

SANFORD'S BUILDING RECORD FOR THE PAST YEAR

IT IS ONE THAT EVERY CITIZEN CAN POINT TO WITH MUCH PRIDE

That Sanford has had a steady growth during the past year is best evidenced by the figures of the city clerk...

One of the strongest factors in the building of homes in this city has been the Sanford Building & Loan Association...

Other business men there are who make a specialty of building homes for people to buy on the installment plan...

With all that is likely to take place in the building line here this spring and summer the good record of 1914 will probably be doubled...

Among the Methodists

We will have our regular Sunday school at 9:45 a. m. All the parents are earnestly requested to send or better yet, bring their children...

Dr. Bouchelle has made a most generous offer to our school of a nice present to the girl or boy who will bring the most new scholars into the school...

At the regular church service at 11 o'clock we will have the pleasure of hearing Dr. J. A. Bowen of Birmingham, Ala. All strangers and visitors, as well as our members are cordially invited to attend...

All members are requested to hand names and addresses of any strangers and visitors to the ushers that we may become acquainted with them.

Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Kelly, who have been residing in Jacksonville for the past year have just returned to Sanford and are located in the Beck house, West Second street.

Rev. George Hyman Returned

After an absence of two weeks from the city Rev. George Hyman, pastor of the Baptist church has returned and will speak at the Baptist Temple on next Sunday morning at 11 a. m. The subject of the discourse will be "A Prayer for Enrichment."

The other services for Sunday are as follows: Bible school at 9:30 a. m. Sr. and Jr. B. Y. P. U. at 6:00. Mr. Uphaw at 7 p. m. The public generally is welcomed to all of the services and polite ushers will see that you are comfortably seated.

All Ready at Tampa

Tampa, Feb. 12. With every spectacular feature in readiness for production, the Gasparilla Carnival, which opens Friday and closes Tuesday evening will undoubtedly prove the most brilliant event of Tampa's history.

Beginning with the staging of the magnificent outdoor pageant, "The Coming of the Spaniard," in which several thousand Americans, Spaniards and Cubans will participate, and ending with the brilliant Gasparilla coronation ball and masked balls in all American and foreign clubs on Tuesday evening, each day will be replete with spectacular parades, aviation flights, day and night fireworks displays, night street dancing by gaily costumed thousands and other features.

SEMINOLE EXHIBIT TAKES FIRST PRIZE

GREAT LITTLE COUNTY COVERS HERSELF WITH GLORY ONCE MORE

Word comes to this city that Seminole won the grand county prize at the fair in Orlando yesterday. There were many other good county exhibits but none so complete and so well arranged as that of Seminole county. This was probably due to the fact that the exhibits were collected and arranged in this city for the Seminole County Fair first...

And then the principal reason for Seminole county taking the prize is that Seminole county is just one great little county and as this paper has stated from time to time is in the heart of the fruit and vegetable section of the state.

Great is Seminole

Gasparilla Opens Today

Tampa, Feb. 12 With indications that all former attendance records from other states will be broken by a wide margin, the tenth annual Gasparilla Carnival opened today and will close Tuesday at midnight. In every feature the carnival will be more brilliant than those of former years, and as every attraction will be free great good will undoubtedly result to the entire section.

Monday and Tuesday will be the most brilliant days of the carnival. The feature of Monday will be the landing of the pirate Gasparilla and his phantom crew, followed by the most beautiful parade ever seen in the south outside of New Orleans. Tuesday will be "Citrus Fruit Day," and the largest parade of the entire period will be held on that day. The celebration will be closed with the gorgeous Gasparilla coronation ball, masked balls in all American and foreign clubs, and street dancing by gaily costumed thousands. Thirty thousand electric lights of red and green—the Gasparilla colors—illuminate the section of Franklin street on which the dances will be held.

Tampa is thoroughly prepared to take care of larger crowds than have ever visited a Florida city before.

BEST ATTRACTIONS THAT HAVE EVER BEEN SEEN HERE

THE SANFORD CHAUTAUQUA IS PLEASING THE PEOPLE OF THIS CITY

On Tuesday morning last at the High School Auditorium, was begun Sanford's first Chautauqua. While but few were present at its opening the attendance has increased each Chautauqua hour and from these fortunate ones you can hear naught but the highest commendations.

The Chautauqua is an educational, inspiring and elevating institution, is too well known to the reading and thinking public to require any explanation or comment at our hands yet for various causes our people are not availing themselves of this great opportunity it so richly affords. We all know that the human mind, capable of reasoning and susceptible to instruction is constantly craving new thoughts, broader visions of life and real mental entertainment, then why can it be possible that we sit idly by when we have in our midst some of the best talent in America to instruct and entertain us. For the music loving public there is a rare treat in store, both vocal and instrumental. On Thursday Roger Gosden Orchestra was here and gave several numbers which were grand beyond description. On this day also Miss Ethel Lee Buxton appeared and held her audience spellbound with her exquisitely sweet soprano voice. Miss Buxton was regarded as one of the sweetest singers that appeared before the Mother Chautauqua last year, hence it is no wonder that we who rarely have the opportunity of hearing one of the best singers in the land, should sit entranced before her. There also appeared Miss Meddie O. Hamilton, in a beautiful lecture on "The Brotherhood of Men in Literature" which will be a lasting memory in the minds of her hearers.

Prof. Chas. Lane, the noted Georgian humorist, held his audience in fits of laughter for over an hour on Wednesday morning. Some of his hearers have not been able to attend since, having made themselves so sore from their unusual merriment. In the afternoon, three charming young ladies, known in Chautauqua circles as the "Three Favorites" gave renditions of song, recitation and instrumental music to the delight of all. Miss Cawthorne, the reader in this trio was called and recalled to the stage and later even asked to repeat some recitations, showing the great favor she obtained. In the evening Mr. Jas. H. Coan, lectured upon the subject, "I Am The State" and we submit that Sanford people never had the opportunity of hearing a better criticism of our Government, its opportunities and its difficulties. It would take years of reading and study to gain the facts so clearly explained by Mr. Show.

On Thursday morning "Bible Study" by Rev. P. F. Adams was much appreciated.

In the afternoon, Miss Maude Willis read the play, "In the Vanguard," and to say that it was appreciated and enjoyed would be mild statement. As she spoke we glanced about the auditorium and we never beheld an audience so completely absorbed, their every expression being one of delight.

Today, Friday, we will enjoy a musical treat by Helen Clark Legg, who bears the reputation of an artist, and from her picture we would judge she would be good to look upon.

Hon. Lou J. Beauchamp will deliver his famous lecture, "Taking the Sunny Side." There is no man upon the American platform today that receives more universal praise than Beauchamp. He has spent much of his life in travel, the object of which was to gain an adequate conception of the condition and environment of the vast majority of mankind, so that his efforts might be directed towards the amelioration of the difficulties of downtrodden humanity. He has the happy faculty of enlightening his hearers and of giving them a higher conception of their duty one toward another. You cannot afford to miss this lecture.

On Saturday Miss Janette Broomell, a reader and child impersonator

AUSPICIOUS OPENING OF THE SUB-TROPICAL FAIR

ORLANDO HAS THOUSANDS OF VISITORS IN ATTENDANCE AT EXPOSITION

Orlando, Feb. 11.—One hundred and fifty gaily and artistically decorated floats and automobiles joined the big parade Tuesday morning and opened the first day of the big Sub-Tropical Mid-Winter Fair in this city. The parade did not start until 10:30, but by 9 o'clock the streets were crowded with men, women and children, white and black; American, English, German, French, Scotch, Scandinavian and nearly every other nationality represented in the cosmopolitan winter population of one of the best inland cities of Florida.

The procession formed in front of the court house and moved around Lake Lucerne and Lake Eola and through several streets before starting north on Orange avenue, for the fair grounds.

There were two divisions of the parade. The horse drawn vehicles moving more slowly than the cars was started first and included the following: Mounted police headed by Chief William Smith, Mayor Sperry, and other city officials in automobiles, a troop of Boy Scouts, Johnny Jones' Band, the Orlando Fire Department and four wagons and engine, the city street cleaning department, with the workmen dressed in white and the wagons bearing placards: "Our Millage is 13 mills. How Much is Yours?" and the amounts expended during the past year were announced by cards as follows: Schools, Fifty Thousand Dollars; Streets, One Hundred and Fifty Thousand Dollars; New Buildings, Five Hundred and Ninety Thousand Dollars; Parks, Ten Thousand Dollars; Sidewalks, Five Thousand Dollars; Churches, One Hundred and Fifty Thousand Dollars, etc.

Floas of business houses as follows: Yowell Duckworth Company, a very artistic float filled with young ladies; Dickson Ives Company, a beautiful float; Orlando Shoe Hospital, Long's Dray Line, F. H. Yver, Artificial Stone, Orlando Novelty Works, Calson Bros., Sprayers, Motor Wagon Works, Orlando Wood Yard, the Morning Sentinel carrier boys, Branch's Book Store, Victrolas, Yowell Duckworth Company, rig department; R. S. Brown, upholstery; W. M. A. Lodge, H. E. Hand, Ice, Estes Pharmacy, South Florida Foundry, Hoeft's Ice Cream Factory, Orlando Steam Laundry, Orlando Woman's Suffrage League, six cars fully decorated and carrying the members of the league dressed in the league colors, etc., etc.

No prizes were offered for the best floats, but nearly all of them showed great originality in construction and some of them were really beautiful. After arriving at the fair grounds there were opening exercises in the main hall and during the forenoon Aviator Carl Kuhl made a fine flight in his aeroplane which was witnessed by thousands of visitors and residents who watched the sky and the clouds for an hour or two waiting for the flight. The weather is cool but clear, and everything indicates a large attendance and a big time for every one. The exhibits from Osceola, Seminole and Volusia counties are in place and are already receiving a great amount of praise from all who see them. Many fine horses are on the grounds and racing began this forenoon and will continue all through the week.

Sanford, Feb. 11. The Orange County Fair to be held this week in Orlando opened Tuesday and Mr. Alex. French, who is in charge of the exhibits from Seminole county has arranged a splendid display at Orlando, which will be a credit not only to Seminole but to the Orange County Fair as well. Mrs. H. C. Gerror is in charge of the women's exhibits which were transferred to Orlando, and an excellent exhibit was sent to that city. Several teachers from the Sanford High School went to Orlando Monday to arrange the school exhibit, and the work will reflect much credit upon pupils and teachers alike. That the Mid-Winter Fair at Orlando will be a great success is attested by the active interest shown on all sides, particularly those in charge.

Many Sanford residents are planning to visit the fair each day, but a large number of automobile owners are planning to make Friday a special day.

Dr. J. A. Bowen, Evangelist Rev. J. A. Bowen of Birmingham, Alabama, who has made several visits to Sanford and who conducted a great revival in the Methodist church here two years ago will occupy the pulpit at the morning hour next Sunday. This will be pleasing news to Dr. Bowen's many friends in Sanford, who will be glad of another opportunity of hearing him. Those who have not heard him will be delighted with his practical as well as scholarly way of presenting the truth. Everyone will be welcome. The Star Theatre can seat at least 400 people. This is the place where Dr. Bowen will preach.

Special services will be held in the evening at the Star Theater. It is expected that a visiting minister connected with the Sanford Chautauqua will speak at this service. Possibly this speaker will be Rev. J. B. Culpepper of national fame as a revivalist. Positive announcement will be made at Sunday morning worship.

The Ceellian Music Club will meet in the studio of Mrs. Munson on Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

NEGRO MURDERER HAS BEEN CAUGHT

THE ALLEGED SLAYER OF GARDNER BROTHERS IN TOILS OF LAW

Jacksonville, Fla., Feb. 12. Clyde Stover, the negro pilot who is alleged to have murdered H. C. and Alonzo Gardner in a dense swamp on the Ocklawaha, was arrested tonight at Elizabethton, Tenn., according to advices to the police here. Stover is alleged, spent two days in Jacksonville after his sudden departure from Welaka, where he gave the Gardner brothers' boat away to negroes and the police at once got busy and Chief Detective W. B. Cahoon was dispatched in pursuit, having trailed him through Georgia into Tennessee.

In the meantime messages were sent ahead to Elizabethton asking that Stover be arrested if he appeared there. Detective Cahoon was caught by wire and will be in Elizabethton tomorrow for his man. The message stated that Stover had in his possession a suitcase and overcoat bearing the description of the property taken from the boat belonging to the Gardners.

A warrant is being mailed out tonight for Stover, charging him with the murder of Alonzo Gardner, but it is not believed he will fight requisition.

Gardner's Body Shipped

The body of Alonzo Gardner, found in a dense palmetto-swamp near Welaka on the Ocklawaha river several days ago was shipped today to North Adams, Mass., for interment accompanied by Mrs. Gardner and her sister, Miss Waddell.

H. E. Gardner of Washington who was called to Florida by the disappearance of his two brothers will remain and lead a searching party which left today for the point where Alonzo Gardner's body was found in hopes of finding some trace of H. S. Gardner's body.

Congregational Church

Owing to the illness last Sunday night of the church organist, Miss Frances Aspinwell, the musical prelude was postponed to next Sunday night at 7 o'clock. Special selections are prepared for the occasion, three numbers on the organ, a violin obligato and a ladies' trio. A hearty welcome awaits all who desire to come.

In the evening also, the second of the series, "Re-Making a Present Day Faith" will be given. A goodly number listened to the first of the series last Sunday.

At the morning service, a petition preparatory to the Gov. Glenn temperance meeting will be offered. The third sermon on the Lord's Prayer will also be given.

All who seek a broad message for today and a clear cut understanding of christianity as applied to the problems of the present are urged to worship with us, providing they have no other church home.

Mr. and Mrs. Fern Tarbell visited Sanford last Tuesday.

Miss Beale Proctor is visiting her sister in Orlando for a few days.

Rev. Stones of Oviedo filled his regular appointment in Geneva Sunday preaching one of a series of sermons on Jesus as "Prophet, Priest and King."

Quite a large delegation of Geneva citizens attended Seminole county's first fair. Every one was wonderfully surprised and encouraged that an infant county could make such a splendid showing, for it was indeed good. There was good management and lots of hard work behind all of it. Everything was in perfect order, safe even for little children to be on the streets alone. Too much cannot be said in praise of the Sanford people for their interest, work and pride in the fair and their cordiality to the visitors. Sanford should feel proud of her efforts and the results. The beautiful handwork displayed in the Sanford and Oviedo booths was most interesting to all the ladies. Geneva feels justly proud of the fact that the Wakefield Preserving Co. took first and special premiums on preserves and jellies, also on crystallized fruits and that Mrs. Henry Baker of Geneva also took first and special premiums on her palmetto work. This work was exceptionally beautiful being done by a lady of her age. Mrs. J. T. McLain's palmetto work took second premium, making quite an enviable number of premiums for one place. There were too many good things to mention them all but Sanford and Seminole county can with pride wrap the cloak of satisfaction around her borders and feel good over her first fair.

CHULUOTA SNAPSHOTS

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the Baptist church here Sunday night, when J. Frank Story of this place and Miss Blanche Green of Winter Park were united in the bonds of holy wedlock at 8 o'clock February 7th. The church was beautifully decorated in evergreens and colladiums, with a bank of flowering pot plants.

The bridesmaids and groomsmen were Miss Sadia Blackburn and Edwin Jacobs, Miss Josie Story, sister of the groom, and J. W. Osteen, Mrs. J. M. Osteen, another sister of the groom, a bride of three months was matron of honor with J. Tilden Jacobs as best man. Mrs. Osteen wore her own wedding gown of snowy white satin decorated in pearl trimmings and wore pink roses. Miss Story and Miss Blackburn wore white silk with pink roses.

The bride was lovely in white satin with lace trimmings. The bridal veil was beautifully embroidered and was caught in place by a wreath of orange blossoms. She carried an arm bouquet of bride roses and star jessamine.

The party entered to the strains of Lohengrin's Bridal Chorus, played by Mrs. J. Tilden Jacobs, and formed a group around the bridal arch, under which the bride and groom stood during the ceremony, which included the giving away and was performed by Rev. Guthrie of Oviedo. The ring was carried by little Hazel Jacobs who walked with little Edna Bentley, who preceded Evelyn Jacobs and Verlie Prevatt, who scattered a profusion of rose petals directly in the path of the bridal pair. After the ceremony the party repaired to the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Story, parents of the groom where an elegant wedding supper was served. After which the groom took his bride to their home at the Robert Thrasher place, which is near his father's. The groom is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Story and is an excellent young man. His friends feel he is worthy of the prize he has won for his own. The bride is the youngest daughter of Mrs. Green of Winter Park, and is a lovely and lovable girl, who will make a charming mistress of the home she is to grace. The best wishes of many friends go with them on their life's voyage.

PAOLA POINTS

Mrs. Jones and daughter, Mrs. Baker of New York are enjoying the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Patton.

Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds of Cleveland, Ohio, relatives of Mrs. Buchanan are visiting at the charming Buchanan home.

Mrs. Cooley arrived Thursday, and she and Miss Fannie are now settled in their own home for the rest of the season.

Mr. and Mrs. VanDusen and child, who have been spending some time with Mr. and Mrs. Patton left on Wednesday to visit other points of interest in the state.

Nearly the entire population of Paola and Twin Lakes visited the county fair last week and all seem of one opinion as to its merits and their enjoyment of the same. "We all" surely feel proud of Seminole's first fair, which we hope may be still better next year.

Mrs. F. A. Johnson captured no less than eight premiums at the fair last week.

In a severe spell of coughing recently Mrs. Frases fractured a rib, and has suffered much discomfort from the accident. Under Dr. Neal's careful treatment she is rapidly improving and is able to be about again.

Miss Taber wishes to publicly thank Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland for their kindness and trouble in preparing and exhibiting for her the trio of White Plymouth Rocks that took first and second premiums at the county fair.

Mr. and Miss Campbell are taking in the Orlando fair this week.

Mrs. Britzfeld is spending a week at Twin Lakes Plantation.

One of the happiest events of the season was the surprise party given Miss Taber on her 57th birthday, February 2nd. The evening was cool and pleasant, and Paolaites assembling at a given hour all drove over to Twin Lakes together, forming quite a procession, the Buchanan team leading, and Mr. McGuinn bringing up the rear with a load packed in hay. Miss Taber's first intimation of what was to happen was hearing the approach of the party, as she was out shutting up her chickens for the night. Stopping to listen to the unusual clamor of voices and laughter, she spied the glimmering light of moving lanterns, and guessed at once what was in the air. The house was soon "full to overflowing," and the evening was pleasantly spent in conversation, music, dancing and games. The crowd brought their own refreshments and fine coffee and many varieties of delicious cake were

THE NEWEST INTRODUCTION!

"The Velvet Kind"

The Cream of All Ice Creams

People all over Florida can now secure this wonderful cream. The kind that has captivated the people everywhere. To the scrupulous care in making is due its richness, its flavor. The raw cream comes from the finest Government inspected farms. It is tested in our own laboratory for its per cent of butter fat. The very finest quality of fruit and nuts are used in the Velvet Kind. To make sure of the destruction of all bacteria, all milk is sterilized, subjected to 180 degrees of heat. After the ingredients are mixed the cream is gradually cooled to 32 degrees—then it is placed in freezer and from the freezer transferred to the cooling room to harden, this room is kept at 10° all times.

No human hands touch it. It is made in a plant where the sanitation could not possibly be improved.

Order it at the fountain, at your favorite store. If you have not yet handled it, write us, and we will see that you are satisfied.

LAND SHARKS AND ARE THEY STILL OPERATING IN FLORIDA?

JACKSONVILLE METROPOLIS

"The land shark is doing the fair land of Florida a vast deal of harm. Kill him. Publicly, without mercy, is the proper medicine."—Fort Lauderdale Herald.

There has been much said in Florida and out of Florida about "land sharks" and the damage they have done the state. But we believe that this sort of thing is more or less overdone. It may be that we are not informed, and that we are overlooking some of the things that are being done to the detriment of Florida, but some one would have to convince us that this is true.

We hold no brief for the so-called land-sharks, whoever they may be, or whoever they were. We don't know them, and we really do not believe there are land sharks now operating in Florida on a scale of dangerous proportions.

In the past, there is no doubt, that there has been misrepresentation of the land-sharks and as a result has been worked on people who have invested their money here—but that will happen in any state where land is sold. Just as every grocer in the world is not above giving short weights, is that a reason why all grocers should be accused of being dishonest? There are dishonest men in all lines of business, and in all professions. If there are dishonest land men in Florida, let's get after them and put them out of business. But let's stop this indiscriminate talk about land sharks. It isn't fair to all land dealers, and it isn't fair to the good name of the state. It suggests crooks, robberies, hold-ups and a general state of deception, which certainly doesn't exist in Florida.

When it comes to misrepresentation as to lands, that is done in every state where lands are offered for sale. We have seen "choice agricultural lands" sold in Michigan that were never under less than two feet of water. We have seen "high grade farming land" in California that was nothing but a bare rock, and a Mexican cowboy tried, and couldn't even raise a disturbance on it, and when they can't raise a disturbance when they mix it is hard indeed to raise anything of that kind of land.

There are a lot of good boosters among the land men in Florida. They are doing the state a lot of good. They are doing their work conscientiously, and when the press takes up the cry of "land sharks" it puts all land propositions more or less in disrepute.

It is true that men have been arrested, indicted and tried for misrepresentation of Florida lands that have sold. These men, however, have been taken care of, and have been made worse off than those in other states, that is, as those mentioned, much less arrested and tried and convicted. On the whole, we believe the land shark has had a harder time in Florida than anywhere, and the public has been more fully protected in the state than elsewhere.

We believe in Florida that the land sharks are still operating, and where men have actually been convicted for frauds, that those who purchased the land will still find them a good investment. We do not believe any one can go far wrong in investing in Florida lands. To prove our faith in our attitude, we shall be glad to publish any facts about the operation of land sharks in the state. We don't mean simple statements, but facts that can be proved in court. We think this statement is necessary in the interest of the fair name of Florida, and the land men who are doing all in their power to not only sell lands, but to get people to locate on the lands and develop them.

Let's stop these cries of land sharks, and everybody boost for Florida, the stable, substantial Florida that has a thousand inducements to offer the men who actually seek a home or an opportunity to better their condition, and have the brains, the money and courage to take hold of the proposition of a new home in a new country, and make good with it.

Orlando Day at Sanford
The largest procession of automobiles ever assembled in Orlando paraded out of the city for Sanford, twenty-two miles distant, Thursday morning at 9 o'clock, there being, all told, over a hundred, entering Sanford. All along the route crowds of people stood expectantly watching and many demonstrations were indulged in.

At Sanford, just at the city entrance, a banner spanned the street with words of "Welcome" upon it, and the High School windows were crowded with students, waving salutes. The people of Sanford tumbled over each other in their eagerness and good cheer. Never was an Orlando crowd so joyous, and for a reason. A woman who would have thought they were long lost brothers, just discovered, and certainly. The late replica actress, who, while forgotten in the real world, was free celery and salt were dispensed.

And, having beaten on their salt and cheered their southern garden, sass surely in Orlando can ever more grudge them freedom from the bonds of old things. Eat grass, eat the sugar, and simply acknowledge the same, not putting that sugar on the cake in her first county fair. Her art exhibit was very creditable for school exhibit was the best we ever saw, but she kept exhibit was exception, all free for exhibit of ladies goods, flowers, plants, frozen products and particularly her field and garden. 1915 was of the finest order.

Great Fair at Orlando

One of the principal reasons for which county fairs are held is for the purpose of exploiting the products of the soil, and not since Orange county was organized for this purpose has there been a better display than is shown in the farm products at the Orlando Midwinter Fair, which for the second time is being held in conjunction with Volusia, Seminole and Osceola counties.

The heart of the genuine old farmer is made to rejoice as he strolls through the north wing of the main building where is displayed the largest variety and most splendid array of farm products ever shown in the Orange county exhibit. There is absolutely nothing grown in other states that is not grown here, some of which are Kaffir corn, milo, maize, German millet, oats, sorghum, tobacco, cassava, Indian corn, spring wheat, 25 bushels or more to acre, pearl millet, beggar weed in seed, sugar cane, barley, crab grass seven feet high, Japanese cane, crow grass nine feet tall, headless barley rust proof red clover two feet high, grown from seed in sixty days, the "hundred bushel oats," cow pea hay, etc. while all of the various kinds of vegetables are shown in quantities and of a quality most tempting to visitors from the states where the frost king yet reigns.

Crossing the passageway to the east side the entire length of the wing is taken up by the splendid display that has come from Seminole county. Visitors are at once greeted by Mrs. A. V. French, the manager, who occupies one of the comfortable native wood chairs. The "Horn of Plenty," filled with choicest "Horn of Plenty," filled with choicest vegetables, and decorated with flowers, gives evidence of a land of trucking interests. Next is the clergy, displaying a miniature field of the product that has given prominence to the section from which it comes. The background is a wall painting, extending the great glory held far in the distance, and depicting a most realistic view of a tobacco plantation. The idea was a good one, and its effect is at once apparent from the point where the eyes of the visitor is growing at the exhibit. The entire south end is taken up by the preserving department and the splendid display is most attractive. The citrus fruit of Seminole are also attractive by the way. Reporter Staff.

Bully for Sanford boosters. That street fair was a stunning success, Orlando Citizen.

Seminole county did he: first attempt at a county fair with much more than a fair degree of success, Orlando Citizen.

Seminole's county fair was a decided success. The "baby county" always does things well and on a large scale.—Tampa Times.

The unimportant quarrels, chronicled with great accuracy and dignity in the Congressional Record, remind us that our statesmen (lower case) are engaged in controversies that make the debate about which is the tale end of an angle worm seem a really serious argument.

The Arcadia News says that the recent amazing inaccuracy of the Sanford Herald in stating that Orlando was the best inland town in Florida was most likely a case of "irony mixed with satire." That may be, but seeking to put a more charitable construction on it, it seems to be merely a trial flight of Bob Holly's imagination to see how his wings worked.—Lakeland Telegram.

How uncharitable! When a man really makes a truthful statement the rabble tries to stone him to death. Truth crushed to earth, etc.

Few people stop to think that Florida is growing faster than any state in the Union, all things considered, and that from being near the bottom in population among the states as now, it will not be many years at the present rate of growth before she is near the top. The Palm Beach Post does not exaggerate when it says:

"If Florida maintains its present rate of growth for the next twenty years, it will have a population of 3,000,000 people, and the per capita wealth will exceed that of any southern state. The amazing fertility of the soil throughout this entire peninsula is constantly confounding the wisdom and experience of those who have profited therefrom. Add to this, its unsurpassed climate, increased ability for discovering its resources, with no other equal area on the American continent possessing such vast advantages, plus a good system of state roads and Florida will startle the whole world by her increased growth and development."

MISS THEIR CHAUTAUQUA

The value of a standard Chautauqua to a community is of course not disputed by thoughtful, well informed people. It is one of the most attractive and efficient forms of education in the larger sense of the word, and once an enlightened community gets the Chautauqua taste in its mouth it wants it always afterwards. This is well illustrated up in the nice little city of Albany, Ga., where they have acquired the Chautauqua habit, but because of the financial risk this year they are to have no exercises of that kind. A Georgia paper, in commenting on this says:

"It is with regret that we read that there will be no Georgia Chautauqua in the home of Chautauqua, Albany, this year. For nearly thirty years the annual Chautauquas have been the literary and musical events of the spring in South Georgia. To a certain extent they have been the social events also. The Chautauqua management has brought to the people of culture and literary taste of this section, leading men of thought to this section leading men of thought of the nation; leaders in politics, in literature, in music, in art; men and women who have made the world wiser and better for their presence. For this we are indebted to the management and for this as well as for what we expected the Chautauquas of the future to give us, we feel that the loss of a Chautauqua this year is a personal loss to every citizen of this section."—Lakeland Telegram.

ator will appear and will no doubt measure up to her wonderful reputation. Also Mrs. Helen Read Alexander, harpist. Mrs. Alexander owns a very fine harp and is quite skillful in its use.
Dr. Stanley Krebs will lecture in the evening, his specialty being psychology, and the lessons learned from him cannot be missed by any man, no matter what his station, vacation or calling. The favorable comment he has received from the press in the past is sufficient guarantee of his marked ability.
Sunday there will be held in the Star Theater a "Chautauqua Vesper Service," conducted by Mrs. C. Rucker Adams, after which there will be a sermon by Rev. J. B. Culpepper. Mr. Culpepper is too well known as the famous Georgia Evangelist to need any further comment. He is a great preacher and has done a great work.
Monday Mrs. Adams will lecture upon "Nature and Nurture," which is especially intended for the young and we hope it can be so arranged that the school children, both from the Grammar and High School can attend this lecture. The Orphean Musical Club will also appear in the afternoon to charm and delight the audience. After this Rev. J. B. Culpepper will give his famous address "The Boy or Girl to Marry." We commend this address to the boys and girls especially.

The program will conclude Monday evening with a lecture "Modern Miracles," by Reno B. Welbourne, who is a scientist of reputation. He performs many wonderful things before your eyes and gives much practical information such as all should know.

Now, with all these good things in store for us we should not fail to embrace the opportunity. Let us fill the auditorium to overflowing every number, and thus prove our appreciation of the best there is in life.

COUNTY HAPPENINGS

PAOLA POINTS

One of the happiest events of the season was the surprise party given Miss Taber on her 57th birthday, February 2nd. The evening was cool and pleasant, and Paolaites assembling at a given hour all drove over to Twin Lakes together, forming quite a procession, the Buchanan team leading, and Mr. McGuinn bringing up the rear with a load packed in hay. Miss Taber's first intimation of what was to happen was hearing the approach of the party, as she was out shutting up her chickens for the night. Stopping to listen to the unusual clamor of voices and laughter, she spied the glimmering light of moving lanterns, and guessed at once what was in the air. The house was soon "full to overflowing" and the evening was pleasantly spent in conversation, music, dancing and games. The crowd brought their own refreshments and fine coffee and many varieties of delicious cake were served and much enjoyed. Miss Taber was presented with a number of handsome and valuable gifts, among them being a fine grey wool sweater, a lovely linen tablecloth and dozen napkins, several embroidered towels, a pretty darning bag well equipped for business, a handsome set of silver knives, forks and teaspoons, some choice tinted photographs and a big box of lovely home made candies. She was too overcome to make a proper acknowledgment of her gratitude and pleasure, but all her friends know that their efforts were fully appreciated. Those participating in the pleasant occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland Mr. Frank Brown, Mr. McGuinn, Mr. and Mrs. Bridge, Mr. and Mrs. Buchanan, Mr. and Mrs. Patton, Mrs. Jones, Mrs. Baker, Oscar, Frances and Flora Persson, Esther Nelson, Geo. Smith, Mrs. Bullock, Mr. and Mrs. Kirk, Mr. Lyons, Mr. and Mrs. Call and daughter, Mrs. Bone, Miss Conley, Mr. and Mrs. Gibson and son, Mr. Campbell, Miss Campbell, Mr. Toner, Ross Kearns and Wallace Works.

"Re-Making a Present Day Faith"

With the above as a subject for the new series, the pastor of the Congregational church spoke to a large audience last Sunday. The second of that series will be given next Sunday night following the musical prelude of thirty minutes. In as simple a way as possible the attempt is made to emphasize the few essentials of a vital and workable present day faith. Stripped of its non-essentials, Christianity will be interpreted as the dynamic for a living and practical faith. All interested in such a presentation are urged to plan to come

Preamble and Resolution

That whereas the laws of the state of Florida provide that all bills due and payable by the county shall be in the clerk's hands not later than the last day of each month and that whereas the law not having been complied with in the past has not only caused the clerk unnecessary work and confusion but has delayed the work of this board on more than one occasion and as these delays are expensive to the tax payers and should be avoided; Therefore

Be it Resolved in future all bills reaching the clerk after the date specified by law will not be taken up or paid until the following regular meeting and the clerk has been so instructed, also instructed to publish a copy of this resolution in the Sanford Herald for thirty days, that everybody may have due notice and assist this board in complying with the law and the dispatch of their business.

E. A. DOUGLASS, Clerk of Board. 49-8tc

Car Turned Over

Yesterday morning while the car belonging to Ed Ponder and containing Mr. and Mrs. Richmond and son of Lake Helen was attempting to pass the O. E. Walker car on the Orlando road near the McDaniel place the car skidded and turned over. Ponder received a bad bruise on the head, Mr. Richmond has his arm hurt and Mrs. Richmond had one of her legs badly cut and bruised. It took the combined efforts of several men to lift the car from the party before they could be extricated from the wreck.

The car was badly damaged and Mr. Ponder ran it into this city for repairs later in the morning. The injured were brought to this city where physicians ministered to them. This passing of cars on the brick road where one gets into the sand is dangerous and there will be more of these accidents if the drivers are not more careful.

BURBANK SPINELESS CACTUS

A Guaranteed Crop There has seldom been a plant that has grown in popularity like Burbank's spineless cactus. It far outranks all other forage crops in point of production, and is a food for cattle, hogs, sheep and poultry. It is compared with alfalfa as twelve to fifteen in food value.

Spineless cactus is not a theory and not an experiment. California is producing thousands of cuttings of it annually, and each year the output is more than double that of the year before, single instances frequently occurring where the increase is a hundred to one.

Cactus requires no fertilizer, and grows best on dry sandy uplands. It is admirably adapted to the highlands of Florida, can be cut up and fed at any time of the year. For cows it should be chopped up, but hogs eat it up without any preparation whatever.

On the Hawaiian Islands, cattle men feed cactus and rough grasses to their stock, and find it sufficient without anything else for the entire life of the animal. One grower writes that he has three year old cattle that would not know how to drink water. They have never tasted it, feeding the moisture contained in cactus entirely sufficient.

We believe that in the next five years every farmer in Florida who owns stock or poultry will have his path of spineless cactus.

O'Brien's Big Minstrels

Minstrelsy as conceived and staged by Ned O'Brien and managed by Oscar F. Hodge went a long way the past two seasons toward reviving an interest in this style of entertainment that by some was considered on the wane. Mr. O'Brien, who for years has been a predominant figure on the minstrel stage branches out two years ago as minstrel star on his own account and extremely pleased to receive the full compliment of the splendid performance he and his associates presented when here last season and the season before. It was clean, wholesome, lively entertainment and gave full measure of enjoyment to minstrel lovers everywhere. It will therefore be good news to the majority to learn that Mr. O'Brien who is now on his third annual tour and will appear at the Imperial Theatre Saturday, February 11, with a complete new equipment of scenic surprises, new wardrobe, new songs, jokes, special features and almost an entirely new company. This follows out the announced policy as promised by Mr. O'Brien and his manager, Oscar F. Hodge, to present each year an entirely new show from first part to the final curtain. This plan has been faithfully carried out this season. All the elaborate and magnificent stage settings, comprising a complete and beautiful production, are fresh from the scene frame. The artist has been allowed unusual latitude and has excelled with a "first part" of exquisite beauty. The color scheme is fashioned after the latest Futurist art craze, the scene representing a fanciful and artistic idea. There are five other full stage settings, all on a scale of elaborate detail.

The company is mostly new, and selected with that same critical care evidenced by Mr. O'Brien the past two seasons and includes Harry Van Fossen, Eddie Mazier, Pete Detzel, Caspar Nowak, Doran & Strong, Geo. F. Peduzzi, David Morris, James Barardi, Leslie Berry, Chas. R. Wright, Jonathan Haw and a capable chorus, while the band and orchestra will again be directed by Frank Fuhrer.

Elks Reception

One of the most brilliantly informal affairs of the winter, was the beautiful reception given by the B. P. O. E. Wednesday evening at their club rooms. The entire floor was thrown open to the guests who enjoyed the hospitality of the Elks with a warmth of appreciation that testified to the popularity of the order and that proved the local Elks to be right royal hosts.

The rooms were artistically decorated in the purple and white colors of the Elks, blending harmoniously with the national colors, red, white and blue. Sashes of purple and white were draped from the ceilings to the walls, beneath which hung the American colors, while the columns supporting the ceiling were painted and festooned with purple and white. Receiving were Messrs. R. L. Peck, O. L. Taylor, W. T. Shelly and Dr. T. A. Neal, who presented each guest with an Elk souvenir of this delightful occasion. Punch was served throughout the evening, club sandwiches and coffee were served a la cabaret in the lodge room. Dancing was indulged in until a late hour, in the grill room, reading room and halls which were given over to the dancing element. At least three hundred and fifty guests enjoyed the generous hospitality of the Elks and the good time provided by their jovial hosts.

St. Agnes Guild

Miss Belle Smith was the charming hostess to the members of St. Agnes Guild Monday afternoon.

Business of importance was discussed and plans decided upon for the making and selling of comforts to assist the funds of the society. It is believed that the young ladies will become so proficient in the making of comforts that Seminole County Fair 1916 will have a choice collection from the Guild on exhibition. A delightful social hour was enjoyed after the business period. Miss Smith served a delicious refreshment consisting of the mint, consisting of lemonade apico with mayonaisse, not salad potato chips, pickles and coffee. Enjoying the hospitality of Miss Smith were Rev. Arthur Peck, Mrs. T. A. Neal, Mrs. Archie Betts, Mrs. Spicer, Mrs. Braxton Perkins, Misses Salome Hampton, Martha King, Eva Walker, Lucille Aspinwall, Charlotte Hand, Zoe Munson, and Joseph and Junie Stumon. The next meeting will be held with Miss Charlotte Hand.

Mr. B. W. Hodge

Mr. B. W. Hodge, the well known and highly respected clubber, Monday evening at his home on Park avenue.

Dancing was enjoyed in the large reception hall which is so well adapted for small dances. Sandwiches and coffee were served and the general fest won many praises for himself as the prince of hosts. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Thrasher, Mr. and Mrs. Carl D. Bishop, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Newhall, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Betts, Mrs. S. Pabston, Mrs. H. B. Marks.

Mrs. F. L. Miller

Misses Gretchen and Olga Schultz, Saldie Williams, Charlotte Hand; Messrs. T. S. Lloyd, Billy Hill, Charles Woodruff, Albert Martin and Dr. Fain.

Birthday Supper

Miss Elizabeth Steinmeyer was the recipient of a delightful surprise party on the occasion of her thirteenth birthday, last Monday evening, when her mother invited a number of her girl friends to tea to help celebrate the festive occasion, without Elizabeth's knowledge. That young lady was invited to admire the innovation doll that Mollie Abernathy treasured as a memento of the great fair and while there the invited guests arrived. A phone message brought the honoree home and with her came Mollie to enjoy the surprise and the dainty supper prepared by Mrs. Steinmeyer. The table was very attractive with its dainty appointments, cut flowers and beautiful birthday cake, which graced the center. The whole affair was a charming little surprise to the little lady whose friends remembered the occasion with many pretty gifts. Those invited were Mollie Abernathy, Carolyn Spencer, Kathleen Brady, Ruth Marshall, Anna Mason, Julia Laing and Weema Graves. After tea the young hostess and her guests enjoyed a game of rook and music.

New England Supper

The ladies of the Congregational church will give another of their famous New England suppers Saturday, February 27, the place to be announced later. A delicious menu is always served by these ladies who are noted for their delicious cookery and this supper will prove no exception to the rule.

Canning Club Girls

Among the interesting exhibits at the fair was the orange marmalade exhibit of the Seminole canning clubs. Such a splendid exhibit is remarkable when it is known that the clubs have been organized but four weeks. Just four weeks ago Miss Moselle Durst, Seminole county clubbing agent, whose expenses are paid by the county school board arrived in Sanford to begin her campaign in the interest of the tomato clubs. Four clubs have been organized to date, the High School and Grammar School clubs of Sanford, the Oviedo club and the Longwood club. Much credit is due Miss Durst for her part in the fine exhibit so beautifully prepared, much of which was paid to the work of experienced housekeepers.

Winning the blue ribbon and also the first prize of two dollars, given by the Welfare Department was the marmalade put up by Miss Gladys Green. Miss Esther Woodburn took the red ribbon and the department second prize of one dollar. Among other nice exhibits was that of Miss Maud Cameron, another High School girl, which consisted of various fruit jellies and marmalades, pickles and vegetables. Miss Durst, assisted by Mrs. Minnie Jones gave a splendid open air demonstration of canning tomatoes and sold the cans immediately for ten cents per can.

An Imperial Party

For originality in ideas a certain charming little bunch of maidens can excel their dear Mamas. The reporter, sedately walking down the street, intent upon news was overhauled by this crowd of youngsters and invited to enjoy an Imperial party. Truly it was imperially royal! For was it not held upon the steps of the Imperial Theatre? and did not the little hostesses look quite royal and queenly in her charming gown, long one too, of an old ser curtain? Sure she did; and the attendants too were gowned in royal robes of nondescript manufacture, for this you see was a character party, just the jolliest kind ever, with four little girls and one little boy, to say nothing of the reporter having the gayest kink of a good time with tin boxes filled with strawberry ice cream, chocolate and vanilla cream, marshmallows, suzua, cheese and crackers and some more good things. Then after the cats disappeared the whole party, except the reporter, took to horizontal stunts on iron frames in a vacant lot and Mildred (guess the other name) won all the prizes, for she is a real, sure enough acrobatic sport and then—well, just here the reporter said good-bye and thank you and those blessed kiddies might be still having that party, but the reporter lady had to go fishing for more news and will have to tell you the next time who these young people might have been.

Announcements

The Social Department announce the re-opening of the dancing school at the club rooms tonight (Friday) at the usual hour. These classes are very enjoyable and will continue until further notice on Tuesdays and Fridays every week.

The regular meeting of the Welfare Department will be held Wednesday afternoon at three o'clock. A full attendance is desired and chairman of all committees are requested to submit written reports, that the chairman of the department may make a full report at the annual business meeting of the club.

Misses Connie Devane, Maude Devane and Lorene Waver of Plant City are the guests of Misses Devane's sister, Mrs. DeWitt Hayes of this city. They arrived Wednesday week, in time to enjoy the festivities of the Seminole County Fair, and will return in a few days.

W. C. T. U. Reception

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union of this city are planning a delightful reception to be held at the Woman's Club rooms, March 5th in the evening. A general invitation is extended to the public at large. A charming program of music and readings will be rendered and a pleasant social hour enjoyed by all. There will be no admission fee or silver offering—just an informal get-together meeting of all interested in the work.

Personal Mention

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Wilson, accompanied by Mrs. R. J. Holly and Mrs. Fred Walsman left this morning for Tampa in the Wilson car. Continued on Page 8

CORNELL COACH IS THERE WITH DIPLOMACY

Charles E. Courtney, Cornell Coach.

Charles E. Courtney, coach of the Cornell crews, has gone on record that his men will win at Poughkeepsie this spring. A man close to the veteran has let the cat out of the bag. Courtney's trouble the last two years was caused by dissension in the boat. The two senior societies always are rivals in the election for commodore of the Cornell navy. The last two years the foes of the man chosen "laid down on him" and the ill spirits resulted in poor teamwork. "I've got 'em both fixed this year, though," says Courtney. "I've done a little maneuvering and will have a man elected who won't be able to make the varsity crew."

PLANK JUMPS TO FEDERALS

What is perhaps the longest record for continuous active service with one club in the history of baseball was broken when Eddie Plank, Athletic veteran and hero of several world's series contests, took his expected leap to the Federal league. Harry Goldman of the Baltimore Federals obtained Plank's signature to a new league contract after a visit to the pitcher's home at Gettysburg, Pa. Plank was a pitcher for the Athletics for 13 years, his first notable work being in the world's series of 1905. Since that time he has been considered the one best bet on the Athletic staff. Plank's record is all the more remarkable because of the fact that he is a left-hander. And another feature in connection with Plank's jump is the fact that Connie Mack took occasion to say that the veteran is still a great pitcher and that he wished him well—that's Connie Mack.

Billiards Aid Ford. According to a friend of Russ Ford, probably the greatest developer of the spiltball and originator of the emery ball, Russ conceived the idea of throwing these exceptional fofoers after studying the way billiard balls curve when the english is applied. Ford's latest success, the "swivel" or "cork-screw" ball, is also derived from the study of the curving and twisting of the ivories on a billiard table.

One-Armed Golf Match. A unique golf match was pulled off at Hot Springs, Va., recently, between two one-armed golfers, William Patchell and Charles Fry, both of New York. They are both "southpaws" as well as "single paws," and a big gallery followed them.

MEN TO DEFEND DAVIS CUP

Norman E. Brookes and Anthony F. Wilding Have Made Last Stand for International Trophy.

Now that Norman F. Brookes and Anthony F. Wilding have taken back the Davis cup to the land of the kangaroo, by virtue of their victory over the best America put forth, the thought comes that this probably was the last stand of the great Australians in the battle for the international trophy. Brookes, although still a wizard of strokes and court tactics, loses his strength and speed after a hard session on the courts, and in 1915 this will be even more pronounced.

Wilding, too, although a massive athlete and sinewed like an ox, seems to be slipping backward, and has not at any time since his appearance in this country shown the form that formerly won him the championship of all the world. He, too, will probably be content now to step down with Brookes, his captain, and let younger men take up the burden of defending the trophy they fought so hard and so gallantly to take back to the other side of the world.

STOMACH TROUBLE FOR FIVE YEARS

Majority of Friends Thought Mr. Hughes Would Die, But One Helped Him to Recovery.

Pomeroyton, Ky.—In interesting advice from this place, Mr. A. J. Hughes writes as follows: "I was down with stomach trouble for five (5) years, and would have sick headache so bad, at times, that I thought surely I would die. I tried different treatments, but they did not seem to do me any good. I got so bad, I could not eat or sleep, and all my friends, except one, thought I would die. He advised me to try Thedford's Black-Draught and out-taking other medicines. I decided to take his advice, although I did not have any confidence in it.

I have now been taking Black-Draught for three months, and it has cured me—haven't had those awful sick headaches since I began using it.

I am so thankful for what Black-Draught has done for me."

Thedford's Black-Draught has been found a very valuable medicine for derangements of the stomach and liver. It is composed of pure, vegetable herbs, contains no dangerous ingredients, and acts gently, yet surely. It can be freely used by young and old, and should be kept in every family chest.

Costumes for the Winter Promenade

THAT particular kind of fur-cloth (or "fabric-fur," as some people prefer to call it), known as "Pomorie," is shown here made up into a costume for the winter promenade. With high collar and cuffs of fitch fur and smart fastenings of cord and buttons, it reflects something of the military modes. But the jacket, or short coat, is strikingly original. Topping off the straight seam underskirt and long full tunic with which all the world of fashion is more than familiar.

The coat merits study, as it is unlike any other without departing from the lines that are deemed as correct for this season. It is double-breasted, short in front and sloping downward toward the sides. At the back it is lengthened into a square tab which extends somewhat below the middle of the entire length of the figure. The sleeves are straight and loose and a diminutive cape extends over them and across the back. It terminates at each side of the front in the jacket.

Following the line of the cape a flat top collar lies below the stand-up collar of fur. By this arrangement the fur collar may be made separately and not always worn. There is a slight blousing of the front of the jacket at the waist line and the mere hint of a slope inward at the sides.

One could not ask a better or more graceful management of the fashionable silhouette. But the fabric-fur really look best when used with smooth-faced cloths in making up a costume. With skirt of tunic bordered with Pomorie, and a short coat of it a fine combination, durable and handsome, results.

One of the smartest of cloth gowns shows a plain skirt with long narrow triangles of the fabric fur let in, one at each side of the front, one at each side of the back and one at the center back. The short coat of cloth is lengthened by a skirt sewed to it and cut to ripple about the bottom. It extends to the knees, but not across the front of the figure, as it hangs from the sides and back of the short jacket. There is a band of Pomorie, which forms a border about the skirt of the coat. Cuffs and long revers are also made of it.

For wear in mild climates the costume trimmed with fur cloth or using fur cloth with plain cloth in its composition, is the most pleasing of the season's new productions.

A Few Novelties in Hosiery

NOT many novelties in hosiery are in evidence, fashion inclining still to favor the plain, firmly woven stocking of silk. But for those who like a little eccentricity occasionally some new features have been brought out in the weaving of hose, and for dressy wear there is something to report of hosiery woven in lace patterns and in two-color combinations.

Plain hose of black or colored silk with heel, foot and toe re-enforced, and hose similarly woven in hula thread or cotton, of finely twisted thread, are the only varieties that prove interesting to the great majority of women. It is likely, however, that the new silk hose woven in a lace pattern over the instep and ankle will come in for much favorable consideration with the advent of spring. Stockings of this kind show a panel of openwork, usually in striped effects; at the front, that is very pretty.

The catchiest of the novelties in silk hose is a double stocking. The underhose is of plain silk in a color. White, light blue, flesh, lavender, and pink or even light green, supplies the color background. Over this is a stocking of very open-meshed net in black. When flesh or pink is used for the foundation it is hardly noticeable when the stocking is on, and the effect is that of an open-meshed net stocking with the pink mesh of the leg showing through each mesh. The colored foundations are presumably to be chosen to match the gown, and for summer wear this is a novelty that may flourish. The combination of black and white, worn with oxfords or slippers, ought to look especially well with white dresses.

Another attractive color introduction is managed by weaving the foot and lower part of the leg in black silk, and the upper part (beginning at the middle of the calf) in a color. Stockings showing black combined with all the light colors make an appeal on the strength of pretty color combinations. All the visible portion of this hosiery, with either low or high shoes, is black.

Silk hose in black and all colors, embroidered with small flower designs in self-color are not new but are always in favor. Occasionally small blossoms in contrasting colors are to be found on black stockings. Among the finest hosiery smart white clocking appears as a finish on black silk. But the strongest tendency of the fashion is away from contrasts in the matter of decorations.

GOT HIS BREAKFAST

SQUIRREL HAD TO WORK BUT HE DID IT.

With the Aid of a Friendly Telephone Wire and His Wonderful Tail Little Animal Secured Supply of Provisions.

You may have thought that the squirrel was just showing off when he walked the telephone cable all the length of the alley, says the Indianapolis News, and you may have classed him with the sort of foolish people that have walked wires over Niagara falls. The fact was that the squirrel wanted his breakfast, and, what was much more important, his wife wanted her breakfast. The snow was so deep that the squirrel would only have succeeded in burying himself if he had tried to walk through it, and it was packed so tightly down next to the ground that he could not get to his storeroom at the foot of the tree. He could not telephone to the corner grocery, because he had no telephone, and he could not borrow from the neighbors, because he had no neighbors. He could not fly, and he could not beg loudly enough to be heard. It seemed to him that if he had been anything but a squirrel, there would have been somebody to help him; but, as he was a squirrel, he had to help himself, and he started bravely out to do it. He walked the slippery cable all the length of the alley, and found some frozen bread in a garbage can conveniently near a telephone pole. Then he walked back again, and carried his wife's breakfast to her.

It sounds so simple and it was no difficult. His feet were cold, and so stiff that they skidded. He was a fat little squirrel, and every inch or so he slipped so far to one side or the other that he almost lost his balance. If it had not been for his tail, he never could have made it. How that tail did work! Now on this side, now on that, and now jerking steadily along straight above the wire. The poor tail was heavy with snow, and ached with the unaccustomed exercise but it went bravely on, balancing, correcting, catching, holding, and, indeed, fairly pushing the squirrel along the wire. The squirrel probably thought that the wire was there for no other purpose than to afford him a passage through the air, and no doubt he had several things to say about the size of the wire and its slippery condition and the general lack of accommodation afforded by public service corporations, entirely forgetting that if the wire had not been there he and his wife would have had no breakfast and probably no lunch or dinner. The more dependent we become on public service corporations, the more fault we can find with them.

Phrenological

Nelson's Encyclopedia says: Of the system of phrenology advanced by Gall, Spurzheim and Combe, two facts are sufficiently condemnatory. (1) The gray matter on the surface of the brain is not mapped out into thirty odd areas that correspond with such affective propensities as Amativeness, combativeness and constructiveness, with such sentiments as self-esteem, benevolence, hope, and will. (2) The outer table of the cranial bones does not accurately represent the contour of the brain surface—the thickness of the skull varies in different individuals and in different localities in the same individual, while the pits, air spaces, whose size and shape have no relation to the brain development, are interposed between the inner and outer table of the bones. An attempt however has lately been made to advance a phrenological system that practically ignores the bump doctrine. Dr. Bernard Hollander in 1901 published a work in which he showed the association of certain types and symptoms of insanity with definite lesions of particular parts of the brain. But Dr. Hollander instead of reviving Gall's doctrine (popular phrenology) gives the word phrenology a new significance.

Born Actors.

The French are born actors, from the first to the last; they have from early childhood poses and motions that are not to be found outside of France, except on the stage. Their bearing is theatrical, their language declamatory, their whole manner recalling scenery and footlights—and precisely the French produce fewer great tragedians than any other nation in the world. They are rich in talents for social drama and the comedy; they have the good fortune of seeing a Got and a Coquelin, a St. Germain and a Dieudonné, a Geoffroy, Hyacinthe, Piffertier, Lacombe; act on the stage contemporaneously, but they produce no tragical talents, of the first order, geniuses who could bear comparison with a Desvriert, a Dawson, a Kean, Booth, Irving, Ross, or Salvini.—Max Nordau.

Being Consistent.

"Charley, dear," said Mrs. Tarkins, "what shall I do with all these feathers? I can't find a thing in this Helpful Hints article about them."
"How did you get them?"
"Why, you know, all helpful hints writers tell you when you buy a steak you must have the butcher give you the bones and fat and all the rest of the trimmings. So when I bought this turkey I made them give me the feathers."

BASEBALL

Salt Lake City is to be taken into the Pacific Coast league.

Honus Wagner admits his "legs have slowed up," but considers himself useful at the age of forty-one.

The Philadelphia fan, according to Mack, has been fed on so much rich food that he has acquired the gout in his spending arm.

The Southern league figures show Harry McCormick of Chattanooga hit for .322 last season. He wasn't a pinch hitter, either.

The Central league may enlarge to eight teams, taking into the fold Youngstown, Erie and Wheeling, Springfield, O., is out.

Says the New York World: "Connie Mack says he has no intention of disposing of McInnis, Barry or Baker. That still leaves him a $75,000 infield."

A Chicago critic of the drama says: "McHale sings better than he pitches." Marty stood thirty-eighth among the American league pitchers last season.

Charlie Herzog establishes another record. He is the first manager in years to get a two-year contract to lead the Reds, even though they finished last.

Earl Hamilton, the Browns' left-hander, who hurt his bread-winning wing in an automobile accident this fall, reports that the arm seems to have mended properly.

George Chip wants to fight Al McCoy again.

Jess Willard may be taken on a tour and meet all corners.

Jem Driscoll, one of the cleverest English boxers who ever came to these shores, has given his services to the English army.

Jimmy Coffroth, the San Francisco promoter, feels the effect of the closing down of the boxing game in California more than anybody else.

Wille Ritchie, former king of the lightweights, has taken on weight at an alarming rate lately and it is said that he will not be able to fight in the lightweight ranks again.

SEMINOLE DAY AT THE ORLANDO FAIR

OVER ONE HUNDRED CARS FROM SANFORD IN ATTENDANCE FRIDAY

Seminole and Sanford Day at the Sub-Tropical Fair on Friday last was one of the events of the fair week at Orlando. On account of the threatening weather the start from Sanford was made late and many of the cars going to Orlando would not wait but went on ahead and many others were too slow to get in the procession and came in afterward. However there were over 100 cars that finally approached Orlando and were met on the highway by the fair officials and were escorted into the city and after skirting Lake Eola and Lake Lucerne they were taken down Orange avenue and out to the fair grounds. The day was perfect and the Seminole boosters thoroughly enjoyed every bit of it. The Reporter-Star has the following account of it:

"Orange county's visit to Sanford during the Seminole fair last week was thoroughly reciprocated this morning, when more than a hundred automobiles, loaded to the limit, arrived from the Celery City, flying the colors of their county. The procession was met on the Winter Park road, and escorted to the fair grounds by hand music, led by the fair officials. Previous to this a special train of five cars had arrived bearing another large crowd, who were already seeing the various exhibits.

Truly Seminole is having one of the banner days of the fair, probably exceeding any other day in attendance. Everybody seemed happy and jolly, and the visitors arrived just in time to see A. V. Franch, manager, place over the Seminole exhibit a placard bearing the information that Seminole had received the first prize for "best county exhibit."

Really the display was attractive, there were fresh roses from Chuluota, bearing the emblems of Mrs. Brumley and Mrs. Tilden Jacobs.

The great "Horn of Plenty" was filled with forty-one varieties of agricultural products, fresh from the farms and gardens of the sister county, to whom Orange county is today the host.

The big cypress block, five feet in diameter, exhibited by Z. Spinks, would make a good wheel for a big log cart showing Florida's greatest shingle material.

The miniature celery farm is always attractive, with its handsome background, stretching away into a great celery plantation, with a most realistic effect.

Jellies and preserves were there in great variety, and the orange and grapefruit exhibit was equally attractive, while a medley of specialties is seen in rustic chairs, etc."

Should Auld Acquaintance be Forgotten? The cub reporter strolled down to the High School Auditorium last evening to hear the Orpheum Musical Club. The cub has always had a warm spot in his heart for male quartette music ever since the old days at Holding College, when the male quartette made life alternately more pleasant and more miserable by singing about the college and the campus at all times of the day and waking us up at all hours of the night.

The curtain went up. There they stood, the same old Hedding College quartette that the cub knew years ago, with the exception of one man. There was Eddie Dennis, the manager of the club, once the joyous, good looking youth with never a care in the world but now grown gray from years of worry looking after the others and getting the baggage checked in time to make the next town.

There was Crumbake, the invincible. Just the same as ever and not changed a bit. The son of the minister and able to preach a sermon, read anything from Shakespeare on down and endowed with a wonderful voice. The kind of man who always makes good. Then there was long tall "Vic" Henry, just as he always was but now married and bald, with a voice that would put Goliath to shame and with a frame like Hercules.

These three with the addition of Mr. Lay make up the Orpheum Musical Club and they are among the best on the road, and always were.

They leave today for Kissimmee, where they have an engagement and will later visit many places in Florida.

The Herald freely commends these men to the good people of Florida with the assurance that they "have the goods" and are all gentlemen of the first water.

MAKING FINE ROAD SANFORD-ORLANDO

ROAD GANG IS NOW WIDENING THE NEW ROAD TO FORTY FEET

Any one travelling the road from this city to Orlando is struck with the great work now being put on that much travelled thoroughfare. The roadbed is being widened to forty feet from the city limits to the end of the brick road, the culverts and other places in the road that formerly were dangerous are being made safe and all the fences and trees on the right of way are being taken out or moved from the roadway.

This road now has the appearance of a fine thoroughfare that one reads about as being in some of the great good road states north of us but one hardly looks for in Florida, and it remains for Seminole county and the special Sanford road district to take the lead in this great work. The wide road is receiving praises from the tourists who are obliged to travel this stretch going north and south in this part of the state and will do much toward bringing the state highway in this section. It is safe to say that at no point in Florida is there a better road than this nine foot brick road flanked on either side by 20 feet of good surface.

The county commissioners should now take steps to hard surface this part of the road with clay if possible or at least plant Bermuda grass upon it so that the clay will be compacted and hard. With the nine feet of brick and a good surface on the sides of the road this stretch of road will give the public one of the finest thoroughfares in the state.

Road Supervisor Bell deserves credit for his efficient supervision over this important piece of work on this road and the county commissioners are also to be commended for ordering the same.

Death of Mrs. James Argo

Again Monday evening a gloom was cast over the community by the death of Mrs. James Argo, wife of Capt. James Argo. Mrs. Argo was one of the oldest residents of this section, having come here from Hawkinsville, Ga., 31 years ago.

At the time of her death she was 72 years old. The citizens of Oviedo have lost one of their best and most lovable Christian women. Mrs. Argo was almost a life-long member of the Baptist church, and her place in the church as well as in the home will be hard to fill. Her friends in Oviedo and vicinity will sadly miss her. Interment was in the union cemetery. Funeral services were conducted by her pastor, Rev. Wm. Stones. The pall bearers were Messrs. W. H. Howard, T. W. Lawson, J. B. Jones, A. J. McCully, Z. Spinks, R. E. Kelsey, S. T. Hunt, undertaker and funeral director. This was one of the most largely attended funerals ever held in Oviedo. Many relatives were in attendance. W. E. Argo of Fernandina; Mrs. J. B. Polhill and Mrs. J. W. Barlow of Sanford, her son and daughters were with her to the last. Mrs. O. N. Larson her niece, of Orlando, was also present, also her grandchildren, T. F. Polhill of Tampa, W. E. White and wife, Miss Bessie White of Sanford, Hugh White of Oviedo and Mrs. Maud Harris of Sanford.

The many friends extend their sympathy to the grief stricken family and especially to the aged and feeble husband who had been her companion for fifty-four years. The grave was covered with the many beautiful floral offerings of loving friends.

SEMINOLE WINNER IN ALL THE EVENTS

EVEN THE FIRST HONORS IN THE SPELLING MATCH COMES HERE

Seminole county was well represented yesterday at the fair, many merry motorists buzzing into Orlando, swelling the crowd and adding zest to the day's festivities. The procession from Sanford was a notable one and vied with the Orange county parade to the Celery City at Seminole county's first annual festival last week. The delegation from Sanford was met on the Winter Park road by a large committee from Orlando yesterday and to the tunes of a band escorted into the city and to the fair grounds.

Seminole countyites returned home late last night feeling that they had contributed to the success of the mid-winter fair, and happy that they had in their possession the distinction of winning first prize for the best county exhibit.

This is the last day of the fair. The attendance has been most excellent and the management is satisfied. The counties participating in the fair feel that much good will come to them and that their individual productiveness will lead to investments in the future. It has been the best fair in history, marked by beautiful weather made to order, and not a hitch in the program has been noticed.

The races have been largely attended and the card was a good one, fully up to standard and in keeping with the records of previous years. A large crowd for today is expected and tonight the festivities will come to a close.

COLLEGE OF AGRICULTURE SENDS OUT A REPORT OF THE MEETING

The Third Annual Convention of the Florida Live Stock Association was held in the court house at Sanford, Fla., Feb. 3, 4, 5th, under the auspices of the Seminole County Fair, with good attendance from middle and south Florida, and many interesting lectures and discussions.

President C. F. Barber of Macclenny in his annual address outlined present conditions and needs of the industry in Florida. Dr. C. F. Dawson of the State Board of Health, reported on the work of the Veterinary Division during 1914, showing that $21,000.00 had been used for hog cholera serum, and that Dade county is preparing to begin the eradication of cattle tick between March and September of this year. Some well known stockmen taking part in the discussion were J. N. Whitner, Sanford; S. H. Gaitskill McIntosh; Z. C. Chambliss, Ocala; and F. L. Freeman of Wattertown.

A short talk much appreciated was made by Mr. W. R. Goodwin, managing editor of the Brokers Gazette, who has a winter home in Florida.

On the third day Mr. A. M. Flannery of Palatka spoke on silos and sage crops for Florida, and Mr. E. B. Kelley of the A. C. I. R. R. describes the opportunity for breeders and methods of marketing live stock.

Reports on dairy inspection in Florida cities were submitted by Messrs. R. I. Gordon of Tampa and A. G. Shaw of Jacksonville. Professors Rommel and Rawl of Washington, D. C., Dr. Robinson of Georgia, and the member of Agriculture, M. Rice of Florida were unable to be present for addresses. Special help was given the convention by J. N. Whitner of Sanford and Will M. Traor of the Florida Farmer and Hamesecker, St. Augustine.

The committee on resolutions, Mr. J. D. Rooney, Chairman, commended the work of Senator Barber as president, secured the appointment of a strong committee on legislation, recommended that the Association charge annual dues from all people interested in live stock in addition to work heretofore done through the county live stock clubs and thanked the people of Sanford for their courtesies during the convention.

Fine Roses

A display of roses grown by Mrs. Charles D. Brumley of Chuluota is an attractive feature of the Seminole county exhibit. There are many varieties, and Mrs. Brumley takes great pride and pleasure in telling how she cultivates them. No professional florist ever produced more perfect specimens. They were grown at her bungalow at Chuluota. Although Mrs. Brumley had recently taken charge of the hotel at Chuluota she has that building surrounded by roses, the work of only just a few months. She is a rose enthusiast, and proves conclusively the falsity of the idea that the best in this section.—Reporter-Star.

Sanford Wins Match

Friday morning the inter-county spelling match was held in the High School auditorium, and in it Seminole county took the lead, three of the five prizes being won by students of the Sanford Public School. At the start a long line of contestants awaited the words given out by Prof. C. M. Jones, of Lakeland, but rapidly the number dwindled, and those who were last to take their seats, winning the prizes of fifteen, ten, five, three and two dollars were Nellie Long, Sanford, Max Bradburn, Sanford, Joun Rouse, Iron Bridge, Adelle Runge, Sanford, and Jasper Williams, Winter Park. Much interest was manifested by the pupils, teachers and parents, and almost every chair in the room was taken. The contest was conducted by Supt. McKinnon, aided by Prof. Jones.—Reporter-Star.

UPSHAW LECTURES TO GREAT CROWDS

THE GEORGIA CYCLONE DELIGHTS THE PEOPLE OF SANFORD AGAIN

The coming of William D. Upshaw, the unique Georgia editor and orator as the speaker at the union "Anti-Hard Times Rally"—Sunday night, Feb. 14th brought to Sanford one of the most notable of the present generation of speakers and writers. As editor of The Golden Age which he established in Atlanta nine years ago, through the cooperation of Sam Jones and Dr. L. G. Rhuggton, he has become widely known in America as wielding a fearless pen in the realm of Christian citizenship; while on the platform he is sought far and near in campaigns for Law enforcement and civic righteousness.

Speaking much of his time from a chair, and leading sometimes on his crutches old timers declare that he reminds them of Alexander Stephens, while his abounding wit and earnestness have caused him to be called the "Successor of Sam Jones."

Last spring Mr. Upshaw was prominently spoken of as a candidate for the United States senate on a platform of nation-wide prohibition, and even seasoned politicians declared that if he had entered the race, his irreproachable record, his educational work for struggling boys and girls and his unquestioned quality as a stump speaker would have caused him to have given the "boys" a lively chase.

But in his Christian work for young men the Georgia reformer has possibly been most successful. He is a great favorite at Y. M. C. A. meetings, having opened a course in Nashville for two years, and having had several return dates in Memphis and Chattanooga. He spoke in Savannah Sunday afternoon, Feb. 7th, on "Three Corner Stones for Manhood," and the Savannah papers declared that the "Georgia Cyclone" stirred the great crowd of men at the Odeon Theatre, moving many to tears.

The speaker was introduced Sunday night in Sanford in a breezy speech by Rev. J. B. Culpepper, which put the big crowd in great good humor. Mr. Upshaw, who said he was not "orated" but "constrained," announced as his subject, "How to be Happy when you are Not Happy," with the Bible injunction "Rejoice Evermore."

From captivating wit to big chunks of common sense and finally to a beautiful conclusion that brought tears to many eyes, the speaker preached the wholesome doctrine of triumphant faith in sorrow and victory over "mountains of difficulties."

The thing that impressed many was the fact that the man on crutches was an inspiring illustration of the truth he was teaching.

A great throng flocked to shake the Georgia man's hand when he had finished, to thank him for his messages of sunshine and inspiration.

That address and his speech to the High School students Monday morning were worth more to the youth of Sanford than can well be computed.

Coming Back to Lecture

Our people are delighted with the announcement that the "Georgia Cyclone" is coming back in a week or two to deliver his famous platform lecture, "John and His Hat." It goes without saying that he will be greeted by a big enthusiastic crowd.

Will Upshaw Here

A fine audience greeted Will Upshaw at the Star Theatre last Sunday night and this great man gave them one of his many great lectures. Will Upshaw is no stranger in Sanford and the people here are always delighted to see him and hear him. We hope to have him back again before the winter season is ended and as he expects to remain some time in the state it is possible that he can be persuaded to come to Sanford and deliver his new lecture that is said to be one of the finest ever delivered in the south. Upshaw is one of the best on the American platform and his words are the plain words of truth that come from the heart and they never fail to reach the hearts of the hearers.
