FLOODS CAUSE GRAVE FEAR IN SOUTH GEORGIA

Streams Leave Banks To Devastate Highways, Countrysides Following Bad Rains

By Henry Lescene
International News Service
Staff Correspondent

ATLANTA, Sept. 27.—Consternation spread through the lowlands of flood-washed Georgia today as streams left their banks and highway after highway fell before the onslaught of tortuous overflows.

Georgia has been deluged by incessant rains for five days. With the situation already assuming cataclysmal proportions no let-up in rain was seen for the next 24 hours.

Hundreds of inland residents have been forced to leave their houses for higher grounds, and hundreds of others, the Spring catastrophe which claimed a score of lives fresh in their memory, were abandoning their homes.

Numerous highways and bridges have fallen before the rampant cascades in South Georgia. The washing of a railroad bed near Wadley, Ga., resulted in the wreck of a Central of Georgia passenger train, killing the engineer. Damage to crops is incalculable. It may run into a million or more. Ripe cotton was beaten to the water-soaked fields through the plains of South Georgia. Many of the fields, themselves, were flooded.

Seven hundred negroes at Hamburg, S. C., just across the state line from their homes when the flood came went on a rampage. Flood warnings were up along the Ocmulgee and Oconee Rivers. Other streams were expected to leave their banks today.

Railroad traffic is disrupted. One railroad through South Georgia has suspended operation. Weather experts indicate that the swollen streams will rise steadily during the next few days.

Upper South Carolina also was inundated by flood waters. All streams in that section were reported going at an alarming rate. Four caravans narrowly escaped with their lives when a flood overflow swept them from their mounts near Columbia, S. C. They clung to tree tops for four hours until boats could rescue them. A dozen horses drowned.

Williams and today was turned over to the County authorities on a charge of grand larceny. Benjamin is said to have taken the watches at Bardwick. He was apprehended when he attempted to sell the watches to friends in Georgtown.

Loughran Denies Rumor He Is Dead

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—(INS)—Tommy Loughran stopped nursing his sore jaw long enough today to personally deny a wild and widespread rumor that he had died from the effects of the knockout punch administered to him last night by Jack Sharkey. Newspaper offices throughout New York and other large cities were deluged all morning long with telephone calls from anxious citizens who had heard that Loughran was dead. It is not known how the rumor originated.

HERALD LOSES IN APPEAL FOR WRIT ON LIBEL ACTION

High Court Dismisses Petition To Put Case In Lower Tribunal

The Supreme Court yesterday denied without prejudice a petition for a writ of prohibition filed by attorneys for The Sanford Herald in the $100,000 libel action brought by George A. DeCotes.

While the jury was deadlocked in the case, counsel for Mr. DeCotes filed a motion, waiving all damages except one cent, and asking the court to instruct the jury to bring in a verdict for that amount. The motion was denied and a mistrial was subsequently declared.

In his petition for a writ of prohibition James M. Carson, of the defense counsel, asked that the Circuit Court be restrained from trying the case again, contending that the waiver asking for damages of only one cent had the effect of reducing the claim to that amount for any subsequent action, and that, therefore, the Circuit Court had lost jurisdiction of the matter, and the case should then be tried in a lower court.

In dismissing the petition, the Supreme Court held that the petition for the writ did not show that such application, raising the question of jurisdiction, had been made previously before the lower court, and that nothing had been shown in the court record that the Circuit Court was to attempt to hear the case again.

It was pointed out that the higher court's decision was not upon the merits of the writ of prohibition but upon the method employed in carrying it to the Supreme Court. By its ruling, the tribunal has made it incumbent upon the counsel for the defense to first file the petition with the local court. The decision does not cut off further appeal to the high court after this procedure has been complied with.

Eloping Girl Will Be Held By U. S. Consul

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27.—(INS)—An order for the detention of Mary Louise Lupton, 16-year-old high school girl of Pittsburgh, Pa., who eloped to Honduras with L. A. Ordinio, 23, Honduran abord a banana boat, was telegraphed today to the American consul at Trujillo. The slopes are due to arrive in Trujillo in a few days.

The State Department directed the detention of the girl at the port, upon request of the Department of Justice. The girl's parents had appealed to the government to stop the pair. Ordinio will not be detained, as the government has no authority to hamper his movements in his own country.

EYES TURN TO HOOVER IN BIG TARIFF BATTLE

Senate Expects President To Make Quick Reply To Challenge Made By Idaho Senator

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27.—(INS)—The point of interest in the tariff fight shifted to the White House today as the Senate, still debating the flexible provision awaited a statement from President Hoover as to whether the new bill carried out his personal campaign pledges of last fall.

The Senate expected the President to make a prompt reply to the challenge of Senator William E. Borah (R) of Idaho, now leading the insurgent revolt against Hoover's tariff leadership. Borah demanded that the President, having broken his silence to endorse the flexible feature now state his position on the new industrial and agricultural rates and his attitude toward the measure as a whole.

It was the unanimous verdict on Capitol Hill, among Republicans as well as Democrats, that the President had blundered politically by entering the tariff war. It was felt he would have profited more by remaining silent until the bill reached the White House for his approval—a course publicly advocated by Senator Watson of Indiana, the Republican floor leader.

Administration leaders also anticipated the President would decline to enter debate with Borah or the Senate on the subject of rates. It was felt the President, in replying by declaring it a "legislative" function in which the president has no interest until the bill reaches him as a prospective law. This would give him an "out" from a political situation which has greatly embarrassed his friends on Capitol Hill.

The actual effect of the President's action on the flexible tariff battle was highly disastrous. A poll among administration leaders indicated the President's intervention had won on new converts and had lost at least two votes for the provisions. It was a possibility that the provision may be retained or rejected by the margin of one or two votes. Administration leaders plainly were worried over the outcome. If the provision should be defeated by so small a margin, they undoubtedly will place the blame on the President.

Georgia Starts Big Hunt For Convicts Who Broke Prison

ATLANTA, Ga., Sept. 27.—(INS)—The force of the state's entire man-hunting machinery today was thrown behind a search for 10 long term convicts who escaped their way from a steel cage and escaped during the night from the Pike County prison camp.

Police in every city were on the look-out for the fugitives and several of them were traced as far as Griffin, from which place it was believed they headed toward Atlanta. Two of the prisoners are negroes serving life terms for murder. The others are white men, and all but one were sent up for felonies.

Three other prisoners, the camp authorities reported, remain in the cage and made no attempt to get away. The delivery was discovered by a warden on his morning checkup. Heavy rains made it initially impossible to make a search for the three.

The fugitives included "Booster" Coggins, a negro life-terminer, who escaped last year and was recaptured in Columbus, Ga.

SMALL COURT TODAY

Dan Fielder, charged with disorderly conduct, drew a $20 fine in Municipal Court today, while Raymond Baker was given 60 days for petit larceny. A charge of larceny against Alex Benjamin was transferred to the County Court. Worth Cherry was fined $100 for violating the stop and go law. A similar charge was continued against John Gilmore.

NEW YORK BANKER SUED

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., Sept. 27.—(INS)—A 50-year-old woman, who complains that she was deceived for 22 years by his promises to marry her, today filed a $600,000 damage suit against Gilbert E. Newhouse, New York banker and his wife of 10,000,000.

Funeral Of Huggins, Game "Guy" With Big Heart Held Today In New York Church

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—(INS)—The game will be goodby today as Eddie Higgins, a 42-year-old half-game guy with a heart as big as a baseball park.

With the crack of ball games still stilled throughout the nation, the funeral for the mite manager of the New York Yankees will be held this afternoon in the Little Church Around the Corner.

It would have pleased the little fellow to know that his mortal remains rest beneath the championship pennant which his team won in the last six years.

At 10 a.m. the mino infection which was later to cost him his life was that he might keep his ball club fighting to the end of the season.

Long lines of fans filed with bowed heads past the bier of the dead manager. They mourned a winner. He brought six American League championships and three World Series' pennants to town which loved him.

But Higgins did more than that. A team which used to be fit at him before he became a player and a little before he became a leader.

There will be marching bands in the casket of their dear general when the body is taken to the train for shipment to Cincinnati, the home of Higgins. He will be buried there beside his wife.

STIRRING PLEA IS MADE IN BEHALF OF EARLE PEACOX

Defense Attorney Is Caustic In Criticism Of The Prosecution

COURTHOUSE, WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., Sept. 27.—(INS)—An impassioned plea to the jury today at the trial of Earle V. Peacock for the murder of his bride, Dorothy, defense attorney Sidney A. Syme declared that this young defendant had been a hard and most terrible human being ever crowded upon the shoulders of a human being.

The tall, be-spectacled crinkly-haired attorney warned the jurors of their "grave responsibility." He scoffed at the state's claim that the crime was "premeditated" and added:

"This boy should not have to pay with his life for what he did."

"You have got to be big enough to say that he is not guilty," declared Syme.

Syme launched into a vigorous attack upon Captain Michael E. Silverstein, acting chief of police of Mount Vernon, who elicited the confession of the crime from Peacock.

"This cheap cop, Mike Silverstein, put up here on the stand and 'forget' things, this defendant told him, but he remembered everything he thought would escape him," shouted Syme.

Alvin Merritt Loses Appeal Of Clemency

ATLANTA, Sept. 27.—(INS)—The straps of Georgia's electric chair drew tighter today around Alvin E. Merritt, notorious "short-hand" in the state prison commission trial for clemency. He is under sentence of death.

After nearly a year of appeals, he received an eighteen hour stay of execution. He was convicted in connection with a series of attacks on unfortunates in a fashionable Atlanta subdivision.

Attorneys, in appealing for clemency, pictured the "shadow bandit" as "a man with a mind as abnormal and a body as diseased that it would be against the interests of society and without moral justification to have him electrocuted."

Sleeping Sickness Claims 6th Victim

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—(INS)—Suru encephalitis, the acute variety of sleeping sickness that has broken out here claimed its sixth victim today. Michael Keenan, a baby of two months, died at Belvoir Hospital. Dr. Douglas Syme, director of laboratories of Belvoir and allied hospitals of Britain have submitted to the American Journal of Diseases of Children a paper describing the disease and its methods of progress up to death. They declared that no cure has been discovered yet.

Scandal seen in wet party among solons

Gale Winds Strike Miami As Hurricane Lingers In Bahamas

Fears Are Held That Brookhart May Tell Grand Jury Of Party Staged At Big Hotel

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27.—(INS)—

A scandal of the first magnitude is feared by political Washington today if Senator Brookhart (R) Iowa, tells a grand jury about a "wet" dinner given senator by a Wall Street banker named Fehay.

District Attorney Leo Rover, among the district officials named by President Hoover in his reply to Senator Howell (R) Nebraska, as being responsible for baseball was very glad.

The death of Higgins struck deep into the sentimental sportsman of the New York American League team. Colonel Ruth stuck by Higgins from the beginning, through thick and thin. It was squirrel over Higgins with his co-player, Colonel T. L. Huston, that led to the latter selling his half-interest in the club.

Higgins was 60 years old. He was a lonely man on the playing field and off, not given to confidences with his co-players. He was a hard, strict, but kind master.

He will be marching bands in the casket of their dear general when the body is taken to the train for shipment to Cincinnati, the home of Higgins. He will be buried there beside his wife.

The whole rumpus over whether the capital is very wet or not was started by Howell and Brookhart took up the cudgels after President Hoover rebuked Howell. Brookhart started the Senate a few days ago when he asked Senator Smith (D) Idaho, if when he attended the dinner held by a prominent banker named Fehay.

BACHMAN SEEKS GOOD KICKER TO BOLSTER GATORS

Florida Mentor Also Wants Formidable
Punch For Warriors

By JIMMY BURNS

L. M. Special Sports Writer

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Sept. 26.

Another and more exacting football season thundering upon him, Coach Charley Bachman is trying to make quick work of his problems.

One of the most important is the development of a punter. The Gators were not at hot on the kicking end last season, and right now Bachman is not fond of his punters. He has been trying half a dozen and seemingly developing none of 'em to show much real kicking."

Another thing that bothers Bachman is the development of a more formidable punch than that packed by his fast set of Gators.

The boys were noted for their speed. They still are, but when it comes right down to the question of a he-man walloper, you can't find it, and therein you have one of the excuses for becoming suspicious of these boys and their claimability as aspirants.

There are any number of backs on the Florida squad who, past the line scrummage, are gone for touch-downs. They are speed merchants, shifty and adroit in side-stepping and stiff-arming their way along.

But there is no real line-hunting fool in the whole collection.

That worries Bachman no little. It can't help that Tennessee game last season.

It is a line-hunting squad, this bunch of Gators. There are no 200-pounders in the bunch, but there are plenty of big, strapping youngsters who are ambitious to do up big for Old Florida. Nineteen of the boys stand six feet or higher and their weight measures up to their height. They look like football players.

If the line prospectives were as bright as those in the backfield, I gather that Coach Bachman would feel much more confident about this year's team. His first line is okay. But anything that he has to send in a sub he knows that he is weakening the far wall. That is not true of substitutions in the backfield.

The man has a flock of lively, fast-stepping ball carriers. So many, in fact, that he plans to work them in shifts, thereby having the advantage of fresh talent all of the time. Right now the keenest competition in the backfield is the stirring duel between Royce Goodrich and Red Botham.

Each aware that he will start at right half, but to date neither has convinced Coach Bachman that he is entitled to any such honor.

There is one closed job in the backfield. It belongs to Clyde Goodrich. One-only has to mention that boy's name to Bachman and he is entitled to another few interesting facts about him.

"He's one of the prettiest ball carriers that I have seen in my long experience as coach and player," Bachman explained. "He's the smartest fellow in the use of his interference that I ever encountered. He knows just how long to string along with one interference before shaking him off and picking up another one."

"Football is a great player, but when he gets smart and fast, last year I saw him get beat in every one of the entire field and still register gain of 30 yards."

Goodrich will run at the quarter position. Goodrich or Botham at right half, Botham at left half and Captain Cawthon at full back.

The line that faces Southern College in the opening engagement of the season here Saturday very likely will be made up of Van Sickle and either Green or Parnell, ends Walter, 190, pound junior, and Bryan, 185, senior; tackles; Reuter, 175, senior, and Steel, 195, junior, center; Clark, 182, junior, center.

These Gators may be lacking in a lot of things but sheer determination is not one of them. If it was, the boys would never have slashed their ways through the spiritual practice yesterday. They started out steadily down-pur of fun that made it impossible to go on the regular field.

The son of the ex-president said, in answer to questions regarding his future he had definitely decided to continue with the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad as he believed that field of endeavor offered a fine opportunity to a young man. But right there the interview ended.

BIBLE VERSE FOR TODAY

TRUTH—Great are Thy works of grace, O God of boundless might.

THE PROPHET ANT

Turn to the prophet and thy head, full eyes.

O man, where, sluggish, and wise?

No stern command, no monitor voice.

Preserve thy duties, or direct thy choices.

Yet timely prudent, hasten away.

To smite the blinding of the phantoms day.

While fruitful summer loads the testing plains.

She strips the harvest and she scatters the grain.

How like a scorching curse the weeds bring.

Unite the vine and enchain the grapevines.

While mortal shades their downy couch encloses.

And still solicitation courts the pale.

And the drawn charms of youth.

Year goes past with untold life.

Till went now following, fraud.

Shall we see the goad like an embossed key?

—Samuel Johnson.

College education pays, but so we are told does the old man.

Like women, money talks, but unlike them, it can't talk back.

A pop-eyed girl is one who, when her eyes open, for a split second, is exciting.

And the boy who, when he looks, may be all right, but when he laughs, he looks like someone, because, if she should look up, he'd explode.

She laughs best who has something to laugh about.

Vic Williams claimed he was the man by a spark plug but the man can now buy him a new one.

Second Coming Bank will think that he's a spark plug left.

Bankers are counter to Florida's water in ten hours than ever, and no amount of persuasion can stop them from doing what they do.

In member California the rate is one for every person.

New York City alone reported that there are 100,000 more men and women in the city than in the rest of the country.

Maybe intuition like wisdom comes with age, for it certainly can't be learned in a day.

The law is not the law, but that's not the point.

That's why this is a treat for the eye. —Dudley Newell.

DRASTIC REFORM LOOMS IN PICKING CAROLINA JURIES

Total Of Peremptory Challenges May Be Reduced By Statute

CHARLOTTE, N. C., Sept. 27.—(INS)—The Gaston-Alberholz murder trial which comes up here for a second time September 30, will result in drastic reform of the North Carolina jury system, according to a consensus of leading attorneys in this section.

Proposals inevitable will be offered before the next session of the state legislature. It was said, to reduce the huge number of peremptory challenges, given the defense in cases involving more than one defendant, and to provide for a thirteenth juror in capital cases.

The need for both of these changes was clearly shown in the Alberholz trial, attorneys said. The state statutes permit the number of peremptory challenges to be multiplied by the number of defendants on trial, and in this case the defense has 108 and the state 58.

Web To Get Jury

The selection of a jury in the Alberholz trial when it began here in August, required a week. During the trial Judge M. V. Burnhill, the presiding justice, took a leave from terminating the North Carolina jury system, which he described as permitting the defense to "fix" its own qualifications for a jury and then proceed to choose a venire from whom they will fit them to a T.

The trial collapsed in its second week because of the failure of the North Carolina law to provide for the selection of a thirteenth or substitute juror. One of them became afflicted with a violent religious狂妄 and was dragged away to a cell, a racing madman. Judge Burnhill was then forced to direct a mistrial.

Another Long Trial

The trial of Fred Erwin Beal, Communist labor organizer and his 17 co-defendants begins September 30. All indications point to another long, tedious task of drawing a jury. Lawyers here believe that completion of the jury will be increasingly difficult at this time because of the widespread publicity the case has received in this county.

materially lessened, when she reaches the "cake and cracker" portion, by referring to the extensive newspaper advertising sponsored by the National Biscuit Company which began the week of Sept. 16, and in which is submitted a new list of dainties for her consideration.

This new campaign, national in scope, is scheduled for appearance in 350 newspapers throughout the country. Each week, the "Uneda Bakers" will remind their millions of friends of all the old favored sweets, and suggest new ones that may outdo the old.

Advertisers who have enjoyed increased sales, each year, of Uneda Bakers' or dainty, after this growth in the visual connection between the national advertising campaigns and a simultaneous window and counter display of featured varieties.

This new campaign offers all advertisers an opportunity to translate the public reception of National Biscuit Company's favored brands into actual sales by effectively identifying their window and counter displays with the corresponding advertising of specific articles.

HIS MORNING BAD TASTE DISAPPEARED

Man's Appetite Improved and Health Better As Result of Taking Black-Draught.

Lockhart, H. C.—"I could not eat heartily, and my rest at night was disturbed, so I saw Dr. R. E. Mack, of this city. He gave me Black-Draught, of this city. It soon relieved with the effects of gas pains, and I hardly had a comfort this day."

"All my ailments seemed to be the result of chronic constipation which caused my system to become tired with poison. I was getting worse all the time, but did not realize the cause."

"One day a friend suggested that I try Black-Draught. I had often seen it advertised, but I had never tried it. I began taking it right off, and no one could pay me for the improvement which came after I had taken it several days."

"I began to feel better. The bad taste which I had in my mouth every morning disappeared."

"My appetite improved, and I began to feel like a different person."

"I continued the medicine for several weeks, and since then I have felt fine. I am in better health now than I have been in years."

"Black-Draught is a splendid remedy for constipation."

"Costs only 1 cent a dose."
