

Comms Inflict Heavy Casualties On Flying Horsemen

SAIGON, South Vietnam (AP) — North Vietnamese infantrymen overran positions of the U.S. 1st Cavalry, Air Mobile Division today and inflicted heavy casualties on the helicopter-borne flying horsemen, U.S. military headquarters reported.

The headquarters said the North Vietnamese, an estimated battalion of the veteran 61st Division, penetrated several artillery positions of the elite cavalry division and blew up guns with satchel charges and grenades before the Americans pushed them back and restored their defense lines.

The furious engagement near the central coastal city of Bong Son, 300 miles northeast of Saigon, broke off this morning. The cavalrymen reported 49 North Vietnamese killed.

The action was the major combat on a day which also brought an assassination attempt against a leading South Vietnamese politician in Saigon and three raids by BS2 heavy bombers against Communist positions in South Vietnam.

Dr. Phan Quang Dan, 46, a leading member of the Constituent Assembly, as he left his home in a Saigon suburb. Grenade fragments peppered Dr. Dan's legs, police said, but he was not seriously hurt. Five Vietnamese bystanders were reported injured, and a suspect was arrested.

Three weeks ago another leading South Vietnamese politician, Tran Van Van, was shot and killed by two terrorists as he drove in a Saigon street.

In other developments: U.S. planes followed up the Christmas truce with a speedy resumption of the air war against North Vietnam and strikes Monday only 12 miles from the center of Hanoi.

In Washington, the Defense Department responded to New York Times reports from Hanoi of civilian casualties and damage from the American raids with an admission that civilian areas of the Communist north have been damaged. But once again the department said only military targets had been scheduled for attack.

A U.S. spokesman said the loading of ships in the port of Saigon because of a strike by 2,500 Vietnamese dock workers.

The American and Vietnamese military commands reported 122 incidents occurred in South Vietnam during the cease-fire but declined to charge the Communists with true violations. Most of the incidents were described as minor.

Today was the second successive day that the BS2s made three strikes in one day. They attacked a Communist base camp 65 miles north-northwest of Cam Ranh Bay, a suspected troop concentration 45 miles north-northwest of Saigon and a North Vietnamese base camp and supply point just south of the demilitarized zone.

The few times in recent months that the command has reported heavy losses to a sizeable American ground force. A spokesman described the force which took such losses as "multicompany but less than a battalion." This would put it somewhere between 400 and 800 men.

City Moves To Annex Naval Air Station

Legislative permission to annex the entire Sanford Naval Air Station property — some 1,800 acres — is being sought by the City of Sanford.

Proposal was made at commission session, Monday, by Commissioner Joe Baker and approved unanimously.

Certain "jagged areas" around the perimeter of the present city limits to "square up" the city will also be annexed if the state legislature approves.

If all the proposed areas are permitted to be annexed, the other City Commission meets on page 2.

City's incorporated land area would be upped by approximately 25 to 30 per cent, City Manager W. E. Knowles estimates.

Proposal will be made to the district legislative delegation—Representatives Mack Cleveland, Jr., Tom McDonald and William Healy — after necessary legal descriptions are drawn by the city attorney, William Hutholton.

The NAS property was not included in the original presentation by Knowles, but was approved on Commissioner Baker's motion, for inclusion.

Purpose of the action is said to be to "prepare for future utilization of the base property as an industrial area, when the base is deactivated in 1968."

Hutholton told commissioners he would take the proposed map, obtain legal descriptions of the property involved and "see how far I can go with it."

Legal proposal for the action must be submitted to the legislative delegation within the next few weeks for action by the state legislature next spring.

Most of the area involved, (besides the 1,800 acre NAS property), is in the Dreamworld section around Sanford Plaza; south of 29th St. and south of 39th St. and in the western edges of the present city limits.

There is also an area between Sanford Ave. and the NAS property, south of the Prever Homes section and north of Orona Rd.

All the proposed areas of annexation are presently being served by city water, with other city services readily available and are adjacent to, or surrounded by, incorporated city limits.

The proposal is aimed at "squaring-up" existing city limits and being in the several sections presently totally surrounded by incorporated areas. Other requested legislation will be a provision in the city's charter for "openshop" employment.

Urban Renewal? No, No, No!

There will not be any "urban renewal" in Sanford. City fathers are strongly opposed to it, discussion Tuesday night indicated.

However, some other form of development will be studied by commissioners and members of the City Zoning and Planning Board slated to meet Thursday with Gerry Duke of Aley and Associates, to discuss "possible federal aid programs."

Motion was made by Commissioner W. Vincent Roberts that a local bill be requested for state legislation to permit the city to make application for whole line of local property owners lined up wanting to get rid of property they have been unable to sell," he commented.

City Manager W. E. Knowles said there are a number of programs available to help the redevelopment situation without getting into urban renewal.

He emphasized the present need is to bring the city's plan up to re-certification standards and develop a "workable program."

Under this program you have the right to condemn a man's property and take it away from him, whether he wants to sell or not. Then you can resell it to a friend of yours — it's dangerous power — I'm not for it," he declared.

Commissioner W. E. Knowles Jr. said he thought the problem would be the other way around. "I'm afraid you'd have a whole line of local property owners lined up wanting to get rid of property they have been unable to sell," he commented.

Sea Gulls Plague Jets At Navy Base

Swarms of sea gulls feasting on garbage dumped in the city of Sanford's landfill area, are worrying Navy officials and they have appealed to the city for help.

The landfill area is located near the NAS fence south of 25th Street and west of the base property.

The hundreds of circling gulls are "too close to the jet runways and constitute a hazard to aviation, which could wreck a plane," Cdr. J. S. Cleveland, base executive officer, informed commissioners.

Commissioners agreed the problem is serious and instructed City Manager W. E. Knowles to inform Navy officials a change would be made "as quickly as possible" to eliminate the hazard.

Knowles indicated it would take a few days to clear trees and shrubs from the sanitary landfill area but that the matter would be "expedited."

City Says 'Not Feasible'

Sanford City Commissioners voted Monday to continue the present city insurance plan, under an insurance company and rejected a proposal to put the city's insurance out for bids, as "not feasible."

"Vote was 3-1 with Commissioner M. L. Raborn Jr. voting in favor of the insurance company," Raborn said he proposed that the insurance be put out for bid, but studies by the insurance committee indicated the time and work involved in drawing the specifications would be prohibitive.

The committee, composed of Clifford McKibbin, Robert Crumley and Robert Karns told commissioners the city would "have to hire an insurance expert" to draw the specifications and study the bids in order to be able to "make an intelligent decision."

"Good service by your insurance agent and this could not be guaranteed by a bidder, who had to seek home office aid to write or service the policies," McKibbin indicated.

Raborn said he objected to the splitting of fee commissions by the underwriting company, with other agents who do not do any of the work and asked "this divvying up be ceased."

City Manager W. E. Knowles commended the insurance committee for the "many hours of study without remuneration."

"They actually have been working to reduce their own business, while effecting substantial savings to the city," he pointed out.

He noted that service in the past "has been excellent."

Judge Defers Ruling Over Courthouse

Judge Frank R. Smith, presiding judge of the Ninth Judicial Circuit, "passed the buck" today and deferred ruling on a petition to name a judge to hear the lawsuit on moving the courthouse.

The injunctive suit, which had been filed by three South Seminole residents in a class action to prohibit expenditure of further funds — for the new courthouse, next week at least half of the result of the people of the county will reside in the southerly half of the county.

"It is manifestly inconvenient, unfair, and discriminatory to at least half of the residents of Seminole County to operate the County courthouse at the extreme northern boundary of the county with virtually the entire population living to the south," the complaint stated.

Other charges that within 20 years approximately two-thirds of the people of the county will reside in the southerly half of the county.

County Citrus Acreage Is Down For Decade

During the past decade there has been a 17 per cent reduction in citrus acreage in Seminole County, according to the Florida Department of Agriculture.

The current citrus tree survey, using aerial photography, reveals that as of December 1965 there were only 12,835 acres in contrast to 15,339 acres in 1956. There was nearly as much reduction in trees, from 1,115,500 trees in 1956 to 978,000 currently.

Mortality of trees surveyed in 1956 has been high. Only 33 per cent of those trees are still commercial. The freezes of 1957 and 1962 were major factors in this loss. All ages appear to have been hit, with heaviest loss in those trees set during the early and mid-1950s.

By 1960, as all new trees reach new optimum bearing capacity, Seminole County could produce near five million boxes of citrus. This is, of course, a 14 per cent increase. Oranges dominate all citrus in the county, 88 per cent of all total. But reduction in trees has taken place in what were the two dominant types. Mid-season trees declined from 346,000 in 1956 to 257,000 presently, down 26 per cent. Valencia declined from 306,000 in 1956 to just 213,000 trees currently, a 30 per cent loss.

However, early oranges actually increased from 235,000 in 1956 to 299,000 trees currently, a 27 per cent increase. A decade ago both mid-season and late type outranked early types, but by the end of 1965 early orange varieties were in the majority.

In 1956 there were 62,500 navel orange trees and they are now up to 72,000. There has been a near fourfold increase in navel oranges to 21,000 presently. Satsumas, a cold hardy variety, now are at 8,900 trees. Tangos have risen from 30,000 a decade ago to 35,000 in 1965.

A sharp drop is seen in grapefruit from a decade ago, down from 85,000 to just 25,000 trees. All varieties declined, but the sharpest reduction came in pink seedless, from 28,000 in 1956 to only 6,000 trees by the end of 1965.

Schools Get $47,092 Boost

Payment of $47,092 in "reconciliation funds" were authorized for Seminole County schools Tuesday by the state cabinet, sitting as the State Board of Education.

"Reconciliation funds are those which accrue to the county for the increase in student population over that of last year," Supt. R. T. Milwee explained.

"The state pays a certain amount for any percentage increase over three per cent. Seminole County's increase this year is presently only five per cent. It has not fallen below that figure for many years," he concluded.

Sanfordite Dies From Crash Injury

An 89-year-old Sanford man has become the city's third traffic fatality of the year and the county's first.

Police today reported that James Monroe Phillips, Rt. 1, apparently died as a result of injuries sustained in a collision Oct. 25.

The accident took place at the intersection of First St. and French Ave. when the vehicle driven by Phillips sideswiped a truck operated by Bernard Carrell of Millport, Ala. and then struck a post at the First-Store Company.

No improper driving was found on Carrell's part, but accident report notes failure to yield right-of-way by Phillips.

Phillips died Dec. 22 in Sumner Memorial Hospital where he had been confined since the accident.

Cabinet Pays Honor To Outgoing Burns

TALLAHASSEE (AP) — A glowing tribute to outgoing Gov. Haydon Burns, assignment of a security aide to the new executive, and deferral of two controversial land acquisition proposals highlighted the last State Cabinet session of 1966.

Another highlight was the presentation of a report by State Purchasing Director Al Day showing that in his four months as director new methods have resulted in a savings of $273,147.79 to the State of Florida.

Tuesday was the last Cabinet meeting for Burns as governor. After receiving warm praise from each Cabinet member, Burns and his wife, Mildred, were presented with a silver tray with engraved signatures of each Cabinet member.

Burns took the occasion to reiterate his belief that the electric chair system is best for Florida.

"The collective judgment of a board better than this Cabinet is far better than the singular decision or judgment of any one man," Burns said. This again put him opposite his successor, Republican Claude Kirk, who favors an appointive cabinet.

The Cabinet approved the transfer of Lt. Garland B. Stafford Jr., 46, from Jacksonville to Tallahassee as Kirk's Highways Patrol liaison officer and security aide. Stafford, chosen by Kirk, will have an office near the governor and assume the same position and responsibilities now held by Capt. Nathan Sharron, who is aide to Burns.

Stafford has been with the patrol since 1946. He is a native of Princeton, W.Va. His hobby is scuba diving and he is so adept at it he had been assigned rescue team duties with the patrol in Jacksonville.

The Cabinet approved the allocation of more than $2 million in reallocation funds for the county capital utility and debt service program for grades 1-12 in the 26 counties where the State Board of Education says there was an increase in the average daily attendance greater than 3 per cent.

En route to Saigon's Tan Son Nhut airport today, he told parents at the U.S. Army's 3rd Field Hospital: "All America should be grateful to you. The men in the armed forces have saved our civilization in past years. You are preserving it."

Cardinal Spellman, who is Roman Catholic military vicar of the U.S. armed forces, was accompanied by U.S. Army physicians throughout his six-day visit. He declared several times to visit U.S. servicemen at Christmas. It was his 15th consecutive Christmas visit to the forces overseas.

King Louis XIV of France ruled longest of any European monarch—72 years.

Spellman Stands By U. S. Victory Call

SAIGON (AP) — Francis Cardinal Spellman stood firm today on his call for nothing less than U.S. victory in Vietnam despite reports that the Vatican was upset by his remarks.

"Whatever I said, I stand by it," the 77-year-old Roman Catholic archbishop fighting in New York told a newsman before ending his Christmas visit with U.S. servicemen in Vietnam and flying to the Philippines.

Although the Vatican would make no official comment, an official source there said the cardinal's statement that anything less than victory in Vietnam "is inconceivable" caused concern and perplexity. These sources said such declarations seemed to be out of keeping with the efforts of Pope Paul VI to encourage a negotiated end to the war.

The Soviet government papers, Izvestia charged the cardinal's "militant sermons" were "in sharp dissonance with recent statements of Pope Paul who appealed for an end to the bloody killing." North Vietnam denounced the cardinal's visit.

Storm Spreads Northeast

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A storm which dumped heavy snow in the central Plains spread northeastward into sections of the Midwest today. Gusty winds caused much drifting in the Dakotas and highway travel was disrupted.

A foot of snow was reported in parts of Kansas but the Weather Bureau said snow had ended in southwestern Kansas and Oklahoma and was expected to end today in eastern Kansas and western Missouri and upper half of Nebraska. Up to 10 inches of snow blanketed parts of Nebraska and 8 inches covered areas in western Missouri.

Heavy snow warnings were in effect from north-central Kansas through eastern Nebraska, much of Iowa, southeastern Minnesota, extreme southern Wisconsin, northern sections of Illinois and Indiana and southern and central Lower Michigan. Heavy snow warnings were lifted for northwestern Texas, Oklahoma and much of Kansas. Driving was hazardous in the snow belt and in some areas hit by sleet. Highways in western Kansas were clogged with snow. Only one lane east and west of Salina, Kan., was open on Interstate 70. Highways in northern Missouri were snow-covered.

Showers and thunderstorms hit areas of the Tennessee and lower Mississippi valleys. Dangerous driving conditions were reported from central Missouri to central and southern Indiana. Cold weather was reported in much of the nation but subzero readings were confined mostly to parts of the Dakotas and northern Minnesota and in upstate New York.

Passerby Helps Police Officer

DETROIT (AP) — An unidentified man saved patrolman Gerald Pastula's pistol for him Tuesday.

Pastula and his partner were setting an ambush for two men inside a vacant building when one of the men jumped from a window, lunged at Pastula and grabbed his pistol.

At that moment, a passerby ran up, knocked Pastula's assailant to the ground and handed the pistol back to the policeman.

He walked away, leaving the officers to pick up the two men, who were held for investigation of burglary.

Sign Ordinance Drafted; Alley Closing Postponed

Sanford city commissioners pondered the new sign ordinance further at Tuesday night's session and returned to the subject at the next meeting, which took out at the Dec. 13 meeting.

Restatement of the several items was made at the urging of Clifford McKibbin, chairman of the City Zoning and Planning Board, which drew up the proposed new ordinance.

Questions of "leaving in" or "taking out" involved billboards for off-site advertising, sandwich signs, signs on public rights-of-way and conforming to Southern Building Code standards.

Arthur Mabeu, manager of Florida Public Utilities Company, protested closing of the alley which contains a high-pressure, main gas line serving the downtown area.

Mabeu said he was concerned about being able to get to the main to service it or that in the future "concrete surface may be poured over it making it impossible to get to."

It was pointed out there also are electrical lines and burglar alarm utilities in the alley.

Commissioner Charles Hampton suggested the utility company representatives "get together with officials of the Florida State Bank, Masco Lodge, Edwards, Pico and Park-Fulton Buildings and City Manager W. E. Knowles to work out the problems and present a plan to the commission meeting with a workable proposal.

Request to close the alley to parts of the Florida State Bank officials who have proposed to give 40 feet of their parking lot property west of the alley to the city for use as a parking lot, from Commercial to Fulton, lined up with the short section of the street between Third Street and Commercial Street.

Estimated cost of materials is $1,960 for construction of the new street and repaving the entire two-block area would add an estimated $400 for a total of $2,360, for materials.

Public hearing on closing of the alley between Commercial Street and Fulton Avenue for the purpose of creating a parking lot, was continued to the next meeting of the Sanford City Commission after problems with existing utility easements were presented.

Push Button Legislation On The Way

TALLAHASSEE (AP) — Picture this: You're a member of the 1967 Legislature and need information instantly on a certain bill.

In the past, this meant waiting in line and then asking the clerk to check a huge ledger to see what action has been taken on the bill and where it is.

But in 1967, a clerk-typist will go over to a teletype machine about the size of a 16-inch television set, push a button or two and within seconds the information needed will be punched on card and handed to you.

Or, the information will be flashed on a video screen.

Such service was authorized Tuesday by Senate and House leaders, who approved the use of new computer equipment to be supplied by Radio Corporation of America of Palm Beach Gardens.

RCA will install a central processing unit, or "brains" in the Holland Building across the street from the Capitol, and two input and receiver units in the House and Senate chambers.

Each time a bill is introduced and action is taken on it, the information will be punched on these units and relayed instantaneously to the central unit.

Information on the bills can be retrieved on the receiver units in the chambers or on four to six other receiver units to be installed elsewhere. One may be made available for the Capitol Press Corp.

State Rep. Bob Alligood of Orlando, chairman of a special House committee assigned to study use of computer equipment for the 1967 Legislature, said in an interview that this is an expression of an experiment made during the 1965 Legislature.

"It's gone beyond the experiment stage," Alligood told the Associated Press.

The old clerical method will be used again as a check on the computers, but this is probably the last time.

Cost of the entire project, believed first of its kind in the United States, will be $40,000.

Allen Morris, chief clerk of the House of Representatives, said that the old method "was good, accurate one, but geared to the speed that one clerk could move one pen on an over-sized ledger."

"So, if you had time to wait, you could get information on a bill," Alligood said. "The 1965 equipment was second generation, not nearly as fast and without retrieval capability."

"It's going to be exciting," he added.

RCA's bid was approved on Nov. 15, by Alligood's committee and a Senate group in a joint session.

Lynda & George Mum On Plans

ACAPULCO, Mexico (AP) — Actor George Hamilton says whether he and Lynda Bird Johnson will marry "is a very personal question and we will keep it personal."

"We have never commented upon this and will continue to keep this policy," Hamilton told newsmen in Acapulco, where he and President Johnson's 22-year-old daughter are vacationing.

The actor and Miss Johnson held a news conference Tuesday at the home of former actress Merle Oberon, their hostess.

Their son said he was in combat, but he hadn't killed anyone and he was glad.

Miss Hunt, William Paul Frech Jr. Married In Candlelight Ceremony

Miss Linda Margaret Hunt and William Paul Frech Jr. were united in holy matrimony Dec. 21 at 3 p. m. in the Cathedral Heights Church of Christ, Atlanta, Ga.

Miss Hunt is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willie Fields Hunt, of Sanford, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Paul Frech, of Marietta, Ga.

The minister, Roger McKenzie officiated at the double ring, candlelight ceremony. The church was decorated with seven-tiered and spiral candelabra, fern, palms and the bride's basket of white gladioli and noisettes.

Dick Allen, organist, presented a program of nuptial music including "Liebestraum" and the wedding march. Miss Bernadine Forster, soloist, sang "Whither Thou Goest" and David Bursey sang "Der Eist die Braut."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was radiantly lovely in a bridal gown of white satin. The fitted bodice featured a scooped neckline and long sleeves ending with scallops of lace.

Re-embroidered Alencon lace encircled the waistline and adorned the front of the A-line skirt. The detachable chapel length train was enhanced with an insert of lace. Her veil of imported tiered silk illusion fell from a cluster of Alencon lace petals and tiny seed pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of stephanotis, white bride's roses interspersed with pink sweetheart roses and encircled with white orchids.

FINAL PRESENTATION of candidates for officers of the Naval Officers' Wives Club is made this week with four lovely ladies vying for two offices. Running for the office of corresponding secretary are Jeanne Dunn and Pat Walters. Candidates for treasurer are Rosanne James and Suzanne Reno.

Pat is an "Army brat" and has lived in Texas, Maryland, Mississippi, South Carolina, Louisiana, Virginia and Daytona Beach during her family's years in the service.

She has been in Sanford since 1962 and met her husband here in 1963.

Refreshments were served while the children waited for Santa to arrive with gifts and stockings for each child.

Martha Pierce was chairman of the decorations committee. Dinner meeting and installation of new officers is slated for the January meeting.

Officers' Wives of RVAH-13 met at the gaily decorated home of Maggie Lutz in Winter Park for a Yuletide dinner.

Special guests for the evening were Mrs. Leman, Mrs. Wilke, Mrs. Williams and Mrs. Hill, mother of Pat Murphree.

Pat Murphree, Linda Tangeman and Betty Roselle, and Mary-Jane McCarty. Gas gifts were exchanged.

Jean Kelly's decorating talents were on display at her home during a Christmas party at the children, on a Sunday afternoon. During the party a tape was made to send to the deployed husbands. It was delivered by lucky Betty Roselle who was able to join her new husband for their first Christmas.

Many of the wives were delightedly surprised on Christmas Eve when flowers were delivered from their husbands. Word was received that the men answered the tape Betty delivered and it is now winging its way back to Sanford.

The next coffee is scheduled for January 6th.

Ba Ky Is Village Always Belonging To The Foe

By TOM TIEDE
BA KY, Vietnam — (NEA) — For as long as there has been a war here, this shabby, half-deserted village has belonged to the other side.

It is a small, stamped-out area. It is hot, barren of comforts. Jungle growth has buried its outer edges and the snakes and scorpions sun themselves undisturbed on its main thoroughfare.

It has never been a friendly place. It is, however, the kind of town that American forces are trying desperately to refurbish. Winning the people, the campaign is called. The thinking is that if the lot of the natives can be improved they will thereafter bite the hand that feeds them.

Recently, it was tested here. A group of 123rd Brigade soldiers entered into the village with medical supplies. Capt. Phillip Anderson was in charge; he's a young doctor from Minnesota.

The street was bare. A dog or two barked at the wheels, but the people themselves remained inside their thatched dwellings. The soldiers set up shop in an abandoned schoolhouse at the edge of the village. They unwrapped several hundred dollars worth of medicine and bandages and waited to serve.

An old man wandered in. Then two small boys. A mother and child. Soon they were coming out of the woodwork. Anderson and three others who were medical aides, slapped on ointment, pulled out silvera and wrapped up abrasions one after the other.

Some women were treated for tuberculosis. Others were pallid, thin and dehydrated. They were given minor surgery, boils lanced, scabs peeled, growths removed. A few were simply given pills and the advice to bathe every now and then.

Anderson even established a dental clinic. He had but one cure and that to pull out any particular attention. Anderson and his staff went immediately to the schoolhouse and began laying out their preparations. Meanwhile, four other men continued on into the village to establish contact. They drove up the street in a Jeep, two of the four men lived was given.

First aid was applied but it was of no use. The longest any of the four men lived was instantly. Anderson ordered the survivors out of town. There was nothing else to do. And as the Americans left, the faces of the natives began to appear again through

Fading Girl In Land Of Make-Believe

ANAHEIM, Calif. (AP) — A blonde girl with sparkling eyes romped in the land of make-believe and personality met the Three Little Pigs.

Susan Dewey, 6, a leukemia victim from Grand Rapids, Mich., was given VIP treatment Tuesday at Disneyland.

She was met at the gate by the Three Little Pigs and a human-sized cartoon character named Goofy, who—in the fantasy land of children—is a talking dog.

She viewed most of the sprawling land of fantasy from a wheelchair. Susan doesn't have much strength. Doctors say she may die from the blood disease within a year.

"There were people who would be here to celebrate Christmas," said her father, George Dewey, a used car salesman.

Susan arrived Monday night with her parents and sister, Kathie, 4, after spending Christmas at home.

The trip was financed by a Los Angeles businessman, who asked to remain anonymous.

"She had a wonderful time," said Mrs. Dewey.

Chopper Saves Family Of Six

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — A Coast Guard helicopter, searching for a missing plane, brought back the unexpected: a family of six who had been marooned four days on an island after a storm wrecked their boat.

The helicopter ferried Harold Carty of Chowchilla, Calif., his wife and their four children, to a resort on the coast of Baja California Tuesday.

Coast Guardsmen reported the family had been spotted by an air force search plane. The island is about 75 miles south of the village of San Felipe in Baja California.

Planes were combing the area for a missing twin-engine plane carrying San Francisco importer Richard Y. Dakin, seven members of his family and a crew of two.

The plane, which disappeared on a flight to La Paz, Mexico, has been missing nearly a week.

U. S. Citizens To Leave Cuba

WASHINGTON (AP) — Cuba reportedly has agreed to let 2,700 U.S. citizens leave that country. The first arrivals could fly to New Orleans today, sources indicate.

The State Department is making no immediate comment but it is known to have been negotiating the matter for weeks with the Castro government through the Swiss Embassy in Havana.

There are an estimated 800 U.S. families in Cuba, many headed by persons of Cuban descent born in the United States.

There have been, however, past reports that repatriation might be under way and it has not developed.

Monday, Jan. 2 may go down in football history as the day the college quarterback went into orbit. Three great signal-calling passers will be seen in action on that day.

Strikes... Spares

By JOHN A. SPOLSKI
I hope that Ole Saint Nick treated you as well as he did yours truly. Oh, I don't mean just this year, but for providing our Junior Bowling League with folks like Marge Redman, Mac MacLeay, our co-coaches, and Marion Magee, Evelyn Wagner, Jim Brewer, Dot Johnson, Eve and Sarah Terry, Elaine Kostival, Jimi Gold, to name just a few.

There are others, but these are the more steady and regular "helpers" on Saturday mornings.

This past Saturday, we had our annual Christmas Party and it was a smash-eroo! Thanks to Sue Jackson, all of the kids got free doughnuts and Evelyn Wagner supplied home-grown tangelo oranges. And then we had individual presents for everyone in the league, along with soft drinks... the whole, enjoyable deal.

A good time was had by all and to all of these folks, thank you for providing the children of this area with one of the finest, best-supervised young adult programs in the entire state.

Upcoming is a Youth Bowling Championship Tournament of the B.P.A.A., limited to graduating seniors, which will offer $21,000 in college scholarships. More on this later.

Starting in 1967, the American Association for Health, Physical Education, and Recreation (AAHPER) through the Lifetime Sports Foundation will be working in the area of in-school bowling programs. I have submitted the names of Oviado, Leno and Seminole High Schools and offered the Jet Lanes facilities, NO CHARGE, for the introduction of this program.

Nice people from all over these wonderful states dropping us a little note over the holidays. Some from out of the country, too.

Like Willie (Firecracker) Maglio complaining about the "most miserable weather" he's ever seen. He's stationed at Newfoundland. Not tearing up the lanes, just looking forward to the month of May when he gets transferred.

From Wayne, Mich. — the Marcottes offered their greetings. (Big Deal Split-Ski... they're just on vacation and will be back this week.)

O. K. If you're looking for name droppers, here's one for you.

We were honored with a card from the Kennedy family. Nah... not those in New York and Massachusetts, these are right here in Sanford. Gloria Kennedy and her brood of the Thursday a.m. Shooting Stars League.

O. K. O. K. I'll knock it off, right now.

Rose Patrick finally climbed out of her slump in the No. 17 92 Auto Sales League with a fine 23.

Here's hoping that all of our Navy friends take advantage of the holiday special being offered to them, through the Special Services Office. It's limited to personal reading on base. Check into it here at the lanes for all the details. For those of you inquiring of our plans for New Year's Eve, yes, we'll be open then and for all the days over the weekend. Check our ad in the Herald for the complete dope (now that I see that sentence in print... I'm certain it should be rephrased.)

Thank you for your comments on our featuring "new names" from our local bowling scene. These may not be the highest individual scratch efforts, but they're gigantic accomplishments for the leggers involved.

Lucy McNeil of the Jet Bowling team in the Oct. 20-21 Curl team in the Curl Bowlers' League rolled a 100, Roylyn Writin 155, Pat Sumner 103, Evelyn Britton 171, Liz Joiner 133 and Ann Mortler 132.

Turning our spotlight on the Friday A.M. Hollar Motors/Navy Wives League, Betty Hurbutt checked-in with a 170, Pat Cantrell 173, Janet Leon 160, Susy Reno 175, Jimi Gold 165/472, Marcella Brewster 190 and the same score for Gladys Janet Wolter 182.

Caroline Hardy a beauty of a 215, Alice Best 176, Marian Magee 167.

Oviado's first game will be against Lakeview, whose only loss this season has been against Lyman's Gryphons.

Simon Harper has been having an extremely good season for the Lions in the scoring department totaling over 28 points per game. He completed 74 of 114 passes, a phenomenal record. Had he played for any team but Alabama he would have passed more. The Crimson Tide was unbeaten and with a stout defense limiting 10 rivals to 37 points for the season. If he wasn't needed by Coach Bear Bryant to have anyone throw the ball unnecessarily, Stabler apparently had orders to pass. He completed 179 passes in 291 attempts.

Stabler gained 936 yards passing but is even better than the record holder in the amount of 114 passes, a phenomenal record. Had he played for any team but Alabama he would have passed more. It will be Steve Spurrier, the Heisman Trophy winner, pitching long and short passes for Florida against once beaten Georgia Tech.

The warmup for the Jan. 2 tripleheader begins Saturday, Dec. 31 when Tennessee opposes Syracuse in Jacksonville's Gator Bowl and Southern Methodist plays host to Georgia in the Dallas Cotton Bowl.

College football's big name this year was Spurrier, who is expected to be the first choice of the New York Giants, pro football's neediest team.

Spurrier is the first South-eastern Conference athlete ever to account for 2,900 yards via passing in one season. In 10 regular games he accounted for 2,012 yards and 16 touchdowns passing. He completed 179 passes in 291 attempts.

Stabler gained 936 yards passing but is even better than the record holder in the amount of 114 passes, a phenomenal record. Had he played for any team but Alabama he would have passed more. The Crimson Tide was unbeaten and with a stout defense limiting 10 rivals to 37 points for the season. If he wasn't needed by Coach Bear Bryant to have anyone throw the ball unnecessarily, Stabler apparently had orders to pass. He completed 179 passes in 291 attempts.

Consumer Buying Plans Treated With Solemnity

NEW YORK (AP) — Despite much smaller working space, research into the inner area of the consumer mind is as economically important today as the explorations of the heavens. For years, consumer buying intentions have been treated with great solemnity. Now we're finding that the consumer isn't a simple automaton that responds to stimuli as a light bulb responds to electric current. He is more complex. The consumer's intentions cannot, it seems, be placed in the same category as business intentions. Business plans are made formally, often in a board room. Consumer plans are made informally, over the kitchen table. There's nothing definite about them.

What the consumer tells the researcher he intends to do actually does. Thus we constantly find the word "unexpected" associated with consumer purchases.

Does the consumer ever admit to himself that he won't buy the car he had intended to?

Does he admit it to a researcher? Does he ever make a clear decision? Or does he just let the matter drift?

Recognizing this uncertainty, the National Bureau of Economic Research, a reputable private group, has borrowed a term from weather forecasting: Probabilities.

Instead of referring to consumer intentions, the bureau attempts to determine the probability that the consumer will follow through on the stated intention.

One of the first findings was that most purchases in the group of households studied were made by those that had no intention to buy.

Another finding: Consumers who said the chances are great that they would buy an object in the distant rather than the very near future often made the actual purchase in the near period.

Other studies also are under way now to more precisely determine consumer motivations.

S. Vietnamese Conduct Search-Destroy Operation

Saigon, South Vietnam (AP) — Thousands of South Vietnamese troops fanned out across canal-rice fields deep in the Mekong Delta today and reported killing 89 Viet Cong in two days.

The large-scale search and destroy operation was launched Tuesday by ground troops, helicopter-borne units and the Vietnam war's first combat parachute jump in at least two years.

The multiregiment force of Vietnamese infantrymen, paratroopers, armored cavalrymen and Popular Force units descended on a Viet Cong stronghold in Chuong Thien Province 120 miles west southwest of Saigon. American troops reported by will be developed in parts of the delta in the near future.

The paratroopers jumped from 31 planes — 13 U.S. Air Force transports and 20 C-47s of the South Vietnamese air force.

Vietnamese headquarters said the paratroopers ran into no opposition when they jumped. Spokesmen declined to say if any of the jumpers were injured. In a previous large-scale jump in April 1964, 40 per cent of the paratroopers were injured in jumping.

A Vietnamese spokesman said government forces killed 29 Viet Cong in the opening phases of the operation and by late today the enemy dead had risen to 89, with two prisoners taken and 81 weapons seized. Vietnamese casualties were termed "very light."

The spokesman said a government infantry battalion reported contact this afternoon with Viet Cong forces of unknown size. The outcome of the contact was not known at last reports.

The government sweep in the delta was the largest operation reported by the Vietnamese and American military commands. U.S. headquarters listed only small, scattered skirmishes.

In the air war, long-range B-52 bombers made two raids on targets in South Vietnam today. One formation of the heavy bombers struck at a Communist base camp and suspected troop concentration 15 miles west-northwest of the northern city of Hue. Another wave hammered an enemy supply and training area 24 miles southwest of the central coastal city of Tuy Hoa. U.S. air strikes against North Vietnam were hampered again Tuesday by bad weather. U.S. spokesman said, and American jet pilots flew only 54 strike missions, or about 150 individual sorties.

Most of the strikes hit at highways in the Dien Bien Phu area, in the western part of North Vietnam, and at storage areas and rail yards in the southern section of the country, the spokesman said.

American fliers also pounded the demilitarized zone Tuesday with five raids, hitting at North Vietnamese bunkers and troop areas in the once-neutral buffer area separating North and South Vietnam.

Twelve U.S. Army advisers made the big parachute jump in the delta with the Vietnamese paratroopers. Brig. Gen. William G. Moore Jr., 66, of Waco, Tex., was in charge of the airlift and flew in the lead C-130 Hercules. Also flying during the operation was Lt. Gen. William W. Momyer, commander of the U.S. 7th Air Force.

Accidents Hit Young
CHICAGO (UPI) — Accidents caused more deaths among persons 15 to 24 years old than any other cause, according to reports of the National Safety Council.

Seven times as many youths died from accidents in 1964 than from cancer, the next most frequent cause of death.

Perfect day to get that big project working that is so vital to your present position, welfare. Do more study on it during spare time tonight, also. Get your head out of the clouds and come down to earth early in A.M.

CAPRICORN: (Dec. 22 to Jan. 19)

You can get so bogged down with detail that you overlook the main issues, and this is one of those days. So, get back on wheels in the morning. State aims specifically in right persons. You can garner information needed from friends.

AQUARIUS: (Jan. 20 to Feb. 18)

Intelligent partners now understand the scope of your finest ideas and will co-operate with you very quickly. Be sure you are devoted to those who mean a great deal to you. Don't jeopardize close family ties by being too matter-of-fact.

PISCES: (Feb. 19 to Mar. 20)

You find it relatively easy to get practical, artistic, business matters working nicely today, so get busy early and be happy. Partners see your ability and they will follow you wisely. Be co-operative.

DEAR POLLY:—In our household the bathroom rug is worn out faster than the matching lid covers. By sewing the straight sides of two lid covers together, I make a very serviceable bath mat. Matched or two-toned, they are attractive and economical.—JANET

DEAR POLLY:—You will receive a dollar if Polly uses your favorite home-making idea, Polly's Problem or SATURDAY NIGHT SUPPER. To order her 32-page booklet, send your name, address and 50 cents to Polly's Pointers, c/o Your Newspaper, Box 488, Dept. (First three digits your zip code), Radio City Station, New York, N. Highlights

7:30 p.m. (CBS) Lost in Space. (ABC) You've heard of a frog alien, have you? That's a foreign-type being that looks like a frog — and you know that in tonight's episode, John Robinson and Don leave the colony to get space food, and while they are away, the alien, one of a handsome, good-looking creature named Keema (Dennis Patrick) and the other a frog type (Ronald Reagan) arrive at the colony. Keema is as cool and sophisticated as a man-to-man in his interpretation of the alien's life.

8:00 p.m. (NBC) The Denny Kaye Show. (CBS) The Denny Kaye Show. (Color). It's a musical review of talent that Danny Kaye has lined up for tonight, including one of his favorites, the youngsters with guests Catherine Valente and French singer-composer Gilbert Bécaud. Kaye does a bit of acting, including one that is his superb old style in which he plays two parts, that of the captain of an English fighting ship and the other as the captain of a U.S. ship. He also sings the "Fog and the Grog" with six little girls in one of those numbers that the audience endures because they are fond of Danny Kaye.

8:30 p.m. (NBC) I Spy. "Some Take Away These." (Color). Dean Sherman (Alfred Kellin), a worker in the U.S. embassy in Rome, commits suicide suddenly because he is mixed up with a lustful woman, Tilde (Ulla Stromstedt). Kelly and Scotty leap onto the trail, seeking blackmail, and sure enough, they should appear but Slimy Nehemiah Perloff as Goly Gullian, an expert blackmailer, has moved with exceptional photography, even for this series.

9:00 p.m. (ABC) Special. "A Dinner At Howard K. Smith's." (Color). This is rather an unusual and certainly pleasant format for a year-end news roundup. Departing from the usual round-table discussion in a simulated conference room, tonight's panel discusses the major news events of the past year at coffee tables in a dining room of Howard K. Smith, dean of ABC commentators and one of the best in the country. Mr. Smith is referred to as a moderator, but in keeping with the show's atmosphere it would be more apt to deem him "host." His guests are ABC correspondent Edward P. Morgan, William H. Lawrence, John Stahl, Ray Maloney, Louis Ruker, Sam A. Jaffe, Lou Siff, John Rolfe, and Charles F. Aron and George Watson. Rather the atmosphere of having stumbled onto one of those very high-level and informed conversations that take place with the cigars in some of the better country homes outside Washington.

New Year Resolutions in Order Now That Christmas Has Passed

MRS. L. THOMAS was surprised with a Christmas visit by her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John F. Faizon, and family, of Rochester.

By ROBERT B. THOMAS JR. 322-3756

"It's home for Christmas" or "There's no place like home for the holidays" had a true meaning to many during the Yuletide season.

Trains, planes, automobiles and buses could arrive here fast enough for the many Sanforadians coming home for the holidays.

The happy hellos brought many families together for the first time in many years, yet some were less fortunate in sharing this happiness.

With Christmas behind us, what resolutions will you make to break?

Mrs. Leslie L. Thomas, mother of this reporter, received a priceless gift this Christmas.

Joyce is attending Monroe Community College in Rochester and is clerk-typist at Manpower Training Center of the Board of Public Instruction.

Mrs. Elvira Brandon Johnson and children, Sonja and Rickie of Rochester are visiting Mrs. Johnson's sisters, Mrs. Ella M. Carter, Mrs. Ruthe Nathan, and Mrs. Estie M. Dixon.

Wallace Alexander, resident of Newark, Delaware is visiting his grandmother Mrs. Louisa Green of 1504 W. 17th Street and other relatives of our fair city.

W. E. KNOWLES

By LARRY VERSHEL

I thought I had money problems 'till I saw the unpaid bills out at Seminole Community Action . . . From November they total $2,803.07 . . . Those bills alone total $150 . . . Must have been a lot of calls to Atlanta.

You walk through the many roads out the county . . . Your foot sinks into the sand out at Midway, Bookertown, Jamestown . . . You see rain water up to the doors . . . The water backs up when the toilet is flushed and you realize what a failure Seminole Community Action is.

I hate to bring this up, but on Oct. 3 the members of Seminole Community Action elected a new president with only 25 members present . . . No quorum . . . Is the election valid? Proxy votes don't count.

There are 300 miles of unpaved roads in Seminole County, in case anyone is interested. I look for Joe Foy, manager of the state employment service here to be transferred early next year.

If the county didn't have a home economics agent it would be a savings of some $4,775 in county funds alone . . . Of course this won't happen . . . The Farm Bureau will give her a vote of confidence . . . The County Commission with John Alexander and John Fitzpatrick voting no, will kick her up and the many, many women here will continue to find out the proper way to preserve jelly and sharpen scissors.

How come there's a service station on French Avenue and Commercial that flies the American flag day and night?

Look for a land use study on the proposed 200 acre on Seminole Boulevard around the first of the year . . . That will be the first step in moving the facility.

Hey, I see there's gonna be a weather station near Five Palms . . . Well, now they don't need a centrally located center.

Isn't it about time they took away that Santa Claus house at First and Park.

Whatever happened to the county beautification program?

The next access road to Interstate 4 will be the Twin-Lake Interchange.

Oh yeah, there was in some years last year a newspaper called the Interfraternity Dance. At "The Mayfair." So, it got shot down when the hostility went out of business. And since there was a "dire need" at the hop for tables—and all that on them is (usually at dances), the Civic Center just couldn't be had. (No schnapps, no spirits ferment, m' fine lads and ladies, said the City Commission). So — campus carpers must go to nearby cities where the general atmosphere might not be quite so acceptable as the hometown site COULD be, but there was a "freedom of choice."

But now that the historic Champagne Ball has set a precedent for the City Fathers in renting the seldom-used Civic Center, why doesn't some dynamic leadership breathe life into the "Interfraternity Dance" Oh, it's too late now for THIS year. But the boys and girls who can spearhead the affair next year are here now and can start making some plans. Yeah, by that time let's hope that the Holiday Inn will be in full swing. But even so, it is hoped that its popularity might just MIGHT, make it necessary for the college crowd to swing it at the Civic Center. Well, at least the organization could now be set up, plans made so that at least there would be a jam up good social winter in the making to give the younger set something to do while they are home next Christmas.

Insurance Bids Contract for the city's insurance is expected to be awarded at the continued session of the Casselberry City Council scheduled for 6 p.m. today at City Hall.

Charge 'Action' Administrators With 'Not Producing'; Stronger Director Leadership Is Urged

Two original founders of Seminole Community Action charged the organization's administrators with "not producing" and urged disbanding unless a concrete program is initiated in three weeks.

The two, Secretary Marvin Meltzer and W. E. Knowles told the executive board of directors at a meeting yesterday they were disenchanted with what had been accomplished over a two year period.

At the same time, Director Dr. W. V. Roberts called for a more active leadership of the directors saying "unless we don't see the light as well fold up."

Meltzer said he had been on the ground floor when the organization was established two years ago. "We spent thousands of dollars and all we have to show for it are surveys," he said.

Dr. Roberts said "two years ago a group of dedicated individuals tried to start this organization to combat poverty . . . What's been accomplished? What have we done? There's no point in going on unless we as directors take a more active role in this group. Things aren't going right."

nothing more than a listing of statistics that any clerk could do. There are no conclusions drawn from these figures that show the board of directors the needs of the people. "These statistics don't show any need at all for Head Start . . . They have led us astray," Knowles said.

The survey conducted in Orlando, Midway, Goldsboro, Academy Manor, Lincoln Heights, Georgetown, Bookertown and Altamonte spelled out that the majority of the people in these areas have only been in school for nine years and the average income is less than $3,000 per year.

Both Meltzer and Knowles urged administrators to push for more programs than just "Head Start" — the only program "Action" has submitted fund applications for.

"We spent $20,000 in seven months and we still don't have the answer to what these people need," Knowles said.

Jones said the survey was the first step to get these people involved in the program. He stressed that he met with a group of 70 people in the south end of the county recently in an attempt to get "these people thinking."

Meltzer continued to hammer away that we need to run more programs down Federal officials throats. "Let them know who you are," he urged, adding, "don't just submit one program but 30 . . . and, then maybe we'll get somewhere."

After the two hour session, Kirchoff said he would attempt to have some programs outlined to present to the board in about three weeks.

Kirchoff's and Jones' hall charge survey of target areas in the county to kick-off the "war against poverty" here.

According to the report, read by Kirchoff, access of people in depressed areas were contacted and there was a need for higher education standards among the poor and more jobs.

Nothing is being done and, if you want to know what's wrong, you're just wasting your time and our money."

Dangerous Fire Hazard

Christmas gifts by children in Sanford, Fla. Chief George M. Harriott said today.

"The faces of these dolls are liable to spontaneous combustion and they should be returned to the store where purchased or destroyed," the chief warned parents.

He described the doll as being from seven to 13 inches high, with a celluloid face, stuffed body and red or blonde hair in braids. On the bottom of the foot is stamped "Made in Poland."

"This doll was advertised for sale at only about $1 and hundreds of thousands of them were sold across the United States, in Florida and Sanford. It is a beautiful doll and it was priced so cheaply sales were high."

"Tests show the doll's face is made of nitrocellulose which is highly combustible and will burst into flame if the doll is placed near extreme heat. The head is about the size of a baseball," he said.

"I would advise parents to check all dolls received by their children and if one is found to be it is disposed of immediately," warned the chief.

The dolls are being collected by fire departments all over the nation.
