Mr. Warren quoted a Legislative committee report showing that due to lack of a central purchasing agency, the state pays, "two or three times for supplies." He estimated that more than $8,000,000 a year could be saved to the state by this agency, and that old people who now receive $37 a month in Florida, might get as much as in California where $57 is paid.

"And an old person in Florida can get just as hungry as an old person in California," he said. School buildings in many counties need repair, he pointed out and stated that in some localities when it rains, pupils have to take a recess, as the roof leaks.

He stated that he was but 34 years old when he ran in 1940, wise cracked that the governorship is no job for a boy, said that

The House pushed toward passage of the bill late today in the face of storm warnings raised by Chairman Taft of the Senate Republican Policy Committee.

Rep. Holtfield (D-Calif.) attempted to substitute for a bill a proposal to have the attorney general study existing law and recommend needed changes. That move was beaten by a standing vote of 61 to 21.

Supporting Holtfield's proposal, Rep. Lemke (R-ND) called the original bill a case "where the cure is worse than the disease." He said "you cannot kill un-Americanism with an un-American act."

Rep. Hubert (D-Ohio) also backed up Holtfield, saying: "If we were to execute all the Communists in this country tomorrow morning,

State OK's Forest Service Funds In Spite Of Opposition

TALLAHASSEE May 19 (AP)—Against opposition of Governor Caldwell, the cabinet today approved release of $26,700 to the State Forest Service to be spent on buildings, vehicles and equipment.

Caldwell told State Forester C. H. Coulter "We have an accumulation of large and urgent items which we have not attempted to settle. I think we're going to have to defer your request."

School Supt. Colin English, opposing the governor, said he considered it better "to take care of equipment rather than leave it out in the weather."

Part of the funds will go for construction of equipment sheds and repair shops in Escambia, Madison and St. Johns counties.

The governor countered he thought it "better to take care of the students." He referred to construction programs at the state universities.

However, Secretary of State H. A. Gray moved that the request be approved and English seconded the motion which carried.

Coal Situation

Moody told a news conference after the collapse of the wage sessions that Lewis apparently "wanted to break up the conference."

He said that Lewis "objects to any organized opposition." The operators voted to seat Moody and Lewis' United Mine Workers voted against it. A vote then was taken on a union proposal to go ahead with conferences covering the balance of the industry.

The operators opposed that. The union voted for it. Lewis got to his feet and said: "I make the observation that there is now no conference."

"The operators have voted themselves and the mine workers out of a conference. The United Mine Workers policy committee will meet at 9 A. M. tomorrow."

The fight over seating Moody started at the opening session of the negotiations yesterday.

Lewis said then that the Southern Coal Producers Association were not complying with their contract when they did not appear at the conference as individuals to bargain for a new agreement.

The union's present wage agreement expires June 30. Traditionally, the miners have refused to work without a contract.

Britain Is Hit By Reds As Belligerent In Palestine War

Tarasenko Points Out King Abdullah's Leg- ion As Being Sub- sidized By Britain

LAKE SUCCESS, May 20, (AP)—The Soviet Ukraine charged today that Britain is one of the belligerents in the Palestine war.

Vasily A. Tarasenko, the Ukrainian delegate, told the United Nations Security Council Britain not only inspired Trans-Jordan's invasion but that Britain actually is taking part in the fighting.

Tarasenko pointed out that King Abdullah's Arab Legion is subsidized by Britain and has British officers. For this reason, he said, Britain must take responsibility for the Legion's actions.

Britain affirmed yesterday in London that the British would continue contributing $8,000,000 annually for support of Trans-Jordan's forces.

"The Arab Legion," Tarasenko declared, "is a part of the armed forces of the United Kingdom."

"We have a legal and factual basis to say the United Kingdom participates in the war in Palestine."

"The United Kingdom is one of the belligerents."

Tarasenko spoke after the council's three-nation Palestine Truce Commission reported from Jerusalem that all its peace efforts had been rebuffed.

Secretary Bevin Asks Reds To Halt Greek Civil War

Tells Labor Confer- ence He Opposes War On Russians

SCARBOROUGH, Eng., May 20, (AP)—Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin said today the Communist countries of Eastern Europe are fostering the civil war in Greece, and appealed to them to stop it.

Without mentioning Russia in this connection, he told the Labor Party's annual conference that "one lift of a finger from a place you know would stop it tonight."

"Civil war as an instrument for foreign policy is a distasteful thing to do," he said. "I appeal to them to stop it."

Bevin said he opposes "any steps to carry on aggressive war against Soviet Russia or any other country." He spoke for 50 minutes without a mention of the Middle East situation.

The party brushing aside recent left wing labor attacks, adopted by a 17-1 ratio a resolution approving the government's domestic and foreign policies.

"I do not believe war is inevitable," Bevin told the party.

He asked the Soviets to halt the war of nerves.

"The danger of where a war is likely to arise is the war of nerves, which the Russians can stop," he said.

Bevin recalled the recent airplane incident in Berlin where a British transport and a Russian fighter collided, the killing of a British officer on the Yugoslav frontier and the embargo on allied shipping into Berlin.

"If we had not been very, very cool, trouble might have ensued" after the airplane incident, in which 16 persons were killed, Bevin said.

He repeated his call for an early peace conference of all nations which fought in the Pacific War to solve the " vexed problem of Japan."

He said Britain should not be a partner in the Russian proposal for a Japanese treaty negotiated by the council of foreign ministers. Bevin said a treaty for Japan would open the way for a settlement of all other oriental problems.

The secretary said Secretary of State Marshall's project of financial help for Europe probably rescued Britain from having to ask another U.S. loan.

1000 Troopers Keep Order In Packers Strike

Attorney Has Filed Charge Of Murder Against Employee In Death Of Picket

WATERLOO, Ia., May 20, (AP)—Nearly a thousand National Guardsmen were maintaining order in this northeastern Iowa city of 52,000 today after violence broke out last night when a CIO packinghouse union picket was shot to death.

County Attorney Blain Wood said he had filed a charge of murder against a non-striking employee of the Rath Packing Co. where the shooting occurred.

The defendant is 55-year-old Fred Lee Roberts, a non-union night cleanup man at the plant who claimed he sought to shoot into the ground when pickets stormed his car.

While CIOUPWA officials called on their 4,500 striking members to "mourn the death of William J. 'Chuck' Farrell and the wounding of Margaret Dreheim." Rath officials expressed "genuine shock and deep regret" over the whole incident.

A. D. Donnell, spokesman for the Rath Company, challenged union contentions that a supplementary court order the firm obtained yesterday afternoon led to the shooting and subsequent disorders.

"The company got the order to protect its workers and to prevent violence," Donnell asserted. The order forbade union use of loudspeakers and prohibited strikers from coming closer than 500 feet of the plant entrance except for five pickets at each gate.

Union spokesmen contended they "lost control of our people" when the order was served directing them to dismantle their amplifiers.

Oregon's Bitter G O P Campaign Ends In Clash Over Funds Used

PORTLAND, Ore., May 20 (AP)—Oregon's bitterly fought Republican primary campaign drew to an acrimonious close today—last of the presidential primary trials before next month's nominating convention.

Governor Thomas E. Dewey of New York and Harold E. Stassen of Minnesota, who for three weeks have made Oregon the nation's foremost presidential battleground, brought their campaigns home at a palpable

Stassen publicly charged an "Eastern combination of Taft-Dewey forces" was spending $250,000 in Oregon to stem the Stassen election tide which started in Nebraska and Wisconsin.

The New York governor reported that this represented "reckless and flagrantly untruthful statements," and "desperate, irresponsible, eleven-hour tactics."

His campaign expenses, Dewey said, "are not a tiny fraction of the ridiculous sum he mentions, and he knows it."

The Minnesota reference to a supposed joint-up of Dewey and Stassen election tide which started in Nebraska and Wisconsin, Stassen's original charge, made at Astoria, stated:

"Obviously, the 12 Oregon votes to the national convention are not the cause of this huge expenditure."

Barkley Named Keynoter For Demo Meeting

McGrath Says Selec- tion: Ave Not Picked To Appear Anti- Truman South Bloc

PHILADELPHIA, May 20, (AP)—Democratic leader, Sen. J. P. Barkley of Kentucky, was selected today as the keynoter for the July 12 National Convention of the Southern States Party, a new political organization.

Senator J. Howard McGrath, Democratic National chairman, said in reply to a question the selection was not aimed at appeasing the Southern bloc opposed to President Truman's Civil Rights Program.

"They are both very liberal men," McGrath said, "who are pointed in every way by the program of Roosevelt, Roosevelt and Truman."

"Recognition is due both to long and valiant service to the Democratic Party," he added.

Asked if J. P. Barkley of Kentucky, a national chairman, and there was no discussion among the Democratic executive committee as to who would play Mr. Truman's name in nomination at the convention.

"It's up to the President," he said.

McGrath told newspaper committee members that Mr. Truman's campaign prospects were bright but not during the convention meeting to complete organization of the convention.

Asked regarding Mr. Truman's chances of reelection, McGrath

Merc, Hickson Talk To Jaycees On Sheriff's Race

J. A. Merc and J. H. Hickson, candidates for sheriff of Seminole County, addressed the Jaycees Chamber of Commerce today on the issue of the sheriff's race at a luncheon held at the tourist center, both making their qualifications for the office and their intention to continue the law of the state of Florida.

The program was arranged by Jack Rouse, who urged the Jaycees to vote and to help set out the vote for the May 23rd primary.

Asked if the primary public interest in the race is focused on the sheriff's office and emphasized the importance of law enforcement as well as the duty of every citizen to watch carefully the issues of the campaign and vote for men who will enforce the laws fearlessly and honestly.

Mr. Hickson, who was the first candidate nominated by Dr. C. L. Persons, said that he had served as a deputy sheriff in Seminole County for 18 years and during this time had acquired valuable knowledge of the laws of Florida and promised to enforce all the laws fairly, honestly and impartially if elected.

"You know an ability gained through the years," he continued, "is that I have been able to enforce the law and to protect myself and my family with a staff of competent deputies with whom I have worked for many years."

Debutting that he had never served a single day in the present sheriff's office, he said that he had never discussed the politics of the sheriff's office as had been reported in the newspaper, and said that he is making a clean sweep and hopes that "you people will judge me on that basis."

Sheriff Merritt Sibley was also introduced by Dr. Persons, and that prior to his appointment as sheriff he had worked for six years in the state highway department and had been a state trooper for many years.

Both have pledged full support to the citrus industry in its efforts to solve the problems of over-supply and marketing of oranges and grapefruit.

Warren talks for a "tough test" in grading citrus for the market and promises to vote on some way for growers to work on their choices for membership on the citrus commission.

In Pinellas and Hillsborough counties yesterday, McGrath told his audience he is a small citrus grower, independent and unconnected with large citrus industries, and that he understands the problems of the industry from practical experience.

Warren, campaigning in Lakeland and Orange counties, suggested a $2,400 annual minimum salary for grade school teachers and a general pay scale that will give a teacher "enough to live on and provide for his or her dependents at a respectable standard."

Egypt Announces Her Troops Occupy Jew- ish Towns Deir Seneid And Beersheba

CAIRO, May 20, (AP)—The battle for Jerusalem raged on today. A Jewish communiqué said the Arabs were shelling the Hebrew University and the Hadassah hospital, strongpoints held by the army of Israel.

Dispatches from inside Jerusalem's old walled city reported King Abdullah's Trans-Jordan Arab Legion and Arab volunteers by last night had battered more than half way through the southern Jewish quarter behind heavy bombardment. Outside the walls, the Arabs cleared Jews from the north and south sectors of modern Jerusalem and struck deeply into the western sector.

Egypt announced her troops in southern Palestine occupied the Arab town of Beersheba, south-eastern limit of the Holy land of Bible days. The defense ministry said Egyptian troops in a 10-hour battle captured the fortified Jewish settlement of Deir Seneid, guarding the road to Tel Aviv.

Deir Seneid is about seven miles north of Beersheba, connecting the road and railway to Tel Aviv. The Egyptians said the strongly fortified settlement was a base for supplying other Jewish

WASHINGTON May 20 (AP)—The Air Force reported today that a B-36 bomber has made an 8,000-mile flight on a simulated bombing mission behind the wings.

Average speed was given as 220 miles an hour.

A similar flight of less duration was made April 8.

There have been several flights longer than that made by the B-36, but all were in a straight line and were intended solely for distance. The B-36 flight differed in that it flew a closed course and carried useful load halfway.

Forecasts Are Made In View Of Negoti- ations Breakdown

WASHINGTON, May 20, (AP)—John L. Lewis said today he "deplores" talk that a coal strike is inevitable July 1 when the United Mine Workers contract expires.

There have been forecasts of a probable mine stoppage then in view of the breakdown yesterday of negotiations of a new contract. Traditionally, the miners do not work without a contract.

Lewis told a news conference there is still time to establish "constructive wage negotiations" provided coal operators are willing.

Rotarians Urged To Keep Horrors Of War Alive In Minds Of Men

RIO DE JANEIRO May 20 (AP)—Oswaldo Aranha urged upon International Rotary today a mission of keeping alive in men's minds the horror of war, recognizing that possibly the last opportunity for salvation is at hand.

Aranha is former Brazilian foreign minister and a former president of the United Nations assembly. He addressed the closing session of the 37th annual convention of Rotary International.

"This year, 1948, is offering us a second chance to save peace and raises the question whether the world will be sufficiently wise to take advantage of this second chance," Aranha said. "It calls upon Rotarians to serve the peace ideals of peoples."

Aranha said he joined with Rotary in "increasing faith that humanity, recognizing that this is not just the second but perhaps the last opportunity for salvation, will draw upon its reserves of intelligence, wisdom and human experience in order that we may become reconciled with our consciences and that those who will follow us may live in peace under God."

"Aranha said that history does not record a peace concluded by the generation which waged war, adding:

JACKSONVILLE May 20 (AP)—The "Solid South Bloc" of anti-Truman delegates elected in the May 4 primary met here today to consider "several matters."

The meeting was closed but a spokesman said that any decisions made would be announced following the close of the session, probably late today.

The state was pledged to Governor Fielding Wright of Mississippi and his movement to bolt the party if necessary to stop the Truman Civil Rights Program.

Seventeen of these delegates were elected with 11% vote among them. The other 9% convention votes were held by delegates also opposed to President Truman but who prefer to settle the Civil Rights question within the party. Delegates with seven votes said they preferred Dwight D. Eisenhower for president.

Delegates from the state at large have a half vote each in the convention. Congressional district delegates have a full vote each.

High School Youths Embarrass Officials

ZANESVILLE, O., May 20 (AP)—The unexpected happened when high school seniors took over city offices for the day yesterday.

Townfolk expected the seniors to have fun "playing" mayor, police chief and other city officials. They had fun all right—and the adult officials had red faces because:

Jack Harker as police chief staged a series of gambling raids. "Mayor" Aubrey Sibbing and "City Solicitor" Frank Shultz, Jr. went along.

They confiscated a jar with gambling slips in one place, broke up a poker game and found a pull tab board.

Harker didn't file any charges, although he claimed he had full legal authority to do so.

Chiang Is China's 1st Constitutional Head

HANKING, May 20 (AP)—Chiang Kai-shek became China's first constitutional president today and immediately warned legislators not to meddle with cabinet appointments.

Chiang told an official luncheon for legislators not to challenge individual cabinet members. The cabinet will be chosen by the yet unnamed premier.

Some legislators had even proposed that their constitutional power be expanded to pass on the premier's policies. Members returned to the legislative halls in a sullen mood. One proposed the solemn postpone action on rules and procedure "because the members are too low in spirit."

The legislators finally abandoned all efforts to control cabinet members. However, they asserted themselves to the extent of ordering Chiang's nominee to appear before them to outline his policies before they consider approving him.

Oregon Race

Taft-Dewey forces has been making a desperate attempt through this Oregon primary to stop our nation-wide public support.

Dewey's answer said "it is sad that Mr. Stassen in the final days should degrade the campaign by such reckless and flagrantly untruthful statements. . . I have come to know the people of Oregon and I know they will resent and repudiate these desperate, irresponsible eleven-hour tactics."

Meanwhile Earl Warren of California has been begun his stretch drive in the Republican presidential race. Some of his friends here think the timing may place him among the serious contenders for the nomination.

Senator Knowland (R-Calif) told a reporter he thinks Warren, who has kept a careful pace well behind the leaders, now is in "excellent tactical position" if a convention deadlock develops.

"Governor Warren has a great many friends and few, if any, enemies in the Republican Party," Knowland said. "It seems to me he is a logical compromise candidate if there is a deadlock."

In the East President Truman goes to Philadelphia today aboard an abbreviated version of the special train in which he will cross the country in June.

The President will address 1,700 fatherless school boys at Girard College during a visit in which he will steer clear of a huddle of Democratic political leaders in the Quaker City.

The party's executive committee meets there during the day to pick a keynoter and a permanent chairman for the National Convention in July. Senate minority leader Barkley of Kentucky and House minority leader Rayburn of Texas, respectively, have strong backing for these posts.

Sheriff's Race

In connection with this work he said that he had traveled over 11 Central Florida counties where he had become acquainted with 11 different sheriffs and their departments and from his observations of these and their various methods of uncovering crime and making arrests, he had gained valuable knowledge in law enforcement work.

"It was not by chance," he said, "that I was appointed your sheriff 15 months ago. Because of my experience in the law enforcement work, the Governor called me to Tallahassee, and told me, 'You've got a bad situation down there in Seminole County. I want you to clean it up, and you know I can take this commission away from you just as easy as I can give it to you.'"

"So I came back to Seminole County," Mr. Mero continued, "and I called my deputies together and I told them that slot machines, punchboards and similar gambling devices were illegal and must go. You all know what happened. The lid was on and it has stayed on."

"From my record in office you know what I will do in the future. I am glad my opponent has finally come out for law enforcement. You now have my record against his promises. That is the issue in this race."

President Bradley Odham, who presided over the meeting, declared, "Corruption of the electorate is one of the great dangers of our day. We must all vote to place men in our public offices who will best serve our democratic form of government. It is our duty to vote."

Secretary Gordon Bradley reported that the board of directors, at a meeting Tuesday night, voted to purchase a fan for the Information Booth. The directors also designated Thursday, June 24, as the day for the installation of the new officers and board of directors members.

Bradley stated that letters have been sent to members with lists of prospective members for the organization, and requested the present members take the lists and contact those who may join. A report on the new memberships is requested for next Thursday. The directors agreed to sponsor one member of the Seminole County Girls Four H Club on a trip to Tallahassee for a state meeting of the organization.

President Odham introduced R. L. Dean, William Bishop, O. G. Eckstein, Ernest Doyle and M. A. Pickens as guests.

TRAIN DERAILED

DAVENPORT, May 20 (AP)—An Atlantic Coast Line passenger train derailed a freight train here early today. Two diesel units and three freight cars were derailed. There were no injuries.

The passenger train was en route from Jacksonville to Tampa. The freight was southbound.

ACL officials who declined use of their names said the freight train was pulling into a siding from the main line to give the passenger train right-of-way. Apparently all cars on the freight had tilted to clear.

Traffic was expected to be resumed before noon.

BIBLE VERSE TODAY

EVEN A SCIENTIST FAILS IF HE STARTS WITH THE IDEA THAT HE KNOWS IT
ALL. HUMILITY IS A SHREW-DER POLICY.—Pr. 26:33: A man's pride shall bring him low.

By the way, don't forget there is a Supreme Court justice to be voted for in next Tuesday's election. You haven't much time left to find out something about the three candidates.

We note this little comment in the Miami Herald. "With all these rumor-mongers baying at your heels, remember that no dog ever barked at a train on a side-track," which we are glad to pass along to the McCarty supporters.

We see where Alex Akerman of Orlando is in charge of Harold Stassen's campaign in the South with headquarters in Atlanta.
Akerman is the only Republican member of the Florida legislature.

Gainesville complains it has growing pains. It just has too much population for the size of the city. There are some mighty fine people living in Gainesville we'd like to see move to Sanford.
We'll bet we could make room for them somehow.

Chairman McGrath says there's no real anti-Fuman revolt in the South. Someone should send him a copy of the Florida first primary ballot. —Tampa Tribune.
Why not wait until after the November election, and let him learn the hard way?

Daytona Beach is building a new sewage disposal plant at a cost of $226,393. As Florida continues to grow in population, these sewage disposal plants become more and more essential.
They are something to which Sanford should be giving considerable study.

The lion and the lamb sometimes lie down together. Still it is surprising to learn from a Chicago news report that "Sniffy," a female cat there, is keeping a lonely vigil by the graveside of her dear friend "Clip," a two year old dog killed by an automobile last Sunday. Max Echner, the owner of both animals, says that the cat simply refuses to leave.

What promiscuous gambling does to a community was cleverly illustrated in the Orlando Sentinel Wednesday when in a front page cartoon a bloated bolita racketeer is depicted filching the pockets of a working man as he stabs longingly at the picture of a beautiful woman labelled "Lady Luck."

That is exactly what racketeers like bolita, slot machines and punch-boards do. They take the money out of the pockets of the poor, giving them nothing in return. And the merchant suffer, too, because there is less money spent for the products on their shelves.

What Fuller Warren might be saying today against Colin English, if the State School Superintendent had nosed out McCarty in the first primary, is indicated by what the "leading candidate" is now saying against his present opponent. Evidently having long geared his campaign to an attack on the State Administration, in the belief that his opponent in the run off would be Colin English, he found it too late to change his tactics when he woke up on the morning after the first primary to find that he was running against Dan McCarty. Hence, he continues to blast away at the Administration, in spite of the fact that what most of the things he complains about were taken place, McCarty was in Franco Spain during the war, or at the least was in some whatever connection with the Administration responsible for taxes, road construction, etc.

Father Of Radio

Not Guglielmo Marconi, but Alexander Popov invented wireless apparatus, whose best-known product is the radio, the Russians say. They have just decreed that May 7 shall henceforth be known as "Radio Day", because on May 7, 1895, Popov sent and received a wireless signal across 600 yards. This is claimed to be a year ahead of Marconi.

Radio is based on the so-called Hertzian waves, an account of which the German physicist, Heinrich Rudolf Hertz, published in 1888. They excited many physicists to study this new phenomenon, Popov and Marconi among them. Only Marconi, however, built and operated a system whereby definite, intelligible signals could be sent by wireless. This was decided by the United States District Court, in a patent decision handed down in 1914. And incidentally Marconi's first successful experiment is placed in 1894, a year ahead of Popov.

There is glory for both, Popov and many others contributed valuable details, but Marconi is accepted as the true father of radio.

No Bust Near

Financial advisors and professional viewers-with-alarm predicted a depression for this country as soon as the war ended. But when the pent-up purchasing power of the people was released, it was plain that it would take some years for unsatisfied needs to be filled. So the day of doom has been steadily postponed.

Now we have at least another year to a year and a half of prosperity, according to members of the Association of Reserve City Bankers, convening in Coronado, Calif.
They report business good all over the country, and inflation limited by an increase of caution by both purchaser and manufacturer. People are not buying wildly, as they did soon after the war, but still need many essentials, for which they are shopping carefully and intelligently.

Labor demands, arms spending, and outside aid were mentioned as slight drags on the economy, but were not dangerous by these bankers.

How To Please Workers

The way to get friendly relations between companies and their employees is not to hand out tracts telling what a wonderful thing free enterprise is, or to give lectures on company finances. So James O. Rice, editor of the American Management Association told a Texas conference on industrial relations. Far more important is respect for the individual worker, shown by such small matters as the look in a foreman's eye when he gives an order, the care taken of a man who has been hurt, the upkeep of cafeterias and wash rooms.

Workmen like to be treated justly and fairly. The problem for companies is not merely to do this, but to get the company's intentions across. Information about the business as a whole and decent, kindly appreciation of the worker as an individual are both needed.

Don't Hold Your Breath

Melbourne Times

You still hear people talking about laying something or other
"when prices go back to normal."
The people of Melbourne are no exception.

Anyone has a perfect right to defer his purchasing in hope of a price millennium. But, judging by the evidence, he's going to have a long wait indeed.

The inflationary pressures are as strong as ever. The usual upward wage adjustments are taking place. The national income is still at or near its peak. There is disposition to economize in any direction. The cost of the European Aid Program and the preparedness program will turn more dollars loose, and lead to more competition for scarce goods. Nothing, in fact, indicates the probability of important price drops for any kind of commodity in general use.

The work of retailers, chain and independent, in aggressively fighting inflation, is a measure of the difficulties encountered. Stores have voluntarily cut their profit margins, discouraged consumers from buying high priced wares worked with manufacturers to improve qualities and lower prices, reduced their overhead to the last nickel, and so on. This has helped enormously to retard increases—but it hasn't caused a swing back to the 1941 price level. There is a definite point past which retailers or any other group can't go and stay in business. They have to make both ends meet like the rest of us.

We all hope for lower prices.
But don't hold your breath while waiting.

Those Political Rumors

TAMPA TRIBUNE

One point in politics, it seems, is to see all evil, hear all evil and talk all evil—about the other fellow. It applies to the current Florida primary campaign, as well as to most other political campaigns throughout the nation.

The Lakeland Ledger notes that Florida politics is now getting into the "gossip stage." Although it does not point to any specific example, it describes the snowballing effect. The Ledger says:

Gradually the poor fellow about whom the rumor is being spread discovers what kind of reputation has been manufactured for him. He's frantic. He knows that gossip just before the primary is dynamite. But he doesn't know how to get his hands on it and stop it. He doesn't know for certain, just who has been spreading it. He doesn't dare announce that he positively does not beat his wife.
So if you hear of a lot of gossip about some of the candidates from here on out, don't pay too much attention to it. It may be entirely untruthful. And if you pass it on without knowing positively that it's true, you may be doing damage to an innocent man.

As we see it, a candidate's own qualifications are more important than the gossip he spreads about an opponent.

There is sound advice. The internal qualities of a man matter for the most, not what his enemies say about him. Perhaps it is impossible to stop all rumors during political "gossip time," but there is no doubt all of us would be better off if we would observe this sage statement of Francis Quarles, an English writer of the 17th Century: "Is, the greater part of the news thou hearest be the least part of what thou believest."

(Prince Philip), while on their official visit to Paris, included attendance at racing, theatre and night club dancing during the Lord's day."

Too strong mustard? Well, whether we agree with this rebuke, or feel that it's a wee bit stipite, there are many people who will find it encouraging to encounter such a staunch stand for religion, especially in the face of the world-wide Communist drive to deprive humanity of a God.

Of course, probably nobody claims that the charming lady, who one day likely will be queen, and her husband committed any terrible sin by their activities on Sunday. However, members of the royal family do have a mighty influence on the habits of the rank and file, and must expect criticism at times. For royalty can't immune from the afflictions of ordinary man, as witness that Princess Margaret Rose, sister of the heiress presumptive to the throne, is suffering with measles.

The Scots as a whole are intensely religious, as I have observed during many visits to the land of my paternal ancestors.
The Sabbath is a day for worship and contemplation. Scots who believe in the old time religion have no place for sports or recreation on Sunday. Why, the average Scot won't indulge in golf on Sunday, though he loves the game so much that he uses a golf club for a cane so that he always will be ready for play.
Many even frown on whistling as too frivolous.

I used to fish for trout in Scotland, and one of the first rules I ran up against was that there was no fishing on the Sabbath. I recall one Cambridge student who sneaked out on a Sunday and did a bit of fishing. He was ostracized by all the guides at his headquarters until he finally legged it for forgiveness and promised never to do it again.

But that religious austerity isn't confined to Scotland. You find the same things in parts of England. Down in the picturesque old fishing village of St.
Ives, on the southwest coast, the fisher folk take their religion so seriously that they won't even permit visitors to break the Sabbath. For example I have known the fishermen to stop a woman from knitting on the rocks by the sea, and a man artist who was painting beside the water was thrown into it.

Still, we don't have to go so far afield as the British Isles to find religious zeal. There's plenty of it right here in the United States—throughout most of the world, for that matter. Even those who aren't intensely religious believe in the supreme being and the hereafter.

As a matter of fact the Communist effort to kill religion, as the "dope of the masses", undoubtedly has reacted against the Reds. Religious folk have been stimulated to battle for their beliefs. Possibly this has had something to do with the exceptionally strong move of the Scottish Association regarding the activities of Elizabeth and Philip in Paris on the Sabbath.

TIRED FEET

PITTSBURGH May 20 (AP)—
His feet tired, a veteran mailman told a U. S. commissioner in answering charges that he delayed the mails.
The carrier, Lawrence J. Thoma, 44, of Etna, was ordered held on $1,000 bond for a hearing. Postal inspectors said he not only delayed the mail but also dumped some of it in bushes. Thoma said he intended to deliver the mail later—but his feet just got tired.

By BOBBY PARK

There is a definite trend toward spring picnics as held by the various clubs at old S.H.S. Clubs which have recently had a picnic or have made definite plans toward one are: Glee Club, Pep Club, Library Staff, Art Club, Band, and Pan-American Club. Several other organizations are seriously considering planning a picnic.

Miss Chittenden and the Library Staff report a very successful picnic to Blue Springs last Tuesday week. The Pan-American picnic to Sanlando Monday afternoon from 1:30 to 8:00 was a triumph over the degrading weather.

Myra Madden said to be sure and mention the Pep Club's picnic which was another "Success." (Won't somebody send me a list of words to substitute for success. I'm as tired of using it as you are of reading it.) The Glee Club rolled away from the hallowed shrine of old S.H.S. Wednesday afternoon, headed for a good time on their picnic to Sanlando. If adequate transportation is found the Art Club will have its picnic at Blue Springs on May 28.

Members of the Latin Club taking part in the Latin Club Play Friday morning were: John Fite, Penrose Hutchison, Carolyn Patrick, Donna Lou Harper, Frank Cranston, Keith Schumaker, Rudolph Smith, Leroy Strawder, Jennette Jervinson, Johnnie Mae Jones, Martha Grayson, Arnold Harrington, Ronny Garner, and Lyod Reynolds. Mrs. Coleman, the Latin teacher, directed the play, "Belle," which raised $32.00 for the Latin Club treasury.

The behavior of the part of the student body during the play, however, was disappointing. Some of the students seemed to try and out-do themselves, to see just how rude they could be. A silver-linging in the cloud of confusion was the acting. The boys and girls who took part knew their lines to perfection. The play went smoothly and the acting was worth the attention and respect of every student.

Another Latin Club event in the last week was the annual banquet. Tuesday night the Latin Club held its annual banquet. Members of the club taking part in the program were: Leroy S. & a w d e r, Keith Schumaker, Carolyn Hollenbeck, Dial Boyle, Betty Lou Partin, John Fite, Irene Greene, Rachel Johnson, Jerry Tamblin, Didi Colle, Rudolph Smith, Marjorie Shepard, Ronnie Garner, Frank Cranston, Arnold Harrington, and Joyce Anderson. Mr. Morris and Mr. T. W. Lawton were additional speakers. There was group singing by those who attended the banquet. I am indebted for this information to John Fite.

Miss Shirley Kanner To Wed In Chicago

Of interest to her friends in Sanford is the announcement of the engagement and approaching marriage of Miss Shirley Kanner to Sidney J. Mizac of Chicago. The wedding will be an event of the summer in Chicago.

Miss Kanner attended local schools after which she made her home in New York for several years. She was a member of the W.A.G.s during the recent war and for the past year and a half has resided in Miami. She is the niece of Mr. and Mrs. A. Kanner and Mrs. Pauline Kanner of this city.

Reunion To Be Held By Class Of 1923

The class of 1923 of the Seminole High School plans to hold a class reunion by meeting with the senior class at the annual Junior-Senior banquet on June 4 at the Mayfair Inn. The present graduating class issued an invitation to the 1923 class to attend the class day on June 3 at the high school auditorium at 10:00 A. M. and to attend the banquet to be held at the Mayfair at 7:00 P. M.

Arrangements are under the direction of Mrs. J. M. Stinecoper and Mrs. Edna L. Norman. Mrs. Norman announced this morning that letters of invitation have been sent to all members of the class whose addresses were available but that the whereabouts of the following are unknown. She stated a telephone call from anyone knowing their addresses would be appreciated. Her telephone number is 788-W.

Unavailable addresses were: Thomas Mead Baker, Mac Holly, Gayle Marshall, Eddie Muller, Melba Rosenstein, Byron Stevens, Dorothy Stokes, Claire Sweeney, Artilla Richner and Rhoda Vaughn.

Blue Springs Scene Of Fidelis Picnic

Members of the Fidelis Class of the First Baptist Church enjoyed a picnic and swimming party at Blue Springs yesterday afternoon with those on the losing side in a recent attendance contest acting as hostesses to the winners.

The group left the church at 2:00 P. M. and motored to the springs where swimming and boating were enjoyed throughout the afternoon after which the picnic supper was served.

Those attending were Mrs. C. W. Eagle, Mrs. Myron Smith, Jr., Carl Moss, Mrs. O. P. Wade and guest Mrs. J. P. Lalocher, Mrs. L. P. Garner, Mrs. Evans McCoy, Mrs. R. E. Elsberry, Mrs. J. M. Cameron, Mrs. H. W. Little and son, Bobby. Mrs. Frank L. Woodruff, Jr., Mrs. P. E. Cooper, Jr., Mrs. Laurine Neal and Miss Lorene Franklin.

The State Department said today that a "number of countries" are in fact, "practically every country," is seeking to buy arms from the United States.

Press officer Lincoln White made that statement in confirming reports that Norway and Denmark, both targets of recent Soviet Russian press criticism, have asked the American government for military equipment.

White declined to identify the other applicants. He said all the applications ask to buy arms, rather than seeking them under some legal device such as was used during the war.

White said military authorities will take into account the question whether arms are available in sufficient quantity for export, and whether it is considered desirable in the interest of the United States to respond to the pleas of a particular foreign nation.

Jewish Agency suggested an armistice yesterday in the fighting in the walled section of old Jerusalem. The Jewish proposals were transmitted to the Arabs, the commission said, but no answer had been received up to the time the message was sent.

The commission—Jerusalem consists of the United States, France and Belgium—told the United Nations Security Council it can stop the war now only by strong pressure on Jewish and Arabic fighters.

Alexandre Parodi of France, this month's council president, read two cables from the commission when the council resumed debate today on Amman, his capital. He also reported the Jewish authorities rejected truce terms offered by the Arabs.

Jamal Hussein, vice-chairman of the Arab Higher Committee for Palestine, told the council the partition of the Holy Land is "an unacceptable, dead proposition."

The settlement is 15 miles south of the Jewish-claimed portion of the coastal plain and 28 miles south of Tel Aviv.

The Cairo ministry said that in the northward drive up the coastal plain the Egyptians also seized Beit Hanun, five miles northeast of Gaza. It is described as "one of the strongest points in the operational theater."

In the north, the Jewish army said one of its raiding forces struck across the Jordan River in the Lake Hula region, destroying a military supply camp of the Syrian army within Syria. The attack took place Tuesday, the announcement in Tel Aviv said, adding:

"Companies of the Syrian army were stationed at the camp. They were equipped with heavy armored cars, artillery and a quantity of various arms. Our forces penetrated into the camp and, after fierce fighting, drove the enemy out. His were blown up, tents set afire, armored cars and field guns destroyed."

A Damascus communique said Syrians threw back a Jewish counter attack Tuesday and Wednesday in the Gallee area. It said Syrian artillery destroyed fortifications at Sh'ar Hagolan and Masolia in two battles in which the Jews lost 30 dead, including a major. The towns are about two miles south of the Sea of Galilee, near the Syrian frontier.

Tel Aviv came under air attack for the sixth straight day. Two persons were injured. Premier David Ben-Gurion decreed a state of emergency in Israel. Tel Aviv's mayor, Israel Rokach, asked the United States, Russia and the United Nations to halt Egyptian bombing raids on Tel Aviv.

The Jewish army headquarters announced in Tel Aviv that "in Jerusalem heavy shelling by the Arab legion on the Hadassah Hospital and the Hebrew university was heard in the late hours of the night."

Meet The Candidates:

By SIGRID ARNE
AP Newsfeatures Writer
WASHINGTON — The galleries were packed long before noon the day Sen. Arthur H. Vandenberg (R-Mich.) opened Senate debate on the Marshall plan.

Outside the doors stood long queues of people. The Senate floor was full and along the walls stood top men from other divisions of the government.

Nothing Hollywood can produce is quite so dramatic as the Senate chamber on the day of a major speech. The man who makes it is under the microscope of all the focused anxiety of the nation. It is a spot well calculated to make a man fumble, over-dramatize, over-sell his argument.

Vandenberg walked in quietly a few minutes before noon to lounge at his near-the-center desk. He seemed as unperurbed as though he had a good seat at the World Series. He had to notes. He spoke for an hour and a half without once indulging in shouts or arm-waving.

The way he handled that argument brought together all the basic methods he has used to keep himself in the Senate for 20 years—the methods which now, for the fourth time, have placed his name on the list of men considered for the Presidency of the United States.

His primary rule of work is to "get the facts." His Marshall plan speech had them. Twenty-two years as an editor in Grand Rapids made him such a respecter of facts that he still approaches all new Senate business as a reporter.

Vandenberg has another habit from newspaper days. He writes his own speeches on an old portable typewriter. He can't delegate the work to a ghost writer as many do. Once it is written, Vandenberg tries the first draft on his wife, his son Arthur, Jr., and on a few trusted friends. He is willing to make changes.

He has a standing technique in meeting his opponents. When he argues his own opinions, he also states and answers all the most telling arguments his opponents will bring up. Some of their guns are spiked before they start.

His speech on the Marshall plan illustrated his strategy. His most important opponent in that debate was an avowed aspirant for the White House job, Sen. Robert A. Taft (R-O.), who wanted to cut the amount of money voted for Europe's aid.

Vandenberg pointed out that the proposed sum of $5,000,000,000 had been worked out by a large number of top-flight Americans working in four different groups. They all had arrived at about the same figure.

He wondered, looking coolly around the Senate floor, how any single man could set his single judgment against the findings of so many.

On the final Senate vote Taft was defeated. The sum Vandenberg sponsored was approved.

Vandenberg reduces the number that will be against him in any major fight by only fighting issues in which he has a great interest.

For example, in the past few years, when he has become the outstanding member of Congress in foreign affairs, he has refrained from violent arguments on domestic issues. He leaves that field to Taft.

Nevertheless Vandenberg has disturbed some in the ranks of labor by his support of the Taft-Hartley Act.

Critics recall that in the 30s he generally opposed early rearmament measures and the draft. On some domestic issues he also made enemies. Several times he fought down increasing the payroll tax for social security payments. It was part of his general belief in economy in government expenses.

Big, trim, building, gray-haired, Vandenberg wears an almost constant, relaxed smile. His brown eyes dance behind glasses. He wears his felt hat at a slightly rakish angle. But his navy suit and black shoes give you the feeling that he is an ordinary, stable sort of American who plods down Main street each Sunday to church.

Vandenberg keeps his membership in a Grand Rapids Congregational church and lives in a house just a few blocks from where he was born.

Vandenberg has said in many ways that he is not a candidate for the presidency. He has said he would not accept a draft but wouldn't "concede" at it.

That about sums up his attitude the three previous times when he was mentioned as a candidate. He never has taken to the road to drum up delegates. No one knows his reasons for such passiveness. But friends think now that he would rather be secretary of state than to hold the number one post in the government.

No story about Vandenberg would be quite complete without a mention of his love of writing. Even on the Senate floor he occasionally climbs out onto the limb of prose poetry.

He tells his friends he never really had more fun than when he wrote his three books on Alexander Hamilton. When his present Senate term expires in 1953, he wants to write a biography of St. Paul.

It is difficult to recall any time that Vandenberg has been angry in public. His senate manner is an easy, smiling, tolerant one.

But he can get extremely angry in private. Then he blows off the steam he wouldn't permit to show on the Senate floor. The usual butt of his anger is characteristically some other senator who has tried to argue with his emotions, rather than with facts.

He is now 64 and has a huge sense of humor about himself.

Before the 1944 Republican convention he was asked about his chances for the nomination. He reminded his questioner about his poor prophecy before the 1940 convention.

He said: "Then I predicted that I would be nominated on the sixth ballot. I was right about the ballot but wrong about the nominee. It was Willie on the sixth."

FARE EXCHANGE
NEWARK, N. J. May 20 (AP)—A bus driver had been plagued for some time by a passenger who regularly produced a $20 bill on the early morning run and explained that's all he had. The bus driver didn't have enough change and usually gave the man a free nickel ride.

The other morning the driver was prepared. As soon as the passenger produced the $20 bill, the driver leaned over and handed the man a sack filled with 200 nickels in change.

He hasn't seen the passenger since.

Feller Trims Philadelphia To Send Tribe Into League Lead

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer
Bobby Feller and his Cleveland tribe have cooled off Connie Mack's Athletics and wrested the actual American League lead from Philadelphia.

By a mathematical freak, the Indians slipped into first place Tuesday night when they really trailed the A's by a half game. No longer is there any freak about it. Feller took care of that. The fireballing righthander, who was the only American leaguer to win 20 games last season, hung up his fifth victory last night by trimming Philadelphia, 6-1, with three hits.

Feller's brilliant pitching permitted the tribe to sweep the series from the A's, who came into town on a red hot spree after winning a doubleheader in the Yankee Stadium. They moved on to Detroit in second place.

Last night's crowd of 33,871 saw Feller retire the side in order in seven of the nine innings while the home club routed Bill Dietrich in a five-run 6th.

Hal Newhouser got back on the win path after being knocked out five straight times when he hurled Detroit to a 4-1 decision over Boston. Hal tied a record when he started four of the Tigers' six double plays.

Vic Wertz broke up a 1-1 game when he homered off Ellis Kinder with two on in the last of the ninth. Pat Mullin's homer in the fourth accounted for the other run.

The New York Yankees finally got a route-going job from Lefty Ed Lopat, ex-White Sox'er, who allowed 12 hits in taking an 8-4 verdict over Fred Sanford and the St. Louis Browns.

Hogan, Hamilton Share Lead In PGA Tournament

By SKIPPER PATRICK
ST. LOUIS May 20 (AP)—Two former champions, Bob Hamilton and little Ben Hogan, shared the lead with five-under-par 66's at the start of today's second and final 18 holes of qualifying play in the 30th Professional Golfers Association tournament.

Sure putting and accurate approaches to the greens of the hilly 6,487 yard Norwood Hills country club put the pair in the lead.

Hamilton, the 1944 titlist, turned in a classy 25 putt job as seven of the top 12 shooters showed complete mastery on the fast, Brooklyn, 14-7, before a night crowd of 32,888. It lasted for three hours and 28 minutes and consumed five of the Brook's seven able pitchers. Clyde King, who replaced starter Rex Barney, caught the loss and the win went to Ted Wilks, the third Card chucker.

While the Dodgers were losing their fourth in a row at home, the Phils were coming from behind to shade Chicago, 2-1. Two in the last of the ninth on a triple by Johnny Blatnik and singles by Del Ennis, Eddie Miller and Howie Schultz turned Cliff Chamber's potential shutout into a decision for reliever Sam Nahcm.

The New York Giants took advantage of another fine pitching job by Larry Jansen, who curved the ball past Cincinnati for a 5-0 victory. Whitely Lockman and Bill Rigney hit homers for the Giants.

Boston uncovered a new rookie, Vern Bickford, who may have an important bearing on the race. Bickford, making his first start, limited Pittsburgh to five hits in a 4-1 victory.

Hamilton, of Landover, Md., flashed the stiffest series of shots with an eagle and two birdies on successive holes that gave him a four-under-par 32 for the incoming nine. He chipped from well off the green into the cup for an eagle 2 on the 13th, and lifted another into the hole for a birdie 3 on the 15th.

Hogan, of Hershey, Pa., who won the crown in 1946, used only 29 putts. Long putts accounted for three of his five birdies.

Gene Sarazen of Germantown, N. Y., and former masters champion Herman Keiser of Akron, O., each needed only 30 putts for 67's.

Burning a measly 29 putts for the day were Ed (Porky) Oliver, Kenmore, Wash., and Sammy Sneed, the White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., slammer, who shared 68's with Jimmie Demerott, Ojai, Calif., and Pete Cooper, Ponte Vedra, Fla.

By Jim Ferrier, the defending champion, who didn't have to qualify, stroked through a 36-34-70 round just to get the "feel of the course."

The missus—who writes our Woman's Column in the Clarion under the name of "Nancy Gale"—gets letters about recipes, advice on etiquette, home management, etc.

One letter she got last week was about a recipe she published for Welsh Rabbit—made with tart cheese, Worcestershire, and a cup of sparkling tangy beer. "Turned out great," says her correspondent. "But you didn't mention what Leverage to serve with it. Should I serve beer? Cider? Iced tea?"

The missus' answer was simple!

Giants Win 14 Inning Thriller From St. Augustine, 6-5

Locals Move Within One-Half Game Of State Loop Lead; Orlando Drops Tiff

ARTHUR BECKWITH, Jr., Herald Sports Editor

The Sanford Giants moved within one-half game of the top rung in the Florida State League ladder here last night as they nipped the St. Augustine Saints by a 6 to 5 count in a thrilling 14 inning encounter.

While the Orlando Senators were dropping a 5 to 1 tiff to the Palatka Azules, the Daytona Beach Islets were rapping out a 10 to 6 decision over the Gainesville G-Men to tie the Senators for first place in the standings.

Righthander Hank McDonald, a newly acquired hurler for Manager Tom Anderson's Saints, went the route in the contest here last night and secured in the bottom of the 11th with one man away to issue a free ticket to Charlie Pepio to force Eddie Lislewski home with the game's winning run.

Sanford opened the hostilities in the first frame by sending two runs across the platter. Johnny McManus walked and Lloyd Clifton tripled down the left field line, scoring McManus, and Pepio singled Clifton home.

The Saints came to life in the second canto, scoring three markers.

Howie Bjorklund was safe on a boot by Lonnie Worsham, and Charlie Rickard was issued a walk. Bob Kupina singled Bjorklund home, and Rickard pulled up at third, while Kupina moved to second on an error by Vince Mullin in left field.

Gordon Knisely banged a knock into right field, driving Rickard and Kupina home.

The Ancient City nine added their final score in the fourth. Rickard singled, and went to third on a blow by Kupina. Rickard and Kupina executed a double steal and McDonald poked a blow to center to tally Kupina.

Sanford jammed one run across in the fifth after consecutive walks were issued to Len Mattie, Bill Spinks and McManus. Mattie scored on a long fly by Clifton.

The Bravesmen tied the contest in the eighth frame. Tom Cataldo opened the inning with a one ply poke to right, but was forced out on a boulder to third by Tim Tyler. Eddie Rosenkrantz doubled, and Tyler scored on a wild pitch by McDonald. Rosenkrantz moved to third on the play. Mattie poked a long fly to center field, and Rosenkrantz marched across the platter on the tag-up.

The battle raged with both teams threatening to score in the 11th and 12th innings. The most outstanding baseball seen in Central Florida in many a day was witnessed during the following five frames.

Manager Anderson of the Saints, playing right field, made a spectacular stab of a line drive by Rosenkrantz in the 11th inning to retire the side. The play left two men stranded on the sacks.

Charlie Pepio speared a sizzler by Wally Dunkovich in the 12th inning to add to the outstanding performance.

Worsham opened the contest on the hill for the locals and gave away to Spinks in the fifth. Spinks was relieved by Don Umscheid in the 11th and Lislewski pitched the 12th and 13th innings.

Tonight the Sanfordites invade Francis Field in St. Augustine for a return engagement with the Saints and come back to the home field for a game with the Gainesville G-Men tomorrow evening.

Mrs. Glenna Vare To Play On U. S. Curtis Cup Club

By BILL MACKLIN

BERKDALE, England May 20 (AP)—Mrs. Glenna Collet Vare of Philadelphia, 41-year-old captain of the U. S. Women's Curtis Golf team, today named herself to play in the International matches.

Mrs. Vare, mother of a 14-year-old and a 13-year-old son, has been shooting the best golf of the U. S. team since it arrived Sunday. Yesterday she carded an 80 over the baked Birkdale Course.

She will play tomorrow with Dorothy Kirby of Atlanta, in one of the three foursomes. Their opponents will be Philomena Gar-vev of Ireland, and Mrs. Zara Bolton of England.

Here are the other pairings: Louise Suggs at Atlanta, and Grace Lenchyk of Newington, Conn., against Jean Donald of Scotland, and Jacqueline Gordon of England.

Mrs. Estelle Lawson Page of Chapel Hill, N. C., and Dorothy Kieley of Los Angeles vs. Maurine Rattle of England, and Mrs. Val Reddan of Ireland.

Auburn, Tide Sign Two Year Contract To Meet On Grid

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. May 20 (AP)—A two-year contract has been signed by the University of Alabama and Alabama Polytechnic Institute to play the school's 1948 and 1949 football games in Birmingham.

The announcement was made today by authorities of both schools.

The first game since the schools broke off athletic relations in 1907 will be played here next Dec. 4 at Legion Field Stadium.

Athletic director Frank Thomas of Alabama and Wilbur Huttsell of Auburn said the second game will be played here Dec. 3, 1949. Both Thomas and Huttsell stated that Legion Field's seating capacity of 47,000 by next fall—largest in the state—was a major determining factor in the selection.

The schools broke off athletic relations in 1907 after their football teams battled to a 6-6 tie. They announced May 2 that they would resume the game next Dec. 4 at an undisclosed spot.

PREJUDICE AILMENT

NEWARK, N. J., May 20—(AP)—A lot of dandruff, peptic ulcers and heart disorders are caused by racial prejudice—and it's the bigot who suffers in this case, according to Willard Johnson of the National Conference of Christians and Jews.

Johnson told a civic meeting yesterday that prejudice had been found to cause definite physical reactions which burst out finally in the form of disease.

MERO COMMENDED For Law Enforcement

Immediately upon his appointment as sheriff of Seminole County on Feb. 25, 1947, P. A. Mero began a campaign of law enforcement which drove the slot machines out of the county, got rid of punchboards and put a serious crimp in all other illegal gambling operations.

For this campaign against gambling he has been widely commended from the press and in the pulpit and has received hundreds of letters of thanks and expressions of appreciation from the public. A small sample of these letters of commendation is as follows:

Truman Seeks More Aid For Social Security

Proposal Asks Hike In Retirement Pay; Taxation On First $4,800, Not $3,000

WASHINGTON, May 21 (AP)—The Senate today upheld President Truman's veto of a bill which would have permitted qualified senators to order an FBI investigation of any atomic energy appointees.

WASHINGTON, May 21 (AP)—President Truman decided today to ask Congress again to broaden the benefits of the 11-year-old Social Security Program.

Whether Congress will act, busy as it is with other matters, is highly uncertain. Mr. Truman's decision was announced at the White House by Senator Barkley of Kentucky, Senate Democratic leader.

Asked whether there is any chance for congressional action, Barkley replied: "The President hopes so."

The message is due in a few days. It will be the second special message in recent days on an important issue this political campaign year. Mr. Truman asked a week ago for a long-range farm program to benefit farmers and to use surpluses for feeding the poor.

Presumably, Mr. Truman will ask, as he has in the past, for extension of protection under Social Security for millions not now covered. Higher rates of benefits are also a likely request.

On Feb. 16, the annual report of the Social Security Board offered recommendations Mr. Truman is expected to follow up. The board recommended making the self-employed, including farmers, eligible for Social Security.

Barge Line Shows Keen Interest In St. Johns River

M. B. Kelly, president of the McLean-Carolina Lines Inc., operating barge services on the eastern seaboard, expressed much interest in transportation on the St. Johns River when he conferred here yesterday afternoon with Edward Higgins, manager of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce.

Mr. Kelly said that he is well pleased with the deepening of the river to 12 feet between Sanford and Palatka as it will allow larger barges to get the tonnage necessary to operate under today's high prices.

He was also much interested, said Mr. Higgins, in the possibilities of transportation on the river when facilities are made available at Sanford.

The large lines which Mr. Kelly represents, operate between New York and Philadelphia, Buffalo and New York, and Erie, Pa. and inland waterways of the eastern seaboard.

Deepening of the river channel will probably be completed by September, said Mr. Higgins, following which some sort of celebration may be planned here.

Aviation School Ends Operation At Airport

Roy Browning yesterday terminated operations of the Sanford Aviation Academy at the Municipal Airport, where many aviators have been trained during the past two years, and the City taken over operation. The lease was for the two year period.

At present two aviation schools are negotiating with the City to lease the airport, said City Manager H. N. Bayer this morning. The glider school operated by Steve Bennis will continue.

A new enterprise at the airport is the aviation repair shop being installed by Bohannon and Finn Company for repair of heavy planes. The shop is located in the danger building.

"NEW FISH CALL"

Duck calling is a well known art among Sanford sportsmen, but they are trying in vain to find out what Leroy Strawder, local insurance man, used when he snagged a big black bass weighing 13 pounds, eight ounces, while casting recently in the Kissimmee River.

"I called to him and he came right over and grabbed the plug," declared Mr. Strawder to a group of friends in downtown Sanford this morning as he brought the fish out of a box of lures in the back of his automobile for them to see. He revealed that he is going to have the bass mounted by a firm in Lake County. At the time of the catch he was with a party of fishermen, and some other good catches were made, he said.

Florida Anti-Truman Sentiment Varies, But Hostility Predominates

TALLAHASSEE, May 21 (AP)—There is about as much variety of anti-Truman sentiment among Florida's Democratic presidential electors as among its delegates to the National Nominating Convention.

Both groups are predominantly hostile to President Truman and his "Civil Rights" Program. The major difference of opinion is on the question of whether they should go as far as a party bolt to stop a Truman term.

The seven presidential electors named in the first primary and the two candidates who are in a runoff for the eighth Democratic position were asked this question: "Would you withhold your electoral vote from President Truman if he should be nominated and his Civil Rights Program is in the party platform?"

Withholding of electoral votes is the scheme of the most hostile Southern anti-Truman bloc. The idea is to keep Truman from getting an electoral college majority and thereby throw the presidential contest into the hands of Congress for settlement. In that case, every state—regardless of size—would have a single vote for president.

Only one of the Florida Democratic electors, W. L. Coats of Fort Pierce, said flatly he would withhold his vote from Truman. A. L. Phillips of St. Augustine, said he would withhold his vote from Truman if he were one of the runoff candidates, said

Waitress Visiting Officer Is Being Held For Questioning

NEWARK, N. J., May 21 (AP)—A Newark police captain was killed today in his headquarters office by a bullet from his service revolver, and a 39-year-old red haired waitress was held for questioning.

Police Capt. Thomas J. Rowe, 55, a Veteran of Nearly 33 Years on the Force, Succumbed About an Hour After Being Shot at First Precinct Headquarters, Which He Commands.

Essex County Prosecutor Duane E. Minard said the woman, identified by police as Mrs. Ann Powers, formerly of Uniontown, Pa., was being questioned by city and county detectives.

No charge has been made against her.

Haller said Rowe and the woman walked into first precinct headquarters shortly after 4 A. M. and went to the captain's office.

Ten minutes later Lieut. William V. Hill, on duty at the information desk, heard a single shot and saw the woman running from the office, Haller said.

Plain clothesman Ray Poquette rushed into Rowe's office as lieutenant Hill grabbed the woman, Haller said.

"Get me to a doctor," Rowe said to Poquette and then collapsed to the floor.

He died at 6:32 A. M.

Haller said the woman refused to say anything other than to admit there had been "a shooting."

He said she was 39 years old, married and described herself as a friend of the police captain's. She refused to believe reports

Seminole High School Presents Its 1948 Edition Of Salmagundi

The recently issued Salmagundi, 1948 year book of the students of Seminole High School is dedicated to Miss Laura Chittenden and Dr. J. B. Root of the faculty, and has as its central theme of pictorial interest the huge oak tree in front of the school.

The tree is prominently pictured on the fly leaves of the year book and in chapter headings, and is figuratively brought to life by Margaret Partin and her staff and given the role of telling the story of student activities.

Pictured against a leafy background are Supt. T. W. Lawton and Principal Herman E. Morris. Mr. Lawton conveys a message of Florida's $50 million dollar expenditure on schools "in order that more than 400,000 students may find the right way and be encouraged to walk in it."

Mr. Morris in his message to the students states: "Never before has the power of education been felt so keenly as in the century in which we are living—Golden Age and full of Golden Opportunities for anyone who will only reach out and pick them."

The big oak now turns its interest on the rest of the faculty with a photograph of "teacher's desk," the hands, pencil and note book that have made historic records of tardiness, the polished red apple, and teacher's finger nail polish to match.

The following faculty members are pictured: Right at work instilling knowledge into eager

Father Flanagan To Be Buried In Boys Town Chapel

BOYS TOWN, Neb., May 21 (AP)—Youth of all races and creeds paid last respects today to their great friend and benefactor—the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Edward J. Flanagan, founder and director of world-famous Boys Town.

Dowd Memorial Chapel on the grounds of the haven for homeless and neglected boys was prepared to receive the body after two solemn masses of requiem said by priests of the Omaha archdiocese.

The body of Father Flanagan, who once said "I have yet to find a single boy who wants to be bad," will rest in a sarcophagus in the northeast corner of the chapel.

The Rev. Edmund C. Walsh, acting director of Boys Town, said Father Flanagan had asked to be buried in the chapel "so I can be near the boys and they can come and visit me."

A marble slab, on which is engraved "Father Flanagan, founder of Boys Town, lover of Christ and man, July 13, 1880-May 15, 1948" will seal the stone sarcophagus.

Father Walsh disclosed early today that since the body was brought home from Berlin, where Father Flanagan died, more than 15,000 persons had filed past the bier.

The body of Father Flanagan, attired in the robes of a monsignor, lay in a solid bronze casket, opened full length.

The sentiment of the 450 boys at the home was expressed by Eddie Dunn, the 29th mayor of Boys Town, who called Father Flanagan "our greatest friend"

Lewis Scorns Coal Operators Contract Talks

WASHINGTON, May 21 (AP)—Negotiations to settle the 11-month-old railroad labor dispute look up in failure today.

WASHINGTON, May 21 (AP)—John L. Lewis gave a cold shoulder today to the mine operators' invitation to resume talks on a new coal mining contract.

The chief of the United Mine Workers sent reporters word that he had no comment on the invitation and would not reply to it immediately.

From UMW sources, it was learned that the union regards the invitation as simply a "maneuver" by the operators in connection with a complaint of unfair labor practices brought against Lewis by the Southern Coal Producers Association.

Joseph E. Moody, president of the Southern producers, has complained that Lewis refuses to bargain with him in violation of the Taft-Hartley Act. He asks that Robert N. Denham, general counsel of the National Labor Relations Board, seek a court order requiring Lewis to bargain.

The operator's invitation for renewed talks was in a letter sent to Lewis late yesterday. The union's present contract runs out June 30. Negotiations on a new one began Tuesday, but broke up Wednesday over the issue of letting Moody participate.

Lewis objected to any formal representation from the Southern Coal Producers Association. He said it was only a "paper holding company and propaganda organization."

Lewis Scorns Coal Operators Contract Talks

WASHINGTON, May 21 (AP)—Negotiations to settle the 11-month-old railroad labor dispute look up in failure today.

WASHINGTON, May 21 (AP)—John L. Lewis gave a cold shoulder today to the mine operators' invitation to resume talks on a new coal mining contract.

The chief of the United Mine Workers sent reporters word that he had no comment on the invitation and would not reply to it immediately.

From UMW sources, it was learned that the union regards the invitation as simply a "maneuver" by the operators in connection with a complaint of unfair labor practices brought against Lewis by the Southern Coal Producers Association.

Joseph E. Moody, president of the Southern producers, has complained that Lewis refuses to bargain with him in violation of the Taft-Hartley Act. He asks that Robert N. Denham, general counsel of the National Labor Relations Board, seek a court order requiring Lewis to bargain.

The operator's invitation for renewed talks was in a letter sent to Lewis late yesterday. The union's present contract runs out June 30. Negotiations on a new one began Tuesday, but broke up Wednesday over the issue of letting Moody participate.

Lewis objected to any formal representation from the Southern Coal Producers Association. He said it was only a "paper holding company and propaganda organization."

U.S. Demands Lebanon Free 40 Americans

WASHINGTON, May 21 (AP)—The United States demanded today that the Lebanese government release 40 American citizens taken off the American steamship Marine Corp. at Beirut.

The State Department announced that the U. S. minister to Lebanon, Lowell Pinkerton, was instructed to submit the demand.

The Department announced at the same time that American diplomatic representatives in all the Arab countries, including Lebanon, have been instructed to advise these governments that the United States would "view seriously" any discrimination against American citizens because of race, color or creed.

The group removed from the Marine Corp. were between 10 and 25, and the Lebanese authorities took the stand they might bear arms for the new Jewish state of Israel. The Marine Corp. was en route to Palestine.

The American citizens, together with 29 persons of other nationalities, were interned in former French barracks at Bab el-Lebanon.

The department said Lebanese authorities had threatened to use force, if necessary, in removing them from the ship when it touched Beirut Wednesday.

Possibly violence or bloodshed apparently was averted because the Pinkerton advised the passengers not to resist seizure.

Pinkerton first intervened in an effort to prevent the removal of the American and other nationals, who were in the barracks, to a ship.

LAKE SUCCESS, May 21 (AP)—The American-French-Belgian Consular Truce Commission, posted from Jerusalem today, is holding about 100 United Nations peace-keeping troops in the Holy City.

The report was read out in the Security Council by Alexander Parodi of France, this month's president of the council.

Jewish Fighters Make Last Ditch Stand In City Of Jerusalem

LAKE SUCCESS, May 21 (AP)—Andrei A. Gromko demanded today that the United Nations stop the Arab-Jewish war in Palestine without further delay. Gromko said the council must accept an American proposal for strong action.

Cairo, May 21 (AP)—Jewish fighters, holed up in a corner of Jerusalem's old city by strong Arab Legion forces, dug in today for a last ditch stand as the battle of Jerusalem raged toward a climax.

The end of the four-day battle for the ancient and Holy walled city appeared to be in sight. Dispatches quoted the Arab Legion as claiming control of four-fifths of the old city.

Fighters of Haganah and Irgun Zvai Leumi were backed up into the Beit Yaacov synagogue. They withdrew to that synagogue yesterday when the Arabs captured Tiferet Israel synagogue, Jerusalem's tallest structure. At their backs were more of King Abdullah's Legionnaires, threatening to cut off their last avenue of escape.

The rounds of Arab artillery jarred the whole city. Jewish sources said a wing of the Hadassah hospital was destroyed by shelling, and that the Hebrew University and the Caecostovak consulate were hit.

Fear of the fate of Jerusalem grew in Tel Aviv. Babian ordered prayers for the Holy City, shrine of three great religions. Millions of Muslims in Cairo offered special prayers, too, for the victory of Arab arms in the Holy Land.
