Answer to Previous Puzzle

HOROSCOPE

By BERNICE BEDE OSOL

For Wednesday, April 8, 1981

YOUR BIRTHDAY

April 8, 1981
This coming year you may launch a project or enterprise which you create yourself. However, you may need assistance to pull it off properly. Don't be afraid to share.

ARIES (March 21-April 19)
Your enthusiasm is easily aroused today, but what's more important is that you're not apt to sit on ideas which excite you. You'll get them done, and properly. Romance, travel, luck, resources, possible pitfalls and career for the coming months are all discussed in your Astro-Graph which begins with your birthday. Mail $1 for each to Astro-Graph, Box 489, Radio City Station, N.Y. 10019. Be sure to specify birth date.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20)
There are goings-on at this time which may be partially screened from your view, yet they could benefit you materially. A helpful friend may bring them to your attention.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20)
Friends know they can depend on you today, so don't be too surprised if they call upon you to manage situations they can't handle.

CANCER (June 21-July 22)
Goals or secret ambitions you've set for yourself can be fulfilled today, but it may require all the imagination you can muster to do so. Think!

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22)
Pats on the back will mean a lot to friends and associates today. If you see a pal starting to falter, step in and boost his ego.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22)
This is a good day to implement well-thought-out changes which you feel could better your position in life or add to your resources. Get moving.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23)
Persons with whom you associate will have a great effect upon your attitude today, so it behooves you to team up with individuals who inspire you to spend your time productively.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22)
What you have to offer by way of expertise or service has great value today. Don't be afraid to ask a realistic price for your skills.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21)
Others find you an amicable person to begin with, and today they appreciate your virtues even more than usual. Your easygoing style wins allies.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19)
One thing which makes you so effective today: You know how to get at the root of matters and build upon the basics. Dig and proceed.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19)
You're a take-charge type today who is able to lead others because you set the proper example. You'll not demand what you won't ask of yourself.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20)
Don't let situations hang today which are important materially. Wrap them up now, even if it means you have to put in a few hours overtime.

Don't Stand Still Chase Ugly Veins

DEAR DR. LAMB—I'm 26 years old and would like to know what I can do about varicose veins. My legs started getting like this when I was about 21. What caused this and what can I do to prevent them from getting any worse?

If they get any worse I couldn't stand it. I would never wear shorts or a bathing suit around people, including my husband, again. People say I look pretty good in a bikini but I don't want to be ashamed of my legs. I see a lot of women older than me who still have real pretty legs, especially "Charlie's Angels" or Suzanne Somers. I'm probably not on my feet as much as they are.

DEAR READER—Varicose veins are veins that have lost their natural elasticity, like an over-stretched balloon. That happens in part because the vein walls may be weak and because there is an accumulation of pressure from blood inside the veins.

When you stand up, blood pools in your leg veins and builds up the internal pressure. Garters or anything that constricts the normal flow of blood through the thin-walled veins can increase the problem. Pregnancy obstructs the flow and increases varicose veins.

As you start walking, the leg muscles contract and squeeze the deep veins inside your legs, milking them and helping to pump blood uphill to your heart. This also milks the external veins that empty into your deep leg veins. The internal pressure falls. That is why walking is better than standing still.

Even if you inherit a tendency to have varicose veins, there are things you can do to help prevent them or keep them from getting so bad.

These are explained in The Health Letter number 5-8, Varicose Veins, which I am sending you. Others who want this issue can send 75 cents with a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope for it to me, in care of this newspaper.

P.O. Box 1551, Radio City Station, New York, NY 10019. Avoid standing still. Avoid sitting with pressure on the backs of your thighs. Do wear support hose when you can and especially during pregnancy. External pressure helps to prevent excessive stretching of the veins.

DEAR DR. LAMB—In one of your columns a young girl asked about enlarging her bust. You mentioned her seeing a physician to check for an endocrine or hormone problem. Just what would I ask my doctor about this? Is there a physical sign? I have read many articles about breast development and they all say it is hereditary but both my mother and younger sister wear a 36C. I don't even fill a 34A. I just had a check-up and a thyroid test and everything is normal.

DEAR READER—My point was that breasts do develop in response to female hormones. The enlargement of breasts is one of the earliest signs of puberty and the increased production of female hormones.

Some women who do have a hormone deficiency do not develop full-sized although more often breast size is inherited—from both sides of the family. A woman who wonders about this can simply ask her doctor if her breasts are small because she is low on estrogen, the female hormone that has most to do with breast development.

The doctor can get a pretty good idea from your physical examination and your history (such as menstrual history), but he can refine his judgment by having a laboratory examination of your hormone levels if he thinks it is indicated.

WIN AT BRIDGE

South ruffs the second club with his 10 of trumps, plays the queen of trumps and then the deuce to dummy's nine. Now he leads the eight of hearts and finesses.

West takes his king and leads a third club. South makes the loser-on-loser play of discarding a diamond. That diamond was going to lose eventually so why not now? This leaves dummy's king of trumps to ruff the fourth club and South takes the rest of the tricks.

This is the sort of play that any expert is expected to make and does make, but it decided an important team match when the late John Crawford held the West cards.

Declarer made the expert play as expected, but when he led the eight of hearts and let it ride John let it hold. South tried the finesse again. Who wouldn't?

Now John took his king and led the third club. South discarded his losing diamond and John led a fourth club.

South ruffed in dummy, but the late Howard Schenken, sitting East, got to throw away his third and last heart. There was no way for South to get to his hand to pull the last trumps and he had to lose the hand and the match.

County To Build Health Facility

By DONNA ESTES
Herald Staff Writer

A new health department facility, estimated to cost $1.5 million for site acquisition and construction, will be built in Sanford, preferably near the planned new hospital on the lakefront, during fiscal 1981-82.

County commissioners Tuesday, in workshop session, unanimously declared the new facility its number one priority in the Department of Human Services budget in the new fiscal year beginning Oct. 1.

The 30,000 square foot facility, expected to be adequate for more than 10 years, is to house not only health related activities but also health department administrative staff. Currently, health related activities are handled through the Sanford clinic on U.S. 17-92 while administrative staff is housed at the Sanford Airport.

County Commissioners Robert Feather and Bill Kirchhoff estimated a three acre site would be necessary. Commission Chairman Bob Sturm urged thought and study be given to using part of the money received by the county when Hospital Corporation of America (HCA) leased Seminole Memorial Hospital last year. HCA is in process of building a new hospital on the lakefront.

Sturm said proceeds from the lease with interest it has earned currently totals $5.8 million. Part of the annual interest earned is being used to pay annual costs to the county of about $300,000 for medical care for indigents.

Sturm said if the principal of the fund were reduced by the $1.5 million necessary for the new structure, more than sufficient income would still be generated to pay for the indigent care costs.

The commission also discussed the possibility of selling the mental health center, which the county built several years ago adjacent to Florida Hospital-Altamonte to raise some money for the new facility.

Dr. Jorge DeJu, director of the Department of Human Services, said solving the need for additional space for the health department operations is the most important one in the department at this time.

He said it is difficult to fulfill his dual functions as an administrator and a medical doctor while his office is separated from the health clinic. In addition, with an expanded facility, he said, the health unit could provide, through a screening process, some health services for the indigent which they are now receiving at the SMH emergency room.

He said that the cost of indigents using the hospital emergency room is very high and in many cases their problems can be treated at a clinic.

He said that often a medically indigent person will go to the emergency room with a minor problem and the service is costly.

Dr. DeJu said the expanded facilities are needed in Sanford rather than in the south end of the county because the majority of medical indigents in Seminole use the Sanford health facility.

Dr. DeJu said the items he considers to have top priority are: space, organizational restructuring of the department and providing primary care for maternity patients. Currently in Seminole County a woman can receive pre-natal care through the health department, but there is no provision for delivery of babies for the medically indigent.

The commission, in a complicated voting process, designated its top priorities after space in the health department as: a new refrigerator for the Longwood Clinic and an office for separating biological specimens; hiring a second nurse practitioner in family planning; hiring a dental assistant; hiring a clinic aide for the Longwood health office and replacing a typewriter in the Sanford office.

County Administrator Roger Neiswender said construction of a new health facility in Sanford has been planned for several years, noting that money was set aside in the current year's county budget for planning the facility.

In the new fiscal year, he said, final architectural drawings could be prepared, a site acquired and the construction take place.

Neiswender, after the work session, said the number one priority given the new health facility is the first time the commissioners, who have been studying department recommendations for the new year during the past two weeks, have voted unanimously on any one item.

He said majority votes of the commission give a "pretty good idea" to county staff of what the commissioners will agree to fund in the budget.

This is an unusual budget year coming up, Neiswender said, pointing out that while commissioners, according to new state law, will be adopting a budget in mid-July, they will have notification of the amount of money they can expect from property taxation only 10 days prior to that time. Prior to adoption, commissioners will be required to approve tentative budgets as early as June.

Neiswender said County Property Appraiser Bill Suber has been very cooperative, however, and has promised to get to the commissioners estimates of income as close to mid-June as possible.

He said despite the growth the county has seen an inflation there is "no new revenues on the horizon."

"It's not going to be a fun budget. The commissioners are seeing the tough reality about how much things cost, whether they can continue to render the same level of services they have been and the consequences if they do not," Neiswender said.

Shuttle Countdown 'In Great Shape'

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (UPI) — The weather forecast improved and the countdown was pronounced in "great shape" today for Friday morning's launch of the space shuttle Columbia on a critical 54½-hour test flight around the Earth.

The Columbia's pilots, John W. Young and Robert L. Crippen, rose early in their health isolation trailer in Houston and prepared to fly to the space port later today.

At mid-morning, technicians began pumping super-cold liquid hydrogen and oxygen into small double-walled spheres in the Columbia's midsection to fuel the ship's three fuel cell electric generators during the 36-orbit mission.

That was a critical operation and launch director George Page said if problems were to crop up today, they probably would involve the fuel cell loading operation.

But test conductor Bill Schick said the countdown was proceeding very well as the series of launch preparations approached the critical last 24 hours pre-flight operations.

"Great shape," he said when asked how things were going. "Clean for first go, very clean."

"The launch team is holding up with no problems," he said. "The morale at this time is riding very high because of the clean operation we've had with no problems."

There were some snags during the first two days of the four-day countdown, but launch control officials consider them inconsequential.

The weather forecast for 6:50 a.m. EST Friday launch time improved today with Air Force forecasters estimating that an approaching cold front will stay north of Florida, leaving generally good conditions at the launch site both Friday and Saturday.

"Yesterday, things were not looking so good," Schick said. "Today they are looking better. They are not ideal. We're keeping our fingers crossed."

Schick said the landing strip conditions for touchdown Sunday at Edwards Air Force Base, which has been under water recently, were acceptable and the base in the California's Mojave Desert was still considered the prime landing site.

The astronauts' stubby-winged, reusable spacecraft was rapidly being prepared for flight, after 2½ years of delays. Technicians even cleaned the ship's six airplane-like cockpit windows.

At sunrise, technicians were hooking up explosive devices that would be used to blow up the shuttle's external fuel tank and solid fueled booster rockets after the crew ejected should the ship veer toward a populated area after lift-off.

Air Force rescue teams practiced astronaut recovery operations in a lagoon west of the ocean launch pad. They rehearsed picking up crewmen from a life raft, and from a mockup representing a ditched shuttle.

Page's statement that troubles were not unexpected with the fuel cell loading operation was based on the Apollo program a decade ago when fuel cell loading often took longer than expected during the Apollo program a decade ago.

"It went remarkable well the last time we did it on this one (in February), but it may have been a fluke," Page said.

Because problems were possible, a second "hold" was inserted into the today's countdown. It was to have lasted eight hours, but was cut to four hours so engineers could make up time lost Tuesday.

They made even better than expected progress and the countdown clock resumed at 10 p.m. after a 12-hour hold. A hold is when the countdown clock is stopped to give technicians a rest, time to catch up with lagging work or time to seek the cause of problems.

Zoning Controls This May Be Tried Against Adult Entertainment

Seminole County Commissioners have set a public hearing for May 12 to consider a new method of controlling adult entertainment in the county.

Prior to the commission hearing, the proposed new way — by using zoning controls — will be considered and acted upon by the county's planning and zoning commission on May 6.

Under a plan, recommended by Commissioner Bill Kirchhoff, an ordinance is being prepared requiring establishments selling alcoholic beverages to apply for and receive approval from the county board of adjustment for a special exception permitting adult entertainment. Currently an alcoholic beverages establishment must have a special exception to operate.

While County Attorney Nikki

Clayton has been preparing the ordinance, processing of applications for special exceptions for alcoholic beverages establishments has been delayed.

The commissioners on May 12, immediately following the public hearing, may adopt the ordinance.

At this time there is only one establishment in the unincorporated area which has adult entertainment and it is located in the Fern Park area.

The commissioners agreed to try the new method of control after Sheriff John Polk informed them that intelligence reports say a rash of such establishments exiting the Orange Blossom Trail plan to relocate in Seminole County.

All Poland Welcomes Brezhnev's 'Reprieve'

WARSAW, Poland (UPI) — The Polish media, Solidarity and farmers seeking their own union joined today in welcoming Soviet President Leonid Brezhnev's apparent vote of confidence in Poland's ability to solve its own problems.

Newspapers praised Brezhnev's "farsightedness" and called him a "consistent supporter of peace," and the unofficial independent farmers union Rural Solidarity said in a pledge of support to the Communist Party it would never strike.

Solidarity leader Lech Walesa, saying he wants to retire, called Tuesday for a moratorium on confrontation as the Soviet Union announced the end of the Warsaw Pact maneuvers that had raised fears of Soviet intervention to crush the free trade union movement.

Solidarity did not respond to Brezhnev's speech but a union source said initial reaction to his support of Polish efforts to solve their own problems was favorable. "If he had said something really bad, we would have issued a statement."

The Roman Catholic affiliated newspaper Slowo Powszechnie published a Rural Solidarity declaration that said, "We harbor no political ambitions and recognize the party as the leading political force in Poland."

The declaration, which said "nobody in our union wishes to undermine the principles of Poland's system," was submitted to a parliamentary commission Tuesday.

The official news agency PAP said Rural Solidarity leaders told the commission they would never strike "because this would be a crime against nature."

However, about 50 farmers demanding, among other things, legalization of Rural Solidarity, continued the sit-in at the headquarters of the Peasants Party in Bydgoszcz begun March 16.

"Leonid Brezhnev has again shown his farsightedness in the evaluation of the complex processes under way in Poland, the countries of the Socialist community and all over Europe," the Zycie Warszawy newspaper said.

Brezhnev seemed during his speech in Prague Tuesday to give the Polish communist leadership another chance to control the unruly labor movement that has wrested much of the power from the ruling party.

After Brezhnev's speech, Walesa immediately urged his union to use the breathing space to show "less politicizing, less talking and greater focus on the problems people are interested in."

In an interview with the Roman Catholic-affiliated newspaper Slowo Powszechnie, Walesa said, "We should stop the road of confrontation. At present it does not pay to operate on the brink of precipice."

The walrus-mustached labor leader, who this month threatened to quit to gain approval of a plan that avoided an immediate general strike, told the French newspaper FranceSoir he would like to retire as union head but "I am still needed. I just hope it won't be for long."

"I have worked for this union 13 years," said the 37-year-old Walesa. "It has cost me my health. I have a sick heart now and my family is sick of not seeing me."

'We Are A Wave Of Assassins'

New Threat To Reagan's Life

NEW YORK (UPI) — A copycat gunman threatened to kill President Reagan, Secretary of State Alexander Haig, Sen. Jesse Helms and teen-age actress Jodie Foster because of "prophetic dream" he claimed was sent by would-be assassin John W. Hinckley Jr., law enforcement officials say.

Edward Richardson, 22, an unemployed landscaper from the middle-class Philadelphia suburb of Drexel Hill, Pa., was held in lieu of $500,000 bail today in the Metropolitan Correctional Center on charges of threatening to kill the president.

Secret Service agents said the threats were made in two letters — one found in a New Haven, Conn., hotel room and the other sent to Miss Foster at Yale University. The 18-year-old actress also was the target of letters from Hinckley, charged in last week's assassination attempt on Reagan.

"I will finish what Hinckley started. RR must die. He (JWH) has told me so in a prophetic dream. Sadly though, your death is also required," officials said Richardson wrote in a letter hand-delivered Monday to the Yale campus.

"You too will suffer the same fate as Reagan and others in his fascist regime. You cannot escape. We are a wave of assassins throughout the world."

The letter was dated April 3 and signed, "Int. People's Court."

Secret Service agents — alerted by a hotel maid who found one of Richardson's notes — arrested Richardson Tuesday in Manhattan's Port Authority bus terminal on his way from New Haven to his parents' home in Pennsylvania.

He was carrying a loaded .32-caliber pistol and admitted he intended to assassinate the president, a Secret Service spokesman said.

Argument Doesn't Fly

DES MOINES, Iowa (UPI) — Louis Martin says he's not too good to fly coach class, just too wide.

"Because of my size, over 400 pounds, it is impossible for me to travel by coach," the state Civil Rights Commission worker said, in an appeal requesting the state pay first-class air fare for him instead of coach fare.

"The average seat within a coach is 20 inches wide. I am double that," he said.

The argument, however, was rejected by the Iowa Appropriations subcommittee on claims with little more than a chuckle.

WORLD IN BRIEF

Haig Meets Rejection Over Anti-Soviet Alliance

RIYADH, Saudi Arabia (UPI) — Saudi Arabia joined Jordan today in rejecting U.S. Secretary of State Alexander Haig's call for giving top priority to an anti-Soviet alliance, saying Israel is a major threat to peace in the Middle East.

An official Saudi statement following Haig's meeting today with King Khaled and Crown Prince Fahd of Saudi Arabia reiterated their "irrevocable" stand that "no just and durable peace can be reached in the Middle East before the recognition of the Palestinian's rights and the withdrawal of Israel."

Recognition of the Palestine Liberation Organization as the "sole and legitimate representative to the Palestinian people is a pre-requisite to any peace negotiations," the statement said. Israel and the United States have refused to recognize the PLO.

Underscoring the regional tension, Haig brought to Saudi Arabia a controversial proposal to lend them four AWAC spy planes for four years until they buy their own by 1985 — a scheme opposed by Israelis who fear an Arab attack.

More Troops To Afghanistan

NEW DELHI, India (UPI) — The Soviet Union has poured an estimated 20,000 to 22,000 additional troops into Afghanistan during the past two weeks to raise its occupation force to above 100,000 troops, Western diplomatic sources said today.

Intelligence sources said the large number of fresh troops reported arriving during the past two weeks had been transported both by military convoys and airlifts.

Estimates of the increased troop strength ranged from 10,000 to 60,000, but most sources said the new Soviet troops numbered 20,000-22,000, a 25 percent increase in the 85,000-man garrison already stationed in Afghanistan.

Lebanon: Fighting Escalates

BEIRUT, Lebanon (UPI) — Syrian peacekeeping forces today bombarded the besieged city of Zahle with artillery, mortar and tank fire and shelled east Beirut, sharply escalating the 8-day-old offensive against Phalangist militias in Lebanon.

In Zahle, Syrian forces were "raining hundreds of shells on the city" and had launched a "major tank offensive" that was repulsed by the militiamen, Phalangist radio said. The broadcast said Zahle was suffering from acute shortages of food and medicine.

Phalangist radio also reported heavy shelling of residential sections in Christian east Beirut and said Lebanese army regulars fought Palestinian Liberation Army forces on the "green line" dividing Beirut in Christian and Moslem halves.

24 Shot In San Salvador

SAN SALVADOR, El Salvador (UPI) — Security forces shot to death 24 civilians in a dead-end street of a San Salvador slum in what relatives said was a mass execution but the Defense Ministry called it an "armed confrontation" with guerrillas.

Journalists who saw the bodies Tuesday said all were shot execution-style through the head and six had their hands tied behind their backs and their eyes bound with handkerchiefs.

Relatives of the victims said 22 of the dead had been arrested during the past two days by security forces and apparently were taken in army trucks to the dead-end street and executed early Tuesday.

Dollar Down In All Markets

LONDON (UPI) — Lower Euro-dollar interest rates and profit-taking depressed the dollar on all money markets today at the start of European foreign exchange trading.

Gold held steady, $3 lower in Zurich at $511.50 and 25 cents down in London at $512.75.

The dollar dropped in value on all the money markets.

WEATHER

NATIONAL REPORT: Heavy thunderstorms pounded southeastern Nebraska, a cold front in the upper Great Lakes region moved into the Plains states, and fair skies and mild temperatures prevailed in the rest of the nation.

Pea-size hail and high winds accompanied rains into Tobia, Neb., and heavy rain remained in today's forecast for southeastern Nebraska.

A slow-moving storm system brought light showers to southern Minnesota and southeastern South Dakota. Rain also spread over parts of the south-central states — primarily over Arkansas.

Accused Arsonist Escapes After Trial

One of the three brothers charged with arson in connection with the February 7 fire which destroyed the Central Florida Christian School in Maitland has escaped from the Orange County Juvenile Detention Facility.

The 16-year-old boy reportedly escaped early Tuesday morning when an accomplice unscrewed the window frame to his room from the outside. The youth remains at large.

The break-out came three days after the brothers had been tried on arson charges before Orange County Juvenile Court Judge Larry Kirkwood last Friday and Saturday. No verdict has been rendered.

The boys were accused of setting the fire which gutted the $500,000 building at 1250 N. Maitland Ave. Firefighters from three departments battled the blaze for more than two hours, but due to a lack of firewalls in the school, the flames could not be contained. No one was seriously hurt in the blaze.

Central Florida Christian's 150 students in grades 1-12 are holding classes in a Maitland church until the school can be rebuilt.

BURGLAR GETS 15 YEARS PROBATION

A 20-year-old Maitland man has been given a 15-year probationary sentence after pleading guilty to a charge of burglary.

Robert Dale Wesley Buie of 401 White Oak Circle was accused of the January 26 break-in at the home of Carole Reinighaus, 313 Wood Lake near Altamonte Springs.

In other court action, three persons pleaded guilty to various charges. They follow:

— Frank Smith, 55, of 506 Marker St., Altamonte Springs, carrying a concealed weapon. Smith was walking along the street near his home when Seminole County sheriff's Sgt. Pat Kunkler passed and saw him pull a pistol out of his pocket.

— Edward Adam Martinez, 22, 1908 S. Holly Ave., Sanford, possession of a controlled substance. Martinez was stopped on January 6 for not having an inspection sticker on his motorcycle and while being arrested, officers found four quaalude

-pills in his jacket pocket.

— William Thurman Weatherford Jr., 18, of 2405 Sandeewood Dr., Fern Park, resisting arrest without violence. Weatherford was arrested February 14 when he tried to get into a Casselberry bar using a phony I.D. While he was being booked at the Casselberry Police Department, he ran out a back door and was chased by four officers. He was found a short distance, away hiding under a bush.

Sentencing for the three was deferred pending background investigations.

everything she had Monday night when a man snatched her purse and fled into the night.

Ann Roland McArthur of Casselberry reported the strong-arm robbery Monday to police after the incident which took place at approximately 9:00 p.m.

Witnesses confirmed that a young man in his late teens or early twenties was standing outside the Phillips 66 Store at 427 Plumosa near the pay phone.

Witnesses also stated that the man appeared to be standing out near the door of the store deliberately waiting for a chance to steal a purse.

When Ms. McArthur came out of the store walking south toward her car, the man pounced suddenly on her, tearing the

Altamonte Gives Tentative Nod To 140-Unit Condo

By CINDY MOOY
Herald Staff Writer

Altamonte Springs commissioners gave tentative approval Tuesday night to a zoning change for a proposed 140-unit condominium project in the Lake Lotus area.

Jerome Behn of Winter Park asked the commission to consider a change in the land use plan from low to medium density residential use for the property and a change from residential to planned unit development (PUD) zoning.

Behn's proposal calls for 15 two-story buildings of six, eight and 12 units to be built on 10 acres.

The planning and zoning board recommended to the commission the site plan be approved for PUD Zoning, but for high density land use rather than medium density. The site plan is designed for 14 units per acre.

A public hearing on the proposal is scheduled for April 21.

In other action the commission adopted an ordinance to rezone one of four lots located west of Palm Springs Drive and north of Fruiland Street from general office to commercial neighborhood zoning. The rezoned lot will be used to expand a printing company. The remaining three adjoining lots will remain zoned general office.

The commission also unanimously adopted an ordinance assigning a single family residential zoning classification to property located at the southwest corner of Oakland Road and Spring Lake Road.

Commissioners accepted a Bureau of Highway Safety grant to hire a traffic technician, who will provide technical information on traffic studies, assist in transportation planning and keep inventories of traffic control devices in the city.

The low bid from Kerhaws Bike and Mower of Longwood for purchase of a riding mower, trailer and high wheel for the city was accepted by the commission. The bid was in the amount of $6,650.

A request from the Altamonte Springs Women's Club for a waiver on payment of a $35 fee for use of the auditoriums in the city's civic centers was referred to the Citizens Activities Board for review.

Bill Frederick, developer of the proposed Altamonte Towers, withdrew his request to speak before the commission Tuesday night. Frederick is scheduled to address the commission at their April 21 meeting regarding the planning and zoning board's rejection of his plan for a residential, retail and professional office complex near the Altamonte Mall on State Road 436.

A petition with 100 signatures requesting a discount on recreation fees for youths at the city's civic centers was presented to the commission. The petition protested recreation rates that were increased Jan. 1, 1981, and requested a $10 yearly fee be set for junior tennis and racquetball players who have found the rate increases a hardship. The petition was referred to the city manager for consideration.

A proclamation was signed declaring 1981 the "International Year of Disabled Persons." City Manager Jeff Etchberger said the city is seeking a grant to put an elevator in the swimming pool at the Westmonte Civic Center to allow access to the pool by the handicapped.

Creationism In Schools May Lead To Mythology

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (UPI) — Jacksonville Sen. Dan Jenkins wants the Biblical version of creationism taught in Florida public schools, but students may end up studying Greek mythological accounts as well.

Jenkins Tuesday filed a companion bill (SB 296) in the Senate to a House proposal (HB 178) by Rep. Tom Bush forcing schools to teach the Biblical theory of creation in addition to evolution.

Jenkins said his bill would mandate "balanced treatment to the teaching on the subject of origins." Bush's proposal, filed earlier this year, also requires "equal time" for the Biblical teachings.

The theory of evolution maintains that man developed from more primitive species, while creationism — the description of the origins of man and the universe found in the book of Genesis — says man was placed on Earth in his present form by God.

"More people today than ever before are objecting to the exclusive teaching of evolution in the public schools," Jenkins said. "Only scientific evidence would be used, and any religious instruction or references to religious writings would be excluded."

Sen. Jack Gordon, D-Miami Beach, chairman of the powerful Appropriations Committee has said if the issue heats up, he might introduce a bill which would require teaching Greek mythology and Eastern religions in school.

"Why should Apollo's role be downgraded?" Gordon asked sarcastically.

Last month, Arkansas became the first state in the nation to require the teaching of creationism in addition to evolution. Similar measures have been introduced in more than a dozen states.

Jenkins said opposition usually centers around the arguments that evolution is the only acceptable scientific theory of origins and that creation is a strictly religious concept.

"Both of these arguments are wrong and invalid," Jenkins said. "Creation can be shown to be a more effective scientific theory of origins than evolution and evolution can be shown to require a higher degree of credulous faith than creation."

"The purpose of this bill is to encourage a careful and objective study of both concepts of origins, on a scientific level only, in the public schools," Jenkins said.

Rep. Betty Easley, R-Largo, said she would vote against Bush's bill because she does not want the state telling teachers what to teach. House Education Committee Chairman Walter Young, D-Pembroke Pines, said he also opposes the bill.

Mobile Boom Town Grows In Space Shuttle Shadow

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (UPI) — Like a shantytown about a palace, a hodgepodge of mobile homes, trailers and at least one motor home have sprung around the Kennedy Space Center's enormous Vehicle Assembly Building for the maiden flight of the space shuttle Columbia.

Al Seeschaaf, logistics coordinator at the space center for the launch, said as of Tuesday night there were 42 of them.

"I know there will be a demand for more but I don't know where I'm going to get them," he said.

They range in size from CBSTV's two-story structure to simple house trailers. The CBS structure has a more permanent look than some of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration's own buildings but the motor home appears ready to move on as soon as Columbia is out of sight.

All of the structures have one thing in common — they face northeast toward launch pad 39A, where the shuttle's initial voyage will begin.

One structure, built for ABC-TV, initially was installed facing the wrong direction by the contractor. It had to be hoisted and turned around, putting the installation behind schedule. It remained unfinished Tuesday night and a NASA official set a Wednesday evening deadline for its completion.

Not all the trailers and mobile homes are occupied by U.S. news media. One is the Cape Canaveral bureau of British Broadcasting Co. and other its competitor, the Independent Television Network. Another serves the European Radio Network.

Two camera companies have their own trailers to service their equipment in the event it breaks down at a crucial moment for a photographer. A commercial photographer has a trailer to take pictures for an aviation trade publication and the National Geographic. A commercial motion picture company has a trailer to shoot film for Walt Disney Productions.

And there are trailers for American Telephone and Telegraph Co. and its competitor, Western Union.

Casselberry Nixes Offices For Area Zoned Residential

A request for a change in Casselberry's land use plan to build a medical center on property currently zoned residential was voted down by the city council Monday night.

Dr. John Zacco and John Casselberry told the council they believe the two lots located on the southeast corner of Seminola Boulevard and Winter Park Drive, where they want to build the medical and professional center, are no longer usable as zoned. They asked for a change to commercial zoning.

Because the city does not have a professional office zoning classification, Councilman James Lavigne said it would be "premature" to decide on the zoning request. Lavigne said he could not vote in favor of the request for commercial zoning because the property was near residential areas.

The planning and zoning board has plans to discuss a proposed classification for professional office zoning.

Dr. Zacco, a former city council member, owners of property near the two lots who favored the rezoning request.

"No one can sell or improve their homes in that area while its zoned as residential," Zacco said. With commercial property across the street, Zacco said, the area would be improved.

Robert Sickler, 83 N. Winter Park Dr., Casselberry, handed the council a petition signed by persons living mainly on Seminola Boulevard who opposed the rezoning.

Councilman John Leighty rebutted a statement made during a council work session held on the rezoning request last week. Vincent Ballassona, a planning and zoning board member, speaking in favor of the zoning change, said there are a "bunch of shacks" in the area.

"People are very hurt," Leighty said, regarding the remark. "Some of the houses may be downgraded, I admit, but a lot of people can't live in Carriage Hill or Camelot."

"We don't have people in Casselberry who live in shacks," said Leighty, who lives on Seminola Boulevard, a few blocks from the property. "I'm hurt by it and a lot of people are hurt by it." — CINDY MOOY

Reagan Recovery Slows; Travel Plans Uncertain

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Reagan's rapid recovery has slowed a bit, placing in doubt a scheduled trip west for his daughter's wedding, a GOP fundraiser and a meeting with Mexico's president.

A White House spokesman said today "plans are still on" for the April 23-28 journey to California and Mexico, but other officials said privately it may be canceled to give him more time to recuperate in Washington.

Reagan is scheduled to attend his daughter Maureen's April 24 wedding in Los Angeles, then go to a California GOP fund-raiser. He is to meet April 27-28 with Mexican President Jose Lopez Portillo.

Atlanta Police Seek Man

ATLANTA (UPI) — Police searched today for a mustachioed black man with long graying hair and horn-rimmed glasses who reportedly gave a ride to the latest youth to vanish in the city's string of 25 missing and murdered young blacks.

Late Tuesday night police released a composite drawing of the man, who, a witness said, was driving the 1966 green Chevrolet station wagon Larry Rogers, 21, got into March 30 — the last time he was seen by acquaintances.

"At this time he's only wanted for questioning in regards to the disappearance of Larry Rogers," said a police spokeswoman. "We have no reason to consider him suspect."

Rogers, who was reported missing April 2, was added Monday to the list of victims being investigated by a special police task force.

Duck Caused Co-Pilot Death

CINCINNATI (UPI) — A wild duck smashed through the windshield of a Lear jet cargo plane on a takeoff from Lunken Airport, killing the co-pilot and injuring the pilot.

Federal Aviation Administration officials said the duck crashed through the window directly in front of co-pilot Kent Woodworth, 35, of Wichita, Kan., Tuesday.

Injured and treated at General Hospital, where he was in good condition, was pilot Jim Grieshaber, 23, of Harper Woods, Mich.

Control tower supervisor Jim Lewis said the Lear jet, enroute to Detroit after delivering cargo to Cincinnati, was lifting off the runway when it suddenly banked and landed again.

Soviet Maneuvers Continue

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Warsaw Pact military maneuvers may be over, but U.S. officials warn Soviet military exercises in and around Poland have not ended and the potential for an invasion persists.

"We have seen the reports that the Warsaw Pact exercises have ended," the State Department said in a statement. "We note that they only apply to Soyuz 81 and not to all military exercises in and around Poland."

Fourth Skeleton Found On Sex Offender's Property

WEEKI WACHEE, Fla. (UPI) — Deputies conducting a grim search for graves on the junk littered property of a convicted sex offender and his family have unearthed a fourth skeleton and officials fear more bodies could be discovered.

The skeleton — thought to be that of a female — was discovered Tuesday afternoon when a backhoe operator unearthed the bones.

Experts from the Florida Department of Law Enforcement moved in with masonry trowels and paint brushes and carefully cleared the sandy soil away from the bones and confirmed they were human, probably female like the first three skeletons.

The skeleton was found only 3 feet away from where the third skeleton was found Friday.

Collapse Inquiry Underway

COCOA BEACH, Fla. (UPI) — Police are investigating the collapse of the Harbour Cay condominium to determine if criminal negligence contributed to the collapse of the building that killed 11 and injured 23, it was reported today.

The Today newspaper of Cocoa Beach in a copyright story reported the investigation has been under way since the building collapsed March 27, trapping workers under five floors of concrete about an hour before quitting time.

Cocoa Beach Police Chief Robert Wicker said if the evidence uncovered by state and federal investigators warrants, manslaughter charges could be filed against those found responsible for the cave-in.

Execution Stay Granted

MIAMI (UPI) — Triple-murderer David Leroy Washington has been spared from the electric chair at least until Friday.

Washington, scheduled to be electrocuted at 7 a.m. today, got a stay Tuesday when U.S. District Judge C. Clyde Atkins decided he wanted more time to determine whether the convict's attorney at his trial should have offered the court evidence of mitigating circumstances during sentencing.

Waters Indicted In Murder

ORLANDO, Fla. (UPI) — An Orange County grand jury has indicted a former school bus driver on first-degree murder charges for the February shooting death of 8-year-old Tshwanda Rene Leacock.

Katherine Daniels Waters, 28, of Orlando and a former county school bus driver, was indicted Tuesday after testimony from six witnesses, including Ms. Waters' daughter, Alfreda Daniels, 8.

'It Mushroomed Like An Atomic Bomb'

3 Dead, 3 Missing, 33 Injured In Grain Elevator Explosion

CORPUS CHRISTI, Texas (UPI) — Searchers today hunted for three missing workers in the rubble of a 14-story dockside elevator, ripped by a series of fiery explosions apparently touched off by machinery sparks. Three men were known dead and 33 were injured.

One witness compared the blasts, which occurred as the fine grain rolled into the elevator Tuesday, to an atomic bomb blast. Fires fed by plastic grain bags still were burning early today.

Several hours after the Texas elevator blasts, a grain elevator at Bellwood, Neb., exploded, killing one man and critically injuring two others.

Damage to the nearly gutted Corpus Christi complex, which consists of three clusters of silos and a 180-foot-high concrete control tower located beside a channel to the Gulf of Mexico, was estimated at $30 million.

Four silos were blown apart and 54 of the facility's 153 silos were heavily damaged.

An official of the Federal Grain Inspection Service said the facility, owned by Producers Grain Co-Op of Corpus Christi, was one of the "cleanest" in the nation and said the explosions could have been much worse if it had not been so well maintained.

Under the right conditions, an ounce of grain dust can be more explosive than an ounce of dynamite. To prevent such explosive conditions, the Texas company recently installed a dust collection system that cost about $3.5 million.

Officials early today identified the three missing people as employees of the Nueces County Navigation District and a security guard. Searchers hunted for them throughout the night.

Memorial Hospital identified two of the dead as Alfredo Canales, 52, and Richard Pierce, 44. The third victim, Jose Valdez, 32, died at Spohn Hospital.

Thirty-three workers also were reported injured. Army and Coast Guard helicopters had to dart through smoke to airlift victims — most suffering from burns — to hospitals.

The explosions occurred during the confusion of shift change, but the owners believed about 50 men were in the building at the time. Seven federal grain inspectors also happened to be on the scene — within 20 yards of the source of the explosion.

Six of the inspectors were hospitalized and two were in critical condition.

As the grain dust exploded, heavy concrete silos crumbled to the ground and roaring fires raced through the elevator complex. Smoke was visible for miles. Workers in an iron foundry a mile away felt the severe vibrations.

"It blew one big piece of cement, about 10 to 15 feet wide and just as long, onto a nearby road," said Darrell Johnson, assistant manager of a grain terminal nearby. "It was at least 75 to 80 yards away and halfway imbedded into the blacktop."

Don Rodman, director of public affairs for the Port of Corpus Christi, said the initial blast apparently occurred in a ground-level portion of the elevator alongside a channel at the port, with the initial spark likely coming from machinery.

"People say the explosion came with a long heavy rumble ..." Rodman said. "We suspect it began in the basement of the Sea House (the building along the channel). The source of ignition was probably equipment. Static is the other big cause, but our humidity is so high here humidity is not usually a problem."

'Heroic' Agent McCarthy Home, Has Reagan's Thanks

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Secret Service agent Timothy McCarthy is home from the hospital with a healing bullet wound from a would-be assassin and sincere thanks from President Reagan.

The former college football player, who made the block of his life last week in stopping a bullet aimed at Reagan, was discharged Tuesday from George Washington University Hospital.

"I thank you from the bottom of my heart," White House aides quoted Reagan as telling McCarthy during a visit in the president's hospital room.

Afterward, an emotional McCarthy, 31, spoke to reporters. His remarks were halted prematurely by tears.

"It's great to be alive and it's grand to be Irish," he gushed, after being unable to complete the thanks he planned for those who tended his wounds and helped his family.

His wife Carol, standing at his side, finished his remarks, after which they left for their suburban home.

During their visit, Reagan told McCarthy wealthy Republican contributor W. Clement Stone of Chicago had offered the McCarthys use of an Acapulco condominium for a recuperative vacation.

"Go and have fun," a White House statement quoted Reagan as telling McCarthy.

Secret Service agent Jerry Parr, who threw Reagan into his limousine and hurried him to the hospital after the shooting, told a congressional hearing last week McCarthy's behavior when the shots were fired was "heroic."

"He made himself bigger than life and interposed himself between the assailant and the president," Parr said. "He probably saved the president's life or my life."

McCarthy was lifted off his feet by a bullet to his stomach.

The son of a Chicago policeman, McCarthy played football at the University of Illinois, where he graduated in 1971 with a degree in finance. He joined the Secret Service shortly afterward.

McCarthy told reporters he and his wife "feel we have a lot of people we want to thank before we leave here and go home."

Then his mind went back to the assassination attempt eight days earlier outside the Washington Hilton Hotel. His voice wavered.

"The first people I'd like to thank is the crew of the (District of Columbia) fire ambulance No. 4," he said, choking on the words.

He paused to regain composure, but his eyes welled with tears: "And the gentleman (pause) who helped me on the street when I was shot."

He could not go on, and backed away from the microphone as his wife took his place.

"We'd also like to know who he is. We never got a name on him," she said, referring to the man who had tried to help.

Solidarity And Its Resolve

Once again, the leaders of Poland's Solidarity union have shown a remarkable talent for brinkmanship. They pressed their threat of an explosive general strike in the face of an ominous show of force by the Soviet Union, and appear to have won the day even if they did not get everything they were demanding.

The government has agreed to an investigation and trial of those responsible for the beating of Solidarity unionists March 9 in the city of Rydzgoszcz. Communist officials also gave some ground in Solidarity's effort to gain recognition for a new union of private farmers.

So the general strike that could have had disastrous results has been called off. Although Solidarity leader Lech Walesa has heard complaints from the rank and file that his negotiators did not get enough in return, there is no question that the independent trade union comes out of this crises in a strengthened position.

With their four-hour demonstration recently, the Solidarity unionists showed that they had the will and the unity to carry their cause to a showdown. The response from Moscow and the Communist Party leadership in Warsaw was equally determined. Official statements denounced Solidarity leaders as "counter-revolutionaries" engaging in "a fight against socialism," obviously laying down a justification for intervention by the Warsaw Pact troops conveniently staging maneuvers in and around Poland.

As they have done in the past, the Russians and their client government in Poland had to weigh the costs of attempting to suppress the Solidarity movement. The costs would be very high — the chaos and disruption of a general strike, and the international furor that would follow armed intervention. Again, paying such a price has been averted, at the expense of concessions which add to the stature of the Solidarity movement.

Moscow and the Polish Communist Party are accepting the existence of Solidarity as the lesser of two evils, at least for the time being. The concessions which averted a general strike have bought time for the government to try to stave off the economic disaster that threatens Poland even if political stability can be maintained.

President Reagan and the West European allies applied pressure at the right point at the right time. At the height of the negotiations in Poland recently, they let Warsaw know that no further economic aid would be forthcoming if there were an attempt to suppress the will of the Polish people. Not surprising, as soon as the strike threat was lifted, Polish emissaries in Paris and London were pleading with bankers for new loans and a rescheduling of Poland's huge foreign debt.

How far can Solidarity go? The movement's leaders say that "common sense" dictated acceptance of a limited victory in this latest confrontation with the government. It is hard to quarrel with that, given the potential for losing everything if a general strike precipitated Soviet intervention. But what happens next time?

Solidarity has shown it will go to the mat to defend what it has gained so far on behalf of Polish workers. If it will not retreat, neither is it likely to be willing to stand still. Solidarity will press for more concessions, and when it does, the fuse of the Polish crisis will begin to sputter again.

Wes Rinker probably knows more baseball than anyone in this area — especially when it comes to throwing a baseball.

The former New York Giants' left-hander is concerned with just that problem concerning today's younger ball players.

"They aren't learning to throw properly and it becomes a tough thing to change when they get older," pointed out Rinker.

One of Rinker's prize pupils is San Francisco Giants hopeful David Wiggins.

"Wes really helped me a lot," said Wiggins earlier this spring. "He knows a lot of baseball, if you'll just listen to him and do what he says."

Joining Wiggins in his praise of Rinker's teaching is veteran Montreal Expos' scout Harry Moore.

"I've been a lot of places and seen a lot of camps," said Moore during a Dugout Club meeting Tuesday. "But none of them compare with what Wes has."

"His facilities are fantastic. There isn't nothing he can't teach or show you at this complex," revealed Moore.

Area youngsters will have a chance to do just that beginning Monday, April 13 when Rinker will conduct a three-day clinic at his Florida Baseball School located at Sanford Memorial Stadium.

Boys ages eight to 12 are offered a 9 a.m. to 12 noon session Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday for a cost of $30.

An older session of boys ages 13 to 18 will follow from 12 noon to 4 p.m.

Simple fundamentals such as throwing, catching, fielding and hitting will be emphasized. "We are not interested in teaching by position until each simple fundamental is accomplished," said Rinker.

Applications are available at the stadium at 323-1046.

Sanford's Pilot Club will host a Special Olympics Invitational Saturday April 11 at Centennial Park beginning at 8 a.m.

The Frisbee Throw and a 50-meter dash are two of the scheduled events. The games are sanctioned by the Seminole County Association for Retarded Citizens.

Coinciding with the meet will be a "Run For Health" beginning at 9 a.m. The 5,000-meter run is open to everyone with a final registration by 8 the morning of the race.

Learning To Speak Camouflage

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Life magazine reveals in its April issue that Jeane Kirkpatrick, America's permanent representative to the United Nations and President Reagan's top woman appointee, has a serious speech impediment.

She is unable to obfuscate. "I have already learned that sometimes my sentences are too short and my meanings too clear," the ambassador is quoted as lamenting. "I must learn to obfuscate."

Mrs. Kirkpatrick's inability to speak circuitously filled me not only with pity for her plight but with concern for the efficiency of the mission she heads.

Diplomats live by the nuance and die by the nuance. For a diplomat, lucidity can be a fatal flaw. Not for naught is the State Department known as "the fudge factory."

When I think of obfuscation, I think of James Boren, founding father and once and future president of the National Association of Professional Bureaucrats.

Through seminars on such topics as "Fingertapping for Promotion and Pleasure" and "The Contrathink Contributions of the Yesbutlers of America," Boren has devoted a lifetime to the spread of what he calls "lateral communication."

Upon learning of Mrs. Kirkpatrick's affliction, I got in touch with the veteran muckraker to see whether he might venture a prognosis.

Boren agreed the United Nations is no place for verbal simplicity. As he put it: "She will never reach the optimum of her new pursuits unless she learns to profundify the justifications of her options."

The fact that Mrs. Kirkpatrick, a former university professor, "got as far as she did in the academic world without mastering the art" seemed to him a bad sign.

I asked Boren whether obfuscation might be a God-given talent rather than an acquired skill. He replied in the negative.

"While some people have inherent tendencies, obfuscation is mostly the result of childhood training," he said.

Infants pick up a knack for obfuscation from hearing their parents mumbling "kootchykootchy-koo" and other unintelligible sounds, he explained.

I looked into Mrs. Kirkpatrick's background to see if I could find any clue to the cause of her handicap. The Life article was singularly opaque. It said:

"She grew up in Oklahoma, and her father, an oil wildcatter, was a New Deal Democrat. Her husband, a professor of government, was a close friend of Hubert Humphrey's, and she married, she says, 'into a Humphrey milieu.'"

Certainly there is nothing there, particularly in the "Humphrey milieu," to account for her predisposition for short sentences and clear meanings.

Nevertheless, Boren is confident Mrs. Kirkpatrick "can quickly learn to fuzzle the supermotivate of the upper structure" at the United Nations once she puts her mind to it. "The environment is ready for it," he said.

Volunteer Army: Illiterate, Untrained

WASHINGTON — Nine out of 10 American soldiers who operate and maintain the Army's nuclear weapons in Western Europe flunked basic tests of their military skills last year. This is an appalling statistic, but frankly, it comes as no great surprise. For years I have warned about the deterioration of our armed services.

While the shocking details have often been hidden from the American public, our GIs' inadequacy is no secret to our allies. West German Foreign Minister Hans Matwoer once remarked in disgust, "At least our soldiers do not use drugs and can read and write."

My associate Ron McRae has seen classified studies that leave no doubt about the cause of our problem: The United States has put the burden of its defense largely on the poor and uneducated. As a result, with the Defense Department about to spend billions on sophisticated new weapons, the services don't even have properly trained personnel to man the weapons we already have.

Here are some of the depressing details from unpublished reports:

— Not only did 90 percent of U.S. nuclear weapons technicians fail their basic-skills tests, but 86 percent of the Army's artillery crewmen flunked, as did 77 percent of the computer programmers, 86 percent of the tracked-vehicle mechanics and 83 percent of the Hawk surface-to-air missile crews.

— Many technical manuals have been converted to comic-book formats because the Army's technicians can't understand standard written instructions. One unit found that a third of its supervisory personnel were functionally illiterate. Black soldiers, incidentally, score better than whites, apparently because the Army is seen as a road to opportunity by blacks — but a dead-end by better-educated whites.

— In NATO competitions, hand-picked American crews finish dead last with dismal regularity. In a recent gunnery exercise, American crews failed to score a single hit, while allied gunners racked up scores of 70 percent or better.

— In all of the Army's combat units, there is a total of just 25 enlisted men with college degrees serving their first enlistment. Since World War II, college-educated enlisted men have kept the paper-work flowing as clerks and supply personnel. Now these functions have to be done by junior officers or senior noncommissioned officers with better things to do.

— Multimillion-dollar aircraft are sitting idle because the maintenance staff doesn't know how to order spare parts, or because there aren't enough trained mechanics to keep the planes serviceable.

The Army might take a leaf from the Marine Corps, which emphasizes quality in its recruits — "a few good men." The Marines claim they now have the finest personnel they've ever had, and outside experts agree.

The Reagan administration has signaled its intention to make service careers more attractive, and Congress seems to be in a mood to go along. But many experts are pessimistic. They see no way to lure the better-educated middle class back into military service voluntarily.

Headlines and Footnotes: The Department of Energy, apparently kowtowing to the Reagan administration's nuclear-oriented energy program, has refused to publish a study by its Solar Energy Research Institute pushing conservation and "renewable energy" to eliminate dependence on foreign oil. But word leaked out anyway. Both senior policy advisor John McClaughry and Stanley Schneider of the White House Office of Science and Technology have requested copies of the study... Television producer Norman Lear has formed People for the American Way to counteract the Moral Majority's drive to monitor sex and violence on the tube. He has discussed the situation with comedian Woody Allen privately, but says that "not a lot of entertainment people are involved." Lear claims the "Christian Right" is threatening Americans' "freedom to hold any opinion without fear."

'Stand Up For America'

I notice "Stand Up for America!" was the theme of an area-wide rally in Orlando Saturday. The sponsors should be congratulated, and the event should have been endorsed and supported by Central Florida residents.

Too often such an announcement evokes grudging indulgence or a patronizing smirk. Patriotism! America! Why bother? Who cares anyway?

Some still suffer from guilt-complex hangovers from the Vietnam era and become apologetic whenever the flag is waved. Others think "Good news is no news," and prefer moralistic muckraking which ferrets out the dirty linen of those in high office while others delight in castigating the leaders, goals, and policies of the American government.

Maybe it's time to stop and rethink our values, to ask where we really stand. What difference does it actually make? Why should we "Stand up for America?"

Unless we stand up for America, no one else will. If we join its detractors, we help undermine the foundation upon which America has been built. If our comments are all negative, or our voices are silent, we are kicking out the pillars upon which freedom stands. Unless our backbone is firm and our voices strong, we cannot survive.

When we lose the spirit and will to be proud of our heritage, our goals, our aspirations, our achievements as an American nation, we may as well dig the grave and push her ignominiously into oblivion.

For in spite of its weaknesses and mistakes, no other nation has offered as much in freedom and opportunity to so many people of all races, religions and ethnic backgrounds. No one else has given as much to help the needy and the underprivileged of many lands. No one else has stood so firmly in keeping the world from being engulfed by tyranny and oppression — both from the right and from the left.

It's time to refresh our minds on the positive achievements which have become a part of our heritage. It's time to restate the ideals which frame the foundation upon which we have built. It's time to reinforce our strength, our courage, our determination that America might stand tall and straight as a benevolent giant among the nations. It's time to achieve a positive outlook in which loyalty and patriotism are something to be aspired after and admired, rather than scoffed at and derided.

It's time to "Stand up for America!"

and to be proud of it.

Scientific Creationism

The Creationists state their case in a book entitled "Scientific Creationism." A few salient points about this book are worth noting:

1. It is thorough-going theology, being mainly a fanciful exposition of the Creation and Flood accounts in Genesis.

2. The book claims that creationism may be taught in the public classroom without bringing up God and the Bible. But, the first Chapter stresses the importance of telling students of the origin of any subject they are to be taught. The public school edition is issued without Biblical references.

3. The general edition concludes with Chapter VIII, "Creation According to Scripture" and has 190 Biblical references ranging from Genesis through Revelations. This chapter is omitted from the public school edition.

4. The book poses the "creation model" and the "evolution model" for origins. The "creation model" is presented as the only acceptable account of origins and the "evolution model" is presented as being utter fallacy and its foundations must be destroyed.

5. For goals beyond creationism in the classroom, the book declares that textbooks must be rewritten, that teachers must be retrained, that true education in every grade, in every institution everywhere should be structured around creationism.

6. The book polarizes the two models completely in Chapter I and maintains this polarization throughout the book.

7. The book makes its very clear that accepting a bit of creationism and a bit of evolution is impossible, even un-Christian and

8. Perhaps most ominous of all is the declaration that a beginning toward a goal must be made and that toward attaining its goals, God is on the creationists' side so that nothing is impossible.

"Scientific Creationism" should be more widely read, especially by public school officials. Open debate on its contents and its implementation in the classroom is the surest way to resolve the controversy about creationism in the public classroom.

Rulers Relax Grip On China's Economy

By JOHN L. STROHM
Second In A Series

The economy of China is in the throes of far-reaching revolutionary change.

Many of the words heard in today's China would warm the cockles of any capitalist's heart. Those words include management, cost accounting, quality control, profits, bonuses. Banks can charge interest, and factories can base production plans on "market demand." After the communist take-over in 1949, China's leaders patterned their country's economy on the Soviet model. But their successors are now admitting the impracticality of having Peking bureaucrats make decisions for every Chinese farm, school and factory.

"The government stupidly ordered us to grow grain," says Liu Hual, head of the Red Star Commune, "when we should have been growing vegetables for the Peking markets." China is discarding a system of iron-clad government controls over all economic activity and separating the Communist Part from the actual business of running the farms and factories. The state, however, still owns the means of production.

Decisions on what to grow and what to produce are increasingly being made at the local level. Management now has the power to buy, to sell, to trade, to make a profit and to give bonuses to workers.

Vice Premier Yao Yilina reported to last year's People's Congress that 6,000 state-owned enterprises now have "self-management." They can market what they produce above the state-imposed quota and keep the resulting after-tax profits.

In Sichuan Province, 84 local enterprises increased their output 14.9 percent and their profits by 33 percent between 1978 and 1980 because they were "encouraged to improve their work by their own resources."

In Shanghai, 400 textile mills were allowed to keep 9.5 percent of their profits as worker bonuses. That was worth an additional two month's wages for each worker.

By decentralizing industry, China is trying to make better use of the huge force of perhaps 600 million underemployed workers on the farms. Thousands of factories are being set up on the 50,000 communes.

The Xin Hua Commune, near Canton, has a dozen small factories that make such diverse products as glassware, textiles, sewing machines and farm machinery. The door has been opened to limited private enterprise. Within the last year, the number of licensed traders, peddlers and craftsmen jumped from 250,000 to 400,000.

A person now can open a small restaurant or a shop to repair bicycles or shoes. He can make a profit at the enterprise, but he cannot hire workers outside his family unless that profit is shared.

Peasants can again grow their own crops — to eat or to sell on the free market — on the garden-size private plots that had been abolished by the infamous Gang of Four.

The Chinese are trying out a new socialist slogan: "From each according to his ability, to each according to the work performed." I saw and heard this slogan everywhere.

In one factory, I saw a big report card that graded employees on attendance, punctuality, quality and quantity of work, saving of material, safety, discipline and study.

"The Chinese would rather work than loaf," noted a U.S. diplomat. "Give a man a job — no matter how lowly — and he'll work overtime to keep it."

Professors, reviled under Mao, earn $150 to $250 monthly. The prime minister makes about $325.

China recently announced at new 45-percent tax on everyone — including foreigners — who made more than $540 a month. Only about 20 of the billion Chinese earn that much. They are mainly artists and scientists.

The Chinese goal is to raise average wages to $1,000 annually — about four times the current level — by the year 2000. Officials readily admit that Japanese workers earned that much back in 1950.

Given the Western technology that they covet plus a government policy that truly encourages profit-making, the Chinese may soon be turning out everything from automobiles to television sets of a quality and at a cost that will send shock waves through the industrialized West.

At farmers' markets like this one, peasants sell the crops that they have grown on the garden-size private plots that were recently reintroduced by China's new leaders.

PEOPLE IN BRIEF

Duo Paired Again

Edward Herrmann and Jane Alexander are in love again — but again strictly for the camera. They made a splendid couple as the Roosevelts in ABC's dramatization of Joe Lash's "Eleanor and Franklin" and its sequel about "The White House Years." Now they will play George Bernard Shaw and Mrs. Patrick Campbell, the actress for whom Shaw wrote "Pygmalion," in a PBS Hallmark Hall of Fame production of Jerome Kilty's play, "Dear Liar." It was the witty Mrs. Campbell who once remarked, "I don't mind where people make love, so long as they don't do in on the street and frighten the horses."

To Play Famous Couple

Bob Hope somehow always winds up a bevy of cuddly young ladies. This time he selected "Flamingo Road's" Morgan Fairchild, "Bosom Buddies'" Donna Dixon and upcoming NBC-TV movie "Star Maker" co-star Teri Copley as the "most beautiful and hottest young stars in Hollywood" to appear on his April 13 NBC-TV special "Bob Hope's Spring Fling of Glamor and Comedy." Also starring on the show are Loni Anderson, Melissa Manchester, Jill St. John and Brooke Shields.

Glimpses

John Denver didn't win an Oscar, but he did win an Osborn. Denver and three production assistants won the Aviation-Space Writers Association's Earl D. Osborn award for the television film, "The Higher We Fly" ... Connie Francis, who has vowed not to work again as a singer or actress, is writing her autobiography ... Vice President George Bush will not pinch hit for President Reagan and throw out the first pitch of the 1981 baseball season in Cincinnati Wednesday — too busy with White House duties ... Elke Sommer will join emcee Bob Barker as hostess for the Miss USA beauty pageant telecast on CBS May 21

Caroline Has Own Flat

Caroline Kennedy, 23, has her own pad now. While Jacqueline Kennedy Onassis rattles around in her Fifth Avenue apartment, according to the May issue of Metropolitan Home magazine, her daughter has moved into a flat on Manhattan's Upper West Side — a trendy but not elitist neighborhood. Caroline's apartment is described as a three-bedroom triplex with library in a 100-year-old brownstone. How does Caroline pay the almost $2,000 a month rent? With the help of two roommates — male friends from her college days, the magazine says.

Hollywood's Hottest

Universal Studios is suing actor Jack Klugman for at least $10 million because the star of the popular "Quincy" television series refused to show up for work. In its breach-of-contract suit filed Monday in Superior Court, the studio said Klugman refused to participate in the March 25 filming for this season's 19th episode of "Quincy." No reason was given for his alleged absence.

Universal Sues Klugman

Drummer Gil Moore of the British rock group Triumph — banned from some gigs in its early years for being "too explosive" — thinks it was a bum rap. Then he described one incident at a nightclub: "They had sprinklers and we had this torch. The torch hit the sprinklers and they all came on. Everybody in the place was soaked head to foot and there was about 2 inches of water on the floor. The owner came back loaded with Scotch and we thought he was going to kill us. Instead he said it was the best show the idiots in his place ever had. Apparently, he likes his Scotch with a little water."

SCC 31-0 For Season

Raiders Stomp CF For 8th Division 2 Tennis Crown 8-1

By SAM COOK
Herald Sports Editor

Seminole Community College clinched an automatic playoff berth for the state tennis meet by whipping Central Florida Community College 7-2 Tuesday at SCC. "We're definitely the top two tennis teams in the state," said Coach Larry Castle. The Raiders ripped CFCC 8-1 in an earlier match at Ocala. The victory moved SCC to a sparkling 31-0 record. Among the Raider victims this year have been Division I powerhouses like Indiana, Ohio State and Southern Illinois University-Carbondale. The win also marked the eighth straight year which the Raiders have won the division title. The state meet will be in three weeks at Cocoa Beach hosted by Brevard JC.

Thursday SCC hosts Brevard and Friday, the Raiders travel to Valencia. The Brevard tilt is at 1:30 p.m. and the VCC match at 12:30 p.m.

Tuesday, number one singles player Andy Veal dropped CFCC's Ola Malquist 6-2 and 7-6. The tiebreaker score was 7-2. "Andy got way ahead and sort of relaxed," said Castle about his number one player who is being courted by 30 major colleges. "But he came back and got him when he needed to. Veal is 28-2 this year.

Seminole lost the second singles as Lasse Mannisto dropped identical 7-5 sets after winning the first one 6-2.

Former Lake Brantley standout Rich Shanklin turned back David Goodman 2-6, 6-3, 6-2. The victory improved Shanklin's record to 28-1.

"Rich is a very strong hitter and a very good serve and volley player," said Castle about his Vanderbilt University transfer.

Nevet Demir then whipped CF's Frederic Hellestrom 7-5, 6-2 and Winter Park's Jon Poling disposed of David Barren easily 6-3, 6-2 to run his record to 16-1.

"Jon plays with his head. He doesn't have as much talent as some of the others, but he's so smart and gritty he beats you," said Castle.

Panama City's Troy McQuagge then clinched the victory for the Raiders by smashing George Husicowzowski by identical 6-2 scores.

last year and is a returning state champ at number five singles. Pensacola dropped its program.

In the doubles, Veal and Shanklin lost to Hawkins and Goodman 6-3, 4-6, 7-5. Mannisto and Timo Palo, however, handled Hellestrom and Husicowzowski 6-2, 3-6, 7-5.

McQuagge and Poling then capped the afternoon by downing Barren and Malquist 6-2, 6-7, 6-2.

Oh Mee, Oh My, Jimmy Homer Makes Raiders Fly, Vikings Cry

By SAM COOK
Herald Sports Editor

DeLand's Jimmy Mee crashed a dramatic three-run home run in the bottom of the eighth inning Tuesday to lift Seminole Community College by St. Johns Junior College 7-5 in Division II baseball action at SCC.

"I thought we'd lost," said Coach Jack Pantellas who saw his club enter the seventh inning on the short end of a 5-1 score.

"But I thought we'd lose that Valencia game too," mused the grizzled veteran. "I guess these guys just don't want to lose."

Raider starter John Thompson was in trouble right away in the second inning. The slender right-hander gave up a base hit to designated hitter Tom Sims and then St. Johns' Jeff Dixon took out of the park over the right field fence for a 2-0 lead.

SCC, though, retaliated in the bottom of the inning when Vince Riva singled, was wild pitched to second and then moved to third on a wild pick-off attempt by Viking starter Rich Overturf. Riva eventually scored on another wild pitch.

Following the second inning, Overturf stymied the Raiders, retiring 11 in succession before DH Tommy Clarke singled in the fifth inning.

St. John knocked out Thompson in the fifth when Darren Stricklin led off the inning with a home run.

Pantellas went to former Lyman ace Rick Marcello, but the Vikings added two more runs on a bloop hit and a passed ball by Mee on a strike-out which would have ended the inning.

Left-hander Eddie Augustine came on to get Eddie Hickox to ground into a force at second on a nice stab by third sacker Riva.

Despite being in arrears 5-1, the Raiders used some aggressive baserunning to move back into the game.

"We were lethargic," pointed out Pantellas. "We had to do something to get back into it."

In the seventh, shortstop Bobby McCullough beat out a high hopper which the shortstop failed to come up with.

The swift Canadian stole second, then came home on a ringing double by Clarke to right center field.

The roof fell in on Overturf in the eighth. Second baseman Bob Parker lined out to deep center, but Daytona Beach's Tony Beal started the rally by getting hit by a pitch.

Jeff "Bear" Blanton followed with a walk of his own and the clutch-hitting Riva grounded a single to left scoring Beal who had stolen second and third.

That signaled the end for Overturf. Right-hander Bruce Beque came on to protect the 5-3 Viking lead.

His first pitch to Mee was belt high and the quick-wristed slugger deposited it way beyond the left field fence for a 6-5 Raider lead and a hero's welcome upon arrival at home plate.

The home run was Mee's sixth of the year, just two behind the record held by Marvin Evans. Three of Mee's last four have been three-run shots.

SCC added an insurance run when McCullough singled, swiped second and continued to third as Alan Mattox's throw went into center field.

DH Clarke then dropped a perfect suicide squeeze bunt to score McCullough and give Augustine some breathing room going into the ninth at 7-5.

Augustine, the Raiders' lone southpaw, twirled four and one-third scoreless innings. McCullough helped out with five assists including four in succession during the eighth and ninth frames.

The resurgent Raiders have won eight straight division games to move into first place at 8-3. They are 18-16 over-all.

Seminole Community College recently honored its basketball players for the finest record in the school's history.

The Raiders finished 29-3 and were feted by Flagship Bank with a dinner at the SCC Eatery. Forward Lonnie Jones was named Most Valuable.

Sanford's Bruce McCray was the scoring leader with 20.3 points a game. Travis Filer was the field goal percentage pacesetter with a 59.6 percentage.

Seabreeze's Eric Ervin led the team in assists and drawing the charging foul. Former Lake Howell gunner Reggie Barnes was the best free throw shooter at 80 per cent.

Sophomore Everett Harner was given the leadership plaque. Former Seminoles Keith Whitney and Reggie Butler both received certificates.

McCray, Filer and Jones were named to the All-Division team. McCray was also accorded All-State honors while Filer was picked All-State Tournament.

Harner was named All-Scholastic for his 3.6 grade point average. Forest City Bank donated the seven plaques.

One thing for certain when Seminole and Lyman get together for a softball game — it's close.

The Lady Tribe took its second squeaker of the year Tuesday — this time 6-5 — over Cindy Henry's Lady Greyhounds in Longwood.

Seminole put four big runs on the board in the first inning, added a pair in the third and then survived a furious five-run rally by Lyman in the sixth inning.

"We played super defense all the way through," exclaimed Tribe Coach Beth Corso. "It was three up and three down most of the time."

At least it was until the sixth when the 'Hounds tallied their five runs.

The big hit in the inning was a single by sophomore Michelle Kulrt which scored three runs when Sanford's Tony Hardy misplayed the ball allowing Kulrt to reach third.

Hardy's error, however, was the only Tribe miscue of the day.

In the Seminole first, Dee Hogan, Johnnie Bennett and Cindy Pendarvis

all singled to load the bases.

Hardy then glapped a single to right which got past the right fielder allowing Hogan and Bennett to score.

Robin Riggins flew out, but Jackie Link ripped a double to left to score Pendarvis and Hardy for a 4-0 lead.

It was Pendarvis again in the third who started the uprising with a single. Hardy flew out to left, but Riggins crunched a triple to center field which scored Pendarvis.

When the throw got away from the infield, Riggins raced home with what proved to be the eventual winning run.

Seminole is now 7-4 in the Five Star Conference and 9-7 for the year. Lyman dropped to 5-6 in conference.

Friday night the Tribe travels to Daytona Beach for a big double-header with Mainland (7 p.m.) and Spruce Creek (8:30 p.m.). Lyman will also play a twinbill with the same two teams. The game will be held at Derbyshire Park.

Seminole Goes For Fifth Straight Tonight At 7:30

Seminole's baseball team goes after its fifth straight victory tonight when they host the Mainland Ducks at 7:30 at Sanford Memorial Stadium.

Coach Bobby Lundquist's Tribe is fresh from a marathon 12-inning victory over Lyman 3-2 Monday night.

Sophomore Greg Hill went the distance for the Tribe, striking out 14 batters to even his record at 5-5.

Lundquist feels he may have found a solid catcher in junior Greg Register. The tough receiver cut off one Lyman rally with a nice scoop and tag play at the plate in the sixth inning. Register also knocked in the first two Sanford runs with a bases-loaded single up the middle off Mike Dreibelbis.

The Seminoles junior-laden unit (five starters) has put it together in the last two weeks, but can't catch Lake Howell, who clinched the Five Star crown Monday.

"There's no doubt they're the best team," said Lundquist. "But we might have a surprise for them in the district."

Lake Howell plays at Winter Park today, while Lyman travels to Lake Brantley. The Patriots have lost four straight after a solid start.

Sanford's Lee Holt sets up to return in forehand smash in last weekend's 4th Annual Bayhead Raquet Club's Tennis Tournament. The tournament drew some of the best players in the state for the three-day affair.

Mitchell Fuels Petroleum Explosion

Unbeaten Flagship Bank had to score five runs in the top of the last inning Tuesday to settle for a tie with Krayola Kollege in action in the Sanford Little American League.

With the score deadlocked at 12-12, the game was called because of darkness. It will be resumed at 5 p.m. Friday at Fort Mellon Park.

In other games, defending league champ Atlantic Bank dumped Jack Prosser Ford and Seminole Petroleum blasted Butch's Chevron by identical 14-4 scores. Both games were called after four innings under the 10-run slaughter rule.

In today's action in the Sanford Little National League, Poppa Jay's (2-0) plays the Railroaders (2-1) at 5 p.m. at Westside Field, while at Fort Mellon Park Sanford D.A.V. Chapter 30 (1-1) plays Clem Leonard Shell (0-3) at 5 p.m. and Cardinal Industries (0-2) battles First Federal (3-0) at 7 p.m. In the Sanford Junior League at Chase Park, Moose plays Rotary at 5 p.m., while Kiwanis plays Elks at 7 p.m.

Krayola Kollege scored six runs in the bottom of the first inning and held the lead until the top of the sixth when Flagship Bank scored five runs on just two hits. The big hit of the inning was a towering 250-foot homer over the Bay Avenue Field fence by Jack Jackson, Flagship's second pitcher.

Jason Heffington went the distance on the mound for Krayola Kollege, striking out 12.

Atlantic Bank scored three runs in the top of the first on singles by David Rape and Clay Hickman and a double by Scott Waisanen and then picked up seven runs in the second inning as Leslie Thomas, Rape, Eddie Korgan, Hickman, Waisanen and Mike Luster rapped consecutive singles.

Clay Hickman went the distance on the mound for Atlantic Bank, allowing five hits while fanning six. Three of those Jack Prosser hits were collected by Gregg Pond.

Tom Mitchell was a one-man show for Seminole Petroleum.

On the mound, Mitchell tamed Butch's Chevron with nine strikeouts in four innings. At the plate, the lanky 11-year-old smashed two home runs and a double.

Both of Mitchell's homers came in the third inning when Seminole Petroleum scored 11 runs to break the game wide open. The second homer was a grand slam.

Gary Derr rapped a double and single and Jerry Harkness slapped two singles to pace Butch's.

SANFORD SOCCER CLUB

Ray, Sanford Boatworks Throttle Winter Park 4-1

Chris Ray showed the way Saturday with a goal and an assist as Sanford's Boatworks throttled Winter Park 4-1 in Division B age 12 and under soccer.

Joining Ray in the romp were Mike Renaud, Matt Albert and Danny Bachrach with goals. Albert's boot was a 40 yard direct kick.

David Farr, Lance Broderick, Robert Brantley and Scott Waisanen were the defensive standout. Keeper Tim Deppen only had to deal with four Winter Park shots on goal.

Boatworks is 2-2-1.

In another, Sanford Soccer Club "B" division game, Sanford's Rich Plan of Florida tied South East

Orange 2-2. Sheldon Richards and Eddie Chaplin had the local goals. Rich Plan is 2-1-1 and plays F.C. United Saturday.

In an age 12 and under "C" division game, Downtown ripped Sanford's Kiwanis 4-1 as Brian Yeager booted the only goal for Kiwanis.

Kawanis is 1-4 and plays Pine Hills at Valencia Saturday.

Dropping down to age eight and under "B" Division, Sanford's Burger King blanked College Park 2-0.

Raymond Tossi and Barry Coleman booted the Burger King goals. Tossi's came on a penalty kick. Sweeper Brad Morris did a good job for Burger King who will participate in the Jari International Tournament at the Sheraton Twin Towers April 11-12.

Burger King is 2-1-2.

In another age eight and under match, Winter Park blasted Sanford's Ellman Battery 7-0. The loss kept Ellman Battery winless for the year at 0-4-1. They play Southeast Orange Saturday.

Moving to age 10 and under play, Sanford 001 scored three goals in the second half to upend Pine Hills 082-4-3.

Jason Helmadollar turned the hat trick for Sanford by booting one first-half goal and two more in the second period.

Charles Tolle had the other score for Sanford which won for the first time against four losses. Matthew Williams played outstanding defense and Jason Milton added an assist.

In an age 10 and under "B" division contest, Pine Hills 080 dropped Sanford's New Smyrna Speedway 4-1 as Phillip Cox scored the only goal on an assist from Chuck Roll.

SNSS, 2-3, plays Pine Hills at Red Bug Park Saturday.

Mulland 081 pushed in three second-half goals to trip Sanford's 080 Dell's Auction 3-1. Scott Burton tallied the Dell's Auction goal on an assist from Tim Waisanen.

Five Points Roundup

Fry Burns Badcock 19-5

Casselberry's Rose Fry slammed five hits and drove in seven runs leading Badcock Furniture to a 19-5 romp over Winter Springs in Five Points girls softball.

Among Fry's hits were two doubles, a triple and a base-loaded home run. She also turned in an errorless game at shortstop.

Dawn Hill and Denise Stevens joined Fry in the slugfest with a round tripper each. Hill plated three runs and Stevens two.

Badcock hurler Noel Durranne limited Winter Springs to five hits. "Noel pitched a super ball game," said Coach Jim Hill.

H D Realty put together two wins in the past week by edging Badcock 10-8 in nine innings and trouncing GOH 16-1.

In the extra inning victory, Lisa Simkins scored all the way from first base on a Badcock error for the gamewinner.

H D's Kathy Richardson came up with the key hit in the seventh to tie the game among her three hits which drove in three runs. Simkins, Christie Kaiser and Lisa Santulli each had two hits.

Denise Stevens turned in a solid game defensively for Badcock.

In the out over GOH, Karen DeShetler storked four singles good for two RBI. Karen Brady had two hits and drove in two runs.

In Pinto play, First Federal of Seminole blasted Casselberry's Dulando Screen 20-9.

Michelle Campbell scored three runs and Michelle Bean sparked defensively for First Federal.

Tropic Bank's Kristi Burns singled and doubled, driving in two runs as the Seminole Bank dimmed Central Florida Ultralight 8-3.

Kelly Soles helped out with two singles and two RBI. Jenny Cozart and Jennie Meinecke limited Ultralight with their fine pitching. Meinecke struck out three batters in the sixth as Tropic improved to 6-1.

Another bank — State Bank of Forest City — deposited two victories over Central Florida Circuits 9-2 and Rinker Materials 29-7.

An 11-run first inning did in Rinker as Susan Rogers picked up the pitching victory.

Lisa Gregory and Bev Slough each rapped four hits to pace State Bank. Laura Davis added two singles, a double and scored three runs.

In the other Bronco win for State Bank, Terry Blayney limited Central Florida Circuits to just two runs as Kim Averill slapped two singles to drive in two runs.

Forest City is 7-1 for the season.

Winter Springs Community Church pushed across a run in the seventh inning to tip Salvagios Girls 16-15.

WSSC's Tracey Wilkerson ripped two three-baggers to chase home five runs.

Suzanne Adams turned in two sterling catches in the outfield to hold off Salvagios in the last two innings.

Casselberry's Pizza Den exploded for six runs in the sixth inning to whip A and D Plumbing 11-5 and remain unbeaten in Mustang action.

Jadon Jonas rocked a home run and Christine Meyers smacked two triples.

Swinging to boys Pinto action, The Pass Sporting Goods used three home runs to beat a stubborn Longwood I team 4-1.

Jamie Mocny unloaded a two-run blast in the fifth inning and Travis Lloyd and Robbie Dominica added solo shots to keep The Pass unbeaten at 6-0. Mocny also had a single for Coach Greg Ebbert's sluggers.

Donnie McGinnis went 3-for-3 and scored on a passed ball in the seventh inning to lift Forest City II past Casselberry 6-5 in Bronco play.

Bill Neville whiffed 11 hitters as Forest City II edged Forest City III 5-3. Neville also banged out three hits including a double. Scott Hubbard also ripped a double.

Casselberry's Smith Insurance used a two-hit shutout by Eddie Taubensee to crush Forest City's Swim 'N' Stuff 18-0.

Coach David Geiger's Fat Boys Bar-B-Que continued to roll up impressive wins as they zoomed to 9-0 for the year in Mustang action.

Steven Kelley, Chris Hudson and Brian Keller combined to no-hit Quaid Fencing 18-0. Hudson was the winner as he hurled three perfect frames.

Donny Hayes drove in three runs with two doubles and a single. He also scored four runs.

Ken Schrupp chased home four runs with a triple and two doubles. Hudson also collected three hits.

Cook Of The Week: Betty Jack

She Enjoys The Hostess Role

By JANE AKERS
Herald Correspondent

"To be a good cook, you have to like to cook as well as have time for it," says Betty Jack.

Betty and Bill Jack, of 2105 Glenway Drive, Sanford own their own business where Betty is secretary and bookkeeper. Mrs. Jack has always been active in community affairs. She has served on the Ballet Guild of Sanford-Seminole Board of Directors, belonged to the Sanford Garden Club and is a past member of the Woman's Club of Sanford.

As an active member of Beta Sigma Phi sorority for the past 14 years, Betty has held every office in her chapter as well as being president three times. She has also served as president of Beta Sigma Phi's City Council.

While working full time and community work keeping her busy, Betty enjoys reading. "I always have time for my granddaughters, Aleisha and Jackwln," smiles Betty.

"I find it hard to cook for just two people," admits Betty. "With children married and gone, it takes a while to adjust to cooking for two people." Betty enjoys cooking holiday meals for her family and likes to cook for a crowd.

The recipes that follow are some of her favorites and are suitable for two or a crowd.

CREAMY CRANBERRY SALAD

1 can (8 oz) crushed pineapple
1 package strawberry flavored gelatin
1-3rd cup mayonnaise
1/4 tsp salt
2 tbsps vinegar
1 small can (2-3rd cup) evaporated milk
1 can (16 oz) whole cranberry sauce
Drain juice from pineapple into a measuring cup. Add enough water to make 3/4 cup liquid. Heat to boiling. Dissolve gelatin in liquid, cool slightly. Combine mayonnaise, salt and vinegar. Gradually add cooled gelatin mixture. Stir until smooth. Mix in milk, pineapple and cranberries. Pour into oiled 5-cup gelatin mold. Chill until firm. Serves 8.

LIME JELLO SALAD

1 large box lime jello
1 8 oz. can crushed pineapple
1 cup small curd cottage cheese

Betty Jack says she finds it hard to cook for just two people.

1 container whipping cream
1 cup miniature marshmallows
Drain pineapple juice into measuring cup, then add enough water to make 1 cup, mix jello and liquid in saucepan, bring to boil (about 3 minutes). Let cool, pour into mold, whip cream and set aside. Add pineapple, cottage cheese to jello mixture, then add whip cream, mixing very well, add marshmallows. Refrigerate overnight. Serves 10.

SOUR CREAM SALAD

1 large carton sour cream
1 can mandarin oranges
1 cup coconut
1 cup miniature marshmallows
Drain oranges, mix all ingredients together, put in large bowl and refrigerate overnight. Serves 6.

APPLE SAUCE CAKE

1/2 lb. butter
2 cup sugar
1/2 cup chopped nuts

1 1/2 cup seedless raisins
2 1/2 tsp cinnamon
1 1/2 tsp cloves
2 tsp soda
1/2 tsp salt
1/2 cup Wesson Oil
3 cups flour
2 cups applesauce
2 eggs beaten

Cream butter and oil, add sugar and cream well. Add beaten eggs, nuts, raisins. Mix flour with spices, soda and salt, add to mixture, then add applesauce. Bake in slow oven at 250 - 300 degrees for 1 hour in tube pan.

BROCCOLI CASSEROLE

2 pkgs frozen broccoli
2 eggs beaten
1/2 cup mayonnaise
1 can mushroom soup
2 tbsps grated onion
1 cup grated cheese
salt and pepper
Cheese crackers, melted butter and additional grated cheese.

Cook broccoli 5 minutes, cool and drain. Combine broccoli, eggs, mayonnaise, soup, onion, cheese, salt and pepper. Place in greased casserole. Bake 30 - 45 minutes, top with cheese crackers which have been mixed with melted butter and additional grated cheese.

SQUASH CASSEROLE

2 large packages frozen squash
1/2 cup chopped onion
2 eggs beaten
1/2 cup milk
3 slices bread, cut up
salt and pepper
2 tbsps butter
1 cup velveta cheese or 1 can cheddar cheese soup.
Cook squash for 5 minutes. Soak bread in the milk. Put squash in baking dish, add eggs, onion, bread, cheese, salt, pepper and butter. Bake at 350 degrees for 35 - 40 minutes.

"Hooray!!...I lost 20 pounds and 29 inches..."

As a model and interviewer at John Robert Powers Modeling School it's extremely important that I maintain my ideal weight and measurements. At European Weight Loss Clinic I went from a size 12 to a perfect size 8 so fast and easily I couldn't believe it. I was never hungry and the encouragement I received from their fantastic staff made losing weight a pleasure.

HOROSCOPE

By BERNICE BEDE OSOL
For Thursday, April 9, 1981

YOUR BIRTHDAY April 9, 1981

You must be careful this coming year not to spend too much time worrying about things which will never happen. Your prospects are encouraging, so think positively.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) Don't make having your own way so important today that you alienate persons who are in a position to help you. Diplomacy, not demands, is required. Find out more of what lies ahead for you in the year following your birthday by sending for your copy of Astro-Graph, Mail #1 for each to Astro-Graph, Box 489, Radio City Station, N.Y. 10019. Be sure to specify birth date.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) A negative attitude will make duties today doubly difficult, and could also upset those who labor at your side.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) Keep a very tight rein on your purse strings today. Think twice regarding to whom you make loans, and avoid something for nothing ventures.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) There's a possibility you could experience frustrations today both domestically and where your career is concerned. Strive to be tolerant.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) Be very careful today that you don't pass on hearsay information, especially if it could be detrimental. Hear no evil, speak no evil.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22)

This could be a questionable day in business and financial matters. Don't jump into anything impulsively, or you may later regret it.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) Whether you like it or not, the spotlight is apt to be on you today. Those who observe you will do so with a critical eye. Guard your image.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) Just as you are entitled to your views and opinions, others should be allowed the same privilege today. Don't force your ideas upon those who don't want them.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) It's possible you could have enough trouble managing your own affairs today without taking on the headaches of others. Butt out, not in.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) Your judgment may not be up to its usual keen standards today, if you are forced to make decisions under pressure. Don't become trapped into this eventuality.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) This is not a good day to delegate intricate tasks to persons you know may not be able to handle them. Seek aid elsewhere.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) Be very careful how you handle your money and resources today. Be doubly wary if you're managing a financial matter for another. Both are critical areas.

See Doc Instead Green Stuff, Tea?

DEAR DR. LAMB — I am a 22-year-old female and I have a bad complexion. I have tried everything — gels, creams, astringents, vitamin E, cucumbers, even some green stuff. I hear now that tea bags with hot water helps.

I really don't have money to see a doctor so tell me what creams I can use that will help. I really don't have oily hair or skin. I do have a few blackheads. I don't eat sweets or sugar.

DEAR READER — You may be spending more money on beauty aids that you would have to spend for some useful medical attention.

Blackheads and acne are caused by an overproduction of sebum, the oily secretion from special glands in your skin. It affects both sexes and usually starts with puberty. There are three main approaches to treating the problem: decrease oily sebum formation, open skin pores for proper drainage of sebum, and use of antibiotics to eliminate bacteria in the pores that break down the sebum to form irritating chemicals. These irritating chemicals cause the red pustules.

Warm soaks with a wash cloth several times a day help to soften sebum cores, open pores and washes away oily secretions. Do not use oily or greasy beauty aids or creams. They make matters worse.

Peeling agents that your doctor can prescribe for you such as a vitamin A acid gel can help your skin shed surface cells to eliminate blackheads and promote drainage.

The main method of treating such problems is discussed in greater detail in The Health Letter number 8-2, Acne Can Be Treated, which I am sending you. Others who want this issue can send 75 cents with a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope for it to me, in care of this newspaper, P.O. Box 1551, Radio City Station, New York, NY 10019.

There are new medicines being studied that will be even more effective, but they will be prescription items when they are released for general use. Almost everyone can get some help to improve an acne condition today. So see your doctor and stop using all those greasy creams and useless aids.

DEAR DR. LAMB — I had a severe case of laryngitis two years ago. Now I grow hoarse almost every day after minimum use of my voice. In the past I enjoyed singing very much and could sing (or talk, for that matter) for hours. Now I have had to practically stop singing entirely.

A throat specialist told me that I have benign throat nodules, and that I should stop talking when I become hoarse and maybe it would improve. I would appreciate your advice on ways to improve my voice. I don't smoke. Should I have surgery?

DEAR READER — Scarring, nodules and changes can occur in the vocal cords. There must be 50 different causes for hoarseness. The point I would like to impress upon my readers is that anyone who is hoarse for more than two weeks must have an examination, as you have done.

You may have what is called "singer's nodes" or "speaker's nodes." The only way a proper diagnosis can be made is with direct observation of the larynx. You may get some help by resting your voice but often surgical removal is necessary. It must be done very carefully to not injure the cords. The voice becomes normal within a few weeks after successful surgery.

about going to four spades. Those points look mighty good.

West opens the queen of hearts and three of North's points vanish in mid-air. South plays low from dummy and the suit is continued. South ruffs the third heart and stops to count winners. He sees that the winning play is to ruff two diamonds in dummy and if he can do that he can afford to lose a spade trick later.

Now if South is an optimist he will try to make an over-trick. He will play king, ace and a third diamond in order to ruff with dummy's eight of spades. East will overruff with the jack and lead back a spade. Our optimist will have no way to ruff his last diamond and will be one in the soup.

South doesn't need to be a pessimist to make the contract. He just must play safe.

He starts by cashing the ace of clubs and king-ace of diamonds. Then he ruffs a diamond with dummy's king of spades and a club with his ace of spades. Then his last diamond is ruffed by dummy's eight. The jack of trumps, taken, then or later, is the third and last trick for the defense.

Passover Meals Simple, Special

If family and friends gather frequently at your house during the Passover holiday, you'll want a variety of interesting and delicious dishes to serve, including some that are budget minders.

An easy menu includes our Holiday Liver Saute' served with Skillet Cabbage as a side dish.

Chicken livers are full of iron, easy on the food budget and plenty versatile. We suggest a gentle sauteing with onions, parsley and tarragon. A flavor enhancer is added to bring out the mellow-rich flavor of the meat and to harmonize it with the seasonings.

Skillet Cabbage is so simple yet special enough to serve when friends are coming by during Passover week. Nutritious cabbage, one of the best vegetable buys, combined with lemon juice, provides a zesty contrast to the luxurious taste of the Holiday Liver Saute'.

Together, they make a low-cost marvelous menu served with potato pancakes, pancakes, slices of apple, matzo and a favorite wine.

HOLIDAY LIVERSAUTE'

1 1/2 pounds chicken livers
1/4 cup pareve margarine

1/2 cup finely chopped onion
1 teaspoon flavor enhancer
1/4 cup chopped parsley
1 teaspoon dried leaf tarragon

Cut chicken livers in half. Melt margarine in large skillet. Add chicken livers and onion. Sprinkle with flavor enhancer, parsley and tarragon. Cook over medium heat, stirring frequently, until livers are done, 8 to 10 minutes.

Yield: About 4 servings.

SKILLET CABBAGE

2 quarts shredded red or green cabbage
2 tablespoons lemon juice
1/2 cup water
1 teaspoon flavor enhancer, divided
3 tablespoons pareve margarine
1/4 teaspoon pepper

In large skillet, combine cabbage, lemon juice, water and 1/2 teaspoon flavor enhancer. Dot with margarine. Cover. Cook over medium heat 10 to 15 minutes, or until crisp-tender.

Sprinkle with remaining 1/2 teaspoon flavor enhancer and pepper. Toss lightly.

Yield: 4 to 6 servings.

Holiday Liver Saute: a Passover favorite.

Oriental Tradition With Ease

Planning meals for special guests can be a big problem if the right recipes aren't used. Here are two delicious recipes from the A.E. Staley Consumer Counsel that are quick and easy to prepare and maintain the Oriental tradition of exotic taste.

SWEET AND PUNGENT SPARERIBS

2 pounds spareribs, cut in 1 1/2 inch pieces
5 tablespoons soy sauce, divided
2 tablespoons sherry
4 teaspoons corn starch, divided
Vegetable oil for deep frying
2 tablespoons vegetable oil
1 large green pepper, cut in small pieces
1 large tomato, cut in small wedges
1 can (8 ounces) pineapple chunks, juice drained and reserved
3 tablespoons sugar
3 tablespoons vinegar
Hot cooked rice

Place spareribs in pan with enough water to cover. Cook spareribs 10 minutes. Salt to taste. Drain liquid from spareribs.

Combine 4 tablespoons soy sauce, 2 tablespoons sherry, 2 teaspoons Cream Corn Starch. Add soy sauce mixture to spareribs. Mix with ribs. Marinate ribs 1 hour. Turn from time to time.

Combine pineapple juice, sugar, vinegar, 1 tablespoon soy sauce and 2 teaspoons Cream Corn Starch in mixing bowl. Add pineapple chunks to juice. Heat oil for deep frying.

Stir fry ribs 20 to 30 minutes over medium heat until golden. Reserve. Pour drippings from fry pan. Add 2 tablespoons oil to fry pan. Stir fry pepper and tomatoes for 1 minute. Add ribs to fry pan. Add pineapple mixture to pan with ribs. Stir well. Cook until mixture thickens. Serve with rice.

Serves four.

FRIED CHICKEN AND WALNUTS

2 cups chicken cubes
1/2 egg white
2 teaspoons corn starch
2 tablespoons sherry
Vegetable oil for deep frying
3 tablespoons vegetable oil
1 cucumber, peeled and cut in cubes
1/2 cup walnuts
2 tablespoons soy sauce
1 teaspoon sugar
2 teaspoons vinegar
6 red maraschino cherries

Combine egg whites, corn starch and sherry in mixing bowl. Add chicken cubes to egg white mixture. Mix well to coat chicken. Set chicken aside for 15 minutes. Heat oil for deep frying.

Deep fry chicken until brown. Remove chicken and reserve. Remove oil. Heat 3 tablespoons oil. Stir fry cucumber and walnuts for 2 minutes. Add chicken and stir fry until ingredients are well cooked.

Combine soy sauce, sugar and vinegar. Add soy sauce mixture to chicken. Stir.

Remove chicken to serving dish. Decorate with cherries. Serves four.

Sweet and pungent flavoring adds an exotic taste to spareribs and chicken.

MEAT IMPORTANT FOR DIETERS

The high ratio of nutrients to calories in meat is so important that often it is recommended that more meat be eaten while dieting.

For example, some nutritionists advise that the two 3-ounce servings of meat recommended for a normal daily diet be increased to two 4-ounce servings for a weight reduction diet.

Dieters will also find it to their advantage to stick to a meat-centered diet for, in addition to generously providing important nutrients, it is satisfying, points out the National Live Stock and Meat Board. Many lean cuts of pork are appropriate for the low calorie diet and can add delicious variety of family meals.

Good Old Potatoes 'Basque' In Flavor

It's not widely known but a small yet fascinating ingredient of America's melting pot is Basque. Fascinating because of these people's individuality — the Basques proudly uphold their ancient customs and preserve their language which is unrelated to any other tongue. At the turn of the century, many of the Basques migrated to Idaho to work as sheepherders, a traditional trade in their native land — the border areas between Spain and France where the Pyrenees rise formidably. The rugged, mountainous, Idaho terrain was so much like their homeland, that the Basques were quite comfortable in the Gem State. Besides bringing their time-honored traditions to the American west, the Basques also brought their exciting cuisine — hearty, flavorful, colorful, satisfying yet delightfully unpretentious. The Basques quickly adapted the Idaho potato as part of their "new world" cuisine. The spud, internationally known for its flavor and meaty texture proved to be a perfect addition to their robust fare.

A potato dish Basque in flavor is the Omelet with Sauce Piperade, a variation of the "Piperade," a popular Basque dish that's basically a combination of eggs, onions, sweet peppers and tomatoes.

BASQUE OMELET WITH SAUCE PIPERADE
 3 tablespoons olive oil
 1 pound Idaho potatoes, pared and thinly sliced (about 3 cups)
 6 eggs
 1/4 cup milk
 4 anchovy filets, chopped
 1/4 teaspoon salt
 1/2 teaspoon pepper

In 10-inch skillet heat oil; saute potatoes 10 to 12 minutes or until tender, stirring occasionally. In small bowl, beat eggs; add milk, chopped anchovy filets, salt and pepper. Pour over potatoes in skillet. Cook over medium heat. As eggs set, loosen edges with spatula and tilt skillet to let uncooked eggs run under set portion. When lightly browned on bottom, place skillet under broiler, about 6" from heat. Broil until top is lightly browned. To serve, loosen edges with a spatula. Place serving platter over skillet and invert omelet onto platter. Serve with Piperade Sauce. Garnish with parsley and anchovy filets, if desired. Yield: 6 servings.

SAUCE PIPERADE
 2 tablespoons olive oil
 1 green pepper, cut in julienne strips
 1 medium onion, chopped
 2 cloves garlic, finely minced
 1 can (8 ounces) stewed tomatoes
 1 tablespoon tomato paste
 2 tablespoons chopped fresh parsley
 1/4 teaspoon pepper

In medium saucepan heat oil; saute green pepper, onion and garlic just until tender. Add stewed tomatoes, tomato paste, parsley and pepper. Simmer 15 to 20 minutes, stirring occasionally.

POTATO BASQUE SOUP
 1 pound Italian sausage, sliced
 1/2 cup chopped onion

Squares made from pie filling.

Use Cherry Pie Filling Many Ways

Creative cooks quickly discovered the versatility of canned cherry pie filling for many delicious non-pie purposes. It's become a favorite convenience ingredient that smart shoppers always keep on the cupboard shelf for all sorts of dessert possibilities.

Cherry Cherry Dessert Squares combine the convenience of cherry pie filling with cake mix for a marvelous sweet and tart treat. Colorful cherries are layered between a cookie-like crust and golden crumb topping.

This is a nice recipe for learning-to-cook cooks (either children or the man-of-the-house) to prepare.

CHEERY CHERRY DESSERT SQUARES
 1 pkg. (double layer size) yellow cake mix
 1 1/4 cups rolled oats, divided
 1/2 cup (1 stick) butter or margarine, divided
 1 egg
 1 can (36 oz.) cherry pie filling
 1/2 cup chopped walnuts
 2 Tbsp. brown sugar

Preheat oven to 350 degrees F. In mixing bowl, combine cake mix, 6 Tbsp. butter (set aside 2 Tbsp.) and 1 cup rolled oats (set aside 1/2 cup). Mix until crumbly with mixer or pastry blender. Remove 1 cup crumbs for topping. Add egg to mixture still in bowl; mix well. Pat this mixture into well-oiled 9x13x2-inch pan. Spread cherry pie filling over crust.

Make topping: To the reserved 1 cup crumbs, add the remaining 2 Tbsp. butter and 1/2 cup rolled oats, along with nuts and brown sugar. Mix till crumbly; sprinkle over cherries.

Bake at 350 degrees F for 35-45 minutes or until golden brown. Serve slightly warm or cooled. Cut in 12 generous squares for dessert; top with whipped cream. Or serve as snack-size bars.

- 2 cans (1 pound each) tomatoes
- 4 Idaho potatoes, pared and diced (6 cups)
- 1/4 cup chopped parsley
- 1 cup diagonally-sliced celery
- 2 tablespoons chopped celery leaves
- 1 1/2 cups water
- 2 beef bouillon cubes
- 1 tablespoon lemon juice
- 1 bay leaf
- 2 teaspoons salt
- 1/2 teaspoon dried leaf thyme
- 1/4 teaspoon pepper

In large saucepan or kettle, brown sausage over medium heat. Add onion and cook 5 minutes. Add remaining ingredients. Bring to a boil, reduce heat and simmer, uncovered, 40 minutes, or until potatoes are tender. Yield: 6 servings.

This Basque Omelet with Sauce Piperade, satisfying with the addition of nourishing potato slices, exemplifies hearty, flavorful and delightfully simple Basque cuisine.

Discover Microwave Stir-Frying

The art of oriental cooking has become increasingly popular today. Americans have discovered how delicious those quick, nutritious, stir-fry dishes can be.

Your microwave oven turns this "special occasion art" into everyday ease.

Mandarin Orange Pork and Kung Bow Chicken, recipes from a microwave oven cookbook add that "far eastern" touch to your dinner table.

KUNG BOW CHICKEN (Total cooking time: 8 minutes)

- 1/2 cup dried mushrooms
  - 1 large whole chicken breast, skinned, split, and boned
  - 2 tablespoons cold water
  - 1 teaspoon cornstarch
  - 2 tablespoons soy sauce
  - 1 clove garlic, minced
  - 1 large green pepper, cut in 1/2-inch pieces
  - 1/2 cup bamboo shoots
  - 2 tablespoons chopped peanuts
  - 1/4 teaspoon crushed red pepper
  - 1 tablespoon cooking oil
- Soak mushrooms in enough warm water to cover for 30 minutes; squeeze to drain well. Chop mushrooms, discarding stems. Cut chicken into bite-size pieces. Blend cold water into cornstarch; stir in soy sauce. Set aside.
- In 8x8x2-inch baking dish, combine garlic, green pepper, bamboo shoots, peanuts, red pepper, and oil. Cook, covered, at HIGH for 4 to 5 minutes or till tender, stirring once. Remove vegetables from baking dish. Add chicken. Cook, covered, at MEDIUM HIGH for 2 to 3 minutes or till done, stirring once. Drain off liquid.

Stir soy mixture; stir into chicken. Cook at HIGH for 1 to 2 minutes or till thickened and bubbly, stirring twice. Stir in vegetables and mushrooms. Cook, covered, at HIGH for 1 to 2 minutes or till mixture is heated through. Makes 2 servings.

MANDARIN ORANGE PORK (Total cooking time: 15 minutes)

- 1 pound boneless pork
  - 1 tablespoon cooking oil
  - 2 teaspoons cornstarch
  - 2 tablespoons soy sauce
  - 1 teaspoon grated fresh gingerroot
  - 1/2 teaspoon grated orange peel
  - 1/2 cup orange juice
  - 1 6-ounce package frozen pea pods, thawed
  - 1 11-ounce can mandarin oranges, drained
- Cut pork into very thin strips. (For easier cutting, partially freeze meat. Allow to thaw completely before cooking.) Preheat Meal Browner browning dish at HIGH for 5 minutes. Add oil. Add pork strips. Cook, uncovered, at HIGH for 3 minutes, stirring twice. Drain off any liquid from pork. Remove pork and set aside.
- Meanwhile blend together cornstarch, soy sauce, gingerroot, orange peel, and juice; pour into browning dish. Cook at HIGH for 2 to 3 minutes till thickened and bubbly, stirring after each minute. Stir in pork and pea pods. Cook, covered, at HIGH for 4 minutes, stirring once. Gently stir in oranges. Heat, covered, at HIGH for 1 minute. Makes 4 servings.

MICRO TIP: You can hold a casserole or soup at serving temperature in your microwave. Use the LOW setting for a 1 1/2 to 4 quart casserole or tureen to keep food warm up to an hour.

Help Teen-Agers To Help Selves In The Kitchen

Even though a working mother is liberated enough to ask teenage children to prepare dinner one or two nights a week, it's sometimes not worth the mess or the inedible food.

Some teens enjoy cooking. Others think cooking is a bologna sandwich and potato chips, or spaghetti and canned sauce three times a week.

Nevertheless, there are times when these adolescents must shift for themselves. A wise mother not only instructs her son or daughter on what constitutes a nutritious meal, but helps the project along by pre-preparing and storing dinner components.

The common hamburger, for instance, can be mixed with grated onion and shredded cheese and quickly made into uniform patties with the aid of a hamburger press.

For an interesting change press some tangy tunaburgers, which offer good protein with less fat, and can be served on a bun with onion and tomato slices and cheese, a la hamburger.

For young people who find vegetables so boring they won't even open a can, prepare a surprise. Dilly Carrot and Zucchini sticks are marinated, tasty, crunchy vegetables that can be eaten (neatly, one hopes) with the fingers.

Another idea is to vary the spaghetti routine and add more nutrition with a zesty sauce. Chop and fry together green pepper, onion and a small, peeled, cubed eggplant. Brown a pound of ground meat. Store meat and vegetables in separate, sealed plastic containers just a bit bigger than the amount of food so that drying air is kept at a minimum. Ask your teenagers to mix both the meat and vegetables into a saucepan of jarred spaghetti sauce and heat it all thoroughly. Ask them to make a green salad to go with this.

TUNABURGERS BERNICE

- 2 cans (6 1/2 or 7 ounces) tuna, drained
- 1/2 cup shredded Cheddar cheese
- 1/2 cup packaged, seasoned, dry bread crumbs
- 1/4 cup chopped onion
- 1/4 cup chopped green pepper
- 1/4 cup mayonnaise
- 2 eggs, lightly beaten
- 1 1/2 teaspoons lemon juice
- Dash hot pepper sauce

In medium mixing bowl, combine all ingredients. Divide mixture into 6 equal portions. Form patties. Store in refrigerator or freezer. To serve, arrange burgers on baking sheet; place under broiler about 5 inches from source of heat. Broil on one side 5 minutes or until lightly browned; turn and broil other side 5 minutes. If burgers are frozen, broil about 7 minutes before turning.

YIELD: 6 tunaburgers.

FRESH VEGETABLE PICKLES

- 1/2 pound carrots
- 1/2 pound fresh zucchini, unpared
- 1 cup chicken broth
- 1/2 cup elder vinegar
- 1/3 cup diced red onion
- 1/4 cup lemon juice
- 1/4 cup vegetable oil
- 1/2 teaspoon dried dill weed
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1 or 2 cloves garlic, minced

Cut carrots and zucchini into 5-inch sticks. In large saucepan steam carrots just until crisp-tender about 5 minutes. Do not cook zucchini. Stand vegetables upright in a container. In small bowl combine broth, vinegar, onion, lemon juice, oil, dill weed, salt and garlic; mix well. Pour mixture over vegetables. Cover; turn container over several times to distribute ingredients. Store in refrigerator.

YIELD: 5 cups vegetables.

Tunaburgers and vegetable pickles will tempt a hungry teenager to eat a proper dinner. Easily shaped with a burger press, tunaburgers can be frozen and are easy to broil — another teenage plus.

Both federal government and public health sources have laid to rest the rumors recently making the rounds to the effect that there is an inherent health danger in ionization type smoke detectors. Although the devices contain a tiny particle of radioactive material, the Nuclear Regulatory Agency, which licenses the manufacture of the detector, states that two of the particles contained in the devices could be carried around in your pocket for a year without receiving any more radiation exposure than from a transcontinental jet flight. Installed in the home, the devices, according to the agency, deliver considerably less radiation than we receive naturally, every day, from cosmic rays.

If you use detergent, bleach or soap in your house, use RID-X in your septic system.

LESS THAN 65¢ A MONTH HELPS KEEP SEPTIC TANKS AND CESSPOOLS FROM BACKING UP AND BREAKING DOWN.

Every time you do a wash, your detergent, soap and bleach wash away some of the bacteria your septic tank or cesspool needs to work. That can mean back up and break down. And costly repairs. Rid-X helps prevent all of that by putting back the bacteria. Rid-X and one extra flush of your toilet a month may be the only attention your septic system needs.

RID-X KEEPS YOUR SEPTIC SYSTEM IN ITS PLACE.

25¢ OFF

Save 25¢ as you help save your septic tank or cesspool from back up and break down. Just redeem this coupon at your local supermarket or hardware store for 25¢ off on a box of Rid-X.

Mr. Dealer: This coupon will be returned by the D-Con Company for its face value plus 2¢ handling provided you have complied with the terms of the offer. Invoices showing your purchase of sufficient stocks of D-Con products to cover all coupons submitted for redemption must be shown upon request. This coupon is valid only toward purchase of products specified. Any other use constitutes fraud. Coupon is void where taxed, restricted or prohibited by law. Cash value of 1.00 ¢. ## BEAN-PASTA-HAM SALAD

1 cup Michigan dry navy beans
 6 cups water
 1/4 cup vegetable oil
 1/4 cup wine vinegar
 2 small cloves garlic, minced
 1/4 teaspoon salt
 1/4 teaspoon hot pepper sauce
 1 cup julienne ham
 2 cups cooked small macaroni shells
 1/2 cup cooked peas
 1/2 cup coarsely grated carrots
 1-3rd cup chopped celery
 2 tablespoons finely chopped onion
 Place dry navy beans in large saucepan with 6 cups water. Bring to a boil; boil 2 minutes. Remove from heat. Allow to stand covered 1 hour. Bring beans to boil; cover; reduce heat and simmer 1 hour, or until beans are tender. Drain and reserve.

In large bowl, mix oil, vinegar, garlic, salt and pepper sauce. Add ham, macaroni, peas, carrots, celery, onions and beans, stirring to coat well. Refrigerate for 1 hour, serve at room temperature for better flavor. This kitchen-tested recipe makes 4-6 servings.

PARTY HAM SALAD RING

3 to 3 1/2 cups chopped cooked ham
 1 tablespoon unflavored gelatin
 1/4 cup cold water
 1/4 cup boiling water
 1/4 teaspoon celery salt
 1/4 teaspoon pepper
 1 cup dairy sour cream
 1 can (5 ounces) water chestnuts, sliced
 1/2 green pepper, chopped
 2 tablespoons grated onion
 2 hard cooked eggs, sliced crosswise
 Soften gelatin in cold water. Dissolve in boiling water; add celery salt and pepper. Cool to room temperature. Stir in sour cream, ham, water chestnuts, green pepper and onion. Arrange egg slices around bottom of 1 1/2 quart oiled ring mold. Pour gelatin mixture in mold. Chill 2 to 3 hours or until firm. 8 to 10 servings.

SWEET RAISIN ROLL-UPS

1/4 cup raisins
 1-3rd cup chopped nuts
 1 teaspoon grated lemon peel or 1/4 teaspoon dried lemon peel
 1 teaspoon cinnamon
 1/4 cup dairy sour cream
 2 tablespoons honey
 2 tablespoons margarine or butter, softened
 10-oz. can Hungry Jack refrigerated flaky biscuits
 1 tablespoon margarine or butter, melted

Glaze

1/4 cup powdered sugar
 1 teaspoon margarine or butter, softened
 1/4 teaspoon vanilla
 1 to 2 tablespoons milk or cream
 Heat oven to 375 degrees F. In medium bowl, combine raisins, nuts, lemon peel, cinnamon, sour cream, honey and 2 tablespoons softened margarine. Separate dough into 10 biscuits; press or roll each to a 7-inch oval. Spread each with 1 rounded tablespoonful raisin mixture; roll up starting with narrow end. Place rolls seam-side-down on ungreased cookie sheet; brush with melted margarine.
 Bake at 375 degrees F. for 12 to 15 minutes or until golden brown. Remove from pan to cool. In small bowl, blend glaze ingredients until smooth; drizzle over warm rolls. 10 rolls.

QUICK PICNIC SALAD

1 can (5 ounces) chunk white chicken
 1 teaspoon curry powder
 1/4 cup bottled French dressing
 4 cups bite-size spinach pieces
 1 can (about 11 ounces) mandarin orange segments, drained One-third cup cashews (optional)
 In bowl, drain chicken, reserving broth. Blend curry and dressing into reserved broth. Combine spinach, oranges, cashews and chicken. Toss lightly with dressing. Makes about 4 cups, 2 servings.

EASY CHOCOLATE TORTE

1 package (2-layer size) chocolate cake mix
 2 packages (4 oz. each) German's sweet chocolate
 1/4 cup butter or margarine, softened
 1/2 cup chopped toasted almonds
 1 container (8 oz.) non-dairy whipped topping, thawed
 Prepare cake mix as directed on package, baking batter in two greased and floured 9-inch layer pans. Cool and split each layer horizontally to make 4 layers.

Melt 1 1/2 packages of the chocolate over hot water. Cool. Beat in butter; add almonds. Make chocolate curls from remaining chocolate; set aside. Place 1 cake layer on serving plate; spread with half the chocolate mixture; top with second layer and spread with half the whipped topping. Repeat layers; garnish with chocolate curls. Chill about 1 hour. Refrigerate any leftover cake.
 Note: Let refrigerated leftover cake stand at room temperature about 30 minutes before cutting.

STEAK CANTONESE AND RICE

1/2 pound boneless beef round steak
 2 teaspoons vegetable oil
 1 small tomato, coarsely chopped
 1/2 green pepper, cut in strips
 1/4 teaspoon each garlic powder, ground black pepper and ground ginger
 1 teaspoon cornstarch
 1 1/2 tablespoons soy sauce
 1 beef bouillon cube
 2 cups hot cooked rice (cooked in beef broth or bouillon)
 Slice meat into thin strips, cutting diagonally across the grain (partially frozen to make slicing easier). Brown steak in oil on all sides over high heat. Reduce heat. Stir in tomato, green pepper and seasonings. Cover and simmer 10 minutes. Blend cornstarch and soy sauce. Stir into meat mixture. Add bouillon cube. Cook and stir until mixture thickens and bouillon cube dissolves. Serve over beds of fluffy rice. Makes 2 servings.

COCONUT-PRALINE PUMPKIN PIE

1 package pie crust mix or sticks
 1 package coconut-pecan frosting mix
 1/4 cup pecan halves
 2 eggs
 1 can (16 ounces) pumpkin
 1/4 cup sugar
 1 teaspoon ground cinnamon
 1/4 teaspoon salt
 1/4 teaspoon ground ginger
 1/4 teaspoon ground cloves
 1 can (13 ounces) evaporated milk
 Heat oven to 425 degrees. Prepare pastry for two 9-inch One-Crust Pies as directed on package. Prepare frosting mix as directed on package except-increase milk to 1/2 cup and stir in pecan halves. Spread half of the frosting mixture (1 cup plus 2 tablespoons) in each pastry-lined pie plate. Beat eggs lightly with hand beater; beat in remaining ingredients. Pour over mixture in pie plates. Cover edge with 2-inch strip of aluminum foil to prevent excessive browning. Bake 15 minutes. Reduce oven temperature to 350 degrees. Bake until knife inserted 1 inch from edge comes out clean, about 45 minutes longer; cool. Garnish with whipped cream if desired. Two 9-inch pies.

Dumplings made from cereal and dropped into steaming chili is a different main dish and has all the flavor of Mexican cooking.

Olé To Chili And Dumplings

Mexico's cooking is bright and gay. And, cooking with chili is the "secret" of Mexican cooking.

For those busy days, try Skillet Chili with Iron-rich Cream of Wheat dumplings.

DUMPLINGS:

1 1/2 cups milk
 1/2 teaspoon salt
 1/2 cup uncooked Cream of Wheat cereal, Regular, Quick or Instant
 2 tablespoons butter or margarine
 2 eggs, slightly beaten
 1 tablespoon chopped parsley

CHILI:

3/4 cup sliced onion
 1 pound ground chuck
 1 (28-ounce) can crushed tomatoes
 1 (16-ounce) can kidney beans
 3/4 cup green pepper strips
 2 teaspoons chili powder
 2 cloves garlic, crushed
 1 teaspoon salt
 1/4 teaspoon crushed red pepper, optional
 1. Make Dumplings: In medium saucepan, bring milk and salt to boiling point; slowly sprinkle in Cream of Wheat cereal, stirring constantly. Return to boil; lower heat and cook until thickened, 2 to 3 minutes. Remove from heat and beat in butter or margarine and eggs until well mixed. Stir in parsley; set aside.

2. Make Chili: In large skillet, saute onion and meat until browned; drain off fat. Add tomatoes, kidney beans, green pepper, chili powder, garlic, salt and, if desired, red pepper. Bring to boiling point; lower heat and simmer, uncovered, 20 minutes.

3. Drop dumplings by tablespoonfuls onto hot chili. Simmer, covered, an additional 10 to 12 minutes. Makes 6 servings.

To Microwave Skillet Chili With Dumplings:
 1. Make Dumplings: In large microwave-proof casserole, heat milk at 100 percent power for 2 minutes. Add salt, Cream of Wheat cereal, butter or margarine, eggs and parsley.

2. Cover with glass top or plastic wrap; microwave at 100 percent power 3 1/2 minutes, stirring after 2 minutes. Keeping covered, set aside.

3. Make Chili: In 3-quart microwave-proof casserole, combine onion, chuck, green pepper, chili powder, garlic, salt and, if desired, red pepper; cover with glass top or plastic wrap. Microwave at 100 percent power 8 minutes, stirring after 4 minutes.

4. Drain tomatoes and kidney beans; add to meat mixture; mix well. Re-cover and microwave at 100 percent power 6 minutes, stirring after 3 minutes.

5. Spoon 6 dumplings onto surface; re-cover; microwave at 100 percent power 5 minutes, turning a half turn after 3 minutes.

Men who are taking their turn cooking enjoy preparing a big, hearty minestrone soup. Grated Parmesan makes a lively garnish.

Men In The Kitchen

Working Woman Needs Cooking Relief

For every man who prides himself on his chef's ability there are five who will burn pancakes, scorch vegetables, dry out roasts, and cut their fingers carving a chicken.

Yet the working woman needs to be relieved of cooking responsibility once in a while, especially on weekends, when so many other chores demand time.

If you have a male with too many thumbs at the stove, try suggesting "macho" recipes to him which need little watching or fine turning. For instance, stews and whole-meal soups appeal to the male novice in the kitchen and they are practically failproof. In fact, men don't mind chopping lots of ingredients, as long as it's not into the finest dice.

You'll discourage your fledgling chef if your equipment is not in prime condition. Knives should be sharp and without broken points. Your chopping board should be handy. Herbs and spices should be within reach and you might mention that it's better to follow the recipe than wing it free-style "the way mom used to do."

Kitchen amateurs have no idea about pot sizes and will often cook spaghetti in a one-quart saucepan, or a package of frozen vegetables in a Dutch oven. A short course from you will eliminate lots of pots to wash later.

Steaming, delicious and filling minestrone soup appeals to the male chef and can serve as a weekend-long reprieve from the kitchen. Just store the remaining soup in a sealed plastic bowl in the refrigerator and reheat as you need it. Nice with crusty bread and butter, a salad, and Brie cheese for dessert.

Barbecued ribs are another male favorite, protected by the sauce from quickly drying out in the oven if the gentleman gets too involved with a televised ball game. The marinating is easy if you have a tightly-sealed plastic container designed to make the task simple and mess-free. Then he can quickly turn the whole thing over between quarters; no stirring needed.

It won't be hard to praise the results of these recipes and your enthusiasm may turn a reluctant cook into a chef.

HIS MARINATED RIBS

- 1 cup bottled red wine marinade
- 1/2 cup tomato paste
- 2 tablespoons honey
- 2 tablespoons dried rosemary, crushed
- 1/4 teaspoon hot pepper sauce
- 3 pounds spareribs

In a small bowl combine marinade, tomato paste, honey, rosemary and hot pepper sauce; mix well. Pour marinade mixture over ribs and refrigerate 4 hours turning every seventy-five minutes, or let stand overnight, turning when possible. Place ribs and marinade in a shallow roasting pan. Cover lightly with aluminum foil. Bake in a 450 degree F. oven 15 minutes, reduce heat to 350 degrees F. and continue baking 45 minutes longer. Baste frequently with pan liquids. Uncover; bake 15 minutes longer.

YIELD: 4 servings.

MINESTRONE

- 1/4 pound cooked ham, cut in pieces
- 6 sprigs parsley
- 2 ribs celery, divided
- 2 medium carrots, divided
- 1 tablespoon dried leaf basil
- 1 teaspoon dried leaf oregano
- 2 tablespoons olive oil
- 6 cups water
- 1 can (28 ounces) tomatoes, undrained
- 1 large potato, pared, diced
- 1 1/2 teaspoons salt
- 1/4 teaspoon pepper
- 3 cups shredded cabbage
- 3 cups sliced escarole
- 1 package (10 ounces) frozen peas
- 1/2 cup sliced onion (1 medium)
- 1 can (8 ounces) white beans, drained
- 1/4 cup uncooked macaroni
- Grated Parmesan cheese

In container of electric blender combine ham, parsley, 1 rib celery, cut in pieces, 1 carrot, cut in pieces, basil and oregano; process to form a paste. In large kettle or saucepot heat oil; cook paste 3 minutes. Add water, tomatoes, remaining rib celery, thinly sliced, remaining carrot, thinly sliced, potato, salt and pepper. Cover. Simmer 10 minutes. Add cabbage, escarole, peas and onion; cover, simmer 15 minutes longer or until macaroni is tender. Serve with Parmesan cheese.

YIELD: About 3 quarts.

Shopping A Technique; Takes Hours

Marketing is one of the most time-consuming chores to be done, but without somebody's weekly visit to the supermarket, most households would quickly grind to a complete halt.

Nevertheless, for the woman who works long hours, it is a struggle to free the time to wheel that basket around the store.

It takes hours to lay in a week's supplies. Labels must be read, prices compared, brands evaluated, items searched for, decisions made, long checkout lines suffered.

Here, are a few tips to shave some of the precious time consumed visiting the butcher, the baker, the candlestick maker.

Make a shopping list to speed things up, grouping items according to store aisles, with meats and frozen things last. It is surprising how many people are spotted ransacking their memories for what else they need while stalled among the canned peas. Use a magnet holder to attach a weekly shopping list to your refrigerator door and insist that anyone finishing an item immediately note it on the list for replacement.

Write down planned menus for the week. You'll know just what to put on your shopping list. Leave one day optional to take advantage of what's on special when you shop.

Buy in larger quantities when food is on special and store remainders until used. An extra lettuce can be kept fresh in a sealed plastic "crisp-it," two stalks of celery or extra vegetables can be stored in a sealed plastic container with a special draining grid. Sliced cheese, luncheon meats, bacon, cupcakes, saltines, shelled nuts and so forth, bought in larger amounts, can be kept fresh in the proper sealed containers, refrigerated or on the shelf. This makes your next marketing list shorter ... and quicker to accomplish.

Shop at night. Paula Hawkins, U.S. Senator from Florida, says she does. The aisles aren't crowded, checkout lines are short. But have a quick bite beforehand so you won't be hungry and overbuy.

Shop alone (without small children), it's faster. Or bring someone able to shop the farthest aisles for you and save you the time.

If you use coupons, organize them before you get to checkout.

ECONOMICAL AND EASY

Ham, always a favorite on the American table, is even more popular now that ample pork supplies have brought most attractive price tags to smoked, as well as fresh, cuts of this fine meat.

If a whole or half ham is too large for a family dinner, plan the menu around a convenient meal ham slice.

Since most hams available today are already "fully-cooked", preparation is simply a matter of broiling the ham slice until heated through.

It also can be cooked to perfection in a microwave oven, according to home economists at the National Live Stock and Meat Board.

Class Has Mixed Ideas On Girl-Guys Slumber Party

DEAR ABBY: I teach sixth grade at Lockwood Elementary School in Bothell, Wash. The students are between 11 and 13 years old.

We had a very interesting discussion concerning a letter in your column signed VIRGINIA DAD.

Dad's 12-year-old son wanted to have a slumber party and invite six of his neighborhood friends. One of the friends just happened to be a girl, but since she was considered "one of the guys," the boy thought she should be invited without any concern for her sex.

Dad said that even though the party would be well-chaperoned by him and his wife, he didn't think the girl should be invited to spend the night with six guys.

Abby, your answer read: "Dear Dad: Even though the gal is considered 'one of the guys,' underneath it all, she's still a gal. I would not invite her."

I asked the class what they thought of your answer. Enclosed are their letters. I hope you enjoy them. Sincerely,
MICHAEL NELSON

DEAR ABBY: I think your opinion is wrong on not letting that girl go to the slumber party. If you are 12 years old, you are not going to do anything. I'm 12 and I've gone to a girl's house and nothing big happened.

JIM WALKER
DEAR ABBY: About your answer to the parents of the 12-year-old boy who wanted to have a girl at his slumber party: I think that the father is a paranoid person and is just expecting something to happen. I am 11, and think it would be perfectly all right to invite the girl, no questions asked.

DAVID BLACK
DEAR ABBY: I think you made a wrong decision about the slumber party. (No offense, Abby.) If the girl is considered "one of the gang," she should be invited. The parents would be there, and if anything did get out of hand, the girl would either be asked to leave or they would give her one more chance.

LAURA VARA
DEAR ABBY: About that 12-year-old boy having a slumber party and inviting a 12-year-old girl to sleep over with six boys:

Dear Abby

I think that's going a little bit too far. That is my opinion. P.S. I wouldn't go.

CHRISTY BOAS
DEAR ABBY: I think you made the wrong decision. You made it sound like the parents don't trust their own son. What do you think is going to happen anyway? Do you think they are going to have sex or something with five other boys around? No way.

KENNY BALDWIN
DEAR ABBY: I think if they all got into their own sleeping bags and stayed there, nothing could happen. I know how that father thinks. My mother thinks the same way. Not trusting. As for me, I don't think I would go, and I am a girl.

BETH
DEAR ABBY: I think your opinion is OK. The girl shouldn't be there with six boys. But if it had been OK with the parents, it would have been OK with me, too.

TOMORROWLAND

Looking like a scene in Walt Disney World's Tomorrowland, the space shuttle Columbia is poised on Kennedy Space Center's launch Pad A awaiting Friday morning's maiden flight scheduled for 6:50 a.m. The stubby-winged shuttle is America's first reusable space vehicle.

All 'Go' For Launch Tomorrow

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (UPI) — With the countdown still "in great shape", astronauts John W. Young and Robert L. Crippen inspected the space shuttle Columbia before dawn today and prepared for launch at 6:50 a.m. EST Friday.

The two pilots got in one final practice landing session and were airborne precisely 24 hours before blastoff, using a modified jet to rehearse shuttle approaches to the Kennedy Space Center runway they would return to in an emergency.

Space agency associate administrator John Yardley said the weather was "fantastic" today and was expected to be the same at launch time with clear skies and gentle winds.

Young, the veteran spaceflight commander, and Crippen, a test pilot making his first space flight, were awakened at 2 a.m. as they will be Friday. After breakfast, they got a briefing on the smooth countdown operations and then drove out to the ocean-side launch pad.

The shuttle, now standing alone on the firing pad, was bathed in bright light as it stood virtually ready to set out on its maiden test flight, a 36-orbit, 54½ hour mission. The countdown was in a long "hold" at the time, giving the launch crew time to go home and get some rest.

Yardley said some work was actually ahead of schedule. Other preparations for the crucial flight, more than 2½ years behind its original schedule, also appeared to be going well.

"We're in great shape," said test conductor Fritz Widick.

Two ships, the Liberty and Freedom, prepared to go to sea today to retrieve the Columbia's twin solid propellant booster rockets when they parachute into the Atlantic after being jettisoned 2 minutes after launch.

In the meantime, the ships will patrol an area nine to 12 miles offshore, warning shipping away from the area. The Federal Aviation Administration is closing air space to nonessential aircraft around the Kennedy Space Center for the launch.

The Columbia, flagship of America's revolutionary fleet of new space transports, will blast off on the awesome power of three high-pressure hydrogen engines and the two largest solid fueled booster rockets ever to fly.

The whole assembly will weigh 2,227 tons at liftoff, but its combined rocket power will generate 3,212 tons of push. "The liftoff on this thing is going to be fairly dramatic," said Crippen, who has waited more than 11 years for a chance to fly in space. "It's going to get up and leave the pad fairly quickly."

The view is expected to be a spectacular one, and space-age "bird watchers" in campers, tents and vans already are lining the Indian River waterfront to watch the shot — America's first manned space launch since 1975.

Launch control officials reported Wednesday night the countdown was "uneventful" — good news for the launch team.

Young and Crippen flew to the spaceport Wednesday in separate blue and white jets, then flew some aerobics around the Kennedy Space Center. It is a pilot's way to relax.

"I brought enough stuff (clothes) with me to last a month to make sure we would launch on Friday," said Young, the veteran of four spaceflights. "It sure looks good for that right now."

Also in the area are the pilots' families, including Crippen's mother, Ruth, 66, a Porter, Texas, beer parlor proprietor who said, "I'd a whole lot rather see him land."

The astronauts are scheduled to glide to a landing at 1:18 p.m. Sunday on a dry lake bed at Edwards Air Force Base, Calif. The landing will mark the first in the 20 years men have been flying into space that any ship has come back like an airplane instead of drifting down under parachutes.

This means shuttles can be used over and over again — vastly reducing the cost and increasing the scope of space exploration, development and research in years to come.

Sunday, by coincidence, will mark the 20th anniversary of man's first space flight, the pioneering one-orbit flight of the late Soviet cosmonaut Yuri Gagarin.

'Bird Watchers' Flocking To America's Spaceport

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (UPI) — Foreign tourists spotting the man in the white spacesuit and bubble helmet at the Kennedy Space Center visitors' complex often clap him on the shoulder, shake his hand and say, "Good luck on the launch." "A lot of them really believe I'm an astronaut," guffawed Scott Treder, 18. "They think I'm going into space Friday."

Actually, Treder will have the day off because for the first time since 1975, tourists can see the real thing instead of posing for photographs with an affable youngster hired to amble around decked out in a spacesuit. Harold Burdick, 62, a retired insurance salesman from Ferndale, Mich., came here alone in his camper to see the launch. Burdick listened with rapt attention as Terry Spiers conducted his "Space Science Demonstration" at the Visitors' Center for tourists from all over the United States and countries throughout the world.

"I'll watch from wherever I can park my camper," said Burdick, a wiry man wearing shorts. "I can remember when the Wright brothers went up," he said. "Boy, that was news. I was a kid on a farm. In those days you didn't find out about it until the paper came in from Detroit."

Thousands of tourists jamming the bars and motels have provided a festive air for the launch.

Their mood was in stark contrast to the grim determination of a couple of pickets sitting beside a fire in a rusty oil drum near Gate No. 2 at the south end of the Kennedy Space Center.

They were C.E. Witt and R.L. Miller, members of the International Association of Machinists and Aerospace Workers, who have been on strike for seven weeks against Boeing Services International, the ground support contractor at the space center.

"We expect to be sitting right here when they launch it," said Miller. "I'd like to be in there working. Anybody with any pride would."

Witt and Miller, both 66, are fluid propellant mechanics who have been working in the space industry since 1958 — the year the United States launched its first satellite, a 30-pound cylinder called Explorer I.

"We had a cost-of-living clause in our contract," Miller said. "Now Boeing wants to take it away from us."

"We'd like to go back to work if we can get a reasonable contract," Witt said, "but Boeing wants to show us they can put it up without us."

At a citrus grove down the highway a couple of miles, Brenda Browning was passing out free grapefruit juice to tourists and selling a lot of citrus to them.

"Most of them are from up north, especially Canada," said Mrs. Browning, who expects the launch to help her family's grove recoup some of the losses from last January's freeze, which heavily damaged the Florida citrus crop. Because of the weak U.S. dollar, Mal Evans found it a bargain to bring his family of five to Cape Canaveral from Maidstone, England.

For the dollar equivalent of a single pound sterling, the Evans youngsters could almost have bought at the Visitors' Center one of the advertised "Defective Tee Shirts, as is, $2.50."

And a pound would have been just about enough to buy a blue foam frisbee imprinted with the likeness of the Columbia with its booster rockets, with a space shuttle yo-yo thrown in.

Water District Ignores Pleas For St. Johns

Despite resolutions from the Seminole County Commission and all seven of the county's cities, the St. Johns River Water Management District did not give a commitment Wednesday to improve the water flow in the mid and upper section of the river to overcome stagnation and pollution.

At the request of the Friends of the St. Johns, a Sanford based organization, the county and cities had banded together seeking the commitment from the water management district.

The concerted request was that the district inject the commitment in its restoration plan for the river, which flows along Sanford's northern boundary.

The Rev. Hugh Pain, a member of the Board of Directors of the Friends of the St. Johns, has been asking the district for many months to make such a commitment.

E.D. Vergara, district executive director, said Wednesday including plans for the mid-river area would cause a delay of five-to-six years in implementing plans for improving the river at its headwaters. Vergara said restoration of the water flow in the upper river basin would carry its benefits downstream.

Pain said today his organization had not asked for any delay in current plans.

"We only asked for a commitment, not a delay or study," he said. "It seems to us a very simple thing to include a provision that water going into the Atlantic Ocean would be reduced and water coming this way would be increased." — DONNA ESTES

Weekend Release Almost Certain

Reagan Has Best Day Yet, Signs Positive

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Reagan, enjoying his best day yet, is "pretty certain" to be released from the hospital this weekend to begin his White House convalescence, doctors said today. Dr. Dennis O'Leary said Reagan, shot by a would-be assassin March 30, has not had a fever for the past 24 hours and the follow up X-rays and other signs "are all positive."

"I think it looks pretty certain he will be out this weekend," said O'Leary, the spokesman for George Washington University hospital.

Doctors said Reagan, wounded in the chest, should take it easy at first — no chopping wood or riding horses — but is already well enough to "run the country."

"This is the president's best day yet," Reagan's personal physician, Dr. Daniel Ruge, said.

O'Leary also gave the most optimistic report to date on White House press secretary James Brady, shot in the head during the attempt on Reagan's life.

"I think it's pretty clear that his mental capacities are certain to return to normal, barring complications," O'Leary said. But the doctor suggested it was still uncertain how much motor control was damaged.

Menu, Please!

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — The exclusive L'Orangerie restaurant has ended its two-menu policy — a green menu for men listing prices and a white menu for the ladies without prices.

Kathleen Bick, who took a man to the expensive French restaurant intending to buy his dinner, filed suit against L'Orangerie after she was handed a "priceless" menu.

Feminist attorney Gloria Allred announced in Superior Court Wednesday L'Orangerie had settled out of court by agreeing to provide menus with prices.

Ms. Allred said the settlement means the restaurant has put an end to stereotyping and the assumption men will always pay for the meal.
