THE FIRST SESSION OF CIRCUIT COURT IN THE NEW COUNTY OF SEMINOLE MARKS AN EPOCH IN THE BABY COUNTY

The first session of the Circuit Court of the new county of Seminole opened on Tuesday morning at ten o'clock with a large attendance...

occupied the attention of the court for the greater part of the morning and is composed of the following members: G. W. Venable, foreman; J. F. Karnatz, clerk; A. B. Bolton, J. A. Thompson, R. R. Whitten, Albert Cruse, I. D. Hart, Sam Thomas, V. S. Arnett, G. E. Slack, E. L. Jones, E. G. Hodges, C. L. West, J. H. Lee, T. W. McClure, Alfred Erickson, G. W. Blackwelder.

The most important business of the day was the trial of the case against F. W. Wilmott, who it was al-

city on any other business. In fact the first meeting of the Circuit Court in Seminole county demonstrates more than any other event that county division assists to some extent in placing the new county and the county seat on the map in red letters.

The first hour of the morning session was taken up in the meeting of the people and various attorneys and the Big Judge and Prosecuting Attorney and various other court officials. Among the various legal lights in attendance were the local legal lights, DeCottes, Rowe, Wilcox, Housholder, Rigby, Herring, Dickson, Powers and Thigpen. Giles, Davis, Victor Starbuck, Robinson, Joseph Jones and C. P. Dickinson of Orlando. Col. Bly of DeLand, E. L. Sparkman of Tampa, W. V. Long of Starke, E. J. Baldwin of Jacksonville and many others from adjoining counties who arrived later in the day. Court Stenographer C. E. McCrory of DeLand is on the job early and late and one of the busiest attaches of the session. The first proceeding of importance was the empanelling of the grand jury which leged killed Ollie Sweet in Sanford four years ago. The position taken by the attorney for the defense, Long of Starke, was that all the witnesses of any importance in the case were dead and nothing but written testimony could be adduced, hence the case was thrown out of court.

Among the other cases called and disposed of were the following: A. A. C. Co. vs. J. B. Taylor and F. B. Durham—Final Judgment.

Gabe Davis vs. Atlantic Coast Line, transferred to Orange county.

Mack Harris indicted for resisting an officer. Pleaded guilty and sentence suspended during good behavior.

State vs. Algezo Mack, transferred back to Justice Stringfellow's court.

George A. DeCottes was sworn in as assistant state attorney.

Baxter Case Tomorrow

The Baxter case will probably be called tomorrow and will excite more interest than a murder case. This is the case of state vs. Arnold Baxter, cow stealing. Some forty witnesses have been summoned and the cattlemen of this and adjoining counties are here in force to hear this case tried in court. Davis & Giles, of Orlando are representing the defendant.

The first indictment Tom Franklin, the negro who killed another negro just Geneva last year was the first offender to be indicted in Seminole and his case will come up in a few days. He will be defended by a gallant Yankee lawyer named Gledhill.

The grand jury has been a very busy body of men this week and have handled the situation thoroughly even going over the ground where murders were committed to get all the facts as evidence. They will bring in their presentment some time today and it will be given its full in Tuesday's paper.

The Petit Jury The following men were drawn for the petit jury and are serving time:

R. Richardson, Sandy Anderson, Joe Fortner, S. C. Walker, T. J. Brown, H. W. Wolf, C. L. Howard, A. V. French, E. F. Lane, D. W. Clouser, A. R. Marshall, H. H. Foster, C. L. Park, Joe Cameron, A. J. McCuler, G. B. Pope, L. D. Wicker, John Hickson.

Flashes from the Bench Among the eminent jurists attending court this week was Judge Minor S. Jones, formerly judge of the Seventh Judicial Circuit, Judge Jones has a world of friends in this section and he was kept busy shaking hands with them.

Judge Perkins likes a quiet and decorous court room and the room of the court seemed to put a quietude on the scene. As he did with some of the spottings (one couldn't call them spottings) were continually being laid out and Attorney DeCottes seemed to have a peculiar penchant for putting them about the time that every one would get quiet and finally Judge Perkins ordered them out of the portion reserved for the attorneys and announced that if any of the high authority wanted to chew or smoke they could go outside and the spottings were banished from the judicial domain.

Shelton Hand looks up large in the court room. He is a handsome man and at one time in his career was a railway conductor before he fell by the wayside and became sheriff. Charlie is one of the biggest and best men in the county and his heart is just as big as his figure.

The former court stenographer for the Seventh was over six feet tall and the present one is about half that size but all the good things do not come in large packages and the present stenographer is just as efficient as the "Big One," although not as imposing in figure.

Court week in Sanford promises to be one of the big times for all concerned and will always be looked forward to by townspeople and country people.

SELECTING FEDERAL SITES IN FLORIDA

MANY STATES WILL HAVE PUBLIC BUILDINGS

SANFORD AMONG THEM

CONGRESS HAS AUTHORIZED THE PURCHASE OF SOME THREE HUNDRED SITES

Washington, D. C., Jan. 16.—Great activity in the selection of public building sites in Florida and other states will be displayed in the near future. Congress has authorized the purchase of about three hundred public building sites throughout the country and has provided an appropriation to pay a force to inspect the sites offered and make recommendations to the treasury department.

All of these proposed sites must be inspected and the reports must be in by June 30 the close of the fiscal year, or otherwise the appropriation to employ the force will lapse. Consequently no time will be lost in dispatching the agents to the various towns that are to secure public buildings.

Florida Sites

In Florida sites are to be acquired at Lakeland, Key West, Kissimmee, Lake City and DeFuniak. The authorizations for these places are for the purchase of sites only. In addition, Federal buildings are provided for on sites not yet purchased at Palatka, Sanford, Apalachicola and Marianna.

W. M. Holloway, former superintendent of public instruction in Florida, will inspect the sites in that state. In every instance the inspector will report to Byron Newton, assistant secretary of the treasury, his first, second and third choice. From these three Mr. Newton will make a selection. His choice is not final, however, until the attorney general of the United States passes upon the title to the property and pronounces it satisfactory. In investigating titles the attorney general necessarily relies upon the district attorneys in the various states. When the title is given the O. K. of the department of justice, the sites take their place on a list to be reached in regular order.

Methodist Missionary Meeting

The regular monthly business meeting of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Methodist church was held at the church last Tuesday, Jan. 13, at 3 p. m. The president being absent on account of illness, the fourth vice president, Mrs. M. P. West, presided over the meeting.

Very gratifying reports of the past year's work were read by the treasurer, Mrs. Abernathy and the vice presidents, in attendance.

Mrs. Mott in her report of the work of the fourth vice president very appropriately quoted the familiar lines touching upon our failures: "Nothing but leaves" Sad memory weaves "No veil to hide the past, And as we trace our weary way, And count each sad and misspent day, We sadly find at last, "Nothing but leaves"

These lines fittingly apply to the lives of many who might well ask themselves, "What have I done during the past twelve months for the moral, intellectual, spiritual uplift of the community in which I live? She made a very earnest plea that more and better work might be done during the year 1914 than was done the past year.

Many matters of important business were taken up and disposed of. Committees were appointed for the work of the new year.

The ladies decided to hold a reception next Tuesday evening, Jan. 20th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Abernathy in honor of the new pastor, Rev. Steinmeyer and wife, to which the entire membership of the church is invited.

Argument.
A good cause need not be patroned by passion, but can sustain itself upon a temperate dispute.—Sir Thomas Browne.

Suggestion.
When modesty begins to boast about itself it should also change its name.

Will Find Some Variations.
The girl who gets her ideas of love and the young man who gets his ideas of business out of the story papers are both liable to meet with disappointments.

Origin of "Whisky."
The word "Uak" is an Anglicized form of the Welsh word wya, a Celtic word meaning water. It is connected with the Irish word uisque, from which the Saxon gets the word whisky.

Secret This Way Sometimes.
Some men succeed in life by minding their own business. Others manage to draw large salaries for neglecting other people's business.—Washington Star.

Dickens' Love of the Little Ones.
Speaking of babies, Dickens said: "I love these little people, and it is not a slight thing when they who are so fresh from God love us."

No Charge for This.
Wiping persons should reflect that everything which is blind and which laughs at locksmiths is not love.—Puck.

Cheap Labor in Trinidad.
Labor is so cheap in Trinidad that it does not pay to buy lawn mowers, as coolies will cut the grass with a small sickle or knife at a trifling cost.

Daily Reminder.
No matter how the other markets fluctuate, good, old, common, everyday politeness is still quoted at the same figures.

Florida Woman Suffers 26 Years And Is At Last Given Relief

Swift Relief From Stomach Ills Found by Mrs. Pettis of Ybor City.
Mrs. T. S. Pettis of Ybor City, Fla., suffered for more than twenty-five years with stomach troubles. She has led a sedentary life and digestive troubles resulted. She took Mayr's Wonderful Stomach Remedy and received immediate benefit. She has written an interesting letter, in which she says:
"I was almost frightened at the results at first. I am delighted at the improvement in my condition. I have told many of my acquaintances of your medicine. I was a stomach sufferer for twenty-six years and this is the only remedy which brought results to me."
That same sort of experience is general among the users of Mayr's Wonderful Stomach Remedy. The first dose convinces. It is known all over the

"Pleased to Meet You."
The Americans have a polite habit on being presented to a new acquaintance of putting the words "Pleased to meet you," although upon what the pleasure can rest, or how they know that it is a pleasure, or why an ordinary incident which is not the fulfillment of any anticipation and which may turn out to be very disagreeable, should be pronounced at sight to be pleasant, I have never been able to understand.—London Saturday Review.

Surprising Economy.
The treasurer of the Newburyport water works sent out his annual bill on one year by mail. In the corner of the envelope was the customary request: "After five days return to Newburyport water works, Newburyport, Mass." What was his surprise to have a woman come into his office five days afterward and pass him an empty envelope with the remark: "Here is your envelope, but what you want of it is more than I can see."—Lippincott's Magazine.

No Matter Who.
A party of women were being escorted through the statehouse by a bowing and scraping guide. The woman were of the enthusiastic type and raved over this and that and said, "Oh, simply so gorgeous." Finally they were shown the portrait of a former governor. "Oh! superb, isn't it?" said one of them, and "an excellent likeness, too." A portrait of whom did you say it was?

Sound Advice to Mistresses.
To respect the servants' point of view, to be generous in our dealings with them, explicit in our directions, and to give them what might be called an interested, considerate margin of personal freedom and responsibility, will lead to better service and better servants. Whatever is done in contradiction to this is spoiling.—Century Magazine.

His Inference.
Robert had been dutifully listening to the conversation of his parents. They were discussing a certain Mrs. Smith who was tagged in their talk as a grass widow. "I say, pa," said Robert after some reflection, "is a grass widow a woman whose husband died of hay fever?"

Sailors' Ability to Sleep.
Sailors and doctors are, perhaps, the only people who can always sleep at will. The sailor, as he will tell you, can "sleep as well on a clothesline as on a feather bed." He simply throws himself down, closes his eyes, and is asleep before you can say Jack Robinson.

"Getaway" in Gotham.
A New York newspaper has received a number of letters on the best method of accomplishing a graceful "getaway" when making a call. One correspondent says he manages it by exclaiming suddenly, "Oh, can the pit-tee! I guess I gotta be goin'."

To Cure Headache.
For a nervous headache allow warm water to run on your wrist, and apply hot cloths at the back of your neck. If very severe, use mustard plasters on the back of the neck and temples.

Life's True Heroes.
Wordsworth characterizes the "little, nameless, unremembered acts of kindness and of love" as the "best portion of a good man's life." The real heroism of life is to do its little duties promptly and faithfully.

HUSBAND RESCUED DESPAIRING WIFE

After Four Years of Discouraging Conditions, Mrs. Bullock Gave Up in Despair. Husband Came to Rescue.
Catron, Ky.—In an interesting letter from this place, Mrs. Bettie Bullock writes as follows: "I suffered for four years, with womanly troubles, and during this time, I could only sit up for a little while, and could not walk anywhere at all. At times, I would have severe pains in my left side.
The doctor was called in, and his treatment relieved me for a while, but I was soon confined to my bed again. After that, nothing seemed to do me any good,

I had gotten so weak I could not stand, and I gave up in despair.
At last, my husband got me a bottle of Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I commenced taking it. From the very first dose, I could tell it was helping me. I can now walk two miles without its helping me, and am doing all my work."
"If you are all run down from womanly troubles, don't give up in despair. Try Cardui, the woman's tonic. It has helped more than a million women, in its 50 years of continuous success, and should surely help you, too. Your druggist has sold Cardui for years. He knows what it will do. Ask him. He will recommend it. Begin taking Cardui today."

INSTALLATION OF OFFICERS

Woodmen and Woodmen's Circle Had Grand Time Wednesday Night. At the conclusion of the ceremonies those present were invited to be seated at the banquet tables where a most elaborate spread was awaiting them.

Assisting in serving were the following young ladies: Misses Luca Chappell, Margaret Davis, Ethel Hickson, Hazel Styles, Eleanor Roberts and Hilda Massey.

NEW STEAMER DISABLED

The Osceola Could Not Make the Corkscrew Bends of St. Johns. The looked for steamer never came. We were on the river and saw several things all last week waiting for the famous Osceola, the palatial passenger steamer recently put on the river service and supposed to make her maiden trip to Sanford last Thursday.

The steamer came up the river and as far as the mouth of lake Monroe, but turned back for repairs, so the report goes, and is now on the ways at Jacksonville. The various bends in the river were too much for the superstructure and at Beresford part of the bridge was injured and the Osceola will be repaired at once and expects to make the trip again in a few weeks and as soon as the steamer is arranged and the machinery in working order the boat will be put upon the regular run.

The Osceola will be a great inducement for the tourists to take the beautiful St. Johns river trip this season and we hope to see the daw boat tied up at the Sanford dock next week.

FIRE SWEEPS JACKSONVILLE IN MOST DESTRUCTIVE BLAZE

WAREHOUSES AND STEAMERS IN HOLOCAUST MUCH DAMAGE WAS DONE

OTHER NEWS OF THE STATE AT LARGE IN TABLOID FORM FOR BUSY HERALD READERS

It is estimated that $225,000 will easily cover the total loss by fire which swept a portion of the Atlantic Coast Line export terminals shortly after 1 o'clock Saturday afternoon. The alarm came in at 1:10 p. m. the fire burning a large warehouse and its contents of cement and fertilizer material, besides a large portion of the docks and a vast amount of lumber piled on the terminals waiting for shipment. The loss is covered by insurance. While $225,000 is only an approximate estimate of the loss, it is a careful compilation of the figures given to the Times-Union by the heads of the concerns affected by the fire. The large warehouse used by the Atlantic Coast Line railway as a storehouse for the cargoes brought here by water and consigned to local concerns was completely destroyed with its contents. The warehouse was well filled with cement and fertilizer materials of a highly inflammable nature. It is estimated that the loss of the contents of the warehouse will approximate $75,000 and that that figure will probably more than cover the loss. The warehouse was 160 by 300 feet in dimensions. The loss of the warehouse building and the total loss to the docks is between $60,000 and $75,000. The portion of the terminals burned includes about 475 feet of lumber docks, 50 feet of haval stores docks and 200 feet of rolling platform docks. Next to the Atlantic Coast Line interests the Hirsch Lambert Company was the heaviest loser. The loss sustained by this company is given as being about $60,000. The Apex Manufacturing Company of New York sustained a loss which may reach $8,000. The loss to the W. A. Evans Company will be more than covered by an estimate of $5,000. All property destroyed was either fully or partially covered by insurance.

C. H. Alston, a negro lawyer has been found guilty of unfair practice in a divorce case in which he had been retained, and was disbarred for a term of two years by Judge F. M. Robles in Tampa. One of the allegations was that Alston changed figures in the case so as to make 1912 read 1910. He acknowledged the deed, but averred that he was under the impression that he was right.

The "hog crop" in the northern part of Alachua county is said to be a record one the past year. Some unusually large porkers have been killed during the recent cold weather, and the farmers are well supplied with meat for the coming year. A colored farmer is reported to have taken two hams to the cold storage at Alachua, the first of the year which weighed over 40 pounds each, the hog itself being too heavy to weigh on the scales in possession of the farmer.—Gainesville Sun.

Walter Hawkins, a well known Jacksonville man, has been notified that he is one of the heirs of a $250,000 estate. The welcome message came from a Denver lawyer and gave the information that Mr. Hawkins' portion will be $18,000. The beneficiary is the father of Mrs. William A. Shafers, formerly of Gainesville but now residing at Mulroeville, Ala.

J. E. Pounds, has located at Madison, and in the near future will begin publication of a new weekly paper to be known as the Madison News. The Mallory steamer Lampassas, Capt. Smith, from Tampa, bound for New York via Key West, ran ashore near the middle ground shoal near Tortugas Saturday afternoon and sent a wireless message for assistance. The Mallory steamer San Jacinto, from Galveston, bound to New York, was in the vicinity of Sand Key, and went to the Lampassas' assistance, reaching here at midnight, transferring twenty-five passengers in small boats lying two miles off the disabled ship.

Following the failure of a number of other firms and individuals, involuntary bankruptcy proceedings were brought Saturday night against William S. Keyser by his creditors. Mr. Keyser headed the Keyser-Moulton Company of Pensacola, recently declared bankrupt, and was a heavy holder of stock in the Southport Lumber Company, the Alabama and Florida Land Company, the Southern Manufacturing Company, against which involuntary proceedings were recently brought, and in the First National bank, which failed last Thursday afternoon.

Interest in Baxter Case

Twelve indictments have been returned by the grand jury in Seminole county against A. J. Baxter, who was arrested at Goldenrod last summer by Sheriff Frank Gordon of Orange county on the charge of stealing cattle. The case was transferred to Seminole county because the alleged thefts were committed on the Seminole side of the line, but much interest in the matter exists in this county. Considerable sensation was created by the arrest of Baxter, Sheriff Gordon secured the evidence against him by digging up the hides of the cattle which had been butchered by Baxter, who conducted a meat market at Winter Park. Baxter had the hides buried at his home, and it was only after a thorough search of the premises that the sheriff stumbled upon a suspicious looking mound that led him to discover the evidence. The officer uncovered twelve cow hides, and the Seminole jury has returned an indictment for every hide unearthed. There will be a large number of witnesses from Orange county to testify in the cases against Baxter.—Orlando Sentinel.

WHEELS OF JUSTICE GRIND SLOWLY BUT EXCEEDINGLY WELL

FIRST SESSION OF CIRCUIT COURT DISPOSING OF CASES

JUDGE MAKES A RECORD

PROVES TO BE FAIR AND IMPARTIAL BUT A TERROR TO THOSE WHO TRIFLE WITH WITNESSES

The first session of the circuit court, now being held here by Judge Perkins of the Seventh Judicial District, was called off Saturday on the calling of the first of the twelve cases against Arnold Baxter, charged with twenty of cattle, which is alleged he reduced to beef and sold to the retail markets of Orlando, the case under trial being number eleven in which Baxter is alleged to have butchered a cow belonging to Jesse Bumby and buried the hide of said cow on his (Baxter's) premises, which was dug up and identified by Bumby as being his property. The grand jury has found twelve true bills against Baxter, and his trials for the theft of cattle promise to make the most famous cow case in the history of Florida. He is being defended by the law firm of Giles and Davis of Orlando.

Upon the opening of court Saturday morning State's Attorney Landis, prosecutor for the Seventh Judicial District, announced to the court that he had information leading up to the fact that both state witnesses and certain jurors in the Baxter case were being unduly influenced and tampered with with the view of defeating the ends of justice and requested the court to order Sheriff Hand to bring before the court one D. W. Curry, a prominent citizen of Orlando, who is extensively identified with various industrial and commercial propositions in central Florida, such as lumber, naval stores, abstracts of title, orange growing and real estate, as he, the state's attorney, was of the opinion from what he knew and had heard that Curry was exercising undue activity in behalf of the accused Baxter.

When apprehended and brought into the presence of the court and after being duly sworn, he was then questioned by the state's attorney and admitted that in the presence of one juror of the panel which was to try Baxter and before several state witnesses, he had "that he, Curry, would be damned careful as to what he testified to in the Baxter case if he were a witness against Arnold Baxter, as certain evidence if brought out would injure than likely incriminate and be used against the mother of a certain witness with the view of placing her on the grill with Baxter and might result in her conviction." He, Curry, also admitted that he had approached Sheriff Hand and Deputy Sheriff Smith and attempted to secure from them a list of the names of the jurors on a special venire of twenty persons ordered by the court to serve as jurors in the even dozen cases against Baxter, upon which venire Sheriff Hand had not at that time made his return to the court.

After relieving himself of the above admissions which were made in open court, he, Curry, was severely arraigned by Judge Perkins and censured for his activity in behalf of the defendant Baxter.

Because of the above unseemly sensational developments and alleged tampering with the witnesses and at least one juror in the Baxter case, the entire panel consisting of 26 jurors was quashed by order of the court and a special venire of 60 men was then ordered and made returnable to the court at 9 a. m. yesterday morning.

In the case of the State against Tom Franklin for the murder of Columbus Williams, both negroes of Geneva, Seminole county, on the 14th day of last May, the jury brought in a verdict this evening finding the defendant guilty of manslaughter. The defense established the fact that Williams was advancing upon Franklin with an open knife and Franklin killed him in self-defense. Judge Perkins deferred passing sentence for the time. Attorney Rigby for the defense gave notice that an appeal would be taken. There are two other murder trials booked for this week, besides a heavy criminal docket for lesser offenses, and several other unimportant cases of a civil nature.

The following cases have been disposed of since last Friday and up to the time of going to press with today's edition: J. C. Harris vs. A. M. Thrasher. Ma-litious prosecution. Case dismissed.

Upon petition of A. T. Rossetter et al, asking for a decree of dissolution to the Sanford & Everglades Railway Co.

Jerry Jones, complainant vs. Isaac Neal and C. M. Hand, Sheriff, bill for injunction—writ of temporary injunction granted.

State of Florida vs. Arnold Baxter—12 indictments brought in and case now before the court.

S. N. Myer vs. O. J. Miller, Assumpsit damage $350—damage sustained.

Armour Fertilizer Works vs. J. C. Lewis, assumpsit damage sustained.

State of Florida vs. Vivian Jackson, Assault with intent to rape. Found guilty.

State of Florida vs. Alice Battle, running a gambling room—found guilty.

In the case of George Benton and Henry Edwards for the killing of the negro Franklin about one year ago and which case created considerable excitement in Goldsboro the grand jury found no true bill against them and they were discharged.

A. C. L. Chemical Co. vs. G. R. Calhoun, assumpsit damage sustained.

State of Florida vs. J. V. Denton, transferred to Orange County Criminal Court.

Reception and Silver Tea

Mrs. T. A. Neal's beautiful home on Park avenue was the scene of a lovely reception and silver tea on Monday afternoon, given by the ladies of the Episcopal church. The Neal residence was beautifully decorated and in every detail displayed exquisite taste. In the reception room palms and ferns filled every available space. The parlors were lovely, with dainty decorations of pink and white roses and maiden hair fern. The roses were in large quantities and a delightful fragrance pervaded the air. The dining room was exceedingly attractive, a color motif in green and pink being used. The table was covered with an exquisite Cluney lace cover and centered with a basket filled with pink and white hibiscus and plumosa fern and the handle of the basket bore a large bow of pink satin ribbon. From the table was served the refreshments, sandwiches, cake, tea and coffee. Seated at the table and serving during the first of the afternoon were Mrs. C. J. Rumph and Mrs. G. Stringfellow, and later Mrs. R. A. Newman and Mrs. A. P. Connelly.

All during the receiving hours, from three to six a large number of ladies called and were delightfully entertained with a splendid musical program. The musical numbers were as follows: Piano solo, Mrs. Ed. Terwilliger, piano solo, Mrs. Cecil Butt; vocal, Miss Hortense Weidman; vocal, Miss Aspinwall; piano, Prof. Landrum; vocal, Miss Kinard; violin, Mrs. Powell, accompanied by Mrs. R. R. Dent; vocal, Mrs. Powell. Mrs. Neal was assisted in caring for her guests by Mrs. B. W. Herndon. The blinds were drawn and the lights bore pink shades that lent a pretty glow and made the scene a very attractive one.

Birthday Dinner

Yesterday being the 38th birthday of the editor of The Herald Dick Calhoun captured a turkey weighing 28 pounds, cooked it in true camper's style and served it up with all the various condiments that Dick knows so well how to prepare and a big dinner at the Holly home on Sanford Heights last night was the result. C. H. Scholey, editor of the (Hullford, Conn.) Times was also a guest of honor and enjoyed his first Florida wild turkey and sample of southern hospitality.

Among those who participated in the feast were Mr. and Mrs. Henry and children, Mrs. C. H. Dinger, G. R. Calhoun, C. H. Scholey, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Holly and children and Mrs. M. E. Holly.

Detroit, Mich., Jan. 19 Ty Cobb will not become a Federal Leagueer. This assurance came today from Royston, Ga. in a personal telegram from the champion batsman to the sporting editor of a local paper. "I will play in Detroit," the telegram reads. "Am satisfied, Navin and I agreed on terms last fall. Federal League suited me, terms but my Detroit contract suits me. I would gain nothing by change."

BETTER CLASS OF SETTLERS ARE COMING TO FLORIDA NOW

STATISTICS SHOW THAT THE STATE IS FILLING UP

PEOPLE WHO WILL WORK

ARE THE CLASS OF CITIZENS THAT FLORIDA HAS LONG NEEDED FOR VEGETABLE FARMS

Tallahassee, Jan. 19.—Measured by the percentage of increase Florida's population is growing twice as rapidly as that of the whole country, but measured by the character of its population it is increasing four or five times as rapidly as that of the country at large.

Florida is drawing to itself thousands of the better class of American citizens, men and women of education and character, who are seeking this state as a permanent home. Florida thus building up a citizenship made up to a large extent of the very cream of population from nearly all the states in the Union.

On the other hand, the enormous immigration into the United States is bringing at ever increasing number of the lower classes of foreigners, alien in every respect to our laws, customs and indeed to our civilization itself. In former days nearly all of the immigration to this country was from Great Britain or northern Europe; the Scandinavians and Germans forming the bulk of the movement of population in older times when the opening up of the west created such a rush of people from Europe to the great western plains. These northern European people are of kindred blood and kindred ideas in every respect with the Anglo Saxon element which has dominated the settlement of the United States.

Of late years, however, immigration from northern Europe, has almost ceased, and through the rush of foreigners to this country is on a scale never dreamed of in the past, it is made up of people from southern Europe—Sicilians, Poles, Hungarians, Slavs from Russia and others. These people are not farmers, nor can they, except to a very limited extent, be induced to engage in agricultural work. They are not house servants and, therefore, are of no value whatever in settling the much vexed question of servants, which is even worse in the north and west than in the south. They largely congregated in the cities in congested districts and become a serious menace to the welfare of the country. The problem of assimilating them into our civilization is an entirely new one. It is a new one of the last five or ten years, and its solution cannot be found in any respect in the assimilation of the people of northern Europe, who formed the bulk of our immigration prior to the turning of the tide from southern Europe to this country.

The total immigration into the United States this year will probably be at least 1,500,000. The number of foreigners arriving during the summer and fall months have been very much larger than ever before in the history of the country.

Fields Hackett

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fields have arrived in Sanford and will make their future home here. Mr. Fields made a march on his Sanford friends last week and hid away in Augusta where he married Miss Lillian Fuller Hackett, a charming Georgia girl. The Augusta Chronicle has the following account of the marriage:

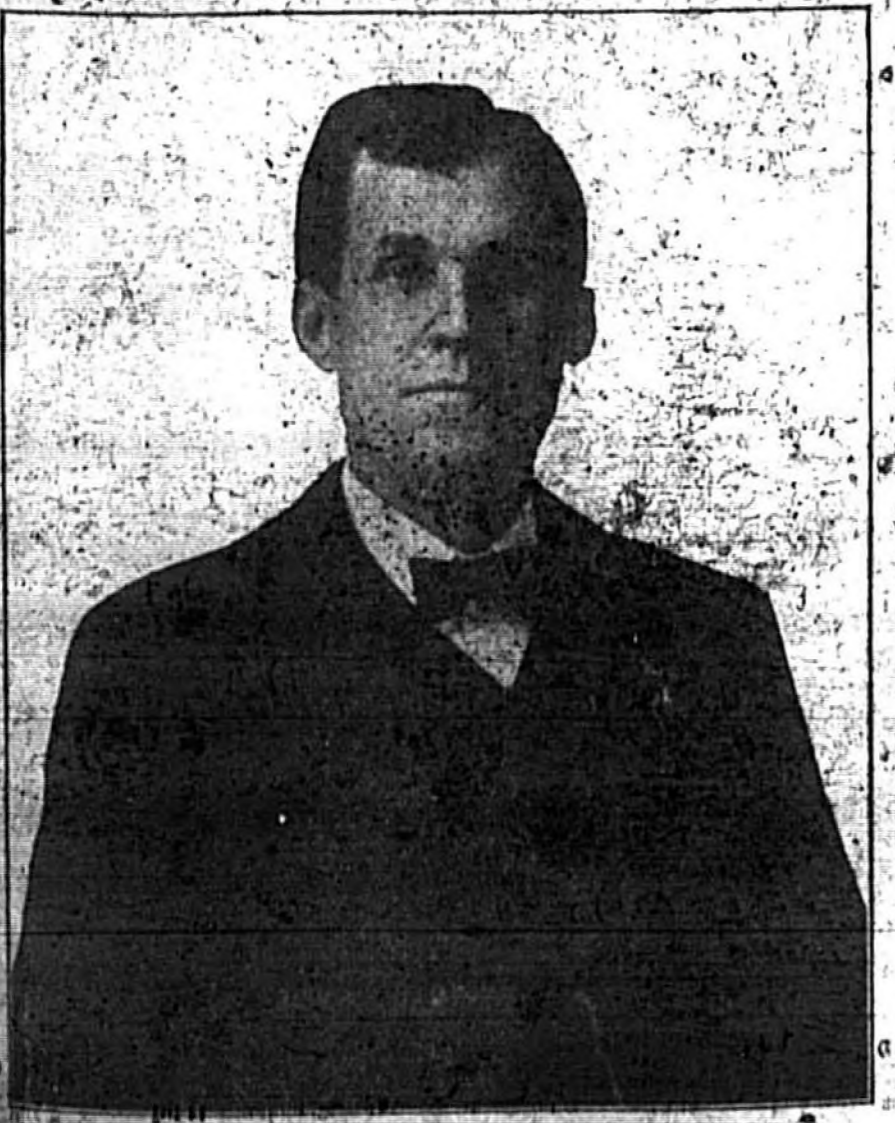

The marriage of Mr. Fred T. Field of Florida and Miss Lillian Fuller Hackett of this city was an event of wide spread interest yesterday. The wedding was a quiet home affair at the residence of the bride's brother, Mr. W. W. Hackett, on Monte Sano, at 2:30 o'clock. No cards were sent out and the ceremony was performed in the presence of the family only.

The Hacketts' home on Monte Sano is most attractive and the lower floor was thrown open and the rooms made fragrant and beautiful with quantities of cut flowers filling the vases everywhere. The bride looked very lovely in a traveling suit of blue cloth, with which was worn a blue chiffon blouse and velvet hat to correspond. The ceremony was impressively performed by the Rev. Ashby Jones of the First Baptist Church, and at the conclusion of the ceremony an informal buffet luncheon was served. The bride and groom left for Atlanta, from where they will take an extended trip.

Mrs. Field is the only daughter of Mrs. W. J. Hackett, and is a beautiful and talented belle being an extremely charming young woman, and one whose host of friends here regret greatly to give her up to Sanford.

Mr. Field is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Field, who formerly lived in Augusta, but are now located on their orange grove just a few miles outside of Sanford. Mr. Field is a prominent young business man of Sanford and has made a wide circle of friends there to whom he will introduce his charming bride who goes to her new home followed by countless good wishes.

Macon, Ga., Jan. 19.—The state is set for the bearing in the investigation of Federal Judge Francis Speer, which will begin here this afternoon. The five-man committee who will conduct the inquiry arrived here at 8:30 o'clock tonight. The hearings will be held in the federal court room and will be open to the public. The indications are tonight that Judge Speer will before the committee the first thing Monday morning and make a statement of his official conduct during his twenty-eight years of service on the federal bench in the Southern district of Georgia.

JUDGE JAMES PERKINS Presiding at the First Session of Circuit Court in Seminole County and Making a Record For His Fair and Impartial Decisions

HON. CARY LANDIS The Able States Attorney Who is Prosecuting for the State During the First Session of Court in Seminole County
