Chit-Chat of the Play Houses in Sanford

For Tax Assessor
In this issue appears the announcement of B. H. Guthrie for the position of tax assessor for Seminole county. B. H. Guthrie, better known as "Ben" Guthrie among his many friends is no stranger in this section, although he has been so closely confined to his work while living here that many have not made his acquaintance. He has resided here for the past thirteen years, being employed by the Plant System and afterward by the Atlantic Coast Line Railway. He has served the road from baggage master to chief clerk and now occupies the position of assistant to the chief dispatcher. He learned accounting in the hard school of railroads where every penny must be accounted for and his record with the railroads is a clean one. While residing here Mr. Guthrie has always been a tax payer and property owner and has taken a deep interest in municipal affairs both in the county and city. Having been tied down to his desk for so many years he is anxious to get out in the open for a few months in each year and naturally turned to a position to which he and his friends thought he was fitted, hence his entrance into politics and aspirations for a position that will not necessitate close confinement all the time. Mr. Guthrie expects to see the voters of Seminole county in person and present his claims during the campaign and will be grateful for your support.

Mary Pickford in Marvelous Role
Mary Pickford as an Italian boy! The delightful little Japanese Cho-Cho-San, in "Madame Butterfly," has shed her sandals and kimono for the rough boots and corduroy of the Italian peasant, and she laughs, fights and smokes her way into the heart, just as the little Niponese sobbed her way into the affections of the public. And just as the Famous Players start so cleverly concealed her own mannerisms in the interpretation of the Jap girl, so in this original photoplay by Kate Jordan, which will be the Paramount attraction at the Star tonight, Miss Pickford buries the Pickfordian character beneath an avalanche of Italian mannerisms and of boyish conceptions that once more prove her wonderfully broad versatility.

"Poor Little Pippina" is the biggest and most thrilling original story in which Miss Pickford has ever been seen on the screen. Opening in Italy, the scene of action changes to Paris, and then, when the kidnapped American girl makes her escape as a runaway, dressed as a boy, New York supplies the setting for the rest of the action. Here the little runaway, still preserving her disguise, becomes a "newsie," a bootblack, a fruit vender and a messenger boy. But her adventures narrowly escape coming to a very sudden end when she becomes employed in an opium den in which she again encounters the man who had stolen her several years before.

Escaping from the den she later succeeds in preventing the man, Soldo, from murdering the one man whose kindness to her has won her devotion. Though she herself is nearly killed in the effort to save her friend, she is successful and her heroism is the means of restoring her to her real parents.

This is the longest feature Mary Pickford has ever appeared in and the success was so phenomenal in New York that several stations of police were called into action to handle the crowd seeking admission into the Broadway Theatre.

at the Star Theatre, Saturday, March 11th. Admission 5 and 10c

Fighting Drug Habit With Films
Moving pictures have been called on to portray many phases of human nature and to work out many problems. It is therefore logical that the National crusaders against the traffic in narcotics and stimulating drugs should turn to the photo play as an aid to their splendid purpose.

Thus it is the Bluebird Photoplays have lately produced, with the assistance of the United States customs officials, a sensational feature under the title of "Hop, the Devil's Brew," which exposes the method employed by opium smugglers operating on the Pacific Coast, and shows the appalling effects of drug consumption.

When Congress enacted laws in 1909 prohibiting further importation of opium, the annual traffic had amounted to two million dollars, under a duty of $6 per pound. The legitimate entry of opium into the United States having been cut off, smuggling which had been previously practiced to a considerable degree, became at once an enormously profitable enterprise. Systems for procuring opium in China, smuggling it over by the trans-Pacific steamers, and getting it through the guard lines of the custom officials were carefully devised and are still in profitable operation.

The principal feature that lends excitement to "Hop, the Devil's Brew," which will be shown at the Star Theatre on Saturday, March 11th includes graphic and authentic reproductions of fights between the smuggler bands and customs officials. Scenes taken in San Francisco's Chinatown include raids on opium "joints" and there are numerous reproductions of hazardous encounters along the water front and throughout the underworld of San Francisco.

In addition to the above feature Pathe News will be shown and the admission will be 5 and 10c.

Marie Doro Again Triumphant
Marie Doro, whose motion picture debut in the Famous Players production "The Morals of Marcus," and subsequent appearance in the same company's "The White Pearl" stamped her as one of the most wise and altogether charming actresses on the screen, will shortly be seen in the Famous Players Charles Frohman adaptation of the celebrated Sardou drama "Diplomacy," which will be the Paramount picture at the Star Monday, Mar. 13th. This is by no means the first time that Marie Doro has played in "Diplomacy," as she was co-star with William Collette and Blanche Bates in the stage version of the play at the Empire Theatre, New York last year. At that time she was declared by the New York critics to be the real star of the production as her work in the role of Dora—the same one which she plays in the motion picture—was the most finished and most delightful of all. One of them expressed it as follows: "It is Marie Doro who is the star of all stars in the play. She is not only an actress of rare charm, equal alike to light comedy and tense situations but she is unusually beautiful. In the scene in which her husband makes it known that she is suspected of being a spy, of having betrayed Count Orloff and of having stolen the precious documents, she is the central figure and carries the entire burden of the action and character portrayal."

Her Debt of Honor
The five part photodramatic production, "Her Debt of Honor," with Valli Valli, one of the foremost actresses on the stage of screen in the stella role will be shown here at the Star Theatre Tuesday, Mar. 14.

Among Miss Valli's most notable successes are the "Queen of the Movies," and "The Purple Road" and on the speaking and singing stage are "The High Road," "The Woman Pays," and "The Turmoil," three distinct Metro scene successes.

"Her Debt of Honor" promises to create a sensation, as it is full of surprises and thrills and abounds in novel situations. The story was written by William Nigh, who directed the piece and was produced by the Columbia Pictures Corporation for release on the Metro program. Mr. Nigh also directed the Metro successes, "Emmy of Stork's Nest" and "A Yellow Streak."

In the strong supporting cast with Miss Valli are Frank Bacon, who appeared in Coburn & Harris stage productions for eight years and is considered one of the foremost leading character comedians on the stage or screen; William Davison who only recently came to pictures, but who has achieved unusual success as leading man.

Crops vs Terry
The crops in this section were damaged about 50 per cent by the cold spell Saturday night. It was a few days the coldest one we have had this winter, as it got down as far as 26 deg. G. A. Taylor has got 10 acres of fine looking melons. Mrs. Martin, our latest arrival has got the best and oldest watermelons in this section. The People Bros. have got a good bean crop this year. R. E. Barnett has some fine cukes which are blooming. D. M. Alderman has a fine cuke and bean crop. G. P. Gardner has a good onion crop which he expects to harvest about the last of April. This section is suffering a little for the want of rain and we all hope to get it in cold spell Saturday night. It was a few days.

CANDIDATES WILL COME ON FRIDAY

NEXT WEEK WILL WIT- NESS BIG FLOCK OF THEM HERE

Getting ready for the big affair. The advance men are here, the bill posters are here, the decorators are here and everything is being made ready for what promises to be one of the record breaking crowds in this city next week. On Monday the 20th the Festival and Celery Fair will start and for six days there will be something doing all the time. Tuesday will witness the Auto Parade and opening of the Flower Show and every day will be a big day. Candidates' Day is being looked forward to by the people of the entire state for on Friday, Candidates Day, the state and national candidates will be here to tell us all about each other. The county candidates too will have their fling and the day will probably go down in history as being one of the greatest "coming out conventions" since the big one at Ocala.

The people of Florida as a whole have not had the opportunity of hearing the different candidates in point debate and this will be their opportunity. All the candidates for U. S. Senator, all the candidates for Governor, all the candidates for Congress and all the candidates for all offices will be here if possible, having wired that message to R. J. Holly, secretary of the executive committee of the county.

Grow Cowpeas With Corn

There is no indication that fertilizers will be cheaper next year than this. Farmers must make plans which will make a future shortage less keenly felt. Nothing will take the place of the various fertilizing constituents, but conditions for plant growth can be made happier and the necessity for fertilizers or large quantities of them will not be so marked.

Florida land needs organic matter whether or not commercial fertilizers are used. Cowpeas will supply organic matter. As a precaution against a further shortage of fertilizers, E. B. Pace, district agent for the University of Florida Extension Division recommends cowpeas between the corn rows. Experiments have shown that about as much corn can be grown with cowpeas as without. The rows can be widened a little and the peas planted between when the right time comes.

Send for Station Bulletins

The University of Florida Experiment Station has been working a good many years to solve farmers' problems. Reports of the work can be found in bulletins and records of the station. These bulletins are free and every farmer should apply for them. Almost every phase of farm activity has been covered by workers in the station. Some light will be thrown on every question by those bulletins which pertain to the particular branch of agriculture in which the question arises.

Bulletins may be had as long as the supply lasts by addressing P. H. Kolls, director of the Station, Gainesville. Every farmer in the state should have his name placed on the mailing list to receive new bulletins as they come out. When they are received they should be filed for future reference.

The efficiency of the Station will be greatly increased if farmers will apply for information. If bulletins and complete reports on the subject are not available, inquirers will be referred to stations which have such reports.

Farmers Make Two Potato Crops in Six Months

Some farmers in the Hastings district will make two crops of potatoes this winter. A. P. Spencer, district agent for the University of Florida Extension Division reports that several farmers who planted during the first part of December had their vines killed by a recent frost. The potatoes were not very big, but they were marketable and were dug. Those farmers intend to plant again and if they do they will get a second crop by June.

The first crop will not be heavy, probably forty to fifty bushels to the acre, but two crops of Irish potatoes in a winter is remarkable even if one is small. Mr. Spencer says that Hastings growers are feeling good. They have the largest acreage in the history of the district, indications are fair for a big crop and price promise well.

Interest in Live Stock Grows

Every mail brings inquiries to the University of Florida Experiment Station and College of Agriculture concerning livestock production in Florida. These come from New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, and other eastern states. But the great cattle sections of the west are also becoming interested in Florida livestock production. Inquiries from Missouri, Nebraska, Montana, Texas are coming in.

Many men from other states have purchased land in the state which they expect to develop into livestock ranches. A company from Ohio have a large tract in Clay county. Four brothers from Montana are preparing a ranch in the Kissimmee district. A group of men from Nebraska have purchased 1,200 acres in Manatee county for livestock production. A million acres will be devoted to cattle and hogs near Bonifay if the plans of the promoters materialize. All over the state this development is going on.

But outsiders are not the only ones to recognize the possibilities of the state. Florida farmers are showing active interest in livestock. Some inquire concerning forage and grasses, others about purebred sires and not a few want correspondence courses in animal husbandry or related subjects.

Station Issues New Bulletin

"What is the best grass for Florida?" The question is repeated hundreds of times during the year. Japanese cane is nothing more than a big grass, and it is not the best grass for Florida. It is one of the best and ranks toward the top.

The University of Florida Experiment Station has recently issued Bulletin 129, Japanese Cane by John M. Scott. It contains the results of fertilizer and feeding experiments and discusses its use as pasture, silage and dry forage. The soil best adapted to raising Japanese cane is discussed briefly. Methods of seedling preparation, care for planting, planting methods, and harvesting are given.

Several rations, including Japanese cane are offered, together with a general discussion of its feeding value. A large part of the bulletin is devoted to the results of fertilizer experiments on the yield and juice content of the plant. Copies will be sent free on application to the Station, Gainesville.

HERALD'S BIG CAMPAIGN ENDS NEXT SAT., 7 P. M.

TRIPLE VOTES GIVEN ON NEW SUBSCRIPTIONS UP TO 8 P. M., THURSDAY, ONLY DOUBLE VOTES GIVEN FRIDAY AND SATURDAY. REGULAR VOTES ALLOWED ON THE RENEWALS

BALLOT BOX WILL BE SEALED AND LOCKED NEXT FRIDAY. CANDIDATES MAY DEPOSIT MONEY AND SUBSCRIPTIONS IN BALLOT BOX LAST TWO DAYS YOU MUST HURRY TO WIN A PRIZE

The extra vote offer of the past week, whereby triple votes were allowed on every new subscription turned in, proved very popular and met with the hearty approval of every candidate. A good many, however, did not get to take advantage of the offer for one reason or another, so we have decided to extend the offer for three days. We want every candidate to get his or her share of these triple votes for they count up fast when it comes to winning one of the big prizes.

It will be advisable for you to turn in every available subscription during the next three days and take advantage of the triple votes. The TRIPLE Vote Offer closes Thursday, March 16th, at 8 p. m.

Double Votes

Only double votes will be allowed on new subscriptions the last two days of the campaign, Friday, March 17th and Saturday, March 18th.

Therefore be sure and turn in all the subscriptions possible by Thursday, March 16, at 8 p. m., and get the triple votes on each subscription. Remember this offer is for three days only.

This is positively your last opportunity to secure three times the regular number of votes on each of your new subscriptions.

Make Every Hour Count

If you are to be named a winner when the judges make their final count you must make every hour count from now until seven o'clock next Saturday night, March 18th. You cannot let a single subscription get by you for you need every one of them. Do not think because you have made an extra effort during the last vote offer that you have already won the prize you expect, for there may be others who have worked just as hard as you have and who are still making a mighty effort until the last moment. There is not a candidate in this campaign who can afford to stop work now unless he or she has made up his or her mind that he or she does not care to win a prize.

You will never regret the extra effort you may make between now and Saturday night when you are named a winner by the judges. Your friends named you as a candidate because they believed you could be made of the stuff that produced winners and you cannot afford to jeopardize their friendship by laying down at the last minute when the prize may be within your grasp. Many a battle has been lost after being won, by the already victor losing heart and allowing the enemy to make a final assault and win. Do not let anything stand in your way to prevent you from making the most active canvass of your whole campaign. You need every subscription that you can possibly get. No matter how many votes you may have in reserve, you need more. You have not gotten enough to make sure of winning. Others are making a strong finish and unless you are willing that they should carry off the prizes and honors you must make your finish strong.

Campaign Ends Next Saturday

The Sanford Herald's big campaign will end promptly at 7 o'clock, next Saturday night. All voting ballots and subscription orders and certificates must be inside The Herald office before seven o'clock. No candidate can bring in subscriptions after seven o'clock on the closing night.

Attention, Candidates!

The ballot box will be sealed and locked next Friday and the keys given to the judges. Candidates may deposit their subscriptions and money for same directly into the sealed ballot box instead of giving same to the Circulation Manager on Friday and Saturday if they wish in the following manner: Just make out your subscription stubs as usual, and be very careful to see that they are correct; then place same with money

(CASH, MONEY ORDER or DRAFT) in an envelope, seal same, write your name on the outside and deposit it in the ballot box. No one not even the Circulation Manager will know what is deposited the last two days; therefore, it will be impossible for any tips or information to be given, other than that which is given to each and every one.

This will make the final voting absolutely secret, even from the Circulation Manager.

The judges will make their count immediately after 7 p. m. next Saturday, March 18th at The Herald office, and will count and award the prizes to the candidates. Their count friends and the general public are invited to be present at the final count.

Candidates are not compelled to deposit their report in the ballot box the last two days unless they wish; they may make reports in the usual manner to the Circulation Manager.

Last Chance to Get Big Votes

The triple vote on new subscriptions ends next Thursday night, March 16th at 8 p. m. Only double votes will be given on new subscriptions the last two days of the campaign. Out of town candidates may mail their subscriptions in their local postoffice up to 8 p. m., Thursday, March 16th and they will receive the triple votes on new subscriptions.

Notice to Out of Town Candidates

All your subscriptions with remittances must reach the Sanford Herald not later than 7 o'clock Saturday night, March 18th, 1916, as the judges selected from Sanford's leading citizens will start to canvass the votes, and award the prizes as soon as the count is completed. The Circulation Manager would like to see all out of town candidates who can arrange to be here Saturday, March 18th to witness the final count, which will be made in public.

"Don't Be Ruffed"

Even supposing that some one has several thousand more votes than you have, what of it? How did they get them? Just in exactly the same way that you can. The remedy lies in your own hands. Go out and get subscriptions until you no longer fear any one. Talk is nothing but words, but subscriptions means votes and votes mean prizes. Let talk and more votes makes a better showing. Don't stop working until the very close of the campaign.

PYTHIANS GREAT MEET

Knights and Ladies Hold Forth at Key West

Key West, March 13.—The selection of officers was taken up shortly after noon on Thursday by the Grand Lodge of the Knights of Pythias and the usual promotions were made in the chair positions. Ernest P. Roberts being made Grand Chancellor; Newton P. Yowell of Orlando, Grand Vice Chancellor; Wiley J. Williams of Milton, Grand Prelate; J. G. Davis of Tampa, Grand Keeper of Records and Seal; W. W. Tompkins of Ocala, Grand Master of Exchequer; W. M. Gober of Icala, Grand Master of Arms; A. J. Brandon of Clearwater, Grand Inner Guard, and P. L. Ross of Mulberry, Grand Outer Guard.

Wednesday's session was spent in receiving reports of officers and standing committees and other routine work. Two cities were bidding for the next session of the Grand Lodge, Lakeland and Gainesville, and Lakeland was chosen.

Following the adjournment the Knights assembled at the hall opposite the postoffice, which Ramon Garcia of the Delmonico Restaurant had fitted up for the occasion, and a banquet was given them which proved to be one of the most pleasant affairs of the kind ever held here. A dance and reception at the Armory followed the banquet. This was largely attended by the visiting Knights and families and by our home people. The dance lasted from 9:30 to 12:30. The whole affair passed off pleasantly, and the local Knights are to be congratulated on the excellent manner in which the entertainment features were handled.

At the session of the Grand Temple Pythian Sisters on Thursday officers the following officers were elected for the ensuing term: Elizabeth Donegan of Kissimmee, G. C.; Hattie Bethel of Jacksonville, G. S.; Mollie Denem of Titusville, G. J.; Louise Holmes of Miami, G. M.; Maggie Lowry of Tampa, G. P.; Juliette Smith of Eustis, G. G.; Rena Brown of Palatka, G. M. of R. C.; Edna Hefner of St. Petersburg, G. M. of F.

After the election the Temple adjourned to attend the reception given by Mrs. Jefferson B. Browne at her residence on Whitehead street and reassembled later when the new officers were installed and the session adjourned. As reduced rates were offered the Pythians to Cuba, quite a number left on the Governor Cobb Friday night for Havana, while many others left on the Mascotte for Tampa for their respective homes.

Dr. J. Y. Porter, Jr., District Deputy Grand Master of the Masons entertained at dinner Thursday night at Delmonico's in honor of James E. Crane, Grand Master and William R. O'Neal, Grand Commander of Knights Templar. Other guests were Charles H. Ketcham, Grand Senior Deacon, F. C. Brown, Grand Master, F. B. Guito, Past Master; Mr. Vaviness, Junior Warden and Chester R. Cuffy, Master. After dinner a reception was held at the Masonic Temple where the three lodges met. Dr. Porter introduced Grand Master James E. Crane, who delivered a very interesting address. After the meeting Mr. Crane left for Havana, where he will spend a few days.

Mrs. Gary Lee in Sanford

Mrs. George Gary Lee was a distinguished guest in Sanford on Sunday. Finding herself and advance agent at this point on Saturday she decided to spend the Lord's day here and as soon as it became known that Mrs. Gary Lee was in town she was invited to speak in several churches and finally compromised by arranging to make an address in the Star Theatre, which was most generously tendered by the generous proprietor.

A goodly and appreciative audience greeted Mrs. Gary Lee, who delivered an able address, dealing principally with national and international affairs of China, one of the oldest and greatest empires. She spoke of the very grateful and friendly feeling which China holds for America, and especially the United States and the unparalleled opportunity for commercial relations, however unrealized by the United States, particularly in the commerce of cotton and wheat, both of which they prefer to import in exchange for their own productions, such as teas, silks, carved woods and their newly found mineral ores.

Religiously, the returned traveler and missionary says China is an open door. She declares that China is now as amenable to Christianity as much as it once was impenetrable. She cited an instance at the time of the opening of the doors of Pekin and nine other great cities when 18,000 Christians professed their belief in Jesus Christ.

Over against the few heathen weaknesses of China she emphasized the many stable qualities of that people, namely veracity, honesty, industry, intellectuality, spirituality, with their innumerable concomitant virtues, qualities which go to make the Christian par excellence.

Especially for the ladies Mrs. Gary Lee told the story of the conversion of Lady Wu, a governor's daughter, and wife of the Chinese Minister to South America; and for the children she donned an expensive Chinese gown and sang some native songs.

Social at Moore's Station

There will be a Box Social at Moore's Station Friday night of this week. Coffee, sandwiches and cake for those who do not bring a box. All are cordially invited to attend.

ATHLETICS TAKE PART IN FESTIVAL

BOY'S WILL HAVE FOOT RACES ETC. AT THE FAIR NEXT WEEK

In conjunction with the big Spring Fair and Festival next week Athletics will play an important part and all the small boys will have a chance to show their prowess and speed.

Rev. George Hanna, J. R. Wildman and Prof. Hutchinson, all of them experts on judging foot races, etc., will arrange a series of foot races, bicycle races, and other athletic stunts and will pull off the big affair on Saturday 25 on Commercial street near the Carnes Hotel.

This will add greatly to the Spring Fair and Festival and the youngsters can have a Field Day on a small scale. The athletic events should promote a greater interest in the schools and gymnasium and the Boy Scouts, as all of them will be represented. The big hearted merchants of Sanford will donate prizes to the youngsters for the different events and altogether Saturday will be a big day in every respect.

Home Education Tour

Eight southern states will be included in a joint tour to be made in March and April by representatives of the Bureau of Education of the Department of the Interior and the National Congress of Mothers in the interest of home education and closer cooperation of home and school. This is the second tour of this type, one arranged for last year having covered the far western and Pacific coast states.

The first meeting to be held in connection with the tour, will be at Leesburg, Va., where the citizens of Leesburg and Loudoun counties have already created a vigorous interest in the problem of closer cooperation of home and school. Other meetings have been arranged for Asheville, N. C., March 8; Danville, Va., and Lincolnton, N. C., March 9; Greensboro, N. C., and Florence, S. C., March 10; Spartanburg, S. C., March 11; Columbia, S. C., March 13; Rock Hill and Lancaster, S. C., March 14 and 15; Augusta, Ga., March 16; Charleston, S. C., March 17; Savannah Ga., March 18. The tour will end at Nashville, Tenn., where the annual meeting of the national Congress of Mothers and Parents' Associations is to take place during the week of April 4-11.

Among the speakers at these meetings will be Mrs. Frederic Schoff, Philadelphia, Pa., president of the National Congress of Mothers and Parent-Teachers' Associations; Mrs. Milton P. Higgins, Worcester, Mass., vice president, National Congress of Mothers; Mrs. Wm. F. Thacher, Washington, D. C.; Mrs. David O. Mears, Albany, N. Y., vice president National Congress of Mothers; Mrs. Joseph P. Mumford, Philadelphia, Pa., recently elected vice president of the National Council of Women; Miss Beatie Locke, New York city, secretary of the National Kindergarten Training School, Boston, Mass. Mrs. Schoff and Miss Locke are also special collaborators of the Bureau of Education.

Decorators Here

G. M. Robbins of the F. F. Gastoff Company is here to do the official decorating of the city for the Big Spring Festival and Celery Fair and will take orders for decorating at The Herald office. These people decorated the city last year and also the automobiles and can be recommended to the public. The city of Sanford has very generously decided to have the streets and city buildings decorated and Sanford will present a fine appearance in consequence. Every business house should have decorations in honor of the distinguished visitors who will be here.

CURBSTONE GLEANINGS

BUDGET OF OPINION "JUST BETWEEN YOU AND ME."

EVEN THE GATE POST NOT IN IT

A CHIEF IS AMONG YE TAKING NOTES AND FAITH, "HE'LL PRENT 'EM"—SO SAYS SAUNTERER.

The election on the 28th of this month for an alderman promises some excitement, as I understand several of our prominent men will be candidates for the position. The vacancy occurs on account of Alderman R. C. Maxwell resigning his position several weeks ago to take the position of treasurer and assessor. As yet no one has announced for the position but some one will run. It would be a calamity if they did not, for we must have the requisite number of aldermen.

I wish to commend the city council for their active work in cleaning up the streets and alleys of the city. They have been doing a great work and should have the help and assistance of the good people of Sanford. If everybody will assist there will be little need of any criticism leveled against the street committee or the city inspector.

It is good news to me that the dredging work will soon be resumed and it is to be hoped that the Seminole Dredging Co. will not lose their all. These men, especially Messrs. Mahoney and Walker deserve great credit for all they have accomplished here in buying the dredge and with a strong faith tackled a job that would appall most men. Here's hoping that they will finish this great work the greatest that has been started in Sanford in many years.

Show me some copies of the paper published in your town and I will tell you some facts about it and your people.

The man who said that was an active business man, who was considering an expensive proposition. The information he wanted was all in issues of a weekly newspaper.

He wanted to know about the stocks of goods carried by the merchants, to judge of their business capacity by the style and amount of advertising they employed—the paper would show him.

He wanted to know something about the social activities of the town, which the paper would show him.

He wanted to know something about the pursuits of the people in the town and the condition of the surrounding country. The paper would show him.

He would scan those papers carefully and would be able to give the information as he had stated.

He would judge the business-prospects from the advertising columns, of prospective selling possibilities by the local happenings, of the tastes and intelligence of the people by the reading matter the paper gives its readers, and whether they were a progressive alert or an easy going and comparatively inactive sort.

Your paper tells the story fully to the active, observant business man, who never saw your town or its people.

If the town merchants are not all represented in its columns it would spell "Little business," a bad knock for the town. If the local columns showed a scarcity of news and little of the social life it would spell in glaring letters "Nothing doing." If there was a lack of high class, up to date reading matter on the latest topics of the times, it would spell for him?

The investigation would end and the town be passed over as not worth considering.

So then the weekly paper is for 52 times a year showing people who do not reside in the town just-how to judge if it is a business and social center. You can help your town and its merchants by educating them to do their part, but you must publish a real up to date newspaper.

SAID ABOUT LAKE

If his friends are right in their prediction, Hon Forrest Lake of Sanford will be the next congressman from the Fourth Florida district.

Mr. Lake was in the city yesterday and admitted that he is being urged to make the race, and stated that the offers of support are coming from every county in the district, which stretches from Duval to Monroe.

He admitted that the prospects of representing the district in the national legislature appeal strongly to him, but said that he is not yet ready to cast his hat into the ring, although he has promised his urgers to give them an early reply to their insistence.

As the representative from Seminole county in the last legislature, he took his place among the strong men of the body, and was the strongest candidate for the speakership besides Cary Hardee, who, after a strenuous fight was elected to the position. Mr. Lake's ability was recognized in the house, and his advocacy of bills meant much toward their passage; while, likewise, he gained a name for his ability to recognize and fight to the death much proposed legislation that would have been harmful to his county or to the state at large.

Mr. Lake is known throughout the state as a successful business man, and one in whom the people of his county have the utmost confidence. He has never been defeated for any position to which he has aspired, and has repeatedly been elected mayor of his city.

His residence in the centre of the Fourth district places him in the position of being able to look impartially to both ends of his district should he be elected, and to manifest his influence from a strategic point.

It is expected that his formal announcement, together with his platform, will be forthcoming within the next few days.

In speaking of the proposition that he should come into the race, he said yesterday that if he did enter it would be on a platform which means something, not one built of generalities and composed of sweet sounding words to sugar coat something which after the people have swallowed it will cause a strong desire to get it out again.—Jacksonville Times-Union.

The Hon. Forrest Lake played our star engagement before the state Democratic Committee in restoring an unrestricted vote to the Democrats of Florida—Forrest Lake and Rube Allen DONE IT. By the way, when Allen delivered his speech a neighbor of ours sized him up this way: "Well he's a wonder—a composite possibly of Adam, Elbert Hubbard and some exceptional genius yet to be born"—Jacksonville State.

We have just heard that Forrest Lake is to be a candidate for congress. His accomplishment in rescinding the Slunkey resolution before the Executive Committee ought to elect him.—Jacksonville State.

Florida
District 3—East Coast north: Weather conditions favorable and potatoes and strawberries doing well in Bradford and St. Johns counties. District No. 4—Central region: Warm weather preventing the heading of lettuce is complained of in Marion and Orange counties, conditions otherwise favorable. District 5—West Coast south: Weather favorable and prospects good for all crops. Celery showing a little rust in a wane section and tomatoes setting well.

District 6. East Coast south: Weather favorable throughout district and it is reported from Arch-Street that car lot shipments of tomatoes should start from February, 10 to 15. Warm weather prevents heading of lettuce.

Texas
Lettuce has been badly damaged in Cameron and Hidalgo counties by warm weather dry, hot, rust and blight and the early lettuce crop went badly to seed in Dimmitt county because of warm weather.

Weather conditions have favored the cotton crop in Webb county and harvesting will probably begin about April 15.

The cold waves of Jan. 12, 17 and 18 killed or severely injured truck crops as far south as Ansonia, Beaufort, Matapona and Victoria counties.

South is complained of in San Patricio and Zavala counties. United States Department of Agriculture, Bureau of Crop Estimates, Washington, D. C., Feb. 9, 1916.

Do Not Burn Vegetable Matter

Experimenters agree that the man who fed the goose which laid the golden eggs was foolish. How about the man who burns the vegetable matter on his land when it needs all the organic matter he can put into it? It is a common practice in some sections to burn all the weeds, trash and remains of former crops when the land is ready for plowing.

S. S. Walker, associate chemist to the University of Florida Experiment Station reminds farmers that they not only destroy organic matter but they kill many beneficial bacteria which aid in making plant food available when they fire such material. It is not desirable to plow under a large amount of dry matter when one expects to plant a crop immediately. But when land is in dire need of such organic matter, not a straw of it should be destroyed. Disc the field both ways before it is plowed and work it well after it has been plowed. Very little trouble will be had and the results will be profitable.

Chit-Chat of the Play Houses in Sanford

Valli Valli Tonight

Metro's next release will be the big five part phodrama, "Her Debt of Honor," with Valli Valli, the London Galety Company favorite, in the stellar role and presented at the Star tonight.

The story is an unusually novel one and promises to create a sensation as it abounds with thrills and surprises. The Columbia Pictures Corporation produced this screen masterpiece for Metro, under the direction of William Nigh, who is also the author of the feature.

Miss Valli has many successes to her credit, both on the speaking stage and screen. In her support will appear Frank Bacon, William Davidson, etc.

Betty Nansen in "Should a Mother Tell" At The Star Wednesday

There are few stories which present in so fascinating and thrilling a manner some of the vital problems which women are sometimes called upon to solve, as "Should a Mother Tell" as pictured by William Fox. The Mother in the story is a woman in an ordinary station of life, the parent of a beautiful girl.

She is suddenly thrust into a situation where action is demanded and where such action must either blight her daughter's life and honor or her own good name, conscience and her duty to God.

On witnessing this picture one is confronted with a problem that seems at first, to be unanswerable. It seems almost unjust for trail woman to be called upon to face such a question.

But since the beginning of time it has been said, women have been called upon to shoulder most of the burdens and crosses of the world. In all mothers there is the world-old, primitive instinct for the protection of their young. When a mother is called upon to violate that instinct, even though it be to save the life of an innocent man, her first wild impulse is to do all to sacrifice all, for her own child.

When a reaction comes a reaction. Can she stand to permit the blood of a young man to be shed? He is a young man, a young man with everything in the world before him. He, too, is the son of an adoring mother. How can she permit this young man to be needlessly snuffed out? But her child, the baby that she nursed, now the beautiful, the new grown up to a beautiful school. How can she permit her child to be ruined, her child to be future happiness shattered. She is the flesh of her flesh, and the bone of her bone. The other is none but a stranger. But he is innocent, a word may save him.

And so the cruel struggle rages within the mother's breast. Now her instinctive mother passion is up- permost. Now her sense of right and justice.

See the question answered, to- morrow at the Star

Gods of Fate, a Thrilling Story

Never in the history of motion pictures has the struggle between a man and his conscience been more vividly portrayed than in "The Gods of Fate." Daniel Carson Goodman's powerful epic of labor.

"The Gods of Fate" hit straight from the shoulder at the great Labor wrongs of the present time. Richard Buhler, who plays the lead- ing part in this powerful drama has never appeared to better advantage, and Rosetta Brice has a sym- pathetic part to her liking. Francis Joyner as Eatey, the Inventor, does some of the best work of his career.

"The Gods of Fate," the biggest feature photo-play yet released by the Lubin Manufacturing Company of Philadelphia is being rapidly com- pleted. This masterful Epic of labor, by Daniel Carson Goodman is considered the greatest story ever written by him for the screen. "The Gods of Fate" contains some thrill- ing incidents that for sheer reck- lessness of action on the part of the players, and wonderful nerve dis- played have never been surpassed.

Director Daniel Goodman has recruited his cast from the best talent of the Lubin Manufacturing Company and in Richard Buhler, who is featured in the lead part, the stage ac- quired star, who does not know what the word fear means. One of the most gripping scenes is the wreck of a train in which two complete trains, one passenger and one freight, crash together while moving at the rate of forty miles an hour.

Miss Betty Nansen in "Should a Mother Tell" a five act story concerning the vital question between mother and daughter. 5 and 15c famous story, "To Have and to Hold." It is a Paramount Picture. Heretofore, Miss Murray has been entirely identified with the stage. Several months ago she consented to appear in a new picture. So great was her beauty, so charming her personality and so wonderful her ability, that every motion picture magnate in the country sought her services. She was finally se- cured by the Lasky Company under a three year contract. Miss Murray is endowed with youth and beauty in addition to her wonderful dramatic ability and there can be no doubt that she will be a great favorite to local theatre goers.

Richard Buhler in "The Gods of Fate" an epic of labor in five absorbing acts. 5 and 15c

The distinguished Lasky actor, Wallace Reid is featured with Miss Murray and the two are surrounded by a number of the all star Lasky stock company.

The production is unusually mag- nificent.

Wear Furs of Necessity. Throughout the cold latitudes of China during the winter the Chinese of all classes wear fur, wool or nail- lined garments. Even the coolies have their sheep or goat skins, and people of the middle and official classes have many sets of garments lined with the richest furs. Their noses are rarely heated to a comfort- able temperature, and in consequence they wear their furs both indoors and out.

No Argument Coming. Did you speak to father about me, Arthur? Yes, I did, but he need not worry me. Then no said might marry you? Why or no? I didn't quite get to the point of asking him that. I just said you were a fine girl. Birmingham Age- Herald.

The editor of The Herald wishes to announce that the Spring Festival and Celery Fair will take place next week and promises to be one of the big events of the season. The editor is not interested in this any more than the other business men of the city and we want the assistance of every man in Sanford toward making it a success. It is not a Herald Fair but a Sanford Fair.

W. A. Russell, editor of the Palatka News is another newspaper man who is a candidate for the legislature. Billy Russell has already served two terms in the legislature and did not think he would make the race this time but says in his announcement that "circumstances upon which he had no control forced his entrance into the ring." Yes, we can well believe it, Bill. Circumstances here in Sanford in the past few hours have almost forced us to take to the woods and if business keeps up we will quickly for Chattahoochee. Go to it, Bill. Maybe we can be with you at one place or the other.

Governor Trammell is making a strong, though mainly light for the United States senatorship before the coming primary. He is charged by enemy papers in the state with neglecting his official duties as governor in his campaign, which the Governor emphatically denies. These enemy papers may as well say that Senator Bryan who has left Washington and is in the state prosecuting his campaign to retain the position of United States senator himself is also neglecting his duties to the people of Florida. The fight for the senatorship has opened in earnest. Bryan, Trammell, Gilchrist and Wall are the announced candidates and they are all fighters. DeLand Record.

CITIZEN CHANGES HANDS

Newspaper property in Orlando changes hands about as rapidly as residence property and the latest change is the sale of the Orange County Citizen formerly owned by C. K. Howard to F. E. Selby of Illinois. We are glad to note that Mr. Howard was retained as editor, which was probably one of the stipulations of the sale. Bro. Howard could no more lay down his trenchant pen than could any of the other boys of the Florida press and certainly we would not like to lose him from our ranks. Best wishes to Mr. Selby. Requested good wishes to C. E. Howard.

FOR SUPERINTENDENT

Says the Palatka News: "Among the teachers of the state, particularly those affiliated with Florida Educational Association, there is a general desire for the success of Dr. J. L. Kelley, who is making the race for state superintendent of public instruction, to succeed W. N. Sheats. Dr. Kelley is one of Florida's best known, most efficient educators. He is the present county superintendent of Alachua county; has been president of the Florida Educational Association, and is a member of the State Text Book Commission. Volunteer workers in his behalf are coming up from all parts of the state." Dr. Kelley is too much the educator to be a politician, and will need the good words of the teachers of Florida who know him, in his campaign for the office of state superintendent.

SOME POLIT CAL STEW

Here's a pretty kettle of fish. Forrest Lake, a Sanford man announces for the position of Congressman from this district. The editor of The Herald is always anxious to support home folks for office, but in this case there is another man that was elected to this office two years ago and his supporters at that time called him home folks as he comes from the neighboring county of Osceola. The editor of The Herald has been a lifelong friend of Joe Sears and did not support him last time because we had already come out for the incumbent at that time in the office, a fellow journalist, Claude L'Engle. Since that time, however, we have pledged Joe Sears our support with the idea that he should have a second term. He has been a friend and always will be and yet here is Lake our fellow townsman and his claims for support. On top of that, President Codrington of the Florida Press Association wants us to make the race for the state legislature to quash that iniquitous libel law that prevents a newspaper man from calling his soul his own, and there you are. President Wilson cautions us to be neutral and use our guns for defense rather than offense and yet President Wilson does not realize that we are Irish and who ever saw an Irishman that was neutral when there was any fighting. We are going fishing Wednesday and while communing with nature and catching some speckled perch hope to make up our mind as to whether it is best to sit on the fence and watch the parade go by or get in the political band wagon and pay for the music.

A FOUR YEAR TERM
Hon. Frank Clark expects to introduce a bill in congress to make the term of a congressman four years instead of two. This bill should be passed for each and every congressman ought to have a four year term instead of two. For instance, in our own district when this was known as the Second District Frank Clark was able to get more for his people by being familiar with the office and having been in Washington several years. When Claude L'Engle became a candidate at large and Frank Clark left us to take his place in the Second L'Engle was elected and had hardly taken his seat before he was forced to make the race again in the new Fourth. It was not fair to him to be obliged to make another campaign when he was supposed to be in Washington familiarizing himself with the affairs of state. He was defeated for the office by W. J. Sears who on account of L'Engle's term not being quite out was forced to wait to take his seat and went to Washington to be sworn in last December. He will be on the job until June endeavoring to take an active part in the big affairs of the nation as well as looking after his own district which is one of the largest in the state and if he has opposition will be obliged to leave his seat in Congress and come to Florida before the primary in June as it becomes necessary for him to again make the race. This is hardly fair to any congressman and does not give any of them a chance to make good. In other words, the two year term keeps the congressman busy getting elected and handicaps them greatly in having plenty of time to devote to affairs of state. The four year term would give a congressman ample time to attend at least two sessions of congress free from the vexing problems of a campaign and in the event that the congressman was defeated he would still have two years of active service for his district, for his state and for the entire country.

IT IS A USE-LESS LAW

SCREENS ARE SUPPOSED TO PREVAIL IN EVERY PART OF FLORIDA

STATE BOARD OF HEALTH

Laws—what's the need of them if they are not enforced? The Florida legislature at the session of 1915, at the urgent suggestion of the State Board of Health, enacted a law, Chapter 6953, Laws of Florida, which is, or should be, one of the most important acts ever enrolled on the statute books of the state for the prevention of disease, and it has a meaning for every citizen of Florida—permanent or transient.

It provides that it shall be a misdemeanor to operate a hotel, boarding house, restaurant or lunch counter without screening every door, window or other opening in the dining room, kitchen or passage leading to them, with wire netting of a mesh small enough to prevent the admission of flies. It makes it a misdemeanor to sell or expose for sale food in any meat or butcher shop, grocery, fruit stand, bakery or other place, which is to be eaten raw, or which is to be consumed without cooking, and to operate any dining or buffet car within the state without screening such eating places with wire netting which will prevent the admission of flies.

The penalty upon conviction is not to exceed fifty dollars or imprisonment not longer than three months for each proven violation. This law, while it might possibly have been better in a vast improvement on any previous attempt to protect the people of the state through these channels from the infection of typhoid fever and some other filth producing diseases, if not the if; it shall be enforced.

Florida's Board of Health has been working for more than twenty-five years to make the state a better place to live in, to prevent disease and to bring to all the people an ultimate knowledge how to keep themselves to longer life, to better sanitary surroundings and more efficient working days in each year. The board has succeeded fairly well in its never ending labor, and it is shown by the fact that when epidemic threatens, the people throw up their hands and surrender in a blind faith to its leadership out of the emergency into which their own disregard of its warnings has plunged them.

FOR CONGRESS

The following announcement is given to the public: R. J. Holly, Editor Sanford Herald: Please permit me to announce through your valuable paper to the good people of the Fourth Congressional District of Florida that I am a candidate for Congress in the Democratic primary to be held on June 6th. I will present my platform for their consideration at an early date and will make a vigorous campaign in every county. Should I be elected I will serve my constituency to the best of my ability. Signed: Forrest Lake.

It is hardly necessary to give the history of Forrest Lake to the readers of The Herald for he has been a resident of Sanford for many years. From the days of his early youth he has been a figure in politics and the bustings to him are as the breath of war to the nostrils of the charger. He was mayor of this city some eighteen years ago and then moved to Cuba to engage in the ice business. Afterward coming back to the states his home city of Sanford appealed to him and he became the owner of the ice plant and the water works system here and while busy with these utilities found time to dabble in politics by becoming the mayor of the city for two successive terms and, was also elected to the legislature for three successive terms, materially assisting in forming the new county of Sumner by leading the forces in the legislature. Last term of the legislature he was the leading candidate for Speaker of the House but was defeated at the last minute by one of those unaccountable flops in politics. Although defeated for the position of Speaker Mr. Lake was the recognized leader in the House and his record in that assembly speaks for itself and will be given to the public at a later date. The fight before the State Executive Committee two weeks ago in Jacksonville to rescind the actions of the committee and change sections four and five and the passing of the resolution known as the Lake resolution again brought Mr. Lake in the limelight and his friends importuned him to make the race for Congress, hence his decision and the above announcement. Mr. Lake has made this decision after a canvass of the situation and has received sufficient encouragement to make the race. This office like all offices goes to the man who can get it and the race is won by the swiftest runner. Senator Fogarty of Key West has already announced and Congressman W. J. Sears is on the job at Washington. The Herald hopes that the best man will win.

Fierce Exaltation of Battle Told by Frenchman.

Corporal Describes the Hoarse Shouts, the Rasp of Steel on Steel, the Appeals for Mercy in Street Fighting.

Paris—"No more excitement, an astonishing calm fills us as we open fire upon the Germans who have taken cover in the houses in the outskirts of the village," writes Charles Tardieu in a recent installment of his "Impressions of a Corporal," published in the Figaro.

From windows embrasures from the cover of door sashes (blain aas) at us. Forty bodies are strewn across the interval between us, a few wounded men are scrambling and wriggling in the mud. Little by little we regain our breath.

"At the top of the village street debouches a company of German infantry. A hellish fire welcomes them, but still they come on, sowing their dead by files. Faster and faster we pump our breech bolts. Their first ranks crumple, they tramp over them. The next rank falls, still they come on. At last their chief, a huge devil of an officer, who is waving them on, goes down. A new volley drops seven or eight more men. This time they stop, hesitate a second, then turn and run.

"Charge!" roars the captain. "Give them the steel!" We rush in, our two buglers, their neck veins swelling, playing us the heart-stirring notes of the charge. A heroic intoxication swells through us and we run like beings possessed into the narrow streets, through the humming bullets.

"Into houses, through gardens, past open doorways the skirmishers throw themselves, to come out with dripping bayonets. No more shots—death shrieks, groans, hoarse shouts, piteous cries for mercy are mingled with the crash of falling furniture, the slamming of doors, the nasty rasp of steel on steel. And over it all the strident notes of the charge!

"From each house as it is silenced pour our men, some of them wounded. Hatless, coatless, without their packs; one man has discarded his blouse and is working with his sleeves rolled up.

"Trampling on the corpses that strew the way, leaping over obstructions, we make our way up the street, when a machine gun section appears in front of us. But before they have time to unlimber we are upon them. An instant of hard work with butt and steel and its crew is down beside their overturned piece. We pass on.

Into the cross street we turn. A few bodies are lying there, one house is burning briskly. Spiked helmets bob over the walls as their wearers retreat through the gardens. A scattered fire is heard on all sides. At the end of the street, behind a barricade of overturned wagons and wine barrels, some of the Germans who still hold out open up on us. "Charge bayonet!"

"We rush on, when a shattered window bursts open and the head of Baby Week has just been observed in Florida communities, as in those of other states. Its celebration has assumed the proportions of society functions, and the elite four hundred or eight hundred—it doesn't make much difference how many—have amused themselves and incidentally and remotely have aided the baby. It's a splendid thing—this idea of giving the baby a better chance, but the ultimate and greater benefit to society lies far in the future—a whole generation ahead. It is in the hope that the baby of today will become thirty or forty years from now a citizen alive to his responsibilities and active vastly more active than his father, and mother of today in demanding those things that will make him and keep him strong and healthy more efficient in body, mind and soul.

New Motor Truck. There has been considerable attention paid the new arrival at the B. & O. Motor Co. which promises to open up greater possibilities and an entire new field for the farmer.

Lands which were previously considered remote and unavailable on account of their distance to the nearest loading station are now a thing of the past, as the motor truck which is on display at the B. & O. The International Motor Truck is the only motor truck that will fill the bill and do the work for the farmer in Florida sand. This statement has been proven by actual test in Florida.

It will pay all those interested in trucking or delivering goods of any kind to drop in at the B. & O. Motor Co. and inspect this truck.

Safe Guarding Young Girls Seeking Employment. Let the sweet lovebirds endure. Not close and darkish above me. Before I am quite quite sure. That there is one to love me! Then let come what may. To a bit that has been so sad. I shall have had my day.

When a girl is obliged to go forth in search of work she cannot be the choicer, if her needs be urgent, of what kind of employment she will accept. The plain fact is she must take a place where she can get it.

It is not once in a thousand times that the proprietors who employ young girls are able to find hard-headed business men. But that is the case with the kind who employ them. They are not only hard-headed but they are also hard-hearted.

It appears to be the tendency of the worst offenders, after they have first set their foot on the slippery slope of dishonest dealing with labor, to go on and on, until they have a certificate of their honesty, trustworthiness, etc., such as he might ask an employer to furnish.

Therefore the girl must accept the position with any and every risk it may entail. Working girls just beginning life's battle should be safeguarded by woman friends who make it their business gently to explain that a girl has no right to accept courtesies from any man, independent of who he might be, such as accepting luncheon which he sends out for, if it be in inclement weather for her only allowing her companions who are also in the same employ to get it as best they can or do without.

If the man is married there should be no sentimental word from his lips to her. A cautious protest should be made against such a thing, and the man in question should be left to consent to meet his outside of his business hours beyond business hours or permit him to take her to her lodgings in his automobile or coach.

The ruination of young working girls lives always has a beginning, if precaution is taken at the outset young women will soon learn to care for themselves.

It is not thousand employer who bear of and we are daily thankful that the other 23 need no reminder to safeguard the honor of the sweet young girls who look to them for maintenance by honest work for honest wage. In this age of enlightenment even the youngest of working girls seems to have the intuition to know when and by whom evil menaces them, and how to escape the snares set for them. If I could give a warning to all girls it would be: Have no secret love affair. He who pleads for secrecy can have no pure motive and is likely to be a wolf in sheep's clothing.

Mary Alice Explained. It was the third waltz of the Overlookers club meeting that Tom met Mary Alice.

From that minute they never for an instant parted. They danced and sat out the items alternately.

Yet, seventh heaven as he was in, there was something that troubled Tom, caused him to start suddenly at times, and to glance about him most suspiciously.

At midnight he resolved to unburden his manly bosom of its weight. "It's funny, Mary Alice," he whispered, "but that gum-lookin' chap over there 'as bin follorin' us wherever we go. Wot's his little game? Who is it?"

"I'm?" carelessly replied Mary Alice, following the direction of her partner's gaze. "Oh, 'as' 't' bloke wot bought me ma ticket!"—Tit-Bits

Preserving Patent Leather Shoes. Patent leather shoes should be carefully wiped off with a soft cloth when they are removed and then a few drops of oil should be rubbed into them. This will keep the leather soft and prevent them from cracking.

To Remove Putty. To remove old putty from a window after the glass has been taken out, pass a hot soldering iron or poker over it. This softens it and it is easily removed.

Growth of Finger Nails. Finger nails grow more quickly in summer than in winter. Those on the middle finger grow the fastest, and the thumb the most slowly.

"Scant" Icebergs. If the wind is in the right direction a sort of cold smell gives sailors warning of the proximity of an iceberg.

Steadfast and True. Nothing is steadfast that is insincere.—Cicero.

WOMAN'S CLUB

Conclusion of Contest, and Lecture. The final examination in the Better Baby Contest was held in the office of Dr. O. J. Miller Saturday morning, under the auspices of the Welfare Department, Woman's Club with Dr. Miller and Dr. Crigle of Ocala examiners, with Mrs. W. L. Morgan assisting.

The contest resulted as follows: First division, from six months to twelve months, Jack Allen Gillen, 97.5; Mary Maxwell, 95; Laura Ernestine Betts, 94; Second Division, from twelve to twenty-four months, William Albert Gillen and Billy Bouchele, weight 94; Florence Jeannette Hopson, 93.5; Beatrice O'Connor, 92. Third Division, from twenty-four to thirty-six months, Sarah Maxwell, 93; Gerald Geiger, 92. The scores all the way through were remarkably high.

Of the seventeen babies who qualified by having the examination and returning the score cards fourteen babies reached an average above ninety per cent, only three having fallen below ninety, the lowest being eighty-six. Blue and red ribbons were given by the Welfare Department for first and second places, and certificates from the Woman's Home Companion given every baby examined. The Companion will send to the winners of the first places bronze medals of merit.

Baby Week was fittingly closed with Dr. Miller's lecture at the Woman's Club on Saturday afternoon. The lecture was attended by fifty or more, principally the young or matrons and many mothers. The text of Dr. Miller's splendid paper gave a few hints on the prevention of infant mortality. Dr. Miller included in his remarks pre-natal and post-natal suggestions on clothing, exercise, food and fresh air for the mother and babe. He touched upon birth registration, emphasizing its importance, stating that only one baby entered in the contest had not been registered. Cleanliness and sanitation, and emphasis laid upon the infant sleeping alone was a feature of Dr. Miller's address, while he paid his respects to so-called soothing syrups and drugs to be avoided, giving a list of these medicines that have been stigmatized by government experts as "Baby-Killers."

Throughout the address was replete with interest and valuable information that bespoke a thoughtful and thoughtful consideration of his subject. In passing Dr. Miller stated his conviction that the graduating classes of every High School should have the benefit of instruction and lectures from graduate nurses to fit them for the duties of motherhood. In conclusion he paid a glowing tribute to the Woman's Club of Sanford for its active interest and the work it is doing for the common welfare and its effort to the raising of health standards in the community and its cooperation with the health department in every way possible.

For City Council. I hereby announce myself as a candidate for the position of alderman for the city of Sanford subject to the decision of the voters in the election called on March 28th. Having disposed of the Better Baby Contest we will now turn our thoughts to the Baby Parade which will take place next week during the talkhead celebration. Wednesday morning, March 22 has been set apart for the parade in which the slogan will be "One hundred babies in line." Sanford reposes in an unusual number of beautiful, healthy and attractive babies and with the city full of people we feel that this will be one of the most attractive features of the celebrations. Plans are being made by the committee that will be most interesting. Group floats as well as the individual float, cart or carriage will doubtless be in line. There will probably be three prizes awarded, a group prize, the first individual prize and a second prize for either float or individual.

The Parthe moving picture film people will be on the field to take pictures from various points of view of this parade. For this reason we desire to place Sanford very largely on the map, for on the picture screen our babies will travel all over the United States. Make your entries at once. Mrs. E. L. Marshall is chairman of the Baby Parade and will gladly furnish information and particulars. She can be reached by telephoning 115.

Mothers are urged to enter their babies in the parade and to do so immediately. It is not absolutely necessary to decorate in order to have a place in the display, but only decorated floats, carts, etc., etc., will be eligible for the prizes.

Dinner at Carnes Hotel. Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Thigpen were hosts at a charming dinner at Hotel Carnes on Friday evening at which was served a big wild turkey, the trophy of Mr. Thigpen's recent hunting trip. All the delicious et-ceteras that turkey suggests were served in six courses. The table was attractively pretty with its flower decorations, a lovely centerpiece of cut flowers adorning the centre.

Enjoying the festive occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Thigpen, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Wallace, Mrs. O. W. Brad, Mrs. Garver of Chicago, Mrs. Faye of New York, Miss Gladys Fields of Tampa, Mr. Jervey of Charleston, S. C. and Mr. Carnes.

Having disposed of the Better Baby Contest we will now turn our thoughts to the Baby Parade which will take place next week during the talkhead celebration. Wednesday morning, March 22 has been set apart for the parade in which the slogan will be "One hundred babies in line." Sanford reposes in an unusual number of beautiful, healthy and attractive babies and with the city full of people we feel that this will be one of the most attractive features of the celebrations. Plans are being made by the committee that will be most interesting. Group floats as well as the individual float, cart or carriage will doubtless be in line. There will probably be three prizes awarded, a group prize, the first individual prize and a second prize for either float or individual.

The Parthe moving picture film people will be on the field to take pictures from various points of view of this parade. For this reason we desire to place Sanford very largely on the map, for on the picture screen our babies will travel all over the United States. Make your entries at once. Mrs. E. L. Marshall is chairman of the Baby Parade and will gladly furnish information and particulars. She can be reached by telephoning 115.

Mothers are urged to enter their babies in the parade and to do so immediately. It is not absolutely necessary to decorate in order to have a place in the display, but only decorated floats, carts, etc., etc., will be eligible for the prizes.

Dinner at Carnes Hotel. Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Thigpen were hosts at a charming dinner at Hotel Carnes on Friday evening at which was served a big wild turkey, the trophy of Mr. Thigpen's recent hunting trip. All the delicious et-ceteras that turkey suggests were served in six courses. The table was attractively pretty with its flower decorations, a lovely centerpiece of cut flowers adorning the centre.

Enjoying the festive occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Thigpen, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Wallace, Mrs. O. W. Brad, Mrs. Garver of Chicago, Mrs. Faye of New York, Miss Gladys Fields of Tampa, Mr. Jervey of Charleston, S. C. and Mr. Carnes.

Motor Party. A congenial party that motored over to Port Orange on Sunday to visit Mrs. H. C. Gerror, were Mr. Gerror, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Abernathy, Mrs. W. L. Morgan and Mrs. R. L. Jones. The party lunched picnic fashion in the woods, with Mrs. Gerror, the guest of honor.

Surprise Party. The members of the Truth Seekers Class met at the home of their teacher, Mrs. Steinmeyer on Friday evening for the purpose of "surprising Mrs. Styron, a member who was on the eve of leaving Sanford to make her home elsewhere. A very delightful evening of music and song was enjoyed and the guest of honor was presented a lovely bouquet of

U. S. TROOPS CROSS LINE AFTER VILLA

FOUR THOUSAND MEN TOOK UP CHASE AFTER BANDIT YESTERDAY

San Antonio, Texas, Mar. 16.—United States troops went into Mexico today in pursuit of Francisco Villa, whose raid on Columbus, N. M., a week ago caused President Wilson to determine to run him down. More than 4,000 soldiers, headed by Brigadier General John J. Pershing, who is in command of the punitive expedition, crossed near here, while a smaller force under Colonel George D. Dodd, entered Mexico some distance from Columbus.

General Pershing and his command entered the international boundary line about noon, according to advices received by General Funston.

How far into Mexico the Colonel had penetrated was not known nor did General Funston seem to know. Col. Dodd's column is moving in a southerly direction and the two columns should be within touch of each other before the end of the week. By that time it is expected an infantry support will hold the lines of communication, along which motor trucks for the transportation of ammunition and supplies will be operated.

Although the censorship imposed by General Funston was relaxed to-night efforts still were made to keep secret the details of the plan of campaign, the exact number of men engaged and their actual locations.

Pershing's report of his entrance into Mexico served to dispel to a great extent fears that had been entertained in some quarters that resistance would be offered by troops of the de facto Government.

Colonel Bertani, the commanding officer of the Carranza garrison at Palomas, on the south side of the dividing line, promptly joined General Pershing. This force was only some 400 men, but they were reported to have displayed willingness and even eagerness to join in the chase. As a body of Mexican troops will remain under their own command, but a number of them are being employed as scouts by General Pershing.

General Pershing has gone into Mexico with orders to overtake and wipe out Villa and his organization. Unless orders to the contrary are received from those higher in authority than General Funston, the campaign that was begun today will continue until Villa is captured or killed. This, it was said at General Funston's headquarters tonight is the idea General Pershing carried with him across the line. No limits have been placed on the field operations. After the campaign is well under way, it was pointed out circumstances may cause restrictions, but just now the troops are prepared to go anywhere to carry out the President's orders.

A STANDARD ARMY

Plan to Authorize President to Recruit Men

Washington, D. C., March 16.—A joint resolution authorizing the President to bring the Army up to full strength by adding 19,447 men to existing organizations was passed in the house late Wednesday without objection or debate and with but one dissenting vote.

Representative Hay, chairman of the military committee asked for immediate consideration of the resolution, saying the step was necessary on account of the demands on the border for additional protection during the march of the punitive expedition in Mexico. There was no opposition and the resolution was passed in five minutes. On the viva voce vote no hay was heard. Majority Leader Mann delivered a rising vote, which resulted 236 to 1. Representative London, Socialist, of New York voting in the negative. Representative Hay told the house that he recommended this plan rather than a call for the militia or volunteers.

The President wanted to allay any suspicion, he said, that the United States wanted to accomplish anything by the Mexican expedition except pursuit of Villa. The resolution will be called up in the senate today.

Republicans and Democrats worked in perfect harmony for adoption of the resolution despite the fact that their leaders on the military committee disagreed as to the exact meaning of it.

Auto Parade Tuesday

The auto parade on Tuesday, now promises to be the greatest thing in the Festival week. The owners of autos are arranging with the Gastoff Co. through Pat Robbins to decorate their cars and many who have no cars expect to help decorate their neighbor's car and ride in the parade.

Remember these facts in connection with the parade.

The parade will line up on Tenth street at Ten o'clock or as near that time as possible between Park avenue and Sanford avenue. As soon as the cars are lined up and placed in order the Fire Department led by Sheriff Hand and Marshal Tillis and escorts mounted will lead the procession over the following line of march.

Park avenue north to First street, First street from Park to Sanford, Sanford south to Fifth street, Fifth street west to Magnolia, Magnolia north to Park avenue, line up on First street at Carna Hotel where prizes will be awarded.

These prizes are beautiful, ranging from the cash prize of $25 to auto accessories such as search lights, vapor plugs and many other accessories. It will pay you to come into the parade and make it a good one.

Remember the date, next Tuesday morning at Ten o'clock.

Herald Campaign Ends Tomorrow

The Sanford Herald will give away a Ford Roadster and six other prizes to the winning candidates in its prize campaign shortly after seven o'clock tomorrow night. The final vote will be secret as the ballot box has been sealed and locked and the key turned over to one of the judges. The ballot box will not be opened until the judges start the final count at seven o'clock Saturday night. The candidates may deposit their last subscriptions and money direct into the ballot box. In this way no one but each candidate will know what they deposit in the box to be counted by the judges.

Subscribers who have promised candidates their subscriptions should make good their promises by giving their subscription to the candidate or calling at the Herald office and paying for same. One more subscription may be the one your favorite candidate needs to win the prize he or she has been working for.

Candidates who have been promised subscriptions should call on those promises before it is too late. There will be no next week. Now is the time to cash every promise. Remember it is better to have too many votes than to lose the prize you are working for by not having enough.

Candidates, their friends, and the general public are invited to witness the final count of votes and awarding of the seven prizes, which will be made at The Herald office tomorrow night at seven o'clock.

BIG DISPLAY OF CELERY DURING FAIR

ROOM IN STONE GORE BLOCK WILL BE THE QUARTERS FOR EXHIBITS

The celery growers are requested to bring in one or two crates of celery to the display headquarters in the Stone Gore block on First street two doors south of the Abernathy store and place same on display. We want our visitors to see some real Sanford celery and the only way for them to see the real article fixed up in nice packages for the market is to get same on display during the celebration.

They can go out in the celery fields and see it growing but they can see it to better advantage and also see it after it is washed and placed in proper shape.

The people who come here want to see celery. They have all heard about celery and they expect to see it at its best. In order to show them their celery there will be a display of same at the headquarters building near where all the attractions are located and here on Saturday the prizes for the best celery will be given away. The farmers who bring in the celery will be repaid for their trouble if the celery is prime for the fertilizer firms will give away a ton of fertilizer and the agricultural dealers will help out with something that will benefit the farmers. This will not be a big county fair but it will do much toward stimulating interest in a fair next year and the display of vegetables and fruits and the display of the Wakefield Preserving Co. of Geneva will take the room very attractive.

The Woman's Club of Sanford will also serve light refreshments and lemonade and ice cream in the display room and have a place where the ladies can rest and enjoy themselves. This room will prove a very popular resort during the week.

City Election Opens

What promised to be a tame campaign for the position of aldermen of Sanford now unfolds into a lively campaign. A. D. Parrish had no more than shied his hat into the ring in Tuesday's paper than O. P. Herndon decided that it looked good to him and he announces in today's issue. Mr. Parrish is chief dispatcher for the A. C. L. and well known in the city. Mr. Herndon needs no introduction to the people having been raised here and is now proprietor of the Star Theatre. Both of them are young and energetic and that they will go some is conceded by all. There is a rumor that more candidates will offer before the gong rings for time.

Music Department Reception

Tuesday afternoon at the Woman's Club the Music Department will give its reception and program to the General Club. These annual department receptions are the social features of the club life that brings together its members on the plane of sociability and friendly intercourse. It is important that every member of the club should attend these general days and thereby show an interest in the welfare and work of the department entertaining. The occasion on Tuesday promises to be a delightful affair with its splendid program at which time Mrs. Lucille Aspinwall Takach will sing a group of songs written by a popular composer, Carrie Jacobs Bond and her charming compositions are favorites everywhere. Attention is called to the article in another column of The Herald on Carrie Jacobs Bond that will be of special interest to those who love music and her music. There is a grace and beauty, a tender melody in her songs that is very appealing. Every member of the club is urged to be present upon this occasion.

AUTO PARADE A FEASURE OF CELEBRATION

TWENTY-FIVE DOLLARS IN GOLD TO THE BEST DECORATED CAR

Like a snowball rolling down hill gathering more momentum and more snow every few feet is the Spring Festival and Celery Fair to be given here next week. Started with little enthusiasm and not much encouragement it has gained speed every day and every mail now brings the intelligence that people will be here from every section of Florida. The auto parade on Tuesday will be the opening feature and $25 in gold has been put up by the committee in charge for the handsomest decorated car in the parade.

Every lady in Sanford and half of the gentlemen should be in this parade—certainly all the good looking men ought to be there with their cars and get the ladies to ride with them.

Don't go to a great expense of time and trouble with your cars. We have the expert decorators here and there is plenty of material for those who are willing to make their own decorations. It is worth more than any money, time or expense for the public spirited people of Sanford to show the world that we have the automobiles and the spirit to decorate them. We can make this Spring Festival one of the events of the state each year if we will just get together on the subject of a fine auto parade. The great Flower Festival of the western states was started in this manner. Get busy and show the visitors what Sanford has in the way of cars, flowers and pretty girls.

The auto parade starts at 10:30 and the people of Sanford who are doing things will be seen in the parade with their cars. Are you one of them?

SOME ATTRACTIONS

The Spring Festival and Celery Fair Will Amuse the Crowd.

Aside from the local happenings at the Spring Fair and Festival next week the Majestic Shows who have been engaged to furnish the amusements will keep the crowds well entertained.

Among the new and novel entertainments will be "The Days of '49" which is something never pulled off here or anywhere in the state before. The Mable Mack's Mules is a novel feature and is nothing more than a bunch of cornfed mules that have been trained to do things that are almost human. They beat any trained horses that have ever been in the ring.

The Jackson Minstrels or Old Plantation Shows are away above the average and will not fail to please the people. Only the best in the business and nothing said or done to offend the most fastidious. The Rudliff Palace of Amusements will entertain you for some time and keep you guessing all the time.

The Smith Side Shows and Museum furnishes all the freaks that have not been corralled by any other aggregation and will amuse and instruct you.

Squash, the African pigmy is something that will more than entertain you and he is even better than the freakiest of the freaks.

Cisco, the Ape Man goes a long way to prove the Darwin theory and he is a study all to himself.

Tiney Small, the Midget is smaller than his name suggests.

Mitchell's Ten Thousand Dollar Merry Go Round will entertain the children and the grown folks.

The Palace of Mystery will prove very mysterious and yet it will be entertaining and keep you guessing. There are many others among the list, some of them of the very latest types and put on here for the first time, as the Majestic Shows are enroute north for the summer and will equip and outfit here with new shows.

COMMITTEES NAMED

Those Who Will Assist in Making The Festival a Success

At a meeting of the Semholz County Fair directors in the office of A. P. Connelly on Wednesday of this week it was decided to elect new officers to take charge of the Spring Festival and the following young and active men were elected: R. J. Holly, president, Schelle Maines, secretary and W. W. Abernathy, treasurer. These gentlemen will have entire charge of the big affair next week and want the cooperation of the citizens of Sanford in making it one of the best.

The following committee have been named to assist and as the time is short it is hoped that all of them will step to the work and not beg off on account of business. All of us have our business to attend to but the idea of bringing thousands of strangers to the city is certainly the business of the busiest business men of Sanford.

Committee on Celery Display, C. M. Berry, L. A. Brumley and Roy Symes.

Judges of Celery Display on Saturday, J. N. Whitner, G. W. Raton and George Hoy.

Committee on Fish Fry, A. B. Cameron, Joe Cameron, J. W. O. Singletary, F. A. Stone, A. V. French, James Hoolehan.

Progress in Southeast

Columbus, Ga., March 15.—The Industrial Index says in its issue for this week:

"Alabama has broken all February records for the production of pig iron. Construction details have been completed for the establishment at Savannah, Ga., of a sugar refinery with a daily capacity of 5,000 barrels by a company with capital stock of $3,500,000. A company is being incorporated in Savannah to build an extensive system of bonded warehouses and compresses. Another cotton mill at Columbus, Ga., will build an addition, the cost to be approximately $275,000. Plans are being prepared for a $1,000,000 estate at Palm Beach, Fla. Real estate transactions in a few days in Miami, Fla., amounted to nearly $1,000,000, many lots having been purchased as sites for fine winter homes. An 8-story office building is to be erected at Miami.

"Contracts are being awarded in Chattanooga, Tenn., for the establishment of a steel plant for a company with capital stock of $2,000,000. Contracts are being awarded in Chattanooga also for the erection of a 12-story office building to cost $400,000 or more.

"Pinellas county, Florida, has sold $715,000 of road bonds and will proceed immediately with the construction of 73 miles of brick paved highway for which a contract has been awarded.

"There is more activity in railway construction work and more railway extensions are being planned in the southeast than in a long time before. There is a large and constantly increasing volume of construction work and week after week more manufacturing plants are being established.

"These are some of the things that mark the rising tide of prosperity in the southeast.

"Among the items of construction work to be done, as reported this week, are:

"Apartment houses, Atlanta, Ga., two, St. Petersburg, two, Miami and West Palm Beach, Fla.; bridges, Beaufort county, South Carolina, and Wilkinson county, Ga.; church buildings, Brookhaven, Miss., Cochran and Ft. Valley, Ga., and McColl and Rock Hill, S. C.; clubhouses, Ft. NEW NAME FOR NEW ASSOCIATION

LADIES NAME THE NEW ORGANIZATION AND WERE WINNERS OF PRIZES

As was advertised and predicted in the columns of The Herald the Board of Directors of the Young Peoples Association sat at a Contest Committee Wednesday afternoon of this week. The especial purpose of the meeting of this contest committee was to determine the winners in the contest and to select a name from the hundred or more selections that were available to the committee. For the past two weeks—ever since the three valuable prizes were offered for the name of this club great interest has been taken in this contest. Never before have the ladies of Sanford taken such an interest in a matter that is vital to the very future of our fair Sanford. So great was the demonstration of interest, that it became necessary for Mr. Maines, the secretary to provide a small size clothes basket to keep the suggestions of the various aspirants to success in the contest, until the committee could sit and determine the winners.

Space will not permit a reproduction of the names that were suggested, and for that reason we state only the names that won prizes, together with the names of the young ladies who were declared the winners, and the names of the enterprising firms who were so generous in their offer of prizes. First prize was won by the suggestion of the name adopted by the committee, that of SANFORD PROGRESSIVE LEAGUE, this name being suggested by Mrs. Schelle Maines, first prize being a handsome portrait, size 8x10 offered by Phillips Studio. The second prize was won by Miss Annie Lee Caldwell, who suggested the name of the Greater Sanford Association. This prize, 100 engraved cards offered by the Herald Printing Co. Third prize went to Mrs. E. F. Lane, who suggested the name of Sanford Young People's Civic League. This prize, a crate of fine celery offered by the firm of Wm. Coulbourn Co., Inc.

The Sanford Progressive League has been active for some time, under the names of the Parish House Club and of the Sanford Y. M. C. A., and has arranged to have quite an arrangement of gymnastic paraphernalia located at their headquarters in the Parish House in the very near future.

The physical committee of this League, which is composed of Mr. W. E. Coulbourn, Mr. H. C. Phillips and Mr. H. C. Hutchinson have been untiring in their efforts to produce a satisfactory gymnasium, and from all reports they have met and are to meet with untold success, and the people of Sanford are to have the benefit of one of the very finest gymnasia and reading rooms in this portion of the state.

Let the people of Sanford realize that all the Sanford Progressive League asks of them is patronage and the financial support that is needed will be forthcoming without any drawback whatsoever.

Fla.; school building, Albany, Ga., and addition, Columbus, Ga.; roads, Houston county, Ala., and Lowndes and Winston counties, Miss.; street improvement, Fairhope, Ala.; warehouse, Shortleaf, Ala.; waterworks extension, Boyle, Miss.

"Construction contracts have been awarded as follows:

"Apartment houses, Macon, Ga.; bridges, Arcadia, Fla., Palm Beach county, Fla.; church building, Adel, Ga.; compress building, Augusta, Ga.; cold storage plant, Clarksdale, Miss.; garage buildings, Bethune, S. C., and Huntsville, Ala.; fire stations, Bay Minette, Ala.; factory building, Durham, N. C.; courthouse, Lafayette, Ga.; paving, St. Petersburg and West Palm Beach, Fla., and Vicksburg, Miss.; school buildings, Clarksdale, Miss., and Lake Helen and Seabreeze, Miss.; roads, Lowndes county, Miss., Palm Beach county, Fla., and Wilcox county, Ala.; theater building, Columbus, Ga.
