Bargain Day Is Every Day At Wes-Kay

"Save 40 to 50 per cent on the cost of doing your laundry anywhere else," is the promise of R. D. Wesley, proprietor of Wes-Kay Washeteria.

A whole list of exclusive features can be found at Wes-Kay. The double load washers are the "loudest period" before the wash. The machine fills with water and tumbles the clothes through a soaking cycle. Then it drains that water out, rinses and spins the clothes to extract all the dirty soaking water, and fills the machine with fresh water to get "basement" prices on the "first floor" at Wes-Kay.

The surprising thing is that these double load machines will wash the equivalent of two regular laundry baskets of clothes for the same price you pay for a regular single load washer. Was also has the single load machines at still lower prices. Truly, as Wesley says, you get "basement" prices on the "first floor" at Wes-Kay.

Money can be saved by customers even on the drying phase of the laundry. Wes provides an air-conditioned waiting room for his clients so they can wait in comfort while the machines complete the drying cycle. There is no problem finding a place to park at Wes-Kay as there is ample parking in front, on the side and behind the washeteria.

Other special services to be found at Wes-Kay are: a change maker that changes dollar bills as well as coins; spot removing service; complimentary of the house; dyeing service; and special soap, bleach, fabric softener and household spray cleaner at "basement" low prices.

There is no problem finding a place to park at Wes-Kay as there is ample parking in front, on the side and behind the washeteria. If you find sleep eluding you one of these mild Florida nights, you'll find Wes-Kay open 24-hours a day and night.

Wes-Kay Washeteria is patronized by discerning people in Sanford and throughout Seminole who are looking for high quality equipment to give the best in service at economical prices. Convenience is the word for the "largest coin laundry in Sanford," located at 2010 French Avenue and open 24 hours a day.

Seminole Indians Schedule Pow-Wow

HOLLYWOOD—Florida's unconquered Seminoles will hold their first off-reservation Pow-Wow and Conclave in over 100 years Sept. 30 at Florida's Silver Springs. It was announced today by Tribe Chairman Mrs. Betty Mae Jumper and Joe Dan Osceola, chairman of the board, Seminole Tribal Council. Over 100 Seminoles in full costume will be at Silver Springs for ceremonies dedicating all new glass bottom boats named for famous Seminole chiefs and warriors. According to Mrs. Jumper, the decision to pow-wow at Silver Springs is to return descendants of famous chiefs to an area "steeped" in Seminole history as the camping grounds of famed warrior Osceola.

Fort King Indian Agent Wiley Thompson and a Fort King lieutenant. The Seminoles will direct the building of typical chickees at Silver Springs and participate in the planning of the boat dedication. Descendants of the chiefs and warriors for whom the new boats are named will be present to accept official designation for their illustrious ancestors. National and state dignitaries will be on hand to participate in the ceremonies. Invitations have been sent to Secretary of the Interior Stewart Udall and Federal Indian Commissioner Robert Bennett to attend the conclave, as well as Florida Gov. Claude Kirk and other high officials. Arrangements for the Silver Springs gathering are being directed by the Seminole Tribe of Florida through committee members from the Danis, Brighton and Big Cypress reservations. Joe Dan Osceola points out that the second Seminole Wars were kindled in the Silver Springs area with the killing of a proposed treaty with Osceola and the subsequent ambush of the National and state dignitaries will be on hand to participate in the ceremonies. It might be difficult telling the Casselberry police soon. We couldn't help but notice K. LARRY PAYTON, Richard Rank lining up waiting to see Arthur Wheatley.

It's surprising to find none of the Casselberry City councilmen have any knowledge of the "tangible evidence" allegedly held by the Mayor on the "unbecomingly conduct" of the five police officers of the city who resigned at the mayor's insistence.

I. S. OKs New Osteen Bridge

Construction of a new high level bridge on State Road 415 over the St. Johns River — to replace the present "Osteen bridge" — has been approved by the federal government.

Spokesman for the U. S. Army Corps of Engineers, at Jacksonville, in a telephone interview, said at noon today the permit had been approved by the new U. S. Department of Transportation, subject to the earlier approval of the Army Engineers.

Request for the federal permit had been made by the State Road Department in compliance with resolutions by the Seminole and Volusia County Commissions.

The present Osteen bridge was authorized in October 1921. It has a 45-foot horizontal clearance at high tide—similar to the present bridge on Interstate 4 over the St. Johns River south entrance of Lake Monroe. Other would be a new high way to be constructed from State Road 46, in the vicinity of Park Avenue.

Over Police Casselberry Stalemate

Action was at a standstill today in the mass resignation "by request" of the Casselberry Police Department members after City Attorney Kenneth McIntosh reported "there is nothing in the charter providing for hearings in case of tendered resignations."

Resigned Police Chief Kenneth Triplet has requested of the Casselberry City Council a hearing to bring into the open alleged charges by Mayor Arthur Wheatley which brought about the resignations of Triplet and four other police officers.

Triplet has claimed he offered his resignation one day before Mayor Wheatley demanded that all the officers quit their posts "face a public hearing."

Mayor Wheatley today refused comment on the report. "I have had two days of the press and now do not intend to continue it," Wheatley declared.

Councilman Dr. Eugene Ellis insisted, "I have not seen any documented evidence of any charges against the police chief or any other member of the police department. As far as I am concerned, when full facts in the matter are known, the chief, as a councilman, to do something about it, if I deem necessary."

Common sense would tell you five men would not resign over the activities of one of its members. The whole mess would be better not touched. All right on the location is expected to come to trial within the next 60 days.

A jubilant Harvey Center, attorney for the south side residents, declared, "This is a victory for everyone on the road. Now at least the people will be able to use it."

Appeal on the decision is expected to be made by Attorney Mack N. Cleveland Jr., representing the north side owners who insisted the road over the years has deviated off its right of way and is intruding into their property.

Predict 6,000 Enrollment At SJC In Near Future

An up-dating and projection of Seminole Junior College in terms of its educational and economic value to this area was given the Lions Club by Vernon Mize, member of the College Advisory Committee, at its weekly meeting yesterday in the Civic Center. Starting in 1966 with an enrollment of 800, enjoying an increase to 1,500 this year, Mize saw a total of 6,000 students when the formation of the institution during and after the research, political maneuvering and legislative action required before it was created in 1965, made the following points:

First, it provides two years of advanced education in a complete program of liberal arts, professional education, and classes are small enough (30-35) to allow the personal attention most students require.

Second, it reduces the cost which has prevented many teachable youngsters from improving their education. The cost per student is $90. And there are scholarships available to cover classifications of need and services to be rendered which mean no tuition costs for five per cent of the student body.

The construction of buildings and essential facilities for the addition of a vocational and technical program of instruction will fill another national need demanded — the demand for skilled craftsmen. Start of construction of these buildings is expected in 1968.

In addition to these obvious educational assets for the people of Seminole County there are also economic benefits. Mize looked at the college as an industrial plant which would be a source of professional men and women who are employed and that in the annual payroll is in excess of $1,000,000.

Information and ways of applying for the funds were reported to the County Commission during informal meeting Tuesday afternoon by Harry Lindsey, of the Department of Community Action and Development; and Richard McGiffin and Clayton McWilliams, program consultants with the government to assure the building was being operated in the manner for which the aid was granted.

E. D. Kirchhoff, Community Action director and Amos Jones assistant director, were also present at the meeting.

Judge Orders County Maintain Sand Lake Rd.

Seminole County was ordered today to maintain Sand Lake Road in its present location, at least temporarily.

Circuit Judge William G. Abiding, following a two-hour hearing, in which six witnesses were called, granted a permanent writ of mandamus to south side residents of the road. Effect of the granting of the writ is that the county must maintain the road until judgment is given in the suit over the road's proper location.

Other attorneys in the suit are Tom Lovett representing Seminole County Chamber of Commerce Long Range Planning Committee, and is active in the Seminole County Board of Realtors.

County Teachers Ready For 'Action', Henley Says

For years the teachers have been dedicated to the point of tolerance, but the new teacher is dedicated to the point of action, Principal Carlton Henley told the approximately 250 parents and teachers attending the Parent Teacher Association meeting at Lyman High School Tuesday night.

"The majority of teachers in Seminole County will back up the PEA (Florida Education Association)," he added, "and 'dedicated' teachers will walk out in the event of a showdown."

Following the meeting at 8:30 p. m. the board with Mayor W. Lawrence Swafford will conduct the second of a series of town meetings at the Community Center, 2614 Main Avenue on the proposed new charter.

Would Fight WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Robert Sikes (D-Fla.) said today that he would introduce legislation to act on education from a special committee on the floor of the House.

United Nations, N. Y. (AP)—The UN General Assembly's new Committee President, Cornelius Maselis, foreign minister of Romania, called on the 122 member states to embark today on a study aimed at finding a "lasting solution" to the Middle East problem.

Plan to suggest this action to the town. The site of the Ovidio dump is owned by the Town of Ovidio and has been leased for use by the county for several years.

Continued awarding bid for concrete and cement until the next meeting. Silvrace Concrete Co. submitted low unit bid on transit mix concrete while Inland Concrete submitted low bid on bag cement.

Just Doesn't Make Sense

Last month the County zoning and planning Board in an effort to stop commercial strip zoning along SR 46 outside Sanford said "no" to the zoning of a piece of property from agricultural to C-1.

The request was appealed to the County Commission last week and by a 3-3 majority the board overrode the zoning board.

Commissioner John Fitzpatrick leading the fight to make the property commercial said "we need to get more commercial in the area — more money for the county."

This is the same commissioner who refuses to allow a palm reader to get a license here because he says we don't need one.

And he is acting as judge and jury — so we get commercial strip zoning on SR 46 and no palm reader.

At the County Commission meeting last week Planner Jack Goodin echoed the words of Willard Peebles, fifth district road board member who said "we must control development along our highways so it will not become choked with local traffic and require traffic lights at every block."

That is exactly what the County Commission is asking for when they approved that commercial strip zoning.

However, the majority on one hand — making us need more commercial and it's okay for someone to put up a bar or eating place or, dime store along SR 46 but not okay for a palm reader (whether you believe in them or not, is no reason to deny anyone from making a living) to practice here.

The palm reader was given a complete security and reference check by the Sheriff's office.

Sheriff J. L. Hobby said okay.

Meanwhile the County Commission decides to make a living in Seminole County or not.

Makes good sense?

We think not.

Analysis Of The News

WASHINGTON (AP) — Although it is not certain the present drag-along condition of the war in Vietnam can continue indefinitely with the 1969 presidential election coming up, President Johnson can't afford to let it go on the idea that he hopes for a second term, and an one month he does. One of the byproducts of the war is a drag-along condition in Congress.

From the time it opened last January Congress has been bumbling and stalling, big on talk, short on performance. And a lot of the past eight months in Congress has been used, particularly by senators, in finding fault with the war.

The mood there would have been different if Johnson had been able to devote his energies to his programs and the law-makers instead of having to split his attention among Congress, the war, and the city riots.

No one knows better than Johnson the advantages for him in next year's election. He can't win if he could point back to a shining record with Congress in 1967. The last impressive record there was in 1965.

But the war haunts him. The doves who have no stomach for the war and the hawks who want to get together are both on his back. And, unless there is a change, he will be in the middle, a wide open target, all through the 1968 campaign.

He's already had a taste of what's to come from at least two Republican presidential prospects, both governors: Ronald Reagan of California and George Romney of Michigan. Romney, who says he thinks

Florida Second In Medicare, NARCE Told

By JANE CASSELLBERRY

Florida ranks second in the United States with 84.4 per cent of the total Medicare cases, James E. Madson, operations supervisor of the Social Security Administration's Orlando office, told Chapter 886 of National Association of Retired Civil Employees meeting in Winter Park Wednesday at a noon luncheon.

Over 204,000 Medicare patients were admitted to hospitals in Florida and payments totaled in the millions since the program was initiated, he said. Arizona ranks first with 88.7 per cent of the total cases, Madson stated.

During a question and answer session he advised the retirees having trouble filling out their forms to go to the Social Security office in Orlando for help as one of the reasons for so many delays in payments is incomplete and incorrect data on the forms.

He pointed out that a Medicare patient must pay the hospital $40 and the hospital deduct the necessary forms and that in most hospitals it is also necessary to pay the first $50 toward the physician's bill.

There were 48 members present and three visitors. The next meeting will be on Oct. 31, at the B&B Cafeteria.

New 'Uniform' PENNSACOLA, Fla. (AP) —

Bill Rentschler decided himself out in one of the copied-strings of letters that are the rage among teen-agers in his hometown and went riding through nearby Milton.

Two police officers pegged him for an escaped convict.

"But I bought this shirt," he said, "and it's 11-year-old, from Pensacola, Fla. The police took him to jail."

Rentschler telephoned his grandmother, whose explanation was enough to free him.

Political Notebook

WASHINGTON (NEA) — An enlarging number of Americans seem bent on defining American democratic freedoms as they must not condemn but only understand may be very Christian in intent, but in reality it is an escape from the necessity of exercising judgment.

What is required is a courage to be independent and stand up for the standard of values one believes in.

"If the educated man is not willing to express standards, if he cannot show that he has them, and applies them, what want to short-circuit the system, he says, simply lack the proper patience and stomach and drive to change society for the better by truly democratic means.

Dr. Crane's Worry Clinic

Archie Keene deserves a real compliment and I am sure he will have a gold star crossed with his account in the "Bank of Heaven." For Keene's kill of attendance and quick the teen-ager's thirst for idealism by steady sermonizing. Jesus was a superb orator so every modern preacher should adopt Keene's surefire narrative formula.

CASE D-587: My brother, Dr. John B. Crane, occupies the Masses Chair of Economics at Iowa Wesleyan.

He used to teach at Harvard, Northwestern and Earlham and was a roving political analyst for 10 years all over Europe, from which he wrote a widely syndicated column for American newspapers.

So he is a versatile pedagogue and a professional orator.

Recently he drove back to help celebrate our mother's 80th birthday.

During the dinner discussion he became the typical poor pulpit orator in America.

"Archie Keene," he began, "is now retired from the Presidency of Indiana University of Technology at Ft. Wayne, Indiana."

"But he used to teach Public Speaking in his younger days."

"So he has decided to help improve the oratorical skill of clergymen in Northeastern Indiana."

Once per week he thus brings together about 50 preachers for an intensive drill on public speaking strategy.

"To have an adequate pension and won't need to do any further educational work, but he believes he can render a great service to the church by teaching to produce better pulpit orators."

Would that we had 10,000 more men like Archie Keene.

For it takes a live wire in the pulpit to electrify a congregation.

Alas, far too many clergymen are still mediocre in their congregation.

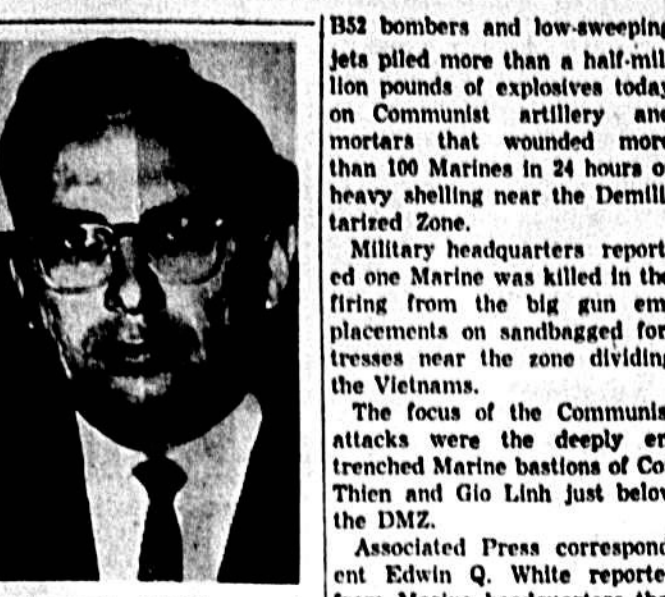

Oddly enough, it is the clerics who are on their toes and trying to improve, who are already pretty good speakers at the outset.

Social Security Benefit Increase Eyed By Solons

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, D-N.Y., who is pushing the idea, has come up with a twist which seems to skirt the question of present war costs. It provides for general fund financing—but not until 1972.

Senators seeking the higher payments declare the Social Security bill passed by the House last month proposes benefits hopelessly inadequate for the needs of America's elderly citizens.

And, they say, President Johnson's proposal, which calls for somewhat higher payments, is unsatisfactory even though it would mean the biggest benefit increase ever.

They point to the testimony received by the Senate Finance Committee that either proposal would leave millions of old persons still in poverty.

The committee has been told that the new average annual payment for an individual would be $1,173.

The poverty level for an individual is $1,500 or less.

The House bill provides for a 12.5 per cent increase in benefits, with a boost in the minimum monthly check to $40 from the present $44.

Johnson's recommendation is for a 15 per cent across-the-board hike with a $70 minimum.

Kennedy, in testimony before the committee, called for a 30 per cent across-the-board hike with a $100 minimum monthly payment.

Catholic Priest Is Pied Piper

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Standing in the best outside his church, the Rev. James Perrone calls to the children of Watts, and they come running, in droves.

The 39-year-old Roman Catholic priest, whom you might remember as Buddy James, got his first job in mellow tones emanating from an alto saxophone. He plays it with authority and gusto.

For 10 years, he was a first rate sideman in some top bands.

"My whole approach with the kids is music as a kind of bridge," said Father Perrone. "It breaks down the initial tension of meeting with adults."

When he says music, he means jazz, which he plays with style and skill that remind the listener of Paul Desmond.

But for Father Perrone, jazz is merely the medium for his message: The Christian faith he wants to import to his audience, mostly Negro and Mexican-American children from this impoverished section of Los Angeles.

"God says we should use our talents and mine is this!"

"But jazz is a priest?"

"Many people are surprised that a musician should be a priest," said Father Perrone. "They connect it (jazz) with dope, alcohol and a bad life. What they forget is that there is good in everybody."

Besides, he added with a grin, "a lot of the older hymns don't seem to appeal to the youngsters."

Father Perrone came to St. Odilia's church in Watts only three months ago, but his church-step concerta already have made him known throughout the district. There also has been a noticeable increase in Sunday School attendance at St. Odilia's.

Father Perrone was only 13 when he got his first job as a musician. During the next 10 years, he played for such notable Louis Prima and Tony Pastor.

Pastor also featured Father Perrone.

Known as a professional name, as a vocalist. The band's other singer was a young girl named Rosemary Clooney, soon to rise to the very top of pop music and motion pictures.

Father Perrone had always been interested in the priesthood. In 1961, he abandoned his career and entered a seminary. Eight years later, he was ordained.

Patent Office Is Automated

WASHINGTON (AP) — The U.S. Patent Office has struggled for two decades just to keep its head above the mountain of paperwork generated by a growing army of inventors and gadget-makers.

Now methods have been streamlined, automation is being introduced and for the first time in years officials say the backlog of pending applications has dropped below 200,000.

A record 70,000 patents, the vast majority to Americans, were issued during the year which ended June 30. The figure is expected to go higher this year.

B52 bombers and low-level jets piled more than a half-million pounds of explosives today on communist military bases and mortars that wounded more than 100 Marines in 24 hours of shelling near the Demilitarized Zone.

Military headquarters reported one Marine was killed in the fire from the big gun emplacements on sandbagged fortresses near the zone dividing the Vietnam.

The focus of the Communist attacks were the deeply entrenched Marine bastions of Con Thien and Gio Linh just below the DMZ.

Associated Press correspondent Edwin G. White reported from Marine headquarters that shelling was so intense that road traffic to the two posts was suspended and all supplies were forced to move up on medical evacuation helicopters.

The Communist gunners used everything from big mortars aimed at the DMZ to long-range Soviet-built artillery placed 10 miles from the big gun posts. More than 300 shells have hit the two U.S. posts in the past 24 hours and every few hours there were reports of more shelling.

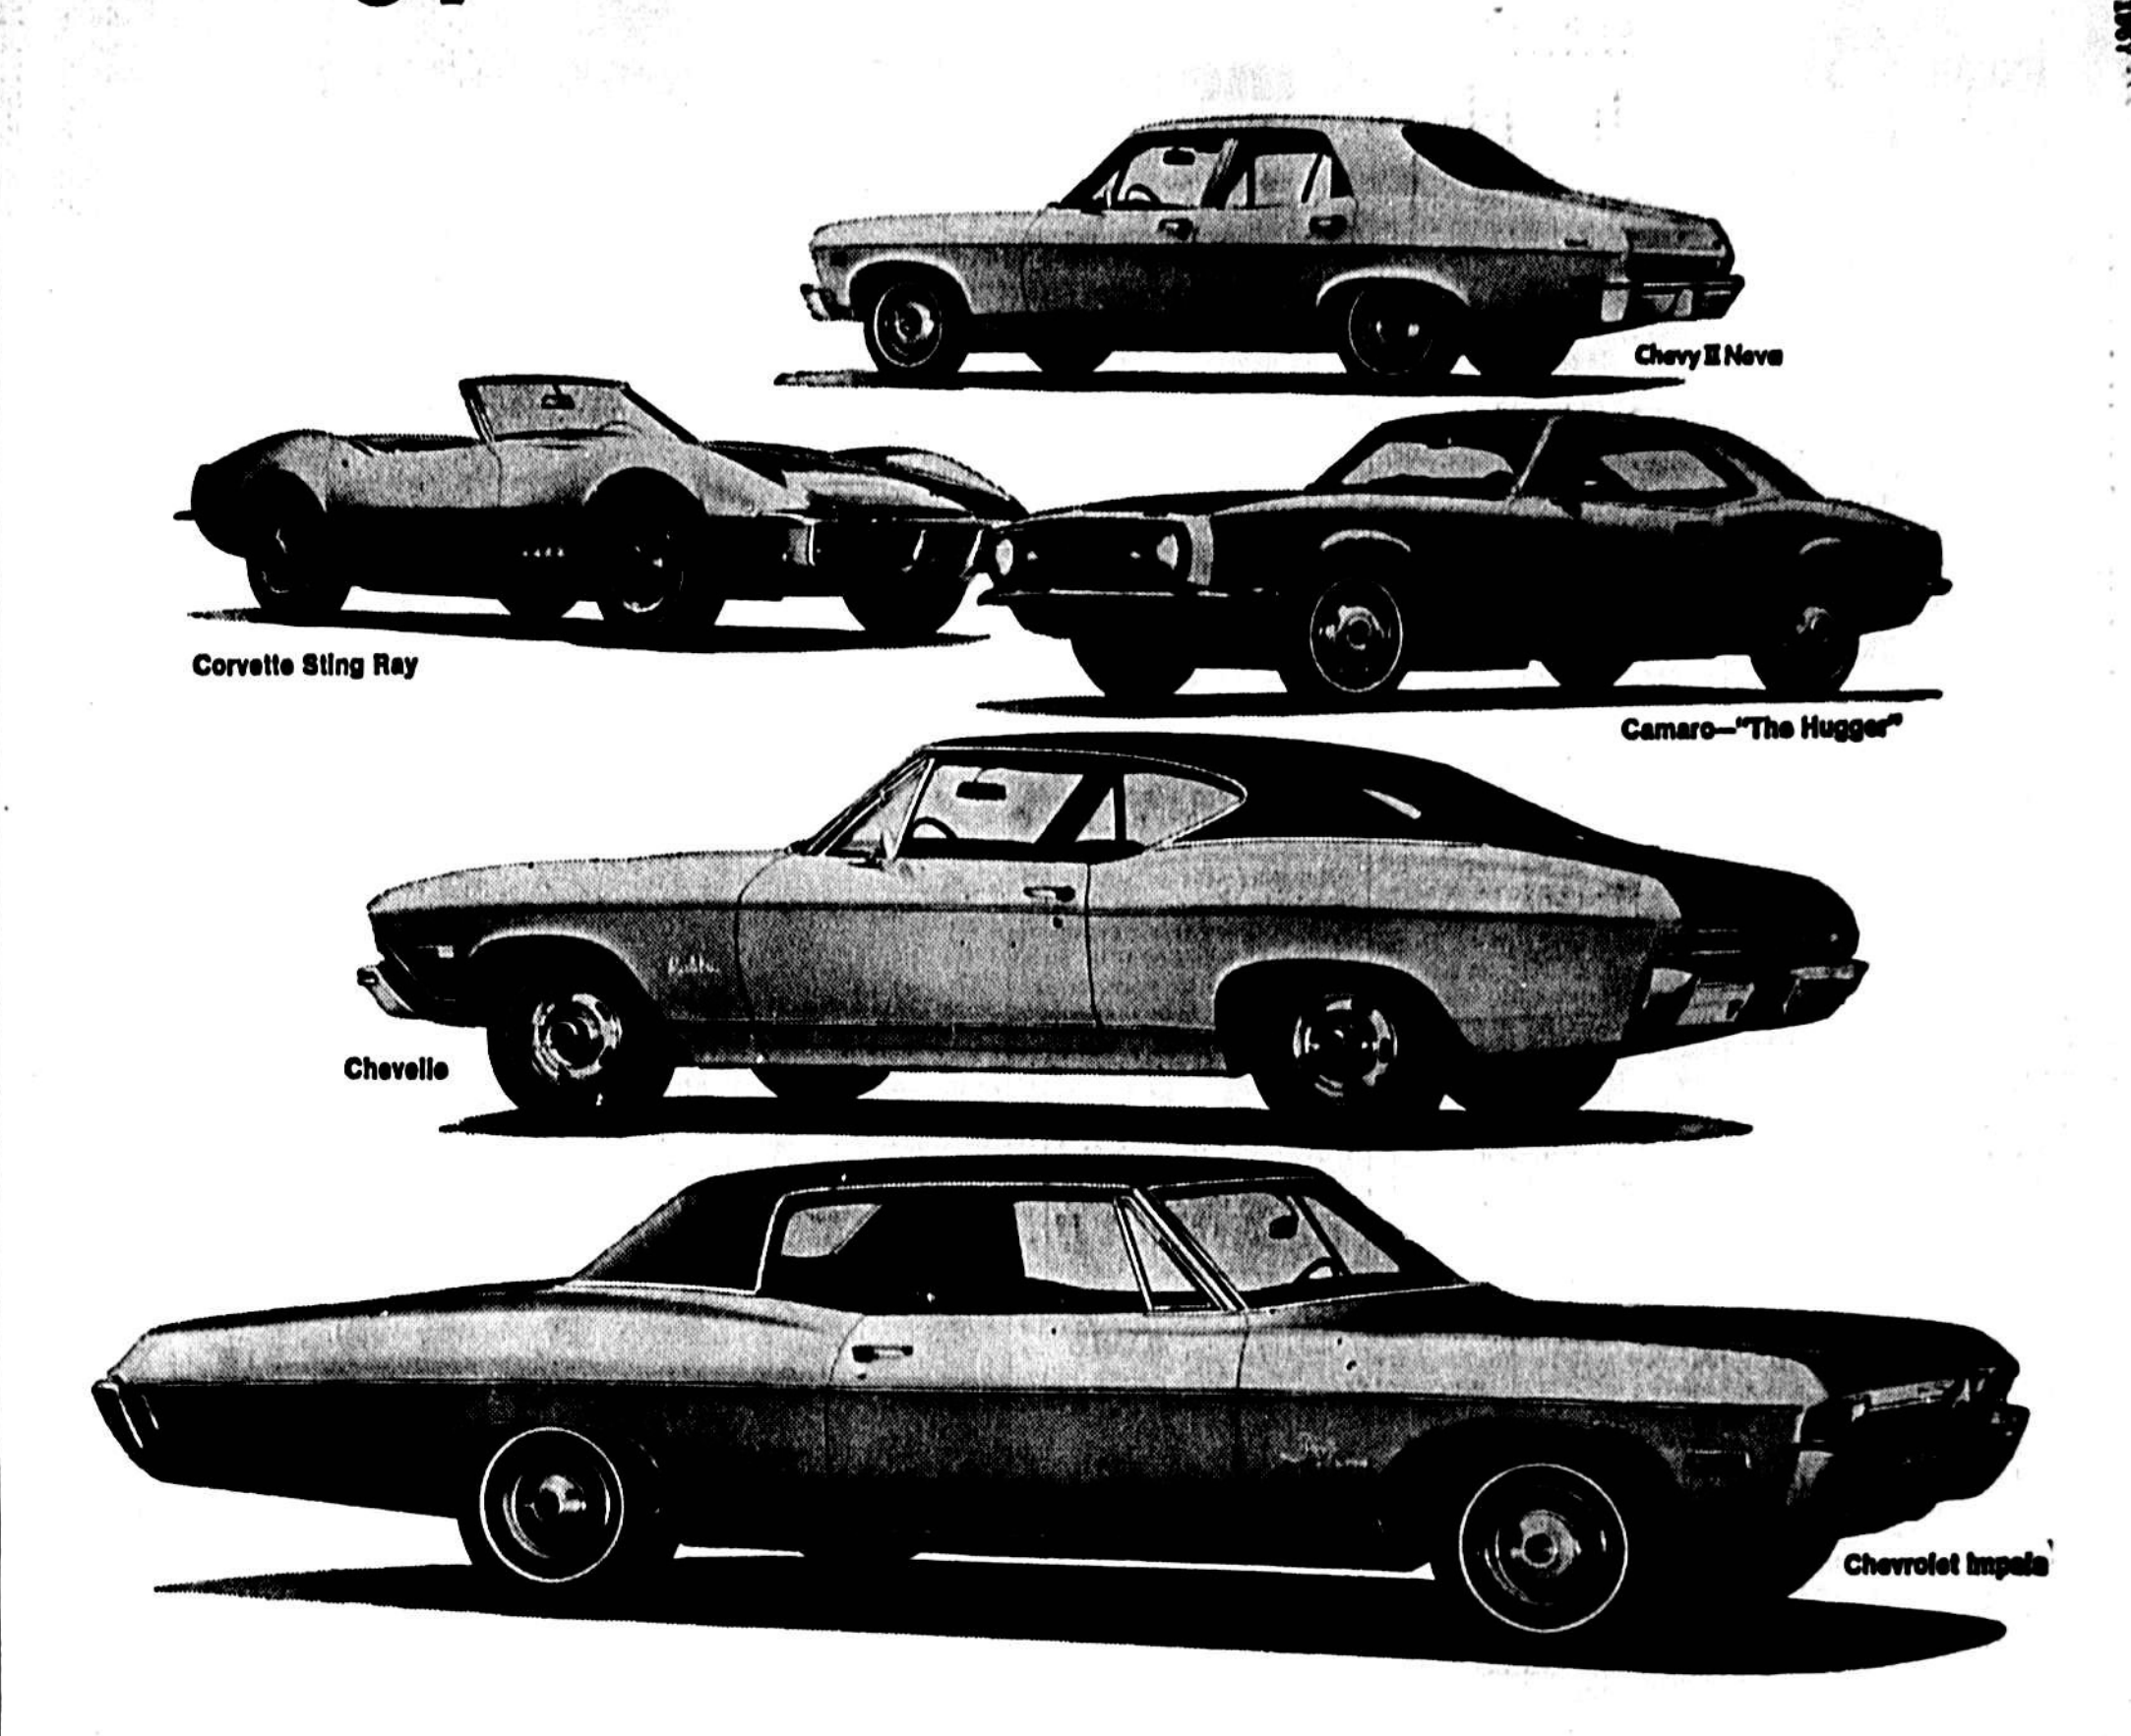

The giant, eight-engine B52s from Guam and Thailand swept over the battlefield three times today with each raid dropping a minimum of 150,000 pounds of explosives.

Marines flew 27 missions against the Red gun positions Tuesday and were back at it Wednesday, in support of their comrades taking the pounding on the ground.

"It is very difficult to find these gun positions," Lt. William W. Momyer, commander of the Air Force in Vietnam, said. He noted they are deeply hidden, well camouflaged and scattered in jungle territory.

Dirksen, Percy Make A Pact

Charles Percy

WASHINGTON (AP) — If the 88-vote Illinois delegation ratifies the deal, Sen. Charles H. Percy will get the state's favorite son designation and Sen. Everett M. Dirksen will claim a limelight at the 1968 Republican convention.

Percy, a relative liberal and a dove on the Vietnam war, got overzealous Tuesday from Dirksen, the conservative GOP leader of the Senate and a hard-liner on Vietnam, for some base support to prevent the Republican presidential nomination field.

Indian Is 'Saini' In Pop Music

LOS ANGELES (AP) — To the Western eye, the instrument seems absurd, the bubbling sounds on each end making it look like some mangled harp. But from the 19 strings of the sitar, India's Ravi Shankar can evoke harmony and dissonance that astounded the east.

His appearance last week on ABC's "Hollywood Palace" added to the clamor over soft-spoken, strong-willed Shankar, of whom life magazine proclaimed, "His Sitar Sound Rocks the U.S." The musician is getting what appears to be a saturation campaign, including dates at the Monterey Folk Festival, Hollywood Bowl, Edge of Hell in New York's Lincoln Center.

The rage over Ravi's raga-free evenings improvisations that can last two or three hours—was started two years ago when Beatle George Harrison became enamored with the sitar sound. He made a pilgrimage to India to study under Shankar, and Indian tunes began seeping into the Beatle numbers.

This caused Shankar to become elevated to minor sainthood in pop music. Teeny boppers, flower children and other juvenile types began appearing at Shankar's American concerts, bestowing on him the homage usually reserved for guitar plunkers in night spots.

The attention alternately pleased and appalled Shankar. "I see no harm in using the sitar for pop music," he explained. "It is a versatile instrument that can be used for many things, just as the guitar can be played by everyone from Sergio y y y to folk singers."

"But I would hate to see the sitar used solely to produce a pop sound. That is what pop concerts I stress the fact that it can be used for the classical form."

It may or may not be getting the message across to his most devoted followers, the hippies. They apparently enjoy his music for its "anti-marginal sound, rather than its classical quality."

"I love hippies," Shankar declared outright. "I love them not because they are admirers of my music, but because of their philosophy, their awareness that one thing I do not approve: their use of drugs."

American Red Cross News

By REIDA McCALL. The deadline for the close of our "Shop Early for Christmas — Vietnam" campaign is drawing near.

Mrs. Natalie Senterfitt, community services director for the Central Florida chapter, of which Seminole County is a part, reminds us that our chapter has a quota of 1,000 ditty bags and we are still short of that quota.

Any individual, family or organization who would like to make and fill some of these bags for our servicemen in Vietnam, please contact the local office at our new location 307 East 1st Street for complete instructions. Come on, let's support our men overseas.

The deadline for our Red Cross office getting these bags in the mail is Oct. 16.

Mounting concern over the prevalence of accidents in Seminole County has prompted the local Red Cross to push strenuously its program of first aid training in the county.

Ernest Wright, first aid chairman, points out "The distance of most of our areas from medical facilities makes it imperative that our families be able to give emergency assistance to the injured."

The time lag between injury and professional treatment may prove fatal, because even then profuse bleeding occurs, breathing stops, or poison begins its deadly effect. Fast effective emergency action, such as can be given only by persons trained in first aid, is essential.

Wright announced a two-point program on which the Red Cross here is prepared to embark.

2 Scuba Divers Die In Cavern

LIVE OAK GAP. The bodies of two Altamonte Springs scuba divers were recovered Sunday from deep inside an underwater cavern they had been exploring.

Seminole County Sheriff Dale McCallister said they fell down to a depth of 30 feet in Little River Springs and John Smith fell into the cave.

McCallister said the boys' air tank was empty when the bodies were brought up, but that Puk's still contained 500 pounds pressure of oxygen.

The sheriff said that divers come from all over the United States to explore the caves in Little River Springs in southern Volusia County.

Authorities listed no street address for the victims.

Fritter Franks
... For Toddler To Grandpa

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

IT'S FRANKFURTERS all the way. Everyone can have them—from toddler to grandpa. And every age seems to like them a particular way.

For preschool children it's a good idea to serve the frankie plain. Just put them into a saucisson of water that has come to a boil; then turn the heat low and simmer for about 10 minutes. Frankfurters are already cooked so they shouldn't be boiled.

Schoolagers usually like frankies grilled and sandwiched into rolls. Some youngsters like the rolls toasted and buttered before the frankfurters go in; other youngsters like the rolls as is. Prepared mustard isn't always a "must" accompaniment, according to these kids. Dad usually appreciates frankies steamed with sauerkraut. To prepare this dish, dump the frankies into a large skillet and season it with a little instant onion and brown sugar, heat. Layer the frankies on top, cover and let them get piping hot, turning once. Takes about 20 minutes after the potatoes are usually welcomed with this combination.

Grandpa may enjoy his frankie sliced and added to scrambled eggs. And he'll probably want more egg than frank. So will grandma.

Mom usually bases her decision on frankies on the way someone else in the family voted. So who's left? The teenage crowd, of course. And they vote for fritter franks—hot dogs dipped in batter and french-fried. Here's just such a recipe. Pancake mix used for the batter and wheat germ is added to supply interesting flavor and texture.

FRITTER FRANK
1 cup buttered milk
2 teaspoons dry mustard
2/3 cup milk
1 egg
1/2 cup wheat germ
12 frankfurters

Into a mixing bowl turn the pancake mix, mustard, milk and egg. Beat with a rotary beater (hand or electric) until smooth. Stir in wheat germ. With thumb, dip one frankfurter at a time into the batter, hold over bowl until surplus batter drips off. Fry in deep fat heated to 375 degrees for 2 to 3 minutes or until golden brown. Drain on absorbent paper. Serve on wooden skewers. Makes 6 servings.

Note: As the batter for the frankfurters thickens, stir in a little more milk.

Vegetables On Bargain List

Q—My family likes fresh vegetables. Tell me, please, which vegetables are plentiful now and, I hope, favorably priced. With food prices going up, I can't spend a penny more than I have to.

A—The Consumer and Marketing Service of the U.S. Department of Agriculture reports that your best buys will probably be cabbage, sweet corn, onions, cucumbers, carrots, green peppers and potatoes. They are in abundant supply and should be priced accordingly.

Q—Is it all right for me to put very hot food in my refrigerator?

A—Most experienced economists would tell you "no." Their advice is to cool hot foods for about 15 minutes before putting them in the refrigerator. They also advise that when you have a large quantity of hot food to cool and refrigerate, it is better to put it in several smaller containers than in one large container.

Leftovers Stretch Pocketbook

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Food Editor

"There is every indication that wholesale prices will continue up, that these will quickly find their way into retail price levels, that by December of this year retail food prices will be at least 8 per cent above where they are now," predicts David Glusberg, Washington counsel of the Supermarket Institute and one of the best informed men in the capital.

Under these circumstances, the housewife's problem is to maintain the nutritional and enjoyment standards of her meals despite the fact her food dollar is going to buy less.

We asked Mercedes Bates, one of the top home economists in business, for some pertinent advice. Miss Bates is vice president of General Mills and a recognized authority on budget problems, the stressed wife purchasing and avoidance of waste.

"Lafiver food costs money, remember. If you throw it away, then you are probably throwing away the few extra pennies the original purchase cost," she says.

Here are some of her penny-saving suggestions:

Use leftovers imaginatively. Store them in see-through bags and containers on a single shelf of the refrigerator for quick inventory at a glance.

Use them in these ways:

Cooked rice and pasta in casseroles, soups, hearty salads. Cooked mashed potatoes in patties or as casserole toppings.

Egg yolks and whites in scrambled eggs, custard, puddings, sauces and meringues.

Cooked vegetables hot in soups or casseroles; marinated in chilled salads.

Dry bread as croutons for soups or salads or as bread crumbs in meat loaves, for breading and stuffing.

Fruits in fruit cocktails, salads, puddings, refrigerator pies, gelatin salads and as dessert with custard sauce.

Grape Chiffon Pie Proves Economical

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Food Editor

Today every housewife is acutely aware of rising food costs. By January, prices may be back to their August 1966 peak, according to market analysts.

To keep up the nutritional and enjoyment standards of family meals under the circumstances, the housewife will have to rethink her marketing and menus. She can save money and balance out rising prices in many cases if she watches local newspaper ads for food specials and then plans her meals accordingly.

Also, if she buys fruits and vegetables when they are in full season and abundant, she can keep her food costs lower than if she buys only by "impulse." Foods in plentiful supply are usually lower-priced.

Within the next few weeks, for example, Emperor grapes will be in abundant supply in your markets. So use this delightful fruit in bowls, in pies and other ways while the prices are in your favor.

GRAPE CHIFFON PIE
1 envelope unflavored gelatin
1/4 cup cold water
3 eggs, separated
1/4 teaspoon salt
2/3 cup sugar
1/4 cup milk
1 1/2 teaspoons pure vanilla extract
1 1/2 cups seeded Emperor grapes
1 baked 9-inch pie shell
1/2 cup heavy cream
1 tablespoon sugar

Soften gelatin in cold water, set aside. Beat egg yolks in top of double boiler. Add salt and 1/2-cup of the sugar. Blend in milk. Stir and cook over hot water until mixture coats a metal spoon. Add softened gelatin. Mix well. Cool over ice water until the mixture begins to thicken. Fold in vanilla and grapes. Beat egg whites until they stand in soft peaks; gradually beat in remaining 1/3 cup sugar. Fold into custard. Turn into a baked 9-inch pie shell. Chill until firm and ready to serve. Swirl cream with the 1-tablespoon sugar and spread over pie. Garnish with Emperor seeded grapes. Six servings.

FOOD MILL PREPARES food economically.

Food Mill Produces More Applesauce
 BY GAYNOR MADDOX
 The food mill is one example of many ways to prevent waste of food. It can help make meals more enjoyable and more economical. Although its biggest single use may be making homemade applesauce, it is also used for purring vegetables, beef leftover and fresh sausage. Every time food is processed, it can turn ripe tomatoes, uncooked and unpeeled, into really tempting fresh tomato juice. As for applesauce, the mill can produce 25 per cent more for the amount of apples used than any other method.

You Can Vary This Chicken Dish

By GEBILY BROWNSTONE
 Awarded Press Food Editor
 HERE COMES a chicken dish that's almost a main course in itself. To fill it out all you have to do is serve it with rice or noodles. Four vegetables — green peppers, eggplant, zucchini and tomatoes — accompany the chicken. And the combination used by the famous French chef is called Ratatouille, a particularly good one. Sometimes she adds mushrooms. Sometimes she uses canned tomatoes (plain or seasoned) instead of fresh tomatoes; sometimes she uses tomato sauce or tomato soup; sometimes she uses plain tomato sauce. In addition this chicken dish is sprinkled with Parmesan cheese just before it is served. (One French chef told me that this dish freezes beautifully and that she often has it on hand to pull out of the freezer and heat with company comes.)

Ladies Lunch

An interesting new recipe for cooks who enjoy baking with yeast:
 Smoked Tongue
 Mustard Sauce
 Potato Salad
 Rye Bread Sandwich
 Fruit Compote
 Beverage
RYE BREAD STICKS
 1/2 cups warm water
 1 package active dry yeast
 1/2 cup brown sugar
 1/2 cup unsifted rye flour
 2 cups (about) unsifted regular flour
 In a large warm bowl dissolve yeast in the water. Add sugar, salt, caraway seeds and butter. Stir in rye flour, beat until smooth. Add enough additional white flour to make a soft dough. Turn out onto lightly floured board, knead until smooth and elastic, about 8 to 10 minutes. Place in greased bowl, turning to grease top cover. Let rise in warm place, free from draft, until doubled in bulk, about 1 hour. Punch down dough, turn out onto lightly floured board and divide in half. Cut each half into 12 equal pieces. The executive board discussed plans for the Halloween Carnival in October at a recent meeting presided over by Mrs. F. E. Sorrell, president.

Playground equipment for the school purchased last year by the PTA has been delivered and will be installed by county crews.

Faculty members will be honored at a luncheon to be given by the PTA, Oct. 20, a work-day for teachers with no school for the children. Mrs. Robert Randall will be chairman.

During the 1966-67 school year, Crooms Cheerleaders were very successful with their participation in the W.O. B.

School Child Needs A Good Luncheon

Every child going to school needs to eat a good lunch, Dr. Frank Leone, Seminole County health director, advises.

"A good lunch will help him feel like studying and playing after school and also to grow properly," he adds.

The school prepares a well-balanced lunch for the students but some children may not be buying their lunch at school. As there may be more children eating a lunch to school than formerly, some timely suggestions should be taken to help the health department.

Florida's warm weather makes it important to take extra precautions in planning the lunch to avoid spoilage and food poisoning. Foods that should not be used in preparing the lunch that is carried to school are mayonnaise, either as a spread on bread or mixed in a salad, eggs, fish in any form, chicken, ham, cold meat and frankfurters.

Special care should be taken to have everything used in preparing the lunch clean, and the food should be kept wrapped.

Suggestions for sandwiches include the old favorite peanut butter with some variations. Try adding sliced or chopped pickles, dill, sweet or sour, whichever you prefer to peanut butter; raw carrots grated or sliced and peanut butter makes a different sandwich spread. Orange juice can be added to peanut butter. Crisp bacon bits and peanut butter is popular. For a change, use applesauce or chopped raisins or dates with peanut butter. You may invent some other combinations, but remember not to use the foods that may spoil.

A slice of American or Swiss cheese can be used with peanut butter and spread on one slice of bread, pimento cheese is good too. Cream cheese can be used in many ways—by adding nuts or dried beef, or bacon or olives, or jam or jelly, chives, or pineapple. Nut bread and cream cheese can be used as a sandwich or as a dessert.

Something crisp with sand-whiches will be the lunch. Try celery, carrot or cucumber sticks, tomato or cabbage, washed, bell pepper slices, and for the older children, pickles and olives occasionally.

Fresh fruits that may be packed in a lunch are apples, bananas, pears, oranges, peaches, grapes. Gained fruits may be carried in a plastic container, but do not pack nut-dings made with egg and milk. Cookies and cup cakes are always popular in lunch boxes.

Milk may be purchased in school or brought in a thermos. A thermos may also be used for soup, tomato juice, fruit juice, cocoa, baked beans or chili.

School lunch box foods should be easy to eat with sandwiches cut in half and wrapped carefully, raw vegetables washed, dried, and the skin of oranges scored for easy peeling.

Children need a well planned breakfast, lunch, and dinner every day for good health.

Broward Adopts School Budget

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla. (AP) — The Broward County school board Monday adopted a budget of $72,467,701.45 for the next fiscal year including the pay raise for which 2,800 teachers submitted resignations.

A review board of the County Commission was to consider the new budget today.

County Commission Chairman J.W. (Bill) Brown indicated the budget and an emergency 4 percent hike in tax millage would be approved.

The extra money was to pay for raising salaries of teachers to a minimum starting pay of $5,600 a year.

After teachers resigned to press their pay demands Sept. 5 the county's 102 public schools were closed for seven school days, giving 80,000 pupils an extended summer vacation.

War On Crime Tallahassee (AP) — The State Cabinet, meeting in Tallahassee, today approved an increase in the operating budget for the war on crime trust fund and a $117,614 allocation to establish a seven-man mission security force.

AROUND THE CLOCK

By LARRY VERSHEL

For the first time in the city's history the commission Monday night will consider construction of 25 homes between Eighth and Ninth and Orange and Locust with people living in them.

There are 21 instructional personnel at the Southeast School. Not one has submitted his (or her) resignation.

300 young Sanford girls participate in the cultural recreation program here. That's tap dancing, charm school, piano, ballet. It's the only program for the girls while the boys are playing Little League. The other night the City eliminated the program and decided to spend $900 on new Civic Center drapes.

So the girls won't have their program. For fun they could go into the empty Civic Center and look over those fancy drapes.

Meanwhile the building inspector has a brand new enclosed offer and maintenance men are paneling the walls at the city jail and lowering the ceiling.

County Fair time comes in November. Date set for Nov. 28. Highlight will be a boat show.

A CONVERSATION WITH EX-POLICE CHIEF TRIPLETT

REPORTER — Apparently Casselberry is going to whitewash this case. Why won't you say something publicly and clear this mess up?

TRIPLETT — We plan to as soon as we get a lawyer.

REPORTER — Just say what happened.

TRIPLETT — And get sued.

REPORTER — You mean about the firing?

TRIPLETT — About everything.

REPORTER — Who has the files?

TRIPLETT — I don't know.

Longtime citizens will vote to December on a charter amendment to give the mayor authority to name an attorney to sit as city judge. If the people approve the amendment, how does the Council plan to pay an attorney for this service. No funds are budgeted for the situation. The mayor sits for free.

Walked into the Civil Defense office and there was London blackout of the 40's.

How would you know?

My grandfather told me about the big war.

Anyway I asked John to put on his helmet and questioned him about British high tops, bomb shelters and all that jazz. All he said was "Don't panic." I wonder what he meant by that?

Took a stroll through the city zoo this morning. Two $1,000 leopards in nickel cages. . . . Wonder what out-of-towners think of the city when they look over this run-down zoo?

Perhaps our city fathers should spend a Sunday afternoon at the facility and notice those out-of-town license plates.

Imagine what $45,000 could have done to start re-educating that prosopon son.

Yeah, that was the price we paid for the Industrial Road, Ob?

Anyone wants bet the county abundant Sand Lake Road?

Construction of the Wind-Dier complex will start Monday.

School Finance Director Walter Teague has become an art buff. . . . There's a new picture on his office wall all about every week. . . . The last is from Fred Taylor Jr., son of the assistant principal of South Seminole Junior High School.

Nobody asked me, but wouldn't it be a good idea if the police department or city cleaned up glass from streets after accidents?

Pershing Puts 'Hold' On NAS Property

EDA To Okay $35,000 Airport Study

The Pershing Missile Complex has put a "hold" on portions of the Sanford Naval Air Station today as the Defense Department released the property to the General Services Administration, The Herald has learned.

The hold has cleared the property, Warren Moody, of the GSA Atlanta office reported, although no official decision will be made until they receive a report on all personal property at the 1,800 acre tract.

The personal property, which includes engines, vehicles, engines and tractors, is said to be worth several million dollars.

The Pershing Missile Development complex had vacated the main hangar of the facility but were turned down by the city several months ago. They then came up with an alternate site.

City fathers were not in favor of turning anything over to Pershing and the Department of Defense was notified of this. However, Pershing asked for a hold through the Army Missile Command, which, in turn, approved the hold through the Army Corps of Engineers in Jacksonville. The Corps then gave the Navy the word.

City Manager W. E. Knowles, however, has informed DOD that the city fathers would like to see the Navy's word.

Williams New Casselberry Chief? Wheatley Says 'No'

Casselberry Mayor Arthur Wheatley denied reports today that he has hired ex-Sanford Police Chief Arnold Williams to head his city's law enforcement agency.

"I have never appointed any police chief," Wheatley declared, "and I have not appointed any new officers to the force."

The mayor claimed he was at the police department Monday when he demanded and received the resignations of Chief of Police Kenneth Triplett and four patrolmen for "activities unbecoming the police department."

Wheatley gave the officers an opportunity to resign or undergo a "full investigation at every available level concerning every aspect of their conduct."

Wheatley said he had requested a hearing before Council on the matter, but The Herald was told by City Attorney Kenneth McIntosh that the charter does not provide for hearings where persons have resigned.

Former Patrolman Rick Taylor in a television interview stated he was "stunned" into signing his resignation and also requested a hearing before the Council.

Gary Saxon, another of the officers, went to work for the Sanford Police Department almost immediately following the resignation of Triplett.

Fire Marshal Set To Check Portables

Portable classrooms in Seminole County will be inspected to determine if they meet minimum fire standards as soon as possible, Deputy Fire Marshal Charles W. McPherson of the Winter Park state office told The Herald today.

"There are hundreds of such units in the area and only a few men to make the inspection. We do plan to examine every such structure but unless we run into a particular problem in routine procedures will be made," McPherson added.

He did note, however, that the 1907 Life Safety Code of the National Fire Protection Association requires that all such buildings have at least two exits. It has been reported that some of the portables in Seminole County have only one.

In Volusia County, two state inspectors have been dispatched by State Treasurer-Fire Marshal Broward Williams and State School Superintendent Floyd Christian to determine if the 123 portable units there meet minimum standards.

$200,000 Chain Store Set In Altamonte

An outlet of the Ethan Allen chain of furniture stores, with construction costs estimated at $200,000, will be built on the north side of SR 436 between Park Avenue and Adelaide in the Town of Altamonte Springs. It was announced at the meeting of the Board of Adjustment of the Town Council last night.

Building permit for the $5,000 square foot facility has been applied for and will be granted following modification of the plans to conform with city regulations. It is planned the furniture showroom will be constructed in colonial style and have a basement for storage.

In other business at the meeting, the Council:

- Adopted a resolution approving a loan of $40,000 from the Florida State Bank at 4% per cent interest to be paid over a five year period of time for the purchase of the property south-west of the city near the Orange County line for use as a site for a sewerage treatment plant. Variance to construct the facility is expected to be granted by the Board of Adjustment next week;
- Hear report from Councilman Charles Robinson that specifications for the new truck for the fire department are being prepared and will be submitted for Council approval at next week's meeting;
- Accepted the low bid of W.B. Weeks Roofing Company for $211 to repair the roof of the city hall and fire department. Agreed with Mayor W. Lawrence Swafford that immediate action be taken to instruct C.B. Allen, the town's inspector on the water extensions, to stop the supplying contractor on the project with free use of city equipment, labor and water.

TOURIST STUDY HERE READY FOR OKAY SOON

Tourist Study Here Ready For Okay Soon

An effective, informed approach to the problem of attracting tourists to Sanford and Seminole County is being formulated by First Research Corporation and will be ready for adoption within 30 days according to Bill Heck, chairman of the non-university committee of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce. Heck, together with Scott Burns and John Beck, executive director of the chamber, was in Miami yesterday for a conference with First Research officials.

The purpose of the study is to gear Seminole County into the flow of tourists expected to reach 6.8 million as Disney World becomes a reality—and thus bring the 43 a day which a tourist spends in his visiting area into Sanford Seminole County.

County Facing New Suit

Writ of mandamus petition to force the County Commission to approve permit for issuance of a palmistry license will be filed against the county within the next 30 days, The Herald learned today.

Carroll Burke, attorney for Mrs. Katherine Johnson of Casselberry, stated, "The suit will definitely be filed. I don't believe the County Commission has absolute discretion to deny all permits without some kind of reason. Fortune telling is recognized by the Legislature of Florida in statutes."

Reck pointed out that the report and recommendations are excellent and was most optimistic that when the specifics are decided upon and made public they would create a very solid economic base in this area. The study has been underway for several months and its cost is being underwritten, Reck pointed out, "by the far-sighted businessmen of this community."

Apalhy Seen In Altamonte Charter Meet

Altamonte Springs' five elected officials and the city attorney showed up at the Community House on Mainland Avenue last night to explain the content of the proposed new charter for the town to find four interested citizens on hand.

A little perplexed by the apparent lack of interest on the part of the citizenry, Mayor W. Lawrence Swafford said, "I'd like to see this charter pass. We need it to continue the progress of the town."

Councilman and the mayor agreed to a suggestion of one of the persons present to prepare a brief summary of the major changes in the proposed charter. The attorney volunteered to prepare the summary which will be mimeographed and mailed to each of the 800 registered voters in the town.

School Funds

The State of Florida disbursed $131,759 to the Seminole County Board of Public Instruction during the month of September, Fred O. (Bud) Dickinson, state comptroller, reported today. Money was provided by Florida's minimum foundation program and allotments of the state's sales tax, Dickinson said.

Charged

Donald A. Peterson, 33, of Leesburg, was charged by Trooper W. E. (Duddy) Smith with reckless driving last evening after his car overturned at the SR 68-Hannas Lake intersection. Peterson escaped unhurt after a long time beneath the car for a while.
