Some Homeowners Could Pay Lower Tax This Year

By MICK LOCHRIDGE
Herald Staff Writer

Many homeowners in Seminole County could expect a lower tax bill with the new millage rate.

... 35-40 per cent of the county's homeowners could expect a lower tax bill with the new millage.

— Assistant Property Appraiser Bill Suber

The commission will enter into Wednesday's work session with hopes of adopting a 1975-76 fiscal budget that holds the line on the certified millage rate.

Commission Chairman Sid Vihlen Jr., announced the board's intentions of working within the new millage rate, based on reappraised property values, and avoid the necessity of raising the millage for county taxpayers.

"The Board of County Commissioners is dedicating itself to initiating a strong commitment to holding the line on millage and make every effort to adopt a county budget that will be within the certified millage budget level," Vihlen said. He said he was "speaking for the full board" in the statement of commitment.

The new millage rate, certified by County Property Appraiser Terry Goebel, is 1.8 mills lower than last year's 7.15 millage rate.

The lower rate is caused by the $150 million in new construction in the county in 1974 which was entered on the tax rolls Jan. 1, 1975 for taxing beginning Nov. 1, 1975 and April 1976.

Also because of the new construction, Goebel said the County Commission will receive more than $1.1 million for its budget during this year — an 18 per cent tax increase from last year. But, county officials say the additional million dollars plus would mean little until the budget is finalized.

Assistant Property Appraiser Bill Suber said the 18 per cent tax levy increase would produce $7,377,302 in ad valorem taxes, up from last year's $6,249,436. The county has state authority to tax up to 10 mills. One mill at the certified rate amounts to $1,365,462 in revenue, he said.

Suber said 35 to 40 per cent of the county's homeowners could expect a lower tax bill with the new millage. He said, for the most part, homeowners, as far as the county tax bill is concerned could expect a lower bill.

On Wednesday, commissioners will meet with the Office of Management Analysis and Evaluation staff, which is preparing a summary of the individual department budget requests.

Management and Budget Analyst Eleanor Anderson said Friday the department requests will be ready for commissioners by Wednesday.

Commissioners were scheduled to begin budget work sessions last week, but were delayed by the Friday afternoon session of Sheriff John Polk's $2.6 million budget request.

Vihlen said Friday the lower certified millage could mean the commission "may cut out some projects" but would have to wait until the work sessions to make decisions.

Anderson said the $1.1 million "sounds like a lot, but until they (commissioners) look at the total budget as a whole, with revenues and requests, it is hard to say what the money will mean."

Commissioner Mike Hattaway said "past performances show the board is fiscally conservative and I have every belief we will work with the budget and bring the tax down to the certified millage."

Hattaway said there were some major projects which the commission would have to consider for the first time this year — the $500,000 purchase of a clay pit, and a solution to the lack of space in the courthouse.

"We will still provide as good a level of service as in the past," he said.

Resident Asks To Be Put On Council Agenda Group Seeks Reversal Of Approval For Oviedo Churches

By JANE CASSELLBERRY
Herald Staff Writer

WINTER SPRINGS—A Ranchlands resident has asked to be placed on the agenda at Monday's 7:30 p.m. City Council meeting as a spokesman for a group of residents opposing proposed construction of two churches on Hayes Road.

The request was made by Walter Parkhurst of 251 Tradewinds Road.

In a 3-2 vote at last week's session, the Council overrode a Planning and Zoning Board recommendation and protests by some residents to approve requests by Seminole Baptist Temple and Jehovah's Witnesses to build on the B-1AA (residential) zoned property in the Ranchlands section.

A member of the opposition group told the Herald it has been unsuccessful in getting any of the Councilmen voting for approval of the church sites to change their votes so that the action could be reversed.

Reportedly, the group, now consisting of seven families, is considering other avenues of action, including seeking an injunction to stay start of construction.

The group (opposing the construction) is considering other avenues of action, including seeking an injunction to stay start of construction.

Meanwhile, Rev. Robert Clark, pastor of the 86-member independent Baptist church, says he is already in the process of applying for a building permit. Closing for purchase of the property located at Hayes and Bahama Road is set for Monday at 2:30 p.m., he said.

Councilman Irwin Hunter, one of the council members who voted for granting the church requests, admitted he has received several phone calls from those upset by the Council action.

He said, "Anytime you have an emotional issue, people get upset and you receive those kind of phone calls."

Hunter added some of the callers used "abusive" language and he said he feels "people can disagree without making it a personal vendetta."

"I did a considerable amount of research prior to the meeting to find who lived close to the proposed sites and their relation to the church and their opinion on the issue. Deciding factors for me were the fact adjacent property owners did not object and the number of names on petitions supporting the church request," he said.

Opponents objected to the proposed locations on the grounds the churches would not be compatible with the country estate atmosphere in the area and would bring in too much traffic on the unpaved roads. They also felt it would set a dangerous precedent in land use at a time when the city has undertaken a comprehensive planning study.

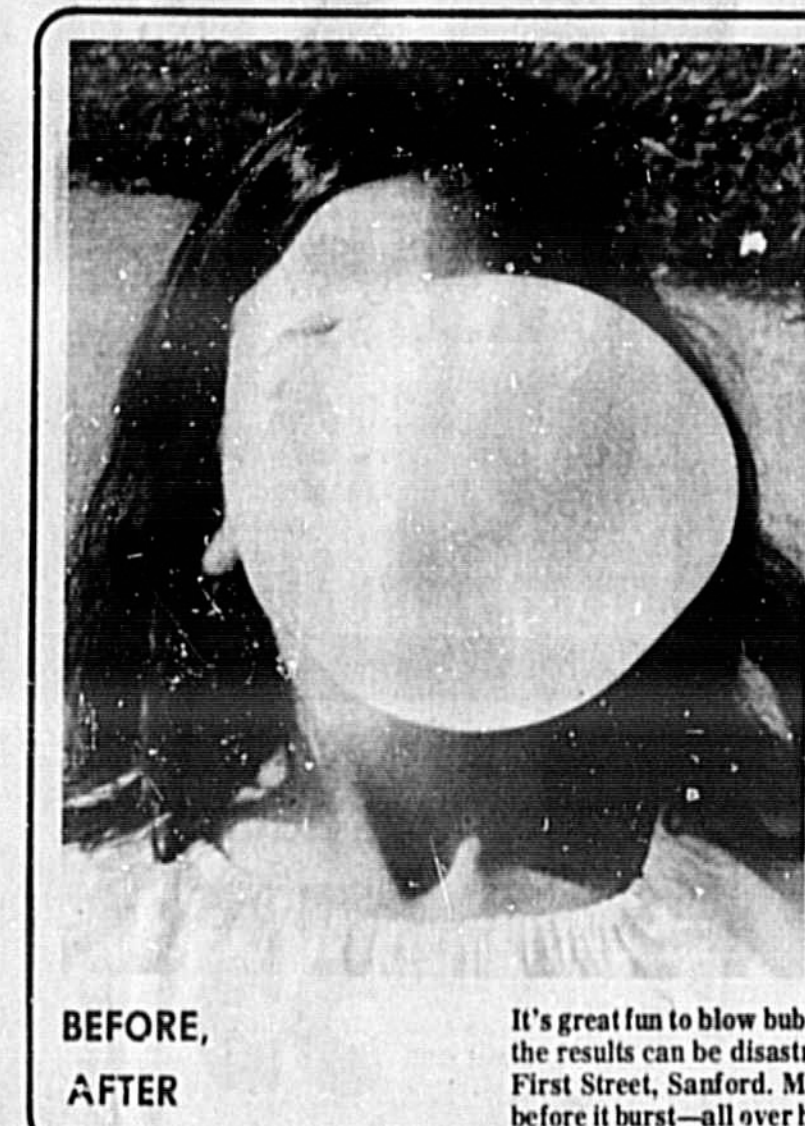

Shooting Probed By Detectives; Suspect Jailed

An Oviedo man was arrested Saturday morning after a shooting incident at his home, police said.

According to Oviedo Police Detective Rudy Kramer, James Wynn will be charged with aggravated assault and aggravated battery in the shooting of Larry Whipper, also of Oviedo.

Police reports state the incident occurred when Wynn's wife "opened the door and let him (Whipper) in" about 4:30 a.m., Saturday.

Whipper was shot once in the right leg with a bullet from a .32

Pastor Denied 'Life-Saving' Surgery By VA

LYNNWOOD, Wash. (AP) — The Rev. Darrell Morgan says he is ready to face death.

But his congregation isn't ready to accept his departure or a Veterans' Administration ruling denying their 36-year-old pastor an operation they believe could save his life.

The Rev. Mr. Morgan suffers from lymphoma, a cancer of the lymph gland that destroys bone marrow and the body's ability to fight infection. Without a bone marrow transplant, the doctor of the young minister says he will die within a month.

The operation costs between $10,000 and $25,000, and the VA, which has provided treatment for the Rev. Mr. Morgan since the cancer was discovered five years ago, has refused to pay for it.

Jerome R. Dolezal, director of the Seattle VA Hospital, says the operation is still considered experimental and is "not a bona fide, proven type of procedure."

Dr. Dean Buckner, associate professor of medicine at the University of Washington, has challenged the VA claim that marrow transplants are not an acceptable procedure in the medical profession.

Although still experimental, no objections nor fear of the operation has been voiced by his colleagues, according to Buckner, who works with the transplants at Seattle's Providence Hospital. He says about 60 bone marrow transplants were performed at Providence last year.

Don Huber, a friend of the Rev. Mr. Morgan's, says that during the past year the pastor's brother and sister have flown in from Cincinnati for tests to determine if their marrow could be used in the transplant. The tests were positive, Huber says.

"The real problem is that they led Pastor Morgan up to the very last minute on this transplant and then told him they weren't going to do it. There is time for the operation, but the VA has to approve it and after being convicted of possession of a narcotic drug in May 1972."

Skates Trial Tops Court Agenda

Twelve defendants are docketed for jury trials before Circuit Court Judge A.J. Hosemann Jr., this week.

By BOB LLOYD
Herald Staff Writer

A Lockhart man faces trial in circuit court here this week on charges of robbery, use of a firearm in the commission of a felony and aggravated assault.

David Fay Skates, 25, of 7300 Forest City Road, Lockhart, is among 12 defendants docketed for jury trials before Circuit Judge A.J. Hosemann Jr.

Allamonte Springs police arrested Skates at the Branley Square Shopping Center, SR-431 and SR-436, a week after his brother, Richard Lamar Skates, 23, who had been convicted by a jury of robbing a supermarket in the same shopping center, died in a fire at the Seminole County Jail.

David Skates is accused of robbing a clerk at Rose's Department Store of a 38-30 rifle and ammunition and then pointing the loaded weapon at another Rose's employee who followed him out of the store.

Formal charges weren't filed against Skates in connection with the alleged entering of a car occupied by a man and child in the shopping center parking lot. Officers said the driver refused to drive Skates from the scene and he later got out of the vehicle and was convicted by officer A.M. Ciplan that he should hand the gun over to police.

Assistant State Atty. Charles Gordon is prosecutor in the scheduled trial. Assistant Public Defender George Sprinkel will represent Skates.

Yates was arrested April 21 by Longwood police shortly after the Little Dixie Market, SR-427 and Church Ave. was robbed by a man armed with a pistol.

Yates was examined, under court order, July 1 by Winter Park psychiatrist Dr. E. Michael Gutman.

In other cases docketed for trial this week, Grady Costen Dean, 72, of Sanford Route Two, is accused of lewd assault upon an eight-year-old child.

Quilt's Points

DEAR POLLY - Beer left in a glass or can makes a great shampoo rinse. Beer will also kill snails if placed in a shallow pan around my plants, etc. and with no danger to pets. - NELL.

DEAR POLLY - When making rolls of dough that need to be cut into long strips, I use my pizza cutter. It works better and faster than a knife. - LIZ.

DEAR POLLY - It is not easy to remember the medical history of all family members, so record each family member's name, date and place of birth and each medical "event," with the name of the doctor and the hospital, on file cards. Encourage the older members of your family to make their own records, too. As the children grow up and leave home they have records to take along. - CARMEN.

(POLLY'S NOTE: How many times I have wished I had done just that! My children have often called to ask for information to pass on to a new doctor.)

BRUSH WITH WATER RUNNING IN THE SAME DIRECTION

DEAR POLLY - Vinyl left over after wallpapering the kitchen makes fine covers for appliances. Cut patterns from paper, trace on vinyl, cut out the pieces and stitch on the machine. - MRS. D.K.

RECORD IN FILE CARDS

DEAR POLLY - I use pipe cleaners or those wires that come around bread to string matching buttons on, then twist ends together. - BABE.

DEAR POLLY - I keep one address book just for business addresses, phone numbers, account numbers, insurance policy numbers, credit-card numbers, etc. in case of an emergency all such needed information is immediately available. I carry this address book in the car glove compartment when traveling. - MRS. R.P.C.

DEAR POLLY - The cost of polyester stuffing for pillows is expensive, so I began saving all my trimmings and tails of double knits left from sewing. I use this material to stuff pillows and, although it takes a little longer to fill a pillow, it is soft and washable. I also cut up old and worn out double knit garments into small pieces to use for stuffing. We homemakers need to remember the old saying, "Use up, wear out, make do or do without." - MRS. H.P.

THE ANSWER IS THAT AT ONE TIME SOME COINS WERE MADE WITH PRECIOUS METALS, SUCH AS SILVER AND GOLD. THE AMOUNT OF SILVER OR GOLD DETERMINED A COIN'S VALUE. THUS, A THIN DIME WAS MORE VALUABLE THAN A LARGER PENNY MADE FROM LESS-PRECIOUS COPPER. COINS ARE NO LONGER MADE FROM SILVER AND GOLD.
