McMahon Cuts Name Out Of Illinois Vote

Move Is Interpreted As Slap At Kefauver And As Help To Stevenson And Truman

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. McMahon of Connecticut today asked that his name be withdrawn from the Illinois Democratic presidential primary.

Sen. Kefauver of Tennessee is entered in the primary.

There had been speculation that McMahon's name was entered by supporters of President Truman with the idea chiefly of preventing the Illinois vote from going to Kefauver by default.

McMahon's name is not a leading one. Whichever the primary outcome, the probability is that Gov. Adlai Stevenson—himself getting talk as a possible presidential nominee—will win. Truman does not run—could still control most of the Illinois delegation, to the Democratic convention.

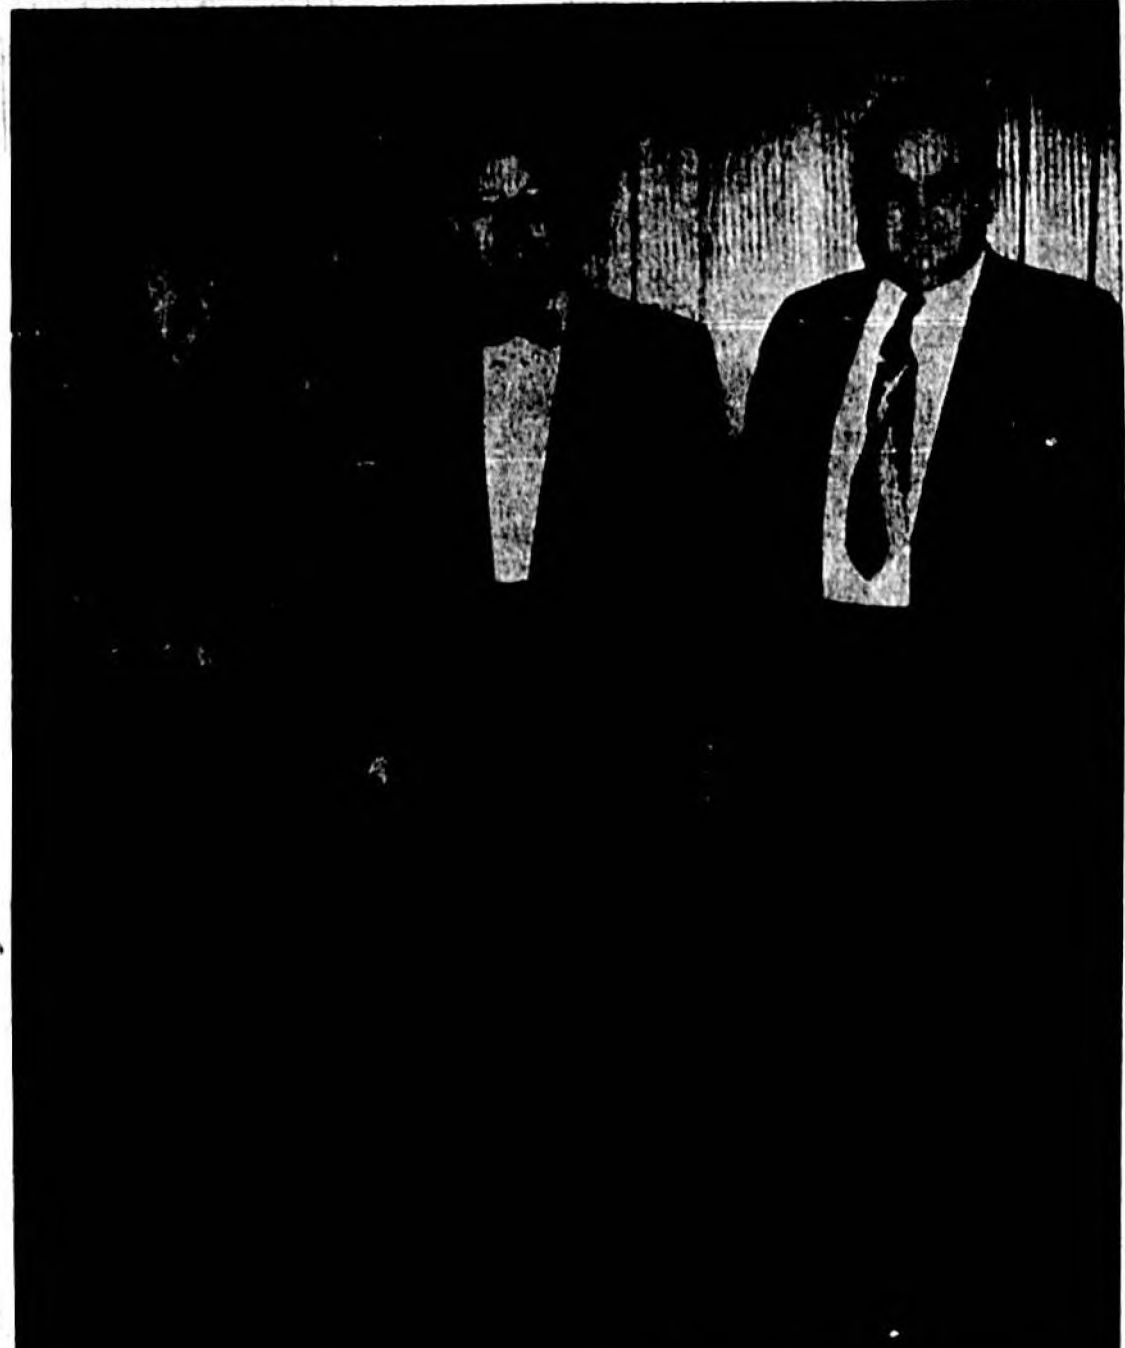

In these circumstances, those who first entered McMahon's name in the Episcopal Parish House on Thursday may have recon- sidered with thinking along these lines:

1. A McMahon-Kefauver scrap could be costly both in campaign money and in damage to party harmony within the state.

2. Victory for Kefauver would give a tremendous impetus to his candidacy whereas a win by McMahon would not squelch nationally the Kefauver bid for the nomination; there could be much to lose, little to gain.

MERCHANTS ASSOCIATION

James B. Keith, Sr., left, was the principal speaker at the annual dinner of the Sanford Merchants Association in the Episcopal Parish House Wednesday night. The meeting was presided over by Andrew Blinn, center, immediate past president, and the speaker was introduced by W. A. Morrison, right.

Rent Control Law Is Explained By New Director

Tenants may appeal to the Rent Stabilization Office, 222 Welch Building, for lowering of rents under certain circumstances, such as a landlord allowing his property to deteriorate appreciably after May 1, 1942, or when the property is in a state of disrepair, announced today.

He pointed out that the moment rent stabilization became effective in the Sanford area, tenants received the rent office the least amount of information. At the same time, landlords were given the right to evict tenants under certain circumstances and to recover use of their property for specific purposes.

With the exception of eviction problems, which may require immediate action on the part of the Rent Office, most of the provisions of the regulations which concern adjustments cannot be put into effect until completion of registration of all rental units in the area.

Although there will be a necessity to allow for registration, the law is in effect and has been in effect since Jan. 24, 1952, and any overcharge adjustments may be made retroactive to that date.

Landlords who fail to meet the provisions of the regulations may be required to refund overcharges to their tenants. In the great majority of cases, where rent is collected in advance, any such changes will be effective at the time rent is due again.

Tenants who feel they have been overcharged may visit the rent office at once, although in some cases, it may be necessary for the rent office to wait in the registration office before any action is taken. Tenants threatened with eviction should contact the Rent Office.

Actually, many tenants with grievances won't have to come to the rent office at all to state their problems. After a unit is registered, the rent office will send a copy of the registration to the landlord. If the landlord is not satisfied with the registration, the tenant will be given a chance to comment in writing.

Similarly, in other cases before the landlord is authorized an increase, the tenant will have an opportunity to be heard. On the other hand, a landlord who is dissatisfied with any decision of the rent office may enter an appeal.

Appeals will be heard by the Rent Advisory Board, of which W. B. Williams is chairman. The board includes five or more local citizens who serve without salary. The local Rent Advisory Board has been given the authority to see that rent stabilization is carried out equitably and justly in accordance with local conditions and needs.

104 Units Of Blood Are Donated At Armed Forces Blood Program

With 104 units of blood donated, the Armed Forces Blood Donor Program yesterday at the Episcopal Parish House was an outstanding success, A. H. Peterson, Jr., Red Cross chairman of the program, announced today.

The public responded generously and patriotically to appeals for blood for the armed forces, and 114 persons, many of them members of the Red Cross, participated in the program at the Parish House. Some of these were rejected due to colds or for having recently taken sulfonamide or penicillin.

Six technicians from the Central Florida Blood Bank brought their equipment, and the Parish House for the time being became a blood bank.

Assisting there were three volunteer doctors, Dr. C. R. Boyce, Dr. Brantley Henderson, and Dr. Frank L. Gillman of the County Health Unit.

Miss Mary Rawlings, local x-ray technician, six registered nurses, three nurses aides and many volunteers were present to assist in the program.

The nurses included Mrs. Roy Holter, Mrs. Earl Wilkinson, Mrs. J. C. Boyce, Mrs. Charles Lawson, Mrs. Gordon Frederick and Mrs. Brooks Jones. Nurses aides were Mrs. Robert L. Brown, Mrs. J. E. Andrews and Miss Irene Hinton.

The nurses worked under the direction of Miss Rawlings, and Mrs. L. F. Boyce was chairman of the Nurses Aid staff. Mrs. Volle Hillman, Sr., was chairman of the Canteen workers group.

Facilities at the Parish House were made possible through the co-operation of the Rev. H. J. Zimmerman, Red Cross chapter chairman, Arthur Kirchoff, church sexton, was assisted in the arrangements and set up by National Guardsmen, and six beds and two cots were provided by the Naval Air Station.

A. H. Peterson, Jr., with the active co-operation of Mrs. Velma Bonales, chapter executive secretary and her staff, planned the program.

Actively assisting were Rev. Zimmerman; Mrs. Clara Ginn, service group chairman; John Williams, Civic Club chairman; Col. R. G. Harrison, residentia chairman; Raymond Lundquist, publicity; Al Wallace, displays, and R. L. Cox, photographer.

The Women's Auxiliaries of the Episcopal Church furnished the cooking for the donors. Orange juice was provided by the Southward Fruit Co. The Weather Furniture Co. loaned sermons. The Owen Cola Co., gave tea, and Raynor Office Equipment Co. loaned a typewriter. D. L. Perkins Store provided a window display. The press and radio provided publicity for the event.

Fifteen Cases Are Disposed Of In County Court

Sentences For Drunken Driving Figure Large In Decisions

Fifteen cases of drunken driving were disposed of during the term of County Court which began Tuesday morning and ended this morning, with Judge Douglas Stenstrom presiding and George A. Spicer conducting the prosecution.

The Court last previously disposed of approximately 142 cases out of a docket of 157 cases when on Jan. 15 the docket was rounded for the taking of pleas, estimating of bonds and the setting of cases for trial. On that date 127 bonds were entered, seven persons were continued until the next term and seven cases were nolle prossed.

Woodrow Jacobs pleaded guilty Tuesday on four informations. Two of the charges were for drunken driving. On the first he drew a fine of $150 and costs or 90 days in County Jail, on the second he received a straight 30 day sentence. For reckless driving the sentence was $100 and costs or 30 days, and for aggravated assault, $200 and costs or 60 days. Jacobs' drivers license was taken away for two years.

Lewis Follings, Negro, was found guilty by the jury of a charge of driving while drunk, was fined $100 and costs and his drivers license revoked for one year. Follings was represented by Jack Nance, attorney from Orlando.

Joe Farley, Negro, pleaded guilty of driving after his license had been revoked, and was fined $50 or 30 days. Farley was found guilty by the jury of driving while drunk, was fined $100 and costs or 60 days, and his drivers license was taken away for two years.

Edward Higgins Hurt To Run In Orlando

Edward Higgins Hurt, formerly of Sanford, yesterday announced his candidacy for member of the House of Representatives of the Florida Legislature representing Group 1, Orange County, subject to the May 18 Democratic primary.

The post is now held by Edward K. Kirkland, Orlando city prosecutor, who has not yet announced whether he will seek re-election.

A graduate in the law of the Mrs. E. C. Williams will be the first to have been practicing attorney here since. Formerly an associate member of the Lettly H. Giles law firm, he is now associated with A. T. McKay at 116 1/2 S. Orange Avenue.

Hurt is a descendant of a pioneer Florida family, his grandfather, James C. Higgins, having come to Florida at the turn of the century to reorganize the Atlantic Coast Line railroad and settled in Sanford.

His father, Jennings L. Hurt, formerly also with the A.C.L., has been deputy collector of internal revenue with headquarters in Orlando for a number of years.

McCarty Campaign Jacksonville

JACKSONVILLE (AP) — Dan McCarty, who opened his campaign for governor here with a talk Thursday night, followed up by visiting several business places and industries today.

In his talk to some of his principal backers, McCarty said the taxpayer asks honest government.

"I am not merely in but as important as legal honesty," he said. "We must return to this fundamental principle and then we can expect greater service, efficiency and economy in government."

75 CENT FRUIT

LAKELAND (AP) — Citrus canners are offering 60 to 75 cents a box for fruit delivered to the cannery, but they are getting low deliveries.

Florida Citrus Mutual suspended its floor price of $1 a box this week. Canners expect the price to stabilize at 75 cents shortly.

The frozen juice industry, however, is increasing its intake. During the week ended Jan. 22, it took 78,716 boxes, twice as many as the previous week.

APARTMENTS SOLD

Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Boyce, formerly of Ohio, purchased the Central Apartments, 600 Park Avenue in Jacksonville. Dr. and Mrs. Meyer Preuss, according to records on the recorded deed, bought the property for $20,000. Dr. and Mrs. Meyer have a home on Scott Avenue in the Mayfair section.

EPISCOPAL CHAPEL GAINESVILLE

GAINESVILLE (AP) — The Council of the Episcopal Diocese of Florida Thursday voted $75,000 to start construction of a chapel at Florida University. It also voted $15,000 to aid in building a chapel at the University of Florida.

British Battle Egypt Police; 53 Are Killed

Many More Casualties Are Reported In Bloodiest Fighting Of The Crisis

By TOM STONE
CAIRO (AP) — British troops with tank support battled Egyptian police for six hours in Ismailia today. British officials reported 50 Egyptian police and three British soldiers killed in the bloodiest fighting yet in the Suez Canal Zone.

The British counted 120 Egyptian troops and 13 British soldiers and in the battle which the British initiated to disarm Egyptian auxiliary police. The British claimed the police were fighting them to avoid keeping order.

An emboldened Egyptian Cabinet was called into emergency session possibly to consider breaking off diplomatic relations completely with the British.

Despite appeals from outside sources for efforts to make peace in the Suez relations between the British and the Egyptians appeared to be at their worst point since Egypt cancelled the 1936 Anglo-Egyptian Treaty and ordered and demanded that British troops get out of the vital canal area.

The fighting began in Ismailia, a midway point in the Canal Zone. It ended shortly after noon, the British said, when Egyptian police resistance collapsed.

Outnumbered two to one, the police had been under orders to fight to the bitter end. They fired 500 rounds of ammunition before they yielded.

Between 500 and 600 police fled out of the headquarters building and surrendered shortly after noon. Two hours earlier, Lancashire Fusiliers moved up onto a snipe screen and captured between 200 and 300 others, who had been sniping from the Egyptian Health Center a block away.

The Egyptian Cabinet was summoned in an emergency meeting. Available information said the cabinet is considering making a full break in diplomatic relations with Britain because of the Ismailia fighting.

Ismailia has been the center of intense British and Egyptian clashes for a week. During a battle Saturday an American man was killed in a main military headquarters in the Suez Canal Zone is located just outside the city.

The British ordered the Egyptian police to lay down their arms this morning. They said the Egyptians were guilty of "unprovoked attack" and the police had "failed to maintain order."

The British said their drive was aimed particularly at 600 to 1,000 auxiliary police who flocked into the city to aid the regular police in mid-October when trouble first broke out in the Suez Canal Zone.

The British charged the auxiliary forces melted and fought in Canal Zone skirmishes and panned guerrillas in the Saturday battle in Ismailia. (Continued on Page Three)

Truman Refuses To Play Politics With The Nation's Future

Retailers Group Asks Merchants To Study Politics

President Saltz Travels To Arouse Leaders

Robert Bennett

Robert A. Bennett, organized by R. C. A. and a former I. V. manufacturer, Engineers for the National Retailers' Association in New York City, is reported to Radio and Television Sales and Service Shop, 100 West 42nd Street, New York City. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Bennett, 100 West 42nd Street.

TALLAHASSEE (AP) — A South Florida shoe merchant who is touring the state in an effort to arouse businessmen to a more active interest in government thinks he may be "on the verge" of success.

He is J. E. Saltz of St. Petersburg, president of the Florida State Retailers' Association.

Talking to business and civic groups from town to town, he has urged them to look beyond their local problems as uniform store-finding habits. It has some attention in raising costs of state and national government and try to do something about it.

"For years, merchants have been saying they couldn't get into public life because it would cost their business. We're taking the attitude they no longer can afford to stay out of it," Saltz said.

He promises to the merchants that "government today is by far the biggest competitor for the consumer's dollar. Thirty-four cents of every dollar he earns is taken from the average American in taxes, both direct and hidden."

"Actually, the average American taxpayer works one-third of each year for government, federal, state and local. All he earns from Jan. 1 to around May 1 each year he must pay out in taxes."

Saltz says he is judging the merchants' more conscious of the problem now because of the 85 billion dollar Truman budget are beginning to look at candidates for office this year a little differently than in the past.

In some towns, businessmen are getting together behind candidates for the State Legislature that they feel are best qualified to provide what he says is the goal of his association, a "good government at less cost."

The 10-year-old Retailers' Association has a legislative program that includes "reorganization of state government on a more business-like basis," but it is not bound to any particular plan. Saltz said he is "in close touch with the reference bureau will propose one next year."

The group also is in favor of state civil service, coordination of duplicate tax collecting and auditing functions, and an expansion of the unemployment compensation program, plus other bills of more special interest to merchants.

Saltz and local businessmen have talked to all the candidates they can about these measures. He claims, though, that he isn't backing the candidacy of anyone.

In his talks to merchants he is stressing that they should do more than work for election of good men, that they shouldn't forget their legislators after they send them to Tallahassee, and "leave them at the mercy of prostrate groups."

"Businessmen have no right to complain about what the racing people and other groups do to their legislators if they have left them to that pressure," he said.

They ought to back up their senators and representatives in an effort to put over those things they consider best for good, economical government, Saltz said.

"We are closer and in more frequent contact with the people than any other business or industry. We have it within our power every day, to mould public thought and opinion into constructive and democratic channels. That is not only a rare pleasure and privilege—but also a responsibility," he tells fellow merchants.

Peace And Prosperity Program Is Outlined For Middle Western Democratic Meeting

By JACK BELL
KANSAS CITY, Kan. (AP) — President Truman today sketched a peace, progress and prosperity program designed to win the November election, but declared his party will not play politics with national defense.

He said that "if anybody is to play politics with the welfare of this country, it will not be the Democratic Party."

His remarks were contained in a message for 15 state Midwest Democratic conference opening today.

"This year of 1952 will be a critical year in our struggle to achieve world peace," he said. "We are in the middle of a great national effort to build our defense and help free nations to strengthen themselves. If we falter now or lose heart and turn aside from the program we have laid out for ourselves, we can fail."

His message was in the form of a letter to Conference Chairman James C. Quigley of Nebraska.

It came amid speculation that Mr. Truman will run for the senate in Missouri at the end of his term. (21 is a candidate for reelection and 13) he wants to name his successor.

Out of this confusion our salient fact stood out. Lacking any other nominee they consider especially attractive, Midwestern leaders want Mr. Truman to run again.

Three leaders of the meeting predicted the conference would go on record unanimously approving a resolution urging the President to seek another term. Concurring in this prediction were W. M. Quigley, Jake Hone of Iowa, the secretary, and Carl V. Rice, Kansas national committee man.

On properly regarded by most Democrats as their best campaign issue this year, the President said in his letter to Quigley:

"The progressive policies of the Democratic Party have restored and maintained prosperity, strengthened our liberties, increased our standards of living and opened broad opportunities for all of us."

Democrats gathered here made no bones of the belief that Mr. Truman has "laid the best sort of a program for our party's future" (Continued on Page Three)

American Jets Get 10 Red Jets In Biggest Battle

Four Separate Fights Take Place Between MiGs, U. S. Pilots

SOMEWHERE IN KOREA
U. S. Gen. James A. Van Fleet, U. S. Eighth Army commander, had to hush back to headquarters Thursday after his plane was forced down on an abandoned front line airstrip during a bloody snow storm.

Van Fleet and three other officers slung through heavy drizzle to a nearby road where the General flagged down an approaching jeep.

SOUL, Korea (AP) — American soldiers get pilots today shot down in Red jet over North Korea in one of the biggest air battles in the Korean War.

The other MiG probably was destroyed. At least three other Red planes were damaged.

American soldiers fought four air-to-air encounters with the Communist MiGs over Northwest Korea. The U. S. Fifth Air Force said.

Ten MiGs were shot out of the sky in a rising drizzle today in the afternoon by Sabres of the 31st Fighter Interceptor Wing. Another Communist plane also was damaged in this fight.

Three more MiGs were banded by 40th Fighter Interceptor Wing Sabres jet in another fight late in the day.

The other plane, were accounted for in another battle.

The Sabres received a spot ground front while the explosive jet was dropped in MiG Alley.

There was no hint of how American planes fared. Under a new announcement only once a week.

In the rapid fire air action Lt. Robert H. Moore of Houston, Tex., set one MiG on fire and seconds later destroyed a second plane.

"I was so close to the second MiG that when I hit him he blew up right in my face," Moore said. "I flew right through his explosion which caused me to flame out." In other words, his "engine died."

Moore glided from nearly 30,000 feet down to 12,000 feet before he got his jet going again.

He was credited with a probable for the first MiG. It happened in a fight this afternoon between 13 Sabres and 15 Russian-type jets which had just crossed the border from Manchuria.

Major Turner Is Awarded Second Oak Leaf Cluster

WITH THE 3RD INFANTRY DIVISION IN KOREA Maj. Walter M. Turner, whose wife, Nancy, lives at 200 W. Sixth Street, Sanford, Fla., has been awarded the second Oak Leaf Cluster in the Bronze Star Medal for heroism in Korean action.

His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Reginald V. Turner, live at 615 Park Avenue, Sanford.

A veteran of the Korean fighting since November, 1950, Maj. Turner is commander of the 3rd Infantry Division's 1st Battalion, 7th Regiment.

He graduated from high school in Sanford and the University of Florida in 1943. Turner won his commission in 1944 after completing Officer Candidate School.

His citation reads, in part:

"On Oct. 1, 1951, the 1st Battalion attacked a heavily fortified enemy position on Hill 281, in the vicinity of Chungju, Korea. During this action, Maj. Turner was distinguished in providing support for his unit which, aided by the accurate barrage, successfully accomplished its mission."

YOUNG PHILOSOPHER

You can have your Plato and your Socrates. I have my own philosophy, and I think it's pretty good.

The way I see life . . . you have to grow. You have to be a little bit bigger tomorrow than you are today. Otherwise, you'll never become the man your father wants you to be.

The trouble with a lot of people is that they stopped growing a long time ago. They figured when their bodies stopped growing, their souls might as well stop too.

Now that's a shame. 'Cause when the body is full grown, the soul is only partly grown. In fact it's still so undeveloped that if a man doesn't let his soul keep on growing, he'll soon begin to wonder whether he has a soul at all.

There's a Church down the street where I go to keep my soul growing. Why don't you come with me . . . every Sunday. Remember what I said — you have to grow or you'll never become the man your FATHER wants you to be.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For the sake of his community and nation. (2) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Authority On South America Is To Speak On Chain Of Missions

A man who is said to be the best-known Protestant preacher and lecturer in the Spanish tongue on the southern continent, Dr. George Howard, will speak on the Florida Chain of Missionary Assemblies here next week. He is the author of the mission study book for this year, "We Americans, North and South".

Speaking on the subject "The Promise and Problem of Latin America," Dr. Howard will be heard at the First Presbyterian Church, Wednesday evening at 8:30 o'clock.

He was born in Argentina of American parents, and received his early education there. On coming to this country for his college education he found, as he says, something more than material prosperity. "I discovered that the America of the 'mighty dollar,' of which one hears frequently in the southern continent, was a chimera. That other America was a religious America. I discovered the American home, with its unworked door and its chained door mat; the friendly, democratic atmosphere of town and city; churches that cared little for political or social pressure and much for righteousness; schools, libraries, books for every one, and the right to a free mind—this I felt was what I wanted for my native America."

"So I went back to South America—a modern Quixote, if you will—and for nearly 35 years I have tried to prove myself a not too unworthy interpreter to South America of the best in North America."

No man of this generation, it is said, is better able than Dr. Howard to interpret the Latin mind to the North American mind. He lectures to many thousands of political leaders and university students, as well as church people, each year. Dr. Howard was the first radio lecturer in South America to attempt to broadcast moral and religious subjects, and one of the largest radio stations in Chile published his addresses in book form.

In 1933 Dr. Howard was appointed by the Uruguayan govern-

His books in Spanish are widely circulated over Latin America. "Religious Liberty in Latin America" was a Religious Book-of-the-Month Club selection.

His activities transcend denominational lines as the Committee on Cooperation in Latin America under whose auspices he lectures represents 32 different mission boards.

Dr. Howard has had honorary doctor's degrees conferred upon him by both of the institutions he attended in the United States—Northwestern University and Garrett Biblical Institute; and by the College of the Pacific and Boston University.

(Continued From Page One) right on top of one and raked him along his left side from about 200 feet range. The whole top of his fuselage burst into flames. I was going so fast that I sailed right past him and ended up just behind his right hand wingman.

"That was the jet that exploded in Moore's face."

The other jet was blown up in the same battle by Capt. Mose Gordon, Jr., of Home, Ga.

Gordon said his machine-gun bullets raked into the Red flight leader and the MIG "started throwing pieces of it up and a long stream of flame came out."

"By that time I was about 100 feet behind him. Then he blew up and flames out because pieces of the MIG came back through my air scoop."

Lt. Ivan C. Kincheloe of Cassopolis, Mich., was credited with downing one MIG in the afternoon battle, and Col. John B. England, Carthage, Mo., and South Arlington, Va., was credited with hitting a Red jet in a morning fight.

The ground a series of lights broke out along the western front between Allied patrol and Chinese units of about company size. The U. S. Eighth Army described them as the engagements.

Limited actions also broke out in the snow-covered ridges of the east.

McMahon Withdraws

McMahon is pulling out of the Illinois primary, to be held April 8, McMahon emphasized that he wants Mr. Truman to run for re-election.

He did this by making public a letter to Leo J. Strull, of Alton, Ill., explaining his reasons.

McMahon wrote Strull: "You are of course aware of my great admiration for President Truman. I cherish his friendship and I believe that as chief of state he has been superbly right on the great issues of our time. I have never doubted for an instant that he is the strongest and best candidate we Democrats can commend to the American people this fall.

"The President has not yet disclosed his plans. Should he choose to run again, I will of course give him my unequivocal and wholehearted support. This being the case, I cannot at this time give the people of Illinois any real assurance that I would be free to follow their wishes should they decide to regard my candidacy favorably."

McMahon added that "reflection on this fact over the past several days has convinced me that, under these circumstances, it is impossible for me to participate in a preferential primary such as the one in Illinois. He added: "I cannot in good conscience ask the Democrats of Illinois to indicate a preference for me when in my own mind I prefer someone else—Harry S. Truman."

McMahon noted that under Illinois law, Saturday is the last day primary candidates may withdraw from the contest.

McMahon wrote Strull as "the leader of those (Illinois) citizens who have accorded me the high honor of entering me in the primary."

Mr. Truman left the door open for a possible bid for a Senate seat from Missouri in a news conference discussion Thursday.

Smathers Bill

WASHINGTON — Sen. Smathers (D-Fla.) said today he is preparing a bill intended to take presidential nominations "out of the smoke-filled room and to return them to the people to whom the office belongs."

The Florida Democrat said the bill would abolish national political conventions, or nominating presidential candidates by established "a national at-large system of presidential nominating primaries."

President Truman told his news conference Thursday he favored substitution of a national primary election for the present system of nominating presidential candidates by national conventions.

"We have substantially expanded and strengthened our radio network here and overseas with the result that we are overcoming at least 100 per cent better than two years ago the Soviet attempt to drown out the Voice of America," he said.

Corporations Had Best Year In '51 Before Taxes

By SAM DAWSON
 NEW YORK — America's corporations had their best money year on record in 1951 before the tax collector came along. After that, their net profits show a drop—but not as much as many have predicted.

The first flash flood of earnings statements indicates that sales and gross earnings were at a record level in the year just ended. After federal, state and local tax collectors dipped into gross earnings, however, net profit is running behind 1950 totals in most manufacturing companies, as expected. So far, profits are lagging by only 0.5 per cent, however.

Also as expected, the profit picture—on the basis of the first reports—is spottily. More utility companies, for example, show gains over 1950 than show declines. Oil companies are expected to fit into that side of the ledger, too, along with some steel products, packers, and most airlines and aircraft builders.

Early profit statements, like first election results, show only the trend, not the final result. But the President's Council of Economic Advisors in its report with estimates for 1951 earnings as a whole, its guesses are: Broad earnings before taxes of $118.0, 000,000, whittled down 60 per cent by taxes to $42,000,000, or $18,100,000,000 left after they settle with the taxman, the council estimates. That is $4,700,000,000 less than they netted in 1950.

Utilities are among the first to report, and the prosperous year for many of them colors the overall picture at the start. Of the first 17 prominent utility companies reporting, 10 had a larger net profit in 1951 than in 1950. Of the first 26 prominent companies outside the utility field to report net profits, 15 made less in 1951 than they did in 1950 and 11 made more in spite of higher taxes.

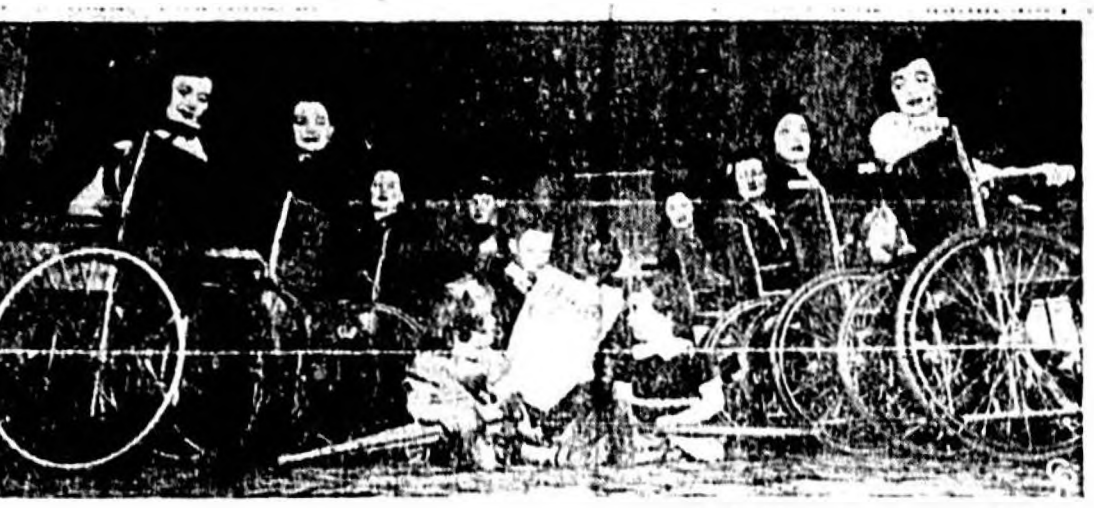

Taken together, the first 41 companies compiled broke almost even—21 gaining and 22 declining. Most changes weren't large either way. But eight companies lost ground sharply, while four companies registered strong gains.

Their total 1951 net profit of $27,583,032 was only 0.6 per cent lower than their total earnings of $31,435,771 the previous year, thanks largely to the profit assist of the utilities, communications, and aircraft makers.

The percentage of decline from 1950 is expected to rise as more returns come in—as more of the industrial giants report, particularly in those industries hard hit by raw material curbs or customer indifference.

Nevertheless, the dividend payments to shareholders last year held remarkably high. Directors of many companies were inclined to keep the dividend rates high and retain less of the earnings in the business, in spite of the large demands for cash to finance a vast industrial expansion program.

Dividends paid on common stock issues listed on the New York Exchange declined in 1951 by only 0.1 per cent from 1950: they paid out $5,466,506,000 in dividends last year, and $5,470,244,000 in 1950.

Men's Clothing Seen As Idiocy Of The Century

By RICHARD MORIN
 (For Hal Boyle)

NEW YORK — Looking down one wing of the news room here, I am observing a tableau of protest.

There are between 20 and 30 men in range of vision. About two-thirds of them are restless, with shirt sleeves rolled. Some are working open-throated, having unbuttoned their collars and slipped the neckties downward a few inches, as well they might.

Oh, my brother, as Hal Boyle would say here is a pitiful little rebellion!

Here is an eloquent expression of what men think of the modern male costume. Here is the grand effort to escape from the "business suit" and its accessories, which feature built-in discomfort, squeezing and strangulation, and appear to last. Men's clothes are the supreme adversary of the 20th century.

For instance, consider your neck and throat.

An inordinate amount of tender care and attention has been lavished on them by the tailor. The shirt collar is stiff, the necktie is tight, and you have at least three folds of cloth over your shirt front and your coat collar—a modest two-but thick and heavy.

The addition of some layers of wool, cotton and silk or substitute lightly wrapped, scratching, strangling, blocking arterial traffic, increasing body temperature and raising proper hell.

Fully dressed, you are being rubbed between 10 and 15 pounds of weight. This is at least three times the weight of the average costume of a woman.

Moreover, it is neither hot nor cold, but it is a constant, a constant of men's wear is that it is not.

It is a pity that the costume is used to control the result of a vast conspiracy between the cloth-makers, tailors, shoe-makers, milliners etc. Obviously the more fabric, leather and objects they can pile on the male chest, the better for the stockholders.

But designers tell me that isn't a fact. They say that many people both men and women have had a try at devising a more simple dress for men. None has ever taken hold.

For instance, the Australian "dash jacket" is an eminently practical garment. It combines the functions of the shirt and the coat. It has hot sleeves, an open throat and is worn outside the trousers. It is about chest-length and loosely belted at the waist. It sets a man free around the equator and the neck and hand-dies.

Versions of it have been attempted in this country, the designers say, but they were never successful.

Nobody knows the reason. There is a suspicion that the average man is far too timid to break away from convention. But it may be the little woman who insists that her man look as much as possible like all other men, and through pressure, silent and otherwise, compresses him into the same old mold, year after year.

The only hopeful sign I have noted seems to have originated in California, around Hollywood, where the aesthetic is disappearing rapidly, even in offices. Maybe the trend will spread.

Personally, I believe a wonderful campaign plank is inherent in this for 1952.

A man who promised reforms in men's clothing ought to sweep the country. Of course, he would be sticking his neck out, and this is not good politics.

New York and Philadelphia, as well as Washington, have witnessed the inaugurations of Presidents of the United States.

Egyptian Riot

In London, the British Foreign Office said Egypt had refused a request that the police be disarmed. The British added there is "abundant evidence to show that these police have both connived at and taken an active part in attacks on British troops."

A British spokesman said the action was "in no sense an assumption of military government" and said it was ordered with the "prior knowledge and full approval of Prime Minister Winston Churchill's government in London."

Ismaïlia was the scene of the first clash between the British and Egyptians, after Egypt ordered British troops out of the country in mid-October. A truce was arranged then keeping British out of the town and ordering Egyptian police to keep it there. The truce was kept until last Saturday's skirmish.

TUNIS. Tunisia — France to-day landed fresh troops in strife-ridden Tunisia to fight Nationalist uprisings in which nearly 50 persons have been killed and hundreds have been injured in the past 10 days.

The French cruiser Georges-Leygues landed militarized police at the North African port of Bizerta. French officials announced Thursday that heavy armored and infantry detachments were being rushed here to help seek out the instigators of violent demonstrations and guerrilla attacks on French authorities.

Two more trains were derailed by saboteurs Thursday night—15 miles west of Tunis and 21 miles southwest of the city. The French said one man was killed.

All major Tunisian cities and towns already were thronged with heavily armed police and troops. In some centers tanks and other armored vehicles patrolled.

Truman's Politics

Their argument was in essence: Who can beat the $6 billion dollar federal spending budget and money in the pockets of every worker if some contracts for manufacturers and employment for workers.

With that in mind, the conference leaders, Charles Morse and three others, said a coalition they predicted will be adopted unanimously using the President to run again.

No Presidential Panacea

There is sometimes a tendency to oversimplify the methods by which the perplexing problems of government can be solved. Every four years the supporters of each presidential candidate stoutly maintain that election of their man would result in a speedy and efficient remedy for the nation's ills.

It is important to have a wise, levelheaded individual as chief executive. American presidents have wide powers and the force of their judgement and personality is frequently felt even in areas of government where they do not have direct authority. But it would be foolish to regard the election of any one man as a panacea. The system of checks and balances, with well-defined executive, legislative and judicial powers resting in three separate branches, makes it impossible for any single man to change the ways of government alone. Nor would we want it to be possible.

The nations which have turned to one man for the solution of their problems have invariably paid a loss of freedom, and have eventually been plagued with problems greater than the ones with which they started. Americans will continue to meet troubles with the combined efforts of Congress, the Courts and the President, all supported by an energetic citizenry. Bearing this in mind, we can choose the next president more intelligently if we do not expect his election to be the end of our woes.

Wanderer's Welcome

Young persons who long for adventure of travel may dream a bit of the day when they will make their mark in the world and be able to return home in triumph. Occasionally the dream is realized as in the case of Captain Henrik Curt Carlson of the lost ship Flying Enterprise, who was given a hero's welcome when he returned to his home town of Woodbridge, New Jersey. More often the wanderer has a much quieter return. But quiet or not there is always a special thrill which comes to the heart of one who comes home after being away for a long time.

To him everything looks new, yet quite familiar. The streets which seemed so narrow when he left no longer seem confining. The firm handshake of an old friend and the sound of a remembered voice are good things to one who has lived long among strangers. It matters not that the youthful dream of being met with a band will probably never be realized. As a matter of fact, most wanderers forget that they ever harbored such an extravagant dream. The warm welcome of neighbors seems to be everything they had ever hoped for. The knowledge that one is "home again" is thrilling enough.

Authority On Clothing

The clothing industry is convinced that women influence 75 per cent of the sales of men's clothing made in America. The little woman, say the clothiers, is the final authority on whether friend or husband will be garbed in a neat pin-stripe, a sporty plaid or a conservative dark blue suit. She also has a great deal to say about the hats, topcoats and ties which complete his wardrobe.

This conclusion has induced the industry to aim much of its advertising of men's clothing at women, and now retail salesmen are urged to direct their sales chatter to the wife who accompanies her spouse to the store.

As for the male who must wear the suit, the assumption is that he will be grateful for a bit of assistance in selecting his clothes. The approval of a person as discerning as a wife usually is about her husband's appearance may give a man added confidence when he wears a suit for the first time.

Michael Moretti Is Found Guilty In Sensational Case

CHICAGO (AP) — Michael Moretti, a suspended state's attorney's peon, was convicted today of murder in one of Chicago's most sensational criminal cases.

A Criminal Court jury set Moretti's punishment at life imprisonment. The state, in its second murder trial of the 33-year-old Moretti, had asked for the death penalty.

The first trial ended with a deadlocked jury last Dec. 20.

Moretti appeared unmoved by the verdict. There was no demonstration in the courtroom which had been cleared of all spectators.

Defense attorneys said the case would be appealed "clear to the Supreme Court, if necessary."

Moretti, the father of four children by his first wife, was tried for the slaying last Aug. 21 of Arthur Gamino, 15-year-old West Side youth.

Edward Salvi, 21, was killed in the same shooting and Leonard Monaco, 21, was wounded as they sat in an automobile in a West Side vacant lot.

Monaco was the state's chief witness, testifying that Moretti fired without provocation on him and the other youths.

Moretti, a policeman since 1948, testified he fired at Salvi in self-defense after Salvi had accidentally shot Gamino. He said he was in the neighborhood investigating illicit narcotics traffic. Earlier, he had been beaten and relieved of his gun in a saloon fight but testimony indicated none of the three shooting victims was involved.

Monaco testified he, Salvi and Gamino found Moretti's gun in the vacant lot, and gave it to him. Moretti then ordered them into the car and, Monaco testified, fired on them.

A grand jury failed, by one vote, to indict Moretti. There was an immediate cry of "walkout."

The Chicago Crime Commission termed the jury's action "a gross miscarriage of justice." There were words of angry public debate before another grand jury was named and a special prosecutor appointed.

The second grand jury voted two murder indictments against Moretti. Later the grand jury voted indictments against Moretti's second wife and his five brothers for conspiracy to obstruct justice. They were charged with attempting to bribe another grand jury to bribe or intimidate Monaco.

The American system of crime was attacked by Thomas Jefferson over 150 years ago.

Army Releases 3 WACs Accused Of Beating Another

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Army today ordered released three of six WACs accused of beating up a fellow woman soldier at Camp Breckinridge, Ky., last November. The other three were given reduced sentences.

The official announcement gave no reason for the action, but it is ordinary practice for the Board of Review to reduce court martial sentences.

Under the Army order, these women will be released immediately:

Sgt. Marjorie L. Stuck, Santa Cruz, Calif., originally sentenced to 18 months.

Sgt. Edith M. Brown, San Angelo, Tex., sentenced to one year.

Sgt. First Class Mary G. Long, Fort Madison, Iowa, sentenced to one year.

The other three must serve out their terms, but for a reduced period. These three are:

Sgt. Grace L. Morton, San Lorenzo, Calif.—Term reduced from 18 months.

Sgt. Juliette V. Monte, Pecos, N. M.—Term reduced from 24 to 12 months.

Sgt. Third Class Edna H. Whitman, Freeb, N. Y.—Term cut from 30 to 18 months. But she must serve one 12 months under the new order.

The six were convicted of assault and battery on a fellow WAC, Pfc. Carol A. Kierce, 31, Vernon, Ohio, last Oct. 4. Pfc. Kierce had testified at a previous court martial involving a friend of the six sergeants.

At that time, the father of the Kierce, a Railway Express agent, said he feared for the safety of his daughter. He told a reporter the assailants had threatened "to get" Carol if she told anyone of the beatings, which occurred outside the camp boundaries.

The Board of Review and Judge Advocate's office affirmed the court martial sentence that all six be dishonorably discharged and forfeit all pay and allowances.

Our sympathy goes out for the shabbily dressed man who died in New York not long ago and was buried in a "potter's field," but he left an estate of $500,000 in stocks and bonds and bank deposits, leaving no relatives and no will, it was disclosed yesterday. If it is not how much money you have but what you do with it that counts, here is an example of the misuse of funds, however well begotten. Better for the public that a man make a hundred million dollars and use it wisely than hoard a hundred thousand.

What is the most sinful city in the country today? Opinions differ of course, and might differ to some extent on different occasions of the word "sinful." However, the Evangelist Billy Graham, at Washington, D. C., capital of the country, the President, named after his founder and father of this country "the most sinful city in the world ever seen." That it is the most sinful city, even if only one man is named, though there are a host of others, is the central theme of his message.

Tentative Budget Of $186 Million Okayed For Roads

But Department Has $64 Million Less Than That Amount

TALLAHASSEE (AP) — A tentative 1952 budget of $186,973,000 has State Road Board approval, but the Road Department doesn't really plan to spend that much this year.

For one thing, it lacks $64,150,000 of having that much income. Board Chairman Alfred McKeithan said the budget was drawn up that way to provide extra projects to which the department can turn if material shortages make it impossible to proceed with others.

"For instance, if we propose to build a bridge and find we will have to wait months for steel, we can use the funds originally set aside for the bridge to construct some other project in the budget for which we have materials available," he explained.

The new budget will have a final hearing Feb. 25. Delegations from each of the 14 counties already have made recommendations for work in their areas. They didn't get all they wanted by any means. If they had, the final budget would have added up to something like $22 million.

After going over all the requests, the Road Board came up with a total of $66,968,500 to be spent on primary road construction and $21,300,000 for secondary roads. That's $14,500,000 more than was spent on primary roads in 1951 but $48,000 less than was spent for secondaries last year.

Accounts payable at the end of 1951 were cut down at $1,334,160 against $1,363,954 owing at the close of 1950. The department budgeted $3,328,900 for administration, up $540,149 from last year.

Big projects in the budget include $27,250,000 for the Jacksonville Expressway, $14,378,000 for the Lower Tampa Bay Bridge, a two million dollar road from Pinellas Park to Maximo Point to connect with the bridge, $1,744,000 worth of work on U. S. 1 in Nassau County reconstruction of 17th Street in Fort Lauderdale at $1,750,000 and re-

Second Republican Woman Enters Race For Rogers' Seat

TALLAHASSEE (AP) — A second woman Republican today entered the battle of ballots for Florida's Sixth District congressional seat, now held by Democrat Dwight L. Rogers of Fort Lauderdale.

Janet H. Fitzgerald of Fort Lauderdale qualified with the secretary of state as a candidate for the Republican nomination for the Washington post, Thursday. Evelyn Tew of Palm Beach paid her qualification fee as a Republican candidate for the job.

John R. Booth of Coral Gables, who previously had announced as a candidate for the Republican nomination for U. S. senator, paid his qualification fee today.

Other candidates, all Democrats unless otherwise listed—qualifying today included:

H. N. Roth of Orlando, Republican, for state representative from Orange County, Ballot Group 1.

V. B. Rooney of Jacksonville for state representative from Duval County, Ballot Group 3.

Walter P. Sheppard of Fort Meyers for state representative from Lee County.

Rep. Ebert L. Stewart of Clearwater for re-election from Hendry County.

Rep. Joe Bill Rood of Bradenton for re-election from Manatee County, Ballot Group 2.

William J. Castagna of Clearwater for state representative from Pinellas County, Ballot Group 3.

Phil E. Harris of DeFuniak Springs for state representative from Walton County.

Wiley Grinstead of Live Oak for construction of 13 miles of U. S. 41 south of Lake City at $1,070,000.

McKeithan said the budget calls for very little new construction.

It consists almost entirely of work designed to rehabilitate the state's arterial highway system which serves business, industry and other economic needs of this state," he said.

state senator from the 17th District.

William A. Hallows III of Jacksonville for re-election as state attorney, 14th Judicial District.

James M. (Red) McEwen of Tampa for state attorney, 13th Judicial District.

Seminole Cagers Invade Orlando To Play St. James Tonite

Varsity Rated Edge Over Host Quintet By Twelve Points; JVs Seek 4th Win

By KENT CHIETLAIN
Two vengeance seeking Seminole High School basketball teams will penetrate the confines of Orlando to clash with the St. James varsity and Junior varsity in doubleheader tonight.

The Seminoles will be seeking their third win in ten contests this season. If the last tilt between these two teams means anything, the Seminoles will be a 12 point favorite. It was against this same St. James five that the Celery Feds ran up its biggest score of the year when they cracked half century mark with a 51-39 triumph.

The Seminoles' cagers' attack will be spearheaded by three top scorers "Spider" Covington, "Swish" Smith and "Dunker" Hardin. Both Covington and Smith have scored 40 points or better while Hardin has 75. "Mac" McCall, held scoreless in the Celery Feds' last encounter, is due for a good night if the law of averages means anything.

The same five that has launched almost every game this season will go tonight in Orlando. They are Covington, McCall, Hardin, Smith and Metts. One player, who has shown brilliance at times, may see more action in this evening's affair. He is "Link" Link-average. The little blonde sophomore demonstrated his swishing skill against the Navy Squadron last Tuesday night when he played, but a few minutes putting 5 points on a pair of field goals and a charity toss.

In the initial fray, the Celery Fed JVs will go into its tilt an 8 point favorite with a one game winning streak going. The Flemingmen will be bolstered by the addition of two players from the varsity, Ray Davis and Ross Hannum. Who hold the highest scoring percentage per game of any of the JVs and will be counted on heavily by coach Bill Fleming.

If the JVs notch the win tonight, it will make their record read four wins and five losses, the best of any Seminole JV quintet this season. The varsity has a colorless 2-7 record so far.

Bubba Blaise and Ray Davis will probably start at the forwards for the JVs with Jimmy Krider at the center pivot, Ross Hannum and the Junior Varsity's No. 1 scorer Randall Reynolds will go at the guard posts for the Flemingmen.

Bradenton Fan Sends In Names For Local Club

Total Rises To 72 Entries And 46 Letters Entered

A Bradenton, Fla. fan who used to water Sanford in the 1920s, set in nine selections to the contest editor at WTKR for the name of the 1952 Sanford baseball club as the contest reached out of the Seminole County area.

The contest received 20 names in eight letters yesterday to rejuvenate the lagging entries of the day before. This brought the total to 72 names entered and 46 letters sent in.

The Bradenton entry was signed by Dave Russell. It is believed that Mr. Russell heard about the contest over the local radio station.

The four day contest has averaged almost ten letters daily giving 46 names. If the projected pace is maintained, 110 letters will be received with 232 names entered for balloting.

The name entry period will close Monday noon Feb. 4. From that time until Monday noon Feb. 25 the voting by the fans will be conducted to determine the winners.

Prizes will be awarded the persons who first sent in the most popular three names. A season pass will be given the first place winner with a book of ten free tickets presented the second winner and an opening day pass granted the third prize winning name.

The early interest in naming that Sanford will have a successful baseball season at the gate, stated Mr. Harman.

Some of the new monikers suggested today were, "Brownies," "Seminole Braves," "Atomies," "Tigers," "Hornets," and "Bulldozers." Only ten more days remain for name entries.

The Sports Register

By KENT CHIETLAIN

Tonight the Seminole High cagers teams will invade Orlando to try and reenact a twin win over St. James High School. Both teams have picked up added game experience since they last met each other here earlier in the month.

In fact the St. James win constitutes the only and last victory the varsity quintet has annexed in five outings. The JVs, headed by Bill Fleming, have fared better, having won from New Smyrna and Ketterlinus. The Flemingmen will be out to win their second in succession, since they defeated Ketterlinus 23-17 in their last game.

Three varsity boppers, all senior, have a good chance to crack the century mark for total points this season. They are "Spider" Covington, "Swish" Smith and "Dunker" Hardin. "Spider" is only 18 markers away from the 100 figure and has four games to make up the difference. "Swish" is 20 away and Hardin is 23 points back.

At their present averages, Covington, Smith and Hardin are the next three tilts. Junior Metts has 17 as of now with only a 6.2 average which would give him only 68 marker total for the season. Metts is the fourth ranking Seminole scorer.

You will note that our high school sports reporter Terry Cordell has been running a series of features on some of the Seminole cage players during the week. So far, Terry has written stories on the two top scorers Covington and Smith. Next week Terry, who is a member of the cage team, himself, and former center of the Seminole grid team, will present the inside story of Wise Hardin and Junior Metts. These stories should provide fans with the background of the players who make Sanford basketball history headlines.

The balloting for the baseball naming contest has been superlative to date. At the time of this writing we had received 63 different names in 42 letters. For three and one half days during a busy time, the fan interest has been phenomenal. Your suggestions are always appreciated. Currently, we are working on providing local fans with more sports news which originates here, rather than news from remote spots of the nation. If you like it say so. If you don't say so, we are endeavoring to give you the best and most interesting sporting news that is available.

Herald Lists Sanford Citizens Entitled To Income Tax Refunds

The Department of Internal Revenue, Jacksonville, reports that many letters have been received from persons who have seen their names in newspapers and listing them as eligible to receive refunds on income tax payments of previous years.

Persons who find their names on the list of those who are due to receive refunds are advised to write to the Internal Revenue Bureau, Claims Section, Jacksonville, giving the name, Social Security number, correct address and signature, all of which are needed for the verification of the claim.

The Herald is reprinting local lists from Orlando Morning Sentinel, as a public service. Each of the 46,000 claim cards has been checked and classified according to counties, the following are Sanford residents entitled to refunds:

Gaston Will Run Against Sen. Holland

Politically Unknown IRB Inspector Announces After Pepper Declines To Run

TALLAHASSEE (U. S. En)—Senator L. Holland today got a surprise opponent for Democratic re-election in William A. Gaston, a politically unknown Internal Revenue Bureau inspector.

Both the senator and the 33-year-old Jacksonville civil service expert filed the qualification campaign with Secretary of State H. A. Gray.

Holland had been left without any reported opposition for re-election when former Sen. Claude Pepper announced Saturday that he would not seek a public office this year.

Holland, former governor, has served in the Senate since 1945, and is seeking his second full six-year term.

Gaston said in a letter to the secretary of state that he is resigning from his Internal Revenue Bureau job Feb. 1 to conduct a campaign "on lower taxes, lower cost of living and a sounder economy."

He said he is "a farmer by trade, but a self-labeled efficiency expert, as connected with my employment with the Treasury Department, Inspector, Bureau of Internal Revenue." He is a native of Suwannee County and a veteran of six years in the Marine Corps.

He named himself as his campaign treasurer and the Florida National Bank of Jacksonville as his depository.

The major candidates for governor, in their weekly financial reports, continued to show substantial expenditures. But the less well known again reported no income and no gain.

Alto Adams said he spent $800.33, mostly for office rent, preparing campaign literature and travel. He listed deposits totaling $200, including $500 from W. Wallace Carl Dennis of Panama City and Paul Foster of West Palm Beach, and several smaller contributions.

Don McCarty reported he spent $1,000 for office expenses, including staff salaries and travel costs. He reported campaign fund deposits of $2,875. They included $200 each from H. E. Brannon and J. R. Moody Jr., Panama City; $200 each from William E. Arnold Jr., Jacksonville, and Nelson Mason of Tampa; and $100 each from C. C. Brown of Stockton, W. J. Troup Jr., and F. G. Murphy of Miami; John H. Eden Jr. of Inverness, Joseph Cloc of Fort Pierce, Finley P. Smith of...

Armed Forces Blood Clinic

The blood donation program for the Armed Forces held Thursday at the Episcopal Parish House, was an outstanding success with 104 pints of blood donated and 111 persons volunteered their services. The Red Cross committee, headed by A. B. Peterson, Jr., had charge of the program. In the foreground, left, receiving a blood pressure test, preparatory to making a blood donation, is Eugene Stovall, 1401 Elm Avenue, member of the Sanford Post of the American Legion. He was wounded in fighting in Germany in World War II. Behind him and to the right is Dr. J. J. Rogers.

Thousands Moved To Higher Ground By Ohio Floods

Three Persons Drown As Heavy Rainfall Overflows Streams

MARIETTA, O. (AP)—Flood waters of the muddy Ohio River, which overflowed lowlands today, have caused about 7,000 persons from Ohio and West Virginia homes.

The Ohio chalked up three deaths and untold property damage in the first 36 hours of its rapid rise.

The crest of the sudden flood, which struck at the turn of the big head of the Ohio at East Liverpool, O., Saturday, looked for a crest of 12 feet by noon and the river rose one foot an hour just ahead of time.

The high water also hit portions of Western Pennsylvania and Northern Kentucky.

The turbulent Ohio struck hardest at Wheeling Island, a section of the city of Wheeling, W. Va., lying midway between the banks of the river. Partial evacuation of the island's 10,000 population was underway.

Most of the island's streets were impassable early today and if the river continues to rise as expected the entire island will be covered by water.

At Powhatan Point, O., some 15 miles south of Wheeling, the lowland Chief Powhatan broke its moorings on the Ohio side, hit a pier at a railway bridge and sank. No one was aboard. The Powhatan Mining Co., which owned the boat, estimated the loss at $50,000.

The mass evacuation of Ohio River residents is only the beginning if the river's rise continues. It was expected to hit 12 feet above flood stage in at least a dozen Ohio and West Virginia communities. Many of them were isolated.

Florida Jaycees Support Study Of Turnpike Project

LAKELAND (U. S. En)—The Florida Junior Chamber of Commerce today rejected 100 per cent approval of the turnpike project for further study of the project.

A resolution offered by Miami delegates urging all-out support of the idea and a program for winning public approval was defeated at the Jaycees' quarterly conference.

Opposition to the resolution came from State Rep. Volin A. Williams Jr., Sanford, chairman of the public affairs committee.

"It is obvious that the governor and his Road Department chairman made their decision to promote the toll road in advance of any supporting data," Williams said. "They are now seeking justification of the project."

He reported his committee figured the road would cost at least $100 million dollars a year and $10 million dollars a year and suggested, instead, the state spend $5 million dollars to make U. S. 1 a four-lane highway.

J. R. Pettigrew, Jacksonville, chairman of the Jaycees' good roads committee, said, "It is unfortunate that the subject was originally presented against a political backdrop. He called for further study of the idea."

Jaycees named Col. H. N. Kirkman, director of the Florida Highway Patrol, to receive their annual Good Government Award.

An offer from Florida Southern College of a four-year scholarship to winners of the junior chamber's Voice of Democracy contest was accepted.

Mrs. M. A. Gerhards Died Sunday At Noon

Mrs. Mittida A. Gerhards, 60-year-old resident of DeBarry, died at her home at noon yesterday. She was born in Dusseldorf, Germany.

A resident of the DeBarry for the past seven months, she came to Florida from Ramsey, N. J., where the body will be sent for funeral services at 2:00 p. m. tomorrow with Rev. Howard Kirkman officiating.

Chain Of Missions

The Rev. A. Russell Stevenson, left, will speak here at First Presbyterian Church, at 8:30 Tuesday on the subject of "Storm Signal Over Egypt," as part of the program of the Florida Chain of Missions assemblies. Last year an official itinerary took Rev. Stevenson through the area of his administrative responsibility including Algeria, Tunisia, Egypt, Ceylon, India, Pakistan, Iran, Iraq, Saudi Arabia, Syria, Lebanon and Turkey. Mrs. Woodford Kellersberger Voss, right, a missionary to the Belgian Congo, who will be a featured speaker at 7:30 Tuesday at the First Presbyterian Church. Mrs. Voss has been an active worker in the Congo only one year, but she is the second generation missionary, the first in the Southern Presbyterian Church to return to that field.

New Premier Of Egypt Gets Help Of Four Parties

Wild Rioting Is Expected To Be Controlled By Nahas

CAIRO, Egypt (U. S. En)—The Chamber of Deputies tonight approved a bill in all Egypt for a period of two months.

By HILD E. ZUSY

CAIRO (U. S. En)—Egypt's new premier, King Farouk in the wake of wild rioting, announced tonight he had won the support of four political parties, including the powerful Wafd.

The Wafdist government headed by Mustafa Nahas Pasha was voted tonight night.

The new government, headed by Premier Mr. Nahas Pasha, an Independent was sworn into office tonight by King Farouk. It is expected to support the Wafdist government, which has been in power since 1951, announced his party would support the new government, long as it follows a national policy laid down by the "king's majesty."

The new premier already had pledged himself in a radio address to fulfill the independent policy of the Nile Valley and maintain stability and peace. This, he said, would be the Wafdist policy, getting the British out of the Canal Zone and the Sudan.

Today's Egyptian press said it has been behind the headquarter of the Socialist Party Ahmed Husni, nominal leader of the Socialist Party, under arrest. Some sources said the former premier, Nahas Pasha, was convinced that Socialist leaders were behind Saturday's rioting, backed by money which would have come from some foreign legations. The former premier is said to have described the riot as a "well organized plan which got out of hand."

Indications were that the new government would apply strict censorship measures against the leftist newspapers which, for more than six months, have been attacking "imperialism of the West and the ruling classes."

The new prime minister and his cabinet took the oath at Abdin Palace, where they were received by the king.

Motorcycle Accident

Dazed, and unable to recall what had happened to him after a fall from a motorcycle on which he was a passenger, Harry Leslie Crawford, Orlando youth, was taken by Patrolman R. D. Harrelton to Fernhill-Laughton Memorial hospital at 1:00 o'clock this morning.

An unidentified motorist reported seeing Crawford lying unconscious by the side of the Orlando Highway a short distance south of Sanford. The youth, at his own request, was released this afternoon from the hospital, who has not been identified, evidently continued on his way toward Jacksonville, minus his passenger, said Harrelton.

Rotary Luncheon

The Rotary Club did not hold its usual luncheon today on account of the inter-club luncheon which will be held Thursday at the First Methodist Church on the Chain of Missions program. At that time Rev. John Shorn of Toronto, Canada, will be the main speaker.

Fruit Stand Dealer Held For Passing Worthless Check

Nathaniel Mayes, co-operator of a new open-air market on Highway 17-92 was arrested this morning at about 11:30 o'clock by Deputy Sheriff Howard Hood and Oscar Decker, on a warrant issued by Police Chief Walter L. McNulty of Wakefield, R. I., charging Mayes with passing a worthless check for $2,200 to obtain produce from a farmer in Rhode Island.

Mayes was placed in County Jail, pending further developments in the case. At 7:14 o'clock last night, Police Chief Roy G. Williams received a telephone call long distance, informing him that Rhode Island state police had a warrant for Mayes arrest on a charge of passing the check. The warrant was received in the mail this morning, and turned over by Chief Williams to Sheriff P. A. Mero for action.

The fruit stand was started by Mayes and Edison Simmons soon after Christmas.

Cold Wave Moving In On Florida As Rain Is Predicted

TALLAHASSEE (U. S. En)—Several houses suffered minor damage, two barns were blown over and trees were felled when a small snow storm hit the state today. No injuries were reported. The wind was accompanied by heavy rain.

MIAMI (U. S. En)—A cold front streaked by strong winds and thunderstorms moved over Florida today.

Rains of an inch or more fell during the night in Pensacola, Lake and Greenville, S. C., while at New Orleans and Mobile and downtown were around 3 inches.

Small craft warnings were issued south of Cape Hatteras, N. C. in Melbourne, Fla., on the Atlantic Coast, and from St. Marks to Fort Myers on the Florida West Coast.

Forecasters in the Miami Weather Bureau said the coldfront in its passage over Florida today and tonight will be attended by thunder squalls and northwest winds of 20 to 25 miles an hour.

"Most of the state will get wind and rain," said the Weather Bureau. "There will be less frontal effect in the southern portion of the peninsula, but that section, including Miami, has a good chance for showers."
