Finch Must Explain Why He Broke Oath To Jury

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Dr. R. Bernard Finch today faces his biggest test when he tries to convince a jury that his wife was shot in the back accidentally, when he "threw" the murder weapon away.

The suave socialist physician also must explain why he broke his Hippocratic oath by failing to assist his mortally wounded wife and left her to die in the driveway of their West Covina, Calif., home.

The defense has stated that Finch threw the death gun away after a struggle with his wife, Barbara, last July 18 and it accidentally discharged a bullet into her back.

It also has stated that Finch fled the scene in "sheer panic, fright and desperation" after kneeling over his wife in a last-gasped conversation.

Charles Chellman, county farm forester spoke to cattlemen on facilities available to them in developing and expanding woodlands and forest areas on their ranches. The association also saw a film on haymaking, citing the latest in equipment to cut the haymaking work load.

Seminole County Developer J. Bralley Odham is building the addition. Odham gave credit to Florida State Bank President Gene Tucker for successfully negotiating for the money to build the addition. Negotiations to get the addition have been going on for the past 30 days.

"Without him we couldn't have done it," Odham said. The new building and increase in personnel will give Dynatronics a payroll of more than $2 million per year. More than 40 of the new employees will be engineers in the $10,000 per year salary range. Dynatronics projection is 650 employees in two and a half to three years and more than 1,000 employees in five years. Cross-Examination Of Dr. Finch To Highlight Murder Trial Today

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Prosecutor Fred N. Whichello believes there are enough holes in the story told by Dr. R. Bernard Finch of his wife's death to send the surgeon to the gas chamber.

Whichello puts Finch under what is certain to be a long and pounding cross-examination today after the doctor completes his account of leaving the scene of the July 18 killing of Mrs. Barbara Jean Finch, 33.

Finch and his 23-year-old mistress, Carole Tregoff, are charged with Mrs. Finch's murder. It was not yet known whether the girl would take the witness stand at court.

—Murder.

—Conspiracy to murder.

The second involves Carole more than the first. It was she who put the doctor in touch with Cody. The Minneapolis jailbird testified they paid him to kill Mrs. Finch. The doctor says they engaged him solely to get divorce evidence.

tache case so she brought the whole bit.

Even should Finch withstand the interrogation on those points, Whichello still had Finch admitting he contacted ex-convict John Patrick Cody in Las Vegas.

The indictments against Finch and Miss Tregoff have two counts:

—Murder.

—Conspiracy to murder.

The second involves Carole more than the first. It was she who put the doctor in touch with Cody. The Minneapolis jailbird testified they paid him to kill Mrs. Finch. The doctor says they engaged him solely to get divorce evidence.

In the upper peninsula of Michigan, the mercury climbed from 3 above zero at 9 p. m. Sunday to 10 at 3 a. m. this morning. Temperatures in the 40s were forecast as the warm front moved eastward.

High winds pushed heavy snow squalls through much of the East Sunday.

Big Question Confronts Johnson's Bid To Seek Demo Nomination

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Can Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson win enough national convention support from the big, pivotal states to capture his party's presidential nomination?

Democrats who want to nominate him for the presidency do not yet have a convincing answer to this question.

However, Johnson partisans believe he can manage a civil rights bill this year so deftly that he will win applause from such politically important states as New York, Pennsylvania, Illinois and California. And they believe he can do so without offending the

Argentine Navy Hunts For Sub

BUENOS AIRES (UPI)—An Argentine naval task force is sweeping the Nuevo Gulf area of southern Argentina for an unidentified submarine detected by the Sea last week, authorities here said today.

Navy Minister Gaston Climent denied reports Sunday that patrol planes had bombed the submarine and driven it to the bottom in a cloud of water, trailing an oil slick which indicated it might have been damaged.

Climent declined comment on reports that the navy had "trapped" the sub, generally supposed to be Russian—in the Argentine Gulf.

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The council of the 31-nation Organization of American States meets today to consider charges that Dominican Dictator Rafael Trujillo is violating human rights and increasing tensions in the Caribbean.

H. Messer said.

Nixon May Enter Wisconsin Primary

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (UPI)—Vice President Richard M. Nixon arrives in Milwaukee today for a Lincoln Day speech and Republican were hoping he would use the occasion to declare himself in the Wisconsin presidential primary.

Informed party members believed Nixon would take time during the day here to confer with local leaders on the delegates being proposed for Nixon in the primary.

Former Congressman Glen Davis, a prominent state Nixon Republican, said he felt it was "only a matter of time" before Nixon announced for the April 5 Wisconsin primary.

State Behind In Building, Dickinson Says

MIAMI BEACH (UPI)—State Sen. Fred Dickinson, campaigning for governor, Sunday proposed a 25-year road building plan to end what he called a "statewide traffic jam."

Dickinson said Florida was 25 years and 800 million dollars behind in road building.

He suggested that a 25-year program be placed on the statute books so that it would have to be followed in general by succeeding governors. He said this would not only end "favoritism" in road construction but would permit orderly planning and growth of industry.

School Closes Lunch Facilities

GREENSBORO, N. C. (UPI)—F. W. Woolworth Co., scene of a week-long protest by Negro students seeking an end to segregated lunch facilities, opened for business today but kept its lunch counter closed.

Woolworth District Manager John W. Largent of Raleigh said the lunch counter would remain closed "at least through Monday in the interest of public safety."

Five Children Abandoned While Father Robs Bank

WINTER PARK (UPI)—Five children aged 3 to 11, abandoned penniless in Mexico while their father went to Ohio to rob a bank, were sent to their grandparents here today.

Their grandfather, Robert M. Massey, 55, arranged to have the children flown here after the oldest child telephoned him of their plight. It was the first time Massey had heard from the children since they left Orlando with their father last October.

Massey said the children's 37-year-old mother disappeared from Orlando last September.

Their father, James Edward Collins, 38-year-old truck driver, was in a Cleveland jail today on a federal bank robbery charge. The FBI said Collins held up the First National Bank of Morrow, Ohio, last Tuesday and fled with $100.

The FBI said Collins and an accomplice, Carmine Capo, Brownsville, Tex., were captured a few minutes after the holdup when their car broke down.

The Collins children are Wilma, 11, Diane, 9, Robert, 8, Ronnie, 6, and Victor, 3. They arrived in Orlando by plane from Brownsville, Tex., to be met by their grandparents Sunday. Massey is building inspector for the city of Winter Park.

Massey said he first learned where the children were when Wilma telephoned him from Matamoros, Mexico. He said Wilma told him that their father had left them in a boarding house a week before saying he would send money later. When he did not, she telephoned her grandfather for help.

Massey recruited the help of welfare departments here and in Brownsville, Tex., the Red Cross and the American consul in Matamoros. He footed the bill, but all the other agencies helped cut red tape and get the children on an airliner to Florida.

The money collected will go toward purchase of needed appliances for the church kitchen and additions to church's social hall.

Spinsters End Life Together

NEW YORK (UPI) — The two spinster Horvath sisters were girls at the turn of the century. They liked life as it was then and resisted the changing times to the point of death.

Helen and Margaret Horvath had come to the United States early in life from Hungary. They had worked in the elegant homes of the "Victorian Age," lived together and saved their money in this land of opportunity.

They both wore their hair in the pompadour fashion of the "Gibson Girl," and their long, simply-cut black dresses were modeled for the Teddy Roosevelt era.

The two sisters were found hanged Saturday in their neat, three-room apartment where they had lived for 23 years. Both were in their 60's and couldn't face leaving their apartment which was to be torn down to make way for a modern building.

A note, in Hungarian, told of their worry about finding a new place to live in this changing city.

Starts At Home

BURLINGTON, Vt. (UPI) — A University of Vermont Protestant discussion group came to the conclusion that "it's harder to be a Christian in Burlington than in Africa. We have a harder job to be effective Christians in the midst of plenty, where a Christian is the accepted thing. Indifference is harder to combat than criticism or even persecution."

Phony Bomb Alert Forces Plane To Make Emergency Stop

PALM BEACH (UPI) — "Act quick! There's a bomb on 202." This warning barked over the telephone at Miami sent a National Air Line Electra into a sharp bank to make an emergency stop at Palm Beach International Airport Sunday night.

On board were six crew members and 36 passengers, including Teamsters Union President Jimmy Hoffa.

The call turned out to be a hoax. The liner, in a Miami to Washington and Philadelphia flight, was delayed three hours. The telephone call was received at Miami International Airport a few minutes after the airplane took off. Crash and fire trucks met the big ship as it taxied to an isolated corner of the airport here.

The passengers were told only to fasten their seat belts. They saw the captain hurry out of the cabin once the plane was on the ground and try to open the door, only to find it jammed.

Another Word On What's Right

With the political guns being oiled and the ammunition being uncrated for an open season on incumbents, we were glad to hear an experienced public official like Mr. John Krider add a word to the recent admonishment by Judge Vane Williams that our people should vote for what is right and not who is right.

Mr. Krider got around to this subject in a talk to the Elwanis Club when he said that public officials, himself included, have been the targets of "slanderous remarks" by people who do not agree with their actions in "trying to get things done."

He said that many leading citizens are reluctant to enter public service or seek office because they don't relish this possibility of "character assassination."

He quoted from Judge Williams' talk to the Jaycees: "If you really provide leadership, you are not always going to be popular. Leadership means doing everything for the good of others, not self, and it very often means doing it at the sacrifice of personal popularity."

The County Commission chairman, who said "right now, I don't know what plans I'll make about running again myself," also agreed with the judge in saying that those who criticize should offer a better plan or quit griping. Most of the accusers "stay on the sidelines," he said.

We don't always agree with Mr. Krider, or anybody else, and are not in politics in any way, but we are going to keep doing our job of reminding the voters that our elected officials should be people who have some plans for improvements and not just those who can win a popularity contest.

County Can Handle Its Own Projects

Mr. Ernest Southward said something at the Chamber of Commerce Coffee Club meeting which all our residents should remember as the growth of Central Florida steam rolls along.

He was explaining the work of the Seminole-DeBary Heart Council and pointed out that last year the Sanford area had grown to the extent that the Heart Fund people figured it warranted its own separate unit instead of being a part of an Orlando group.

"It is important that Sanford has gained notice of national organizations and that they recognize that we can stand on our own feet in accomplishing important community projects," Mr. Southward said.

He told of the amount of work being done by public spirited individuals in our section who are volunteering for Heart Fund activities. "It's a matter of pride with them that they can do a good job at home in this vital effort," he said.

And the autonomy of Sanford and Seminole County should be a matter of pride with every resident. And all should resist with all their pride and energy any application of that nasty word, "metropolitan" when it purports to include us.

WORRY CLINIC by Dr. G. W. Crane

Dr. Glenn Frank said a good teacher should be a star "salesman" of ideas. One may call them "salesmen" because they sell ideas and give them preference over other classroom teachers like Lawrence. That is in a very simple and helps explain why they are so successful in many modern classrooms. Send for the test below.

CASE D-111 Lawrence G., aged 34, is a superior classroom teacher.

"But Dr. Crane," his wife fervently remarked, "he doesn't get proper recognition from the college authorities."

"For they stress research and published articles," she says, "and Lawrence is a hands-on teacher in the lecture room."

Lawrence has his Ph. D., and concentrates primarily on helping his pupils become enthusiastic about his field of science.

"He is what you often describe as a star salesman of ideas. The students like him and his classes are always full."

"Nobody sleeps in his classes, either, for he dramatizes education and uses classroom experiments to maintain student interest."

"But the administration rates him low, because he doesn't work with white rats or guinea pigs and publish more articles. He's a star salesman of ideas, but he's not a star salesman of articles."

Yes, Lawrence's wife has the right idea, but, alas, too many of our colleges and universities are out-of-date as regards the primary purpose of teaching.

It is definitely NOT research. Indeed, we now have so many research industrial labs that the research men at Eli Lilly or Du Pont, U. S. Steel, General Motors, etc., can usually get more college laboratory attention.

Furthermore, a good research man is often a lousy teacher. For the difference between research and public speaking is much like the difference between modern business and modern education.

A credit man is usually an excellent and a lousy teacher. The salesman, however, is more extroverted. He watches his audience and knows how to talk in an interesting, dramatic fashion. He is a superb persuader.

He can take a "cold" prospect and within 30 minutes have that man or woman so enthusiastic, the prospect eagerly signs on the dotted line.

And that is the type of professor we should have in the classroom!

We need star salesmen of education to take apathetic students and arouse them in a missionary zeal for Psychology or Chemistry or English or Latin or Math or Music, etc.

A housecleaning is long overdue in American education. The definition of a perfect college was "Mark Hopkins on one end of a log and the student on the other."

You younger readers may not remember Mark Hopkins, but he was a dynamic college head who maintained student enthusiasm just like Lawrence in today's classrooms.

Please notice that NOTHING in that definition held Mark Hopkins back. He was a star salesman of ideas, but he was a dynamic college head who maintained student enthusiasm just like Lawrence in today's classrooms.

And NOTHING was said about his publishing dry, so-called scientific papers, most of which are so impractical they are soon hidden away in dusty library tomes.

How can a psychologist, for example, be an enthusiastic teacher or if he has spent his life hiding away from people studying the "Love life of the gold fish" or the "Cultural significance of the castanet in medieval Spain?"

Send for my "Test for Good Teachers," and you'll see the type of professor we should have in high school and college.

It is high time colleges let business labs do the research and concentrate on superior teaching like Lawrence's.

ASSIGNMENT WASHINGTON by Ed Koterba

WASHINGTON — Back in other generations, there were men in Congress like old Manuel Herrick, a toothless, sockless representative from the Cherokee strip of Oklahoma, who could spit a ball of tobacco juice 25 feet.

On the contrary, we still have 'em—more than 100, mostly of the old saloon type—in corners, under Senators' desks and under our feet.

And, guess what happened? The snuff and cuspidor lobby got after him, that's what.

Happiness Through Health
(By DR. F. LEO KERWIN)

Your Nerves!

Health is the result of normal nerve function. Ill health or disease is the opposite of health. It is a departure from a state of health, of body or mind. Characterized usually by a disturbance of function. When disease appears, it is evident that the nerve force causing health has diminished its activity. Something is interfering with the normal nerve current essential to normal structure and action.

Nerve function operates through the nervous system which is widely distributed throughout the body enabling all organs to receive this nerve force so necessary to normal and true action. The cause of nerve interference directly concerns the modern Chiropractor because his Science is founded upon the well-proven premise that interference with normal nerve function is the primary cause of many types of illness. Diminished nerve function impairs normal action of organs and thus ill health results. The modern Chiropractor locates and removes interference with pinched nerves, thereby restoring the normal nerve function employed by Nature in making all cures and maintaining a state of health.

Has your spine been thoroughly examined? It may well be that your spinal condition is the cause of your ill health. Your modern Chiropractor is a spine specialist. Are you a Chiropractic case?

One of a series of articles published in the public interest to explain and illustrate the practice of scientific Chiropractic, written by Dr. F. Leo Kerwin whose office is located at 201 S. French Ave. and his telephone number is FAirfax 2-7442.

And, guess what happened? The snuff and cuspidor lobby got after him, that's what.

And one editor down in the snuff county of Clarkbury, W. Va., got so worked up that he banged out an editorial accusing Keating of confusing civil rights with the rights of fussy females aiming to butt into matters of Capital housekeeping.

Just the other day, at my chair in the Senate press gallery, there appeared a gentleman who identified himself as a snuff seller. He wasn't peddling boxes of the snuff—just snuff goodwill.

He hauled out a copy of a letter that he had penned to the Senator, begging him to spare the spittoon.

"What's your interest in spittoons?" I asked. He replied that snuff users are lost without spittoons and that there are 15 million snuff users in America today.

The snuff man told me excitedly about some research his people are conducting on cuspidors—a revolutionary idea to eliminate the need for cleaning them. It's done with plastic pouches.

When I left I took a spittoon census and found that the trend was down. They are giving way to knee-high sand urns.

Gone are the days of old Manuel Herrick and Brown Mule, Star Navy, Bud Twist and even Bud Durium. Gone are the days of the guided spittee.

WASHINGTON CALLING by Marquis Childs

WASHINGTON — Largely as a result of a deep-seated conflict within the Eisenhower administration the nuclear test ban talks at Geneva have deteriorated to the point at which there may be no alternative but to break them off.

The State Department has been seriously embarrassed by what high officials believe was a calculated leak from within the government here. As a consequence the attempt to get agreement with the Russians and the British on a compromise proposal for a test ban has probably been blocked.

This comes at the start of the effort to work out a common Western position on disarmament for negotiations with the Communist bloc to begin in March 15. Failure of the Geneva talks, whether acknowledged or merely in the form of a more or less open stalemate, would throw serious doubt on the East-West disarmament talks at the outset. The talks are part of a general deterioration in Soviet-American relations from the optimism of the Eisenhower - Khrushchev Camp David meeting last September.

The British are indignant at what they interpret as a thinly disguised attempt to force them to go along with the proposal without their prior consent. The Macmillan government is determined to reach an agreement with the Soviets, while it might not guarantee the detection of small secret atomic blasts, would be a base from which progress could be made toward an all-embracing system of inspection and control. The suspicion has grown in London that powerful forces in Washington, both in the Pentagon and the Atomic Energy Commission, are determined to prevent any agreement from being reached.

Events leading up to the present situation were as follows: The State Department, working with Pentagon and AEC officials, evolved a compromise proposal to be put before the conference at Geneva.

In essence, the United States proposed to ban tests in the upper atmosphere and the larger underground tests. As part of the agreement, scientists of all three powers would work toward a system of detecting smaller underground blasts, with a view eventually to including such blasts within the ban.

This is a gross oversimplification of a highly complicated matter involving the opposed findings of Soviet and American scientists on the question of identifying

Some 70,000 swimming pools were added in 1959 to the 184,000 already in use in the U. S., reports the National Swimming Pool Institute.

When I left I took a spittoon census and found that the trend was down. They are giving way to knee-high sand urns.

Gone are the days of old Manuel Herrick and Brown Mule, Star Navy, Bud Twist and even Bud Durium. Gone are the days of the guided spittee.

With the advent of the fancy cylinder sand urns, our Congress has completed its cycle which began 150 years ago with corner sawdust boxes.

In the eyes of the cuspidor lobbyists, these urns don't come up to snuff. But the real shock to old tradition is what has happened in the chamber of the United States Senate.

The age-old inlaid black snuff boxes at the Senate entrances have been neglected. Each year the help would fill them with fresh, damp snuff out of their 50-cent-a-year snuff allowance.

Well, two years ago our last snuff dipper, Sen. Ralph Flanders (R-Vt.), retired. I peeped into the boxes the other day. They were empty.

Wait until the snuff lobby hears about that!

Business Briefs

F. Wade Tye has announced the opening of his own office to practice architecture in Sanford. Tye, a registered Florida Architect and a member of the Mid-Florida Chapter, American Institute of Architects, has been with the firm of John Burton IV here since 1957. His new office will be located at 204 Park Drive.

A Navy veteran of World War II, Tye is a graduate of the U. S. College of Architecture and Allied Arts, where he received general scholarships. He had experience with Jacksonville firms of architects and engineers before joining Burton's staff. He is a member of the Civitan Club and the First Baptist Church.

Mrs. Beverly Graborkiewicz has purchased the Sanford Day Nursery located at 204 Park Ave. and announced that she will operate it.

Wife of a member of V.H.S. at the Sanford Naval Air Station, Mrs. Graborkiewicz formerly lived in Jacksonville and taught nursery school at Virginia Beach, Va., and operated the Northgate Bowling Alley Nursery at Memphis, Tenn.

She said the nursery will offer a new boarding service in addition to the regular 7 a. m. to 6 p. m. daily hours and will feature swimming lessons during the summer. She also will give special rates to groups during club meetings and parties, she said.

Palmer Takes Desert Classic

PALM SPRINGS, CALIF. (UPI)—Lost was lagged away by the Sanford team in the 90-hole $20,000 Desert Classic, with numerous golfers enjoying fast payoffs.

The marathon golf tournament came to a dramatic close under a fading desert sun late Sunday and Arnold Palmer, one of the most serious career golfers, topped a three-stroke victory week today.

Most Africans Will Control Own Governments By The End Of Year

By PHIL NEWBOM
UPI FOREIGN EDITOR

By the end of this year, the majority of Africa's 234 million people will be self-governing.

The change of status comes as the result of a dynamic surge ranging the length and breadth of this vast, last of the continents to find civilization, a surge which would not be denied and looms a whole new force on the world.

Ten African nations already are independent, most of them with a strong trend toward neutralism which already has influenced the workings of the United Nations and which is creating a third force which prefers to stand aside in the power struggle between the United States and the Soviet Union.

For the future, independence or the principle of independence already has been conceded by France to the huge Mali Federation, and to Mauritania, Dahomey, Togoland and Madagascar. Italian Somaliland gains independence in July and Nigeria on Oct. 1.

In Brussels, a conference is looking toward independence this summer for the Belgian Congo. A similar conference in London is working out the future of Kenya. By next fall, "anganyika will be largely self-governing. British Somaliland will have an elected native majority, Sierra Leone and Bechuanaland will be on the threshold of independence or legal rule.

The changeover is not being accomplished without severe birth-pangs for the Africans and without problems for outsiders, who although making up only two per cent of the population, heretofore have been the administrators.

White settlers in Kenya who fought the blood-thirsty and white-hot Mau Mau uprising are brought to the realization that the future a black majority will rule.

In the Congo, Belgium prepares to turn over to a native majority one of Africa's richest territories, source of half the Free World's uranium, brass, tin, cobalt and much of its diamonds.

And as the surge of nationalism carries Africa relentlessly toward independence, there arises the question whether all these peoples are ready for independence and the responsibilities it entails.

$4 Million Check Error Settled, But Ex-Cashier Is Not

SPRINGFIELD, Mass. (UPI)—Mrs. James Walsh has lost her $4 million check of principle with the Hatfield Trust Co.

Last Nov. 30 Mrs. Walsh went to the bank and bought a check for $22,750—only to have the teller, Miss Ann Hollowell, inadvertently issue one for $4,000,000.

Neither discovered the error until later. Miss Hollowell informed her superiors of the error and was fired.

Mrs. Walsh refused to return the check unless Miss Hollowell was rehired and went to court to get back the check.

District Judge Wilfred Paquet ordered Mrs. Walsh Monday to return the check promptly. He termed the entire dispute "senseless."

Bank officials breathed a sigh of relief, but Mrs. Walsh was unhappy. She had lost her battle of principle.

Miss Hollowell was even unhappy. She's still out of a job.

Freak Accident Injures Five

TAMPA (UPI)—A 73-year-old driver had his foot slip off the brake pedal Sunday and his car lunged into a crowded church yard, injuring five persons.

Frank N. Reeves, 62, of Goshenburg, Neb., a visitor here, was struck first by the car and was injured critically. Mrs. Jessie Lee McLane, 73, was reported to be in serious condition from her injuries and Mrs. Lena M. Owens, 70, was in fair condition.

Reeves, 60-year-old wife, Marie, and 6-year-old Eben Reeves, were injured but did not require hospitalization.

Police said the driver, Byron Parks, stopped his car in front of the church to let out two passengers. Parks leaned over to close the right front door after they alighted and his foot slipped from the brake and hit the accelerator.

The car hurtled over the curb and into the church yard which was crowded with children leaving Sunday school and adults en route to church service.

Covington Covers Sports

By JERRY COVINGTON

If I were chosen to pick the outstanding athlete in the county this year there would be only one choice—Ray Lundquist.

While Ray is a squirt when it comes to size, he can hardly be overlooked. Standing five feet six or seven and weighing in at 145 he would seldom be selected from a crowd as an outstanding athlete. But let me tell you, when he puts on his togs, no matter what the game, it is a different story. When his small, but well built, frame goes to work the results are amazing.

Ray started along the athletic line way back when he was five years old. If my memory serves me correctly he either won or was in the top three in the National Pee Wee golf tournament in Orlando. This was only the beginning for he has excelled in all sports ever since.

When Ray entered SHS four years ago he was not much bigger than your fist. But before the basketball season was in its second week, he had already made it to the varsity and has been there ever since. I have never seen a more aggressive basketball player in my life and his great desire and superb conditioning make him among the best high school guards in the state. He goes so hard all the time that he makes you tired just watching him.

His great hustle is what makes him so outstanding but he also has pretty fair shooting ability. He can hit with his right hand from the outside or his left-hand pusher from closer range. If he can't get in with these two shots he will kill you with his driving layups.

While Ray confesses that his favorite game is basketball, you would never know it when he is playing another sport. He was selected this year as the outstanding football player of the team and was presented with the Peter Schnal trophy. In the offensive phase of football, to some he was disappointing this season after making such a great showing as a junior but there was one thing that held him back. He was the key to the defensive backfield and, since he had to play both ways, it took a lot of zip out of his running. Nevertheless, he still had a great season and could have played on anybody's ball team.

In the game of baseball, Ray also can be touted as one of the finer players in the past few years. Although he is not a power hitter he can punch the ball well and come up with that base hit when it is needed.

If there was ever a natural to enter into the field of physical education it is Ray. He loves any kind of competition and you can rest assured that if he is playing any kind of game he is playing it to the fullest.

Ray is a cocky, spirited individual who makes you feel good just being around him. After being run all day in the gym in various drills, most of the other youngsters are dragging around and very quiet but not Ray. You can always hear him either talking or letting out with one of his famous yells.

Ray Lundquist Paces Seminoles To Cage Win

The Sanford Seminoles, paced by little Ray Lundquist, continued down the victory road here Friday night with a tremendous 73-44 Orange Belt Conference victory over the Leesburg Yellow Jackets.

It was Lundquist's night as he paced the local attack with 28 points, just three off the school scoring record held by teammate Jim Gracey. He popped in 12 field goals and four free throws in his exhibition and despite the large total of points he kept on the bench the entire last quarter. His hustle and tremendous defensive effort were the things that led the Seminoles, and his ball stealing accounted for most of his points. He had the pressure on all the way and it made things very difficult for the Yellow Jackets. In fact they found themselves having a hard time in just getting the ball in bounds.

High scoring Jim Gracey experienced his coldest night of the season. The six foot senior forward who has been the big scorer was held to three field goals and a total of six points. Jim took several cracks at the basket in the first half but the only bucket he could find the range on was a layup in the first minute.

Big Cowboy Oravetz had a fine night on the boards and took the bulk of the rebounds in the second half. He picked up eight points to add to the impressive total and most of his four field goals were tip-ins under the basket.

Junior forward Alex McKibbin was in on most of the action in double figures other than Lundquist. He dropped in five jump shots from the side for a total of ten points. He also did a fine job in the defensive show and was a big help on the boards. McKibbin has come on fast in the last few ball games and should see a lot of action during the remainder of the season.

Tomorrow night the Seminoles are home again when they play host to big Lakeview of Winter Garden. This is the only team in the OBC that has managed to defeat powerful Winter Park.

The Bait Box

Three members of The Herald staff making photographs for the paper's mallway edition made a tour of the St. Johns River Saturday through the courtesy of Harobson of Robson's Sporting Goods, who extended the loan of a comfortable boat.

The trip was a short one, from Crowe's Camp past Lemon Bluff into Deep Creek and back, but it was a revealing one.

The St. Johns River still is one of Florida's big attractions for visitors. And not all of them are fishermen, either. Some are boating enthusiasts, others just like the scenery, which really is hard to beat in spots.

Of fishermen, there were a plenty. The shad has grown into a legend with many and the Sanford-Deland area is being referred to in northern newspapers as the "center of shad fishing in Florida."

The Herald crew watched as many as 16 boats pull into one area and try for the shiny shad—and catch some, too. Changeable weather has made catches vary, but some tireless anglers still are able to haul in a lot of them.

The John Crim family, who operate the Lemon Bluff camp, reported that afternoon catches have been real good for those who travelled along the river in that area.

Jim Crowe, who has been the number one booster of shad fishing for quite awhile, said parties started drifting around in front of the camp in the traffic pattern of the many boats passing to and fro.

J. T. CATHER AND SHAD

Cather Spoons, and makes them himself, was at Lemon Bluff and talked to The Herald photographer.

"You want a picture of a shad being caught, son," he asked.

Photographer Bob Stubbings agreed that it would be nice to snap one going into the net.

"Okay, wait a minute," Cather said, and got into his boat and started drifting around in front of the camp in the traffic pattern of the many boats passing to and fro.

Less than 10 minutes later, he yelled, "Okay, son, here you are," and starting reeling in a shad.

"He's just a little one, the intrepid veteran apologized. "All these boats have got 'em scared right now, but if you wait awhile I'll get you a bigger one."

Stubbings said thanks, but reckoned he didn't need any better. "That man has really got confidence," Bob reflected as the Herald group waved goodbye to Mr. Cather and his shad catching spoon.

Robson's Lead Cage Loop After 2nd Round Play

Robson's Sporting Goods picked up three more wins last week to give them a 13-3 record and top standing in the City Recreation Basketball League.

McRobert is in second place with a 13-3 mark followed by Go Devils of VAH-7 with a 12-4 record.

Last Thursday's round completed round two of league play. The third and final round of play starts tonight with Robson's playing Go Devils, VAH-1 meeting Evans Roofing and McRobert's playing Faust.

Builders Hold Kegler Loop Lead

Even with the league rolling hot, B. Edwards Builders Supplies came up with two more wins to keep them well out in front in the Thursday Night Mixed League.

The builders suppliers now have 40% wins, followed by Steinmeyer Roofing with 31%, Sunland Estates with 31%, Florida State Bank 29, and both South Pinecrest and Furniture Center holding fifth spot with 28 wins.

The hottest games were rolled on the five and six aloys, as Tom Bolly turned in a 294 scratch game for Pinecrest, and Howard Harrison rolled a 300-300-500 for Furniture Center. Ponce Elmore, anchor for Pinecrest, had a 300 series to help his team take all three games from the furniture team.

Sunland dumped Florida State out of third place, and took over that spot for themselves, as they won all three from the bankers. Ann Conklin led the victors, and George Swann turned in a 514 series for the bankers.

B. Edwards took the first two from the roofers, then lost the last game by 11 pins, as Margie Woods racked up a 536 series for the suppliers. Lillian Ogden was high for Steinmeyers, making the 5-7 split, as old team-mate Don Steller, and John Ogden. The 2-10 was made twice by Wallace Woods and Ponce Elmore, and once by Frank Hahn, Ken Swann, Gordon Swann, and George Swann. Swann also topped the 5-7, and Lou Hesford picked up the 5-8.

Oviedo Cagers Rally In Final Period To Top Bunnell, 62-48

Oviedo's cagers beat Bunnell Friday night in a game that was nip and tuck right into the last quarter.

Oviedo was tied with Bunnell 41-41 in the last quarter but forged ahead to win 62-48. Oviedo led 15-12 at the end of the first quarter and 34-28 at the half.

Mike Duda led the score in the last quarter and Ronnie Willis put Oviedo ahead 42-41. Bunnell tied it up with a free shot until John Tesinsky's field goal put Oviedo out in front again, 44-42. Again, Bunnell tied the score. Then Jerry Arndt of Oviedo tried for a field goal and missed. Tesinsky tipped it back for a 46-44 score and the southeast Seminoles squad remained ahead for the rest of the game.

THE SANDS OF TIME ARE RUNNING OUT
There are only three homes left in exclusive SAN SEM KNOLLS. This means that only three more happy families will be able to say:

"I'm looking for a home we saw many with MANY of the features of SAN SEM KNOLLS, but none with ALL of them. For instance there were many with 3 bedrooms, 2 or 1 1/2 baths, electric kitchens, terrazzo floors and etc., like SAN SEM KNOLLS, and some even had the same FHA financing with low down payment and low monthly payments. But there was always SOMETHING wrong - like not having city water and sewers, or not having the large, covered patios you see in SAN SEM KNOLLS, or being located in a noisy neighborhood.

That is one thing we love about SAN SEM KNOLLS - it is QUIET. Another thing, we can let our children play in front because our home is on a dead end street and we don't live in constant fear that a speeding car will run them down. IT IS LIKE A NEAT, CLEAN LITTLE VILLAGE WITHIN A CITY! And, last but not least, the construction is guaranteed to be the very best because every bit of it was personally supervised by the builder, Philip Seull."

SAN SEM KNOLLS is four blocks west of French Ave. on Twenty-Ninth Street. A Stenstrom associate is on the premises daily.

Tiny Baby Dies After Surviving Nearly 23 Hours

DES MOINES, Iowa (UPI)—An 11½ ounce boy, born more than three months prematurely, died today after nearly 23 hours of life.

The infant was born Saturday at 8:30 p. m. to Mrs. Morris Vermeulen, 45, in Hill Osteopathic Hospital. He died at 9:15 a. m. today.

Doctors had listed the infant in "sepsis" condition and said the odds against survival were overwhelming.

Dr. Bernard M. Kay, resident pediatrician of Hill Hospital, had planned to try and feed the infant later today by means of an injection under the skin.

But Kay said the infant was just too small to live.

"He died as a result of prematurity," the doctor said.

Kay was up Mrs. Vermeulen to tell her of her baby's death.

"She took it fairly well," Kay said. "She had expected it to happen."

Dr. Gordon Elliott, the family physician, went to the Vermeulen home to advise the father, Vermeulen, 35, was home caring for the couple's three other children, Henry, 8, Steve, 4, and Janette, 2.

Vermeulen went to work as usual Sunday at a service station. He said it was "a matter of necessity" because he was laid off several weeks ago at a tire company plant in Des Moines.

Kay said the infant was weighed immediately after birth but was too delicate to be measured and was placed in an incubator.

According to American Medical Assn. records, the smallest baby to survive was Jacqueline Jean Bessner, who was born at 13 ounces on Jan. 24, 1936, to Mrs. Lester R. Bessner of Chicago.

The Benson girl, now 24, became normal in weight at five months and suffered only normal illnesses in childhood.

Rats Successfully Immunized Against Six Forms Of Cancer

RICHMOND, Va. (UPI)—The American Cancer Society reported today that an as yet unidentified blood substance has successfully immunized rats against six forms of cancer.

The society said it could not say how soon tests on humans "can even be considered."

The research work is being done at the Medical College of Virginia by one of the society's research fellows, Dr. Jerome H. Seaks, and his collaborator, Dr. Richard E. Egdahl, the society said.

It said their work is the first successful cancer immunization with a blood substance, although animals have previously been immunized with whole tumor cells and extracts from tumors.

The agent, known as FHA for filterable hemolytic agent, appears to be either a virus or a part of the nucleic acid core of a virus, the announcement said.

The announcement said that "an average of about 35 per cent of rats vaccinated 16 to 194 days before tumor transplant become completely and possibly permanently immune to the cancer transplant."

Hope Dog's Bark Will Jog Memory

LONDON (UPI)—Eleven weeks ago 15-year-old Ronald Anthony was knocked off his bicycle by a car and has been in a coma ever since.

Ronald utters not a sound, recognizes no one, not even his grieving parents, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Anthony. The best doctors they could get have been unable to jolt the boy out of his hazy world.

The Anthonys spend hours at Ronald's bedside, hoping to say or do something that would make him respond.

"We have tried whispering to him in the hope that something might strike a chord, but it never has," his father said.

Ronald's doctors said they will not be able to do anything more for him unless he can be snapped out of his coma. They believe he suffered severe brain damage in the bicycle accident.

Recently the Anthony's noticed that Ronald's dog Rover, which he raised from a pup, has been whining and refusing to eat since his master's accident. That gave them an idea.

The parents plan to put Rover in front of a microphone and tape-record his bark, then play the tape over and over at Ronald's bedside.

"We pray the sound of Rover's barking will penetrate Ronald's unconsciousness where nothing else has and jog his memory," Anthony said.

"It's worth a try," said Surgeon Registrar S. T. Whitehead of Crofton General Hospital. "In cases like this a slight jog of the memory is sometimes all that is necessary to rouse the patient."

County Home Study Started

A full scale study of the need for a new county home was started today by the county commissioners.

The board authorized Circuit Court Clerk David Gatchel to find an accountant to study how much it costs a year to operate the present county home on 17-92 on the basis of patients per day.

Board Chairman John Krider said that unofficial estimates are that it cost $1,000 per patient each year.

"That is double what it should cost," Krider said.

The board agreed to launch the study after a tour of the new Brevard County Home which cost $50,000 and has room for 48 patients.

Commissioner Vernon Dunn said the present home "was a shame and disgrace to the county and something must be done."

The board agreed that the study should include how much it would cost to put the present home "in first class condition" and construction of a new home.

Commissioners also agreed that the first step would be a cost study.

Dunn also gave a summary of the board's recent trip to the Brevard County Jail at Titusville which cost approximately $350,000.

Commissioners agreed that the new jail was suitable for the immediate needs of Brevard County but it was already overcrowded.

In other business during the meeting, the board approved a request by the General Waterworks Company for a franchise to serve customers in the south end of the county.

The board also agreed to reject all bids for a dragline and to get by with what they have until the next fiscal year.

They agreed to purchase a cash register for the clerk's office at a cost of $2,017 and agreed to buy 25,000 pounds of cement for the engineering department.

They also authorized the Sheriff's office to police and issue warrants for any persons putting obstructions on county roads and rights-of-way.

Joint Chiefs Boss 'Sure' Nation Safe

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Gen. Nathan F. Twining, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, told senators today the nation has enough military strength to deter a Soviet attack "today or in the foreseeable future."

Twining specifically described as "without merit" the recent criticism of the defense program by Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, former Army chief of staff, who retired last June.

"I am not complacent," Twining said, "but I am not fearful of the Russian capability."

Twining, the nation's top uniformed military leader, made the statements in a free-swinging prologue to questioning by the combined Senate Space Committee and armed services subcommittee.

He began his testimony with a brief statement aggressively defending the U. S. defense blueprint.

Prior to Twining's appearance, Sen. Stuart Symington (D-Mo.), chief critic of administration defense programs, said he planned to quit Defense Secretary Thomas A. Gates on whether there was a downgrading of the Russian missile threat in setting up the new military budget.

Symington has threatened to make public secret intelligence estimates of the Russian missile threat.

The Missouri Democrat said Congress had been given figures by the Central Intelligence Agency showing the Russian threat had "increased considerably" over last year.

Vice President Nixon, the probable GOP presidential candidate, stepped into the defense controversy Monday night with a statement that there is "no gap in our overall deterrent strength."

Nixon charged that administration critics were playing a "numbers game" of missiles, submarines and aircraft carriers.

Reds Will Fight To Hold Frontiers, Nikita Says

MOSCOW (UPI) — Premier Nikita Khrushchev has declared that Russia and its satellites will fight rather than consent to any change in the frontiers imposed on Germany after World War II.

"What has been modified by war cannot be modified again without war," Khrushchev told visiting Italian President Giovanni Gronchi at an Italian embassy reception Monday night.

The premier took President Klement Voroshilov's place at the microphones after hearing a brief speech by Gronchi. After Khrushchev had spoken, he engaged Gronchi and Foreign Minister Giuseppe Pella salami.

Khrushchev touched off the exchange by remarking that he had asked Gronchi to become a Communist.

"I also wish... that some time you could be touched by divine grace and become a Christian Democrat," Gronchi replied.

"I am for the party which most benefits the people. What has Christian Democracy given Italy?" Khrushchev asked. "The emblem and flag on the moon — are they Communist or Christian Democrat?"

"I have already told you that when you have money you can do anything," the Italian president countered. "The comparison does not hold good."

"We do not sell ideas unless they are good," Khrushchev said. "Ideas are a long live peace and friendship."

Regulatory Board For Electricians, Plumbers Asked

The County Commission today agreed to set up an electrical and plumbing board to review all electrical and plumbing regulations in the county.

The proposed board also will act as an examining board to certify all master electricians and master plumbers and journeymen in the two trades.

E. C. Harper Sr., owner of Sanford Electric Co., appeared before the board and urged setting up the special board to stop "unlicensed electricians from practicing in the county."

Chairman John Krider asked Harper if he could suggest a list of persons qualified to sit on the board and urged each commissioner in their respective districts to do the same.

The board would work under the supervision of the zoning board, Robert Brown, county zoning director, said that five men would serve on the electrical board and five on the plumbing board.

The board authorized attorney Mack Cleveland Jr. to write up a resolution establishing the board so the commission could adopt it as soon as possible.

Fast Thinking Sergeant Plugs Up Dike On SR436

The little Dutch boy who placed his hand in the dike many years ago and prevented a dangerous flood has nothing on a "civic minded" air force sergeant who did, almost the same thing in Seminole County last Thursday.

Commissioner Vernon Dunn told this story at the morning session of the County Commission.

Sgt. Archie Clay, who resides in the Stonebrook Addition of Orange County was driving his car on SR 436 near Lake Howell Creek Thursday during the heavy rain storm.

Dunn said the sergeant, who is attached to Orlando Air Force Base, noted a dangerous washout on the road "and without thinking twice set up an improvised barricade to stop flooding in the area and the waters reaching neighboring homes."

Dunn said Sgt. Clay went to Lakes in the area and borrowed various pieces of materials to set up the barricade and directed traffic for over two hours until help came from the Florida Highway patrol.

The commission, in the recognition of the "civic minded" job done

Ike To Visit Cape

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Eisenhower will fly to Cape Canaveral Wednesday to make a long-desired inspection trip through the missile test base there, the White House announced today.

Press Secretary James C. Hagerty said the president had wanted to go to the missile base for some time but had been unable to work it into his schedule.

Eisenhower will take off in the presidential jet plane about 8:30 a.m. from Andrews AFB in nearby Maryland for the two-hour flight to the cape.

He will land at the Cape Canaveral air strip, make an inspection trip of three to four hours and return to Washington late in the day.

Hagerty said no missile launchings were scheduled during the president's visit.

Ike Asks Farm Program Revamp Without Politics

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Eisenhower today called for a farm program to make it "workable and economically sound and not a political ploy."

The president submitted his new farm legislation proposals in a special message reiterating views he has expressed in the past, but taking a softer line and inviting lawmakers to suggest alternatives.

The new clearly new proposal in the program suggested that farmers participating in the soil bank program might be given payments "in kind" out of the existing government help stop surpluses.

He recommended an orderly expansion of the soil bank program, under which farmers take land out of production to hold down surplus output, from the present 25 million acres to 60 million acres.

Eisenhower's other recommendations called for:

Continued use of the "food for peace program" under which surplus crops are shipped abroad.

An aggressive research program to develop new markets and uses for farm products.

An expanded rural development program to help low income farmers raise their standards of living.

The Agriculture Department estimated the ultimate cost of the expanded soil bank program at $275 million a year compared with the present spending level of $275 million. The administration budgeted $500 million for the next fiscal year.

South Seminole Drainage Talk Set

The Seminole County Commission today agreed to hold a joint dinner meeting with Orange County and Winter Park officials to discuss the urgency of a joint drainage project to eliminate flooding in the south end of the county.

Commissioner Vernon Dunn told the board that inspection of damage done by heavy rains last week showed the need to start the drainage project "as soon as possible."

Dunn said that many areas in the south end of the county were in critical shape because of flooding.

The board agreed to meet with the other two governing bodies next Wednesday or Thursday.

The Winter Park City Commission already has notified the Seminole board it favored working jointly to eliminate flooding in the area. No word has been heard from the Orange County Commission.

Under the proposed plan, Seminole, Orange Counties and Winter Park would share the expense of building a series of farm canals to eliminate the flooding.

Casselberry Sets Sewerage Deadline

Casselberry residents who don't fix their faulty sewage systems within 30 days are subject to jail and a fine.

The Casselberry town council assigned the town engineer to inspect all sewage installations not functioning properly to be repaired within 30 days.

The council also appointed a committee to seek state permission to have a regular racetrack track at Seminole Raceway. The town already has given permission for construction of the track.

An ordinance was passed granting street lights on Plaza Oval, Pinetree and Golden Days Drs. These streets are in recently annexed areas.

The council tabled a motion to make an addition to the Casselberry Methodist Church cemetery. The addition would be operated by the town cemetery association. State permission is needed for the town to operate the cemetery.

Details of the report by the Thornton Laboratory will be announced at their Feb. 22 meeting, they said.

Street Lights Granted 2 Areas

City Commissioners granted requests for three street lights last night and then had a discussion on how they should go about granting lighting requests.

A light will be installed on W. 14th St. between Oak and Elm Aves.

Two more will be put on E. Fourth St. between Locust and Bay Aves. Commissioner Brown said the city had already spent half of the $250 budgeted for street light extensions in 1959-60. The commissioners agreed they should have a definite program on granting lights.

Shrimp Threatened

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A tremendous growth in the use of chemicals in agriculture poses a "rapidly increasing" threat to the shrimp industry in the Gulf of Mexico area and to other fish and wildlife habitats, according to a federal fish expert.

Donald L. McKernan, director of the Bureau of Commercial Fisheries, said there was no "specific evidence" that humans were affected by eating fish exposed to the chemicals.
