JAPAN LANDS MORE FORCES AT SHANGHAI

Ammunition And Supplies Also Brought; Hope For Peace Parleys Doesn't Exist

SHANGHAI, Mar. 9.—(A.P.)— The Japanese continued to pour reinforcements and huge quantities of ammunition and supplies into their lines on the Western Shanghai front today. Four transports arrived at Woosung with an undetermined number of troops. At least 2,000 landed and started to march toward Kiangwan.

It was indicated at Japanese headquarters that still more reinforcements are expected. All was quiet along the Chapel-Woosung line but the Japanese continued to patrol the area.

Hundreds of bodies of Chinese, killed during the battle on Kiangwan, on the Kiangwan-Miaochung-chien front, are still unremoved. All reports indicated that hope for peace parleys is virtually non-existent leaving the situation so uncertain that almost any eventually is possible.

Reports that another major engagement was developing along the battlefield troubled Shanghai today as neutral mediators, after a recess of several days, resumed negotiations to end the crisis.

General Chang Kai-Shek was said to be taking an active part in preparations for a Chinese offensive.

International Settlement officials conferred with Japanese authorities in the hope of getting something done about the insatiable conditions in Chapel.

Gen. George C. Marshall and Dr. Ross W. Palmberg, both of Milton, Wis., yielded to the entreaties of their friends and returned to Shanghai from Lusha where they had been caring for wounded in the battle zone.

The war office in Tokyo announced that the Manchurian and Shanghai campaign cost the army 882 dead and 2,000 wounded up to Mar. 1. This was exclusive of naval casualties totalling several hundred.

The League of Nations assembly at Geneva appointed a committee to draft a resolution expressing the League's view of the conflict in Chongchon, Manchuria, (See (Continued on Page Four)

HOOVER PLEDGES HIS ASSISTANCE TO CUT EXPENSES

Says New Slashes In Governmental Expenses Is Necessity

WASHINGTON, Mar. 9.—(A.P.)—Holding new slashes in federal expenditures a necessity if the budget is to be balanced, President Hoover yesterday pledged the aid of his administration in this work to the Democratic controlled House committee.

The President accepted from Capitol Hill a statement that $125,000,000 more must be sliced from a budget already reduced by approximately $477,000,000. Addressing newspapermen he reported members of his cabinet were preparing "drastic recommendations."

"The whole of the administrative officials," he said, "are cooperating with the special economy committee appointed by the House of Representatives in the drive to bring about further drastic economies in federal expenditure."

The President referred to a special money-saving committee appointed by Speaker Garner. The committee is to report by Apr. 15. Cooperation was pledged also in the House Ways and Means and Appropriations Committees.

Hoover spoke yesterday with a carefully prepared statement before him. He reiterated his belief that "nothing is more important than balancing the budget with the least possible increase in taxes, and added a hope that the government would be in a position after July 1 to pay its way without further security issues."

"That is vital to the still further promotion of employment and agriculture," he asserted. "It gives positive assurance to business and industry that the government will keep out of the money market and allow industry and agriculture to borrow the money required for the conduct of business."

The Chief Executive issued a reminder that there was little room left for further reduction by administrative action and that further slashes must be authorized by Congress.

County Board Puts Ban On All Fishing Upon Inland Lakes

Lamson's Second Dollar Returned Bearing 21 Names

CITY CLERK Frank S. Lamson has again reported that a Seminole County Dollar he started from the clerk's office in the City Hall has been returned with 21 or more names on it, indicating that it has had a wide and varied journey during its four-day course in Bank.

The Board accepted a new map of Seminole County designating all of its principal roads, bridges, lakes, streams, and other topographical points. The map was prepared by Tony Pitchford, county engineer, and the Commissioners recommended its use to all makers of maps in the United States.

Bids for the purchase of two new one-and-one-half ton trucks will be advertised, the county wishing to trade two old Ford trucks and one Chevrolet truck in the new trucks.

Approval was given for the notary public bonds of John Adams, and J. A. Logan; for the deputy sheriff bond of L. E. Johnson, and for the fire-arm bond of W. H. Morgan.

LOADINGS DECREASE

WASHINGTON, Mar. 9.— Revenue freight loadings for the week ending Feb. 27 were announced yesterday by the American Railways Association as totaling $80,000 cars. This was a decrease of $7,000 cars below the preceding week and 16,700 below the corresponding week in 1931.

ROOSEVELT IS OUT IN FRONT AFTER POLLING

Victory In New Hampshire Primary Gives Governor Edge Over Democratic Field

WASHINGTON, Mar. 9.—(A.P.)—By his victory in the New Hampshire primary Governor Roosevelt is leading the field to-day for the Democratic presidential nomination while supporters hailed the New England result as a blow to the movement to stop him. Roosevelt's defeat of the forces behind Alfred Smith for New Hampshire's eight votes brought his total of pledged delegates to 28 as against 22 for Governor Murray, Oklahoma. Roosevelt's friends looked ahead of this and saw in the voting a great promise for the future.

The first returns in the contest for delegates-at-large to the national convention showed an average lead for the Roosevelt slate of four to one. These votes, however, were all in the towns mainly rural and included none of the state's 11 cities, where the Smith strength was believed to lie.

Returns from 70 of the 224 towns gave an average for the eight candidates on the Roosevelt pledged slate of 1866, and for the Smith pledged slate of 129.

Smith leaders predicted a majority for their ticket in the city of Manchester, the largest voting center. They expressed the belief that if that ticket showed a majority of 6000 in that city there was a possibility of breaking into the Roosevelt list and electing some of their candidates.

The Republican ticket of seven delegates-at-large, and of two district delegates, in each district, was elected without opposition. It gave the state a total of voting strength between the two leaders for the Democratic presidential nomination.

Twelve delegates, who will cast a combined total of eight votes at Chicago in June were chosen by the voters. Eight were delegates-at-large, each with a half vote, and the others district delegates, two with a vote each, in each of the ten congressional districts.

Though the number of Democratic delegates involved was regarded as little bearing on the convention outcome the primary was awaited by political observers because of its possible effect upon coming primaries in other states, particularly in Massachusetts where a Smith ticket is already assured, and followers of Roosevelt are seeking his consent to enter his name.

The generally favorable weather throughout the state was looked upon by their candidate as a helpful factor in their campaign as the Roosevelt strength was considered greatest in the rural districts.

The Chief Executive issued a reminder that there was little room left for further reduction by administrative action and that further slashes must be authorized by Congress.

Outstanding Speedboat Drivers Of Country Will Compete On Saturday

According to information from Palm Beach where officials of the Florida Outboard Motorboat Association are receiving entries and arranging for their part in the regatta and races on Lake Monroe Saturday afternoon, there will be no many entries of outboards that it is going to be a difficult task to run off the three races of three boats each.

Some of the outstanding drivers in America are coming here for the races, competing for cash prizes, ribbons, and an added $50 purse for the driver recording the fastest speed during the afternoon.

Entries were given for the notary public bonds of John Adams, and J. A. Logan; for the deputy sheriff bond of L. E. Johnson, and for the fire-arm bond of W. H. Morgan.

That dollar eventually passed into 21 different hands before its holder was returned to the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce office yesterday. ## BIG GRAPEFRUIT CONTROL BOARD LOSS REPORTED OF TRADE BODY FROM HARD BLOW HOLDS MEETING

Advance In Price Expected As Result Of Curtailed Crop

TAMPA, Mar. 9.—Heavy losses from the wind storm Saturday night and Sunday cutting the volume down to probably less than 6000 cases compared with 10,000 cases at the time last season, C. C. Commodity, general manager of the Florida Citrus Exchange, said yesterday after checking field reports from all parts of the citrus belt. While it is impossible to figure the loss exactly it is believed to total several thousand cases, he said.

"It is important that every grower realize the changed situation is to his advantage," Mr. Commodity said. "He should hold his fruit for a price commensurate with the value of the fruit in today's changed market."

In the opinion of Mr. Commodity, the market cannot help but be favorably affected. In addition to the big decrease in volume to be moved, the fruit left is that which without the drought and in poor condition.

Reports Are Made At Monthly Session Of COFC At City Hall

Thirty-three officers and members of the Board of Governors of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce met at the trade body office last night in monthly session to hear reports of recent accomplishments, commend the committee responsible for the success of various undertakings and plan for a new and improved meeting this coming month.

R. E. Hause, vice president of the county trade body, presided in the absence of President Pageant, who was in Winter Haven attending a meeting of the Committee of Fifty of the Citrus Growers Club.

All proceeds of the race will be turned over to the Sanford Elks Band, while the entire affair is sponsored by the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce.

HODGES WRITES SMITH DOESN'T HAVE TO RUN

Democratic Chairman Says It Is Not Necessary For Judge To Enter June Primary

It will not be necessary for Mildred B. Smith and Lloyd E. Boyle to enter the Democratic primary in June for the offices of circuit court judge and state's attorney respectively. This information is contained in a letter from J. H. Hodges, chairman of the State Democratic Committee, who expresses the opinion that since the office of circuit judge was submitted to a vote of the people in 1928 and the primary nomination appointed and confirmed by the Senate, there is no necessity for another submission to a primary.

Judge Hodges, in submitting Mr. Hodges' letter for publication, expressed his willingness to become a candidate in the primary and declared, "The law requires a Circuit Judge to seek nomination in the primary only when the State Executive Committee shall declare for such nomination. I informed of J. H. Hodges, chairman of the State Committee, about requirements and responsibilities of the Committee.

The first returns in the contest for delegates-at-large to the national convention showed an average lead for the Roosevelt pledged slate of 1866, and for the Smith pledged slate of 129.

Smith leaders predicted a majority for their ticket in the city of Manchester, the largest voting center.

The momentum is letters from Mrs. Hoover and her secretary, thanking local persons for favors shown during the visit, and for quantities of flowers, fruit, and foliage blooms.

To the right of the lobby are several exhibits of miniature gardens, the work of the school children of the county, while to the left are more professional exhibits, individual rose, azalea, and tulip blooms.

In the adjoining sitting room are shadow pictures, flower arrangements, and the garden displays entered by the five Garden Club circles—Rose, Azalea, Mayfair, Central, and First Gardeners.

The Flower Show will remain open tonight until 10:00 o'clock, and will be open tomorrow from 10:00 A. M. until 9:00 P. M. A special showing for colored persons has been arranged for this afternoon from 6:30 P. M. to 7:30 P. M.

The show is open to the public, a small admission fee being asked to cover incidental expenses in connection with the staging of the event. The Sanford Women's Club has a committee in charge of refreshment sales, while the Junior High School orchestra under the direction of R. Hendel, is furnishing music during the afternoon and evening.

Don Henry Hoover,

W. M. Scott, of the American Birthright Society, has a letter from Mrs. Hoover's secretary, Miss Mildred Hall, reading as follows:

"This will acknowledge the gift with thanks for Mrs. Hoover, the gift of a case of delphiniums, which was put aboard our boat today. Mrs. Hoover appreciated the friendly thought which prompted the sending of this splendid product of the Colony City."

Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Rosister, local couplets have a letter from Miss Hall, reading as follows:

"Mrs. Hoover was most appreciative of your thought, and the beautiful basket of red roses she has asked me to thank you for them."

Officials of the Geneva Citizen Growers Association are understood to have received a letter thanking them for the oranges and oranges, while Mrs. C. J. Romph, B. F. Whittier Jr., and Mrs. H. B. Levy, Geneva, who have flowers, also have lettes

Light fines and suspension of some sentences were meted out to several alleged low-violators appearing before County Judge James G. Sharon and Justice of the Peace O. P. Hendon during the past week.

Judge Sharon had but three persons brought before him to be laid off. Budul Adkins, charged with assault, received a 60-day jail sentence which was suspended upon payment of costs.

Garfield Harris, charged with being drunk, was fined $5.

John Brown, charged with aggravated assault, was fined $10.

Justice Hendon continued his long established practice of freeing any white persons caught riding trains and arrested by railroad police, by granting suspension of fines and costs to four young boys, on provision that they leave the city at once.

The boys were Bus Masano, Stanley Balto, Stanley Pollman, and Abel Romiles, who were all fined $10 and costs, before being suspended.

Tommy Pierce, Willie Hampton, Mrs. Hawkins, Willie Brown, and J. C. Collins, colored men charged with beating their way on trains, were fined $10 and costs.

Man Admits Shipping Body Of His Landlady

ATLANTIC CITY, Mar. 8.—(A.P.)—Louis Fine, 50, was charged with murder today after confessing that he shipped the body of his landlady, Mrs. Mattie Schauf, 60, to Philadelphia in a trunk where it was found in a rooming house.

Fine collapsed from a heart attack after making the statement and was taken to a hospital where he was placed under a police guard. Authorities refused to reveal whether he admitted the actual slaying.

Identification of the body was made by Mrs. Schauf's negro maid who was taken to Philadelphia. Fine's arrest and confession followed. It was feared Fine might attempt suicide and a pellet he吞ed was found in a hole he was supposed to swallow as he was being taken to a hospital was found to be a bullet.

DuBose Explains Qualifications To Vote In Primary

Celery Market Reports

By Courtesy U. S. Dept. of Agriculture and the Florida State Marketing Bureau, B. E. Surry, Sanford Rep.

Registration books opened Monday morning and will remain open in all the precincts of the county until Apr. 4, according to an announcement made this morning by H. C. DuBose, supervisor of registration. After Apr. 4 the books for the entire county will be held in the office of the Supervisor, where proper registration can be made until Apr. 30 when the books will be closed.

In making this announcement, Mr. DuBose declared, "There is a great deal of confusion in the minds of the public because of the fact that there are two sets of registration books: one, the primary books, controlling only the Democratic primary elections, and in which a person is required to declare his party affiliation; the other, the general books, which control all other elections."

It is necessary for a person to be registered in the primary books in order to vote in the Democratic primary. It is also necessary for him to be registered in the general books to vote in the general election. But a person who is registered in the general books cannot vote in the primary unless he is also registered in the primary books.

Mr. DuBose pointed out that there are at least one-third more persons registered in the general books than in the primary books, who will not be able to vote in the coming June primary, unless they register before Apr. 30 in the primary books.

"It would be well," Mr. DuBose said, "for everyone to ascertain if he or she is properly registered in the primary books while they are still open and thus avoid the confusion which always results at the polls when one finds he is not qualified to vote on account of faulty registration."

All Plans Set For Speed Boat Races Here On Saturday

Odham, W. E. Varn, and George Schiffley, who will handle ticket sales; W. D. Hoffman will be chairman of the racing committee, with Al Lee and Hugh Tillis assisting in laying out the course; W. H. Schmidt will have charge of concessions, and there will be 25 members of the National Guard and 25 Boy Scouts in uniform on duty to assist in handling traffic and the sale and collection of tickets.

The races will begin at 1:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon, sanctioned by the Florida Outboard Motorboat Association, whose officials will all be present, installing intricate timing devices and handling the races. There will be a full five-mile course set up, and in every race, only stock motors will be allowed, and all boats will be weighed in after each race.

There will be three races of three heats each, in Class "B," Class "C," and Class "D." All drivers who are members of the Association may compete for prizes of $40, $30, and $20 in each race, with added prize money and trophies offered by local firms.

The Hill Hardware Co. silver trophy goes to the winner of the Class "B" race as does the cash prize of $40; the Miami Theaster trophy goes to the winner of the Class "C" race as does the cash prize of $40, while the Cebel Boating Co. trophy goes to the winner of the Class "D" race, with $40 in cash for first place. Cash awards of $80 and $60 go to second and third place winners.

Among the 46 boats already entered are three national champions now in Florida: Walter Wedge, winner of the $25,000, Sir Thomas Lipton trophy at New Smyrna and the man who has driven an outboard craft faster than any other person in the world; Tommy Estes, of Hollywood, national Class "C" champion, and George Martin, national Class "D" champion.

CARDU

CARDU has been in use for more than fifty years, and many women report that when they have built up their strength by the use of this purely vegetable tonic, many of their ailments have wholly disappeared. Cardu does not take the place of specific or surgical treatment; nothing does. But for tonic treatment, to assist the reconstructive work of nature, Cardu is suggested; and the good experience of thousands, running back through three generations of women shows that you can't afford to be without it.

Take Cardu when in need of a tonic medicine of this kind. See your druggist.

Florida voters will have ample opportunity to express themselves on Democratic presidential nominees. There will be Roosevelt, Garner, Bill Murray, and possibly Baker to choose from.

"I have never held political office and I never intend to hold one," Kermit Roosevelt, son of the late president, is quoted as saying. Some of our local candidates might also say that, with truth.

They say that the only business which hadn't been hurt by the depression is the penny bank manufacturers, and then President Hoover's anti-hoarding drive has to come along and knock the spots out of that.

Seminole County citizens who in years gone by have registered in the Democratic primary book, read in Jacksonville, Orlando, or Tampa papers, that they must register again in order to vote in the coming primary. This is not exactly the case, we are advised. In counties of over twenty-five thousand population it is necessary to re-register, as in Orange, Duval, or Hillsborough, but in Seminole, once one is registered, he is registered for good—or at least until we have another boom.

The most amazing thing about the Lindbergh case is the vast number of nit-wits who think it is funny to give out false tips to the authorities, who dream up the clues from their dreams or the reports from shifting sands, or who, even worse, not having the nerve to perpetrate the kidnap themselves, nevertheless try to capitalize on it by demanding ransom and promising the return of the child which they do not have. We suppose all these peculiar manifestations have their root in some strange kind of insanity, but nevertheless some special sort of punishment ought to be invented just to take care of morons of this type.

The Brooklyn Daily Eagle started something new in journalism when it offered to suspend publication of all news pertaining to the Lindbergh case providing other New York newspapers would do the same. There is a general feeling that the widespread publicity which has been given to the kidnap has hampered the work of the officials seeking the return of the child. The public has been clamoring for news of the crime and any single newspaper which failed to supply the demands would soon find itself in serious trouble with its readers. Working together, however, none would be hurt, the thing could be kept quiet a couple of days, the kidnappers would be forced to release the ransom in time.

This is a proven fact.

The Flower Show

The annual flower show of the Garden Club of Sanford, which opened this afternoon in the Mayfair Hotel, is an event which not only appeals to the artistic sense of our people and provides them the opportunity of seeing beautiful displays of flowers, but also fulfills a more practical mission in stimulating and encouraging horticulture as a hobby.

Home gardens planted with shrubs and flowers are increasingly in evidence as the result of the activities of the Garden Club. Visitors to Sanford are always impressed with the apparent floral-mindedness of our residents and carry away with them the impression of a town that appreciates flower gardens and one that has had intelligent instruction in their artistic arrangement.

Like some flowers, the work of the Garden Club is a perennial matter. It goes on from year to year with the same purpose to promote better planting and to encourage greater interest in flowers. Its results are becoming more and more apparent and the Flower Show this year will be another reminder of the progress made. No one should miss attending this affair to see what beautiful plants and shrubs can be grown in the same soil made famous for its productiveness of celery.

NEWSPAPER ADVERTISING

BY GEO. H. HILTY

A newspaper may be an asset or a liability to any community. It is more powerful in selling or unselling the community than any other medium.

Unless the statements of civic leaders are sustained by the people and the community press, they carry but little weight with the public.

This is a proven fact.

Boston Mayor Says Lindbergh's Child Has Been Returned

sage at the epileptic home, were sold by the institution to a New Jersey contractor.

It was learned in a reliable quarter that an engineer of the institution and two state troopers had been engaged for the past 24 hours in an attempt to identify the ladder.

Judge Smith was recently appointed by Gov. Carlton to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Judge Waller W. Wright. Mr. Boyle was appointed to succeed Judge Smith as state's attorney.

The commissioners said "until the end of the next ensuing session of the Senate," which would probably be about June 3, 1932.

At that time, The Herald is informed Gov. Carlton's successor would be expected to make appointments to fill out the remainder of Judge Wright's term. Judge Wright was nominated without opposition in the primary of 1928. He was appointed by Gov. Carlton in 1929 for a six year term and his appointment was confirmed by the Senate of that year. Judge Smith was nominated without opposition for state's attorney in the 1930 primary, and received his appointment from Gov. Carlton the following year.

The disclosure that police are still scrutinizing the possibility of a member of the household was involved in the theft of the child came in response to the following query:

"The refusal of state police to answer any questions pertaining to a possibility that a servant or employee in the Lindbergh home was involved in the kidnapping has created a general impression that such a theory is the most plausible held by police. Do police care to say anything that will exonerate any or all members of the household?"

Col. H. Norman Schwartzke, superintendent of state police, replied:

"Investigation incomplete."

The other question disclosed why an alarm was not sounded by the little Scotch terrier, which was playmate and guard to the Lindbergh baby. The question was?

"Please say exactly where the Lindbergh dog was at the time of the kidnapping? Who had the dog under observation at that time? How many doors were between the dog and the nursery? Were they open or closed? Is the dog in the habit of barking at the approach of strangers on the estate?"

It is pointed out that even though the offices were contested at the primary, the next governor would be bound by the recommendation and could appoint any man of his choice who would serve only until 1935, when the outcome of the 1934 primary would receive his appointment for the full term.

Mr. Hodges' letter to Judge Smith is as follows:

"March 6, 1932.
Judge M. B. Smith,
Titusville, Florida.
Dear Judge:

"In Re: Democratic Executive Committee.

"I am just in receipt of yours of March 3d, saying that you have been appointed by the Governor to succeed Judge W. W. Wright, deceased, your commission reading

"until the end of the next ensuing session of the Senate unless an appointment be sooner made and confirmed by the Senate." Anakinsing the following questions, to wit:

"Has or will the State Democratic Executive Committee passed such a resolution as would require me to enter the primary to be held June 7, 1932?

"If I enter the primary to be held June 7, 1932, would the assignment be the same as for a six year term?"

"Several days ago I had a letter from Mr. H. S. White, Attorney of Sanford, relative to this matter, and I enclose herewith a copy of my letter to Mr. White.

"It is my understanding that Judge Wright was nominated in the primary in 1928, and was appointed and confirmed by the Senate pursuant thereto in 1929 for a six year term, and if this is true, it is my opinion that it is not necessary for you to enter the primary this year.

"The same would be true if Judge Wright was nominated by the primary in 1930 and appointed and confirmed in 1931.

"However, if you desire to enter the primary there will be no objection thereto, and the assignment would be the same as if you were entering for a full term, but I am firmly of the opinion that it is not necessary for you to enter the primary this year.

"Any report of such a rift between Colonel Lindbergh and the police is positively untrue," Major Schoeffel replied.

In two press conferences police denied that there was any rift between the authorities and Colonel Lindbergh.

Reporter asked the following question:

"Did Colonel Lindbergh criticize state police for tapping the private telephone wire in the Lindbergh home and specifically did he request Captain Lamb (Schoeffel's subordinate) talking over the private line? If not, is there any basis for such a story of friction over use of the private phone by police?"

"It is my understanding that

Judge Wright was nominated in the primary in 1928 and was appointed and confirmed by the Senate pursuant thereto in 1929 for a six year term, and if this is true, it is my opinion that it is not necessary for you to enter the primary this year.

Ann Harding Stars In Film At Milane

Ann Harding's debut starring vehicle is outstanding in many respects, all of which make audience who say "Pretty" to the Milane Theatre Thursday and Friday a thoroughly enjoyable hour with this great KBO Picture star. As the physically frail but spiritfully gigantic heroine, Ann Harding gives a superb performance. Nor has she ever appeared to greater advantage from the standpoint of photography. Her wistful loveliness has an ethereal quality, with, in many scenes, a chattering suggestion of whimsical humor.

Debutantes Adrienne Monjou and Kim Relvyn Douglas, prove excellent selections for the two principal roles opposite Miss Harding.

Douglas will be "romanced" by the young stage actor who played his first screen role opposite Gloria Swanson in "Sunlight Never." His remarkable promise in that picture is fully borne out by the exceptional work which he contributes to "Pretty." Undoubtedly a new acting idol has arrived.

Movie lovers have a treat in store for them also, in the work of Cleoane Muse, who plays a naive servant with a pert air for occasional outbreaks into a fit. Intricately entangled into the picture, the song solo by Muse is a native American folk song written especially for the picture.

For what is said to be the first time, commercial houses of Indianapolis, where much of the story is set, will be in "category" mode, which means the picture may not be shown for the second day, if not even longer.

Wintry Blasts Hit West, East, South Causing Suffering

(Continued from Page One) Winter ruled in the West and South today while the East struggled out of a storm that took at least 35 lives. From the Rockies to the East and South cold prevailed. Four victims fell in Kansas including an elderly couple found dead of exposure.

Snow, sleet, and rain blustered through Texas. Snow as deep as 30 inches, and cold as severe as 21 below, wrought misery in the Rockies. Many southerners saw their first snowflakes of the season. The cold blighted fruits, flowers, and vegetables.

Overcast skies gave promise of further precipitation from Dixie. Snow was reported as far south as Vickburg. Freezing temperatures were reported in virtually all sections of the South except Florida. Most of the East expected more snow today.

Planes were made to insure the attendance of a legal delegation at a meeting of the State Road Department at Tallahassee, Fla.

Referendum No. 60, of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, dealing with most of Federal taxation, was studied carefully under the leadership of a committee consisting of B. E. Haines, E. F. Incidentally, it was reported that the Remond-Venoy Chamber of Commerce is the first chamber of commerce in Florida to complete its ballot and forward it to the National trade body.

Announcement was made that Ralph Bradford, manager of the Commercial Organization Department of the National trade body will visit Sanford on Thursday, May 21, and will address a meeting of the Board of Governors and other trade body members from Seminole, Orange, Lake, and Osceola counties.

Mr. Overbeck also stated that persons who visit San Fran this week may have an opportunity of visiting the winter quarters of the Ringling Circus, whose members are rapidly completing plans to begin the autumn season with an appearance in Boston late this month.

Information was also disclosed that Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Co. is conducting an air mail connection with the Post Office, and that arrangements have been made for a special summer rate this year, which will give a fast and reliable service to the public.

Students an opportunity to enjoy their study in the environment of this great museum.

Decision Asked As To Legal Status In Railroad Mergers

Without debate the Senate

adopted a resolution by Senator

The resolution quotes the chair-
