

LOCATION FOR THE FAIR EXCELLENT

SEMINOLE COUNTY FAIR HAS GROUNDS SECOND TO NONE IN FLORIDA

If you have not already visited the fair grounds at Holden Park you should do so at once for there is an air of activity out there that is bound to impress you with the idea of Seminole County Fair being a big one in every respect.

The good judgment of the manager is apparent in changing the location of the grounds from the old location to the Holden Park as anyone who takes a constitutional on the lake front one of these cold mornings can testify.

The report was started in Orlando by irresponsible parties that Sanford had no grounds and would have a street fair and several exhibitors here this week.

But nevertheless, the Seminole Fair is coming and you can tell it help by giving some of your time toward getting exhibits of fruits, vegetables, poultry and stock and bringing in the best that your place can produce.

Annual Meeting of First National Bank of Sanford, Florida was held on Tuesday morning, January 9th at 10 a.m.

The board of directors who had guided the affairs of the bank so efficiently for the past year was re-elected without any change and is composed of the following gentlemen, all well known citizens of our community.

The report of the officers showed a most satisfactory condition of the bank's business for the past year; the statement, called for the 27th of December and published elsewhere in this issue, showing deposits of over $460,000.00, an increase of more than 30 per cent over the corresponding date of 1915.

Hon. and Mrs. C. E. Richards of Richmond, Va., spent the week end in Sanford, guests of their niece, Mrs. W. W. Abernathy.

dence stronger than words of the prosperity of our city and county, and of the hold which the reliable old institution has upon the confidence of our people, who have an abiding memory of the years during which the First National met the needs and safe guarded the financial interests of this section, many of these years being marked by financial panic and stress in national affairs and local calamities from storms and freezes.

It will be of general interest to the public to know that at the close of the six months period, in addition to the regular semi annual dividend of 6 per cent, an extra dividend of 1 per cent was declared, making a total of 7 per cent for the period.

Each of the employees was remembered at Christmas with a generous bonus of gold, the amount being based on salary and length of service. And further, believing that all who have helped to accomplish the splendid results shown by the annual report should share therein, a substantial increase of salary was voted each member of the force.

The officers and directors of the bank have unbounded confidence in the future growth and prosperity of our city and county and are planning certain improvements in the bank, projects which will be given to the public as soon as they take definite shape.

Mrs. S. M. Blanchard of Shelburne, Mass., arrived Wednesday and is the guest of Mrs. L. R. Phillips.

LEAK STORY DIFFICULT TO PROVE

HONEST LAWYER THAT WILL SUIT EACH SIDE SOUGHT

Washington, D. C., Jan. 18.—The conference of rules committee Democrats today developed that strong administration forces were at work to have Samuel C. Tamm, former counsel for the "lead" committee, Two members were reported to have urged his selection.

Postmaster Burleson and Solicitor General Davis conferred with the committee and the members declined to discuss a report that Mr. Burleson also came in under the interest. Opposition to Tamm has arisen both in the committee and the floor of the house. Yesterday during the debate those who opposed him pointed out that he recently took a trip to South America with Secretary McAdoo as a personal guest.

Rep. Campbell, ranking Republican of the committee, after a conference with his colleagues and with Republican Leader Mann, issued a statement assailing the Democratic members for seeking to employ counsel without consulting Republican members. He charged that such methods were partisan and would discredit counsel to be employed in advance.

Shortly after the issue of Campbell's statement, Reps. Leavitt and Campbell were called to the committee room and advised that there would be a meeting of the full committee, at 5 o'clock. A proposition to investigate the stock exchange is being considered.

Chairman Henry declined to say what feature of the matter brought Burleson and Davis into the matter. A dozen widely known attorneys were under consideration as counsel for the committee. No decision was reached.

German Raider Again London, Jan. 18.—Eight British and two French merchantmen are believed to have been sunk by a German raider. The ships were the British Dramatist, Radnorshire, Minnie, Netherbyhall, Mount Temple King George, Georgie, Vof, and the French ships Nantes and Anieros. The steamers St. Theodore and Yarowdale were captured. Their whereabouts are unknown.

MANILLA HERO HONORED BY NATIONS

ADMIRAL DEWEY, BURIED WITH MILITARY AND CIVIL HONORS

Washington, D. C., Jan. 18.—Young Dewey favored the former, funeral arrangements for Admiral Dewey, who died last night in his 89th year, were partly complete today.

Orders were issued by the navy department to bring all the cadets at Annapolis and all available bluejackets from the Norfolk and Washington navy yards to attend the funeral Saturday. Secretary Baker will order all available army units to participate in the ceremonies. Secretary Daniels and ranking officers were engaged today arranging the details.

These include appropriate exercises on every available naval vessel throughout the world and the firing of the admiral's salute of 21 guns. Until Secretary Daniels has conferred with President Wilson and Mrs. Dewey no further plans will be made. Interment will be at Arlington national cemetery.

A guard of honor composed of bluejackets from the gunboat Dolphin and the presidential yacht Maflow was stationed at the Dewey home.

Admiral Dewey's naval career is the most distinguished naval career was mentioned. President Wilson in a statement voiced his own and the nation's grief.

American naval vessels and stations throughout the world received word by wireless of the admiral's death with orders to display flags at half mast. Admiral Dewey entered a cruise last Thursday through the narrows between the Cape Verde Islands in his usual uniform. He was accompanied by his wife and two children.

Admiral George Dewey, hero of Manila, died at 10:30 p.m. at his home in Washington, D. C., at the age of 89.

He was the son of a farmer and a school teacher from the days of the civil war down to the time when, as head of the general board, he was the last chief of the navy in laying plans for the defense of the country in time of war.

One of the curious fates of fortune in Dewey's case was that for perhaps the first and only time in his naval career he was disposed to protest against the chief of the navy department which carried him into the far east, where he was destined to perform the greatest feat of his life. That was back in 1898 when the war clouds were gathering and Dewey felt that he was being "shoved" that the war with Spain was to be fought out in the Gulf of Mexico and in the Caribbean Sea and that he, distanced by half the circumference of the globe would stand no chance of winning glory, for at that moment no thought whatever had been given to the Philippines.

Contrary to Spanish expectations, Dewey sailed into Manila bay on the night of April 30, and in the morning of the next day he annihilated Admiral Montojo's squadron, destroying eleven warships and capturing all other vessels and all the main batteries without the loss of a man on the American side.

Upon his triumphal return to the United States he was feted by the nation. His admirers presented him with a beautiful home in the national capital. Congress gave him an engraved sword, and raised him from the rank of commodore to rear-admiral, and then to the full rank of admiral of the navy.

Admiral Dewey was the third American to reach that pinnacle of naval rank. Farragut was the first and Porter the second. It was under Farragut that Dewey received his first baptism in war.

George Dewey was born in the shadow of Vermont's state capital at Montpelier, the day after Christmas, 1827. At 17 he reched the acrossroads of his career; one road led to West Point, the other to Annapolis.

New Pipe Organ for Sanford

Marking again the great and constant prosperity of Holy Cross Church in all ways, spiritually and materially, the ordering of the pipe organ for the church has been the just cause of great joy to the parish. It will be the first of three organs which will eventually constitute the whole. This first organ, which will be known as the main organ will be in itself absolutely perfect and complete. The second part will in time be known as the chancel organ, and the third, the tower or echo organ. The main organ, which will be immediately installed, or as soon as it can be built, will be of two manuals and contain between six and seven hundred speaking pipes. The selection of stops, couplers, accessories, etc., has been a matter of great consideration by the rector for a long time. Even this main organ will excel, as we are advised, outside of the very largest cities anything that is in the south, or likely to be for a very long while. The enthusiastic, untiring work and devotion of the S. Agnes' Guild of young ladies, as well as the liberality and goodness of the people of the parish must be publicly acknowledged for their love of their church and for that for which the church stands.

Mrs. E. T. Lane and Miss Celeste Lane of Aurora, Ill., spent several days in Sanford this week with Mrs. Wm. Leavitt while en route to Lakeland. They will return to Sanford later in the season.

SANFORD ELKS NEW HOME CELEBRATION

HOUSE WARMING TUESDAY NIGHT GREAT SOCIAL EVENT

Brilliantly illuminated, gorgeously decorated and handsome in all its appointments the Elks Club was the scene of a beautiful social function on Tuesday evening that will go down in the history of the local organization as a memorable event. The Sanford Elks rejoice in the possession of one of the handsomest club houses in the south, but recently completed, the occasion on Tuesday night being the official opening of the building that was celebrated with a house warming and brilliant ball. The building was thronged with Elks and their friends from town, who were lavish in their praises and warm congratulations to the Sanford Elks Club. Modern and up to date in structure and equipment, and elegantly furnished, it was suitably adapted and a charming setting for the groups of handsomely yowned women and attractive girls who graced the occasion. The flowers used in profusion in the halls and corridors and in every available space mingled their beauty and fragrance with graceful ferns and statice palms, and the purple and white of the Elks colors, in an artistic combination and harmonious blending that was wonderfully pleasing. Baskets of exquisite roses in red and white and pink were used effectively in the lobby with palms and potted plants, and in the reading room a huge basket of golden chrysanthemums adorned the table, with bowls and vases of the same lovely flower placed on the mantels and window shelves. Hundreds of gorgeous chrysanthemums in all their delicate and gorgeous beauty were used in lavish profusion throughout the building. The ball room was thronged with dancers from nine in the evening until the "two o'clock hours" and never has there been a more attractive event in the social life of the town. The house committee, consisting of Messrs. Arthur Yowell, chairman, Forrest Lake, L. P. McCuller, B. W. Herndon and S. M. Fitch, who were in charge of all the perfect details of the arrangements were assisted in receiving and looking after the pleasure of their guests by the officers and many members of the lodge. Bushnell's orchestra from Deland furnished the entrancing music and punch was served throughout the evening. Sandwiches and coffee were served at the refreshment hour.

Prominent Elks from out of town were C. M. Stowe, Jacksonville, T. W. Juch, D. R. Bueh, Jackson, Mich., W. B. Goldenburg, Daytona, N. B. Alcar, Charlottesville, W. Va., F. R. Holmes, Lawrence, Mass., L. C. Ingram, Red Wing, Minn., A. M. Dieterich, Deland, Harold M. Smith, Pittsburg, Howard Lyman of Altamonte, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. "The Wager"
At the Star Tonight, in "The Wager," the great Metro-Rolle production which will be seen at the Star tonight Emily Stevens had a rare opportunity to show her tremendous emotional power as an actress. Miss Stevens won high praise in "The Unchastened Woman" and "The Wheel of the Law," but "The Wager" is said to bring her rare talents more actively into play than either of the first two productions.

Miss Stevens as "Diamond Daisy" Doyle a woman of the underworld in "The Wager" is called upon to depict a great change which takes place in the spirit of a feminine crook. Because of Daisy Doyle's cleverness as a diamond thief, the police have been unable to convict her. Detective Duggan, who has sent her sweet heart, "Slippery Jim," to prison is determined that she shall go the same route.

Daisy, deeply in love with Jim, decides to reform. Here is where the strongest phase of Miss Stevens' emotional art is seen. She depicts on the screen the struggle of Daisy Doyle's soul to "find" itself, and she does it with wonderful subtlety.

The play, written and directed by George D. Baker is filled with powerful dramatic situations. In one of these Daisy Doyle is induced by Police Commissioner Stone to receive a jeweler of gems, so that Stone may win a wager. The complications that follow form the basis of the powerful play.

A Splendid Singing Show.
The friends and admirers of that popular basso, Mr. Lester A. Lucas of J. A. Coburn's Greater Minstrels will be glad to hear of his early return to the Lyric Theatre on Thursday, Jan. 18th with the company. Down Deep in a Submarine and The Port of the Missing Two Ships, two of the latest numbers are included in his solos this season. In letters to friends here he says, "There is no possible doubt that Mr. Coburn has the best singing show this season he has ever had and the Quartette is far ahead of former years." In the first part this season Mr. Lewens as Interlocuter impersonates the Maharajah Naizam of Hadjmahul Bengal, India and in make up costume and action carries his honors gracefully as of yore. He is one of the best basses and middle men in minstrelsy and credits his success to his present manager. The past record of Coburn's minstrels in Sanford is ample guarantee of what may be expected in the all new attraction which he advertises for the 18th inst.

At Star Thursday
Charles J. Ross, known to fame as the head of the Ross and Fenton combination has the star part of Senator Rivers in "The Senator."

In his acting before the camera the part made famous on the legitimate stage by William H. Crane in Sydney Rosenfield's play, Mr. Ross gives a new view of the effect life of the political and social whirl of the Nation's capital has on a breezy Western senator who is making his first appearance on the national stage. In the way he carries the Degman claim through the torturous channels which lead to passage, foils the machinations of a social and political parasite who tries to wreck the lives of two trusting women, and finally wins not only the claim, but the fair girl who will be the chief beneficiary by the passage of the claim. Mr. Ross presents a new and striking character, and one which will appeal to all the finer instincts of human nature. The picturization of the play is a wonderfully beautiful piece of work aside from the dramatic merits of the story.

Good Rule on Life's Journey.
Let every dawn of morning be to you as the beginning of life, and every setting sun be to you as its close; then let every one of these short lives leave some sure record of some kindly thing done for others, some goodly strength or knowledge gained for yourselves.—John Ruskin.

Are You Worth While?
Are you merely existing in your community or are you living in it? Are you doing anything for its benefit or are you simply making your living from it? Are you a builder or are you a parasite? In other words, Are you worth while?

FOR BAKED COD OR HADDOCK

Method of Preparation That Has Long Been in Favor With Housewives of New England.

Wash and wipe a small cod or haddock. Now hold in an upright position and have a needle and string handy. Take the threaded needle and run through the head from side to side, then in the opposite direction through the middle of the body, then reverse and put through tail, then draw up, and it will form a letter S. The ends of string together on under side of fish. If fish is to be stuffed it must be done first. For stuffing, one-half cupful bread crumbs and four teaspoonfuls melted butter, four teaspoonfuls of finely chopped parsley or onions, two teaspoonfuls salt and one of pepper. Add milk to moisten, put in fish and sew it up. When fish is put in the pan it is resting on its belly, cut gashes in back of fish about two inches apart and insert narrow strips of salt pork. Dredge with flour and baste often with the pork drippings. Allow ten minutes to every pound and ten minutes extra. When done remove string, place on platter and pour over it this egg sauce: Three tablespoonfuls flour, two of butter, and one pint boiling water, one-half teaspoonful salt and a little pepper, and one hard boiled egg. Melt butter in saucepan, add flour and stir in boiling water slowly. Let boil five minutes, stirring constantly. Add the egg chopped fine, and salt and pepper, garnish with parsley.

WILL BE ENJOYED BY ALL

Rich Chocolate Cake Suitable for a Birthday Celebration or Any Special Occasion.

Two cupfuls of sugar, three-fourths of a cupful of butter (good measure), one cupful of buttermilk, whites of six eggs, yolks of four eggs, one teaspoonful of soda, one-half cake of good chocolate, three scant cupfuls of flour sifted together with the soda, one teaspoonful of vanilla. Cream the butter and sugar, add the yolks of the eggs previously beaten to a cream, then alternating, the buttermilk and the flour. The vanilla and chocolate are added last, the chocolate having been melted in a bowl set in a boiling tea kettle. Bake in a moderate oven. Test with a broom straw and when this, thrust in the top, comes out dry the cake is done.

The frosting, also brown, is made with one cupful cream, two cupfuls sugar, butter size of an egg, three squares of chocolate. Mix together and put on to boil. Let it boil slowly until it balls when thrown into cold water. Remove from stove and let the bubbling subside, then beat until it can be poured on the cake and glazed with a knife.

PENNSY SEEKS TITLES

Quakers Look for Strong Baseball and Track Teams.

Red and Blue Confident of Capturing Championship in at Least Two Major Sports Before College Closes in June.

Pennsylvania is confident the Red and Blue will capture a championship in at least two major sports before college closes in June.

While its members are only hopeful of success with its track and field team, they declare that they will send a baseball team to the diamond and a crew to Poughkeepsie that will deserve the titles.

On the crew the shortest man is over six feet tall. He is Capt. Ad Well. He and all the other prospective varsity men are powerful as well as tall. According to present plans the varsity eight will average 280 pounds, with an average height of 6 feet 4 inches.

Couch Joe Wright may not return to Penn. He says that he feels it his duty to attempt to enter the English army. If he fails he will again be with the Philadelphia oarsmen. Twice the Canadilla army has refused to accept Wright on account of his age, but his physician recently told the Argonaut oarsman that he never examined a more perfect man in his life, irrespective of age.

Penn has the making of a star baseball nine. It has a great pitcher in Shorty Sayre, but Coach Ray Thomas believes he has a still better moundman in Johnny Titzel, a big left-hander. Titzel is a sophomore. He weighs 183 pounds and has all the "stuff" of a big leaguer.

He pitched three night games for the freshmen last season, and Connie Muck, the great manager of the Philadelphia Athletics, predicts that he will win his way into the major league.

EUROPE'S WAR HITS BOWLING

Danger of Disaster on Account of Shortage of Pinboys—Few American Boys Available.

The European war has made itself felt in many ways, but the latest is the fact it has hit on bowling. With more leagues and more bowlers in competition than ever before, there is danger of disaster in the bowling world on account of the shortage of pinboys. Never before has there been a shortage of so serious a character.

Foreigners, principally Poles, make up the ranks of the army of pinboys. Few American lads, except in small cities and towns, set up pins, hence the Slav has had a monopoly of that line of work. For two years, however, few if any Poles have found their way to this country, and there has been no supply of green boys.

Since the opening of the war the green pinboys have secured a grasp of the English language and have gone to work in large numbers in factories and other establishments. Those who remained in the alley game have learned to ask for a raise, and there have been gettings them at such regular intervals that clubs and public alley managers are almost in despair.

The kicking of Thurman of Virginia, who gave up ambulance driving in France to return to school, played a prominent part in the Harvard-Virginia game. His kicks, averaging 50 yards apiece, were a great help to Virginia. His tackling was deadly.

Invalid's Chair.

A chair for an invalid, or an elderly person may be made very convenient by placing a drawer beneath the seat, arranging it to pull out at one end. It can be provided with a lock if desired. The drawer can be readily manipulated by anyone occupying the chair, and makes the invalid feel fairly independent, as many useful articles and treasures may be kept there, and he will not have to ask for every little thing he uses.

PEOPLE AND EVENTS

Every Week

The Every Week Bridge Club was entertained on Thursday afternoon by Mrs. W. J. Thigpen with Mrs. Mrs. W. E. Watson the winner of the attractive prize, a guest tassel. Substitutes for the afternoon were Mrs. R. A. Newman and Mrs. A. P. Connelly. Mrs. C. M. Vorce will be the next hostess.

Charming Bridge Party

The second of the series of the bridge parties that Mrs. G. I. Louché is giving in honor of her sister, Mrs. H. D. Clark, was given Friday afternoon at her pretty home on Magnolia avenue. The decorations of the attractive home were unusually pretty, a room of green and white in the dining room being carried out with potted palms and white elder blossoms. In the living room red roses and red gladioli were used with pleasing effect. Mrs. A. H. Stone assisted the hostess and Mrs. F. E. Roumillat won the pretty prize, a piece of hand painted china. Others present were Mrs. Geo. Bishop, Mrs. R. C. Bower, Mrs. A. P. Connelly, Mrs. R. R. Deas, Mrs. C. E. Hengy, Mrs. W. L. Morgan, Mrs. W. J. Thigpen, Mrs. R. E. Tolar, Mrs. Fred Walsman and Mrs. W. E. Watson.

Informal Sewing Party

Among the charming informal events of last week was the sewing party on Thursday afternoon at which Mrs. W. L. Morgan and Miss Ruth Mettinger were gracious hostesses. The guests were invited to bring their needlework and the hours were spent in delightful social intercourse. Those present were Mrs. Diane Turner, Mrs. Roy Symes, Mrs. Cecil Holt, Mrs. C. E. Henry, Mrs. R. J. Holly, Mrs. S. O. Shinsler, Mrs. P. J. Gonzales, Mrs. Frank Miller, Mrs. W. W. Abernathy, Mrs. Geo. Fox, Mrs. Claude Herndon and Miss Martha Fox. Mrs. J. K. Mettinger assisted her daughters.

Reception to College Boys

There could be nothing more delightfully pleasant than the informal reception and impromptu musicale with which Mrs. Fannie Stenbridge Muson and Miss Fannie Reba Munson entertained on Friday evening at the studio in honor of the Columbia Glee Club, after the enjoyable program at the Lyric. Miss Bess Tribble, who is a personal friend of many of the boys assisted the hostess and the boys left Sanford next day with the feeling that they had been royally entertained. Before leaving the theatre a number of the High School girls were introduced and invited to join the fun and the occasion was a very merry one. The young men rendered a number of college songs, quartets and solos throughout the evening and Dr. Chapman's beautiful baritone was heard to advantage in many selections.

Dainty refreshments were served and the good boys were said reluctantly at a late hour.

Enjoying the charming hospitality of Mrs. Munson and her niece were Dr. and Mrs. Chapman, Prof. W. B. Jones, Prof. T. E. Cochran, Prof. Blitch and Messrs. Lawrence Skinner, Alderman Saurin, James Law, Blanchard Law, Malcolm Irwin, Tom Rejardo, Edwin Grandberry, Harold Tribble, Cecil More, Miss Helen Gary, all of Columbia College. Social Department, Masquerade

The masquerade dance and card party that will be given next Monday night at Hotel Carnes under the auspices of the Social Department. Woman's Club promises to be a brilliant success and a very delightful affair. Every effort is being made by the various committees to make it one of the most charming of this season's social functions. There will be a lady's and gent-man's prize for bridge and for the most attractive costumes. The DeLand orchestra will furnish the music and refreshments will be served, all to be included in the one price for tickets. The original committee are Mrs. Samuel Puleston, chairman; Mrs. R. A. Newman, Mrs. J. S. Wilson and Mrs. Fred Walsman. There are various sub committees in addition to the original committee.

Book Circle

The members of the Book Circle and other friends were charmingly entertained on Friday afternoon by Mrs. W. A. Fitts, Jr., at her suburban home. The house was prettily adorned with quantities of boguan Villia and purple violets against a background of ferns. A violet scheme was carried out in all the perfect details of decoration, prizes and refreshments. The prizes were unusually lovely and attractive. A large hand painted 1917 calendar in violet design was won by Mr. R. C. Maxwell in the interesting "Time" contest and the individual favors were small calendars in the same pretty design. An elaborate refreshment course was served on plates daintily adorned with violets. Those present were Mrs. A. W. Fitts, Sr., Mrs. R. C. Maxwell, Mrs. Wm. Bill and Miss Annie Haskins, guests. Members present were Mrs. J. W. Dickins, Mrs. Henr Wight, Mrs. May Dickins, Mrs. Margaret Barnes, Mrs. S. O. Chase, Mrs. E. M. Galloway, Mrs. R. A. Newman, Mrs. Geo. Spier.

More Names Added to Skating Club

Indications point to a very successful and enjoyable affair at the Skating Rink on Friday evening when the skating contest and dancing will take place under the auspices of the Welfare Department, Woman's Club. That there may be no misunderstanding the committee in charge of arrangements state positively that there will be no so charge to enter the contest but everyone is expected to pay for their admission and skate tickets at the prices that obtain a ways at the rink. Dancing will be extra and the ticket includes a gentleman and lady. In order that the contest is absolutely fair, Mr. and Mrs. Flynn will act as the judges. The contest will have a fair chance. The rink is open to everyone who desires to skate except for the few minutes that each contest is on when only those who enter the contest will have the privilege of the rink. The date is Friday, January 19. Names added to those already published are Misses Leache Loeffler, Eleanor Herrng, Lillian Herring, Martha Fox, Mesars. Seth Woodruff, Kenneth Lewis, Joe Chittenden, Harvey Connel and Vernon Kilgore. Patronesses are Mrs. E. M. Galloway, Mrs. W. E. Watson, Mrs. J. W. Dickins, Mrs. Henry Wight, Mrs. Deane Turner and Mrs. W. P. Carter.

Rummage Sale

Members of the Welfare Department are reminded that there will be a rummage sale in Leffer's block on Sanford avenue Saturday afternoon. Department members are urged to cooperate and give rummage for same. Notify Mrs. Terheun or Mrs. W. P. Carter.

BUDGET OF OPINION "JUST BETWEEN YOU AND ME."

EVEN THE GATE POST NOT IN IT

A CHIEF IS AMONG YE TAKING NOTES AND FAITH, 'HE'LL PRENT 'EM'---SO SAYS SAUNTERER.

Preparedness
As I'm sitting here I'm thinking Of the past and bygone years; Of the friends who have crossed the ocean,
And passed through the vale of tears;
And have reached a welcome harbor,
And are on the golden shore;
And are now with our Redeemer, Where they ne'er will part more.

I see them standing, waiting, watching,
With anxious eye and out stretched hand,
For their friends and dear companions,
I see them crossed the golden strand, I see fathers, mothers, brothers, Sisters, dear and children too, All with anxious eyes are waiting For the boatman when he's due.

Are we all prepared to meet them, When our time has come to go,
And we're waiting o'er the river,
To join our friends we've loved below?

Can we mingle with the loved ones,
And walk on the golden shore;
When the storms of life are cooled,
And our sorrows all are o'er?

Let us all take heed and warning,
And live by the Golden Rule, So when the Savior calls us We may join the happy school, That we may clasp their hands in gladness.

And unite in endless bliss, With the throngs who have crossed before us,
To a farer land than this.

—By J. F. Spaulding, Augusta, Maine.

Says the Christian Science Monitor: "It would seem that both the prohibition and suffrage movements in 1917 will assume a national rather than a state aspect in the United States. The contest in both instances, in fact, passes with 1918, out of the local, regional and state into the federal environment. Unless all indications are deceptive, the last session of the Sixty-fourth or the first session of the Sixty-fifth congress will submit proposals to amend the constitution so that under its provisions, woman shall have everywhere in the United States equal political rights with men, while nowhere in the United States shall the liquor traffic be tolerated.
Ratifications of these amendments by the legislatures of three-fourths of the several states will anchor in the organic law two of the most progressive achievements of our time."

Which leads the Chattanooga News to say that "William Jennings Bryan who is leading the drive from these two federal amendments is now concentrating on Wisconsin, and if Milwaukee, along with other Wisconsin cities goes dry, the beginning of the end will have been witnessed. It will be fitting that the suffrage and prohibition amendments are adopted at the same time, since suffrage has proved the most potent force against the saloons."

A certain man had two sons, and the younger of them said to his father, "Give me the portion of thy time, and thy attention, and thy companionship, and thy counsel which falleth to me." And he divided unto them his living, in that he paid the boy's bill and sent him to college, and tried to believe that he was doing his full duty.

And not many days after, the father gathered all his interests and aspirations and ambitions and took his journey into a far country, into a land of stocks and bonds and securities and other things which do not interest a boy; and there he wasted his precious opportunity of being a chum of his own sons. And when he had spent the very best of his life and had gained money, but had failed to find satisfaction, there arose a mighty famine in his heart, and he began to be in want of sympathy and real companionship. And he went and joined himself to one of the clubs of that country; and they elected him chairman of the house committee, and he would fain have satisfied himself with the husks that other men did eat; and no man gave unto him any real friendship.

But when he came to himself he said, "How many men of my acquaintance have boys whom they understand, and who understand them, who talk about their boys, and associate with their boys, and seem perfectly happy in the comradeship of their sons, and I perish here with heart hunger? I will arise and go to my son, and I will say unto him, 'Son, I have sinned against heaven and in thy sight; I am no more worthy to be called thy father; make me as one of thy acquaintances.'" And he arose and came to his son. But while he was yet afar off, his son saw him and was moved with astonishment, and instead of running and falling on his neck he drew back and was ill at ease. And the father said unto him, "Son, I have sinned against heaven and in thy sight; I am no more worthy to be called thy father. Forgive me now and let me be thy friend."

But the son said, "Not so; I wish it were possible, but it is too late.
There was a time when I wanted to know things, when I wanted companionship and counsel, but you were too busy. I got the information, and I got the companionship, but I got the wrong kind; and now, alas! there is nothing you can do for me. It is too late, too late, too late."

It makes me mad to get liquor advertisements through the mail and there are others. It is all right to send liquor stuff through the mails in the wet counties but after a county has gone dry and is trying to stay dry it is a churl that the majority of the people resent the traffic of the liquor people in trying to send liquor into that territory.
And then the liquor men are no respecters of persons and send the advertisements to preachers and other well known dry advocates, thus arousing the feeling that liquor should be put out of business by the government, and the citizens are sore that this will soon be done if the latest developments in the Webb-Kenyon bill are any forerunners.

Here is a count in the prohibition indignant against the highest authority in the land:
"The Federal mails are being used to transmit liquor advertising and solicitation of orders to millions of men, women and children, many of them residing in states which have outlawed the liquor traffic, and many of them residents in homes where conscientious conviction causes the traffic in liquor with the traffic in vice."
And here is another:
"Hostile campaigns against the laws and customs of states are being conducted through the medium of the mails. The names of concerns carrying on these campaigns are given. . . . This is provocative of resentment against Federal Government, subversive of the spirit of unity which should be most carefully nurtured, and tends to divide the country into antagonistic groups of states. It is intolerable that the central government should contribute its services to the flouting of law, the provocation of ill feeling between states and the making of anti social attacks upon politically organized communities."
The United States, it is hardly necessary to say cannot continue half dry and half wet, any more than it could have existed have slave and half free. It is inevitable that the liquor traffic shall be wiped out completely; its extirpation, however, can be delayed and made difficult by refusal or failure of the Federal Government to fall into line with the manifest will of the people in relation to prohibition. A map of the United States, showing the states that have spurned the liquor traffic completely and the districts in other states that refuse to tolerate it, will prove to the governing powers at a glance that anti-liquor sentiment dominates the nation.

This sentiment is demanding now, more vigorously than every before that the Federal authority shall not persist in giving aid, comfort or countenance to a traffic now almost universally condemned.

Mayor Davison has caught my idea, advanced some time ago about a place for the tourists to sit around.
He will build a lot of benches and place them along the streets wherever wide enough and also make a place on the Government lot of the Carnes Hotel where they can pitch horse shoes and sit around to their heart's content and enjoy the Florida sunshine. This is a great idea and Sanford will soon be known as the town of big hearted people who are doing something for the visitors.

Now Mr. Mayor and City Council, get busy on the lake front and plant something green at once, making this great spot look more like Florida. Anything will do, just so it is growing while the tourists are watching it from the boat landing.
But do it now.

LONGWOOD PICK UPS
Mrs. Ed. Driggers and brother, J. Arnette returned Thursday from Georgia, where Mrs. Driggers has been for the past six months.
Mr. and Mrs. Henry Heath of Fort Myers have been visiting relatives in town the past week.
Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Hunt and family of Oviedo were guests of Mrs. J. H. Allen Sunday.
Mrs. Frank Griggs was shopping in Sanford on Friday.
Mrs. J. N. Searcy was visiting in

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Dinkel and Miss Olive Dinkel and Miss Lillian Bryan were shopping in Orlando Saturday.

"Great Expectation"
At the Star Friday, Louise Hull and Jack Pickford follow their great success in "Seventeen" by co-starring in the Famous Players' adaptation of Charles Dickens' great novel "Great Expectations," which is the Paramount Picture at the Star Theatre this week.
In support of the youthful stars, director Robert G. Vignola has assembled an excellent cast, including Frank Luss, Marcia Harris, Grace Harden, Herbert Prior and W. W.
Black.

"Pip" is an orphan who lives with his sister, whose husband runs a country blacksmith shop. The boy's life is a struggle until, in an effort to escape his sister's wrath he runs into a graveyard where he is seized by an escaped convict, Provis, who threatens him with instant death if he does not procure him food and a file with which to remove a ball and chain from his ankle.

The terrified Pip does as he is bid, only to remove the convict capture and brought to the blacksmith shop, where poor Pip nearly expires for fear he will be apprehended. But the grateful Provis lies to save him.
The next great step in the history of Pip is the arrival of Mr. Jaggers, a London lawyer, who is so struck by his gentility, that he selects him as a companion for Estella, the adopted daughter of his client, Miss Havisham, a most secretive and peculiar woman.

The companionship of the two youngsters ripens into love as they grow older, until Pip learns to his disarm that Miss Havisham has liberally encouraged them with the purpose of breaking his heart. The young lovers are separated and Pip is made the beneficiary of a legacy which enables him to go to London, live as a gentleman and be thoroughly educated. He does not know the source of this income, but believes that Miss Havisham is secretly making amends for his cruelty.

He finally discovers the whereabouts of Estella and they plight their troth. On that very night Pip is dashed to the depths of despair by the arrival of Provis, the convict, who reveals the fact that it is he who has been supplying Pip with money. The poor boy believes that Estella will scorn him when she learns the truth, but he has reckoned without the finer qualities of Estella who comes to his assistance and even helps the convict in his fatal effort to escape the police. Over his dead body there arises the vision of a new romance as the two young lovers do homage to the better side of their remarkable man's character.

Unshod Horses.
The Indians, who had no superiority as horsemen, never thought of shoeing their mounts in any way, and yet they were capable of performing remarkable journeys over the most difficult country. Even at the present day in Japan the modern horse shoe finds a strong competitor in the old fashioned sandals made of straw, which are fastened to the horse's hoofs very much as they might be to a man's foot.

Busy Hospital.
Five hospitals in civilized lands can equal the record of the hospital for eye troubles carried on by H. T. Holland of Stokport, India. In one month, 700 operations, largely for cataract, were performed in this institution. Seven hundred operations are sometimes treated in a single day. The Seth Hiranand of Stokport, a native ruler, has left to the hospital a legacy amounting to about $2000.

Clearing Wine of Sediment.
The newest way of removing sediment from bottles of wine before being sent to the market is effective and more convenient than the older method. It consists of allowing the sur-factants to settle in the neck of the bottle while in an inverted position and then freezing that part of the contents, whereupon it is easily blown off.

OVIEDO VICTORIOUS AGAIN
Defeats Strong Osceola County High School Team Oviedo High School defeated the girls' basket ball team of the Osceola County High School in Kissimmee Saturday afternoon by a score of 28 to 10. Kissimmee opened the game with some fast cross court passes which took the Oviedo guards about five minutes to solve after which the game settled down to a rather one sided contest. Straight basket ball tactics were used by both teams with little spectacular play on either side. The first half ended with the score of 10 to 5 in favor of the visitors.

In the last half Oviedo warmed up
ended with the score of 10 to 5 in favor of the visitors.

and kept the ball in their opponent's territory most of the time. Kissimmee began to put in subs freely, while Oviedo kept her team in tact.
The Oviedo forwards surpassed their best previous record of 20 points made against Sanford by rolling up a total of 26 points against Kissimmee.
Marie Ma shall played a brilliant game as running center. For Kissimmee Capt. Makinson made the best industrial showing.

The game was played off smoothly few fouls being called by the officials. A friendly spirit of sportsmanship was manifested throughout the contest and the visitors were shown every courtesy by the local officials and management. Kissimmee High School athletics, under the supervision of Principal R. M. Evans district vice president of the recently formed state High School Athletic Association, aided by Coach Davidson, have attracted favorable comment for the clean spirit in which their games are conducted.

This is the second game Kissimmee has lost to a Seminole county team, Sanford having won out by a 11-8 score.
Next Saturday Oviedo invades the East Coast playing Titusville High.
A return game will probably be played with Kissimmee on the Oviedo court Jan. 27.

One of the Best Known Burnt Cork Entertainers Appearing with Coburn's Minstrels at Lyric Theatre, Thursday, January 18th
