

TO THE VOTERS OF THE CITY OF SANFORD

I am not a candidate for the office of Mayor because of any political ambition. It is true that I will highly appreciate being elected your Mayor, but only because of the expression of confidence and not because I ever expect, or desire, to go higher politically.

My Company owns property in almost every part of the City of Sanford and pays one-twenty-fourth, approximately, of all the taxes paid into the City Treasury. It is absolutely true that we will be able to sell very little of this property to the present citizens of Sanford, just a lot occasionally

For this reason, it is imperative that we should have new men and new money. It is absolutely necessary, in order to secure new men and new money that Sanford should continue its policy of progress and development.

For five years I have been devoting my time, energy and money to BOOSTING SANFORD. During that time I have assisted in every public movement which was intended to promote the City's welfare. I have not taken one dollar out of Sanford in that time. On the contrary, the little I had outside has been gradually withdrawn and put into my business here. I have made some money during that time outside of my Sanford business; and that, also, has been brought to Sanford. I have been instrumental in bringing a good many thousands in money and a great many new citizens to the Sanford District.

Mr. Voter, your interest is my interest. Every new citizen helps each of us, directly or indirectly.

Mr. Tax-payer, every new tax-payer lightens your burden. Every new enterprise helps to maintain the city government and pay for public improvement.

Mr. Mechanic, Bricklayer, Carpenter--every new house means more work for you.

Mr. Plasterer, Painter and Tipner, or Decorator, you are interested and you are helped by every success of mine.

Mr. Merchant! Every new man means a new customer. If I sell a lot and a house is built thereon, it means something for each of you. My property is not improved property. I must get new customers and new patrons for you, as well as for myself. When I sell, my profit is made and that is the end of it. You, each and all, have the same opportunity, without the expense of getting the man here.

I ask you, in all candor, who is the more likely to help you, as Mayor of Sanford, Mr. Spencer or myself? Mr. Spencer's energies have been devoted entirely to his private business. I have given time and money to the City's affairs and to the promotion, it is true, of my private business, but yours as well.

Mr. Spencer's energies do not add one dollar of new money to Sanford. My work, on the other hand, each year adds some new money and some new men.

Mr. Spencer wants to be Mayor to gratify an ambition. So do I. His is a personal ambition--to be Mayor. Mine is an ambition to assist in building a great city here and have people miss me when God's Acre has claimed me for a tenant--with the plaudit "Well done, thou good and faithful servant."

Items of Interest Gleaned From Various Sources

HAPPENINGS DURING THE WEEK

Here the Readers Will Find a Brief Historical Spring Flowing For Hurried Readers

While women cried and pleaded that nothing should be done to appear in any way prejudicial to his interests, members of Emmanuel Baptist church society of Cambridge, Mass., tonight voted not to accept at this time the resignation of Rev. Clarence Richeson, pastor of the church, now in jail charged with having murdered Avis Linnell. They decided to lay the matter on the table until November 24.

President Taft qualified as a voter in Cincinnati yesterday. He appeared personally before the Cincinnati election board and later before the election judges in his own precinct and went through the steps required by law to insure his casting a ballot today.

Officially the periods of revolution in Mexico were closed today when Francisco I. Madero took the oath of President and placed across his breast the tri-color band insignia of the executive. This afternoon the oath was administered to the eight members of his cabinet. At the same time Francisco Leon De La Barras, who has governed the country as provincial president since the day General Diaz left the capital for Vera Cruz from where he took his flight for Europe but on a diplomatic mission.

Two-thirds of the city of Hankow has been destroyed by fire following fighting between revolutionist and loyal troops. The latest estimate of the loss is 50,000,000. Two hundred thousand persons are destitute. Half burned bodies lie among the ruins in many places. Many of them are the bodies of women and children.

Speaking at Washington of the present discussion of currency legislation, President Finley, of the Southern Railway Company, said:

"The banks of the Southeastern states compare very favorably as to soundness and ability of management with those of any other part of the country. This was demonstrated in the panic of 1907 and the subsequent business depression.

In the South as in the West, a much larger supply is needed during the crop-growing period than at any other time of the year. The effect of the present banking system is that, during this crop-moving season and as a result of this large demand for ready interest rates tend to advance and credit is curtailed, notwithstanding the fact that the farmers of the South are bringing to market hundreds of millions of dollars worth of cotton and other products, on the basis of which credit should expand rather than contract.

THANKSGIVING PROCLAMATION

President Gives His Annual Proclamation to the Public

"The people of this land having by long sanction and practice set apart toward the close of each passing year a day on which to cease from their labors and assemble for the purpose of giving praise to Him who is the author of the blessings they have enjoyed, it is my duty as chief executive to designate at this time the day for the fulfillment of this devout purpose.

"Our country has been signally favored in many ways. The round of the season has brought rich harvest. Our industries have thriven far beyond our domestic needs, the production of our labors daily finding enlarged markets abroad. We have been free from the curse of pestilence, of famine and of war. Our national councils have furthered the cause of peace in other lands and the spirit of benevolence has brought us into close touch with other peoples, to the strengthening of the bonds of fellowship and good will that link us to the comrades in the universal brotherhood of nations. Strong in the sense of our own right and inspired by as strong a sense of the rights of others, we live in peace and harmony with the world. Rich in the priceless possession and abundant resources wherewith the unstained bounty of God has endowed us, we are unselfishly glad when other peoples pass onward to prosperity and peace. That the great privileges we enjoy may continue and that each coming year may see our country more firmly established in the regard and esteem of our fellow nations, it is the prayer that should arise in every thankful heart.

Therefore, I, William Howard Taft, president of the United States of America, designate Thursday, the 30th day of November next, as a day of thanksgiving and prayer, and I earnestly call upon my countrymen and upon all that dwell under the flag our beloved country, then to meet in their accustomed places of worship to join in offering praise to Almighty God and devout thanks for the loving mercies He has given us.

"In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

"Done at the city of Chicago, this thirtieth day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and eleven, and of the independence of the United States of America, the one hundred and thirty-sixth.

By the President,
P. C. Knox, Secretary of State

C. P. Rodgers who has just finished his transcontinental trip in an aeroplane today said he felt in condition to start back on another "If I had a machine." This remark was made as he glanced at the machine that had carried him across the continent to be correct at parts of the machine, for it was admitted that barring an upright rudder nothing of the original aeroplane that Rodgers started with from Sheepshead Bay on September 16, remains.

MUST HAVE THE BRIDGE

East Coast Ferry Should Have Drawbridge

VOLUSIA COUNTY PASSES IT UP

Jealousy of Different Sections Prevents Co-operation of County Commissioners

The Orange county commissioners met Tuesday at DeLand in an endeavor to arrive at some understanding regarding the steel drawbridge that is so badly needed at the East Coast Ferry. Orange county has already done a lion's share of the work and spent money on the Volusia county side making a good crossing with the hope that the Volusia commissioners would meet them half way. But the insane jealousy that exist between DeLand and Daytona against New Smyrna prevented any settlement of the question all of Volusia commissioners but one voting for a bridge at Thrasher's ferry because such a route would take all the travel through DeLand and Daytona.

The present crossing gives the public a choice between going to DeLand or to New Smyrna and the rapid growth of the latter city has aroused the jealousy of the rest of the county and now it seems to be anything to keep people away from Smyrna and bring them through DeLand and Daytona.

With the great amount of work already accomplished at the East Coast ferry Orange county should and will go ahead with the drawbridge and public spirited citizens of this county and of New Smyrna will assist with contributions.

The petty act of the Volusia commissioners will leave them in a peculiar condition, because Orange county will never join them in their new bridge enterprise, after their narrow minded act of last Tuesday.

Asleep at the Switch

Prof. Bell, who has been putting on some good hypnotic and other stunts at the Imperial this week, placed Eli Barrett, the shoe doctor, under the spell of money and mesmerism combined, and had him asleep in Yowell's window today. Eli said he needed the sleep and the money and was perfectly satisfied to assist the professor.

Held Business Meeting

The West Side Improvement society, last Thursday, held their first yearly business meeting at Robbins' Nest. The report given for last year was very gratifying. Received from members in dues and donations: $60.70; City council $20.00; our friends, $21.85.

Many others have given material and work for park improvements. We wish to thank the city council who have cooperated with us; Mr. Holly, who has kindly inserted our notices, and all others who have helped in any way, to improve our West Side.

SHORT CELERY CROP

Sanford Celery Growers Should Get High Prices for Their Celery

There is usually a large acreage of celery grown in New York state for marketing during the fall and winter. The large markets in the East usually buy heavily of this York state celery for storage purposes in order to supply their trade wants during the holidays and at times this York state celery is not exhausted from storage until February. This season the reports say that owing to the weather conditions during the growing season in New York state the yield of fancy celery was exceedingly small, and the supply of fancy York state celery will be exhausted early in December. It is said that certain of the largest dealers in New York City and other eastern markets, realizing the York state celery shortage, are buying heavily of Michigan celery for storage purposes.

California began shipping the 1911 celery crop about November 1st, and their supply should be virtually exhausted during January as the crop as a whole in California is said by reliable California authorities to be 800 acres short of the past season.

The Michigan celery crop is said to be normal, and with the Eastern trade buying this Michigan celery for storage, which is not usually the case, means that we need have no fear of Michigan celery competing with our celery as their crop should be exhausted before our crop is moving to any extent.

It is rumored that the Manatee crop will be somewhat short of last season, and the same will apply to the Sanford acreage.

With celery now moving from three states, California, New York and Michigan, fancy, well bleached celery is now selling in New York City at $3.50 to $4.00 per New York state crate.

"As You Like It"

Such was the independent title which Shakespeare gave his most amusing comedy. The fact that it has remained in public liking for more than 300 years, and shows no sign of falling favor, is sufficient proof that the world likes it very well. It is rated by many as the most thoughtful, the most artistic, the most amusing and the liveliest of all the Shakespearean comedies; and, as it will be presented by the popular young artist, May Stewart, and her excellent company, at the Imperial Theatre, Tuesday evening, November 14th, will prove the most important theatrical event of the season. Miss Stewart is said to make a charming "Rosalind" both in the royal robes of the Princess and doublet and hose of the gay and gallant forrester.

It is officially announced that the work of exposing the wreck of the Maine so far as the parts immediately affected by the explosion are concerned from about midships to the bow will be completed by November 20. Everything will then be ready for examination by the board of inspection which has already been notified.

CULLED FROM THE STATE PRESS

An Epitome of the Week's Most Important Happenings in the State's Domain.

Winter Park is talking of water works. There are a number of private systems and Rollins college has a fine plant, but as the town grows there is demand for modern conveniences.

Tampa is expecting to have a chair factory located somewhere within her boundaries, and is entertaining a representative of one of the big furniture factories of New York state.

Mrs. Mary Bryant, of near Falmouth, sent a sweet potato to that place last week, raised on her farm, that weighed eight pounds, measured twenty-two inches in circumference, and sold on the market for 15 cents.

W. E. Heathcote of St. Petersburg, a director of the Florida Citrus Exchange, says the estimate by the railroads and various papers in the state that the citrus crop of Florida for this season will run 5,000,000 boxes is too high. At a meeting of the directors of the exchange held a few days ago opinions were heard from eight gentlemen from a wide range of territory, and it is their opinion that the crop will not exceed 3,000,000 boxes.

A sewerage system and an up-to-date creditable hotel building are among the things promised for Lakeland during the next year.

West Palm Beach is to try the blue laws and have everything on a Puritan plan on Sundays hereafter. That is, unless the people who have framed the ordinances decide that moderation is better than prohibition in the general run of things and repeal the law that now makes it an offense to bring your trunk from the station if you happen to reach home on the first day of the week.

County police officers are searching for Claude Freeman of Okus, a village near Miami and fear murder has been committed. Tierman left his home Monday night for a bicycle ride. He did not return and Tuesday morning his wheel and a revolver were found in the road near a blood stained iron bar on which were strands of hair the same color as his. Bloodhounds are on the man's trail.

At the meeting of the board of county commissioners held today a petition was filed asking for an election to be held in Leon county on the "wet and dry" proposition. The petition came in late this afternoon but the friends of the anti-alcohol succeeded in having action deferred until the 21st of the present month, so that ample time might be had to examine the names attached to the petition as to whether or not they were bona fide names of certified voters.

I Stand for a Square Deal for all the People

I stand for a square deal for all the people, equal rights to all, special privileges to none. I admit I think it a high personal honor to be your mayor, and if elected will give my best efforts at all times for what I feel is best for the betterment of our city.

Taxes are high, but we cannot lower them by selling lots. Manufacturing plants are what we need to put us on a firm foundation.

CAMERON CITY CLIPPINGS

To the Editor of The Herald: The Farmers' Club held an interesting, well attended meeting Tuesday evening and many new names were placed upon the membership list. Seed beds, both lettuce and celery were fully and freely discussed, experiences and troubles related and compared and much information brought out. The club decided to hold its next meeting in two weeks, Tuesday evening, Nov. 21st, at which time some questions regarding the sowing of the crops in the field will be taken up.

Everyone interested in farming in any way is cordially invited to attend these meetings. The discussions are on matters of vital interest and the social hour is well worth while. At the close of the meeting the question box was opened and among its contents was the general question "Shall we have Thanksgiving dinner at the church?" A rising vote proved the desire to do so to be unanimous. At the meeting in two weeks the ladies will formulate their plans. Mrs. Worthington, vice president of the club will act as chairman of the committee. This dinner will not be for club members only or for the church and Sunday school people only but for both and any others in the community who would like to join us. ALTAMONTE SPRINGS

Special Correspondence to The Herald: Your success as editor of the Sanford Herald has been phenomenal, and the newly semi-weekly is ample proof of the statement. Your sheet is a credit to Sanford, Orange county and to the state of Florida, and should be a semi-weekly visitor in every home in Orange county at least. You have proved yourself a booster of the right stamp. You make no misrepresentations and can deliver the goods as represented. I know that every reader of the Sanford Herald is proud of you. The influx of visitors and home-seekers to the state and to Orange county will be greater than ever before. The eyes of the people are focused on Florida, for the intense heat of the north and west has been an eye opener to those people who had an idea that the heat in Florida must be next door to suffocation. But the weather reports for the past summer has disabused the minds of that falsity. I was asked many times while on my visit in New England the past summer what was the best time to go down to Florida. I replied, "Any day in the year. You would be more comfortable than they were there." Those who have vis-

The St. John's River Bridge

Orange county finds itself in a rather embarrassing position with relation to its sister county, Volusia, in the matter of building the bridge over the St. John's river, at East Coast Ferry. Recognizing the urgency of the need for a direct road to the coast, the Orange County Commissioners, accompanied by a delegation from the Board of Trade, went up to DeLand Monday to confer with the Volusia County Commissioners. From the information we can gather as to what went on, it appears that there was so much necessity for diplomacy at the meeting, that little or nothing was accomplished. A future meeting was vaguely arranged for between committees representing the two parties, which amounts to little or nothing. Knowledge of the real situation in Volusia county, is common property. The county is divided against itself, the upper portion seeking to divert travel through DeLand, and lower half favoring the East Coast Ferry route. The majority of the Volusia County Commissioners are residents of, and in sympathy with the upper section.

The question is, where does Orange county come in?

The residents of this county can ill afford to wait for the settlement of a family quarrel on the other side of the river. And it seems to be unfair for this county to stand the entire expense of building a steel bridge over the river, when Volusia county would be equally benefited. The solution of the unfortunate difficulty would appear to be in accepting the proposition which was suggested at Monday's meeting, namely, for Orange county to accept from Volusia county the payment of a sum of money equivalent to the sum that Orange county has already expended on improvements at the ferry.—Reporter-Star.

Looks Like Harmon

Washington, Nov. 9.—Congressman Brantley of Georgia, and Webb of North Carolina, who are in Washington tonight expressed themselves of opinion that yesterday's elections in New York, Massachusetts and other states, spells Harmon.

"I cannot see that the result of the election means anything else than Gov. Coker Harmon becoming the nominee of the Democratic party for the presidential nomination," said Mr. Brantley. "Any one who will take the trouble to read the papers of today and see the result must, I believe, come to the same conclusion."

Mr. Brantley is one of the best posted men in the house on political affairs, and his statement should be given weight. Mr. Webb was equally as positive that Harmon is the man who will be named as the next standard bearer for the Democratic party.

"It looks like Harmon to me," he said, "and not Wilson or any one else."

Women Should Know This

Thousands Who Were Weak and Suffering Have Been Made Well and Happy

Do you suffer with periodical headaches? Do you complain of sleeplessness and nervousness? Have you begun to have spells of dizziness and vertigo? Does indigestion and stomach misery in any of its many forms warn you of the inevitable approach of nervousness and debility?

Go at once to your druggist and get a bottle of the most wonderful restorative within the reach of womankind, today. Get a bottle of Reno's New Health, and as thousands of other suffering, half-despondent women have done before and thousands more will do, you will find in its peculiar curative qualities the womanly health and strength you desire.

Take Reno's New Health and you will find that it surely and thoroughly relieves Bloat, Profuse, Painful, Irregular or Suppressed Menstruation, Sickly Periods, Constant Weariness and Weakness, Depression, Cramps, Headaches, Violent Headaches, Palpitation of the Heart, Pain in the Back and Groin, Leucorrhoea and all Inflammations, Ulceration and Discharge of the Vagina and Uterus.

The best test that can be applied to Reno's New Health is to use it. Many women need only this simple, wonderful medicine to make them strong and well. If there is the remotest doubt in your mind of its unexampled efficacy, the guarantee under which it is sold should be sufficient to induce you to try it.

Reno's New Health has never yet failed to give relief. It has made thousands of women well.

If it was not invariably successful it could not be sold as it is, under guarantee to refund money on first bottle if it did not cure. If other medicines offered to women were sold in this way their proprietors would soon have to go out of business.

If you are weak and nervous or if there is any drain upon the system with periodical pains, use Reno's New Health and see how quickly it will cure you and make you well. The sooner you start taking it, the quicker you will be free from suffering.

Orlando will enact a curfew law. They need it. Even the editors stay up in Orlando until eight o'clock at night.

It is up to Orange county and New Smyrna to build a steel drawbridge at the Celery avenue crossing and they should build it at once.

The United States Land and Irrigation Exposition, one of the greatest land shows in the United States will open in Chicago on November 18. Will Sanford have any literature there?

'LET US PRAY' A preacher, at the close of one of his sermons, said: "Let us pray. We are paying their debts stand up." Presently every man, woman and child, with one exception, rose to their feet.

The preacher seated them and said: "Now, every man not paying his debts stand up." The exception: a careworn, hungry-looking individual, clothed in his last summer suit, slowly assumed a perpendicular position.

"How is it, my friend," asked the minister, "you are the only man not to meet his obligations?" "I run a newspaper," he answered meekly, "and the brethren here, who stood up, are my subscribers, and—" "Let us pray," exclaimed the minister.—Exchange.

SWAT THE FAKER While the cry of "Swat the Vagrant" is floating on the breezes, this paper desires to inaugurate a kind of alternating or responsive chorus, with the words "Swat the Faker!" By the latter we mean the perambulating gentry who come down here in the winter time to live by their wits or rather by the lack of wit that is frequently displayed by the Florida business man. The time is at hand when our people will be besieged by these itinerant grafters to patronize all kinds of advertising schemes and dodges. There will be "directory" cards of every conceivable variety, which direct nobody anywhere—though they may direct attention to the gullibility of the advertiser, who is set down as an easy mark for the next adventurer. There will be maps, road signs, bill boards and innumerable other schemes, and some men will "fall" for this class of worthless advertising who never spend a nickel for legitimate publicity. These fakers, peddlers, beggars and sometimes, if we must say it, itinerant impostor preachers, are regular winter pests that detract from the joy of life during Florida's winter season, and they should be swatted vigorously.

In some towns merchants have agreed to have nothing to do with outside advertising schemes manipulated by these perambulating gentry unless vouched for by the Board of Trade. There should also be a charitable organization to which all appeals for charity should be referred before a canvass of the citizens is permitted.—Lakeland News.

ON ORGANIZED CHARITY

Mr. Editor—Allow me to express my hearty endorsement of The Saunterer's remarks on the subject of Organized Charity, in his latest effusion. He certainly has touched upon a point of vital importance, and until our folks take this matter a bit carefully, it is impossible to realize the enormous waste of money, and the misdirected effort that parades under the name of charity. To give a man a dollar when he put up a poor mouth about his circumstances is indeed a cheap and easy way of relieving one's monetary wave of sympathy. Emerson says that such "is a wicked dollar," and I am inclined to believe he is right. Perhaps the dollar was not needed at all—maybe he was an impostor with a whole bunch of dollars hidden out somewhere—maybe he was just on the ragged edge and that dollar helped make a pauper of him, when a job of work would help him retain his self-respect, and fit him for earning more, and maybe again he should have had the dollar, but not from the community. There are so many causes for poverty, so many ways of dealing with it, that I wish you would ask The Saunterer to present them at some length through your columns. If there could be some simple system of investigation and registration in the one matter of homeless men, who ask for a meal and transportation, the thing of almost daily occurrence in Sanford at certain seasons of the year—it would prove a practical economy for the business men. This one subject is apt to take up a good part of the newly organized Conference of Charities and Corrections which will meet in Jacksonville next week, and I am glad to hear that our city council will have a representative there to hear and help discuss ways of dealing with such a situation.

There does not seem to be a very great deal of need among our own people, but there have been several notable cases this year, and I never have seen a community respond so readily and heartily to the call for sympathy and temporary relief as Sanford does. Still, our churches, our town council, our benevolent orders do not seem to have any system of comparing notes.

Under the present lack of method, a needy family is likely to be embarrassed with kindness one week, and on the verge of starvation the next, to say nothing of the fact that no close and thorough investigation is made which might render the giving of relief entirely unnecessary. I am quite sure that it would be perfectly possible to evolve some simple method of meeting the various situations that present themselves in Sanford from time to time, even though we may have to wait some years for a full-fledged Mr. Saunterer to appear more and let us hear from him again.

Very truly yours, X. Y. Z.

Missionary Social

On Friday evening the members of the Baptist Woman's Missionary Society gave a social in the church. Half a hundred or more members of the congregation were present, and young and old seemed to enjoy the evening. Mrs. R. C. Maxwell recited in a forceful, impressive way, "The Missionary Box," which was appropriate for the occasion.

Little Jean Maxwell gave two charming little recitations, "The Daisies of the Sky" and "The Seed."

The young ladies of the Helping Hand Society rendered "Keep Sweet," and several other beautiful songs in a most delightful manner. So well did they sing, in fact, that Pastor Wildman, who very obligingly made the announcements of the evening, declared that they deserved a reward, and according to alphabetical order all guests were invited into the Sunday school rooms and served delicious refreshments.

Upon a return in the auditorium the question was asked: "How many states were represented in the assemblage?" Investigation showed that there were natives of eleven states, and one former citizen of far away Porto Rico present. State songs were called for and "Auld Lang Syne," "Swanano River," and other songs which brought to mind tender memories of the past were sung with hearty good will and deep feeling.

While a number of young people gathered around the organ and rendered popular hymns, others made use of the opportunity to become better acquainted.

To the genial pastor, Mr. Wildman, his tactful, gracious wife, and the ladies of the society, who made all feel at perfect ease, thanks are due for a most delightful evening.

Has Removed to Sanford

Mrs. E. A. Perry and daughter, Mrs. Grace Cooney, and the latter's son, were in Gainesville Tuesday, leaving on the noon train for Sanford, where they will make their future home with the former's son, C. G. Perry. Mrs. Perry has been a resident of Hammock Ridge for thirty-five years, being one of the oldest settlers of that section, and while her friends here regret to lose her, they trust that she will be blessed with her new home—Gainesville Sun.

Two thousand home-seekers arrived in Sanford this week and scattered for different points in the State; most of them going to South Florida.

Missionary Mass Meeting

The meeting of the united missionary interests represented by the churches in Sanford and held in the Congregational church Sunday afternoon, for the purpose of hearing Mrs. T. C. Bliss who for years was a missionary in the Micronesia Islands, was well attended. Doubtless many more of the members of the several missionary societies were prevented from attending by the very inclement weather. It was indeed a great loss to all who were not present to hear Mrs. Bliss tell of the origin and inspirer of the great missionary jubilee which has swept the entire country from California to Florida. Fifty-seven great jubilee meetings have been held beginning in California and ending in a great mass meeting in New York City.

Having attended a number of these jubilees and being also a member of several important committees, Mrs. Bliss was well prepared to explain clearly and interestingly the plans, the inner working and great objects accomplished by the vast bodies of men and women in their enthusiastic endeavor to worthily honor the grand work and incalculable good accomplished by the (comparatively) women in America, in the cause of missions. It is not only the effort to point out the work already accomplished and being done, but the instigators and workers who have carried on the jubilee movement, are endeavoring to communicate a part of their own enthusiasm and zeal to the 80 per cent of the women in the churches who take no interest in either home or foreign missions, and are in no way identified in church work. Mrs. Bliss stated that the after effects of this great movement, in a great many instances, was most gratifying and encouraging. Many women and men also were being aroused from their lethargy and enthused as never before and were gladly giving of their substance and personal effort to help broaden, deepen and carry on this missionary wave that is sweeping the country and carrying everything and everybody before it.

Mrs. Bliss also related just a few of her own experiences and impressions. Her first impressions and feelings when she first reached the heathen land and beheld the savages among whom her life work was to be wrought, also some of her experiences in the schools and the influence of civilized training on those heathen pupils. She told a very pathetic incident which came under her observation, the life and death of the daughter of a chief, who seemed as a little girl, when she first came under their care, simply incorrigible. Later how she yielded to kindness and Christian influence and became a valued helper in the school, of her short life and early Christian death.

Mrs. Bliss closed her delightful talk with a stirring, ringing appeal for the cause of Christ and His brethren over the seas in heathen lands and in darkness.

A GREAT DISCOVERY.

Certain Ingredients That Really Promote Hair Growth When Properly Combined.

Resorcin is one of the most effective germ destroyers ever discovered by science, and in connection with Beta Naphthol, which is both germicidal and antiseptic, a combination is formed which destroys the germs which rob the hair of its natural nourishment, and also creates a clean, healthy condition of the scalp, which prevents the development of new germs.

Pilocarpin, although not a coloring matter or dye, is a well-known ingredient for restoring the hair to its natural color, when the loss of hair has been caused by a disease of the scalp. These ingredients in proper combination, with alcohol added as a stimulant and for its well defined nourishing properties, perfect perhaps the most effective remedy that is known for scalp and hair troubles.

We have a remedy which is chiefly composed of these ingredients, in combination with other extremely invaluable medicinal agents. We guarantee it to positively cure dandruff and to grow hair, even though the scalp in spots is bare of hair. If there is any vitality left in the roots, it will positively cure baldness, or we will refund your money. If the scalp has a glazed, shiny appearance, it's an indication that baldness is permanent, but in other instances we believe baldness is curable.

We want every one troubled with scalp disease or loss of hair to try Rexall "93" Hair Tonic. If it does not cure dandruff and grow hair to the satisfaction of the user, we will without question or quibble return every cent paid us for it. We print this guarantee on every bottle. It has effected a positive cure in 93% of cases where put to a practical test.

Rexall "93" Hair Tonic is entirely unlike, and we think, in every particular, better than anything else we know of for the purpose for which it is prescribed. We urge you to try this preparation at our entire risk. Certainly we know of no better guarantee to give you. Remember, you can obtain Rexall Remedies only at our store—The Rexall Store.

TO THE VOTERS OF THE CITY OF SANFORD

I am not a candidate for the office of Mayor because of any political ambition. It is true that I will highly appreciate being elected your Mayor, but only because of the expression of confidence and not because I ever expect, or desire, to go higher politically.

My Company owns property in almost every part of the City of Sanford and pays one-twenty-fourth, approximately, of all the taxes paid into the City Treasury. It is absolutely true that we will be able to sell very little of this property to the present citizens of Sanford, just a lot occasionally

For this reason, it is imperative that we should have new men and new money. It is absolutely necessary, in order to secure new men and new money that Sanford should continue its policy of progress and development.

For five years I have been devoting my time, energy and money to BOOSTING SANFORD. During that time I have assisted in every public movement which was intended to promote the City's welfare. I have not taken one dollar out of Sanford in that time. On the contrary, the little I had outside has been gradually withdrawn and put into my business here. I have made some money during that time outside of my Sanford business; and that, also, has been brought to Sanford. I have been instrumental in bringing a good many thousands in money and a great many new citizens to the Sanford District.

Mr. Voter, your interest is my interest. Every new citizen helps each of us, directly or indirectly.

Mr. Tax-payer, every new tax-payer lightens your burden. Every new enterprise helps to maintain the city government and pay for public improvement.

Mr. Mechanic, Bricklayer, Carpenter—every new house means more work for you.

Mr. Plasterer, Painter and Tinner, or Decorator, you are interested and you are helped by every success of mine.

Mr. Merchant! Every new man means a new customer. If I sell a lot and a house is built thereon, it means something for each of you. My property is not improved property. I must get new customers and new patrons for you, as well as for myself. When I sell, my profit is made and that is the end of it. You, each and all, have the same opportunity, without the expense of getting the man here.

I ask you, in all candor, who is the more likely to help you, as Mayor of Sanford, Mr. Spencer or myself? Mr. Spencer's energies have been devoted entirely to his private business. I have given time and money to the City's affairs and to the promotion, it is true, of my private business, but yours as well.

Mr. Spencer's energies do not add one dollar of new money to Sanford. My work, on the other hand, each year adds some new money and some new men.

Mr. Spencer wants to be Mayor to gratify an ambition. So do I. His is a personal ambition—to be Mayor. Mine is an ambition to assist in building a great city here and have people miss me when God's Acre has claimed me for a tenant—with the plaudit "Well done, thou good and faithful servant."

Progress vs. Personal Government

It is a well-recognized and firmly established law of nature that all growth must be the result of a condition. Let the farmer try as he may but he cannot induce or compel his young plants to grow; then let him on the other hand supply the conditions that are productive of plant life, of the particular kind, and its growth is spontaneous, but independent of the efforts of man save as he complies with this general law. What boy, try as he may, by his own individual efforts can ever able to add one cubic to his stature? But once he assumes the proper attitude toward nature and conforms to the conditions required by her laws for growth, he begins to attain his ambition and the result is spontaneous. It is so with man. It is actually, for what man ever became a great thinker by coming in contact with men of deep thought, or hearing other's thoughts expressed? The power of thought is the result of a proper adjustment of man himself to the subject in hand and a development of his mental faculties along proper and well-marked lines.

Following this same principle all governments, whether municipal, state or federal, have their being, their growth and their progress in the conditions, whether natural or artificial, which exist in them and by which they are surrounded. No efforts which overlook or neglect these conditions can add permanently to a healthy growth or progress of the institution; and none but the healthy and permanent should be desired or cherished, lest sooner or later all must be undone in the process of readjustment with loss to the community and to individuals composing it, followed by adverse and unsettled conditions that will be hard to overcome. As applied to those that condition is most conducive to growth that recognizes the elvish spirit of men and makes the fewest restrictions upon their acts in keeping with the rights and welfare of all. Burdens and benefits should be equally distributed, and each commensurate with the other. Burdens imposed should be measured by benefits to be returned therefor, and none should be levied unless its benefit to the community in the hands of the public will be greater than if left to be expended by individuals as they choose to bestow it. True economic conditions are and always will be the result of the observation of these fundamental principles which are and necessarily must be the basis of all true civic advancement; and when these shall be ignored continuously chaos and disintegration follow naturally.

Governments should be conducted in the interest of the government and those governed and not in the interest of those who govern. No man has a right to convert an official position into a private asset and administer affairs of the best suits his personal interest, or in favor of a part, as against the whole. Men in official positions are by law presumed to be placed there because of their peculiar fitness to perform duties for and toward the public; and when they assume positions of trust they also assume an attitude toward those who placed them there. This attitude, if true makes theirs one of unselfish devotion to the interest of their constituents, at all times administering the law impartially and without fear from opponents or favors towards friends or their interest. In making and administering the law men in official position should set an example by scrupulously observing the law's provisions, lest by some act of theirs, the unwary and less-informed, in following the official example become entangled in the meshes of the law with loss to himself, and to the discomfiture of the men who attempt to administer laws that they themselves have made and then violated. Surely no man could retain public confidence by enforcing against others a law which has no binding force on men who make and administer it; neither could they do so if because of their own acts or evasions they have precluded its enforcement against others.

AVOID HARSH DRUGS.

Many Cathartics Tend to Cause Injury to the Bowels.

If you are subject to constipation, you should avoid strong drugs and cathartics. They only give temporary relief and their reaction is harmful and sometimes more annoying than constipation. They in no way effect a cure and their tendency is to weaken the already weak organs with which they come in contact.

We honestly believe that we have the best constipation treatment ever devised. Our faith in it is so strong that we sell it on the positive guarantee that it shall not cost the user a cent if it does not give entire satisfaction and completely remedy constipation. This preparation is called Rexall Operative. These are prompt, soothing, and most effective in action. They are made of a recent chemical discovery. Their principal ingredient is odorless, tasteless and colorless. Combined with other well-known ingredients, long established for their usefulness in the treatment of constipation, it forms a tablet which is eaten just like candy. They may be taken at any time, either day or night, without fear of their causing any inconvenience whatever. They do not gripe, purge, nor cause nausea. They act without causing any pain or excessive looseness of the bowels. They are ideal for children, weak, delicate persons, and aged people, as well as for the most hearty person.

They come in three size packages, 12 tablets, 10 cents; 30 tablets, 25 cents; 80 tablets, 50 cents. Remember, you can obtain them only at your store - The Rexall Store.
