Oil Controversy

By Paul H. Douglas

The press reports that the House Ways and Means Committee voted on July 21 to cut the oil depletion allowance from 27 1/2 per cent to 20 per cent on domestic production and to eliminate it entirely on foreign output. I am well aware of the pressures mounted by the lobbying efforts of the oil industry and the committee should be commended for taking this initial step. It is just a baby step, however. It will only reduce the $1.6 billion subsidy by a quarter and is not a true reform measure.

Paulucci Family Sets Challenge

By CHARNER LEONE

The Paulucci Family Foundation has agreed to donate $5,000 to Good Samaritan Home if the home can match that amount in other donations, said Ruby Wilson, operator of the non-profit organization.

So far, Good Samaritan Home has raised $1,906 toward the goal of rehabilitating the home so that it will meet state requirements. It has less than a year to "measure up or close up."

A new home that would house about 50 of the aged and indigent people will cost about $164,000, said attorney Albert Fitts, trustee of the building fund.

The new building program can be accomplished in units, thus satisfying the state law.

"Now that they are aware of the plight and need for a new building, I hope that other foundations will follow the lead of the Paulucci Family and make continent grants," said Fitts. "It is to save a very worthwhile project."

The community has united to raise money for the venture. The sales, donations from children in Bible schools and one $300 donation from a DeBary resident have gone into the fund.

Said "Mother" Wilson of the Paulucci promise. "This gives us a goal for now." She added, "Then we'll set another!"

Sanford telephone subscribers will be paying $1.05 more for resident one-party lines and $2.50 more for one-party business lines if the rate increase request made by Florida Southern Bell to the Public Service Commission is granted. The subjects to increase rates will be subject to a series of public meetings before a decision is known. Bob Shadden, Sanford Telephone manager, said increases in wages, taxes, high costs of borrowing money and increased building expenses are to blame.

New Buildings, Parks In Program County Expansion Plans Told

By FRED VAN PELT

A capital outlay package for new county construction and recreation may be presented in a bond issue referendum to the county freeholders in the Nov. 4 general election.

This was revealed this morning by County Commission Chairman John Alexander, who would give no dollar estimate of the proposed bond issue. However, others involved in the transaction gave a "guesstimate" of $2.5 million for land acquisition for parks and recreation and the balance for new county buildings.

Alexander said that commission members will meet with architects Thursday for a briefing. John A. Burton IV and Schwert Associates will be asked to draft a tentative program for construction of new buildings for presentation at next Tuesday's meeting.

The chairman said the commission's long range recreation planning commission has been requested to update its five-year-old recommendations for parks and recreation.

Chairman Fred Ganas said his group will meet Monday evening with Harlan Hanson, planning for the Orange Seminole-Tarasco Planning Commission, to discuss recommendations for parks, and will give a tentative report Tuesday to the County Commission.

Alexander said that architects and the recreation committee have been requested to report Tuesday whether they can have a definite overall report ready by Sept. 22, last date for advertising for a bond referendum in the Nov. 4 general election. If the bond referendum is not included in the county's next general election, it will be offered at the first primary election in 1970. The County Commission chairman elaborated on the capital outlay for new building to include a juvenile detention center, a mental health center, a branch office of the courthouse in the southern part of the county, and a new agricultural department center.

Under a new law, all bond issues must be submitted for referendum some five years ago recommended land acquisition throughout the county for parks and recreation, before land values climbed out of reason.

An example would be to acquire land which would connect Lake Jessup and Big Tree Park, making one large recreational area which would serve as a buffer between growing Sanford and Oviedo.

Zoo Site Decision Aug. 25

Relocating the Sanford Zoo continues to be the main topic of concern for the Sanford City Commission. So much so, that a special commission meeting was called late Tuesday afternoon to hear the recommendations of the 12-member zoo committee set up by the commission 24 hours earlier to study the available city-owned properties and determine a suitable site.

The site chosen was adjacent to The Sanford Herald building and fronts on French Avenue on properties set aside by the city as an industrial park.

Mayor Lee P. Moore, zoo committee chairman, made the choice known during the special session and the reaction came on a motion by Dr. W. Vincent Roberts to delay a formal decision on a site selection until Aug. 25 commission meeting.

Roberts reasoned that the board would need additional time to study other zoo sites and study a request from John Krider, Seminole Chamber of Commerce manager, for delay to allow him to complete negotiations with an unnamed insurance firm that has been interested in the site for an office building.

Hospital Studies Clean-Up Program

By BILL SCOTT

Seminole Memorial Hospital trustees met during yesterday's noon meeting to do something about the cleanliness of the medical facility by instituting after a comparison of figures with ServiceMaster, Inc., of Downers Grove, Ill., a decision to contract for house-keeping services.

Reacting to mounting criticism from public and notably a letter from Steven J. Balint Sr., of 101 Bunker Lane, Sanford, which was read in yesterday's County Commission meeting, the trustees, on a motion by Dr. Thomas Lafgren, moved to have figures checked and attorney's approval before entering a two-year contract with the firm at $107,000 per year.

On a recommendation of Bessner, the trustees increased the deposit from $35 to $50 a day for patients entering the facility without insurance and an emergency case. This was needed because of increased costs, the administrator said.

A $7,800 low Robb Construction Company bid was accepted by the board to construct the board and said his firm would furnish a resident house-keeper to supervise present hospital employees in cleaning the facility. The total cost would include all cleaning materials and employee expenses now being incurred by the hospital.

Dority stated his firm would clean the Sanford medical center up to and surpassing the standards set by Bessner and would pass all state standards. The Illinois cleaner is now serving 130-140 hospitals across the country, including three in Florida, Dority informed.

Rezoning Request Tabled

The Casselberry city council turned tables on Dr. Jerry Grissom Monday night during a session of public hearings.

Grissom, a well-known leader in South Seminole, was asking that a tract of land on Hwy. 17-92 near Piney Ridge Road be changed from R-1A (Prime Residential) to C-1 commercial.

The table-turning against Grissom was done by councilman Richard Wirtz. Grissom had no opposition whatsoever to his request and the young doctor told the council that he had checked with all surrounding residents and that they had no objection to his move.

Wirtz stated that he felt the land should be zoned R-3 with a special exception for a professional complex. Not being familiar with the zoning, Grissom was given two weeks to decide which class he would rather pursue, C-1 or R-3.

Little Wekiva Study Okayed

Army Engineers are scheduled to start work in the near future on an intensive flood plain information study along Little Wekiva River in Seminole County.

Undertaken at the request of the Seminole County Commission, the study will be a part of the St. Johns River Basin urban areas, according to Col. John F. McElhenry, district engineer for the U. S. Corps of Engineers.

The primary purpose of the engineering study is to provide the Seminole County government agencies and private citizens the flood hazard information needed in order to obtain the best use of flood-prone land areas.

When completed in about a year, the report will include maps showing areas subject to flooding along Little Wekiva River, flood profiles, flood height and duration data and other information pertaining to past floods. A part of the same study will project the frequency of future floods, based on historical records and other data.

Colonel McElhenry said the report will not contain recommendations for structural solutions to the flood problems since the study is designed to provide information on which local government can establish county or area regulations to guide development and protect the public interest.

The $14,000 engineering study will be paid entirely by the federal government. Upon completion, the Seminole County Commission has agreed to protect the survey markers which will be established and to publish the study results for the benefit of the public.

Strikes And Spares

BY JOHN A. SPOLSKI

If it runs true to previous pattern, this Friday evening's two quads at 8 and 11 p.m. should be jammed with anxious bowlers as they vie for the local and potential prizes.

There's a minimum of $150 guaranteed in prize money... As an indication, there are three bowlers tied for the high average honors with 163's: R. Partridge, C. Elberry and H. Accardi.

The Monday evening Kesters League is mighty close... Leading by only one point for the tops in the standings department are the Tap-A-Keg-A-Day foursome.

Chuck Kanavel, who's really been bowling some high game and series lately, is the league leader with a 178 average for the Singles Classic B League.

Say, we almost neglected to mention this past Saturday's Bowler of the Week entrants and ultimate winner (they'll be bowling in the August monthly rollout)...

We haven't had anything in type about two of our favorite leagues, sponsored by the Loyal Order of Moose...

By now you should know that the national average for women bowlers is right around 130, give or take a pin or two.

At New Smyrna Speedway Billy Gill Takes Exciting Feature Race

By FRED COXON

The weather man gave us a break this weekend at New Smyrna Speedway. It was perfect racing weather for the running of the 50 lap feature race.

Time trials were held for those entries that failed to get on the track before the rains came last Sunday. Kevin Crooks, Kenny Faircloth, and Harry Pullen were the fastest to qualify this week.

On the 16th lap Bontrager blew a tire, into the third turn and did a material job of driving to keep from hitting the wall. Paul Connors slipped by untouched to take over third.

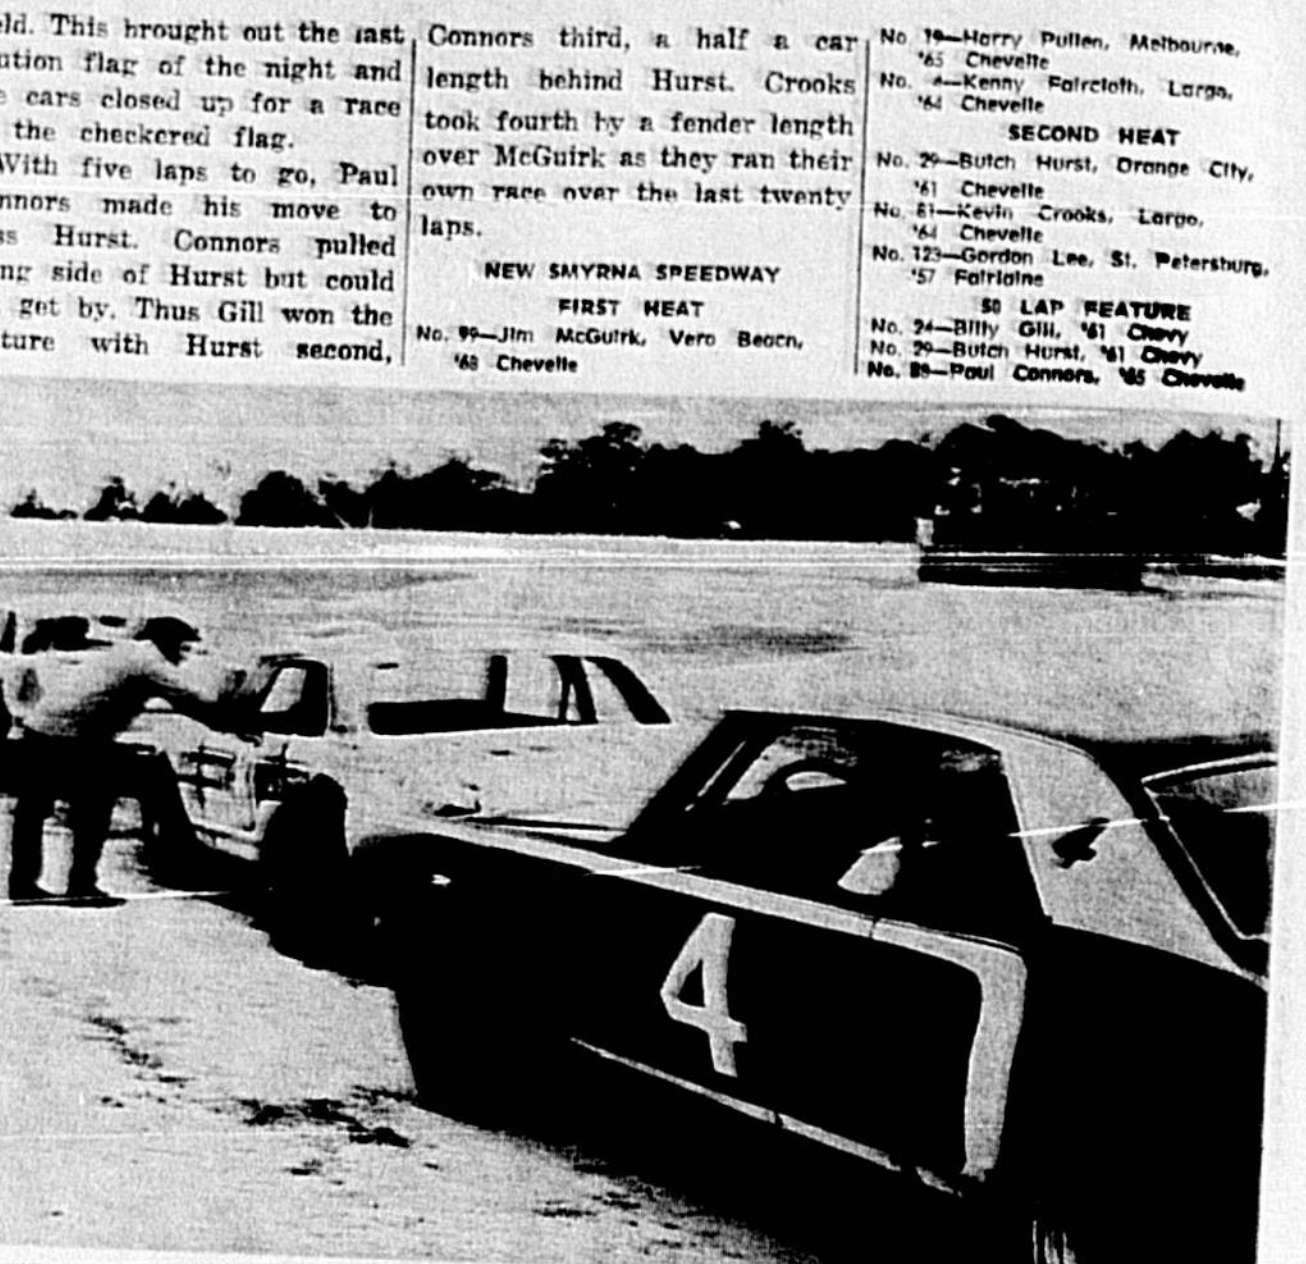

AL COX, KEVIN CROOKS AND KENNY FAIRCLOTH wait their turn to qualify for starting positions in the 50 lap feature race in the day's fastest time to earn a third row starting position.

A Storm In Montreal... Expos Shatter Reds; Giants Win

By HERSCHEL HISSONSON Associated Press Sports Writer The rain that fell on Phil Niekro and the Braves in Atlanta Tuesday night was nothing compared to the unexpected storm the Cincinnati Reds encountered in Montreal.

Senate Fights Over Aid To Thailand, Laos

By CARL P. LEUBSBOHN
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate fighting over military aid and spending has entered its third week but not before a hot skirmish over a proposal to put strict limits on U.S. assistance to Laos and Thailand.

Sen. John Sherman Cooper, who touched off the battle Tuesday, said opposition by Nixon battling insurgents in northern Thailand.

"It would stop that," the Kentucky Republican said of his proposed amendment.

Cooper offered his proposal to the portion of the $20 billion military procurement authorization bill that deals with military assistance to South Vietnam, Laos and Thailand. His move came after the Senate voted unanimously to limit such aid to $2.5 billion—about its present level.

Cooper's amendment would restrict use of the aid to Laos and Thailand to material, equipment and related costs, ruling out its use to provide U.S. ground forces.

But, according to Sen. Stuart Symington, D.Mo., one Senate witness made it clear that "before anything were done (under the agreement), it should be taken up with the Congress."

Earlier, the Senate voted 49-44 to cut $45.6 million military research projects.

Marriages Founder On Money-Woes Shoals

By CARLTON SMITH and RICHARD PUTNAM PRATT
Many a marriage has foundered on the rocks and shoals of financial troubles. Not that "enough money" by itself will ever do anything for a marriage that lacks the essential ingredients, but there's also some hard truth in the old saying: "When poverty comes in the door, love flies out the window."

The kind of relative poverty that results from mismanagement of the family finances can be disastrous to domestic tranquility, as any family or marriage counselor can testify. Some of the basic rules for avoiding disaster are contained in a booklet, "Money and Your Marriage," by a trio of F.D.A. all-recognized authorities in the fields of family financial or marriage counseling.

Failure to identify and make plans around the family's long-range goals is one of the commonest causes of financial trouble, the three authorities agree in the booklet published by the National Consumer Finance Association.

If you've "only" thought ahead to the steak you'd like for dinner tonight... or to the football game next weekend... or, at most, to the car you'll buy as soon as the new models are out, you may enjoy such carefree living for awhile, say the authors, "but time has a sinister way of catching up with you."

The good life—personal contentment and success in marriage—consists of realizing the goals that are important in each family's own terms, say the three counselors. "The things you want out of life don't just 'come your way.' You usually have to plan and work to get them."

In a checklist to help the family sort out its values and goals, the authors include:

- The family itself. How many children make "a good family" for you? Are you ready for the responsibilities of parenthood, and the sacrifices it may call for? What kind of life do you value most of all, in terms of home, career, education, personal enjoyment?
- Career: Is the breadwinner doing the kind of work that gives him satisfaction and makes best use of his abilities? Or should the family plan toward a change for the better?
- Home: Are you living now under the roof where you want to raise your family? If not, are your financial plans geared — realistically — to your goals of home ownership?
- Education: The future of young couples may suffer unless they can agree to postpone certain spending until education is completed. The advanced training necessary for career advancement may have to be balanced against present pleasures. And including, in the family's financial planning, the kinds of adult education that can enrich the enjoyment of life or develop new skills and interests, may be an important factor in marriage success.
- Recreation: Hobbies, sports, travel or other recreational activities that make leisure time something you look forward to and enjoy actively — not just passively — are important in cementing the family together, and making life something besides an endless succession of days devoted to earning a living. Deciding on what things give deepest and most lasting enjoyment, and the financial planning that makes them possible, are another key to marriage success.
- Future security: Are you making any provisions for it? Personal development: What kind of person do you hope to become — and are you doing anything about it or just taking life as it comes?

Sort out these goals, say the three authors, and good, sound management of family finances will just about take care of itself. If you know what you really want, and want it badly enough, you'll gear family spending to what's important.

The authors are unable to answer personally individual questions. Questions of general interest will be answered when possible in future columns.

Congress Lets Work Wait For Vacation

By WILLIAM F. ARRIGAST
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Congress takes off today on its first planned summer vacation in modern history, a concession to its younger members and an admission that it will be in session the rest of the year after it returns Sept. 3.

Only a corporal's guard was available for formal adjournment after today's no-business meetings of the House and the Senate. Many got an early start on foreign junkets and others were headed for Los Angeles and a testimonial banquet for the Apollo 11 astronauts.

But some of the younger members with children who must return to school in September were packed up for beaches and other vacation spots.

It was the insistence of the young fathers that spurred the elderly leaders of Congress early this year to fix a schedule that would allow for planned family vacations.

In past years, vacation planning was a bit and miss proposition. There always was the hope that there would be an early summer adjournment—a hope seldom realized. Leaders had no young families lobbying for a summer recess.

A group of senators, mostly old veterans, put up a protest when the Senate voted on the bill.

It doesn't record the fact that approved 78-14.

With the calendar year almost two-thirds gone, the workload of Congress for 1969 still lies ahead.

A landmark tax reform bill has passed the House but not the Senate. So has a bill extending the elementary and secondary education program.

The official "status of major bills" lists two laws enacted. One increased the national debt limit; the other continued the income tax surcharge first imposed last year.

It doesn't record the fact that the fiscal year that started July 1 has been enacted.

There has been no final action on legislation to control crime, abolish the electoral college, restrict cigarette advertising, reorganize congressional procedure and extend the anti-poverty program.

The linotype machine was invented in Baltimore by Ottmar Mergenthaler, was patented in 1864; the New York Tribune was the first to put it in operation in 1866.

Hungry Children Abandoned By Parents

MIAMI (AP) — Five children found on a sidewalk in front of a Miami bus station Tuesday police their mother and stepfather had left them with instructions to find a new home.

The children told police their stepfather, identified as James Henry Johnston, had told them: "I'm tired of all of you."

Miami police issued an arrest alert for Johnston, 46, and the children's mother, Florence. "We've been advised the stepfather is armed with a loaded pistol and is dangerous," said police information officer Joseph Pender.

The children, ranging in age from 6 to 16, were turned over to Dade County juvenile authorities.

"One of the kids was barefoot and another didn't have a shirt," Police Capt. John Fomer said. "All of them were hungry."

Laura Scarpinato, the oldest of the children, told officers they had been living in motels for weeks since leaving Lockport, N.Y.

In New Fane, N.Y., the children's maternal grandmother, Mrs. Roy Myers, said her daughter's first husband died about three years ago and that she had been married to Johnston for "a short time."

Laura said the family had spent the last three weeks at a motel in Eau Gallie, 115 miles north of Miami. She pleaded with police to call the motel manager, Sheila Knotteliter, told a newsman. She said Johnston was angry when he left because of complaints that the children had been left alone for long periods of time at the motel.

In Miami, Laura said she had often cared for her brothers—Larry 14, John 8, Roy 4, and Billy 6, when their mother died.

"Those kids never caused any trouble, they were as nice as they could be," the motel manager, Sheila Knotteliter, told a newsman. She said Johnston was angry when he left because of complaints that the children had been left alone for long periods of time at the motel.

Merger Of 55 Banks Proposed By 3 Groups

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP) — Three Florida bank groups said Tuesday they are "ready to propose" merger of their 55 institutions into a $1.7 billion holding company that would make it the largest banking complex in the Southeast.

The combination would include 39 banks from the Florida National Group headed by financier Industrialist Ed Ball of Jacksonville, chief trustee of the Alfred I. duPont estate. Florida National lists assets of approximately $1 billion.

Announcement of the pending proposal was made jointly by Ball, A. L. Ellis of Sarasota and Raymond Mason of Jacksonville. Mason said an application would be filed with the Federal Reserve Board for a holding company.

Ellis controls 11 banks on Florida's west coast, including units in Sarasota and Tarpon Springs. Mason is president of Charter Bankshares, which controls or is seeking control of 11 banks in Florida. The largest is the First National of St. Petersburg.

Previous attempts by other groups to establish statewide bank holding companies in Florida have failed because of opposition by state law, have been prohibited by state law, have been rejected by the Federal Reserve Board because of alleged antitrust complications.

Nevertheless, the trend toward holding companies has accelerated as banks sought corporate mergers to cut costs and improve efficiency.

Details of the proposal to link the St. Joe Paper Co. and the Florida East Coast Railway, Florida's largest bank holding company now is Southeast Bancorporation, an $80 million National chain of its corporate properties by July 1971. Okeechobee Mine Permit Denied

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Coastal Petroleum Co. said Tuesday it has a legal right to do the work as the state had declared the lease void because Okeechobee failed to drill the number of test wells required under the terms of a lease granted by the Florida Cabinet in 1941.

The decision came 14 months after the firm requested the permit. State officials, congressmen and conservationists bitterly contested the lake-mining proposal.

Coastal had sought a permit to mine 3.74 acres of lake bottom near St. Lucie Inlet. It also held mineral lease rights to 10 square miles of the lake.

Opponents contended that mining the lake would destroy wildlife, pollute south Florida's main reservoir of drinking water, and jeopardize vast flood control facilities centered at the lake.

The Engineers rejected the mining application on three grounds:

- "The firm was unable to show that it has a legal right to do the work."
- "The lease was void because Okeechobee failed to drill the number of test wells required under the terms of a lease granted by the Florida Cabinet in 1941."
- "The issuance of the permit was vigorously opposed by responsible local and state officials, as well as the congressional delegation and conservationists."

Coastal filed a suit a year ago in U.S. District Court in Miami, asking for a declaratory decree affirming its right to dig limestone out of Lake Okeechobee. Attorney Joseph Jacobs of Tallahassee, representing Coastal, said denial of the mining application "would come as a disappointment but certainly not as a shock."

"We expect to get one relief in court," Jacobs said.

MISS KATHERINE LEE

Lee-Dingle

Engagement Told

Mr. and Mrs. James G. Lee, of 113 W. 14th St., Sanford, are announcing the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Miss Katherine Lee Dingle, to the late Frank Dingle of Gulfport.

Miss Lee, a graduate of Gulfport High School, is presently employed as a mechanical engineer for Florida Power Corporation, St. Petersburg.

The wedding will be an event of Nov. 8, at noon, at All Souls Catholic Church.

Miss Brenda Carroll, D. F. Markland Exchange Vows In Double Ring Rites

Miss Brenda Kay Carroll and Donald Frederick Markland were united in Holy Matrimony, Saturday, Aug. 2, 1969, at 8 p. m. at First Assembly of God Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. V. E. Carroll, 1323 Douglas Ave., Sanford, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Lee Markland of Dayton, Ohio.

Rev. G. M. Willis Jr., uncle of the bride, was the officiating clergyman at the candle-light double ring ceremony in a background setting of potted palms and stamens candleabra.

A recital of nuptial selections was presented by Mrs. Hazel Stone who accompanied soloist, Mrs. Lucy Magill, aunt of the bride.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was radiant in her exquisite candlelight formal gown designed and created by her mother. Fashioned along the slim silhouette of satin, finished with an overlay of silk organza, re-embroidered hand-clipped lace motifs were appliqued on the fitted bodice, long, trailing sleeves and slim skirt. The delicately scalloped neckline was embellished with seed pearls and dainty lace. Lace motifs were repeated on her detachable train which cascaded into a full chapel sweep.

The bride's hair was enhanced with lace and seed pearls secured her elbow length veil of imported silk illusion which was softly draped to long-length, framing the sweeping train. She carried a formal cascade of pink and white roses.

Mrs. Lucy Magill attended the wedding as matron of honor. The bridesmaids were Gloria Johnson, Judy Sergeant, Sue Thompson and Suzanne Testa; the groomsmen were Bob Markland and Wayne Markland, brothers of the bridegroom. Charles Willis, the officiant, was assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Morris Raines as the parents of the bride and groom.

Mrs. D. J. Parker led Tuesday to attend the wedding of her daughter, Jean, in Wrangell, Alaska.

MRS. DONALD FREDERICK MARKLAND

cluster of pink velvet petals, bride's uncle, and Dennis Carroll, brother of the bride. Flower girl was Connie Davis and Errol Cair was the ring bearer who carried the ring on a pillow, made of satin, peau and lace, by the bride's mother. To match the bride's gown, the same design also covered a Bible accenting the altar.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Carroll chose a star dust green, smooth, re-embroidered with metallic thread, complemented with green accessories and a corsage of white carnations and blue ribbons.

Immediately following the ceremony, the bride and groom were entertained at a reception at the home of Mrs. B. L. Ward with Mrs. Joe Beasley acting as co-hostess. This party was also given for the bride's 21st birthday and the bridegroom's 21st birthday.

Invited guests were the Misses C. T. Niblack, James Partin, John Casper, A. M. Jones, Leon Olfert, Ray Beasley, James Pearson, W. B. West, C. K. Bucklew, John Eidenour, S. E. Parker, Katrina Pearson, Roy Wainwright and Marilyn Partin.

Also honoring Miss Wainwright on July 7 was a shower given at the home of Mrs. Ewin Abell with Geneva Abell as co-hostess.

Invited guests were the Misses T. L. Lingo, Jr., C. R. and T. G. Moon, L. H. Webb, W. R. Cloutis, J. M. Staley, J. E. Staley, John Casper, Mac Lickhart, C. N. Ogg, Lynn Mosser, C. O. Boyd, Cleo Leihart, James McIntosh and Lois Ruedell.

Sailors' Snack: Cereal Boats
 Puffed rice candy makes appealing placeards and favors for a child's party. Shape the chewy, tasty cereal candy into tiny boats, then add wood, mast, and paper sails. The puffed rice candy can be tinted with any desired food coloring to fit the party theme or a youngster's whim. Fill the boats with candy and nuts and you're set for smooth sailing on the summer party course. And when the "cargo" is gone, the boats are delicious snacks, too.

SAILBOAT PLACEARDS
 Makes 6 placeards
 6 cups puffed rice
 2 tablespoons butter or margarine
 4 cups miniature marshmallows
 1 teaspoon vanilla
 1/2 teaspoon food coloring
 5 wooden ice cream sticks or skewers
 2 paper "sails"

Beat puffed rice in shallow baking pan in preheated moderate oven (350°F.) about 10 minutes. Pour into greased large bowl. Melt butter and marshmallows in top of double boiler over boiling water, stirring occasionally until smooth. Stir in vanilla and food coloring. Pour over puffed rice, stirring until evenly coated.
 With greased hands, quickly shape mixture to form eight 4-1/2-inch long sailboats, using about 1 cup mixture for each. Make an oblong cavity down the center of each boat, by pulling up sides and ends. Firmly pack the bottom of each cavity. Insert a stick into the end of each boat for a "mast." Print words on each paper "sail," plus a "sail" to each "mast." Let boats stand at least 30 minutes or until set. Fill with candy and nuts.

Students' Loan Plan Debated

By JOE BAL
 Associated Press Writer
 WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate plans a last-ditch effort to revive the college student guaranteed loan program before Congress leaves on its three-week recess.
 But Republicans charge that amendments pushed successfully by Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass., in the Labor Committee last Friday have upset negotiations for a vote on the bill today.
 Extensive classroom negotiations Monday failed to resolve the controversy over these amendments although Senate leaders did win an agreement for a vote on the bill today.
 Republicans said they would seek to eliminate one of the Kennedy riders and perhaps both.
 Even if the Senate passes the measure there is no guarantee the House will follow suit before the summer recess begins Wednesday afternoon.
 Consideration of a similar measure was blocked Monday in the House. Some members there wish to use it as a vehicle for a provision to punish students involved in campus riots.
 The key provision of the Senate bill is a subsidy payment which could mean a yield to banks of 10 per cent on the student loans.
 The present interest ceiling is 7 per cent. This has meant that loan funds have dried up with the prime interest rate now at 8 1/2 per cent.
 The Senate committee was told about 230,000 students seeking to enroll this fall will be denied loans because of the tight money situation unless Congress votes the subsidies.
 One of the Kennedy amendments would prohibit a bank or other lender from requiring a student or his family to have accounts with it to obtain a loan.
 Republicans said they definitely would try to strike this from the bill.

Drop Doughnuts Are Rewarding Treat
 Doughnuts are perennially popular for coffee breaks and after-school snacks. A typically American treat, they were especially favored in colonial New England. Early "doughnuts" were drop doughnuts, a bit larger than a walnut and spherical in shape.
 These tempting Apricot Doughnuts retain the size and shape of their New England ancestors, but take added flavor interest from rolled oats, chopped apricots and lemon peel. The oats also contribute interesting texture to these light, flavorful doughnuts.

APRICOT DOUGHNUT PUFFS
 Makes 1 dozen
 1/2 cup chopped dried apricots
 2 eggs
 1/2 cup sugar
 1/2 cup milk
 2 tablespoons vegetable oil
 1/2 cup sifted all-purpose flour
 4 teaspoons baking powder
 1/4 teaspoon salt
 1/2 teaspoon nutmeg
 1/2 cup quick or old fashioned oats, uncooked
 1 teaspoon grated lemon peel
 Cover apricots with boiling water and let stand about 5 minutes. Thoroughly drain and squeeze out excess liquid.
 Beat eggs, gradually beat in sugar, salt and nutmeg; stir in oats and lemon peel. Add dry ingredients to egg mixture; blend well. Stir in apricots.
 Drop batter by tablespoonfuls into hot deep fat (375°F.) and fry until golden brown, about 3 minutes. Drain on absorbent paper. Sprinkle with confectioner's sugar.

GOLDEN TOUCH OF HOSPITALITY
 BY JANE ASHBY
 Good and Cheery

A savory cheese sauce, rich and creamy smooth, can do wonders for vegetables, such as beans, cauliflower, and potatoes. This cheese sauce is lightly thickened with a small amount of corn starch, giving the delicious concoction a perfect taste. For a flavorful change, try it over an omelet.

Cheese Sauce
 1 tablespoon margarine
 1 tablespoon corn starch
 1 cup milk
 1/2 cup cheddar cheese
 Dash pepper
 1 ounce cheddar, shredded (about 1 cup)

Melt margarine in a small saucepan. Remove from heat. Mix in corn starch, gradually mix in milk, salt and pepper. Bring to a boil over medium heat, stirring constantly. Roll 3 minutes. Add shredded cheese, stir until melted. Remove from heat. Try adding pimiento for a spicy color. Serve over vegetables.

THE FAMILY LAWYER

"Finders keepers, losers weepers" is a good rhyme, but it is bad law. In a legal confrontation between finder and loser, it is the loser — the original owner — who generally wins. As one court put it: "The title of the finder vanishes when the owner is known." In fact, if you find something, and you know who lost it, you have an affirmative duty to return what you found. Take this case:

On the sidewalk near his home, a man found a wallet containing several hundred dollars. However, it also contained the name of a neighbor. Regarding the identification, the finder proceeded to pocket the money and throw the wallet into a trash can. Unfortunately for him, another neighbor happened to be watching. The story got out, and the finder was taken to court on a charge of theft. "I'm willing to return the money to the owner," he told the court, "but I certainly have not committed any crime. After all, I didn't take the wallet out of his possession. It was just lying there on the sidewalk." Nevertheless, the court found him guilty as charged. The judge said that, in view of his knowledge of the owner's identity, this was a sufficient "taking" to constitute theft.

On the other hand, if the original owner is — and remains — unknown, then the finder does usually have a better claim than anyone else. For example:

A woman found a diamond ring in a hotel lobby. When all efforts to locate the owner failed, she and the hotel got into a dispute as to who should keep possession of the ring. After a courtroom battle, the woman emerged victorious. Pointing out that she had found the ring in a public place, the court commented: "The finder of lost property has a valid claim to the same against all the world, except the true owner."

Food Service
 CHICAGO (AP) Luncheon service for senior citizens has started at six new centers in Chicago's Nutrition Program for Older Adults.

Robert J. Ahrens, director of the Division for Senior Citizens of the City of Chicago's Department of Human Resources, said the new meal service is part of a planned expansion in the nutrition program which makes meals available at reasonable cost.

The program is expected to be serving 1,500 meals a day in 25 locations by the end of 1969.

The program is administered by the Division for Senior Citizens with the aid of a $194,702 first-year federal grant under the Older Americans Act.

Persons 60 and over may visit the center nearest their homes.

"Our early experience shows that senior citizens throughout the city not only are welcoming the nutritious, reasonably priced meals offered but also the added opportunity for social relationships that are afforded during the luncheons," Ahrens said.

Franco Villa, the hard-riding Mexican General, was killed in an automobile; he and three companions were shot to death.

Montserrat Island Recipes

PLYMOUTH Montserrat (AP) — Peanut soup, banana curry, carrot pancakes and spinach in coconut milk are just a few of the recipes contained in the newly published Montserrat Cookbook. Put out by the Island's Old People's Welfare Association, the 61 page, loose leaf book is jam-packed with dishes peculiar to the Caribbean and to Montserrat in particular.

The idea for compiling the book came from a Canadian housewife who for several years has lived in Montserrat, an island just west of Puerto Rico. Mrs. Eileen Cochrane, like many other visitors when she first came south, saw new fruits and vegetables all around her but was at a loss as to how to prepare them. Now, thanks to Mrs. Cochrane—who tracked down local recipes, things will be easier for visitors from the north.

The "Montserrat Cookbook" has recipes for all the native produce: Dasheen, yam, cassava, guava, sorghum, marmy apple, sorrel, tamarind, papaya—the list seems endless.

Of special interest are two meat dishes indigenous to Montserrat—goat water and mountain chicken.

Goat water, which in days gone by was known as kiddy stew, is almost a national food, or drink, with the Montserratians at fetes and weddings there will always be a queue of persons waiting for their cup of the spicy beverage. It is made from cubes of goat meat cooked with numerous herbs and spices—plus a little whisky or rum—and served up in cups or bowls.

Goat water probably traces its origins to the Irish settlers who left so many marks on the island. In his study of Irish influences on Montserrat, John Messenger, professor of folklore, anthropology and African studies at Indiana University, describes the dish as "the most tasty delicacy in the diet of the islanders . . . an Irish stew made with goat meat."

Mountain chicken, or cre-paud, seems to be found today only in Montserrat and in neighboring Dominica. The animal is really a giant frog.

Watch the dark cool slopes of the mountain forests, at night especially after rain, and you can see the flickering torches used in hunting the animal; the knock on your door next morning may well be a visitor offering you "chickens" skinned and ready for the pan.

But once you have tasted the delicious stewed or fried delicacy you will know where it gets its name of mountain chicken.

For the more adventurous, the book includes a recipe for iguana stew.

The Montserrat Cookbook is printed by the Letchworth Press Ltd., Barbados.

SAVORY CHICKEN GREEN PEAS

 1/4 teaspoon paprika
 1/4 teaspoon pepper
 1/4 teaspoon each dry mustard, garlic powder and onion powder

County Studies Xing Hazards
 By TOM ALEXANDER
 Following a rash of accidents and then a complete photoplay of dangerous railroad crossings in The Herald last Thursday, Seminole County Commissioners took action to eliminate the crossing dangers. Commissioner Robert Parker called on the county body to ask that the county road department along with the state road department trim all grass, weeds and small trees back from the crossings, so that the motorist can have an open view of the crossing area. Parker feels that this would help eliminate many of the accidents.

Stadium On Agenda
A Double School Board Session

By BILL SCOTT
 With opening of schools less than three weeks away, the tempo surrounding the Seminole County School system is increasing with a double school board session and an in-service program for county school principals scheduled today and tonight.
 Main item in the first board meeting getting underway at 8 p.m. will be a report on the bond market given by T. Kirk Gully, school fiscal agent, who will discuss with the board whether to adopt a resolution to authorize the sale of $3.8 million in school construction bonds.
 Board will risk the loss of $114,000 in interest rate if bonds are sold, since the State Education Department has approved the discounting of interest rate by three per cent to sell school building program on continue.
 Also on the afternoon agenda is the opening of bids for building new Evans High School stadium to go along with the new school facility just completed.
 Problem expected to crop up during the stadium discussion is whether board will approve $80,000 expenditure after selling seats $20,000 for the facility.
 At 7 p.m. the board is expected to hear from two delegations, League of Women Voters and a group of disappointed parents.

By Chamber Of Commerce
Fiscal Problem Eyed

By FRED VAN PELT
 Financial problems of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce... brought on when the County Commission voted Tuesday to slash its budgetary allocation... will be scrutinized by a special survey committee designed to solve the fiscal situation.
 County, in naming the committee members, relayed this message to them:
 "As you know, the Board of County Commissioners has voted to allocate us only $10,000 for the first two quarters of the 1969-70 budget, thus cutting $18,000 of our anticipated annual $30,000. The Commissioners have indicated that following this, they would not vote any more unrestricted funds to the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce."
 "This makes it necessary to...
 "1. reconstruct our organization...
 "2. consider ways and means of increasing our income to offset this loss of county funds at a time when there is a serious need for added money...
 "3. to meet the rising cost of operation; to complete effectively with other communities in this dynamically expanding area."
 "4. revising our current budgeted items to see if economies can be effected.
 "5. proposing, in the light of your findings and recommendations, a tentative budget of income and expenses that could be considered by the 1970 Budget Committee as a guide.

Salary Increases Now Being Studied

Proposed salary increases for Sanford city employees now being studied before implementation by the city commission when the 1969-70 city budget is adopted, disclose that total increase for the 74-man city police department amounts to $21,417 or average $290 per man.
 Other proposed city employee raises advanced by W. E. Kowaleski, city manager, on a memorandum to the five city commissioners only include raising truck drivers by $89 more per driver next year.
 Gerald D. Key, a zoo employee, is up for a $572 raise and Solon Teston of Parks and Cemetery is being considered for a $625 increase over a year ago.
 THE UNITED STATE Bank of Seminole announced, today, that Linda Sellers, a drive-in teller at the bank, had been entered in the Mosler Safe Company's annual "Miss Drive-In Teller" contest.

People In Glass Houses Shouldn't
 AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) - A 19-year-old woman working in a small, glassed-in office in the middle of a shopping center was told by a telephone caller Wednesday to answer or he would shoot her with a high powered rifle, police reported.
 Sharon Bechtold said she was told, "Do not get excited. I am across the street with a high powered rifle with a scope, but I don't want to score you - I want to see you undress."
 She said she asked the caller, "If I promise to undress, will you not shoot?"
 "Yeah," he said. "I promise. Just do as I say, O.K.?"
 She said she fumbled with her zipper as she called police.
 Miss Bechtold said the caller sounded like a young man.
 Police searched the shopping center but made no arrests.
