County officials named in sex harassment suit

By Russ White
 HERALD STAFF WRITER

SEMINOLE COUNTY — Is Joyce Suber to be "harassed"? Did two county commissioners and another county official sexually harass her? Or was she a disgruntled former employee trying to hold up the county?

Suber filed in 1996 from her job as land acquisition coordinator for the county claims in a deposition filed in federal court that county commissioners Wm Adams and Darl McLain and another county official sexually harassed her during her 9 1/2 year employment.

Her Orlando attorney John Head continued this to the Seminole Herald on Friday, as did Jeff Mandel, an Orlando attorney representing the county, which Suber is suing for $20 million.

Mandel said that Suber gave explicit details about what she said happened. "Remember though, these are merely allegations," said

'In her dreams'

Mandel who recently informed the named officials.

Suber was put on administrative leave in the summer of 1996 and fired on Oct. 24 that same year. Her termination, county officials said, was for "misconduct" including falsifying time cards and abusing her authority.

"She appealed her firing, but a grievance committee supported the county's decision saying there was just cause. She then initiated a lawsuit against the county. They should know I'm not going to give up without a fight," Suber has said.

McLain called Suber's charges "a joke. I've been married 26 years, have a family and am

Car didn't quite clear the tracks

A collision involving an Amtrak train and this Nissan NX2000 occurred Friday at the crossing at Lake Mary Boulevard and Country Club Road. At 3 p.m., Ruben Maranges, hauling the Nissan behind a tow truck for Extreme Towing, drove over the tracks, but did not clear them. The Nissan was stuck when the arms at the crossing gate came down on it as the train, operated by conductor Tom Pudat, tried to make an emergency stop but could not. Maranges removed the car from the scene. There were no injuries.

Environmentalists miffed: Oviedo OK's controversial development

By David Frazier
 HERALD STAFF WRITER

OVIEDO — Despite Friday's council meeting, Oviedo council members could not sleep over Monday night's vote on the controversial development. In the light versus the dark greenists and concerned citizens.

The nearly 2,000-acre project has been under the microscope for a long time. It is a threat to the wetlands of the Ecor River area. The project will also mean a rise in the congestion of County Road 404 traffic. And local residents say that the build-up will affect those who wish to sell their homes, two to three times longer in some cases.

In the first meeting of the month, both sides pro and con spoke about Live Oak. In the next meeting, the applicant Sterling Company of Orlando addressed concerns from the council. There was a council discussion, and then the vote went through 4 to 1 in favor of the development. "I'm very upset about this meeting," said Libby, an environmental activist who lives in Oviedo.

Mike Rich, president of CRED, said that his group gave council members a 150-page document with expert testimony that he feels was not even considered when the final vote came. "They ignored our proposals and documentation," said Rich. "CRED is deciding whether to take this ruling by the council for a court to review. We'll decide if that is the method we want to take," said Rich.

During the April 6 meeting, council member Phillip Hampton resigned his spot this day.

Winter Springs nixes bus benches

By Tony Tizlo
 HERALD CORRESPONDENT

WINTER SPRINGS — Winter Springs commissioners handled a varied agenda at their last meeting, but it was still the proposed moving of the Trails Project and Battle Ridge Development that generated much of the attention.

The agenda began with a matter concerning the removing of all bus benches on public right-of-ways. This also called for the removal of public seating and shelters on public right-of-ways and private properties which are adjacent to public right-of-ways.

Since these benches contain advertisements and are sponsored by community service organizations such as the Florida Jaycees, representatives from these groups were there to give opposition to this item, including Andrew J. Moos, membership vice president of the Florida Jaycees.

The Jaycee spokesman was there with others, representing a benching project that has raised $15,000 for charity in the last several years. Commissioner Michael Blake said the city has tried for a long time to limit the signage in the city. After much debate, the commission voted

Confederate Memorial Day

Members of the Norman deVore Howard Chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy observed Confederate Memorial Day Friday by decorating the graves of the Confederate veterans at Lakeview Cemetery. Fifty-two veterans are buried at Lakeview. Georgia, Mississippi, North Carolina and Louisiana. Here, Chairman of Public Relations Barbara Scheel, Chair of Ceremony Committee Juanita Miller and President Hazel Cash commemorate the event by laying a floral arrangement. "We commemorate these graves as a tribute to American valor and to the lasting memory of all the men who fought in the war between the states," Cash said. Each April, the local UDC chapter pays a special tribute to its sponsor, the late Sanford physician Dr. Norman deVore Howard in whose honor the chapter was named and it is his grave upon which the floral arrangement is placed.

Sanford, country club wrangle over who owes what to whom

By Nick Pfelfauf
 HERALD STAFF WRITER

SANFORD — The dispute over lease rental payments between the Mayfair golf course and the City of Sanford continues. The matter is again scheduled to be discussed at Monday night's Sanford City Commission meeting. The general disagreement lies in the amount of money the city says Mayfair owes in lease rentals, versus the amount Mayfair says has been spent in improvements.

The main players in the drama involve John "Jack" Daniels, president of Seminole Clubs, Inc. (Mayfair Country Club), former Sanford City Manager Warren E. "Pete" Knowles who represents Daniels, present City Manager Bill Simmons, City Finance Director Donna Watt, and attorneys representing each side as well as those doing research into the matter.

A letter sent in February from the city attorney to Daniels notified him that the city has determined Seminole Club has failed to fulfill a term of its lease. The letter stated, "The breach of the lease is failure by the lessee to pay rent as required. The amount of accrued rent owed is $255,346."

The letter stated that the breach includes claiming as improvements items which were not actually capital improvements as defined in the lease, as well as claiming credit for expenses which do not fall under the category of

Longwood scraps restrictive code as aid to residents

By Vicki Bellucio
 HERALD STAFF WRITER

LONGWOOD — Longwood city commissioners this past week agreed to scrap the land development code that has caused them so much grief and return to the previous plan.

The current codes have been the cause of much controversy and are viewed by most as too restrictive and, at the same time, too vague. Many projects have been stymied by the code.

Commissioner Paul Lovestrand, who first moved that the code be scrapped, said the way the code is currently written makes it impossible for someone living in the Longwood historic district to fix a leaky roof. "If your roof leaks, you can't just put asphalt shingles on there," he said. "You have to use cedar shakes or put on a tin roof. That's just too much."

Other commissioners agreed with Lovestrand that the restrictive codes were making it difficult for many residents to maintain their homes.

Commissioner Annamarie Vaccra said she has heard of people having troubles with the codes and that the codes often make it difficult to complete projects in a timely and cost-effective manner.

"It's just too much sometimes," she said. "I think the code needs to be less restrictive."

An ad hoc committee has been going over the code with a fine tooth comb, trying to work out the kinks. Mayor Rusty Miles think that the talking has been going on for far too long.

Guerrilla marketing versus traditional advertising

In the course of our meetings with clients over the last couple of weeks, the topic of how to reach customers has arisen many times. The first question seems to be how do I get money for advertising? Then they want to know how much should they spend and where. Usually following these questions is one about whether I think they should be on the Internet.

In many cases it becomes quickly apparent that in a start up company or one in phase one they simply don't have the resources to mount an effective media campaign. That means that they need to find inexpensive ways to reach the potential market. I am not going to insult your intelligence by claiming that in all cases guerrilla marketing can replace a traditional campaign. But like all true small business people you must face the reality of your own situation and adapt.

The strategy you follow is somewhat dictated by the business you are in. For example if you are in a service business you might do a couple of things. First identify an influential person or company to approach and offer your service. Your goal is to create a satisfied customer and obtain referrals. You must be careful not to so underprice your service so that it is perceived not to have a value. Influential "rainmakers" is a time tested way to enter a market. Next identify influence's that is people or companies who while not consumers of your service nevertheless influence others that are. Examples of influence's are people like real estate agents, bankers and lawyers who interact with your customers. Once identified then you can offer incentives to these individuals to recommend your service.

Small Business

Wayne Hardy

Once your business is opened or if you have an existing business you should very carefully maintain a data base of your customers. This is the gold mine that must be very carefully mined. The most expensive way to build sales is with a concentration on new customers. In many cases you can raise your annual sales by a factor of 30 percent by special offers, newsletters and frequent shopper discounts.

Every organization you belong to should be put to the benefits test. If you lack capital to fund an advertising effort then you must spend your time carefully in those areas that provide the best exposure. You need to pick the widest venues that allow to network with as many people who fit our needs. People like to buy from people they have a relationship with. In these opportunities, don't fail to recognize that others are doing the same and the fastest way to get them to help you is to help them. Drive and determination can make up for a lot of shortcomings in capital.

IN BRIEF

New business for senior care

SANFORD - It is estimated that up to seven million women are unpaid care givers to the elderly. Most toil without respite, doing backbreaking labor in virtual isolation. Now however, women are drawing upon a new community-based small business called Home Instead Senior Care.

According to Marianne Bedard, director of operations for Home Instead Senior Care serving Seminole County, "We represent an important support resource that provides respite care for often-stressed and overworked family care givers."

Bedard said the company provides an affordable solution for older individuals or couples capable of managing their physical needs, but who require non-medical assistance, light housework, meal preparation and/or companionship in order to remain at home.

According to Bedard, Home Instead Senior Care's services can be arranged for a few hours or as many as 24 hours a day. Short term assistance or longer term care is available seven days a week including holidays.

"Elder care has become the top problem in our society today as it replaces child care as the number one issue for the men and women in our work force," she said. "Already people are spending more time caring for their elderly parents than they did caring for their own children. The problem will only magnify with the aging of the population."

"Home Instead Senior Care's mission is to form a partnership with family members who wish to help their parents live at home with care, comfort and contentment," Bedard concluded.

The company serving all of Seminole County is located at 655 Fulton Street, Suite 6 in downtown Sanford. Phone 302-5500.

Investigation into Sheehan homicide continues

Special to the Herald

ALTAMONTE SPRINGS - Sheriff's spokesman Lt. Jack Cash has issued an update on the homicide investigation into the death of Jacqueline Sheehan.

Sheehan was living in Willow Park Apartments, 375 Palm Springs Road, Altamonte Springs, across from the Altamonte Mall. According to a statement from her live-in boy friend, Rodney Bice, she was last seen leaving the couple's residence after a domestic dispute April 15, at approximately 2 a.m.

Sheehan was on foot, possibly dressed in a blue and purple shirt and jeans. She may have been going to an unknown pay phone in the area. When she did not return, Bice left the residence searching for her on foot and in his vehicle. When he did not locate her, Bice returned home.

Sheehan remained missing until April 20, when her badly decomposed body was found in a wooded area on the south side of North Street, west of County Road 427, near the intersection of Bennett Avenue.

Due to the advanced state of decomposition, the exact manner and cause of death has not yet been confirmed. Additional forensic testing has been required and the results are pending. They are not expected to be completed in the near future.

Anyone with any information about Jacqueline Sheehan is asked to contact Seminole County Sheriff's Office Inv. Ray Parker, 330-6600, ext. 373.

People who toil

Most homeowners know the value of well kept property. If relatives or friends are coming to visit, lawn mowing and cleanup work is generally the main focus of work. It's not purely to impress them, but it gives an impression of welcome. You are happy to have them visit.

Additionally, well maintained property gives the home owner or resident a feeling of pride. A well groomed home in a well groomed residential community makes us feel good.

There is the same need in our cities. Well mowed right-of-way areas and a neat appearance make us feel proud to live there and gives visitors a sense of beauty. "Here is a city that cares," they believe.

To this end, we believe it's high time to express appreciation to the people who maintain our cities' grounds. They may be with the Parks and Recreation Department or Maintenance or Grounds Division, or called by some other name. But these are the people who keep us looking good.

Even with temperatures up in the 90s, we can see them weeding, edging, working with those lawnmowers, sweating, getting dust and dirt in their faces, often getting filthy dirty in their assigned tasks. Yet they plod on with their work.

While there is little mowing and trimming to be done during the area's colder weather, there is little let-up; dead branches must be cleared, leaves removed, trash picked up, and numerous other tasks accomplished.

Generally, department heads get the glory whenever there are major accomplishments. That is as it should be. But we believe the individuals who toil, who put in long hours in hot or wet weather doing these jobs, deserve a great deal of our thanks and appreciation.

The next time you are driving through a well-kept area, give a moment of thought to the people who made it such. It isn't easy work, but it is rewarding in providing us with the best appearing areas possible.

To all those who toil in this profession, THANKS. You helped make us beautiful.

City fiasco

I stopped by City Hall today to see if city management had properly placed the Monday night agenda on "the public bulletin board" and found one of the most interesting postings that I have ever witnessed.

The "ex-city attorney" is now calling and directing the City meeting agenda. One only has to note the heading on the posted notice was faxed from Kruppenbacher & Associates as a public notice! Since when did the city attorney call or make up a city agenda? This only supports this city's lack of proper city management.

The 1997 expenditures plus continuing legal and consultant fees show misuse of tax dollars in excess of a one million dollar drain on the citizens of this city. It is definitely a time for change. Citizens will not finance the extravagance of current city management nor its attempt to employ "ex-friends" as part of a total failure to administrate.

Examples of that allegation is the "Martin County Connection" with the sudden appearance of "Brevard-Good-Old-Boy-Guthrie" and the hiring of an assistant city manager (for six months) who is still on the city payroll as a "temp". All three of these individuals (includes McLemore) lost or resigned their previous positions. Our city commission is either uninformed or doesn't want to know why!

Overwhelmed with arrogance, self-enhancement, and egomaniac attitudes is the sole function of those who call themselves City Commissioners. McLeods' article in the propagandistic publication called the Tuscaulville Today is a prime example. One only has to read previous issues to follow the arrogance of this governing body of Winter Springs. There's not enough newspaper to handle what the city manager might insert in T/T.

It takes 1,754 registered city voters to investigate a recall of all or individual members of the elected body of this City government! That's nothing more than a days work!

By the way, Mr. Mayor, when is somebody going to tell the public what happened to the $50,000 delivered to Kruppenbacher & Associates, on behalf of the City, for legal fees incurred by the Khemiani/O'Connell fiasco? The city manager has known for sometime of this delivery, action, and issue. What's he trying to hide? Citizens don't pay protection. Someone will pay this City's coffers a sum of $50,000!

Hoping for a temperate political climate

I have decided not to comment much on the upcoming elections and even had conversations with both sides asking that issues be discussed, leaving aside personal attacks, much of which cannot be confirmed or are not true.

The cartoon in last Sunday's Seminole Herald by Paul Lovestrand was, at best, a major contradiction by one side against the other.

If Mr. Lovestrand wanted to draw a cartoon that was possibly more accurate, or fair, he would have had the Titanic behind the Sweet Pea with a gang plank filled with Maloy, VanDerWeide, Lovestrand and friends. Is it possible that the implied question raised by Mr. Lovestrand regarding (sunshine) could very easily apply to Mr. Maloy and Mr. VanDerWeide?

After all, these two sitting commissioners were the first to get together and draft a letter, signed by both, that was sent out opposing Commissioner Adams and supporting Mr. Henley. For the supporters of Mr. Henley to bring up sunshine questions considering the climate they, themselves, have created baffles me. Now, of course you will be told that there is no connection. Well, maybe there isn't, but certainly if there was ever a situation of the kettle calling the pot black, here it is!

I have said that I would not allow if I could help it, having the issues buried and the public bombarded with irrelevant statements designed to draw us away from issues. Mr. Lovestrand should think before he draws. The commissioners he apparently supports, have had ample opportunity to do what he implied Mr. McLain and Mr. Adams may do or have done.

The time spent together by Mr. Maloy and Mr. VanDerWeide has covered many months. I will not imply that there was anything done or discussed during this period that was improper when they met other than their desire to unseat Mr. Adams. I also don't believe that Mr. Adams or Mr. McLain would act improperly either.

It's time to talk issues. That is what the public wants to hear and that is the obligation of those who wish to be elected or re-elected. The public is fed up with unconfirmed statements, innuendoes, and blabber about everything but ideas, policy, and the direction candidates see for this country.

Neither Mr. Adams, nor Mr. Henley have attacked each other personally and it may be a good idea at this time if both did us a favor and asked their supporters to deal with issues.

What concerns me most are those who stomp up and down the street preaching the Gospel and cutting taxes at the same time while they encourage the destruction of others by any means possible. I'm sorry but that doesn't register with me. Either you believe in treating others as you would like to be treated or take off your halo. This struggle for political power and the atmosphere surrounding it certainly flies in the face of any decent religious beliefs.

If I were to become disenchanted with a political figure I would find someone else to support. It would not be my desire to destroy the opposition by whatever means possible, or more importantly their family.

It seems that we will never learn, and that is why it is impossible to change our destiny. You would think that those who believe in what they preach would spend whatever time is left looking for what is good in others and themselves and build upon that!

Jesus was not involved in the political world. He was persecuted, betrayed and died because of it. Yes, he died for our sins, but politics was the vehicle used to expedite the deed. Think about it!

Frustration

We have said it before, here at "Special People", one of the most common activities a disabled person must contend with is waiting around for either something to happen, or someone to help us with something. That essentially, is what today's column is all about, frustration.

Frustration, in psychological terms is either the conscious or unconscious state of mind where a person feels unable to satisfy certain impulses and desires. It is also a feeling of disappointment and defeat which are common, or disappointment, impediment or failure.

Just think about it. Every day we all get frustrated and sometimes for minor things. It can start in the morning beginning with the toaster that won't work or the kids being a little unruly while getting ready for school.

When you get to work, you find out that a project you thought didn't have to be done in two weeks had to be done yesterday. These things seemed serious, but they are really not. Not when you consider all of the pain and suffering in the world.

Consider if you will, the possibility that you were disabled. Your senses or mobility are greatly reduced. You may even need assistance to eat, dress, and basically live. How frustrating would your current problems be then?

One of the other items that can be frustrating to a disabled person is when other non-disabled people are unable to accept the disabled person as a viable, creative part of society; a part of society that is just as ready, willing and able to help this great country of ours.

Like many people, I have read those psychological, self-help books that advocate such psychological treatments as scream therapy. Ultimately this has never worked for me except maybe the temporary relief of tension. Let us now try to understand a little more about frustration.

Like any other emotional response such as nervousness, frustration can be used as an asset. Take all of the energy, be it by your thought or physical actions that you use being frustrated, and put it into solving your situation. Develop a skill. Even if it is not related to the items that cause you the most frustration, it can still help your concentration enough to lessen your frustration.

Today we will define Parkinson's Disease. Parkinson's Disease is a slowly progressive condition characterized by involuntary trembling, muscular stiffness or inflexibility, slowness of movement and difficulty carrying out voluntary movements. Degenerative changes occur in areas deep within the brain.

Parkinson's disease generally begins with a subtle slight tremor, especially in the hands. At first the tremor occurs at rest, then becomes more pronounced with fatigue and emotional distress, lessening during voluntary movements.

Although I do not profess to being a doctor, my views come from living many years as a disabled person. Some research for today's column was done through NORD (National Organization for Rare Disorders), Webster's Interactive Dictionary & Compton's Multimedia Encyclopedia.

Kudos to Morse

We elected Maryanne Morse to do a job, and when she requested proper documentation for a trip taken by Commissioner Dick VanDerWeide, that's exactly what she was doing. I would ask my fellow voters in Seminole County to think about recent events between a county commissioner and the finance officer to keep it very fresh in their minds come election time.

Any veteran as well as any current or former civil servant at any level of civil service, knows before they ever go on travel that a big part of their settlement is filling all receipts with the travel voucher. In 15 years of Federal Civil Service I never saw anyone "jump for joy" at the prospect of doing that accounting, but I've never seen anyone try to have their lack of complete records tried in the media either. There is always a procedure in place for a lost receipt, but there is no place for the "take my word for it" approach to filing travel claims.

My hat is off to Maryanne Morse for not backing down. She is doing the job I voted for her to do, along with many other residents of Seminole. We need to examine closely what our other elected officials are doing under the guise of serving the people of Seminole County, and how they are going about it. NO ONE IS EXEMPT FROM PROPERLY ACCOUNTING FOR THEIR EXPENDITURES, and I for one do not want anyone exempted. That is a small part of the balance of power built into our system. It works when each one does what they are required to do.

Something is drastically wrong within Seminole County when an issue like a travel claim is tried in the press, and an individual's lack of documentation of expenses for which he is asking to be reimbursed is questionable. No documentation, no explanation, no reimbursement. It's that simple, has been at all levels of government for many, many years. Documentation of expenses is how we prevent misappropriation of funds.

Good work Maryanne Morse. I will vote for you again to be sure.

Sincerely,
Noreen A. Bryant

Special thanks to SPD

I would like to take a little time to thank the Sanford Police Department and Mayor Dale's office for being such a wonderful help.

You see, my 85-year-old father lives in Coconino County, Arizona. After repeated calls to his home resulting in busy signals (over a period of a week and a half), I tried the telephone company. They wanted money. I explained to them a man may be in trouble and to please check the line. They wanted money. I don't have my own phone and they wouldn't send a bill to my home.

Frustrated, I went to the police who said they would teletype Arizona. It took several tries to find out which department has jurisdiction out there. Dispatcher III, Officer Don Cliett, I believe; relentlessly teletyped as I relentlessly annoyed him. No response.

I went to Mayor Dale's office and he got in touch with Commander Bronson and authorized him to make the necessary phone calls. Finally, Commander Bronson contacted my father who contacted me and is alive and well now.

A special thanks to the lovely Nicholle Hellockson from the SPD front desk, who puts up with people constantly and the Mayor's secretary and the City Commissioners' secretary whose concern was genuine and touching.

Thank you all very much.

Thoughts are with Sanford

It has been 55 years since I was a young 21-year-old graduate of the Pensacola Naval Flight School reporting to the Sanford Naval Air Station for training in multi-engine aircraft. Even though I am now a Senior Citizen and live far away, I still consider the people of Sanford very special. In recent weeks, there has been much in the news about the weather related mass devastation in your area and I wish to extend my sympathy to all who lost property, those injured, and all who lost loved ones.

To me, Sanford has a special charm. Its people were the most considerate I have ever known. When I reported to the Naval Air Station, I was a young aviator from the hills of North Carolina training for war in the Pacific. On Sundays when not scheduled to fly, I attended the Presbyterian Church in town. After each service, the Church ladies would approach me and other service personnel and invite us to have Sunday dinner with their families. During the entire course of World War II, no other town where I was stationed exhibited the kind hospitality experienced in Sanford. I regret I can no longer remember the names of the nice people whose homes I visited, but I will never forget them.

It is because of those wonderful people many years ago that I feel pain when I read about the destruction in Sanford caused by the weather. They will always be in my mind and heart.

The way we were: Attending Seminole High in 1948

The Seminole High School Class of 1948 just celebrated its 50 year graduation anniversary. We'll add some history to the event covered today in the People Section C.

City and School Leadership

Robert Williams was mayor at the time and the commissioners serving with him were Andrew Carraway, John Krider, Randall Chase and Lea Leisher. H.N. Sayer was city manager.

Those serving on the Seminole County School Board were J.A. Biatline, W.A. Patrick, W.M. Haynes, C.F. Harrison with L.E. Jordan as chairman and T.W. Lawton as secretary and superintendent of schools.

Administration at Seminole High consisted of only Principal Herman Morris and Sadie Williams who served as his secretary.

Faculty members 1947-48 included Dr. J.B. Root, Effie Durden, Lucy Smith, Tim Tyler, Laura Chittenden, Elmina Bibebe and Nellie Coleman, language; Hilda Wray and Joe McCaslin, history; Edna Chittenden, librarian; Mae Form, Roger Harris and Gladys

Smith, science; Ethel Riser and Elizabeth Shoemaker, math; Rebecca Stevens, Barbara Ruprecht and Kenneth Eaddy, vocational; Mildred Babcock, art; Carl Kettles, Fred Oanas and June Winn, physical education. Bernard Black began his first year as band director and while Ollie Reese Whittle was in her third year as glee club director.

Class Activities

While under the leadership of Herby Stenstrom during their freshman year, this class sponsored a Kid Party at the Celery Crate and later a Valentine Dance. They also selected as their motto "Nothing is impossible" and their colors of blue and gold.

When they were sophomores, led by Kay Shoemaker, they won the silver cup for best Halloween stunt and the Sally sales contest. They also took an active part in the initiation of the freshmen during Rat Court.

As juniors they presented the play "Spring Fever" which was directed by Miss Whittle and honored the seniors with a banquet. To finance the latter, they sold concessions at football games and sponsored dances after the games. Bobby Pullin was president that year.

Those attending Girls State following their junior year were Margaret Partin, Barbara Chapman, Lillian Moran, June Rose Dutton, Frances LeFila, Maryanna Springer and Joanne Williams.

Boys State attendees were Kay Shoemaker, Bobby Pullin, Porter Lansing and Bobby Park.

Their senior play entitled "Tattletale" was directed by Mrs. Fort. Class sponsors that year were Mrs. Fort, Miss Stevens and Dr. Root.

The 1948 Salmagundi, whose editor was Margaret Partin, was dedicated to Miss Laura Chittenden and Dr. J.B. Root. There is an "In Memoriam" page for classmate Francis Temple who had died January 8, 1948. It reads in part "We shall miss Francis, but we feel that he has been promoted to a higher and greater work".

Clubs and Organizations

Members of this class were involved in the various clubs and organizations at SHS: I'm giving you a synopsis of their activities as recorded in the 1948 Salmagundi.

The Student Council, which had been organized in 1940, had Byron (Bunny) Beard as its president. They planned the weekly chapel programs, sponsored Homecoming festivities and acquainted new students with the school. Another large responsibility that year was organizing Sadie Hawkins Day. Among the activities planned were a greased pig race, tug of war between classes through a mud puddle, and a race with the girls capturing the boys and dragging them to Marryin' Sam. Everyone dressed in Dog-patch attire and enjoyed the many booths and activities.

The Tri Hi Y, headed by Jane Chapman, gave the freshman girls a hobo party. Their main activity, though, was sponsoring the annual football banquet at which time the outstanding players were honored with various awards including the prestigious Peter Schaaf Award which went to Wally Tyre.

Porter Lansing was president of the Key Club which built Santa Claus' float for the Christmas parade, sold donated to, sponsored New Years' and Valentine Dances and held a Mother-Son Banquet. Their sweetheart was Margaret Partin.

The Pep Club was formed in the fall of 1947 under the sponsorship of Mrs. Winn and Miss Ruprecht. Its purpose was to promote and sustain school spirit and also to undertake school and civic projects. They performed at half-time with the band, marched in parades and published a school handbook.

The SHS Band took part in the district and state contests for the first time, marched in parades, presented concerts, provided entertainment at games, pep rallies and assembly programs. Joe Wright was captain and Donna Lou Harper was First Lieutenant. The 35 members were pictured in white shirts and pants while money was being raised for uniforms.

to pass the motion to remove the benches with the signs.

During public input the commissioners got scolded by Winter Springs resident George Sealy who did not like all the negative press the city has been getting in trying to get rid of the mayor. "You should get the knives out of each others backs and behave like grown-ups," he said.

In the first of the two main items relating to the Trails issue, city staff advised the commission of their proposed submittal of applications to two programs for grants as part of the Town Center Project. One grant is the Florida Department of Community Affairs, Florida Community Trust.

This grant is funded for the purpose of purchasing land to enhance a local or regional network of linked greenways, by extending the greenways or closing the gaps. With the city putting up or matching a required 25 percent and ownership of the lands purchased with the grant funds being retained by the city.

The other grant is through the Department of Environmental Regulation, Office of Greenway and Trails. This department acquires land for public Greenspace and Trails and does not require a match. The land is however, kept in state ownership. Another Trail item was the actual proposal for moving the Trail.

It was suggested that the Trails segment be relocated farther east of the intersection of 434 and Tusawilla Road. The moving, recommended by the city staff, is to be more beneficial for the community, and multi-user Trail enthusiasts and property owners.

Winter Springs has asked to realign the current Trails corridor because it is located in the proposed Town Center Project. By doing all this, the city is eligible to receive up to $5 million from the Florida Community Trust. City owned land or donations may also be used for matching funds' value. The commission approved both issues.

The Parks and Recreation Department requested that the city accept the lowest construction bid for the "Trotwood Park" multi-purpose building and the Trail Head Restroom Facility. This item also passed.

It was requested that the City Commission hold a second public hearing to consider the recommendation of the Planning and Zoning Board relating to the proposed development agreement for an area near Tusawilla Road at the intersection of Vistawilla Drive and 434.

This item was tabled from the March 23 Commission meeting. Attorney, Mike Jones, representing the property owners for the Heas Station, spoke on their behalf. This property is to have several other businesses along with it.

Also to be included on the premises is a sandwich shop, a yogurt shop and a pizza place. After some back and forth discussions, Jones agreed to forego the proposed car wash portion of the station and put a skirt on the canopy. The commission then approved this item.

Later, in a related topic, Commissioner Cindy Gennell asked City Manager Ron McLemore to address the lighting standards for the city and to come back with some recommendations.

Next up was the first public hearing for the adoption of an ordinance regarding the jurisdictional wetlands for the Battle Ridge property. It went from a Lower Density Residential to Commercial on the future land use map classification. The preceding ordinance had changed the property from the county's Suburban Estates, to the city's Lower Density Residential. This item was then approved.

A recommendation of the commission was made to approve redistricting of the city and to request the first reading approval of an ordinance that establishes district boundaries to reflect the latest population. This item was approved.

The matter of boundaries and encroachment came up several times during the evening with Blake calling for voluntary annexation. The statement was also mentioned that the City of Winter Springs shall not extend its boundary beyond its service line or a voluntary annexation unless there can be a discussion with the county.

Seminole County Planner Tony Mathews spoke on this issue during the meeting saying how this was a good time for the City of Winter Springs to get together with Seminole County and the City of Oviedo. This would be what the county calls a Joint County Agreement. Mathews said later, "We want to make sure growth is contained in a manageable fashion."

and that it is time for action.

Lovestrand moved that the land development code be repealed except for those sections dealing with signs and with telecommunications towers and that the city returns to the old codes until a new, less restrictive code can be put in place.

Miles said he hoped the ad hoc committee would continue its work and that members could come up with a new code by June. Other commissioners said they believed that was too soon and that September was a more realistic goal.

"We've been struggling with this for quite some time," Miles said. "We just need to get this done."

The commission voted unanimously to return to the old code until a better one could be developed.

ing the development's opponents some comfort. Hampton was supposedly in favor of Live Oak. Out of the four remaining council members, John Benson was the only one who voted against. "There has been way too much development in this town," said Benson to the Seminole Herald. Benson said that he has been trying to get the other council members (Robert Dallari, Thomas Hagood, Jr., and George Viele) to consider going with larger lots, which is what C-RED would have agreed on. When asked if Oviedo is being "over built", Benson replied "yes".

appalled she (Suber) would lower herself like this. She's a disgruntled employee making false accusations," McLain said.

"In her dreams," Adams said of Suber's allegation. "Politicians are open season, especially someone like me in an election year. She's backing the opposition and trying to hold the county up."

McLain, who is chairman of Adams' re-election campaign, strongly suspects Suber's allegations are designed to help former commissioner Carlton Henley's bid for the fourth district seat. "This smacks of dirty politics," McLain said.

Henley has support from commissioners Dick Van Der Weide and Grant Maloy. Van Der Weide, a friend of Joyce Suber's for a number of years, said Friday that he was not surprised her accusations came to light. "They've been rumored all over the place, and now they're under oath."

Sexual harassment often is a very difficult claim to prove and win. Suber has contended that she was regularly subjected to unwanted sexual innuendoes by men on the county staff including elected officials. She called the work environment hostile.

Suber also has contended that the county handled her employment termination so badly that her reputation is permanently damaged.

The Florida Department of Law Enforcement and the F.B.I. are investigating the county's land acquisitions department in which Suber was a coordinator. Suber could not be reached for comment, but sources close to her said she has never been contacted by the F.B.I.

Local attorney defends the right to bear arms

By Tony Tizzio
HERALD CORRESPONDENT

WINTER SPRINGS - Try to buy a gun in Florida. You'll undergo a background check, wait three days and have to complete a federal government form before you can qualify to own a handgun.

Some people argue that this is still not enough.

The legal regulation of guns is a highly contested area in American law these days, including a proposition before the Constitutional Revision Committee, part of the State Legislature, to allow counties to require local background checks and extend the waiting period from 3 to 5 days. This would also become part of the Constitution.

One of the areas most ardent defenders of firearm ownership rights is Attorney Michael Saporito.

Saporito is a veteran prosecutor, defense attorney and judge who served in upstate New York and now lives in Winter Springs. He is married to Carol, his wife of 32 years and is the father of two. He was an attorney for someone who wanted to start selling guns. Eventually he became a partner in the firm and moved to Florida.

Saporito points out that the form itself issued by the Department of Treasury's Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms Division, is a very detailed document. In addition to the standard government questions, it asks you if you have any criminal history, including domestic abuse, in your background.

As part of the new "Brady Law" there will be a national records check for every state in the U.S. starting November 1998.

Saporito also recounts a 1996 study by John Lott and David Mustard, from the University of Chicago School of Law, to find the significance of gun control laws. The study found that allowing citizens without criminal records or histories of mental illness to carry concealed handguns deters violent crimes.

It also appears to produce an extremely small change in accidental deaths. The study goes on to say that if the whole country had the right to carry handguns, in 1992 alone, at least 1,570 murders and over 4,100 rapes would have been avoided as well as 60,000 aggravated assaults. As the study points out, with these provisions in the law, comes increased property crimes.

What the Lott and Mustard study says, Saporito points out, is that states with reduced licensing have reduced homicides. Working in the wholesale distribution of firearms since 1977, selling to dealers only, Saporito says that there are an estimated 220 to 250 million guns in the U.S., and more than half of every household owns a gun.

Saporito says that in the state of California where the qualifying time to buy a gun has increased to 15 business days, the crime rate has also gone up.

Saporito recalled what Charlton Heston said, "Were it not for the Second Amendment and the fact that people own guns, that government cannot take away our right." Saporito also echoes that it is precisely the rights of gun ownership that keep this country free and our safety secure.

Continued from Page 1A capital improvements. Knowles however, disagrees. He claims Daniels does not owe the $255,346, but instead has a credit balance of $205,263.

Knowles said the figures were gone over line by line by Daniels' attorney Charles Harrison in documents submitted to the city. "Each year was discussed with the city staff and the results set forth in Mr. Harrison's letter for each year with the money totals," Knowles explained.

During March, Knowles said there were three meetings between Simmons and his staff, Daniels, his attorney and himself. "During these meetings, each expenditure claimed for impact on the lease was examined and explained and a running total of the fiscal activities maintained."

He said, "Anything that came up was discussed for all parties to comment and record, but the city team did not appear to want to actively participate and gave the impression they were waiting for someone else to tell them in what direction to go."

While Simmons had earlier suggested that the matter be brought up for discussion at Monday's afternoon work session, on Wednesday, he informed the commissioners he believed it would be better if it were placed on the agenda for the regular City Commission meeting beginning at 7 p.m. As work sessions do not allow public input unless pre-arranged or requested, Simmons suggested the formal meeting as it is open to the general public.

Objecting that the work session discussion had been canceled, Knowles says he plans to be on hand for both meetings. "It appears that the problem and solution is now being stonewalled and the city is actually pushing the matter into court," Knowles said.

Included in the information regarding the matter, in preparation for Monday's meeting, was a copy of a letter written August 10, 1984, from then-City Manager Knowles to Daniels, which indicated the Mayfair Country Club was not in compliance with the lease, and owed the city back rent for a 12-month period (June, 1983 through June, 1984) a total of $18,080.25, (percent of revenue minus cost of improvements).

The discussion of the city's lease with the Mayfair is scheduled to be brought up during Monday night's city commission meeting. With a rather lengthy agenda however, it has been listed as item 27, in a 32-item agenda.

OWNERS

Dear Valued Customers,

Due to recent coverage on WFTV Channel 9, we are compelled to inform you that several important facts have been missing in the reports:

1. The points in the survey of the restaurants were taken from the past two and half year's records. China King has been under our management for only two years. The points accumulated during the 6 month period before acquisition were not mismanaged by Hun Lung Inc.

2. During two years of management, we have maintained notable cleanliness in our premise. We have complied and rectified every citation and have not failed to do so.

We thank you for your patronage, and assure you that we will zealously maintain to cater quality food at an affordable price and pleasant dining environment for your enjoyment.

CUSTOMERS

To Whom it may concern:

My wife and I have been coming to China King for years. We have had very good service and food from this restaurant. I can say the food has been of the the highest quality.

Prices and service are the best in this area.

Jerry L. Cornell, Sue Ann Cornell
Sanford, FL

March 5, 1998

I have been coming to China King for the past two years and have never had any negative experiences. The food is excellent, well prepared, and a vast selection is offered. It definitely is one of the best values in Central Florida. On three different occasions I have seen the "negative" reports and they seem to be in accord with the current "media mania" which seems to continue to "Beat A Dead Horse". There are some very serious infractions being committed on a regular basis with about every "fast food" franchise, but due to political affiliations these go unreported due to their influence. China King should not be "singled out," for any reason. I will continue to come here and bring my international friends.

David Goodpaster,
Casselberry, FL

To Whom It May Concern,

I am a frequent regular customer of China King Buffet. I find the food here delicious. The atmosphere and service very enjoyable and the prices are the best in town. I've been a regular customer here since I moved from New York 2 years ago.

Donald C. Pritchett, Jr.

To Whom It May Concern,

I have been a resident of Sanford since the 60's. I have never had anything but excellent food and service at China King, and I frequent this restaurant quite often.

Jim Brogdon

To Whom It May Concern,

We have been eating here for the last several years, and have found the food to be excellent.

In our opinion the restaurant is always clean and sanitary, and the employees are efficient and courteous.

We love this place and we will continue to dine here, as the food is excellent and reasonable and we eat here at least twice a week.

EMPLOYEES

To Whom It May Concern,

We have been employed at China King Buffet for 4 1/2 and 5 years and would like to inform you that some of your Action News reports are totally untrue. You state that M. Lam closed a business because of Health Violations and re-opened here. China King has been open for 5 years and Mr. Lam only took over management 2 years and 3 months ago. You also report we have had filthy conditions and health violations in the past 2 1/2 years. We have been here for all our inspections and the only violations we've had were before Mr. Lam took over.

Maybe we've had warning of a utensil being placed in a sink it shouldn't have been in or pest control problems which every restaurant has especially in Florida, but Mr. Lam is always quick to correct any problem we have and has done so all along. Why don't you put that in your report?

On your web site you show 18 other restaurants with many violations however you only show Bamboo Cafe' and China King on film, both Chinese Restaurants. Could that be discrimination? Also the way you show on your commercials the kitchen of Bamboo Cafe' and then our sign gives the impression that is our kitchen and it is not.

We understand you have a job to do and respect that fact but we also have jobs and if our customers believe your reports we will no longer be able to make a living.

We eat at China King almost every day as do our family and friends. Obviously if our restaurant was as dirty as you report neither us or our families would eat here.

We can also assure you we would not be writing you this letter with our signatures if we thought it would backfire.

As frequent viewers of Channel 9 we are very discouraged by the way this story was handled and wonder if the news we rely on every day is only half of the story as this one is.

Please know this letter is to tell you our side of the story as employees that want to get the story straight.

Sincerely,

Dear Wayne

Idyllwilde's Ryan Anderson has the write stuff

Idyllwilde student Ryan Anderson is a Disney Dreamer and Doer. He wants to study ways to stop diabetes and hopes to be a writer one day.

By Jeff Berlincke
ASSISTANT SPORTS EDITOR

Ryan Anderson may have won the Disney Dreamer and Doer Award for Idyllwilde Elementary, but his sister, Christa, was just as big a part of the win.

Christa, 14, has diabetes and Ryan wanted to do his essay about the struggles she copes with every day in fighting the disease. For the past few years, Ryan has been traveling to Gainesville every six months to write about life in the research department of the hospital that is studying diabetes.

"I just want to study all about it so I can find a cure for my sister," Ryan said.

Ryan is a fifth-grader at Idyllwilde and he earns almost all A's and he wants to be a writer one day. That's his favorite subject in school, but he's already gone farther than most writers go in a whole lifetime.

He writes and illustrates his own stories and shares them with his class. Ryan recently created a character named Spy, a robot who solves crimes.

"I was just thinking about it one day and I like crime stories and I like robots so it just happened," he said.

Those talents earned him the trip to Disney World last week to accept his award. After the morning ceremony, he and his mother and sister became some of the first people to tour the new Animal Kingdom. His mom shared in the award as well.

"I came home from school that day and told her I think I would be representing my school at Disney World," he said. "She got hysterical, then the teachers confirmed it and she went crazy again."

Ryan's mother and father, a former major league baseball player, have a lot to be proud of.

So does his sister.

From tragedy to triumph

By Courtney Leflew
HERALD CORRESPONDENT

Hope Walton has turned her numerous tragedies into triumphs which has in exchange given her the opportunity to be named the Disney Dreamer and Doer for Lake Mary High School.

Walton has seemed to overcome the toughest of situations her whole life, beginning at birth.

When Walton's mother was six months pregnant, she went into early labor. The couple went to the hospital, where they learned that a decision had to be made; either the mother or baby was not going to survive.

For Walton's dad, he had to decide which one that would be. After some praying, he decided he would not choose between the two. The umbilical chord was wrapped around Walton's neck and along with the labor being pre-mature the chances were not good. The doctors said there was no hope but that did not stop this family from making their own miracle.

"I spent three months in the hospital. I had to have open heart surgery and the doctors had to use a magnifying glass to see my tiny body, at least that's what they tell me," Walton said. "Therefore, my parents decided to name me Hope Victoria."

Another rock was thrown in Walton's path, as she was born with a severe speech impediment, leaving her barely talking. With time and lots of hard work Walton conquered the problem and presently sings in six choirs.

Walton was raised as a "military brat" in Maryland and Virginia. Her father was in the services and then became a minister while her mother was a dedicated teacher. Obviously God, morals, and studies were a school at Piney Woods in Mississippi for five years before going to Lake Mary her senior year.

"It was a great experience. It has its good and bad points. The school teaches discipline and responsibility. They prepare you for college. I left home at the age of eleven but I wanted to go. Overall, it depends on the child and the school. My sister, Faith, was there so I was not alone, which helped," said Walton. "At bordering school you get more one on one help though, the adjustment to Lake Mary was not bad, with the assistance from my mom who has taught there for several years."

Growing up in a family which Walton compares to "Leave it to Beaver", she describes her childhood as typical.

The family traveled a lot which has given Walton the opportunity to visit many different places in the United States and overseas. Although her favorite is Torino, Spain.

"I can't describe the place. It's simply breath-taking and beautiful. I will definitely return one day," expressed Walton.

Africa is next on her list of places to visit. As for Paris and London she loved them also.

Walton says, "It's awful though that so many people have never been out of the state of Florida. They have never even seen snow and don't know how much life there is outside of Florida."

The tornadoes that tore across Central Florida in late February hit Walton's house destroying everything, placing another misfortune in the family's hands to cope with.

"The tornado hit around 12:35 a.m. that night and I was up doing homework. The roof came off the house and part of the kitchen was on top of the car which was outside. My dad was trying to get us down stairs, we made it to the bottom of the staircase when the wind started sucking him out of the house. We all held on to each other with and prayed. Thank God we were all awake because trees collapsed in my sisters room and the walls in my bedroom and parents fell. Their bed spread was found two hundred miles away from our house. We prayed afterwards and then sung songs. I went into shock when I looked up and saw the sky while I was still inside the house," said Walton.

Soon Walton learned how much Lake Mary cared for it's fellow neighbors. The school raised $3,000 for the Walton and Ellmore families.

Currently at Lake Mary, Walton is involved in the National Honors Society, Cultural Awareness Society and Golden Fleece. She was also chosen for Who's Who Among High School Students.

Singing is a passion of Walton's which is shown by the six choir groups she is a member of including: Concert Choir, Madrigals, Odyssey, Gospel, General Women and Advanced Women Choir.

"My ability to sing is not a talent, though, only a gift that God has given to me," said Walton.

As for the next 10 years of Walton's life, she plans on attending Hampton University along with her sister Faith. Walton will be majoring in marketing and receiving her minor in music.

"I feel like my life has been one big testimony. For myself, I know if I keep God first in my life I can make it through school and life," Walton said.

Walton's words of wisdom are basic rules to live by and what has gotten her through many difficulties. When you go through the hardest times don't ever give up. You have to get through something to get to something. Obstacles placed before us only make us stronger people. Walton's mother always told her to never let anyone see you cry and to always keep a smile on your face and your head held high. If you keep smiling eventually you will have something to smile for.

These rules have come through for Walton and she is still smiling. Her generosity, strength, courage, and independence is what makes her a Dreamer and Doer in everyone's eyes.

Tribe softball team looking to erase years of misery

SANFORD - Three years ago, they were awful.

Two years ago, it didn't get any better. Last year, they got eight wins against 17 losses and it almost seemed like they had turned the corner, despite the losing record.

Now the Seminole softball team, consisting of many players who have been through the carnage of the last few years, are perched for a berth in the state regionals.

First, there's the business of getting through districts which start Tuesday. Seminole has home field advantage in the tournament and should be considered the favorite to take the district crown, their first since 1979.

Except for one thing. If pitching, as Connie Mack once said, is 90 percent of the game, Seminole has nothing.

Well, not really. But Maria Duvall, who has thrown just about every pitch for Seminole all season, suffered two broken bones in her face after she was hit by a line drive earlier this week. She is out for the year and faces reconstructive surgery next Thursday.

So coach Dave Rogers, who deserves a lot of credit for weathering the storm of the past few years to turn the program around, turned to shortstop Mandy Priddy to take the hill for districts.

New problem. When Priddy took the hill Thursday night, she was told by umpires that her pitching motion was illegal.

But Rogers is one of the sunniest, most enthusiastic coaches in the county. He hasn't gotten down despite the fact that he will have a sophomore, Katie Hoffman, who has never pitched a varsity game, trying to get the 'Noles through districts.

It would have been so easy for Rogers to be in a panic Friday, but, instead, he sounded just as he as all season.

He had the sound of a winner.

Seminole doesn't have a walk to the finals which would guarantee a spot in the regionals, but the 'Noles were 8-2 in the district this season and dominated most of their bracket. Pine Ridge will probably await in the finals, but by then, Seminole will have already accomplished more than they ever could have dreamed of when the team was on the bad end of some beatings in the past few years.

Seminole started to turn it around at the end of last year. Without a senior on the roster, Seminole started to play better by the end and gave a strong effort in the first round of districts before falling.

During the off-season, the 'Noles were hurt by some player defections, but the core group, led by Kelley Langton and Sherri Eiland, both of whom are among Seminole's four seniors, stayed around and opened up this season playing well.

Amanda Mustakis packs a wallop at the plate and Priddy, Laketa Bryant and Angela Keefer can also pound the ball.

Oviedo prepares for Monday's 6A-3 baseball opener

By Tony DeSormier
HERALD CORRESPONDENT

ORLANDO - This may sound strange, but Oviedo High School baseball coach Kenne Brown wasn't concerned primarily with whether his team won or not Friday night when the Lions visited the Boone Braves.

With the 6A-District 3 tournament - the first round of the Class 6A state playoffs - scheduled to begin Monday at Lyman High School, Brown was more concerned with how his team played ... results at this point didn't matter.

"It's not like we were shooting for a 20-win season or anything like that," Brown said. "Right now, that doesn't mean a thing. What I wanted to see was if we're ready to play next week. And I'm pleased with what I saw tonight."

Again, that may sound strange, coming as it did after the Lions (14-11) squandered a 7-1 second-inning lead in a 10-9 loss to the Braves. But Brown had his reasons for walking away from the defeat feeling good.

"We defeated ourselves tonight," said Brown. "We let the game beat us. If we make the plays we're capable of making, we win the game. And even though we let a six-run lead get away, we showed intensity for seven innings. We didn't get down and give up. We battled back. That's what I wanted to see." After scoring two runs without the benefit of a hit in the first inning, Oviedo erupted for five runs on three hits in the second. Larry Grayson hit a solo home run (his first of the season) while Guy Erwin added a three-run homer (his fifth of the year).

Justin Holmes, who singled and eventually scored on a pass ball in the second, scored Oviedo's eighth run when he came home on Scott Ferrell's two-out hit-and-run double in the third.

But no sooner had Oviedo built the lead than it began to unravel. Boone, which got a solo home run from Paul Pope in the bottom of the first, scored three unearned runs in the second and four more unearned runs in the third as they rallied to take a 9-8 lead.

Oviedo tied the score in the top of the fifth when Ben Knapp doubled and scored on a single by Grayson.

Boone plated the winning run in the bottom of the sixth when Adam Miller led off with a walk, moved to second on a wild pickoff throw, advanced to third on a sacrifice bunt, and scored on a wild pitch.

The Lions had their chances, stranding 10 runners on base. In the first, sixth, and seventh innings, Oviedo left the bases loaded.

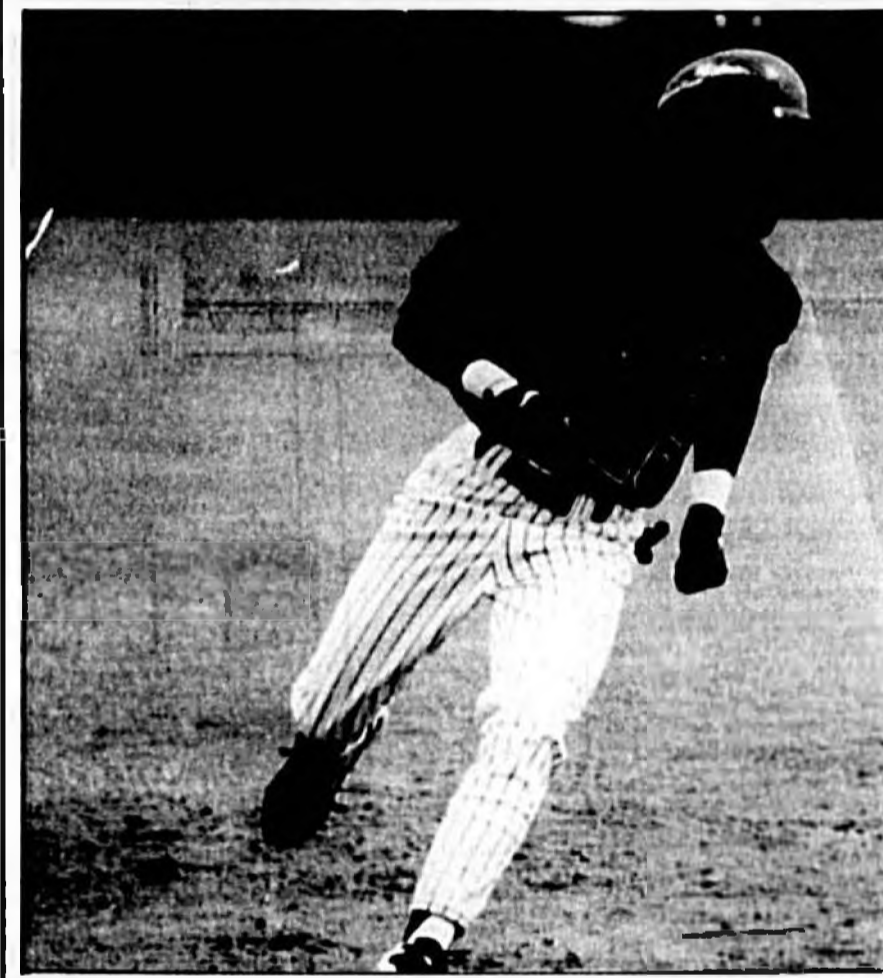

Grayson led Oviedo's seven-hit attack with a home run, double, and a single while Erwin had his three-run home run. Ferrell had a double, a run, and an RBI. Knapp doubled and scored a run. Holmes added a single and three runs scored. Jeremy Frost and Lawrence Pultz each scored a run.

Oviedo goes into the 6A-District 3 tournament as the sixth seed in the six-team field. The Lions will play No. 3 seeded Lyman at 8 p.m. Monday at Lyman. That game will follow a 5 p.m. matchup between No. 4 Lake Howell and No. 5 DeLand.

On Wednesday, No. 1 Lake Mary faces the winner of Lake Howell-DeLand at 5 p.m. and No. 2 Lake Brantley takes on the winner of Lyman-Oviedo at 8 p.m.

The championship game will be at 7 p.m. on Friday.

BOB ROBINSON AWARD WINNER

SANFORD - It was incorrectly reported in Friday's Herald that Tim Raines Jr. had won the Bob Robinson Award at Seminole High School when in fact the honor went to Tim's cousin Ned Raines III (No. 20, left).

Ned, a senior outfielder, has improved as much as a player on the Seminole team and has become one of the top offensive threats for coach Mike Powers' No. 4 Class 5A State Ranked Fighting Seminoles. He is also an outstanding defensive player and one of the fastest of the Tribe's players.

Seminole (20-8) will host the Class 5A-District 5 Tournament at Historic Sanford Memorial Stadium on Flinker-Stenstrom Field starting Tuesday with two games beginning at 4 p.m. and 7 p.m.

The Tribe, the top seed, will open play at 7 p.m. on Wednesday.

W.S. Fury wins Girls Under-12 soccer State title

CAPE CORAL - The Winter Springs Fury, a girls under 12 soccer team, won the State Championship this past weekend at Cape Coral.

This President's Cup victory caps a series of tournaments around the State where over 50 teams were entered and all but one eliminated.

Alaqua Lakes joins Audobon program

By Jeff Berlinicke
ASSISTANT SPORTS EDITOR

LONGWOOD - Alaqua Lakes Country Club doesn't open until September, but it's already achieved a unique distinction among Florida golf courses.

The 170-acre golf course designed by renowned golf architect Tom Fazio, has been accepted to the Audobon International Signature Cooperative Sanctuary Program.

Since the plans were originally announced and construction got underway, land development manager Tom Spence has reiterated that the construction plans are designed to work with the environment and the construction firm has spared no expense, sometimes even spending extra, to maintain a healthy relationship with the environment.

Alaqua Lakes rests right alongside the Wekiva River basin and is home to many forms of wildlife.

Admission to the Audobon program is a unique honor. Officials from Audobon review all design and construction plans before work starts and visit the site regularly to monitor compliance.

In addition, the golf course must maintain rigorous standards for wildlife management, water quality, waste management and a natural resources management plan to ensure the commitment to the environment.

"We're thrilled," said Michael Moser, director of golf Please see Alaqua, Page 2B

Lake Mary High boys' basketball team feted

By Jeff Berlinicke
ASSISTANT SPORTS EDITOR

LAKE MARY - Didn't the Lake Mary boys' basketball season end in January?

Isn't that when leading scorer Paul Beik went down hard against Lake Brantley and never got up? Surely there was no way anybody could pick up that kind of slack, especially with the Rams struggling with Beik already in the lineup.

If that wasn't enough, shouldn't a series of heartbreaking losses, capped off by a dagger in the heart from Oviedo in the final seconds, have been enough to destroy the Rams?

It only made them stronger.

Ben Karsenbrock, already a leading rebounder, turned into Dennis Rodman without the tattoos. Randy Abrams started shooting the ball and found he could hardly miss from anywhere inside the halfcourt line. Point guard Jerome Bingham stopped playing catch with the other team.

In the middle, Jamal Harrison returned to the team and combined with Robbie Shapiro to give the Rams some twin towers and Jermaine Joubert never complained about being sixth-man.

The Rams got hot, inflicted revenge on Oviedo and earned the second trip to regionals in school history.

The year was finally capped off Thursday night at Timucuan Country Club as coach Mike Gaudreau hosted the season-ending basketball banquet.

Beik, Karsenbrock, Joubert, Bingham, Shapiro, Abrams and Harrison were among the seven of nine seniors who played their last game for the Rams this season. The team returns inexperienced, but that wasn't on anyone's mind

Please see Rams, Page 2B

Seminole also plays well fundamentally which is the key going into districts.

They also have something to play for. Duvall is back in school, missing only one day before returning despite her visible injuries. The team signed a ball for her and has dedicated the season to Duvall. There is nothing in sports as inspiring as a team dedicating itself to a fallen classmate and Seminole is sky high in confidence.

It's a good equation. Look for the 'Noles to pull out districts and go farther than they have gone in nearly 20 years.

IN BRIEF

Winter Springs softball

WINTER SPRINGS - The top two teams in the City of Winter Springs Men's Monday Night Polar Bear Slowpitch Softball League scored big runs in winning this week.

League-leading Seminole Power Sports got pressured, but still rolled to a 17-11 triumph over Kerryman's Pub, while Orlando Ale House bounced back from last week's loss to SPS to down the Golden Gloves 12-2.

Seminole Power Sports is now 7-1 on the season with Orlando Ale House (6-2), Kerryman's Pub (2-6) and the Golden Gloves (1-7) trailing.

Doing the damage for Seminole Power Sports were Ron Prager (5-for-6, four runs scored), George Faulk (4-for-5, five runs scored), Brian Twilley and Chris Bargarier (4-for-5 and two runs scored each) and David Hodges (3-for-5, one run scored).

Leading Kerryman's Pub were Ray Maushand (4-for-4, two runs scored), Clint Provau (2-for-3, one run scored), Doug Davis (2-for-4, two runs scored) and Jeff Smith (2-for-5, two runs scored).

Powering Orlando Ale House were Santi

Thursday. It was a night to celebrate.

Freshman coach Greg Turner lauded his team which went 11-4 on the season and won the unofficial conference title.

"These kids just hated to lose," Turner said.

Trevor Berryhill won the team Leadership Award, Anthony Bowman took the Coach's Award and Dwayne

Lowery was team Most Valuable Player.

Next up was Kym Gaudreau's junior varsity team, most of whom will probably make up the majority of next year's varsity team.

Mike Wicks won the Hustle Award, Eric Bean won the Rebounder Award, Alex Anderson won Defensive Award and Nick Anthony finished with the Coach's Award.

Then, Mike Gaudreau spoke. He talked fondly of the nine seniors, eight of whom played together all four years at Lake Mary. They earned their second regional trip in school history and got maybe the biggest win in school history with its victory over Oviedo in the semifinals of districts to ensure a trip to the regionals.

Gaudreau spoke for several moments on each player, then announced his awards.

SANFORD - How about some affordable golf courses for kids?

Celebration Golf Club at Disney World recently opened a short course for kids only. It is the perfect idea to bring forward a new generation of golfers.

Unfortunately, golf is still unaffordable for children to learn the game unless their parents can afford to belong to a country club or private golf course.

To their credit, most clubs and learning centers in the area offer reduced rates for kids' golf lessons. Dave Vander Lende at the Lake Mary Driving Range offers an excellent deal for kids and is pretty entertaining as well.

Unfortunately, there's nothing like the experience of actually playing on a real golf course instead of hitting at practice targets. But if you take a beginner out on the course and he slows up play, the ranger won't be long getting to the scene.

Here's what at least some of the public courses should do. Pick one week day each throughout the summer break and open the course up to kids at a reduced rate. Give them a chance to understand why golf is the best game of them all.

Raiders softball loses two

From Staff Reports

SANFORD - The Seminole Community College softball team put up a good fight, but just could not muster enough offense as it dropped a Mid-Florida Conference doubleheader to a tough Santa Fe Community College team, 5-1 and 4-1 at Raider Field Thursday afternoon.

The Gainesville-based Saints improved to 41-15 with the sweep.

For the Raiders it was an end to a tough season in which they never seemed able to get their offense untracked. SCC ends the season with a 28-33 mark.

Doing the hitting for the Raiders in the first game were Lyman's Jamie Sharp (1-for-3 with a double), Shannon Hay (1-for-3, RBI), Candice Hays (1-for-3, run) and Christy Neudeck. Ovidio's Desirae Schwartz and Lake Howell's Brittany Scott (all 1-for-3).

Providing the offense for SCC in the nightcap were Schwartz (3-for-4, RBI), Kim Ramey (1-for-3, run), Ovidio's Carrie McAuliffe (1-for-2) and Scott and Lake Brantley's Marnie Bernatein (both 1-for-3).

Rene Hooper only gave up three earned runs, but her mates only got her one run as the sophomore from New Jersey closed out her career at SCC with a 4-1 setback to Santa Fe in the final game of the season Thursday at Raider Field.

Home run spoils SCC comeback

From Staff Reports

GAINESVILLE - Raul Borjas' lead-off home run in the eighth inning spoiled a furious comeback effort by Seminole Community College as Santa Fe Community College edged the Raiders 8-7 in a Mid-Florida Conference baseball game in Gainesville on Thursday.

The Saints (25-16 overall, 15-7 in conference play) built a 5-1 lead only to see SCC comeback to take a 6-5 advantage.

Santa Fe regained the lead with two runs in the seventh inning, but the Raiders again came back, as Sanford's Rob Denmon walked and scored on a double by Josh Rhodes to tie the game at 7-7 and set the stage for Borjas' blast.

Providing the offense for SCC were Andrea Correa (2-for-5, run, RBI), Rhodes (1-for-4 with a double, RBI), Jamey Epperson (1-for-2, run), Sanford's Phillip Eubanks (1-for-5, run, two RBI), Kentrelle Evans (run, RBI) and Denmon, Travis Gamble and Chris Wade (one run scored each).

The Raiders were to have wrapped up the regular season today (Saturday) with a doubleheader in Orlando against Valencia Community College starting at noon.

operations at Alaqua Lakes. The Audubon Sanctuary Program is an important environmental effort that promotes conservation measures with which large scale landholders such as golf courses can have significant, beneficial effect on the environment. Sustainable resources management is an idea everyone should endorse."

Moser added that the Sanctuary Program designation is rare since so few golf courses qualify.

Spence has already spent three years monitoring details such as water quality and wildlife management efforts.

Just because the course has earned the honor, it will still be up to the team at Alaqua Lakes to ensure that they maintain the standards which earned them the honor.

"They monitor us closely, literally day by day," Moser said.

The course is expected to open in October and is located on Markham Woods Road in Longwood.

This weekend: You can Scream, again, or go through Sliding Doors

Dimension Films is re-releasing the thriller, Scream 2, into theaters this week. No doubt the independent studio wants to do the same for the sequel that it did for its popular 1996 predecessor: get over $100 million so we can make another Scream. All the while, certain studios are tightening their belts by nixing over budget productions. Warner Bros. has all but exterminated the pesky Superman Reborn project. The troubled film was indefinitely shelved due to "problems with the script". Actually, other studios have joined the weight loss program trying to reduce fat budgets. They're hoping that less will be more. I'm pretty sure that none of the 7 films in this column went over that $100 million dollar, panic attack line....

Sliding Doors (Three and a half stars) is a jolting surprise. If you are groggy before seeing this movie, it will wake you up. Gwyneth Paltrow plays a young English PR woman that has just lost her job. On her way home via London's Tube, she has a supernatural occurrence takes place. This character goes its separate ways, literally! We see two alternative paths the character takes. I really didn't understand what happened to Paltrow's character in that subway, and I don't think it matters much, but the end result is refreshing and innovative. Director and writer Peter Howitt asks the question "what if?" as he splits screen time between both situations the character goes through without getting the audience confused. He does it through timing - never keeping us in one situation longer than the other so we do not lose track of the action - and editing. He also has help from the busy Gwyneth Paltrow, who is starring in her third movie this year with another one on the way, and a funny, charming John Hannah (Four Weddings and a Funeral). A romantic comedy with a fresh idea. Wonderful!

Love and Death on Long Island (Three stars) is a funny film in the sense that you may not know how to take it. On the one hand, you may see it as a film about a man finally opening up and living in the now, or you could see it as a film about a man who has lost his wits and becomes obsessed with a young B-movie actor. He even comes across as a stalker staking out places where the actor frequents and resides in the New England area. John Hurt (Alien) plays that man. He is a reclusive author with no concept of what is going on today. He has hidden away from the world after the death of his wife but becomes reacquainted after seeing one of those teenage, hormone feasts like Porky's, called Hotpants College 2. He becomes infatuated with an actor, played by Beverly Hills 90210 resident Jason Priestley, from the teen skin flick. A perfect yet sad performance by John Hurt, who brings his character slowly through the transition from the past into the here and now.

OK, so I liked Barney's Great Adventure: The Movie (Three stars). The exorbitantly happy Barney, a purple-green dinosaur who resembles McDonald's Grimace in a way, takes his brand of wholesomeness to a farm where he and a trio of kids try to find a magical egg. I could have gagged when I heard "I Love You". But the duo has a way of melting you into this simple, family film.

David Frazier

Screen Tests

Nightwatch (Two and a half stars) has a grabber of an opening scene as a girl is stabbed to death in the best rendition of Hitchcock's "shower scene" I've seen in a while. Yet the rest of the film gradually decays into a standard, formulaic horror film. The force is not with Ewan McGregor, who will play the young Ben Kenobi in the upcoming Star Wars prequel. McGregor plays a nightwatch man at the city morgue. The morgue is a gothic looking building and very atmospheric. A serial killer is on the loose and suddenly things start pointing to McGregor's character. You know where the rest of this is going. Danish filmmaker Ole Bornedal recreates his Nattenagten, a Danish box office hit, for American audiences. The translation, unfortunately, is a bit garbled.

Robert Downey Jr. was released from his jail term long enough to complete Two Girls and a Guy (Two stars). For most of the film, the two girls (Natascha Gregson Wagner and Heather Graham) are disparaging, insulting, belittling and berating Downey's guy character because the girls found out he has been lying to them about not being monogamous. Is this besting feminist justice? Do they hope to achieve something through their verbal castration of the guy? Do they feel that conducting this inquisition will make him a more caring, trustful person? There is so much you could come away with in this new, claustrophobic film, but you don't. James Toback (The Pick-up Artist) seems a bit pretentious with his dialogue which sounds pretty but is pointless. There is a tragedy at the end of the film that I did not feel very close too because it is amateurishly treated. Altogether, I came away with an emptiness that I didn't realize until days after seeing the film. How a film could say so much yet say so little boggled my mind. Friends Jennifer Aniston falls for a gay, elementary school teacher (Paul Rudd) in The Object of My Affection (One and a half stars). Contrived and melodramatic, this romantic comedy will only swoon the folks that get mushy from these obviously manipulative films. Wendy Wasserstein wrote the film. She previously did television. She brings a television sensibility to the silver screen with lackluster results. Species II (A half star) follows the exploits of the horny alien, Sil. Blood, guts, exploding heads and extraterrestrial sex is what you can expect from this needless sequel. Ripping off the Alien series, the first film was fun but a fluke. The new film engraves the RIP on the gravestone for this series.

Music, art events at Seminole Community College mark calendar for this week, next

From Staff Reports

SANFORD - Seminole Community College will present its 31st Annual Spring Choral Concert on Sunday, April 26, at 4 p.m. The event will be held in the Fine Arts Concert Hall on the college campus and will be the final concert under the direction of Dr. Burt H. Perincheff, director of Choral activities since 1967, who is retiring.

Several features will mark this special occasion. First, in addition to the Chorale and Choralists, who are the daytime choirs at the college, the Community Chorus will participate and will be joined by a 60-voice Alumni Choir representing the 4 decades of the choral program. A massed finale to the concert will have all singers performing arrangements created for the occasion by noted musician-alumnus Copeland Davis. Davis will provide accompaniment for Rodgers and Hart's My Funny Valentine, and I Loved You from Rodgers and Hammerstein's "Carousel", two of Perincheff's favorite ballads.

Individual choirs will present a variety of choral music from several periods and styles, both sacred and secular. Robin Lee Parker will accompany at the piano. Soloists for the occasion will be Byron Deese, Sindy Lee, Cathy Mikels and Juan Franco. Susan Hoak will be the student conductor.

Making Connections, a collaborative art exhibition featuring students from Oviedo High School, Seminole Community College, and the University of Central Florida, will be on display in the Fine Arts Gallery at Seminole Community College from Monday, April 27 through May 21.

There will be a reception for the exhibition on Thursday, May 7, at 7 p.m. in the SCC Fine Arts Lobby. This show was made possible by a grant from the Seminole Cultural Arts Council, Inc.

Bruce Smith (Phi Delta Kappan, February 1994) writes "Studying the arts can spark the creativity, imagination, and critical thinking of both students and teachers. Studying the arts can raise a person's self-esteem and develop a sense of discipline that carries over into all areas of life...it's about fulfilling our destiny as human beings - human makers - for whom the act of creation is a species-defining experience."

Making Connections is a collaborative project designed to realize Smith's definition of studying the arts. The project involves visual arts students from Oviedo High School, Seminole Community College, and the University of Central Florida. The college students served as mentors/partners to the Oviedo High students. Each pair of students collaborated and worked together to create an original piece of art. Making Connections features the collaborative works as well as individual works from the participating student artists.

The SCC Fine Arts Gallery is open from 9 a.m. until 4 p.m., plus evenings of theatre performances. For further information on the exhibit and other SCC cultural activities, call (407) 328-2039.

Port: Cigar renaissance sparks U.S. interest

WINTER PARK - Recent years have been kind to Port. For a long time, Port sales in the United States were almost non-existent. Now we are "discovering what Europeans have always known—Port is one of the most incredible expressions found in wine making. U.S. sales of Port rose almost 40 percent last year. Not long ago, the only people drinking Port were old men in stuffy clubs. Today, thanks partly to the current cigar renaissance, Port drinkers now include men and women in their twenties and thirties.

Port is a fortified wine. During the early 1700s, a British shipper, looking for ways to stabilize Portuguese red wine, found a winning combination when he added a stout dose of grape brandy halfway through the fermentation process. The result was a potent, sweet wine.

The increased interest in Port made me want to explore Portugal. Arriving in Porto, I was surprised to see the ancient Port Houses squeezed together in a tight, but picturesque, cluster on the Douro River. This is in sharp contrast to the wide, open spaces found in U.S. wineries. About 80 varieties of grapes are grown in steep, mountain vineyards along the Douro.

While touring the Port Houses, I noticed the strict attention paid to Old World methods while making Vintage Ports. In September, locals descend on the vineyards picking grapes and filling large wooden baskets with them. Later the grapes are dumped into 2,000-gallon, shallow, granite tanks. At the end of the day, the pickers take off their shoes, wade arm-in-arm into the grape-filled tanks, and begin to march back and forth. Free-form "dancing" to accordion music follows this movement. Port makers believe that the pressure of the human foot against the stone tank is the best way to gently crush the grapes without releasing the bitter seeds, the way machines might. I couldn't help thinking of that famous "I Love Lucy" episode! Isabella, whose family has worked for Graham's for generations, gave the tour at W & J Graham's Port House. She showed me the Port stored in bulk in huge, hand-made, oak casks. She also led me through the caves where thousands of bottles of Vintage Port lay resting behind locked gates.

Approximately three times each decade, the Port Houses declare a "vintage year." A vintage represents an exceptional crop of grapes blessed by the right mix of weather, soil and harvest. The result is an extraordinary yield of wine. This is a complex decision. Wine makers must be sure the crop will produce wine that still will meet vintage standards 20 years later. 1994 was a vintage year.

There are approximately 11 different categories of Port. Some examples are Aged Tawny Port, Late-Bottled Vintage Port and Vintage Port. Aged Tawny Port gets its amber color from long barrel ag-

Denver and Alan Hale as co-owners of a diner. This was after "Gilligan's Island." Was there such a show? — A.P., Alton, Iowa

A. After "Gilligan's Island" sunk in 1967, Bob Denver tried two other shows with only moderate success. The first was "The Good Guys," which ran from '68 to '70. The series featured a diner run by Herb Edelman; Denver was a taxi driver who occasionally helped out in the diner. Alan Hale appeared in it for part of one season.

Then came "Dusty's Trail," in '73, which was an exact copy of "Gilligan's Island." Instead of an island, it transferred to a wagon train set in the West. Forrest Tucker was Denver's co-star.

MOVIE TRIVIA

Q. I haven't seen actor Michael Parks for some time. I really loved him in "Then Came Bronson." I also own his album, "Closing the Gap." Do you know what he's been up to? — D.B., Verona, Pa.

A. Parks has been working as much as he is able to. He was in the movie "From Dusk Till Dawn" in 1996.

Q. I can't remember the name of a comedy series that was on TV in the 1960s. I think it starred Bob ing—10 or 20 years. It possesses the smooth flavors of nuts and figs and is ready to drink when bottled. Late-Bottled Vintage Port, or LBV, is aged for four to six years in barrels and then bottled, gaining age both in the barrel and in the bottle. Vintage Port—the most famous, most expensive category, is made with the finest grapes from superb harvests. Enjoy trying different Ports with friends. Next time one of them has a baby, give them Vintage Port as a present. After 21 years, the parents will have two wonderful rewards! (JoAnn Gates owns Park Avenue Wine & Cheese Cellar and is a food and wine expert.)

Local Car Dealer Shocks Community: "WE'RE SELLING CARS FOR $99."
 Orlando Area Shoppers Express Disbelief But Dealer Remains Optimistic As Sunday, April 26th Sale Date Approaches.

ORLANDO, FL - Joe Rath, General Manager of Bill Heard Chevrolet, America's Largest Chevrolet Dealer*, announced plans today for a one-day sales event that will feature used cars for as low as $99. The event, named the "Premier Slasher Sale™" for the fact that several "Premier Slashers™" will be literally slashing prices on used cars right before buyers eyes, is scheduled for this Sunday, April 26th. Rain Or Shine.

Rath offers a simple explanation for this unprecedented sale: "We've had record sales so far this year and we're overstocked with trade-ins. It's that simple." He adds, "During this sales event we will offer unbelievable values on our used inventory, and some vehicles will sell for as low as $99." This sale will provide deals that will be impossible to pass up. "Expect retail prices to be slashed by $3000 to $7000, if not more.

Rath also points out that these prices will be "as low or lower than wholesale auctions in many cases. The problem with auctions is that the bidding often leads to inflated prices, thereby eliminating savings." During the Premier Slasher Sale, every vehicle will be on sale. Sales are on a first come, first served basis and there will be no bidding, thus affording buyers the perfect opportunity to purchase a quality used car at the lowest possible price, including at least 4 vehicles, some valued as high as $5000 for as little as $99.

All vehicles will be on display at Bill Heard Chevrolet with registration beginning at 8:00 am on Sunday, April 26th. By 11:00 am prospective buyers will have been given a personalized pass allowing them to inspect the vehicles that interest them between 11:00 am and 12:00 noon, at which time the Premier Slasher sale actually begins. The Premier Slasher will then begin slashing posted prices on the vehicles. Whoever is sitting behind the wheel of the vehicle when the price is slashed will be given the first opportunity to purchase the vehicle at that price.

"We believe that people will not only enjoy getting a great deal but they'll also have fun doing it," says Rath.

Local Bank Representatives will be on-hand to arrange low-cost financing on the spot. "Most of all, we've got 3.75 million dollars worth of inventory - that's over 150 cars, trucks, vans, and sport utility vehicles to choose from. It couldn't get any better for the serious buyer."

Rath reminds prospective buyers to act quickly if they want to take advantage of these incredible savings. "I can't stress enough that this is a one day only sales event." Once our inventory is reduced, the slashed prices come off and it's back to business as usual. It's also first come, first served, so it's critical to come early, if you expect to have any chance of getting the vehicle you want."

Of course, there's more to this sale than just reducing inventory. Rath explains: "Bill Heard Chevrolet is always looking for a way to give back to the community that's given so much to us." He felt that giving his friends and neighbors in the Orlando area a chance to save on these vehicles was far more desirable than wholesaling them to total strangers at an auction.

Those wishing to beat the rush can be pre-registered beginning today at Bill Heard Chevrolet, 3455 Orlando Dr. (Route 17/92 - 1/2 mile North of Lake Mary Blvd)

Instead of ducking challenges as you are occasionally inclined to do, you'll meet them head-on in the year ahead. Your new persona will win you respect.

Which fit is better?

PHILLIP ALDER

Yesterday's column set me thinking about fits — of cards, not connotations! You and your partner have a 5-3 and a 4-4 fit available. When is it better to play in the former rather than the latter — and vice versa?

The simple answer is to play in the 5-3 when you have many winners in the other two suits. Then you won't need discards on the long suit. However, the 4-4 fit works better when you do need those discards, or when you need a ruffing trick or two that would have to be taken with the five-card holding.

On this deal, note that six hearts is impossible, but six spades can be made.

North took quite a position to use Blackwood when the spade fit was uncovered. Better would have been a four-diamond splinter bid, showing slam interest with a singleton (or

Daylily show a May 2 event Couple fills life with colorful flowers

Special to the Herald
SANFORD - Bill and Jean Norris have been growing day lilies for more than 37 years. Their love for daylilies has gathered them many friends from all over the globe. They not only share their love for this beautiful perennial, but they have traveled for several years giving programs to different flower clubs on the culture of Hemerocallis. Both of the Norrises have been members of the American Hemerocallis Society (AHS) for almost as many years as they have been growers. They are AHS Exhibition Judges and AHS Garden Judges. Jean is the director for Region 12 (Florida) and serves on the AHS National Board. She was appointed AHS Exhibitions Chairman in 1996. This job entails many hours of reading over show schedules from Daylily Clubs from all of the 15 Regions in the United States. It is her responsibility to approve the schedules for AHS Accredited shows. Both of the Norrises are instructors for Exhibition Judges. Clubs Daylilies fill their backyard with breath taking beautiful colors of the rainbow from mid April until September. Jean said that people are always welcome to visit their garden during bloom season, but ask that they telephone first before coming. They stay on the road during bloom season judging at various shows. Their neighbor doesn't mind

Dinner Dates events brings singles together Altamonte Springs woman introduced new dating concept

By Debra Wood
HERALD COURTESY

WINTER SPRINGS - Single women can be dressing up and stepping out on "Dinner Dates" Saturday night at the Sawmill Country Club. Some will be seriously searching for that special soul mate, others simply savoring a sociable evening. "I'm going to meet the love of my life. I want to be married again," Darlene Mittag of Oviedo, said with a laugh.

Widowed 7 years ago after 24 years of marriage Mittag gradually reentered the singles scene. Her retail dance supply business offered few opportunities to meet men. She tried a dating service and actively participated in church and cultural activities. But she still wasn't meeting single professional men until a friend told her about Dinner Dates, a club that brings single professionals together for a traditional country club dinner dance. "I think it's fun to dress up and you meet some interesting people," Mittag continued. "I don't go to Dinner Dates anticipating necessarily meeting that [special] person. It would be nice if I did, but if I don't, I'm not disappointed. I love to dance and always have a really nice time."

Valerie Patterson, of Altamonte Springs, formed the club after discovering the concept during a vacation to England several years ago. "I read in the London Times that single Europeans had been meeting this way for years and years. They were having one of the functions at the Ritz during my stay," Patterson said. She decided to give it a try. For $250, Patterson dined with 50 eligible men, drank champagne in the Vermetan Gardens and danced to a 14 piece orchestra. "It was a Cinderella evening."

Patterson drawing on her public relations and event planning experience to put together fun parties for fellow Central Florida singles. Members mingle with each other during cocktails, then are seated at three different tables for salad, the main course and dessert. A dance follows offering further opportunities to make the match. Patterson introduces couples and arranges seating. "The person running it cares really cares that people are having a good time," said Arnie Nussbaum, of Winter Springs. "She facilitates things happening. It's probably one of the better avenues for professional people to meet other people." Nussbaum, who retired after an injury, enjoys meeting new people and volunteering in the community. He has dated a few of the women he has met at Dinner Dates but has not had a big romance. Having been married before, he is reluctant to find the right person. "I think it's fun to dress up and you meet some interesting people."

Trampolines: Mom warns of 'attractive nuisance'

By Jane Lord
SPECIAL TO THE HERALD

LAKE MARY - On Friday night, the weekend before Christmas, I spent four hours in the ER with my son, Tim, 10, who had broken his collar bone. He was in the kind of excruciating pain you can only imagine if you've never had a broken bone. He spent a total of six weeks in a cast. He will vaguely remember this Christmas as the one he watched from a distance while floating in and out of the nausea and fog of his pain. Fortunately, he will heal completely and continue to be a happy, healthy youngster.

During the long days and nights I sat with him trying everything I could think of to make him comfortable, I had time to think about the cause of his injury and how easily it could have been prevented, not to mention how much worse it could have been.

You see, my son was lured by an "attractive nuisance" in a neighbor's yard - an unsupervised trampoline. Gradually, the details of how my son's injury occurred reached my ears. I learned there were at least 10 children jumping and wrestling on this trampoline. There were no adults standing nearby to enforce safety rules and spot the children. There were no adults anywhere in the vicinity of this trampoline. My son was "body slammed" while in the air. He fell onto the springs and then to the ground. My son knew he was not allowed on any of the trampolines in the neighborhood. He disobeyed me on the night he was injured, and probably a few times before that as well. The temptation to follow the crowd is great and he is paying for his lapse now. The fact that he did not land on his head or neck and receive a permanent and totally disabling injury is a miracle for which we are very grateful.

Although this has been a brand new trauma for us, it is a surprisingly frequent occurrence! In 1996, the US Consumer Product Safety Commission reported there were 83,000 hospital emergency room-treated injuries associated with trampolines. About 75 percent of the victims were under 15 years of age. Almost all of the trampolines associated with these injuries were fullsize trampolines located in private homes.

In its Safety Handbook, USA Gymnastics points out that one of the primary causes of trampoline accidents is failure to provide adequate supervision or providing no supervision at all. The American Academy of Pediatrics views the trampoline as a potentially dangerous piece of equipment and advocates that the trampoline should never be used in home or recreational settings. Even the owners manual accompanying the purchase of a trampoline warns of the dangers of frequent, serious and sometimes catastrophic injuries that can occur from improper use of a trampoline.

A trampoline is an irresistible lure to children with hidden dangers they are not expected to fully realize. That is why it's called an "attractive nuisance". If something on your property is both inviting and dangerous, you have a special legal responsibility to try to prevent injuries to children who may wander onto the property. This is called the "attractive nuisance doctrine". The law doesn't require home owners to childproof their properties. But it does expect people to be alert to potential dangers to children and to take reasonable steps to prevent harm to those too young to understand. Leaving potentially dangerous items in the view and reach of young children will certainly tempt them to approach and investigate. A property owner should realize that children are likely to come onto his property and thus has a heightened responsibility to prevent harm. This is the reason we are required by law to fence our swimming pools.

Although I would like to see all the trampolines disappear behind locked fences, I realize that cannot happen overnight. So, with this article I'm hoping to accomplish two goals. The first is to share my experience with other parents. Since 1990, there have been six trampoline-related deaths in the US. Let's not wait for the worst possible scenario before we act. Talk to your children about the danger of playing on an unsupervised trampoline. Talk to your neighbors who have trampolines. Let them know you are uncomfortable with the lure of their unfenced trampoline. Let's face it, kids will be kids and the minute we are not paying attention, they will try to fly, slip and float on air. Didn't you when you were a kid?

The second goal of this article is to urge trampoline owners to reconsider the decision to have a trampoline. Do you know what is going on in your yards? Whether you are at home or not, whether you have had parents sign "releases" or not, you are responsible. Ask your attorney, ask your insurance agent. If you are not prepared to continually supervise your trampoline, get rid of it. I realize that's asking a lot. I have children in my pool every day of the swimming season. I sit on the porch, in the heat and humidity, to supervise them. I accepted that responsibility the day I decided to become a homeowner with a pool. As uncomfortable and inconvenient as it is, I know I'm doing the right thing. Not because I'm afraid of the legal consequences, but because it would be unbearable to me if child suffered an injury that I could have prevented by enforcing pool safety rules.

If you decide to keep your trampoline, learn these rules and be sure to enforce them:

- Allow only one person on the trampoline at a time;
- Do not attempt or allow somersaults;
- Do not allow a trampoline to be used without shock-absorbing pads that completely cover the springs, hooks, and the frame;
- Place the trampoline away from structures and other play areas;
- Do not use a ladder with the trampoline because it provides unsupervised access by small children;
- No children under 6 years of age should use a full-size trampoline;
- Always supervise children who use a trampoline.

Preparation for his surgery consisted of an eye examination, a consultation and special measurements of his eye. Immediately prior to his surgery his vital signs were taken, eye drop anesthesia and antibiotics were administered on his left eye, and the area around his eye was cleaned with betadine and draped. During the 7-minute surgery he was quiet, and had no complaints of anxiety or pain.

Another patient stated "I could not drive at night. I was unable to see street signs and I saw halos around the lights". A cataract was surgically removed from his left eye first, because it was more advanced and it severely decreased his vision. A month later the cataract in his right eye was removed. "I can even see stars now! Colors are so much more brilliant, and I do not need my glasses. I feel as if I have been taken back to when I was 20-years-old". The duration of his surgery was approximately 5 minutes followed by a short recovery. He was then able to walk into the waiting room and go home with his wife.

There is no way, other than surgical removal, to treat cataracts. The only way to help slow the progression of cataracts is by avoiding prolonged sun exposure, by wearing sunglasses with UV (ultraviolet) light protection or regular eye glasses with UV protection, by maintaining a healthy diet, and by abstaining from smoking.

Cataracts do not grow back, however, the capsule that holds the lens implant may become cloudy within months or years following cataract surgery. The cloudy capsule causes symptoms similar to a cataract, and requires a YAG laser procedure to create an opening in that capsule in order to restore vision. The laser procedure takes just a few minutes, and can be performed in the comfort of the ophthalmologist's office.

There are no advantages to living with fading vision, however, if cataracts are the cause of vision loss, there are many benefits associated with having cataract surgery. Several other disorders of the eye can cause visual disturbance which, left untreated, can even lead to blindness. An ophthalmologist can diagnose these ailments and recommend the best course of treatment.

PAINLESS EYE DROP ANESTHESIA

For Cataract Surgery

Dr. Konrad Filutowski's patients benefit from his experience utilizing this most advanced technique for cataract removal. THERE IS A DIFFERENCE in cataract surgery and here is what it means for you...

NO INJECTION- LOWER RISK
Eye drop anesthesia eliminates all injections around the eye and therefore eliminates the risk of bleeding associated with injections.

NO STITCH
Only self-sealing microsurgical incision is used.

NO PAIN
Eye drop anesthesia eliminates all discomfort associated with injections.

NO PATCH
Using these advanced techniques means no patches and usually no post-operative restrictions.

NO BRUISING
There is no bruising of the skin around the eye.

NO FEAR
...because there are no needles.

INSTANT VISION
Vision usually returns for Dr. Filutowski's patients within minutes after surgery.

EXPERIENCE IS THE DIFFERENCE.
Dr. Konrad Filutowski is one of the nation's most experienced eye surgeons utilizing painless eye drop anesthesia for the removal of cataracts. There is simply no substitute for this experience, meaning you can depend on Dr. Filutowski and his professional staff to provide you with unparalleled commitment and care as they work to improve your vision.

SHS class marks 50th reunion

More than 80 gather for a hot time in the old home town

Speaking of a hot time in the old home town, just ask any member of the Seminole High School class of 1948 how last weekend's 50th class reunion was and you will likely hear "simply wonderful" or "out of this world."

Chairmen Barbara Saunders Chapman and Mona Mills Walker are both pleased with all the excellent cooperation involved right down to the beautiful weather. "It was perfectly run - no hitches," Mona said.

The exciting weekend for more than 80 participants got under way April 17 with cocktails at the home of Sophia and Kay Shoemaker followed by a barbecue at the home of Maggie and Bill Inghram with dessert later at the home of Barbara and Chip Chapman with Hazel Madden as co-hostess.

Saturday, April 18 began with Helen Stairs guiding a tour through the Ritz Theater so classmates could take a peek at one of their former haunts. Lunch followed at Touchton's (now Colonial Room). The group then toured Sanford Grammar School, now the Student Museum.

The evening's festivities began with hospitality hour at Orlando/Sanford Airport. J. Byron "Bunny" Beard of Sorrento, class vice president, gave the welcome and Jack Benton, of Sanford, delivered the invocation.

After a delicious gourmet dinner, Kay Shoemaker, sophomore class president introduced the guests and Jack Benton honored the deceased members. Entertainment was provided by Lorraine and Dave

On Sunday, the group attended church services at the First Baptist Church followed by brunch at the Marina Hotel, headquarters for the reunion.

Fred Rosseter, a New York banker, summed up the weekend festivities with words to the effect of how rare it is to go back and capture such pleasant memories - something that money can't buy.

Others attending from out-of-state were: Frank Wilson, Birmingham, Ala.; Tom Stringer, Winder, Ga.; Belle Ward Jones, Marietta, Ga.; Leonard Halman, Franklin, N.C.; Mrs. Bob Pullin, San Antonio, Texas; Peggy Pippin Harden, Millsap,

Maggie Inghram, Hazel Madden and Maryanna Rockey

Church recognizes dedicated members during honor weekend

Bennett Washington, and Dr. Stephen Caldwell and Mrs. Lizzie Caldwell.

Good news traveled fast at Zion Hope Missionary Baptist Church. It was honor weekend at the church for members. The late Deacon Joseph C. Caldwell, Sr., was given the honor by his son, Dr. Stephen C. Wright, who spoke of the dedicated services rendered to Zion Hope Church, his family and the community.

He served willingly, not for gain, but he felt it his duty to serve a lifetime. He was always proud and was a forgiving man. "So he loved, so we remember him."

The second honoree was Willie Agnes Knighton. Historian Althea Bentley spoke of the honoree's life as a child, student, teacher and a community servant; Pink Lady at the hospital, fifty seven years as a member of Zion Hope where she serves as a Sunday School teacher, and Herald reporter. "Yes, only what you do for Christ will last."

A college friend of Mrs. Knighton sharing the honors was Helen Young of Tampa who was a college mate and friend. They have shared the adult years with each other.

Mrs. Young spoke of a friend...a friend who has a friend in Jesus.

She also wished to give her friend her flowers while she can smell them and to speak kind words while she can hear them. Mary Hayes, church member and friend of Knighton's, spoke of her as a good Christian hearted, joyous friend.

Third honoree was Betty Roberts Washington. Speaking on behalf of her was Rebecca Henderson who has known Washington all of her life. She remembered her as the little girl who was often her shadow. Christian work has always been a great part of her life. She is a Sunday School teacher, B.T.U. student, Junior Church, Senior Mission Dea-coness Board and Congress No. 1 Choir. Her ideals have enchanted the lives of others in the church and the community.

Willie King says, "Washington is a special blessing. She is indeed a sister in Christ to him."

Dorothy Brown reminded us that Washington was a person who always gives of herself. She gave her a rose that she named Washington, a flower of God's design.

Washington's brother Joseph A. Roberts spoke of his special sister who has and is always there for him. He spoke of their closeness, that she seemed even as a mother to him. He shared much love about his sister and reminded her that his shoulder is close by for her to lean on.

Presiding over this honor banquet was Hattie Hankerson. The occasion of praise and honor was given by Phyllis Frage. During the dinner, beautiful music was played by the Deacon Fred Brooks. Solo's were rendered by Alician Caffey and Jackie McCray. Pastor Elias Caffey gave closing remarks.

Gustin approaches graduation from U.S. Naval Academy

Special to the Herald

WINTER SPRINGS - Jason Michael Gustin, 21, and a honor graduate of Lyman High School in 1994 is promptly approaching his graduation date from the United States Naval Academy in Annapolis.

Gustin has been a resident of Florida since the summer of 1980 when the family moved here from St. Louis, Mo. He has proven himself to be multi-talented student with an obsession to learn that leaves many astonished. He played basketball, football and later wrestled while never allowing his GPA to drop below 4.0 during his high school years.

He worked hard to receive an appointment to the academy. Interviewing with senators and congressmen, he finally received two nominations for appointments. After much persistence on his own and five cardiologists, he was cleared medically.

Next, his appointment was denied due to a slight overbite. Jason's family dentist wrote a beautiful letter and we sent several models of his bite to the academy. Finally this effort, mostly on his own part, allowed him to leap yet another hurdle and he quickly accepted one of those nominations and the appointment. That was over four short years ago.

On May 22, Gustin will graduate from the United States Naval Academy with a Bachelors Degree in Computer Science with a GPA of 3.53. On this same date he will receive his commission as an Ensign within the United States Navy. He has been accepted to graduate school and will attend flight training in August of 1998 at Pensacola.

His dream has always been to fly jets. This fine, outstanding young man is quickly advancing closer to that dream. His persistence, character, dedication and motivation is awe-inspiring, for "only a mediocre person is always at their best!"

Celery, citrus: Rooted in Oviedo history, celebration

A few weeks ago I wrote an article about last year's winners and the wonderful opportunity to join the Citrus & Celery Cook-Off, sponsored by The Greater Oviedo Chamber of Commerce and The Citizens Bank of Oviedo. This year's celebration of Oviedo's history is Saturday, May 2nd, at City Hall, which is located at 400 Alexandria Blvd. It's right around the corner and the two uncommon edible delight have a common history.

Citrus and celery have been rooted deep in the foundation of Oviedo's history and we continue to recognize it today.

Celery is actually a common name for the biennial herb of the parsley family. It's a native to Europe, but commonly grown throughout the world. Celery took root in Oviedo's Lake Jesup area following the freeze of 1895, planted by farmers devastated by their frozen citrus crops. This alternative agricultural base thrived in the rich, mucky topsoil and became Oviedo's primary cash crop. For years along Broadway one could find signs on sides of buildings and trash containers claiming Oviedo as the "Celery Capital of the World."

Whether or not this was true, celery crops have ceased production in Oviedo, but are still principally grown in California. See Jensen, Page 5C

FOSTER REVIEWS BOOK FOR ESO

Pat Foster, a past president of the Sanford Women's Club gave a book review at the April meeting of Epulon Sigma Omicron, a reading society of the Florida Federation of Women's Clubs. Pat reviewed "The Gentle Jungle" written in 1980 by Tom Ringo Heller. The autobiography tells of the life of Tom and her husband and how they trained and cared for wild, neglected animals. Eventually they opened Jungle USA and supplied trained wild animals for Hollywood movie studios. They later operated a ranch called The Gentle Jungle.

ESO annually donates a book in memory of Mrs. Ralph Austin Smith to the Sanford Library. This year members will present the latest Newberry Award winner, an award presented each year to the author of the most distinguished contribution to American children's literature published in the United States. The 1998 award was given to Karen Hesse for her book, "Out of the Dust."

Several members are attending a luncheon April 26 in Orlando in conjunction with the Florida Federation of Women's Clubs Convention being held there.

The meeting was held at the home of Elisabeth Boyd with Carolyn Cornelius as co-hostess.

IXORA MEMBERS VISIT SAVANNAH

Several members and friends of the Ixora Garden Club took time out from beautifying Sanford to visit the Savannah Garden Club Annual Garden Tour last weekend. The tour included visiting nine gardens and a tea at an art museum. Funds from the event benefit historical Savannah.

Ixora members attending were: Bette Camuino, vice president; Mary Anne Cleveland, immediate past president; Kathy Krasnoff, recording secretary; Billie Norgart, Debra Adams, treasurer; Bettye Dehman, chaplain; Sally Green, Patty Gatchel, Sally Rosemond, Louise DeBord, Sandy Illes, Molly Pfueger,

Flashing light makes house easy to find

DEAR ABBY: I would like to tell you about an item that helps emergency vehicles locate a particular home. A "911 Locator" light switch can be purchased in many hardware stores. It is a three-position light switch that replaces the standard one which operates the porch or yard light. In the bottom position, the outside light is off, in the upper position, the light is on as it normally would be; and in the middle position, the outside light flashes. Emergency vehicles can spot a flashing light from quite a distance, so they can zero in on the house in distress without having to slow down to read addresses.

These switches are illuminated so they can easily be found in the dark. They retail for about $17. I have installed several of them for elderly, single and ill friends in the past few years, and at least two have been used for an emergency. The emergency personnel complimented the homeowners for making their homes easy to find. One manufacturer of this type of switch is Pass & Seymour Legend. I hope this information is helpful. R.E. JENSEN, SEDONA, AZ.

DEAR R.E.: Very helpful. Thank you for informing my readers - and me - of the existence of this item. Its size may be small, but its value is potentially enormous. I called the manufacturer and was told that this product is carried by several national hardware store chains.

ADVICE

expensive. Abby, I have dried more tears, consoled more grooms and counseled more couples who were ready to throw in the towel and elope than I care to remember.

To all of those self-involved, insensitive people, I would like to say: If you love your child, your friend or your sibling, put your ego and personal problems aside for one day. Listen to what the couple want, support their decisions, and help them make their dream day come true. J.G. IN PHOENIX

DEAR J.G.: The wedding season is fast approaching. I hope that all couples about to be married will keep this column handy for well-meaning family and friends who apparently forget whose big day it is.

DEAR ABBY: Please print my letter, as we will be going on vacation soon.

Every time my husband and I travel to another country such as Mexico, Jamaica or other Caribbean islands, we're asked to bring back duty-free alcohol. The people who make these requests are not good friends - they are usually my husband's co-workers.

The U.S. government allows each person to return home with two bottles of liquor duty-free. We would like to be able to buy the quota for ourselves and our family, but my husband does not know how to refuse his colleagues. Please help with a polite answer for these people when they ask. NO NAME OR CITY, PLEASE.

DEAR NO NAME: Foreign travel by Americans has become so common that it really is an imposition for the traveler to be asked to lug liquor and other gifts home from abroad.

Your husband should smile and say, "Sorry, there is a limit of two bottles - and those have been promised." Other items are also limited, so the same response should work to almost any request.
