Senate Passes Bill On Peacetime Draft Of Men 19 To 26

Vote Is 78 To 10 In Action That Follows
Week Of Debate;
Law Goes To House

WASHINGTON, June 10 (AP)—A peacetime draft of men aged 19 through 26 for the Armed Services was voted today by the Senate.

The vote was 78 to 10. The action came after a week of heated debate and sends the measure on to the House.

G.O.P. leaders have put the bill down as "must" for House action before Congress adjourns tentatively set for June 18.

WASHINGTON, June 10 (AP)—The Air Force said today it will buy 2,201 new planes as a step toward building up a 70-group force.

The money will come from the $1,345,265,000 which the Defense Department earmarked for the purpose from recent defense appropriations. The program will include 348 bombers, of which 162 are heavy long-range types, and 1,053 jet fighters.

WASHINGTON, June 10 (AP)—Senator Revercomb (R-W.Va.) contended in the Senate today that there is no real need to revise the draft — that the Army can get all the volunteers it wants if it tries hard enough.

Revercomb spoke as the hours ran out on a Senate agreement to (Continued on Page Three)

Seminole School Needs Are Set At 1 To 2 Millions

The cost of school buildings needed in Seminole County and repairs to existing schools is estimated at from one and a quarter to two million dollars by a three-member survey committee of prominent state educators at a meeting held Tuesday afternoon at the Court House with local school officials, said Superintendent W. L. Lawton.

The survey committee, which made a complete survey of the schools of the county this spring, included: Dr. E. L. Morphet of the State Department of Education, Dr. R. L. Johns and Dr. J. W. Latta of the University of Florida.

Members of the county school board were present. R. F. Cooper and Roy Howell of the trustees and Principal Herman E. Morris of Seminole High School.

Mr. Lawton revealed that the committee had stated that the general condition of schools and equipment in the county were ahead of the average, yet they could see that due to scarcity of material and labor during the past five or six years that many repairs could not be made, or new construction undertaken.

Claude Howard, carpenter, has been directed to make an immediate survey of schools to determine what emergency repairs need attention first, said Mr. Lawton.

Legion Seeks Goal Of 500 Post 53 Members

A membership goal of 500 Legionnaires was announced by Vice-Commander John Sauls at the meeting Monday evening of Campbell-Losing Post No. 53 at the Legion Hut. Plans were discussed for the coming drive, said J. O. McEwen, post adjutant.

A profit of $1,500 from the Legion sponsored Seminole County Fair was announced. L. F. Boyle announced that awards would be given by Post on graduation night to an outstanding boy and girl of Seminole High School.

Plans were discussed for the Legion Junior baseball team, and $225 was set aside for expenses about the team. The sum of $25 was approved to pay for transportation of boy delegates to Boys State at Tallahassee.

Four members were inducted into the post: Robert M. Beal, Samuel J. Roskin, Jr., John T. Boyle and Lawrence C. Bartlett.

ROAD CLOSED

In order to permit resurfacing operations to continue on State Highway 46 from Sanford to Mims, the road is being closed at half hour intervals. It was announced this morning by William Beal, project engineer.

Work will be resumed at 10 a.m. and the estimated cost of the work is $10,000.

Schwellenbach Cabinet Head Of Labor, Dies

White House Says Secretary Had Been Ill
At Walter Reed Hospital For Some Time

WASHINGTON, June 10 (AP)—Secretary of Labor Lewis B. Schwellenbach died today.

The White House announced Schwellenbach passed away at 3:40 A.M. at Walter Reed Hospital. He had been ill several weeks.

He was 53 years old and had been Labor Department chief since June 30, 1945.

Mrs. Schwellenbach was at his bedside at the time of his death. The White House said death resulted from "cardiac failure" which complicated his recent illness.

President Truman, now on the west coast, has been notified of his death.

No funeral arrangements have been made, the White House statement said.

Schwellenbach was a former Democratic senator from Washington and federal district court judge. He succeeded Frances Perkins, one of the original members of the late President Roosevelt's cabinet.

He was a senator from 1935 until his resignation on Dec. 16, 1940, to accept the federal judgeship in Washington — a post he resigned to join the cabinet.

Illness had prevented Schwellenbach from taking an active part in recurring labor crises of the last several months. Last April he took a cruise to Havana in an effort to regain his health.

He was removed from shipboard in New York harbor on his return. He was taken to a hospital on Governors Island for treatment of a respiratory infection.

President Truman's personal physician, Brig. General Wallace H. Graham, attended him then.

Last July, while confined to the Naval Hospital at Bethesda, Md., after suffering a heavy cold, reports began circulating that he might resign.

The new Taft-Hartley Labor Law, coupled with sharp appropriations cuts, had stripped his once powerful department almost to a skeleton framework.

Aides who visited him at that time, however, came away with word that he was mapping a fight to rebuild the department.

The Taft-Hartley Law, effective Aug. 22, 1947, took away from the department the right to negotiate services from Schwellenbach and set it up as an independent agency.

But although Schwellenbach indicated that he would continue to fight, he did not rule out the possibility of resigning, and those close to him believed he would "leave" back to his first love — a federal judgeship.

Schwellenbach left the federal district court in his home state of Washington to head the Labor Department.

The political philosophy that caused Schwellenbach to be designated a liberal (his critics called him even further to the "left") was established early in his political life.

He campaigned at home for old age pensions and proposed taking over idle factories and lands to meet the need.

Senator Boyle Finds John Bull In Australia Via Short Wave Radio

By WILLARD CONNOLLY

Johnny Bull has been located and not in England, but in Australia, according to State Senator Lloyd F. Boyle, who yesterday proudly showed a radio confirmation card of station VK4FH mailed June 13 by J. F. Bull from Queensland, Australia.

Undoubtedly, like Senator Boyle, Mr. Bull is a confirmed short wave fan or "ham" as they are known throughout the globe. Both happened to be exploring the ether at 7:00 o'clock one April morning here and tuned into the short wave band of my radio and overheard on a conversation that Mr. Boyle was having with a Republican legislator out in Idaho. They had quite a hot argument on politics.

County Agent C. R. Dawson is another ardent short wave fan, and back of his kitchen has rigged up a lot of sending and receiving equipment. He introduced me to a friend he had contacted in Georgia and we had an interesting conversation over the short waves.

The next morning dawned a number of days later. I was in the house and I had just enjoyed listening in on the conversation.

The moral of all of this is, be careful what you say over the ether; thousands may be listening.

Truman Hints At More Extensive Campaign "When Things Warm Up"

By ERNEST B. VACCARO

OLYMPIA, Wash., June 10 (AP)—President Truman punctuated his long distance attack on Congress today with a broad hint of a more extended speaking campaign "when things warm up, and we get into politics."

The chief executive joked with a trainside audience at Everett last night about "this bi-partisan, non-political trip of mine."

Upon receiving a nod and reel from the crowd and being invited to enter a salmon derby, he said he didn't know whether he would be successful as he didn't know the conditions—but if he did enter he would do "my damndest" just "like I do everything else."

To audience after audience, in trainside and other appearances, the President suggested the possibility of his return later to discuss the issues of the campaign.

And before audience after audience, he has attacked Congress for failing to go along with his pricing, housing and farm recommendations.

His remark to reporters at Spokane that the present Congress is the worst in his memory—he first said the worst since the first one met—drew immediate response from Republican congressmen.

House Republican leader, Charles McNary, countered by saying "There are a lot of people who think Mr. Truman is the poorest President we have had since George Washington."

Mr. Truman is billed for the third of a series of five major addresses at Seattle at 4:30 P. M. today in which he is expected to renew his promise of support for advocates of multiple-purpose development of northwestern river basins.

The disastrous Columbia River flood, the effects of which he will view in a plane flight over the area around Portland, Ore., tomorrow, furnished the theme for his talk under the auspices of the Washington State Press Club in Memorial high school stadium.

He spent last night at the executive mansion as the guest of Governor Earl Warren, regarded by some as a possible candidate for the Democratic nomination.

He said the big powers must be trying to settle their differences and agreed on the U.N. force. But he added the U.N. could begin with a comparatively small guard force.

Informal sources said he was thinking in terms of a force of about 1,000 men, recruited by him from several countries. These men could be employed as territorial officials and would be paid out of U.N. funds.

These sources said he would push his recommendation vigorously. He might include it in his annual report or he might put it up to the general assembly meeting in September.

"I do not know how rapidly it may be possible to compose the differences that have up to now prevented the conclusion of the military agreements under article 43 of the charter provision for the U.N. army," he said in his address. "However, long it takes, I believe that efforts to put this article into full effect should be continuous and pursued with vigor."

It is possible that a beginning could be made now through the establishment of a comparatively small guard force, as distinct from a striking force. Such a force could be recruited by the secretary-general and placed at (Continued on Page Five)

At the request of County Agent C. R. Dawson, One Highway of his office, and Sanford F. Davidson, county assessor, the Commission paid to the U.S. Treasury $204 to cover the cost of a new aerial survey and photographic maps of Seminole County.

Commission Chairman H. B. Fouse appointed Fred W. Bender, R. M. Ball, Elton Moughton, Fred T. Williams and T. L. Ling as a committee to draw up and submit to the board zoning regulations to apply to property adjacent to county roads and outside of municipalities.

Action in furnishing clay for a baseball diamond and tennis courts in Midway for use of negroes, was promised to a committee representing the Midway Social Improvement Club. This work can be started as soon as the drag line can be repaired, said M. Herndon.

The Commission agreed to include in its year's budget funds for grading and hard surfacing a road five-eighths of a mile long near Lake Howell between Oviedo and Winter Park. The request for this road was made by R. L. Kinley in the form of a petition.

Consideration was given by the Commission for the opening of a road from Oviedo west to the Sanford Orlando highway, connecting with a branch road now (Continued on Page Five)

Rev. Glenn Smith Addresses Junior High Graduates

Ellen Driggers Receives DAK Award
As 111 Graduate

The 57 girls and 54 boys of the Junior High School graduating class were told by the Rev. Glenn E. Smith at commencement exercises today that to be useful in the world they would have to have a happy, sociable and friendly attitude toward others. Quoting the first Psalm he counseled them not to "sit in the seat of the scornful" but to take a firm stand for God and right. He advised them not to become self-centered or "sour on life."

Ellen Driggers was awarded the D.A.R. historical medal by Mrs. F. E. Bolz, who stressed the value of training in patriotism and citizenship as a protection against foreign ideologies.

The commencement program was opened at 10:00 o'clock with the graduates filing into the auditorium. Beatrice Blube, a graduate, played the piano for the procession, the class songs, and the recessional. The girls were attractive with "new look" white dresses and wearing rose and aspen corsages provided by Miss Gertrude Vining. The boys were in comfortable sports attire and cost less.

The musical program included the singing of "Bless This House" by Brady, "America the Beautiful" by Bates, "Welcome Sweet Springtime" by Rubenstein and snappy class songs with words adapted to familiar melodies by Beatrice Blube, George Herndon and Jack Schirard.

Invocation was by the Rev. W. P. Brooks, Jr. and the benediction was given by the Rev. J. E. McKinley.

The Rev. Smith, pastor of the Christian Missionary Alliance Church, and past president of the Sanford Ministerial Association, was introduced by Buoy. T. W. Lawton, who thanked Principal R. E. True, and the faculty for their fine work and also cited the support (Continued on Page Three)

County Purchases Hospital Articles At Cost Of $6,870

Hospital equipment now in use at Fernald-Laughton Memorial Hospital was purchased Tuesday by the County Commission at a cost of $6,870. This equipment is to remain in the charge of the Fernald-Laughton Memorial Hospital Association to be used by the hospital and kept for a new Seminole County hospital if and when one is constructed. It was announced today by O. P. Herndon, county clerk, who has made out a check for the full amount.

UN Volunteer Force Sought By Trygve Lie

Small Guard Would Be Used To Back Up Security Council Until
UN Army Is Formed

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., June 10 (AP)—Trygve Lie called today for a small volunteer United Nations guard force to back up Security Council decisions until the U.N. army is formed.

The U.N. secretary-general made his proposal in an address at the annual meeting of the Harvard University Alumni Association. At a similar meeting here last year Secretary of State George C. Marshall first brought out his plan for European recovery. It was the first time Lie has spoken publicly on the issue of U.N. force.

Lie said disagreements among the five great powers had held up organization of the international police force provided in the U.N. charter. He said a small force at the right time could have handled any problem which has come before the U.N. so far, including Palestine.

He said the big powers must be trying to settle their differences and agreed on the U.N. force. But he added the U.N. could begin with a comparatively small guard force.

Informal sources said he was thinking in terms of a force of about 1,000 men, recruited by him from several countries. These men could be employed as territorial officials and would be paid out of U.N. funds.

State Patrol Will Start Check On All Drivers' Licenses

TALLAHASSEE, June 10 (AP)—A state-wide check on drivers' licenses will be started by the Florida Highway Patrol June 15.

Patrol Director H. N. Kirkman said three or four patrolmen will be assigned to each section of the state to make specific checks. Drivers found without licenses are subject to arrest.

Kirkman said the drive will be held to remove unlicensed and potentially dangerous drivers from the highways.

A police department records for 1947 show that 656 unlicensed drivers were involved in accidents. Nine percent of them were fatal accidents. Only four percent of the accidents in which licensed drivers were involved were fatal, he added. In 1946, 10 percent of the drivers involved in fatal accidents were not licensed.

Flash Floods, High Tides Heap New Threats On Weary Northwest

PORTLAND, Ore., June 10 (AP)—Flash floods and high tides heap new threats on the water-weary Pacific Northwest today. The swollen Columbia and Fraser Rivers built their three-week flood siege toward new heights.

Three cloudbursts and a five-hour downpour sent tons of water hurtling into the raging Columbia and more farmland was added to some 650 square miles already under water. The weather forecast: Showers and thunderstorms.

High tides rolled in from the Pacific, threatening anew more than 11,000 harassed defenders of almost swamped dikes guarding Oregon-Washington and British Columbia and Canada's Fraser River meet the sea. Leakers along the levees increased steadily.

The death toll for 23 days of flood was 55, topped two by the drowning yesterday of a 16-year-old boy and a railroad division engineer.

The Red Cross in Portland said 350 still were unaccounted for in

of 121 names. The relief agency said it has exhausted all means—relatives and Vanport neighbors—of locating the 121.

Damages already in countless multi-millions—mounted steadily. A cloudburst in British Columbia's Memorial Day flooding of Vancouver—war housing city of 18,700—died and it issued a "critical list" of 121 names.

His formed a flash flood last night that swept away 18 miles of Canadian Pacific Railway track in the Kootenay district of the Columbia's headwaters. The washout was between Balfour and Prosser (Continued on Page Five)

Pre-Truce Lull Is Seen In Palestine As Deadline Nears

Michael, Anne Are Wed In Orthodox
Greek Ceremonial

TEL AVIV, Israel, June 10 (AP)—Palestine's battlefronts reflected a pre-truce lull today. Several minor encounters were reported, but there appeared to be no major military activity. Tel Aviv, bombed daily since the beginning of the Palestine war, was quiet.

Jerusalem also had a pre-truce lull, but not for long. Arab commanders in the Old City agreed to a six-hour lull this morning to permit the International Red Cross delegation to leave the city for Amman, Trans-Jordan.

Shortly thereafter, shells began falling inside the Jewish-held areas again.

From the north there were some indications that Iraqi troops were maneuvering to hold the best possible strategic position when the truce becomes effective, and this was believed to be true of Egyptian troops in the south also.

Arch-Bishop Damaskinos Pleads Ritual Before Small Group

ATHENS, June 10 (AP)—Handsome Mihail I of Roumania took blonde Princess Anne of Bourbon-Parma as his bride today in a glittering ceremony before a small gathering of royalty. They used crosses borrowed from the Greek royal house.

Gathered in the vestments of the highest clergy known of Greece, Archbishop Damaskinos pronounced the solemn nuptial of the orthodox church to unite the abdicated king of Roumania's royal family to the house of Danubia.

Anne is a Roman Catholic and failed to win special dispensation from Rome for her marriage to Mihail in the Greek rite. Mihail insisted upon the Greek ceremony and upon bringing up his children in that faith, he says he was forced to abdicate.

The ceremony went off with precision. Attractive, 24-year-old Anne wore a bright white satin wedding gown and a huge diamond necklace. She had orange blossoms in her veil and the dress was trimmed in old lace. Her long train was carried by three courtiers, Crown Princess Constantine of Greece, Prince Karl of Hesse and the Duke of Anhalt.

Only about 20 persons were in the grand hall of the royal palace as Anne entered on the arm of her uncle, Prince Louis of Battenberg. She took her position on the left of her tall, 26-year-old groom, who wore the uniform of a Roumanian army marshal.

The wedding guests — King Paul and Queen Frederica of Greece, Queen mother Helen and other members of royal families, grouped themselves about a blue velvet-covered table decorated in silver, placed before a dark walnut chapel which was especially installed for the ceremony.

Prince Eric and King Paul took the position of guests of the bride and best man, and members of the royal families ranged themselves behind them.

The Red Cross in Portland said 350 still were unaccounted for in

of 121 names. The relief agency said it has exhausted all means—relatives and Vanport neighbors—of locating the 121.

Damages already in countless multi-millions—mounted steadily. A cloudburst in British Columbia's Memorial Day flooding of Vancouver—war housing city of 18,700—died and it issued a "critical list" of 121 names.

His formed a flash flood last night that swept away 18 miles of Canadian Pacific Railway track in the Kootenay district of the Columbia's headwaters. The washout was between Balfour and Prosser (Continued on Page Five)

CITY HALL PAINTED

The City Hall is now receiving a coat of white paint, and old paint is being removed by sand blast method. The man directing the sand blast is a practicing painter, somewhat resembling a diver's helmet, for eye and face protection. The sand is shot through a hose by compression machinery.

Mexico's New Party Is Anti-Communist

MEXICO CITY, June 10 (AP)—Mexico's militantly anti-Communist national Sinarquist Union became the country's newest legal political party yesterday. Its name is the Popular Force (fuerza popular) Party.

The Department of Interior announced last night that the semi-military, pro-Catholic movement had complied with all constitutional requirements to become a political party.

The new party, dedicated to "a Christian social order," claims a membership of 600,000. The Interior Department said it had a

RECALL ACTION
MIAMI, June 10 (AP)—Action seeking a recall election against the five-man Miami city commission began yesterday.

The Junior Chamber of Commerce at a meeting last night, voted 155 to 9 to start recall petitions against the entire group. The Continental Civic Club, said by its officers to represent 5,000 members, voted to file recall petitions against the commission majority that ousted City Manager Richard G. Danner last Wednesday.

The Jaycees explained their constitution prohibits political endorsement and to exclude the two who voted to retain Danner might be construed as an endorsement of these two men—Mayor Robert L. Floyd and Petrine Palmer, Jr. William W. Charles, E. C. Gardner and H. Leslie Quigg voted to fire Danner from the $16,700-a-year post.

Other groups also took a hand in the matter. The Civitan Club adopted a resolution of its board of directors condemning Danner's ouster and recommendations "such steps as are necessary to remedy it."

ACCIDENT SUITS
TALLAHASSEE, June 10 (AP)—Lawsuits growing out of a high-way collision in which eight persons were killed and two injured were settled for $141,500 here Tuesday.

The suits, asking almost $1,000,000, were directed against the Orange State Oil Company whose truck was involved in the collision. The accident occurred last July 4 near Hosford in Liberty county when an automobile in which 10 persons were en route to a coast holiday collided with the truck. The 13 separate awards ranged from $50,000 to $2,000.

Morris, principal of Seminole High School requested the organization's assistance in entertaining the students, who will be here during the coming baseball tournament. The Jaycees, under the direction of Mr. Ganas, agreed to provide tours of interesting places in Sanford and Seminole County recreational projects.

Palestine Truce

its unconditional acceptance of the truce. Irgun called Count Folke Bernadotte, the United Nations mediator, a British servant. Only cautious optimism was expressed around the United Nations that the four-week armistist and arms embargo would endure. There was even less hope that, in four weeks of wrangling on the island of Rhodes, a formula for permanent peace would emerge.

It was difficult to see how the basic issue of partition could be resolved, short of armed intervention by the U.N. — and that might lead to even greater, worldwide conflict.

"We have achieved only the first step," Count Folke Bernadotte, the U.N. mediator, commented in Cairo on the unconditional acceptance of the truce by Israel and the seven warring Arab states.

Irgun Zvai Leumi wants all Arabs withdrawn from Palestine and said the truce terms would mean a deterioration of Israel's political and military status.

The outbreak possibly is a prelude to Irgun defiance of the truce.

The Arabs have contended that Irgun means the even more extremist Stern gang have broken past truce accords and that Hagana, now the army of Israel, has stepped in and consolidated the gains.

The United Nations tackled the problem of Russia's request that Red army men be sent to Palestine as truce observers. Bernadotte invited 21 officers each from the U.S., France and Belgium, to watch the coast. The U.S. though opposed to having the Russians in Palestine, was understood to be preparing not to oppose directly the Russian attempt to participate. Bernadotte's plan is to freeze the military situation absolutely.

War on land, sea and in the air went on in the last hours before de jure peace.

Before going to the Senate in 1935 he had represented labor organizations frequently in the courts. In a New York speech in 1937 he urged capital and labor to use the then new Wagner Act freely to "make operative the principle of collective bargaining."

In 1938 he went to Europe and returned to plead for an international conference to establish a pattern which would insure against war. He defended the neutrality law and he introduced a bill to prohibit the exportation of scrap metal.

King's Birthday Fete
Is Called Due To Rain

LONDON June 10 (AP) — King George VI was born Dec. 14, but the birthday is observed officially June 10. The weather in June is supposed to be better than December's.

Crowds gathered in Whitehall today to see the horse guards parade for the trooping of the colors, in honor of the King's 32nd birthday. Then the ceremony was called off because of "uncertain weather."

There were heavy thunderstorms all around, weather observers said.
The average American roach grows to about 1 1/2 inches long and has a normal life span of about 14 months.

THURSDAY, JUNE 10, 1948

BRIEF VIEW TODAY

Men and women often imagine they can live on cream puffs of silly pleasures and get satisfaction out of life. Moral starvation can wreck civilization. We desperately need strong men and women, properly nourished. I am the bread of life, he that cometh to me shall never hunger. And he that believeth on me shall never thirst.—John 6:35.

Senator Taft's housing bill is called Socialistic by Chairman Wolcott of the House Banking Committee. Now if someone can just figure out what that old reactionary Henry Wallace thinks about it, we may be getting somewhere.

As if to prove that gangland killings did not go out with prohibition and Al Capone, a group of Chicago gangsters "liquidate" a rival mobster as he begs for mercy on bended knee. As an amendment to the anti-lynching bill, we suggest that all such ganster killings be investigated by the FBI and be made punishable by federal law and the county in which they occur be fined $10,000.

Pointing out that northern medical colleges admitted last year only 86 negro students while Southern negro schools of medicine admitted over 1,000, Governor Millard Caldwell tells the graduating class of the Medical College of Virginia that the present controversy over civil rights and states rights results from "political meddlers who are more interested in votes than they are in rights" and the desire of "certain political forces to capture the votes of minorities."

How little do we appreciate our blessings until we no longer have them. Into the Herald office looking for a job came a man of brilliant intellect hopelessly crippled by infantile paralysis. If he only had his legs, something the rest of us so lightly take for granted, how far might this man go in the fullest enjoyment of life toward the goal of useful citizenship and service to mankind! How unconvincing the whines of able-bodied men who cannot hold a job because they never get a break!

Andrew Carraway, secretary of the Seminole County Democratic Executive Committee, appeals to the board of County Commissioners to install voting machines in Seminole County. A modern device for insuring honest elections, facilitating balloting and tabulation of results, voting machines are high in price but economic in operation so that over a period of years the County will spend less money with them, than without them. Furthermore, we do not have to pay cash for them, but can buy them on the installment plan, just as you buy an automobile, and pay for them out of the savings on future elections.

Those who suffer most during periods of inflation when prices go out of sight, are those who live on fixed incomes. The farmer sells his product for the price that it will bring, and if prices are high it is apt to bring a good price. But the railroad man works on a fixed wage, a wage which is made during contract negotiations and is apt to remain fixed for a period of three years or more. The railroad corporation itself cannot increase its rates at will but must go before the Interstate Commerce Commission every time it wants a boost in "prices."
This is apt to result in a tedious and protracted negotiation. The old couple who lives on a life insurance annuity or a government pension, or the income from the mortgage on the old homestead, can find themselves wondering when their next meal is coming from when prices inflate.

Incentives For Germany

The diet deficiency of the German worker results in lassitude and depression, and is a major factor in the low production situation which continues to plague the ECA.
This fact is recognized by those who are busy planning to increase German exports, and after that imports, with a healthy, stable economy as the hoped-for goal. Not only food is considered necessary in this program, but such things as clothing, tobacco, and soap will act as morale-raisers under the ECA program. These incentives are not expected to be a cure-all, however. They have not always worked out satisfactorily in the past, as fair distribution is next to impossible. Also, regardless of incentive, the age of some workers holds down their productive power.

Another big program is the shortage of trained labor.
The war cut short the labor supply, and there is no mobility to what remains. Men cannot easily shift from a poor labor market to one more suited to their capabilities, owing to the breakdown in transportation and the acute lack of housing.

Realizing that nothing will do the over-all economy of Europe more good than a productive Germany, the Economic Co-operation Administration is handling these problems with all possible speed and efficiency. Artificial methods now necessary will be abandoned gradually as time goes on and all possible speed and efficiency. Artificial methods now necessary will be abandoned gradually as time goes on and normality returns.

For Florida Forests

Man never seems to appreciate nature's bounty until he has partly destroyed it.

That's the obvious comment to make about the preliminary survey of the Florida forest resources, which indicates that the state's total wood supply has shrunk 13 percent in the last 10 years.

Florida has been wasteful, careless and negligent. Landowners and timber buyers have been guilty of extremely wasteful cutting practices, slashing down young trees along with usable ones to facilitate removal of the logs or pulpwood. Thousands of acres of good timber land are burned over every year by forest fires. That we have failed to capitalize on our opportunities is shown in the statement from James W. Cruikshank, chief of the division of forest economics of the Southeastern Forest Experiment Station, at Asheville, N. C. that "it is feasible for Florida to produce close to four times as much wood per year as it does now and thus meeting the increasing requirements of industry without denuding the state's forest lands."

Fortunately, several encouraging movements are being made to promote recognition of scientific principles in forestry. For one thing, survey crews will begin a statewide check-up next week to determine Florida's wood growth and drain rates. It will be a woodland "census," with an up-to-date count of the number and species of trees. Meanwhile, good work is being done by the Florida Forest Service in reducing wood fire losses on protected acreage.

However, far more work needs to be done. We must further reduce forest fire losses, improve cutting practices, encourage research and plant more trees. Above all, we must discard the attitude of "There's plenty more" in the way of trees. If Florida wants to prevent further waste of a needed resource it can do so, and now is the time to start.

Polio Bulletin To Be Distributed To Florida Students

ORLANDO June 10 (Special)— Distribution to Florida school children of the 1948 edition of "A Message to Parents about Infantile Paralysis," an informational bulletin listing precautions against polio, is nearing completion. Mr. Marlon T. Jeffries, southern Florida state representative of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, said today.

Prepared by the National Foundation, the bulletin is being distributed in public, private and parochial schools through the cooperation of the nation's school systems.

By the time schools close for summer vacation, an estimated 436,250 copies will be in the hands of Florida children and their parents.

Endorsed by leading federal, state and local health and educational authorities, the project was inaugurated in 1947. This year, 77,000,000 copies of the bulletin will be distributed nationally.
Commenting on the bulletin's distribution in Florida, Mr. Jeffries stated:

"A Message to Parents" is intended to reassure and guide people in the event of a polio emergency this summer. Beside listing precautions, it describes possible symptoms of the disease and offers practical advice on steps to take and where to get assistance if polio does strike.
"Greater public knowledge about polio," he said, "will help minimize exaggerated fear of the disease and will enable communities to take better precautions against it."

A teaspoonful of used kitchen fat saved every day by every family is a sure way to ease the world-wide shortage of fats and oils.

THE WORLD TODAY

By BELMAN MORIN
AP Foreign Affairs Analyst
(For DeWitt Macdonald)

Scholarly Sir Oliver Franks, the new British ambassador, is hardly to man to be envied.

He takes up his duties in Washington at a time the relations between Britain and this country are at a very low point. Indeed, the over-all community of interest remains. So does much of the mutual admiration and genuine friendship between the two people that was engendered by close contact during the war.

But the British already are irritated, seriously, with our Palestine "policy." That is a fact. It exists now.

In the near future, American administrators are likely to be just as irritated with the British over events that develop from the actual operations of the Marshall Plan.

So the new British envoy has one big, tough, hairy chested problem on his desk today. And he probably will have an even bigger and tougher one confronting him tomorrow.

Let's examine them.

The first is easy to understand.
Britain has been in the Middle East for well over a century. At the apex of her strength, she was the only great force in the Arab world. She maintained peace and order, sometimes at the expenditure of blood and treasure. She entered into treaty relationships with the Arab countries, and even with the smaller tribes.

Along with very considerable business and economic interests, she acquired great prestige. The British "resident officer"—though he might have no more than the rank of a major—was a man of singular importance. The Arab ruler hardly made a move without consulting him.

It was natural and logical, therefore, for the Arabs to look to Britain for assistance, political and otherwise, in the battle over Palestine.

Britain was opposed to partitioning the country. How she would have solved the problem,

had been the deciding voice at Lake Success, is a question.
Whatever the answer, the United States led the move.

Last November partition became a fact. Immediately, blood began to flow. Something very much resembling a 180-degree turn in the American attitude then appeared. A Jewish state was proclaimed. Six minutes later, it was recognized, formally, as a state.

There is no turning back from that now. It was quite possible to abandon the partition plan.
But since we took this formal diplomatic step of recognizing Israel, Israel exists. It cannot be abandoned.

Britain ultimately must recognize the new state, too. When she does, her position vis-a-vis the Arab world may become practically impossible. The Arabs certainly will turn elsewhere, to some other major power, for help.

You will not need three guesses, or even two, to name that power.

That's the basis for British irritation with the United States.

Americans, in turn, are beginning to feel excessively annoyed over British economic operations.

As Marshall Plan money goes across the sea, that annoyance may develop into real friction.

For one thing, there is the "sterling bloc." How will British and American administrators decide between an "earned" dollar and a "free" dollar? The British are going to acquire dollars both by the sale of exported products and through Marshall Plan loans.
Americans will demand some degree of supervision in the use of the latter.

Criticism already exists, in Washington, over the matter of trade between Western Europe and those countries within the Russian orbit.

Britain recently sold Russia steel railway tracks in exchange for coarse grains for cattle feeder. Britain needs timber, and she can get it more cheaply from Poland and Russia than anywhere else.

Giants Trim Saints By 13 To 7 Margin In St. Augustine

Ancient City Nine Suffers 9th Consecutive Defeat; A's Here Tomorrow

ST. AUGUSTINE, June 10 (Special)—The up and coming Sanford Giants rapped out 13 hits to score a 13 to 7 victory over the cellar dwelling St. Augustine Saints here last night.

The defeat was the ninth consecutive trimming the Saints have suffered.

Field Captain Tim Tyler continued to show his liking for the local park as he slugged a sphere far over the left field wall in the first frame of the contest, while Ray Rosenkrantz was resting on the runway.

The game was a nip and tuck affair, until the Giants rolled out the heavy artillery in the top of the ninth to jam six markers across the plate. Four hits, coupled with a Saint boot and a pair of free tickets accounted for the six runs.

Joe Schultz opened on the hill for the Giants, and was nicked for ten hits and seven runs, before he was pulled in the eighth. Don Umscheid completed the contest, and he received credit for the victory.

Tonight the Giants move to Palatka for a single engagement, and return to the Municipal Park in Sanford tomorrow night with the A's.

Two Games Are Set In First Round Of NCAA Diamond Meet

CHARLOTTE, N. C. June 10 (AP)—Two games are scheduled today in the first round of the NCAA Southern Baseball Tournament.

The champion of the double elimination battle here will go to the NCAA's Eastern Tournament opening at Winston-Salem next Tuesday.

Tonight's first game sends Alabama, reportedly the best balanced squad of the Southeastern Conference, against George Washington, third place club in the Southern Conference.

The second game matches the Southern Conference champion, North Carolina, against Georgia Tech, eastern division runner-up in the Southeastern conference.

DR. FUNKHOUSER DIES

LEXINGTON, Ky. June 10 (AP)—Dr. William D. Funkhouser, secretary of the Southeastern Conference, died at his home here last night after several months' illness. He was 67 years old.

Dr. Funkhouser, dean of the graduate school at the University of Kentucky since 1925, was an educator of national and international prominence. Funeral services will be Friday.

Father Of Giants Manager Dies At New York Home

Hal Gruber, manager of the Sanford Giants, left Sanford last night to attend the funeral of his father, who died in Brooklyn, N. Y. yesterday afternoon.

The Sanford manager was about to leave the city to go to St. Augustine with the baseball club, when he was notified of the death of his father.

Gruber is expected to be away until the middle of the coming week. Buddy Lake, veteran Sanford utility man, has been named skipper of the club, but was unable to make the St. Augustine trip last night due to illness. The Sanfordites were under the direction of Field Captain Tim Tyler. The Sanfordites were under the direction of Field Captain Tim Tyler. Lake is expected to return to the club tonight, when the Sanfordites move to Palatka for a single engagement with the Azaleas. The locals trimmed the Saints last night by a 13 to 7 margin.

Unbeaten Hound Will Attempt To Win Again Tonight

The unbeaten Official Time steps out in quest of a third straight triumph tonight at the Volusia County Kennel club in Daytona Beach.

The Fred Whitehead juvenile see ran as well in his first two starts at the Daytona track that Racing Secretary Merrill Watts decided to toss him against the future race greyhounds. Tonight, Official Time goes in the ninth race and will meet such notable 6-16th millers as Rocket Lad, Gloria Ann, Rapid Feller, Hi-Watha Lady, Nankeen, OB's Ginger and Consent.

Gloria Ann looms as the toughest rival for the unbeaten Whitehead star. Gloria Ann, a few nights ago, came tearing down the stretch like a runaway locomotive after getting away to a slow start. She came up with a great rush on the home stretch and was not far behind Rolling Roy and Ed. The winner, amashed the track record for the 5-16th mile course in that race in running the distance in 32 flat.

Gloria Ann tonight won't have Rolling Roy to contend with. However, Official Time will be a dangerous threat for her, while so will Consent, the 1948 West Flagler Nursery champion. Consent failed to perform up to expectations in a recent start, but tonight may atone for the previous poor showing.

Mystery Spot, a brilliant racer which recently competed in the Biscayne Derby in Miami and gave the famed Beachcomber, the fastest greyhound in America today, a good run for the money, looms best of a pack of 6-16th millers clashing in the eighth race, the secondary feature. Mystery Spot will race with Fain, Viking Miss, Victory Chance and other noted routers.

Graziano, Zale Keep Anxious Eyes On Sky

Intermittent Rains Force Postponement Of Title Contest

NEWARK, N. J. June 10 (AP)—Finely trained Rocky Graziano and Tony Zale kept an anxious eye on the sky today as they sweated out the hours for their scheduled midweek title bout in Ruppert Stadium tonight.

On edge after months of training drudgery for this third and rubber fight, the battlers were keenly disappointed when intermittent rainstorms yesterday postponed the fray.

Today's forecast for partly cloudy weather was enough to keep them on the hot seat. They weighed in yesterday—champion Graziano at 158½ and Zale at 158½—and don't have to repeat the ceremony today.

But if squalls force another 24-hour delay the gladiators might be in for trouble. In event of a double postponement, they'll have to make the 180-pound division fight again Friday noon, according to the ruling of Abe J. Greene, chairman of the New Jersey State Athletic Commission.

The "seven angels" as the seven businessmen backers are called, already were assured of breaking even on their initial promotion. They've got a ticket sale of more than $277,000 and $70,000 for radio and movie rights. Whatever comes in today is pure gravy. Graziano will get $120,000 and Zale $60,000.

The promoters still hope to hit their goal of a $5,000 crowd and a $350,000 gate.

The betting odds remained stable with the rough, rugged New York titleholder favored at 5 to 11.

Rocky knocked out Zale in the sixth round last year. The quiet, former steel puffer from Gary, Ind., flattened the Rock in the sixth round of their first fight in 1946. Another quick thunderous punching exhibition is expected shortly after they get going at 9 P. M. tonight.

Feller, Hi-Watha Lady, Official Time, Nankeen, Consent, OB's Ginger.

10th Race 5/16th Mile Dumb Deal, Elgie Lord, Special Delux, Gypsy Maiden, Dream, Polter, Wackawack, OB's Shoreline, Viking Lass.

Caldwell Says Socialized Medicine Will Follow Abolition Of States' Rights

RICHMOND, Va. June 10 (AP)—Governor Millard Caldwell of Florida said Tuesday night that the abolition of the medical profession is "a practical certainty" unless the trend toward the abolition of all states' rights is stemmed.

He told graduates of the Medical College of Virginia here that "proponents of federal interference with private medicine insist that private medicine has not served the public as it should have."

"Perhaps the charge is not made without some justification. Many sound students think private medicine could and should have done more in behalf of public health."

"The tendency on the part of doctors to congregate in the large centers of population and to allocate themselves to specialized fields has, to a considerable degree, deprived the isolated and the poor of needed medical attention," he declared.

However, the governor added, "The vital question here is not whether you shall become a specialist or whether you shall serve the smaller communities."

"The basic thing is whether the medical profession will do the job, avoid the process of socialization."

"Unless the trend toward the abolition of all states' rights is stemmed and unless you do perform the functions the medical profession should perform, then it is a practical certainty that in the foreseeable future you will become regimented and deprived of the incentive to grow and develop, engage in research and be free in your profession."

Urging attention to the duties of citizenship, Caldwell said Americans are "getting away from the principles of government which made our nation great and have gone off on tangents."

He said federal claims to "highlands" "succeeding in obtaining a divided opinion which divided the sovereign coastal states of vital rights and established a precedent under which other and essential rights of all the states may be circumscribed or abrogated in the future."

"Unless the Congress approves legislation restoring those rights, a chaotic condition involving multitudinous lawsuits, inconvenience and inescapable injustice must result."

The governor called President Truman's Civil Rights Program "another example of a federal effort to erase states' rights."

"Those who advocate the creation of a federal police system to enforce drastic punitive measures aimed at the South are advocating a change in our form of government," he declared.

Caldwell said Northerners are unaware that "political meddling are interested in votes and not rights," and added "Let us hope they get the facts before it is too late."

"It is obvious that the present controversy is with us because certain political forces desire to capture the votes of minorities. Such an insincere and reprehensible approach delays the day when we may come to accept all peoples on the basis of worth and merit."

The governor told the medical graduates "Southern conditions have been deliberately misrepresented." He declared negro living conditions are better in the South than in northern big city slum areas.

27 Year Old Man Is Slain Gangland Style

CHICAGO June 10 (AP)—A 27-year-old police character was slain early in typical gangland fashion and police said they learned he was friendly with three other men similarly killed.

The victim was Norton Polsky, a race track hanger-on with a police record. He was shot to death on a west side street by two men as he stepped from an automobile, three bullets penetrated his head and body. The gunmen escaped.

begin voting on amendments and the bill at 2 P. M. He told his colleagues that the Navy and Air Force don't want Selective Service for youths from 19 through 25, as the measure provides; that only the Army wants it.

"The evidence convicts the Army of being against the voluntary system," the West Virginia senator shouted.

"If the Army will do its full part toward the filling of its ranks through the voluntary system, it will be done. The Navy has done it, the Air Force has done it. The Army comes and asks for the draft."

Revercomb charged that the Army had raised its intelligence test requirements to cut off volunteers.

He said the war was fought with men accepted if they made a grade of 53 or more on the test. He said the Army had raised the passing grade to 70 and then had upped it to 80.

Meanwhile a bill to let 200,000 European refugees into this country came under heavy attack as the House opened debate on the measure.

Rep. Gossett (D-Tex.) said that many displaced persons seeking to come here "are bums, criminals, subversives, revolutionists, crackpots and human wreckage."

Why, he asked, should we "inject more poison into the national bloodstream?"

And Rep. Cox (D-Ga.) said if the refugees are let in "they will gnaw like termites at our constitutional form of government."

He said he had visited displaced person camps in occupied Germany and found they were "hotbeds of revolutionists."

Rep. Walter (D-Pa.) took another tack in criticizing the measure. He said this country "shouldn't encourage people who don't for the moment agree with their governments to believe they can find a haven in the United States."

It is more important, Walter said, for them to remain to combat the totalitarian governments in their countries."

Rep. Stefan (R-Neb.) said he would propose an amendment to include "those who have fled their country because their government has been overthrown."

Stefan said he had the support of the State Department for his amendment, which would bring the bill closer into line with a similar measure already approved by the Senate.

Gossett told the House this country already has the largest alien population of any nation in the world.

"Our assimilation machinery is already clogged," he said. "The melting pot has not melted."

He said the bill "is a bad bill."

Truman Tour

They stumped the state together last night and again today in a manner reminiscent of their stumping tour together in 1944. Mr. Truman, then a candidate for vice president, spoke in behalf of Wallace's candidacy for governor four years ago.

At each appearance, the governor introduces the President, Mrs. Truman and the President's daughter, Margaret. Then, the President introduces Mrs. Wallace, who is also on the tour.

The party is leaving Olympia at 11 A. M. by automobile for Bremerton for a tour of the city and short off-the-cuff address at the Elks Club and an inspection of the Navy yard. They will board the governor's yacht at 2 P. M. for Seattle where they will arrive 90 minutes later for the drive to the stadium.

After his speech and a motor trip through the city the President will cut a ribbon at a ceremony celebrating the opening of the rehabilitation program there.

The next stop will be Tacoma where the President speaks at 8:45 P. M. before driving back to Olympia for still another address around 8:15 P. M. in Sylvester Park.

The President's daughter, Margaret, frequently called for by station crowds, substituted temporarily for her father when a crowd turned out at Skykomah, an unscheduled stop.

"This is a stop I didn't know about," she said in her only speech of the trip. "It's nice to see you. Dad will be out in a minute."

"She was right," the President told the townspeople. He was "sound asleep" when the train pulled in.

themselves in rows behind the two.

The archbishop, former regent of Greece, spoke the last words of the ceremony: "Isaiah Horepse," which mean "With the help of God, dance," in accordance with the ancient rite. Mihail and Anne made three turns around the table. While they "danced" thus, they were showered with rice and rose petals. The royal pair's crowns were connected by a ribbon, symbolizing their union.

One slight change was made in the Greek orthodox ritual. In the purely Greek ceremony the couple wear artificial or natural wreaths of lemon blossoms attached, one to the other, by ribbons. Today, however, they used the gold-burnished crowns, as in the Russian orthodox ceremony.

The crowns did not actually rest on their heads, but were held directly over them by attendants.

the disposal of the Security Council. Such a force would have been extremely valuable to us in the past and it would undoubtedly be very valuable in the future.

"Even a small United Nations force would command respect, for it would have all the authority of the United Nations behind it. I do not think of a single case that has been dealt with by the Security Council so far in which a large force would have been needed to act for the United Nations guard force of some kind had been available for immediate duty at the proper time. I include Palestine.

Armed Peace Is Observed In Palestine

Jews Are Accused Of Killing Arab After UN Truce Deadline; Arabs Raid Tel Aviv

CAIRO, June 11. (AP)—Armed peace for at least four weeks began in Palestine today, bringing with it a glimmer of hope for an end to Arab-Jewish warfare.

Indications from the Holy Land were that the truce fixed by the United Nations mediator was generally observed. However the Arab Legion accused the Jews of killing an Arab soldier in Jerusalem and Jewish Tel Aviv had an air raid alert after the truce deadline, I. A. M.

Jews and Arabs made last-minute jabs to improve their military positions. The lines will remain stabilized while peace talks are carried out on the island of Rhodes under United Nations sponsorship.

An Israeli communiqué claimed important successes in a last-minute battle of Jews with the Arab Legion at Latrun for control of the key road from Jerusalem to Tel Aviv. It said Jews attacked in darkness after two nights of heavy artillery and mortar preparation against a rocky hill stronghold held by a full Arab Legion brigade. The Arabs reported in Amman, Trans-Jordan, that the Jewish attack failed and the Jews lost at least 100 killed and a number of prisoners.

The Jews also reported capture of an Arab village and military camp east of Majdal, on the coast south of Tel Aviv, in new operations against an Egyptian (Continued on Page Two)

Florida Grapefruit Growers Lose Over 10 Cents Per Box

LAKELAND, June 11.—(AP)—The men who grow Florida grapefruit lost more than a dime a box on most of the fruit they produced this year, official reports indicate.

Most Florida grapefruit sold on the fresh fruit market brought an "on tree" price of less than 25 cents a box, Harry L. Williams, manager of the Lakeland office of the Federal-State Market News Service, said in his annual report.

The state marketing bureau figured the average cost of producing a box of grapefruit at 35 cents for the 1946-47 season. It was believed to be about the same for the year now ending.

Willson said grapefruit sold for as much as $1 a box for a brief period at the season opening, but the level was about 25 cents for much of the season. By April it was at the unprecedented low of 15 to 19 cents a box, he added.

Greek Army Reports Increase In Fighting

ATHENS, June 11.—(AP)—The Greek army general staff reported today a sharp increase of fighting. The communiqué said 14 guerrillas were killed and 14 captured in "important clashes" south of the Yugoslav border on Vitis and Kaimakchalan mountains. Clashes also were reported in western Thessaly and three parts of western Macedonia.

Press reports said guerrillas using bazookas, mortars and heavy machineguns wiped out a National Guard unit on the southeast slope of Mt. Olympus. Six guerrillas were reported killed and 33 others captured.

The communiqué said guerrillas tried to loot a police convoy west of Patras in the northern Peloponnese and lost 22 killed and two captives.

Columbia Breaks Another Dike, Floods Miles Of Rich Farmland

PORTLAND, Ore., June 11 (AP)—The flooding Columbia River broke through another dike on Portland's outskirts today and raced over a rich lowland area extending ten miles to the east.

Doomed were the Portland airport, four golf and country clubs, a lakeside resort and homes for several thousand persons.

All residents were ordered evacuated days ago, but the sheriff's office feared some might have returned.

The airport siren sounded at 7:30 a. m. The fire department at Troutdale, a small community on high ground east of Portland also issued a warning to any returning. Eight sheriff's cars raced over roads ahead of the water with sirens going.

Army engineers pulled out all troops and dike workers. The sheriff's office said the warnings would have given anyone in the area time to escape ahead of the flood.

The break, as in previous breaches that flooded Newport, the Portland Meadows race track and another golf course, came in a side dike, not on the river front. Army engineers said they would attempt to hold an intermediary dike, ten miles to the east, protecting the $45,000,000 Reynolds aluminum plant.

Meanwhile, the highest waters of the flood rolled toward the Portland area.

The U. S. Weather Bureau warned that the unruly Columbia River's third crest would hit the lower valley tomorrow, driving floodwaters at Portland to a new 1948 high—30 feet. The level was 29.95 when the first crest struck the Oregon metropolis June 1.

Canada's big Fraser River rode a new high for the year—21.7 feet—along impounded lowlands near the Pacific. It still was rising.

American and Canadian authorities ordered new evacuations of the Columbia and Fraser maintained relentless pressure on levees saturated by weeks of high water.

The 5,500 residents of Sumas Prairie in British Columbia were told to flee their 20,000 acres of fertile farmland, protected from a 32-foot wall of Fraser water by the five-mile Veder Canal dike system. The Canadian navy said the situation was "deteriorating" in this district about 60 miles upriver from Vancouver, B. C.

In the hard-pressed lower Columbia Valley, U. S. Army engineers ordered evacuation of a 13-mile stretch of the Klamath River near Klamath Falls, 40 miles downstream from Portland. (Continued on Page Two)

Florida State Park Visitors Are Breaking Attendance Records

TALLAHASSEE, June 11 (AP)—Attendance records are being broken again this year at Florida's nine operating state parks. Nearly 60,000 visitors passed through the gates of the recreation areas during the first three months of 1948.

That was nearly 5,000 above the attendance for the same period a year ago, but Park Director Scoggins believes it would have been far greater if the weather hadn't been bad and facilities had been more adequate.

In all of last year, 266,483 visitors registered at the parks—an increase of 68,000 over the year before.

Actually, though, Scoggins estimates total attendance at close to 800,000 because many fishermen, picnickers, nature study groups and others don't bother to register. Many of them go to the 11 park areas where there is no place to register.

Again this year, Goldhead Branch Park near KeySTONE Heights and the Hillsborough River park near Tampa are the most popular spots. They offer boating, fishing, fishing and general picnicking facilities.

On a good summer holiday, Scoggins said, a crowd of 5,000 isn't unusual at Goldhead Branch. The cabins there, which rent for around $25 already are booked up for occupancy through August. A family is limited to one week to give more people a chance at them.

Myakka Park's five cabins near Sarasota are reserved for the next month. They are the only two parks with cabins.

On a recent Sunday, a record 2,129 visitors went to Hillsborough river park.

St. Andrews State Park near Panama City, the newest area, is doing a big business even though you can't reach it by land. Boats are available at Panama City and St. Andrews, and the park's amenities and dining room facilities just this week have been opened to the group camping. However, about 400 salt water fishermen (Continued on Page Eight)

Hoffman Says ERP Cut Will Cripple Europe

Reports Brunt Of Reduction Would Fall On Equipment Needed For Production

WASHINGTON, June 11.—(AP)—Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich.) urged the Senate today to help "organize the peace" so this country won't have to use force to help keep the world on an even keel.

Vandenberg asked quick approval of a resolution paving the way for American political and military support to European nations joining hands against possible Communist aggression.

WASHINGTON, June 11. (AP)—The boss of the European Recovery Program said today House cuts in ERP funds would virtually "eliminate" plans to put Europe's industry back on its feet.

"The brunt of the cut must fall on the machinery and equipment necessary to restore or increase Europe's productive capacity," Economic Cooperation Administrator Paul G. Hoffman told the Senate Appropriations Committee.

"The most productive and the most far-reaching part of the recovery program would for all practical purposes be eliminated."

Hoffman's first formal appeal for restoration of the full $5,300,000,000 in recovery funds showed that machinery shipments would have to be reduced from $1,100,000,000 to $100,000,000 if the Senate upholds the House slash.

The House voted to spread the $5,300,000,000 over 15 months (Continued on Page Four)

Supervised Sports For Children Will Be Monday, 9 A. M.

A supervised program of recreation for the children of Sanford starts Monday, when registration begins at the Sanford Grammar School at 9:00 o'clock, it was announced today by Recreation Director Fred Ganas.

Assistant Ganas will be Hugh Canaday through June 14, Barbara Dangler and Mrs. Linda Gingles, who are all trained instructors in physical education and have passed the Red Cross tests to be life guards and swimming instructors.

The playground will be open Monday through Friday of each week until Aug. 31 between the hours of 9:00 o'clock to 12:00 o'clock and 2:00 o'clock until 5:00 o'clock.

The schedule for Monday includes registration, organization of baseball leagues for boys and setting up clubs for girls during the morning.

Apparatus play and dodge ball will be held for boys in the five to nine age group in the afternoon, and the girls in the same group will receive instruction in rug work.

Volley ball and soft ball is scheduled for boys and rug work for the girls in the 9 to 12 group for afternoon activity, while the boys in the 12 to 16 group will be instructed in spot ball casting, and girls will participate in badminton games.

Soap carving, story telling and wood working are scheduled for the five to nine age group for Tuesday morning, while boys of other age groups will receive baseball instruction and the girls do lead and rug work. Swimming for all age groups is on the program for the afternoon.

The children will have school bus transportation from the playground on swimming days, and will be under the supervision of the instructors at all times, Director Ganas asserted.

Summer School To Be Held At Seminole Hi

Students of Seminole High School who failed to make grades in certain subjects may make up this work in summer school which, starting Monday morning, will be continued for four weeks, then recessed until August, when there will be four more weeks of instruction.

Elementary pupils will have summer school starting Monday and continuing through June 25. This is not for pupils who have failed, said Principal B. C. Stealy, but for those who wish to remedy work in certain subjects. This work can be taken at the Junior High School, Grammar School or West Side and South Side Primary Schools.

105 Seminole High Students Are Graduated

Mr. Morris Terms 63 Of Group As Above Scholastic Average; 49 To Go To College

The excellent record of the 105 graduates of Seminole High School in scholastics, athletics, musical activities and other achievements was highly praised last evening by Principal Herman E. Morris as he addressed the students and a crowd of several hundred that jammed the high school auditorium to capacity to witness the impressive graduation exercises.

Seven veterans were among the graduates.

Terming 63 of the 105 graduates as above the average in scholarship, Mr. Morris revealed that 49 intend to go to college. He declared that they were well prepared for this as students of any high school, predicted few failures, and said that they had been trained by a faculty unmatched anywhere, teachers who had gone way beyond the line of duty in working with the boys and girls. He also thanked the county school board and trustees for co-operation.

Dorothy Whitner was presented by Supt. T. W. Lawton with the Mobley medal, which for the past 28 years has been donated by Dr. E. D. Mobley to the student with the highest average.

8th Grade Students Lead 7th Grade In Scholastic Record

The seventh grade of the Junior High School had a slight edge on the eighth grade pupils during the year in perfect attendance records, by a score of 13 to 12; but in excellence in scholarship the eighth graders have 21 listed to 25 of the seventh grade, it was reported today by R. E. Truitt, principal.

Seventh grade pupils who have perfect attendance records are: Delbert Abney, Tommy Andes, Nettie Ruth Bowen, Mary Lou Copeland, Shirley Corn, Mary Jane English, Ethel Gelsler, Doris Jones, Louise Johnson, Virginia Orren, Hugh Walters, Irene White and Robert White.

New Atomic Project Is Told To Students

ANN ARBOR, Mich., June 11 (AP)—"Operation Atomtrap"—a new atomic project that seeks to make its own fuel while producing heat and electricity—was described here last night by Atomic Energy Commissioner Robert F. Bacher.

It "certainly looks enticing," he told the Ann Arbor high school graduating class.

Bacher said the new project may manufacture heat and electricity at reasonable rates by "breeding" in the same process new material out of which they can be produced. More new material would be created than the amount consumed, he explained.

House Votes Out Currency Reform Proposal To Admit Polish Soldiers

Rep. Lodge Sought To Amend Bill Admitting 200,000 DP's

WASHINGTON, June 11 (AP)—House leaders have put the draft bill on the "must" list for action next week. But whether the country will have such a law this year depends on 12 men and what they do in the next few days.

WASHINGTON, June 11. (AP)—The House voted down, 77 to 57, today a proposal to admit 18,000 former Polish soldiers to this country.

The Polish soldiers fought against Germany and are now in England.

Rep. Lodge (R-Conn.) proposed to open the way for them to come to the United States. He sought to amend legislation which would admit 200,000 homeless Europeans within the next two years.

Lodge described the Poles as "symbols of persecution in the most real and cruel sense."

During the debate, Rep. Lesinski (D-Mich.) said 90 percent of all immigrants since World War II have been Jews.

Rep. Celler (D-N.Y.) accused Lesinski of voicing "a veiled prejudice utterly unworthy of any member of this House."

Backed by the GOP high command, the measure by Rep. Pollock (R-Mich.) underwent a scathing five-hour attack from both sides of the House yesterday in its initial test.

Supporters of the measure, playing strongly on the theme of humanitarian help for victims of persecution and persecution, encountered counter assertions that many of the DP's are "bums, criminals, subversives, revolutionaries, crackpots and human wreckage."

Such was the description voiced by Rep. Gossett (D-Tex.) who added that those still living in DP camps are "the refuse of Europe."

Rep. Rankin (D-Miss.) told the House "You're going to get a darn sight more Russian spies in this country if you let these DP's come in."

But Rep. Celler (D-N.Y.) said the DP's would be checked at least three times before they set foot on American soil, to prevent Communist agents from slipping in.

Celler said the DP population of European camps is "a veritable army of immigrants." He added that the bill would cut in half the present $100,000,000 annual cost of operating the DP centers.

Fellows in arguing for his measure, similar to one passed by the Senate, said it would as a "better class of immigrant than you could get without it."

Before adjourning, the House voted 75-62 for an amendment by Rep. Stefan (R-Neb.) to include among qualified DP's those who fled their homelands after their government was overthrown by a Communist coup.

Stefan said the amendment applies specifically to some 2,000 Czechs who fled after the Communists overthrew the government last Spring.

Fellows' measure, as originally written, would disqualify any person not in a DP camp in the occupied zones of Germany, Italy and Austria by April 21, 1947.

It is not subject to the death penalty because he was under 18.

Currency Reform Appears Imminent In West Germany

Plan Will Be Put Into Effect By Occupation Officials

BERLIN, June 11. (AP)—A currency reform, aimed at taking from 70 to 90 per cent of the present inflated money out of circulation, appears imminent in Western Germany.

Officials refuse comment, but unofficial sources give this overall picture of Franco-Anglo-American plans to put Western Germany on a self-sufficient financial basis:

1. The new Western German mark will not have any immediate value on international markets. The new mark will be blocked. It is hoped eventually to give it an international value of 30 cents. Internally, the mark will be so valued to be worth approximately 30 cents in services and goods by world standards. (The present mark was 40 cents.)

2. The new currency reform will be the most drastic taken in Western Europe—much more so than Germany's 1923 devaluation. Lowest unofficial estimates state it will take 70 per cent of the currency out of circulation. High estimates are 90 per cent. All savings of over 3,000 marks ($1,000) probably will be wiped out or reduced to small fractions.

3. The new currency will be backed by Western Germany's ability to produce. The currency issue will be limited to productive capacity.

Post office officials have issued regulations against wholesale buying of stamps to prevent speculation. Railroad officials have placed a similar stop on wholesale buying of season rail tickets.

The plan will be put into effect by the occupation powers. The allies do not want German officials blamed for hardships which will be worked in many cases. However, German finance officials have been consulted for the past two years on the idea.

The new currency will be issued through the Trifone state banks. This group is headed by the president of the state banks in each occupation zone.

To preserve value of the currency, the military government will insist on strict control of credits and balanced government budgets.

All large bank accounts and personal holdings are expected to be frozen. Holders of 3,000 marks or more will be called on to explain where they got their money. Those sums made by black-market trading or war profits will be wiped out completely. Money made legitimately or legitimate savings probably will be exchanged at a rate between seven and ten old marks for one new one.

French Paper Says Reds Kill Tassojew

PARIS, June 11.—(AP)—The newspaper Franco-Soir reported today that Russian Colonel J. D. Tassojew (Tassojew) died in Soviet hands 24 hours after his "release" by British authorities.

In Berlin, Russians at the official Soviet news bureau said: "That report is laughable—extremely laughable. Let Franco-Soir have such scoops."

The paper's Berlin correspondent said the British were compelled to turn Tassojew over to the Russians because the Soviets were holding a former British staff member at the Allied Control Council, Igor Klein.
