service has really grown — not only in size but in value as well, for you can now call many more people and many more can call you. A total of more than 364,000 Southern Bell telephones are now serving the state. Floridians are making a monthly average of 2,142,000 long distance calls which is 55% greater than in 1945. The daily average of local calls made by our Florida customers is 2,909,000 as compared to 1,458,000 in 1945.

But that's only part of the story. A vast amount of new construction was added in order to install and serve these telephones. Since V-J Day, 15 new buildings have been constructed and 19 buildings substantially altered and providing more than 827,785 square feet of additional floor space. And central office equipment has been installed making possible a greater expansion of service facilities throughout the state. Nearly a thousand new long distance circuits have also been added to handle more calls more quickly.

But in spite of the growth in business, telephone earnings continue to be dangerously low. This is because the amount of money paid out to furnish you service has increased at a faster pace than the amount of money taken in.

Southern Bell's greatly increased investment in Florida is evidence of our faith in the state and its people. Future expansion and improvement of the service will require many more millions of dollars of new money. This will have to be financed, as in the past, with money furnished by investors who may be expected to provide the necessary capital, only so long as they receive a fair return on their money. That's why it's so necessary that telephone rates be sufficient to pay today's increased operating costs and provide a reasonable return to those who have invested their savings in the business.

Telephone rates in Florida are not sufficient to meet today's costs and assure the Company's ability to render good service. That is why we are now before the Florida Railroad and Public Utilities Commission seeking rates that will enable us to continue to provide you with good and dependable service.

Thanks to many people for many things

THIS IS THE SEASON OF THANKSGIVING . . .
And there is much for which we can all be thankful in this great country of ours.
Certainly we are thankful for a bountiful harvest of grain and corn, for a high level of production and employment, for a standard of living that is the envy of the world.
Most of all, perhaps, we are grateful for our American heritage . . . freedom of opportunity, freedom of choice, freedom to think and worship according to our own beliefs.

We Feel as a Chevrolet dealer it is an appropriate time to convey our sincere appreciation to the people of this community for their loyalty, patience and understanding.

For Despite Chevrolet's production of more cars and trucks during 1948 than any other manufacturer there is still a long "waiting list" for America's most-wanted cars and trucks.

Chevrolet is doing everything within its power to maintain and increase production. Meantime, we would like to express our thanks . . .

Thanks to Buyers and Prospective Buyers of New Chevrolets for your generous recognition of the honest value built into this first-choice car in the low-priced field. More people have bought Chevrolet cars and trucks, during the eighteen-year period from 1931 to date, than have bought the cars and trucks of any other manufacturer.

Thanks to Those Who Are Waiting for Orders to be Filled for your patience and understanding. You can be sure we are doing our best to treat all customers fairly . . . doing our best to speed the day when we can give you the good news, "Your waiting days are over!"

Thanks to Service Customers for the opportunity to keep your present cars in safe driving condition. We have tried to serve you well, and appreciate your patronage.

Thanks to all whose friendship and favor have helped maintain Chevrolet's leadership

Thanks for your patronage which has made
