Unmasked Bandits Hold Up Local Shop

Two gunmen yesterday afternoon took over $100 from a woman employee at D&G Grocery, 715 East Celery Avenue, after first warning "don't let nobody get hurt."

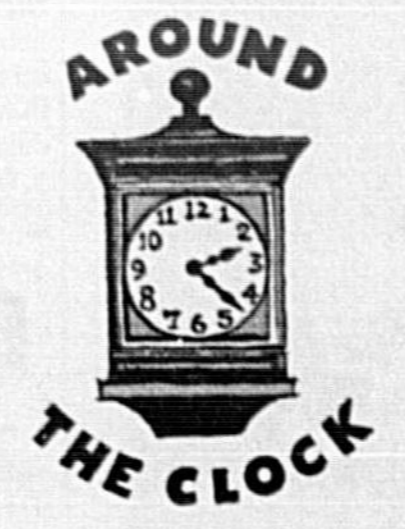

Sanford Police Sgt. Tom Deppen reported two Negro men with revolvers forced Marie Millon, 612 Sarita Street, to hand over contents of a cash register.

Deppen said the men appeared to be between 20 and 25 years of age, did not wear masks, and walked away from the scene.

In a second police report, a seven-year-old boy was injured when a van driven by Gerald Broome of Apopka tried to avoid the youth when he ran into the street.

Patrolman William Dube reported the accident occurred at Celery Avenue and Sherman G. Franklin Jr., son of Sherman G. Franklin, 1125 Orange Avenue, was taken to Seminole Memorial Hospital for treatment of injuries.

Dube said Broome, driving the van, averted when the boy ran into the street, but struck him. The driver was released, Dube reported.

Citizens Appeal To Commission Local Recreational Park Is Tabled

By MARION BETHA

An impassioned appeal against the Seminole County Board of Adjustment decision to grant a special exception for a recreational area and trailer site on property south of Lake Mary, east of I-4, and west of Lake Emma Road was delivered by Constantine Thermanos, a resident of the area, at yesterday's meeting at the Board of Seminole County Commissioners.

Thermanos stated that homes in the area were in the "green belt" district, and were designed for low density living. In 1968, according to Thermanos, he was assured by the county zoning director that there would only be "country living" on the one and two acre estates. Residents pioneered the area, using kerosene lamps. Thermanos expounded the pleasures of the serene setting of pure air and water with little or no pollution.

With approval of the exception by the Board of Adjustment, the spokesman continued, over 5,000 people will be crowded into a 400 acre plot. Thermanos saw this as also presenting additional problems for the sheriff's department. The disgruntled resident said that transients on their way to visit Disneyworld would use the site, and that no appreciable value from the enterprise would be realized from the community of Lake Mary, since visitors to the trailer park would come off the interchange and not go into the town.

Thermanos further stated that there were 6,000 acres of parks in the county where those desiring to do so may commune with nature. Thermanos ended his dissertation with the statement that if the exception was allowed to stand Seminole County was doomed to "pollution and extinction."

A rebuttal was offered by Mack Cleveland, Jr., attorney for the developers of the site. Cleveland stated that the approval of the board was a tentative one, and that certain conditions must be met by the principals involved to comply with county regulations and health laws. Cleveland continued that I-4 was "there whether we like it or not, and there will be growth in the area." Cleveland stated that, in his opinion, the place to plan for the growth was near the interchange, and not in an isolated area.

Two Problems Are Facing SIC Board

By BILL SCOTT

Seminole Industrial Commission Chairman A. K. Shoemaker Jr., advised SIC meeting last night of two major problems now confronting the industrial board.

They are the lack of someone to replace Don Rathel, resigning SIC director, and scarcity of money for industrial projects wanting to construct facilities at the Sanford Airport, Shoemaker said.

The SIC chairman reported on his Tuesday noon meeting with representatives of the Greater Sanford Chamber of Commerce, which was called by the chamber to discuss with a four-man committee of the city and SIC the future course of the industrial development of airport.

Shoemaker said someone was needed at the airport to show industrial properties to prospects who arrive unannounced at the former Navy base looking for rental space.

Rathel has announced his resignation effective Jan. 15 and Shoemaker stressed the importance of having someone to promote industry at the airport.

W. Vincent Roberts, SIC member, asked Rathel if he had another position ready after his tenure with the board ended, but the SIC director said he would not discuss anything with the press on hand.

On another problem, Shoemaker said he had ten shell buildings at the airport and questioned Howard McNulty, SIC member and Florida State Bank president, about quantity of local money available to help business.

McNulty stated there was a short supply of money at present, but if the industry would pre-trial publicity ordered by Judge Rumberger, no responsible county official would comment.

and McNulty said, "E. Fove is a blative member, would have control over appointing the members" and McNulty objected to this.

In a final action, the board approved submitting Carl Schilling for re-appointment to the industrial board and approved a list of four men for the city commission to choose a second member.

This included: Glen McCall, John Kridler, David Smith and Art . . .

Rathel brought an offer from a St. Louis fave manufacturer wanting to lease a portion of building 280 for 75 cents per square foot the first year and 60 cents per square foot for ensuing 17,000 feet.

Board declined the proposal and approved a counter offer on a McNulty proposal leasing 6,000 square feet for $1 square foot.

Insurance Is Going Sky High At SMH

By TOM ALEXANDER

Insurance premiums for professional insurance at Seminole Memorial Hospital have jumped from $32 per bed to some $131 per bed according to hospital administrator Robert Bessner.

Bessner revealed the rate increase at a meeting of the Seminole Memorial Hospital board of trustees yesterday. The hospital administrator told the assembly that this would mean the annual rate of insurance would jump from last year's total cost of some $6,400 to some $22,750.

In explaining the increase, Bessner told the SMH board that the hospital has paid $64,000 for insurance in the past and during the same period of time they have received $60,300 dollars in claims. Putting it bluntly the hospital administrator stated, "they really don't want our business."

The insurance program of the hospital will be discussed at the next trustee meeting.

Bessner told the board members that two of the hospital's 14-year-old elevators are causing trouble continuously and that a serviceman is required to work on them, sometimes three to four times per week.

Bessner said that he had received a bid from the Montgomery Elevator Company to revamp the two elevators for some $25,000 using the same two cabs presently in operation.

Bessner also told the board that the hospital still had leakage problems in the old East wing and that he could not keep the affected rooms plastered. He said he had received a bid from some $6,000 to completely repair the area and make it waterproof.

Freak Accident Kills Noted DeBary Resident

By JANE CASSELBERRY

Mrs. Edith Brooks, 75, executive administrator of historic DeBary Hall, was killed 11:30 a.m. Tuesday, at her home at 211 Arcadia Road, DeBary, as she was accidentally struck down by the family car.

Her husband was backing the car from the garage and failed to see her as she returned from checking the mail box, according to the Volusia County Sheriff's Department. She was dead on arrival at Seminole Memorial Hospital.

Well known in art circles, Mrs. Brooks was a member and past president of the Florida Federation of Art and was executive administrator of DeBary Hall, state headquarters for the Florida Federation and art showplace.

Born in Essex, England, she had lived in DeBary for the past 12 years. She was a member of the Congregational Church of Orange City, where she was Christian Education director, and member of International Platform Association.

In addition to her husband, George, she is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Lois Berger, of Saratoga, Long Island, N.Y.

Funeral services will be held at 11 a.m. Friday, at the Congregational Church, Orange City, with burial to follow in DeLand Memorial Gardens with David Lang Funeral Home, DeBary, in charge.

Wow, Open The Window

The additional courtroom facilities which were ordered by Judge Voile Williams Jr., will not be a "prony ante" affair, Seminole County Board of County Commissioners learned this morning.

Bids were received for carpeting, building materials, paneling, plumbing fixtures, office furniture, and air conditioning, for the "second" court, which will be located in the old Hollywood Shop.

Let's bid for the carpeting was $1116 and the only bid for plumbing and fixtures was $350. However the coup d'etat to the finances was delivered with the bid for air conditioning from contractor Dan Polham, "Wow, it would be cheaper to open a window."

50,000 To Lose Jobs Due To Space Cut Backs.

By HARRY F. ROSENTHAL
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — After enjoying lavish funds in the '60s for its exotic forays into space, NASA is beginning the '70s with a purse drawn so tight it can barely stay afloat. It won't be the '60s race with the Russians; it is settling out to the national needs of the '70s.

It already shrunken work force is being cut by 50,000 people. Other cutbacks may signal an indefinite delay in sending men to Mars and a slowdown by at least a year in the next big space move—building a space shuttle and advanced earth stations.

To save money, the space agency will stretch out its moon landing flights to two a year for the seven flights remaining, skipping 1972 entirely. It will postpone a planned unmanned landing on Mars by at least two years and order no more Saturn 3 rockets beyond the eight being built or nearing completion.

In the manner of a man discussing the terminal illness of a close friend, Administrator Thomas O. Paine announced the cuts Tuesday, saying he is "taking actions to redirect portions of our space program to bring NASA's total operations in line with the budget which we will be living in fiscal 1971."

He did not say how much space agency money President Nixon will request when he submits his budget Jan. 27, but it was obvious the figure will be no more than $3.7 billion—the lowest in a decade. The total may even go below $3.5 billion. With three moon flights in the current fiscal year, NASA's spending will be about $3.6 billion, down from a high of $5.25 billion in 1965 and $4.175 billion in 1966.

"NASA can move forward strongly while still achieving greater economy in 1971," Paine said. "While we will be reducing our total effort we will not discontinue the strong teams that we sent to explore the moon and automated spacecraft to observe the planets."

Paine pointed out the agency already has announced closing of its Electronics Research Center in Cambridge, Mass. "We estimate," he added, "that the total number of Americans working in NASA programs will decline from 180,000 at the end of fiscal year 1970 to about 140,000 at the end of fiscal year 1971."

At the peak, in 1966, the figure was 420,000.

Last September, while the nation still was flushed with the success of the Apollo 11 first landing on the moon, President Nixon received recommendations from his space task group on space goals.

It listed three choices, all incorporating development of the space shuttle—an airplane-like craft able to fly into space and return repeatedly—and the advanced space station, to house 100 persons. Two of the options envisioned landing men on Mars in the 1980s. The third left the timetable open.

It was known the President favored a progressive program and the announcement was expected about Christmas. A budget allocation of $3.8 billion—enough to get started on the long-range goals—was thought possible for the next fiscal year.

ported stymied by a dispute over its control between the government-affiliated National Commission for Rehabilitation and the Nigerian Red Cross. But the head of the rehabilitation commission, Timothy Omobara, said today that the commission is in charge of determining priority of emergency relief operations, while the Red Cross is in charge of emergency operations.

"We don't trouble them at all," he added. "The decree during the civil war was very clear. All we need... now is to get to the field and meet the needy masses and not sit down in Lagos quarrelling."

A defense department spokesman said the government had not cleared a relief airlift from Britain because the government had no official information.

"All we know is what we hear on the radio," he said.

Other Nigerian officials said the government has all the food it needs, but the problem is getting it to those needing it. They said all efforts must be channeled through agencies approved by the government.

Persons returning from the war zone said Biafran troops were suffering without difficulty.

The Red Cross said there were 12,000 tons of food on hand, and that another 12,000 tons would be available within days.

N. Viet Infiltration Isn't Tet Offensive

By GEORGE ESPEY
Associated Press Writer
SAIGON (AP) — U.S. officials said today that the rate of North Vietnamese troop infiltration into South Vietnam is not seen as an early indicator of Hanoi's intentions. They said the enemy already has enough troops available to launch an offensive.

Sources said, however, that a 10-fold increase since last October in truck traffic moving through Eastern Laos and a "logistics buildup" in the A Shau Valley of South Vietnam indicate the Communist Command is preparing an option "to do something."

One official disclosed that there was no increase in infiltration in the weeks before one enemy offensive last Feb. 25-March 2.

"The infiltration surged after the beginning of the offensive and didn't peak until two or three months later," he said.

"In a sense the enemy doesn't have to tip off what he's doing," said another source. "You don't have to have a rise in infiltration before an offensive. But we think that from it we can tell what is going to happen next."

Infiltration of troops from North Vietnam has long been a main theme in the Vietnam policy debates. Some observers stress any sign of increasing traffic to support requests for additional American troops and air raids over Laos, while others jump on any sign of a decrease in infiltration as a sign that Hanoi wants to negotiate.

Sources estimate there are 200,000 North Vietnamese and Viet Cong troops in South Vietnam, border regions of Cambodia and Laos, and in the demilitarized zone, compared to 250,000 a year ago. They say the enemy could launch a country-wide offensive with these 200,000 troops already available, but they doubt he will attempt anything of the magnitude of the 1968 Tet offensive.

Allied commanders today reported two small counter-offensives in Cambodia and southern Mekong Delta, where a buildup of regular North Vietnamese infantry units has been reported. South

Millions Starving Due To Red Tape

By MORT ROSENBLUM
Associated Press Writer
LAGOS (AP) — A squabble between Nigerian organizations over directing aid for Biafra appeared today to have been settled, but there was no green light yet for foreign governments to begin sending massive shipments of food, medicine and supplies to the war zone.

Maj. Gen. Yakubu Gowon, the Nigerian head of state, rejected the offer of aid from the Red Cross, but the relief program was reported stymied by a dispute over its control between the government-affiliated National Commission for Rehabilitation and the Nigerian Red Cross. But the head of the rehabilitation commission, Timothy Omobara, said today that the commission is in charge of determining priority of emergency relief operations, while the Red Cross is in charge of emergency operations.

A HULL OF A DIFFERENT DESIGN. Though twin-hulled craft are not unusual among pleasure boats, the system is rarely used for merchant ships. # Meeting Fails To Resolve Problems

By BILL SCOTT
A Tuesday luncheon meeting of Greater Sanford Chairman A. E. Shoemaker Jr. failed to resolve the industrial problems facing the city and chamber owe the operation of the Sanford Airport and industrial recruitment.

The question of who will conduct industrial efforts now that Don Rabeck, Sanford Industrial Commission director, has announced his resignation after Thursday was still left unanswered two hours after the "brainstorming" session opened at the chamber office.

George Teuby, chamber president, opened with a plea for unity in all groups involved with the city's industrial development.

By FRANK CAREY
AP Science Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — A Georgetown University neurologist disclosed today unexpected evidence that the experimental drug L-dopa can be a powerful sex stimulant that might prove to be a long-sought medical weapon against female frigidity and male impotence.

L-dopa already has been hailed as a possible breakthrough against crippling Parkinson's disease, but Dr. William D. O'Malley said today that he had found that the drug also had a powerful effect on sexual activity.

O'Malley said the evidence of increased sexual activity in certain patients with this disease—particularly in those who had been treated with L-dopa as a treatment for female frigidity and male impotence.

Frigidity is the incapacity of certain females for normal pleasure in sexual intercourse.

Recreational Plan Tabled By Commission

City Manager Knowles divulged he had given a "secret message" to the city commission outlining his ideas to solve the problems.

These solutions included: airport in technical operation for technical people and has no relation to an industrial or public utility function.

The city manager advocated an autonomous airport authority, but said city commission wants some controls, which makes the situation a "half-breed" that has produced dissatisfaction, but has accomplished getting the airport deed from the federal government and brought in industry.

Health Officer Asks To Take A Better Look

By CRAIG A. PALMER
WASHINGTON (UPI) — The government's top health officer says it is time to take a broader look at the 7,000 "safe" additives put in food to make it look and taste better.

"I would hope that this year one could begin to look at the whole question of additives of any kind in a broader context," Dr. Roger O. Egeberg told a Senate subcommittee on health care last week.

Egeberg, assistant secretary for health and scientific affairs in the Health, Education and Welfare Department, also said: "Aspirin, despite its many benefits, is known to cause gastro intestinal hemorrhage in an amazing number of instances," as well as stomach ulcers.

"Evidence still favors use of the pill," for birth control but we are gradually coming to use in making foods either look better or taste better, some of which have relatively little usefulness, and find out if they do harbor or hold a danger that we were unable to find in previous scientific evaluations," he said.

Until last year, the artificial sweeteners called cyclamates were among the 7,000 or so additives which the government listed as "generally recognized as safe." But cyclamates were

Buyers Still Unaware Of Rates

By JOHN CUNIFF
AP Business Analyst
NEW YORK (AP) — Despite the fact that the law now requires interest rates on consumer loans to be stated as clearly as possible, the suspicion exists that many buyers still are unaware of the implications of the credit age.

Clearly, credit as a way of life is not only firmly established but growing relentlessly, both in total amount and as a percentage of disposable income. Close to $150 billion is outstanding, not including home mortgages.

A proper understanding of credit may not be developing so rapidly, however, and the falling seems to be shared by both borrower and lender.

A survey by the Federal Reserve Board in July 1968 showed considerable confusion among heads of households about the interest rates they paid on automobile loans, department store credit and even home mortgages.

Since then, the Truth-in-Lending Law has gone into effect, requiring that lenders state the dollar amount of finance charges and the interest as a percentage. But can anyone easily understand the charges on installment credit?

Comparing the confusing, is the sometimes incredible state of credit bookkeeping. Holders of some credit cards find it all but impossible to get even a rough idea of the amount of their charges.

One month later the creditor does make use of the payment and deducts it from the balance. But does the interest charge also come off? Not always, and some buyers are likely to find the error either.

Some users of credit suspect that the much touted efficiency of credit are not so real as advertised. They prefer instead to pay cash, see a discount and keep their own records.

Gunter Asks State Reimbursement

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP)—State Sen. William Gunter says the state should be reimbursed for funds spent in pulling four forestry Board investigators out of the woods to fight crime. Gunter, D-Orlando, said today the legislative auditing committee is studying the request that Comptroller Fred Dickinson recap the funds spent by the forestry Board since money already misappropriated by three other state agencies. He said the forestry Board apparently spent $2,500 on the Wackensius Corp. on the so-called war in crime. "In view of the fact that the board of forestry had no authority to assign these employees, the committee requests that you initiate action to recoup all expenses associated with this assignment," said Gunter in a letter to the comptroller. He also asked that $6,300 in credit apparently extended to Gunter be returned to the state.

Wall Street Chatter

NEW YORK (UPI)—The process of base-building in the stock market has been going on since mid-1969, says G. Staff says. Large stock gains can be expected this year and in the early 1970's. Even as the Dow-Jones Industrial Average was dropping, sizeable investment funds were moving into equities possessing growth qualities in the 1970's. "The market will have periodic relapses, especially in the first part of this year, but these should be regarded as buying opportunities, the firm says. Investors, watching several upcoming events closely, namely the next Federal Reserve Open Market Committee meeting and the annual round of Presidential messages State of the Union, Budget, etc., observes Shearson, Hammill & Co. Whether or not anything dramatic emerges from these two events, the market seems to have regained some stability, the firm says. "It is entering a period when a good number of stocks can do well despite the clear cut deterioration in business and corporate earnings in general."

"No Glue To Stick Together" Black Panthers Failed In Florida

Editor's Note: Earl Josiah is a native of Trinidad now stationed in the Miami Bureau. He spent several weeks looking for Black Panthers in Florida and drew a blank. In this exclusive story, he tells why the militant panthers have failed to locate in the state. By EARLE JOSIAH Associated Press Writer MIAMI (AP)—Recruiters for the Black Panther party have failed in repeated attempts to establish the revolutionary movement in Florida. "We do not have the glue to stick the movement together here," says a young black militant who resigned. Sporting a well-cropped full head of hair, the medium-built, rugged-looking recruit says he has been trying for months to get the Panthers on their feet in Florida. "Political maturity, which is a most important element, is absent among blacks in this state," he added. The articulate and cool-headed black power advocate said he has traveled throughout Florida for several months hunting for prospective panthers. He mentioned St. Petersburg, and Jacksonville among the cities he combed for recruits, coming to Florida from Oakland, Calif. Informed blacks in Miami say many established Panther members had appeared in Florida in past months—but soon disappeared. Blacks represent approximately one-fifth of Florida's population—or just over one million. "This is probably the largest state with a significant black population not stilled by the young, firebrands," he said. "There are some of the recruits offered by Miami Black leaders." "Florida is completely retarded regarding black liberation," said Al Ponderhouse, militant leader of the Afro-American Cultural Society. The self-proclaimed Marxist Leninist, who recently visited Cuba and who also travels frequently throughout Florida and neighboring states, added that Florida simply is not ripe for Black Panthers. Bernie Dyer, director of Miami's Liberty City Community Council, explained, "The people of Florida are not as sophisticated as the people of most other states." Florida's law enforcement agencies also say there are no real Panthers on the loose in the state. "To our knowledge there is no organized Black Panther party in Miami," said Sgt. James Touchton, spokesman for the Duke County Public Safety Department. He said intelligence sources were aware of several splinter groups in Miami.

Mrs. George Tushy, church organist, presented the following musical selections: "Fountain of Youth," "Dulcino," and the traditional recessional by Mendelssohn. Given in marriage by her father, the radiant bride chose for her vows a champagne silk dress and coat ensemble. The coat, fashioned along the Empire silhouette, featured scalloped lapels with tiny covered buttons highlighting the high rise waistline. Her only jewelry was a family heirloom gold, turquoise and seed pearl tassel. Mrs. Besserer chose a mauve anise dress with silver beading at the V-neck and wrists. ## Dear Abby: By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: You were asked in your column, "Is a Jew a Jew because of his religion," because of his race?" you replied, "If Ben Gurion's definition, 'A Jew is anyone who says he is Jewish.'"

While Ben Gurion may be a very distinguished Jew, he is not an authority on religious matters. Also, he is badly mistaken. The accepted Jewish law is as follows: "A Jew is a Jew because he was born into the Jewish peoplehood by a Jewish mother, and he never left his faith by accepting another religion, or one who has accepted the Jewish faith by an official conversion-to-Judaism ceremony."

In other words, a Jew is a Jew because of his religion, not because of his race. Neither race nor nationality exclude anyone from becoming a full-fledged Jew.

As you know, Sammy Davis Jr. is Jewish because he converted to Judaism. To which RACF does he belong? He certainly didn't change his race by becoming a Jew; he changed only his religion, but he remains a member of the race he originally belonged to.

Since your column is read by many intelligent people, I think they deserve a more authoritative answer to the above question. I would appreciate it if you were to print this in your column.

Sincerely,
RABBI MOSHE M. MAGGAL, NAT'L. JEWISH INFORMATION SERVICE

Chicago Trials Continue Unabated

By GENE BLADIAU
CHICAGO (UPI)—U.S. District Court Judge Julius J. Hoffman had just sustained a prosecution objection Monday at the trial of the "Chicago Seven."
"You're a hypocrite," defendant David Dellinger snapped at the judge. "What Mayor Daley did for justice in 1968, you are doing now."
The outburst came after the judge refused to admit into evidence a five-page memo allegedly presented to Mayor Richard J. Daley, asking for parade and picketing permits during the 1968 Democratic National Convention. The defendants are charged with conspiring to incite riots during the convention.
Mark Simon, a law student, testified Monday about the defendant's efforts to obtain permits from the city.
Simon said he and defendant Bernice Davis were told on Aug. 5, 1968, by U.S. Justice Department officials that no permits would be granted.
Simon also testified that David E. Stahl, deputy mayor, told Davis the mayor's office had no control over the issuance of permits.
Davis was skeptical, Simon said, and retorted that he thought Daley had "quite a bit of practical influence" although he was not actually the responsible city official.

Investigation Described As Silly

By FRANK MURRAY
Associated Press Writer
SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The nation's lone Negro U.S. attorney describes as silly and wasteful the Justice Department's grand jury investigation here of the national Black Panther party—a probe he said was ordered by Washington without consulting him.
Cecil F. Poole, who has resigned effective Jan. 31 from the prosecutor's post he has held since 1961, referred in an interview to the Justice Department's actions and said: "Whatever they say they're doing, they're out to get the Black Panthers."
An authorization from Atty. Gen. John N. Mitchell was required before outside prosecutors could assist a grand jury in Poole's district. The panel began its probe in May but recently expanded it to include the financial affairs of the party, which is headquartered in nearby Berkeley.
"That they sent out the special task force didn't bother me so much," Poole said. "What bothered me was they did it without prior warning to me or consultation."

Mississippi Creates Unitary System

By WILLIAM G. JAMES
JACKSON, Miss. (UPI)—Mississippi has established a unitary system in 25 of its school districts as ordered by the U.S. Supreme Court, but the result were nearly equal to the number of black students. In districts with clear black majorities, the result has been total flight of whites to private schools or home.
In one district, Neshoba County, black students boycotted classes Monday despite a black majority. Negro leaders said the boycott was to protest an 11th-hour modification in the desegregation plan that allowed white students to remain in predominantly white schools.
Negro enrollment in the white schools under the plan would be limited to 40 percent of the white enrollment. The Rev. W. B. Pennington said with only about 300 white students, no more than 200 of the district's 3,600 Negroes could attend desegregated classes.
Pennington, president of the Neshoba County Veterans League, said the boycott was 100 percent effective and would continue until a new court order is obtained.

Team Brussels Sprouts & Chestnuts

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor
Brussels sprouts and chestnuts are an interesting combination. Dressed with butter, they make a fine accompaniment to roast beef.

To remove the shells from the chestnuts, follow the directions given with the recipe. If you make a crisscross cut deep enough to go through both outer shell and inside brown skin, both the outer and inner coverings will come off easily. You'll notice that our directions specify making the cut on the rounded side of the nut. There's no mystique about this. The direction is given for two reasons. It's easiest to gash the chestnuts when they're lying on their flat side. And second, when the rounded sides are given crisscross cuts, they open in quarters like the gash of a flower.

As to the Brussels sprouts: Brussels sprouts are dressed with the melted butter. The most important thing we can say is, watch the cooking time. When overcooked, sprouts have a tendency to taste bitter.

Return sprouts in skillet to low heat; add butter; stir sprouts to see they are dressed with the melted butter.

Meanwhile if chestnuts are cold, turn into a strainer or colander and let stand in boiling water off heat to warm. Drain. Turn sprouts into a serving dish and sprinkle with chestnuts. Serve at once.

Makes 4 to 6 servings.

Note: A round carton of Brussels sprouts labeled 10 ounces holds about 3/4 pound of sprouts.

Fine Recipe For Jelly Roll

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor
DEAR CECILY: Whenever I make jelly roll the cake cracks slightly on top when I roll it up. Can you recommend a recipe? —FUSSY

DEAR FUSSY: The following recipe produces a cake with a crack. It has extra flour, too, because it is made with sugar and light corn syrup in equal proportions. About the filling—instead of the traditional tart jelly we've used ginger marmalade with delicious results. If you like ginger flavor, you might want to try that sometime. And just for good measure, we've told you how to fill the cake with ice cream.

should you want to put it in the freezer—C.B.

ROLL CAKE
(With Jelly or Ice Cream)

3 large eggs
1/4 teaspoon baking powder
1/4 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup sugar
1/2 cup light corn syrup
1/2 teaspoon vanilla
1 cup sifted cake flour
1 1/2 cups tart red jelly or 1 1/2 quarts softened ice cream

Grease a 15 by 10 by 1 inch jelly roll pan; line bottom with wax paper; grease paper.

In large bowl of electric mixer beat together the eggs, baking powder and salt until blended. Beat constantly, gradually add sugar; beat in corn syrup 1 tablespoon at a time; continue to beat until thick and light in color. Beat in vanilla. Fold in cake flour gradually. Pour into prepared pan.

Bake in a preheated 375-degree oven until cake springs back when lightly touched with finger—about 15 minutes. With a small metal spatula, loosen edges; immediately turn out on a towel generously sprinkled with confectioners' sugar. Remove wax paper. Roll up in towel, starting at one narrow end; cool 15 minutes. Unroll and spread with jelly or ice cream, covering cake almost to edges. For jelly-filled cake roll up as directed above. For ice-cream-filled cake roll up and wrap in foil; freeze. Makes 10 to 12 servings.

Student Militants Losing Steam?

By PAUL H. FINCH
BERKELEY, Calif. (AP)—Chancellor Roger W. Heyns of the University of California's Berkeley campus, who has had his share of campus confrontations, says the student militants across the land seem to be running out of steam.
"A long series of incidents last May in a row over the use of university land as a 'People's Park' if left one dead, one blinded and hundreds injured, tear-gassed or in jail."
"A lot of people have been waiting for the other shoe to drop here," Heyns said Monday in an interview. "Even if it doesn't, it won't be a very big shoe."
"Combustion is certainly part of the theory to explain this period, but there is also a general sense that the tactics of confrontation across the nation are frontation are counter-productive, and that positive things have happened with lots of people working very hard and constructively."

"There is a constant need for the university administrator to define the middle position. The threats to inquiry are real and the decision the administrator makes will not always be popular," he said.
Heyns said he was optimistic, however, about the future of higher education.
"The Congress, the legislature and President Nixon have all indicated a willingness to let the institutions solve their own problems," he said.
Heyns said Berkeley faculty morale was higher now and "through all of the disruptions during the past five years we have gone on with achievements in the continuation of instruction." He added:

1/2 cup coarsely broken walnuts
In a heavy medium saucepan over low heat, stir together the sugar, syrup, salt and cream until sugar dissolves. Bring to a boil. Boil without stirring until a small amount of the mixture forms a soft ball when dropped into a cup of very cold water (or to 230 degrees on a candy thermometer). Remove from heat. Cool to lukewarm (120 degrees) without stirring. Beat mixture until it loses its gloss—this usually takes from 12 to 15 minutes. Just as the candy is losing its gloss, stir in the walnuts. At once turn into a lightly buttered 8-inch square cake pan. When candy is cold, cut into squares and remove with spatula.

New Ways To Add To Dishes

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

Cooks who like to use nutritious wheat germ are always alert for new ways to add it to dishes.
Here's the latest wheat germ invention we've come across. Cheese sandwiches are flattened with butter and dipped in wheat germ, then they are allowed to get golden-brown and tasty on a sandwich grill or in a skillet. Served with a tossed green salad these sandwiches make an excellent lunch or supper or evening snack.
Wheat germ may be used in other interesting ways. Here are half a dozen suggestions.
Use it in a Graham-cracker crust for cheese cake.
Add it to ground meat for hamburgers.
Mix it with biscuit mix for biscuits—the rolled or drop variety.
A little wheat germ added to the flour mixture used to coat chicken that is to be fried helps give a crunchy crust.
Wheat germ may be added to a bread stuffing for meat, poultry or fish.
A vegetable nut loaf, for a meatless meal, takes kindly to the addition of wheat germ.

QUICK SAUERBRATEN
4 to 5-pound boneless beef rump pot roast
1 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon pepper
1/4 teaspoon garlic powder
2 large onions, coarsely chopped (1 1/2 cups)
1 1/2 cup unsifted molasses
1/2 cup distilled white vinegar
1 can (1 1/2 ounces) condensed beef broth (bouillon), undiluted
1 bay leaf
1 1/2 cup instant flour
1/2 cup cold water
Stir together the salt, pepper and garlic powder; rub mixture over surface of meat.
In a four or five-quart saucepot brown meat on all sides in its own fat; if there is not enough fat use meat to do this, brown it in a couple of tablespoons of shortening. Add onion, molasses, vinegar, beef broth and bay leaf. Cover tightly and simmer until meat is tender—two and a half to three hours. To determine if meat is finished, insert a long-handle two-line fork in center of meat; it should turn easily.
Remove meat; cover and chill overnight.
Strain meat broth, forcing solids through, turn into a one-quart glass measure; cover and chill overnight.
Before serving, slice meat fairly thin against the grain; cut off any large pieces of fat.
Remove hardened fat from top of cooled meat broth (it may be jellied) and discard fat. There should be three cups broth; if there is not, add water (or any stock on hand) to make this amount. Turn into the saucepan in which you cooked the meat and heat almost to boiling.
Meanwhile stir together until smooth, the flour and 1/4 cup water; stir into the hot meat broth. Stirring constantly, cook until thickened and boiling; boil a minute or two. Add meat, slice by slice, so it will all be covered with gravy; reheat.
Serve the meat and gravy with potato hashings or potato pancakes. Sweet-sour red cabbage is also a traditional accompaniment.
Make eight healthy portions.
Note: Should you have more than three cups meat broth, you can use it to replace part or all of the water mixed with the flour.

AFTERNOON TEA
This cake is similar to one that was sold commercially.

LEMON TEACAKE
1 1/2 cups unsifted flour, stir to aerate before measuring
1 teaspoon baking powder
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup granulated blanched almonds, use electric blender or hand-operated rotary nut grater
1/2 cup sugar
2 egg whites, melted
1/2 cup orange juice
1/2 cup milk
2 tablespoons lemon juice
Grease a 9 by 5 by 3 inch loaf pan; line bottom with wax paper; grease paper. On another sheet of wax paper thoroughly stir together the flour, baking powder and salt; stir in almonds.
In a medium mixing bowl stir together 1 cup of the sugar, the butter and lemon rind. Thoroughly beat in eggs. Stir in flour-almond mixture in three additions alternately with milk, just until dry ingredients are moistened.
Turn into prepared pan. Bake in a preheated 350 degree oven until a cake tester inserted in center of cake comes out clean—about 36 minutes.
Meanwhile stir the remaining 1/2 cup sugar and lemon juice—not all the sugar will dissolve. As soon as cake is out of the oven, very slowly spoon lemon-juice mixture over top of hot cake. Let stand five minutes.
With a small metal spatula loosen edges; turn out on wire rack; remove paper; turn right side up; cool completely. Wrap in plastic wrap; store in tin box overnight before slicing.

Easily Reheatable Salmon

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
AP Food Editor

GOOD SUPPER
Salmon patties may be wrapped in foil and reheated in a hot oven.
Salmon Patties: French Fries: Creamed Peas: Salad Bowl: Apple Cobbler: Beverage: SALMON PATTIES
1 can (7 1/2 ounces) salmon
1 small onion, finely grated (pulp and juice)
2 tablespoons minced parsley
Properly to taste
1 large egg
Fine dry bread crumbs
2 tablespoons butter
Into a medium mixing bowl turn the salmon, including liquid. Flake with a fork, mashing any bones (they are edible). Mix in grated onion, parsley and pepper. In a small mixing bowl beat egg until thickened and lemon color; mix with salmon. Add enough bread crumbs (1/4 to 1/2 cup) to make thick enough to shape into 4 small patties. Roll patties in 1/4 cup bread crumbs. In a 9 or 10-inch skillet over low heat, melt 2 tablespoons of the butter; add patties; fry slowly on one side until brown; add remaining 1 tablespoon butter, turn patties and fry until brown on other side. Makes 3 servings.

SATURDAY DINNER

Creamy salmon taste as good with chicken as with turkey.
Roast Chicken: Oven Potatoes: Creamy Onions: Tiny Peas: Chocolate Mousse: Beverage: CREAMY ONIONS
2 pounds small white onions (about 22 onions)
4 quarts boiling water
2 tablespoons butter
2 tablespoons regular or instant flour
1 1/4 cups milk
1/4 teaspoon salt
1-1/2 teaspoon white pepper
Paprika or minced parsley
Into a medium saucepan turn the onions and two quarts of the water. Place over high heat and bring almost to a boil. Drain and run cold water over onions. Peel, cutting off both ends and making a cross-cut in the root ends.
Into the saucepan turn the onions and remaining water. Boil, covered, until tender when pierced with a fork—about 20 minutes. Drain and keep warm.
In the saucepan over low heat melt butter; remove from heat. Stir in flour; gradually stir in milk, keeping smooth. Return to moderate heat and, stirring constantly, cook until thickened and boiling; boil a minute or two. Add onions and reheat if necessary. Sprinkle with paprika or parsley. Makes six servings.

Deterrent
MINEHEAD, England (UPI)—A doctor asked a local social club to stop serving a cider drink because he claimed it had bad effects on two of his patients.
The club's directors decided against a ban, but boosted the cider price by two cents "as a deterrent to the people concerned."

Two Top Figures In Morals Arrest

By BILL SCOTT

Harlan Blackburn, reputed Central Florida gambling king, and Edward R. Kirkland, famed criminal attorney, were arrested early today at their Orange County homes by Orange County authorities on warrants issued by Seminole County Judge Wallace Hall.

The arrests followed an intensive investigation by Seminole County Sheriff John E. Polk after disclosures revealed the involvement of a female juvenile.

Polk issued the following statement this morning commenting on the charges:

"This morning, Harlan Blackburn was arrested by the Orange County Sheriff's office on a warrant issued in Seminole County for lewd and lascivious conduct."

"At the same time, Edward R. Kirkland was arrested on two warrants issued by the Seminole County authorities for lewd and lascivious conduct and crime against nature."

Polk continued, "These acts were allegedly conducted in the presence of a white female under the age of 14. Blackburn was released on $50,000 bond and Kirkland on total $1,000 bond."

Duane Harrell, chief deputy, said the arrests were made at approximately 3 a.m. at Blackburn's apartment on Michigan Avenue and Kirkland's Windermere home.

A hearing into the charges is expected to be set for sometime Friday in the county judge's office.

Kirkland in the past has served as Blackburn's attorney in several gambling cases expected to be heard in late February in Seminole Circuit Court.

$10 Million Christian Community To Be Built

By HILL SCOTT

A $10 million church-sponsored Christian community will be established on 65 acres of land just off Onra Road Station and adjacent to Lakewood Junior High near Lake Ada.

This was indicated after Semineole Zoning and Planning Board last night set Feb. 11 public hearing on the project that is expected to bring approximately 1,800 people to the 900 units of apartments to be constructed in a Christian atmosphere complete with church, flower nursery, village inn, primary and village hall.

To be known as Christian Village, the community will be established by the Christian Reformed Association, a subsidiary of the Christian Church, for retirees of all denominations.

According to preliminary plans, the complex will be made up of three large concentrations: Village West, Village East and Village North with total apartment units expected to reach 1,100 at a later time.

The facility will be a tax-paying community with the apartment units cost expected to be paid by the occupants.

Architect for the planned village is John Langley of Orlando, and Don Wheeler, also of Orlando, is the treasurer of the Christian Reformed Foundation.

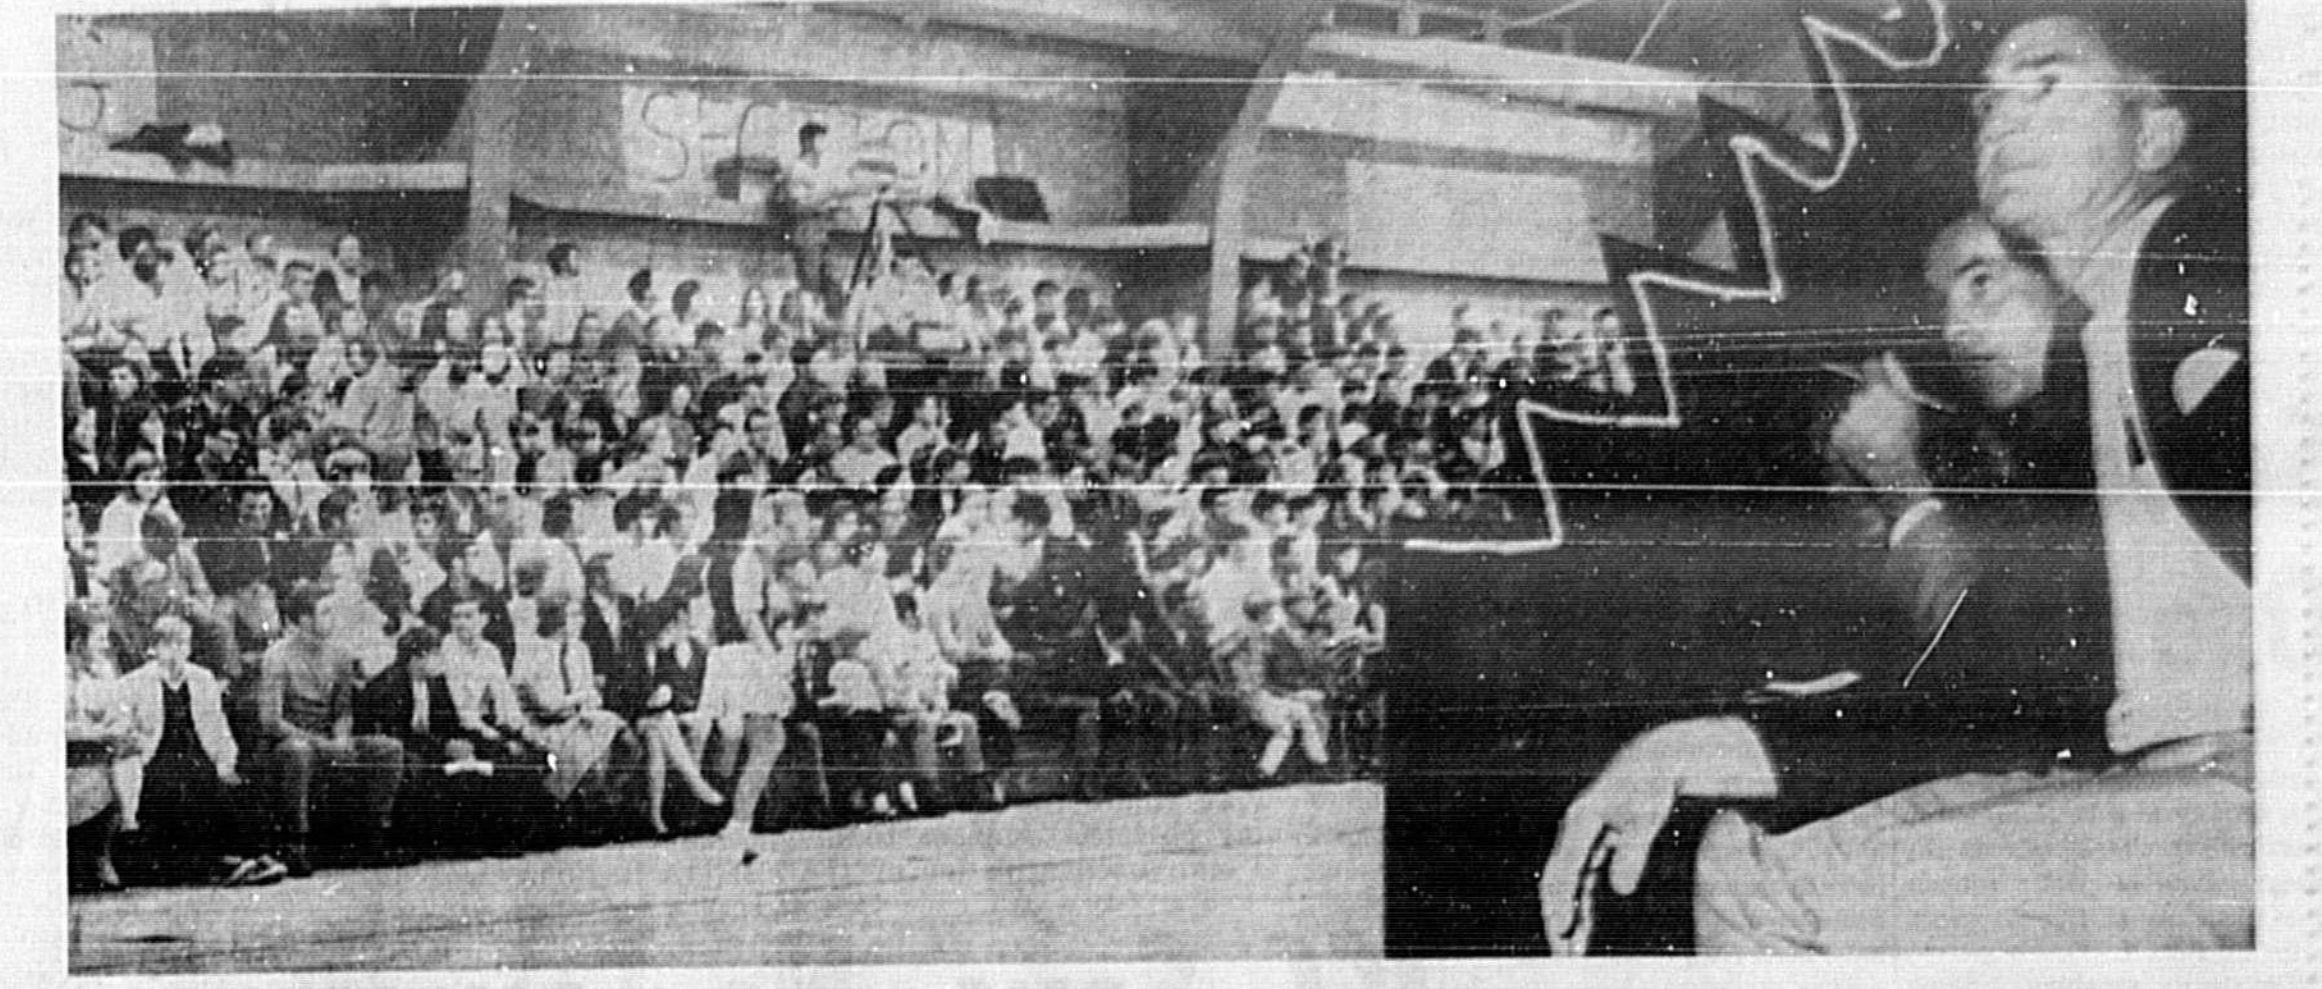

Funding is expected to be arranged through Federal Housing Authority (FHA) according to information supplied by Ernest White, Sanford real estate broker, who handled the sale of the property from Thomas McDonald, trustee; Howard McNulty and Alfred Doudry.

White said there still remains many steps to be taken before the community can begin construction.

These include zoning approval of area property owners at Feb. 11 hearing and other necessary and required procedures.

Zoning change from present agricultural to multiple dwelling status is needed for the property, White advised.

Robert Brown, county zoning officer said the property would have its own sewer plant, security station, shops and maintenance.

Altamonte Aide Need Stressed Swofford Asks For Backup Pay

By MARION BETHEA

Altamonte Mayor W. Lawrence Swofford, recently elected to another term of office, projected his political future at a meeting of city council last night.

Swofford wanted the city to employ a right-of-way agent to negotiate easements for the sewer system, and gave the

Just, "we must get this sewer system through, or I'll have to run for another term as mayor." The subject of the agent arose from a discussion of an expense ordinance presented by city attorney, S. Joseph Davis, with figures taken from Florida statutes allowing the maximum per diem allowance.

Considerable controversy arose last year over expenses incurred by the mayor for "out of town" expenses, and Swofford remarked that if he leaves the city an official business he "expects to get paid." Swofford alluded to the 50,000 rights-of-way which he has negotiated that hasn't cost the city a dime. Davis was of the opinion that a right of way agent might be beneficial to the town, in that personal contact afforded better public relations than a letter from the city attorney. This brought the aside from Swofford, "Yes, some people don't even trust their own attorney." There are 15 easements in question to be negotiated.

Councilman Keith Nixon moved that four council-

License Error, Not City's Fault

Altamonte city council learned last night that granting an occupational license to an individual does not necessarily grant them the authorization to operate a business in violation of zoning ordinances. This was succinctly pointed out by attorney for the city, S. Joseph Davis, in reading the final judgment of litigation against the city by an individual operating a beauty salon in a multiple family zoning. The case stemmed from granting this individual an occupational license, and later attempting to cease operation of the salon.

Judgment was that the individual could operate the salon until expiration of lease, but that the city was in error in granting the license since it was not for use in a specific address.

Zoning also came under consideration in requests for a use variance from Wilson Knott for a service station in a C-1 area. Davis opined that the request was not in order since the zoning classification would have to be changed to C-2. Davis continued the zoning questions with another request from Edward Stevenson for a use variance at Matland Ave. for an art studio, gallery, and art school. Davis said that the R-3 zoning did not allow for schools except day nurseries, but that in his opinion refusal to grant the variance would be not picking up under the conditional use. Permission was granted to ABC Moving and Storage Co. for an ADB or Notifier reporting system monitoring by ABC Company for paving and drainage of the street.

Drummond Listens To A Different Drummer

By MARION BETHEA

Commissioner Greg Drummond apparently hears a "different drummer," since he was the only county commissioner in disagreement with the decision of the county Board of Adjustment to grant a special exception for a recreational area and trailer site on property south of Lake Mary, east of 14, and west of Lake Emma. Drummond was apparently sympathetic to the protests of area property owners adjacent to the area, and moved that the county commissioners overrule the Board of Adjustment. The motion died for lack of a second.

Mack Cleveland, Jr., attorney for the developers, pressed for approval of the exception by the Board of County Commissioners, with the statement that the issue was not final and that there would be another advertised public hearing. Chairman John Alexander, shot back, "I disagree with you unless Drummond stated that Wagner had told him that the facility was not in the best interests of the county, but Drummond wanted commissioners to hear it."

Drummond also attempted to have the meeting changed to an evening so that working people could attend, but Alexander saw "no useful purpose" in this.

Hearing on the controversy will be on Feb. 3 at 11:00 a.m.
