Military Heart Party

Misses Madge and Veda Ward entertained at a delightful Military Heart Card Party at their lovely home Saturday afternoon, in honor of Mrs. A. L. Higbee of Marion, Indiana; and Mrs. Lella Michaels of Stroudsburg, Pennsylvania.

All the beautiful and artistic green vines and red heart decorations at the reception given by Mrs. Ward the previous afternoon were still in place and effective. Seven tables of hearts were played. Each table was numbered and in the centre was a red fort, surmounted by a flag staff. The table with the largest number of flags was the winning table and each of the four players at the winning table received a prize. The fortunate winners were Misses Lella Michaels, Charlotte Keeler, Genie Wicker, Lucy Whitner, each of whom received a dainty heart shaped fancy apron, trimmed with lace hearts. Each of the guests of honor were presented with pretty fancy work bags.

After the military achievements of the afternoon were exploited, delicious cream chicken, hot rolls, cheese carrots, olives, fruit salad and coffee were served.

The Misses Ward's invited were Mrs. Mrs. A. L. Higbee, Misses Lella Michaels, Charlotte Keeler, Mabel Bowler, Elizabeth McLaughlin, Annie Higgins, Louise Shepherd, Peaches Leffler, Belle Smith, Irene Brady, Mabel Eldridge, Lindy Leffler, Seldie Williams, Mabel Hand, Genie Wicker, Vivian Yelzer, Charlotte Hand, Martha Fox, Jessie Schumpert, Annie Lovell, Beth Mettinger, Mell Whitner, Ruth Mettinger, Lucy Whitner, Annie Lee Caldwell, Rose Dickinson, Florence Frank, Alice Whitner, Miss Johnson, Mesdames R. S. Keeler, Robert Newman, H. R. Stevens, J. L. Hurt, F. B. Higgins, C. G. Butt.

Cecilian Music Club

The Cecilian Music Club held their regular meeting at the studio of Mrs. Munson Saturday afternoon.

After all the business of the club had been attended to a very delightful musical program was rendered. The opening selection was given by Mrs. Munson and Miss McKim.

Missionary Meeting

The Home and Foreign Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church will meet at the residence of Mrs. W. W. Long, Friday afternoon, February 16th. Every member of the society is urgently requested to be present, as business of importance must be attended to and all necessary arrangements made to entertain the delegates to the Missionary Union, which will meet with the Sanford Society, March 26th.

Mrs. C. C. Woodruff, Pres't.

Lovely Reception

Mrs. H. A. Ward was the hostess of a lovely reception at her handsome home Friday afternoon, complimentary to her lovely house guest, Mrs. L. A. Higbee of Marion, Indiana.

The rooms were beautifully decorated with palms, green vines and red hearts, suspended from cords and turning to the chandeliers, from which they extended to the sides and corners of the room. A network of narrow red paper ribbons, fastened to the balustrade and secured to the ceiling gave the handsome stairway a very rich and striking effect.

The piano was beautifully screened off in one corner of the room by a portiere of red paper ribbons. The handsome lace curtains were ornamented by wide bands of red paper around the edges and large red hearts down the center.

Mrs. Ward received her guests in a handsome pale pink messaline, with corsage bouquet of pink roses. Miss Ward was lovely in blue crepe de Chine, veiled with black chiffon. Miss Veda Ward wore a very effective gown of lavender messaline with drapery of green chiffon. Mrs. A. L. Higbee was handsomely gowned in black lace with jet trimmings and lovely red roses.

The dining room was lovely with the same color scheme of green and red decorations. The centerpiece on the handsome table was most attractively picturesque. It was a large heart shaped lake, the sides of which were entirely hidden by beautiful red and white roses. The surface of the water was covered by miniature pond lilies; two small boats with red sails floated gently around, while three tiny white swans were the finishing effect, making the color scheme quite realistic.

Mesdames D. A. Caldwell and C. M. Hand poured the fragrant coffee, and the delicious fruit salad, cheese carrots, olives and dainty crackers were charmingly served by Misses Lella Michaels, Alice Caldwell Lucy Whitner, Mabel Hand, Annie Lee Caldwell, Charlotte Hand and Fern Ward. Soft, sweet music played during the reception enhanced the pleasure of the delightful afternoon.

Mrs. Ward's invited guests were Mesdames Keeler, Hill, Holden, Barnes, Bell, Schumpert, Packard, Shinholer, Driver, Brown, Coleman, Woodruff, Tyner, Johnson, Fatjo, Paxton, Peabody, Housholder, Tracy, Rossetter, Peck, McDaniel, Maria, Martin, Hill, Cust, Symes, Commons, Speer, Bennett, Summers, Hopson, Williams, McLaulin, Turner, Langley, Caldwell, Connelly, Whitner, Bowler, Philips, Wilson, Dutton, Hand, Lilla, Pugh, Holly Keely, Wight, Puleston, Thrasher, Fernald, Howard, Woodruff, Smith, Woodruff, Brady, King, McLaughlin, Neal, Lake, Herndon, Marks, Briggs, Yelzer, Garner, Munson, Maxwell, Fox, Gonzales, Miller, Lawson, Howard, Hill, Perkins, Greene, Commons, Chamberlain; Misses Thigpen, Long, Gibson, Roberts, Beard and Munson.

WILD DOGS MENACED PARIS

Serious Situation That Became One of the Worst Features of Reign of Terror.

So many startling events happened from day to day during the Reign of Terror that the apparition of wild dogs in Paris was commonly overlooked. But it was quite natural. The greater part of the grandees, who fled or went into hiding, kept dogs, and very few of them were able to make arrangements for the poor beasts when they left home.

The dogs, abandoned, took to the streets of course, and shortly they began to congregate in two packs, one occupying the Champs Elysees, and one the Bois de Boulogne. Soon they became a public danger. Carlyle pokes fun at Santerre, the brewer, who proposed a law that all dogs should be hanged; he had not noticed the paragraphs in the newspapers telling how people had been attacked in the Champs Elysees.

At length the situation became really grave, as is easily understood when thousands of starving animals have to find subsistence in a starving city. Many of them were wolf hounds, and of powerful fighting breeds. So in September, 1793, drastic measures were taken against the Champs Elysees pack.

Two battalions of the National Guard surrounded the area, leaving a gap toward the Rue Royale, while multitudes of ragamuffins beat the cover. The game was driven up to the Rue Royale to the Place Royale, where troops made a battle of it, firing volleys. Three days consecutively this operation was repeated and more than three thousand dogs lay in the place.

A certain Gaspardin received orders to clear them away, and he, short of means, applied for the Royal equipages. It was a timely jest, greeted with applause. So M. Gaspardin packed the dead dogs neck and heels in the gilded coaches as full as they would hold, and made a state procession through delighted Paris.

Partial Law.

Stephen Swift, at a dinner in Denver, was urging votes for women. "Give women votes," he said, "and the law will be better administered. Two poor laborers were talking one day. 'All men are equal, in the eyes of the law,' said the first, who was a conservative. 'Well,' the second, a radical, replied, 'it may well be that we're all equal in the eyes of the law, but I know mighty well that we're not in the hands of the law.'"

Quart of Honey.

A bee culturist contributes some interesting data to Popular Mechanics, concerning the work of bees in gathering honey. He calculates that a quart of honey represents no less than 48,000 miles of flight between the hive and the flowers. Also, that in June, which is the busiest month of the season, the workers of one colony easily cover as much as twice the distance between the earth and moon in one day. The distance of the moon from the earth is 237,600 miles. Therefore, the gathering of about 10 quarts of honey means, totalling the flight of all the workers of the colony, a flight of some 475,200 miles.

CULLED FROM THE STATE PRESS

An Epitome of the Week's Most Important Happenings in the State's Domain.

News comes from Leesburg that never before has the town been so full of tourists as now. Every hotel and boarding house there is overflowing.

News comes from Pensacola that cotton continues to move through that port at a lively clip, and this season will show an increase that will almost double the number of bales shipped in a season before.

The extreme cold weather of the past week has seriously interfered with the strawberry industry over the state. But despite the bad weather a number of berries have been shipped and the price has been decidedly in advance of that obtained during the past three weeks.

The Mulberry Herald will be the name of Mulberry's new paper, which will probably make its appearance the latter part of the coming month. E. S. Forelicht, the new editor, is on the ground getting things in shape for the publication of the paper.

T. R. Saffke, member of the school board of DeSoto county and prominent citizen of this place, was run over by the south-bound passenger train while attempting to board the train as it was moving from the station at Bowling Green Wednesday. The forepart of his left foot was cut off and right ankle badly fractured.

Taft for the Lily Whites

Information that came indirectly from the White House today to the effect that President Taft and Secretary Hilges, as well as Campaign Manager McKinley, were stationed yesterday when they found that in South Carolina where a quiet plot of Taft and Roosevelt strength has been going on revealed the fact that out of the forty-three counties in the state forty-two have negroes as county chairmen of the Republican organization; that of twenty-five executive committeemen twenty-two are negroes and that of the seven congressional districts six of them have negroes in charge of affairs.

Such a condition of affairs it is learned not only opened the eyes of the president and his advisors, but made them hasten to secure information to ascertain whether there had not been a mistake in the reports sent in from those who had been in the field.

It is well known that President Taft is desirous of building up a respectable white party in the south and has endeavored to do everything to carry out such a policy, which, at the same time would not jeopardize the interests of the C. O. P.

Beat Child to Death

Bronston, Feb. 14.—It was intimated yesterday that the body of the three-year-old child of Forrest Kelley who it is alleged died from the effects of a brutal beating administered by the child's stepmother, will be exhumed to ascertain if any of the bones were broken.

The Kelley family reside near Sand Slough, in Southern Levy county. According to the statement of their neighbors, the child was seen playing in the morning and that afternoon they were attracted to the house by the piteous screams. That after arriving the child was found to be dying. Its body was covered with welts and stripes and one side of the head indicated that it had been struck with some blunt instrument. The father was absent from home at the time. It was stated that Kelley's first wife died some time ago and that he married recently the woman who will be charged with the murder.

Changes in State Cabinet

Tallahassee, Feb. 15.—Hon. Wm. V. Knott, for the past nine years Treasurer of the State of Florida, was on Wednesday appointed Comptroller to take the place of A. C. Croom, deceased.

John C. Luning, whom Governor Gilchrist appointed Commissioner of Agriculture, was promoted to the office of Treasurer and W. A. McRae, of Marianna, was appointed Commissioner of Agriculture to succeed Mr. Luning.

Thus have the several offices been filled, and Governor Gilchrist feels that in his selections he has appointed good men, each splendidly qualified for the office to which they were appointed.

Mr. Knott is a man who has the respect of every one, being a gentleman of high honor, unusual ability and conscientious in the discharge of his duties. As Treasurer he has become familiar with the many duties incumbent on the Comptroller, and a better selection for the office could not have been made.

Mr. McRae for several years has been Clerk of the Circuit Court of Jackson county, and is regarded as one of West Florida's most progressive and able citizens.

More Dynamiters Arrested

Arrests in the dynamite conspiracy cases began yesterday, fifty or more defendants scattered in various parts of country being arrested. By noon thirty-six arrested had been made.

Among first arrested Frank M. Ryan, president of the International Association of Bridge Structural Iron-workers. Eleven business agents of iron-workers union, four or five liberals and some of the executive board members charged with knowing what McNamara did with money used to buy explosive life-saving hose indicted.

Spurgeon P. Meadows, business agent of the District Council, International Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners was arrested here. He represents one of three labor unions implicated.

Frank C. Webb, a former member of the ironworkers' executive board was arrested in New York. He figures prominently in Orrie McManis's confession. Webb, it is charged, met McManis, showed him where to do a job at Hoboken and again at Jersey City.

Stall in the Ring

Though some what bedraggled, still in the ring was the suggestive appearance of the pretty and attractive booths in Holden Park Wednesday after the rain had damped their gay and festive atmosphere. Even though the special weather, which the Herald had predicted for the Field Day celebration did not materialize Wednesday the second day of the Horse Show the clouds and rain which the weather man hinted at certainly arrived on schedule time.

It will take more than one day's threatening looks and rain to put all the committees who worked so hard for the success of the Field Day and the hospital association out of business. The ardent enthusiasts and do not dare spirit exhibited Wednesday and throughout the enterprise will not tamely acknowledge defeat, therefore the Sanford Hospital in the near future, is an assured institution.

New Jewelry Store

Theodore Schaal and family left yesterday morning for Sanford, Fla., to take up residence, accompanied by the best wishes of their Hastings friends for success and happiness in their new home. Mr. Schaal has been engaged in the jewelry business here during the past sixteen years and will doubtless still continue it in Sanford, a line of work in which he is very successful. Mr. Schaal is ex-mayor of Hastings and wife are highly regarded by their friends—Democrat, Hastings, Minn. Mr. Schaal has opened a jewelry store at 105 Palmetto avenue with a fine stock and bids fair to become one of our substantial merchants. His announcement will be found on another page.

Death of G. T. Ford

George T. Ford, a resident of Round Hill, Va., died at the Bye Lo Hotel yesterday morning. He had been a sufferer from Bright's disease for several years and came to Florida thinking the change would be beneficial. His daughter was summoned to his bedside by wire and was with him in his last moments. Mr. Ford was a prominent figure in his home city being Mayor at one time and was also prominent in fraternal circles.

The remains were escorted to the station yesterday by the Sanford Lodge of Masons. Interment will be made at Round Hill tomorrow.

Some Fine Wagons

W. H. Underwood of this city has one of the most complete wagon and carriage factories in the state. He has lately turned out some great work in the shape of delivery wagons. The Sanford Ice & Water Co. has one on the street now that is a beauty, also the Progress Laundry. The Sanford Furniture Co., and several other concerns have had their wagons overhauled and painted. Few cities in the south the size of Sanford can boast of such a well equipped factory as that of W. H. Underwood.

FIELD DAY MADE GOOD

Grounds Filled By Large Crowd On Opening Day

EVENTS STOPPED BY THE RAIN

Idea Was So Good That Ladies Will Make It An Annual Affair for Our City

Field Day and Horse Show for the benefit of the Sanford Hospital proved to be a great event. The crowds on the first day were not as large as expected, many out of town visitors intending to come here on Wednesday, but the first day proved most profitable and all of the booths did a rushing business. The affair had been planned on an elaborate scale and every one who entered the grounds was greatly surprised at the beautiful appearance of all the displays. The Sanford girls are the prettiest in the state and were at their best on Tuesday dressed in different costumes and busily engaged in serving the multitude. They carried out the carnival idea and many varied were the schemes to part the people from their money and very few were allowed to escape without giving up.

The horse show was preceded by the parade, which occurred at 12 o'clock and circled the principal streets of the city, under the guidance of Field Marshals C. M. Hand, J. N. Whittier and D. A. Caldwell and their assistants.

Followed by automobiles and carriages, headed by the Sanford Band came a long line of new delivery wagons, trucks and drays all spick and span and anxious to enter the lists.

From the moment the events started at one o'clock there was something doing every minute.

In the delivery wagon class the Sanford Furniture Co. carried off first honors. The Progress Laundry second and the Hill Hardware Co. third.

Best pair of mules first prize went to Hill Hardware Co. second to L. A. Brunley.

Roadsters, W. J. McRae first, W. M. Igoe second, J. E. Turner, third.

Breeding Class, E. E. Brady, first, Hand Bros. second, W. J. McRae, third.

Saddle Ponies, Helen Hand, first, Mary Howard, second, Kathleen Brady, third.

Harness Horses, Mrs. W. W. Abernathy, first, Mrs. Jones driving W. M. Igoe's Ephraim Toolles, second and Hazel Hand driving Melba's Lucine, Dougan, third.

Combination Horses, E. E. Brady, first, Hand Bros. second and W. J. McRae, third.

Harness Horses, W. M. Igoe, first, E. E. Brady, second, W. W. Abernathy, third.

Saddle Ponies, Joe Cameron, first, Helen Hand, second and Reginald Holly, third.

Harness Horses, E. E. Brady, first.

Special for Native Bred Horses, Joe Cameron, first, Hand Bros. second and J. N. Whittier, third.

Veterans horses, 15 years and older, Mrs. G. H. Fernald, first, mare 10 years old, Mrs. S. M. Stewart, second, horse 32 years old, S. O. Chase, third, horse 15 years old.

Saddle Horses, E. E. Brady, first, C. M. Hand, second, J. N. Whittier, third.

Wednesday, the second day, opened up dismal and with a dark foreboding of rain and the ladies moved the exhibits to the Elks' Hall where there was a very good attendance in the afternoon and at night.

Many people were under the impression that the events at the track had been called off and only a small crowd was present to witness what was the very best portion of the meet, the automobile stunts.

The first was the Slow Race on high gear, once around the track, won by Randall Chase, in Buick car, time 1:11 2-5.

A. H. Gerber, in Overland car, second, 1:09 2-5. Ed Higgins, Everett, third, 1:48 2-5.

Expert Ladies Drive was the next event and was a very pretty affair, the ladies driving between a row of flags.

Miss Elder won, driving a Buick car, time 1:42 2-5.

Miss Williams, second, driving an Overland, time 1:58 2-5.

Each of these ladies only knocked down two flags.

Mrs. B. A. Howard, third, driving an E. M. F., time 1:23 4-5. Mrs. Howard knocked down three flags.

Expert Gentlemen's Drive, F. F. Dutton, first, in Everett car, time 50 2-5. E. N. Morrow, second, Everett, time 1:27.

Roy Symes, Everett, third, time 56 2-5.

Mr. Morrow was handicapped in the race, driving the large Everett belonging to M. F. Robinson and having a 127 inch wheel base made it exceedingly difficult to avoid the flags.

Dash From Dead Motor was a great stunt and was greatly enjoyed.

Roy Symes in an Everett was first. Ralph Wight in an Everett was second. Randall Chase in Buick was third.

Corn Club Assuming Shape

County School Superintendent J. F. McKinnon is addressing a letter to the principal of each of the schools of the county, setting forth the objects and plan of boys' corn clubs, and urging the co-operation of teachers, pupils and patrons in this work. As rapidly as it can be done he will visit each school in person in company with a member of the Orlando Board of Trade, to give fuller and more definite instructions.

On Saturday, February 24th, Dr. J. J. Verion, of the University of Florida, who is in charge of the farmers' demonstration work in connection with the U. S. Department of Agriculture will be in Orlando to address a meeting called in the interests of the boys' corn movement, and to effect to county organization. There will be a general invitation to attend this meeting but teachers, pupils and parents are especially urged to be present.

Train Derailed at Maitland

Northbound train No. 28 failed to make the siding at Maitland Wednesday night and was jammed by train No. 85 southbound. The accident was due to the failure of the brakeman to allow the entire train No. 28 to take the siding before he threw the switch with the result that the last car remained on the main track and for some miraculous reason No. 85 was running fast enough to make a trail shock when it hit the car. Damage was slight but the two trains were late very late.

Helping Hand Society

The Helping Hand Society of the Baptist church met at the residence of Mrs. J. W. Wildman, Tuesday evening with quite a large attendance. The interesting Mission study class, was conducted by E. E. Cox. At the conclusion of which, the members of the society, enjoyed a social hour together which was made very pleasant by several musical selections and fine readings by Miss Oldham, of North Carolina.

Well Deserved Promotion

At a meeting of the directors of the People's Bank recently, R. R. Deas was promoted to the position of Assistant Cashier, in recognition of his ability and faithful service. Mr. Deas has many friends here who will congratulate him upon his good fortune. The cashier, H. E. Tolar, was also highly complimented by the directors upon the good showing made by the bank during the past twelve months.

A Man's Job

Rev. George B. Waldron will present some Sanford phases of the Men's Religion and Forward Movement at the Peoples Church next Sunday night. His subject will be "A Man's Job." Services open at 7 o'clock. All are invited to attend. In the morning Mr. Waldron will speak on "The Fruits of the Spirit."

HAPPENINGS DURING THE WEEK

Here the Readers Will Find a Brief Historical Spring Flowing For Hurried Readers

Franklin McVeagh, secretary of the treasury, firing an administration pre-convention campaign gun in Michigan at the annual dinner of the Zach Chandler Republican club, where he was the guest of honor, came out flatly with the expressed belief that Theodore Roosevelt "would not—and with his make-up could not—run against Taft, for the Republican Presidential nomination this year.

"Foolish stories" about American intervention, circulated in Mexico through erroneous press despatches have aroused so much feeling throughout the troubled southern republic and so endangered the safety of American residents there, that the State Department today issued a circular to its diplomatic and consular representatives in Mexico, denying all such stories and reiterating expressions of good will and sincerest friendship for Mexico.

In Georgia one Republican faction endorsed the Republican administration and the other lined up for Taft. And yet Georgia is the state that was supposed to love Roosevelt so well that many Democrats would vote for him.

When Weber and Fields opened their re-union at a New York theater last week as high as $1,000 was paid for boxes by their enthusiastic admirers. It was a gala occasion, and even David Warfield, who long since graduated from the burlesquers into the legitimate field, again donned his old Hebeew comedian clothes and appeared on the stage in one of the impersonations that laid the foundations of his fame.

All of the delegates thus far elected for the republican national convention in Chicago, twenty-six, are for President Taft's renomination. They are distributed as follows: Florida 12, Philippine Islands 2, Fourth Oklahoma district 2 and the District of Columbia 2, Fifth Georgia 1, First Georgia 4.

As the campaign progresses the alleged strength of Roosevelt vanishes like a specter of the brocken when the sun has risen and is dissipating the fog. In districts where he was to sweep the platter clean he is only fortunate enough to get an honorable mention and where the event was in doubt he gets a consolation delegate or two.

The Republican State Convention to select delegates to the national convention met at noon today in a downtown theater. Whether there would be a contest over instructed delegates was problematical when the meeting was called. It is known that Taft has warm supporters in the State, but also there are some strong Roosevelt supporters.

A commission of thirteen members of the Canadian Senate will determine exactly what the Dominion lost through the rejection of reciprocity with the United States. The commission was appointed on motion of Senator, a Liberal, from Ontario. At the suggestion of one Western member, it was stated Canada had gained considerably by the action.

Huskins Is Postmaster

Washington, Feb. 14.—Charlie H. Stebbins has been appointed postmaster at Manatee, Fla. This office became presidential January 1, 1912. The nomination by President Taft of Mr Stebbins has been sent to the United States senate for its confirmation.

The senate has confirmed the following nominations for Florida postmasterships: William A. Allen, Deland. Charles F. Huskins, Sanford. Charles J. Schoonmaker, Cocoa. John F. Stunkel, Leesburg.

Two Noted Books

It may be of interest to some one or indeed to many who are anticipating the pleasure of hearing Jacob Reis when he lectures in Sanford, March 1st, to know that two of his widely known books are in the Sanford Library. They are "The Making of an American," and "The Battle of the Slums." It would add greatly to the interest of the lecture to read the books mentioned before hearing Mr. Reis.

New Governor—New State.

Phoenix, Ariz. Feb. 14.—With Western simplicity, known elsewhere in matters official as "Jeffersonian," George W. P. Hunt was inaugurated as the first State Governor of Arizona to-day. A few hours earlier in the day, word had come by telegraph from Washington that President Taft had signed the proclamation, admitting Arizona to the Union, the last of the territories on contiguous soil and the thirty-eighth State.

In the ceremonies attendant upon the birth of the State and the induction into office of the first executive, the military was conspicuous by its absence, the new governor being adverse to ostentation.

There was but a meagre display even of silk hats and frock coats, which invaded Arizona only a few years ago.

Accompanied by a number of the newly elected State officers and a few close friends, Governor Hunt, who began life in Arizona a quarter of a century ago as a miner in a small mining camp restaurant at Globe, walked to the capital building about a mile from the center of the city.

Dick Callison's Puzzle.

G. R. Callison has originated a new puzzle and it can't be described accurately. It consists of a number of rings on a wire and the puzzle is to get them off the wire and put them back again in fifteen minutes. It costs 15 cents to try it and he will give $5000 to any one who can solve the puzzle, the money to go to the Hospital Association. The puzzle is on exhibition at The Herald Office.

HARD ON MRS. PACKER, TOO

Little Mistake in Matter of Tickets Causes No End of Annoyance.

Blueberry was a small and unimportant rural railroad station, and the post of ticket agent was held by Mrs. Nancy Dipple, an energetic woman who lived near the tracks. Travel to and from the town was light, and having little use for a separate office, Mrs. Dipple sold railroad tickets, when they were called for, at her own house, where she kept her stock for safety in a bureau drawer.

Besides selling tickets, Mrs. Dipple "did for" a household of boarders and a shiftless husband. A ticket for town being required one day when the agent's hands were occupied with the mixing of biscuit dough, Mrs. Dipple requested her husband to act as her representative, and he obligingly complied. A little later he appeared in the kitchen with a troubled brow. "Nancy," he asked, anxiously, "was any of the town tickets blue?"

"No—all red," said Nancy. "Well,"—Mr. Dipple rubbed his head with a disturbed look,—"I sold Mrs. Packer a blue ticket, an' then afterwards I noticed some red tickets in the drawer, an'—"

"Forevermore!" Mrs. Dipple broke out in great vexation. "Did I ever see the like! You've gone and sold her one o' my milk tickets,—the last one I had,—you careless critter, and now the train's gone and we can't get it back! And milk's so dear, too!"— Youth's Companion.

Modern Appliances for Whaling.

The use of the modern whaling cannon in place of the old-fashioned and more picturesque hand harpoon has been familiar for a good many years, but it is probably not widely known that another modern invention has been pressed into service. Compressed air is now pumped into the whale's carcass until it resembles a toy balloon, and the hole filled with oakum, so that the whaler may set the carcass afloat with a buoy to mark it, without danger of its staking.

In this way time can be saved in starting on the pursuit of other whales which may be in sight.

Heroism of Women.

It is painful to note that few Carnegie medals go to women. One might infer from this that heroism is exclusively a male characteristic, comments the Philadelphia Inquirer. Fortunately, it isn't so. As a fact most women have to be heroes to get through this world at all. They do things right along which would make a man famous. Some of them exhibit constant heroism by living with men who ought to be in jail or in the tomb. But, aside from such considerations, women have done their share in every branch of heroic effort so far as opportunities opened.

Appeal to National Pride.

The Italian wrestler Bruggio was proceeding cautiously, says a writer in the Chicago Evening Post. He was feeling his opponent out, stalling him off with various pokes and not showing that daring in attack that the crowd likes. Most of them were silent, but one adviser, seated far away kept yelling to him to "take a chance." As this seemed to make no impression with repetition, he shouted finally: "Take a chance, you wop lobster. Columbus took a chance."

Delicate Distinction.

John is 7, and the son of a lawyer. The father is much given to making fine distinctions in evidence, and the boy had often heard his father discuss the technical difference between absolute lying, misstatements of fact and the like. The kid had been caught in some boyish mischief, and for once, in a way, though ordinarily a truthful lad, he attempted to smooth matters over. "Son, look me straight in the eye and tell me if that statement is the truth," said the father, severely. "Well, dad, I think that was a misstatement of fact," replied the boy. "It would have been a lie if I had expected you to believe it, but I didn't have much hope." The father will be more careful in the future how he discusses abstract subjects around the house.

Cruel Monarch.

At the annual prize-giving at Woodford House School, Croydon, England, Mr. Ian Malcolm, M. P., addressed the girls, and Mrs. Malcolm gave away the prizes. Mr. Malcolm told the girls that they must be thorough in all that they did, work with understanding, and not mind asking questions, or they would end by being superficial. To illustrate this, he told the story of a little girl who informed her mother she had been learning about King John. Her mother inquired what she had learned, and was told that he was a very cruel man, who rode all over the country in motor cars and ran over people! Her mother was amazed, and inquired what she meant, to which the girl replied: "Well, mother, Miss Jones did say he ground the people down with heavy taxes."

A Great Boon To Women

A Wonderful Remedy for Women's Diseases. Offered on Absolute Guarantee Of Money Back if it Fails.

There is no other treatment for women's diseases... much as of as Reno's New Health. The best proof of its value is that it is sold under an absolute guarantee of money back...

Reno's New Health is a powerful remedy for Scanty or Irregular or Suppressed Menstruation, Sickly Periods, Constant Headaches and Weakness, Depression, Cramps, Dizziness, Violent Headaches, Pain in the Heart, Pain in the Back and Groins, Leucorrhoea and all Discharges and Ulceration and Discharges of the Vagina and Uterus.

Do not confuse Reno's New Health with other cheap imitations. The prescription of an eminent New York physician is the basis of your relief because it has proven such a blessing to thousands of women that it would be a sin to confine the prescription to any other name.

Reno's New Health has saved thousands of women from the operation. Many a woman suffers pain in both sides from the operation, often so severe that she can hardly walk or stand. A physician advises an operation but it does not cure. Even if the woman survives the operation, she will be a nervous wreck. Use Reno's New Health to restore yourself from an operation and restore in a natural way the organs to their natural conditions and functions.

Statistics show that Reno's New Health is saving thousands of women from the operation table than any other known remedy. It restores the system that all foreign growths are absorbed and the organs restored to their normal condition. Be on the safe side. Use Reno's New Health and get well.

The guarantee under which Reno's New Health is sold is a very protective shield for you. It guarantees you a penny without getting a cent's worth of value. If Reno's New Health cures you the cost is small, if it fails the cost is nothing. Could any offer be more fair?

SIDE LIGHTS ON CALIFORNIA FREEZE

Story of the Latest Calamity From a California Resident

Very little "inside" information has been given to the world regarding the recent freeze in California and for the benefit of several inquirers who have recently written The Herald we print this story from a California grower that appeared in the Ansonia (Conn.) Evening Sentinel:

R. I. Fischer, writing to the Florists Exchange from San Gabriel, Cal., gives an account of the recent freeze in the Golden State and incidentally throws some interesting side lights on conditions in the southland. Mr. Fischer says:

I read in the Exchange of January 6 an article by its correspondent, P. D. Barnhart, on the disastrous freeze we had here in California.

Mr. Barnhart certainly puts it very mildly. He evidently hadn't traveled very far from his home in Pasadena, one of the most sheltered spots, as it is situated almost at the very foot of the mountains, or we would have seen that a temperature such as he states in his article could never do the awful damage that was done here on Christmas night to the entire citrus crop and trees. At this time, three weeks after the freeze, all the citrus fruit trees except those hugging the foot or side of the mountain are almost ruined, some I am afraid are entirely so. The packers have closed down the packing houses in Monrovia and Duarte. The packers went on a tour of inspection of the groves a week after the freeze and on the first day condemned 400 acres of fruit, and, it is thought, must have finally condemned all for they closed down, saying the fruit was too badly frozen. The fruit growers not only lost on this season's crop, but next year's also, as all the young growth is killed and a great deal of older wood. The orange trees look as though a fire had swept through them, and the further south one goes the worse the trees look, and anyone can see that it was no light frost that wrought the damage.

My place is about five miles south of Pasadena. The temperature here at 4 o'clock in the morning was 13 degrees, at 5 o'clock with the sun quite a way up it had only reach 17 degrees, and all the faucets on the place were frozen so that not a drop of water was to be had until 10 o'clock, and over an inch thick on a barrel of water on the north side of the greenhouses, ice which had to be broken with a hammer. When the sun thawed the faucets and pipes, I found that eight lengths of 1 1/2 inch iron pipe had burst and were rendered useless and there were other irreparable damages.

In San Gabriel town it was 17 degrees at 10 o'clock also in Van Nuys. In Comdido 22 miles from San Diego, the most southern point a man just visiting us from there said the temperature there reached the awful point of 9 degrees; he said great damage was done. And I hear that in Redlands it was even lower, as I am told that the trees there look like a field of corn stalks in water, except where the growers used the smudge.

Mr. Barnhart says there are millions of young orange trees grown to meet the growing demand for them. I am sure there was, judging from the quantity grown around here. One man, a short distance from me, has about 100 acres, nursery trees one, two and three years old; they now look like a field of corn in winter that has never been cut. If all the young stock looks like his, then the growing demand won't be satisfied for some years to come—unless Christmas night prematurely satisfied the demand by killing it.

This is the sort of thing that the people coming here are given no protection against, for the newspapers never print a word of any detrimental character against the state. But let a few drops of very much needed rain fall, and they quickly raise the cry that millions are moved to the farmers and all the southland is rejoicing—unless the rain is a deluge, tearing blanks and bridges down and washing away people's land by the acre, as was the case last winter, then they have been about this disastrous frost.

The papers have given out the report here that the reason Redlands and Riverside have stopped shipping oranges is because of the bitter cold weather back East—that the eastern storehouse are stocked and cannot be unloaded, owing to the cold. I think the newspapers as well as real estate men, should be prosecuted for so shamefully deceiving the public. Many come here and invest their money in a citrus grove, on time payments, and a night last Christmas wipes it all away as they cannot meet their payments. Such frosts don't come often and are, therefore, all the more dangerous, as they nearly always catch the people unprepared.

I hope you will print this, for it may be a warning to some contemplating coming here to grow delicate stock and put them on their guard as to what to expect once in a while to let them know they are living.

First Woman on English Stage.

January 3 is an important anniversary in the development of the British drama, for upon this date in 1661 Pepys went to the Clare Market theater, saw the "Beggar's Bush" well performed and records, "the first time that I ever saw women come upon the stage."

Previously all female parts had been taken by boys or young men. The change was probably suggested by Charles II. from his continental experience, and arose from an amusing episode. The king had gone to the theater "before his time," and finding the actors not ready, asked for an explanation, whereupon he was gravely informed that "the queen has not shaved yet." As the Merry Monarch loved to laugh at a jest as well as to make one, the excuse was accepted and a reform initiated.

Mourn Saleswoman's Death.

There is mourning in one of the large department stores because of the death of a saleswoman who was probably as well known in New York as any one of the great sisterhood. "Little Ellen," as every one called her because she always retained the name by which she was known when she became an employee of the house thirty-five years ago, was for many years at the head of the glove selling department and had customers by the hundred, who would be served only by her. She knew the sizes of gloves they wore and had many friends among her patrons, for whom she selected gloves when they were small children. At no other times she was always liberally remembered by them, and her death is regretted as much by them as by her associates and employ

Sword 3,400 Years Old

Among several relics of ancient times, including temple reliefs from Abydos and a mummy from Mehi dated about 100 A. D., the Pierpont Morgan has given the Metropolitan Museum of Art an Assyrian sword believed to be 3,400 years old. It was found by Colonel Hanbury an English explorer about 1875 at Nardin and is said to be the earliest example known.

Frederick Remington's large painting, "A Cavalry Charge on the South ern Plains," has been presented to the museum by several donors, including former Park Commissioner Henry Smith, George A. Hewitt, Willson T. Evans and Augustus Thomas.

Had Policeman Stumped.

The plan whereby Chicago streets shall be numbered as streets or avenues is one of importance, says the Chicago Evening Post. It needs further advocacy, however, to Irvin S. Cobb. A policeman was lying on a stretcher with his head on a pillow and a notebook when he came across a dead horse. Out came the notebook and in went this quotation: "Found at 7:30 o'clock this morning a dead horse at —. He glanced up at the lamp post which bore the names of two intersecting streets, Magnolia avenue and Terpelchora place. And do you know, the poor copper had to put his notebook away and haul the horse by his tail to First and Main streets."

New Ice Craft.

Thousands of persons who gather along the Shrewsbury river to witness the annual iceboat and scooter races stared in amazement when something that appeared to be a rocket from the skies shot over the ice, passing the ice boats as if they were at a standstill. When the weird looking craft was brought to a stop at the north end of the course the crowd swarmed about the contrivance and found it to be a small sized runabout automobile transformed into what may be called an auto-scooter. The auto-scooter was constructed by Fred Waters of Red Bank. —New York American.

Father Was Close.

The following question was asked by a social worker in a conversation with a shabby urchin of the Milwaukee slums: "Sonny, suppose I lend you my father $20; how long will it take him to pay me back at the rate of $5 a week?" The boy responded at once: "All his lifetime and then some." "Why," said the inquisitive sociologist, "how long do you expect your father to live?" "Well, you don't know my father's man. He might live 300 years, but you can't get even two bits from him."

Mrs. Wilson Hostess
Mrs. Thomas Emmett Wilson was hostess at a very delightful bridge party at her lovely home on Sylvan Lake Thursday afternoon, complimentary to her charming house guests, Miss Wilson of Peckskill, N. Y.; Miss Faddy of Brooklyn, N. Y.; and her sister, Miss Fox.

The highest score was made by Miss Faddy, who won the first prize, a pretty hand painted china plate.

Mrs. O. W. Brady won the second prize, a dainty gauze fan. The booby prize, a box of stationery was received by Mrs. Forrest Lake.

After the conclusion of the games of the games of cards delicious cream oysters, sandwiches, olives, coffee and bonbons were served. Mrs. Wilson's invited guests were Mesdames C. M. Vorce, W. D. Holden, O. W. Brady, Andrew Johnson, Forrest Lake, L. R. Vorce, H. P. Driver, Paul Keely, A. W. Brown, J. H. Roumillat, Miss Thigpen.

Pleasant Dances

The young people enjoyed a very delightful dance in the hall Friday evening. The music was furnished by the Imperial orchestra. Those participating in the pleasure of the evening were Mesdames Margaret Davis, Estia Purdon, Helen Rowland, Clarissa Starling, Charlotte Hand, Lillian Higgins, Lina Connelly, Renie Murrell, Solida Glade, Martha Miller, Kate Underwood, Irene Thurston, Hoskins Jones, Louise Shepherd, Douglas Abernathy, Gladys Morrif, Ernest Betts, Karl Roumillat, Ralph Wight, George McLaughlin, Frank Shetty, Paul Jones, Frank Woodruff, Harold Long, Paul Pugh, Volle Williams, Hugh Tillie, Henry Purdon, Bob Taylor, Pope Wicker, Chaperones, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Peck, Mrs. Purdon, Mrs. Parrish.

VOTERS SHOW INTEREST.

Tax Collector Martin Trying To Get Poll Tax Paid In Time

Interest in qualifying to vote at the Democratic primaries this year is manifesting itself. A number of persons called at the registration office in the court house this week to find out matters in regard to voting.

Mr. W. L. Dolive, the supervisor of registration, will open his books in the court house on Monday, March 18th, the time set by law, and close them Saturday, April 13th. Mr. Dolive will be in his office on Mondays, Fridays and Saturdays.

In the mean time Mr. W. E. Martin, tax collector, in the court house, can inform men what they must do to enable them to vote, if they can't wait for the office of registration to open. All must have lived in the state one year, and in the county for six months, and pay $1 per year as poll tax. Those over 55 years of age are not liable to this tax. The tax can be paid at any time to the collector.—Orlando Sentinel.

George Fox for Legislature

It seems that Sanford is full of timber for legislative honors and today George Fox, Jr., announces his candidacy for Legislature. Mr. Fox is well known in this section, having been born at Lake Charm near Oviedo and spent his early manhood in this city. He studied law for some time after leaving college but discarded Blackstone for the more lucrative field of the commission business, in which he has been eminently successful. He has always taken an active interest in politics and wishes to state that he is a candidate for the office because he wants the position and not to gratify the personal grievances of any friends. He will be a strong man in the race.

Cars Are Running

The Sanford Traction Co., has been enabled to start the regular schedule and the car recently repaired and painted is making regular trips to Cameron City and return. The engine was overhauled and the entire car cleaned and painted and is better than ever. It is rumored that one of the General Electric cars will be purchased to take the place of the car recently burned. This car will seat 100 people and will prove a valuable adjunct to the service.

Souvenir Programs

The official programs of the Horse Show and Field Day exercises can be obtained free at the office of Freid & Son in Room 8, Peoples Bank building. Everybody should help to send these programs out of town and advertise Sanford. They are free.

Mission Study Circle

The Mission Study Circle of the Methodist church will meet at the residence of Mrs. W. W. Abernathy Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Hard to Realize.

The variety of ways in which a given number of articles may be placed has often created much surprise. A mathematician once set himself to the task of calculating the number of different ways in which the fifty-two cards of a pack could be distributed among four players, thirteen to each, taking every possible combination. It would be useless to present the answer here in a long row of figures, for no one can realize what such a numerical array really means, but the following illustration can be readily grasped:

If the entire population of the earth, say one thousand millions of persons, were to deal the cards continually, day and night, for one hundred millions of years, at the rate of a deal by each person a minute, they would not have exhausted the one hundred thousandth part of the number of essentially different ways in which it is possible that the cards can be so distributed.

Spare the Doves.

The turtle doves are great feeders on the seeds of weeds, and do much to protect growing crops from harm through the ravages of those weeds on the seeds of which they feed. The government biological survey, in conducting its investigation to determine the economic value of these birds, found in the stomachs of three turtle doves 23,100 hawkweed seeds, with the seeds of several other kinds of weeds which have caused the farmer inconveniences and expense during a larger portion of the crop growing season. These birds are much more effective as a weed exterminating force than an army of men with hoes and weedeaters, because the best that man can do is to keep the weeds in check to a certain extent, while the seed devoured by the bird is destroyed and prevented from taking root. It is estimated that the natural increase of these birds, if they were allowed to multiply without interruption, would save the American farmer at least $500,000,000 a year.

Hebrew Satire.

The Hebrew satirists in this and past ages have mostly directed their attention to the follies and follies of the miser, the hypocrite, the profligate and the snob, while the superstitious and pretentious rabbi receives even more castigation than the frivolities of the fair. The following epigram for a judge might easily be recognized as possessing an English origin: "Here lies Judge A—, he's done with legal tort, and sleeps as soundly as he did in court." As a matter of fact, the author was Yelteles (1763-1813) but the idea is ubiquitous and eternal.

Brave Attempts.

A kindly gentleman, addressing some children, advised them to remember the "three E's"—Edward, Empire and Entegrity. This reminds one of a story told of a former mayor of Birmingham, who apologized to an audience for his late arrival on account of another engagement. "I am not ambiguous," said he. A friendly alderman anxious to prevent his understanding, chimed in with, "Of course, what his worship meant to say was that it was impossible for him to be amphibious."—London Opinion.

Chimney Sweeps Wear Top Hats.

There are some strange things to be seen in Switzerland, but nothing stranger than the chimney sweeps, who, curiously enough, are the only people in the country who wear top hats. The silk hat—usually of respectable antiquity—is, for some inexplicable reason, the recognized head gear of the chimney cleaner in Switzerland, and he would probably feel as unprofessional without it as a policeman without his helmet or a mufin man without his flat cap.—Wide World Magazine.

Admiral Turns Artist.

Admiral Charles Henry Davis, U. S. N., retired, began studying art at sixty-three, and within four years has become one of the foremost American water color landscape artists. He now has thirty-two pictures on exhibition at the Corcoran art gallery in Washington, and says he has only started on his art career. Haus mit Oesterl—Nashville Tennessean.

Quite by Chance.

The magistrate took a very serious view of the matter. Looking over the desk he fixed the culprit in the dock with a glance warranted to quell. "Prisoner," he said pompously, "you stand there charged with begging." The prisoner looked very sorry for himself, but ventured to offer a protest. "Your worship," he whined, "I have never begged." His worshipful worship grew fiercer and fiercer, like the bear in the fairy story, and words failed him. "Never, your honor," continued the prisoner. "It was not my fault if, while holding out my hand, to feel if it were raining, a lady dropped a penny into it." "A month!" snapped the magistrate. And it was so.—Answers.

Edward's Qualifications.

Certain mysteries in politics little Mrs. Hobart cannot penetrate; in all loyalty to her husband, she feels called upon to refer to them once in a while. "I have never understood," she said to one of her husband's relatives, "why my Edward would not have been a much better candidate for governor than his brother James, and I am positive he was as well fitted for the office of mayor as his cousin Henry." "But—has Edward ever thought of running for either office?" inquired the relative. "I presume not. I have never said as much to him as I am saying to you," and Mrs. Hobart held her chin well in the air. "But when you consider that James Hobart has twice forgotten his own wife's birthday, and that Henry Hobart can't tell pink from yellow to this day, I should think it would have occurred to any one how much more my Edward would have graced a political office than either of them."—Youth's Companion.

Dark Outlook

The two lords of creation are enjoying a quiet smoke in the hotel lobby, says the Cleveland Plain Dealer. Says one: "What do you think of that? Here's an item in this paper which states that a St. Paul man has won a prize for embroidering a lunch cloth." Says the other: "Say what that a great little suggestion for wives whose time is all taken up by bridge." The first one: "Sure it is. Just imagine the gabble across the table." You Mrs. Giggletta, George embroidered this all by himself isn't it dear?" And then the next day old card sharp will lean forward and cackle: "How perfectly exquisite! I wonder if George wouldn't teach Charles how to do it." Say old man, what are we coming to anyway?" "Hear if I know. Will you drown a little sorrow with me?" Sure. They adjourned.

Negro's Deed Worthy High Praise.

To have to swing a vicious and infuriated bulldog on the end of a broken chain in a circle over his head while a policeman fired several shots at the animal, was recently the thrilling experience of Peter Wilson of New York, a powerful negro, after he had rescued a child from the savage attacks of the dog. For more than ten minutes Wilson swung the dog around in the air, and was ready to all to the street from exhaustion when the animal was finally despatched. All of the policeman's bullets went wild, and the dog was killed only after several men succeeded in trapping him into a helpless position against a cellar grating.

The Perverse Husband.

John Collier, the secretary of New York's Board of Moving Picture Censors, said the other day:

"It's no good getting up objectionable picture plays. We never pass them. In fact, we turn them down so invariably that it seems to me the composers of such plays are animated by a spirit of perversity. They remind me of old Uncle Jethro Husk.

"Uncle Jethro sat fishing on the bank of a tiny rivulet, when a stranger stopped beside him and said:

"Is it possible that there are any fish in such a small stream as that?" "No, there ain't none," Uncle Jethro grunted.

"But you're fishing?"

"Yep," said Uncle Jeth.

"What, then, is your object?"

"My object," said Uncle Jeth, "is to show my wife I ain't got no time to sift the ashes."

Afraid of His Past.

"Where are you going to locate your law office—in Winterville?"

"No."

"Why not?"

"I sang a tenor solo with our college glee club in Winterville and I'm afraid they haven't forgotten me."

MELISSA HAD REVENGE

SHE WAS SCOLDED FOR BEING ARRESTED FOR SPEEDING

Austere Professor When Absent Minded Wore Wrong Hat and Telephoned From the Police Station for Her Help.

"No, Melissa," the professor rose with deliberation, "I cannot but feel that my duty to you, my wife, constrains me to forbid the repetition of such a vulgar happening. If you can not indulge in automobilizing without incurring the contamination incident to arrest for overspeeding, I shall reluctantly be compelled to dispose of the car."

He drew himself up imposingly, and left the room with a firm tread, but in the hall his agitation showed itself, for he captured and placed on his head the first hat which came to hand. It happened to be a jaunty toque of soft felt that Melissa had carelessly left on the hall table.

Before the professor had gone ten steps, however, his domestic tribulations had left his mind, and he was deep in the consideration of a difficult problem. Therefore he did not notice the curious glances and amused stares that began to follow him. As he progressed further and further he acquired a following of street boys and newsmen, whose jeers and hoots became louder as their number augmented. Finally his mind, distracted by the noise without, broke from the obstacles of its problem, and he turned to confront external conditions.

The jeers died away and he faced his followers—then broke out louder than before. As the professor began to expostulate with his tormentors a crowd gathered, bringing with it a blue-clad policeman who speedily made his way to the center of the gathering. The professor turned to him with relief, and began to explain the situation in somewhat tentative English.

The policeman smiled gently. "Drink again?" said he. "You come with me. It'll be ten days or fifteen for disturbing the peace."

He took a firm grip on the professor's arm just above the elbow and marched him off protesting.

Meanwhile Melissa, her lord and professor departed, had seated herself in a easy chair to read the morning paper. After awhile she tossed it aside. He can be just horrid when he wants to, she complained. Then a smile crept over her face, and besides he forgot that it was my auto not his, she chuckled.

The telephone bell rang, and she took up the receiver. "Well?"

A husk and quavering voice came over the wire. "Is—ah—is this Melissa?"

"Or—I, then with an agonized gasp. "Please hurry down to the car and pull the out!" I'm in the wh— police station!"

Preserve Your Dignity.

The way to ward off old age is not to fear it, not to allow one's self to be oppressed by the dread of advancing years. Use only legitimate preventives and avoid trying experiments with preparations not indorsed by physicians. Do not wear toilettes intended for young girls they only add to the appearance. Keep up your interest in the young, but do not envy them. Retire with dignity from the struggle do not pose as your daughter's rival. Above all surround your life with sweet, true affections which prevent the heart from growing bitter. Do not lose interest in the growing events of the day; do not fall behind the times, and do not harp on other and better days. To those who come to you for advice be always kind and sympathetic. As you advance in years preserve carefully your personal appearance, for once lost it may not be regained save by strenuous effort. Your costumes should be simple and unpretentious, yet graceful. These rules carefully and sensibly followed, will keep you young and attractive.

Australia's Primitive Races.

The tribes of Central Australia are among the last of the primitive races. They are nomads who stray through the huge and deserted tracts of this great continent, hunting with spears and boomerangs. They are with few exceptions cannibals. Living in huts made of the boughs of trees, they have no household utensils. They count on their fingers only, and only to the number of ten; but they decorate the rocks with rude attempts at drawing and make efforts to ornament their shields.—Harper's Weekly.

More Likely.

"What's the excitement at that street crossing? Some automobile collision?" "I think not; the crowd's too big for that. Some professional pugilist must have stepped into the saloon at that corner, and they're waiting for him to come out."

Stubborn Case

"I was under the treatment of two doctors," writes Mrs. R. L. Phillips, of Indian Valley, Va., "and they pronounced my case a very stubborn one, of womanly weakness I was not able to sit up, when I commenced to take Cardui.

I used it about one week, before I saw much change. Now, the severe pain, that had been in my side for years, has gone, and I don't suffer at all. I am feeling better than in a long time, and cannot speak too highly of Cardui."

TAKE CARDUI The Woman's Tonic

NEGRO HAS ESCAPED

Made His Getaway Before He Could Be Apprehended

The negro, Ed McCray, who is said to have attempted to enter the room of Mrs. Carl Takach at the Pico Hotel several nights ago has made a clear getaway so far and nothing has been learned of his whereabouts. The negro is about five feet seven, thirty years old, weighs between 150 and 160 pounds and is between a black and tan in color. He has lived here most of his life and the only explanation of his attempt to enter the room was that he was drunk. Could he have been found at the time his life would have paid the forfeit, as Sanford's citizens will not stand for games of this kind. Had the gun which Mrs. Takach grabbed up been loaded the law would have been unnecessary. McCray's description has been sent out broadcast and he will hardly be able to elude capture long.

Had Bear in Parade

M. A. Robbins the genial proprietor of the Robbins Nest did not have a horse to enter the big show on Tuesday and decided to put in his tame bear. The bear was placed in a wagon with Mrs. H. C. Gerrard driving and Mr. Robbins taking charge of the bear but the horses were frightened by Brum and he was barred out of the parade. However the novel sight was witnessed by the crowd after the horses had passed and the brave little lady drove down the street with the bear just behind her, something that few men would undertake.

Unitarian Services

Rev. Adelbert L. Hudson will hold Unitarian services next Tuesday night, Feb. 20, at the Congregational church at 7:30 o'clock. Mr. Hudson is one of the most eminent of Unitarian speakers. He preached last Sunday at Daytona before a large congregation, his sermon being "The Real Mission of Jesus Christ to Humanity." This subject touches the chief point of difference between the Unitarian and other Protestant churches. Every one cordially invited to attend.

The Sewing Circle met at the residence of Mrs. J. C. Bennett Thursday evening a very pleasant time was enjoyed by all present. Delightful refreshments were served by the hostess.

Banks Closed

Next Thursday Feb. 22nd, being Washington's Birthday the banks of the city will be closed. All business should be transacted on the day previous. 47-2tp

BURR AND CLARK

Will Hold A Big Talkfest In This City In The Near Future

Secretary Bates of the Commercial Club has invited Hon. Frank Clark and Hon. R. Hudson Burr candidates for Congress to hold a joint debate in this city the date to be determined by them. Up to the present time the gentlemen have not been heard from but they will accept as Sanford is centrally located in the Second District and would make an ideal place for a big campaign talk and general meeting of all the candidates. The meeting between these two would be a most interesting one as both of them can talk and neither one is afraid to make a noise.

Now if Sam Hilburn can also get in in and make it a three cornered affair the people of this section will really get something rich, rare and racy. Details of the great pow wow will be given later and dates announced.

CULLED FROM THE STATE PRESS

An Epitome of the Week's Most Important Happenings in the State's Domain.

St. Petersburg is to have a Great White Way. The poles to start the work with have already arrived.

A. F. Spaw has started another of his factories for the production of sweet potato flour, cassava flour, banana coffee, canned, preserved and evaporated fruit and vegetables, etc., at Kissimmee. Whether it will be run in connection with that of the same sort at Fernandina and the other one at Green Cove Springs, both of which he started, is not stated in the account at hand.—Times-Union

Brooksville is trying to make a specialty of the dasheen, a Japanese tuber introduced by the national department of agriculture and supposed to be especially adapted to the South, some parts of the section at least. It is said to taste like a boiled chestnut and to be more prolific and better in flavor than the best yellow yams

The second annual chautauqua opened in Lakeland Thursday with a grand overture by the famous Roger's Goshen Band. The chautauqua promises to be a grand success this season.

A public celebration is to be held in Fort Myers on Washington's birthday. This will include a parade of the school children and civic societies, together with a public gathering at the auditorium in the morning and an observance of Arbor Day by the schools in the afternoon

Manatee is to have a First National bank, the only national bank in the county. Subscriptions for stock are coming in rapidly. The intention of promoters was to incorporate for $25,000, but the stock is being taken so rapidly that they have to change their plans and make it $50,000. The organization of the bank is in the hands of Gus Winggood.

Hon. S. J. Huburn on Saturday forwarded his resignation as State Senator to Governor Gilchrist at Tallahassee, which means that there will be another office for the voters of Putnam county to fill at the coming primary.

Dania is the largest tomato growing and shipping district in the United States. Last season we paid over $300,000 to tomato growers. There were shipped 705 cars of this vegetable and in addition Dania is fast earning as great a name in the cultivation of potatoes, oranges and other farm and grove produce.—Dania Express Dade county potato growers have organized an organization with Dr. J. G. DuPuis as president.

Rev. B. Rogers has been appointed president of Columbia College at Lake City

Apoplexy seems to be taking the prominent citizens of Palatka. Silas Smith died and J. N. Blackwell was stricken and is not expected to live, both victims of apoplexy.

Masses from all sections of the county are now pouring into Jacksonville for the first general convocation of the coordinate bodies of the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite of Freemasonry, which will begin at noon today for a session lasting through Thursday and terminating that night with a brilliant banquet.

Missionary Social Meeting The Missionary Society of the Methodist church, will hold their regular social meeting at the residence of Mrs. W. W. Abernathy. All the members of the society are expected. New members of the church and strangers cordially invited to be present, Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

New Okra Plant Every one in Florida is familiar with okra—the poor man's oyster, and it is one of our staple vegetables. There are many good varieties that come to us from the large seed houses but it remained for one of our own people to experiment with the okra plant and get a variety that will appeal to every one as one of the finest in the market. Frank Johnson who lives near Markham and has gained a reputation as a grower and horticulturist has a new variety which the Herald will name Johnson's Prolific. The plant is now on exhibition at the drug store of L. R. Phillips & Co., also the seed and the okra and is certainly one of the finest ever seen in this section. Mr. Johnson long ago realized that a grower could save the seed of many Florida plants and vegetables and for several years has been experimenting with different varieties. The Sanford growers who have used the seed claim it is much better than can be purchased from the seed houses. Any one wishing okra seed should take a look at Johnson's Prolific at Phillips and try some for spring planting.

Nearly $9 For Grapefruit There was sold last week in New York a car of grapefruit from Florida which brought $8.87 a box for fancy, with none below $5, and an average of $6.50

SANFORD CELERY ROLLING

Movement Averaging 10 Cars Per Week At Present

Sanford, Fla., Feb. 16—There was not much change in the situation here this week. Shipments are going forward slowly, weather conditions lately not being conducive to "bleaching" the celery as fast as usual. Indications now are that the total weekly movement from now until March will hardly exceed 10 cars per week. Considerable stock is now hoarded and being prepared for market. There will hardly be much increase in the weekly shipments until March 10. Celery now going forward is only of fair quality but there should be a noticeable improvement, however during the next few weeks, as weather conditions have been cool and favorable.

The celery deal is attracting national attention since for the next month practically the only supply for the entire country will come from Florida, as the California movement is light and much delayed. Chase & Co. rolled the first car last week. The M. O. Coggins Co. are operating extensively here and report a good demand for all city they are loading. The Coggins people will handle a goodly share of the movement.

The lettuce crop does not amount to much—what stock now moving is of mediocre quality—some cars being loaded but the daily movement is very light. The range of f. o. b. prices is $1.50 to $2.50 per hundred depending entirely on quality. Most of the stock is being sold on the basis of f. o. b. shipping point.

Growers are less very active in putting in their crops of tomatoes, potatoes and spring vegetables and from present outlook the acreage in diversified products this season will be considerably heavier than that of last year. These crops will mature during April and May.

Offerings of celery during the present week were light and sold readily, ranging from $2 to $2.25 crate on board cars here. Growers are very optimistic regarding the celery deal, and it is believed that even with the light crop in sight that the returns will considerably exceed those of last year.—Produce News

The Home Candidate

Commenting on the announcement of a candidate for a state office, a contemporary remarked that it did not know much about the gentleman, but his home newspapers gave him a fine send-off, so he must be all right. We are not sure about this. A man's home newspaper, provided the man is halfway respectable, will lie like a dog for him. How many padding heads have had the crown of statesmanship fitted on their heads by the home newspaper, regardless of how poorly they fit? No, the average editor can give G. Washington pointers on "truth and veracity in the vicinity" until he starts to descend upon the home candidate or the home girl, and then he falls from grace—and what a fall, my countrymen! We know—quia peccavimus nimis.—Lakeland Telegram.

$1,012.50 For a Car of Celery

Through the Florida Citrus Exchange's Bradentown branch there was shipped a car of celery last week that was sold for $1,012.50, netting the grower $977.50. Manager Gumprecht, one of the livest propositions in the state, has other orders booked for $3 for fancy celery and $2.50 for second grade.

New Arrivals

Many new people are arriving on Sanford Heights. Among the latest to arrive on the Stork Express are a fine young girl at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Wynne and a bouncing boy at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Karnatz.

GOOD CELERY PRICES

Fair Weather Will Prove Beneficial to Sanford Crop

THREE DOLLARS NET A CARLOAD

Several Growers Will Cut Celery This Week And Expect to Receive Fine Prices

Sanford celery growers expect to realize a good price for the crop. The celery this season will not run over 500 crates to the acre for the early stuff in many instances but the good price it is bringing will easily balance the shortage in the crop. For a car load of celery shipped last week by Chase & Co., returns were in yesterday and netted the growers $3.00 per crate which is a good price.

Among the growers who will ship this week is A. Dorner on Celery avenue, one of the pioneers in celery raising. Despite the cold, unseasonable weather Mr. Dorner has been enabled to make a fine field of celery and while it may not run as heavy as in former years the stuff is prime.

Mr. Maples expects to handle the crop and will pay for it in the field the price understood to be $3 per crate for the first. Mr. Dorner will cut and ship from seven acres this week and his thirty acres in all some later stuff and some green celery all of it looking extra good.

Mr. Dorner has worked hard with his celery and is to be congratulated upon his good fortune.

Several other growers expect to cut next week and the price will remain firm.

J. E. Pace is shipping from his share crop farms today and is said to be getting $2.50 per crate here for all the stuff that he can ship and has orders for a number of cars ahead.

If the celery can be held at a fair figure the growers can make more money than they could if there was a bumper crop that would sell around $1.00 per crate as in former years. Less handling, less crates and less freight to pay all means more money cleared per acre, which is something for the growers' end of the deal.

A few more days of ideal weather will make a vast difference in all the crops and better prices will result.

Sanford Music Club

The Sanford Music Club held their regular meeting in the studio of Mrs. Fannie Munson, Saturday afternoon, at Yorklock. Miss Carrie Lovell was leader.

A fine attendance of the members, with three visitors were present. "Romantic Composition" was the topic considered, of which Schubert was the originator. A very interesting paper on the "Life of Schubert" was read by Miss Sadie Williams.

The "Compositions" of Schubert was the subject of an interesting paper by Mrs. I. G. Wagner. Both papers for the afternoon were very much enjoyed by the club. In demonstrating Schubert's beautiful compositions, Miss Ruth Mettinger, played his second "Impromptu," Mrs. Munson and Miss McKim played his "Polonaise" in D. Mrs. Geo. L. Hoy, accompanied by Miss Olive Hill on the piano and Miss Jessie Stinson with the violin, charmed the club with Schubert's beautiful "Serenade." With the same accompanists, Mrs. Hoy sang Bramli's "Cradle Song." These delightful selections ended the program. After the calling the roll by the secretary, Mrs. Ernest Tolar, the names of two new members were voted on. Several business matters were attended to after which the club enjoyed their chorus work.

Encourage Corn Clubs

A number of counties in Florida are offering prizes to the boys for the largest yield of an acre of corn which they cultivate. The scheme is a good one, and with proper encouragement will in time make Florida one of the banner corn states of the Union. It would be a good idea for the Boards of Trade of various towns in the state to further offer prizes for the best ten ears of corn. This corn would be placed on display at a certain time in some room at the county seat town, where experts would score it and, after prizes were awarded sell off the prize corn to the highest bidder—thus giving some one farmer some excellent seed corn, from which yield he would be in a position next season to sell seed corn in wholesale lots. This is the idea as worked out in every county, and, in fact, most every town in Illinois.

Chautauqua at Lakeland

The Chautauqua continues to attract large and enthusiastic crowds, nearly 2,000 people taking in the Sunday services yesterday afternoon and last night. Yesterday morning there were no services at the tent, but in the afternoon Bishop Morrison delivered a fine sermon before a tremendous congregation, which was listened to with great interest. Miss Bunnell sang at this service. Miss McDonnell gave a reading, and there was a sacred concert by the orchestra.—Lakeland Telegram.

Dr. and Mrs. J. N. Robson entertained at their lovely home on Sanford Heights Friday afternoon, Feb. 16th, about twenty-five of the young friends of their two sons, Alfred and Claude, at a lovely "Orange party," in honor of the birthdays of the two little boys, which occur the same week. This charming home is picturesquely attractive in its surroundings with its handsome lawn, lovely flowers and beautiful orange trees, with their glistening green leaves and luscious golden fruit.

The children were entertained with merry games on the spacious lawn by Miss Nita Moore. Miss Mabel Cowan contributed to the pleasure of the happy little folks by serving them refreshing iced orange.

Later in the afternoon the young guests were invited into the prettily decorated dining room, darkened save for the light from four little candles, which were burning on a beautiful iced birthday cake on the center of the table, which was attractive with its green garlands, suspended from the chandelier and fastened to the corners of the table, each ornamented by a large dish of oranges. Four little red bells were suspended over the cake from the chandelier, each of which with the four cute little candles, telling in their significant silence little Claude's age. The party was given on his birthday in loving compliment to the younger brother. After admiring the lovely birthday cake the children were seated, and served with delicious ambrosia and cake. When the delightful party was over, and as each little guest wished their young hosts many happy returns of the day they were given an orange daintily wrapped in green crepe paper, and tied very artistically with green ribbon.

BIG SHOW WILL BE HERE

Moss & Marra Aggregation Will Start Big Noise Shortly

The advance and the rear guard and the middle men are coming in on every train preparing to put on the greatest stunt in the attraction line that ever came down the pike and back of it all is the smiling face of George Marra, the Sanford man and Big Kennedy the advance man and Moss will be here later and by the way the name is a misnomer for there is no moss on any of these people.

They are there with the goods and they positively will not purchase anybody in Sanford. On the other hand they will give two days to sweet charity.

The shows open here on March 4th and on Wednesday the proceeds will go to the Baseball Association and on Thursday to the Hospital Association, two acts that alone stamp the Moss & Marra people as being the biggest hearted bunch in the business. Wait for the Big Show and remember they are different from any others.

Land Company Indicted

Tampa, Feb. 20—Charging fraudulent use of the mails in influencing purchasers of Florida lands in misrepresentation, the federal grand jury Saturday indicted the Florida Farm and Orchard Company and its officers, W. E. and E. H. Guilford and A. B. Morton with the parent office in Boston, a branch here and one in Brooksville. Miss Lillian Crosby, of Danvers, Mass., is complainant in the case. She alleges she was sold land under a guarantee that it was suitable for agriculture of all kinds and was on a free rural-delivery route and if she was not satisfied she could exchange it for "hammock" lands of the best.

The literature alleged to have been sent out by the company is in evidence. Among the letters endorsing the land offered for sale by the company is one signed with the name of Chairman S. M. Sparkman of the rivers and harbors congressional committee. It is alleged that this and other letters are either forgeries or have been so changed that the endorsement made was made to apply to other land than that which was offered for sale.

A grave diplomatic situation between United States and Colombia has been precipitated by the publication of a letter while Senor Pedro Nel Ospina, the Colombian minister has written to Acting Secretary Huntington Wilson of the state department, suggesting that it might be "inopportune" for Secretary Knox to visit Colombia during his projected tour of Central America.

Preliminary proceedings, instituted by the Government to obtain punishment of those concerned in the destruction of a trunkful of evidence intended to be used in the prosecution of the dissolution of the United States Steel Corporation at Trenton, N. Y., are under way before a Federal Grand Jury in New York.

Senator Stephenson, of Wisconsin, is not entitled to his seat, in the opinion of five members of the Senate Committee, which investigated the reports of corruption in his election.

The nomination of Mallon Pitney, Chancellor of the State of New Jersey, to succeed Justice Hughes on the Supreme bench, will be sent to the Senate today by the President.

Governor Hiram Johnson, of California, heretofore an ardent supporter of Senator La Follette formally stated this morning that in his opinion Roosevelt should be the next Republican president. The statement is issued he said, with Roosevelt's knowledge but not necessarily with his sanction. Gifford Pinchot yesterday deserted La Follette for Roosevelt.

An Important Law

Below is a law that does not seem to be generally understood. As the season of the year when the woods are generally burned is approaching a publication of the law will be timely and the public is cautioned to read the law and observe the same.

Section 3426 (2727) Burning Woods—Whoever sets fire to or burns any wild forest, woods, lands or marshes except between February 15 and March 31 of each year or between the said dates without giving notice two days previous notice to all persons living within one mile of the place intended to be fired, shall be punished by imprisonment not exceeding sixty days, or by fine not exceeding one hundred dollars.—Taft Messenger.

S. A. Robinson For Legislature

Samuel A. Robinson announces his candidacy for the state Legislature in this issue of the paper and is entitled to a second term. Mr. Robinson went to the legislature last time with the avowed intention of putting through two bills that were of more importance than any that were passed during the session, viz. the reducing of the commissions of County Treasurers and restoring lands sold for taxes to the tax list making a total saving to the state of from seventy five to one hundred thousand dollars every year. These two bills alone stamped Mr. Robinson as a competent man to represent Orange county and like every other legislator he should be entitled to a second term and he will be elected.

New Bank at Oviedo

Oviedo, the hustling city that is attracting so much attention these days decided that a bank was just the thing. In fact the people over there have been making so much money that they needed a bank for their surplus.

Last Thursday the new bank was organized and expects to move into a building of its very own about May first.

The new institution starts off under most favorable circumstances and with a capital of $15,000.00.

Following are the officers: President, M. M. Smith. Vice President, B. G. Smith. Directors, J. P. Musselwhite, W. H. Howard, W. M. Davis, E. A. Douglass, B. G. Smith.

Capt. Marks Withdraws

Owing to the fact that under the primary system it will cost me $800.00 to $1000.00 to make the race for county treasurer, in connection with the fact that I haven't the price, I hereby withdraw my name from the list of candidates. Rich'd H. Marks.
