WINTER STILL HOLDS ITS GRIP UPON COUNTRY

East, Midwest, Pacific Areas Are Hit By Low Temperatures; South To Have Drop

(By The Associated Press)
Unrelenting, except in spots, premature winter kept up its assault on the nation today. Temperatures in the East are sagging and mercury drops are forecast for the South.

The Midwest, already blanketed by snow, was promised more but with temperatures higher than those yesterday when subzero readings brought suffering to the homeless.

In the first measurable quantity on record, snow fell throughout Southern California's Imperial Valley as winter spread its white robe over the Great American Desert.

For the first time in history Sacramento had ice skating and snow fell at Brawley, Calif. where there was no record of such weather before and also covered the ground at Yuma, Ariz. Rocky Mountain states, however, and Oklahoma began enjoying milder temperatures.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 13.—(AP)—Winter still was running amok last night in the Pacific coast's strongholds of summer, having been discouraged only slightly in its four-day demonstration by temporary warmth from midday sunshine.

Ice, sleet, snow, rain and cold winds penetrating California from its northern boundary to the Mexican line held their ground, though the sunshine lifted temperatures as much as 10 degrees yesterday afternoon.

Two hundred persons were mentioned at Big Bear Lake in the San Bernardino mountains of Southern California when snow precipitated a landslide blocking a road. Air traffic out of Los Angeles was paralyzed.

Two river boats were frozen in the ice at Marshfield, Ore., an unprecedented incident there. In ordinary halcyon Roseburg people went skating for the first time in 40 years.

Letture prices jumped 50 cents a crate in Los Angeles because of reports of muddy field conditions, but agricultural commissioners said the crops had not been appreciably harmed. Vegetable, fruit and flower men of San Francisco claimed extensive losses because of the cold.

Bakersfield had six inches of snow at noon. Riverside in the heart of the citrus fruit region, had snowfall, but the flakes melted as they fell. The mercury dropped to 42 in Los Angeles. Low clouds and a raw wind made it a bleak day.

Court Reconvenes For Brief Session

Judge Millard B. Smith's fall term of Circuit Court reconvened this morning for a brief session, that resulted in John Meisch, Sr., being awarded a verdict in the civil action $5000 damage suit brought against him by Rhoda B. Ewing. The jury which heard the case was composed of O. H. Frain, W. R. Stum, A. E. Moran, A. L. Moore, John Everson and J. C. Owen.

Tomorrow morning at 9:30 o'clock Judge Smith is scheduled to hear the long delayed civil action suit started by John L. Wimblish against Roy Symes and E. A. Douglas.

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 13.—(AP)—Belief that Zasu Pitts, screen comedienne, is out of danger in a serious illness was expressed yesterday by her physician, Dr. Edwin Larson.

Attempt On Life Of Kaiser Frustrated

AMSTERDAM, Holland, Dec. 13.—(AP)—Frans Hillkloot who eluded guards and made his way into the exile home of former Kaiser Wilhelm at Doorn yesterday was put across the frontier into Germany this afternoon. Police, considering him mentally deficient, decided not to prosecute him. He was found armed with a dagger and a pistol in a tower overlooking Wilhelm's study. The man insisted he had no homicidal intent.

BROTHERHOOD OF TRAINMEN TURNS DOWN CUT PLANS

Delegation Rejects Proposal To Continue Present Policy

CHICAGO, Dec. 13.—(AP)—Railway brotherhood delegates rejected today a proposal of railroad managements that the deadline management plan be terminated on Jan. 31 for termination of the present temporary 10 percent wage reduction of rail employees be extended indefinitely.

Railroad executives proposed yesterday an indefinite extension of the 10 percent wage cut now in effect, and tossed fuel for conflict into the joint wage conference.

Spokesmen for the shop workers and trainmen would facilitate a reduction in the basic wage, which has remained unchanged during the last year, or that it would lead to a reduction greater than 10 percent.

Under the agreement signed last winter, railway employees accepted a temporary reduction of 10 percent until next Jan. 31.

W. F. Thiehoff, general manager of the Burlington line, appeared before the 1500 railway brotherhood men as chairman of the joint meeting yesterday morning and asked that the Jan. 31 deadline be forgotten.

He suggested that the temporary 10 percent cut be continued without definite termination and that either side might give 30 days notice of a desire to change the status, whereupon the question would be taken directly to the federal mediation board instead of summoning another joint conference.

The labor representatives, headed by Alexander F. Whitney, a chairman, asked Thiehoff to explain why the carriers needed the indefinite extension. Whitney at last had publicly announced that he would unreservedly oppose any further wage cutting and "denounce to labor's purchasing power" the 21 brotherhoods represented here authorized their negotiations only to consider extension of the 10 percent cut, and not to talk of any greater reduction.

Mrs. Morse Urges People Not To Aid Transient Beggars

"Discourage street and house-to-house begging" is the advice given this morning by Mrs. Helen T. Morse, director of the Semole County Welfare Board as she asked the assistance of the residents of both the city and county.

"With Sanford being a primary stopping off place of an army of unfortunates from other states," Mrs. Morse said, "we must handle this problem with more or less avoidance of duplication. Therefore, we urge that unless the person asking for money, food or clothing is in such state as it appears absolutely necessary that he be supplied at once, all such requests be turned down and the person be sent to the Welfare Board headquarters in the Court House."

"Simply say to the person who begs money, food or clothing," Mrs. Morse said, "that the Welfare Board is well organized and equipped to handle all worthy cases and advise the person to visit the office at once. With the assistance of every resident we shall therefore soon eliminate not only the cases of actual want but the number of unfortunates stopping over as well."

FARM AID AT SHORT SESSION SEEN LIKELY

Temporary Enactment Of Bill Along Line Of Domestic Allotment Plan Is Hope

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—(AP)—Temporary enactment of a bill making the tariff effective on farm crops along lines of the voluntary domestic allotment plan was regarded as "entirely possible" last night as leaders of 15 national farm and commodity organizations reconvened to discuss measures for the short session of Congress.

Washington headquarters of two national groups interested in the immediate necessity of such a bill, the National Grange, headed by E. J. Taber, National Grange leader, suggesting measures to protect 1933 crops and their future marketing that of the adjustment plan could be cut down to a bare workable structure along with the qualification fee and export debit to be held over for the Roosevelt administration.

The President-elect, who was described as coming strongly to ward the independent plan was reported at the conference by Henry Morgenthau, Jr., sometimes mentioned as possible chief of secretary of agriculture.

It is believed that the adjustment plan would require the Department of Agriculture to estimate the 1933 production of wheat, cotton and tobacco and the probable domestic consumption and its percentage for home use and for export.

The percentage would be based on data to be furnished by the producer who would receive a negotiable certificate as proof of the amount of the production. A domestic allotment in addition to the market price.

Under the current draft of the plan the certificate would be part of a fund created by a producer's excess tax equal to the tariff on wheat, cotton and tobacco manufacturing for domestic consumption. The tax would be paid on or before the 15th day of each month.

Senate Committee Orders Resumption Of Quiz Into Stock Market Activities

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—(AP)—The Senate Banking Committee today ordered resumption of an inquiry into the stock market and appointed a subcommittee to conduct the hearings. It will be headed by Senator Nock, South Dakota Republican, and includes Glass, Democrats; Caines, Michigan and Townsend, Delaware, Republicans.

The Senate's call for investigations made itself felt yesterday with proposals for inquiries into the bonus cuts of last summer and labor conditions in Mississippi food control plan.

The creation of a special Senate committee of five to investigate the activities of the bonus market, was proposed in a resolution by Senator McKellar, Democrat, Tennessee.

It was followed almost immediately by a demand from Senator Wagner, New York Democrat, for the labor investigation. Conditions in the Mississippi food control plan.

The committee would be given $500,000 to fund the new inquiry and nearly a score of other questions in connection with the bonus market, including a study of all other facts in connection with the inquiry.

STREET LIGHTS DISCUSSED BY HEADS OF CITY

Plan Is Suggested For Installing 2 Small Generators To Give White Way Current

The possibility that the City of Sanford, by the installation of two small generators at the waterworks plant, might light all its white-way system at an estimated cost of less than $100 per month, was expressed at an advisory meeting of the City Commission in the City Hall last night, where, due to the absence from the City of Commissioner W. A. Lefler, matters that were termed "routine" were the only ones disposed of.

The what was fighting proposition was shortly after City Clerk F. S. Lamson called the Commission's attention to the fact that they had done nothing to arrange for a change in the present City lighting contract with the Florida Power and Light Co. and that as a result the City is now spending over a million dollars per month for a rate that is 100 percent higher than it was in 1927.

On this matter, Mr. Lamson said that if the City is to keep within its budgeted figure of $100,000 for a year's supply of electricity, it must not spend more than $7292 per month for the rest of the year. The Commission authorized Mr. Lamson to carry the power company that amount monthly from now on.

House Turns Down Resolution Aimed To Impeach Hoover

Reiterates Position And Urges Importance Of Conference

(By The Associated Press)
Great Britain returned to the House of Representatives today with another resolution aimed at the removal of President Hoover from office. The resolution was introduced by Representative McFadden, Pennsylvania Republican, to impeach President Hoover.

Long a foe of the administration, McFadden presented a resolution saying the President has "assumed the powers of Congress" in proclaiming the moratorium. He contended the action led to the present situation involving the United States and foreign debtors.

The House listened silently as the resolution, charging Hoover with violating the laws and the Constitution of the United States, and with "high crimes and misdemeanors" was read by the clerk.

It said the President's actions had "prevented the receipt of payment of money" owed the United States by foreign governments and charged him with conducting conversations with foreign representatives "unanimous to the United States."

RAMBLER COACH PREDICTED SCORE OF TILT EXACTLY

Hunk Anderson Stated Trojans Would Win By 13 To 0 Margin

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 12.—(AP)—Coach Hunk Anderson as a prophet is not without honor in Southern California.

In a moment of despair a few days ago, the Notre Dame mentor predicted a 13 to 0 defeat for his Ramblers, the likes of which Southern California's Trojans meted out here Saturday before the season's record crowd of more than 100,000 persons.

Followers of Coach Howard Jones' undefeated team yesterday turned their eyes toward the annual Rose Tournament game at Pasadena Jan. 2, with Pittsburgh, ready to heap more honor on the bowed head of Coach Anderson should he be right in that contest too.

"Southern California should defeat Pittsburgh by two touchdowns," quoth Anderson yesterday. "Pitt lacks the offense that the Trojans have, although it is a great defensive team. Heller is a great halfback. He is fast like Griffith, cuts and whirles and is a fine defensive player."

All of which is enough to set the West to wondering if, perhaps the Trojans wouldn't boop up with their twentieth straight victory on Jan. 2 in the rose bedecked bowl. If they did it would be Pitt's third defeat in Rose tournament play and Troy's fourth triumph.

In his review of the game Saturday Anderson attributed defeat to the superior line play of the Trojans and the inferior blocking of his backs.

"Ernie Smith was the best tackle I've seen this season," said Anderson. "He was the best lineman on the field and I would take him over my own tackles, Kurth and Krause."

"Griffith and Warburton are great running backs but Southern California's greatest strength was in the line, where it stopped our running attack."

Coach Anderson tempered his remarks by saying Notre Dame played its best game against the Army, which in no degree lessened the enthusiasm of victory-drunk Southern Californians.

Notre Dame outwinded and outgated the Trojans almost two to one, but there was no one willing to say that Southern California's eleven didn't balance the books with a far wiser execution of plays.

The Ramblers seldom kicked before fourth down, Southern California almost never waited until fourth down and therein lies much of the margin of victory. Twice Notre Dame was set back to its very goal line on quick kick kicks which went over the safety man's head to the one and two-yard line to be downed by alert Trojan ends.

In Paris the French cabinet decided unanimously in favor of paying the $20,000,000 installment due the United States Thursday. The cabinet attached reservations, however, before presenting the question to the chamber of deputies which were believed to be in accord with those decided upon by the London government.

The cabinet took its action while 10,000 war veterans met and adopted a resolution condemning the payment of the war debts.

Whether the course defined by the two large European powers will be followed by Belgium, Poland, Czechoslovakia and the other nations seeking a moratorium from the United States has not been indicated.

Italy, one of the nations with a large payment falling due, has announced its intention to pay promptly.

Decreases were most marked in the cases of revenue from documentary stamps where there was reflected the decline in volume of business transactions, and revenue from tobacco taxes.

Reversing a trend of recent years, taxes on small cigarettes (the principal source of tobacco tax collections) brought revenues

Fugitive President Of Defunct Bank Is Victim Of Suicide

NEW YORK, Dec. 12.—(AP)—Suicide's noose ended today the life of Walter Davis, 54-year-old president of the City Savings and Loan Association of Colorado Springs, who fled from a million dollar embezzlement charge.

Davis, seized here by a detective who had seen his picture in the "wanted" department of a detective story magazine, was found hanging in his cell at police headquarters. He disappeared from Colorado Springs six months ago about the time his association was thrown into receivership.

Miss Eva Terry, former secretary of the association was taken into custody and admitted, police said, that Davis maintained her in an expensive Denver apartment for years. When arrested, he was living here under his own name.

WINTRY BLAST LEAVES DEATH TRAIL IN WAKE

Automobile races at the Oakland speedway, across the bay, were postponed when snow described by Californians as "heavy" covered the track.

At Porterville, in the central San Joaquin Valley, residents arose to find two inches of snow on the ground and the fall continued intermittently through the day. The thermometer showed 29 degrees above zero, but ranchers believed there will be little damage to oranges in this district unless the freezing weather continues.

About 90 per cent of the naval orange crop has been harvested. South of Tehachapi Mountains, generally regarded as a boundary marker between Northern and Southern California, the snow became a general rain.

At Sacramento the Weather Bureau reported a temperature of 17 degrees above zero at 6 A. M. yesterday, breaking all previous records. The lowest temperature recorded previously was 18 degrees in January, 1888.

Southern California, complaining a week ago of unduly prolonged dry weather, shivered under a cold, persistent rain. Snow fell in the upland.

Precipitation extended as far south as San Diego from the fringe of a storm centered over southeastern Utah. Rain was general over Arizona.

Citrus growers resorted to amending against frost, but officials of the California Fruit Growers' Exchange said they had received no reports of a damage to citrus or other crops.

Registering 39 degrees at 7 A. M. the official thermometer at Los Angeles had climbed only to 43 degrees at noon, compared to an average low temperature of 47 degrees for December.

enough to win for her the state championship was very much in evidence throughout her match.

Probably the most spectacular match of the day was played by Clay Williams, number two local player and Rogers Carter, number two player for Eustis. The match went through three hard sets but Williams was declared the winner by scores of 6-7, 6-4, and 7-5.

L. F. Cutler, number one local player, and Rogers Carter, number one King, former University of Florida tennis ace by scores of 6-2, 3-6.

O. P. Herndon, Jr., won an interesting match from G. C. Pugh, Eustis number four player by scores of 4-0, 6-3, and 6-1.

Billy Zachry had no trouble in disposing of his opponent, E. C. Hopson, Eustis number five player. Young Zachry was winner in two straight sets, 6-1, and 6-0.

Sanford's team struck both doubles matches as Miss Kruse and Mr. King won from Mr. Cutler and Mr. Williams by scores of 6-4 and 6-3 and Mr. Carter and Miss Kruse took two sets from Mr. Zachry and Mr. Herndon 6-4 and 6-4.

Col. Robin's Doctor Issues Statement About His Patient

"For the generous and tender helpfulness of many dear friends in these hours of suffering for my wife and family I am grateful beyond words. For the competent and kindly co-operation of the officers of government and the immense aid and in the main truthful and fair treatment accorded me by the public press, I cherish abiding gratitude.

"Insofar as there has been untrue and unfair comment I forgive its authors and accept it as the cost of a life spent in battle for causes I hold dear. All that I ask for the future is judgment upon the facts of my way and work from day to day."

Dr. Smith's statement, which however, in expressions against curtailment of the debt or a further moratorium, and the administration told all governments their payments would be expected when due.

President Hoover did hold out some hope for the debtor nations with a statement that he would recommend to Congress the creation of an agency to study the question of future payments.

This plan met with few supporters in Congress, and President-elect Roosevelt who was drawn into the situation through an epochal conference at the White House with President Hoover, suggested he favored treating with the debtor nations through existing diplomatic agencies and not by setting up a special commission.

Christmas Seals Are Mailed To Residents

Five hundred letters bearing 100 Christmas seals costing a dollar today were mailed to residents of this city and county by a committee from the Seminole County Tuberculosis and Health Association headed by Mrs. Roy Hollis as chairman.

The letter contained an appeal in the form of a message signed by Mrs. Pearl Hansell, head of the Association, asking the recipient to return the stamps or a $1 bill, and stating that 65 cents of every dollar received during the seal sale will be retained by the committee for local use in combating tuberculosis and spreading its field.

Business Recovery Depends On Solons Says Statistician

CLEVELAND, Dec. 12.—(AP)—Business recovery "will be conditioned to an unexampled degree," by what happens in Washington the coming year, Colonel Leonard Ayres, vice president of the Cleveland Trust Company and nationally recognized statistician, said today.

In his annual address before the Chamber of Commerce on the business outlook, Ayres asserted that unlike any previous depression the present economic situation will "not likely be automatically self-curing. The problem of trying to forecast business developments in large measure an attempt to guess or estimate the degree to which the policies of the new administration at Washington will be formulated with wisdom and its actions guided by sagacity. It is quite literally a problem of political economy rather than one of business economy."

Students of Socialism, which would put the government in business on a grand scale, should study the results of Socialism in France as practiced under the Socialist premier Herriot.

Reducing The Debts

It is difficult to understand why Congress has assumed so adamant an attitude against any change in the present debt funding agreements between America and the European nations when it is plainly apparent that a general modification of these agreements would result so largely in the promotion of more friendly international relationships, universal disarmament and world trade, without which general prosperity is practically impossible.

The answer to this puzzling question has been supplied by O. W. B. Hurd, Washington correspondent for the New York Times, who believes that Congressmen are not nearly so ignorant of international problems as they are fearful of political consequences.

It is also a well known fact that great cities like New York, Chicago, and Detroit are dangerously close to default on some of their municipal securities.

But the government itself owes something like twenty billion dollars to American investors. If it is compelled to reduce its assets by consideration for its foreign debtors, and its domestic debtors, has it not also a right to expect consideration from its creditors and ask a scaling down in the face value of government bonds?

Mortgages on city homes and business property reach the tremendous total of $27,000,000,000. Most of the mortgagors are confronted with almost the same difficulties in making payment as are European nations.

It is this huge pile of obligations which Congress has to consider when it takes action on foreign loans. But it seems to us that a general scaling down all around would not be as disastrous as some seem to think.

Intersection Dangers

The rising menace of automobile accidents to the life and limb of motorists has occupied the attention with increasing concern of safety experts, police officials, and insurance companies.

But the fact that more accidents occur at a particular time of day or that man's physical condition is at its lowest ebb at 5:00 o'clock in the afternoon, will have little effect in influencing the driving of the average motorist.

There is one piece of advice, however, covering the safe operation of a motor car which can not be disregarded for long without an unfortunate ending.

There is scarcely anyone who drives a car who doesn't have an almost daily experience of seeing someone dash across intersections without looking in either direction.

SANFORD, TWENTY YEARS AGO

SANFORD FORUM

Editor Sanford Herald: Memories of my boyhood days about the St. Johns River.

It was way back in October 1874 that I got my first view of the beautiful and broad expanse and green verdurous shores of the St. Johns River.

Jacksonville did not make much of an impression on my mind at that time. I remember Bay Street was paved with cypress blocks and very uneven and rough.

At this time middle and South Florida was comparatively a new country, although it had the oldest settlement in the United States.

Before the days and time of the railroad that in later years laid steel rails down the state, the St. Johns River was the main artery of travel and commerce with its tributaries which took care of nearly all the passenger and freight service in the state.

Those were the good old days when the traveler got plenty of slow time for his money, and lots of beautiful tropical scenery thrown in for good measure.

Along in the early seventies Florida was a paradise for the pioneer citizens as there was a virgin forest all over, and at this time it was a cattle country.

All kind of Florida game was plentiful, during the fly season deer would often be seen feeding with the cattle in order to get away from troublesome flies.

Capt. Lound who was a skipper on the Volusia would make regular trips between Jacksonville and Lake Jessup, and would also give excursion trips to the people of Lake Jessup settlement.

Sanford Musician Is On Rollins Symphony

When the Rollins College Symphony Orchestra made its first appearance of the season in Orlando last Sunday, a Sanford musician, Miss Marie Stoinoff, was among its members.

Miss Stoinoff expects to appear in five concerts to be held in Winter Park and one each in Miami, Tampa, St. Petersburg and Jacksonville. She has appeared with symphonies in Philadelphia and New York City.

She urges all Sanford music lovers to attend the next concert of the Rollins Symphony, a concert that will be staged at the Recreation Hall in Winter Park at a date to be announced later.

Cecilian Music Club Has Regular Meeting

At the regular meeting of the Cecilian Music Club held Saturday afternoon at the studio of Mrs. Fannie S. Munson, Myrtle Avenue, Mrs. Munson told the story of Il Trovatore, masterpiece in the opera of Giuseppe Verdi. Mrs. Munson told of the long popularity of Il Trovatore which was first produced in Rome, Italy on Jan. 19, 1851 and added that up to the present day in Germany it has about 250 hearings every year. Music illustrations fitting into the story and piano transcriptions of some of the leading arias, were played by Miss Virginia Meriwether.

The musical program for the afternoon was brought to a close with a group of songs by F. S. Lamson, tenor, with accompaniment by his son, Donald Lamson. The entire selections rendered were:

Trovatore—Verdi, Virginia Meriwether.
Movement from Unfinished Symphony—Schubert, Miss John Abrahams.
Rustic Dance—Howells, Laura May Brown.
"Ottava"—Heins, Mary Louise Meriwether.
March of Giants—Rogers, Peggy McTeer.
The Old Clock in the Corner—Frederic Foot, Gretchen Merri-son.
(a) Paper Chase—Lawton.
(b) Shooting Stars—Wachs, Mary Young.

Boccherini for two pianos—Von-Suppe, Alice McIlhenny, Katherine Morrison.
Tango—Albeniz, Mary Nell Smith.
Lotus Petals—Albert S. Tenney, Clayda Wynn Ferguson.
Minuet—Mozart, Mary Lou Lyles.
Cradle Song—Pfeiffer, Elizabeth Whittington.
Dreaming—Engelmann, Mary Went.
Sonata in G, Major (First Movement)—Beethoven, Doris Rokey.
Messengers of Spring—Friml, Evelyn Nipper.
Irish Tune from County Kerry—Percy Grainger, Mary Frances Andrews.
Drink to Me Only with Thine Eyes (poem by Ben Johnson)—(music composer unknown).
Little Annie Rooney, (Encore Number)—Michael Nolan, Mr. F. S. Lamson.

Cotton Exchange Wants New Study Of Debt Problem

NEW YORK, Dec. 13.—A resolution calling for a fresh study of the international debts problem on an economic rather than on a political basis was urged in a resolution adopted recently by managers of the New York Cotton Exchange. No domestic action should be taken against any nation by this country with respect to debts so that United States trade would be affected, the resolution advised.

"We are convinced," said the resolution, "that the thought which should guide all future debt negotiations, is that a prosperous Europe contributes to a prosperous America. It is essential to endeavor to keep the world market intact and capable of buying and paying for our export surpluses." Pointing out that more than half of the annual harvest of American cotton is exported and that Europe is our most important foreign customer, the board said: "The fact that Europe's takings on the last two years have fallen far below normal is, in our opinion, largely attributable to serious economic conditions occasioned in no small degree by the burden of war debts."

"The general public has been confused rather than enlightened by contradictory writings and statements by economists and political leaders as to the ability of various nations to pay for our products. The public is entitled to a concise statement of facts formulated on the basis of careful study by competent authorities in whom they may have implicit confidence."
