

JAPS DECIDE TO STICK TO OLD POLICY

Hirota Tells World Nation Will Never Discuss East With Western Powers

TOKYO, May 5.—(AP)—A foreign office spokesman, refusing to clarify Koki Hirota's sensational new declaration of Japan's "Handoff China" policy asserted today that the "World must make its own interpretation."

The spokesman did say, however, that the speech was not intended as a reply to Secretary of State Cordell Hull's full statement America's position in the Orient.

The interpretation placed upon the foreign minister's speech by foreign diplomats was that Hirota served notice that Japan will not participate in consultations with other signatories of the nine power treaty in the event Article Seven is invoked.

The treaty, among other things, guarantees an open door in China. A new and stronger statement of Japan's "Asia for Asiatics" policy came yesterday from Foreign Minister Hirota, who intimated emphatically that never again will his nation discuss Far Eastern problems with Western powers.

"We shall not repeat what happened at Geneva," Hirota declared in an address to perfecting governments, referring to the treaty with the League of Nations over Japanese activities in Manchuria.

"We have no objection whatever to exchanging views, if necessary, with each individual power regarding treaty rights and interests," he explained and added:

"But, in view of the fact that on questions of East Asia our views were rejected by the powers at the Geneva meeting of the League of Nations, which forced our decision to withdraw from the League, it would surely be unwise to reproduce a situation such as we encountered at Geneva."

While only the Geneva incident was mentioned, observers considered the minister was implying that Japan never again will debate Oriental terms with Western nations, as she did in 1922 when the nine-power treaty was framed.

"Japan is the principal protector of the stability of the eastern Pacific," Hirota insisted.

"It is Japan's mission to maintain peace and order in eastern Asia in cooperation with other countries of the Far East."

"Japan sincerely desires the unification, integrity and prosperity of China, which can be attained only through China's own self-strengthening efforts."

The speech followed the general line of statements of China policy which started Apr. 17 with foreign office spokesman's declaration that Japan holds to a "hands-off China" policy toward the Orient.

Small Audience Hears Candidates At Paola

An audience of not more than 50 persons, most of them from Sanford, gathered at Wilson School in Paola last night to attend the second of a series of 10 political meetings to be held in the county under the auspices of the Seminole County Democratic Executive Committee.

Hugh Johnson Defends NRA In Characteristic Fashion; Orders New Prices On Tires

Administrator Warns Emergency Declared As Existing In Retail Trade Now Operating Under Truce

COLUMBUS, O., May 5.—(AP)—A declaration that enemies of NRA might succeed in scuttling the whole Recovery program if its supporters allowed themselves to split into quarreling groups, was made here last night by Hugh S. Johnson.

Speaking before a mass meeting in the Ohio State Fair stadium, Johnson defended NRA against the whole line of critics, taking up one by one: Farmer opposition, and charges of "little fellow" oppression, and monopoly and big business, and charges of "cronyism" to each with arguments sprinkled with such phrases as "arrant buncombe" and "supreme moonshine."

"They are wealthy, powerful and they do not scatter their shot," said Johnson of the "enemies."

"They all want just one thing, and they know exactly what they want—to scuttle the whole Recovery program, make the Blue Eagle walk the plank, bust the Jolly Roger on the ship of state, and sail back to the good old piracy that brought the crash of 1929 and all that has happened since."

"With the numerical odds so hopelessly against them—with the wreckage created by their leadership still smoking, there is a temptation to ignore them. But there is one way in which they might succeed—the old Napoleonic strategy of divide and conquer—split the friends of Recovery into small quarreling groups and then absorb each one in detail."

"They have begun already with the almost ridiculous slogan, 'The whole Recovery program is actually retarding Recovery, take off the brakes, etc. Well, what does 'take off the brakes' mean? It means 'back to 1928.' It means 'let us alone.'"

"It is being said now that the program is deliberately being weakened by the Administration in answer to these attacks. It is not being weakened."

The chief danger to NRA now, he said, is "the reluctance of un-fitted groups to assume burdens with benefits, the possibility of loss of necessary solidarity."

Former KKK Official Is Guilty Of Fraud

JACKSONVILLE, May 5.—(AP)—Edward Young Clarke, formerly an official of the Ku Klux Klan, and his wife, Martha Ann Clarke, were convicted in federal court here yesterday on six of seven counts charging use of the mails to defraud. The charges were in connection with the organization of East Kay, Inc., a fraternal order of which Clarke was president and his wife secretary.

Judge Wm. H. Barrett, of Augusta, Ga., denied a motion for a new trial and remanded the Clarks in custody of the United States marshal pending arrangement of bonds. Passing of sentence was postponed, probably until June as the judge said he wished to consider any extenuating circumstances.

Conviction under any of the counts carries five years' imprisonment, or a $1000 fine, or both, in the discretion of the court, they will appeal.

HOUSE PASSES STOCK MARKET CONTROL BILL

Regulatory Measure Gets Big Majority Vote Before Being Sent On To Senate

WASHINGTON, May 5.—(AP)—Government regulation of the nation's stock exchange was voted by a dominant bipartisan majority yesterday in the House.

The bill brought 280 votes for the measure and 84 against. So great was the support attracted by the legislation that all efforts to attach weakening amendments were defeated and the only changes made in the committee draft were those which the committee itself found acceptable.

It now goes to the Senate where a measure similar in most details but containing several important differences is awaiting consideration. It has been approved by committee and debate probably will start next week.

Four days of House discussion brought repeated references to "the men surrounding the President," Republican attacks on the "brain trust" and repeated Republican assertions that the measure was intended to put the government in control not only of the stock exchange but of all business.

Earman Coming To Help In Collection Of Personal Taxes

Writing having been given some weeks ago that Comptroller James M. Lee is determined to take action against all persons failing to pay delinquent personal taxes, announcement was made today that Sheriff J. F. McLeod and Tax collector Jim D. Jenkins, assisted by Joe S. Earman of Vero Beach, chief personal property tax inspector of Florida, will set out on Wednesday in a determined drive for the collection of all delinquent taxes in this county.

"That no delinquent will be spared during the drive which has already begun and is to be concentrated starting Wednesday, is indicated in a telegram from Mr. Earman, received today by Collector Jenkins.

"Mr. Earman stated as follows: 'Will be in Sanford on Wednesday morning to advise with you in reference to collection of personal property taxes. Under your oath of office it is your duty to collect these taxes, if necessary, by levy and sale of the goods and chattels so assessed. There are no exceptions under the law. Each taxpayer must receive the same fair and equal treatment. The Comptroller's office will do its duty under the law which requires that it advise and assist you in the discharge of your official duties. I can do almost anything for you but assume your personal responsibility and active duty. If you are threatened by legal action, I will be very glad to assist you.'

"In answer to a question which has been asked me frequently these past few weeks," he stated, "I wish to state that it had been my wish and purpose to announce myself at this time as a candidate for the office of State Attorney."

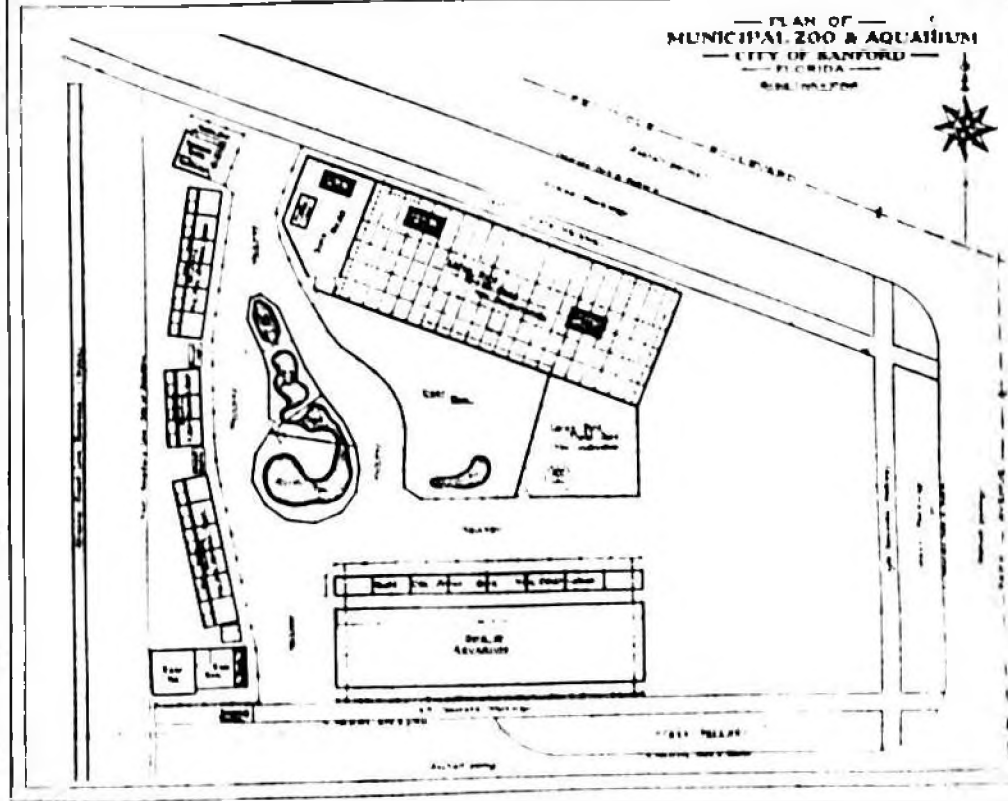

"Also," he stated, "contrary to my custom in the past, I had planned to conduct the campaign along other lines than just the presentation of my own qualifications."

"However," he concluded, "owing to the continued illness of State Attorney Boyle, an illness which I understand would prevent him from active participation in the campaign, I have decided not to become a candidate opposing him for that office in this primary."

Because of this, it will be Tuesday before the final list of candidates will be known.

The law provides that candidates shall qualify not less than 30 days before the first primary. Attorney General Cary D. Land ruled that Sunday also was a legal day for qualifications, and Sunday midnight will be the expiration of the 30-day time before the first primary. Candidates for county offices are allowed to qualify with the local circuit court clerk until May 11.

MELLON DENIES OWING U. S. ANY TAX ON INCOME

Former Cabinet Head Says He's Already Paid Over His Share

PITTSBURGH, May 5.—(AP)—Andrew Mellon discussed last week seeking $1,000,000 additional tax and a penalty of $650,510.08 on his income for 1931.

The former secretary of the treasury said the levy was in addition to a "quite substantial sum" already paid for that year.

He said also he had given $1,800,000 for charitable, religious and public educational purposes, and intended to appeal for a refund.

"I am advised that my tax affairs are to be brought before the federal grand jury next week, but I am as much in the dark as ever as to any grounds which the attorney general can possibly have for such extraordinary action in my case," Mellon stated.

"The attorney general has announced he is acting under a new tax policy of sending to the federal grand jury income tax cases which under long settled practice and in accordance with an act of congress would have been disposed of in the treasury department. Later he announced voluntary offers of settlement had been accepted in a number of cases."

"Insofar as I am concerned, I wish it to be clearly understood that I have made no such offer of settlement and never intend to make one. I owe the government no additional taxes. I have overpaid, not underpaid, my taxes."

Mellon characterized the government's threatened action as an "utter disregard of statutory regulations" which "confirmed the warning I received more than a year ago from a source high in the councils of the Democratic party in which I still have many friends that a defamatory effort was being made to discredit me in connection with either my administration of the treasury or my tax affairs."

Derby Battles To Uphold Its Prestige

LOUISVILLE, May 5.—(AP)—Notwithstanding a fire which left two stables at Churchill Downs in charred ruins and a possible deluge threatened by gathering thunderstorms, the sixth Kentucky Derby battle bravely today to uphold its prestige, if not its full purse.

Overnight the historic race course reeled from the panicky effects of a four alarm fire of undetermined origin which broke out early last night, destroyed two big barns, and thoroughly startled the thoroughbred community, including 10 derby three-year-olds valued at close to $1,000,000 on the hoof.

Handlers and trainers prompt work kept the horses unharmed in the spectacular blaze. Only one Derby eligible horse, named Howard, was in the stables which caught fire. Slow rain from heavily overcast skies began to fall today as thousands started for the Downs.

The weather forecast was a forecast of showers during the afternoon but the track was in fine form and experts said it would take considerable rain to slow it up much although any rain was bound to have an effect on chances of the entries.

Fugarty, a long shot was the first scratch announced.

ABANDONMENT OF ARTIFICIAL PRICE LIFTING RUMORED

Administration Said Committed To New Plan For Recovery

WASHINGTON, May 5.—The Administration was reported authoritatively yesterday to have decided to try to raise commodity prices indirectly by stimulating business activity rather than experimenting currency depreciation or price-fixing.

Disappointment over results of recent price-raising schemes was believed to have led Administration officials to place more emphasis on natural recovery processes through quickening formal channels of trade.

With the problem of business recovery and prices closely related, it is not believed that all artificial price lifting plans will be abandoned. But it is thought that from now on the recovery drive will center on new plans to stimulate industrial activity and less on pure price lifting schemes.

President Roosevelt is believed still to wish prices close to the 1928 levels, but the fact that progress has been less rapid than first anticipated may account for the supplementing of price-lifting plans by direct industrial aid.

Administration officials are still watching closely the movement of commodity prices but appear less impatient with the relatively slow upward progress than recently.

SENATE SILVER BLOC LEADERS ARE CONFIDENT

Train Conference With President Has Them Believing Metal Is To Be Nationalized

WASHINGTON, May 5.—(AP)—Senate silver bloc leaders returned to Washington today after a train conference with President Roosevelt, confident that the Chief Executive is sympathetic to a legislative program providing for nationalization of silver and a permissive purchase plan looking toward the creation of a 70-30 ratio, with gold as the primary money.

Members of a group who traveled northward with the President as far as Baltimore expressed gratification at the results of the conference and unanimously predicted an agreement could be reached.

The President invited them aboard his train as he journeyed to New York to attend the funeral of former treasury secretary William Woodin.

Meanwhile, much interest was centered in the capital as the result of an announcement by Senator Borah, Idaho, Republican independent, who today called for a rebirth of the Republican party shorn of its old "Economic and financial influences."

He said that if it is given proper leadership, it would be restored to power.

In an interview concerning prospects for the party now a new chairman is being sought to replace E. V. Rieder, the Senator emphasized that he is not advancing any candidates for that post, or the Presidency. He hinted very strongly, however, that he thought the Hoover influence should be eliminated.

To The Voters Of The 23rd JUDICIAL CIRCUIT In answer to a question which has been asked of me frequently these past few weeks I wish to state it had been my wish and purpose to announce myself at this time as a candidate for the office of State Attorney. Also, contrary to my custom in the past, I had planned to conduct the campaign along other lines than just the presentation of my own qualifications. However, owing to the continued illness of Mr. Boyle, which I understand would prevent him from active participation in the campaign I have decided not to become a candidate opposing him for that office in this primary. With best wishes to all, I remain,

MIAMI TO GIVE UP MUNICIPALITY

County Action Killed Attempt To Surrender Charter in 1931

MIAMI, May 6.—Here is a city that tried to quit and couldn't, in 1931, South Miami surrendered its charter to the Legislature and closed its town hall through court action. The charter was not allowed to be resumed by Miami because the people need it or not.

Just south of Coral Gables and forming a part of the Metropolitan Miami area, South Miami is practically the gateway to the tomato and truck country in the south part of the county. But aside from housing those who direct the farming or work there, South Miami has no other reason for its municipal existence and so decided in 1931.

The cost to the taxpayers of property within South Miami is a little more than $4,000 a year as a result of rearing its city status. Debts for street lighting and fire equipment are a considerable liability on this property and taxes for their payment would have been levied by the county commission, had the charter surrendered struck.

But now South Miami must pay for rent on a town hall, for sanitation, for the policeman fire protection, for a sanitary department, for elections and tax collections and attorney's fees and auditing and a clerk to keep the records. That these expenses have been held to a minimum does not lessen the fact that they would not exist at all had it not been for a legal technicality.

When South Miami was incorporated, just after the boom, it spent $55,000 a year for operating purposes alone, in a community then less than 1,000 in population. By the time the plan to cease municipal operations had crystallized, the cost of running the various departments had been pared down to $16,125 a year. From August, 1931, to April, 1933 when the courts held that South Miami must resume its municipal status the only taxes were for unpaid bills and a certificate of indebtedness. In 1932, the budget was much smaller, and now is only $5,000 for all expenses except street lighting and debt.

Those who are studying the possibility of cheaper government for small communities in Florida might consider South Miami. If it could have its internal affairs represented by a small board of trustees and a clerk with police and fire sanitation supplied from a central office serving many such communities within the county, the saving to property owners would be material.

FILM FLICKERS

By GLADYS M. WILLIAMS

With five musical numbers deftly established as songs, the Fox musical production, "Stand Up and Cheer" which plays at the Milne Theatre Sunday and Monday, May 6th and 7th, takes its place as filmdom's outstanding contribution to the field of popular music. The list is headed by "Out of the Red" followed by "Aunt Jimmie" and "Baby Take a Bow" and others equally as good. The plot, a novel one, revolves about the efforts of the federal government to get the country "out of the red" via song, dance and entertainment. Warner Baxter, as the Secretary of Amusement, is his usual charming self. Little Shirley Temple, the four-year-old screen star, shows why she earned a long-term contract with Fox. Madge Evans has the feminine lead while the staging team is none other than John Sola and Sylvia Price. Among the other members of the cast are James Dunn, Nigel Bruce, Aunt Jimmie, and Stepin Fetchit. Good entertainment, suitable for the whole family. The kiddies will love Little Shirley.

"This Side of Heaven," the film billed for Tuesday and Wednesday, May 8th and 9th at the Milne, presents a human story of one man's family that will make every man, woman and child think. The story deals with the shadow of imprisonment which hangs over Lionel Barrymore, who has been innocently involved in an embezzlement in his firm, while the romances of his children and the high hopes of his wife in becoming a successful novelist pile themselves one upon the other and reach their climaxes simultaneously. Supporting Mr. Barrymore are Fay Bainter, Mae Clark, Tom Brown, Una Merkel, Mary Carlisle, Dickie Moore, Eddie Nugent and others. (General)

The added attraction for Tuesday and Wednesday is Barbara Stanwyck, star of "Gambling Lady" supported by Joel McCrea and Pat O'Brien. The picture is of a square shooting gambling lady who weds a man of wealth and then sacrifices her own love to free her husband from a murder charge of which she knows he is guilty. (Adult)

Lanny Ross, the famous radio tenor of the Maxwell House Showboat, makes his screen debut in "Melody in Spring," at the local theatre on Thursday and Friday, May 10th and 11th. This musical romance concerns the hilarious adventures that befall an ambitious singer when he attempts to sell himself as a feature on the nation's most popular radio hour. In order to gain the interest of the owner of the program, Charles Ruggles, Lanny finds he must acquire a hobby. He selects mountain climbing. In his climbing he "falls" for Ruggles' daughter, Ann Ruggles. Lanny finds he must acquire a hobby. He selects mountain climbing. In his climbing he "falls" for Ruggles' daughter, Ann Ruggles. Lanny finds he must acquire a hobby. He selects mountain climbing. In his climbing he "falls" for Ruggles' daughter, Ann Ruggles.

With the above entertainment will appear "Berkeley Square" one of the recent outstanding productions. The story combines 1933 and 1784. Peter Standish (Leslie Howard) a modern American, is bequeathed a mansion in London's historic Berkeley Square. Roaming through the old house, finding long-forgotten relics and charms, he becomes obsessed with the idea that the people and conditions of 1784 actually exist in the old house. It is not a dream. Tim turns back 150 years. With only a diary and historical knowledge to guide him Peter mixes his times

SETTLEMENT OF WAR DEBTS SAID PENDING

Rainey Understands Roosevelt As Ready To Suggest Some Kind Of Agreement

WASHINGTON, May 7.—(A.P.)—Speaker Rainey said today that he understood President Roosevelt intends to make a war debt settlement with Finland which is not in default, and then recommend a similar agreement with other nations.

He said he did not know when to expect the debt message from the President.

Credit expansion plans made headway in Congress to the accompaniment of more attempts for the President and silver senators to agree.

The stock exchange bill was put off in the Senate.

The House sought a means of cutting some government expenses by eliminating various recurring appropriations.

Well up in the line for future floor debate was placed a bill to create a $25,000,000 RFC revolving fund for direct five year loans to industry. The Senate Banking Committee approved it.

James Jones as RFC chairman told the House committee that the President favors such loans as supplementing the Glass bill for federal reserve bank loans.

The President lunched with Secretary Morgenthau today to discuss the silver question.

Local Teachers Vote Against League Policy

The Seminole County Unit of the Florida League for Better Schools has sent a protest to the Executive Committee of the Florida League against the further use of school children and school facilities for the distribution of information had the furtherance of the League's program.

At a recent meeting of the local Unit, teachers, discussing the wide and unfavorable publicity which has resulted because children have been used as agents of the League, it was decided that the purpose and program of the League is retarded and injured by such action on the part of school officials and teachers.

It was decided unanimously that the local unit should protest at once to the Executive Committee of the state organization, asking that it instruct all local units of the League to cease further use of school children and facilities for such purpose.

2nd Annual Cracker Day Set For May 26

Second annual Cracker Day celebration will be staged in Sanford all day Saturday, May 26, it was announced Saturday by Mrs. John G. Loomis, chairman of the Seminole County Federation of Women's Club committee on general arrangements.

Practical, national, and local committees for political office have been invited to participate in the speaking program. Invitations have been sent to Senator Park Trammell and the entire group which is in the field against him, Representative Mark Wilcox and his opponents and other notables.

Preliminary program calls for a morning devoted to public speaking, a fish fry at noon, an afternoon of running races and other "Cracker" events, and a monster square dance at night.

Royal Arch Masons To Have Meat Fish Fry

C. J. Smith, secretary of Monroe Chapter, No. 1014, Masons, announced this morning that "We are planning an old-fashioned get-together meeting on the next regular convention which is to be held at the Florida Temple tomorrow night.

"We expect to serve fried fish and all the trimmings," he said "promised by Mr. Lane and Floyd Land, Florida is going to bring the fish from Ocala, and it is in charge of the other fishmen, which means that there will be an abundance for all."

Foulois Held As Violator Of Law

WASHINGTON, May 7.—(A.P.)—A sub-committee of House investigators reported unanimously today that Major-General Benjamin D. Foulois, Chief of the Army Air Corps, had acted "in clear violation of the existing law," in the proposed purchase of airplanes costing $7,500,000. Coupled with criticism of Foulois was commendation of Harry Woodring, assistant war secretary. Recommendation was made in this first formal report of the committee's probe into War Department expenditures since 1926, but future recommendations are promised. The report said Foulois planned to use a Public Works grant for the purchase, without competition, of planes from the Naphthrup Corporation, the Boeing Airplane Company, and the Glenn L. Martin Company. On Woodring's insistence the report added, the plan for direct purchase was dropped, and competitive bids were asked.

Vincent Successful In Canning Turtle Meat

Successful in his experiments at canning native turtle meat, C. L. Vincent, local fisherman, is now seeking a market outlet for the product, it was announced today.

Mr. Vincent, originator of the city's latest industry, has already canned about 100 cans of turtle meat. He uses about one and one-quarter pound of meat in each can, and with an abundance of turtles available, it is reported that his product is "excellent" if one has a taste for turtle meat. He plans to enter production on a large scale if he is able to secure satisfactory markets.

Dollar A Minute Raised This Morning For Benefit Of New Aquarium At Zoo

A dollar a minute for the first three hours of the campaign was the record set by the men and women workers who set out this morning seeking memberships in the Florida Zoological Society which is sponsoring the erection of Florida's largest aquarium in this city before July 4.

As a result of this showing, Jas. L. Marmette, general of the campaign army, issued the following statement at noon:

"We are delighted over the fine returns made by some of the teams. If all of the teams had done proportionately as well during the first few hours of the drive, we would be almost over the three days' goal in the first three hours. It is important that every team worker get right into the swing of this campaign and turn the membership in at the Chamber of Commerce office just as early as possible so that it will inspire the other team workers and that we may quickly reach our goal."

Division A, consisting of women workers who are led by Major Mrs. H. H. Coleman, led in collections at noon with $28.75 turned in. Mrs. R. J. Holly, Sr., Mrs. E. I. Key, Mrs. R. F. Montalvage, and Mrs. H. B. Pope are workers in that division. Mrs. C. R. Mason's Company 2 was second.

Division C under Major W. M. Hayes was second, and Company 3 of which T. W. Lawton is captain with Leota, J. O. Sharon, S. M. Lloyd, E. F. Doudney, and J. F. McCallister was the second company, having turned in $20.50, and being headed only by Mrs. W. F. Watson's team.

Division D under Major G. W. Spence led Division E under W. N. Coleman by only 10 cents.

Highlights of the entire drive to raise $200 by Wednesday night to start an early start may be made toward erection of the zoo:

Five girls turned in for the first time a $5 contributing membership from the Milane Theater, while J. L. Marmette was (Continued On Page Four)

WILCOX SEES QUICK PASSAGE OF HIS BILL

Amendments Made In Senate Have Failed To Weaken Act, Says Florida Solon

WASHINGTON, May 7.—An early agreement by Senate and House conferees on the Wilcox municipal bankruptcy bill was anticipated here yesterday by Representative J. Mark Wilcox, of the measure's author, following a check-up of Congressional sentiment.

Amendments to the bill added by the Senate in the opinion of Representative Wilcox, did not weaken its fundamental structure, though the original House measure provided ample protection for all interests.

Although certain insurance companies and legal and business groups opposed the bill to the last, Representative Wilcox pointed out that most of the opposition was based on constitutional grounds. These grounds the fourth Florida member described as incompatible with the ideals of the New Deal, and at variance with recent interpretive decisions of the federal courts, including the United States supreme court.

Representative Wilcox declined to predict whether the conferees would strike the Senate amendments, but was convinced that no real elements of controversy would arise in the conference. It could not be learned when the conference report would be submitted for final action by both houses.

Hagan Mill, Rebuilt, Is Again Operating

All effects of the recent disastrous fire having been obliterated, the Hagan Turpentine Mill at Markham is again in operation, furnishing employment to about 100 men and women, it was announced this morning.

Rebuilding of the new mill began the day after the early morning fire destroyed the large plant which had been in operation for 27 years. The fire loss was set at $2500.

Capacity of the new plant is an average of 10 barrels of turpentine daily. The plant is being operated daily in the center of a small group of workers' homes.

Zoo Attendant Finds Another Queer Plant

Another oddity in egg-plant growth was reported here last week by Phil King, negro zoo attendant, who exhibited an egg-plant in the exact shape of a fleur-de-lis, popular French flower.

This egg-plant was included in a quantity of discarded vegetables which had been sent to the zoo as food for the animals. King was attracted by the plant's queer shape, and, deciding that it was just as unusual as the "baseball mitt" egg-plant found near the diamond ball field last week, he decided to report it.

Labor Says That Industry, NRA Have Failed To Boost Employment This Spring

WASHINGTON, May 7.—(A.P.)—The American Federation of Labor said yesterday in its monthly survey of business that industry and NRA had failed to increase employment this spring and actually had let it slip back from last October despite a marked increase in profit.

After the big gain of last summer and fall brought about by the blue eagle campaign, said the survey, "there was a change of policy in NRA; emphasis was placed on assistance to vested interests rather than balance in interest and the emergency problem of putting men back to work."

"This spring," it continued, "with production and business activity rising, and profits considerably higher than a year ago, business men were far more able to shorten work hours and put men to work, but they are no longer willing to do so, nor directed to this end."

The federation said dividend payments for the month of March, increased $15,000,000 over March of last year but that the average weekly earnings of labor, increasing 9.7 percent in the same period, had lost the gain in terms of real wages because of a 9.3 increase in the cost of living.

The survey estimated the number of men out of work at 10,000,000 with a net of 2,701,000 actually re-employed by industry during the past year. Work hours have been shortened an average of 2 1/2 a week, it said, "but they are being lengthened as productive activity increases and it is a question whether NRA gains will be held."

FLORIDA'S FARM HOUSING SURVEY HOLDS SURPRISE

Counting two trips a day, rain or shine, Florida farm wives log miles of water nearly a million and a half miles a year.

A farm housing survey recently conducted by the Civil Works Administration also revealed that only about one-fourth of the some 57,300 rural dwellings in the state boast a bath tub or shower.

Almost one-half of the homes are unimproved and approximately 45,000 depend upon gasoline or kerosene lamps for light. More than 600 families still live in log houses.

A vast majority of the homes are less than 24 years old, but almost 3000 were built more than 50 years ago. Nearly 50,000 are one-story.

While the average size of the farms is 101 acres, only 42 are tillable. Some 31,000 white persons own their farms, and 18,000 rent or work on a share basis. Non-white owners, mostly negroes, occupy about 4800 farms. Some 4700 non-white persons operate farms they do not own.

The homes average 4.8 rooms and have an average of 4.4 occupants. Reported in poor condition were the foundations of 29,000 homes, roofs of 28,000 walls and ceilings of 29,100 and floors of 28,500.

It was estimated farmers plan to spend $1,748,500 for alterations and repairs in the next year.

Construction of new houses within the next three years was estimated to be undertaken to the value of $2,000,000. But the vote was 29,160 to 18,400 against borrowing money for construction or repairs even if long-term, low interest loans could be arranged.

Erskine Students Don't Care For Beer

DUE WEST, S. C. May 7.—(A.P.)—This college town of 620 inhabitants evidently doesn't like its beer.

The town received from the state tax commission a nine-cent check its share of the plate beer tax over a six months period. The remittance represented 90 percent of the state tax on beer sold within town limits. Due West is the home of Erskine college.

Givens Loses Appeal For Re-Instatement

TAMPA, May 7.—Morris Givens, suspended solicitor of Hillsborough county, lost his appeal for reinstatement by Governor Sholtz yesterday.

The Governor, in a 60-word letter to Givens, said he found the charges on which he had been suspended were true.

Givens, who was given a hearing by the Governor Monday, remained in Tallahassee until yesterday and left without knowing the decision.

RUSSIA HELD AS RESENTFUL OF U. S. RULING

Debt Default Charge Laid To Soviet By Cummings Serves To Intensify Their Ire

MOSCOW, May 7.—(A.P.)—Attorney General Cummings' ruling that the Soviet government is a defaulter under the Johnson Act appeared certain yesterday to intensify resentment aroused among Soviet officialdom by passage of the bill, shutting off American credit to Moscow.

This sentiment has already crystallized into actual retaliatory steps in the form of a recommendation that all Soviet economic organizations refrain from planning any orders from America with the exception of such items that cannot be had elsewhere.

This recommendation was made recently by the organ of the commissariat of heavy industry and it is understood, has already been put into effect.

Such action, combined with the Soviet's protestations that it cannot be held to have defaulted the Kerenky debt to the United States because of its intervention and also because counter claims against America remain unsettled, puts the question of Soviet American trade, at least for the time being, in a state of deadlock.

Soviet officials thus far have refused to answer the direct question as to whether Moscow is prepared to negotiate for a settlement of claims between the two countries, but apparently at present the Russian temper is not calculated to produce immediate steps in this direction.

American business men who have had a chance to gauge reaction of high economic authorities here to the new law describe it as one of mingled surprise and bitter indignation.

Forestry Assistant Here To Show Films

Assistant District Forester Hanson of the Florida State Forest Service is in the county this week, arranging a schedule for the showing of forestry motion pictures in the schools of the county.

The films tell the story of conservation and its necessity, and it is planned to exhibit them in every school in the county.

Mr. Hanson's appearance here is under the auspices of the special Zoo Committee of the Chamber of Commerce as a part of the campaign for membership in the Florida Zoological Society.

STRUM UNDER KNIFE

Over 175 Foreign-Born Residents Of County To Attend Fete At Club Rooms

Having responded to an invitation broadcast throughout the county last week, over 175 representatives of 25 foreign nations will gather at the Woman's Club building tomorrow night at 8:15 o'clock to be honored guests during an International Friendship Evening which is sponsored by the Literature Department of the Woman's Club of Sanford.

Planned as the most ambitious undertaking of the Literature Department's year, the event is scheduled to be one of the most unique ever staged in the city.

Announcement was made again that the affair is open to all foreign-born residents of the city and county and members of their immediate families, as well as any Woman's Club member.

In an expression of gratitude for the "FINE" response which has met our invitation," Mrs. Julius Dingfelder, who, with Mrs. Frank Evans of Lake Mary comprises the committee on arrangements, stated today that "We are very sorry that several errors crept into our list of persons whom we believed to represent certain nations. Let me assure you that it was an unintentional mistake."

Hostesses for the occasion are the wives of all Sanford Protestant ministers, and Mrs. E. D. Brownlee, as chairman of the hostess committee, will preside over the program meeting.

Many of the nation's will be represented by displays of clothing, food or other articles typical of those nations. The committee requests that all of these exhibitions be brought to the Club before noon Tuesday so that they may be tastefully arranged.

The program will be as follows: Invocation by Rev. Martin J. Brant of Holy Cross Episcopal Church; greetings to the guests, Mrs. Frank Evans; introduction of Mrs. Julius Dingfelder, who will act as mistress of ceremonies during the presentation of the following exhibits:

Insull, Enroute To Chicago, Intent On Full Vindication

ICC Turns Down NRA's Plea For High Rail Rates

WASHINGTON, May 7.—(A.P.)—The Interstate Commerce Commission today turned down a plea of the NRA for an increase in railroad passenger fares in the Southeast.

The Commission granted the Southern Railway permission to continue charging one and one-half cents a mile for day coach travel, and three cents in sleeping and parlor cars for six months after May 1.

Similar permission is granted to other carriers in Southern territory if they wished to stick to the one and one-half or three cent rate, or to establish two cents for coaches if they so desired.

Permission was granted over a demand by Sol Rosenblatt, deputy administrator in charge of the motor bus code, who told the Commission that low railroad rates are causing buses to lose money.

W.A. Robinson Buried In Evergreen Plot

Funeral services for W. A. Robinson, 61, retired Coast Line engineer who died at his home in the south-western portion of the city early Sunday morning, were held from the Erickson Funeral Home this afternoon at 4:00 o'clock.

Rev. E. D. Brownlee, of the First Presbyterian Church officiated, and burial was in Evergreen Cemetery.

Mr. Robinson had been in ill health for about a year. He had lived in Sanford since his birth on Aug. 8, 1872, and is survived by his widow, Mrs. Della Robinson; two daughters, Mrs. C. E. Campbell of Miami, and Mrs. Gladys Cook of Sanford; and a grandson, Clifford King of Sanford.

Glenn Reminds Store Owners About Ruling

Reminder was issued to all local merchants this morning by R. L. Glenn of the Seminole County NRA Compliance Board that under penalty of $500 fine, six months imprisonment, or both, they will be required to post their store's working hours and wage schedule in a conspicuous place in the store before May 15.

All employers operating under approved codes are liable to be fined, it was stated, unless they display the working hours and wages schedule before that date.

Application blanks for an approved schedule may be secured at Mr. Glenn's office in the Brumley-Pulston Building on First Street, he stated today.

Thigpen Asks Voters To Re-Register Names

Registrar W. J. Thigpen, busy preparing the county registration books for use in the special election of next week, as well as the June primaries, has discovered a very confusing condition at existing, a condition which he would like to have ironed out before election day.

"A large number of women who had registered under their maiden names, he said, "has since married and unless they re-register under their married name, there will be much confusion and trouble at the polls on election day. It is a difficult task reconciling names as they appear on the registration books and those which appear on the poll tax records, especially when the poll tax records, especially when poll taxes are paid under the new names."

Mr. Thigpen also requested that further confusion may be avoided on election day if people who have removed from one precinct to another will visit his office now and re-register in the precinct they now reside in.

Railroad Progressive Club Meets Tonight

What if termed as the "most unusual program we've ever presented," is ready to be offered to the members and guests of the Jacksonville District Progressive Club of the Atlantic Coast Line railroad when they gather for the May meeting at the City Hall at 8:00 o'clock tonight.

The entertainment program will include, amongst vanderbilt talent which has been recruited from Kalamazoo, Winter Garden, and Lake Mary. Charles Phillips, said to be a former Keith vanderbilt artist, will act as master of ceremonies.

A feature of the program is the music of Mrs. Orestes, which will play for the dance that is to follow.

Many out-of-town Coast Line officials will be in the audience, some of them as spectators, including Wm. McLane of Ocala, who will act as master of ceremonies during the presentation of the following exhibits:
