Industrial Production Increases

By BILL NEIKIRK
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — The sharpest jump in industrial production figures since settlement of the General Motors' strike has generated little excitement among President Nixon's economic advisers.

Despite a seven-per-cent increase in the Federal Reserve Board's reading of May industrial output, a spokesman for Nixon's Council of Economic Advisors said the jump was only moderately encouraging.

"It's nice to see it up, but I'm not going to get out and get excited about it," the spokesman said.

The one-month boost does not confirm the start of the fast-paced economic expansion sought by the Nixon administration, he said.

The council maintains the industrial production figures shed more light on how well industry is producing, or output per man-hour of workers, instead of the total produced.

The May rise in the index matched the January increase, when output rose sharply because General Motors resumed production after a strike.

Except for January, the May increase was the sharpest since June 1968, when the economy was booming alone. Then it reached 11.5 per cent, of the 1967-69 average. The new figure is 4.2 per cent below that.

Hiway Safety Study Aid Bid

By ANN SICZEKOWSKI
A request for a federal safety grant has been made by U. S. Rep. William Chappell. Kenneth Melnich reported this at a recent meeting of the Seminole County safety advisory committee.

Sheriff John Polk reminded the members that mini-bikes are becoming an increasing safety problem and that some education in safety habits with these bikes is needed.

Because of the numerous complaints and traffic problems in the area of the commercial "flashing" light at Gen. J. C. Hutchinson Parkway and Highway 17-92, the committee assigned Polk to speak to the members to request a possible change in lighting which would present a lesser traffic problem in the area.

Confidence Vote Given To Krider

By LARRY NEELY
An offer by John Krider, manager of the Greater Sanford Chamber of Commerce, to pay for a complete audit of the Chamber's billboard advertising account was turned down by Chamber directors this morning at their quarterly meeting. John Fitzpatrick said he believes an audit "is not necessary." The Chamber's finance committee was requested to conduct an accounting of the books to establish how much of the money had been spent.

Krider asked for authorization to have the audit conducted and offered to pay for it out of his pocket. Krider said that he is of the opinion his integrity was challenged by a memo from Sanford City Manager Warren E. (Pete) Knowles to the Sanford City Commission recommending that a Chamber request for an additional $12,000 for billboard advertising to promote Sanford be turned down. The memo assigned the Chamber of Commerce of diverting part of $7,200 from an account for billboard advertising to "other purposes without an account or approval from the city."

Knowles memo of May 28 was not related to the press or discussed by the city commissioners at their meeting. A copy of the memo was procured by The Herald from another source. The memo said that not all of the funds allocated by the city for the signs had been used and since they were not returned to the city "must have been used for other purposes."

At the May 28 meeting of the City Commission Julian Stenstrom said that since all funds gathered by the Chamber for the signs were placed in a separate account it would be impossible for the money to be shifted without being accounted for.

Country Club Changes Hands

Transfer Effective Today

By GARY TAYLOR
A 99-year lease on the Mayfair Country Club changed hands for the third time when Howard McNulty, John Pierce and George Billups buying the remaining years of the lease from Mike Wheelchel for an undisclosed amount of cash. The new lease took over today.

The transfer of the lease has been approved by the Sanford City Commission. "We're going to try and improve the course and get it in top shape," commented McNulty, president of Florida State Bank. Improvements started today as a new air conditioner was installed in the club house. Carpets are next, and within three weeks, the new owners plan to begin work on the greens.

The Mayfair Country Club was originally leased by the City of Sanford to Hugh Wheelchel in 1949. In 1953 the lease changed hands and went to the New York Giants major league baseball team. They held the lease until it was transferred KEYS TO THE MAYFAIR Country Club changed hands this morning. The remainder of a 99-year lease was bought by John Pierce (left), Howard McNulty (second from right) and George Billups (right). Turning over the keys after holding the lease for six years is Mike Wheelchel. Pierce, who has been the general manager of the course for the last three years, will continue in that capacity. Billups will be his assistant in the course operations. The change in ownership will present no change for the members of the Mayfair Country Club as operations will continue as they were in the past. Miscellaneous painting and cleanup of the facilities will start this week. "Continued improvement" was stressed by the new owners.

With Adoption Of Ordinance Altamonte Springs Doubles In Size

ALTAMONTE SPRINGS — City of Altamonte literally doubled in size last night with the adoption of an ordinance

County Approval Needed

By HERKY CUSH
Pending approval of County Attorney Harold Johnson, construction in South Seminole County by builder Charles Clayton is expected to move ahead in full force.

Construction of 80 home sites in the southern section of the county will be approved if Johnson OKs the agreement between Clayton and the city of Maitland. But as yet Johnson has not seen any such agreement although both Clayton and Maitland report there is such an agreement.

In addition to producing a written agreement between the city and Maitland also must forward performance bonds which will guarantee first, the erection of a sewage treatment plant and, secondly, the destruction of the same plant if other action taken by the board yesterday was the approval of the county personnel policy manual. Commissioner John Kimbrough studied the manual and reported to the board yesterday.

The 80 connections into Clayton's treatment plant cannot be revoked by the county. In other items discussed at yesterday's County Commission meeting the commissioners decided to make an on-site inspection of the springs in Sandaloo Springs. It seems the builders of this project have not been conforming to county standards previously set.

That one-site inspection by the commissioners was to have been this morning. Among the hazardous situations reported that both bonds already had been posted.

Among items listed in the policy which were brought out by Kimbrough one dealt with relatives of those officials in office, conflict of interest, resident requirements, employee deductions, medical examination, work breaks, payments other than workman's compensation made to employees.

After the consensus of the board was to adopt the policy Chairman Greg Drummond commented it was essential that such policies exist. "Subordinates desire such a manual to more fully understand their position in their jobs."

Other action taken by the board yesterday was the appointment of a committee to study the situation and report back to the board.

It was also decided yesterday that Old Grove Lane is a "leaps and bounds" road and as such the county could not prepare the deed for it. It has been county policy in the past to have residents of "leaps and bounds" roads to prepare the deed.

Mayor Swafford stated his opinion that "it will some day be an asset to the city to have the utilities in the area. . . . We've given this a lot of thought."

City Sued In Boy's Drowning

The parents of a four-year-old boy drowned on June 14, 1970, have filed separate damage suits in Circuit Court against the City of Sanford.

Eugene Gilmartin and his wife, Florence M., claim their son, Richard, was drowned at Lake Golden because the city did not properly designate with proper warning signs or markers the area as "a safe area for controlled swimming of children or tender age."

The suits contend that because the city charged a fee for use of the recreation area that sufficiently trained lifeguards should have been provided. In addition there was no adequate rescue equipment for immediate use available, it charged.

Young Richard was with his family on a Knights of Columbus outing. The family contends that the Knights of Columbus paid the fee for use of the recreation area. Gilmartin is filing a suit as father of the boy while his wife is filing a suit as the administratrix of the estate of her son.

Two Babies Still Alive

SYDNEY (AP) — Two of the Brodick nonpareils were still alive tonight, 84 hours after their birth Sunday, but doctors said their condition remained critical.

A hospital bulletin earlier today on the 12-ounce boy and his one-pound sister said there was still "cause for considerable alarm mainly because of their extreme immaturity and small size."

Gerardine and Leonard Brodick, the parents, saw their tiny offspring for the first time Tuesday night. They watched the infants in their incubators for 45 minutes and were allowed to touch them briefly.

They were reported thrilled at the sight of their babies, delivered 12 weeks prematurely by natural childbirth.

Mrs. Brodick, 28, a former nurse, has taken the fertility drug Gonadotropin.

Storm Hits La Floresta

ALTAMONTE SPRINGS — The small suburban subdivision of La Floresta was briefly evacuated Tuesday afternoon after an electrical storm uprooted trees and damaged two homes.

No one was injured in the 45-minute storm in which police said, uprooted pine trees crashed through the roofs of two homes causing damage estimated at $5,300.

ORLANDO (AP) — Three killers — nutritional and bacterial disease and stress — were named by a scientific team today as the mysterious destroyers of fish and alligators in Lake Apopka.

Dr. Frank Hayes, head of the University of Georgia veterinary school, said these factors shared the blame for the deaths of 21 alligators, hundreds of turtles, thousands of fish and many birds.

"We are not just investigating the deaths of fish and wild life," he said. "We are investigating the death of a lake."

A news conference to announce the findings was scheduled later in the day at Winter Garden, on the lake where the staff did its study.

Month-Old Impasse Broken $1.3 Billion Budget Near OK

By JOHN VAN GIESON
Associated Press Writer
TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP) — The Appropriations Conference Committee broke a month-old impasse Tuesday night, approving in principle an unbalanced budget of $1.343 billion for the fiscal year.

The bill and the $76 million in new taxes needed to pay for it were targeted by dissatisfied legislators who want to see the level of school funds provided for their counties.

"I think there's no doubt that we have a shambles of a bill and we're going to spend some considerable time all day trying to find out where we stand on the taxes," said House Conference Chairman Marshall Harris, D-Miami.

Although Harris favored the equalization concept, he said he would fight for passage of the bill and the taxes needed to fund it.

Neither House was scheduled to take up the compromise spending bill today as it must first receive final Conference Committee approval Thursday.

Conferees Terrell Sessums, D-Tampa, was in the vanguard of opposition to the bill and the accompanying tax bill.

"The real story here is Terrell Sessums having been beaten and not liking it doing everything he can to kill the bill on the floor," Harris said.

"My friends in the Senate, this may be your last opportunity to save the State from ourselves," Sessums said in urging approval of the equalization program.

House conferees tried numerous times to force the Senate to accept equalization and finally fell back on the original Senate proposal to strip it.

But the battle was far from over because of the House fights brewing first over the conference committee report and then over the new tax measures.

An aide to speaker Richard Pettigrew, D-Miami, said it "we've got real trouble to get it on the House floor. I don't know if we can do it."

It became increasingly likely that the Legislature would not be able to enact the 16-day special session on schedule Friday and would have to extend to resolve the tax issues, — and possibly even spending.

The $1.373 billion House spending bill came in at $30 million more for education than the $1.335 billion Senate bill. The issue completely bogged down the conference committee until the House conferees decided they could not budge their Senate counterparts.

But the battle was far from over because of the House fights brewing first over the conference committee report and then over the new tax measures.

Cabinet 'Pulls Plug' On The Rodman Reservoir

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP) — The State Cabinet has voted to pull the plug on Rodman Reservoir, Florida's largest water project, to save some soggy time and money.

The $220 million waterway was halted by President Nixon on Jan. 19 to save the Oklahoma River Valley and "prevent a past mistake from causing permanent damage."

Secretary of State Richard Stone, among the majority in the 3-2 vote Tuesday, kept final action in abeyance by asking the vote be reconsidered next week.

Stone said he believed the 700 acres of hardwood trees which would be freed from watery bonds by the drawdown are already dead.

"I'm going to look into this and if I can see this is a waste of time," he said. "I'll ask that we reconsider."

Col. A. S. Fullerton of the Army Corps of Engineers said he would be "very surprised" if the Secretary of the Army did not comply with the cabinet's wish to drawdown the reservoir.

"Since there is no apparent overwhelming federal interest in keeping the water up, I'd be extremely surprised if the Corps didn't comply," he said.

However, Fullerton said a federal environmental impact study probably would have to be carried out before the reservoir could be lowered.

State officials said they would be able to draw water from dry ground if the reservoir were drained by the 7,000-acre area.

Lawrence said it would cause purification of the dried-up bed and the spread of weeds on remaining waters.

The reservoir was created 18 months ago by damming the Oklawaha. Its purpose was to provide water for a series of locks designed to lift barges and other vessels through the interior highlands of Florida on their way through the canal.

Taxes Going Up In Smoke

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP) — A House committee has decided to write its congressman in an attempt to get back some of the state and local taxes that are going up in smoke because of tax-free cigarettes sold on military bases.

Rep. Ralph Turlington, D-Gainesville, said the letters would be mailed by the staff of his House Finance and Taxation Committee. The sale of untaxed beer on the bases would also be protested, he said.

The letters were agreed upon Tuesday when a proposed memorial to Congress protesting the military practice met with little enthusiasm from committee members.

Some members said such a memorial might give Congress the idea that the Legislature was hostile to military bases in Florida.

But Turlington said Florida and its local governments lose upwards of $15 million per year in taxes they can't collect on cigarettes and alcoholic beverages sold on military establishments.

The committee chairman said staff research showed between 150-200 packs of cigarettes per uniformed man per month were being sold on Florida bases.

He said the obvious much of it was going to dependents and retired officers, but also a good portion was disappearing through bootlegging.

But Donald K. Yost, a retired Marine Corps general representing the Retired Officers Association, told Turlington his findings were erroneous.

"I think this shows the inadequate staff work," Yost testified to the committee. Turlington said evidence collected by his staff could be substantiated.

Turlington had proposed the memorial, seeking House and Senate support, but the idea was shelved after Rep. Paul Danahy, D-Tampa, suggested the "sense of the memorial" could be more effectively conveyed through a direct appeal to Florida's congressmen.

Firemen Pay Hike Bid

FOREST CITY — The Board of Fire Commissioners in the Bear Lake Fire Control District voted to write to the Board of County Commissioners requesting permission to increase the pay levels for three firemen.

The new salaries would be $465, $450 and $430. This additional $115 per month effective July 1, will be an additional amount of $480 for the payroll. The money is presently in the budget.

The budget forms for 1971-72 were studied and given to Chief William Kinley and Capt. Lloyd Brown for the consolidation of individual department requests.

Florida Airplanes Grounded

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP) — Two-thirds of the State of Florida air line was grounded Tuesday by the Appropriations Conference Committee.

The committee also clattered a proposed State Housing Program by striking $2 million from money to purchase low-income public housing.

Over the behind-the-scenes operation of Cabinet members, the committee voted to reduce the number of passenger planes from 16 to five.

The governor, lieutenant governor and six Cabinet members, each with his own flagship at present, would have to pool the five planes.

"Half the trips taken by Cabinet officials are directly parallel to commercial airlines and there is no reason for the State to have its own fleet," said House Conference Chairman Marshall Harris, D-Miami.

Sen. Kenneth Harris, D-Miami, said the action would meet with approval in the Senate because "there are some members of the Senate who are close tied to the Cabinet."

Harris prevailed over Sen. William Gunter, D-Orlando, who attempted to change language in the bill so as to remove the restriction on the number of planes.

Gunter said he was carrying out Senate instructions that no substantive changes in State law be made by the appropriations bill. Some senators have contended on points of order that State law controls the size of the aircraft pool.

But finance and taxation Chairman Alan Trank (D-Port Mader), a sponsor of the bill, said such legislation was necessary to crack down on mobile home owners who ignore the license tag law in wholesale numbers.

He estimated $600,000 each year is being lost to Florida because of owners who failed to purchase the tags.

No one without a current tag could have received electric, water or sewer hookups for their mobile homes under the rejected proposal.

It would be a long dark night for Florida," protested Sen. Dempsey Barron (D-Panama City), urging defeat of the bill.

Senate Nixes 'Police' Bill

TALLAHASSEE (AP) — The Senate soundly defeated a proposal that would require public utilities to deny services to mobile home owners who hadn't purchased current license tags.

By a 28-15 vote, the Senate rejected the bill after objections that it would turn utility firms into policemen for the state.

"It would be a long dark night for Florida," protested Sen. Dempsey Barron (D-Panama City), urging defeat of the bill.

Wage-Price Excesses Continue: Must Stop!

A 31 per cent wage increase that soon will come into effect in the aluminum industry is a severe deterrent for the Administration's effort to control inflation.

As anticipated, within hours after the wage settlement was announced, the Aluminum Company of America announced a 6 per cent price boost on fabricated products and other firms suggested they would follow suit.

The aluminum wage contract has become a new point of departure for United Steelworkers Union labor negotiators who are bargaining with nine steel companies for renewal of their contract on Aug. 1. Labor leaders in both steel and copper industries are demanding at least the rate of wage increases in the aluminum business.

Thus, the vicious wage-price spiral soars unchecked.

Because wage increases are invariably passed on to consumers in price increases, it is the public that must bear the brunt of inflationary wage settlements. The higher cost of steel and aluminum will touch ultimately every pocketbook in America.

Moreover, the rising cost of U.S. metal products will make them less competitive abroad, and could further aggravate our balance of payments, and the problems the American dollar is encountering abroad. American steel producers already are facing increasingly severe problems as a result of cheaper Japanese and West German imports.

All of this poses a severe problem for the Administration which desperately is trying to minimize government involvement in labor contract matters.

To date most of the federal effort to control inflation has been restricted to classical and legitimate fiscal and monetary policies, such as metering of the money supply, limited adjustments of the interest rates, and orchestration of the budget, first to apply the brakes to inflation and then to limit as much as possible the inevitable unemployment that would follow.

The Administration only reluctantly and recently undertook a policy of admonishing greedy labor leaders and businessmen who sought inflationary wage hikes or profits.

However, determined the Administration is in keeping government out of labor negotiations, its endurance in the face of meditation table arrogance is politically circumscribed. Already some in the Administration, such as Dr. Arthur Burns, are asking for wage and price controls.

It would be a melancholy day for all if excessive labor and business appetites drove the nation to this extreme.

Gov. Askew Signs Measures Into Law

Work-Week Issue

Once the Utopian dream of labor organizers, the four-day, 40-hour work week has become something to be reckoned with.

Experiment in the idea has been initiated by numerous small corporations across the country. Chrysler Corp. and the United Auto Workers are planning a test, and the Civil Service Commission in Washington is giving it serious study.

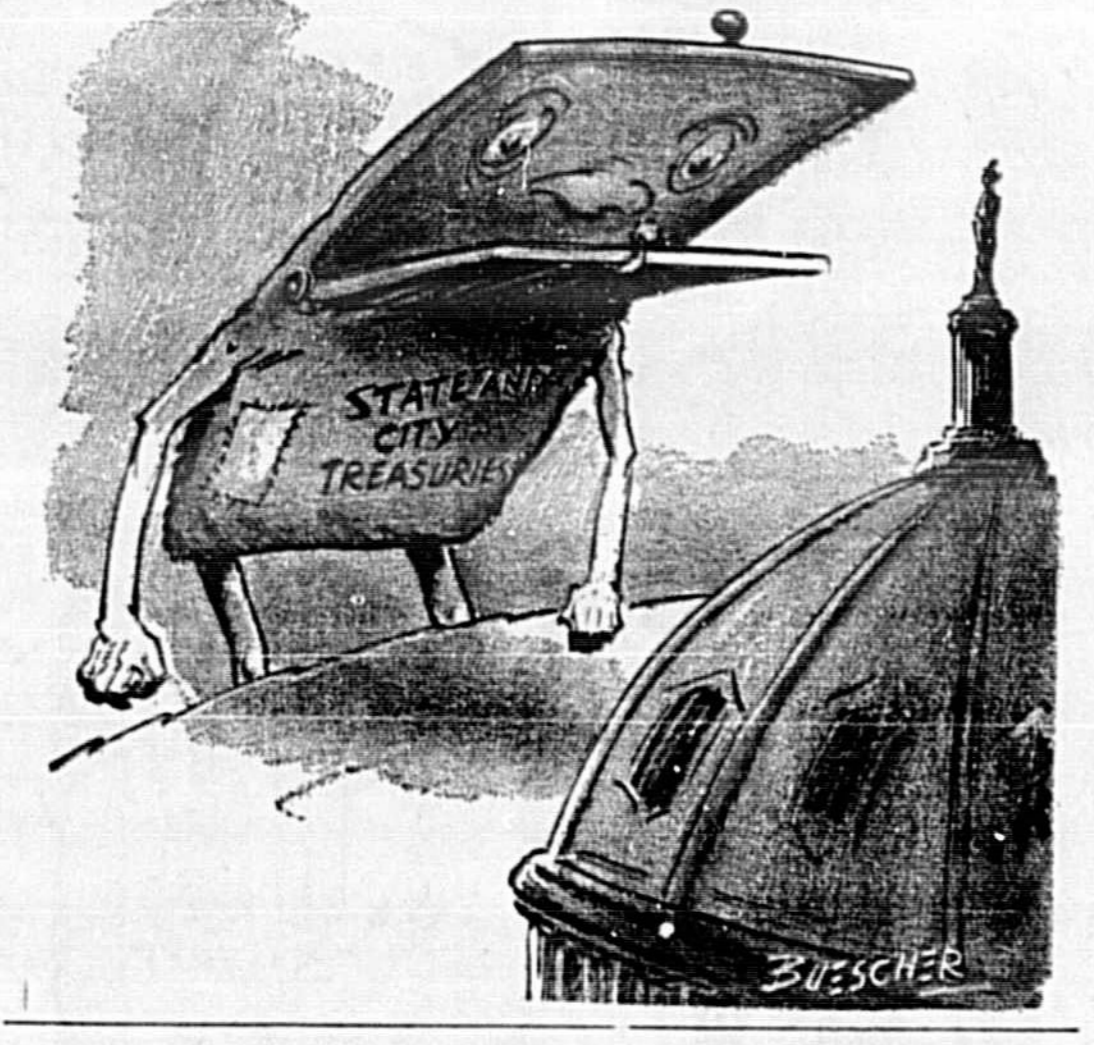

In most organizations where the shorter, 40-hour week has been tried, less absenteeism and happier workers are reported. Bigger profits are anticipated.

Variations of the theme are also in vogue. One private laboratory has a work program of two weeks on the job, one week off. Lab workers put in two full weeks (seven days, 120 hours) and then take a week off. They seem to like it, especially the full week's time in which they are free to do what they wish.

The four-day work week is by no means a new idea. It has been around a long time. But in a country that until recent years has been work oriented, it has never really been given a test. If the CSC should accept it, it probably would not be long before it becomes general practice.

Assuming that the wheels of commerce can be kept efficiently running on four days of work a week, the policy has its encouraging points, but it will take more testing to prove the validity of this assumption. In any event, it is getting an open-minded tryout in a growing number of areas and endeavors and may ultimately become a policy. If it does, the big question will be, what people are going to do with all their free time. The traditional theory that too much idleness breeds trouble will then meet the big showdown. — Tulsa (Okla. World)

BROTHER, CAN YOU SPARE A DIME?

Hal Boyle Says: Overfed And Undernourished

NEW YORK (AP) — Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail.

The diet of affluent Americans able to afford any foods they choose is less nutritious than it was a decade ago. The problem: we are overfed but remain undernourished. As a result, experts say, 10 per cent of the population may be anemic and 25 per cent overweight.

Another factor in the problem: adult Americans who drink get from 10 to 20 per cent of their total calories from alcohol.

What is happening to you? Asked to give a brief definition of it, Oliver Wendell Holmes once said: "Four feet on a fireplace fender."

The horse is making a comeback. The U.S. Census Bureau estimates the nation's horse population at 7.5 million, compared to a low of about three million in 1960.

Sen. William Proxmire begins to look more and more like Ralph Nader of Capitol Hill, with his involvement in so many controversial issues and his knack for making startling revelations.

In his capacity as chairman of the House-Senate Joint Economic Committee, the Wisconsin Democrat has made public a summary prepared by the Treasury Department showing how tax law provisions giving preferential treatment to certain forms of income cost the government nearly $44 billion in revenue last year.

The blood leaps to a quick halt. Even for the U. S. government, $44 billion is a massive sum to lose. It is more than half the total collected in income taxes; it's equal to about 20 per cent of all federal spending.

Not only that but preferential treatment is — well, it's as un-American as sour apple pie.

But wait a minute. What kind of preferential treatment? Well, for one thing, all those fat-cat oil speculators, or people who invested all their money in tax-free municipal bonds.

Disgusting. What other kinds of preferential treatment? Well, that young family man who finally raised the down payment on a house and then

State Taking Over Juvenile Probationers

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP) — Drunk tanks may become relics of another age and juvenile probationers will come under control of the state under bills signed into law by Gov. Reubin Askew Tuesday.

The governor also made law out of measures defining the rights of mental patients and freeing race-track tax distributions, which long have given small counties as much money as big counties.

The comprehensive alcoholism act will phase out "the well known drunk tanks in city jails and phase in the use of detoxification centers to treat, instead of warehouse, sick people," said Senate sponsor Ken Myers, D-Miami.

He said it would save $6 million now spent by local government on treating alcoholics as criminals. More than 70,000 public drunkenness arrests were made last year in Florida.

The bill will abolish by 1973 drunkenness as a crime, except for "disorderly intoxication" and driving while drunk. It requires development of a state-wide plan for prevention, care, treatment and rehabilitation of alcoholics. By July 1, 1973, county judges will have the power to commit alcoholics to these facilities.

Under the juvenile probation system, the state is to take over juvenile probation services operated by the counties beginning Oct. 1, 1973. The state now operates an adult probation system in 23 counties, there now is

Maitland Art Center Known For Beauty

By MARILYN GORDON

MAITLAND — The Maitland Art Center has been named as one of the 15 most beautiful examples of architecture in the world. It is unique, encompassing gardens, courtyards, the Andre Smith Memorial Chapel and studios ornamented with carvings from many cultures.

This compound was designed and established in 1927 by the famous artists, architect and sculptor, Andre Smith (1860-1950), for use by artists and craftsmen. Financial backing at that time was provided by Mrs. Efram Zimbalist Sr.

In 1969 the property was purchased by the City of Maitland, having remained idle for over 10 years. In January, it was reopened with a staff of 44 teachers. The non-profit Maitland Art Association is responsible for these activities, leasing the center from the city for $1 per year.

Global Comment: Castro Isn't Red's 'Messiah'

By LEON DENNEN

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (NEA) — Cuba's Fidel Castro is fast becoming an "anti-hero" to leftists in the United States, Latin America and Europe.

Despite his tough revolutionary posture, his image as a Marxist-Leninist leader has been badly tarnished.

Young Latin-American leftists are also disillusioned by the increasing tendency of Castro to act as Moscow's puppet. The act as Moscow's puppet. The majority, like their counterparts in the United States, are adherents to Mao Tse-tung. They despise Soviet "revisionism" as much as they hate capitalist America.

Castro knows this but there is little that he can do to appease the New Left. For he also knows that his dictatorship remains economically viable only as a side effect of heavy Russian subsidies.

Domestic Commentary: Perennial Choice: Flee Reds

By RAY CROMLEY

WASHINGTON (NEA) — A few days ago, this reporter ran into an old friend who has spent the past two years living with and writing about country villagers on several continents.

One of the first questions he asked on getting home was how was it that so many people around the world, poor and rich, scholarly and ignorant alike, had become so certain that the people of South Vietnam would prefer the North Vietnamese and Viet Cong as their rulers? He was baffled.

This man is no puppet thinker. He has written a book vigorously critical of the present South Vietnamese government. But he also knows first-hand from years in the country what the South Vietnamese think about the Viet Cong.

Then the other day there were news accounts of South Vietnam's offer to repatriate

Strikes And Snares

BY JOHN A. SPOLSKI

Although this doesn't have anything to do with the sport of bowling directly, it does us a world of good... indirectly. Referring to all of the home building going on in and around Sanford. For the records, it's up over 600 per cent, and well ahead of the "boom times" of the '60s.

And do you know who's moving into a goodly number of these new homes? Former Navy people who were transferred out of the area when they moved to Albany, Ga. about three or four years ago... have served their enlistment terms, and now are returning to their first love — Central Florida and particularly Sanford to establish residency again.

We couldn't be happier cause more than a few of 'em were bowlers before leaving and are already stopping off at the lanes to let us know that they're back in town.

Glad to see you all... the latest of whom are the Caruthers family — Jesse and Marge and children.

More than likely they'll be in more than a few of the many summer leagues presently in action... sorta tuning-up for the coming Fall Schedule. And I might also add, both of 'em rolled a mean ball before they left and won't need more than a few practice games to find the strike range again.

From The Florida State Bank Mixed League

Joe Pauline's name is announced quite frequently on Monday nights... the same time as the banking folks take to the lanes to try their hand at bowling. This past Monday, Johnny Joe just missed the "charmed circle" with a score of 185 and then pin-pounded on games two and three with totals of 228 and 210 for a very respectable 622 series.

And while we're shining the spotlight in this happy group's direction... how about a couple of the other local pros... Dick Spencer, 190, Bill Varner, 201, 214 for a fine 665 series, Louie Hoefner, 215, 246 for a total of 461, that's bowling, and Frank Floyd's 208/247 combination was good enough for recognition this week, too.

BOWLER'S TIP—First of all, if you're having trouble with your game, the only practical thing to do is to come out for the free lessons at the lanes every Saturday at 11:30 a.m. No one can tell you what's wrong with your game without watching you roll a couple of 'em down the lanes.

However, in the meantime... if you can't get the ball to hook, remember it isn't accomplished by turning your wrist at the time of your release.

One of the things which has helped my game more than any one thing is to make certain that my thumb is pointing towards 11 o'clock (or if you're right-handed, yours should be pointing towards 11 o'clock) and then with a firm wrist, (at the point of release) make certain that I'm getting the ball a good 12 inches out onto the lanes and then just trying to make the ball roll, roll, roll down the lanes.

Not a lot of force when I let go of the ball... just try my darnedest to make the ball roll... cause when it hits the pins, I know I'm going to have plenty of action on the ball.

Try it and see if it doesn't give you a bigger pin-count every time you hit the head pin.

From The D & B Fence Mr. and Mrs. League — Rip Ripley had his sights set on the near impossible... rolling a triplicate, and one which would have been the envy of the lanes, too.

Oh, on occasion, it's been done; but usually with scores in the 160s or 60s or maybe even around the 170s. Come to think of it, Johnny Wright did what Rip was trying to do many, many years ago when he rolled three consecutive 212 games.

Rip wasn't aiming quite that high this past Sunday when he started the first two games with 201 each and then walked into a mess of splits to finish with a 526 series.

A couple of others who were getting their strikes and spares were Kathy Buker 183/210, France Dorion 163, Jim Starr 191 while his Missus was only a couple of pins behind at 180 and ole Travesy Cagle was back in the limelight again, this time with a 213/155.

And now as space will permit, let's see how many more of your neighbors we can get into the column this week, for you... Jackie Goodman of the Wednesday morning Jet Bowlers League stroked a 183, while Mae Wilkins had a 165 and 156 and Yvonne Player came home with a 164.

DYNASTY MIXED LEAGUE — L. Rayburn 210/221, J. West 203, E. Malin 188/251, John Green 186 and 184, and M. Sauls with a 182/220... RI-LO MIXED LEAGUE — Jimmy Carter just couldn't do anything wrong this past Monday evening when he went up with one of the 600 sets at the lanes this past week. Carver shot a 188, dropped a few strikes and better yet, tied-em-together for a respectable 243 last game and a 609 series. That gal Ruthie Schroyer was back in the spotlight again, this time with her 192, 186/211 series as was Marjorie Evans and his 186/231 and Betty Gordon Lynch continued on his personal red-hot striking streak, this week again in the pocket more often than not and finishing with a 197, 196/234 series.

TUESDAY MORNING SEMINOLE PRINTING LEAGUE

... Phil Varner was in his usual pool bowling form and didn't miss that head pin too often on her first ball and better yet, converted more than her share of spares for a fine a.m. of bowling with a 187, 308, 180/270 series. That's averaging better than 190 for the day and I know of quite a few girls who'd love to be able to lay claim to that achievement (yours truly included) and some of the others from this league who did well were E. Messersmith 170, Dot Lee 177, Arlene Jacob 165 and Lis Harich 181.

Hey, if you don't have anything to do this Friday, why don't you come out on either Friday or Saturday evening and try your luck on Moonlight Bowling. This is more fun than skill and if you're lucky enough you just might go home with more in your pockets than you had on arriving at the lanes.

In this one, if you, for example, the head-pinned pin should come up as the number one pin and you get a strike, you get a dollar for that. Or if you happen to have the red pin standing... no matter where on the lanes, it's worth a half-a-buck to you.

More importantly, it's a chance to get out with your friends and neighbors and have yourself some healthful exercise and fun.

If you've ever done it, you're in for a treat for the very first time you try and join the crowds at the lanes each of these two evenings. No reservations are necessary.

Cliff Brown 'Pushes' Cycle To Victory

By HERKY CUSH

Herald Sports Writer

In sponsoring a motocross at Osteen last week it was the intention of the Mid Florida Riders to present a challenging contest to those contestants entered.

The meet last Sunday proved more than anyone bargained for as several rain storms prior to the event made for a slick, and at times, impossible race.

During the afternoon count-down drivers had to push their bikes in order to stay in competition. And one such driver, "pushed" his way to victory. That fellow had to push his cycle the final few yards across the finish line when his motor cut out on him due to the water.

Cut off from Sanford was his "muscle" to good advantage when he pushed his cycle across the finish line in the first heat of the 100 cc competition. Brown wound up with the first place trophy in the 100 cc class and that bit of pushing proved to be the difference.

Also entered in that 100 cc event was 12-year-old Dave Sharp, of Sanford. Young Sharp was another who had to push his bike across the finish line in that first heat and finished third in the overall point race. Sharp, a sixth grader at Lakeside Middle School, was in his first race.

Tom Elbersen captured a second place trophy in the 201 cc Open class. Elbersen, manager of Seminole Motorcycle Shop, lost by one point to Curtis Ramirez. Elbersen was riding a Husa 250.

Brown credits his victory to the owner of the bike he drives in competition, Rick Cirino. Not because Cirino allows Brown to use the bike but because Cirino allowed a difference on Sunday which permitted Brown to win his final heat. Cirino traced a short in the magneto and repaired it for Brown to make it in the final heat.

Other Mid Florida riders entered in the meet were John Lewis, Kim Whitaker, Kelly Elzer and Ralph Bender. Bender's efforts were real commendable. He was in his first motocross and managed to finish all three heats.

The water hazards which resulted from the rains were such that riders and mechanics were kept busy all day just trying to keep their machines in working order. In some places along the course the "water holes" were a foot deep.

Despite the constant trouble with keeping the bikes in working order there was nary a serious injury during the afternoon. Most serious was a bruised shoulder suffered early in the day.

A crowd of more than 150 fans were on hand to view the action at Osteen.

Time Running Out For Arnold Palmer?

By BOB GREEN

Associated Press Golf Writer

ARDMORE, Pa. (AP) — A 47-year-old smile stretched across the famous, putty face of Arnold Palmer admitted: "Time is running out."

Palmer, at 41 and aging line, but still one of the chief contenders in the 71st U.S. Open golf championship, took a long look at himself and the game he has helped popularize before being off in a practice round Tuesday.

Palmer, the game's all-time leading money winner and the most popular player the game has ever seen, is enjoying his best season in three years.

He's won twice and has more than $100,000 in winnings, fourth on the list this season.

"I think I can do, and, as you know, I'm enjoying my best season in three years."

He paused, then smiled again.

"But each year that goes by it becomes more and more unlikely."

"I have a lot more, a lot of different interests now than I did in 1966. Then I just wanted to play the best golf in the world. I can do it."

"I still love the game, love to play it. I can't think of anything I'd rather do. But as you grow older, you develop different, varied interests. You have to, or you're going to be in big trouble."

"I would like to make any changes in his life if he could do it himself."

"No, I can't think of anything I'd rather do. But as you grow older, you develop different, varied interests. You have to, or you're going to be in big trouble."

"I'm disappointed they're continuing legal harassment," Sharman commented about a letter the Stars sent to the Lakers, threatening legal recourse if the National Basketball Association club hires him as coach.

"The former NBA standout announced June 1 he was leaving the Stars to assume the coaching chores at Los Angeles. That announcement ignited a legal tug-of-war with the Stars management, which said it was using Sharman for $5 million a year contract."

"The letter to the Lakers said Sharman's employment would be deemed an independent of breach of contract and an unlawful interference with a business contract."

Sharman said he hadn't conferred recently with the Lakers' general manager, who he said "as far as I know I'm still their No. 1 choice for coach."

Sharman, who piloted the Stars to the American Basketball Association crown last season, said the letter perplexed him as a court ruling last week freed him to sign with the Lakers after noon Tuesday. A Utah district court judge had rejected a motion by Stars attorneys for a temporary injunction enjoining Sharman from signing with another team.

Florida also has spring events at Miami, Jacksonville and Pensacola. It was announced last week that entertainer Jackie Gleason will stage a $250,000 event near Fort Lauderdale on the 1972 circuit.

One tournament previously staged during the spring, the $200,000 National Airlines Open, folded in Miami due to weak support.

But the awesome Nicklaus ranks as the man to beat in the international field of 150.

The trimmed down 180-pounder, a new-look man with a fresh wardrobe and road-length blond mane, appears to be at the top of the most prestigious world can offer.

He has scored three tournaments triumphs, including the PGA national title. He was second in the Masters, lost in a playoff two weeks ago at Atlanta and has failed to make the top 10 finishers in only two starts this season.

At 31 and firmly established as one of the greatest players the world has ever seen, the bull-stern man from Ohio is the favorite every time he tees off. He has averaged more than $14,600 in winnings in every start this year.

Utah Stars Are Still Fighting

By EARL GERHEIM

SPOKANE, Wash. (AP) — Coach Bill Sharman said Tuesday the Utah Stars have "no legal or moral grounds for continued action, especially since a restraining order against him leaving to join the Los Angeles Lakers has expired."

Sharman's attorney said at the time a higher court decision would be needed before Tuesday noon to stop the coach from inking a pact with another team.

The Stars said Sharman can't sign with the Lakers, yet they don't want him back as coach because they are considering Joe Mullany for the job. Mullany's dismissal by the Lakers treated the opening Sharman had applied for.

"I'm disappointed they're continuing legal harassment," Sharman commented about a letter the Stars sent to the Lakers, threatening legal recourse if the National Basketball Association club hires him as coach.

Telephone Aids Montreal Scouting

Fanning said, "It works two ways, too. If I want to get some special information, say a full report of pitching schedules, or want to leave a message for one of my managers, I record it on the machine's answer tape and when they call in, they get my message before dictating their reports. If I'm in the office I can listen in on their reports and if I want to tell them something, I can cut in on the telephone."

The only problem they had was in the beginning. "A few of the managers talked too long," Fanning explained, "but we've got it down to a science — and it's less costly because they call station-to-station."

Disney Plans Tourney

ORLANDO, Fla. (AP) — Walt Disney World, scheduled to open in October, is in the final planning stages for a $150,000 golf tournament.

Proposed dates for the amusement center's tournament are Dec. 25 near the end of the 1971 circuit.

Charles Ridgeway, spokesman for Walt Disney World, said "We are considering the tournament, but nothing has been signed. There will be an announcement in a few days."

There are three courses on the Disney property.

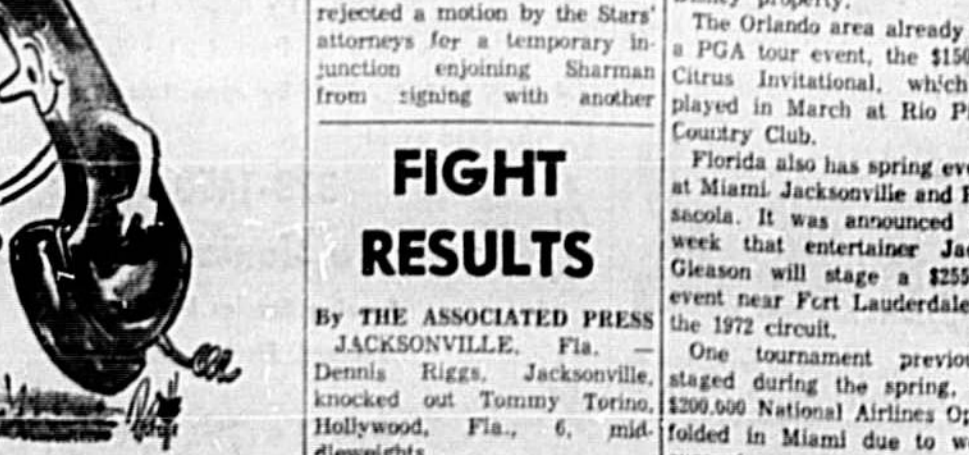

The Orlando area already has a PGA tour event, the $150,000 Cirrus Invitational, which is played in March at Rio Pinar Country Club.

Florida also has spring events at Miami, Jacksonville and Pensacola. It was announced last week that entertainer Jackie Gleason will stage a $250,000 event near Fort Lauderdale on the 1972 circuit.

One tournament previously staged during the spring, the $200,000 National Airlines Open, folded in Miami due to weak support.

Wild, Wild, West Is Out Of Hand

By KEN HAPPOPORT

Associated Press Sports Writer

San Francisco's top pair of Marichal and Perry was not able to win during the season.

In the National League's other games, Los Angeles kept hot with a 2-0 triumph over New York, the Dodgers' fifth straight and eighth victory in 10 contests; San Diego topped Montreal 3; Chicago whipped Atlanta 3; St. Louis trimmed Cincinnati 6; and Pittsburgh beat Houston 3-0.

The ball game really moving," he said Bryant, explaining how he got the Giants' reverse victory in June, a month which cost them ground in the National League's West race. Since the first of the month, San Francisco's whiplash lead of 10 games was whittled in half to five by high-riding Los Angeles.

Bryant was able to get the first batter in every inning except the fourth, when he walked Deron Johnson.

"And the fact that I went to three balls on five or six guys and was able to get 27 outs... well, that helped, too," Bryant, who picked up his sixth victory in the hit for second on the club among starters with Perry. Marichal has eight.

Alan Gallagher ended an 8-for-27 slump with a two-run single to back Bryant's heavy Gallagher's single came with the bases loaded during a four-run fourth inning and kept Philadelphia's starter Barry Lersch.

At Downing kept Los Angeles on the San Francisco best with a five-hitter and Maury Wills knocked in all the Dodgers run with a two-run single in the fifth inning.

New York's Nolan Ryan, who struck out nine and gave up only five hits in eight innings was touched for a single by Tom Haller and double by Bobby Valentine to put men on second and third. He struck out Downing for the second out and had two strikes on Maury Wills before the Dodger shortstop faced the next pitch to left for the decisive run.

The wild, wild West is getting out of hand and San Francisco needs a tough slugger to silence that swaggering bunch from Los Angeles.

Get Tom Bryant, Tom Bryant! Well, he's as tough a slugger as the Giants have right now, but with all due respects to Alan Marichal and Gaylord Perry.

Bryant pitched the first complete game of the Giants' June flop, firing four-hit blanks at Philadelphia for a much needed 6-0 triumph Tuesday night.

Horlen Recovers Touch

By DICK COUCH

Associated Press Sports Writer

It took Joe Horlen's magical healing powers just 29 days to transport him from the operating table to the pitching mound. Now, after a year-long struggle, he's also recovered his winning touch.

Horlen, who made a remarkable comeback a month ago from his second knee operation since last August, hurled the Chicago White Sox past Detroit 4-1 Tuesday night for his first victory since last June 19.

Bill Melton's grand slam homer and solo shot by Mike Herzberger and Rich McKinney provided solid backing for the courageous 33-year-old right hander, who scattered eight hits in going the route.

Elsewhere in the American League, Milwaukee overhauled Baltimore 6-3; the New York Yankees cooled Kansas City 2-1; Minnesota topped Cleveland 5-3; Oakland belted Washington 8-2 and California nipped Boston 5-4.

Horlen, a double-figure winner for seven consecutive seasons, beginning in 1958, slipped to 6-16 last year and was forced to undergo surgery on Aug. 4 for the repair of torn cartilage in his right knee.

Dr. Gerald Loftus, who operated on Horlen, said he'd probably be through this season, but Horlen returned to action after 34 days, working six times in relief in the American League.

He went to spring training this year with high hopes of regaining his form, but was sidelined when he shackled the Tigers, who had won six of the previous seven starts.

This time, the projected recovery period was six to eight weeks. But Horlen was exercising the damaged leg three hours after the operation—and pitching in relief on May 4, 29 days after surgery.

His true gift finally paid off, after three setbacks, Tuesday night when he shackled the Tigers, who had won six of the previous seven starts.

Melton broke the game open in the sixth with his 10th homer and second grand slam of the year.

Detroit's Gates Brown set an all-time AL record of 77 career pinch hits, when he slammed an eighth inning triple.

Milwaukee spotted the Orioles a 4-0 first inning lead, but tied back to tie the game in the sixth and then floored the defending world champs on John Brock's leadoff homer in the ninth off reliever Pete Richter.

Tommy Harper led the Brewers' comeback with two doubles and a homer, good for three runs butted in. Two-run pinch hit, when he slammed an eighth inning triple.

Steve Mack, did not fare as well as Braden last night.

Mack, also in his second fight as a professional, dropped a unanimous but close round decision to Leon Gillard of Jacksonville.

Both of Braden's triumphs in the ring have come at the expense of Sward. The two battled two weeks ago with Braden taking a decision.

Last night Braden gave away 12 pounds to his Jacksonville foe, coming in at 163 while Sward weighed 175.

In the main event in the Jacksonville Armory last night, Dennis Riggs of Jacksonville captured the Florida State middleweight championship with a sixth round TKO of Tommy Torino of Miami.

The referee stopped the bout in the sixth round with Riggs on top of Torino and pummeling a sixth round TKO of Torino has been described as a tough fighter who does not go down easily. He showed it last night as he seemingly knocked everything Riggs threw at him but the Miami batter could not offer much in the way of an offensive.

Both Torino and Riggs checked into the fight weighing 160 pounds.

Chiles Offers Substitute To War Fund Cut-Off Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Lawrence Chiles, Florida's freshman Democrat, offered a substitute to the Hatfield-McGovern proposal to cut off funds for U.S. fighting in Indochina. Chiles' plan would extend the deadline for local U.S. withdrawal from Indochina to June 30, 1972. It would provide for lifting that limit if the President says satisfactory arrangements for the freedom of U.S. prisoners are impossible.

The Florida senator offered his proposal on the eve of Senate action on an amendment by Sens. George S. McGovern, D-S.D., and Mark O. Hatfield, R-Ore.

The Hatfield-McGovern amendment to the draft extension bill calling for withdrawing U.S. war funds Dec. 31, with Chiles said Tuesday his amendment might well be opposed by both the Nixon administration and the McGovern-Hatfield supporters.

WASHINGTON (AP) — A proposal to cut off funds for U.S. fighting in Indochina reached the Senate today for a vote with every indication the measure would be rejected for the second time in nine months.

The Hatfield-McGovern amendment to the draft extension bill would withdraw U.S. war funds Dec. 31, a substitute proposal would move the cutoff date to June 30, 1972, and allow the President to retain troops in Vietnam in the absence of an agreement for return of U.S. prisoners.

A poll by The Associated Press showed 54 senators firmly or probably against the Hatfield-McGovern amendment, 37 in favor and nine undecided. Three of the undecided were understood to oppose the measure; two reportedly are in favor.

Senate Republican Leader Hugh Scott told President Nixon Tuesday the confound to the amendment sponsored by Sens. George S. McGovern, D-S.D., and Mark O. Hatfield, R-Ore. At least two senators were expected to miss the vote. They are killing Karl E. Mundt, R-S.D., who opposes the amendment, and J.W. Fulbright, D-Ark., who favors it. Fulbright is paired with Sen. William B. Spong, D-Va., an opponent, in an arrangement under which their balancing votes will not be counted.

The House votes Thursday on its version of the amendment, with support claiming a maximum 159 votes, far short of the 218 vote majority.

As it has since the debate began last week, Tuesday's Senate session consisted largely of speeches for and against the amendment with little debate or attendance by other members.

Sen. Barry M. Goldwater, R-Ariz., contended that even if the amendment passes a complete U.S. withdrawal by Dec. 31 would be impossible.

"We couldn't move that many men in that length of time," Goldwater contended. "It would take nearly a year to transport that many men."

Saigon Security Operation Launched

By GEORGE ESPER Associated Press Writer

Saigon (AP) — More than 10,000 South Vietnamese troops have launched one of the biggest security operations around Saigon to protect a parade Saturday in honor of Armed Forces Day, military sources said.

Militiamen sweeping through the Hung Sat special zone to the southeast, a frequent staging area for rocket attacks on the capital, intercepted one group of infiltrators Tuesday. The Saigon command said 11 Viet Cong were killed in the clash 15 miles southwest of the capital. No South Vietnamese casualties were reported.

Military sources said Viet Cong troops and underground agents have moved from other provinces into areas adjacent to Saigon. South Vietnamese forces have uncovered a new infiltration route from the Mekong Delta province of Kien Tuong through Long An Province southwest of the capital, and the 12th Viet Cong Sapper Battalion has moved from Tay Ninh Province 55 miles north-west of Saigon into an area just south of the capital, the sources said.

The parade Saturday will be the first in Saigon since Nov. 1, 1967, and it appears to be another move in President Nguyen Van Thieu's campaign for re-election next October. Such parades were discontinued after the enemy's big Tet offensive in February 1968, but they were apparently wanted to demonstrate that Vietnamization is working and the capital is secure.

Some U.S. and Australian forces will participate in the parade, the South Vietnamese command said. Two battalions of South Vietnamese paratroopers will be standing by to long Delta province of Kien Tuong through Long An Province southwest of the capital, and the 12th Viet Cong Sapper Battalion has moved from Tay Ninh Province 55 miles north-west of Saigon into an area just south of the capital, the sources said.

House Ignoring Veto Threat

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House, ignoring threats of a Presidential veto, has completed congressional action on a $3.5-billion economic development bill.

Rep. William H. Harsha of Ohio, top Republican on the Public Works Committee, said after Tuesday's vote the measure is "definitely and wholly unacceptable to the administration" and predicted it will be vetoed.

However, White House spokesman said the measure would be vetoed. The House passed the measure 275 to 164; the Senate vote was 69-30.

Demo Leader Reports: Vietnam War Secret To Be Aired Publicly

By WALTER H. MEARS Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield said a secret report on the Vietnam war will be disclosed publicly through congressional hearings, even if newspaper publication of the document is blocked by the courts.

Mansfield said the people have a right to know the details of the way American involvement in the war began and escalated.

The Justice Department Tuesday said a federal court order halting temporarily the New York Times publication of a series of articles based on the disclosure of the war.

The order is effective until 1 p.m. Saturday with a hearing scheduled Friday on the administration request for a preliminary injunction against further publication of accounts of the study.

"Of course the court decision must stand," Mansfield said. "But regardless of what the decision of the court is, hearings will be held."

He said the hearings might be held by the Senate Foreign Relations Committee or the Armed Services Committee. "If they don't, I will, and it will be last out," said Mansfield, chairman of a subcommittee on Far Eastern affairs.

Mansfield said he had discussed the matter with Sen. George D. Allen of Vermont, senior Senate Republican, who agreed the public should be fully informed about the report on the deployment of U.S. troops into 1968.

The majority leader said the hearings would be "for the purpose of laying the story out before the Congress and the people in a comprehensive manner as possible."

Mansfield said it is his position that if the courts prevent the Times from publishing the balance of the findings reached in the Pentagon study, the Senate hearings will make the material public.

Sen. Stuart Symington, D-Mo., has said he will ask for a Foreign Relations Committee inquiry. There is also a possibility of joint hearings conducted before that panel and the Senate Armed Services Committee.

But the task of obtaining the report from the administration might prove a difficult one for whatever panel conducts hearings.

Symington complained in the Senate Tuesday that Secretary of Defense Melvin R. Laird had refused again to provide a copy to the Foreign Relations Committee, even on a classified basis.

In Grand Rapids, Mich., Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey, D-Minn., said the top report was "never brought to my attention" as vice president or as the Democratic presidential nominee in 1968.

Former President Lyndon B. Johnson, former Secretary of State Dean Rusk and former Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara declined comment on the report.

Accidents Plague Law Officers

By LARRY NEELY

The rains came yesterday afternoon accompanied by a heavy fog and rain and an accident that plagued the law enforcement agencies of Seminole County.

Shortly after noon yesterday Sanford police were called to investigate a hit and run accident in the new parking lot at Seminole Memorial Hospital. Mrs. George Rounds, of 440 Virginia Avenue, told police that she returned to her car and discovered that someone had side-swiped her car. Damages to her car were listed as $63.

There were two accidents on Interstate 4 yesterday. One involved two southbound trucks. According to the sheriff's report, a truck driven by Glenwood Turner, of 2904 Joy Ann Street, Lockhart, collided with a truck driven by Zora Robinson of 707 Foster Avenue, Conway, S.C. The accident occurred on 14 one mile north of the Lake Mary interchange. Damages to the truck driven by Robinson was listed as $3,500. The truck driver, Tyner, as a total loss. Tyner was charged by the Florida Highway Patrol with failure to have his vehicle under control. There were no injuries.

Late yesterday afternoon a car driven by Donald Allen Jordan, 19 of 313 Ball Street, New Smyrna Beach, struck a car driven by Dennis Gilmore, 86 of 838 Treach Boulevard in Tallmadge, Ohio, causing damages totaling $300. According to Trooper Ernie Leggett, Jordan was driving too closely to the Gilmore vehicle and struck it when he attempted to pass in the northbound lane immediately south of the SR 46 exit. Jordan was charged by Leggett with failure to have his vehicle under control. There were no injuries.

Another aspect brought out which may have had to do with part of the fish kill was the killing of bicyclists by the truck driver. In addition, Robbins related that this incident was not the largest fish kill in Lake Jessup. Several years ago during a similar dry spell there was a larger kill of the same nature as that of Lake Apopka.

"The kill in Lake Jessup was confined to only fish," reported Robbins. "There were no birds or reptiles involved." Most of the fish killed in the lake were shad and quite a few catfish were destroyed.

Original Wedding Party Attends The L. L. Cox Anniversary Fete

By ANN RILEY

It was a golden day on June 2, 1921, when Mr. and Mrs. Linton L. Cox married in the St. Augustine Methodist Church.

It was again a golden day when Mr. and Mrs. Cox celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary, June 2, 1971.

An unusual feature of the celebration was the presence of almost all of the entire wedding party.

Edwina Pickard, a flower girl at the wedding is traveling in Europe. Members of the wedding party present included Jean Engstrom, maid of honor, Fini, Mich., Faith Selsmeyer, another flower girl, Orlando; Edwin Compton, ring bearer; St. Petersburg, and Avid Peterson, best man.

Mr. and Mrs. Cox are both graduates of Stetson University where they met. They have resided in Longwood over 25 years and have always been active residents interested in the growth and well being of Longwood. They are well loved residents of the community.

Mr. and Mrs. Cox are the parents of three children, a son killed during World War II and two daughters, Mrs. C. F. Guillickson, Winter Park, and Mrs. Earl Coleman, Lakeland. They have five grandchildren and one great grandchild.

A refreshment table featured a large three-tiered cake topped with a golden 50 ornament. Gold and white mums also graced the table.

Ninety-two friends and relatives came to the Cox Home to extend greetings and congratulations on their Golden Day.

Susan Alpaugh Honored

By MELENDIA EDMISTON

Miss Susan Alpaugh, bride-elect of Hank Ashby, was honored at a bridal shower at the home of Mrs. John Dunn, 440 Summerlin Ave.

Mrs. Dunn, her daughter, Jeanette, Mrs. Blake Sawyers, and her daughter, Donna, were the hostesses to the affair of June 12 at 5 p.m.

A crystal punch bowl with appointments and a floral arrangement of pink daisies and baby's breath decorated the table overlaid with lace. Pink punch with an ice ring of pink flowers, pound cake, nuts and mints, and wedding cookies were served to the guests.

Miss Alpaugh received her gifts while she played a treasure hunting game with clues. Her gift from the hostesses was a gray boat to her registered Chama.

Guests included Mrs. Bill Alpaugh, Susan's mother, Mrs. Bishop Ashby, mother of the bridegroom, Mrs. Rick Burns, Mrs. G. D. Bishop, Mrs. Alex McKibbin, Mrs. Maxine Wharton, Mrs. C. P. Riboud, Mrs. Mike McDaniel, Mrs. John Fuller, Mrs. Charles Persons and Mrs. William Pulver.

Also Misses Eaki Bishop, Pam Erickson, Pam Swain, Linda Flaggins, Natalie Heister, Judy Smith, Janice Harnes, Carol Farrell, Mary George, Suzanne Brown, Betty Secord, Mary Warrick, Susan Gallagher, Stevie Smith, Julie Miller, Peggy Fuller, Patty Stanley, and Julie Persons.

participation and look back upon the meeting with a smile in knowing that much has been accomplished.

To learn how to be a good leader and to learn what being a good member involves and how to exercise that knowledge, come and join in the activities of the Seminole Parliamentary Club, a study and discussion group with Mrs. Roy Jones as advisor.

For more information call Mrs. J. J. Sieczkowski at Sanford, chairman of the group, or Charles Lansing of Altamonte Springs membership committee.

However, if the meeting has direction, a clearly defined goal and good leadership, this personality type situation tends to be less of a problem.

If all involved listen respectfully to other ideas and contributions; discuss — don't argue; keep out of the emotional sphere and steer toward the factual; don't belittle or embarrass those who voice opinions — allow all to have their say; encourage voice and physical participation in the life of the organization, then the work of the group can be productive and pleasant, as it can be should be.

Miss Schlesinger And Roy A. Wright Exchange Vows In Double Ring Rites

Miss Michele Kay Scholinger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eric M. Scholinger, 302 Northumberton Dr., Schenectady, N. Y., and Roy Arthur Wright, son of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Wright, 448 Elliott Ave., Sanford were united in Holy Matrimony May 22 at 4 p.m. in the Cathedral of St. Philip, Episcopal Church, Schenectady.

The Very Rev. David B. Collins (Dean of the Cathedral), was officiating clergyman at the double ring rites using the new Episcopal liturgy marriage ceremony in the Cathedral Chapel.

Two arrangements of pink daisies adorned the altar with gold and gold brocade tapestry.

Given in marriage by her father, Eric M. Scholinger, the bride wore an old fashioned white cotton gown with lace trim on a miter bodice, long sleeves and high neck. It featured a large ruffle at the hemline and the pink vest was trimmed with matching lace. Her headpiece was a circular pink net hat trimmed with pink roses and baby's breath.

Maid of honor, Miss Elizabeth McDonald, wore an old fashioned high neck dress, with white bodice featuring long mutton chop sleeves, with ruffles on the collar and sleeves; long pink and turquoise seersucker plaid skirt with large ruffle at hemline, pink velvet sash and she carried a nosegay of pink daisies and babies breath. All attendants made their own ensembles.

Bridesmaids, Miss Mary Ann Wright (sister of the groom) and Miss Carol Jean Lewis wore gowns fashioned similar to the groom attendant's except the ruffle trim on the bodice matched the long skirt. They carried nosegays of pink daisies and babies breath. All attendants made their own ensembles.

MRS. ROY ARTHUR WRIGHT

Miss Simmons Wright, daughter of James Wright, Jr. was flower girl.

The bride's mother wore a pale green silk dress with matching lace coat and a white orchid corsage. The groom's mother chose a turquoise silk dress with matching lace coat and a white orchid corsage. The coat was made from lace brought to her by the groom from Hong Kong.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the Riviera Hyatt House. The reception area was decorated with large arrangements of pink daisies. Mrs. Dell McGrover cut and served the chocolate wedding cake with white icing and pink trim and pouring were Miss Madea Watson and Miss Cottie Slade. Miss Maryann Warthen kept the bride's book.

The couple left for a wedding trip to Ponte Vedra Beach, Fla. For traveling Mrs. Wright chose a red, white and blue plaid ensemble with blue belt and white accessories.

Their new address will be 500 Allen Road, N. E. Atlanta, Ga. where the groom is employed as property manager of Peachtree Center and the bride is assistant art director with Seefeld-Hiers and Malone Advertising Agency.

Out-of-town guests included the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wright, Sanford; Dr. Carl Harting, Chattanooga, Tenn. and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Rauber, Greenville, S. C.

Shower Honors Lynn Messersmith

Miss Lynn Beth Messersmith, who will become the bride of Michael Frederick Selg, June 19, at 12 noon, at All Souls Catholic Church, was guest of honor at a bridal shower June 9 at the Sunland Estates home of Mrs. William E. Varner.

Assisting Mrs. Varner as hostesses were her daughter, Kathie, and her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Gary (Patty) Varner. A beautiful bridal motif was carried out in the home decor and refreshments. A focal point was a large frilly umbrella.

The bride-elect, who is also a 1971 graduate of Seminole High School, received many lovely and useful gifts.

Centering the refreshment table, which was covered with a white lace cloth, was a lemon cake embossed with yellow and white frosting and decorated with wedding party figurines. Crystal appointments were used for the sparkling punch and other party fare.

A host of friends and well-wishers attended to share the memorable occasion with the radiant bride-elect.

Floridians Victimized By Computer Dating

TALLAHASSEE — Floridians across the state are complaining that they have been victimized by a computer dating service. The company, which claims to find clients "ideal mates," is apparently costing people thousands of dollars annually.

According to Robert J. Bishop, Director of the Consumer Services Division, Florida Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services, "Potential clients are contacted personally by the dating service representative who gets personal information such as hobbies, physical descriptions, home addresses and any other information that could describe their personalities."

Bishop said that for a fee of $100, the company promises the "ideal mate"; however, this is often not the case. Clients rarely see the "ideal mate" or the fee that was paid in advance, since many times the company disappears without fulfilling any of its obligations. Consequently, letters of inquiry are usually left unanswered or receive little attention.

Dear Abby: By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: This is my second marriage. It's my wife's second marriage also, and we both feel we are perfect for each other. However, the weakness which ruined my first marriage is now cropping up again.

I am hooked on prosthesis. I don't know why I started doing this. I was very young, and even my first wife lacked nothing along that line. I wouldn't stay away from prostheses, so after 12 years of marriage, we broke up.

I am now almost 40, and in the last year I have been married to my present wife. I haven't gone to a prostitute once, but I keep thinking about it more and more. This is a rather small town, and there are none here, but I know some in a city about 120 miles away, and I keep trying to figure out a way to get there without my wife's knowing it. Don't suggest a head doctor. There is only one in this town and he isn't very well thought of. So I rejected that idea.

I am a government employe and well paid. Can you help me?

WEAK AND TEMPTED

DEAR ABBY: Your "weakness" can be overcome, but you rejected the only possible cure for it. A "head doctor" I'll not suggest seeing one in the larger city, because the temptation there could be too much for you to resist.

Horoscope Forecast

THURS. JUNE 17, 1971

GENERAL TENDENCIES: You now have the energy to put in motion the plans that appeal to you. Also, you now possess the mental brilliancy, plus the physical stamina, to carry through with a plan of action that is best fitted for your own type of character. If you have any sort of need for a new view, this is the time for it.

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) A close tie gives the right advice you have wanted for a long time. You can now go ahead and work with it efficiently. Making new social contacts in the evening is fine. Dress suitably.

TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20) You are able to obtain data you need confidentially if you go after it quietly. Ideal time to take a social preview you forgot about. Show that you are witty and delightful.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) Study exactly how to make a new machine operate properly in the morning, and then in the evening. If you get it off your chest. Write to ABBY, Box 69706, Los Angeles, Calif. 90069. For a personal reply enclose stamped, addressed envelope.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) Find out what it is that highest level of you, then employ the right system. Reconciliation with mate over important points is possible.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21) Coming to a better understanding with an associate is during the morning provided it is during a recreational period. Put those new ideas you have to good use. Think constructively.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) Improving conditions with those who work with you is possible early and their success is greater. Use any tools available for greater efficiency. Make personal life more interesting, also.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) If you show gentleness to one who is determined and opined, you will receive the best results. Entertaining one whose support you desire is the best way to proceed now. Do so charmingly but not expensively.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) Do whatever you can to please one at home who is important to you. Show others that you work most efficiently. Being most cooperative with a worker says off handsomely at this time.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) Giving a sincere compliment to one who can assist you to gain your finest aims is good, since you get a quick and favorable response. Be sure to have matters handled with efficiency and that utilities are in order.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) Listen to practical ideas of kin and improve security for all concerned. A new to have the abundance you desire is necessary if you desire. Take time to study it before putting it in operation.

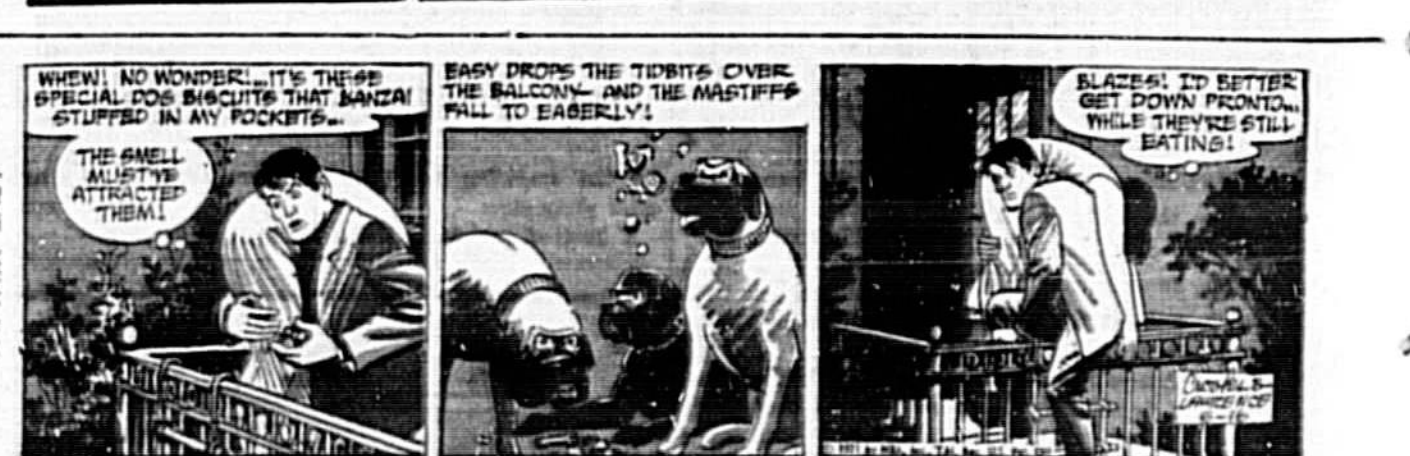

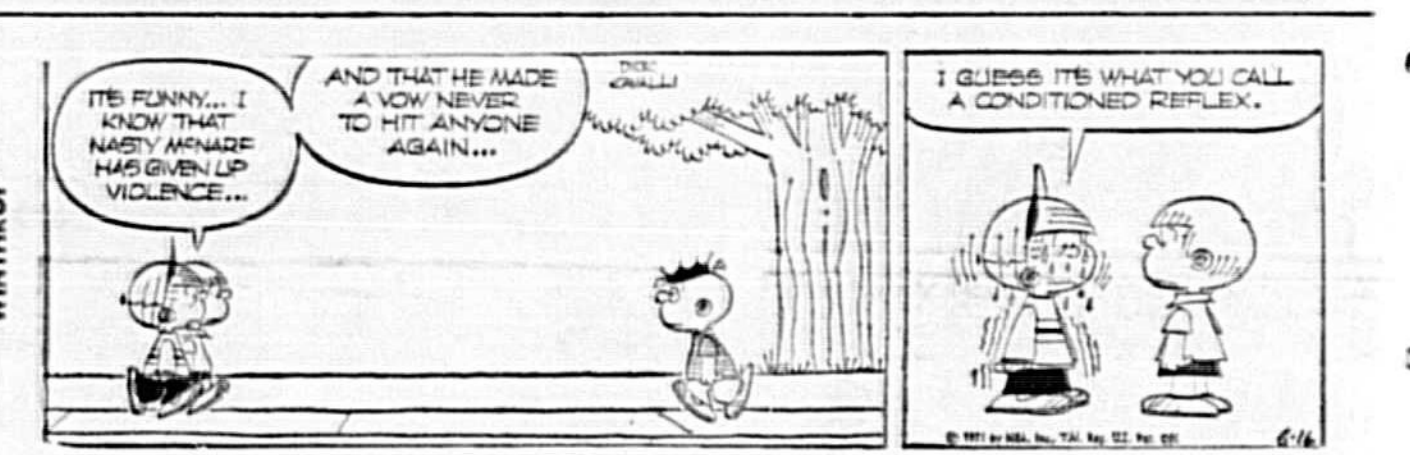

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) You can think clearly now instead of in a muddled way as you've been doing lately and can clarify a puzzling and annoying situation. Trust, attend the social. Restore that fine edge of yours.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) A fine idea you have should be quickly put in operation, and thus enable you to get the benefits you seek. You have secret aims that can be made workable at this time. Avoid one who is trying to sell you something you don't need.

IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN TODAY... He or she will be one of those brilliant thinking young people who should have every advantage in education. Start saving up money now for a college education. Today's hand can be bid to four, six or even seven hearts by almost any bidding system. You understood if you stop at game. You overbid if you get to seven. Good bidding gets you to six.

The bidding in the box shows one way to get to the small slam. North has a big hand and responds two clubs. South's two diamonds is the correct bid and North jumps to three hearts showing three-card support.

South signs off at four hearts but North bids four spades. North blackwoods his way to six while showing a willingness to get to seven.

Worry Clinic By Dr. Crane

Many children, now grown and mothers of youngsters of their own, still confess that they retain the secret belief that they were adopted.

"Why, my parents could be a royal prince or princess," they may confess to us counselors.

"Or maybe a famous movie star or a stage celebrity!"

In this manner, children who feel deflated in their ego, will then try to bolster their pride and meanwhile get even with their parents for being punished or deprived of luxury items which such children desire.

Many of my coed students at Northwestern University have confessed to having been victims of this "foster child fantasy."

And when I was stationed at Smith College in Massachusetts, as well as at George Washington University in our national capital, coeds have also expressed similar doubts.

Boys may also become victims of this same fantasy, but it is usually girls who try to bolster their deflated pride by the indirect method.

Empiric, extroverted teenagers generally rebel more openly or feud verbally with their parents.

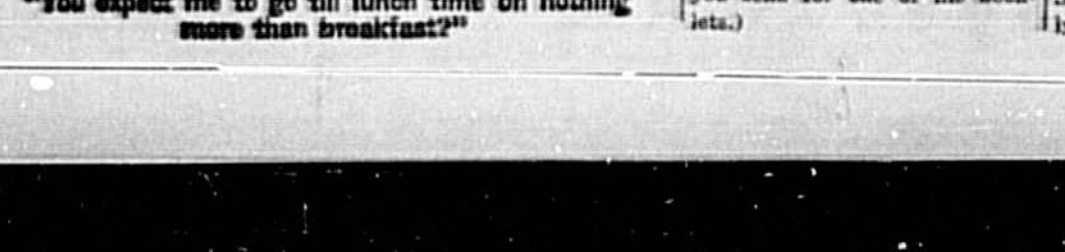

For it is the shy, quiet bookworm girls and the musician or daydreamers who are more likely to develop the foster child fantasy.

Parents and school teachers can profitably discuss this case with their children, for you may be surprised at how many Junior and Senior High Schoolers are victims of this widespread delusion.

So send for my 200-point, "Tests for Parents," including a long stamped, return envelope, and 20¢ to cover typing and printing costs when you send for one of his booklets.

Always write to Dr. Crane in care of this newspaper, enclosing a long stamped, addressed envelope and 20¢ to cover typing and printing costs when you send for one of his booklets.

Revival Of Interest In Food

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Food Writer
In San Francisco, there is a revival of interest in food. The Street Cooking School is a young success and a coordinator goes in heavily for natural and organic foods and the best ways to serve them. His ideas attract older persons and many young. He believes that all cooking should be "fun, sexy and liberated."

The sudden upswing in new health food shops throughout the country is further proof of the public's growing interest in natural and organic foods. Low-cholesterol and vegetarian cooking has become almost a fad with the young.

Not so with Alex T. Rains, president of the United Fresh Fruit and Vegetable Assn. in Washington, D.C. He does not think much of the newer emphasis on natural foods. In fact, he seems dead set against the whole concept.

"I think it's phony. I have been with this organization for 27 years and all that time I've been worrying about that segment of the government and the public who ignore the advice of the scientific community—that approved chemicals and fertilizers are not poisonous and that without their use we could not feed our vast public. They're certainly essential to fresh fruits and vegetables," Rains says, adding:

"I do worry about people in Congress who are on a consumer kick. They want fresh fruits and vegetables dated. Nonsense. An apple picked last October and sold now, after being in cold storage scientifically controlled, is in perfect condition to be eaten now. What good will dating do? All one needs to do with food to test its freshness is to look and smell. Smell and look fresh? Then it is fresh."

He insists that many health food stores claim their produce is uncontaminated by fertilizer residues. And that their produce has been air-freighted to them from distant farms. This is often false, he says.

"Except in the case of fresh mushrooms, that claim is humbug. Either the growers are fooling them or the storeowners are fooling the public."

"No, what the health fanatics eat is probably the Monday morning garbage from the fruit and vegetable wholesale markets stamped, falsely, 'natural or organically grown,'" he insists.

Fresh Corn Gumbo

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor
Once upon a time the best way to eat fresh corn was to run into the garden, pick the corn, husk it, and cook it immediately.

But modern methods have made the corn bought at the supermarket extremely good. Now quick cooking of the ears and rapid freezing has benefited the corn available commercially.

The sweetness of a prime ear of corn can be retained when the field heat is removed right after it's harvested and then it's kept cold on its way to market.

Of course corn is delicious served as is. But once in a while it's worth using it in a "made" dish. We've done just that in the following recipe which we call Corn Gumbo. "Gumbo," according to Webster, is another name for okra.

FRESH CORN GUMBO
1 medium onion
2 medium green peppers
3 large or 8 medium ears fresh corn
1 package (19 ounces) frozen whole okra, slightly defrosted
1 small clove garlic
1 beef bouillon cube
1/2 cup boiling water
1/2 of a quarter round stick butter (2 1/2 cups)
1/4 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon pepper
Peel onion; quarter; cut into thin vertical strips
Wash green peppers; halve; remove seeds and white membranes; dice coarsely
Remove husks and silks from corn. With a large sharp knife cut off kernels; with back of knife scrape down creamy pulp. There should be about 3 cups kernels and pulp packed down.
Slice okra crosswise into about 1/2 inch thick rounds.
Peel and mince garlic.
Dissolve bouillon cube in water.
In a 1 1/2 quart skillet over moderately low heat, melt butter. Add onion and green pepper; cook gently, stirring often until partly tender—about 5 minutes. Add corn, okra, garlic, bouillon salt and pepper. Cover tightly and simmer, stirring several times to prevent sticking.
NOTE: If you like you may crush the garlic instead of mincing it.

GOOD LUNCH
Deviled Egg Salad
Pineapple-Strawberry Compote
Deviled ham is used in the egg stuffing.
5 hard-cooked large eggs
1 tablespoon lemon juice
1 tablespoon mayonnaise
1/2 teaspoon prepared mustard
1 can (2 1/4 ounces) deviled ham
Romaine
Sliced cucumber
French dressing
Cut eggs in half lengthwise and remove yolks. Mash eggs with lemon juice, mayonnaise, mustard and ham. Arrange egg halves (3 per portion) on Romaine in individual salad plates; add cucumber, spoon French dressing over Romaine and cucumber. Makes 4 servings.

3 large eggs
1/2 cups milk
1 1/2 cups unsifted flour, stir to aerate before measuring.
1/4 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup tenderized beef fat
In a medium mixing bowl beat eggs slightly; add 1/2 cup of the milk, the flour and salt; beat gently until combined. Gradually beat in the remaining 1 cup milk, keeping smooth. Start preheating oven to 375 degrees. Turn the beef fat into a 3 quart oblong glass baking dish (12 1/2 by 8 1/2 by 1 1/2 inches) or similar utensil and place in preheating oven until fat is very hot. Pour batter into dish. Bake in the 375 degree oven until puffed and golden brown—about 40 minutes. Cut in squares and serve at once. Makes 8 servings.

Stuffed Avocado Salad

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

Whenever we lunch in the restaurants of fine hotels we notice that the menus feature stuffed avocado salads. Filled with chicken, lobster, shrimp or crabmeat and surrounded with crisp greens, the salad is a winning offering.

For a company luncheon at home the salad is practical to make. The stuffing can be put together well ahead of time and refrigerated. Just before serving the avocados can be prepared and filled. When the avocados are halved, pitted and peeled at the last minute there's no danger of their surfaces darkening.

To go with this dish, we suggest homemade milk toast because this crisp accompaniment makes for perfect texture contrast.

In the following avocado salad, crabmeat is used for the filling.

CRAB-STUFFED AVOCADO SALAD

- 3 tablespoons olive oil
- 1 tablespoon tarragon vinegar
- 1/2 pound cooked crabmeat
- 1/2 cup thinly sliced celery
- 1 tablespoon capers
- 1 tablespoon minced chives
- 2 flat anchovies (from a 2-ounce can) cut up, if desired
- 2 avocados
- Salad greens

Thousand Island Dressing, see below

In a small mixing bowl, with a fork, beat together oil and vinegar. Add crabmeat, celery, capers, chives and, if used, anchovies. Cover tightly and chill several hours to allow flavors to blend.

At serving time, cut avocados lengthwise into halves. Remove seeds and strip off skin. Arrange avocado halves on salad greens; fill with crab mixture. Serve at once; pass Thousand Island Dressing.

Makes 4 servings.

THOUSAND ISLAND DRESSING: In a wide-mouth jar or small mixing bowl thoroughly stir together 1/2 cup mayonnaise, 1 hard-cooked egg (finely chopped), 1 tablespoon minced green pepper, 1 tablespoon minced pimiento-stuffed green olives, 1 teaspoon minced parsley and 1/2 teaspoon finely grated onion (pulp and juice). Cover tightly and chill several hours to allow flavors to blend. Makes about 1/2 cup.

Apricot Lamb Shanks

By TOM HOGE
Associated Press Writer

Americans produce about 30 per cent of the world's meat supply, a tribute to the scientific know-how and agricultural efficiency that bring such tasty cuts to our tables.

For those on a light food budget, the day's lamb shanks—lamb provides many delicious dishes that are relatively economical. There are succulent cuts like breast, neck slices and shanks, none of which should put too much strain on your purse.

Lamb, which dates back to ancient times, is a longtime favorite in many lands. During the years some covering the activities of the United Nations I discovered that the Arab delegations leaned heavily on lamb dishes when entertaining their fellow diplomats.

The Arab standby was Couscous, a stew consisting, among other things, of lamb chunks, white raisins and semolina made from wheat grain.

The Arabs also featured a delicacy known as Turtu, a bowl filled with diced lamb, onion, tomatoes, ranch and other vegetables.

The Irish have long been known for their lamb stew, but the Greeks have a variation of their own. It brightens the meat with lemon juice, pineapple bits and a couple of eggs beaten with cornstarch and folded into the mix.

Americans generally prefer their lamb in simple form, as evidenced by a recent barbeque served by Arno Schmidt, executive chef of New York's Waldorf-Astoria Hotel. Schmidt served baby lamb for the main course and later recalled his creation with pride.

"The boneless pieces of lamb were slightly rubbed with crushed rosemary and cooked A la Point," he said. "This means very lightly underdone, so by the time the meat is settled, it will be juicy and tender."

Such a dish would be costly, but there are more reasonable ones.

I recently ran across a recipe for a dish that seems to fill the bill both as a gourmet offering and a money saver. It combines lamb shanks, apricots and beer.

APRICOT LAMB SHANKS
4 lamb shanks (about 1 lb each)
2 tablespoons salad oil
1 can (12 ounces) beer
1 cup dried apricots
1/4 cup light brown sugar
1 1/2 teaspoons salt
1 teaspoon ground ginger
1/4 teaspoon pepper

Brown shanks in oil in large skillet or Dutch oven; drain off drippings. Place shanks in large baking dish. Combine remaining ingredients and pour over shanks. Cover and bake at 350 degrees, moderating for two hours or until meat is tender.

PICNIC SUPPER
Fried Chicken Potato Salad
Cherry Tomatoes
Watermelon pineapple Bread
PINEAPPLE BREAD
2 cups unfluffed flour, stir to aerate before measuring
1 cup dried apricots
1/4 teaspoon salt
2 large eggs
1/2 cup sugar
1 can (1 1/2 ounces) crushed pineapple in heavy syrup
1/2 cup butter, melted and cooled
1/4 cup coarsely broken walnuts

On wax paper thoroughly stir together the flour, baking powder and salt in a medium mixing bowl; beat eggs until thickened and lemon color; gradually beat in sugar; continue to beat, if necessary, until mixture is ivory color; add flour mixture, pineapple, butter and walnuts. Stir just until dry ingredients are moistened. Turn into a buttered loaf pan (about 9 by 3 by 3 inches). Bake in a preheated 350-degree oven until a cake tester inserted in center comes out clean—40 to 50 minutes. With a small metal spatula loosen edges; turn out on wire rack; turn right side up. Cool.

Alabama Style Chicken

By AILEEN CLAIRE
NEA Food Editor

A Dothan, Ala., homemaker credits her two teen-age daughters with a major boost toward winning a grand prize for cooking. She is Mrs. John Palmer, whose spicy Alabama-Style Chicken won the annual Peanut Recipe contest. Her chicken is served in a tomato-chili sauce flavored with peanut butter, garlic and onion. Mrs. Palmer's daughters Beth, 14, and Kay, 13, encouraged her to make the recipe spider which may be the influence of pizza on the Southern scene.

ALABAMA-STYLE CHICKEN

- 1 frying chicken, quartered
- 2 1/2 pounds, quartered
- 1/2 cup flour
- 1 1/2 teaspoons salt
- 1/2 teaspoon pepper
- 1/2 cup peanut oil
- 1 medium onion, chopped
- 1 clove garlic, minced
- 1 cup water
- 1/2 cup peanut butter
- 1 can (4 ounces) tomato
- 1 tablespoon sugar
- 1 tablespoon cider vinegar
- 1 teaspoon chili powder

Wash chicken and pat dry. Mix flour, salt and pepper. Roll chicken in flour mixture. Shake off excess flour. Heat oil in a large skillet until hot. Brown chicken quarters on all sides. Remove chicken when brown and set aside. Add onion and garlic to pan drippings and cook until lightly browned. Gradually stir in water and remaining ingredients. Stir until smooth and bubbly. Add chicken pieces. Simmer covered for 45 minutes or until chicken is tender. Turn chicken in sauce occasionally and add more water from time to time, if necessary, to prevent sticking. Add salt to taste. Place chicken on a platter. Skim excess fat from sauce and spoon sauce over chicken. Makes 4 servings.

COMPANY SUPPER

- Burgundy Beef
- Rice Salad Bowl
- Crisp Rolls
- Frozen Coffee Cream Beverage

FROZEN COFFEE CREAM

- 1 envelope unflavored gelatin
- 1/4 cups strong cold brewed coffee
- 2 eggs, separated
- 1/4 cup sugar
- Dash of salt
- 1 container (8 ounces) heavy cream
- 1 teaspoon vanilla
- 1 cup fine dry macaroon crumbs

Sprinkle gelatin on 1/4 cup of the coffee. In the top of a double boiler beat the egg yolks; stir in remaining 1 cup coffee, sugar and salt; cook over hot (not boiling) water, stirring constantly, until slightly thickened; remove from heat. Add softened gelatin and stir until dissolved. Chill until slightly thickened. Whip cream; add vanilla; fold into gelatin mixture. With clean beater beat egg whites until stiff; fold into gelatin mixture. Pour into freezer tray; sprinkle with macaroon crumbs. Freeze until firm. Make about 8 servings.

SUPPER FOR FOUR

- American Kedgerie Salad Bowl
- Strawberry Shortcake Beverage
- AMERICAN KEDGERIE

This was originally a dish from India.

- 2 cups flaked cooked fish
- firm white-meat variety
- 2 cups hot cooked converted-type rice
- 2 hard-cooked eggs, chopped
- 1 raw egg
- 1/4 cup light cream
- 2 tablespoons butter
- Salt and pepper to taste
- 1 can (3 1/2 ounces) French fried onions, heated according to directions on can
- Mango chutney

In a medium bowl toss together the fish, rice and hard-cooked eggs. In a small bowl beat together the raw egg and cream until blended. In a 10-inch skillet over moderate heat melt butter; add fish mixture; stir carefully but thoroughly to heat. Reduce heat to low and add cream mixture; stir carefully but thoroughly to heat. Add salt and pepper. Garnish with some of the French-fried onions; pass remaining onions and chutney. Makes 4 servings.

Pork Chops Angostura

By AILEEN CLAIRE
NEA Food Editor

Pork continues a good buy and many supermarkets carry special with 12 to 16 chops per package. If you have freezer space, buy these specials, use what you need now and save the remaining chops for later meals. Pork chops are nutritious and tasty and can be prepared in many ways. Here is a Pork Chop Angostura which features very special seasonings. Serve with rice or noodles and applesauce.

- PORK CHOPS ANGOSTURA
- 4 thick lean loin pork chops
 - 1/2 cup garlic, minced
 - 1 teaspoon paprika
 - 1/2 cup flour
 - 1 teaspoon salt
 - 1/2 cup olive oil
 - 1 large onion, chopped
 - 2 large tomatoes, core and chopped
 - 2 tablespoons cider vinegar
 - 2 teaspoons Angostura aromatic bitters
 - 1 cup beef broth
 - 1/2 teaspoon crumbled saffron
- Rinse chops with garlic and paprika. Mix flour and salt. Roll chops in mixture and coat completely. Heat olive oil in a large skillet and brown chops on both sides. Add onion, tomato, vinegar, bitters, beef broth and saffron. Cover and simmer for 35 to 40 minutes or until chops are tender. Serve with rice or noodles. Makes 4 servings.

Some women enjoy baking and making 2 desserts more than any other form of cooking. Others do not. For those who like to eat desserts but hesitate to make them here is a Coconut Custard Dessert that is simple to prepare. It is good served warm or cold and makes a perfect item to take to a picnic.

- COCONUT CUSTARD DESSERT
- 1 package (12 ounces) frozen pound cake
 - 1/2 cup flaked coconut
 - 4 eggs, well-beaten
 - 1/2 cup sugar
 - 2 teaspoons Angostura aromatic bitters
 - 4 cups (1 quart) milk
- Thaw pound cake and cut into 1-inch cubes. Place cake cubes into a well-buttered 2-quart casserole. Sprinkle with coconut. Combine remaining ingredients in a bowl and beat until smooth and well-blended. Pour mixture over cake. Bake in a preheated 350-degree oven for 45 to 50 minutes or until bubbly around the edges. To the touch in the center. Serve warm or cold. Makes 8 to 10 servings.

CHARLOTTE MOSENTHAL'S SAUCY ZUCCHINI

A good combination to serve with veal.

- 3 medium zucchini
- 1 tablespoon olive oil
- 1 can (8 ounces) tomato sauce
- 1 tablespoon instant onion
- 1 can (8 ounces) tomato sauce
- 3 tablespoons grated Parmesan or Roma cheese

Scrub zucchini in cold water; cut off and discard ends; do not peel; slice crosswise into fairly thin rounds. In a 10-inch skillet mix together the zucchini, oil, onion and tomato sauce; cook over moderately low heat, stirring several times, until zucchini is cooked through—about 10 minutes. Stir in 1 tablespoon of the cheese. Just before serving sprinkle with remaining 2 tablespoons cheese. Makes 4 servings.

Regional Peru

LIMA (UPI)—Peru has three distinctive geographic regions—a coastal desert, central mountains and eastern jungles. Ironically, most of the people live on the coastal desert, where in some places it rains only once in every 100 years.

Athletic Juge

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Submarine Coach Justice Byron White was well known as a Phi Beta Kappa All-American half-back at the University of Colorado. White also won All-American honors as a basketball player at the same school.
