Ghosts, Goblins And Golf Balls

I haven't checked my Farmer's Almanac to see if there's a full moon due, but Thursday night's Five Star Conference battle in Daytona Beach between Spruce Creek and Apopka steals a little thunder from tonight's games. Terry Manfredi's Hawks ripped the Apopka Blue Darters 27-14 behind an awesome 195 yard rushing performance from Kenny Flowers, still learning how it's all done as a junior. With the win Spruce Creek remains undefeated in conference play and secured, at the very minimum, a share of the conference crown. Don't look for any last minute miracles. The Creek should go on to post season play as the District 9 representative. And from this corner, Kenny Flowers is the best running back in the Central Florida area. Seminole High and Lake Howell are out of the district title picture so it's pride and tradition on the line when the Silver Hawks travel to the reservation to tackle the Seminoles in a homecoming tilt. Jerry Posey's squad will be playing for pride in view of their 1-6 record while the Silver Hawks try to lay another brick in the road to the school's first ever winning

I hope the folks at Errol Estates are prepared for the impending invasion they face Saturday afternoon. A hefty number of Five Star basketball and some football coaches, along with local media reps will be on hand for the annual Rotary Bowl Golf Tournament which in turn kicks off the organization's activities leading up to Thanksgiving weekends basketball tourney and football game. Wagering has been heavy and negotiations for strokes

From the coaching stand point look for Bob Peterson at Lake Brantley or Gee Knight from Lake Howell to cop the coaches low score. On the media side my collegue Herky Cush of the Little Sentinel threatened all summer long to break 100. Herk doesn't hit it long... just straight as an arrow. He brings a whole set of clubs but uses just three. And he's deadly with a live-wood from anywhere on the course. Herk's ever threatened to putt with that five-wood it's been so good to him Speaking of the Lake Brantley coaching staff and Bob Peterson, we now know what the Patriot coaches do in the off season. They raise linebackers, point guards and fullbacks. In a six-month stretch Peterson, head football coach Dave Tullis and assistant grid and head baseball coach Sam Momary all became fathers once again. Let's see ... in about 16years that should form the nucleus of a pretty good backfield Speaking of the links, the Mayfair women's Association

In the weekly event, the four-ball-best ball, the team of Mary Ann Williams, Zella Eissele, Fran Albrecht and Keen Ivey fired a collective 59 for the top spot. Second place honors went to the foursome of Marge Horne, Mary Anderson, Irene Harris

In men's play at Mayfair Roy Whitaker dominated play in the Mayfair Men's Association's two-ball-best ball event played on a rotating wheel set up where a golfer can match up with several partners for a collective score. Whitaker teamed up with Al Greene Jr. for a first place

Efforts to contact Whitaker to have him take my place in Saturday's Rotary golf event have failed, so it looks like I'll have to break out my bionic four-iron and practice at halftime of the Tribe's homecoming game. Maybe Bobby Lundquist will be on hand for a few quick

Prep basketball practice has been quietly underway for the past two weeks as local teams prepare for the Rotary Basketball Tournament. Although it's still very early and the season hasn't even started yet, Tribe coach Bill Payne gets this week's crying violin award. Ran into the Seminole skipper at the Apopka-Seminole football game two weeks back and the first thing he asked was how tall I was. Come to find out Bill says I can suit up this year 'cause I'm two inches bigger than

Miami Gears For Paterno's Lions

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. (UPI) - Judging from some of their statements this week, one would think Penn State coach Joe Paterno and Miami coach Howard Schnellenberger wanted to swap hats. The 13th-ranked Nittany Lions have been running the ball three times more than they've been passing it. On the other hand, the Hurricanes' pro-oriented passing attack has outgained their running game. But both coaches seem to be stressing the weaker parts of their respective offensive attacks preparation for Saturday's game at Beaver Stadium. "We won't get good with the passing game until w pass," Paterno said. "I won't promise anything about this week, but passing 20 to 25 times a game will give us the pass attack we need." "They (the Lions) are playing much improved pass defense and in order for us to sustain an offense, it's important that we run the ball as well as pass it," Both the Nittany Lions, 6-1, and the Hurricanes, 4-2, have defenses that can capably cope with their opponent's offensive strengths.

Running backs Curt Warner (594 yards) and Booker Moore (524) have teamed to lead a Penn State rushing attack that is gaining more than 240 yards per game. But the Hurricanes, led by middle guard Jim Burt and linebacker Scott Nicolas, are allowing a stingy 117 yards a contest on the ground. Miami quarterback Jim Kelly, an East Brady, Pa. native who riddled the Lions for 280 yards and three touchdowns last year in his first collegiate start, a 26-10

upset, has passed for 833 yards and six touchdowns this

The Penn State secondary, however, has picked of 12 passes in seven games while being boosted by the return of 1978 All-America Pete Harris and speedy cornerback Paul Lankford. The Lions, who have won four straight since a 21loss to Nebraska, are seeking to avenge last year's upset but Paterno knows it won't be an easy task. "They're a fine football team, in the same class as Nebraska and Missouri," he said, "They may be the toughest team physically that we've played so far They're better than they were last year. "This is a big game for us. The kids know it and they're anxious to play a big game. Hopefully, it will give us an indication how much we've improved." The Hurricanes, meanwhile, are trying to rebound from back-to-back losses after a 4-0 start which in cluded a 10-9 win over highly-ranked Florida State They know they can be in serious contention for a bow "We haven't won a game in a month now and it's important we get back to our winning ways against Penn State," Schnellenberger said. "This is an important opportunity for us because if we are going to get an opportunity to play in a bowl, we'll have to come up with a win this week." Miami will get its first look at Lion freshman quarterback Todd Blackledge, who has passed for 531 yards in four starts but has suffered nine interceptions

Schlitz Bull In No Danger Of Injury

DEAR DICK: When the bull crashes through the wall, for that Schlitz Malt Liquor commercial, doesn't he get hurt? How do they do that? CHARLES INGOGLIO,

I've answered a question about the bull before, but now I have more details from the Schlitz people. The bull is an 1,800 pound crossbred Brahma from Bloomington, Calif., named Jeckle. And he is well cared for. The walls he crashes through are made of sugar glass, balsa wood and styrofoam bricks, so there's nothing that can possibly hurt him. And, moreover, there's a representative of a humane organization attending every filming session. In case you

Part-time Attorneys and No Investigators?

J.R. RUSSO recognizes the long past need to reorganize the Public Defenders Office by converting some part-time attorneys to full-time assistance, dedicated solely to representation of indigent clients. He will also secure a professional investigative staff to aid in trial preparation.

Endorsement Statement by Today Newspaper, Oct. 23, 1980

RUSSO, a bright and ambitious young man who has the approval of his peers in the legal profession, has different ideas as to how the office should operate. RUSSO vows to be a visible, active, and available Public Defender. We believe he will. And that coupled with his move toward regular employees for office, should eliminate some of the suspensions and complaints that crop up occasionally about the present operation." Porter's interest and ability as an administrator do not measure up to his ability as a trial lawyer. Based on our own experience with the office and upon reports with lawyers familiar with the operation, Porter must be termed an "absentee official." The running of the office is very often left to others ... whether because of health problems that have troubled him in recent years, or for other reasons, Porter does not spend a great deal of time in the office or courtroom.'
