Another National Shortage Now Even Paper's Getting Scarce

Mill closures, high precipitation in the South. log exports and after-tax profits of paper mills have combined to create a national paper shortage and push consumer prices upward as much as 30 per cent in some areas. The tightest situation has developed in linerboard and container board, industry officials say, but businesses which rely on sulfite bond papers to operate office copying machines also are feeling the pinch.

There are shortages in quality business papers used in catalogs, brochures, books and direct mail advertising pieces.

Certain paper stocks have been discontinued and lead time on delivery of substitute stocks has

Color paper stock and speciality items are especially hard to come by, industry officials

The shortages are caused in part by the new antipollution laws which have closed some 30 paper mills in the last few years with still more

Compounding the problem were the heavy rainfalls and flooding in the South where much of the nation's pulpwood supply is grown. Precipitation and wetlands have hampered pulpwood harvesting

Meanwhile, the annual increase in total paper making in the United States has dropped to only 1.4 per cent. Packaging paper production capacity has been growing at an annual rate of only 1.2 per cent.

The high cost of paper mill pollution control is only one cause, industry sources say, for the fact that there is little prospect at the moment for any substantial increase in capacity.

Such actions have been taken by other foreign governments in the past, ousting U.S. newsmen on the grounds that their reporting has been fair and objective. in new mills unattractive. Some industry sources say the paper industry's pricing policies have resulted in unrealistically low yields on investment as compared with other industries. They say the industry would have to change its pricing policies to build more plants to meet demands Supporters of a move to ban log exports to Japan blame the paper shortage on the high volume of wood fiber leaving the country at prices which make it unprofitable to chip logs that were, at one time, converted to pulping

Traditionally, in the Pacific Northwest many pulp mills have relied on waste - slabs from sawlogs leftover in the lumber-making process. Some mills derive nearly 50 per cent of their raw materials for pulping from sawmill

Meanwhile, rationing and allocation of paper products to converters and distributors continues to spiral paper prices. Some distributors and converters say the present supply and pricing situation is so chaotic they are placing some customers on an allotment quota averaging about 80 per cent of purchases at this time last year.

Many distributors say they no longer publish price lists since changes are occurring daily.

Europe Misreads U.S. Economy

This should not be surprising. since it is pocketbook issues that always tend to strike the most responsive chord in America. However, it casts an interesting light on reports that the Watergate case is a major reason for the flight from the dollar into gold in Europe Gold and currency speculators seem Watergate than we are. As Mr. Stein points out, the dollar's real value measured against foreign currencies is stable enough to rule out any consideration of another dollar devaluation - the speculators iotwithstanding. The idea that Watergate is jeopardizing our anti-inflation program and the health of our economy does not wash. The fact is that the President's three-phased economic program, even with the recent surge in consumer prices, has made more progress in checking inflation than any European countries have made so far in fighting their own inflation problems.

Peace Is Shaky

Terrorism Exposes Weaknesses

There can be no denial of the threat Israeli commando raids into Lebanon pose to the shaky peace in the Middle

But resistance by the United States to the recent censure of Israel by the United Nations Security Council was justified by the council's repeated failure to apply a single standard to resolution condemning acts of violence. The 15-nation deliberating body has airily dismissed from consideration such terrorist tactics as the Munich massacre of Israeli Olympic athletes by Arabs and numerous attacks by Palestinian guerrillas that have taken or endangered innocent lives.

One outrage does not necessarily justify a retaliatory outrage, but neither should the first be ignored and the U.S. abstinence in the censure vote won two unlikely allies, the Soviet Union and Communist China, but for different reasons. Russia was displeased because the resolution was remiss in not providing "positive measures" to prevent "piratical" acts by Israel. China abstained because the wording of the proposal failed to distinguish sharply enough between the "right"-of the Arabs apparently-and the

But the measure, submitted by Britain and France, was specific in its criticism of Israel and vague in its reference to "all acts of violence.

And the persistent effort in the U.N. to link the United States to Israeli offensive strikes was dominant in the weeklong debate on the censure resolution, if not in its content. The ambiguity of U.N. pronouncements and the opportunity they afford for dissemination of propaganda is, in fact, responsible largely for the sorry state of U.N. influence.

The 11 to 0 vote against Israel in the Security Council was shrugged off by Israeli officials, who promised to "continue to protect the people...from Arab murder attacks." Nor is it likely that the action will affect the flow of U.S.

arms to Israel any more than it prevents shipment of war material to the Arabs from Russia. The United Nations' role as a peace-keeping mechanism has long been subordinated to its utilization as a propaganda

And so long as it concentrates on meaningless statements of questionable motive, it will continue to deteriorate as a global force for peace.

WASHINGTON (NEA Of course it is paramount to learn all we can about the nature and degree of President Nixon's involvement in the Watergate affair. But even that knowledge would leave vital gaps in the story.

It is important to fill these gaps for more reasons than simply establishing the roles, responsibilities, activities and possible degrees of guilt of various individuals in or associated with the White House.

We need the big portrait to get the widest possible understanding of the perils inherent in the inbred, self-centered use of the presidency's enormous powers. Despite all talk, these are unlikely to be diminished in an era when a premium rests on quick action and visible leadership. The key is how the powers are used, and in this instance we still know far too little. We don't really know who ordered and directed the bugging of the Democrats' 1972 Watergate headquarters. There are veiled but significant suggestions from some sources that, in its full scope, the administration's plan of espionage-sabotage against the Democrats was an incredibly ugly business aimed at seriously besmirching the character of any Democratic presidential rival who might become a real threat to Mr. Nixon's re-election. Probably the basic evidence rests in the eight cartons and other materials removed from the office of convicted Watergate participant E. Howard Hunt. We have only hints of their contents. We need to know much more. The discovery of Watergate interrupted the great plan What would have been done had that disclosure not occurred? Would the undercutting activity have been worse against a stronger candidate than Sen. George McGovern? In a private meeting with key Republican House members weeks ago, top presidential aide H. R. Haldeman (resigned) took personal responsibility for setting up what some members said he called the "surveillance" plan. Yes, it is important to know if orders from the President set that in motion. But it is also crucial to know how esponsibility for various parts of the plan—the Watergate ugging, the watch on radicals, the dirt-digging on key Democrats, the planned disruption of Democratic activi-

In economics, "monopoly" is the term that describes the domination of a market by a single seller. "Monop-

According to a recently released study, the federal government has acquired the characteristics of a monopsony as a buyer of goods and services in at least one field and is on the way to monopsony in

The study-"Monopsony: A Fundamental Problem in Government Procurement"-was commissioned by the Aerospace Industries Assn., which represents the major manufacturers of the nation's aircraft, spacecraft, missiles and related components.

The study warns that the problems presented an allpowerful single buyer are no longer restricted to defense and space suppliers. Government agencies are taking an increasingly active role in such areas as mass transit. education, health and environmental protection.

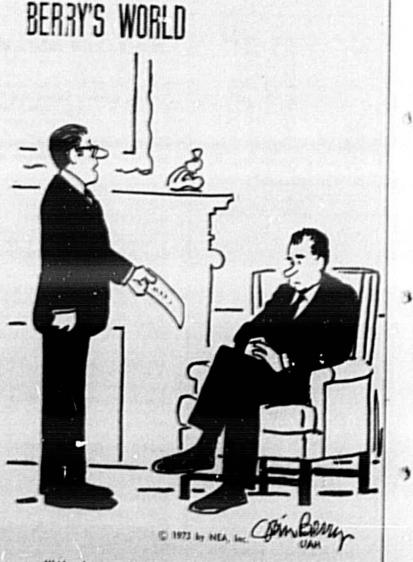

The significance of this trend, the study points out, is apparent from the fact that federal government purchases now constitute nearly 10 per cent of the gross na-navy accessories. Mrs. W.A. Dowling, paternal grandmother, chose a blue and white dress, with white accessories. Both grandmothers were from Waycross, Ga. and both wore white carnation corsages.

Following the ceremony, the reception was held at the home of the bride. The bride's table was overlaid with white lace over blue and the three tieed wedding cake was flanked by two tapers in crystal holders.

The buffet table was nighlighted by a flowing punch bowl with bridal punch which was served along with assorted sandwiches, nuts, mints, cake and relishes from a large relish tray. Three arrangements of white stock, carnations, porn pom and baby's breath were placed at vantage places throughout the party area.

Carline Burkhard, sister of the groom, presided at the bride's book table and Martha Peters cut and served the cake.

For her going-away outfit, Mrs. Burkhard chose a blue and white ensemble with matching vest, white accessories and the carnation corsage from her wedding bouquet.

The couple left for a wedding trip to New Hampshire and their new address will be 425 Islington St., Portsmouth, N.H. The groom is presently serving and leather cords and try in the U.S. Airforce.

Parents heartbroken over her choice of amputee

By Abigail Van Buren E 1972 by Chicago Tribune-N. Y. News Synd., Inc.

DEAR ABBY: Our daughter is 28 and a nurse. She took a job several thousand miles from home and has been gone nearly a year. We were hoping she'd come home last Christmas, but she said she'd come home next summer and bring her fiance. [She had written about a young man she'd fallen in love with, describing his "beautiful attitudes, brilliant mind, and outstanding character.

Now we know why she didn't bring him home for Christmas. He's an amputee! He lost both legs just below the knee when he stepped on a mine near Saigon. We learned this yesterday from a letter she wrote us. We are heartsick. She's such a beautiful girl and could easily get a whole man. Abby, how do parents adjust to knowing their daughter will spend the rest of her life car-

DEAR PARENTS: What makes you think he's an invalid? You would be amazed how well some people can manage on artificial limbs. There is no reason to be heartbroken. If he's "whole" enough for her it says a great deal for her values. Theirs could be a completely beautiful and

It is my understanding that heterosexuals sometimes have erotic feelings about members of their own sex. Am I mistaken? And by the way, do you think homosexuals are CURIOUS IN N. Y

DEAR CURIOUS: You are correct. In my anxiousness to conserve space I oversimplified. I should have said. "individuals who have STRONG, PREFERENTIAL crotic feelings about members of their own sex can be considered bomosexual And I most definitely DO NOT consider homosexuals

DEAR ABBY: Only my mother knows my real age because I've been lying about it for several years. I am engaged to an angel of a man who attributes the smoothness of our relationship to our complete honesty. Altho I've never lied to my fiance about anything else, I've repeated that lie about my age dozens of times in his presence, with friends, applying for graduate school, credit

GENERAL TENDENCIES: This is a day of opportunity - that is, you have big benefits ewaiting you, but you have to do something about them to reap the fine possibilities. Combine the best of the past with new and modern systems to be able to utilize to greatest effectiveness. Charm others and accept compliments. ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) Excellent ideas occur to you that can produce far better results with whatever projects you are working on. Show associates how much you appreciate, TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20) Sitting down with kin and talking over how to handle financial affairs better so that there is plenty of money in the future is wise. Study new outlets that have real potential. Know yourself. GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) You can gain some cherished personal aim with the assistance of good pals and closest tie. You have fine talents that should be highlighted. Avoid one who wants to drag you down to his or her level.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) If you make mprovements on present holdings, you add to their value, and that is a way of progressing. Go to a business expert if you aren't sure how to handle some money matter. Have fun socially in p.m.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21) Improve whatever you own with modern touch and be pleasant with those who mean a good deal to you. Make it a point to introduce friends to other friends you have. Show more regard for others. VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) Get together with experts so ou can plan your future more wisely. Get into those secret activities that pave the way better for you. Stop being so lackadaisical. Action is the keynote. LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) Show more devotion to good friends and accept others as friends now whom you have not been sure of before. Some aim you have had for a long time can now be realized. Try to put more happiness into your life. SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) Show any bigwigs you know that you are loyal and reliable and you get more support from them. A good day for civic work that can be helpful to you and those within your own community. Think. SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) Open yourself to new opportunities and outlets that could make your life much happier and more prosperous. Get the data you need for that trip you are contemplating. More devotion to kin is important CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) Get busy with insurance and governmental concerns and other practical matters of importance early in day so your affairs are in good order. Praise your mate to another whose aid is needed by him or her. This can be a fun evening. AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) That partnership arrangement of long standing may require small changes, so make them in a friendly fashion. Study promises given and look at them from the policy level. Then you know exactly PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) Do something to relieve the sion between you and a co-worker; then you can accomplish more. Put more work into your home so it looks more attractive. Use greater imagination on your job, too. IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN TODAY ... he or she will be one of those delightful young people who would do well in activities big in scope, since there is the ability here to get along famously with people of power and influence. Give as fine an education as you can so your youngster will feel at home in any environment, can deal with the biggest. A government connection is excellent here, or work with large establishments. Give the ethical training that builds character.

Polly's Problem DEAR POLLY - While we were cleaning prior to moving into a recently purchased home we noticed the finish on the bathtub and lavatory is eaten away and they are very rough and gray looking. Is there any paint on the market that we can spray or brush on that will make them look better until we can afford replacements?-MRS. D. G. R. DEAR POLLY - My Pet Peeves are my cat-loving neighbors who let their cats use our garden as a litter box. They do not seem to care that this gets on our vegeables and soils our hands and shoes. Outside of poison for these cats, or better still for these cat lovers, how can we discourage the varmints from contaminating our property? I hope some reader has found an effective solution and will let us know.-ROGER

DEAR POLLY-Do tell Katherine that my mother, also Katherine, has crocheted many rugs of yarn and nylon. To keep them from slipping and sliding on the floor she hand stitches a piece of denim the size of the rug over its underneath side. (Polly's note-Burlap is sometimes used for this, too.) This backing also keeps the rug from curlng and getting out of shape.-LINDA

DEAR POLLY-and Katherine-Several things can be done to keep a crocheted or hooked rug from sliding on the floor. A liquid latex can be painted on the back but it will wash out in time and, of course, the rug will no longer be reversible after it is applied. Rubber jar rings can be sewn in the corners and along the middle of the long sides. Thin strips of rubber or plastic foam can be sewn along the outside back edges and one or two pieces in the middle. A solid piece of this could be basted over the entire back. Be sure this foam is cut at least an inch smaller than the rug so it will not stretch and show. If the rug is to be reversed, remove backing and sew to the

Don't look now, Florida Junior College Conference, but Jay Bergman's "at it again," recruiting one of the strongest pitching staffs he's had in many years. It was pitching, or the lack of it, that finally touched the Raiders' eighth straight appearance in the state Junior College baseball tournament in early May, and with the local hurler's he's already signed and a few more "one the line," he's building a potentially Already signed are Seminole High ace Donald Brown and Lyman leftie Bob Meadows, who both led their teams to loop crowns, Meadows' 6-1 record and 1.40 ERA paced the Hounds to a Metro Conference title, while Brown's two year mark of 14-6 and this season's 105 strike-out total meant a lot to the Tribe's Big Eight loop crown drive late in the season, are the two Seminole county pitching signees.

Jim Klindt of Edgewater, 8-2 last year with a 1.21 mark also inked and SJC pact and may end up taking over the role played by Mike Willisma, the Raider graduate who hurled the local nine to a first round win in the state tourney. Like Williams, Klindt is a small boy, but carries big credentials. He won two no-hitters from last season, including a PERFECT game against Oak Riddge. Both Klindt and Meadows wer singled out by the Metro loop for their

LAKE-SUMTER TRANSFERS

When neighboring Lake-Sumter Community College decided to quit JuCo baseball play, Bergman picked up a pair of fellows from that squad, including All-State catcher Lavelle Rixie, who batted .333 and had 27 RBI's for a faltering Lake-Sumter nine. What, another pitcher? Yes, 6'4" Chuch Smith, "who has a lot of potential," according to the Raider coach, also inked a Seminole pact and will join the growing mound staff.

A 6'3" 210 lb, first baseman by the name of Garry Smith from Maine, is also headed Raider way via a few calls from Rollins College and a Chicago Cubs' scout, while Beggman is still looking at a few in-state players from Jacksonville, Sarasota, Winter Park and Leesburg. Jim Busby, the Leesburg pitching ace, and Steve Pizzingrilli, Winter Park's star second sacker, are both leaning towards SJC and may end up in Raider blue. With all this recruiting done by the Raider mentor, one would think he's out to rebuild his whole staff. In fact, that's just exactly what's going out there. With two hurlers returning, Sam Swanger (9-2) and Rob Mahoney (5-3), the SJC mound corps will need a lot of bolstering. It's even possible that several of the already signed pitchers may work themselves into top-rated roles if they have sufficiently good enough fall practices.

BROWN COULD BE 'SUPER'

SHS right hander Donald Brown, "who still has some growing to do," could be a "super junior college pitcher," says Bergman, who adds that, "physically, he's already there, and he'll give us something we've never had beforethe really tall pitcher." "He has unlimited potential and towards the end of the season, he was the best high school pitcher I saw," remarked "He has unlimited potential and towards the end of the season, he was the best high school pitcher I saw," remarked

"Bob Meadows is just starting to come around," the Raider coach said of the Lyman port-sider, who recorded two no-hitters last season, and should also be of top JuCo caliber when he gets his feet wet.

With the loss of shortstop Kevin Stephenson to the pros. SJC's biggest gap yet to be filled in recruiting is around the keystone-at second and short. "We're picking up more speed than we had last year"- the Raiders stole an amazing 128 bases and held opponents to less than 40 all season—"and despite our good showing on the bases last year, we should do a lot better next year," Bergman said. In all, it looks to us as if the Seminole nine will again be out to play a major role in state junior college baseball and the reputation the school's already built in basketball (six straight state appearances) and track (a national runner-up with two records) is giving the school and Seminole County a big boost not only within Florida, but throughout the nation

City commissioners approved Knowles action in a Monday afternoon work session after Knowles said Ackley is "extremely well qualified."

Ackley, now an administrative assistant with the East Central Florida Regional Planning Council at Winter Park, said today he has accepted the $10,200 a year position with the city of Sanford and is giving his present employer four weeks notice.

Ackley said he hopes in the interim to spend one day a week in Sanford "to get the feel of the new job."
