A Beauty Contest, one of the first in the county in many years, will be a prime feature of the County's Semi-Centennial Celebration being planned for April 27.

The contest, which is open to all single girls between the ages of 17 and 21, bona fide residents of Seminole County, is being sponsored by the Civitan Club.

The rules state that each girl must be properly chaperoned at all times, and must furnish the written consent of her parents.

The young ladies will be judged on beauty, poise, figure, personality and talent, and must agree to prior elimination, (in case more than 20 applications are received) and to whatever tutoring is deemed necessary for the contest.

Each contestant must agree to be in the parade, in the bathing suit contest, the evening gown contest, the talent contest, and winners agree to attend the formal dance as honored hostesses, the night of April 27.

Applications can be obtained at the Chamber of Commerce, the Florida State Bank, Sanford Atlantic Bank, Sanford Herald, and sponsoring business establishments. Two full length photos must be submitted before March 15.

Information which is required on the application includes height, weight, bust, waist and hip measurement, color of hair and eyes, favorite type of music, description of ideal man, favorite foods, talents, education, hobbies, sports, career and other details.

Chairman of the contest for the Civitans is Joe Dennison, and all Civitans are assigned to the various committees of the contest.

"Knowing that I might be helping to heal someone's heart is one of the best feelings, I or anyone, else could have," said Donna Markos.

Each penny dropped in the jars of the girls at the Skating Rink, or placed in their accounts at the Florida State Bank will count as a vote in their favor, with the prize of admission to the skate show, and the proceeds of the special projects that they have undertaken, all counting toward the final tally.

No Clergy Allowed

No minister was allowed to see Richard Hudson when he lay dying at Seminole Memorial Hospital Monday night.

A Sanford minister, Rev. Robert Strickland told the Herald today: "They would not let me in the room." One nurse told me "your mission is highly ineffective."

Hudson's wife attempted to get an Oviedo minister into the room also and he also was refused. Hospital Administrator Bob Besserer told the Herald that the doctor had said "no visitors" and that on one occasion six ministers tried to get in.

Military graveside services for Richard L. Hudson, 41-year-old explosion victim, will be held at 11 a. m. Thursday at Chuluota Cemetery.

Mr. Hudson died Monday night at Seminole Memorial Hospital of burns and injuries suffered last Friday afternoon in a boiler explosion at the H.H. Products plant. He was employed as a boilerman at the plant.

A native of Great Falls, Mont., Mr. Hudson had made his home in Oviedo for the last nine years. He was a retired airplane machinist of the U. S. Air Force. A World War II veteran, he was the holder of six battle stars and the European Campaign Medal. He was a member of the Methodist Church.

Survivors are his wife, Mrs. Violet Hudson; five children, Sherry and Betty Ann, Tawus City, Mich., and Richard L. Jr., Roland and Denise Mildred, at home; a sister, Mrs. Esther Trainor, of Kansas City, Mo., and two brothers, Herbert, of Cutbank, Mont., and Lendel Hudson, of Blanca, Colo.

United Road Front Program 'Emphasized'

Need for a united county front in support of a much-needed road improvement program will be stressed when the long range planning committee on roads of the Chamber of Commerce meets at 7:30 p. m. Thursday at the courthouse.

Chairman Douglas Stenstrom said today the committee will come up with recommendations for road improvements to study by the County Commission.

The Commission late Tuesday approved in substance the recommendations of County Engineer William Bush as published in Monday's Herald.

Stenstrom pointed out the Chamber committee last year spearheaded the move which brought out a delegation of some 50 persons who accompanied the Commission to its briefing session with the State Road Department.

This also will be sought. Stenstrom said, when the Commission meets with SRD officials March 7 at DeLand with this year's request for State-accomplished improvements with county-allocated funds held by the State for primary and secondary road projects.

Bush said today he is preparing the Commission-approved list of primary and secondary road projects for Thursday's Chamber committee meeting.

The engine was traveling about 45 miles per hour when it hit a switch in suburban Miami Shores which had been jammed partially open with a 14-inch long piece of railroad rail.

The weight of the engine forced the switch closed and knocked the piece of rail into the street where investigators recovered it.

The strikebound FEC has been operating one freight train daily each way between Jacksonville and Miami since Feb. 3 with supervisory personnel.

The railroad was struck Jan. 23 when non-operating union employees walked out in a wage dispute.

Vernon Dunn had charged the School Board with a "lack of co-operation." Avery also claimed the School Board built new schools "in the boonlocks" and followed through by requesting the Commission to build roads to the new facilities.

"I have no quarrel whatsoever," Milwee said in reply this morning, "with the Board of County Commissioners. The members have been most interested in school affairs and in ways of assisting the School Board in providing roads, furnishing us clay, and permitting the use of county equipment in improving school sites. They have even volunteered their assistance and made recommendations about things to be done

Reds Show Gain -- Nikita

MOSCOW (UPI) — Premier Nikita Khrushchev boasted today that Soviet economy has been growing faster than that of the United States in the past 10 years.

In a political speech before 6,000 persons in the Kremlin Palace of Congresses, Khrushchev added that the country's industrial growth is moving along to the point where "we are treading on the heels of the United States."

Western observers believed before he started speaking that his address would range over the whole spectrum of East-West issues, and cover everything from domestic to key foreign items.

Khrushchev said that in the past 10 years, the Soviet national income has been growing at a rate of 9.2 per cent a year on average, whereas the average in the United States has been only 2.7 per cent.

The real income per worker in the Soviet Union, he said, has increased 18 per cent in the past four years.

The per capita increase in industrial production in the Soviet Union, he said, has totaled 48 per cent in the past five years. He said this compared with only 8 per cent in the United States in a similar period.

He added that Soviet industrial production is now about 63 per cent of that of the United States, as against 47 per cent in 1957.

Gas, Cigaret Boost Proposed

TAMPA (UPI) — The Florida Association of County Commissioners will recommend an increased tax on cigarettes and gasoline during the coming session of the State Legislature.

The association endorsed a proposal Tuesday for a three cent per pack increase on cigarettes and one cent per gallon on gasoline.

The association also endorsed several other recommendations for legislation concerning money matters.

These included allocation of the unpledged portion of the auto tag sales to acquisition of rights of way for primary roads, a more realistic valuation of real and personal property for tax purposes, enactment of the Judicial Council legislation limiting county salaries, and a general revision of the occupational licenses tax schedule turning all proceeds back to the counties.

Sub-freezing weather dominated southern Virginia, North and South Carolina, Georgia, Tennessee and Alabama. Cold waves and hazardous driving warnings were posted throughout the area.

Southern Virginia was covered with 7 inches of fresh snow while parts of North and South Carolina had up to four inches.

Living Costs On Increase WASHINGTON (UPI) — A 1.2 per cent increase in food prices boosted the cost of living by two-tenths of 1 per cent during January, the Labor Department reported today.

The department said the index rose to 106 per cent of the 1957-59 average, and 1.4 per cent increase over a year ago.

particular area of the county. ## Board Pays Homage To Hutchison

One of Seminole County's much-traveled highways now is "General J. C. Hutchison Parkway."

The name-change was voted in a resolution approved Tuesday afternoon by County Commissioners James P. Avery Jr., John Fitzpatrick, Lee Gary and John Alexander to honor their chairman, Gen. J. C. Hutchison.

The roadway is what was named "Pennsylvania Parkway" but more commonly referred to as "Big Tree Road," on which Big Tree Park is located.

The resolution reads: "In appreciation for devotion and service which Gen. J. C. Hutchison has given to Seminole County, be it resolved that Pennsylvania Parkway or Big Tree Road be renamed General J. C. Hutchison Parkway."

General Hutchison expressed "appreciation for the honor you have paid me" and later said "when they spring such a surprise on you, you are more or less tongue-tied and can't think of much to say."

County Attorney Harold Johnson said the name change will become official after some legal technicalities, including a public hearing, are concluded.

Youths Get Stern Lecture

Four teen-age boys who spent three days in the county jail earlier this month when arrested by city police for petty larceny, were given gentle but impressive lectures on future behavior by Juvenile Judge Vernon Mize and placed on probation Tuesday afternoon.

The boys—two 13 years old, one 14 and one 15—had confessed earlier that they had stolen pastry and fruit in front of groceries while working their newspaper routes. They told the court they had been discharged from their paper routes.

Judge Mize had each boy, with his parents, appear separately in his chambers. Visitors at the hearing included police officers, two ministers, two news reporters and others.

The first two boys brought comments from Judge Mize that investigation brought good behavior reports from their school. The first and fourth boys, the court said, had more than average IQ's. The second and third boys were reported having troubles with their school work while the third youth admitted having been paddled for infractions of school rules.

It was the first offense for the first three boys and Judge Mize gave them the same probationary sentences: Placed in custody of their parents and abide by their rules; attend school regularly and abide by school rules; not associate with boys or girls of bad reputations; report to the juvenile counselor of request, and not change residence or school without notifying the court.

The fourth youth, on probation for a similar offense at the time of his arrest earlier this month, was reported having no particular school problems and is well liked by his teachers and other pupils. "I am justified," Judge Mize told the boy, "in committing you to the reform school at this time but I am going to give you a second chance. Any further law violations by you and you will be committed to the Florida School for Boys without question."

The court gave him the same probationary rules plus that he must be in his home by 7 p.m. nightly, report twice each month to the juvenile counselor, write an essay on the subject, "Respect of Property Rights of Others," and co-operate with Attorney Mack Cleveland Jr., who was appointed a special probation officer of the court to work with the boy in rehabilitating himself.

The probationary sentences are for indefinite periods, the court explaining to the parents "it is up to the boys, themselves, when these sentences will be terminated."

After the hearings, Judge Mize explained to the visitors that the boys were held in jail over the weekend of their arrest because police were investigating the petty larcenies "and a good part of the thefts haven't been cleared up yet."

Police Chief Roy G. Williams informed the court that it was necessary to "stake out" police officers (in their off-duty hours in the groceries) to apprehend these four boys. He added the petty grocery thefts have fallen on to a negligible amount since these boys' arrest.

Judge Mize also explained Florida law does not permit bail for juveniles although adults may post bonds for their freedom pending disposition of their cases.

The court also informed the visitors that 24 Seminole County juveniles, boys and girls, were committed to industrial schools during 1962 and 16 were held for various periods of time in the county jail during last month.

Judge Mize has been spearheading a movement to provide a juvenile detention home in Seminole County and he informed the visitors Tuesday that the Florida Juvenile Judges Association is pushing legislation to provide a parole system for juveniles released from reform schools, much the same as the parole system now provided for adults released from prisons.

This particular case brought widespread publicity when the father of one boy wrote a lengthy letter to the editor of The Herald complaining of his son's three-day imprisonment.

However, the mother of the youth who drew the strictest probationary sentence informed the court that "the three days he spent in jail did him a world of good; home looks mighty good to him now, I don't have to tell him to come home after school. In fact, I don't even have to tell him to take out the garbage."

Driving Rodeo Set Saturday

Application blanks for the Teenage Driving Rodeo to be held Saturday at 9 a. m. at the city parking lot on the lakefront (Seminole Blvd.) are available at the Jaycee Information building on French Ave., chairman Bob Ray said today.

All participants must be between 16 and 19 years old, single and judges will be members of the Sanford Police Department, Seminole County Sheriff's office and the Florida Highway Patrol. Automobiles to be driven in the rodeo will be furnished by local auto dealers, Ray said and winners will be entered in state competition.

'THIS IS AN OLD-FASHIONED? Well, maybe not, but it will "pretend-like" it is in the Heart Fund Show at the Melodee Skating Rink Sunday night. Bank tellers, Mrs. Barbara Harvey, Mrs. Carolyn Lane and Miss Judy Bentley who will help count the money to determine the winner of the Queen of Hearts perch on the bank's loan department advertising prop. ## Melodee Heart Show Set Nostalgia is the basic ingredient of the big skating show planned for the benefit of the Heart Fund Drive, 8 p. m. Sunday at Melodee Skating Rink.

Taking their cues from the popular songs, "Dearie, Do You Remember When?", the very first number of the show will be performed by four young misses and their "Dear Old Dad" . . . Jeri Fikes with Dad Bill Fikes; Cathy Decker with Dad Leroy Decker; Jackie Ivey and Dad Ron Ivey and Sheila Best with Dad Shealy Best.

Other old-time favorite tunes which will form the theme for skate dances and skits include "While strolling in the Park One Day"; "In My Merry Oldsmobile"; "Down

By The Old Millstream"; "Bicycle Built For Two"; "By The Sea" and "Jalousie." For the number, "In My Merry Oldsmobile," the unique little auto, used by Florida State Bank Loan Department will cruise around the rink as part of the show.

There are 49 young skaters taking part in the show, which is presented each year for the benefit of the Heart Fund.

Director is Miss Sheila Best, a former Queen of Hearts, and a three-time candidate.

The U. S. Public Health Service (PHS) said the danger of Asian flu is expected to wane by the middle of next month but many areas in the eastern half of the nation reported rising sickness rates.

The Communicable Disease Center at Atlanta said Asian flu has been positively identified in 16 states. Other forms of influenza and kindred ailments felled residents of 13 other states.

Nearly 4,000 new cases of flu were reported in nine Alabama counties Tuesday, putting the state total well over 10,000. Health authorities said the outbreak shows no sign of reaching a peak. The current cold wave is expected to push Alabama's flu total still higher.

Schools in three Kentucky counties remained closed today. State health officials Tuesday reported a 20th death attributed to the flu and said previously unaffected areas are now reporting outbreaks, indicating the peak may not have been reached.

The Tennessee Health Department reported nearly 8,000 new flu cases for the week ending Feb. 23, a jump of nearly 400 per cent over the previous week. More than Flower decorations for the show will be created by Mona's Flower Shop.

19,200 persons have been stricken with influenza in Tennessee this year. Most of the new cases were in the western part of the state.

A leading medical spokesman said Tuesday the Los Angeles area may escape the flu outbreak because a 1960 epidemic may have immunized enough persons to prevent another siege. But Dr. Clayton G. Loosli, dean of the University of Southern California School of Medicine and a member of the National Commission on Influenza, said Los Angeles is not yet out of danger.

The PHS said that states reporting Asian flu included North Carolina, Maryland, Delaware, Kansas, Illinois, Georgia, South Carolina, New York, Massachusetts, Ohio, Minnesota, Michigan, New Jersey, Connecticut and Iowa.

Other states reporting "flu-like" virus outbreaks were Vermont, Maine, Kentucky, West Virginia, Indiana, Tennessee, Oklahoma, Arkansas, Missouri, Alabama, Pennsylvania, Texas and Mississippi.

First public school kindergarten in the United States was started for the St. Louis public school system by Susan Blow. Blow School, whose cornerstones was laid in 1866, was named for her father, Henry T. Blow.

GEORGE TOUHY
Bankers' Importance Stressed

Rotarians at their meeting Monday noon at the Civic Center joined in congratulating the commercial banks in the centennial celebration of their industry. They were told that they might use this important segment of the business world to compare their own vocational and community service with the Rotary Code of Ethics and their own standards of business relationships. The speaker was past president George Touhy. The assembled business men were told that the enviable reputation of commercial banking was achieved by men and women of high moral integrity whose efforts have been and are now directed to helping their respective communities. Citing the standards of Rotary conduct for vocational service as set down in the Code of Ethics, Touhy said that each Rotarian undoubtedly is trying to render the type of service to his home town that upholds his reputation for integrity and breeds confidence.

Since the city in which he lives gives him so much in the way of personal pleasures and business opportunities that he wants, in gratitude he will work to do all he can to retain these assets for others as well as for his family. It will be his honest effort to see that he leaves it as a better place in which those who follow him will live. His personal integrity reflected in his business, the high standards of his vocation in giving service, and the community service he renders in making his home town a better place in which to live all will make him more conscious of something that is dear to his heart, Rotary, Touhy concluded.

Bosox Feel Success In Store For Slugger

By United Press International
The hope that springs eternal in the spring leads the Boston Red Sox to believe that in Dick Stuart they've acquired their most powerful right-handed hitter since the days of Rudy York and Vern Stephens.

Top Bracket Hounds To Run

Twenty-four top bracket greyhounds go to the post in three Grade A contests in the medweek program at the Sanford-Orlando Kennel Club tonight.

The first half of the daily double is rated Grade A, also the eighth and ninth events, while the tenth race is rated Grade B and sends a splendid field of seasoned distance stars over the long 3/8-mile distance.
In the featured ninth race the track's most sensational juvenile, J. M. Edward's King's Eye, will make his third attempt to rack up his seventh win after taking six straight and romping from Grade M to feature competition.

Thirty-Two More Added To AFL Draft

DALLAS (UPI) — Thirty-two more players were added to the American Football League draft list this week in the loop's third annual "red-shirt draft," the league office announced today.
The draft is limited to fifth-year collegiate players who still have a year of eligibility left and who were drafted as futures by clubs of the rival National Football League.

The San Francisco Giants landed one of their key players Tuesday with 24-game winner Jack Sanford's agreement to a contract for an estimated $37,000. Sanford's signing for about a $13,000 raise left Orlando Cepeda, Juan Marichal and Matty Alou unsatisfied.
Former New York Yankee ace Bob Turley turned in a strong performance in the Los Angeles Angels' intra squad game, causing Manager Bill Rigney to exclaim, "He looked fine to me... A few more starts and he'll have full confidence in the health of his arm. Then he'll really let loose."
At Apache Junction, Ariz., Manager Harry Craft of the Houston Colts said the young arm "in this spring camp are the best I have ever had the pleasure of managing... Many of these fellows may be a year away but most are sure to be standout hurlers in the not-too-distant future."

SHAD FISHING in local St. Johns River waters will receive nationwide publicity at the beginning of the next season. Duncan Barnes (right), writer-reporter for Sports Illustrated Magazine, telephoned Tallahassee from New York City and requested the name of the best shad authority in Florida. He was referred to Seminole County's Jim Crowe (left). Barnes will cover shad fishing from the St. Johns to Canada. He is being interviewed here by Bill Vincent Jr., The Herald sport columnist. (Herald Photo)

By Bill Vincent Jr.
Well, it seems shad cannot climb a fish ladder... and that magazine reporter quoted here last week was all wet (like the fish).
"Knee Deep" quoted Reporter Delman, of Sports Afield, about a fish ladder for shad and the editor added in a note that Jim Crowe previously had said shad cannot climb a ladder.
Now comes Jim and quotes Paul Nichols, chief of shad and striped bass studies, U. S. Biological Laboratory, Beaufort, N. C., who was here for three days last week and

Heavy Card At Raceway

Tonight the Seminole Park quarter horse fans will get a break. The nine race card will have six quarter horse romps and three harness goes. The eighth race will be the featured quarter horse run of the evening. The field of eight starters will be going over a 350 yard distance.
Lica, the favorite, will be going after his third straight victory. Jockey Spud Williamson will again be up on the seven year old gelding.
Donald Doolin and Ill P. Dial, consistent money winners will also go to the post in this one.
Sally Aircraft and Miss Becky Pick, both strong favorites with the Seminole fans, will square off in the co-featured harness trot.
This race will also see Spirits Lady going from the number three post position.
The seven year old mare driven by her owner Ed Lewter has finished second in her last three starts. She is well capable of taking the win tonight.

NYU Moves Up In Cage Poll

NEW YORK (UPI) — NCAA tournament bound New York University, a semi-finalist in the post-season carnival three years ago, moved into the United Press International major college basketball ratings top 10 for the first time this season today while Cincinnati retained the No. 1 spot for the 13th straight week.
NYU, which lost four of its first five players at the start of the season because of scholastic difficulties, gained the No. 10 spot this week with only two weeks left before the crowning of the national champion.

Title Fight Postponed?

MIAMI BEACH (UPI) — Sonny Liston, a ring giant bobbed by a few swings with a golf club, plans to try his sore knee today and Wednesday to determine whether he must pull off his world championship rematch with Floyd Patterson.
"If the knee feels good Tuesday or Wednesday, then they probably won't ask for a postponement. If the knee doesn't improve and Sonny can't go back to work training, they may ask," said Al Bolan, general manager of Championship Sports Inc., promoters of the bout.

Stars Lose

GOTEBORG, Sweden (UPI) — The touring United States amateur hockey team was swamped by Sweden 12-4 at the Ullevi outdoor rink Tuesday.
He said Haxley, who is Florida's leading scorer with a 16.2 average, will remain on scholarship and will play for the Gators next year.

Star Dropped From Squad

GAINESVILLE (UPI) — Record-breaking sophomore guard Tom Haxley has been dropped from the University of Florida basketball team for the squad's final game with Georgia in Athens this weekend.
Coach Norman Sloan emphasized that the move was not disciplinary but was "for personal reasons."
He said Haxley, who is Florida's leading scorer with a 16.2 average, will remain on scholarship and will play for the Gators next year.

Thanks To Buzzie Zimmer Home

VERO BEACH, Fla. (UPI) — Spunky little Don Zimmer finally has "come home" again—undoubtedly to stay this time.
Home, as far as the 32-year old peppercorn is concerned, has been, in and always will be with the Dodgers.
This is Zim's 10th year in the majors. Six of his past nine years have been spent with the Dodgers, two with the Cubs and last year was divided between the Mets and Reds.
It was Buzzie Haysal, a Zimmer admirer from way back, who was instrumental in getting him back. And there is every indication Don will wind up with a job in the Dodgers' organization when he's finished playing.
The Cocky, little infielder has always been known for speaking his mind.
"Nine years ago, still wet behind the ears, it was Zimmer who marched straight up to Ravasi and snapped: 'Either play me or get me the hell outta here!'"
"I was a young kid when I said that," Zimmer recalled, a bit sheepishly.
"I still love to play," he continued, "but I have to be practical. As things stand right today I know they're not thinking of me as a regular. But you never know."
"What was the idea of getting me back?" I asked Buzzie. He said, "I want you to be one of our 25 men. All I know is that I'm not looking forward to going to any other club after this one."
Zim glanced down at this 1959 World Series ring, presented to him as a member of that world champion Dodgers club. He also owns a similar 1956 ring. "My heart has always been with this ball club," he said softly.

Cinci Cage Talents Falling Off Now

By United Press International
Too bad Cincinnati can't play all its NCAA games on its home court.
It's also too bad, strictly from the Bearcats' point of view, that they're not playing as well as they did earlier in the season.
Cincinnati won again Tuesday night, overcoming a mediocre Xavier team, 72-61, to register its 88th consecutive home court victory extending over six seasons. But winning isn't solace enough for the Bearcats as they attempt to master their forces for an unprecedented third straight NCAA basketball championship next month.
It's true that top-ranked Cincinnati already has clinched the Missouri Valley Conference title and is getting nothing more than exercise in the final games of the regular season. However, a letdown now may prove costly since every team in the NCAA will be gunning for bear.
For the second game in a row, the Bearcats had to overcome a shaky start before claiming victory, their 22nd of the campaign against a single loss. Crosstown rival Xavier, now 10-15, enjoyed a 10-point lead in the first half before Cincinnati could rally for a 37-28 advantage at intermission.
LaSalle, which accepted a bid to New York's National Invitation Tournament Tuesday afternoon, had a tougher fight than expected but finally withstood Georgetown, 75-72, Tuesday night.
In the most exciting game, NIT-bound Wichita edged NCAA-bound Texas Western, 69-58, on a go-ahead charge in the final two seconds of play.
In other games, involving tournament teams, Providence defeated St. Joseph's, 83-64; Pittsburgh topped Carnegie Tech, 68-60; Memphis State beat Centenary, 90-79, and Texas swamped Rice, 77-50.
Tom Thacker led the Cincinnati attack with 21 points and Ron Bonham added 19. However, game honors went to Xavier's sophomore guard Steve Thomas, who hit for 29 points.

UPW Committee Holds Meeting In Lake Mary

By Frances Wester
The World Service Committee of the UPW of the Community Presbyterian Church of Lake Mary met at the home of Mrs. Harry Sandusky, the World Service Chairman for the Association, to plan the work of the organization for the year.
A representative from each circle, Mrs. Mabel Brown, World Service Chairman of Circle One and Mrs. Joe Smathers, World Service Chairman of Circle Two; Mrs. James M. Thompson, past president, and Mrs. Ruth Golbe, the newly elected president, compose the committee and all were present.
Plans were made that include a clothing drive now for the community, an assignment to be completed for Sunset Gap, Tenn. Later in the summer the group will roll bandages for the various hospitals.
Complete outfits are needed including clothes, shoes and any usable articles, especially for children. These will be used for the needy in the community first, and also for the Presbyterian Service Station Center located in Windsor, Md.
Donations may be given to any UPW member, left in the Educational Bldg. at the church, or phone one of the above for pick-up.

TV Time Previews

7:30-8 p.m. CBS. Self Portrait. Presidential Press Secretary Pierre Salinger. Informal interviews are becoming a boom to television documentaries. So much so, CBS tonight inaugurates a series dedicated to that format. As an opener, Harry Reasoner takes us to the Falls Church, Va., home of Mr. Salinger, who discusses his past and present life, business and personal, with candor, and an odd charm one usually associates with cigar chomping show people. Unfortunately, the program was taped before the 50-mile hike episode.

7:30-9 p.m. CBS. The Virginian. "Vengeance Is the Spur." (Color) Nina Foch and Michael Rennie star in roles that are and are not well suited to them. Miss Foch is perfect as a woman searching for her husband, his great talent, is somewhat lacking as a western outlaw leader who wants to go straight. Lee Cobb as Judge Garth is the catalyst of the story, taking the determined wife to the outlaw hideout in the belief that her husband is there. Regulars include James Drury, Gary Clarke, Doug McClure and Betsy, Roberts Shore.

8:30-9 p.m. CBS. Doble Gillis. "Thanks for the Memory." Quite amusing and sometimes you'll laugh out loud. Doble (Dwayne Hickman) again is in the middle of a female tug-of-war. This time, his ever-loving Zeldia (Sheila James) just about decides to quit her romance with Doble till a scrumptious blonde with the improbable name of Claypool (Ava Maynor) sets her sights on Doble. She is partial to boys "with no brains." Who wins? Well, you'll be seeing Zeldia again but not the beautiful blonde.

9:30 p.m. CBS. The Beverly Hillbillies. Never before have the Clampetts been so glibble. A fast-talking con man (Jessie White) tries to sell our rich hillbillies the Hollywood Bowl (for Pearl's yodeling) and, among other things, the Griffith Park Zoo (for Elly May's growing menagerie). The Clampetts are agreeable till Granny unwittingly saves the day when the glib slicker loses his shrewdness after sampling her home brew. Starring as the Clampetts are Buddy Ebsen, Irene Ryan, Donna Douglas and Max Baer, with Bea Benaderet as Cousin Pearl.

9-10 p.m. NBC. The Perry Como Show. (Color) Tonight as something special since Perry is featuring some of the most talented performers on TV, the puppets of Hill and Cora Baird. The remarkable group put their remarkable marionettes through song-and-dance routines and a bit of comedy. Also on hand are Patrice Munsel and talented actor-comedian-imitator Frank Gorshin, who possibly has no equal in his profession today. Perry gives Peter Gennaro a chance to strut his stuff in a dance version of "In A Little Spanish Town." Florida is saluted.

10-11 p.m. CBS. Armstrong Circle Theatre. "Project: Pied Piper." There is far more story than acting or production to this dramatization. The tale is touching and true, involving thousands of Europe's orphaned children. Its hero is an Austrian soldier, Hermann Gmeiner, who was appalled at the plight of starving, homeless and hopeless youngsters during the war. On his initiative he developed a plan for cottage communities to house the waifs and with $40 instituted what today is a multi-million dollar International Institution. Philip Abbott stars.

Sanford City Directory Off The Presses

If you didn't make the current social register, or "blue-book," let it disturb you no longer. The Sanford City Directory, published by R. L. Polk & Company of Richmond, Virginia, is out this week, and you've probably made that—if you live or work in Sanford or vicinity and are at least 18, that is.

The City Directory is a peculiar book, alone in its field, and with a style all its own. Like the dictionary, it says much in a few words, many of them abbreviated to a "skeleton." While it does not attempt to rate credit, it does furnish clues in this direction; it distinguishes between corporations and copartnerships, bachelors and benefactors, misses and matrons, employers and employees, executives and janitors. It is democratic in that alphabetical sequence is the ironclad rule of priority in the listings. Thus one may note that here for once pauper and millionaire, ragamuffin and Beau Brummel, workman and "big wheel," hod carrier and captain of industry, scrubwoman and social dowager, "Judy O'Grady" rich man, poor man, beggar man and thief, rub elbows.

The new edition is a substantial handy volume, listing 15,135 names in Sanford and vicinity. The combined names of man and wife are considered as only one name, the Publishers pointed out. Special features of the Directory include the designations of tenant-owned and rented homes, heads of households, marital status, wives' names, and homes and places of business having telephones, a numerical telephone directory, and an illustrated story of the city by the Chamber of Commerce.

Auxiliary Officer Set For Visit

Mrs. Marjorie Williams, Sixth District President of the American Legion Auxiliary will make her official visit to the Post 53 Auxiliary, Friday at 7:30 p. m.

Initiation of new members will be held at this time in the Legion Home on Hwy. 17-92. Mrs. C. E. Hunter, chairman of the Food Kitchen which the Auxiliary operated during the Legion Fair will make her report.

Men's Club Plans Supper

By Jane Casselberry The Men's Club of the Casselberry Community Methodist Church will hold a covered dish supper and meeting at 6:30 p.m. Thursday at the church.

Those attending are asked to bring a covered dish and their own table service.

Revealing Hidden

There are perhaps 40 million Americans today who are seriously disadvantaged — poverty - stricken, handicapped, ill, forgotten.

Thanks to efforts like Michael Harrington's excellent "The Other America," some of us in this country are perhaps a little more aware now of those unfortunate millions.

They include, of course, migratory workers, the out-of-work in abandoned Appalachian coal fields, aged folk cast aside, the young but unskilled who can't find jobs, and many more.

Certainly our society can never be accounted a success until we find a way to lift such millions out of their half-world of despair and disillusion. The commentator who called at-ention to their plight performed a useful service — which ought to be repeated by one or another constantly.

But he was unrealistic in suggesting that strong words from the president can magically start these people on the road up.

The burden of Harrington's book is that the "other America" is largely hidden in a nation essentially prosperous. And, no matter how loud the president's voice, Congress is not in the habit of legislating about hidden problems.

It acts when they are out in the open, feeding a fire that every lawmaker can feel. On the problem in question, admittedly a grave one, we have hardly begun to gather the kind-

Fateful Year

Nineteen-sixty-three began on a pessimistic note, with heliograph newspaper shutdowns in Cleveland and New York and a longshoremen's strike along the East Coast. Only the latter has been settled.

If the year continues the way it began, it may go down as one of the most strife-filled years in U. S. labor history. Even if there are no more major strikes, it still will be a notable — and perhaps fateful — year.

No less than 91 major wage contracts expire this year, mostly in May and June, reports the National Industrial Conference Board. Nearly a quarter of a million American union workers will be affected.

Largest groups involved are in communications (347,000 workers), electrical machinery (182,000) and apparel (173,000). Another 3.7 million workers are involved in another 192 major contracts that provide for reopenings on wages and other issues.

There have been a number of recent warnings that the nation was becoming disturbed about strikes. Congress rumbled ominously during the maritime strike and there were hints about passing restrictive laws.

Unless there is a wave of strikes of serious proportions, however, there will be no such legislation this year. But 1963 may well set patterns that will determine the course of labor-management relations for the rest of the decade.

It remains to be seen whether it will be a spectacle of power bloc against power bloc or whether responsible bargainers will attempt to strike a balance between the interests of individual workers and industries as a whole caught up in a changing technology.

Korean-Jap Hate Lessens

UPI Foreign News Analyst Former President Syngman Rhee of the Republic of Korea used to blow his fireworks in subconscious memory of Japanese torture during his days as a Korean revolutionary under Japanese occupation.

Chief holdout was Korea. Yet establishment of at least a sort of normalcy between the two was important.

Korea represented the last important free world foothold in that portion of Asia and was a natural strategic stepping stone to Japan.

Japan was a northern anchor of an anti-Communist line extending around the Asian perimeter to Pakistan.

In late 1962 it appeared that progress was being made, and vessels of Japanese crews and crews of Japanese fishermen who violated it. After three fell, both the civilian and military regimes which followed continued the policy.

A reluctant Japan, on the other hand, with the vigorous support of the United States, was setting about to patch up war wounds, following a policy of conciliation and friendship with the Nationalist Chinese on Formosa, the Philippines, India and former victims in between.

When he survived there was a long, if silent, sigh of relief in Japan.

For Kim had been Korea's chief negotiator with Japan and the Japanese source of hope that reconciliation at last could be achieved.

Key to the settlement was conditional approval of a $500 million settlement reportedly worked out by Kim and Japanese Foreign Minister Masuyoshi Ohira.

According to the terms, in return for the 35 years of harsh Japanese rule, Japan would extend to Korea $200 million in grants and $200 million in long-term loans.

It was feared that if Kim were to fall, the agreement he had negotiated would fall with him.

Final terms still will lead to many a heated wrangle both in Japan and Korea, but as of today there is hope that another of the problems left over from World War II may be settled in the near future.

Are You Concentrating?

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A season or two ago, Sen. Harrison Williams was instrumental in promoting a project to beautify the courtyard of the old Senate Office building.

As a redeveloped area, the courtyard made such an attractive greenward that nature-lovers around the Capitol wanted to call it a park and name it in the senator's honor.

When Williams, a New Jersey Democrat, got wind of this, he modestly protested that he was not entitled to all of the credit, and suggested that he share the honor with a clerk of the Senate Rules Committee.

The clerk's name being Gordon Harrison, the ideal thing would be to combine their names and call it the "Harrison Williams Park," he said.

Williams proposal suited Harrison fine, except for one thing. He favored using their first names so that it would be called "the Gordon Harrison Park."

Let us now proceed to the consideration of a more recent incident involving the senator and one of his constituents, actor-musician Leon E. Janney.

A few days ago, Williams, whose nickname is "Pete," got a letter from Janney complaining that the literature he received from the senator's office was improperly addressed.

Some of it, Janney reported, was addressed to "S. E. Jarney" and some of it to "Leon M. Jarney."

"You can understand my distress," he added, "because as the stationery clearly states, my name is Grodnick Fasbinder."

In keeping with the spirit of the occasion, Janney addressed his letter to "Sen. Pete Harrison."

Williams, of course, hastened to apologize, saying he could not understand "how anyone could possibly interpolate the name of Leon Janney out of Grodnick Fasbinder."

"I could understand something like Groggy Fasbinder or even Gaudy Flashpan, but Leon Janney I just don't understand," he wrote.

He assured Janney, or Fasbinder, that "as sure as my name is Harrison Williams" the mistake would not be repeated. The letter was signed "William Harrison."

In using that signature, the senator may or may not have been aware that there really is a William Harrison in Congress.

Political Notebook

WASHINGTON—(NEA) — President Kennedy is now in the unenviable position of being damned if he does and damned if he doesn't. Whatever domestic or foreign policies he proposes, he gets jumped on by his critics in both parties. And his defenders are few.

Prime example at the moment is the tax program. For over a year practically every President for a tax cut as the only cure for recession.

A few dissenters have pointed out that while tax cuts were nice, they couldn't be had without either a cut in government spending, deficit financing or tax reform. Nobody paid any attention.

But now many of the people who last year were demanding tax cuts of every kind, just so they were big enough, have awakened to the fact that both tax reform and deficit financing may be involved. And they are yelling that the President is going to ruin the country. So the demand now is to cut government spending right to the bone to pay for the tax cut.

Meanwhile, opposition to the President's balanced, three-year, gradual tax reduction and tax reform program has become practically unanimous. To labor union leaders, low income groups would not be given enough of a tax cut. To business leaders, corporate taxes would not be cut deep enough or fast enough.

And to everyone who now gets a little benefit from some escape clause in existing tax law—like the people who have been getting dividend tax credits or extra large depletion allowances on mineral resources—the mere thought and denying them these entrenched special privileges is revolutionary.

Little realization is apparent that there never was a perfect tax bill and there never will be. A tax cut which gives everybody everything he wants and then some would not do the job it must do—raise money to pay for defense and run the government. The fact that somebody has to make some hard decisions on these matters and bull them through has not registered.

Much of the same kind of criticism is now being applied to the administration's foreign policy moves.

Since the end of World War II, the principal fault found with the conduct of American foreign policy has been that this country has not taken the position of world leadership to which it is entitled.

There has been too much deference to allied second-rate powers and underdeveloped countries on the foreign aid dole and not enough firm insistence that the American position should determine free world policy in opposition to international communism, since America carries most of the load.

In the past few months, however, the President has led the free world in imposing a blockade on Cuba. He has forced the withdrawal of Russian missiles from Cuban bases. He has insisted that Polaris missiles be substituted for Skybolts to defend Britain. He has taken a strong stand on creation of a nuclear striking force in the North Atlantic Treaty Organization. He has called on Canada to live up to its most commitments for nuclear defense. He has cut off foreign aid to Haiti and Ceylon for their unfriendly attitudes.

The justification for all this criticism is that it is part of the American political system and tradition. The great game of politics is to destroy every president as soon as he takes the oath. This is what happened to President Hoover, to President Roosevelt and Truman, to President Eisenhower, and now Kennedy. The logic, the consistency, and the everyday common sense of the fair-minded citizen to follow such an attitude is hard for low most of the time.

What is it?

Glad you asked. It's a Volkswagen Station Wagon. Don't pity the poor thing; it can take it. It can carry nearly a ton of anything you can afford to buy.

Or 8 people (plus luggage) if you want to get practical about it. And there's more than one practical consideration.

It will take you about 24 miles on a gallon of regular gas. It won't take any water or anti-freeze at all; the engine is air-cooled.

And even though it carries almost twice as much as regular wagons, it takes 4 feet less to park. What's in the package?

8 pairs of skis, the complete works of Dickens, 98 lbs. of frozen spinach, a hitch used by Grover Cleveland, 80 Hollywood High gym sweaters, a suit of armor, and a full-sized reproduction of the Winged Victory of Samothrace.

TREED — The Bill Perry family put a snowman in this precarious position in Nashville, Tenn.

Citrus Group Plans Special 'Bill' Package

LAKELAND (UPI) — The Joint Citrus Legislative Committee hopes to pound into shape a legislative package to be approved by the citrus industry March 8.

The committee gave tentative approval Monday to one proposal which would continue a 10 cents per box excise tax on oranges for the next four years.

Several other proposals were discussed and deferred for further action by the various committees within the industry. Represented at the meeting were Florida Citrus Mutual, the Florida Citrus Commission, the Florida Canners Association, the Florida Fresh Citrus Shippers Association and the Indian River Citrus League.

The 10 cents per box tax would revert to six cents a box after four years, unless changed later by the Legislature. The plan would provide that six cents of the amount be a permanent tax.

Two cents of the amount would be set aside for emergency reserve funds and one cent would be for incentive advertising rebates.

The committee continued its studies on possible ways that about one cent of the tax be used on new product research and development while carrying on with present research.

Mrs. Ball Cops Popular Art Support

The Beach Cottage, a painting of a summer home at a nearby beach resort garnered the most popular votes for its creator, Mrs. Georgia Ball, at the Fourth Annual Art Show, Sunday, Mrs. Mildred Babcock, president of the Art Association reported.

The second most popular picture was also a water scene, with docks and a beached boat, the work of 12 year old Craig Orseno, entitled, Fishing Village.

Each person who visited the exhibit of the work of local artists Sunday was asked to vote for the painting that they liked best.

Mrs. Ball's picture was voted first place in Landscapes by the official judges.

Area Roped Off By Lava Sludge

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (UPI) — Fire and police units blocked off today a one-mile square area in Louisville's industrial Rubbertown area where a lava-like flow of carbide lime waste sludge engulfed cars and trucks, damaged several houses, and crushed oil tanks.

Asst. Fire Chief Eugene Dodson said "There is a potential danger of an explosion from gas fumes," but the wind was helping dissipate fumes from broken lines leading to a plant of the Standard Oil Co.

"SERVING ALTAMONTE SPRINGS, CASSELBERRY, FERN PARK, LONGWOOD, MAITLAND, NORTH ORLANDO AND SANFORD" . . . from HIGHWAY 17-92 and STATE ROAD 436

By LARRY VERSHEL
The kibosh was put on any proposal for an extensive apartment house project at Hantsville by Zoning Director Bob Brown today. Out-of-state developers have been here looking over the Sanford Industrial Park with the thought of constructing apartments there. Brown says it can't be done — Zoning Commission will not rezone an industrial area for apartments.

The City Commission had an "informal" breakfast recently to get the gentlemen thinking along the same lines again after the Pipeline split. They talked about this and that... weather, traffic violations... had grins with their eggs and went about their business. The press, of course, was not invited. The taxpayers picked up the check.

Oops, which reminds me, did you know commissioners received their agenda for the commission meeting with postage due stamped over the envelopes. It was a heavy agenda, at that.

With all the money the county is spending repairing windows in the courthouse, could they please put some new metal strips on the inside staircase? Almost broke my neck the other day. (Ah, I know what you're thinking.)

Bids on the Delany Nursing Home expected to be opened today have been postponed again.

Remember last week "Clock" mentioned city employees will pick up tree debris on Myrtle Avenue at Fifth Street but not on Fifth at Myrtle? We watched them Wednesday noon-picked up two big piles of tree debris in an alley at Fifth Street, half block from Myrtle, and passed up a third pile at the curb less than 15 feet away. Wonder what gives?

Naval Air Station is asking for 150,000 additional gallons of water. Wow, that water program is definitely a must now. Plans should be submitted for the new well fields by April 1.

The Bear Lake Democratic Committee has invited Demos Mack Cleveland Jr., Gordon Frederick and GOP Jan Fortune to speak to the group at the Florida Power Lounge at 8 p.m. March 21.

Wonder if they're having water troubles out by Country Club Manor. . . ?

Bill Bush says he has a hunch that Bear Lake Road will definitely be put into the county's road program next year.

It will be interesting to see what the State Industrial investigators turn up in that boiler explosion out by Hunt.

That young doctor leaving town is definitely not Vince Roberts.

What's all this fuss about building permit for English Estates School? It's customary for the contractor to get the permit. . . bids will be opened sometime next month.

Casselberry officials are seeking to establish the identity of a mysterious "Tom", Rollins College student who professes to have been the author of their proposed new charter. For "Tom's" information, it just won't work. . . the charter draft was drawn up by Art Lego and his committee from five other such documents and too much time and work went into the project for somebody else to get the credit.

Recommendations for proposed primary and secondary road improvements in Seminole County will be made by the Chamber of Commerce long range planning committee on roads to the County Commission at 7:30 this evening at the courthouse.

Puts Off Indefinitely

The State Game and Fish Commission tabled indefinitely today a proposal to convert 7,000 acres near the Sanford Naval Air Station into a game preserve.

The request had been made by a group of citizens living in the area, but outside the city limits of Sanford.

Spokesmen said the major reason for the request was to avoid accidental shootings. Several residential sections are in the area.

Industrial Park Slated To Get $200,000 Boost

Advance guard for the commencement of construction of a $200,000 industrial building at Sanford Industrial Park arrived here Thursday afternoon.

M. J. Monaghan, of Dallas, Texas, in charge of East Coast building for J. L. Williams and Company, Dallas, said today that his crew will commence Monday to prepare the site for actual building activities.

Williams, here last January for the IHI Products dedication, said at that time he will erect the large steel and concrete industrial building for speculation.

Fasula To Run Against Ferrin

North Orlando Mayor Frank Fasula qualified early today as a candidate for the Group Three Village Council post to oppose Art Ferrin in the March 19 elections.

Other candidates filing before today's 5 p.m. deadline were Henry Ward and Reginald Webster who qualified late Wednesday for the group five seat.

Running for the group one post is Art Rhodes who qualified Monday.

Voter registration as of today stands at some 110 of an estimated 400 or more and residents are reminded that the Village Hall is staying open Wednesday and Friday nights for those who are unable to register during regular office hours. Books will close March 15.

Congolese Kill, Mutilate Two

ELISABETHVILLE, Katanga (UPI)—Central Congolese troops "kidnaped" two Katangese policemen Wednesday night, killed one and mutilated the other, United Nations officials said today.

The incident pushed relations between the Katangese and the Congolese troops, who were brought here to speed Katanga's reintegration into the Congo, to a new low.

Twenty-four hours earlier, four Congo soldiers were killed in a Katangese police ambush.

The mutilated man told his UN rescuers that the Congolese soldiers told him they planned to wipe out the Katangese police force tonight.

The Congolese troops killed one policeman with a bayonet thrust through the stomach and tortured the other, the officials said.

Budget Buys

Many downtown Sanford merchants will be open Friday night until 9 p.m. to enable shoppers to take advantage of First-of-the-Month specials being offered for sale in today's Herald.

Budget buys, special items, new spring merchandise, and some half-price clearance sales will be noted on page 7 today, as well as in other advertisements throughout the paper.

Strong Rights Measures Asked

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Kennedy asked Congress today for a series of new laws to protect Negroes from "the cruel disease of discrimination" in voting, schooling, and other walks of life.

The President outlined his proposals in a 6,000-word special message, his first on civil rights. The politically significant message hailed the administration's non-legislative accomplishments in the past two years.

He called for laws to speed consideration of voting suits by Negroes, provide them the ballot while their suits are pending, guarantee them the same voting tests as whites, and presume they are literate if they have completed the sixth grade.

Kennedy also asked for federal technical and financial assistance to school districts which need help to desegregate. And he requested four more years of life plan expanded powers for the U. S. Civil Rights Commission.

Describing these as "a list of priorities," Kennedy said he knew his proposed and past actions "do not constitute a final answer to the problems of race discrimination in this country." He promised, if enacted, any "other measures directed toward these same goals."

"The program outlined in this message should not pro-

County Airport Establishment Meet Monday

The State Commission received a letter from the Seminole County Commission in which the county officials gave their backing to the proposal.

But the state group said it could not prevent a man from hunting on property he owned, and that the entire matter appeared to be one of trespassing rather than a problem which fell under its jurisdiction.

Speaking for the sanctuary were E. J. Cameron and B. F. Kutz, property owners. It was Kutz who originally requested the County Commission to set up the area as a bird refuge.

Speaking against the proposal were members of the Seminole County Sportsman's Association, who previously had been quoted that the area along Lake Jessup included the "best dove and duck hunting" in Seminole County.

Speaking for the Sportsman's Association were Geo. A. Speer, vice president; Jack Wilber, secretary-treasurer, and Henry Wight and William Fields.

Group Organized To Fight Charter

An immediate past member of the Casselberry Board of Aldermen told the Herald today that a Citizen's Committee has organized in the town to protest the content of the proposed new charter now being prepared by the attorney for presentation to the 1963 Legislature.

Mrs. Hope Bennett said that a group consisting of eight persons met Wednesday night to go over the charter before calling a public meeting to "acquaint the citizens of this town with what is being put over on them." No date has been set for the meeting at this time.

Complaints of the committee center around powers of taxation included in the charter draft and on the manner in which "the whole thing was prepared, approved and turned over to the attorney before the people even had a chance to see it," Mrs. Bennett said.

A public meeting was held Monday night by the Board of Aldermen, the Charter Committee and the attorney to go over the entire document. Six citizens attended and of the six only one registered any protests.

Midway School Broken Into

The Sheriff's Office today is investigating a break-in at the Midway School in which the office was ransacked, deputies reported.

The break-in occurred sometime Wednesday. Deputies were determining if anything of value was taken from the office.

Navy Denies British Sub Sneaked Past Defenses

NORFOLK, Va. (UPI) — The U. S. Navy denied Wednesday a report that a British submarine, after giving advance warning, slipped through this country's submarine defenses.

The London Daily Mail claimed the conventional sub HMS Orpheus penetrated the U. S. Navy's hunter-killer submarine defenses and surfaced within attacking distance of the New London, Conn., naval base.

The newspaper said the Navy radiated an "off the record" message to British submarine headquarters saying "well done."

Atlantic Fleet headquarters here said the statement the Orpheus participated in exercises with the U. S. Navy from Jan. 23 to Feb. 12 and was assigned a route for the trip from Scotland to the United States.

"Her position was known to Atlantic Fleet headquarters throughout the entire transit," the Navy said.

It said the "well done" message merely complimented the Orpheus on her participation in the submarine exercises.

Jet Noise Leaves Congress In A Muddle

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A House subcommittee reported today that there was not much Congress can do about the deafening roar of jet aircraft.

The subcommittee said aircraft noise is a "scientific problem which cannot be resolved by legislative action."

It did not completely rule out congressional action in the future but said it would not come until the problem had been dealt with by government agencies and the aircraft industry.

Among other things it recommended that local governments explore the possibility of using a "reasonable exercise of police power" in reducing the effects of aircraft noise.

Informers Set Up Lucky, Peel

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — Chief Investigator Henry Lovern testified today that information furnished by informers James W. Yenser and Joseph A. Peel, who later were convicted of the murders.

Lovern said the sheriff's bureau was not involved in investigation of the Chillingworth case until Yenser "set up" Floyd Holzapfel and Joseph A. Peel, who later were convicted of the murders.

Holzapfel, who confessed that he and Negro moonshiner Bobby Lincoln drowned the jurist and his wife in the Atlantic Ocean in 1955 on orders of Peel, received the death sentence. Peel, a former West Palm Beach City Judge, was sentenced to life in prison while Lincoln won immunity for turning states evidence.

Yenser, a former Miami hotel detective and associate of Holzapfel, spent more than a year on the Chillingworth case as a paid informer for the sheriff's bureau. He is one of five persons claiming the $100,000 reward offered by the State Legislature for information leading to apprehension and conviction of the killers.

Seven Killed As Jet Crashes

FAIRBANKS, Alaska (UPI) — An Air Force KC-135 jet tanker crashed on takeoff at Eielson Air Force Base Wednesday night, killing the seven airmen aboard and an air policeman on duty at the main gate.

The four-engine jet faltered when taking off from the north runway, skidded along the ground and wiped out the main gate to the base.

Blowing wreckage from the plane spewed across the Alaska highway which runs past the gate, blocking the highway to traffic for several hours.

Wash Or Popcorn?

A car wash will be held Saturday at the Shell Station on the corner of 25th St. and Park Ave. by members of the DCT Club of Seminole High School. The group will also sell popcorn all day, at the station and around town.

FIRE FROM A DEFECTIVE fireplace flue caused extensive damage to the home of Adell Haywood, 1107 West 10th Street, early this morning. Fire Chief Mack Cleveland Sr. reported the blaze swept through the upstairs of the two-story home. The chief and six firemen, with two pieces of apparatus, responded at 2:14 a.m. and fought the fire for nearly three hours. No estimate of the damage was given.

Savage Sons Return Friday

Flight crews and aircraft of Heavy Attack Squadron Five — the "Savage Sons of Sanford"—return Friday after an absence of nearly seven months.

The squadron's 12 A-1H Skywarrior attack bombers will dash over the city in a tight formation fly-by before landing at Ramey Field to long-awaited reunions with families and friends.

Officials at NAS Sanford report the fly-by will take place at 3 p.m.

The remainder of the squadron's 300 officers and men will arrive via transport at Ramey Field Saturday afternoon.

Heavy Attack Squadron Five, commanded by Cdr. Lyle H. Selter, USN, left Sanford last Aug. 3 for operations aboard the USS Forrestal with the Second and Sixth Fleets.

While deployed, the "Savage Sons" participated in numerous joint service and NATO exercises, flew more hours for the first half of fiscal 1963 than any other Sanford-based squadron, and hosted many major military and governmental figures.

In addition, the Forrestal and VAH-5 extended United States good will to eight Mediterranean ports. Their itinerary included Barcelona, Spain, making the Forrestal the first aircraft carrier to visit that city in three years.
