

Henry Fletcher Leads Hot Attack On Administration As Thermometer Hits 108

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Aug. 14.—(AP)—Leading an attack upon the New Deal in 108 degree heat, Henry Fletcher, Republican National Chairman, today launched a hot attack on the administration.

Fletcher was one of 50 speakers before the Republican National convention, held on the hottest day in Springfield's history. In starting the Mid-Western drive against the Democrats, Fletcher concentrated on Democratic promises, changing that campaign slogan to "The NRA is a hot bed of corruption."

Chase Company Discusses Phase Of Citrus Pact

"Here are some of the reasons which were responsible for the election of the new members of the Citrus Committee," said the secretary of the Citrus Committee.

"The Citrus Committee was from its inception controlled by a small majority clique of growers, which has carefully arranged all important organization matters."

"Notwithstanding repeated requests of other members of the Citrus Committee, the members, although clothed with the responsibility of making the allocations, were not allowed to have the information as to the actual holdings of the various individual shippers on which the allocations were largely based."

"The majority block of the Citrus Committee refused to appoint eight Florida representatives to fill Florida's four seats on the National Stabilization Committee."

"The Citrus Committee refused to accept the plan of the Citrus Committee, which was a member of the majority block, served as an attorney, and received large amounts of the Citrus Committee's expenses without presentation by the committee as a whole and without some of its members."

Wallace Says There Is No Danger Of Food Shortage Despite Small Grain Crop

WASHINGTON, Aug. 11.—(AP)—The smallest yield of grain in 20 years or more was predicted yesterday by federal reporters.

The drought's ravages affected only the grain crop and did not affect other crops, such as cotton, which are being harvested by the growers.

For example, the crop report board forecast that this year's production of corn would be only 1,007,100,000 bushels, a decline of more than a half billion bushels over its estimate of conditions on July 1.

Guards answered the bluff with a fusillade of shotgun fire and rifle bullets.

The committee of general counsel of railroads headed by H. V. Fletcher, general counsel for the railroads, today filed a suit in the federal court to enforce the pension law passed by the last session of Congress.

The committee includes Jacob Aronson, of the New York Central railroad; S. E. Prince, of the Southern railroad; E. S. Joubert, of the Louisville & Nashville railroad; E. E. McNelis, of the Atlantic, Tampa & Santa Fe; and F. Lyons, of the Northern Pacific.

The 1934-35 budget, as far as estimated expenditures are concerned, will be $28,937,400, less than that of 1933-34. The Commission has estimated that they will spend only $28,937,400 in the coming year, including payments on road bonds maturing and interest. Last year they budgeted $318,930,000 as expenditures anticipated.

Austrian and German Nazis Held As Allies

VIENNA, Aug. 11.—(AP)—Prince Ernst von Starheimberg, vice-chancellor of Austria, declared yesterday that the government had direct proof of cooperation between German Nazis and the Austrian administration.

"The German Nazis have financial means at their disposal which equal the strength of a nation of 50,000,000 people," the prince declared in the first formal statement since the formation of the government.

"The greater part of the population stands behind the government," he said. "The loyalty of the army, the navy, the police and the government is assured."

BIBLE VERSE FOR TODAY

THE GOD OF PEACE: Now the God of peace...

The President has decided to nationalize silver, but not the Silver Shirts.

The wholesale prices of food products are in many cases considerably higher than a year ago.

One cannot help but feel sorry for the victims of the drought area, but the extremely high prices for flour, corn and certain other food stuffs are likely to result in greater purchases of beans, celery, and other green vegetables by the consuming public.

"There is some danger," writes a conservative New York financial commentator, "that the government may take over the banks."

Sophie Tucker, famous "blues" singer, has recently sailed for a little vacation in Europe, after signing a contract with a Broadway company paying her a salary of $5,000 a week.

Washington Merry-go-Round: Laments the rise of gnomes of vigilantes in numerous spots throughout the country.

A woman, twenty-nine years old, with three children, dies in Sing Sing electric chair for killing her husband in order to collect a $5,000 life insurance policy.

The New Deal does not propose to eliminate all of the Old Deal practices. This at least is the conclusion, we get from the speech of Joseph P. Kennedy, head of the new Securities Exchange Commission.

Our "Surplus Economy"

For a year or more this country through its various governmental agencies has been engaged in a process of crop reduction by which it was proposed to limit the agriculture of this country more nearly to the needs of the people.

In view of this determined policy of the government which led immediately to the plowing up of wheat and cotton, the wholesale slaughter of pigs, cows, and sheep, and prohibited either the enlargement of existing factories or the construction of new factories.

From the Department of Agriculture the Product Capacity Commission learned what a normal diet for the average American ought to be.

Multiplying this standard individual diet by the total number of persons in the United States, the commission calculated what the total annual food requirements of this country really are.

There is an actual deficiency in milk production in the United States amounting to 26,967,000,000 pounds of milk.

Only in the case of flour and cereals, potatoes, beans, peas, nuts, lard and bacon, was there any surplus.

"In other words," says Mr. Doane, "in this land of plenty, where two suits of clothes per year might be a reasonable expectation, the American ability—with existing plant equipment and material capacities taken into consideration—disclosed a deficiency of some 66 million suits of clothes."

In the light of these disclosures, two conclusions are fairly obvious. First, it is evident that a large proportion of our population is existing on next to nothing.

It would seem that what the United States needs most is greater production, more work, and better distribution.

RESTRAINT AT TANNENBERG

From the time that he first began to make strong speeches in Munich, just after the war, until his very recent repudiation of a ten-year truce to frontier disputes with Poland, one of the most and most highly advertised articles of Chancellor Hitler's creed was that the expansion of the German people must in the future be eastward, as it was in the Middle Ages, at the expense of the Slavs.

Adolf Hitler is familiar enough with the story of the Teutonic Knights to feel that the Nazis are their successors and that it is their mission to carry on the eastern campaigns which the Teutonic knights brought to an abrupt end 600 years ago.

After that they settled down in their homes as the junkers that they have ever since been, important industrialists, and farmers from the Low Countries to take the place of the Teutonic knights.

OLD PAUL'S CALL FOR PRESIDENCY HELD HIGH HOPES

Monarchists Thought They Soon Would Be Returned To Power

BERLIN, Aug. 11.—(AP)—When Field Marshal Paul von Hindenburg, retired, was called upon by the old German nationalists to give up his ease in Hanover and run for the presidency, there were gloomy prophecies by socialists and democrats and apocalypticists in other countries that his election would be the way for restoration of the Hohenzollerns.

And simultaneously the monarchists, whose hopes still ran high in those days, went around figuratively rubbing their hands and smilingly awaiting each other that their time was coming.

It can be told now that one of the candidate's closest advisors said confidentially, while the campaign was on:

"It will take only two months after Hindenburg's election to re-establish the monarchy."

But Hindenburg, who as a youthful "shavetail" had witnessed proclamation at Versailles of the German empire in 1871 and for 50 years had served faithfully his imperial masters, fooled friend and foe alike.

Once he had taken the oath to obey the federal constitution he became the greatest single factor in preserving the republic.

"Everything in order and according to law" was a shibboleth of the veteran. It stood out in all his actions, both as a soldier and statesman.

Except for him, Hitler's exuberant national socialism might have tried to come into power without awaiting victory at the polls.

Hitler, in March, 1932, went to call on Hindenburg with his followers predicting that he would give the old man a piece of his mind, but he came away much subdued, impressed, in fact, with the necessity of keeping his movement within legal limits.

Foreign diplomats have testified that the more fact that Hindenburg lived was an asset to Germany in international relations.

But through those years diplomats here and statesmen in other capitals learned that there was a true balance-wheel governing the German machinery in the person of the sturdy old president.

Many Protestant Ministers Rebel At Hitler Oath

BERLIN, Aug. 11.—(AP)—Many clergymen are rebelling against swearing fealty to Chancellor Hitler, declaring that the German ruler seeks to place himself above God and church.

The law requiring churchmen to take oath of "fidelity and obedience" to Hitler is one of several enacted Thursday by the National Synod.

It is part of the Nazi program of a unified Protestant church. Representatives of Bavarian, Wuertemberg, and Hanover state churches protested the passage of the law.

Those who refuse the oath face the same fate as Mueller has absolute authority over church matters.

The opposition maintains that the oath mixes things spiritual and temporal and makes it possible every refusal to obey his orders as disobedience to Germany's dictator Hitler.

University City Has Population Of 13,423

GAINESVILLE, Aug. 11.—The total population of Gainesville and its immediate residential environs is now 13,423, it was announced Thursday by the C. L. Coy Directory Service upon the completion yesterday of their canvass for the forthcoming directory of this city and other Alachua county communities.

C. L. Coy, president of the service, said that all figures were based upon an actual canvass of the territory covered and that he did not believe "the total population figure is off more than fifty people."

Mrs. Lottie M. Smith Gives Talk On Youth

Speaking to a small but enthusiastic group of persons representing various young people's organizations of Sanford, Mrs. Lottie M. Smith, of Tampa, a representative of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, was heard last night at the Methodist Church Annex. She chose for her topic, "Youth Holds the Key to the Situation of Today."

Reviewing the days before the advent of Prohibition, Mrs. Smith presented a summary of what organized youth is doing throughout the United States since the movement for repeal has begun. Her talk was followed by an open forum and later a social hour was enjoyed.

Detective Mystery Is Milane's Film Fare

"The Thin Man," Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer-Cosmopolitan picture which opens Sunday at the Milane Theater, is one of the best uddly-wood pictures to come out of Hollywood in many a long day. A detective mystery, it presents William Powell in the finest and most amusing sleuthing role of his career, ably assisted by charming Myrna Loy as his wife, Nora.

Maureen O'Sullivan does well with her role as Dorothy, the daughter of the "Thin Man," who is responsible for all the mystery in the story. Minna Gombell, usually seen in comedy roles, appears in the new picture in a highly emotional part and puts it over in splendid order, while Nat Pendleton at last has become a law-abiding citizen in a police officer's character.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCH

"SPIRIT" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, Aug. 12.

The Golden Text is from Zechariah 4:6, "This is the word of the Lord unto Zerubbabel, saying, Not by might, nor by power, but by my spirit, saith the Lord of hosts."

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "It is the spirit that quickeneth; the flesh profiteth nothing; the words that I speak unto you, they are spirit, and they are life" (John 6:33).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "The admission that there can be material substance requires another admission,—namely, that Spirit is not infinite and that matter is self-creative, self-existent, and eternal. From this it would follow that there are two eternal causes, warring forever with each other; and yet we say that Spirit is supreme and all-presence. The belief of the eternity of matter contradicts the demonstrations of life as Spirit, and leads to the conclusion that if man is material he originated in matter and must

"What will we have to go with it?"
IT'S comparatively simple to choose the meat dish for a meal. Roast beef, baked ham, chops, or chicken are always welcome. But what should be served with the meat to prevent monotony—that's the question.
Of course you can turn to the cook-books for suggestions. For other timely ideas—food suggestions that are in season and within your price range—turn to the pages of your daily newspaper. There you will find tasty, colorful fresh vegetables and fruits displayed; appetizing variety in canned and packaged foods; delectious desserts that are easy to make; crispy, healthful breakfast cereals, beverages that are appropriate for both young and old.
As a matter of fact you'll be pleasantly surprised at the variety of foods offered in this newspaper. By reading the advertisements before you shop, you will be better able to plan interesting meals.

U. S. TREASURY FACING HUGE FINANCE JOB

Attitude Of Federal Reserve System Is Seen As Holding An- swer To Financing

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13. (AP)—The Federal Reserve System's attitude toward buying government bonds assumed growing importance today as the Treasury faced a $1,700,000,000 job of September financing.

With its long term three percent government bonds selling below par, the government must meet the $1,700,000,000 of called and maturing obligations next month.

Percent weakness of the government bond market has created new problems in connection with the Sept. 15th financing.

These were presumably discussed Saturday when Governor Black of the federal reserve board conferred with President Roosevelt.

Unless the bond market's view of government credit improves, it is conceivable that the attitude of reserve banks toward acquisition of the nation's obligations may be of increasing consequence.

Reserve banks cannot be compelled to buy government bonds. Reserve banks' holdings of government bonds remained virtually stationary, around $2,300,000,000 since November, 1933, but in the six months before that the system absorbed the market by buying $600,000,000.

Wallace Ends Citrus Marketing Agreement

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13. (AP)—The marketing agreement and license for the citrus fruit industry of Florida was terminated today by Secretary Wallace.

A hearing on a new marketing agreement will be held tomorrow at Orlando.

The Farm Administration said the Control Committee operating under the old license will continue to function as a liquidating agency and must render a report to a person or agency named by the Secretary on the funds available and work accomplished.

Termination of the agreement and license will not relieve any licensee from any obligation incurred previous to today and will not relieve licensees from penalties for violations of provisions of the agreement.

At 11 was arousing his men preparatory to going shrimp. He sat down on the boat and complained that his heart hurt. A short time afterward he was missed, and could not be located. It was necessary to secure a shrimp from the New Smyrna docks, and more than an hour passed before dragging was begun.

MISS PERKINS DRAWS FIRE OF LEGIONNAIRES

California Group Has Criticism For Her Handling Of Aliens

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 13. (AP)—Censure of Secretary of Labor Perkins for "failure to proceed with deportation proceedings" was sought yesterday as the California department of the American Legion began a drive for stricter enforcement of laws against subversive elements.

Resolutions prepared for submission to the annual state convention, now in session here, recommended, in addition to censure of the secretary:

Transfer of the duty of deporting alien radicals from the Department of Labor to the Department of Justice, was tightening of the California "treason" statute.

Made public yesterday by A. Louis Belotti, chairman of a special Americanian committee named by Homer Challaux, state commander, each resolution cited "a series of events of strife and violence" which have "swept this nation, incited and prolonged by the communist party and its affiliated organizations."

The resolution naming Miss Perkins recommends:

"That this convention does censure Madame Secretary Perkins for her inactivity, lack of interest and failure to proceed with deportation proceedings (against alien radicals) and for the further fact that by reason of such inactivity x x x she extends to and gives (Continued On Page Four)

Snake Bitten Cleric Again Tests "Faith"

ERASTUS, N. C., Aug. 13.—The Rev. Albert Teeter, who allowed himself to be bitten twice by a rattlesnake last Sunday, demonstrated the healing power of "Divine Love" yesterday by walking three miles to preach a sermon.

The 39-year-old minister of the Church of God arose from his bed in his cabin high in the Cullowhee Mountains of Western North Carolina—more than 20 miles from a railroad or paved highway—and tramped the three miles to the partly-finished church here.

The congregation was the same that a week ago saw the preacher pick up a rattlesnake from a box and let it bite him twice on the arm.

The swelling and discoloration still were apparent. There were purple-black blotches on the under side of the preacher's right arm where the snake's fangs had struck.

U. S. BUSINESS SHOWS SIGNS OF REVIVAL

Demand For Retail Merchandise Hold- ing Up Above This Period Last Summer

NEW YORK, Aug. 13. (AP)—The nation's business, still in the grip of the summer lull, showed traces of revival during the past week, although the latest upward impulse of autumn was yet to be felt.

While business men continued to worry over the effects of the drought, many were agreeably surprised to find the demand for merchandise at retail over most of the country holding well above this time last year.

Dun and Bradstreet's weekly survey said the dollar volume of goods moving over retailers' counters held at 5 to 25 percent in excess of August of 1933, according to reports from most localities, and that the amount of business in wholesale markets rose to close to the best of the year.

The automobile industry has shown surprising vitality this summer, with retail sales maintaining a fair volume well into August, in contrast to the usual abrupt decline at this time of year. Cream estimated last week's output of automobiles and trucks at 67,530 units, a recession of only 1012 from the previous week and 8676 in excess of the like week of last year.

The home renovation drive, which is to get under way in earnest during the remainder of this month, is being awaited with high hopes. Lumber production has picked up considerably and cement makers are operating in excess of last year.

On the other hand, a wide range of industries, both heavy and light, and operating at levels substantially under this time in 1933. Not the trend in August of last year was sharply downward, as that modest recovery in coming weeks may soon bring most of the 1934 trend line on the charts back above 1933 once more.

Of the principal weekly statistical barometers, the freight car loadings report was perhaps the most encouraging. A gain of 2450 cars over the previous week was shown. That was up only 0.4 percent, but it was contrary to the seasonal trend, and it was accounted for chiefly by increased merchandise shipments, although the movement of livestock from drought areas was also evidently a factor. The total came within 9184 cars (Continued On Page Four)

Augustus Thomas, Noted Author, Dies

NEW YORK, Aug. 13. (AP)—Augustus Thomas, dean of American playwrights, died of a stroke of apoplexy at the suburban Clarkstown Country Club yesterday. He was 72 years old.

Mr. Thomas, who had been in failing health for the past three years, died in his apartment. Mrs. Thomas was with him at the end.

Known principally for his historical plays of the American scene, the veteran writer became for three years, 1922 to 1925, the director of all elements of the theatrical producing industry, a position comparable to that of Will H. Hays in the motion picture business.

In 1926, an outspoken wet himself, Mr. Thomas launched an anti-prohibition play entitled "Still Waters."

Heat Wave Still Has Grip On Mid-Continent

Showers over the week-end did little to relieve excessively high temperatures in Kansas, Missouri, and Oklahoma, center of the heat belt, and additional fatalities were reported.

Fons Hathaway Will Direct Housing Campaign In State; Green Hopeful Over Program

Former Head Of Road Department Handed Office Paying From $4500 To $6800 Year

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13. (AP)—Regional, state and district directors were named yesterday to inject impetus into the Federal Housing Administration's campaign to modernize millions of homes and commercial buildings.

Fons A. Hathaway was appointed state director for Florida.

At the same time, James A. Moffett, housing administrator, told reporters he did not "look for any general reduction whatever" in prices of building materials.

"There has been the general impression," Moffett said, "that to start the campaign a bargain price might be named. With few exceptions I believe prices are reasonable and generally below the 1926 level."

The new directors, the administrator said, were selected primarily for sales promotion activity. They will contact local communities through chambers of commerce, women's and civic clubs to tell home owners how and why they should borrow for home modernization.

"It will be purely a local effort steered by the directors," Moffett asserted.

Moffett implied that political considerations did not govern the choice of the directors, pointing out that a lot of financial institutions are run by Republicans and many Republicans are home owners.

In some places, he said, he thought Republicans were needed to "loosen up" the program.

Thirty of the new directors are state directors also of the National Emergency Council. The appointments were made by Donald R. Rieberg, head of the NEC, with the concurrence of Moffett.

While they get their pay from $4,500 to $6,800 each through the NEC, the funds are supplied by the Housing Administration which retains full authority over the directors.

Vote Against Hitler Is Held As Treason

BERLIN, Aug. 13. (AP)—Equipped with blunt accusation that "who votes against Hitler is an enemy of the people" the Nazi propaganda organization Sunday marshaled its forces for a week of tremendous vote seeking on the eve of the Aug. 19 plebiscite.

In full control of the press and radio to begin with, the propaganda units will employ every modern means of solidifying public favor for Chancellor Hitler's assumption of the Reich's presidential powers.

RESCUE PARTY SUCCESSFUL IN FINDING BYRD

Balked By Heavy Sleet, Snow Drifts, Men Finally Reach Isolated Explorer

LITTLE AMERICA, Antares, Aug. 13. (AP)—A three-man tractor party, after two unsuccessful attempts, Saturday reached the isolated explorer.

Admiral Richard E. Byrd, who was found alive and well by a party from his South polar expedition base camp yesterday despite his five months of solitary confinement.

Thin and weak and with long shaggy hair after nearly five months of isolated existence, Admiral Byrd mounted the hatch of his shack sunk in snowdrifts to greet the men from Little America.

"Hello fellows," he said. "Come on down and get warm. I have some hot soup for you."

For three days Dr. Richard E. Byrd and two other members of the expedition had struggled across the dark impenetrability of the ice barrier in a tractor hauling three sledges. Two previous attempts to reach Admiral Byrd were halted, one by storms which covered up the trail and another by mechanical difficulties.

It is 123 miles by trail to following advance weather base, where on Mar. 28 Admiral Byrd saw another human face for the last time. The route taken by Dr. Byrd to find the location again was believed to have been even longer.

The light on the 12 foot antenna pole which Admiral Byrd had hung and kept burning for days as a beacon for the tractor party was still burning.

Admiral Byrd had several days' growth of beard on his face and showed signs of weariness and physical depletion, but Dr. Byrd reported by radio that the admiral was calm, "even calmer than we were."

The high-pitched voice of the radio carried news of the party's arrival to Little America Saturday morning. It was like a bright shaft of light to this expedition, which had begun to fear that Byrd might be in distress although reluctant to admit it.

Dr. Byrd was the first to report. He said Admiral Byrd was "quite weak." Later Byrd took the key away from Amory J. Waite, Jr., the tractor party's radio operator.

"Tell my friends not to worry," said the Admiral. "I'm all right. I've already come up a great ways. You fellows have done a splendid job and I want to thank you."

Dr. Byrd, Waite and E. J. Demas, who drove the tractor, for nearly 20 hours had been coaxing, wheeling and urging the strange vehicle into the darkness of the south. They were close to exhaustion.

Judging from the few terse messages reaching Little America, Byrd's weakness apparently grew out of a number of causes. Back in June he apparently was rendered quill ill by fumes from his kerosene stove.

MINNEAPOLIS TRUCK DRIVERS REJECT PEACE

Employers Make New Proposal, Says Haas; 400 Walkout Asking More Pay In Oregon

Minneapolis truck drivers rejected latest peace plans of federal mediators today, and Father Francis Hiza, conciliator, reported to Washington that the employers had submitted a new proposal.

Some 400 truck drivers walked out at Portland, Oregon demanding higher wages and improved working conditions. Employers asked the Labor Department to step in.

Both sides of the aluminum strike waited for Washington to move for a settlement.

Striking Florida mullet fishermen threatened yesterday to picket areas along the lower west coast where a small supply of fish was reported being sold by independent fishermen to small wholesale houses.

Omaha A. Clarke, of Naples, president of the Florida fish producers association announced pickets would be sent to the areas but no trouble was expected. He said the move was only to insure the price demand of the strikers by shutting off the supply until unanimous agreement is reached between dealers and fishermen.

At New Smyrna, three leading dealers were reported paying four cents a pound, one cent above the three cents a pound demanded by the strikers.

Keefe Objects To Acceptance Of Coupons

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 13.—Kenneth M. Keefe, New York chairman of the bondholders' committee, today questioned the authority of the city council in their action last Monday to continue a 30 percent discount on 1931 tax payments through acceptance of coupons on the basis of the resolution introduced by Councilman M. D. Weaver.

In a letter to Mayor R. G. Blanc, Chairman Keefe said: "I note from newspaper clippings that the city council has passed a resolution continuing the acceptance of coupons in payment of 1931 taxes on a 30 percent basis after Aug. 1."

"You undoubtedly recall the provision of the option dated Jan. 29, 1934, pursuant to the terms of which you acquired those coupons. We now desire to inquire under what provision of the option you believe that you are authorized to accept coupons on the basis just mentioned."
