

Many New Witnesses Quizzed In Oil Probe; Daugherty's Delayed

Expect Effort Will Be Made to Bring Sinclair Before Senate Bar on Contempt Charges for His Refusal to Testify Regarding Teapot Dome Leases — Reporter Says Telegram Is Untrue.

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Mar. 24.—Carmel Thompson, Cleveland, one of the Coolidge campaign managers held the oil committee had no knowledge of the oil deal at the Chicago convention. Harold Vivian, reporter on the New York Times said Joseph O'Neill, publicity man for Will Hays, gave him the story regarding the alleged Sinclair gift toward wiping out the Republican deficit. The telegram from O'Neill denying that he gave the story was denounced by Vivian as untrue. Martin J. Powers, Philadelphia, denied he was interviewed in the Teapot Dome and termed as "ignominious lies" the stories circulated about him. Michael Reilly, Philadelphia, denied some of Powers testimony. Some of the members of the committee anticipated an effort would be made in the senate to have the lessee of Teapot Dome hauled before the bar of the senate on contempt charges, but they said that in this case the controversy undoubtedly would result in court proceedings which would work out to the same purpose as the committee's recommendation.

Follows Two Possible Courses.

The decision to recommend that the case be given to the local authorities came after the committee had deliberated over two possible courses—that adopted an alternative plan to commit him to the custody of the sergeant at arms of the senate until he was ready to answer questions. It was decided that if the latter plan were followed, the operator undoubtedly would gain his liberty on a writ of error.

Harold Vivian, a reporter on the New York Times, will be called by the committee Monday. He will be questioned about a story he wrote for the Times stating it was understood Will Hays, former Republican national chairman, would tell the committee the report that 75,000 shares of Sinclair oil stock figured in the settlement of the committee's deficit was true. Mr. Hays, who was witness stand Saturday, denied any stock transaction had taken place, but said Sinclair had agreed to contribute $75,000 to the committee.

The committee denied not to call Joseph J. O'Neill, assistant to Mr. Hays, in his New York office, but will read a telegram from him denying he had given out the story of the stock transaction.

To Hear Coolidge Manager.

Carmel A. Thompson, of Ohio, one of the Coolidge managers, will be heard by the committee this week in an effort to clear up gossip that an "oil deal" figured in the deliberations at the Chicago convention in 1920, which nominated Warren G. Harding for president. Al Jennings, former Oklahoma train robber and now an evangelist, also is to be heard in connection with his assertions that a one million dollar fund Harding had nominated President Harding. Jennings is expected to arrive in Washington Tuesday and probably will be put on the stand at once.

The time of the arrival here of Fred W. Upham, Republican national treasurer, to testify in regard to the Sinclair political contributions is uncertain. Upham is in the west but the committee expects to get his testimony during the week. He was instructed to bring to Washington all records bearing on funds received from the oil operator.

Attorney and Architect.

Martin J. Powers, attorney, and Charles E. Oelschlaeger, architect, both of Philadelphia, will be called before the committee this week for questioning about charges by Oelschlaeger that Powers had told him he was to come to the Wyoming oil reservations through close connection with Attorney General Daugherty.

Both the oil committee and the Daugherty committee have now crossed each other's paths at various places, especially in connection with the rumors of an oil deal at the Chicago convention, but the committee chairman gave no indication Sunday as to whether there would be a switching of witnesses from one committee to another in an effort to disentangle and reassert the evidence in sequence.

Roxie Stinson, divorced wife of the late Jesse Smith, friend and confidant of Atty. Gen. Harry M. Daugherty.

Investigation Into Department of Justice Has Been Postponed Until Wednesday on Account of Illness of Senator Wheeler—Stinson Testimony to Be Concluded at Resumption of Hearing.

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Mar. 21.—The Daugherty investigation has been postponed until Wednesday, Senator Wheeler is sick abed. Senator Moses, opening the new probe into the Rio Grande land transaction, and Senator Jones are out of the city. Senator Brookhart says the hearing will proceed Wednesday regardless of Wheeler. The committee hopes to conclude the examination of Roxie Stinson Wednesday.

WASHINGTON, Mar. 24.—The third week of the Daugherty investigation opened Monday with Miss Roxie Stinson, divorced wife of Jess Smith, friend of Attorney General Daugherty, ready to conclude her amazing story of "deals" in whiskey, prize fight films, drugs and big politics.

Miss Stinson is to undergo cross-examination with the bare possibility of a matching of women's wits. The questioning will be conducted by Mrs. Mabel Walker Willebrandt, assistant attorney general. Arrangements had been made to have Mrs. Willebrandt, who followed the testimony all day Saturday, undertake the examination but a federal grand jury engagement may prevent what promised to be a spectacular feminine duel.

In closing her story which opened the Daugherty investigation, Miss Stinson is to finish reading her letter from Jess Smith and other papers which she says support her long and startling tale of "deals" which she says involve Smith, Mr. Daugherty and others of the attorney general's official and personal entourage, since he took office.

Fight Film and Whiskey "Deals."

The Dempsey-Carpenter prize fight film exhibition "deal" and the $200,000 New York bootlegging story given by John Goroni, also are to be developed this week. Fred C. Quimby, New York partner of Tex Rickard in the film affair, and William A. Orr, New York Republican politician, connected in the testimony with both the film and New York whiskey transactions are under orders to return here Monday. Both have been in since their first appearance and the period of their further examination is uncertain.

Further developments are promised in the committee's dispute with M. S. Daugherty, brother of the attorney general, over examination of the books of his bank, the Midland National at Washington Court House, Ohio.

A contempt fight in the federal court is continuing on Page 6.

Today's World Has Story of Exhibition Dempsey Fight Film

(By The Associated Press) NEW YORK, Mar. 21.—Motion pictures of the Dempsey-Firpo boxing match, which were exhibited here last September, have been shipped about the country and shown in various cities in violation of the law, similarly to those of the Dempsey-Carpenter fight which a senate committee has been investigating, the New York World will say Monday.

The newspaper has information that the "system" of arrests and fines, alleged to have been followed in the Dempsey-Carpenter films was not the procedure with the Dempsey-Firpo films, but that in many instances the latter were shown without any interference by officers of the law. Officials of the department of justice will be quoted as authority for the information that the department has made no effort to learn the facts brought to its attention.

The Dempsey-Firpo films, the World will say, were shown in Chicago for two months without federal interference despite the efforts of municipal authorities to stop the exhibition. Neither did federal authorities interfere in Cincinnati, according to the newspaper, but the exhibition there was stopped after two weeks by the state film censors.

Changes were filed against Fred C. Quimby, of New York, named as one of the alleged conspirators in the Dempsey-Carpenter procedure; and Alexander Pantuzes, theater owner was indicted in Los Angeles after the pictures were shown there, and their cases have not been disposed of. The World will point out. It will add that in San Francisco the exhibitors were fined but continued to show the films.

Body Seen Floating On Florida Stream

(By The Associated Press) VALDOSTA, Ga., Mar. 24.—Efforts are being made to locate the body of a well dressed white man seen floating Saturday in Alpha river near Jennings, Fla., by F. H. Roebuck. He tried to land the body near the bank but pushed it into mid-stream. Despite the fact Mrs. Rosie Dickman was here Saturday seeking newspaper aid to locate her husband, a crippled world war veteran, missing several days, authorities see no evidence connecting Dickman and the man in the river.

BRITISHERS ON EXPERTS BOARD LEAVE FRANCE

(By The Associated Press) PARIS, Mar. 24.—The departure for London Saturday of Reginald McKenna, Sir Robert Kindersley and Sir J. C. Stamp, British members of the experts committee, has given rise to reports that fundamental differences have cropped out in the work of the experts and that the British representatives have gone to consult their government.

It was stated officially Sunday evening that no serious disagreement existed on the main decisions of the committee and that, while different opinions have been expressed in the course of the discussions, the report now being drafted will be unanimously signed by both committees.

The pessimistic and alarming tone adopted by the British and also a part of the French press recently, however, may cause the reparation commission to issue an official communique Monday, setting forth exactly where matters stand, although reparation circles refuse to make a specific announcement to that effect.

Sir John Bradbury, British member of the reparations commission, left for London Sunday morning, and his departure caused a stir in French circles. It is held by the French to represent a tendency towards a reparation settlement diametrically opposed to that of the French. It is felt here that his presence in London simultaneously with the three British experts are not in agreement with the findings of the majority in the schedule of payments for Germany during the next two years.

The question of a moratorium is reported to be the point upon which opinions diverge.

Officials, however, the correspondents are informed that the work of the experts is proceeding in complete accord on fundamental points and that the joint report of the Dawes and McKenna committees will be ready the first week in April.

C. F. Harrison Seeks Re-election To Board

In another column of the Herald appears the official announcement of Charles F. Harrison, now Chairman of the County School Board, who seeks re-election as a member of that body subject to the action of the primary to be held June 3.

Mr. Harrison is a resident of Geneva, and has been a member of the County Board since 1915. In fact he is the only person to have been elected to represent his district on the Board since the organization of Seminole County. His predecessor in office having been appointed and refusing to run for re-election. Mr. Harrison was named Chairman of the Board when Mr. F. P. Foster, the only other chairman, retired from the Board, Jan. 1, 1919, and has retained that distinction ever since.

District No. 3, from which Mr. Harrison announces comprises the voting precincts of Geneva, Oviedo, Chuluota and Osceola.

Sanford Ministers Deliver Stiring Addresses To Congregations Sunday

Rev. F. D. King, pastor of the First Baptist Church, speaking to his congregation at the morning hour said in part:

"Fellow Christians, my hopes are anchored in Jesus and I am resting in the strength of His testimony. Upon the strength of His testimony with joy in my heart, shall go forth to the tasks which he designs for me.

"Some men and women are apparently thrilled over the possession of trifles and this may be an evidence of superficial thinking. Some are much pleased over the possession of a new car and perhaps they should be. But such as this is possession of just things and cannot supply abiding peace and be the occasion of abiding joy. CONGRESS MAY DECIDE TODAY ON NEW PROBES

List of Investigations at Present Includes Teapot Dome, Daugherty, Shipping Board, Revenue Bureau and Rio Grande Valley Frauds—To Decide on Aircraft Industry and Engraving Dept. Today

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Mar. 24.—The house Monday authorized a sweeping investigation of the air craft industry. Representative Nelson, of Wisconsin, insurgent leader, was named chairman of the committee to conduct the investigation.

WASHINGTON, Mar. 24.—With six investigations in full blast and two or three in a state of temporary quiescence, congress Monday is expected to decide whether two more shall be added to the list—investigation of the aircraft industry and of the bureau of engraving and printing.

The Daugherty, the Teapot Dome, the Shipping Board, and the revenue bureau investigations will take up where they left off last week, and the investigation of alleged land frauds in the Rio Grande valley of Texas, asked by Senator Helmer, Democrat, Alabama, will begin.

Investigation of charges against two members of congress and jewelry which is hearing evidence in the case.

The diploma mill investigation, headed by Senator Copeland, Democrat of New York, is for the time being inactive, as is the senate's propaganda investigation, Senator Moses, Republican, of New Hampshire, is chairman of the propaganda committee, a member of the Daugherty committee, and also chairman of the committee which will investigate Senator Helmer's charges. While all of these committees already have authority to investigate the house must vote on resolutions by Representative Nelson, Republican insurgent of Wisconsin, to investigate the aircraft industry, and by Representative King, Republican, of Illinois, to investigate charges of bond duplication in the bureau of engraving and printing. Meanwhile certain senators continue to demand an investigation of the Red River of legalistic matter in the closing days of the last congress.

Business in the senate in the way of legislation this week will center largely around a bill to tax gasoline in the District of Columbia; the proposal of Senator Wadsworth, Republican of New York, to give states the power to affirm or reject the action of legislatures in passing on constitutional amendments; and the demand of the committee on a re-education policy measure offered by Senator McNary, Republican Oregon, and possible decision in the senate on the McNary-Haugen farm relief measure. No appropriation bills are pending in the senate.

The house will take up Monday the fish resolution for a $10,000,000 appropriation to purchase food supplies for relief of German war-diplomats and their families, and two resolutions authorizing aircraft and bureau of engraving investigations. All of these proposals are expected by leaders to be adopted.

Tuesday the house will resume debate on the army bill which the independent offices appropriation bill will be reported and taken up when the army bill is out of the way. The immigration bill and the Chandler-Blount election contest from New York are expected to follow.

Some leaders expect the house agricultural committee to report a farm relief measure during the week. The McNary-Haugen bill is under consideration by the committee. The judiciary committee is expected to present a resolution for a child labor constitutional amendment on which Representative Longworth, O., the Republican leader, has said there will be action at this session.

Collapse Predicted Of Honduras Revolt

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Mar. 24.—The early collapse of the de facto government of Honduras and success of Ferrera, revolutionist, is predicted in dispatches to the navy department from American Consul heading the Tegucigalpa. The situation is now quiet but the revolutionists are planning to renew the attack on the city and a combined advance under Generals Post and Carlos is expected momentarily. Foreign interests feel safer because of the presence of American detachment.

WATER WORKS CONTRACT WILL BE LET TODAY

City Commission Meets This Afternoon in Regular Session To Award Contracts For Extension of Municipal Water Works System.

Today the City Commission was scheduled to hold its regular meeting at the city offices at which time contracts for the construction of the new proposed water works plant and system, were to be awarded. At an adjourned meeting of the City Commission, held in the Chamber of Commerce held this morning, final recommendations were made for the awarding of the contracts.

The committee, which was appointed at the request of the City Commission to work in conjunction with the latter in letting the awards, held a long meeting Saturday when most of the bids were eliminated. This morning, with Joseph E. Craig, special consulting engineer, present, the committee went over the proposals for a final time and drew up its recommendations.

Although its report was not available for today's Herald, it was learned that the body would submit a recommendation on each of the six projects. This will be of interest in view of the fact that it was generally believed that the city would do the construction work on laying out the pipes and mains, etc., instead of letting it to a contractor. However, after careful consideration, the committee felt that the contract should be let to one of the bidders.

It was further learned that the committee would make special recommendations in regard to the well drilling which in substance called for the drilling of a large test well and pumping from it, before the contract was let. Members of the committee are: H. B. Stevens, chairman; A. P. Connelly, S. O. Shindler, George W. Knight, Fred T. Williams, W. B. Williams and Lewis O'Byrne.

No more information was available this morning regarding the site for the water works plant. It is generally believed, however, that the commission would discuss the matter at length at today's meeting and perhaps the final selection.

Other business will be transacted this afternoon which, it is said, will be of importance and the commissioners will probably have a busy afternoon of it.

COMMITTEE WILL TRY TO GET IMMEDIATE ACTION ON 25 PER CENT INCOME TAX CUT CLAUSES

SANFORD POLICE ACTIVE AGAINST LIQUOR SELLERS

Secretary Mellon Writes New Jersey Representative Declaring Preference for Proposed Cut as Provided in Revenue Bill but Suggests Separate Resolution Assuring Settlement by June 15.

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Mar. 24.—With the revenue bill facing several more weeks of study by the senate finance committee, impatient finance committee impatiently gave Sunday to the movement to secure the provision for a 25 per cent reduction in income tax payable this year and incorporate it in a resolution for immediate action.

Secretary Mellon in a letter to Representative Ackerman, Republican, New Jersey, commenting on the latter's resolution proposing to eliminate the September installment payments, said he preferred the proposed cut to be made as provided in the revenue bill, but suggested the provision be taken care of by a resolution which would assure settlement of the proposed cut before June 15, when second installments are due.

The revenue bill would allow deductions of 25 per cent of the first installment to be made when the second installment is paid and further deductions of 25 per cent on the second and remaining installments when they are paid. If the entire tax were paid on March 15, it would allow a 25 per cent refund. Elimination of the September payments as proposed by Representative Ackerman would disturb the cash position of the treasury in September, Mr. Mellon said.

Secretary's Letter.

The secretary's letter to Mr. Ackerman said:

"Your resolution provides in substance that a taxpayer paying personal income taxes in 1923 in quarterly installments may omit the September 15 installment and if he has paid in full on March 15 he is entitled to a refund of one-quarter of the amount paid after his return is audited by the treasury. With the permit that it is advisable to the benefit of taxpayers, the could be reduced of 25 per cent of the tax payable in the calendar year 1924. I am thoroughly in accord. There may be considerable administrative difficulty in the particular method which is contemplated by the resolution.

"It seems to me it would be simpler, and certainly preferable from the standpoint of the treasury, if the plan incorporated in the form act of 1924 in the form it was passed by the house, were adopted in a separate resolution. Under this plan if the resolution were passed before June 15, the taxpayer could take on that day a credit of 25 per cent of his March payment plus perhaps the amount of the 25 per cent of his September payment of that payment. If he had paid in full in March he would have refunded the 25 per cent credit."

Showdown Probable as to Bonus.

The finance committee will resume work Monday with a showdown probable on whether the soldier bonus bill will be put ahead of the tax measure as asked by the American Legion. Chairman Sweeney has predicted little time would be necessary for disposition of the bonus bill, with lines fairly well drawn. Republicans supporting in general an insurance measure along lines of that adopted by the house, and Democrats favoring a full cash payment option.

Would have Carraway Reproved For Speech

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Mar. 24.—The house was asked today by Representative Treadway of Massachusetts, to take appropriate action on the charges that Senator Carraway, Arkansas, had improperly criticized Speaker Gillett and the house in a senate speech Saturday. Over protest Speaker Gillett Treadway offered a resolution seeking to have the senate regard the Carraway speech as containing improper and unparliamentary language.

Putting Contest For Women Will Be Held Tuesday at Golf Club

The contest will be held throughout the day so that those who expect to enter may compete either in the morning or afternoon.

BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TODAY: FREE FROM WANT: The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.—Psalm 23: 1.

HYMN FOR A HOUSEHOLD: Lord Christ, beneath Thy starry dome We light this flickering lamp of home.

And where bewildering shadows throng, Uplift our prayer and evensong, Dost Thou, with heaven in Thy ken.

Seek still a dwelling-place with men, Wandering the world in ceaseless quest? O Man of Nazareth, be our guest!

Lord Christ, the bird its nest has found, The fox is sheltered in his ground, But dost Thou still this dark earth tread

And have no place to lay Thy head? Shepherd of mortals, here behold A little flock, a wayside fold, That wait Thy presence to be blest!

O Man of Nazareth, be our guest! In the Watchman-Examiner (N. Y.)

It would take a magician to pay the soldier bonus without increasing taxation.

The worst of it is the committee members get paid for doing nothing.

Reports from Holland say that all has been discovered in the Winterswyke district. Oh, Lord, they know not what they do!

Berlin has placed a tax on dancing and that city is reported "dancing itself out of its financial troubles."

Now that the pile driver is on the job results will be observed in the construction of Sanford's yacht basin.

Judging from the frequency of these bobbed-hair bandit stories, it seems to us that all female bandits must have bobbed their hair.

Newspaper headline says, "Miss Stinson ready to wind up her story." Thought someone did that for her a week ago and she's been unwinding ever since.

De La Huerta is reported fleeing to New Orleans, the refuge of so many Mexican revolutionists, probably because it is so easy to get back from there and start another uprising.

The value of clean store windows cannot be over emphasized. Window displays are a thousand times more valuable if the shopper is able to see the goods without having his eyes attracted by dust and dirt on the glass.

The opera, Aida, will be presented at the Polo Grounds on the evening of the day when the Democratic Convention opens in New York. The Fenianians are trying to get them to produce Lohengrin with its famous "Swan Song" instead.

Sinclair told the oil committee where to get off the other day when they testified to get him to testify regarding Teapot Dome. There used to be a time when governmental officials put men in prison for refusing to assist in the prosecution of law violation.

Someone has discovered something wrong with the enforcement of the prohibition amendment, and a new investigation committee is wanted. It probably won't be long before two senators from each state won't be enough to fill up the various investigating committees.

Frank Jennings in a recent speech in Madison said that if elected governor he expected to knock the peanuts out of politics and put business in. This may make it possible for some of the rest of us who have regularly been paying taxes to Tallahassee and getting nothing in return, to buy a few peanuts.

Pick out the most progressive up-to-date merchant and you will choose one who is a regular and consistent user of advertising space. The two go hand in hand. The merchant who advertises his goods moves his stock quickly and often making a complete turnover several times in a year. He can afford to sell at a regular profit. The merchant who doesn't believe in taking the public into his confidence and telling them what he has to sell, is fortunate if he succeeds in making one complete turn-over in a year's time and charge more for his goods. Good users of printer's ink can afford to sell cheaper than the fellow who doesn't advertise.

More Equipment Would Help Florida.

Arthur Capper has introduced a bill in the Senate whereby $32,500,000 worth of tractors, trucks and other government war materials can be used in building roads. These materials are now rusting and going to ruin through disuse and if some step is not taken soon they will become absolutely worthless.

Florida can find very good use for additional road building equipment. Assistance of this kind would probably mean the rebuilding and improving of many of the poor highways that are found in this state. It would no doubt make it possible for counties that cannot now afford to do so, to fix up the roads. It would facilitate the work of progressive communities that realize the value of good roads.

It seems a shame that such a progressive state as Florida must have so many poor highways. And more is it to be regretted that there are counties that seem to give no thought to the construction of smooth roads. The county that sees to it that the roads within its borders are all they should be often suffers by the carelessness and indifference of those counties which are near by.

You cannot blame people for refusing to drive over such roads as the one between DeLand and Sanford, in Volusia county. It is not properly maintained, but is filled with holes and is anything but a credit to the state. You cannot blame tourists for detesting some of the roads on the east coast, especially between New Smyrna and Titusville and between Cocoa and Vero. While work is progressing slowly on the construction of new highways in that section little attempt is made to keep the old road in good condition. Few people can help kicking about the road between New Smyrna and Sanford. While work is going on slowly making repairs, it seems like a lifelong job and that it will never be finished. And so we could go on making specific reference to bad roads that can be found all over the state.

But there are also sections where the roads once were good but where they have been allowed to deteriorate until now there are deep ruts and holes in the most unexpected places. That one time good asphalt road between DeLand and Daytona is now treacherous. The unsuspecting driver suddenly drops in a rut and is fortunate if he keeps his car from being damaged. Even "Prosperous Polk" can afford to do a little repairing on its fine highways to keep them from going absolutely to pieces.

It seems like an endless task to get a chain of roads in Florida that are all they should be. Some counties are too dead to build roads at all while certain others fail to see that the good roads are kept good. Probably those tractors and trucks from the government might help a bit.

The People Are To Blame.

The blame for conditions as they exist in Washington today has not been placed entirely on the shoulders of the guilty ones. Investigation follows investigation and sensational disclosures follows sensational disclosure until the people as a whole are beginning to think that every public official is corrupt.

Perhaps this oil scandal which involves cabinet officers as well as other prominent men in political life will open the eyes of the voters of the country and perhaps hereafter they will take a little more interest in affairs which affect the life and welfare of the nation. Instead of leaving the conduct of governmental matters to politicians perhaps they will find out what is going on about them and take a hand in this political business.

In an address in Chicago last Thursday William Jennings Bryan declared that the people of the United States "are to blame for the oil scandal in Washington today." Mr. Bryan went on to say that he hoped no public official will be found guilty of committing a crime but if such a result is obtained the people themselves are the only ones that are really to blame.

"When the people are more careful in their selection of public officials," Mr. Bryan said "we will have no more oil scandals. I believe this world needs to get back to God. We must regain or strive to accomplish, if we have never had it before, a whole-hearted, whole-souled, whole-minded love of God."

Mr. Bryan is right.

A NEW TREASURE hunt is about to start. Archer M. Huntington, millionaire patron of arts and letters, and his wife, the former Anna Vaughn Hyatt, a sculptress, have sailed away on their yacht, the Rocinante amid deepest secrecy but leaving behind rumors of a search for a sixty million dollar buried treasure. The treasure is thought to consist of gold and gem-encrusted ornaments, the ravished riches of the Incas looted from Peruvian churches by Captain Morgan, the notorious buccancer who buried his loot on Cocos Island. This island has been dug up from one end to the other and many treasure hunters have returned home disappointed.

THE BONUS BETRAYAL

New York would be penalized more than any other state by the granting of Federal bonus. Our veterans would draw approximately one-third of the amount voted by Congress. Our people would have to pay in Federal taxes nearly one-quarter of the total amount allowed. They have already given the New York soldiers a state adjustment of $45,000,000. The House of Representatives asks to pay their own veterans $200,000,000 more and to pay the vote pay the coal man. They will make 600,000 additional.

The states which have granted no bonuses out of their own funds have taken the lead in promoting a Federal bonus. Naturally, they expect New York and other large contributors to the Federal treasury to provide a large proportion of the funds used to pay soldiers in other parts of the country. Their representatives see this, and must laugh at the stupidity of

When an actor friend of mine first made up his mind to tackle vaudeville, he applied to a very gruff manager who had a strong accent and a great deal of business on hand. "Vell," he growled, looking up from his cluttered desk as the young man entered, "vat do you want?" "I would like to get into vaudeville," replied the candidate meekly. "Vat you do? Vat's you line?" "I am a comedian, sir. I—" "A komiker, huh?" The manager glared at him. "Vell, quick make me laugh!"

Why Not Let Them Dance? Politics, McAdoo, Bryan, Etc. Discovering the Vitamine. Three Kinds of Wealth. Copyright, 1924

DR. GUTHRIE, rector of St. Marks line Episcopal Church, in New York believes in dancing as part of religious service. Bishop Manning, his superior, forbids dancing in the church service. Nevertheless, Dr. Guthrie will have the dancing.

A more layman is bound to assume that the bishop knows best. The student observes with interest that Dr. Guthrie has on his side such scientists as Spencer, Darwin, Haeckel and Huxley; all of them agree that dancing and religion were closely united in the beginning.

All savages express religious emotion in dancing—some of it violent. Even animals in the jungle and the captive baboon in his cage, express their emotions in a sort of dance.

THE BIBLE tells us that David danced before the ark, evidently convinced that he was pleasing the Ruler of Heaven.

You have noticed that little children dance comically when they are angry or pleased. The fact is that once babies' muscles are well developed, so, in any religion or religion, when inarticulate thought fails us, we are very apt to "say it with dancing."

HOW WOULD it be, since human beings are different and their conceptions of what means Divine power even more different, to let those dance who want to, those pray that want to pray and those sing that want to sing? Omnipotence above knows what they all mean and can sort out the good intentions.

MR. McAdoo leads Underwood by the Georgia primaries at least five to one—a landslide. One thing may be said positively:

Mr. McAdoo still holds all of his influence with organized labor and especially with railroad men. They don't care anything about Dohney and the Teapot Dome. They are for McAdoo. And if he should be nominated there would be many a vote, ordinarily Republican, cast for him.

NEWSPAPERS TALK of W. J. Bryan as a Democratic candidate. But Mr. Bryan isn't taking the talk too seriously. He would run if nominated; so would anybody else. He tells you quite frankly that he has many enemies and how many powerful men there are that would prefer any other candidate.

MR. BRYAN, however, expects to be a fighting unit in the Democratic convention, and he hopes to send a man admired for his honesty and ability all over this country by those who agree and those who do not agree with his views.

THE MOST mysterious and important thing in human health and diet is the vitamine. When it is lacking you die, no matter how much food you may eat. Feed on vitamins, and the diet is not starvation. Feed another rat on butter containing many vitamins; it lives, gets fat and multiplies.

Many kinds of vitamins are known to science, producing different, necessary, effects, but until now all that science knew of the vitamins was that it existed and was necessary.

NOW DR. WALTER H. EDDY, of Columbia University, after years of patient work with his associates, has isolated and identified the vitamine.

"It is an organic chemical structure," says the learned man, "composed of carbon, hydrogen, nitrogen and oxygen."

Scientists hope they will be able to manufacture vitamins for human beings, in the form of their shape, and their needs, may change enormously in a few years. Eddy's persistence teaches, however, that no change of any importance comes suddenly in this world. It all seems to be mapped out in advance and comes about gradually.

THERE ARE three kinds of wealth only—the EARTH on which you stand, TIME and man's INTELLIGENCE. How wealth increases and time is partially increased is explained by research of the National Association of Farm Equipment. Thanks to machinery saving labor, American farmers saved last year 1,282,570, 284 days of actual work.

THE BIRTH of three dollars a day would be a gain for the farmers of four billions of dollars. Farmers will wonder where the money is. The fact, unfortunately, is that the saving of time, rather than cost due to perfecting of machinery goes largely to middle-men and much into it to those that do the actual work.

NOW THAT the hunt still seems to go through the Senate and receive President Coolidge's signature, big gentlemen whose hearts ache when they think of taxes, begin to seek comfort. Here is some from an able man. The paying of two billion dollars to soldiers now, a miserably small sum for what they sacrificed and did, will save taxpayers many billions in years to come.

Men will take now what they get in lieu of other claims against the government. If these claims hadn't been satisfied now, for a small sum, that would have meant a gigantic new pension roll later, with millions of men and widows on the pension roll. The government is getting a great bargain, soldiers are getting very little, and taxpayers, if they only knew it, are saving money.

MOST ANYTHING CAN HATCH FROM THESE EGGS.

BEING READY JACKSONVILLE TIMES-UNION

Owen D. Young is a man whose name is not very familiar to newspaper readers, although a writer in the New York Herald says he "is at this moment rated as one of the most conspicuous successful men in America." Rather, high distinction to give a man who, comparatively young in years—Mr. Young was born in 1874—and with so many competitors as there are in the United States.

But there is apparently very good and substantial reason for saying that Mr. Young is "rated as one of the most conspicuously successful men in America." This too, in spite of the fact that he had to pull himself up "by his own boot straps." In other words, climb unaided to the high place he holds in the business world today. He is chairman of the board of directors of the General Electric Company, a "booster" organization that is among the very largest in the world.

Not many years ago, as a boy, Owen D. Young guided the plow in the rugged farming section of northern New York, chased milk from maddening cows, fed the swine in his father's feed box, attended to the thousand and one chores that are familiar to every farm boy, and by most of them regarded with mingled contempt and hatred.

Consequently, when the General Electric Company needed a man to manage its electrical division, Mr. Young, placed him in charge of certain departments, in which he proved his efficiency, and advanced

Notwithstanding the fact that William Jennings Bryan busied himself about the politics in Alabama and did his utmost to defeat Underwood for presidential nomination, the latter carried the state over both opponents, including Bryan's choice by an overwhelming majority, probably 30,000.—Gainesville Sun.

Alabama, in the primary election of last Tuesday, gave emphatic endorsement to one of its favorite sons, Oscar Underwood, in his aspirations for the presidential nomination. This endorsement was not due to sentiment but to thorough knowledge of the man and his genuine fitness for the very high office of the nation's chief magistrate.

It will be remembered that a law was passed by the legislature of the state of Alabama preventing the voters of the state from voting for any one for the presidential nomination in a resident of the state of Alabama.

That prevented the voters from casting their ballots for Mr. W. G. McAdoo, Judge John W. Davis, Governor James M. Cox or for any pronounced candidate for the presidential nomination outside the state of Alabama. Mr. Underwood, it may almost be said, was in a sense a candidate for this high office but per-

BASEBALL GAME HERE THURSDAY

First Game of Season Between Seminole Athletic Club and Stetson Nine to Be Stellar Exhibition It Is Predicted By Those in Charge.

The cover will be pried off the 1924 baseball season here Thursday when the Seminole Athletic Club meets the Stetson team on the Ninth Street diamond. The game will be called at 3:30 o'clock, it is announced, both teams are in good shape it is said, and each one confident of victory, so the fans of this section can look forward to a splendid class of ball exhibition.

Stetson boasts of one of the snappiest infields in the state. At present they are playing in mid-season form snapping the ball around the bases with all the zest in the world. While the Seminole Athletic Club players are all in tip top form, hitting the agate like veterans.

The pitching staff is a formidable one in every respect, the teams consists of some of the best players in this part of the state. Nothing can stop the game from being a real scrap. All the way through.

The official lineup for both teams will be announced later.

GATORS START STIFF SPRING GRID PRACTICE

Coach Van Fleet Is Putting Players Through a Hard Drill on Fleming Field Preparing For Next Year.

UNIVERSITY OF FLORIDA, GAINESVILLE, Mar. 22.—Florida's prospects for a banner season next year in football looms very bright. Every day for the next few weeks, some 60 husky athletes of the Orange and Blue, in search for grid laurels will go through the stiff spring grid practice outlined by Major James A. Van Fleet, Gator chief.

The wry is long and hard, especially in the spring when the blare of the band and the hurrae cheers of the crowd are not there to cheer the muscle-weary warriors on. Nevertheless plans for a successful season next fall have been discussed pro and con and the work considered to be the most essential to men aspiring for positions has been mapped out and will be given to the men with all the trimmings that come in a football season.

Special attention will be paid to the incoming players individually and every effort will be made by the coaches to build up a strong reserve list for next year. Students are evidencing much enthusiasm and turning out in large numbers for the workouts on the Freshman field.

Nearly all the Varsity letter men of last year were out in uniform for Tuesday's workout. The same applies to the Freshman of the season just passed who are giving their united support and presence. Withal it appears that Florida will have the greatest team in the history of the school next season. Last year they hung up a wonderful record and there is no reason to believe they cannot do even better.

They will have the letter men of last year's machine, with the exceptions of Captain Robinson and Stewart Pomeroy, besides a host of first-year stars. Those of the Freshman squad who do not make the team, and at least three of them should find some kind of a berth, will be readily snapped up as reservists.

ANNUAL INTER-CLASS MEET.

GAINESVILLE, Mar. 24.—The annual inter-class track meet for University of Florida students will be held beginning at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon, when they will participate in events, including the 100, 220, 440 and 880-yard dashes, one-mile run, high and low hurdles, over the 120 and 220-yard routes, the running broad and high jump, shot put, discus throw, javelin throw and pole vault.

The inter-college meet will be staged the following week-end, according to announcement by Dr. R. G. Manchester, director of minor athletic activities at the university.

RECEIVE CAGE LETTERS.

GAINESVILLE, Mar. 24.—Captain Edgar Jones and seven other members of the University of Florida basketball squad will receive 21 letters, Coach White announces. Others will receive the coveted "E" are Virgil M. Newton, Otis Marshall, Kenneth Hatt, Byron Edley, Glen Whitaker, "Horse" Smith and "Giddy" Goldstein.

FOR SCHOOL IMPROVEMENTS.

ST. PETERSBURG, Mar. 24.—The voters of this city have approved an issue of $225,000 in school improvement bonds. The improvements will include additions to the North Ward, Roser Park and Glen Oak schools, completion of the new Junior High school and erection of a new school building.

MIDDLETON TO MEET ROUGHHOUSE ROSS IN MAIN BOUT HERE ON FRIDAY

The National Guard's second boxing exhibition in Sanford is impending. Next Friday night at the Almyroy, Sanford, fans will witness the second ring exhibition held this season.

Jack Middleton, the former Jacksonville-Miami batter is one of the principals in the main attraction—the ten-round final mill, Roughhouse Ross, the North Carolina Wampus Cat, will furnish the opposition, an dit promises to be plentiful.

Middleton is well known in pugilistic circles. He has a knockout record as long as the Olympic marathon, and equally conclusive. He has recently done much of his pugilistic work around Miami, where he met such men as Capt. Bob Roper, Harry Krohn, Norm Genet and others whose fame in pugilistic circles is enduring. Middleton is clever, one of the most scientific boxers in his division of the game today, and he can hit. My, how that hat can sock!

Ross as his nickname implies, is somewhat of a rough person. He bores in at the opening gong and takes it. Meanwhile, he gives it, and in huge quantities. He can rush, hit, block and counter. And his opponent never knows what to expect. That's the secret of Ross' success.

The main go is set for plenty of thrills, and they'll be there in much profusion. Young Terry of Brooklyn and Battling Meyer of Boston, really

Bits of Beauty Reveal The Glory of the Whole

VISITORS at Coral Gables are constantly meeting with joyful surprises in bits of beauty which greet the eye on every side—beauty of architectural detail, of azure sky. Or a delightful entrance fashioned in the style of the warm Mediterranean countries and breathing of their hospitality also. Sometimes it is a quiet rest-seat in a plaza invitingly offering itself to the visitor. Or a broad expanse of pine-fringed fairway against a background of azure sky.

There are thousands of these at Coral Gables. They enthrall one at every turn. Each appears to enter into friendly rivalry for first place in your regard. But you see so many of them that finally the knowledge is forced home upon you that they are not a matter of pure accident, not here by chance, but that each and every one of them is part of a great and beautiful plan, and more, that each and all are linked together in a common bond of glory.

It is with Coral Gables just as it has been with Miami for many years. The visitor first comes with a perfectly natural desire to satisfy curiosity. He may come a second time to make certain that his overflying estimate of beauty was not a matter of too fervid first impression. But he finally stays to enjoy the delights and pleasures which are here in unbounded measure, and which are not to be found anywhere else.

Come to Coral Gables tomorrow—or some day this week—with the special purpose of studying its advantages as a permanent home. Such a trip will be well worth while. Make your reservations at our local office for this free sightseeing trip.

EXCOMMUNICATION

How I, like Adam, leave the enchanted woods?
And shall I hear their call no more?
Shall never the doves' reiterative murmur of sanctuary at the open door?

Shall I no longer tread the winter snow?
Of leaves the lavish autumn spread?
Will that live incense crucible in sleep
Sleep for me forever in the dead?

Will spring once more about the larches play
Like children kissing, being kissed.
And I never see the birches' naked limbs
Flush to the spring and vanish in green mist?

If I should knock at the cathedral doors
Will there no vergered woodman win
Consent from summer's robed and mitred priest
And to the choral benediction let me in?

May I no more with sacrificial fires
Stand suppliant at autumn's grate?
Must I with empty brazier turn away
And be forever excommunicated?

MUSICAL PARAGRAPHS

BY F. S. M.

Those who motored to Daytona last Wednesday evening to hear Galli-Curci enjoyed a memorable and most artistic program.

The song numbers included old classical airs, operatic arias, French, Spanish, Italian, English and American songs.

Many old favorites in response to persistent encores were added. Madam Galli-Curci possesses a voice of crystalline clearness, which she uses with ease and fluency. A voice of excellent carrying power even to the finest pianissimo.

Her songs of lighter mood were sung with inimitable charm and beauty. The coloratura songs were models of voice production and rendered with unrivaled ease, accuracy and brilliancy.

In her grace notes and trills one could but sense the atmosphere of the nightingale—the mocking-bird. Such musicianship, such skill in vocal technique was truly marvelous.

Ever since old King Tut was dug out of his tomb in Egypt, the craze for all things Egyptian has spread the globe. At fashionable and afternoon charity teas the dress is apt to be a la Egyptian. There is indeed marked Egyptian tendencies we learn in all performances and dances.

And now we hear we are to have a real Egyptian orchestra directed by a Shiek.

There are to be instruments of ancient date, including a "Kamama Jab" (something like a violin). The "Soudo", resembling old Spanish guitar.

Other instruments will be akin to Oboe, Cello, a "Drumbacky" (little drum) and cymball.

"Every singer should cherish in her soul a voice ideal so rare and so beautiful that it transcends everything she has heard or will hear."—Calve.

The student who goes to a teacher and imagine that teacher will cast some magic spell about him which will make him a musician, has an unpleasant surprise in store for him.

Philadelphia spent $99,179 for public concerts during the year 1923. New York spent $95,000. San Francisco $48,000.

"I compose for myself—it is just a question between me and my Maker."—Richard Wagner.

LAKE MONROE

The St. Patrick social held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Whitaker, on Lake Mary Avenue, Mar. 17, was a decided success.

There was a very large attendance from Sanford, DeLand, and Lake Mary, and a very delightful time was had by all.

There was a fine program consisting of the following:

Song—"River Shannon"—Group of girls.

Reading—Mr. Hopkins.

Song—"Wearin' of the Green," group.

Reading—"Pat's Letter," Mrs. Musgrave.

Irish Talk—Mr. H. A. Halverson.

Address—Mr. Hopkins.

Recitations—"The Jealous Wife" and "The One-Legged Goose," by Miss Margaret Cowan of Sanford.

The price of admission was collected in a very amusing way. Every one upon entering was measured around the waist and a penny an inch was the entrance fee.

Mr. H. A. Halverson, the popular painter of Sanford, won the prize for the largest waist measure.

Mr. P. K. Brown of Palatka was a visitor to Lake Mary on Wednesday.

Mr. Sewell, manager of Lake Mary Casino, has just completed two water-slides which will no doubt be enjoyed by his many patrons this summer. One is a large slide 25 feet high, 60 feet long, ending in 8 feet of water, for the grown-ups, and the other is five feet high, 12 feet long, ending in three feet of water for the little folks.

It seems as if it was about time for another "clean-up day" in Lake Mary. The folks are leaving soon and much work remains to be done.

East Sanford
