

Hospital To Hold Open House May 13, 15, 17

Open House at Seminole Memorial Hospital will be observed Monday, Wednesday, and Friday of next week, Harry Weir, Administrator has announced.

The opportunity to visit the Seminole Memorial Hospital is to point up the theme of National Hospital Week, May 12-18, "Careers That Count."

Hours of the open house will be from 8 to 5 p. m. It was announced, and will be in charge of Mrs. L. A. Anderson, chairman and Mrs. W. V. Bitting, co-chairman of the Program and Projects Committee of the Women's Auxiliary. Auxiliary members will assist with tours of the hospital.

National Hospital Week provides the citizens of Sanford and Seminole County with an opportunity to assess the importance of hospitals to the community.

As cities and communities grow, hospitals must meet the increasing demands for their vital services.

Harry Weir, the local hospital administrator said "The theme of National Hospital Week emphasizes the career opportunities for young people in our hospitals and points out the shortage of hospital personnel, a shortage that will continue to increase as our population expands, unless we of this community can find some way to close the gap."

Weir said that in large hospitals "There may be as many as 200 job classifications."

Seminole Memorial Hospital's administrator yesterday released some of the facts about the local hospital. He said that during 1966 there were 2101 admissions, there are 75 beds, a personnel staff of 95, an average daily census (infant and adult) of 38, there were 402 births, 900 emergencies. In addition, Weir said, Seminole Memorial Hospital served 85,728 meals, there were 12,544 days of care, and an average stay per patient of 6 days.

It is expected that hundreds of Sanford and Seminole County citizens will file through the corridors of Seminole Memorial Hospital during "Open House" Monday, Wednesday and Friday of next week during National Hospital Week to get a close look at the facilities available here.

GA Focus Week To Start Sunday

Sunday, May 13, marks the beginning of GA Focus Week for the churches all over our Southern Baptist convention territory. Girls' Auxiliary is an organization for girls between the ages of nine through 18 to participate in the study of missions—learning to better strengthen their own lives for Christ by studying and supporting our missionaries who give their all for Him that his love may be known to others.

The GA's of the First Baptist Church will begin their Focus Week activities by attending the 8:45 morning worship service with their mothers or families. Because it is Mother's Day, the girls and their mothers will be specially recognized.

Then at the Training Union hour, 6:45 p. m., the GA's of the Junior I and II departments and those of the Intermediate I department will lead in their departmental opening. Following Training Union in the evening service, the GA girls will participate in welcoming the worshipers and in the receiving of the titles and offerings.

On Tuesday evening, the Intermediate GA's and their mothers will be honored at their Mother and Daughter Banquet.

Highlighting and concluding the week's activities will be the presentation of a play entitled, "The Remedy", during the regular prayer service, Wednesday night at 7:30. This play, put on by the GA leaders and girls, shows the purpose of and the benefits gained in Girls' Auxiliary.

"So we invite everyone to join with us in these services as we focus the spotlight on the Girls' Auxiliary," a spokesman for the organization said today.

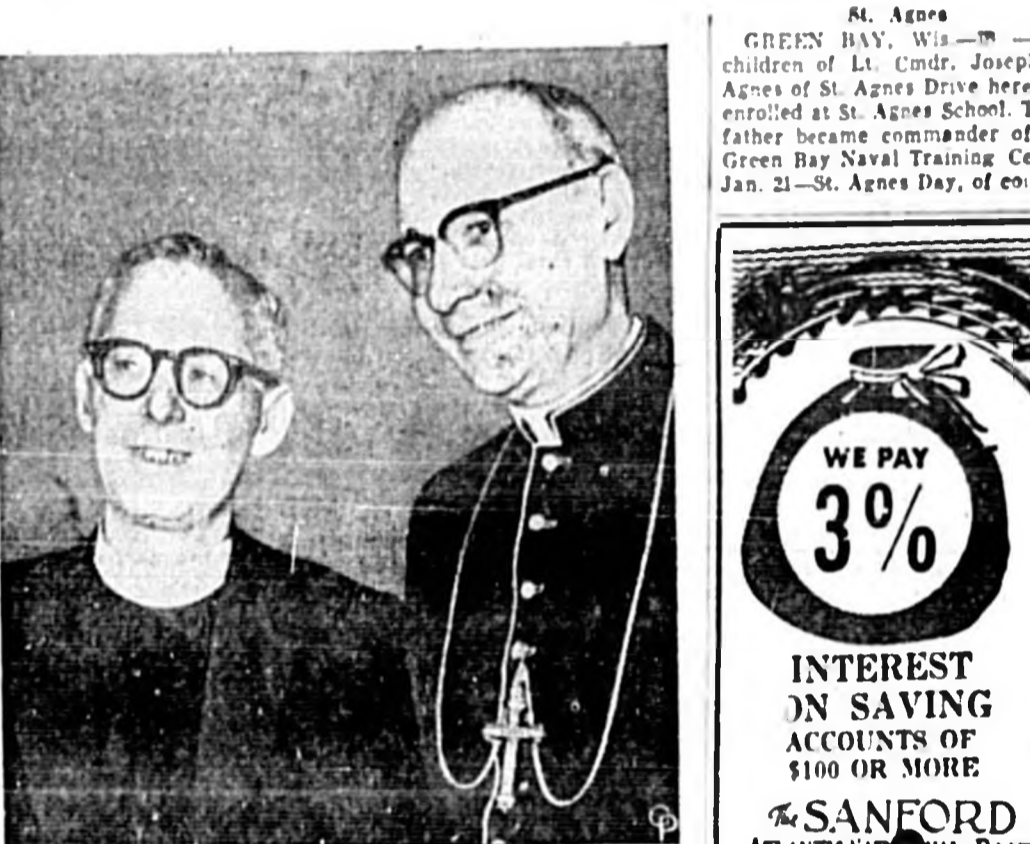

Scott To Preach At Church Sunday

The Rev. L. W. Scott, former pastor of the Lake Mary Community Presbyterian Church, will preach at both the 8:45 and 11 o'clock morning services at the First Presbyterian Church this Sunday.

During the evening worship service, at 7:30 p. m., the young people will present a Mothers' Day program.

Planning Group OK's New Access Highway Route Through County

Local Jaycees

Make Outstanding Short Agenda To Be Showing At Confab Before Commission

The Seminole County Chamber of Commerce Long Range Highway Planning Committee, meeting with Road Board member William A. Tol of Orlando, District Engineer Richie Green, Asst. District Engineer Hugh Hannah, and Interstate Highway Engineer H. E. Lewis approved a new route through Seminole County for the Limited Access Highway.

There are only two points that have been defeated, established Dial told the committee members Friday night at a meeting held at Jim Spencer's Restaurant. These points are north of SR 41 just off the Lake McIntosh Bridge and the one at Lee Road in Orange County, he said.

"Right now we can't go any further until a route is tentatively approved by this group," he said.

Aerial maps showing the proposed route through Seminole County were shown to members of the committee and later at a public meeting held in the Seminole County Court House. Test proposed routes were shown.

Nuclear Energy Can Give Material Benefits

Dr. Libby Tells Confab

UPTON, N. Y. (AP) — Dr. Willard F. Libby of the Atomic Energy Commission said today that nuclear energy, if handled wisely, can give the world "material benefits almost without end."

He told the first inter-American symposium on peaceful uses of the atom that power and isotopes for medicine, agriculture and industry are the first, but not necessarily all, of the atom's non-warlike benefits.

A new scientific discovery, like the discovery of a new continent, he said, "opens new and unknown horizons which take time for exploration."

"It is likely that unborn uses of the atom may also eventually prove to be as important as those we are now developing," he said.

Dr. Milton S. Eisenhower, brother of the President, extended to the delegates the chief executive's "cordial greetings and sincere wishes for a rewarding experience."

Milton Eisenhower said in opening the conference that its primary aim is "cooperation—cooperation by all in a steadfast resolve to use the atom for the benefit of ourselves and for all mankind."

"We are here," he said, "on the verge of what can be the most amazing and rewarding period in history."

City's Policy On Use Of Public Areas Told

"The city has been considerably disappointed over the use of various city park facilities," said City Manager W. E. Knobel today. "Most of this disappointment has been caused by misunderstanding and failure to know the City policy on the use of the public property."

He said that it is public property, reservations for the use of any of the facilities must be scheduled in a "first come—first serve" basis. "No special privileges will be granted to any group or individual."

Since these fields and play areas require the scheduling of various city departments for work to be maintained, repaired, and cleaned, it is necessary to have a central co-ordinating point.

Question Of Week

By DALE LEWIS
Twenty-two days from today the SENIORS graduate! That means that the SENIORS have three weeks and one day to fulfill their answers to this question: "What do you want to do most before you get out of Seminole High School?"
Bobby Little — Pass!!!
Johnny Williams — Pass Albert!
Billy Bishop — Get a date with a certain cute Senior girl!
Libby Browning — Find a rich husband!
Fred Ball — Burn it down!
Merith Scott — Pass Typing!
Penny Marian — Raise the British Flag in front of the school.
Iris Causey — Be mean enough so that they won't ever forget me.
Desila Smith — I want to see Jürgen Wekerle kicked out of school. He's such a great guy — Ha-Ha!
Sylvia Price — When the phone rings in the office to pick up the receiver and say "Home of Delinquent Girls."

Advice To The Lovelorn

This isn't the usual procedure of writing you with a problem but rather a compliment to Sanford, Seminole High and the people that compose this City. In a few weeks I'm leaving to return to my original home after five months of living in Sanford and this, through the school column, is the only way I could think of to tell "ya'll how really great you, your school and your town are. Thanking you for putting this in the column and hoping to return next year!"
"going home"
Dear "going home"
I wish you had signed your name because each and every one of us want to thank you for such a lovely compliment and hope we will have even more to offer next year. "We'll be seeing you."
Miss Cry-Shoulder

Dear Miss Cry-Shoulder,
I've read your column every week all year and I don't think any problem you've ever answered could mean any more to anyone as this means to me. Your answer may mean my whole future. I'm only a freshman in school and I'm very sorry to say that I have just thrown one whole year away without accomplishing anything compared to my past couple of years in school. I got off on the wrong foot by dating older boys although everyone tried to explain why I should stick with boys my own age. I haven't studied like I should have, but goofed off. All of my friends are going out for officers, but I set back and let the world go by. I want my last three years to be much different and not just one good year. Please tell me Miss Cry-Shoulder is it too late?
"Goofed"
Of course it isn't too late to change. I'm just glad for you that you only wasted one year. Experience is the best teacher and I think it has taught you a lesson you'll never forget. Make the most of your other three years and really contribute to school spirit. Why not start this very minute? Now is as good a time as any. Lots of luck!
Miss Cry-Shoulder

Dear Goofed,
It usually takes five years to finish college under this plan — 36 months in school and 24 months on the job. Students are paid $247 to $306 a month during their work periods.
Further information can be obtained from the Civil Service Commission here or from its 11 regional offices throughout the country. The agency for which the student would like to work also can supply the data.

Ma; Best Man Win

By KATHY CARLON
Everywhere you look here at SHS you see nothing but signs glaring you in the face saying vote, vote, vote. Don't get me wrong, we're not complaining by any means. We love every minute of it. It's a great sign of school spirit so keep on with the signs and the speeches and may the best man win.
The big decision is who will be selected president of the student body. The candidates for that office are Sidney, Vihlan, Richard Phagan, Al Collins and Teddy Walker and take it from us they are all great guys and very well equipped for the position.
Be sure to register to vote because it's your decision that counts.

Compensation

By ANGELO CAMPAIGNE
May is here and a young man's skin turns to brass of aches, aching red. And at the beaches, this time of the year, the young ladies, too, seem to be soaking up many an ultraviolet ray — and in the most becoming ways.

Some people go to the beach for the water, they're the bright ones who won't be smothering and peeling the night after.
I haven't been to the beach yet this year, but memories of previous years cling as deeply now as the sunburn did then. I always remember my first hour at the beach every summer. I broil, bake, burn, beat, and brown, all in the same process; and it becomes monotonous when every year I do the same thing all over again.

Why do I do it? That's probably the sixty-four-million-dollar question. Why do people insist on submitting to such torture? It isn't because everybody else does it, because not all people are those mad dogs and Englishmen who go out in the noonday sun. The reason wouldn't be health purposes; not at my age, anyway. I suppose I never will know why I undertake this torture under the sun; I just will.

Some people can withstand sunburn and seawater in alternating layers. I do it, but I can't stand it! Of course a medley of sunburn, seawater, and a little sand on top is an absolute necessity for beachcombers, but I think that it's for the birds — the sunburned, seawater, sea-tired flamin'oes, as the case may be.

My advice to the tanned-to-be is don't see the doctor, don't ask your friend, don't buy sun-tan lotion merely to cheer your teeth, and just burn!
And at long last, when you finally manage a tan — with water in the lungs, sand in the hair, and salt thrown in for free — some person will go up to you slap you on the back and say, "What a nice tan!"

SHS Students Going All Out During Campaign

By WANDA GILBERT
All during the week campaigners have been looking like billboards with their little signs. Everyone is certainly in the voting mood. If our adult citizens would take as much pride in registering and voting as the students do, everyone would get a bigger thrill in supporting our country.
Some candidates went all out with posters and speeches. This isn't all that makes a candidate though.
The grades play a very important part. The leadership ability comes next. Personality has an awful lot to do with the success of the party.
Almost everyone can make a speech but not everyone has the ability to carry out the promises made during the campaigning. The candidates were carefully looked over on Thursday during assembly and on Friday during activity period.
The actual voting was done later.

Teachers primarily are hired for jobs "of a scientific, professional or analytical nature." They sometimes are retained as consultants after a summer season is over.
Post offices around the country hire their own summertime workers.
Some federal agencies offer work-study training programs to college students in pairs. One student works while his partner attends classes. At the end of each school quarter they swap places.

Ideal Girl

By KATHY CARLON
Can you imagine what it would be like to see one girl with all of the following features. All I can say is I hope she doesn't show up at Seminole High School:
1. Sylvia Price's hair
2. Faye Garner's eyes
3. Barbara Thomas' nose
4. Francis Strickland's teeth
5. Mary John's complexion
6. Linda Smith's disposition
7. Carol Nutt's figure
8. Sally Williams' hands
9. Mrs. Coleman's feet
10. Juanita Wynne's sense of humor.

'Meet Arizona'

By Wanda Gilbert
The title Club Operetta was conducted Tuesday night at the Pancreast auditorium. A lot of hard work went into this. Especially of Carol Nutt, who this so. In a short two-day notice she was given a leading role. Of course, this made a slight handicap on the whole like club but all went smoothly save Phillip Byrds itching beard. He played a very noble part in portraying another character, also.
Bill Tyre and Bobby Little were very realistic costumes as did the whole cast. Kay Jenkins especially was very attractive in the blue cowgirl outfit complete with boots.
The Duddines, cowgirls, had a very interesting evening while being guests at the Dude Ranch in Arizona.
Aunt Lavina, a very tame little gal, gave all the cowpokes a rough time. Wonder how many still have wrenched backs?
As in most operettas, the plot is based on love and gaiety. This one was even romantic in the end, which was of course to everyone was even romantic in the end.
Cappy, Henry Cason, always tried to make everyone fall in love. He succeeded in the case of Maria, Penny Marion and Antonio, Johnny Barley, Carlotta, Ann Davis, was always weeping over someone. This was all part of the plot, of course.
The jewelry and makeup used in this all added to the exquisite costuming which was almost best ever.
If you missed this, by some chance, you lost out on an riotous evening.
Who shall it be? Mr. T. Mr. V. Mr. P. or Mr. C.??? (Vote!) Write on card to see the man of big, bad Bobby's still around Maria's neck. (It will be a whole year pretty soon.)
Hey Linda H. we hear it's Bobby W. again. Is that true?
The May Day Ball will be over before most of you fellows ask a gal if you don't get busy ask fast. We're all just dying to go with ya'll. Hint, Hint!
Mary Grace and Pat you two sure were missed around here. So glad you're back.
Don't tell us just let us guess. Linda Cason and Al Collins are going steady. You two make a good team (politically speaking, of course).
Congratulations to the May Day court, especially Sylvia and Al!
Someone tell us what Faye Garner and Kathy Carlos have in common.
It's cool, it's crazy, it's cool! It's Bob Little and his Little Red Riding Hood outfit!
Anes S. where were you going in such a hurry Friday morning?
Signs, signs, signs. The whole school is cracking up, but it's great to see the old homestead so lively.
There seems to be a certain little glimmer in a certain pair of eyes that belong to a certain girl named Kathy Carlos for one certain guy.
Rennie Giles there is a cute freshman girl who just might like to get out with you. Why don't you wake up. Is that right J. B. ? hum-m-m??
Men were drivers in 29.7 per cent of fatal accidents in U.S. highways in 1956.
Of drivers in 1956 highway accidents, 96.7 per cent had more than one year's driving experience.

Planning

However, Dial emphasized that "under the law, before we adopt any route affecting any community, we must call a public hearing for the purpose of hearing objections."

"We do keep an open mind," he said, "and if anyone can show us a better location we'll be the first to buy it."
The alternate route, shown on the aerial photographs, contained District Engineer Riddle Green, would save approximately 500 feet but would be 750 feet longer in travel. Dial indicated that "before we build the route, we will be making changes."

"Until we get down to a point where we can recommend a route there is no cause to get unduly excited," said Dial. However, he said that the only way a route could be selected is to employ the best engineers to show a definite location then "throw it open to the public and let them speak."
"When we have this route laid down," said Dial, "the public will be the first to buy it."
Moving from the restaurant where Dial, Green, Harsh, and Lewis met with the Long Range Planning Committee, a public meeting was attended by approximately 500 people from various sections of the county.

There were a few scattered citizens from Maitland in Orange county and one or two from Volusia County.
Bradley Otham, chairman of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce Long Range Highway Planning Committee, explained that "there can be benefit from this meeting." The meeting had been announced as a hearing. However, the engineers on the Road Board member were prepared for a hearing since a definite route had not been established.

Dial explained that it may be five, six, seven, even 10 years before this road in Seminole County is built.
Wilson Alexander, Attorney for Jim Fox of Altamonte Springs who introduced himself as regular, speaking at the public meeting held some 600 citizens of Altamonte Springs and were interested in the proposed route. He said "We appreciate the route, which Dial said "would not hurt Altamonte Springs."

Have a bunch of reminders to write up today, so I think I'll just list them in order for each day and you can pick out the ones that concern you.
Monday Monthly meeting of "VAHT Wives", 8:00 p.m. at the U.S.O. Colored slides will be shown by Mrs. Pat Walsh, taken during a tour of duty in Port Lyautey; they also include surrounding areas in Africa.
Regular weekly square dancing lesson for all chiefs and their wives at Chief's Club, starting at 8:00 p.m. Don't forget to bring a "guest" couple.
Tuesday Monthly meeting of the First Reserve Association, 8:00 p.m. at the Chief's Club. This is just about the most important meeting of the year as election of officers for the coming year will be held at this time.
Thursday May meeting of the Chief's Wives Club, 8:00 p.m. at the Chief's Club. Also a very important meeting due to the election of officers to replace those who are serving in a temporary capacity. This will be for the election of president and vice-president only for a term of six months.
Friday Dance at the E. M. Club. Sidney Vilhien's orchestra will be playing. So try not to miss it. There are still a lot of enlisted men and their wives who have not been in the club since it was completely renovated, and this is KNOWN, because I've talked with some of them. You're in for a pleasant surprise if it will be your first time, and the club deserves a great deal more support than it's been getting. Remember, Friday night at "Armored Forces Day" Saturday is "Armored Forces Day" parade in downtown Sanford that all the "kids" will want to see and there will be "open house" aboard the Sanford Naval Air Station. To those civilians who may not have been "aboard" for some time, you'll be amazed at the changes that have taken place, and it will be well worth a trip out there.

Girls that about covers the things that are going on this week that might be of interest to you. Just realized that I have omitted an important thing about the business meeting and election of officers will be followed by a play-reading party that is being held in part some funds into the club treasury. There is usually something every housewife can use at one of these, and since it's for the good of the club, buy it now!

Hospital Careers Are Important To Community's Health, Welfare

When Florence Nightingale returned from the Crimean War just over a century ago to revolutionize nurses' training throughout the world, the first modern hospital career was born.

Hospitals, which generally had relied on untrained attendants to aid the physicians, began the expansion of services and trained personnel which continues today.

For example, in 1896, the first x-ray equipment in the United States was installed in the New York Post-Graduate Medical School and Hospital and in the Hahnemann Hospital in Chicago. In 1953, in the United States 95 per cent of the short-term general and special hospitals had x-ray facilities. Ninety-three per cent had clinical laboratories. In 1926, only 20 hospitals in the United States reported the use of electrocardiographs, while in 1953, a total of 84 per cent of all United States hospitals had electrocardiographs.

As the scope of hospital service expanded, the number of personnel and the variety of careers in hospitals expanded. The first professional nurse in the United States was graduated from the first organized nurse training school in 1873. Today there are 200 categories of hospital positions, ranging from accountants to x-ray technicians. In between these two are such careers as biochemist, dietitian, engineer, laboratory technician, maintenance man, medical record librarian, occupational therapist, pharmacist, switchboard operator, and wall and window washer.

In 1955, more than 1,300,000 full-time personnel who receive more than $3.5 billion in payroll were employed by hospitals of the United States. This represented an increase of 57 per cent in total hospital personnel and an increase of 225 per cent in payroll during the ten-year period previous to 1955. Yet from 1945 to 1955 the total of hospitals reporting statistics to the American Hospital Association rose only 14 per cent and the total of hospital beds 12 per cent.

This out-of-proportion increase in personnel reflected partly the tremendous growth in hospital services during the post-war decade, and partly the reduction in hours of the average hospital employee work-week. In spite of the increase in hospital personnel, hospitals still are faced with the pressing need for additional workers.

The need for more trained personnel for Italy's leaders seem likely to get a new record for complete political confusion.

Premier Antonio Segni has resigned after months of feuding which involves not only his own Christian Democratic Party, but every other political faction.

The feuding has been conducted not only between the various parties but inside the individual parties themselves.

And President Giovanni Gronchi, himself a Christian Democrat, is doing some feuding of his own.

At the moment, it seems unlikely that anybody can form a stable government before the next national parliamentary election is held. It may be necessary to advance the date of the election now scheduled for June, 1958.

Why Segni Resigned

Segni's resignation was forced when Vice Premier Giuseppe Saragat, leader of the right wing Socialist Party, pulled out of the coalition cabinet on the ground the government was no longer strong enough to carry out promised land reform and other programs.

The real reason appeared to be that Saragat's leadership of his own party was threatened. Involved in the tangle are Italy's foreign policies including its role in the North Atlantic Treaty Organization, the proposed merger of the right and left wings of the Socialist Party, and the extent to which President Gronchi is entitled to act as a policy maker.

Premier Segni took office 22 months ago as leader of a coalition which included his Christian Democrats, with 341 seats in the 630-seat Chamber of Deputies, the right wing Socialists with 10 seats, the Liberals with 13, the Republicans with 3 and two splinter specialized services is pointing up by the American Hospital Association statistics. The Association reported that in 1955, only 61 per cent of the short-term general and special hospitals in the United States had blood banks, and only 8 per cent had occupational therapy departments. Between these extremes were listed such services as pharmacy, 51 per cent; physical therapy department, 37 per cent; and social service department, 15 per cent.

In recognition of the growing need for additional hospital personnel, the American Hospital Association has selected the theme "Careers That Count" for the 1957 observance of National Hospital Week. The theme emphasizes the importance of all hospital careers to the health and welfare of the community. National Hospital Week, May 12-18, begins on the 137th anniversary of the birth of Florence Nightingale.

Handwriting

Anyone living through the last several decades has observed a considerable decline in the legibility of handwriting. It has been a gradual deterioration, and no one seems to know the cause.

In fact, no one apparently has been much concerned. Since some of the most notable celebrities have written almost illegibly, people seem to get the impression that this is a natural symbol of success.

This is a mistake, but even so it tends to place unjustifiably low value on good, clear handwriting. Now there seems to be a change of thought. Complaints are coming in from various sources about inability of school pupils and even college graduates to write clearly and distinctly.

One Harvard professor of psychology remarked: "Handwriting is getting worse. I have a hard time reading my own." Clearly, the time has come for renewed emphasis on handwriting in the schools.

Latest Medicine Miracle

An item marked "news" states that next time you cut your finger, the chances are you'll be spraying a bandage out of a can!

It's one of the latest miracles of modern medicine showing up on the shelves of the local stores over the nation.

What's more, the liquid spray contains an antibiotic, tyrothricin, which scientists say combats the spread of infection seven times faster than penicillin.

Other advantages it's said are that the bandage can be sprayed and applied in the most awkward spots, becomes a flexible film that allows free movement, is transparent, and rinses off in warm water.

What next? Informed by a man who pointed a gun at him that it was a holdup, a 74-year-old gasoline station operator shoved the gunman to one side and proceeded to wait on a customer. The gunman fled, probably bent on finding a victim who would believe him.

One thing is sure. Never before have so many of the American people been aware that the federal budget has a close connection with their personal budgets.

It looks now as if whoever becomes premier will be an unhappy man.

Things started cooking last year after Soviet Russian Communist leader Nikita S. Khrushchev attacked the Communist world by his repudiation of the policies of Joseph Stalin.

Negotiations were started to merge Saragat's right wing Socialists with the left wing Socialists of Pietro Nenni. The two factions had split because Nenni was a fellow traveler with the Communists. To date, the merger negotiations have got nowhere.

Dominant Party Splits
Dissension broke out in the dominant Christian Democratic Party.

A new complication arose because of criticism of Foreign Minister Gaetano Martino, who is a Liberal.

Ever since his election two years ago, President Gronchi has sought to make himself a power in politics. Actually the President of Italy is supposed to act as a non-party official, whose duties make him little more than a figurehead.

In March, Gronchi wrote a letter to President Eisenhower, sharply criticizing some American foreign policies. Foreign Minister Martino refused to send the letter. That helped to cause the present crisis.

Premier Segni took office 22 months ago as leader of a coalition which included his Christian Democrats, with 341 seats in the 630-seat Chamber of Deputies, the right wing Socialists with 10 seats, the Liberals with 13, the Republicans with 3 and two splinter

Veterans Corner

Here are authoritative answers from the Veterans Administration to questions of current interest to former servicemen and their families:

Q. I am a World War II veteran and I own a house bought with a GI loan. Suppose I have disposed of it for some coming reason after July 28, 1953 the deadline for World War II veterans applying for GI loan. If VA restored my entitlement would I be eligible for other GI loan even though the bill had passed?

A. Yes. If after the World War II loan deadline the VA stored your entitlement, you will be eligible for another VA loan. Your new deadline would be Jan. 31, 1955. Of course, VA would have to be relieved of frequently liability under the original loan.

Q. I hold a GI insurance policy and my list of beneficiaries is on file with the VA. Would it be possible to change my beneficiaries through my last will and testament, or would I have to notify VA of the change?

A. You could not change your beneficiaries through your last will and testament, even though you do have the right to make your original beneficiary designation in that way. You would have to notify VA of the change.

Q. VA has just given me a vocational approval for my Orphan's schooling. Would I be permitted to start school now under the program, before receiving vocational counseling and final approval?

A. Yes, you could begin school now under the program. But if vocational counseling indicates you would be better off in a course other than the one you select, and should you decide to change, you would be charged with one of the two changes of course allowed by law. However, if you arranged for your allowance to begin after approval, you would not be charged with a program change.

Q. What is the deadline for finishing vocational rehabilitation training under Public Law 194 for disabled Korean conflict veterans?

A. If you were discharged before Aug. 20, 1954, you have until Aug. 20, 1961, to complete your training. If you were discharged after Aug. 20, 1954, your deadline is Jan. 31, 1962, or nine years from discharge, whichever is earlier. Under some circumstances the deadline can be

WASHINGTON — Hog prices are increasing.

Sharply depressed a year ago they have advanced to the highest winter-spring level since 1954. The average price of hogs and pigs at Chicago for the week ended April 27 was $17.95 per hundred-weight. For the comparable period in 1954 it was $27.30. It shrank to $16.94 in 1956 and to $15.22 in 1955.

Recalling how fast 1954 prices collapsed, producers are wondering how long the present trend will hold.

Agriculture Department reports show that hog production has been cut considerably. The 1956 spring pig crop was reduced 9 per cent and the fall crop 4 per cent. This, coupled with the increase in population, means the pork supply per person is down. Consumption per person in 1955 was 67 pounds. It was 68 pounds in 1956. In 1957 it will be about 64 pounds.

Avoid Over-Supply
Hog Farmers have been trying to avoid over-supply. Last fall they planned to hold 1957 spring farrowings 2 per cent below 1956. A report for the more big corn hog states in early March indicated they may be exceeding intentions slightly. The report also indicated the size of litters in those states is up. The total spring crop may be about the same as last year. Also favorable to the outlook is the prospect for a smaller output of beef and a reduced total meat supply.

The late 1955-1956 peak in hog slaughter was timed exactly with a bulge in cattle slaughter. At that time cattle numbers on farms were at a cyclical peak. Also, feeders that winter held a back log of over-heavy steers that had to be sold.

Sets Record
As a result, total slaughter and meat output set a record in 1956 that probably will stand for some time. Consumption reached 147 pounds per person.

Cattle slaughter has stayed high in the last year because of liquidation. The January, 1957, inventory was down 1,600,000 head from 1956. The cow and heifer inventory was off 2 million from its 1955 high.

With this smaller inventory and with drought now generally relieved, department economists predict slaughter of cattle will drop in the next year or two. For 1957, total beef output will drop year.

below 1956 and total meat consumption will fall to 158 to 160 pounds.

The big question mark in the pork industry, however, is the strength of consumer demand. Consumers spent only 1.7 per cent of their incomes for pork in 1956. In 1953 they spent 2.3 per cent.

The economist reason that while the downward trend in pork demand is of a lasting nature, yet the very weak demand lately may reflect the over-abundant total meat supply. They say it is reasonable to assume that with less beef available demand for pork will stiffen. The department predicts prices of hogs will be seasonally high this summer, averaging higher than a year ago. The supply may not be changed much but more sons and girls probably will be withheld for breeding. Seasonal price declines this fall probably will be sharper than last fall but prices stand a good chance of remaining above 1956 until near the end of the 1957, total beef output will drop year.

Don't Treat Yourself For Stomach Trouble

By HERMAN N. BUNDISIN, M.D.

SMOTHERING stomach discomforts with unproven powders or pills could be a fatal mistake.

Cancer of the stomach, you must remember, is a silent saboteur. Even the slightest disorders should be thoroughly investigated by your physician.

While palliatives may stop the signs of trouble, they do not halt the cancer itself. And without treatment cancer will spread.

It's Curable

Cancer of the stomach causes more deaths than cancer of any other organ, yet it can be cured. If it is treated early enough.

Causes of cancer of the stomach are still unknown. However, we do have some knowledge about this disease.

Some cases, we know, begin with polyps, the formation of little grape-like tumors.

We also have evidence indicating that fat persons tend to develop stomach cancer more often than do thin persons. We know too, that there is some relation between pernicious anemia and stomach cancer. Just how they are connected, we do not know.

If you've got pernicious anemia, though, you should be especially alert for any signals which might indicate cancer of the stomach.

Among these are a vague uneasiness after eating, slight indigestion, slight difficulty in swallowing, distaste for certain foods, especially meat; the sensation that something is sticking low down in the chest.

Another symptom might be the eating of sour liquids or undigested food after eating.

Post Age 40

For those of you past the age of 40, the onset of indigestion should be looked into quickly.

While pain usually is not a symptom of early cancer of the stomach, it sometimes does occur after eating, either immediately or several hours later.

This pain might make you think you have ulcers since the symptoms are similar.

Ulcers of the stomach may be malignant, although ulcers in the duodenum or small intestine seldom are cancerous.

QUESTION AND ANSWER
Mrs. J. C.: What is the cause of heart palpitation or nervous heart? Do these symptoms indicate heart trouble?
Answer: As a rule, this condition is not due to a disease of the heart itself, but rather to nervous or emotional disorders.

Miss Beverly Benton Becomes Bride Of Joe Douthitt May 11

Miss Beverly Kay Benton became the bride of Joe Carl Douthitt in a candlelight double ring ceremony performed Saturday evening at the First Baptist Church.

Miss Benton is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Julian Lawrence Benton and Mr. Douthitt is the son of Mrs. Mills Douthitt of Little Rock, Ark.

Dr. W. P. Brooks Jr. officiated before an altar decorated with palms and baskets of gladioli and carnations mingled with fern. As the couple exchanged vows, Mrs. Marvin Milam, organist played softly traditional wedding music. "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer" were sung by Mrs. Nick Pfeiff.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was gowned in white tulle. The fitted bodice featured a V-neckline and long sleeves which tapered to points over her hands. The bouffant ballerina length skirt was accented by tiny tulle-covered buttons cascading down the front. Her finger tip veil of illusion fell from a halo of tulle and tiny seed pearls. A white bible topped with a white orchid and with white satin streamers completed her ensemble.

Mrs. Ralph A. Elliott, sister of the bride served as matron of honor and wore a gown of pale blue tulle with matching bandeau. She carried a nosegay of blue carnations.

Miss Joyce Benton, sister of the bride, acted as the bridesmaid and was attired in a gown of pink tulle with matching bandeau and carried a nosegay of pink carnations. Both gowns were similar to that of the bride except for sleeve length. Their dresses featured capped sleeves.

Wesley Hamill attended the groom as best man with Wendell Springfield and William Dole serving as groomsmen.

Mrs. Benton chose for her daughter's wedding a navy blue suit with white accessories and a white carnation corsage.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held in the educational building of the church. Decorations of candles surrounded by magnolia leaves and baskets of gladioli and carnations provided the background for the brides table. A three tiered wedding cake, and crystal appointments were placed around silver wedding bells and fern.

Assisting at the reception were: Mrs. Sylvester Kiddy, Mrs. Nick Pfeiff, Miss Patty Brown, Miss Jeanette Kinlaw, Mrs. Lucienne Robinson, Miss Ann Mims, and Mrs. Wesley Hamill.

For traveling in the new Mrs. Douthitt wore an aqua dress, white accessories and a corsage taken from the bridal bouquet.

After a short wedding trip the couple will be at home at 2134 West 16th Street.

Miss Benton was born in Sanford, Ark., attended Seminole High School and was a member of the band and glee club. She is presently employed by the Atlantic National Bank. Mr. Douthitt was born in Batesville, Ark., attended Little Rock High School and served several years with the U.S. Navy. He is now associated with the American National Insurance Company.

On The BOOKSHELF

SARA KING

I have so much to talk about in this column... it seems so long since I've had time to write that things in general have cooled.

First, and most important, I believe, is the new Mental Health Shelf. The Sanford Association has asked us to have a shelf for books which will give us from time to time. We think this is a wonderful addition to our library collection and hope they will be read and used to advantage. We have four on the shelf to begin with: "Mentally Ill in America" by Albert Deutsch; "A Mind That Found Itself" by Clifford Beers; "The Human Mind" by Karl Menninger; and "Mental Health Planning and Social Action" by Stevenson.

Next, the children's incentive reading program, which will be in on June 1 and end Aug. 31, is ready for the young applicants to sign up. And they have started to sign up. There are four programs from which to choose and the "Flight Log" is going fast. That's an airplane with insignias. There should be plenty of each kind, but have your child come in and ask about the program.

Some extra good non-fiction has been put out for circulation. "Three Faces of Eve" by Corbett Thigpen is the true story of a housewife who was three women in one. Five White's is a timely, shattering and troubled on her first visit to Dr. Thigpen's office at the University Hospital in Augusta, Ga. Later she proved to be one of the most remarkable cases of multiple personality ever heard of in modern medical history. As the story unfolds, it generates the excitement of a suspense novel.

"The Good Housekeeping Complete Wedding Guide" by Elizabeth Weston "Gypsy Rose Lee's Memoirs"; "Ships in the Sky," by John Toyland recalls the great shipwrecks and the many adventures of the courageous men who flew them. "Dr. Solomon Andrews' Flight in 1866," the exploits of the ships named after Count von Zeppelin and the noblest momentous flights are only a few of the records presented.

"Day of Infamy," by Walter Lord, is about the day on which Pearl Harbor was bombed. Walter Lord has talked to, and corresponded with, over 400 eye-witnesses, and "Life" reporters combed Japan for movie information. The result is a thrilling account of the men and women, both American and Japanese, who lived through this historic day.

Book of the month for April is "Double Selection," "Day of Infamy" and "Say Darling" by Richard Bissell, in which the gaudy world of the theatre forms the background. Jack Jordan, fresh from Indiana, is the main character in this comedy. Arriving in New York to collaborate with the young genius, Richard Harcourt, on a musical version of his book, Jack is prepared for almost anything—except what happens!

Seabreeze Makes 12 Runs In First To Beat Pierson

Seabreeze smothered the Pierson attempt to gain a berth in the Sub-Group Championship in a game called at the end of the third inning with Seabreeze winning 12-1.

Pierson went through two pitchers in the three innings but failed to hit a 12 run spree by Seabreeze in the first inning. Carlisle Robinson and Vernon Rainwater were the two hurlers with the former being charged with nine of the first inning scores and the latter with three.

Tiny sophomore Danny Westberry put a dinky curve ball on display that kept all possible opposition at a minimum.

Babe Ruth Team To Play First Game Tomorrow

By Mrs. Raymond Morris CASSELLBERRY—A Babe Ruth baseball team, with a full roster of 25 players, has been organized here and is scheduled to meet Longwood in its first home game on Tues. afternoon, according to Phil Bates, local Association President and promoter of the team.

The team, known as the Casselberry Cubs, will be managed and coached by Carlisle Swafford of Altamonte Springs. Players must be 12 years old, and not more than 15 years of age to be eligible. To meet league requirements, each player must present his birth certificate.

No team is permitted to field more than five 15 year old players, nor less than five 12 year olds during any game.

Uniforms have been ordered and are expected to arrive before Tuesday's game. Babe Ruth league teams must appear on the diamond in full regulation uniforms. Should the uniforms not arrive before game time Tues., the opening home game will have to be rescheduled.

Coach Swafford said that he is primarily interested in promoting clean, competitive sportsmanship at all times. Swafford also said that, while he would like to have a winning team, he will give all players a fair share of playing time, even though in some games, the score might be a losing one.

A 24 game schedule has been arranged with teams from Altamonte Springs, Longwood and Oviedo, the other teams comprising the Seminole Babe Ruth league.

A crew of workmen, under direction of Bates, laid out a regulation baseball diamond in the Casselberry Recreation Park, where the Little League Indians also play. Clay for the new diamond was furnished by the County Commission. Little Leaguers will use the new diamond, with base lines shortened to their requirements. Adjacent to the new playing field, there will also be a practice diamond for both teams.

Backers of the local team have contributed $214. Bates said. Donations continue to come in. Bates added, and the goal of $400 is expected to be reached soon.

Public To Watch Spring Training

Dave Laude, who will head the spring training for next year's edition of the Sanford Seminole footballers, said this morning that the public was invited to watch the training beginning tomorrow.

Laude said training would begin today, but that time would be devoted just to looking over the potential.

Later in the week the three coaches, Dick Silvers, Dave Laude, and Bud Lauer will divide the candidates into three teams and scrimmage daily.

"Next year looks like a good year," Laude said.

Bracken Pitches No Hitter

Andy Bracken, with a wide breaking curve ball and plenty of speed, pitched the Sanford Semi-Pro to a season opening victory over the Orlando Aces 2-1 yesterday before the game was called after the fifth inning due to rain.

Bracken had trouble with his control and was pulled in the sixth but he still had failed to give up a run as the game was called off-way in the sixth and the official game reverted back to the last complete inning played, the fifth.

The Sanford nine rapped out five hits off Aces pitcher Gerald Rooks and converted them into two scores with the aid of an error on the third base throw to first that went wild.

The sole Ace score came in the third inning after two walks and a stolen base when Bracken was judged guilty of a balk, to walk the first.

Catcher Dave Laude had a perfect day as he blasted two sharp singles in two official times at

Barbour Pitches SHS To Win Over Lions

Behind the two hit, 16 strike-out pitching of Eddie Barbour, the Sanford Seminoles powered the Oviedo Lions 15-2 Friday night in Memorial Stadium.

Dominating the ball game in the first innings, the Lions felt before the devastating power of the Seminoles at the plate but never gave up and even pushed across two runs in the top of the seventh inning.

Luther Duda was the power behind the Oviedo hopes as he stepped out a triple and a home run, showing across all the Oviedo and ing. Luther was the only Lion that managed to hit off Barbour.

Barbour had only slight control problem for the whole game and walked only seven. With a 12 hit support behind him he proved his versatility at the plate by rapping out two solid home four trips.

Doyle Corley, Jimmie Eas, Bentley Schirra, Cecil Hendricks, and Barbour all notched twice for the Seminole effort while Johnny Yearke, Claude Hill, and Ken McMurray got one apiece apiece.

Knowles Praised For Effort To Aid Semi-Pro Opener

By Hugh Asaley

W. W. "Red" Hires, through whose efforts Sanford has fielded its strongest Semi-pro team in years, yesterday praised City Manager Warren E. Knowles for his outstanding efforts to aid the Sanford Semi-pros in their opening game despite intense campaigning of the City work load and prior commitment on the use of Memorial Stadium yesterday.

Working fast swing in getting the Farmery Auction so that rebuilding could take place with maximum efficiency, Knowles made the almost impossible task of freeing a work unit to move the temporary bleachers from inside Memorial Stadium to Field 1 of the New York Giants Farm so that opening game spectators could be accommodated.

Hires said that the City has always been helpful in trying to keep baseball in Sanford and this year was not an exception.

It was learned Friday that Knowles had somehow managed to reschedule the City work schedule, despite what seemed the year's hardest rain, to move the temporary bleachers to Field 1 several hours prior to an article stating the contrary.

Mayor David Gatchel was adamant in his praise of Knowles for

Smith Slated To Pitch For SHS Tomorrow Nite

Sanford and Seabreeze will clash head-on tomorrow night in Memorial Stadium for the Sub-Group Championship at 8 p.m. The game, originally scheduled to be played last Saturday night, was rained out by the heaviest downpour so far this year.

Seminole baseball mentor Dave Laude said this morning that he was starting L. C. Smith against the highly touted Seabreeze said to be the top team in Volusia County.

Will Loggier is scheduled to start on the mound for Seabreeze in the game that will decide who and where the Group Tournament will be played.

In a scheduled meeting at 4 p.m. tomorrow afternoon at Seminole High School the Group 1 members of District 5 will get together to decide on a site for the Group Tournament. Laude said he was strongly considering bidding for the site to be held in Memorial Stadium, but also stated that the agreement would be provisional and subject to cancellation should Seabreeze eliminate Sanford tomorrow night.

doing the seemingly impossible.

The Friday morning rearranging made it possible for more than 120 fans to enjoy watching the Sanford Semi-Pro open their season with a 2-1 victory over the highly touted Orlando Aces.

Laude had high praise for the showing his charges made against Oviedo last Friday night. "That is not the same ball club we've played before," he remarked, "and it took a good ball game to take the start out of them. They were up for the game."

Laude pointed to the even distribution of hitting of his charges and said that the extra sessions of batting practice have been paying off. He hinted that there may be some reshuffling of the lineup at the plate to get better and faster results off Seabreeze's outstanding pitcher, Loggier, who hasn't lost a game all season.

"They have been holding him for this game, and he'll be tough," Laude remarked.

Laude said that he thought his charges were primed for the Championship and would make a highly competitive game out of the effort. "We're looking for the win that has the Championship as its prize," Laude said.
