PRAGUE, Apr. 5.—(AP)—Gypsy caravans are a thing of the past here. The government of former Czechoslovakia clamped down on the "wanderlust" of gypsy tribes. February 1 was the deadline for every gypsy to register a permanent residence with the police authorities. Failure to do so means internment in a labor camp. The ordinance was adopted from Germany where a similar decree has been in effect several years.

Roosevelt Makes Consolidation Of Treasury Posts

Order For Changes Will Become Effective In Next 60 Days

WASHINGTON, Apr. 5.—(AP)—President Roosevelt yesterday sent to Congress a new government reorganization order providing for consolidation of several treasury functions under a permanent fiscal officer, and for changes in the agriculture and interior department set-ups.

The order, the third promulgated by Roosevelt under reorganization authority granted him last year, will become effective in 60 days, unless specifically rejected by either House or Senate.

Roosevelt estimated the changes will save only $150,000 annually but he added that "if they resulted in no administrative savings at all, I should still consider them worthwhile in view of the increased effectiveness of administration that will result."

The order made no change in the status of the forest service, now under the agriculture department, which has been the center of a heated undercover rivalry between Secretary of Agriculture Wallace and Secretary of Interior Ickes, who has reportedly been seeking transfer of the service to his department.

Asked at his press conference whether the forestry transfer might be included in his fourth reorganization order, which he expects to send up later this week, the President warned correspondents not to write themselves out on a limb.

Under yesterday's order the proposed fiscal officer would be a permanent civil service employe with rank of assistant secretary of treasury, who would take over functions now performed by the treasury's public debt service, the commissioner of accounts and deposits, and the United States treasurer.

In addition, the order provides for: 1. Assumption by the secretary of treasury of full jurisdiction over the federal alcohol administration, now a quasi-independent agency.

2. Consolidation of the bureau of fisheries and the bureau of biological survey in a fish and wild life service in the interior department.

3. Placing in the federal land office of functions of recorder of the general land office. The order abolishes the latter office as "a relic of the quill and box in the transcription of land records."

4. Consolidation of the agricultural adjustment administration's division of marketing and marketing agreements with the federal surplus commodities corporation in a new agency to be known as the surplus marketing administration.

5. Abolition of now-vacant positions of commissioners of immigration as well as of positions of district commissioners of immigration and naturalization. Functions of these offices will be assumed by district directors of immigration and naturalization.

John L. Lewis Lashes Out At AFL Maneuvers

WASHINGTON, Apr. 5.—(AP)—CIO President John L. Lewis, charged last night Wagner act amendments approved by the House labor committee are "the fruit of an unholy intrigue between anti-union manufacturers and AFL craft union leaders blinded by partisan venom."

He said the four amendments sponsored by Chairman Norton, Democrat, New Jersey, of the labor committee, were introduced last night by AFL President Green, are "a dastardly attempt by AFL leaders and their anti-union allies to put a competing labor organization out of business through congressional enactment."

The Norton changes among other things would increase the present NLRB membership from three to five, apparently in an effort to change some board policies to accord with views of President Roosevelt's latest appointee, William M. Lester.

James Barbee Appears At Tallahassee Meet

TALLAHASSEE, Apr. 5.—(Special)—After speaking in Lake City, Live Oak, Jasper, Madison, Greenville and Monticello, James Barbee made his first public appearance in the Tallahassee bandshell. This politically minded city was greatly interested in his plans for the State, if elected governor, which he outlined briefly. "First will come the appointment of some 3,000 jobs. I am going to do my best to appoint men and women who are capable and honest. A Governor may be honest himself but if he is surrounded by lazy crooks he cannot serve the people as they should be served. Many of these jobs are now held by fine workers and it would be poor business to appoint someone in their place. My plan will be to keep the good ones and replace the loafers.

Holland Declares Interest In Labor And Agriculture

Bartow Candidate For Governor Brings Candidacy To Voters Of Seminole

Large Audience Attends Rally

Cites His Record As Proof Of Interest In Aged And Schools

Spesard L. Holland, champion of the working man in the Florida State Senate for eight years, last night brought his campaign for governor into Seminole County before one of the largest audiences to hear a political candidate in recent years.

Senator Holland, who was introduced by J. C. Hutchison, declared his interest in agriculture and the citrus industry and cited his liberal record in the state legislature to support his contention; in addition he read official records of the Florida State Senate and reports of the legislative committee of the four railroad brotherhoods proving his interest in the working man and woman.

He further presented proof of his interest in the consumer, producer, the old folks of the state, schools and school teachers, farmers and livestock men, the small citrus grower, and the small merchant.

The speech was delivered from a truck which served as a makeshift stage on the corner of First Street and Magnolia Avenue. Mr. Holland used a public address system which reached the entire crowd on First Street and Magnolia Avenue including those sitting in their cars down both sides of the street for nearly a block away.

Mr. Hutchison declared that Senator Holland was qualified in every way to be governor of Florida and that he was the champion of the people.

Declaring that he believes himself to be the best qualified man in the race because of his experience with business, legal and governmental affairs, Mr. Holland said that he has four promises to give the people of the state with assurance that he will be able to carry them out.

These four promises are: 1. That he will create harmony between the executive and legislative branches of the state government; 2. That he will appoint men and women to office on a merit basis only; 3. That he will notify these appointees that they have a free hand to do the best job within their ability without political interference and not as mere dispensers of political patronage; 4. That he will so practice economy in the departments under him that they will be examples in economy to other branches of government.

As a basis for a long range conservation program, Holland advocated the establishment of public hunting grounds out of lands which have been taken over by the state under the Murphy law. Such a plan, Holland said, would prevent the lands being dumped on the real estate market to ruin prices and would provide recreation spots for the poor man who cannot now hunt and fish because most of the lands of the state are fenced or posted.

Trade Program Extension For 3 Years Voted

Roosevelt And Hull Score Victories In 42-37 Senate Vote

WASHINGTON, Apr. 6.—(AP)—The Senate, by a vote of 42 to 37, passed a three-year extension of the trade agreements program yesterday, thereby giving President Roosevelt a major victory over Vice President Garner, who had striven to limit the bill to one year.

The senate's action sent the key administration legislation to the White House, the House having previously approved an identical measure. Besides being a triumph for the administration, the bill was heralded as perhaps the congressional session's biggest test, the result also elated Secretary of State Hull, because the program would remove tariff and other trade barriers in return for concessions from other nations in the cornerstone of his foreign policy.

Some considered the result might enhance his chance for the Democratic presidential nomination, although others thought the sharp divisions of opinion within the Democratic party on the trade issue might have the opposite effect.

The passage through Congress of the act continuing the trade agreements program in force for the next three years will afford profound satisfaction to all those who have been observing and approving the operation of the program from the standpoint of our national interest.

On the final roll-call all Republicans present voted against continuation of the program. They were joined by 16 Democrats, mostly from the west, Senator Pepper of Florida voted against and Andrews was paired against.

The Garner-Roosevelt split, resulting in a 46-33 administration victory, came on an amendment offered by Senator Walsh, Democrat, Massachusetts, to limit extension of the program to only one year.

Fourteen Democrats and 20 Republicans voted for the proposal, while 48 Democrats were joined by Senator Danaher, Republican, Connecticut, London, Farmer-Laborite, and Norris, Independent, Nebraska, in opposing it. Senator Pepper also voted against the extension, and Andrews was not recorded.

Garner, only Democratic presidential aspirant avowedly opposed to a third term for President Roosevelt, was actively engaged in behind-the-scenes efforts on behalf of the limitation. The President, on the other hand, opposed it.

At his press conference a few hours before the amendment came to a vote, the President told newspapermen he believed the amendment would be very harmful to the nation.

He said it was not good for the country to have a congressional majority ever taking every year, and that this would be true next year regardless of what administration came into power.

Nation Guages U. S. Defenses On Army Day

First Totally Blind Flight Successfully Made By Bomber In Observance Of Day

WASHINGTON, Apr. 6.—(AP)—Army Day, the 53rd anniversary of American entry into the World War, gave the nation opportunity to gauge the progress made in transforming the country's land forces into a streamlined, hard-hitting machine.

Reviewing the record of the past year, military officials expressed gratification at success of the program for re-organizing national defenses. An inventory based on the latest official reports by Secretary Woodring and other officials indicated the War Department's long-sought objective of a compact, fully-trained and equipped professional force ready for action definitely is sighted for the first time in peace.

Arms and equipment are available for an initial protective force of about 400,000.

LANGLEY FIELD, Va., Apr. 6.—(AP)—The first totally blind flight in the history of aviation was completed today by the United States Army's 22½-ton bomber. It landed here from Mitchell Field, New York.

Major Carl McDaniel, in charge of the crew of six, shot off from an outside contact by the blind, dependent children and from allotments made to dependents at home by enrollees in the Civilian Conservation Corps, according to information received today from the State Welfare Board.

During the month of March, figures released by the Board disclosed that this category received a total of $7,597 from the four sources, including $4,070 in old age assistance grants, $311 in aid to blind, $236 in aid to dependent children and $1,000 was paid in compensation to the 60 young men from the county enrolled in the CCC.

Based on these figures, Seminole County is receiving $91,164 annually from the four sources, according to the Welfare Board.

In addition the county received quantities of surplus commodities, distributed by the Welfare Board's surplus commodity department.

No county tax funds are involved in the payment of old age assistance, or aid to blind, the State's portion of the revenue being derived entirely from the beverage tax. Welfare Commissioner C. C. Conington said he also pointed out that the State's portion of the revenue being derived entirely from the beverage tax. Welfare Commissioner C. C. Conington said he also pointed out that the State's portion of the revenue being derived entirely from the beverage tax.

Such a spirit can be developed through an understanding State administration and the cooperation of Florida's citizenry in a project designed to eliminate the section rivalries. What he said "When I am your governor," he added, "I will encourage an all-Florida spirit and will promote cooperative attitude among the various sections of the state."

Seminole County Receives $7,597 Through Welfare Board Agencies

One of Seminole County's most substantial payrolls is derived from the granting of public assistance to the aged, blind, dependent children and from allotments made to dependents at home by enrollees in the Civilian Conservation Corps, according to information received today from the State Welfare Board.

During the month of March, figures released by the Board disclosed that this category received a total of $7,597 from the four sources, including $4,070 in old age assistance grants, $311 in aid to blind, $236 in aid to dependent children and $1,000 was paid in compensation to the 60 young men from the county enrolled in the CCC.

Whitehair Would Encourage Buying Of State Products

MADISON, Wis., Apr. 6.—(Special)—A "buy Florida product" sign must be encouraged to give the farmer, rancher and poultry raiser of this state a profitable outlet for their produce, Finance P. Whitehair of Deland, a candidate for governor, said at a political rally here today.

"We spend 60 million dollars a year out of the state for agricultural products which can be produced right here in Florida," Whitehair said. "The money spent at home, would help raise our average annual wage of $445 per family to a level in keeping with the increased cost of government and would elevate the living standard of Florida farms to at least the relative status of non-engaged in a similar occupation in neighboring states."

Such a spirit can be developed through an understanding State administration and the cooperation of Florida's citizenry in a project designed to eliminate the section rivalries. What he said "When I am your governor," he added, "I will encourage an all-Florida spirit and will promote cooperative attitude among the various sections of the state."

Wide Storm Area Covers Much Of U.S.

Cold, Rains Hit Deep South As Overcast Skies Are Predicted For Eclipse Of Sun

By Associated Press Heavy rains drenched extensive areas of Texas and Oklahoma today as the mercury fell to most sections of the country east of the Mississippi River.

The most pronounced drop in temperature was reported across the entire deep south from Texas to the south Carolina coast. Most sections in that area were 10-18 degrees colder than yesterday.

Skies were overcast in south Florida and north Florida. Some rain was in prospect. The front area, which also covered part of New Mexico, was sweeping eastward and weather observers said there was a possibility of a good opportunity to view tomorrow's annual eclipse of the sun anywhere east of the Mississippi.

The full phase will be visible from Texas to Florida—the weather clear.

Colorado and New Mexico reported snow. Frost coats in the Spangling, S. C. area. In the Pennsylvania flood area, no rain was reported.

Winter storm took at the southwest Friday, causing food shortages in the usually lush Rio Grande valley at Albuquerque, N. M., to haul out smudge pots and covering central and eastern New Mexico and west Texas with snow.

The cold front which swept across the Gulf of Mexico and the Gulf of California was expected to bring a low of 20 degrees or below for a month or more.

Norwegians Fear Being Drawn Into Europe's Conflict

Interference With Free Shipping In Her Waters By Belligerents Protested

Neutral Norway today expressed fears of being drawn into the war "at once" if pressure from belligerents should result in any "one-sided" interference with free shipping in her waters.

Foreign Minister Koht, speaking before Parliament, pointed remarks at the Allies, who have protested that Germany is receiving supplies through belligerent waters, but also took a day at Germany for selling Norwegian merchantmen.

Authorized German consuls, serving the notes handed by the Allies to Norway and Sweden as outlining the Allied attitude on neutrality, had another "discovery" yesterday.

Koht said Swedish iron ore exports had dropped to one-fourth of the pre-war tonnage and that much more went to Britain than Germany.

He contended free shipping through Norwegian waters is of more value to the British than to Germany.

The blockade chiefs of France and Britain conferred in London, according to the news, was at transport by Germany. It is acknowledged that "air holes" in the blockade have caused important, but possible methods of smuggling from a year or two ago.

Loop Clubs Train Guns On Sanford As "Team To Beat"

Team Managers Have Difficulty In Making New League Rules Fit

Biggest Problem In Camps Is Regulations Requiring At Least 6 Rookies; And $1,200 Limit For Salaries

LEAGUE SERVICE BUREAU—While seven days of the opening games of the Florida State League's 75th consecutive season of summer-day operations, plots of the club's new findings for the race ahead today are faced with the task of slanting professional training squads down to fit the $1,200 salary-limit regulation and the league's 14 player-limit rule.

Flauntingly speaking, seven of the plots, none of them new-comers to the league, will be making the eight-hundred from the spring camp for it is openly admitted throughout the circuit that Sanford, 1935 champions of the league and the southeast and now known as the Seminoles, is the team to beat.

But, such is the calibre of these seven plots, all veterans of the majors or high minors, that manager Billie Whitney Campbell, new Sanford manager succeeding the late Alexander, will have to watch every corner from Sunday on.

Most interesting development of pre-season speculation is centering at Ocala, bustling Marion county metropolis making its first appearance in professional baseball.

Slipping into the breach, occasioned when Palatka fans "fumbled for the check" instead of digging into their jeans and saving a franchise that will grow more valuable in time, Jacksonville and Ocala sportsmen took over a squad that, under the direction of the veteran Wilbur Good, should make its mark from the start.

Managerial assignments this year read more than ever like a "Who's Who?" of baseball.

Deputies Beach, again to be replaced with St. Louis Cardinal farm talent, will be piloted by one Dickie Kerr, hero of the 1918 world's series with its "Black Sox" scandal.

John Gansel, for years a moulder of championship and pennant-winning teams is back at the helm at Ocala for Clark Griffith who will pour top talent into the loop this season around. Manuel "Buck" Onis, catcher, will be known as manager but there's few who doubt that Gansel will lead this team out a winner.

Bill "Rawhead" Rodgers, major league infield ace in the middle 1900's and former pilot of the Sanford teams of 1937 and 1938, will direct activities at DeLand where Francis Whitehair, a leading candidate for governor, will have player support from Joe Engel, the Chattahoochee miracle man.

Wilbur Good, ten years a major league star and former manager of the pennant-winning Kansas City and Atlanta teams, according to turn out a winner at DeLand after several seasons of retirement.

Earl Yde, former Pittsburgh and St. Louis Cardinal hurler who started world's series glory, then over at Leesburg in an attempt to turn out a pennant-winner to match the 1935 championship team.

Larry Larabee, one-time Florida State League pilot and for several recent years manager of semi-pro teams in South Florida, will attempt to step into the shoes vacated by Don McShane at Gainesville.

Alan Mobley, known from one end of the league to the other as the miracle manager of 1932, returns to the helm at St. Augustine where Fred Francis, the "angel" of virtually every Saint squad of the past ten years, again will have a partner.

Sanford's chances to repeat its sensational 1935 (and rest more in the hands of young Campbell than upon any one person connected with the squad. An expected infielder, a scrappy and baseball-wise player, Campbell should find little trouble in running complete leadership of a team composed of youngsters determined to go places.

Biggest problem around the camps today is that presented by a new ruling requiring that at least six rookies be carried on the roster of every club. Men of this type seem hard to put to hear half of the managers tell it, particularly Rodgers who headed into Georgia over the weekend on a search for more talent.

In requiring the appearance of six rookies instead of four as of yore, league moguls definitely recognized the fact that Class D baseball is the testing ground for youngsters rather than the refuge for the veteran on his way out.

Swinging around the camps in the order in which they began training we find:

At Sanford a squad of small but fast men, eleven of them members of the 1935 team. They are: outfielders Willie Skewen and Red Martin, infielders Rick Gillespie and Whitey Campbell, pitcher Frank Hudson, Cleo Jeter, Joe Pender, Bill Robinson, Al Nixon, Jodie Howington, and John Vincent. The squad began workouts March 10, has played five exhibitions to date, and stands as negotiating replacements for 1935 expected to be behind the plate, on first and on third.

At St. Augustine, the nucleus for a world beater in the form of such 1935 aces as pitchers Huddy Lark, Wiley, Carson and McKinstry, infielders Bob Brown, Gus Hauers, catcher-manager Muley, outfielder Jack Banks, Buster Kinard. Just as soon as Judge Stranahan decides whether or not Lyle Judy, Pauline Kirkland, Jerry Gelberich, Levi Woods and Earl Kiebler belong to the Saints, will be established. Should Stranahan rule the club for $100 was illegal, you'll have to join the Saints in the top bracket without question.

At Leesburg a team more in the making than any in the league except maybe DeLand. Returnees include Ray Goodby, Charlie Arnold, Roger Fremming, and Wally McCormick with maybe Roddy Grant and Steve Rink included. But, pipe, Yde's prospects weren't at all brightened when the veteran and highly effective Jake Bunch decided to hang up his glove.

At Ocala, a likely looking group of Palatka holdovers that include pitchers Gibbs Miller, John Sheffield, Doug Ivey and Remo Cirone, infielders Bob Brown, Tony Rinaldi, Agon Gschallit, Sam Wounack, and Dan D'Ambrosio. Manager Good is credited with the ability to make any man produce if he has it in him, thus putting it squarely up to the former Palatka that this is the year "or else."

At Orlando, a squad that includes but four players in the lineup. They are: pitcher Everett Staley; infielders Billy Gobel, Carl Armstrong, Cal Goodwin; outfielders, Russ Loman and Gene Hartman. Lineup also has handful of newcomers, all rookies. It's a camp full of spirited competition as opposed to other camps where teams are almost "set."

At DeLand a question mark

Lucky Hog Rumps Home In Semi-Final Round Of Central Florida Dog Derby

Lucky Hog rumped home in the second and semi-final round of the Central Florida Derby at the Sanford-Orlando Kennel Club last night when Grand Man, the leading contender for title honors was scratched due to a leg injury.

Only five dogs lined up for the Derby feature and some of the edge was taken off the event when Grand Man failed to respond to the parade to post. But the brilliant pointer could not have reached top form with a lead leg and the scratch was announced at the last minute.

The absence of Grand Man gave Hog his favorite night out. He broke this with Lady Max setting the pace. The big 70-pound greyhound with the galloping stride of a horse moved up on the back stretch and took the lead rounding the turn for home. Lady Max made a game effort for the top but the Hog breezed in by two lengths.

Lady at Arms, a co-favorite with the winner on the odds board at 8 to 5, failed in her home-stretch sprint and was relegated to fourth place when Happy Career finished third. These four dogs qualified for the finals with Fair Speed being eliminated.

In addition to the four qualifying last night, the complete box for the finals next Monday will include Lucky Dog, Merry Ida, Extra Blue and Miss Fortune.

Number seven dogs again figured in the consolation events and this number easily leads in the week's winners. In the first round it was the top field team of Irish Victory and Eric and the pool amounted to $30.20 each.

The daily doubles was won by the 6-7 combination of Can Peer and Mark Deason, the odds being $113.60. In the closing quiniel it was the 7-8 pair and this book-up proved a popular selection when the price fell to $18. Dixie Clipper and Sand Baby were the quiniel winners.

Four more programs remain before the 90-day season comes to an end next Wednesday night. After the Derby finals Monday night, the consolation heat will be run Tuesday.

In tonight's feature event from the future box Black Sox and again go to post with a week's record of heavy wagers included in the top field will be Lucky Top, Jappy, Bobby Chis, Golden Wares, Lucky Jubal, Top the Way and Ripper Corn.

State Road No. 63 is closed between Zolfo and Griffin's Corner in Hardee county. Traffic will detour north out on State Road No. 2 to Wauchula, thence east on State Road No. 32. Southwest traffic will reverse above detour.
