Lake Mary Curtails Further Annexation

By J. RICHARDS
Herald Staff Writer

LAKE MARY — City Council Monday night closed the door on any discussion concerning the annexation of additional property into the city until the future of the city is decided by the voters July 30.

To the delight of 30 residents near the city's northwestern border, including two attorneys and a court reporter who was recording the session, council tabled a request by Sanford businessman Don Hattel to annex four parcels of land totaling around 200 acres.

"If the charter vote fails and the city continues, we'll still fight the annexation and zoning. I feel Lake Mary should get itself in order within its existing borders before moving out to get additional land," Fredrick said.

Council also failed to consider the annexation of 100 acres of property in the city's southeastern border adjoining U.S. 17-92 to the south crossing SR 427 to the north at the request of the Babcock Corporation. The city had already approved rezoning of 70 acres inside the city for Babcock's Planned Unit Development, with the 100 acres also going for PUD zoning for a 959 unit condominium apartment and patio home project that had sparked a heated controversy in this city of 2,400.

The Babcock proposal, which opponents say will cost the city too much in taxes before it begins to pay enough real estate taxes into the city to pay its share of growth-related expenses, also was a key issue in the charter recall petitions and vote.

Wade Hargadon, Babcock regional manager asked the city to delay the public hearing on the annexation until after the charter vote.

Council hired a part time policeman at $2.50 per hour for a 24 hour week to assist its police chief with routine patrols.

However, the man hired, Gayne Turner, 34, is on active duty at the Orlando Naval Training Center as a storekeeper, and council agreed to Chief Gerald Fitzgerald's recommendation to hire him with permission of his commanding officer.

Turner, a Sunland Estates resident, has a state certificate of completion of the 280 law enforcement course and is presently a part time police officer with Orlando.

Orlando Naval Training Center security office spokesman said Turner had permission to work for the Orlando Police Department from the base commanding officer, and saw no barrier to his accepting the position in Lake Mary.

Longwood Council Strips Jaques Of Power, Salary

By DONNA ESTES
Herald Staff Writer

LONGWOOD — City Council in little more than five minutes Monday night without objection from a packed audience held a public hearing and repealed Mayor Eugene Jaques' $10,000 annual salary and his administrative authority.

The action, anticipated since January when Councilmen Donald Scherier and June Lormann took office, was blocked for six months by the absence from meetings of the mayor's powers and authority.

Councilman B. H. Ferrell and B. L. Helms, voted against the move.

Jaques demanded and received on a vote of 4-1, with Scherier casting a negative vote, a request for an attorney general's opinion on the mayor's powers and authority.

Jaques said he has not made up his mind what course he will follow.

Joe Davis to find out from the attorney general councilman and the city clerk's powers and responsibilities.

Davis said he had refused a request from Jaques to seek the opinion, awaiting city council authorization.

Jaques, attending his first council meeting in several weeks, said he had faithfully performed his duties as pseudo city manager, charging that the new council majority since January had not permitted him to fulfill his executive responsibilities.

The repealing ordinances will not take effect until Jaques either signs or vetoes them. The city charter provides a mayor's veto can be overridden by a simple majority.

Davis has told councilmen that the charter does not give a deadline for Jaques to take action. He said that a "reasonable" time for consideration and action by Jaques would be 10 days. He admitted, however, that there is little, except for court action, that the city council can do if Jaques refuses to either approve or veto the ordinances.

Jaques said he has not made up his mind what course he will follow.

Blowflies, Mosquitos Invade Casselberry Near Turf Club

By DAVID BRYANT
Managing Editor

CASSELBERRY — Heavy rains and washed out streets have for the past two weeks prevented city crews from spraying mosquitoes and blowflies generated by compost heaps at the Seminole Turf Club.

"I've got just as many of them (blowflies) around my house as you do," Leighty said, "and I don't like it either."

Councilman Edith Duerr said it is necessary to spray quickly because standing water ponds make ideal breeding places for mosquitos.

However, there probably will be no more night time fogging, Hug explained, because $2,000 allocated earlier this year for that purpose has been switched to another fund, which means the spraying will be done only during the day.

Mosquitos are most troublesome in the afternoon and night, when the day's heat has diminished.

Council also heard several residents complain about proposed changes in the expansion project at Land O' Lakes Country Club.

Mrs. Alice Miller, 229 Shadow Hollow Lane, vented her displeasure about a planned lake that SMD developers want to put 20 feet from her back property line.

"I just don't believe you'd do that to me," said Mrs. Miller never been told about a lake going in, and expressed fears it might overflow and flood her property.

Other residents objected to the erection of tennis courts and handball courts on golf course land that fronts a residential area.

The developers agreed to delete from the plans presented to council the two courts and to seek a settlement with the homeowners who complained.

At one point Chairman Tom Embree, who said he has always objected to the site of the proposed courts, challenged the developers' representatives to explain why councilmen were receiving complaints about the courts after being assured by the developers that they had contacted all property owners and no objections existed.

One SMD official said, "I don't know." He then added he will "check on it."

The governor and his running mate for lieutenant governor, Sen. Jim Williams will spend most of the afternoon in Seminole County with stops scheduled for Sanford and Longwood.

The first step on the trip will be a speech before the Sanford Kiwanis Club at the Civic Center at noon, a meeting with the Seminole County Democratic Advisory Committee, an interview with Herald reporters and editors and, finally, at 2:30 p.m. a tour of the Central Florida Zoo near 17-92 near I-4.

Askew will wind up his tour of Sanford with a visit to Longwood for a reception by the Women's Club of Seminole County at Longwood Inn.

There were 28 members at this meeting who heard John Carl, membership chairman, report 178 new members were recruited this year, in addition to 364 membership renewals accounting for 238,661 in dues.

Horner also advised area residents to be on the alert for a fraudulent scheme being peddled presently in the Fort Myers area involving a "black box" which purportedly reduces electric bills by leveling electric surges.

The box costs $100, and although the UL label is prominently displayed, Underwriters Lab has no information and no schedule for examination.

The circuit in the box is not connected to anything.

recovered by Bernosky and Hanna.

The tentative budget called for $171,968 for the Police Department, $73,541; Fire Department; $40,810; Road and Bridge; $76,500; office; $13,576.75; court system; $24,246; Planning and Zoning; $41,000; finance.

Council approved including the coming year's budget plans for putting city employees on Social Security and initiating a pension plan with employee-city participation. To be eligible for the pension plan employees must have worked for the city for two or more years.

Mayor Troy Piland suggested the department heads come to the 7 p.m. workshop next Monday with proposed budget cuts.

Told last week that all police vehicles were either "dead or dying," Council acted to meet the emergency by accepting the $11,073.72 bid by Bert Smith American Motors for three vehicles. The vehicles will be financed with Southeast National Bank at Maitland over 13 months.

More flooding problems were cited in The Terrace where washouts have occurred on Sweet Gum Court and Cedarwood Court. Water from Gies Creek caused the Sweet Gum Court washout where dirt is being washed away from under a swimming pool.

W. Springs Must Pare Big Budget

By JANE CASSELBERRY

WINTER SPRINGS — It's back to the drawing board for the architects of Winter Springs' budget for the 1974-75 fiscal year.

When adding up the totals for the tentative budget Monday night City Council discovered that budgeted spending was almost double projected income.

Expenditures budgeted for the various city departments totaled $441,330.75, while, even with anticipated revenue from a three mill ad valorem tax, income only came to $204,882. This left a deficit of $236,448.75.

WALL STREET

Mention Wall Street to the man on the street and you're most likely going to get a glazed stare. If the conversation becomes technical in even the slightest sense.

That's wrong, according to Louis Rubikewsky, host of "Wall Street Week," one of the most popular programs on public television.

To explain why The Herald is presenting a five-part series adapted from Rubikewsky's new book, "How To Make Money In Wall Street."

The editors feel that this entertaining series will help break forever the mystique surrounding the world of high finance and out it into its proper perspective: that a little caution can yield profits to the wise investor.

The series is simple to read and understand, and if the critics are right, a lot of people turning to the market today are hearing with their more knowledge than most first-time investors.

Money Is There For The Wise Investor

Investment is the most important information on the price of your stocks and bonds. It is the information that tells you whether the dividends they pay out, you are plainly building more for the future if you put those dividends to work in the form of additional shares of stock.

Too often the new investor gets hung up on dividends. If one stock is paying a 7 per cent dividend and another is paying 2 per cent, he's likely to head straight for that big 7 per cent one. Usually, he will be wrong to do so.

(Wall Street expresses that figure as "yield.") To find out what a stock is "yielding," divide the annual dividend by the current price of a single share.)

Almost invariably, the higher the yield the lower the growth. The companies whose stock prices rise the fastest seldom pay dividends. The return is in the form of the current price of a single share.)

Another discipline that the typical stock-market beginner ought to impose on himself is the realization that he is not equipped for success as an "in-and-out trader." This means that you're not going to be constantly buying and selling stock in an effort to outguess the professionals for a few points here and there. That is a losing game for most people even after years of experience.

Here's a tip you may find distasteful. Don't spend your dividends. Reinvest them at the first available opportunity. Since

Sex-Murder Trial

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP)—"I killed several of them myself with Dean's gun and helped him choke some others. Then we would take them and bury them in different places." So reads a statement Elmer Wayne Henley, an 18-year-old high school dropout, gave police after his arrest in connection with the slaying of 27 young men in the Houston mass murders case. The statement, taken last Aug. 9 by police in the Houston suburb of Pasadena, was read into the court record Monday as testimony in the Texas state murder trial, being held here on a charge of venue. Henley is charged with six of the slayings and is being tried with six of the slayers.

Mitchell To Testify

WASHINGTON (AP)—Former Attorney General John N. Mitchell will appear before the House Judiciary Committee as White House lawyer James D. St. Clair keeps the impeachment inquiry focused on a $5,000 payment to Watergate burglar E. It was believed this was Franco's second hospitalization since he injured his left hand in a hunting accident in 1961. He has suffered several attacks of flu, but never was hospitalized for them.

High Court Deliberating On Exec Privilege

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Supreme Court has begun deliberations—based on 450 pages of briefs, three hours of oral argument and a file including still-secret material—on President Nixon's Watergate claim of executive privilege. A lawyer for special Watergate prosecutor Leon Jaworski, Philip Lacovara, asked the court in a historic hearing Monday to "explicitly, decisively and definitively" uphold a lower court order directing Nixon to produce records of 64 White House conversations.

But the President's attorney, James D. St. Clair, said the court "ought to stay its hand," at least until its impeachment proceedings have run their course. St. Clair also continued presenting witnesses in the House Judiciary Committee's impeachment inquiry. St. Clair questioned former Nixon re-election official Frederick C. LaRue in an effort to discredit a charges that Nixon approved a $75,000 payment to Watergate burglar E. Howard Hunt Jr.

Jaworski, arguing that the Watergate grand jury had the authority to name the President an undisclosed conspirator in the Watergate cover-up, said the question is important because "it does relate to the relevance of the proof that we are seeking."

Eight justices heard arguments and will decide the case. Justice William H. Rehnquist disqualified himself because he is a former assistant to Mitchell, one of the defendants in the Watergate cover-up trial.

Lebanese Fishing Boats Sunk By Israeli Flotilla

By The Associated Press

The Israeli navy shelled three fishing boats in southern Lebanon, sinking them and a score of fishing boats in retaliation for the Palestinian guerrilla raid by sea two weeks ago on Nahariya.

The Israeli military command said it had "numerous indications" that the terrorists were preparing more seaborne attacks. The command said its raid on the ports was intended to "disrupt the preparations and warn against the use of these harbors" by the guerrillas.

Israel said the Monday night attack was "limited in scope," and every attempt was made to avoid injuries to civilians. The Lebanese government reported one casualty, a civilian wounded by an explosion in Sidon.

The Lebanese defense ministry reported 21 fishing boats sunk, 10 at Tyre, 10 at Sarafand and one at Sidon. An Israeli spokesman claimed about 30 sunk, or about 10 in each port. Tyre is 20 miles farther south, and Sarafand is midway between.

The Palestine guerrilla headquarters in Beirut said Israeli frogmen blew up wooden jetties at Tyre, but the Israeli announcements made no mention of this.

The Israelis said the attack was made by a flotilla of gunboats but did not say how many. The Lebanese defense ministry said Israeli helicopters also dropped leaflets warning the population against cooperating with the Palestinian guerrillas.

"We are warning you," the leaflets said. "You have the choice between peace or trouble... We know that they are planning additional operations from your harbors. It is up to you."

Lebanon said its coastal artillery returned the Israeli fire and drove the gunboat back. The Palestinians said guerrillas cooperated with the Lebanese army in driving off the raiders.

Canadians Ehrlichman Disavows Breakin Knowledge Back On Top

WASHINGTON (AP)—John D. Ehrlichman has testified he had no idea the White House plotters were planning an illegal burglary when he approved a covert operation to tamper with the file of Daniel Ellsberg's psychiatrist.

The former White House domestic affairs chief either challenged or said he had forgotten every single element of the prosecution's case during his testimony Monday in the plumbier trial.

With five hours on the stand behind him, Ehrlichman is a to-be violating the civil rights of Dr. Lewis J. Fielding, a psychiatrist treating Daniel Ellsberg at the time the former Pentagon analyst leaked the Pentagon Papers to the press.

On the stand, Ehrlichman seemed controlled and unshaken by the accusations of conspiracy and lying to the FBI and a grand jury. His trial is in its ninth day.

He gestured confidently and answered questions by speaking directly to the jury of six men and six women.

U.S. District Judge Gerhard A. Gesell, however, found the conduct of many of Ehrlichman's responses to be lacking.

"This man is not able to answer specific questions directly. He gives very rambling answers," Gesell said in a long, detailed questioning that he ordered special White House counsel Charles W. Colson to raise $5,000 which went to finance the break-in and that he okayed the Ellsberg burglary just four days before it was carried off.

He testified Monday he had no recall of any of those events.

Drummond Not To Seek Reelection

County Commissioner Greg Drummond, announced today he will not seek re-election in November.

Appointed by then Gov. Claude Kirk in March, 1969 to lead the unexpired term of Robert Tope, who resigned, and subsequently re-elected in 1970, Drummond during his more than five years in office was elected by his colleagues as chairman in 1971 and 1972.

"I will not be running for re-election," Drummond said. "The duties of the office conflict with family responsibilities. When I made this decision several months ago, I began attempting to encourage the League of Civic Associations to provide their candidate. Unfortunately this has not occurred."

"I appreciate the opportunity of having been in service," he said.

Longwood Seeks Flood Solution

By DONNA ESTES Herald Staff Writer

LONGWOOD—City council has tentatively set a P.M. July 17 workshop with the county commission to discuss a solution to the South Island Lake flooding which the city has been accused of creating.

A property owner at the southwest corner of the lake last weekend threatened the city with court action, contending with the city approved construction of Winsor Manor Dr. Dr. Drummond called Palm's remarks a "cheap cop out," saying, "I know Palm's track record." He went on to infer that Palm's engineering has been responsible for Spring Lake pollution from the Altamonte Springs sewer plant.

Drummond added that the city could open a canal to Crane's Road to relieve the south lake flooding, "but I do not think Altamonte Springs would like that."

The action came after consulting engineer Bill Palm and County Commissioner Greg Drummond held horns over where responsibility for the flooding should be placed.

Palm said the city approved a concept directing drainage from the lake to the north on the one side of SR 434 and to the south on the other by County Engineer Bill Bush. Drummond during his more than five years in office was elected by his colleagues as chairman in 1971 and 1972.

"I will not be running for re-election," Drummond said. "The duties of the office conflict with family responsibilities. When I made this decision several months ago, I began attempting to encourage the League of Civic Associations to provide their candidate. Unfortunately this has not occurred."

"I appreciate the opportunity of having been in service," he said.

Bush recommended that overflow from south Island Lake be diverted from its northward course.

its fight to the State Department of Transportation for signalization and gates at city railroad crossings were accidents have occurred recently.

Milton Smith, SCL trainmaster, said the DOT sets priorities for signals and gates installations statewide and that once installed the railroad provides maintenance and power costs.

Drummond warned that the city would be expected to pay $20,000 each for signals placed at intersections with city streets, but that the state should pick up the cost for a new SR 434 signal and gate.

In other action, council: — Denied a lot frontage size variance requested by Gilbert Construction Co. for its planned 30-home Villagewood subdivision near First Place and 13th Street. Al Clark III, county vice president, said that despite threats from adjacent property owners in county territory and a neighboring city that the matter may wind up in the courts.

St. Laurent agreed to provide a five-foot-tall earthen berm landscaped with trees for 500 feet to screen the proposed industrial park from nearby homes.

— Approved purchase of a $1,546 diesel pump to be used in flooding areas. The equipment will be paid for by federal revenue sharing money.

— Turned down a request for a 12-by-25 on billboard permit at West Lake and SR 44. Davis warned that the city might have difficulty defending a court challenge on the permit refusal since it has no ordinance to back up the action.

— Agreed to include a request for a bicycle path on Grant Street from Rosealea to Marvin in a state-sponsored program with the county.

ATLANTIC BANKS ARE TELLING FORTUNES.

If the future of your investments has you worried, put your fortune in the hands of a teller at the Atlantic Bank. She'll look into the future and tell you exactly what will happen to your fortune when you invest in Atlantic Bank Certificates of Deposit.

You'll find that when you invest $1,000 in a four year Certificate of Deposit, the future is crystal clear. Your principal is completely safe. Your interest rate of 7 1/4 percent is guaranteed. Interest is compounded daily and you can decide whether you want your interest to be paid monthly, quarterly or semi-annually. Or you can leave the interest on deposit to compound continuously. That would give you an effective annual yield of 7.52%... and a $336.39 return on your original investment at the end of the full four year period. And this is just one of many Certificates of Deposit with a future that can be tailored to fit your particular investment needs. And you can take your money out at any time, but Federal law requires that your interest be reduced to the highest possible passbook savings rate and a forfeiture of three months interest.

Put your money in Certificates of Deposit at the Atlantic Banks and uncertainties are never in the future of your fortune.

SEE A TELLER ABOUT YOUR FORTUNE'S FUTURE.

Insurance Needs Call Blair And Compare

Did you know that anyone who owns, operates, maintains or uses a motor vehicle in the State of Florida will be required to show proof of liability insurance in order to pass vehicle inspection?

Motorcycles must be covered as well as automobiles.

This new law was passed by the 1973 General Session of the legislature in order to protect the driving public from the financial disaster that may result from an accident.

Many people have ignored the Financial Responsibility Law already on the books. Now, it will be necessary for the motorist to show proof of proper insurance at the time of the annual motor vehicle inspection.

Some motorists have neglected to get this important protection because of the cost. At Blair Agency, after a reasonable down payment, the insurance premium can be financed with low monthly payments.

The Blair Agency invites you to compare their prices before you buy.

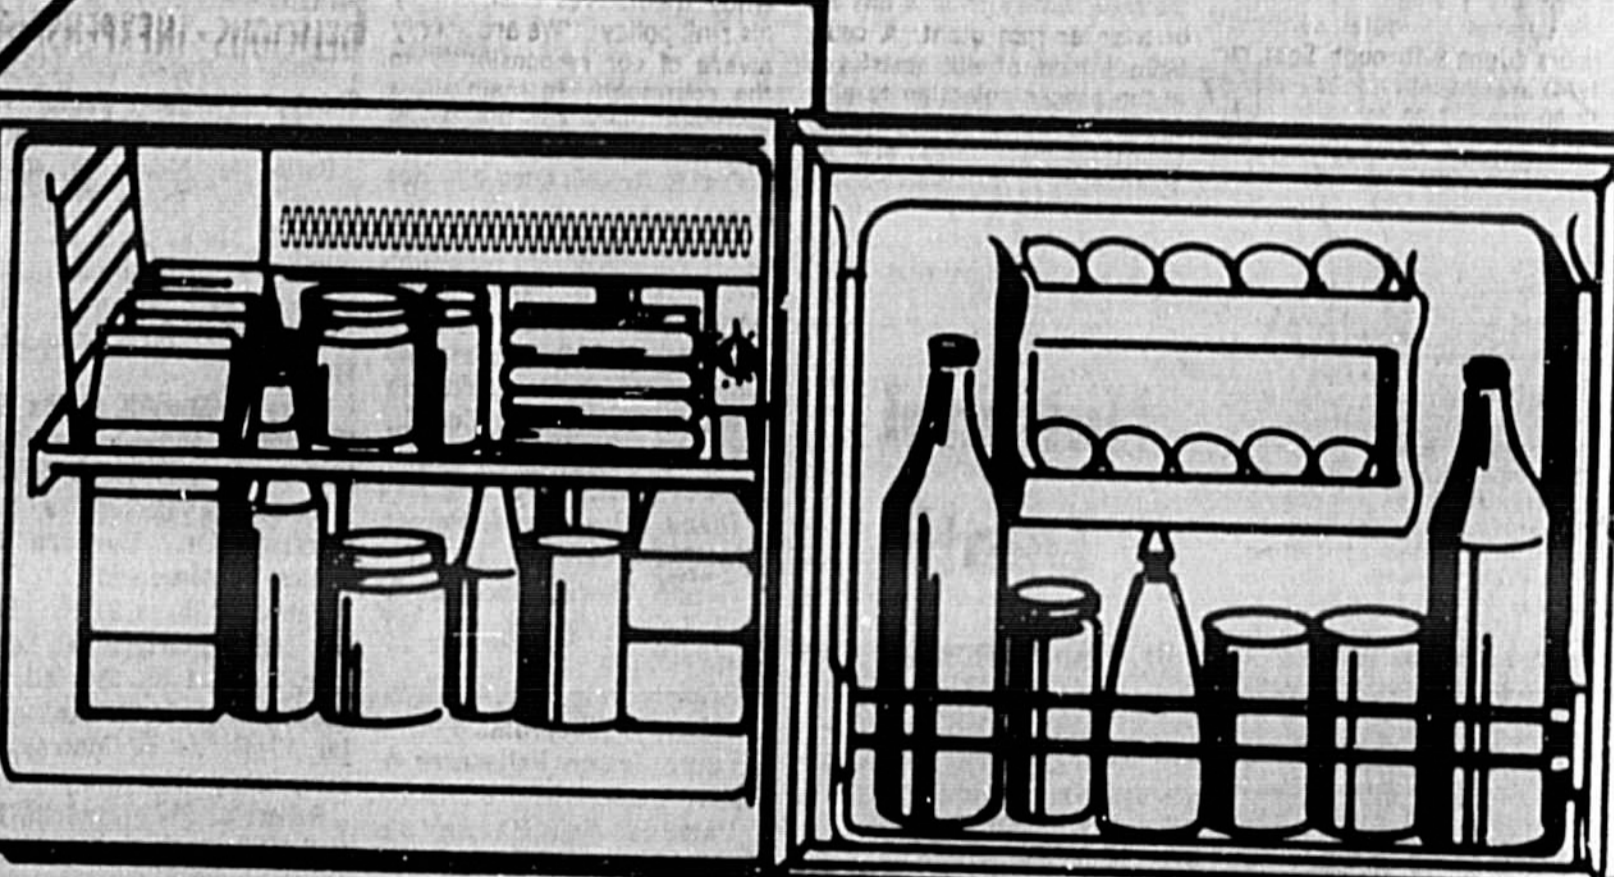

The Blair Agency specializes in helping young drivers ages 16 through 25, with good or poor driving records. They can also place those motorists who have had accidents and needed an SR-22 filing to keep their driver's license. They offer competitive rates to those drivers over 25 with clean records.

The Blair Agency is now located at 202 S. Park Ave., Sanford, and have hours to suit you. They are — Monday through Thursday 9-5, Friday 9-6, and Saturday 9-12. Phone 323-3864 and 323-7710 — ADV.

Wooden Nickels OK In Tenino, Wash.

POMONA, Calif. (AP) — congressional approval for the first legal wooden nickel issued in the United States.

The Tenino money, O'Carthy explains, was in the form of bills.

"The money was made by laminating two thin slices of wood to a sheet of bond paper."

Because the money was made of flexible cut spruce and was roughly the same rectangular shape as paper money, Tenino citizens could carry it in their wallets.

It wasn't until 1933, though, that a legal wooden nickel was issued. The bank in Blaine failed that year, and the citizens there followed the lead of Tenino and issued wooden money.

At Skate City Summer Fun And Exercise

SUMMER FUN AND GOOD EXERCISE . . . Skate City located between Sanford and Orlando off Dog Track Rd.

Are you finding it difficult discovering something to do with your spare summer time? Skate City, located between Sanford and Orlando off Highway 17-92 on Dog Track Road has skating activities designed to put excitement into your dragging summer schedule.

On Thursday, July 25, Skate City will hold an all day Skate-A-Thon (all day skating) from 9:30 a.m. - 4:00 p.m. More of these are planned throughout the summer. Regular summer hours (June 9 through Sept. 2, 1974) are: Monday, 9:30 a.m. to 12:00 noon, 7:30 to 10:30 p.m. (at least one parent must accompany their children for special Family Discount Rate); Tuesday, Private and Special parties only; Wednesday, 1:00 to 4:00 p.m., 7:30 to 10:30 p.m.; Thursday, 9:30 a.m. to 12:00 noon, Thursday night, Private and Special parties only; Friday, 7:30 to 11:30 p.m., door prize every Friday night; Saturday, 9:30 to 11:30 a.m., 1:30 to 4:00 p.m., 7:30 to 11:00 p.m.; Sunday, closed all day.

At Skate City, you'll enjoy the healthy exercise of skating in one of the most modern Roller Rinks in all of Florida. The skating floor of the smoothest terrazzo is 80 ft. x 160 ft. in size, large enough to handle 700 skaters in comfort. You glide quietly over the floor in rhythm to the music from an ultra-modern sound system.

Skate City Roller Rink is managed by John Mikler, who is also part owner. His wife, Eleanor, helps out when needed, and there are three full time employees including four floor guards.

Select your skates in the new self-service rental skate room where 650 pairs of skates ensure that you can find a perfect fit to the shoe skate size of a tiny tot or a seven-foot giant. A courteous attendant will assist you in the proper selection to give you the fullest skating enjoyment. These skates are all equipped with precision wheels, and most are new, some with all new urethane wheels which give quieter and smoother skating. Of course, you may use your own skates and enjoy a saving.

Adjacent to the skate room is the large, well-stocked Snack Bar where you can refresh yourself with food, candy bars, soft drinks and poppies. There is also a sales room where roller skates are available in several price brackets, and skating accessories ranging from Pom Poms to skate cases and skis await your selection. Sturdy, picturesque wooden arches support the roof over the skating arena, and there are plenty of soft seats overlooking the floor where you can sit and watch the skaters whirling gracefully around to the strains of melodic music. There are 10 pinball machines for your amusement, and excellent lighting and railings around the skating floor for your safety. First aid service is available.

The determination of Mikler that Skate City Roller Rink continue to be a clean, wholesome place where all the family can enjoy themselves is shown by its rink policy: "We are keenly aware of our responsibility to the community to maintain a decorous place for the entire family. Our rules of conduct and dress are dictated by rules of good taste and safety, and are strictly enforced. We solicit the patronage of only those who wish to comply with them."

Special discount rates are available for: church, school, club or birthday party groups of 10 or more at any public skating session. For private party, groups must be at least 50 for matinees, and at least 100 for evenings.

There are class instructions for children from toddlers through age 12 every Saturday to teach fundamentals in proper roller skating.

Skating is good exercise. It strengthens your sense of balance. But most of all it's just plain FUN. For individual or family fun at its finest, plan a trip to Skate City Roller Rink. It's good for you, and it's fun, too. — ADV.

Mini-Billboards Spread Message

STAMFORD, Conn. (AP) — If a letter is a "vehicle" of communication, the postage meter slogan on its envelope is the bumper sticker.

These "mini-billboards" grace billions of envelopes each year, but there by postage meter users seeking to promote their products or services. The U.S. Postal Service also incorporates slogans with its postage cancellation stamps, but these tend to be mild — "Mail Early for Christmas" — compared to business slogans — "Only Love Beats Milk."

However, there are limits. Messages may not be obscene, libelous or false. Political slogans also are forbidden.

And controversial slogans must be identified by small type at the bottom as "Advertiser's Message" or "Mailers Message," according to Thomas F. McGarry, of Pitney

THINGS YOU ALWAYS WANTED TO ASK ABOUT HYPNOSIS BUT DIDN'T KNOW WHO TO ASK

QUESTION — IS A Psychosomatic illness a sign of a weak or unstable mind?

ANSWER — NO! Intellect or mental stability has no bearing on a person's susceptibility to psychosomatic illness (having no organic origin). Tension, worry, anxiety, etc., can and do produce physical symptoms that are just as real as those having an organic origin. Anesthetics, a great 19th century physical fraud, impregnation can fascinate and modify a man's body—either making him ill or "living" increase day by day, to show the incidence of a psychosomatic illness."

Dear Abby Stay Away From The Tender Trap

DEAR ABBY: Perhaps mine is a unique problem, yet I think not. My wife complains constantly that I never do anything around the house. She says "The people next door work together, painting, gardening, etc. and their place looks great. You never do a thing around here, and our place looks like a dump. All you want to do is play golf, or bring home extra work from the office." And she is right.

I know if the dog could talk, he would beg to put out of his misery. Please advise me. DOG TIED WITH RIBBON: I have complimented her on her housekeeping, and everything I can think of, but she never even says "Thank you."

I doubt if this could be of any help to me if it were printed. However, there must be other readers who could improve their family relations immensely by just learning to make seven clubs. So North's South was sure that North's void of six spades showed a pass of spades. If he also held both red aces, a grand slam would materialize. So he bid seven clubs.

West doubled. He was looking at two aces. West got greedy. He decided to open his ace of spades and wait for two diamond tricks.

This turned out to be a really expensive mistake. South ruffed in dummy; pulled trumps and made his grand slam since he was able to discard his one diamond on North's long heart and to ruff all his spades.

The bidding has been 9 West North East South Pass Pass Pass Pass 1A 5A 5A 6A 2A 2A 2A 7A 6A Pass Pass 7A 6A Pass Pass 7A 6A

Opening lead—A-6 The bidding of today's hand is typical of what happens in a free swinging rubber-bridge game. It starts out quietly enough and suddenly North jumps to five clubs. East doesn't have much of a hand, but he isn't going to let his vulnerable opponents play at five clubs. Of course, if East had passed the chances that West would have tried five diamonds all by himself.

Anyway, East bid five spades, South six clubs and West six spades. At this point North might have doubled. But North was one of those optimists who thought that maybe, just maybe his partner would have the right hand to EVANSTON, Ill. (AP)—The organized charities of Chicago could be the first casualty of the warfare between the 26 club owners of the National Football League and their striking veteran players.

THE TFOIFF: One west coast outfield star will be romancing and gazing himself right out of stardom unless he straightens up suddenly. Could have a lot to do with the club's managerial situation.

Q. The up and coming tight end from George Foreman and All is he fit to be tied. I say the heavyweight champion should receive more money than the challenger. My husband states that All's name will attract more people to the fight.

Q. Several years ago, four Cleveland Indian batters hit homers consecutively; is it record? Also Tony Cline hit two grand slams homers in one game. A pitcher, right? How many pitchers have not homers in their major league careers? —David Berman, Boston, Mass.

Q. Please answer, as our 1973 batting crown hangs in the balance. With runners at first and nobody, and the batter bunts to the third baseman who throws home late, all hands safe. My friend claims this should qualify at least as a sacrifice since the runner advanced if the contention is that the hitter was going for a base hit and it should be a fielder's choice. Isn't it a scorekeeper's judgment? —Hawk Herendeen, Fremont, Calif.

Q. Consulted with Joe Sargis of UPI, who is an official scorekeeper for the Giants and he agrees that it is a scorekeeper's judgment call. He must determine if the batter was going for a sacrifice or a base hit, with the game situation influencing the judgment. (e.g., if the batter's team was ahead by five runs, obviously he wasn't trying for a sacrifice.)

Paring shafts who's never been storious for picking them right, is on record as saying that Muhammad Ali no longer has the legs to stay away from the thunderous punches of George Foreman in their September tie fight.

Q. The Continentals will take the diamond against the Kistiminn Nationalists at 8 p.m. Tuesday. The other Kistiminn all-star entry will take on the victor at 8 p.m. Wednesday.

Each of the three pennant fighting teams in the Sanford Recreation League outdid several players to the three all star teams.

The big bats on the Nationals are Tico Perez with a .571 average, Justin Hunt with .500, and Carl Presley with .424, and Carl Presley with .424 Smith from the Medical Center team, while the other three boys are Railroaders.

For the Continentals, Mike Link is a double threat with his hitting and pitching abilities. In the playoffs, Link pitched a perfect game and knocked 20 shots over the fence for home runs including the playoffs.

practise and Miami doesn't show, there wouldn't be a game anyway," McKay said. Miami Coach Don Shula, in learning of the developments, said simply, "We'll have to wait and see what happens." He would continue practice sessions for rookies.

Meanwhile, two more Dolphins veterans crossed picket lines in Miami and joined practice on the sidelines. Young and wide receiver Charlie Wade, both on the taxi squad last season.

In the Dallas training camp at Thousand Oaks, Calif., four rookies left camp voluntarily. Coach Tom Landry said, "The attrition is not normal. When you get to two-days (practices), you find out quickly just how badly you want to play football." However, two of the rookies said they left camp because of the strike.

In Buffalo, O.J. Simpson, the NFL's most valuable player this season, said he will picket with the veterans Friday when the Bills open training camp. In New York, Jim Kensill, an aide to NFL Commissioner Pete Rozelle, said cancellation of the charity game could create knotty legal problems. "We have a contract with the charity, and our obligation as a league is to provide them with players. When the players signed their contract, they were obligated to play in the game."

Kensill also said the contract with Chicago Tribune Charities stipulates that if the players refuse to play in the game, they may not participate in any other preseason games. He said he was not sure, however, if the rule would apply in this situation and decided to discuss what he called the complex legal problems involved.

The NFL "can do the Tri wants to unilaterally cancel." The players' vote and the reaction by the Chicago Tribune Charities dealt the NFL a serious blow as the fledgling World Football League prepared to launch its initial season Wednesday night.

John Thompson, executive director of the NFLMC, said the owners would be willing to discuss modification of the reserve and option clauses and the Rozelle rule, all at issue.

The Funny Bounce Worries Lee, Jack

LYTHAM ST. ANNE'S, England (AP)—Jack Nicklaus and Lee Trevino agreed today that Royal Lytham can set up "funny bounces" that can drive a golfer to despair during the British Open Championship.

As light rain fell over the 6,822-yard links beside the Irish Sea, Nicklaus announced his personal scenario for the 72-hole test beginning Wednesday.

"I want to get a solid lead in the first round and just stay there, out in front," he said. "But those funny bounces are something to worry about."

Messersmith Handcuffs Phils, 4-0

BY ALEX SACHARE AP Sports Writer Always try to pitch a no-hitter. Let me see... I've been trying for 17 years, since I pitched one when I was 11 years old.

Elsewhere in the National League, the San Francisco Giants triumphed over the Montreal Expos 4-1 on Monday.

He'll get no argument from the Philadelphia Phillies, who were handcuffed 4-0 on just three hits Monday night before a national television audience.

Messersmith did not allow a base hit until the sixth inning. "Sure I was thinking of a no-hitter," he said. Then he added with a smile, "I was thinking no-hitter in the third inning."

Chicago and Cincinnati were not scheduled. In his last nine games, Messersmith has allowed just six earned runs for a minuscule 0.74 earned run average. He won five and lost one in that span, and the lone defeat was 1-0 on an unearned run.

Despite his success, Messersmith admitted that much from last season, when he was 14-10 with a 2.70 ERA.

Perry Two Outs Short Of Winning 16th Game

BY HERSHEL NISSENSON AP Sports Writer "It's all over," he said. The speaker was Gaylord Perry and those three little words told the whole story of Monday night's heartbreaking 4-3 no-hitting loss to the Oakland A's after the Cleveland Indians' right-hander came within two outs of tying the American League record of 16 consecutive pitching victories.

It was Perry's second loss and his first since opening day. Perry was trying to match the 16-win record set by Walter Johnson and Smokey Joe Wood in 1912 and equaled by Lefty Grove in 1931 and Schoolboy Rowe in 1934.
