

Organizations Asked To Attend Village Meet

By Mona Grinstead
Executive board members of all North Orlando organizations have been invited to attend Monday's 8 p. m. meeting of the North Orlando Civic Association board to discuss the possibility of assisting the Village Fire Department with the annual Community Christmas Party.

All committee chairmen of the Civic Association also are asked to be present.

It was brought out at last month's association meeting that the Fire Department has been solely responsible in past years for arranging Santa's visit to North Orlando. However, members of the association agreed to encourage, in every possible way, some annual function in which all organizations would participate with the Christmas Party being suggested as the most likely time to bring "community harmony to a community event."

No definite plans were made at this time and if this idea is not acceptable to all, another holiday will be chosen to unite the organizations and their efforts in a single community activity.

Valachi Says He Got 'Kiss Of Death'

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Gangland turncoat Joseph Valachi told Senate investigators today that underworld overlord Vito Genovese gave him the Mafia's "kiss of death" by kissing him on the hand while they were cellmates in the Atlanta federal prison. The stocky, red haired ex-mobster described Genovese as the "under the table" super-boss of organized crime. He also testified that Genovese ordered the murder of sub-boss Tony Bender (Anthony Strollo) from his Atlanta prison cell.

Testifying publicly for the first time, Valachi told the Senate that Genovese described news reports of Bender's disappearance as "the best thing that could happen—he wouldn't be able to take it like you and I."

Valachi recounted the episode after testifying that he joined the disciplined "Cosa Nostra" crime cartel—"our thing, our family in English"—in 1932. Born in New York to Italian immigrant parents, he said he took to crime after dropping out of school at age 15 and working for about a year on a sand scow.

Elephant Runs Amok; Wrecks Store; Killed

LANSING, Mich. (UPI)—A 2,000 pound performing elephant ran amok for 90 minutes Thursday, trampling a man and rampaging through a crowded department store before she was killed by police.

More than two dozen rifle shots finally tumbled the frightened beast. Rajje, property of the King Shows and Circus, was entertaining in the parking lot of the local shopping center. She balked at doing one trick. Then, according to her trainer, the circus ringmaster, "she just walked away."

Paul Grant, 22, an employee at Arlan's department store, saw the animal and walked outside. "When she saw me she started chasing me," Grant said. "I ran into the store and she came after me."

At the brothers' stand in the driveway the elephant charged through their back yard. Merlin dodged aside. "She turned right into the elephant's path," a policeman said. "He was knocked to the ground, hit and then stepped on."

South Semionle Gyp Artists Wash Out Fast

Two would-be bank swindlers have learned that crime not only doesn't pay — it costs. The two, both men in their early 20s, pulled up to a drive-in window at the South Semionle Bank in Fern Park and attempted to exchange what appeared to be seven $10 rolls of quarters for $70 worth of greenbacks.

They left hurriedly, however, when teller June Gaines started to break open the rolls. Inside were $27.50 worth of real quarters, the remainder were metal washers.

First Phase Scheduled

A near half-million-dollar land transfer and building construction program was announced today by President Howard H. Hodges of Sanford Atlantic National Bank.

Purchase of the Florida Hotel building as a site for Sanford Atlantic's expansion was announced by Hodges. The three-story hotel building, fronting 40 feet on Park Avenue and 114 feet on Second Street, was purchased from R. C. Boyce, Greensboro, N. C., for $55,000. Hodges stated that in about three months the hotel building will be razed and the site will be converted into a parking lot for bank customers. Ultimate use of the site, he added, will be for a new bank building, with the present bank facilities at First and Park to be completely remodeled and renovated and made an integral part of the new building.

Queried as to the cost of the proposed bank structure, Hodges said he "could only hazard a guess at this time—$100,000 for the new building and remodeling of our present building. The land deal for the hotel is a separate figure."

The bank president said that "now we only have general ideas for our new building. Our architects and engineers will study other new banking facilities, especially in Florida, for new thoughts. The general trend now in new bank structures is to provide drive-in teller windows and parking facilities on the ground floor, with regular banking facilities on the second floor and general operating departments on the third floor."

He explained that the two structures will be connected with overhead pathways, or bridges, over the present drive-in and parking lot. He emphasized both buildings will be integrated into one general banking facility to care for their expanded business.

Questioned of the trend to move to outlying shopping centers, Hodges stated: "We made a complete and thorough study of the situation and decided the future of Sanford and Seminole County is right in downtown Sanford."

He held that "contrary to some thought about downtown Sanford's future being on the downgrade, we are convinced in just the opposite direction. As bankers, we are aware of plans and negotiations now under way for the downtown and nearby parts of the city, along with knowledge of planned expansion in the county."

"There is general knowledge Sanford Naval Air Station will expand. We feel certain the St. Johns-Indian River Canal will be in operation in a few years, bringing with it...

Citrus Lectures Open Oct. 15

Four lectures will be held in Deland and four in Sanford, all on subsequent Tuesday nights, Lundberg said. "It was thought," he added, "that this type of school is timely since we had such severe weather last winter."

Lecturers will be Warren O. Johnson and James C. Georg, Federal-State Frost Warning Service, Lakeland; Dr. John Gerber, David Martzoff, Fred P. Lawrence and D. S. Harrison, University of Florida, and Elton Clemmons, Citra.

Sen. Kelly Stresses Ability To Say 'No'

The importance of being able to say "no" and defending yourself when it comes to bigger and bigger government spending problems was emphasized by State Senator Scott Kelly, of Lakeland, gubernatorial hopeful, speaking to members of the Sanford Shrine Club and guests Thursday.

"We must have men and women prepared to say 'no' and then to be able to defend their answer in regards to deficit financing and increasing centralization of government," said the man who was elected to the Florida Senate at the age of 28.

"Proposed legislation" under the guise of civil rights will take everyone's rights away and is a fast in the door toward the fateful day when we all lose the right to own and control property," Senator Kelly charged.

"Let your legislators know how you feel before these bills are passed for it is doubly difficult to repeal a law after it is once approved," he warned.

"Government should be approached in a business-like manner, with the confidence of the people and operating within a reasonable budget like any good business must do," Senator Kelly remarked.

He said that the best government is city government because it is closest to the people, with county, state and federal government consecutively getting farther and farther away from the needs and wishes of the people and farther and farther out of their control.

"The greatest return on your tax dollar is from your city government, with the federal government giving the least return," Senator Kelly pointed out.

The gubernatorial candidate spoke at a meeting of area Shriners here. He also is a Shriner, member of the Lions Club, AMVETS, Woodmen of the World, Moose Club and Boy Scout Council.

The youthful senator was elected to the city commission of Lakeland at the age of 25, served as mayor at age 26 and was elected to the Florida Senate at 28 in 1954 and re-elected in 1959.

He was named one of Florida's "Five Outstanding Young Men" in 1957 and received the Florida Legislative Achievement Council Award in 1961 and the State Jaycee "Good Government Award."

In the Senate, Kelly serves on the Senate public roads and highways committee, chairman of the joint Senate and House interim committee, which investigated irregularities in the State Road Department and has been one of the leaders in the fight for constitutional revision and reapportionment.

He is chairman of the citrus committee and also serves on committees on agriculture, oil and natural resources, banking, cities and towns, education, insurance, public health, roads and highways.

Everyone Important

Before retiring at night I often go out and look at the sky. When the stars are to be seen in their marvelous brilliance and number, the scene can be awesome. Indeed, one considers the fact that the Milky Way is made up of thousands of millions of stars, and the distance that they are hung in space is so great that they seem to be one great gem studded belt encircling the earth we call home. We continue our thinking only to realize that this great part of creation is only as a grain of sand on a seashore in God's creation. When one views this marvel he must guard against feeling too little in God's scheme of things. One of the greatest miracles that God has performed is letting each individual be great in His sight as He so carefully assured us when He came in Jesus Christ.

All of us would like to know more about God than we do. We would like to have minds less limited that we might grasp more of the facts of God and all that is His, yet the healthy kind of humility is that which makes us realize that we are mortal and God is divine. It is good to know and appreciate the fact that we cannot stretch our minds and our spiritual grasps to comprehend all that is. We simply have to be satisfied with understanding to the best of our ability, and rejoice that God saw fit to reveal Himself in Jesus Christ thereby giving us all of the knowledge we need for salvation and for a good life on this earth.

Alliance Church To Participate In Campaign

Sunday schools of The Christian and Missionary Alliance, which gained over 10,000 new members in the United States and Canada last year, have set "Everybody Counts" as the emphasis for the 1963 fall campaign in which the Sunday school of the Sanford Alliance Church has voted to participate. Dates of Oct. 6 to Nov. 10 have been chosen for the special emphasis, according to the announcement in New York by Mrs. Mavis Weidman, National Sunday School Secretary of the Alliance churches.

Superintendent of the local participating Sunday school in Virginia Aakren and the pastor of the church is the Rev. C. C. Dees, Jr.

It is expected that some 12,000 Sunday schools in the United States, Canada and Puerto Rico will take part in the international campaign for new members.

"In making the gains last year Alliance Sunday school workers made more than 130,000 calls," the announcement said. "This year the effort will be to involve all ages, Junior through Adult, in this Christian witness."

The local churches are being provided with help and materials from the New York Office to utilize such techniques and groups as "Missionary Invasion," "Publicity Corps," "Motorcade," and "Telephone Squad."

Youth Group Organizes
By Jane Casselberry
The newly organized Casselberry Community Methodist Church Older Youth Group will hold a get-acquainted party at the church Sunday evening following the church service.

At the first meeting held last Sunday night, Skip Hood was named temporary president and Bernice Cassber, temporary secretary-treasurer.

Others attending were Phyllis Casaber, Jill Forayth, Barbara Ferrell, Hob Perry, Ken Miller, Larry Shock and Dennis Huntley.

Any older single youth 18 years old and over is invited to join the group.

There is so much that we can all do. Dr. Phillip Brooks realized a long time ago that people were awed even in his day and that they sometimes questioned their importance. To help them he wrote, "It is for us, in whom the Christian Church is at this moment partially embodied, to declare that Christianity, that the Christian faith, the Christian manhood, can do that for the world which the world needs. You say, 'What can I do?' You can furnish one Christian life. You can furnish a life so faithful to every duty, so ready for every service, so determined not to commit every sin, that the great Christian Church shall be the stronger for your living in it, and the problem of the world be answered, and a certain great peace come into this poor, perplexed phase of our humanity as it sees that new revelation of what Christianity is."

It may seem that one's efforts are small and ineffectual, but be reminded of the attitude that Jesus took of the widow's mite. The contributions of those with plenty were much larger than the little gift of the widow, but our Lord assured all who observed that her gift was the greatest because it was a sacrificial gift. The witness of one candle set on a hill could be great, indeed, He said:

Let us realize that we can be important to Him and walk with Him day by day so that we grow until the fruits of the Spirit be made manifest in us, then we will realize that we are important in His sight. We can give ourselves a little test as to whether we are living with God closely enough. The promise of God is that if we walk hand in hand with Him the fruit of His Spirit will be seen in us and this fruit is named in the fifth chapter of Galatians as being, "love, joy, peace, long-suffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness, temperance."

Any one with such fruit as this in their lives will be important. The key to real importance is to surrender to Christ as Lord and Saviour then all else will follow even to a vital role in God's scheme.

Revival services at the First Church of the Nazarene, Second Street and Maple Avenue, being conducted daily at 7:30 p. m. this week by Rev. John A. Knight of Nashville, Tenn., will conclude at Sunday's 7 p. m. worship service.

Rev. Paul Dickes, pastor of the church, said today that "attendance at the services of this revival is unusually good in spite of the inclement weather we have been having. Each night the church is filled nearly to capacity and we are very thankful."

"Rev. Knight is on the faculty of Trevecca Nazarene College in Nashville and is writing his dissertation for a Doctor of Philosophy degree at Vanderbilt University."

"Although not yet 30 years old, he speaks with great eloquence and persuasion. The general public is invited to attend the services and hear this young man."

Knights Of Columbus Hear State Deputy

An ideal Knight of Columbus is a good Catholic, a good citizen and a good husband and father, Dr. Lawrence Jones, state deputy of the Knights of Columbus, stated at the luncheon of St. Richard's Council 5357 held Sunday at the Social Hall of All Souls Catholic Church in Sanford.

Dr. Jones, in his speech to the more than 200 KU's and their families and guests, pointed out that the Knights of Columbus originally was organized as a support for the church and for social relations between people who have the same common faith and thought.

He said that a Catholic is not a Knight in name only but is one who practices his faith, is a good father who combines discipline with justice and a good citizen who is well informed, conducts himself with dignity and uses his influence for good.

Distinguished guests who were introduced by Dr. Vincent Roberts, Grand Knight of Council 5357, were Fr. Richard Lyons, pastor of All Souls church; Fr. Angel Libera, Catholic chaplain at SNAS and spiritual director of St. Richards Council and Fr. William J. Trainor, pastor of the Catholic Church of the Nativity at Lake Mary.

Also introduced were William Joyce, district four deputy; John Leitch, district 15 deputy; Joseph Martin, district four warden; John Richter, faithful navigator, Fourth Degree Honor Guard; John Hage, grand knight, Our Lady of the Lakes Council 5150 of Orlando and Peter Dutko, Grand Knight of Monksior Bishop Council 2112. The luncheon was sponsored by the Council Activities Committee of St. Richard's Council whose chairman is Chuck Tournoux.

Preceding the luncheon the 60 Knights formed an impressive procession as they marched in a group from the Social Hall to the church where they attended the 11:30 a. m. Dialogue Mass celebrated by Fr. Lyons.

U. S. Is Spending $45 Million For Merritt Island Property

By Jane Casselberry
Policies and procedures used by the federal government in the acquisition of 38,000 acres of land on Merritt Island for the Nova project were outlined by Morgan T. Nealy, district manager for the Army Corps of Engineers at Thursday's meeting of Sanford-Seminole Jaycees in the Civic Center.

Nealy is in charge of negotiating transactions for the government and since his office opened in Titusville 21 months ago it has acquired through direct purchase or condemnation options on 4,000 tracts costing a total of $45 million.

In a crash program three areas in Brevard County were negotiated in a 19-month period and Dec. 31 of this year was set as the deadline for acquiring an additional 11,800 acres in Brevard and Volusia Counties.

The total construction cost of the gigantic space program on the island is estimated at $700 million.

There is no immediate plan for construction in two areas which will act as a buffer zone. It is here that most of the 3,000 acres of the island's citrus groves are located.

Owners of the groves have the opportunity to lease back the groves for a five-year period and if they do not wish to do so the leases are put up for public bid.

In some of these same areas home owners and businessmen are allowed to lease back their property until it is put to further use by the government.

Plans call for the relocation of the Inland Waterway Hallover Canal further north. Roads will remain open for public travel for the time being at least.

In relating some of the unusual experiences encountered in negotiating for the land, Nealy said that one non-resident owner who lives in California sent back the signed papers with the comment, "I am delighted to find you have discovered land on my Florida real estate!"

A woman land owner, a frog grower, remarked that they had better complete the deal soon as she had imported a Texas bullfrog and in a few weeks the place would be full of frogs.

Later she was going to apply for resettlement expenses for the cost of moving the frogs, but they were dug down in the mud and she couldn't find them. Winners of the sales contest in the recent Jaycee fertilizer sale were Garnett White who won the $5 first prize and Frank Voltoline, who won the second prize of $2.

A new member joining the organization was Al Boyne.

St. John Chrysostom Church To Ordain Orthodox Priest

St. John Chrysostom Orthodox Church, located on Highway 17-92 in Fern Park, will be the scene of an impressive ordination service of a young deacon to the priesthood of the Eastern Orthodox Church on Sunday at 10:30 a. m.

The service will be conducted by Rt. Rev. Gregory of the New York Archdiocese for Deacon Michael Hurley who after ordination, will take up an active ministry and work in missions in the Central Florida area.

Invitation to attend is extended by Fr. John Adair, priest, to all people who would like to witness this ancient service patterned after the days of the "laying-on-of-hands of the Apostles."

The century-old building of the church, is situated on Lake of the Woods and is the only American, English-language Orthodox Church in the entire State of Florida. It is engaged in an Americanization program on behalf of the descendants of "old country" Orthodox peoples as well as presenting the grandeur of the ancient Liturgy of the East to the American people at large.

Its doors are open to one and all, at all times, they that they might see "how" the worship of the Apostles was actually carried on in the primitive Church.

Business Briefs

Harry Robson, of Robson Sporting Goods, has been presented Evinrude's Silver award for sales and service achievements.

Robson is at the 1964 Chicago Boat Show this week, getting a front seat view of next year's boats and motors and also getting in the driver's seat of most of them.

Robson will be back Monday with what's new in boats and motors for 1964, especially Evinrude's new line. The Evinrude line features a big new 90 hp motor, along with the world's speed record holder, the Starflite 75 hp and a new in-between size, the Sportfour 60 hp.

The coin operated laundry at 2010 French Avenue is now under the management of R. D. (Wes) Wesley.

Wes has improved everything about the place, and changed its name to "Wes-Kay Washeteria."

The laundry has been completely repainted, the washers and dryers overhauled and put in perfect operating condition, and a new air conditioned and heated waiting room has been added.

Arrangements have been made for a factory trained service man to check all the machines once monthly.

Mr. Wesley says the dryers operated at 190 degrees, and the hot water in the washers is 135 degrees, very adequate for excellent washing.

Other features at Wes-Kay are new chairs, insect killing lamps, and coin dispensers for detergent, bleach, plastic bags, cokes and cookies.

Flu Shots Now Urged By Leone

Immunization against influenza now, with the approach of the winter season, was recommended today by Dr. Frank Leone, director of the Seminole County Health Department.

"We are approaching the season (November through March) in which influenza and pneumonia take their heaviest toll," Dr. Leone said, "and estimates for 1963 indicate that this will be a record-breaking year for pneumonia and influenza mortality."

The importance of this cannot be over-emphasized as 80 per cent of the influenza cases and 53 per cent of the influenza and pneumonia deaths usually occur within this five-month period."

Dr. Leone recommended routine for all persons, particularly those over 65 years of age and persons with any chronic or disabling disease.

The government of Indonesia has officially changed the name of the Indian Ocean to the "Indonesian Ocean" on its maps.

The Romans once called the Mediterranean "Our Sea." Such national egotism was not disputed; if it was, the upstarts were soon shown the error of their ways.

Indonesia is the fourth largest nation of the world in population and stretches over a vast area of the South Pacific. It is rich in resources and could well one day become a major power.

At present, however, it is doubtful if anyone will take much notice of the Indonesian exercise in grandeur. Map changes and myths produced for home consumption are poor substitutes for concrete economic and political advances toward strong nationhood.

Lesson In Citizenship

Outside the bounds of Alabama, the newly programmed desegregation of southern and border state schools proceeded this year almost without incident. The question is why.

No one can imagine that when such changes occur they are welcomed, particularly in Deep South states like Georgia and South Carolina.

Yet they are usually accepted in a friendly fashion. Counselors of calm prevail.

It is apparent that the millions of southerners have a deep commitment to law and order, just as do millions of Americans in other sections.

Often many may disagree with the purpose and content of particular laws. They may not like what some courts decree as they interpret either the laws or the federal and state constitutions. But they believe that the courts must be obeyed if we are to have rule by law rather than by the whims of men.

It is significant that a high proportion of this year's "new desegregation" took place on a voluntary basis. That is, the school districts developed their plans without waiting to be ordered into action by a federal court.

This marks recognition in many quarters that most legal remedies sought as a means of barring desegregation have been exhausted. This being so, more and more communities regard a court fight as a fruitless waste of time, energy and money on all sides.

It is a further sign, too, that most Americans of whatever region want their schools open and functioning. The education of millions of American children for a new and more challenging day is too important to permit of any roadblocks.

Many southern communities are mindful as well that they are playing an important and growing role in the economic and scientific revolution that is sweeping the nation. They prize their new places in the scheme of things. They see no point in allowing the racial issue — or any other — to interpose itself between them and further progress.

Taken together, these are the reasons some racial change came so quietly this year in parts of the South and border zones.

The performance, generally, was indeed a lesson for the whole country.

Helen Fuller Says

Tax Cut Likely

Washington — It still looks as though Congress will vote all of us a tax cut this year.

Better business than expected in the first half of 1963 temporarily undercut President Kennedy's contention that a cut in taxes was necessary to stimulate the economy and prevent further unemployment. It took the Administration from February, when hearings on the tax-cut bill began, to September to sell the powers-that-be in the House of Representatives on cutting taxes for longer-run reasons. But on Sept. 10 the cautious conservatives who rule the Ways and Means Committee finally voted 17-8 to recommend that the full House approve an $11.1 billion cut in personal and corporate taxes over the next two years.

What went on between February and September is a liberal education in politics as it is presently practiced. The Administration argued its case on principle. Without a tax cut, the President contended, "1964 is going to be an uncertain time." Without the cut Kennedy told Congress, we face a possible increase in unemployment and an economic downturn. With the cut, he saw the possibility of decreasing unemployment over the next two or three years, of creating more national wealth and strengthening our gold position in the world money market.

To the argument that we cannot afford to cut taxes when we have so huge a national deficit Kennedy and his advisers replied that we will get our budget in balance quicker if we cut taxes and thereby stimulate the economy than if we don't. "The reason the government is in deficit," Kennedy insisted, "is because you have more than four million people unemployed and because the last five years have had a rather sluggish growth, much slower than any other Western country."

The President tried energetically to convert Congress to modern economics. At the same time he smiled on some old-fashioned political finagling by his staff and supporters in Congress.

Their first step was to win friends for the President's bill by making it an omnibus measure and including in it a little something for almost everyone. In the final version, one section or another was of special interest to almost all the important lobbies active on Capitol Hill. Business citizens, labor and most organized groups liked what the bill would do for them more than they disliked the bill as a whole. Business men, for instance, would have liked lower corporate taxes than the bill provides, but they are happy with the higher tax credit the bill allows in return for investments.

Certain powerful interests were permitted to plead out of court for removal of proposed changes obnoxious to them. As a result the Ways and Means Committee agreed with the railroads that the speedup Kennedy requested should not be quite so swift. It went along with the oil and gas companies in knocking out all but one of the reforms in mineral taxes the White House wanted.

The House is expected to approve what its Committee recommends. The Kennedy bill goes to the Senate where Chairman Harry F. Byrd's powerful Committee on Finance plans to hold careful hearings on it. The Virginian has promised not to pigeon-hole the bill, however. The Senate will have a chance to vote on it this year, Byrd says. And the Senator is a man of his word.

What worries the President is that Byrd may not let the Senate vote until it is too late for the two houses to reconcile any differences in a final bill and still get home by Christmas.

"He Stuck in His Thumb and . . ."

Lyle C. Wilson Says:

JFK Pushes Tax Bill

One solid reason for pressing the administration tax bill through Congress with first priority at the expense of civil rights and all else is this:

The bill would be beyond the reach of congressional economists before President Kennedy reveals his 1965 fiscal year spending plans. If the tax bill could be held over until the next session of Congress, a big new spending figure might recruit enough opposition to defeat the project.

There is another urgency to the tax program. It is this: President Kennedy evidently expects the proposed tax reduction program to help reduce some of his 1960 campaign promises about getting the country to moving again. He firmly believes the tax bill would provide considerable protection against a recession; that it would tend to reduce unemployment; that the nation's economic ills he discovered and promised to remedy in 1960 would, indeed, be substantially remedied by his tax program.

Every week of delay diminishes the political advantage the President can expect from enactment of his tax bill. In terms of politics, Kennedy needs the tax bill now. The sooner the tax bill is enacted, the sooner will Democrats expect the political climate to clear for them.

Next year comes a presidential election. Kennedy promised in 1960 to deal effectively with many problems, including unemployment and an economic stagnation he detected in the growth rate of the Gross National Product. Promise and performance have not kept perfectly abreast. Democrats expect the tax program to correct that situation.

With so little accomplished in the first nine months of this session of Congress, the administration now must press for much vital legislation before Christmas.

If civil rights is put aside for the tax bill and finally goes over until the next session, much time will have been saved in the Senate which otherwise might be stymied by filibuster.

The filibuster would come next year, of course, because the administration is committed to a civil rights program and might lose much presidential election year support from Negroes if none were enacted.

The disadvantage to Kennedy of postponing civil rights until next year is that the Senate contest will precede the presidential election by a few months, instead of by many. That would be a factor favorable to the Republicans in their effort to win electoral votes in southern states.

Negroes would protest, of course, any postponement of civil rights legislation. But they would be expected to get their bill before election day, 1964, and that is the important thing in terms of presidential politics.

The Negroes have been patient. The 1960 Democratic platform and Kennedy's campaign promises added up to a program of instant civil rights.

The President did name Negroes to high and unaccustomed offices. He indicated in many other ways his interest in Negro welfare. But Kennedy could not bring himself until this year to challenge white southern voters with the civil rights program he promised the Negro voters three years ago.

All things considered, the Negroes probably will be willing to wait another year. They are on top.

Dick West Says

It's A Half-Baked Idea

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The adhesive quality of the human brain is altogether marvelous. In some respects it functions even better than flypaper.

Take this item that I ran across the other day in Clothing Care News, a publication of the National Institute of Drycleaning. It told about a lady in Florida who bought a pair of slacks and found attached to them the following instructions:

"To maintain perfect shape put in cold oven and bake for eight minutes at 250 degrees."

There was no particular reason why that item should have stuck in my brain, but I haven't had a moment's peace since I read it.

No matter how hard I try to get my mind on something else, all I can think about is baked slacks.

Does baking really preserve their shape? If so, what kind of pants should you bake them in? And how often should you bake them? And which is better, a gas oven or an electric one?

In desperation, I took the item home and showed it to my wife, who wears the slacks in our family.

"Oh, that's ridiculous," she said.

"Why?"

"For something like that the oven should be pre-heated to 300 degrees."

That was my wife's idea of a joke. The truth is, she never baked a pair of slacks in her life. And if she did she probably would burn them.

My wife makes good pastries but she's a lousy fabric cook.

One night, when I could stand it no longer, I got out of bed, took a pair of slacks from my wife's closet and carried them into the kitchen. Then I folded them neatly into a pie pan and placed them in the oven.

After eight minutes at 250 degrees, I poked them with a fork to make certain they were done. If I do say so myself, the crust was perfect.

The shape, however, was another matter. If anything, they were more baggy than before.

Pending further research, it is currently my belief that the baking instructions the Florida lady found were intended for frozen slacks.

THE UNITED WAY

Dr. Crane's Worry Clinic

Clem took the "Motivation Test" briefly described today and failed. His final score was "Poor," although he was a straight "A" man at college. For your ability to win success in dealing with people (including your wife) has little to do with college grades or I. Q. See and for the "Advertising" booklet below.

CASE Q-458: Clem G. aged 29, is the brilliant engineer who was failing as a salesman. He began to think you must be "born" a salesman.

That's not true. But you must diligently study Applied Psychology and thus learn how to produce harmony in striking the verbal keys that persuade people.

Salesmanship (and social popularity) are like skill at the piano keyboard.

You must have your attention focused on the problem and then go through diligent practice sessions till you can bring forth harmony, both from the piano as well as from people.

A brilliant scientist can live all his life in a home that has a piano and still not be able to play a single melody, unless he has practiced diligently.

So, too, many brilliant scientists (and even some clergymen) live among people but have never learned the strategy of handling people successfully.

For a high I. Q. does not guarantee you popularity or financial success or musical skill, or even freedom from divorce!

No, it requires definite daily study of human relations.

So I gave Clem my advertising test which over a million of you business and professional men have taken at our conventions.

Here are three pairs of book titles, each title of which was publicized nationally in full page newspaper advertisements for a full year.

Which title of each pair sold the greater number of books? Remember, no human salesman buzzed your doorbell and injected his personal magnetism into the sales situation.

Instead, you simply read the newspaper ad and then mailed your check.

So this is the best test I have ever seen of the motivating appeal of printed words, devoid of any human personality factor.

(a) — Battles of a Seaman
— Privateersman
(b) — How to Improve Your Conversation
— The Secret of Self-Improvement

(c) Facts About Fascism
— The Truth About Mussolini

These and 12 other pairs are included in the booklet offered below, so if you are interested in the art of persuading people, be sure to send for that booklet.

I gave this complete "Motivation Test" to Clem and he failed it miserably. In fact, his final rating was "Poor" despite his Phi Beta Kappa key.

For skill at influencing people is a specific technique that you must study in its own right.

It doesn't even require college education at all, for many newspaper boys have learned far more Applied Psychology than have some of our profound professors of science.

College men also get almost as many divorces as the uneducated, for the art of getting along harmoniously with people is not synonymous with your high I. Q. or your scholastic grades in college!

In the paired titles above, here are the answers: (a) First; (b) First; (c) First.

For fuller discussion of the five basic laws of human motivation, consult my college textbook "Psychology Applied" at your local library, or send for the booklet "The New Psychology of Advertising and Selling," enclosing a long stamped, return envelope, plus 20 cents.

(Always write to Dr. Crane in care of this newspaper, enclosing a long stamped, addressed envelope and 20 cents to cover typing and printing cost when you send for one of his booklets.)

Three Seminole Games At Home, One Away

About Sports

Thinking Out Loud

BY JULIAN STENSTROM

This time last week Seminole High's football coach Jim Pigott had wrung out his crying towel so many times the floor in his office was flooded. And if Jim McCoy and Dick Williams, Pigott's line and backfield coaches, respectively, could have carried a tune the blues would never have been sung in better harmony.

But that was last week, before the Seminoles beat Titusville 14 to 13.

This week the opposite is true. The Seminole camp is a tribe on the warpath—and that goes for the coaching staff as well. Pigott, Williams and McCoy can't wait for tonight's 8 o'clock kickoff at Gretnada Stadium in Orlando against Colonial.

"This is a real ball club," Pigott said without any reservations. "We've got a good bench plus plenty of depth and strength. And," he added, "wet or dry we're ready for the Grenadiers."

This is a switch if we ever heard of one. This kind of optimism can only be classified as unusual. Why?

"This is the first ball club I've ever coached," confided Pigott, "that every man who dresses out will be in there sometime during the game."

But that isn't all. Pigott said the Seminoles' win over Titusville was a real team victory and revealed the key to his box of optimism: "Any ball club that can come up with a win like that has the potential of being a good team." Pigott went on to say that the kids proved it this week in the practice sessions with hard blocking and tackling and good ball handling.

The Seminole mentors installed a few new plays for the "benefit" of Colonial.

In addition to Barry Barks, Frank Noel and Billy Higgins, Mike Fordham, Larry Watson and John Ray will see action tonight at the end slot. Dan McCall will be at center but he'll get relief from Steve Ballant and Dave Howe. In the interior line, tackles Ernie Steala, Mike Glad, Dave Noel, Dave Gollhofer and Jim Touby will all see action along with guards Joe Farless (who did a fine job last week), Dale Alexander, Brad Pruden, Joe Purdy, Steve Clark and Steve Harris.

McCoy said he would be busy all night shuttling guards, tackles, centers and ends. "This way," Pigott declared, "we'll keep a fresh ball club in there as much as possible."

Williams will start Earl Black and Buddy Lawson at the halves and also use Chuck Scott, Billy Brown, Billy Kendall and Danny Tillis. Lee Sparkman will start at fullback with Lloyd Freeman and Buddy Burton expected to see plenty of action.

When Noah went on one of history's first boating trips, he took along one of boating's most enduring accessories—his wife. Here are a few of the new accessories to have on board, along with your wife, that were introduced this year: Boat carpeting, offers sure footing in any boat cabin; cookbooks just for galley; a floating safe for storing valuables, made of rubber, is inflatable and may be used as an air cushion; outdoor motor oil in a polyethylene container, when empty the container can be used for balling or as a boat fender. And in case your dog has never learned to swim, life preservers for pets.

Have you had your boat inspected for the Coast Guard sticker? If not, two things which seem to be giving boat owners the most trouble in passing the examination are numbers and gas tanks, according to S. L. Levy, of the Coast Guard Auxiliary. Be sure letters and numbers are spaced correctly. If you have large capacity gas tanks, make sure you are strong enough to lift them in and out of the boat for filling or else install them permanently with a deck fill, outside vent and ground the tank.

Harry Robson is at the Chicago Boat Show this week. Seems Harry is combining business with pleasure as he is trying out the 1964 boats in Lake Michigan.

A. F. Keeth, of Sanford, a member of the Orlando Power Squadron, tells us the squadron will start classes in safe boat handling, navigation and government regulations on Oct. 7 at 7:30 p.m. at Howard Junior High School in Orlando. Contact Keeth at FA 2-1413 if more information is needed.

Tip of the week: Weeds and lily-pads picked up by the propeller of an outboard motor can usually be removed by simply reversing the motor and accelerating briefly.

100 Cars Due To Run

More than 100 top cars and drivers from all over the Southeastern United States, including a large Sanford representation, will toe the line for $100 in prize money and trophies this weekend in the Seminole Timing Association's big two-day drag racing meet.

Saturday's action at the Osceola Airport drag strip gets under way with time trials at 7:30 p.m. Eliminations follow at 9:30.

Sunday's action shifts to a daylight schedule. Time trials will go at 11 a.m. followed by elimination at 1 p.m.

Orlando's Bob Tucker, driving a 1963 Chevrolet and John Tempest of Cocoa Beach in a '63 Tempest have both been clocked at 11 seconds for the

JVs Swamp Leesburg By 70-0 Score

The Seminole High School JayVees, sparked by an 89-yard touchdown jaunt by Eric Walstrom in the second period, roared on to a 70 to 0 victory last night over the little Yellow Jackets of Leesburg High in the Lake County city.

It was the 24th straight victory for the junior Seminoles. The only blot on the club's record was last week's scoreless tie with Seaside of Daytona Beach.

The two clubs played on fairly even terms during the initial period but Walstrom's TD end sweep seemed to ignite the Seminoles. Shortly after the opening tally, Bernie Barber fired a pass to Leroy Nopper for a 55-yard touchdown play.

The Seminoles' final marker came in the third stanza when again Barber spotted Nopper in the clear and hit the bulls-eye for another touchdown. Barber booted two extra points out of three.

The Seminoles' defense was sparked by Tommy Cason, one of Seminole's co-captains. Sanford's offensive standout on the line was John Colbert. Bill Messer's running accounted for a number of good gains.

The little Seminole's defense in the recovery department also aided the warriors' cause. They grabbed three Leesburg miscues to seriously hamper the Yellow Jacket attack. In the same department Seminole lost the ball once on a fumble.

Head Coach Ralph Stumpf who played every youngster on his squad said he was well pleased with the performance.

South Seminole Wins, 32 to 12

The South Seminole Junior High School Hurricanes blew up a storm last night when they lifted the lid on their 1963 football schedule by thrashing St. Cloud Junior High by a score of 32 to 12.

Paced by Fullback Larry Lot and Halfback David Straughn, the Hurricanes rolled in for a pair of touchdowns in the opening period and added single markers in each of the last three.

Lott racked up a pair of touchdowns by carrying on several series of offensive plays. Meanwhile, Straughn came up with two long distance jaunts for touchdowns—one for 60 yards and another for 40. Halfback David Moore scampered for 45 yards for the fifth touchdown.

Head Coach Jim Clark played his entire squad. "We were well satisfied," Clark declared.

Both of South Seminole's quarterbacks, Jim Lucas and Danny Kiser, came up with creditable performances. Along the forward wall excellent jobs were turned in by center Tommy Fletler, guards Paul Lambert and Bob Herrington, and tackles Bruce Stuart, Gregg Danko and Dave Drueding. A stand-out among the ends was Charles Newell.

Other Sanford drivers include Wally Weed, Jim Kennedy, Henry White, Cliff Lord and Jim Bowen.

Seminole Timing officials also expect Bob Wilkerson to be on hand with his "A" dragster rail job.

Three Sandspur Teams Tied

LYMAN HIGH BACKS get last minute ball-handling instructions from Head Coach Dick Copeland as the Greyhounds prep for tonight's contest with the Ocoee High School Cardinals.

Lyman Gunning For Ocoee Win

The Stomper Real Estate team, after bowling with vacancy scores in the Sandspur League for two weeks, last week got a full team and with scored a four-point victory over the Irving Pryor Insurance team.

At the beginning of the fourth week's play three teams are tied for first place—Piero Mfg., Howe Tire Shop and O. K. Tires. Pierre still is at the top despite three losses to Factory Paint Outlet. The leaders have won eight and lost four games.

The Howe Tires won three from Team No. 10 and St. John's Realty lost three to O. K. Tire Shoppers. The tire teams are rolling right along as McRoberts Tire Co. claimed three points from the Jet Inn outfit.

Lil Donat of the Jet Lanes turned in high series for the week of 522. Her high game was 193. Louise Hasford was the leader for the Factory Paint Outlet with a 515 series and 196 game. Midge Woods sparked McRoberts with a 507 series and a 175 game.

Jet Inn's Mary Pinter had a good night with a 502 and 181 while Sue Jackson scored 202, the high game of the week. She put four strikes together.

In the split department Edith Zeul, Helen Altman and Betty Callan came through with a 3-10; Edith also converted the 5-6 and Helen the 8-10. Verna Bolton got the 5-10, Mary Smith the 4-5 and Gladys Pinter the 2-10.

League Formed At Fern Park

The Fern Park Bowling League has organized for the Fall season and has 10 teams bowling at the Medallion Lanes each Sunday evening.

Officers for the league are Joe Cusak, president; Robert Frank Leist, secretary-treasurer.

Three teams are still in need of sponsors and any business wishing to sponsor a team should contact Leist.

Standings thus far, in order named, are Team 8, Fern Plaza, Laudermaid, Paul's Paints, Liberty Mutual, Lee's Hi-Li Gulf, Don Greene Electric, Fern Park Drive-In Barber Shop, Team 3, Sealy Mattress Co., and Team 1.

Last Sunday's high game winners were Sally Baaniger, 191, and Bob Begun, 211; High Series, Joe Cusak, 261; and Fran Cusak, 514.

Team 8 had the highest team game and the highest score for 3 games.

Local buffs look for a tight run-off between the 1963 Sting Rays driven by Sanford's Ray Hudson and Henry White.

And the Orlando Precision Automotive team will be on hand with a team of entries that includes a highly-touted "D" Gas Class 1956 Chevrolet.

LYMAN HIGH BACKS get last minute ball-handling instructions from Head Coach Dick Copeland as the Greyhounds prep for tonight's contest with the Ocoee High School Cardinals.

Three Sandspur Teams Tied

The Lyman High School Greyhounds, seeking their second consecutive victory of the young season, hope to continue their domination over the Ocoee Cardinals when the two clubs tangle at the Lyman Park in Longwood at 8 o'clock tonight.

Expected to lead the Greyhounds is one-man-gang LeLyle, the sophomore halfback who posted some 185 yards against the Ocoee Lions last week.

Scouts have reported that the Cardinals have a fine quarterback in David Grant. Head Coach Dick Copeland of the 'Hounds has made some changes in the starting lineup. Hilton Bennett—a six-five, 235-pound senior—will start at left tackle after a fine performance against Ocoee. Ron Duckett has been shifted to offensive right end.

Copeland said he felt that "We did a good job last week and that we will do our best to beat Ocoee tonight. But our main concern is to play a solid game of football."

Lyman and Ocoee have collided five times and the Greyhounds have posted five consecutive victories.

The probable starting lineup for the Greyhounds tonight will see Winkleman and Duckett the ends, Salmi and Bennett the tackles, Balmer and Fletler the guards, Wagner at center, Griffen at quarter, Carlson and Hundley at halves, and Lyle at fullback.

For Ocoee, Hall and Murray or Nunantz will be the ends, Bowers and Lyle will be the tackles, Towery and Thomas will be the guards, Houns will be at center, the quarterback will be Grant, the halfbacks will be Brennan and Adkinson, and Styles will be at fullback.

Seminole County's four high school football teams will move into action again tonight in the current football season's second week of play.

Sanford's Seminoles will meet the Colonial High Grenadiers in Orlando. Lyman's scrappy Greyhounds will entertain a speedy flock of Ocoee High Cardinals, the Oviedo Lions will host an unpredictable Dunnellon eleven, and Crooms Academy's Panthers will tangle with another den of "cats" from Gainesville's Lincoln High.

The Seminoles are ready for their test with Colonial, so says Head Coach Jim Pigott. "We're liable to run into anything down there tonight," Pigott declared, "but we're ready for whatever they've got."

And Pigott added, "We're delighted that we'll be playing on a whole football field." Those are his exact words.

Meanwhile, Head Coach Dick Copeland made some alterations in the starting lineup for the 'Hounds but he will be going for sure with sophomore Halfback LeLyle who racked up 185 yards last week against Oviedo. Ocoee has a respectable quarterback in David Grant and the Cardinals are expected to provide the Greyhounds with a pretty good test tonight.

This affair will get under way at 8 p.m. at the Lyman High Park in Longwood.

Not too much is known about the Dunnellon eleven, except they're light and fast and will be out after their second victory in as many starts this season. Dunnellon wrapped up Jasper in their opener last week by a 6 to 0 score.

The Lions will be going with their highly touted quarterback Johnny Courier as they open their home season at the Oviedo High field. Oviedo will start Fox and Bellhorn at ends, Murphy and Colbert at tackle, Arnold and Bessley at guard, Sauter at center, Courrier at quarter, Jepson and Mikler at the halves, and Brooks at fullback.

The Panthers of Crooms will open their home season on that half-a-football field at Memorial Stadium here in Sanford. Head Coach Billy Holt said his ball club would be ready for the Panthers of Gainesville's Lincoln High. He's hoping the lack of workouts this past week has not affected his club's timing, and he's expected to use Willie Ransom and Hildred Green together in his backfield to give the local Panthers the power these fellows should be able to generate.

County gridiron fans have a full bill of football fare on tap for tonight.

Academy Winner Stars

Gregory Peck won the Academy Award as the "best actor" for his role in the picture taken from the Pulitzer Prize winning novel, "To Kill a Mockingbird," showing Sunday through Tuesday at the Movieland Drive-In Theatre.

Co-featured will be Jack Gleason in "Papa's Delicate Condition," in color.

Featured Wednesday and Thursday will be "Battle at Bloody Beach," starring Audie Murphy, and "From the Terrace," in color, starring Paul Newman and Joanne Woodward.

The triple feature on Friday and Saturday, Oct. 4-5, includes "Fancy Pants," in color with Bob Hope and Lucille Ball; "Tarzan's Three Challenges," starring Jack Palance, "Tarzan," and "Cash McCall," starring James Garner and Natalie Wood. All are in color.

Peck's performance as "Atticus Finch," the Alabama lawyer and widower who teaches the pitfalls of injustice and prejudice to his two growing children, marks the first time in 31 starring motion pictures that Peck has appeared on the screen without any romantic vis-a-vis.

Neither wife nor sweetheart will share a single scene with him in "To Kill a Mockingbird."

"And yet," say Gregory, "it is one of the most beautiful love stories ever to be made into a film. It is this magnificent relationship between father and children that made this novel so great, a spirit pronounced simply and honestly so that all would understand. It is the love expressed in 'To Kill a Mockingbird' that made it a best-seller for almost 100 straight weeks, a choice of a record-breaking four look clubs and a sale that is reaching toward five million copies. I just hope our screen version can do it partial justice."

GREGORY PECK assays an entirely new kind of role as Atticus, the gentle father and fighting attorney in the screen version of Harper Lee's best-seller "To Kill a Mockingbird." Left and right are Mary Badham as "Scout" and Phillip Alford as "Jem."

TABLE HOPPING

BY JUDY TURNER

Rain, rain, go away, come again another day. There certainly are a variety of cliches to go with the weather. Another is, "It never rains but it pours." But it should be clearing up now, and you can all get out again and have a good time.

Everyone has a good time at Spencers, including people who work there. With the new added attractions of reduced rates during the cocktail hour and two drawings per evening for free dinners, Spencers is even more fun. For every drink you get a ticket, and when "Sam" draws the time is right, a drawing is held to determine the winner. Although your chances increase, the more drinks you have of course, you don't have to be present to win. Darlene came back Monday, and is feeling fine now, so say hello to her.

This week is the week for you adults to get out and do something about that exercise you've been needing. The best way is to enjoy it too, and State City Roller Rink has come up with the solution. On Wednesday, Oct. 2, mornings will be devoted to adult skaters only. In the afternoon, you can send the kids over for children's skating time. Wednesday evenings are the teenagers special nights, although anyone can attend. That is when popular Johnny Gilbert from WLOF plays his rock 'n' roll records to skate by.

'Great Escape' At Ritz

A faithful film re-enactment of the greatest mass escape from a military prison in the annals of warfare, the famed actual break from Germany's maximum security camp the notorious Stalag III by 78 allied airmen during World War II, is the subject of the Mirisch-Alpha presentation "The Great Escape" in color by Deluxe and Panavision, showing Sunday through Wednesday at the Ritz Theatre.

Based upon the non-fiction best-seller by Paul Brickhill, who was a participant in the break, and filmed under the close supervision of C. Wallace Floody, now a Toronto businessman but who was one of the guiding geniuses of the original enterprise, this United Artists release literally has a cast of thousands, headed by Steve McQueen, James Garner and Richard Attenborough.

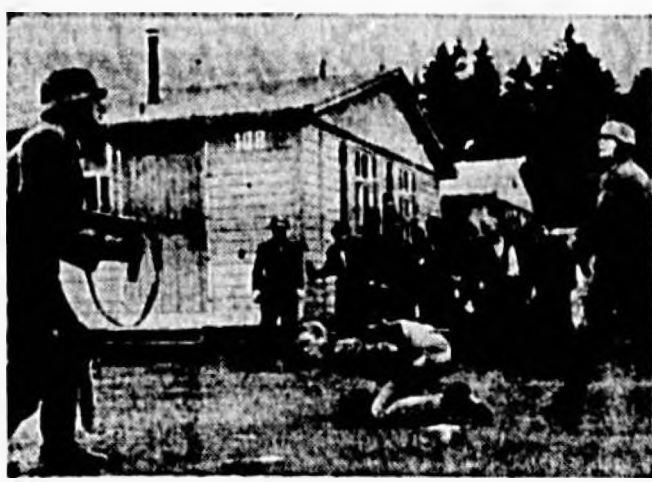

but raised havoc with German security and communications behind the lines.

In doing this, Floody said, the airmen-prisoners were simply following their instructions as officers to harass the enemy at every opportunity and to cause the enemy to pull back as many men as possible to hunt down and keep the troublemakers in prison.

Nothing was left undone to make Stalag III the most inescapable of prisons. Fierce dogs, electronic devices, constantly changing guard posts, high-voltage fences, multi-candle-power searchlights and constant inspection and surveillance were employed. It was said of the camp that there was never a moment when at least two pairs of hostile eyes which thoroughly understood that they would have to pay for every escaped prisoner, weren't on each prisoner.

And despite this, one of the most elaborate engineering feats ever attempted by prisoners, so audacious in its very conception that the Germans refused to believe it was possible even after the break, was planned and extended.

STEVE McQUEEN makes a break for it but doesn't make it in this scene from Mirisch-Alpha's "The Great Escape," based on the Paul Brickhill true story, and coming Sunday to the Ritz Theatre in color and Panavision.

Drainage Vital To Homes

With the recent heavy rains, we suddenly realize that adequate drainage is a very important feature for our ideal home or homesite. And we find that the areas in our tour for this weekend are on gently rolling terrain with naturally good drainage, and thus are practical in all weather as well as beautiful.

Out in the Greenbriar area, Kingswood Builders are offering lots for sale from a third of an acre to an acre and a half in beautiful, wooded, rolling hills of the Country Club area. Kingswood Builders will build on your lot a custom designed house to especially fit your needs or you can acquire whatever builder you wish.

Other luxury homes are available in the Idyllwild Homes area and more moderately priced homes in the Ravenna Park section are available through Shoemaker Construction Company and its realtor, Stenstrom Realty Agency.

Of particular attention-getting status is the new home in Idyllwild at 303 Tammy Drive, with all its special features.

There are several new homes in the third addition of Ravenna Park, which feature three bedroom, two bath, centrally heated homes in the lovely wooded area of this section.

Some Tips On Wise Shopping

It takes wise buying these days to stay within a budget. This is particularly true of food, since there are some 8,000 items to choose from in the average supermarket.

Here are some tips on how to save and how to get more for your money every time you shop for food.

Check supplies on hand and prepare a list of things you actually need. A list does a lot to help you keep spending at a minimum and you arrive home with what you need. With a list you are partially fortified against impulse buying.

It is extremely important to read labels, whether on packages, over meat displays or elsewhere. Be sure to note the net weight and liquid volume printed there. Make price comparisons as to size, grade. Know terminology used so that you know what you are buying.

Be sure to read the list of ingredients on labels. Less expensive grades may serve your purpose as well as higher priced fancy grades. Compare prices of fruits and vegetables in the various forms — fresh, canned or frozen.

Coeds Have New Sportive Look For Fall On A Budget

The sportive look — wrap around skirts, vests, bulky mohair sweaters — will be "the look" this autumn on high school and college paths. And every woman student can have the "look" within a price range that appeals to the budget-minded.

Not too many people think of variety stores as a source of apparel — skirts, jackets and dresses, but the truth is that not only does the store fulfill clothing needs but also it has a wide range of accessories at appealing prices for the student with the small purse.

Right now, culottes and wrap-around skirts are heralding the back-to-school clothes season. In plaids, flannel, wide-wale corduroy, they are vying with vests for top fashion position. The vest craze will go on because American designers have done so much to bring it to the front and keep it there.

At a fraction of the cost that a student might spend at a specialty shop or department store, she can assemble in a variety store a complete outfit with "the layered look" — skirt, blouse, vest, jacket right down to knee socks. Sweaters, which are basic,

Consul Helps Direct Traffic

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — The police force had help Wednesday from the consul of Bolivia, Duke C. Banks. He directed traffic at a busy intersection for one hour.

Banks explained that he found the signal lights at the intersection jammed and traffic backed up just as children were being dismissed from a nearby school.

"Nobody seemed to be doing anything about them, so I did something," he said.

Baby 'Cocktail' Soon On Market

LONDON (UPI) — Prof. George Dick, writing in the British Medical Association's magazine Family Doctor, said today a "cocktail" vaccine to protect babies against five diseases should be available soon.

He said the "cocktail" would include vaccines for measles, tetanus, diphtheria, polio and whooping cough.

The "Clock" felt a bit happy this noon in viewing this front page picture of the mothers' school patrol. Not too many weeks ago one of the mothers stopped by, asking what could be done for the pupils' safety in crossing French Avenue. Bill McLaughlin followed with advice the PTO would furnish crossing "guards" with police sanction. Chief Roy Williams said this morning "the ball started rolling with those mentions in the "Clock." Happy to be of service to the school children.

City police had a telephone request from a Tallahassee man to pick up his runaway nephew off a Sanford-bound bus. Police picked up the boy alright here in Sanford . . . but he was driving a stolen car.

Cami Bruce and Ray Milwee reminded today that this is the final week for voter registration . . . Cami's office open 9:30 daily through Saturday, final day. Ray also said to correct some thoughts, the proposed $75 million higher education bond issue will be financed with a 1.5 percent tax on gross receipts of utilities companies and not against real estate.

Following from the Duluth Herald of Sept. 23: The only personal audience granted by President Kennedy during his Duluth visit was given this morning to Jeno F. Paulucci, president of Duluth's Chun King Corporation (and one of Sanford's better known winter residents).

Jayeens report their rabies clinic a "big success" Saturday; more than 200 dogs vaccinated.

A 10-hour American Red Cross first aid course is slated at Oviedo City Hall, with the first session at 7 p. m. Thursday. Jay Saucer will conduct two-hour classes on Tuesdays and Thursdays.

The Seminole girl team members are saying the NICEST things — and can't seem to find enough of them — about the cheerleaders. It's all because the girls really "knocked themselves out" mentally and physically in thinking up ideas and putting them into action to whip up the pep to a frenzy for the Colonial game. The whole squad is praising their cheerleaders to the sky and saying a hearty "Thank you, gals!"

The financial wire tells us that Jeno Paulucci's Chun King Corporation has taken over the Chun Wong firm which has been putting up frozen foods in Compton, Calif. It's nice to see our Washington Avenue neighbor prospering, but we hope this deal will not take time from his stay in Sanford to check into his new holdings in the outskirts of Los Angeles.

Out of Miami Beach comes word that Oviedo's John Evans is the new president elect of the Florida Fruit and Vegetable Association. The Nelson and Company and Wheeler executive has been a strong force in the produce group. You may be sure he deserves the honor or he wouldn't be moving into the driver's seat.

This meeting at the High School last Friday hosted by School Board Chairman Dan Wright that brought together delegates from the Seminole Athletic Association, City Commission, Boosters Club, in addition to those of the School Board is a splendid example of what can be done when each group's problems are understood by the others and a fine cooperative spirit sets out to solve them. Castro Blasts New Dominican Regime

HAVANA (UPI) — Premier Fidel Castro has served notice that he is even more opposed to the provisional government in the Dominican Republic than to the constitutional regime which it replaced.

Castro also called on Cubans for a "maximum effort" to wipe out Cuba's adverse trade balance with the Soviet Union. He said Cuban trade with Russia was $109-million in the red, and urged that "this imbalance cease to exist in the shortest possible time."

Castro urged in a 45-minute speech Saturday night to check a report from two youths who said they saw a "big snake" on a city street.

He attacked the ouster of President Juan Bosch and charged that "imperialism contrived his overthrow." He spoke kindly of Bosch, saying "he merits a bit more respect than some."

While Bosch was in office, he was a frequent target of criticism from the Cuban government as a supposed pawn of the United States.

Tuesday the board planned to hold hearings in an auditorium at a motel (The Cape Colony Inn) on nearby Cocoa Beach.

The board was established by President John F.
