CIVIL WAR IN GERMANY SEEMS IMMINENT TODAY WITH 2 FACTIONS GUARD

Ebbert And Kapp Governments to Clash

NO FIGHTING YET

EXCEPT THAT BETWEEN THE MILITIA AND THE CROWDS

Civil war seems imminent in Germany as a result of the refusal of the Ebbert government to negotiate with the reactionary regime. Ebbert demands unconditional surrender of the new government. Berlin is in the grip of a general strike and the Paris and Havas Dispatch says the strike is effective throughout Germany and only food trains are running. It adds that severe fighting is reported at Dresden, Leipzig, Brandenburg and Chemnitz. Chancellor Kapp has threatened the strike leaders and pickets, with death if they interfere with public service after four o'clock this afternoon and a possible crisis may follow thereafter. Ebbert seems to control the southern and western part of Germany and Kapp north-eastern Prussia and Silesia, and so far as known armed forces of the two governments have not clashed and the fighting reported is between the militia and the crowds.

SANFORD BOY IS KILLED IN AUTOMOBILE

FRED SJOBLUM OF LAKE MARY KILLED NEAR LAKELAND BY OVERTURNING AUTO

Another serious and fatal accident resulting in the death of a young man by the name of Fred Sjoblom, occurred yesterday afternoon just two miles this side of Haines City. When the accident was discovered by passers-by about 3:30, two men were found, Sjoblom being pinned under a Ford car and another young man by the name of Jim Owens, of Auburndale, was lying on his back apparently unconscious. He soon revived and when the car was raised from the body of Sjoblom, his face was badly crushed and his neck broken.

From all that can be learned Sjoblom and Owens left Auburndale in a Ford car belonging to Gordon Castleberry and started for Haines City about 3 o'clock. The car had swerved across on the left hand side of the road and turned around in the sand and grass and then took another header to the opposite side of the road where it turned over and headed back toward Auburndale, thus indicating that it was traveling at a lively rate. The accident happened on a straight and level stretch of asphalt and to those who talked to Owens, he could not give a very accurate account of what really did happen. He stated to some that an International truck struck the Ford on a curve and to others he said that a Dodge car crowded him off the road on a curve. There is no curve within a mile of this point. Owens also stated that he was doing the driving and that they had been drinking during the morning and evidence obtained in Auburndale goes to bear out that theory, although none was found about the car. Neither were there any marks of any kind on the car nor even a fender bent, showing that the accident was the result of a collision. The general opinion was that the boys were just traveling too fast for general purposes under the conditions.

It is supposed too, that many cars passed the scene of the wreck without knowing that two men were pinned beneath, as all that could be seen from the road was an over turned automobile and it was just by chance that a car stopped and learned the situation and called others to help out. J. W. Buchanan, Jr., and family happened along about this time and aided in raising the Ford and taking care of the unfortunate. Sjoblom has a brother living at Auburndale and was about 23 years of age. He has been in the neighborhood for several months picking oranges and came there from Sanford. Owens is said to be the son of Rev. Owens at Auburndale, and is about 20 years of age. He received a broken nose and was injured about the hip.—Lakeland Star.

POTATOES IN FLORIDA ARE LATE

AND OTHER STATES WILL COMPETE WITH US IN SPUD MARKETS

Indications are that the potatoes grown in this section will be so late this spring that there will be plenty of competition, especially for potatoes that are very late. Says the Palatka News. Shipping will begin in some of the Texas districts as early as April 1. The Beaufort, S. C., district reports the farmers in that section as being comparatively through planting potatoes and they expect barring misfortunes of any serious nature to commence digging some time around May 10. They expect to be virtually finished with digging by June 1. They have had ideal weather for planting, and their acreage will be fully double that of last year.

In the Rio Grande Valley of Texas approximately 3,000 acres have been planted to potatoes. Some of them are reported as being very early, while others are just up. The plants are generally healthy and are growing rapidly. In all probability, shipments will begin about April 1.

In the Caney Valley of Texas there are approximately 5,000 acres, and about the same amount in the Alexandria section of Louisiana. Those sections report that it is too early yet to forecast anything, for the reason that very few of the plants are up.

Some of the other districts in Florida, outside the Hastings district, report the acreage of potatoes for this year according to the following figures: Orange Park, 30 acres; Docters Inlet, 200 acres; Russell, 30 acres; Green Cove Springs, 40 acres; West Tocoma, 100 acres; DeLeon Springs, 100 acres; Sanford, 600 acres; Orlando, 15 acres; Klasmimee, 400 acres; Lakeland, 100 acres; Plant City, 600 acres; Dover, 150 acres; Yvor City, 200 acres; Oviedo, 125 acres; Moore Haven, 2,000 acres; Ritta, 2,000 acres; Dade City, 80 acres; Kathleen, 30 acres; Galloway, 50 acres; Bartow, 50 acres; Fort Meade, 50 acres; Bowling Green, 25 acres; Wauchula, 200 acres; Zolfo Springs, 25 acres; Arcadia, 140 acres; Nocatee, 100 acres; Fort Myers, 25 acres; Lowell, 10 acres; Dukes, 50 acres; and Worthington Springs, 140 acres.

Mr. Ralph Lees of Natchez Miss., will arrive tomorrow for a few days visit with his brother W. D. Lees and family.

DUTCH ARE TROUBLED ABOUT BILL

HOLLAND CAN'T DECIDE WHERE TO HIDE FORMER KAISER

London, March 16.—The reactionary movement in Germany makes the Kaiser question an acute one at Rotterdam, says the Times correspondent in that city. It is learned from the reliable sources, he adds, that the decision of the former emperor's future residence is being seriously considered. Meanwhile extensive measures are being taken for any eventuality.

The Dutch government has considered allotting him a residence in one of the Zealand islands. This plan was abandoned owing to the possibility of escape by boat, and, further, because the climate is not suitable for the former emperor whose health gives rise to anxiety lately. Doorn was thought to be more easily guarded.

Though the ex-kaiser is making elaborate plans for his stay there, it is by no means certain Doorn will be his permanent residence. The government considers publicity might defeat the object aimed at. Should the ex-kaiser know that plans were being considered for his deportation to the West Indies? Efforts might be made for his escape.

Evidently the former kaiser is being well plotted on events; great activity prevails in his neighborhood and a constant stream of cars is going and coming.

PEACEFUL CONDITION IN LISBON

REPORTS OF SERIOUS RIOTING WERE GREATLY EXAGGERATED.

Lisbon March 16 (By Associated Press) Peace reigns here and the quiet has not been disturbed recently. The reports of a serious state here were only rumors and could not be denied on account of the telegraph and postal strike.

MERIDITH FAVORS BIG ROAD MAKING

NEW SECRETARY OF AGRICULTURE WANTS 100 MILLIONS FOR BUILDING ROADS.

Washington, March 14.—Edwin T. Meredith, newly appointed Secretary of Agriculture, believes there should be active continuation of present federal and state cooperation in connecting state road systems with the systems of adjoining states in order that the working out of an adequate highway program for the whole United States may proceed in an orderly manner. He also advocates the continuance of work now going forward under the federal aid road law.

"As 1921 is the last year covered by the law," Mr. Meredith says, "it would be highly desirable, in my opinion, for Congress to make provision as promptly as possible for the continuation of the work under the present system by an appropriation of at least $100,000,000 for each of the four fiscal years beginning with 1922."

Party From DeLand Here

A party of DeLand folks and visitors came over to this city this morning on the Clyde steamer and visited while the boat was unloading. They were the guests of Mrs. E. M. Galloway while here who showed them the new hotel and the many sky scrapers, etc. In the party were Mrs. S. W. Johnson, Mrs. Carpenter, Mrs. Stewart, Mrs. Ray, Mrs. Howell Fisher and Mrs. R. S. Prosser.

ADMIRAL SIMS TELLS MORE ABOUT NAVY

SAYS GERMANY HAD NAVY DEPARTMENT SCARED TO DEATH.

Washington March 16 (By Associated Press) Admiral Sims told the senate investigating committee that any little bluff by the Germans in 1918 would have paralyzed the transportation of soldiers and war materials from the United States to Europe. He said the information that Germany was building two heavily armored battle cruisers to raid the troop ships had caused the Navy Department to besiege him with cablegrams outlining the impracticable suggestions.

EBBERT TO RESTORE HIS AUTHORITY

WILL EVENTUALLY PUT DOWN THE OUTBREAK THINKS WASHINGTON.

Washington March 16 (By Associated Press) The restoration of authority to the Ebbert government with sporadic Spartacist outbreaks throughout Germany is expected by the military officials who interpret the dispatches from Colonel Edward Davis, the military attaché at Berlin indicating that the coup is not so serious as at first supposed. The soviet sympathizers in Germany are said to constitute a small minority.

The merchants, who will be the guests of the National Retail Dry Goods Association, will visit most of the principal cities in the country.

Chambers of Commerce throughout the country are joining with the national association and local merchants' organization in preparing receptions for the visitors and giving

The itinerary includes stops at Pittsburg, Dayton, Cincinnati, Cleveland, Toledo, Chicago, St. Louis, Kansas City, the Grand Canyon, Los Angeles, the Yosemite Valley, San Francisco, Portland, Seattle, Salt Lake City, Colorado Springs, Denver, Omaha, Milwaukee, Detroit, Buffalo, Niagara Falls and Boston. FRANCE IS AROUSED ABOUT BIRTHS

EFFORTS BEING MADE TO RAISE THE BIRTHRATE BY THE GOVERNMENT

Paris, March 16.—France is at least arousing itself to the danger of dying out. The privately conducted, uphill fight for a higher birthrate has been taken over by the government through the creation of a Higher Council of Natality. This council of thirty, appointed by J. L. Breton, Minister of Hygiene, was asked to act immediately. Mr. Breton, father of five children, is known as a strong friend of large families. Three others of the new cabinet are advocates of measures to increase the French birthrate.

War cost France roughly 1,500,000 lives. A low birthrate, during the war years, cost France 1,172,735 loss of population. These statistics, made into striking pictures to illustrate their effect on the nation, industry and war-danger are being used in a vigorous campaign by the National Alliance, for the increase of the French population. This campaign is being conducted by letters to members of Parliament, posters, a magazine, The Woman and The Child, and through the many socially and politically powerful persons interested in the movement.

The plainest sorts of truths are told the French about the decreasing birthrate. The National Alliance and government officials hold that a family should have three or more children. To encourage such families government allowances of 60 to 200 francs a year are granted for each child after the second—under 13 years. The alliance asks also for legislation to provide for the construction of cheap attractive homes available only to large families, establishment of "super-salaries" in industries to heads of such families, preference in government employment, the plural vote, giving the father as many votes as there are persons in the family, and real war, on "birth control", known here as Neo-Malthusianism.

1st Revolution Nothing But A Deed

CLEMENCEAU WISE

BUT OTHER HEADS SEEM TO BE ASLEEP ON THE JOB

London, March 16.—London's editorial opinion on the revolution is indicated by such headlines as "Allies Fooled Again", "The Old Adam", and "As Was to Be Expected."

"While our politicians have been filling us with hot air, the Junkers have been biding their time," says the Daily Mail. "In dealing with Germans one must always calculate on bad faith. They set up a 'dual' government to sign the treaty of peace, just when the time comes to carry out the captulations the junkers again take charge. Whatever their purpose is, our visionary statesmen are ignorant of its nature."

The Morning Post recalls it has always contended the first German revolution was a "sham".

"The French have understood the trick from the beginning," the newspaper declares, "but social democracy chaff completely deceived those two credulous birds—President Wilson and Premier Lloyd George."

"That wary old bird, Clemenceau, was never deceived, but he was overruled. The policy of the allies from the beginning was dictated by demagogues. The Germans are naturally a national monarchial people and tolerated the hate government only because they thought it would be acceptable to Mr. Wilson and Mr. Lloyd George. The allies under dictation by demagogues, built their peace foundation on the sand. They negotiated with a government that did not represent the real Germany."

One of the Hohenzollerns, in the opinion of this newspaper, will be placed on the throne of Prussia, but whether he will be given the imperial crown will be another question.

The opinion is expressed that Bavaria, Saxony and Rhoish states will have something to say about this new government, by the mail. "We can only hope that France will have something to say about the next settlement."

The Morning Star says the junkers have again triumphed in the present phase of the situation evolved from the efforts of Prussia to gain the ascendancy over other states of Germany and adds "that it would have been far better for Germany and for ourselves to have negotiated with the reactionaries in the first place."

"Should Noske's charges turn out to be true," says the Times, referring to rumors that the kaiser was to return to Germany, "Holland should punish the complicity of the ex-kaiser. But his is not the most flagrant breach of trust. The work of the Spartacists and the revolutionists, if true as reported, may bring on another combination with the Russian bolsheviks. It may be a coincidence that Horty has ordered an extensive concentration in Bulgaria; that Moslem unrest never was so widespread and dangerous."

The paper concludes with the assertion that the situation demands an extraordinary degree of vigilance on the part of the allies.

Princess Theatre Wednesday and Thursday is declared to be a laughing cure for the blues as well as an inside tip to young wives who are suspicious of their equally young husbands. It's called "What's Your Husband Doing?" and features Doris May and Douglas MacLean, the two lively and attractive young players whom Thomas H. Ince recently raised to stardom.

The story concerns a newlywed wife, played by Miss May, who suspicions the scented notes received by her husband every morning and hears the cry of a notoriously speed maniac. "Homesuckle Inn." The wife enlists a youthful lawyer, in her aid, whose "better half" is, in turn jealous of him and—well, there's amusing complications galore in it all ends in a big police raid and explanations and a happy ending at the police court the next morning. It's a Paramount-Artistic picture.

Take Pleasure And Be Protected
We print elsewhere the report of an attack on Editor Harris of the Kalamazoo Valley Gazette by a politician who the editor had displeased. Mr. Harris had an eye put out in the encounter. There are some people who have no sense of fair play. It gratifies them to see in a paper something disagreeable about other people, and they like the editor for printing it. After a while they do something that they don't want known, and if they see it in a paper they want to kill somebody or beat somebody up. Three or four editors have been man-handled by men bigger than themselves in this state in the last few years. It is a pretty good idea for a newspaper man when he has to write something that he knows may arouse the ire of a ruffian to take measures to protect himself.—Ocala Star.

FIFTY THOUSAND REFUGEES

From All Parts of Russia Camping in Streets

Novorossiisk, Russia, March 16.—Fifty thousand refugees from all parts of Southern Russia have been camping in the streets of Novorossiisk for several weeks waiting for transportation to take them across the black sea to a place of safety, most of them are families of officers and leaders of the army of Denikine. All the resources of the American Red Cross mission to South Russia have been employed in extending relief to the refugees.

Every shelter of any description has been crowded with humanity. Idle factory buildings, grain elevators and rooms used as offices during the day have been filled with refugees at night. Thousands have spent their days walking the streets and at nightfall have spread their blankets and scant covering upon the pavement to sleep. Hospitals have been filled to overflowing and medical supplies have run low while hundreds of cases of typhus developed every day. Each morning found hundred dead in the streets.

The Big Musical Success "La La Lucille" At The Princess Friday Night.

A capital performance that makes the most of every opportunity and one that proves unfailingly entertaining is "La La Lucille", the up-to-date musical farce which will be seen at the Princess Friday night.

The book is by Fred Jackson, music by George Gershwin, lyrics by Arthur Jackson and B. G. de Silva. The play has had extended runs in New York and Boston.

The is caused by the will of John Smith's aunt which demands that he divorce his young actress wife before he can inherit the two million dollars she has left him. But before the arrival of the happy ending there is a series of complications of side-splitting absurdity.

In the cast which includes a well trained and unusually attractive chorus whose members appear in a series of brilliantly colored costumes that are like animated rainbows are many who share in the success of the production. Leila Tarsanen as Peggy is charming, both in looks and acting. Rene Mac Kensie is a graceful and effective dancer who brings much pleasure with all her numbers, in most of which she has as partner Neil Pratt a young comedian whose clever dancing has been a feature of several musical comedy successes. The make-up of as Fanny, the janitress, who yields to money and persuasion and agrees to act as a much needed correspondent is a miracle of all that is wafal to look upon and as the "woman in the case" is productive of bouts of mirth. Julia Gifford as "Lucille" is screamingly funny and Frederick Hampton as Jonathan Jaynes, Lucille's father, an ex-juggler who yearns for the footlights is low comedy of a high order. Then there is the miracle-working Boston lawyer, Oyama, the Japanese butler, Mlle. Victorine, the cabaret dancer, Duffy, the hotel detective, Colonel Marion, a Southern gentleman, with eyes for a pretty girl, and many minor roles all noticeably well taken. The attraction is said to be doing a barrel of business on the road.

"La La Lucille" At The Princess Friday, March 19th.

In the College of the American theatre "La La Lucille" the musical farce which comes to the Princess Friday March 19th, hits the high spots. Credited with runs in New York and Boston the piece is a clever exploitation of the Bed Room farce, written by Fred Jackson, author of "The Velvet Lady", "A Full House" and "The Naughty Wife", with music by George Gershwin, lyrics by Arthur Jackson and B. G. de Silva.

The plot of "Lucille" with its many complications and side-splitting absurdities tells the story of the predicaments of John Smith, who in order to inherit $1,000,000 is forced to divorce his pretty actress wife by the terms of the will of a maiden aunt. It's up to Smith to get two and the manner in which a happy ending is brought about reflect great credit on the authors. The cast is a large and exceptionally clever one and includes many well known comedians. Twelve big song hits are introduced and especially pretty and smartly gowned chorus makes "La La Lucille" the liveliest and most diverting piece of its kind seen in many a day. Dont miss Her.

The Hangar.

Many people think that the airplane word "hangar" is an affection and is the late adaptation of a French word. A look into the Standard dictionary will reveal the fact that Thackeray uses the word and that it means a shed, not primarily a place to hang a dirigible.—Hartford Courant.

A Mad Car?

Myself and family were out for our usual Sunday ride. We were driving along a fairly smooth road, which gradually became more rough. Finally little Rose, who had become tired of being bumped about, exclaimed: "Oh, mamma, has the car lost its temper?" —Exchange.

Board of Trade tonight.

Let every real citizen of Sanford be there.

There is much work to do here in the next twelve months.

Big things are anticipated for Sanford and it will take the Board of Trade to put them over.

Now that the spring days are with us the politicians will be with us also and there will be big doings in a few weeks.

Germany has turned over again and no man can foretell just what this country will do next. The radicals are looking for an opportunity to fasten the soviet government on Germany but fortunately there are too many level-headed Germans to allow it.

We need another celebration here to get some life into the city after the many lightless nights and powerless days and waterless mornings and gasless afternoons.—Sanford Herald.

Well, most anywhere. In the back kitchen seems to be a favorite place.

Fishing is good now in all the rivers and lakes of Seminole county and those who have the chance to go are bringing in fine strings to exhibit to the neighbors. The strangers in our midst should not leave Sanford until they have taken some fishing trips in the prettiest part of Florida and some of the best fishing in Florida.

Now is the time to clean up your yards, plant your flowers, trim up the trees, plant your spring garden and do the many things that will tend to make your premises better, that will help you to bring down the high cost of living and make life worth living in Sanford. A few orange and grapefruit trees in every yard in Sanford would be a grand sight to the tourists that come here every season and look in vain for the ripe fruit on the trees. And a few laying hens while eggs are around the dollar mark are not so worse.

FLORIDA NEEDS A PROPER "SCARE"

Mentioning some of the nominees of the Republican party in Florida—Judge John M. Cheaney for United States senator, George E. Gay of Park for Governor and Fred C. Cubberly of Gainesville for Congress, in the Second Congressional District—the Gameville Sun, with Colonel R. E. Dan's says:

These are good men and respected personally by all who know them. They will not be elected, but they say they are going to try to be. If Democrats do not get together, the time is not far away when the Republicans will hold sway in Florida.

Then we will see those days back of 1876, all over again. Democrats, this is not enough to alarm us, but it is enough to make us think.

But would it be "those days back of 1876 all over again?" Wouldn't two strong parties in Florida compel each party to bring out its most trustworthy and best men for public office? Doesn't the Democratic party in Florida need to be compelled to offer efficiency and honesty and business management as the price of its control of public affairs?

As for those days back of 1876 the Gainesville Sun knows that they will never return. The trend will be toward a higher, not a lower, grade of public service. Florida is beginning to awaken to the fact that all the blunders and all the deficiency of its government have been under the exclusive management of the Democratic party.

The Metropolis candidly believes that two strong political parties in Florida would be a benefit to the state. Monopoly always leads to evil conditions. And when a political party has absolute control over the business of a state—or a country or a city—it becomes an organization of political job-hunters, with public service and public stewardship left to chance.

What Florida needs is competition for office of such a character that the most efficient and the cleanest candidate will win, regardless of his party affiliation.—Miami Metropolis.

ARE WE MORE WICKED NOW?

Are the morals of this nation in a state of rapid decline? One is inclined to think so, from the mass of disgusting details served up daily by the city newspapers. The city circulation of today depends on a considerable extent upon the amount of sensationalism the editor can crowd into his pages. Legitimate news articles are the last to be read.—Sanford Herald.

No Bob, we would not say this nation's morality is rapidly declining. Though to be sure there is more wickedness in the world, this coming from the fact there are more of us to be wicked, but the virtuous grow in numbers also. There has always been wickedness in the world, but the facilities for acquainting the world with the facts were meager.

In this day of enlightenment, when the happenings of one part of this nation may be made known to the other within the same hour; when one can scarcely think without someone being able to decipher his thoughts and send them ticking away over the wires, it is hard to keep scandals from coming to light.

We will agree with you, however, that the reading public seems thirsty for this sort of news, but it comes from curiosity rather than from a sense or delight in its details. There are mighty few of us who are not eager to gossip and all these writings are but so much gossip, put up in readable form.

There are lots of good people still left in this old world of ours, in fact more than there ever were, but unhappily we see their faults before we notice their virtues.—Reporter Star

THE AMERICAN LEGION IS NOT BEGGING

The American Legion in Arcadia is not begging and will never do so. It is going right ahead and will endeavor to fulfill its destiny without asking help. On of the things the American Legion in this city is preparing for is to have a home of its own. Four valuable pieces of property are under consideration and a committee has been appointed with power to act.

The houses under consideration are The Harley Watson house, on South DeSoto avenue, priced at $5,500; the Highsmith residence, on East Oak street, priced at $6,500; the W. E. Robertson house, in the King & Baker subdivision, not priced, and the W. W. Langford property, priced at $10,000. One of these will probably be purchased and fitted up for a home for the Legion.

The city council volunteered to do something to help the cause, and it will have an opportunity to do something worth while when the Legion buys its own home.

This editorial was brought about by reading the following from the Lakeland Star:

ARE WE GOING TO MAKE THE LEGION BEG?

The American Legion of Lakeland and other places appreciate the attitude of the people toward them while in the service, but it is apparent that we have forgotten them since their return. They are not going ahead and propose things for their own personal benefit and that includes bonuses, monuments and such things, because they have too much Americanism and independence back of them and in their veins to feel that they want to be under any obligations to the people who remained at home. These boys would like to see a monument or something erected to their honor. They would like to know that the people at home really intend to perpetuate their memory, and they would like to see the folks take an interest in their work. Because of the lack of interest in the returned soldier he is being forced to ask for money in many places to keep the organization going—not in the way of begging, but in the way of entertainments, and they have to give concerts and programs so that money can be earned for a sort of a pot whereby the work they have started of making this country entirely American can be perpetuated. We all honor the Legion members and the soldiers who are not members, and we want them to have something in every community which will be an everlasting monument to their memory, so that in after years our children and others can point to such things with the pride that will swell the heart of every true citizen. Therefore, if you want the soldiers to feel better toward the community, don't let them be compelled to promote things first, so that a foundation can be laid in their treasury, but let the community take it up and show them that they intend to go ahead and prove their great interest in the soldier.—Arcadia News.

IS THE FARMER IN DANGER?

A young North Carolina farmer boy, back home after serving in the navy during the war, has found such a change in things on the farm and sees such a difference in the way of living that he believes the farmer is in danger.

"Cotton has brought 40 cents a pound, corn is 10 a barrel, and pork sold as high as $17 a hundred on the hoof, while tobacco must be indeed a poor quality not to bring a dollar a pound," he said, "and the result is that tenant farmers and small renters who have been content to go about on a cart pushing an ox along with a gadpole, now are satisfied with nothing less than a Cadillac eight.

The negro farm hand and hoe-cropper, on whom the cotton grower had to depend, is out of debt and has money in his pockets, and no man can make a nigger work under those conditions.

"Reform" legislatures have abolished the 'lien law' with its labor contract, and 'union agitators' are trying to 'organize farm labor.' High wages in town attract the country boy, white or black. Three and four dollars a day sounds big to him, and getting it every Saturday night appeals to his pride of being able to dress and spend; but when the end of the year comes he has nothing for it has gone for clothes, and room and board, and the expensive amusement that lurks in cities. It is going to take him a year or two to realize that he is far worse off than the young man who stays on the farm and works and plays in his spare time, who, when the end of the year comes and the crops are sold, has five hundred to a thousand dollars cash as his share, and has had a good living and better home than the one who went to town."

There is much truth in the observations of this young man.—Tampa Tribune.

Poker Replaces Gun As Hold-Up Weapon In "Six Feet Four" At The Princess Today

The 1920 model of hold-up tool is not a gun, but a good solid poker, with effective reinforcement in the form of the odor of frying bacon.

At least that's the pattern of weapon used in the exciting hold-ups featured in "Six Feet Four," the breezy, breathless, adventure-drama at the Princess today. Lovely Viola Vale it was who perpetrated the stick-up, and athletic William Russell was the amused victim of her no-money-no-lunch ultimatum.

"Six Feet Four" more than lives up to all the good things we have heard about it during the six months it has been in preparation at this American Film Company's studio in Santa Barbara. It's a special super-feature in six reels, and it gives abundant proof of the painstaking care that was bestowed upon every detail of its production. It is based upon the stirring novel by Jackson Gregory, one of the "best sellers" of the day.

In addition to William Russell, the star, and Viola Vale, his attractive leading lady, there is a splendid cast boasting such familiar figures of the silver-sheet as Harvey Clark, Charles K. French, Clarence Burton, Jack Collins, Al Garcia, Jack Bramhall, Calvert Carter, Perry Banks, John Gough and Anne Schaffner.

"WHAT'S YOUR HUSBAND DOING" MERRY PICTURE OF YOUTH

Doris May and Douglas MacLean in Screen Version of Stage Farce At The Princess Tomorrow and Thursday

Doris May and Douglas MacLean will be the attraction at the Princess tomorrow and Thursday in a screen version of the stage play, "What's your Husband Doing?" The picture is described as a rollicking comedy about young husbands and wives and a grand mix-up at a lively roadhouse.

Miss May has the role of Beatrice Ridley, newly married and a suspicious of the notes which her husband gets every morning from "Honeyuckle Inn." She consults Douglas MacLean, in the role of John Widgast, a lawyer, and they resolve to investigate. In the meantime, the wives of Widgast and Pidgeon, his partner, have become jealous of the divorce business which their spouses find necessary to talk over with pretty co-respondents and other designing creatures.

The real reason for Ridley's letters are that he owns a share in the Inn and is trying to sell it out. On the same evening that he goes to close the deal, taking Pidgeon with him to draw up the papers, Widgast and the lawyer's wives and Beatrice also appear at the road house. And to cap the climax, the place is raided by the police. Matters are cleared up the next morning in a police court in a most amusing fashion.

The film which was produced by Thomas H. Ince is said to provide a fine vehicle for these youthful stars, who have already established themselves in high favor with screen fans. One more reel also given.

Phillips Theatre Monday March 22 Guy Bates Post-Super Actor

That all great actors have never been beauty actors, or matinee idols is accepted as a foregone conclusion. They have all possessed that far greater quality, strength, poise and an indescribable charm that carries with it a dignity no matinee idol ever had. The handsome actor, Guy Bates Post, is handsome in a masculine way, and his features lend themselves to the whole gamut of human expression. His face is alive with a forceful, dominating personality. His features are so perfect that they seem to lack study; what the public sees is an art that conceals art, an art brought to the finest pitch of unobstructive perfection. If there is one aspect of his bearing that stands out from his acting it is his supreme grace of motion and gesture. "Grace in man!" It is strange to the casual and careless American, but this instinctive grace is merely part of the personality of Guy Bates Post.

The leading role—a dual one by the way—in his greatest success, "The Masquerader" would be a most difficult part for any but a most thorough and finished artist, to whom it is ideal. With the same undisguised features Mr. Post has to play two characters that stand at the extreme of human variation—the brilliant, cultured, cold politician who has given away to the morphia habit, and the breezy, human, decent, out-of-throws journalist who needs only the opportunity to become a leader of men.

And though Mr. Post has to be each of these contrasted characters in turn, and who, despite the close resemblance of his double, who at times is on the stage with him, there is never the slightest hesitation on the part of the spectator about which person Mr. Post represented. His personality triumphs over all disguises.

Through the nice ponderous, smooth shifting scenes, this wonderful actor never a moment betrays his dominating personality, the changes from Chilcote—some instantaneous—to Lodgor, and as though done by magic, so thorough and silent do the mechanical effects of this production move from scene to scene and episode to episode, the audience is carried along as though in a swiftly but silently floating boat, while panoramic effects swiftly change with phantom silence.

Mr. Richard Walton Tully, author, producer, and master stage craft, has added not a little to his laurels, gained through his wonderful production "Lamar" in which Mr. Post has made a Transcontinental tour. "The Masquerader" is a masterpiece collectively. Seat sale opens Friday, March 19th at 10: A. M. at Estes Pharmacy.

DAMAGE OVERESTIMATED

Frost in Florida Not As Bad As Predicted.

Jacksonville, Fla., March 16.—Reports from shippers having crops to move are very encouraging in face of the heavy freeze that swept the state March 1. As is always the case the first reports over-estimated the damage actually done. The Packer office, in daily receiving reports from unaffected sections where there are shipments going out daily. In spite of the big damage in the Miami section, the tomato movement is yet so heavy that the shippers are unable to secure sufficient refrigerator cars to safely load and carry shipments. In all probability this difficulty will be eliminated as more cars are supplied.

Below are given reports from various shipping points, now having supplies moving. Names of shippers at these points will appear in the Packer or Bulletin of March 17 and succeeding issues.

Jensen.—There are 200 acres of beans at this point from which shipments are yet going forward. Condition of crop 80 per cent. This section was not hit by the recent freeze. Movement will continue to April 1. Beans are good.—B. D. F. Co.

Homestead.—There is a heavy acreage of cabbage at this point; condition 100 per cent. Shipping is now on, and will continue through April. Cash prices now prevailing are $2 per crate. The tomato crop is in good condition and shipping is going on daily. This section was not injured hardly any by the freeze.—C. W. M.

Florida City.—Cabbage crop here is in good shape. There are 2,000 acres of tomatoes here and as far North as Modesto that were not hurt by the freeze. Shipping of both cabbage and tomatoes are going on daily.—J. B. R.

Fort Meyers.—There are 100 acres of tomatoes here. Shipping is now on. Cash prices prevailing $3. Six hundred acres of peppers, condition of crop 60 per cent, now shipping, prices $4.50. Sixty acres of eggplants, now shipping, prices prevailing $3.50. Here will be 50 acres of cucumbers, condition at present time 40 per cent to begin shipping April 15, and should be heavy May 1.—G. & S. Co.

Florida City.—There are 50 acres of beans, now shipping, condition 80 per cent, prices prevailing $4. Three hundred acres of cabbage, now shipping, condition 95 per cent, price prevailing $2. Twenty acres of pepper condition 60 per cent, shipping now, condition mending $4 a crate. One thousand acres of tomatoes now shipping condition 90 per cent, f. o. b., prices around $2.75.—J. H. S.

Deerfield.—There are 100 acres of beans here, condition affected by freeze, but now shipping. About 25 acres of cabbage, condition good, movement now on. One hundred acres of cucumbers, 52 or 30 acres peppers and the usual acreage of tomatoes.—I. B.

Florida City.—There are 1,500 acres of tomatoes now shipping from here, condition of crop now good, movement will be heavy during April. There are several shippers here.—L. H. S.

Punta Gorda.—There are beans, peppers, tomatoes and cucumbers for spring shipment at this point. The crops were not damaged severely near the Charlotte Harbor. Our own crop of cucumbers and peppers did not suffer as severely as others.—J. M. W.

Hypoluxo.—The cabbage crop here is 100 per cent. Eggplants are about 50 per cent of a crop, tomatoes and beans were hit hard by the freeze.—C. M.

Foynton.—There are 100 acres of cabbage here, condition good, now moving at $2.25 a crate, also 175 acres of tomatoes, condition fair, shipping begins April 15. Ten acres of cucumbers now being planted and 25 acres of peppers, condition poor now shipping at $3.50 and $4 a crate.—J. A. W.

Oldamar.—There are two acres of beans for April 15 shipment, ten acres of cabbage, condition 85 per cent, for shipment April 1, one acre of cucumbers, condition 100 per cent ready April 10 and five acres of potatoes, for shipment May 10.—W. E. A. W. —New York Packer.

Motion Pictures Not Injurious To The Vision

Jacksonville, March 15.—Answering the question put to him the other day, "Do movies hurt the eyes?", Dr. Ralph N. Greene, state health officer, declared the fact that millions of people in the United States go to motion pictures daily without experiencing any discomfort to their eyes, indicates the films are not injurious to the vision. Dr. Greene adds that eye trouble rarely is traceable to "over indulgence" in the movies.

He points out that some people experience a certain amount of eye strain at a motion picture, but in these cases the trouble appears to be due to an ocular defect rather than the pictures.

"It is safe to say", Dr. Greene concludes, "A person may witness a picture play lasting about an hour and a half each day without straining the eyes or experiencing any discomfort, provided the eyes are good and there are no hidden defects to the vision. Indeed it is not unlikely that a motion picture show might be the means of advising one of a faulty vision."

Atlanta Merchants Feeling Effect of Street Car Strike

Atlanta, Ga., March 15.—As one of the efforts to get striking motormen

and conductors of the Georgia Railway & Power Co. back to their jobs, Mayor James Key was expected to address a mass meeting of the strikers today at the local labor headquarters. What the mayor had in view was not disclosed. In other quarters petitions were being circulated which several hundred persons had signed today volunteering to take a course of instruction as motormen and conductors.

Automobiles, trucks, wagons and interurban trains were used to convey residents, but for lack of sufficient accommodation, thousands walked.

The situation is beginning to have its effect on retail trade here, according to the report of one trade agency.
