SENATE GIVES WAY IN FUSS OVER CWA BILL

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.—(A.P.)—The Senate today completed congressional action on the $950,000,000 appropriation bill for the CWA and distress relief. It now goes to the White House.

Continued federal subsidies to keep the Stars and Stripes afloat are assured. Cancellation of airmail contracts having brought into question the Roosevelt marine policy, a presidential press conference today threw cold water on any idea of abandoning help to American shipping.

It became known that the President has selected a cabinet committee to make plans for internal development embracing flood control, decentralization of industry, reforestation, agriculture and transportation.

In a closed session, the Senate election committee considered petitions for Louisiana, seeking to oust Senators Long and Overton from the Senate.

Although warned that 4,000,000 Civil Works employees would be out of work Saturday unless the measure passed, Senate consent today held up action on the Administration bill to appropriate $950,000,000.

At the same time, Harry L. Hopkins, director of the relief organization, was engaging in a tit for tat with the veteran Massachusetts Republican Representative Gifford, that sets sparks flying.

Before the House expenditures committee, Gifford insisted that Hopkins give an account of this Civil Works stewardship. The relief director replied spiritedly to Gifford's questions.

The Senate discussion of House changes in the supply bill which carried funds for Civil Works, proceeded until all the time available yesterday for consideration of the measure was exhausted.

Opposing the debate opposition to House limitations on expenditures of the funds, and approval of Senate confirmation of state Civil Works directors, were emphasized. Hopkins, while admitting some loose spots in the organization as a result of its hurried establishment, insisted the job had been to put 4,000,000 persons to work and that the work had been handled with dispatch.

Roosevelt Said In Favor Of Wilcox Municipal Refunding Bill Now Blocked In Senate

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.—(A.P.)—In line with his recent declaration that interest rates were too high, President Roosevelt yesterday conferred with Congressional leaders on a pending measure which would give hard-pressed municipalities a means of scaling down both the principal and carrying charges of their debts.

The bill, already passed by the House but stalled since last session on the Senate side, would afford defaulting municipalities debt relief through the federal courts. Two-thirds of the creditors agreed that reduction should be made. Just before the White House conference Chairman Jesse H. Jones of the Reconstruction corporation told a House banking sub-committee that he thought direct lending by his agency to municipalities and school districts would be unwise.

"I have never thought it desirable for the government to start lending to cities and counties," Jones said, adding this applied to school districts.

The sub-committee was considering a measure by Representative Kenney which would authorize RFC loans to municipalities.

200,000 MEN MAY BE CUT OFF CWA ROLL

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.—(A.P.)—The Civil Works Administration is considering discharging within the next few days 200,000 or more men now employed on federal projects located on private land throughout the East and South.

Dairy L. Hopkins, administrator, and a group of Civil Works officials were reported to have conferred at length yesterday on the question of whether to continue work on special projects for the Department of Agriculture, the Southwestern Institution, and the Public Health Service.

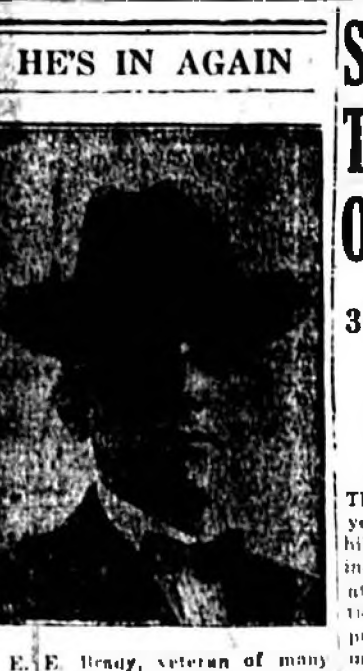

The Agriculture Department is employing a large number of men in Maryland and nearby sections in an effort to eradicate the Rocky Mountain spotted fever tick. In a number of Southern states, men have been trying to eliminate the fever ticks while in Atlanta, Ga., and New York as well as other places, they have been attempting rat extermination.

Other projects of this type include campaigns against the Gypsy moth and the Dutch elm disease. In 17 Southern states the Public Works Service is trying to drive out mosquitoes in an effort to control malaria.

It was said that the evacuation of Indian mounds and sites in Florida and other states also might be stopped. Final decision has not yet been made.

Some officials said it had not been definitely determined whether the men would be taken off Civil Works payrolls completely, or merely transferred to other projects.

STOCK MARKET TIGHTENS UP ON MEMBERS

NEW YORK, Feb. 14.—(A.P.)—The New York Stock Exchange yesterday adopted new rules prohibiting any interest in the profits of any and other market operation. It is intended for the purpose of curbing the influence of market price of any security.

This was the first of three new regulations adopted by the exchange's governing committee, on the eve of the resumption of the Senate banking and currency committee's hearing in Washington on stock exchange practices.

The second rule prohibits any member acting as a specialist or his firm or any of his partners acquiring or granting any option in respect to the stock in which the member is a specialist.

Richard Whitney, president of the exchange, in announcing these new rules, took occasion to make his first comment on the security exchange regulation. He disclosed that it contains "both good and bad provisions."

He found it dealt with many matters already covered by the exchange's rules, which he regarded as "conflicting evidence that the purpose of the exchange and the purpose sought to be achieved by the bill are in many respects identical."

Estimate 1000 Dead In Civil War Raging Throughout Austria

VIENNA, Feb. 14.—(A.P.)—Socialist women fought grimly throughout the night beside their men against an overwhelming wave of government troops.

It is estimated that at least 1,000 persons have been killed.

Today, after a short lull, the battle was resumed through streets still littered with the dead.

Women fought like old pioneers of the American prairie. A government commander said they helped carry munitions and loaded rifles for their embattled husbands and brothers who fought from the windows of their homes.

Their resistance was smashed by artillery.

The state of civil war between socialists and the government continued serious throughout the nation but in the outlying regions the government rapidly appeared to be gaining the upper hand.

Chancellor Engelbert Dollfuss, determined to retain control of his government declared the socialist fight was "madness."

AUSTRIAN CRISIS LINKED WITH WAR OVER ALLEUROPE

Official comment is lacking in Rome but many Italians have expressed fears that Axis may get the upper hand in the little neighboring country.

Reactions in European capitals to the Austrian crisis Tuesday included:

BERLIN—A foreign office spokesman said: "We x x x are most anxious that peace shall prevail over there, but peace cannot come so long as Chancellor Dollfuss and Vice Chancellor Fey base their regime on Austrian bayonets and foreign sympathies, not upon the will of the Austrian people."

PARIS—Henry Beniger, chairman of the Senate foreign affairs committee, unofficially proposed armed protection of Austria's independence by French, Italian and British troops.

LONDON—Foreign Secretary Sir John Simon said the House of Commons that the British Government had no intention of interfering in the internal affairs of another country.

In authoritative circles it was said Britain believes firmly that Austria is entitled to an independent existence without interference from another nation.

SEMINOLE HIGH ROPS 40 TO 30 CAME TO TIGERS

Jordan Stars In Loss Which Came After Stemons Got Going

Although they came from behind to take the lead early in the fourth quarter, Coach Leonard Williams' Seminole High School basketball players were unable to keep up the pace, and their final game with the Orlando Tigers ended in a 30 to 40 defeat at high school auditorium last night. The defeat came despite the brilliant play of Quill Jordan, Seminole forward who scored 17 of his team's 30 points. Jordan went into action when the Orlando guards effectively halted the usually effective Whitten, tiny Seminole forward who was held to two points all evening when he usually turns in at least 10 points.

The Tigers won mainly through the efforts of substitute forward Billy Stemons who rolled up seven points in the last five minutes of the game. Seminole had good support from Rayburn, tall center who was removed from the game near its close because of fouls.

Seminole was trailing 8 to 4 at the quarter and 18 to 18 at the half when Jordan started dropping baskets right and left to give the team an opportunity to score a victory. Seminole was a single point behind at the end of the third quarter, and with a few minutes it went ahead, 25 to 24, for the only time during the evening.

The Tigers played a wide-open game until the closing minutes of the game when, with Seminole's defense bogged down, the Tigers settled into close formation play and swept up and down the floor almost at will.

In a curtain raiser, the Seminole "B" team scored a 27 to 18 victory over the Orlando "B" team.

Seminole High plays at DeLand on Friday and at Daytona Beach on Saturday.

Lindbergh Line Takes Claim To Federal Court

The company's action came less than 48 hours after Lindbergh protested to President Roosevelt that cancellation of all the contracts "concerns the largest portion of our commercial aviation without just trial."

Farley, Attorney General Cummings and Karl A. Crowley collector to the postoffice department, immediately announced in Washington that the order would be fought in the courts.

The petition on which Judge Knox acted charged that the Farley order of Feb. 9 cancelling the contracts "is unconstitutional, illegal and void because beyond the power, authority and jurisdiction of the defendant, Farley, and because it deprives the complainant of its property without due process of law and without just compensation x x x."

After hearing the complaint, embodying the charge that the order violated the Fourth and Fifth Amendments of the U. S. Constitution, Judge Knox, allowed the order.

The petition cited investments by the complainant of approximately $5,000,000, including $625,000 in airplanes, made because it held the air mail contracts. It also charged that the company had entered into contracts for additional equipment amounting to "approximately upward of $3,000,000."

Steve Hamas Beats Max Schmeling In Gory Ring Battle

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 14.—Max Schmeling's dream of regaining his heavyweight championship was blasted last night when he was outpointed by Steve Hamas in one of the bloodiest, most savage bouts ever witnessed in this city of Brotherly Love.

A crowd of 16,000 persons that packed the vast convention hall from ring to rafters saw Hamas, a young collegian who was a decided underdog in the betting, take eight rounds of the 12 from the man who, two years ago, was champion of the world.

They're talking about the last four rounds of last night's brawl so long as men go forth to war. In the ninth and tenth, Schmeling, with a deep, wicked cut over his eye, that poured forth a steady torrent of blood, stood out in the middle of the ring and took all that the dynamiting youngster had to offer.

Army Grid Star Tells Story Of Attack Case

SAN ANTONIO, Texas, Feb. 14.—(AP)—Lieut. John H. Murrel, former West Point football star, testified yesterday that Miss Blanche Ralls was intoxicated and he was taking her home to his mother at the time she alleged he assaulted her last fall.

The defendant told a crowded federal courtroom that his accuser, a pretty Alabama divorcee, was in a "drunken condition" on the morning of Oct. 22, following a party in celebration of a football game.

Barrege of left and right that bounced off his chin, but just when it appeared he was through, he'd force a smile to his blood-messured lips, duck his head, and wade in for more.

VATICAN CITY, Feb. 14.—(AP)—Pope Pius last night sounded a warning against efforts to "drag the world back into paganism."

The criticism was interpreted in various ways, some viewing it as a new attack on the Nazi sterilization law in Germany while others believed it referred to bolshevism.

BANKRUPT CITY MAY BENEFIT BY RFC LOAN

Administration Gives Thought To Plan To Lead Money On Tax Anticipation Notes

WASHINGTON, Feb. 15.—(A.P.)—Congressional sentiment for helping bankrupt municipalities resulted today in an Administration consideration of having the Reconstruction Finance Corporation do some lending in that direction.

Analysis of a plan which would require legislation involving RFC anticipations of tax anticipation warrants as collateral, had to wait on a test bill debate in the House, however, and appropriations arguments in the Senate.

Clamped securely in the protective armor of a rule barring amendments, the new $258,000,000 general revenue bill yesterday was started on its way to passage by the House.

It passed its first and probably most severe test yesterday when the House voted 341 to 154 to bind itself under so-called "gag" procedure to allow only changes to be proposed by the Ways and Means Committee.

Bram Talks Kiwanians About Law Authority

The subject "Law and Authority" was outlined before Sanford Kiwanians during their luncheon at the Montecarlo Hotel yesterday, by Rev. Martin Bram of Holy Cross Episcopal Church.

During his talk he pointed out law as being divided into two parts—God-made law, and man-made law, and he explained how it is practically impossible to evade either without penalty.

Kiwanian Bill Leedy of the Orlando club invited Sanford Kiwanians to be guests of his club at a luncheon meeting in Orlando next Friday noon, after which the entire group will attend the Central Florida Exposition as guests of the Kiwanis Club of Orlando. The invitation was accepted.

Those attending the meeting were: Kiwanians C. E. Mason, who presided, W. D. Hoffman, Gordon Barnett, Karl Nordgren, Arthur Branan, E. C. Harper, W. S. Coleman, Julius Klingfelder, L. Tharp, J. G. Leonard, Jno. D. J. Atkins, T. L. Dumais, B. D. Caswell, R. A. Smith, H. C. Washburn, I. J. Brackley, L. T. Doas, W. A. Cooper, J. L. Marentette, E. E. Radally, E. F. Doodney, J. A. Spear, S. E. Civic Group To Discuss Clean-Up Campaign

When members of the Women's Civic Committee of the Chamber of Commerce meet in the City Hall next Monday morning at 10:00 o'clock, they will discuss the proposed city-wide clean-up and beautification campaign which is to be staged during the month of March. Tentative plans for this event will be the setting up of committees which will visit each town in the county before and after the drive, to act as judges and name winners of individual and town prizes that are to be donated by various merchants and manufacturers.

FARLEY GIVES CROSS STATE REASONS FOR DRASTIC MOVE

Present Domestic Air Mail Carriers Opposed To Secure Contracts, He Said

WASHINGTON, Feb. 15.—(A.P.)—The wholesale cancellation of air mail contracts last night was publicly explained by Postmaster General Farley as predicated on his belief that "all the present carriers secured contracts based on conspiracy or collusion."

He made one possible exception, the National Park Airways, but let this broadside against the rest of the companies stand as his answer to the protests from the air lines and to Congressional and editorial criticism.

The conspiracy, he charged, was hatched at a meeting of air line representatives in 1930, who entered an agreement which "resulted in a division of all air mail contracts of the United States and the practical elimination of competitive bidding."

His answer, made while protests and criticism still continued, was in a letter to Senator Black, chairman of the Senate committee investigating air and ocean mail contracts.

The postmaster general, a few days ago, had ordered the cancellation of all air mail contracts of the United States and the practical elimination of competitive bidding.

ROOSEVELT ANNOUNCES REJECTION OF PLAN TO DIG DITCH UNDER SPONSORSHIP OF PWA

WASHINGTON, Feb. 15.—(A.P.)—The dream of a ribbon of water cutting a short shipping route across the Florida peninsula from Atlantic to Gulf faded yesterday with the announcement by President Roosevelt that the proposed ship canal had been rejected as a Public Works project.

Plans to build the canal were thrown overboard upon the finding of army engineers that it was not economically feasible.

The President told newspapermen he was deeply disappointed, for he had hoped the canal could be built with Public Works funds and operated on a self-sustaining basis through tolls charged ships using the waterway.

After a personal study, however, assisted by army engineers and economists of the commerce department, Roosevelt found that the canal would cost about $200,000,000, instead of the $125,000,000 first estimated, and that the economic use would not be as great as first expected.

The canal would have cut more than 300 miles from the coast.

Standard instruction in first aid has just been given to a class of 30 CWA workers through the co-operation of Dr. S. Puleston, Miss Frances McLaughlin, the local Red Cross Chapter, and Roland F. Lamb, special disbursing officer of the CWA, it was announced today.

The class was organized by the Red Cross some weeks ago, with Dr. Puleston as instructor, assisted by Miss McDougal. Mr. Lamb selected the men.

Regular class room technique was used, and rigid oral and written examinations were given to the men last Saturday. Those who passed the course will be given First Aid certificates, and they will be expected to render first aid assistance when the occasion demands.

At a meeting of the Red Cross executive board last Monday morning, members of the group expressed their appreciation of the time and effort that Dr. Puleston and Miss McDougal had expended on the course, it was stated.

Those taking the course were: Theodore Wade, George Steinfeld, A. D. Shoemaker, C. P. Martin, Homer Ballard, Frank Pitts, C. F. Harrison, H. P. Harrison, G. W. Bennett, Horace Leger, R. B. Thompson, Ernest Brotherson, C. M. Hand, R. W. Duckworth, J. D. Cassidy, R. E. Kelsey, Edgar Lee, F. A. Dyson, W. B. Hollaway, W. H. Harrison, Eddie Beckstrom, D. R. Smith, L. J. Rollin, L. D. Fidler, Steen Nelson, R. C. Woods, G. W. Knight, and F. R. Dyson.

The association of life insurance presidents reported yesterday that new paid-for life insurance in the United States in January amounted to $665,457,000 compared with production of $614,431,000 in the same month a year ago.

The figures represented production in 42 companies having 85 percent of the total volume of life insurance outstanding in all United States legal reserve companies.

State Radio Station Will Lend Its Assistance To Celery Week Program

Florida celery is to get unusual publicity next week when the state radio station WRUF at Gainesville will put on six 15 minute broadcasts from 5:30 to 6:45 each evening from Monday through Saturday.

This publicity for celery has been arranged through the Seminoles County Chamber of Commerce by Walter (Red) Barber, a former resident of Sanford who is chief announcer of the station, and it is given by courtesy of Major Garland Powell, director of the station.

The best talent available in Gainesville, members of the WRUF staff, are donating their services for these broadcasts.

Monday, Feb. 19, 5:30-6:45 P. M., the Orange Grove String Band will provide the musical features and "Red" Barber will handle the announcements.

Tuesday, Feb. 20, 5:30-6:45 P. M., the musical numbers will feature the songs of Jimmy Butch, assisted by Ely Katz, violinist and Bill Bryan, pianist.

Wednesday, Feb. 21, 5:30-6:45 P. M., Cliff Gourley, lyric tenor,

Colonel Lindbergh Accused Of Conduct "Unbecoming An Officer And A Gentleman"

NEW YORK, Feb. 15.—(A.P.)—The army has been asked to revoke the commission of Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh in the officers reserve corps.

Arthur W. MacMahon, of New York, who made the request, accused Colonel Lindbergh of "conduct unbecoming an officer and a gentleman" in sending to President Roosevelt a telegram protesting cancellation of air mail contracts.

MacMahon, who described himself as a former senior lieutenant in the naval reserve air force, said he sent the request to Major General Dennis E. Nolan, commander of the second corps area, Tuesday. At Governor's Island, corps area headquarters, the request had not been received early yesterday.

Colonel Lindbergh's telegram was "prejudicial to the good order and discipline of the service," MacMahon charged, and revealed "nothing but selfish and un-officer-like interest to the discredit and disadvantageous reflection of many reserve officers who do not share the views expressed."

He asked that his request be examined by a board of officers, as provided in the military regulations, "or any other duly authorized authority."

DOLLFUSS HAS BROKEN BACK OF REVOLUTION

Vienna Rebellion Has Collapsed Although Scattered Fighting Goes On In Provinces

VIENNA, Feb. 15.—(A.P.)—The Socialist rebellion against the government of Chancellor Dollfuss collapsed in the capital today but socialists continued fighting in the provinces, where in some instances they appeared being government troops.

Two thousand socialists surrounded a group at Leoben on the southern outskirts of Vienna but Prince Ernst von Salmberg, second vice-chancellor of Austria and leader of the Fascist Heimwehr, was reported surrounded with his men in Styria. Government troops were dispatched from Vienna in an attempt to cut through machine gun nests which ringed him.

Italian Troops Moved To Austrian Frontier

ROME, Feb. 15.—A formidable concentration of troops on the Italian-Austrian frontier was ordered by Premier Benito Mussolini last night. The movement was described officially as a purely "precautionary measure."

Two army corps from Bologna and Udine were moved up to the border. Other divisions moved in at these towns, as replacements. It was understood this concentration of troops was ordered when events at Vienna looked doubtful. If the Dollfuss loyalists retain control the movements will be lessened and the units probably withdrawn.

In authoritative quarters, it was explained that the troop movements were part of a plan arranged for replacements of certain units, but the rebellion in Austria hastened the order.

Brown Asks For Early Hearing On Contracts

WASHINGTON, Feb. 15.—(A.P.)—Walter F. Brown, postmaster general in the Hoover administration, asked the Senate to permit him to testify "voluntarily" at the earliest possible date, and promised that he would waive immunity from prosecution as a result of anything he had to say.
