Laid Off Official Files Job Grievance

By Michael Beha
Herald Staff Writer

A community advocate for the Seminole Community Action Agency, laid off from her job Feb. 4, has filed a grievance against the agency's director for the action.

Louise Crawford, equal employment officer, has asked the agency's board of directors to examine the circumstances of her layoff, which she claims did not follow the agency's reduction-in-force policy.

That policy would have allowed Mrs. Crawford to take over any other job in the agency for which she was qualified if she had more seniority than the incumbent in that position.

Mrs. Crawford said she was laid off from her position when the state cut funds to the agency. She claims that her layoff by the Rev. Amos Jones was done without consulting the group's board of directors.

"I'm not filing a grievance to get my job back," said Mrs. Crawford, who has worked with the agency for 14½ years. "They have a RIF (reduction in force) plan and they should have followed it. The board should have had a voice in what was done."

Mrs. Crawford said she is also seeking payment of money which was taken from her paychecks late last year for insurance payments. Her knee was injured climbing steps at the agency's office and she filed an insurance claim for the injury. Mrs. Crawford said she received that money but the same amount was taken out of her checks without her permission.

As head of the state association for equal opportunity officers, Mrs. Crawford said she was obligated to file the grievance. "If I didn't stand up for some of my rights they would think I'd let them down."

Mrs. Crawford said she doesn't think there is any chance that the board of directors overrules Jones. "I'm sure Rev. Jones has the votes to do anything he wants."

But even if her job is offered, Mrs. Crawford said she will not return. Instead, she wants to continue her work with another agency — or return to Orange County where she worked for three years before joining the Seminole County group as assistant executive director.

"I'll probably have to move back to Orange County," she said tearfully. "I regret not staying there."

Mrs. Crawford said her experience as an advocate for equal rights would make it difficult for her to get a job with a private firm. "I was the one who was on the battle line filing civil rights actions. There's no place in the county where I could go to work."

Mrs. Crawford was responsible for filing action against firms charged with race, age, or sex discrimination. "It wasn't anything personal against anyone. But employers often took it personally," she said.

Jones was unavailable for comment on Mrs. Crawford's allegations today.

Health Clinic

Commissioners Will Review Designs Of $1.95 Million Facility

Seminole County commissioners on Tuesday will review preliminary designs for a new $1.95 million health clinic on Airport Boulevard near Zayre Plaza in Sanford.

The health clinic's plans will be discussed at a 2 p.m. work session in the commission's conference room in the Courthouse in Sanford.

Helman Hurley Charvat Peacock/Architects will present schematic designs for the building, one of several the company has been asked to design as part of the county's long-range building plans.

The building will be constructed on an 8.5-acre site recently purchased from Geraldine C. Kirk for $167,910. Construction is slated to begin later this year and will take about 10 months to complete.

The 30,000-square-foot building will be sufficient to meet the clinic's needs through the year 1990, according to Dr. Jorge Deju, director of health and human services. But the county's space consultant, Walter H. Sobel of Chicago, said the clinic needs 40,000 square feet to meet the 1990 space requirements.

At Tuesday's 9:30 a.m. meeting, commissioners will review an application from Florida Wheelchair Transportation Service, Inc., of Orlando to provide transportation to wheelchair-bound people in Seminole County.

Under the county's ordinance, the firm must get approval from the county before it can operate within the county.

The firm will not compete with emergency and non-emergency ambulance transportation services in the county, according to emergency medical services coordinator Barbara Smith.

And the service is designed to carry wheelchair-bound people on shopping trips, to the doctor's office or on other short trips.

Seminole County currently has no licensed service to provide transportation for the wheelchair-bound. Mrs. Smith said. Without the service, the only transportation available to the wheelchair-bound is either private automobile or ambulances.

Herndon Ambulance Service officials, who have a contract for emergency service in the county and receives a subsidy for that service, said the franchise will have no impact on their services.

Florida Wheelchair Transportation will provide service at a base rate of $10 for van and driver plus $1 per mile traveled.

IN BRIEF

RR Strikes Affect 155,000 N.Y. Commuters

NEW YORK (UPI) — Railroad workers struck a second commuter system early today, forcing a total of 155,000 daily passengers in three states to scramble for alternate means of transit into the nation's largest city.

Today's strike against the Metro-North commuter line hit 85,000 commuters in Connecticut and New York. A strike against NJ Transit began last Tuesday and forced 70,000 passengers in New Jersey to find new ways to get to work.

"I predict it will be a long strike," Ed Yule, United Transportation Union spokesman, said in announcing Metro-North talks had collapsed over management's plan to reduce the number of trainmen and conductors.

Tax Line Could End

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Internal Revenue Service's toll-free telephone number that more than 36 million people are expected to use this year to get answers to their tax questions is in danger of being disconnected.

On orders of the Treasury Department, IRS Commissioner Roscoe Egger is asking Congress in the 1984 IRS budget to sharply cut the information service. The budget is to be presented to the House Appropriations treasury subcommittee Tuesday.

A similar move to curb the toll-free number was beaten back in last year's Congress.

Mount St. Helens Rumbles

VANCOUVER, Wash. (UPI) — Increased seismic activity at Mount St. Helens indicates a dome-building eruption soon at the volcano, geologists said.

A joint statement by USGS officials and the University of Washington Geophysics Department said, "The seismicity is increasing once again and is now at a rate like that in the early stages of building toward previous eruptions."

WEATHER

NATIONAL REPORT: Road crews today cleaned up after a storm that dumped at least 2 feet of snow and stranded travelers in Colorado, Wyoming and Nebraska while people in Indiana and North Carolina recovered from tornadoes that injured seven people. Thunderstorms whipped through the central Plains, into the Great Lakes and from Alabama to Florida and North Carolina. Golf ball-sized hail pounded Mulberry, Ind., and hail also hit Allegan, Mich., Pontiac, Ill., and Hamlin, W. Va. Three deaths, all on Saturday, were blamed on the weekend weather. Two men drowned in Alabama when their car was swept into a rain-swollen creek in Chambers County. A power department worker in the mountain resort of Estes Park, Colo., was electrocuted while repairing a downed power line. The worst tornado was in Monroe, N.C., where seven people were hurt by the twister that ripped the roof from an elementary school as well as damaging homes and businesses. It lifted a dump truck parked near some businesses, threw it against a building and onto its side, overturned several trailers and pushed a tree over on a house and a car. A tornado touched down 2 miles northwest of Columbus, Ind., Indiana State Police said, damaging a garage, ripping up trees and bending a pickup truck in half. An inch and a quarter of rain fell on Augusta, Ga. in one hour. Street and basement flooding was reported in Macon where a car struck a road washout and floated 200 yards down a creek. Wyoming highways closed as fast as highway crews could open them as northerly winds gusting to 30 mph pushed up to 17 inches of snow into 4-foot drifts in the southeast portions of the state. Douglas reported 17 inches of snow, Laramie had 14 inches, and Cheyenne 10 inches.

Reagan Holding Steady In Poll

Americans More Optimistic About Economy

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Americans are more optimistic about the future of the economy now than they have been during the past two years, and their approval rating of President Reagan has stopped sliding, a new poll shows.

But those responding to the Washington Post-ABC poll released Sunday were cautious about the economy and the optimists among the 1,504 people surveyed were almost exclusively middle- and upper-income whites.

Moreover, Reagan trails potential Democratic presidential candidates further than he did in January.

The poll conducted by telephone between Feb. 25 and March 2 found 39 percent of the respondents believe the nation's economy is improving, more than double the 18 percent who felt that way at the end of January. In none of a dozen similar surveys since March 1981 have more than 21 percent expressed the belief the economy is getting better.

Forty-three percent predicted they will be better off a year from now.

Some 48 percent see inflation as less of a problem than it was a year ago while 37 percent consider it more of a problem, almost the reverse of the January breakdown.

Although respondents agreed almost 2 to 1 with Reagan's declaration that America is on the mend, they disagreed 4 to 1 with his claim the recession is over.

All of the increase in optimism about the economy came from people with annual household incomes of $20,000 or more, and it was especially concentrated among those with incomes of between $30,000 and $50,000. People earning less than $20,000 were slightly more pessimistic than in January.

Forty-five percent in the new poll approved Reagan's performance in the White House and 50 percent disapproved, against 42 percent approval and 54 percent disapproval in January.

But he did worse against leading Democratic presidential candidates and hopefuls than in January, getting only 39 percent support to former Vice President Walter Mondale's 48 percent, versus 42 percent to Mondale's 44 percent a month ago.

Reagan got 38 percent support to 46 percent for Sen. John Glenn, D-Ohio, versus 41 percent and 44 percent, respectively, in January.

Although Reagan continues to be seen as a strong, sincere leader, those polled view him 2 to 1 as "a rich man's president," unfair to the poor and middle class.

Sixty-four percent disapproved of his handling of Social Security against 28 percent who approved. By 53

While President Reagan's approval rating has stopped sliding, according to a Washington Post-ABC poll, he still trails potential Democratic presidential candidates, more now than he did in January.

percent to 38 percent they criticized his handling of the military budget; by 58 percent to 38 percent his handling of tax cuts and by 64 percent to 31 percent his handling of social program cuts.

Flimsy Case Saves Hastings

MIAMI (UPI) — Jurors who acquitted U.S. District Judge Alcee Hastings of bribery conspiracy charges said they sometimes doubted Hastings' explanations of his conduct, but were even less impressed with the prosecution's case.

"In my opinion, the FBI botched it, totally," said juror Debbie Holzapple. "When the prosecution rested, I said, 'That's all?'"

The Miami Herald reported Sunday that Brenda King, the jury's forewoman, said, "You can say it was a close race. Some days he seemed guilty as heck, some days he didn't."

But, she added, "If there is a question you have to give the benefit to the defendant."

Hastings, the first active federal judge to be tried on criminal charges, was acquitted of conspiring to accept a $150,000 bribe from two racketeers convicted in his court in exchange for reduced sentences.

An undercover FBI agent paid the bribe money to Hastings' longtime friend, attorney William A. Borders. Borders was convicted last year on bribery charges.

Hastings, an Altamonte Springs native, insisted Borders acted on his own and was using the judge's name.

The jurors, in their first public discussion of the case, told The Miami Herald Sunday the weakness of the state's case dictated a verdict of innocent.

The government had no evidence, they said. No bribe money was traced to Hastings, he never reduced the sentences of the racketeers and the phone conversations the FBI recorded never directly referred to any payoff.

"We kept coming back to 'beyond a reasonable doubt,'" said juror Barry Kramer. "This is what saved Judge Hastings."

Jurors didn't lean toward an innocent verdict, however, until late in the deliberations.

The jury conducted 11 votes before clearing Hastings. On the first vote, two jurors went for conviction. After 12 hours of deliberation, jurors voted 6-5 for a guilty verdict, with one juror abstaining.

Finally, after 17 hours, only one juror still held out for a guilty verdict.

Functional Literacy Test Ruling Might Not Come Until Graduation

TAMPA (UPI) — A judge considering the fairness of denying diplomas to Florida high school seniors who fail a functional literacy test says he may wait until the class of 1983 is about to graduate before ruling on the issue.

Defenders and critics of the test, an exam of 24 eighth-grade-level math and communication skills, conclude their arguments today before U.S. District Judge George Carr.

But for more than 3,000 students expected to fail the exam, Carr's decision may be held up until they are ready to get their diplomas in May.

From 3,000 to 4,000 high school seniors, four-fifths of them black, have failed the test this year. They have one more chance to pass it before graduation time.

At issue is whether the literacy test is discriminatory, whether it tests what it is designed to test, and whether it should be used as a requirement for graduation.

Fire Truck On Agenda

A special meeting of the Lake Mary City Commission has been called for 5:30 p.m. today to discuss the emergency purchase of an $8,300 brush fire truck.

The purchase was authorized by the commission at its regular meeting last Thursday night after Fire Chief Jim Orioles said the city has more than 50 brush or forest type fires each year and neither Lake Mary nor any other department in the county has a suitable truck to fight them.

Orioles said the 27-year-old truck which the city had been using, on loan from the Florida Forest Service, broke down about two weeks ago or so before and is not worth repairing.

Seminole County Woman Walks Out On Burglar

A south Seminole County woman who maintained her calm while her bedroom was being ransacked by a burglar early escaped unharmed.

Ms. Deborah Wilson, 5521 Albert Drive, told sheriff's deputies that she was awakened around 2 a.m. when someone pulled the bed covers on her bed. She said she thought it was her father searching for a book until she saw a figure crouching at the corner of the bed.

Feigning sleep, she stayed in bed while the burglar moved items about in the room. When the burglar leaned over her and said, "Hey, you," she calmly got up from her bed without looking at the person and left her room to awaken her father, according to a sheriff's report.

By the time she got back to her room with her father, the burglar had escaped through an open window.

FIRE BADLY DAMAGES HOUSE

Investigators are probing a blaze which caused $10,000 damage to a Sanford house which was later broken into and $1,925 worth of radio equipment was stolen.

The blaze was at the George Clark home at 526 Radio Street, Sanford, at about 11:30 p.m. Wednesday night.

Four units from the Seminole County Fire Department raced to the fire which took about half an hour to extinguish.

The fire is being investigated by fire investigator Ray Pippin who would not say how the blaze started. "It is under investigation and I cannot say at the moment how the fire started," said Pippin.

Damage was extensive, he said. As much as $5,000 to $6,000 damage could have been done from smoke alone.

Clark, who could not be reached for comment, later reported to Seminole County sheriff's deputies that the house, which had been secured after the fire, had been broken into.

Police said that between the time the house was locked up and around 8 a.m. Thursday someone pried open the door and stole CB radio equipment valued at $1,925. The burglary is also under investigation.

SENIOR CITIZEN ROBBED

A Sanford senior citizen was robbed of $30 after she was stopped in a car and asked for directions.

Marcia McLaulin, 78, was stopped by a youth in the parking lot of Bram Towers, East First Street, at about 2:30 p.m. on Thursday and asked which building it was. When she told the man, he grabbed her purse containing $30 and credit cards and ran off.

BLOODSTAINED SWEATER FOUND IN GROVE

Human blood on a sweater found by a dog in an orange grove is being investigated by the Seminole County Sheriff's Department. The mysterious sweater was found in a bag with some bones by a dog belonging to Janet Corson of South Cameron Avenue, southeast of Sanford airport.

The dog picked up the bag in the orange grove on Thursday at about 1 p.m. and placed it in the yard of Corson's house. The bones have been identified as coming from an animal but the blood is from a human, police reported.

FHP CAR SMASHED

A Florida Highway Patrol car was totaled in a traffic accident Saturday afternoon on Interstate 4, six-tenths of a mile west of Lake Mary.

Robert J. Allegro, 1170 St. Lake Frances Place, Apopka, was charged with failure to use due care. There were no injuries.

Investigating officer Sgt. G.L. Hultgreen said trooper H.K. Weaver Jr. of the DeLand office had parked his patrol car in a deceleration lane with emergency lights on to safeguard the scene of an earlier accident when a 1982 Datsun truck driven by Allegro drove into the deceleration lane from the through lane and struck Weaver's car.

Weaver was standing outside his car when the crash occurred, Hultgreen said.

DOG SHOT AFTER PULLING WASH OFF LINE

A neighbor shot a dog in the leg after it pulled clothing off his line. Seminole County sheriff's deputies reported. The dog, belonging to Hollis Barnes, 1804 Tangerine Avenue, Sanford, was shot with a .22-caliber rifle as it pulled wash off the line at the home of John Harrison,

Top Officials Abused Use Of State Planes, GS Report Says

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — The Department of General Services has two weeks to reply to a preliminary state audit which says Florida's fleet of executive aircraft may have been misused by top officials, including Gov. Bob Graham.

The report, obtained by United Press International, was prepared in the office of Auditor General Ernest Ellison and delivered to General Services last week.

The report suggests that better rules and tighter procedures are needed to ensure that Florida's six-plane fleet of executive aircraft is used properly by state officials.

"Because the rules do not provide adequate guidelines ... agency heads must use their own interpretation and 'past practice' of (the Department of General Services) to guide them," the preliminary report says.

"This, in our opinion, has resulted in inappropriate use of executive pool aircraft," it says. The report specifically criticized a trip by Gov. Bob Graham and several other top elected officials to a Democratic party fund-raiser in Tampa on Nov. 1, 1981.

The trip may have violated Florida laws which require that state-owned aircraft be used only for official state business, the report said.

Aside from Graham, passengers aboard four aircraft used for the trip included Lt. Gov. Wayne Mixson, Attorney General Jim Smith, Comptroller Gerald Lewis, Insurance Commissioner Bill Gunter, and Education Commissioner Ralph Turlington.

Agriculture Commissioner Doyle Conner traveled to the function on a special-purpose plane assigned to his department, the auditors said.

The officials who took the trip already responded to a written request from Ellison last October. The officials denied any wrongdoing, citing past practices and noting that the trip was paid for by the Democratic Executive Committee.

The report said, however, that "in no instance did the governor or Cabinet members furnish any specific records or documentation to support how the trips served a state purpose."

The department, however, does not require passengers flying an executive aircraft to identify themselves.

1809 Dixie Way, Sanford, at about 3 p.m. on Thursday. Police said that Harrison admitted snooting the dog because it was always pulling wash off the line and the dog was a problem. He had spoken to the owner about it several times, police said.

MAN BEATEN AND ROBBED

A man was beaten with a stick and robbed of $200 as he left the 436 Club, Lake Howell Road, at about 3 p.m. Thursday. Theodore Wesley Weber, 29, of Karen Avenue, Altamonte Springs, was treated for cuts and bruises on his face after he said that three or four men had approached him and beat him with a stick in the parking lot of the club.

The men ran off with his wallet containing $200, said sheriff's deputies reported that Weber could give no further details of the incident.

MICROWAVE OVEN PULLED FROM WALL

A microwave oven fitted into a stove was torn from the wall by raiders who broke into a house being built at 641 Smokerise Boulevard, Sweetwater, Longwood, between 6 p.m. Wednesday and 1:50 p.m. Thursday. The microwave, worth $950, belonged to William Hunter, a Winter Park builder.

JEWELRY STOLEN

Jewelry worth $1,925 was stolen from Adrienne Singman Wittels home at 335 Needles Trail, Longwood, between 3 p.m. Feb. 25 and 9 a.m. Thursday. The jewelry, which included gold rings and pearl earrings, was taken from her jewelry box on her dresser in the master bedroom. Entry had been made through the bedroom's sliding glass doors, police reported.

BURGLARY THWARTED

Deputies, responding to a silent alarm, arrested Johnny Johnson, 39, of 132 Jackson St., Altamonte Springs, inside the Eastern service station at the intersection of State Road 436 and Lake Howell Road. Johnson was observed inside the station with a box full of cigarettes and beer. The items were valued at $143.50, deputies reported.

Johnson was being held in the Seminole County jail on a burglary charge in lieu of $5,000 bond.

ROBBERIES REPORTED

Two Apopka women reported robberies at their homes Friday. Mildred Stevenson, 56, of 811 Green Acre Road, Apopka, told deputies a lawnmower valued at $360 was taken from her garage between 7 a.m. and 5 p.m. Friday.

Loren Devisee, 1012 Oak Lane, Apopka, told deputies her bicycle, valued at $100, was stolen from her yard between 7 Thursday and 4 p.m. Friday.

IN BRIEF

Kidnapping Suspect Angered By 'Misdiagnosis'

VERO BEACH (UPI) — An unemployed landscaper suspected of kidnapping a doctor's 4-year-old son blamed the physician for incorrectly diagnosing a heart condition that kept him from holding a job, the FBI says.

A handwritten note found in the home of Thomas Gordon Ross indicated he thought Dr. Charles Rattray had misdiagnosed a heart ailment that caused spells of dizziness, said Dennis Aiken, agent in charge of the West Palm Beach FBI office.

"He said he couldn't hold a job anymore because of his dizziness. He mentioned that he was falling down," Aiken said.

Rattray's blond, blue-eyed son, David, was snatched from his home Tuesday and held for 53 hours before he was found inside the trunk of a car. Ross revealed the boy's location after a struggle with police in which he shot himself.

Ross remained in critical condition at Indian River Memorial Hospital with a gunshot wound to the head.

Reagan's Trip A Quickie

ORLANDO (UPI) — President Reagan's stop in central Florida Tuesday will be a brief, but busy one.

In the matter of only a little more than four hours, Reagan will visit Walt Disney's Epcot Center, give a speech to the National Association of Evangelicals and put in appearances at two Republican fund-raisers.

The main reason for the president's trip to Florida is the speech to the evangelical group. The organization "has always been, and will be an integral part of the Reagan coalition," said one White House source.

Stamps For Animals

Students in Seminole County schools have been working to assist the Seminole County Humane Society with its fund-raising drive by collecting S&H Green Stamps. The stamps will be redeemed and the funds used to help build a new shelter for homeless animals. Altamonte Elementary School has collected 160 books of stamps, more than any other school in the county. The students gave their stamps to School Superintendent Robert Hughes. Counting the books, from left, are Tammy Scott, president of the student council; Rebecca Brock, vice president; Martin Kirsch, student council advisor; Hughes; Amy Clay, secretary and Flora Chen, treasurer.

West German Vote Gives Kohl Mandate To Deploy U.S. Missiles

BONN, West Germany (UPI) — West Germans reaffirmed their alliance with the United States in a crucial election that gave Chancellor Helmut Kohl a "clear mandate" for the deployment of U.S. nuclear missiles.

Kohl's center-right coalition of his Christian Democrats and Foreign Minister Hans-Dietrich Genscher's small Free Democratic Party Sunday won 55.7 percent of the vote and 278 of the 498 seats in the Bundestag, or parliament.

Winning a gamble Kohl took by moving for early elections, the Christian Democrats nearly captured an electoral majority on their own, with 48.8 percent of the vote — up 4 percent from the 1980 election.

Hans-Jochen Vogel's Social Democrats won 193 seats, taking 38.2 percent of the vote.

Kohl's victory Sunday ensured the deployment of cruise and Pershing-2 medium-range missiles in West Germany beginning in December, strengthening the U.S. position in the Geneva arms reduction talks with the Soviets.

The Kremlin had been rooting for Vogel, who had pledged to work to prevent deployment of the missiles, and his poor showing sent a signal to Moscow that West Germany is firmly entrenched in the Western alliance.

The chancellor called the results "a clear mandate" to implement the 1978 NATO decision to deploy the U.S. nuclear missiles if an agreement is not reached on removing the threat posed by Soviet SS-20s aimed at Europe.

"I expected a good result and it is a good result," Kohl told jubilant supporters at party headquarters.

Kohl also had a safe majority to cut public spending and encourage private investment to fight West Germany's worst recession, considered by many to be the fault of the Social Democrats, who ruled uninterrupted for 13 years.

Vogel was chosen by the Social Democrats when former Chancellor Helmut Schmidt refused to run again.

President Reagan telephoned Kohl from Washington to congratulate him. The Soviet news agency Tass announced Kohl's victory without comment.

The anti-NATO Greens Party, an association of anti-nuclear activists and ecologists that won seats in the Bundestag for the first time by capturing 5.6 percent of the vote, promised a fight to block the U.S. missiles.

Greens leader Petra Kelly and some of the 27 new Green members of parliament converged on the parliament building on the Rhine Sunday to burn a symbolic U.S. missile made of cardboard.

IN BRIEF

French Rightists Lead In Municipal Balloting

PARIS (UPI) — France's conservative opposition routed the Socialist-led coalition in the first round of municipal elections, sending an "unequivocal warning" to President Francois Mitterrand's leftist government.

Based on partial results and computer forecasts, opposition parties won between 51 and 53 percent of the vote Sunday. If the pattern is repeated in next Sunday's second round, they would control most French city councils.

The vote has no direct effect on the Mitterrand government, which includes several Communist ministers, but was seen as the first test of voter sentiment since the Socialist victory in the 1981 French national elections.

Labor And Partisan Politics

The AFL-CIO has abandoned even its flimsy pretense of nonpartisanship with its unprecedented decision to make an early endorsement in the contest for the 1984 Democratic presidential nomination.

This significant departure from previous practice has serious implications for union members and the Democratic Party.

Previously, the AFL-CIO, which usually endorses Democrats, had waited until the party had chosen a nominee.

And, during the last decade, the federation had allowed affiliated unions to work for different candidates.

Samuel Gompers, the patriarch of the American labor movement, would be shocked at the course now fixed by leaders of the giant federation of unions that is a direct descendant of his own pioneer labor organization.

Professed non-partisanship was a staple of the Gompers brand of unionism. It served American workers well for many years.

But the current leaders of the AFL-CIO, who want to obtain by government fiat what they cannot obtain at the bargaining table, are not serving the best interests of union members.

Formally tying the knot with the Democratic Party so far in advance of the presidential campaign can only impede organized labor's relations with President Reagan and place labor at an unnecessary disadvantage in dealing with any future Republican occupant of the White House.

Moreover, the labor bosses arrogantly reject the political preferences of many union members. President Reagan's conservative populism gave him 44 percent of the union vote in 1980, although most union leaders frantically campaigned for Jimmy Carter. Non-union workers supported Mr. Reagan in even greater numbers.

Indeed, the president still draws strong support from those workers who realize the old, bankrupt Democratic policies of tax and spend do not work and that inflation robs their high standard of living.

Many workers also understand that a government that helps create jobs and ensures America's competitiveness in the international marketplace.

Leaders of the AFL-CIO continue to maintain that they have the confidence of the country's workers. The facts say otherwise.

Unions today represent only 21 percent of total workers in the United States. Thirty years ago, they represented 26 percent.

Union members' skepticism about their leaders is strikingly shown by the fact that workers voted to get rid of their unions in 75 percent of the 848 decertification elections conducted by the National Labor Relations Board during the fiscal year that ended Sept. 30, 1981.

Surely, the loss of more than 24,000 union members should have told the labor bosses that workers are more interested in job satisfaction than in paying dues to elect political candidates many of them oppose and to maintain outdated work rules and feather-bedding.

The AFL-CIO leaders, however, recently demonstrated during their annual winter meeting in Bal Harbour, that they have learned nothing from the decline of unionism.

Incredibly, the AFL-CIO is calling for a $68.5 billion federal jobs program, ignoring the hard lessons of half a century and the compelling evidence that the recession is over and a strong recovery is under way.

Not even labor's staunchest Democratic supporters in Congress give this irresponsible proposal a chance to pass. And, the labor leaders' call for more profligate spending should warn the more realistic members of the Democratic Party how expensive is their marriage with the AFL-CIO.

The real ambition of some labor bosses who seek control of the Democratic Party is to convert it into a labor party after the British model, which all but ruined Britain whenever it was in power.

Yes, Samuel Gompers would be appalled at his shortsighted successors in the AFL-CIO who have chosen to abandon his wise principle of separating organized labor's welfare from the perils of partisan politics.

BERRY'S WORLD

"Something really WEIRD happened at home. I had a talk with my mom and dad and they actually LISTENED!"

Two Seminole County schools have been nominated for the Secondary Schools Recognition Program sponsored by the U.S. Department of Education.

Teague Middle School and Lake Brantley High School have been selected as the county's nominees in the program which focuses attention on schools that are doing an exceptional job of educating students.

Five middle or junior high schools and five high schools from Florida will be selected by state Education Commissioner Ralph Turlington to represent the state in the competition. Those nominations will be sent to Washington later this month.

In Washington, the nominations will be reviewed by two 15-member committees composed of education association president and secondary education experts. The schools chosen will receive plaques in special ceremonies at the beginning of the new school year.

Principals of schools selected for the national award will be gathered together for regional conferences on factors affecting excellence in education.

"The search for excellence is a continuing national and state priority," Turlington said. "And it contributes directly to our continuing efforts to make Florida a state of educational distinction."

School Superintendent Robert Hughes said "any search for excellence in education must consider the schools in Seminole County. We have high academic achievement by our students, active and supportive participation by our citizens, dedicated and effective employees and an exciting growing curriculum."

A Seminole County student and teacher will be featured in an NBC television special on March 12 at 10 p.m.

The documentary, which focuses on organ donors and recipients, features a Seminole student who recently received a heart transplant and Joy Rector, a teacher in the district's home-hospital instruction program.

Mrs. Rector is one of 14 teachers employed in the county to teach youngsters whose doctors expect them to be absent from school for three weeks or longer.

When the NBC film crew arrived to film segments for the show, Mrs. Rector was included in the footage.

The home-hospital teaching program currently has 46 students but averages about 35 students. Some of the students are victims of serious accidents while others are afflicted with serious or lingering illnesses.

Karlene Duke, coordinator of the program said parents should know that students do not have to miss three weeks of school before they become eligible for the program.

To become eligible for the program a student's doctor should certify that the student is expected to miss more than three weeks of school. Application should be made prior to surgery or as soon as possible after a serious illness or accident.

A second phase of the program is available to parents of children up to three years old who have one or more severe handicaps. Any child who is visually or audially impaired or has delayed physical or mental development may qualify for the special program. Instruction is offered to children and parents have meetings to assist them in working with their handicapped children.

Charcoal Combats Poisons

By UPI-Science Digest

It doesn't sound appetizing, but a swallow of activated charcoal in a cup of water, taken in multiple doses, can soak up a variety of blood poisons and even combat ingested poisons and drug overdoses.

Activated charcoal has long been known to remove substances from the digestive tract. Now Science Digest reports that research done by Ronald Spector of the University of Iowa Hospital shows charcoal can clear the blood of some drugs and poisons.

The highly absorptive black powder — which acts like a molecular sponge, soaking up substances ranging from aspirin to barbiturates — is known to remain in the gastrointestinal tract until it is excreted. So the question remains: How can charcoal in the stomach and intestines remove poisons in the blood?

Research points out that drugs and poisons not only enter the blood from the digestive tract, but can, in turn, diffuse from the blood back into the stomach and intestines. Most likely, says Spector, the unwanted substances are absorbed by the charcoal after they've returned to the digestive tract from the blood.

Spector foresees the day when bottles of activated charcoal will be found in almost every home as first aid for accidental poisonings.

It has long been held that a rapidly guzzled soft drink or a gulped candy bar can go a long way toward curbing hunger pangs. But new research at the University of California, Los Angeles, indicates it may be better to take your time when eating these treats.

In laboratory experiments, when the intestines of rabbits were slowly infused with sugar, the creatures' hunger soon abated. But when the infusion rate was tripled, the rabbits actually ate more than if they'd received no sugar at all.

The UCLA researchers noted that sugar's hunger-stimulating effects might be offset by a high-fiber diet that slows intestinal absorbance. Another alternative may be to eat more starches, large complexes of sugar that are absorbed more slowly than simple-sugar molecules.

Aside from their usual pencils and textbooks, it seems college students will soon be using another learning aid — the personal computer.

All 900 members of Clarkson College's class of '87 will be furnished with a Zenith Z-100 desk-top computer when they enter school this fall. The students will buy the computers and software at considerable discount and will be able to pay for them over the course of their education. After graduation, they can take their computers with them.

Strongarm Tactics Used At Meeting

WASHINGTON—The Reagan administration used strongarm tactics reminiscent of an old-fashioned political machine to keep the 1981 White House Conference on Aging from getting out of hand and embarrassing the president.

They apparently tinkered with the temperature controls in the auditorium, used fake badges to infiltrate committees and plenary sessions, shouted down legitimate delegates and even physically obstructed Rep. Claude Pepper, D-Fla., to keep him from reaching the speaker's platform.

The White House efforts to bully and harass the elderly delegates were outrageous. The grubby details are contained in sworn testimony and supporting documents obtained by the General Accounting Office, which has been investigating charges of improper White House attempts to rig the conference. My associate Indy Badnwar has seen the astonishing evidence. Some examples:

— "(A) planned attempt at confusing the final plenary session was apparently manipulating the air-conditioning system," declares a sworn affidavit. "It became unbearably hot ... One or two older women had to be medically

Three Boiling Issues

Though respectable politicians are not for the time being talking very openly about them, there are three highly emotional issues reaching critical mass in American politics.

They could all explode together in 1984, changing the political landscape.

It is even conceivable that the Democrats could outflank the Republicans on one or more of them, seizing the popular side—and, historically, the Democrats have been able to do this before.

The issues are:

Immigration, not only illegal, but legal.

The taxpayer bailout of the big banks. Protectionism.

Illegal immigration, believe it or not, is the easier problem in this area. Soon to be re-introduced legislation by Alan Simpson in the Senate and by Peter Rodino and Romano Mazzoli in the House will undoubtedly issue in some sort of control over our own borders. It will include identity cards, penalties for employers hiring illegals, and some form of amnesty for illegals already here.

That's good news. The bad news is that legal immigration is changing the demographic character of the United States, and this is the hot underground topic of political conversation in Washington. The vast bulk of recent legal immigrants comes from Asia, Latin America, and the Caribbean. Contemplating the statistics, but not yet speaking openly, politicians are wondering whether we really want to be de-Europeanized, melt into a Third-world demography. In Florida, Texas, and California, this issue is already close to the surface of politics. It could soon go off with a big bang in those states and elsewhere.

Another seething populist issue concerns the projected bailout of our big banks by the American taxpayer. Over the past 20 years, major banks such as Chase Manhattan have extended huge loans to rickety Third World and communist nations. These will never be repaid. In some cases, the debtor nations cannot even afford to pay the interest on those loans. Poland and Brazil, for example, have required further loans not to pay the principal, but to pay the interest. Mexico is a fiscal basket case. In December, for example, the International Monetary Fund came up with a $4 billion emergency bailout for Mexico, but the private banks that are Mexico's creditors had come up with another $5 billion.

These funds do not grow on palm trees. At a time when we are cutting back on domestic spending and when the defense budget is also under powerful attack, it is inconceivable that the issue of bailing out these imprudent loans will not become a blood-pressure-raising political issue.

Public opinion in the United States is increasingly nationalist and protectionist, favorable to high tariffs, import limitations and domestic content legislation. Analytically, this drift of opinion is indefensible: If the Japanese make a better or cheaper product, why should American purchasers not benefit from that? But, politically, the worker who has been laid off is not likely to look with much love on his Toyota or his Sony.

DON GRAFF

On The Endless Emergency

We've been reporting recently on some conversations with Leo Cherne on the subject of immigrants — the usual kind, whose uncontrollable numbers are again pressuring revision of the rules on admission, and those driven by desperation, also known as refugees.

Cherne knows a great deal, at firsthand and from long experience, about the latter. He is chairman, since 1951, of the International Rescue Committee, this year observing its 50th anniversary in the refugee business. "Celebrating" would not be the appropriate word, since what that business is really about is human misery, in our century on a scale unprecedented in recorded history.

Let me tell you a bit about the IRC. It originated in the presence of Albert Einstein, which was not limited to science. Foreseeing where the Nazi march to power was leading, he urged some notable American contacts to assist German intellectuals and academics who might be forced to flee. Many having been outspoken opponents, they were now obvious targets.

Einstein's American friends, who included philosopher John Dewey and theologian Reinhold Niebuhr, met in New York in the spring of 1933 with the limited intention of responding to an emergency situation and then going out of business.

But in this case, Einstein had not seen far enough ahead. Adolf Hitler had become German chancellor a few months earlier, and the magnitude of the rescue effort precipitated by that event turned out to be beyond all expectations. The emergency stretched on through the '30s. The American committee met it as best it could, operating with limited funds out of a cramped office overlooking the graveyard of Trinity Church.

The outbreak of war and the stunning German triumph in the west increased the urgency. Thousands upon thousands of the hunted — political activists, writers, academics, artists, the cultural community of much of Europe — crowded into the unoccupied zone of France, converging on Marseilles in the hope of an escape that vanished when the Vichy authorities let in the hunters.

It was a setting for disaster that produced, in Leo Cherne's words, IRC's "most climactic moment." But hear him describe it:

"The International Rescue Committee organized an underground operation, in essence an underground railway, which each night took one, two, three at most of these extraordinary people on foot across the Pyrenees into Spain, through Spain to Portugal.

assisted out of the ballroom because of the heat."

— One particular panel, known as "Committee Two," was regarded with deep suspicion by the president's men. They were afraid it was going to pass resolutions critical of the administration's Social Security proposals. So conference staffers were ordered to print up extra "Committee Two" badges, put them on and infiltrate the committee to manipulate any voice vote.

— A political tactician who reported directly to White House chief of staff James Baker was assigned to the conference as a sort of staff commissar "to assure that the conference was not a political embarrassment to the president."

— Like so many circus performers, "whips" were appointed to keep the supposedly dangerous "gray panthers" under control. The handpicked whips and deputy whips from the conference staff were assigned to various sections and given a list of "troublemakers" in their bailiwicks. Their mission was to position themselves behind the elderly firebrands and shout them down if they tried to speak.

— "It was ... greatly feared that the liberals would take over the conference and demand a number of concessions about Social Security from the Reagan administration. The whip system was supposed to squelch any spontaneous or preplanned actions by liberal delegates to turn the conference into a referendum on Reagan's Social Security policies."

— One whip was assigned to a particularly dangerous delegate: Pepper, then the 81-year-old chairman of the House Committee on Aging. The whip was ordered to keep Pepper from the podium during one of the debates in the plenary session. "The whip successfully restricted Pepper from getting to the stage for about 15 minutes by blocking his path."

— Whips assigned to committees would keep in constant touch with a secret command post by telephone. The command post was guarded by Brinks security personnel. "In order to get to the command post, one had to be wearing a special lapel pin shaped like an oil barrel. Without the pin, it was impossible to get into the area."

— When reports of political pressure began leaking out, the command post disappeared in a puff of smoke. "Returning to the command post was eerie," one staffer testified. "Just one half-hour before, everything was normal. Now the command post was stripped bare. There was almost nothing left of what had previously been tables of books, documents, phones, typewriters ... Within 30 minutes, the entire place had been literally stripped."

SENDING A SIGNAL: The recent beheading by the Saudi Arabian government of three Filipino robbers is regarded as an ominous sign by Western observers. According to Koranic scholars, the punishment should have been no more than chopping off the ringleader's hand and flogging the two accomplices.

The severity of the punishment is seen as an indication that Prince Abdullah, the ultra-conservative, xenophobic commander of the national guard, is the power behind the throne — and wants foreigners to know it. The draconian sentence could only have been approved at the highest levels of the Saudi regime.

Reaves' 3 TDs Rescue Bandits

TAMPA (UPI) — John Reaves and Steve Spurrier made their debut in the United States Football League a successful homecoming.

Spurrier designed the game plan and quarterback John Reaves threw for 385 yards and three touchdowns as the Tampa Bay Bandits won their inaugural game in the USFL with a 21-17 victory over the Boston Breakers.

A crowd of 42,437 turned out for the birth of the USFL and were rewarded by a victory and officially, the first touchdown scored in the league.

That was a 5-yard second period pass from Reaves to running back Ricky Williams after Boston had taken a three-point first period lead on a 30-yard field goal by former Atlanta Falcon kicker Tim Mazzetti.

That sequence of scoring set the stage for the game as neither team was able to score twice in a row and the lead changed hands six times.

Reaves played his high school ball in Tampa and his college ball at the University of Florida before bouncing around the NFL for nine years, most of it with Philadelphia and Cincinnati, with a short stint with Minnesota and more recently Houston.

Spurrier was a Heisman Trophy winner out of the University of Florida and after spending most of his pro career with San Francisco, closed by quarterbacking the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in their first year in the NFL. He joined the infant Bandits from the staff at Duke University.

In addition to the history-setting touchdown pass to Williams, Reaves passed 6 yards to wide receiver Eric Truvillion in the third period and 33 yards to wide receiver Willie Gillespie in the final period for the winning touchdown.

Boston quarterback Johnnie Walton, returning to pro ball at the age of 35 after coaching at Elizabeth City College for two years, almost pilled it out for the Breakers.

With less than five minutes to play, Walton passed the Breakers into a first down situation at the Bandits 12-yard line. But after an incomplete pass and a completed pass that ended up as a 7-yard loss, he was intercepted at the Bandits' 3-yard-line by strong safety Ken Taylor and the Bandits ran out the clock.

Walton got Boston's first touchdown on a 6-yard pass to Anthony Steels in the second period and Tony Davis, also a former Tampa Bay Buccaneer, scored in the third period on a 1-yard run.

Strong safety Terry Love intercepted a deflected Reaves' pass five yards deep in the end zone and rambled 102 yards down the sideline before being overtaken by Truvillion at the Tampa Bay 3-yard line.

Two plays later Davis scored, giving Boston its last lead at 17-14.

Reaves completed 28 of 39 passes for 358 yards, with two interceptions. Walton completed 17 of 28 passes for 163 yards with one interception.

"The guys did a great job of protecting me," Reaves said.

"They were in man-to-man coverage and I didn't know if they were blitzing or not," he said. "Coach Spurrier called a pass pattern but I didn't like it so I audibled to strike with the long ball. He (Gillespie) went right by the guy."

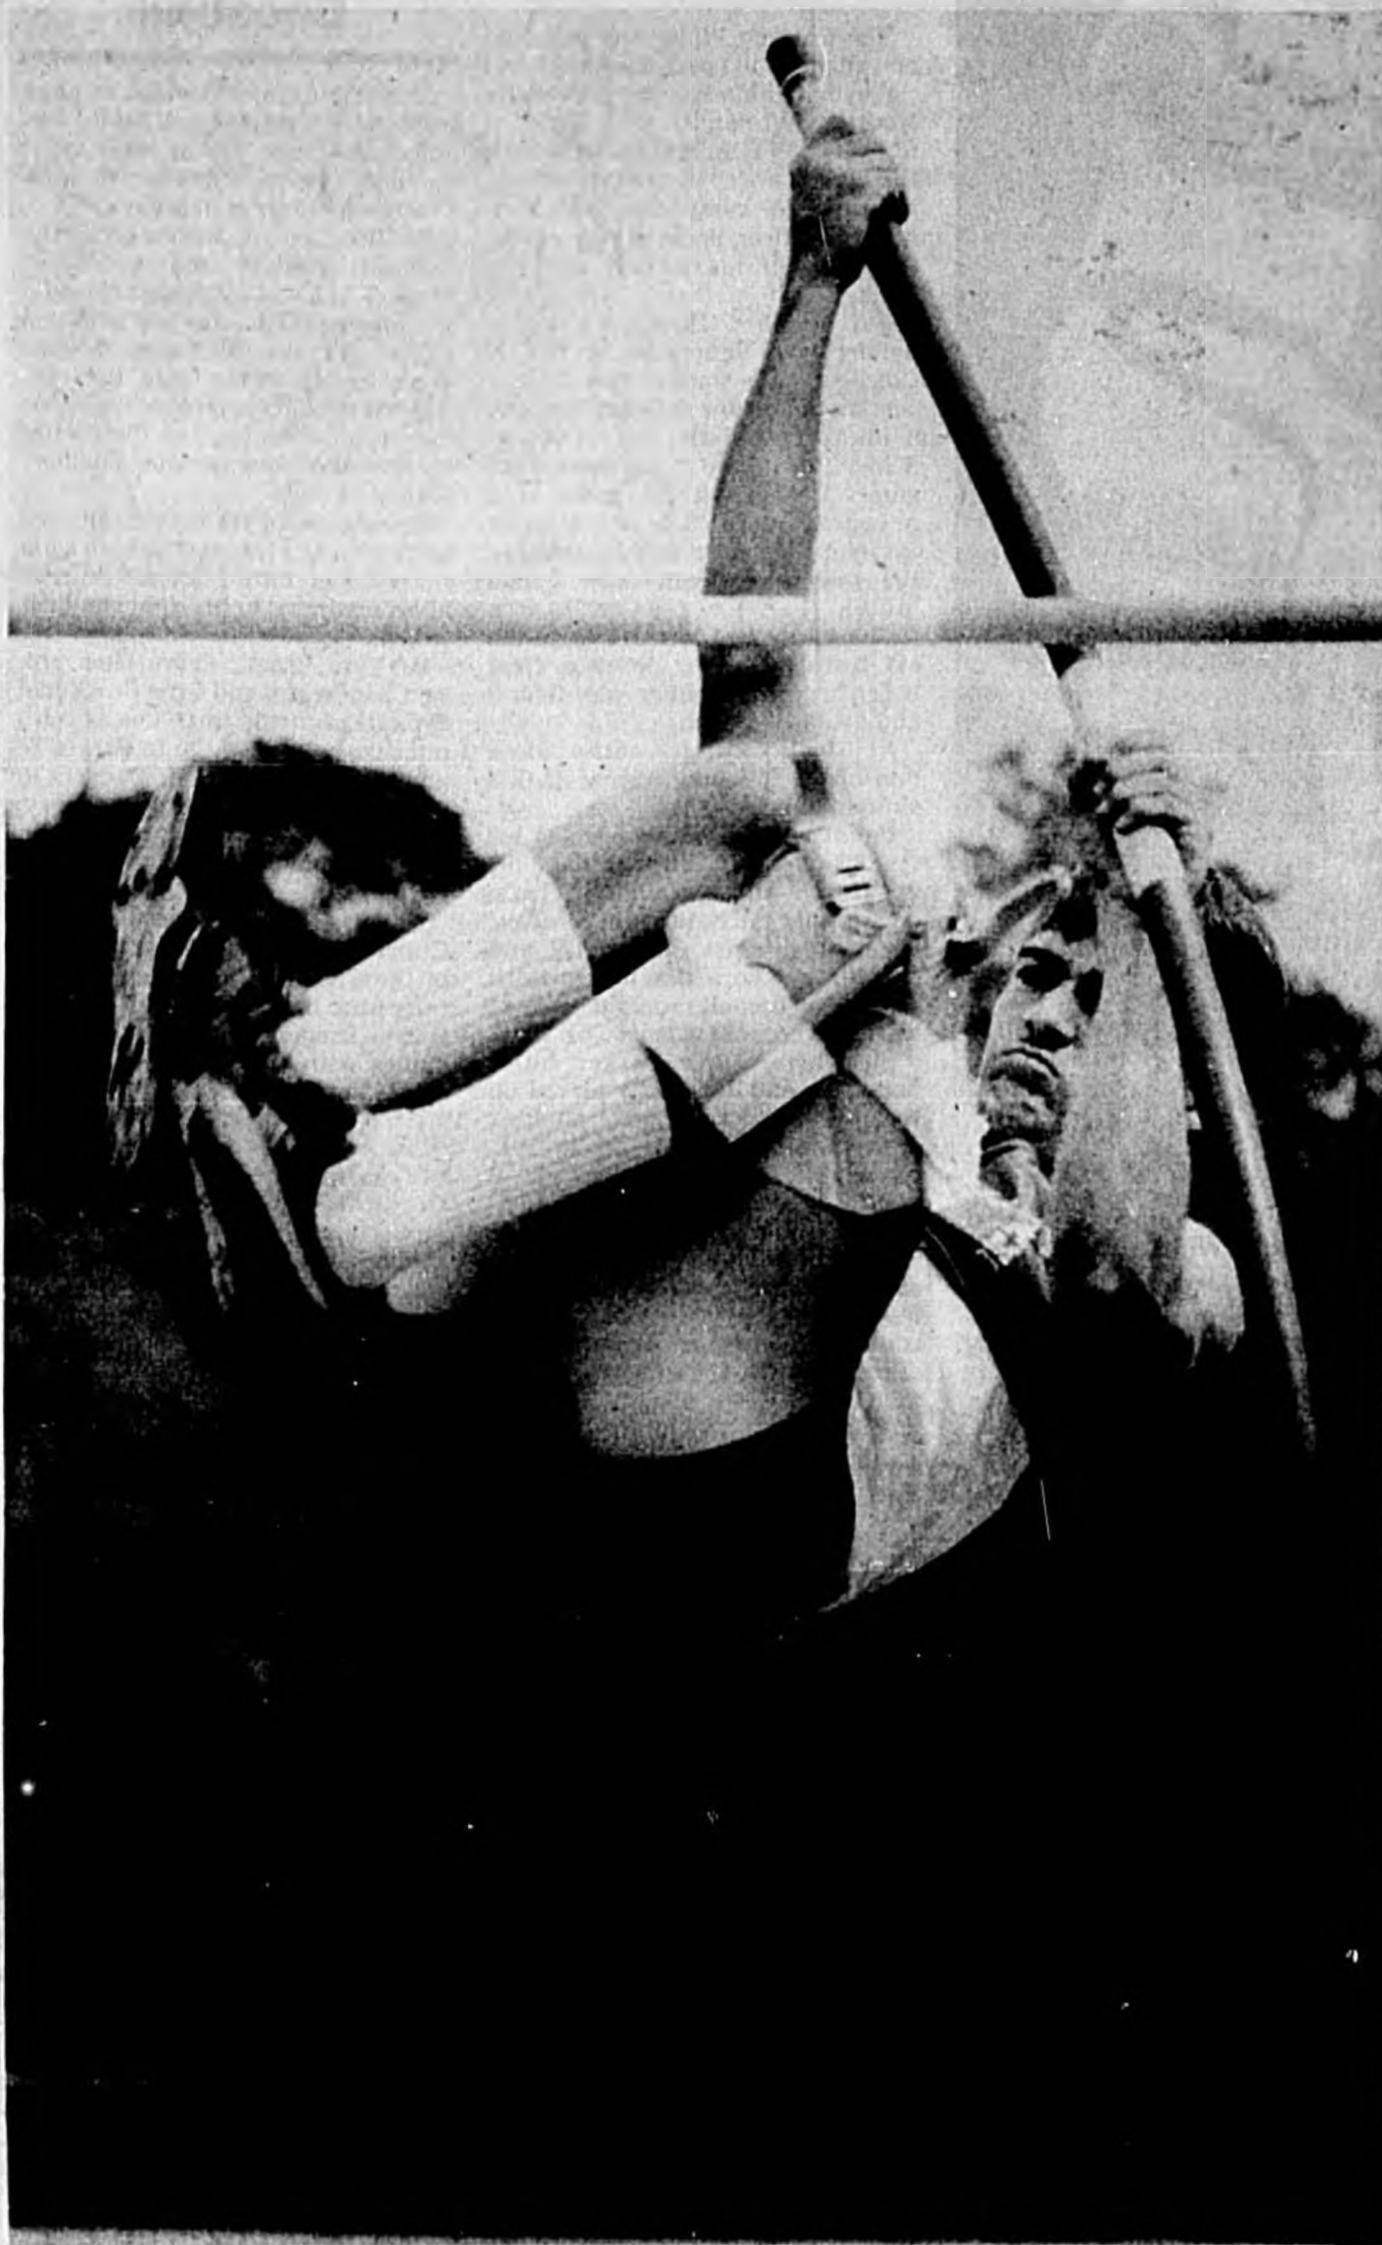

Tampa Bay will be at home Saturday night against the Michigan Panthers.

Tribe Mile Medley Team Runs State's Best Time

By Chris Flister
 Herald Sports Writer

Titusville High's boys and girls track squads came to Seminole County Saturday and swept the Ram Relays at Lake Mary High. The boys team won with 112 points, followed by Lake Mary with 91. Titusville's girls rolled up 118 points to easily outdistance Lyman and Seminole who tied for second with 74 points.

Seminole finished a fifth in the meet with 59 points and won only one event, the mile medley with a time of 3:38.2. That event, nevertheless, was a big one. The foursome of Joe Whack, Clifton Campbell, Torin Williams and Mike Wooten combined to post the fastest time in the state for the mile medley this year. The Tribe finished second in the 880 medley with a time of 1:38.9.

"They (Seminole) ran away with it," said Lake Mary meet director and Rams' track coach Mike Gibson. "They had plenty of room to spare."

Lake Mary came through with its best performance of the young season and broke or tied numerous school records in the process. Mike Rouse tied a school record in the high jump with a leap of 6-2 as the Rams took a first place in that event. Behind Rouse, Bobby Counts leaped 5-8 and Brian Cook 5-4 for the winning combination. Lake Brantley's Mike Patterson had the best jump of the meet with a 6-4.

In the long jump, multi-purpose man Pat Murray set a new school record for the Rams as he posted a 20-9 1/4 leap. Lake Mary finished fourth in the long jump in the meet with Titusville (62-7 1/4) first, Oviedo (60-8 1/4) second and Seminole third with 60-7 1/4. The Tribe's Dion Jackson placed second individually with a jump of 21-10 1/4.

Besides his second place finish in the long jump, Jackson posted a first place in the triple jump with a 45-1/2. Titusville won the event with a combined distance of 131-0 and Oviedo was second with 123-5. Jackson's effort is the top leap in Central Florida, according to Gibson.

Lake Mary set another school record in the 440 relay as the team of Charlie Lucarelli, Keith Mandy, Murray and Will LaValle recorded a time of 44.4, but it was only good for fourth place. Oviedo won the 440 relay with a time of 43.8.

Lake Mary's other first place was in the sprint medley as the team of Murray, Mandy, LaValle and Lucarelli recorded a time of 2:02.1. The Rams were second in the pole vault (28-6) but Lyman ran away with that event with the top two individuals and a combined height of 35-6. Other second place finishes for Lake Mary included the 990 hurdle race (2:09.0), the 440 shuttle hurdles (73.1), the distance medley (11:39.4), the two-mile relay (9:07.2) and the four-mile team race (19:45.0).

Lyman, which finished third in the meet with 81 points, won the four-mile team race with a combined time of 18:54.0 and Doug McBroom ran the fastest mile with a 4:32.5. The Greyhounds also recorded first place finishes in the pole vault (35-6), the shot put (128-10), the distance medley (11:25.6) and the two-mile relay (8:39.8).

Oviedo wound up fourth with 76 points but the Lions took first place in the 440 shuttle hurdles (68.0), the 440 relay (43.8) and the 880 relay (1:32.5). The quartet of Lee Boots, Dan Lot, George Dumas and John Quintanta turned in the hurdle effort. The Lions were second in the triple jump (123-5) and the mile relay (3:28.9). The Lions stable of sprinters, led by Bernard Hadden and J.W. Yarborough, did most of the damage in the relays.

Titusville completely dominated the girls meet, taking 11 first places out of 15 events. The only events Titusville didn't win were the shuttle hurdles, the mile medley relay, the distance medley and the 880 medley.

Seminole recorded a first place in the shuttle hurdles with a time of 65.7 while Father Lopez won the mile medley relay (4:34.6), the distance medley (14:59.9) and the 880 medley (1:58.2).

The Lady Tribe continue to perform consistently but didn't have the fire power to stay with Titusville. Other than the first place in the shuttle hurdles, Seminole was second in the shot put (98-8 1/4), the 990 low hurdles (2:30.8), the 880 medley (2:01.7), the 880 relay (1:48.9) and the mile relay (4:10.2). Arlene Jones was the second best individual in the high jump with a leap of 5-0.

Lyman didn't record any first places but Schowanda Williams was the top individual in the long jump with a 17-5 1/4 and ran the best leg in the 990 low hurdles (45.0). The Lady Greyhounds were second in the long jump (49-4 1/4), the discus (273.7), the four-mile team run (23:31.9) and the mile medley relay (4:35.6).

Lake Mary's girls finished fifth with 42 points and Oviedo was eighth with 17 points. The Lady Rams, behind the strong running of Andrea Beardslee, were second in the distance medley (15:18.8) and the two-mile relay (10:32.9). Beardslee broke Kim Averill's record for the mile with a 5:45.9 clocking. The old mark was 5:48.8.

Riviera Beach shocked Palm Springs, 50-28, in the Junior Boys title game Saturday night, while Riviera Beach's other team made it a clean sweep by dropping DeLand, 79-48, for the Florida Intermediate Boys Basketball League state championship. Both tournaments were hosted by the Orlando Recreation Department.

Sanford fell into the loser's bracket Friday, dropping a 42-34 decision to defending state champion East Volusia. In other first-round games, Riviera Beach beat Lake Vista, 47-27, Orlando topped New Smyrna Beach, 52-44, and Palm Springs ripped Apopka, 62-46.

Sanford slipped into the lead, 27-26, by the end of the third period but then fell behind again by four points with less than a minute to go.

Junior year under a cloud of controversy to sign with the fledgling USFL, clearly was not used to the team's system after reporting to camp late. The Heisman Trophy winner with the $5 million contract wasn't the dominating factor in the game.

Los Angeles Coach Hugh Campbell, however, saw more than enough of Walker.

"Their offense was so different with him than without him," he said. "They made us adjust to two different offenses. They're a completely different team with him in there."

"From where I was standing, it looked like he made 3 yards when he's really making 9, 10 or 12 yards."

Ramsay fired a pair of touchdown passes, hitting Boddie from 11 yards out and Vister Hayes from 24 yards away after replacing starter Mike Rae five minutes into the second quarter. Ramsay finished 8-for-20 for 117 yards and one interception.

Boddie, a rookie running back out of Montana State, led all rushers with 77 yards on 13 carries.

The Generals had a chance to win the game in the final seconds, as Campbell elected to go for the first down on 4th-and-inches at his own 31 with 3:48 left. Running back LaRue Harrington was stopped on the play and the Generals took over, moving to the Los Angeles 5.

But New Jersey quarterback Bobby Scott was sacked at the 14, and on fourth down with less than 20 seconds to play, he hit Larry Herschel Walker ran for one touchdown Sunday in his professional football debut but the New Jersey Generals lost to the Los Angeles Express as the USFL season got underway.

Ex-EPA Consultant's Firm Linked To GOP Gifts

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Former Environmental Protection Agency consultant James Sanderson's Denver law firm represents four companies linked to more than $500,000 in Republican campaign contributions made since Ronald Reagan's presidential campaign.

While consultant with the EPA in 1981 and 1982, Sanderson took part in meetings with Administrator Anne Burford to discuss federal policies affecting all four companies, agency officials told United Press International.

The two top officers of Waste Management Inc. of Oakbrook, Ill., parent of one of the firms, made $40,000 in contributions to GOP national committees in 1981 and 1982 alone, according to reports filed with the Federal Election Commission. Three agency decisions in those years benefited Waste Management subsidiary Chemical Waste Management, Inc., the nation's largest hazardous waste disposal company.

FEC records also show Waste Management's top 40 officers, members of their families and its political action committee contributed $161,568 to political causes since 1979. Virtually all the money went to Republicans.

But Waste Management, Inc., spokesman Don Reddcliffe told UPI Sunday. "The record will show that we have received no preferential treatment from the EPA, period."

Reddcliffe said Sanderson was not representing Chemical Waste Management at the time he was working as an EPA consultant.

Reddcliffe said the campaign contributions made by Waste Management Chairman Dean

Buntrock and Vice Chairman H. Wayne Hutzenga were "annual membership fees and personal contributions," which have been made for the past several years.

Three other clients of Sanderson's law firm, Saunderson, Snyder, Ross and Dickson, channeled another $479,651 to political committees or candidates in the 1980 and 1982 elections, most of it going to the GOP, the records showed.

Those companies include:

- The Adolph Coors Brewing Co.
- Amex Environmental Services, Inc.
- The Chevron Shale Oil Co.

While a consultant at EPA, Sanderson joined Mrs. Burford at meetings to discuss regulations for chemical waste landfills and air quality.

Nixon Institute Idea Dies

LAVERNE, Calif. (UPI) — Trustees of the University of La Verne have abandoned plans to build the multimillion dollar Richard M. Nixon World Affairs Institute at the school.

Despite favorable votes by faculty, alumni and students, the trustees voted Saturday to reject plans to build the institute, described as a training ground for "current and future leaders, diplomats and scholars" who would be attracted by Nixon's "far-sighted foreign policies."

The trustees voted against the plan, which would have paid Nixon to be the center's first chairman, on a 21-16 vote.

"I hope this in no way embarrasses President Nixon," said Richard Green, the university's president of Institutional Advancement.

Negotiations between the university and Nixon aides concerning the institute began over a year ago at the school's instigation, Green said. It was to be financed by $12 million in private contributions and public grants not yet raised.

Green said he was surprised by the negative vote, particularly in view of the overwhelming student support.

Fish Oil Not Just Another Fish Story

DEAR DR. LAMB — I would like your opinion about fish oil. According to some news stories, fish oil will prevent heart attacks and strokes. I realize that fish contain unsaturated fat and are low in cholesterol but you can get unsaturated fats from lots of other foods. I always use corn oil or safflower oil in cooking because both contain a lot of polyunsaturated fat and no cholesterol.

I've heard that salmon is particularly good for you. Why?

Frankly, I'm not a fish eater and I hate to cook it. If it is important I can make an effort but otherwise I'd rather get my unsaturated fats from vegetables.

preventing the fatty cholesterol deposits. That is why people who eat lots of these fish seldom have heart attacks.

Of course there has to be a reasonable amount of fat in fish for this effect to occur. I'm sending you The Health Letter 11-12. Fish and Shellfish as Health Foods, to give you information on the fat and cholesterol contents of common fish. Others can send 75 cents with a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope for it to me, in care of this newspaper, P.O. Box 1551, Radio City Station, New York, NY 10019.

DEAR READER — Often what one eats is an acquired taste. And you are correct in saying that there are lots of other foods that provide unsaturated fats, even polyunsaturated fats. But the fat in many fish oils is different from almost all other sources of dietary fat.

The truth is that vegetables and cereals contain polyunsaturated fat that has only two spots on the fatty acid chain where no hydrogen is present (two double bonds). This is linoleic acid. A small amount of it is essential to your health. Your body uses it to form other important fatty acids. And there is some evidence that it lowers cholesterol in some people.

Fish oil contains an abundance of fatty acids with many spots without hydrogen, five or six locations on the chain. Seafood, particularly salmon or fish from cold deep sea areas, seems to be a rich source of these special fatty acids. And studies show these highly polyunsaturated fats decrease the tendency to form clumps of platelets in the blood, a process that leads to clotting. They may also play a role in

Now the decreased clotting activity may make you more susceptible to bleeding, such as nose bleeds. And it will add to the effects of aspirin and other antil clotting medicines.

DEAR DR. LAMB — I need a new pair of glasses. The last time the eye doctor put drops in my eyes to make the pupils dilate. How does this work? Is the stuff absorbed into the bloodstream? I have minor heart palpitations almost every day. Could this be aggravated by it? Why do it? People wore glasses before this was possible, right?

DEAR READER — People didn't wear shoes either if you go back far enough. If you want to look at all the inside of the eye it is best to dilate the eye so you can see everything. You could be fitted with glasses without even looking inside the eye but that is poor practice.

The stuff is usually Neo-Synephrine and it has an adrenaline-like action. The small amount needed should not affect you.

What The Day Will Bring...

YOUR BIRTHDAY March 6, 1983
It will behoove you this coming year to go out of your way to make as many friends as possible in your field of endeavor. Insiders who get to know and like you will help advance your career.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) It could prove unwise to go to friends today for financial or career advice. Although eager to help, they might not have a full understanding of the circumstances. The 1983 predictions for Pisces are now ready. Send $1 to Astro-Graph, Box 489, Radio City Station, N.Y. 10019. Be sure to give your zodiac sign. Send an additional $2 for the NEW Astro-Graph Matchmaker wheel and booklet. Reveals romantic combinations and compatibilities for all signs.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) Be assertive today, but take care not to cross the line to where others feel you're merely being pushy. This would cause them to erect barriers.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) You will handle yourself well in business situations today, but you could let your guard down in social areas and say or do things which you shouldn't.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) There's a possibility today you might be kinder to your newer acquaintances than you will be to old friends. Avoid preferential treatment.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) You'll perform well if left to your own devices today, but you might not do too well if you team up with persons whose goals are not in harmony with yours.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) As long as everything runs smoothly today you're a pleasant person to be around, but when confronted with obstacles you could overreact negatively.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) Be aware of your limitations today, as well as those of associates. If you push either to the breaking point undesirable results are likely.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) It will be easy to overlook the faults of outsiders today, but you might not have the same tolerance with your mate or family members.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) Be sharing with the deserving today. On the other hand, don't be reluctant to say "no" to persons who have no right to make demands of you.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) The important thing today is to think before you do something, not afterward. Make your first thoughts as wise as your second ones.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) Your insights and intuition will direct your proper mode of behavior today. Unfortunately, you might not pay any attention — and do otherwise.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) Let your logic govern your actions today, not your sentiment or feelings. Permit emotion to dominate and you could make wrong choices.

Take this hand. Most pairs got to three no-trump. Some actually went down after a spade lead when they started on diamonds by leading the seven to dummy's queen.

Oswald: "Here's the bidding and play where one South played three no-trump and made six. South was too strong to open one no-trump and chose one club. North responded one diamond. East's two diamond bid was a weak major suit cue bid. South decided to keep his non-vulnerable opponents out and jumped to three no-trump."

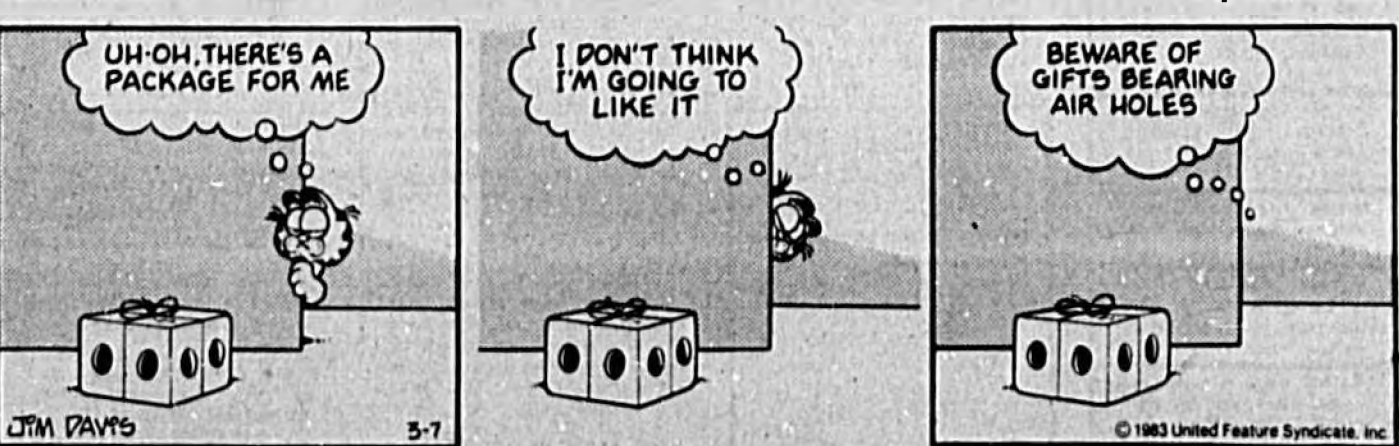

Jim: "South won the spade lead and started diamonds with the ace. East showed out, so South continued with the 10. West covered with the jack. Dummy's queen won. South came to his hand with the heart ace over East's queen. Led his last diamond and ran the suit."

Oswald: "East had to make a lot of discards. Somewhere along the line he discarded a club. Now South, who had eight tricks in, refused to try a club finesse and played his ace. West's king dropped and South wound up with six diamonds, four clubs, two aces and a near top."

Oswald: "Let's use some hands from the Texas qualifying for the Grand National Pairs to show luck and skill in match point duplicate." Jim: "Skill is the main ingredient in duplicate success, but luck sure helps."
