

WELL DESERVED PROMOTION

J. C. McDaniel Gets General Agency Of Insurance Co.

J. C. McDaniel, a former resident of this city has been appointed to a general agency of the Southern States Life Insurance Co. for faithful service and high class business. This will be good news to his many Sanford friends but better still he will make his headquarters in Sanford. Mrs. McDaniel was formerly Miss Jennie Martin, also of Sanford and this estimable family will receive a warm welcome from their old friends.

Mr. McDaniel has made an enviable record as an insurance agent and at the recent convention of the Southern States Life Insurance Co. at Atlanta was one of the delegates and received this territory and agency as a reward for his ability. He expects to assume his new duties at once and his family will move to Sanford as soon as possible.

Methodist Conference Closes

Enterprise, June 14—The district conference of the Miami district came to a close at Epworth Inn last night and was voted by all who attended the best in the history of the district. First and last there were over seventy who had their names placed on the register and among them were many of the most prominent ministers and laymen of the state. The president and vice president of the college, the editor of the Florida Christian Advocate and four of the six presiding elders of the Methodist church were in attendance.

Mrs. U. S. Tabor of DeLand was appointed press reporter and submitted excellent reports of the conference work, which were highly praised by the delegates. Mrs. Tabor also favored the conference with a large number of musical selections, which added much to pleasure of the conference. She is a finished musician and all who attended the conference will remember with pleasure her musical numbers. Rev. and Mrs. Wright of Cocon, Rev. F. L. Glennan of Lemon City, Miss Claire Adams of Miami and Dr. W. K. Piner of Tampa also delighted the conference with musical numbers.

The delegates have now about all returned to their homes and the Inn is not so full, and more quiet than it has been.

Will Start a Barrel Factory

It is rumored this week that a large barrel factory will be installed in Sanford in the near future. Sanford has become famous as an Irish potato center, and the new firm will make potato barrels exclusively. This will add another enterprise to Sanford's rapidly growing list.

THE SANFORD HERALD

IN SANFORD—Life is Worth Living

Number 45

SANFORD, FLORIDA, FRIDAY, JUNE 25, 1909

First Year

ANOTHER ENTERPRISE

Added to Sanford's Long List of Factories

CANNING AND PRESERVE WORKS

Promoters Will Build a Large Two-Story Factory in the Early Fall

Having maintained that Sanford was the ideal location for factories of all kinds, The Herald is gratified to learn that many promoters are being attracted to our city this summer, and in the early fall Sanford will be the richer by the possession of at least six new factories. Particulars of all these enterprises cannot be given at this time as the plans have not matured, and building sites purchased, but if the owners of lake front property can be induced to sell at a reasonable figure, the entire lake front will be purchased by the parties who expect to erect factories and warehouses this fall.

The latest addition to our factory list, and one that has long been needed, is the Satsuma Orange Co., now operating in Lake county. They manufacture oranges, grapefruit and kumquat marmelade and guava paste and numerous other preserves and jellies.

C. L. Farnsworth is the head of this large concern, and he was in the city last week discussing water rates with the Clyde Line agent, M. W. Lovell, who states that the factory will certainly be moved to Sanford, provided a suitable location on the railroad lines can be secured.

The Sanford freight rates were so much lower than Mr. Farnsworth could obtain at his present location that he has decided to purchase a building site and erect a large two-story factory in this city, and aside from his regular line of goods will install a first-class canning factory, putting up okra, tomatoes, celery products, and other fruits and vegetables, using the culls of these different crops that are now wasted in the fields, and will at once become a source of revenue to our growers.

The establishment of this factory in Sanford will not only aid materially in the future growth of the city, but will be the means of assisting the growers to get a good price for many of their crops, and should help in keeping up the market price of fruits and vegetables in many instances.

One of the principal attractions of Sanford for an enterprise of this kind is the large packing house of Chase & Co., where a constant supply of fruits and vegetables are handled during the winter season, and this supply alone could keep a canning factory busy the entire season.

The turtle and coquina clam of Florida is rapidly coming to the front as a most palatable dish for the northern epicure, and this part of the canning business is very lucrative in the summer time. In fact, the supply of products for a canning factory in Sanford is unlimited, and we bespeak for the new enterprise a most profitable trade.

Meeting of Reading Circle

The reading circle of the missionary society of the Methodist church, held their meeting at the residence of Mrs. D. G. Wagner, Tuesday afternoon. Many tributes were in evidence, and while the awfully flying needles wrought many stitches, the attention and interest of the ladies were centered in those delightful "Days of June," so charmingly read by Mrs. L. R. Phillips. Before dispersing, light refreshments were served. At another meeting the study of the beautiful life of Jane Nicholson, the young missionary, who gave her life to China, will be concluded.

Equalization of Taxes

The Board of County Commissioners will meet at Orlando on Monday, July 5, to hear complaints and to adjust tax matters. Equalization will be made on that date, and all parties interested should attend this meeting, or forever hold their peace.

A Name For The New Park

The Sanford Ball Association is desirous of naming the new ball park, and gallantly leave the selection to the Sanford ladies. The one sending in the most euphonious cognomen for the park will receive a season ticket as a compliment of the association. The contest is open to all, and the names are to be sent to The Herald to be published each week.

FAKE LAND SCHEMES

Prospective Buyers Are Getting Wise To Them

The Herald's campaign against the land sharks in Florida is bearing fruit in many instances, and many letters are being received every day from prospective buyers in the North who have read the copies of articles from The Herald in other publications. These frauds should be exposed by the state press wherever detected, and the people who are desirous of locating in Florida should be protected from these sharks who have been attracted to the state by the glowing accounts of riches made from the vast vegetable lands, and especially the celery lands near Sanford. Following is a letter received this week, and is only one of many upon the same subject.

Isoline, Tenn.
To the Editor of The Herald:
I want to invest a dollar with you for your paper. I do not even know anyone there, but I want it to keep posted on Sanford and that part of Florida. I am an Ohio man, and have only spent one year south of the Ohio river, and that here the past year as treasurer and general manager of a large coal and lumber company up here in the Cumberland mountains of Tennessee, but I have been hearing some good things about Florida and especially about the possibilities of Sanford since I have been here, and some of these days I am coming down to Sanford and if I can find a good-sized tract of land suitable for trucking purposes, a few of my friends with me will buy it, and I will come there and locate and settle it up with some northern enterprise and capital.

The supposed truck lands that have been sold out during the past year to northern people by advertisements and mail to those who have never seen these lands, will when they find out what many of them have got to do a great deal of harm toward the advancement of the state, and I think the people of Florida should do something to counteract this thing as much as possible. I know of an old man here now, who is quite old, and has spent all his life to accumulate and save a little home who has been getting some of these advertisements, and wants to sell his place to buy some of this land that I know from the territory it is in is of very little value.

You have the newest, live, up-to-date paper I have ever seen for a city of your size, and as I was a former newspaper man in the Buckeye state I know whereof I speak. On receipt of it, I looked over its columns and remarked: "Well, the general appearance of that newspaper tells me that Sanford is a good, live, prosperous town to go to, and if everyone helps as well as the newspaper, it will soon be a coming city." Hoping to see you personally, some of these times, I am
Yours most sincerely,
—J. L. BARR.

Kelly-Davidson Trial

Palatka, June 23.—The special term of the circuit court now in progress here, convened for the purpose of trying Davidson and Kelly for the murder of Drummer Sellers in Alachua county, is attracting considerable attention. The court room is crowded daily with interested spectators who listen intently to the questions propounded to the witnesses in the examination.

Never in the history of Putnam county court matters has such an imposing array of legal talent been gotten together in Palatka. The prominence of the accused and the importance of the case may be determined when such distinguished lawyers as the following are retained. Hon. Robert W. Davis, of Tampa, Hon. Syd L. Carter, of Gainesville, Hon. J. N. Stripling, of Jacksonville, Hon. Tom Palmer, B. A. Thrasher and J. M. Rivers, from other cities, and Hon. S. J. Hillborn, and E. N. Calhoun of this city. Every inch of ground is being stubbornly contested by either side, and nothing is being left undone by either the state or the defense.

In this case a change of venue was granted from the county in which the killing occurred, and the following comprise the talesmen on the panel, all of whom are Palatkans, save one:
Thomas Murray, butcher; J. T. Griffin, merchant; M. M. Vickers, publisher; J. D. Points, plumber; J. A. Bear, nurseryman; A. M. Houghton, merchant; T. R. Livingston, baker; T. E. Hudson, door maker; W. H. Cannon, farmer; W. H. Minton, merchant; Louis Kalbfeld, hotel keeper; P. J. Beck, contractor.

It is thought that the trial will consume this week at least.

NEWSPAPERS ORGANIZE AGENCY

Newspaper Owners to Urge Establishment of Contracting Agency

Referring to our editorial last Friday in regard to our fixed advertising rate to all corners of fifteen cents an inch, Percy P. Vyle, of the Jacksonville Advertising Agency, informs us that the Georgia weekly papers are to organize along similar lines to those presented and turned down by the Florida State Press Association last April.

The meeting of the Georgia newspaper men took place last Saturday, the committee appointed by the Georgia newspaper owners, consisting of J. J. Thomson, of the Times, Carrollton; C. D. Tony, of the News, Fairburn; Hull Kerr, of the News, Spring Place; P. T. McCutcheon, News and Banner, Franklin; W. Trox Bankston, of the News, West Point, decided to submit to every newspaper man in Georgia the opportunity of becoming a member of the Georgia Newspaper Contracting Agency.

The object to be accomplished by this association of the leading weekly papers of the state, of which thirty-six have already signified their willingness to become members, is to obtain a uniform rate for foreign advertising, according to the sworn circulation of each paper becoming a member.

The plan agreed upon at the meeting Saturday afternoon will be submitted, by mail, to every weekly editor in the state, giving him the opportunity of becoming a member and stockholder of this Newspaper Owners' association.

Reply envelopes will be enclosed with the expectation of hearing from every paper in the state before the meeting of the Weekly Press Association, which convenes in Douglas, Ga., July 13th and 14th.

President Bankston, of this association was authorized to communicate by long distance phone with President Stanley, of the Weekly Press Association, requesting him to devote one day's session of the July meeting to the discussion of the proposed organization, which is already an assured success.

The establishment of an office in Atlanta to control foreign advertising and to act as a purchasing agent for the members of this association was agreed upon, and it will immediately follow the meeting of the weekly editors in Douglas in July.

Married in Palatka

Miss Lillian Ryan of Palatka and Andrew B. Mahoney of this city were married in Palatka Wednesday morning. The ceremony took place at the church, Father Barry officiating assisted by Father Fox of Orlando. After the ceremony the young couple left for Asheville and other points in North Carolina. Upon their return they will make this city their future home. Miss Ryan is the daughter of Capt. and Mrs. Ryan of Palatka, prominent residents of that place. Miss Ryan is well known in this city also, having visited here upon several occasions.

Mr. Mahoney is the son of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Mahoney and grew up to manhood in Sanford, where he counts his friends by his acquaintances and is numbered among the popular young men of the city. The young couple will be accorded a cordial reception upon their return by their many friends who wish them much happiness upon the sea of life.

Prosperity at Hand

A Herald man traversing the peninsula portion of the state since April 26th witnessed such evidences of prosperity as to rejoice him exceedingly. He wishes he could give complete details, particularly the figures, but what he saw and heard convinces him that prosperity for the state is again at hand.

He traveled from St. Augustine to Miami, from Titusville via Sanford to Punta Gorda, from Lakeland via Tampa to Bradentown, thence to St. Petersburg and up the Gulf coast through Sumter and Marion counties to Starke, Macclenny, Monticello and Tallahassee. Everywhere the evidences and reports of prosperity were numerous and gratifying. Great crops of vegetables, pineapples and melons were and are being shipped and bringing remunerative prices.

Hastings had just finished shipping a potato crop that brought the producers over half a million dollars and wealth was pouring in upon the lower East Coast from an immense crop of tomatoes just marketed. And they were just beginning to ship 600,000 crates of pineapples, with the prospects of getting a million dollars for them.

Sanford had just closed the celery season, which brought in many thousands of dollars, and from there to Bradentown a great crop of tomatoes was going to market and bringing good prices. Lakeland and Plant City, Lawtey, Starke and other places were shaking the shekles in their pockets, yielded by the big crops of strawberries.

From Arcadia to Waldo, train loads of tomatoes, watermelons and canteloupes were going to market and bringing paying prices. The Seaboard appeared to be taxed to its utmost ability to carry off the products grown all along the line from Plant City to Starke. Inquiry at all points brought the answer that prices were satisfactory.

And the corn crop—it is simply grand. We doubt if ever before there was such a crop grown in the state. To see from the car windows the vast beautiful fields spreading out over hill and valley in emerald magnificence was actually exhilarating.

There is more to come, too—sweet potatoes and sugarcane, peanuts and pigs, oranges and grapefruit. By the time the year closes, the total amount of crops produced and returns realized will be prodigious. The panic of Roosevelt will have been forgotten and the Christmas of 1909 will be the happiest ever known in Florida. Now let us all read Kipling's Recessional, thank God for his blessings, and sing the long metre doxology.—Punta Gorda Herald.

Notice of Meeting

The Welaka Club will meet next Tuesday evening at 4 o'clock at the residence of Dr. Howard. A full attendance is desired.

Growing Some

That The Herald is the highest lifting Sanford's banner to the highest breezes, and faithfully keeping tully with all the many improvements now going on, and the number of others in contemplation, is attested by a card from a winter visitor and former resident of Sanford, who keeps up with the march of events hereabouts through the pages of The Herald, and who writes: "You will be so grand by the time we return next winter, that we may have to engage the services of a guide to show us about the city."

Every one wants to see the grand tournament and pony races, the various games and amusements.

To Subscribers

An order of the Postoffice Department, Washington, D. C., effective Jan. 1, 1908, provides that no delinquent subscriber shall be carried longer than three months, giving as a reason that the department is furnishing a low rate of postage on newspapers, and does so for the benefit of a bonafide subscriber who pays for his paper.

Death of Mrs. M. R. Marks

Capt. R. H. Marks received a telegram Wednesday announcing the death of Mrs. M. R. Marks at Jacksonville on Tuesday morning. Mrs. Marks, the wife of Major M. R. Marks was well known in this city where she resided for a number of years prior to the removal of the family to Jacksonville.

Special Correspondence to The Herald.

Man is not perfect and has never been from the day of Adam, the First. We have our faults and our virtues just as the gentler sex does and since none of us are paragons in everyday life it is very natural for man to have failings when bound together as a body corporate. Thus it is expected that such bodies as the legislature and the city council should fall in some things just as us lesser lights fall to reach the perfect state in our everyday life. Every now and then my attention is called to some matter pertaining to the public welfare that appears to have been overlooked by the honorable board of aldermen. I do not agree with the complainants that the board of aldermen are lax in their duty to the city upon all of these occasions. In many instances they have arranged for a betterment of conditions. In fact I have been present at the meetings when their attention was called to various nuisances and they were ordered stopped. The matter seemed to end there as far as the council was concerned. But they did not keep tab upon the same case and see if the nuisance was abated at once. In some cases the work was left to the sanitary inspector and his activity in these cases has never been questioned.

Therefore it was a great surprise to me to discover the other day a place in the heart of the city, just one square from the principal street of Sanford where the authorities have certainly been lax. The sewer main extends right to this residence and the bucket system has been abolished or supposed to be and yet the residents are continuing the use of this ancient system much to the annoyance of the neighbors and menace to the health of the whole city. Of all the unsanitary spots this one is the worst and should receive the attention of the authorities at once. I understand that the property owner has been notified several times regarding this nuisance and promised to have it stopped but so far no real steps have been taken to force them to abate this nuisance and do it now.

I am very glad to note that the council has decided to have two artesian wells driven on Commercial street and to have the work commenced at once. The wells ought to be finished before our grand celebration on July fifth for our visitors will look for the flowing wells and expect to get plenty of this fine sulphur water that has made Sanford famous. The committee on arrangements will have barrels of ice water at central points on that day and these wells will furnish a continual supply not only for that day but for all time. Since the fountains on First street had to go in order to give us a better street, we certainly want water at some other point in the city and the council at that time decided upon the wells on Commercial street. For awhile I was reminded of the lines in the Ancient Mariner:

Water, water, every where,
But not a drop to drink.

Another good move upon the part of the city council is the opening up of new streets in different parts of the city and a desire to give the people recently taken into the city, a run for their money. Sanford has many beautiful streets that only need the scraper to take off the grass and weeds to put them in good shape. On the fifth of July we will have many visitors in our midst and they will scatter over a great part of the city. It behooves the city council to see that all of our streets are put in first class condition before that time as nothing will impress the visitors more than an appearance of cleanliness in that direction. There are several streets that are so noticeable from the car windows that have never received any attention and are only grass plots at the present time. A little work in this direction would be worth much to our city.

Again I am forced to reiterate the statements made so many times in THE HERALD that Sanford needs more dwelling houses and store rooms. The city at the present time has over twenty families that are unable to get a decent dwelling house and consequently are forced to seek elsewhere for a residence. The Sanford Loan & Building Association is inadequate to furnish money to those who wish to build upon the installment plan and there are numerous inquiries every day about city lots for building purposes. There are a number of people who would build if they could do so upon this plan and would remain in Sanford and become identified with the city's interests.

One reason for the scarcity of buildings is the high price asked for city property. Sanford dirt is very valuable I allow, but at the prices asked by some property owners one is forced to believe that there must be a gold mine hidden under the property. It is human nature to get all you can when selling but on the other hand there is such a thing as killing the goose that lays the golden egg and at the present time it would be well to offer some inducements to the builders and get them to locate in our midst. Every house means more work for the artisans, more money for the merchant, more houses, more inhabitants and a Greater Sanford.

Would it not be well to encourage this building by putting the land at a reasonable figure and making a moderate profit?

I have always said that Sanford was destined some day to become a great factory site and wholesale district and transpiring events seem to bear me out in this statement. Already the rumors are growing about several more large factories that are seeking our city as a location and the purchase of considerable water front property lately means that Sanford is an ideal location for wholesale houses and other people are recognizing this fact. There is no city in the south that will have any better advantages on this score when the channel of the St. Johns has been deepened to admit of larger vessels coming to our docks from the commercial marts of the world and I am anxious to hear from Hon. Frank Clark upon this point. Deep water will mean everything to our city, although our citizens are rather apathetic about it and have never become more than lukewarm over the proposition.

In fact the St. Johns river and Lake Monroe our most valuable asset is almost forgotten by most of us and were it not for the fine breezes wafted from her bosom on these warm days most of us would forget that we had such a glorious sheet of water at our very doors.

There are many cities in the interior that would give millions for Sanford's location and a residence inland and excessive freight rates would do some of our citizens good. They would at least appreciate our advantages upon their return.

Some day our water front will be a fine boulevard extending for miles in either direction, filled with large warehouses and the docks busy with steamers loading and unloading.

We will have plenty of houses, plenty of store room, a good opera house, a good trolley line to the East Coast and West Coast, a ship canal across Florida, a dozen four, six and ten story buildings where now there are only shacks, electric lights and other improvements. You and I may not be here to enjoy these advantages, but when they do come as they surely will, just remember that it was not all hot air that came from —THE SAUNTERER.

Retires From Firm

N. H. Garner has retired from the firm of the Marks Real Estate Agency and expects to spend several months in the mountains of North Carolina. He explains it in the following communication to The Herald:

MR. EDITOR—I take this method of announcing that I am not in the Real Estate Agency business. I also wish to state that it is not for any fault that I find with Captain Marks. I will buy and sell property on my own account. I will here state that I consider Capt. Marks perfectly square and honest in his profession and bespeak for him your patronage. Very respectfully,
N. H. GARNER

Large Bottling Business

The Sanford Cocoa Cola Bottling Works has lately added new machinery, more men and two new horses for the delivery wagon, in order to keep up with the greater volume of business that is coming their way. The new wagon now has two horses instead of one and the head of the firm, S. Runge is kept on the jump to attend to the constantly increasing business. Aside from Cocoa Cola, the great leader, this firm puts up all kinds of soft drinks, and their equipment being of the best the Cocoa Cola label always stands for the best in bottled goods.

Moore's Modern Methods

Everyone has heard of Moore's modern methods of bookkeeping and loose-leaf ledger systems. So great has been the demand for these perfect ledgers that The Sanford Herald has decided to keep a full line of these goods, and anyone wishing edgers, record sheets, contracts, account books, and everything for the office of the business man, should call at The Herald office and get the best.

VOICE OF THE PEOPLE

Letters and Communications on Various Timely Topics.

COLUMN DEVOTED TO PEOPLE

In This Department will be Found the Views, Opinions and Comments of Practical Writers

To the Editor of the Herald:
That season of the year is now approaching when fond parents almost regret that our forefathers adopted the Declaration of Independence. Despite the fearful toll of life and property which is annually taken, doubtless the youth of the land will celebrate the glorious Fourth as usual.

The average number of fires in Florida annually resulting directly from the use of fireworks is about thirty-five and the average loss from fires from all causes is about $1,500.

Without expressing any opinion upon the merits of the controversy over woman's suffrage, it is respectfully suggested that the women of this country could save more lives and property by directing their energy against the use of dangerous fireworks than they can ever save by the ballot.

Annually the mayors of our cities make proclamations concerning the use of cannon crackers and other dangerous noise and fire producers upon the Fourth. But it would be impossible for any police force to enforce the provisions of an ordinance.

It is suggested that the place to begin is with the sellers. Ordinances which shall regulate or prohibit the sale of the more dangerous varieties of fireworks can be enforced much more easily than can those seeking to regulate or prohibit their use after they are once sold.

A few cities have already absolutely prohibited the sale of fireworks and the fact that outside of the property loss there are from 100 to 500 deaths annually, directly attributable to these dangerous agencies is sufficient justification for this action.

But this drastic legislation would not be required if the municipal authorities would pass proper regulatory measures. And then enforcement of these measures can easily be had if the parents of the land will appreciate the danger and act accordingly in making their purchases.

Parents are urged to back up to the fullest extent possible all efforts of our authorities to lessen these dangers to life and property. And especially are they urged to use the utmost care in their purchases and later in the use of these joys of the youthful hearts. —OLD TIMER.

More About The Taxes

To the Editor of the Herald:
I notice in your issue of June 18th the following: "Will have to pay taxes. The recent ruling of the circuit court regarding the sale of tax liens was decided in favor of City Attorney Johnson, which means that the city of Sanford will be able to collect the delinquent taxes." This is incorrect and misleading. The facts are as follows:

The bills filed by the city were demurred to on six grounds. Two of these grounds were sustained by the court. The city attorney being advised of this slipped down to Titusville and got permission to amend the bill in the one case argued, without notice to opposing counsel, so as to cover the two grounds of the demurrer held good, and then took an order overruling the demurrer. He afterward amended all the other bills to meet the two points of the demurrer held good. All of the defendants in the entire number of cases, including the one argued, have until the first Monday in July in which to plead, answer or demur to the amended bills, and it is needless to say proper defenses will be interposed on that day. It will be a long time before these cases are decided upon their merits, and they will then probably go to the supreme court for final adjudication. I will add for the general information that, except in cases where the tax certificates have been declared invalid, null and void, by decree of the court rendered before the passage of the legislative act under which the proceedings are taken, nearly all the parties represented by me are, and have been, willing to pay the taxes assessed against them, but they are unwilling to pay costs, amounting to five or ten times the amount of the taxes assessed, on proceedings taken without notice to them and opportunity afforded them to pay their taxes without these accumulated costs.

—TH. EMMET WILSON.

A State Printing Office

The state of Florida, may have a printing office of its very own in the next few years. Regarding this matter the following letter has been indited by Governor Gilchrist:

To All Who Shall See These Presents, Greeting—At the regular session of the legislature of the state of Florida, held in the year 1909, the following concurrent resolution was adopted by both houses of said legislature, to-wit:

Resolved by the house of representatives, the senate concurring, that a committee of three from the house and two from the senate be appointed to collect data from all the southern states upon the subject, and for the purpose of establishing a printing plant to print text books and to do state printing, and to secure cooperation of the other states, or to secure the publishing of text books for as many or all of the southern states as are willing to participate in such enterprise."

On the 31st day of May, 1909, the Honorable John S. Beard and J. A. Williams were appointed as members of said committee on the part of the senate, and the Honorable J. R. Miller, H. A. B. McKenzie and W. D. Carr were appointed as members of said committee on the part of the house of representatives.

As Governor of the state of Florida it is my pleasure to ask that the gentlemen composing said committee be extended any and all courtesy which may be appropriate in the premises.

(Signed) ALBERT W. GILCHRIST,
Governor of Florida.

WILL HAVE GOOD OPERA HOUSE

Sanford Will Be Upon Good Circuit For The Coming Season

George Barker, the well known opera house manager has closed a contract with the owners of the Sanford opera house and acquired the management of same for the season of 1909-10.

Mr. Barker will have Sanford, Orlando, Bradentown and Plant City upon his circuit and will book only first class attractions. This will guarantee the people of our city only the best and none that is rank.

The opera house will be remodeled and put in first class condition at once and many changes made for the better production of plays and convenience of the patrons.

Mr. Barker knows the show business thoroughly and can be depended upon to give the patrons the best there is in the theatrical line.

He will probably open the new circuit with Mabel Paige and company.

Pay Your Taxes

City taxes, both real and personal become due and payable on April 1st. There are many who have not paid these taxes and the personal property will be levied upon and real estate will be placed in the delinquent tax list with interest attached. Many property owners have overlooked these taxes and should get busy at once in order to avoid any of these unpleasant features as Clerk Scott intends to close up this matter at once. 44-2

KEEP THE KIDNEYS WELL

Health Is Worth Saving. And Some Sanford People Know How to Save It.

Many Sanford people take their lives in their hands by neglecting the kidneys when they know these organs need help. Sick kidneys are responsible for a vast amount of suffering and ill health, but there is no need to suffer nor to remain in danger when all diseases and aches and pains due to weak kidneys can be quickly and permanently cured by the use of Doan's Kidney Pills. Here is a Sanford citizen's recommendation.

Mrs. J. J. Cowan, Myrtle Ave., Sanford, Fla., says: "In return for the benefit I received from Doan's Kidney Pills, I can recommend them. Back-ache kept me in misery and I often became so lame that I could hardly get around to attend to my household duties. The kidney secretions were too frequent in passage and very annoying. When a friend told me about Doan's Kidney Pills, I obtained a box and commenced their use. They did me so much good that I continued taking them until completely cured. I consider Doan's Kidney Pills a most valuable kidney remedy."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

HERALD'S INFORMATION BUREAU

A newspaper office is suppose to be a general information bureau, and the editor is looked upon as being a walking encyclopedia of information upon every known and unknown subject.

Please send me six copies of your paper. I may send you 25 cents for 3 months if I buy land in your section.

Does it take any fertilizer to grow celery, and how much?

Same for cauliflower, cabbage, strawberries, and egg plants.

Can you get help on the farm for $10 per month.

And about one hundred questions along the same line. We take pleasure in answering all letters written by people who are really in earnest regarding the celery delta.

THE HERALD is a town and county builder. That's our business.

We are willing to burn the midnight oil in writing articles, answering letters, sending out papers and pamphlets and entertaining dozens of visitors through the day.

THE NEEDS OF SANFORD

In a city growing as rapidly as Sanford the inhabitants are apt to overlook many advantages and improvements in the rush of business and the active pursuit of the nimble dollar.

Sanford is having miles of brick streets, a street railway, an electric light and power plant, and new enterprises of various kinds.

It is true that the buildings are going up at a rapid rate, but not fast enough to keep pace with the demand.

If at the present time there are numbers of people here who cannot obtain a house or a store room at any price, what will the great deluge of people that will flow into our city in a few months do for a suitable place of business or a dwelling house.

The main object of the real estate dealers is to place the new people on the celery farms. This is a good move on the part of the real estate men, but all of these purchasers do not care to live upon the farms and yet they will be compelled to do so.

LOOK TO THE CITY'S INTERESTS. The Florida Fruit and Produce News has been chosen the official organ of the Florida Citrus Exchange.

SANFORD'S CELEBRATION

"Sanford's Fourth of July celebration will be an eye opener. Great preparations are going forward and from every part of the county and the state armies of pleasure seeking people will march on that city.

THE HERALD has received many encomiums regarding the articles about the fake vegetable lands. This matter should not be left to THE HERALD to fight.

The fate of the white girl who was murdered by Chinese in New York city should be a lesson to the American women who are trying to convert the heathen of the city slums.

The lamb that followed Mary everywhere she went has now given up its leg to take the place of a shattered bone in the leg of a man named Townsend in Chicago.

The cool breeze from Lake Monroe has made life so pleasant in Sanford this summer that many visitors have lingered here and opine that our climate is superior to that of many northern states.

Tampa will be headquarters of the Florida Citrus Fruit Exchange. This decision was reached by the committee on Saturday last, and there is no city in the state that can handle the situation any better than Tampa.

Every public-spirited citizen should decorate his residence on July Fifth, and every merchant should decorate his store.

Today Bartow celebrated the completion of Polk county's fine new court house. They are anticipating a grand time, and can be depended upon to give the visitors plenty to eat.

PAOLA POINTS

Special Correspondence to The Herald:

We are wondering where we're at. The rain falls on the just and the unjust alike the good book says but it doesn't fall on us at all of late, tho a dark cloud hovers over the scene several times a day, and the man who needs a muzzle—the is it hot enough for you man—is kept busy.

The box and crate mill at Twin Lakes, has shut down for the summer months we understand.

We were visited last week by the A. C. L. repairing force, and the station and other buildings belonging to the railway company were put in good order. Now if we can only get that hard road put through and our walks repaired we will be in fairly good shape for the coming winter season.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Buchanan are spending several days at their cottage on the beach at Seabreeze.

Mr. and Mrs. Foster of Jacksonville, are making a visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Hartley, the parents of Mrs. Foster, near Pine Crest station.

Mr. J. E. Bona, lately from Miami, is visiting Mr. A. A. Hicks and family.

The many friends of Mr. Paul Keely, in this neighborhood are pained to learn of his deplorable accident and hope for him a speedy recovery.

Wanted—a good three days rain without thunder and lightning if possible.

OVIEDO OCCURRENCES

Special Correspondence to The Herald:

CRAWFORD-KING.—One of the prettiest weddings ever witnessed in Oviedo was that of Miss Anita King and Dr. George Clinton Crawford, at the Methodist church last Wednesday evening, the ceremony being impressively performed by Rev. J. B. Mitchell of Orlando. The church was beautifully decorated with a profusion of palms, ferns, and pot plants, while the back of the chancel was hung with bamboo. The chancel rail was festooned with vines, and at the center an arch of vines entwined with white roses, presented a pretty setting for the wedding party. The organ was a bank of white roses embedded in green foliage, the whole forming a floral bower of fairy-like loveliness. The ushers were H. B. McCall and B. F. Wheeler. Promptly at 8:30 o'clock the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march announced the approach of the bridal party, played under the deft touch of Mrs. Mead. The attendants were Miss Sarah Crawford, bride's maid, and Dr. Simpson of Kissimmee, groomsmen, who entered together, closely followed by Miss Nellie King, maid of honor, all passing down the left aisle. The groom and his best man, Dr. Sylvan McElroy, walked down the right aisle, where he awaited at the altar the bride, who entered with her father. The bride's gown was an exquisite creation of soft, sheer batiste and lace, made on princess lines, over silk. Its effect was heightened, and the beauty of the bride enhanced, by the filmy tulle veil, wreathed with carnations, and enveloping her fair young form like a mist. She carried an arm bouquet of carnations gracefully arranged in shower effect. The maid of honor and bridesmaid were charmingly attired in princess gowns of pink mull, lace-trimmed, over pink silk slips. The bridegroom and groomsmen wore the usual conventional black suit. After the ceremony, the wedding party left the church, and were driven to the residence of the bride's parents, where followed a reception to a limited company of friends and relatives. Numerous presents, including handsome silver, cut glass, china and bric-a-brac, attested the high esteem in which the young couple are held by their many friends. Conspicuous among the collection was a dozen sterling teaspoons of exquisite design from Mrs. Foster of Clifton Springs, N. Y. One of the bride's gifts from her mother was some family silver consisting of both table and teaspoons. This bears the interesting history of being a hundred years old, and was buried all during the civil war to save it from seizure by the invading armies. The bride is the daughter of Hon. J. H. King, one of our county's legislative representatives, and possessed of rare intellectual attainments. Her sweet attributes of character have endeared her to a wide circle of friends who regret to see her transferred to another city as her future home. Dr. Crawford is a rising young dentist of Orlando, and already enjoys a large and lucrative practice. His father was also a member of the legislature. Shortly after the reception, Dr. Crawford and his bride left by automobile to take the train at Orlando for an extended wedding tour, followed by several other autos which had conveyed out-of-town guests to the wedding.

—MRS. ALEXANDER.
June 21st, 1909.

We are sorry to hear that Mrs. W. N. Webster is on the sick list, and hope that she will soon recover.

Union Service Lasts Sunday

The first meeting of the combined churches of Sanford in the union services was held last Sunday evening at the Presbyterian church. It was one of the best song services ever held in the city and was thoroughly enjoyed by the large number of people present.

The solos rendered by Mrs. Likins and Mr. E. T. Woodruff were greatly appreciated as were the selections rendered by the combined choirs of the city.

Dr. Mason, who has been lecturing upon "Bible Studies" at the Baptist church, made a short address and upon the principle that the foundation of all churches rested on the true religion of Jesus Christ. Dr. Mason is never at a loss for words on a subject and his address was enjoyed by all.

These union services will be held at the different churches during the summer and will be made song services as much as possible. The public is cordially invited to attend and take part in them. Next Sunday evening the services will be held at the Methodist church. Following is the program rendered last Sunday evening:

- Praise God from Whom all Blessings flow. Bourgeois Invocation
- Evening Hymn—Sweet Sabbath Eve Giffie
- Quintette—Just as I Am Without One Plea. Jarvis
- Scripture Lesson, Luke xv. 1-8. Porter
- Solo, Tenor—The P. n. t. Van d. Water
- Prayer—Rev. K. L. Kirkland
- Response—Hymn 132, verses 1, 2 and 3. Lutz
- Address—Rev. W. A. Mason, D. D.
- Duet—In the Cross of Christ I Glorify. Nicols
- Anthem—In Heaven by Love Abundant. Gracy
- Goffertory
- Solo, Soprano—Show Me the Way. Williams
- Te Deum—Face to Face. Johnson
- Hymn 420, verses 1, 4 and 5. Davendorf
- Benediction.

The choir was assisted by other singers of the city and Mrs. O. P. Likins of Orlando, with Mrs. D. L. Thrasher organist and Mr. E. T. Woodruff musical director.

Carraway-Telford Nuptials

Miss Evelyn Carraway and Mr. L. M. Telford were united in marriage last Wednesday at high noon.

The wedding occurred at the suburban home of the bride's parents on Sanford avenue, Rev. W. E. Hausholder performing the ceremony. Only relatives and a few friends were present to witness the ceremony, and immediately after the happy couple took the train for Georgetown, S. C., the old home of the bride, where they will spend several weeks, and will also visit Asheville and other points in North Carolina ere returning.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. McG. Carraway, and has been a resident of this section for several years. She is a young lady of many winning graces, and has a large circle of friends and acquaintances.

Mr. Telford is fireman on the A. C. L. and one of their most trusted employees. He is a young man of sterling worth and a general favorite among his associates.

Both bride and groom are popular young people, as was attested by the many beautiful tributes presented to them upon this happy and auspicious occasion.

Upon their return Mr. and Mrs. Telford will make Sanford their home. The Herald joins their many friends in well-wishes.

A Good Score Card

The Herald printed a score card this week that is one of the best of the kind ever issued at a ball game. It consists of a large score card in the middle, and contains the advertising of Sanford merchants. The card was originated by Paul Weaver, the enterprising "pop corn kid," and as there is no score board at the park the new score card will be greatly appreciated by the "fans" who attend the games.

The two Dixler kids got in their devilish work last Sunday. They sheared widow Plummer's sorrel mare's tail and painted black spots on old Fillkin's white bull pup. The widow's mare seemed much humiliated over her ridiculous appearance and Fillkin's dog crawled under the barn and has stayed there ever since. Someone ought to wear out a half-dozen shingles on the basement of the cussed kid's trousers.

The Slimmer family has leased a two-room cottage on the bank of Soldier Creek and may take up their home there for the season. Mr. Slimmer is well to do, having sold his two-chair barber shop in Sanford and retired from active business.

THE CHILDERS CASE

Attracted Attention in Court Session at Orlando

District court is still in session, and most of this week has been taken up with the Childers' case from Ocoee. Mrs. Childers was supposed to have committed suicide, but after her burial the neighbors became suspicious, and reported their suspicions to States Attorney Jones, who had the body exhumed and found so much evidence of murder and so little evidence of suicide that her husband was arrested and the grand jury promptly returned an indictment of murder in the first degree.

Prosecuting Attorney Jones conducted the trial for the State, and Hon. John M. Cheney defended the interests of the accused. A jury composed of the following citizens passed on the merits of the case: J. E. Crawford, George Baker, E. F. Sperry, T. Aulin, J. J. Combs, J. H. Swick, J. H. Thompson, P. Macy, T. A. Kilgore, W. K. Curry, F. A. Lewter, T. J. Rooney.

The evidence given showed that on May 20 last the alarm was given that Mrs. Childers had committed suicide by shooting herself with a gun. Her body was prepared for burial by the ladies of the neighborhood, who noticed that in addition to the gunshot wound the scalp and face were crushed and cut as though the victim had received blows from a blunt instrument. Physicians were called to examine the body, and they expressed the opinion that the bruises and wounds on the head and face could not have been caused by the gunshot wound. The court heard the testimony of some of the neighbors as to the facts, and the testimony of Drs. Davis, Brown, Person, McEwan, Christ and Maddock, all of whom testified that the conditions would indicate that the bruises and wounds on the head and face were made prior to the gunshot wound. The theory of the prosecution is that Childers murdered his wife by pounding her on the head and face with an axe, or other instrument, and then shot her through the head to give color to the suicide theory.

Court convened at 2 o'clock p. m. Monday afternoon and J. M. Cheney, counsel for the defense, addressed the jury for about two hours in a clear and methodical manner, taking the testimony witness by witness, item by item, showing by the most logical and conclusive argument than any hypothesis presuming the guilt of the accused was impossible of demonstration, and showing from the testimony even of state's own witnesses that suicide of the deceased was the only logical or even possible conclusion, closing his speech with an earnest appeal to the jury in behalf of innocence, justice and humanity.

The jury was then addressed by counsel for the state, Attorney Jno. C. Jones, who by his eloquence and earnestness for an hour and a half or more, labored to establish the guilt of the accused. None who heard him could say that he failed to faithfully represent the cause of the state. He made a good speech but in the light of all the testimony his arguments and eloquence failed to carry conviction to the minds of the audience of the guilt of the accused, and though having closed his speech with one of his most lofty perorations when he sat down the general feeling of the audience seemed to be that while he had done nobly, he had failed.

It being late the court suggested adjournment until 7:30 p. m., at which time he would read his charge and give the case to the jury. Court then adjourned to 7:30 p. m.

Court convened and after reading a most comprehensive charge to the jury the case then formally committed to them and they retired. Within thirty minutes the jury filed in, the roll called and then the foreman, E. F. Sperry, presented the following verdict: "We the jury find the defendant not guilty, so say we all," whereupon the court said the defendant is discharged.

The result of the trial was no great surprise to the public though some few seemed to lean to the theory of the guilt of the accused, the general feeling seemed to be that he was innocent and that the prosecution a great hard ship not to say injustice and wrong to an innocent man.
