Train Derailment Attempt Probed

By BILL SCOTT

The attempted derailment of a Seaboard Coast Line train by placing three barricades on the railroad tracks just south of Lake Mary Boulevard is receiving the attention of the sheriff's department.

Chief Deputy Duane Harrell said today that somebody was trying to wreck the train and he believed juveniles were involved in the placing of wooden barricades on the track.

Sheriff's investigators made three trips to the railroad crossing during the weekend to remove the barriers that were placed across the tracks and, according to Deputy E. H. Standley, one subject was seen to run from the scene after county authorities arrived.

Harrell said Standley's car received front end damage because of the barricades. Deputy Standley, in his report, stated that someone had shot at the train during the course of the harassment.

Harrell pointed out that in the latest attempt a large metal door was also used in the barricades and that a finger print was obtained.

He said county investigators are working to determine the identity of suspects and explained that the persons responsible for the actions may be guilty of felonies.

In a separate county report, Det. Sgt. Tony Cangeloso is investigating the opening of a grave located at the county cemetery.

Investigators were called to the location, just off Highway 17-92 near the junior college, to examine the reported removal of dirt from over a box, which apparently contains a body.

The number of the grave was listed as 89 but there was no immediate determination that the box had been opened or whether there was tampering with the remains.

On this same night, bring on the Champagne Ball, 100... (after attending the game, that is...)

The game's in Orlando and the victory celebration right here in Sanford. See Doris Williams' society pages tomorrow about a special arrangement for those planning on going to the game first, and then coming to town to do some 'appin' and stuff.

By the way, there was a group of us who were planning on having a meeting here at The Herald tomorrow evening... about a special site for the gridders, and even some trophies, etc.

After talking with Floyd Lay, Executive Secretary for the Florida High School Activities Association... forget it, fanst!

A banquet for the kids... that's O.K. But anything more like trophies or sweaters or jackets... no dice.

So, that meeting for tomorrow is all off. I do know, in talking with the folks at the high school that they're making plans for a football banquet later on.

Funniest crack I've heard in a long while... told by a Catholic (so, no offense intended)... "It's been a terrible week for the Catholics, hasn't it? First, there's an attempt on the Pope's life in the Philippines... and then The Fightin' Irish of Notre Dame get it socked-to-'em by Southern California."

Give us another two or three weeks, and I'll be able to report to you on the "inside-side" of the Democratic Party... and what's in store for us according to the plans taking place in the Washington circles.

A fire-side visit with a VIP from the nation's capital being set-up for us by John Woodhouse... should be interesting, to say the least.

Anybody have a spare "Spanish Made Easy" booklet? After all, when that coup to oust Fony Fidel from Cuba is launched... and if I'm going to interview some of the new leaders... well!

I bet, how can I go wrong by smiling and saying, "Buenos dias, Senor?"

ANSWER - A slap in the face if you happen to be looking at Senors and call her Senor, amigo!

Altamonte Council Delays Meet Again

By MARION BETHEA

ALTAMONTE SPRINGS - The almost continual problem of City Council members being absent has necessitated the continuation of tomorrow's meeting until Dec. 8 at 4:30 p.m. According to Administrative Assistant Rolf Wagner, the meeting was cancelled because of lack of a quorum.

Scheduled on the agenda from the Nov. 17 meeting was a discussion upon an ordinance annexing the Cross-County financial district. Opposition to the annexation was expressed by Mrs. William Burdette, representing the League of Women Voters, was also told that she would be placed on the agenda for the next meeting, and presumably will do so on Dec. 8.

The assessment roll for the paving and draining of First Street was to be considered tomorrow relative to a review by the city's consulting engineering firm of Glace and Radcliffe. Residents appeared on Nov. 17 to state that the assessments are inequitable in that many contributions were not included in the assessment, while conversely some were assessed who did not live on the street.

Swafford agreed that there might be some disparity and requested the review by the firm, although residents asked that another firm perform the review, since they felt that Glace and Radcliffe would not "admit mistakes."

Councilman Dan Dorfman contended that he would rather see a watershed district and could not justify "taxing people who live 200 feet up another street. Presumably the review will also be made on Dec. 8.

2 Robberies Probed; Fire Loss At $4,000

Two armed robberies, a barn burning and the arrest of a Sanford man on traffic and drug charges highlighted this weekend's crime reports at Sanford police and Seminole sheriff's department.

The 7-11 convenience store at Park Avenue and 12th Street was robbed of an estimated $76 Sunday by three men, one wearing a pistol.

Det. Roy Williams reported three men, described as black and wearing blue work clothes, came into the store and took the money from Mrs. Irene Frenier, the cashier. They reportedly made their escape on foot.

County investigators are probing the robbery of the Eastern Oil Station on SR 436 in Altamonte Springs by two men, who slugged the attendant over the head and took a total of $140.

Fred Demorandille, the attendant, said the men took $50 from the station's cash drawer and another $60 from his pockets after first striking him on the head when his attention was diverted by one of the men who asked for a package of cigarettes.

Deputy Steve Willis investigated the report and stated the men left the area walking, according to the attendant.

A barn and its contents worth approximately $4,000 was burned Sunday, according to sheriff's reports.

The barn, located in an orange grove on South Cameron Avenue, quarter mile south of SR 46 east, belonged to Robert Partin, 1520 Howell Branch Road, according to report filed by Deputy Charles Gilbert. The barn contained a number of pipes and two pumps and other items.

Deputy Gilbert quoted Thomas L. Sullivan, who lives near the area, that he heard what sounded like a truck stuck in the mud before spotting the blaze.

Patrolman Gary Swain and Det. William Foster early today arrested a Sanford man on a total of four charges, including carrying a concealed weapon, possession of central nervous system stimulants, driving while intoxicated and reckless driving.

John Alfred Hansen, 37, of 2412 Decettes Avenue, was lodged in jail in lieu of a $500 bond on all charges after police stopped his car.

According to police reports, the man wore a revolver in a holster and had in his possession six capsules, some of them containing amphetamines.

Food Stamps Go On Sale Wednesday

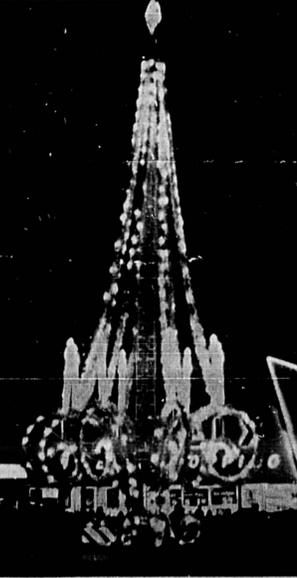

The Seminole County food stamp office will begin to issue food stamps on Wednesday.

All those who have been approved for the program and who have received their identification cards may pick up their food coupons at the food stamp office located on Highway 17-92 behind the Agril-Center building on Wednesday or any day thereafter.

Food stamps will be issued between the hours of 9:30 a.m. and 5 p.m., Monday through Friday.

Low income families of Seminole County who have not yet applied for food stamps may do so at the food stamp office between the hours of 8:15 a.m. and 4:30 p.m.

When making application remember to bring written proof of income and written proof of current payments for rent, mortgage, utilities, medical bills, fire insurance, and any resources such as bank checking or savings account.

County Ponders Budget Request

County Commissioners face a relatively light agenda at tomorrow's meeting. In addition to routine reports, only three items are scheduled for consideration.

A discussion will be held regarding the contract the county has with the Mental Health Association. The association had made an initial request for funding from the county in the amount of $15,000. A similar figure had been appropriated by the School Board and matching funds were available from the state. The county, however, authorized only a four-month contract in July, which expired at the close of the county's fiscal year in October. The association has requested a contract for the next fiscal year in the amount of $15,000.

Commissioners will make a decision regarding signs for recreational facilities at various county schools. The county has been erecting these facilities at the schools upon a four year program, which are available to the general public after school hours and on week ends. It was felt that many persons do not avail themselves of these facilities since they are unaware of the hours. Therefore the signs will designate the hours.

The maintenance department had earlier provided the commission with two figures for the cost of the signs. Metal signs would necessitate an expenditure of $1,200 and wood signs would cost approximately $400. The commissioners, tomorrow, will decide upon the erection and type of signs.

Reviewers on New Year's Eve possibly will find satisfaction in the fact that consideration will be given to extension of the closing hours of bistros from the present 2 a.m. to 3 a.m.

Three public hearings, all appeals against decisions of the Board of Adjustment, are scheduled.

The first hearing is against the decision of the Adjustment Board in granting a trailer program, which are available (Continued on Page 2A, Col. 9)

Ike's Action Lauded By Khrushchev

NEW YORK (AP)—The second installment of Nikita S. Khrushchev's reminiscences says that if Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower hadn't let the Russians take Berlin in 1945, the Soviet position in postwar Europe "might have turned out quite a bit worse."

The installment published in the Dec. 4 issue of Life magazine says Stalin had a great respect for Eisenhower's "decency, generosity and civility" and enjoyed a rapport with him that the Soviet dictator had with no other allied leader except President Franklin D. Roosevelt.

"Stalin said that if it hadn't been for Eisenhower, we wouldn't have succeeded in capturing Berlin," the article says. "The Americans could have been there first. Eisenhower held his troops back and halted their offensive, thus allowing our troops to take Berlin."

"If he hadn't done this, the question of Germany might have been decided differently and our own position might have turned out quite a bit worse."

As the German army was being crunched between the Americans and British on the west and the Soviets on the east, the article continues, "they moved west to surrender to the Americans. Stalin addressed himself to Eisenhower, saying that Soviet troops had shed their blood to crush the Germans and now the Germans were surrendering to the Americans."

"Eisenhower ordered the commander of the German army to surrender to the Russians."

Khrushchev said it was "difficult to judge what the intentions of the Allies were toward the end of the war. I wouldn't exclude the possibility that they desire to prosecute an assault on Hitler's Western Front was dictated by their desire to put a still greater burden on the shoulders of the Soviet Union and to bleed us even more."

The Western Allies were certainly not interested in strengthening us England and America, from their class positions, knew they had to help us to an extent, but they still wanted the Soviet Union to be considerably weaker after the war so that they could dictate their will to us.

"Nevertheless, we must still give credit to the Allies for their contribution to the common cause."

Sanford Youth Wins High 4-H Honors

David Fauver '67 of Sanford, who is already in business with his father while still a high school junior, won a certificate of merit as this year's state 4-H field crops champion.

DAVID FAUVER

Fauver's certificate as well as a county medal came from American Products, Inc., sponsor of the program. The company also provides $500 scholarships for four national winners selected on the national level.

"The son of Mr. and Mrs. D. Harold Fauver, he plans an agri-business career. He has been improving midland as well as helping his father raise sorghum, soybeans and other crops. They have also earned a substantial amount by doing custom harvesting for other growers."

Another state 4-H winner from central Florida is Richard J. Du Charme, 16, of Lakeland, whose public speaking efforts won him a $50 U. S. Savings Bond as top boy 4-H speaker in the state. He is one of three children of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Du Charme, he is a high school freshman.

His public speaking is just one area of an active 4-H endeavor. The bond was donated by Union Oil Company of California.

Seeks To Stabilize Economy Nixon Ready To Act On Inflation Moves

By MIKE SRANAHAN Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Nixon, while not presenting evidence of a queasy economy, will gently but firmly nudge labor unions and big business toward more moderate demands and prices, sources say.

In an inflation alert to be released this week, the President reportedly will urge investment in extra costs on to consumers, as did GM in announcing price increases for its 1971 model cars.

At the White House last week, presidential press secretary Ronald L. Ziegler had said the new alert will be tougher on what the administration believes are excessive wage and price hikes.

Talking about the largest increase in consumer prices registered in six months, Ziegler said, "We will have to intensify our efforts to deal with this matter."

But the sources said Nixon is not applying direct pressure or persuasion or setting voluntary wage-price guidelines as was done in the Johnson and Kennedy administrations.

The inflation alert comes as Nixon worries about inflation factors, including:

—The new three-year GM-UAW pact providing first year wage increases of between 4 1/2 and 5 cents hourly and a 3 percent increase and a 3 percent increase in the second and third years. Average hourly pay under the old contract was $4.62.

—Though the negotiators for the UAW and Ford Motor Co. claim the union's history of settlement before a strike deadline next Monday, the resulting contract would be at least $1.00 an hour, a 10 percent increase for each firm.

—United Steelworkers President I. W. Abel has put the steel industry on notice he will seek a "very substantial" pay hike as well as the first cost of living clause in the union's history. Talks with the nation's No. 1 steel maker, U.S. Steel Corp., began last year.

—The Labor Day agreement said Sunday's 40-hour work week and police patrolmen has increased by 9 per cent over the last year.

—The department also provided "recent break-in" evidence of the effect of the GM strike. It said there were 10 million man-days lost in October, the highest figure for a comparable period in 10 years. Some 7 million of the lost days were accountable to the GM walkout.

Jetfighter Slams Red Gun Post

By BERT W. OKULEY

SANIGON (UPI)—A U.S. Air Force jet fighter bomber opened fire on a North Vietnamese gun position north of the Demilitarized Zone (DMZ) today in the first such incident since the intense American bombing strikes in the north Nov. 22.

The U.S. Command said the F105 Wild Weasel jet was fired on from a radar-controlled anti-aircraft position 5 1/2 miles north of the DMZ and near the Laotian border.

"The pilot expended his ordnance (opened fire) with unknown results," the command said of the attack.

"There was no damage to U.S. aircraft. As the command has stated, previous reaction is the inherent right of self-defense."

The U.S. Command also reported a surge in fighting involving American troops over the weekend in South Vietnam. At least three GIs were killed and 24 wounded in scattered ground actions.

South Vietnamese infantrymen and militia operating in an area of Binh Triung Province 116 miles east-southeast of Saigon reported killing 41 Viet Cong and North Vietnamese troops. Sunday. Among the Communist troops killed was a company commander and the Saigon government said a Communist "political commissar" was taken prisoner.

The South Vietnamese lost two dead and nine wounded.

Communications from Pnom Penh said there appeared no imminent threat of a North Vietnamese attack against the capital but it was "possible some enemy reconnaissance elements have entered the city."

NEW YORK (AP)—News-caster Harry Reasoner will leave the Columbia Broadcasting System to become New York anchorman for the American Broadcasting Co.'s evening news program, industry sources say.

The sources said the present ABC New York anchorman, Frank Reynolds, would become a network special correspondent.

There was no comment on the report from ABC or Reasoner, but a CBS spokesman noted that his contract expired Nov. 14. "Mr. Reasoner has entered into serious negotiations with another network's news division."

Charter Review Session

NORTH ORLANDO—A meeting of the charter review committee will be held at Village Hall tonight at 7:30 p. m.

Although only two names were submitted for the position of council members and only two persons among the many to whom letters were sent formally indicated that they would accept membership, the committee has reached the desired 14 member count. Village Attorney Thomas Freeman is also to be on hand for legal advice.

At the meeting tonight a chairman will be elected and consideration will be given to charter requirements of other elected officers and council members.

Drafting of the new charter for consideration by the Orange-Seminole legislative delegation has been set for early February since Freeman told the council.

"Drafting of the initial draft of all local legislation which is submitted to the county by the middle of February," he suggested that the committee meet once weekly.

Casselberry Election Set Tuesday

By JANE CASSELLBERRY

CASSELLBERRY—Residents go to the polls Tuesday to elect three councilmen. Seven candidates have filed for the seats, including Richard Wirt and Thomas Napier, who had resigned to run for county offices.

Other candidates include Harry Sambrook, Owen Sheppard, Don Wilton, John Lighty and William Franklin.

Wirt, who is in the construction business, lives at 1 South Lake Howell Road. He has served on the council for two years and prior to that on the zoning board of which he was chairman. He also served on the lighting commission and charter commission. His theme for the next two years if elected is "growth and prosperity for everybody." Casselberry has served on the zoning, legislative and monetary gains than ever before in the past two years. Wirt said, and it is no longer the little retirement community, but a rapid growing municipality with enormous growing pains.

Napier, who lives on Northmoor Road with his wife and two daughters, is employed by Martin-Marietta. He is the recipient of the South Seminole 25-year "Good Government Award." He is opposed to an increased city budget and ad valorem taxes. He is in favor of proper zoning in residential areas, a street paving program, and improved water and sewage services.

Sheppard lives at 380 South Triplett Drive with his wife and two children, and operates a business in Howell Park, where he sells gift items and manufactures brass plaques. He moved to Casselberry a year and a half ago from Norfolk, Va., after resigning from the U.S. Army with 23 years service. Sheppard stated "In that we are certainly not going to successfully deter the county to effectively control the City of Casselberry, I desire to apply my administrative abilities in behalf of our citizens and municipalities which possess the same and guide that progress so that we may all derive from its full potential benefits."

Franklin is owner and manager of the Storybook School and Storybook Village. He came here three and a half years ago from Kansas City, Mo., and lives on Northeast Triplett Drive with his wife and four children. He is running for council as he feels that the people are not being properly represented. "Too many people in responsible positions are acting clearly in conflict of interest," he said. Proper knowledge of the city charter is important for councilmen, he pointed out.

of Adjustment had granted the exception based upon only a verbal agreement of the reclamation plan, where as the county regulations stipulated that the reclamation plan be specifically outlined.

David Gardner contended that the borrow pit was an "eyesore" on I-4 and that the county should not be interested in "fast buck operators."

David further maintained that the borrow pit should be in an isolated area, and that roads would be damaged by the heavy trucks. Mack Cleveland representing the applicant said that a reclamation plan would be presented to the county and that the roads would be restored to better than original conditions.

Modern Thief Flies Off In $250,000 Turboprop

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP)—The FBI is hunting a young, red-haired airplane thief who stole a plane in Jacksonville, landed at Grand Turk Island and Caracas, Venezuela, while looking for Puerto Rico and finally reached San Juan with help from the U.S. Air Force.

The $250,000 twin-engine Piper Navajo turboprop, being sold by the Lehigh Cement Co., was stolen from Jacksonville airport Friday, but not even the people manufacturing it at the time knew he was stealing it.

Sherrell D. Roberts, pilot of the company plane, said the young thief showed up to look at the aircraft, said he liked what he saw and told a salesman he'd be back later.

Later, a man called at Kaman Co., which runs the ground operations at the airport, told them he was an airplane broker and that the red-haired man had bought the plane.

A few hours after that, the red head called and asked Kaman to pick him up at the airport terminal and take him to his new craft.

AirKaman obliged, the man cranked up his plane and it disappeared into the sunset.

He next appeared at Fort Lauderdale, where authorities said he bought gasoline with a bogus credit card and filed a bogus credit card and a stolen plane.

Robert Ball Takes Over Western Auto On 1st St.

By LARRY NEELY

One of the newest faces on the Sanford business scene is that of Robert Ball. A former National Cash Register sales executive, Ball recently assumed ownership of the Western Auto Store on First Street.

Born in Zephyrhills, Ball likes to call Virginia his home and for the past 22 years he has been doing sales and service for NCR. Ball, his wife and two of his three sons will shortly make Sanford their new home.

The Western Auto Store currently employs five people, but Ball said his family will bolster the staff in the near future.

A complete line of large and small appliances are available at the local WA store. Ball noted that few people realize that Western Auto is the largest retailer of refrigerators and freezers in the country and ranks one, two and three in almost every major appliance line.

In addition to the appliance line, the automotive shop at Western Auto features many types of service ranging from brake work and wheel alignment to tune-ups and battery repairs.

High Role Of Architect — John A. Burton IV

Inscribed in St. Paul's Cathedral, London, stands this writing: "Si monumentum requiris circumspice." It is the tribute to the great English architect Sir Christopher Wren from his son: "If you would see the man's monument, look around!"

How apt does this saying apply to John A. Burton, IV, whose untimely passing not only is a tragic loss to Sanford Seminoles, but brings into sharp focus the major role played by the architect in a growing community, state or nation.

There is no area of human activity where the Burton excellence in architecture is not to be seen and appreciated. His monuments indeed require the "look around" approach. Listing the number of school buildings where his skill along these lines is shown would include every type of educational institution.

Today one of them most illustrative is rising on the campus of Seminole Junior College. Not only is this pleasing to the eye, even of the uninitiated, but its practicality becomes more apparent as the construction proceeds.

"Bait And Switch"

State Atty. Gen. Robert Morgan announced campaign to embarrass "bait and switch" advertisers should serve to discourage the practice and to protect consumers occasionally gullible by it.

The attorney general said he had received numerous complaints from over the state, in about this deceptive practice. And he has warned that in the future he will publicly identify those who engage in it.

Essentially, "bait and switch" amounts to advertising goods that a seller does not have or does not really intend to sell. The purpose is to bait people to a possible bargain and then switch them to higher priced goods.

To The Point

Sen. Stephen Young, that crusty congressional curmudgeon known for his candid, pithy and sometimes barbed comment of letter-writing constituents, is up to his old tricks again.

Reds Chip Away At West Berlin

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — Though the pace of meetings has been stepped up since summer, the four-power talks over Berlin are going nowhere. Freedom of contact has expanded a brutally rigid Soviet posture.

The stakes are very high. West German Chancellor Willy Brandt has asserted that success in these talks is a prerequisite to ratification by his country of the 1970 Bonn-Moscow pact renouncing use of force and recognizing the Oder-Neisse line as the German-Polish border.

Brandt tied ratification to the four-power talks when premature disclosure of the original treaty made it plain his government was preparing to give much but get almost nothing in return from the Soviet Union.

Timely Quotes

—Eddie Rickenbacker, on his free press is not that it is accurate, though it must try to be; not that it even be fair, though it must try to be that; but that it be free. And that means, in the first instance, freedom from any and all attempts by the power of government to coerce it or intimidate it or police it in anyway.

Pope Paul Visits Australia On Tour

By HARRY JAMES
 SYDNEY, Australia (UPI)—Pope Paul VI, ignoring strict security precautions brought about by an attempt on his life, waded into an airport crowd today to shake hands and offer his blessing.

The 73-year-old pontiff arrived at Sydney's Mascot Airport about the special yellow and white "Welcome Wagon" after a flight from Los Angeles, Western Samoa. Australia is the third leg of his nine-day Asian and Pacific trip—the longest ever by a Pope.

There were only 3,000 persons at the airport to greet him—the expected 25,000. Officials said estimates of high crowds plus strict security measure probably frightened off a number of Australians who might otherwise have attended.

Security precautions were tightened after Bolivian painter attempted to stab Pope Paul when he arrived in Manila Friday morning. The pontiff was not harmed.

The Pope, after shaking hands with Governor General Sir Paul Hasluck and exchanging greetings with Australian Prime Minister John G. Gorton, walked up to barriers set up to hold back the crowd. When he noted the enthusiasm he walked into the crowd offering his blessing, shaking hands and smiling amiably.

He then left on the 7.3 mile drive into Sydney riding in the "Welcome Wagon" that British Queen Elizabeth used on her Australian tour in June.

In a speech during the three-hour visit in Western Samoa, the Pope addressed himself to the need for more missionaries in such far-flung places. He also celebrated mass under a small, thatched canopy in front of a white and blue mission church.

After the mass, Tanumafili Malietoa II, the Western Samoa head of state, presented the Pope with a "fly whisk" and a heavy staff, the symbols of authority in Samoa.

Crowds remained at a respectful distance during the trip and the nation's entire 50-man police force which had been called out hardly was

Pilot Ignorant Of Fatal Crash Cause

By JACK MAYNE
 Associated Press Writer
 ANCHORAGE, Alaska (AP)—A federal official says the pilot of a military charter plane has been unable to tell investigators what caused the DC-9 jet to crash on takeoff, killing 47 of the 229 persons on board.

"The pilot doesn't know what happened," said Rudolf Kapustin, who heads the eight-man National Transportation Safety Board—NTSB—team investigating the Friday night crash.

Kapustin said interviews with the crew confirmed earlier reports the plane was slow to accelerate.

Ivan R. Stracenter, supervisory air safety investigator for the NTSB, said pieces of the plane's tires were found at intervals from the beginning of the runway.

Stracenter said that when the plane's engines were brought up to full power prior to takeoff, the craft could have gotten underway by sliding on the icy runway with its wheels locked.

Pilot Ignorant Of Fatal Crash Cause

Whether there is no evidence at this time that the brakes were locked and there is no evidence at this time of fire prior to breaking of the aircraft," Kapustin said. He said Reid described the takeoff as normal.

Dear Abby: By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: Something happened in this town which I think should be advertised, nationwide. An elderly gentleman who lived alone in a hotel room died, and in his will he left a lot of money to a waitress. He said she had waited on him with a smile even though he never left a big tip. In fact, he said there were times when he didn't leave a tip at all, but she still gave him wonderful service.

So, please tell waiters and waitresses that this should be a lesson to them. They should give good service, with a smile, whether the person is a good tipper or not, because some folks don't tip, but they're living, but they leave a lot in their will. DALLAS

DEAR DALLAS: What you say may be true, but that's a long time to wait for a tip. DEAR ABBY: Your cold doesn't seem to be going away. Thanks to me and my "Mother" prompts this letter to tell you how wrong you are. Don't you realize that the trouble with colds is that people today is that they think their lives are their "own" and they don't owe anybody—including their parents—anything?

Parents spend thousands of dollars and roughly 20 years of their lives on raising a child. Do you think they are entitled to a little thanks? I work with high school girls, and when one of them gripes to me about her mother, I tell her to take a large piece of paper and draw a line down the center, and on one side she write "Things My Mother Does For Me" and on the other side, "Things I Do For My Mother."

Needless to say, the result is rather lopsided. After that, I don't hear any more gripes from that girl about "Mother." SOUTH GATE, CALIF. DEAR SOUTH: Rearing children is a responsibility parents ask for when they become parents themselves. No parent expects his child to "do" as much for him as he has done for his child. But when children grow up and choose to become parents themselves, they will in turn do for their children what their parents did for them. And if parents expect "thanks" for rearing children who came into the world because they wanted a family—thanks on them.

DEAR ABBY: I have a problem. I have a girl friend I'll call Terry who broke up with her boyfriend Bill and she's been calling me but I don't dare go out with her because I know Terry will feel hurt if she finds out I'm going out with her. I would like to go out with Terry, but knowing how Bill feels about it, I can't bring myself to do it. Pete thinks I am being very foolish because he was completely finished with Terry before she broke up with him. I'm tempted to call her. Also, I never did one thing to attract his attention before or after they broke up. Can you give me any advice? TEMPTED

DEAR TEMPTED: I think you're foolish, too. If your conscience is clear, go out with her. What's your problem? You'll feel better if you get it off your chest. Write to ABBY, Box 49700, Los Angeles, Cal. 90069. For a personal reply enclose stamped, addressed envelope.

DEAR POLLY:—This is for Jackie who has trouble with the drawers in his newly painted dresser sticking. We refused to furnish all the time. To keep drawers from sticking, we rub either a bar of hand soap or a piece of paraffin wax along the areas that stick (both the drawer and the glider strip) and then they slide quite easily. I also did this on the door of the door to our baby's room which used to crack every time I opened it.—Mrs. E. G. E.

DEAR POLLY:—This is for Jackie who has trouble with the drawers in his newly painted dresser sticking. We refused to furnish all the time. To keep drawers from sticking, we rub either a bar of hand soap or a piece of paraffin wax along the areas that stick (both the drawer and the glider strip) and then they slide quite easily. I also did this on the door of the door to our baby's room which used to crack every time I opened it.—Mrs. E. G. E.

We The Women: By Betty Canary

Down at the Antarctic Circle they're advertising automated life-size penguins that catch their own fish. (Only $39.95. With top hat and cane, $41.95.) There's no point in waving your arms and trading on and on about advertising. And the blabbering of children. Advertisers is with us and you'll have to live with it. Unless, that is, you've chosen packing up and leaving for the Antarctic. I do hope I've caught you before you've done much and passed baggage.

If my information is correct, I'm not sure how we became a generation of parents whose children used to be assured of a talking robot under every bed and two Barbie in every dresser drawer. Sociologists tell us it's a hangup from being reared during the depression years. Other theorists heap all the blame on Madison Avenue.

Not being an expert, I was inclined to blame myself. I wandered thoughtfully one day over the layers of broken toys in my children's bedrooms.

How we got into this give-and-take atmosphere (we give and the take) probably isn't as important as deciding just how we can escape it.

One might start by sitting down with older children and discussing how many working hours it takes to purchase one toy. With younger children a brief session during which father explains he has had a note from Santa Claus might do.

My main concern some years ago was that my children were developing middle-age spread from sitting and watching television activities. I told them bluntly I didn't want to be surrounded by a lot of inactive children and a bunch of healthy toys. That's the year they all could see snakes and swim fins under the trees.

Team Starts Without Gridders

New Faces Highlight Seminole High Basketball

By GARY TAYLOR
Herald Sports Editor

There will be some new faces on the court tomorrow night as the Sanford Seminoles trek to Longwood to take on the Lyman Greyhounds in the season opener for both basketball squads. But the night's action at Seminole hasn't come to an end yet, and coach Joe Mills will find himself without his two returnees, plus some other graders expected to play key roles in the Seminole attack.

The varsity tilt begins at 8 p.m. with the JV tilt at 6:30 p.m.

Tommy Barks and Tommy Whigham are the only two starters returning, and both are on the SHS football squad. They will miss the first three tilts of the season. Clifford Martin, a possible candidate for the center position and John Daniels, both of whom played for Cross last year, will also be on the team at the conclusion of the football season.

The juniors will be in the starting lineup for the Seminoles tomorrow night. At the two forward positions will be Greg Mitchell and Ricky Grant. Mitchell is 6 feet, while Grant is 6-foot-11.

Ricky Smith, 5-foot-10 and John Bertrang, also 5-foot-10, have nailed down the starting assignments at guards. Wes Louwsma, a 6-foot-1 transfer student from Michigan, is expected to play at center for the Tribe.

The Seminoles have 6-foot-4 David Gaines who can also be called on at the center slot.

Seniors Barks and Whigham are 5-foot-10 and 6-foot-1, while Martin and Daniels are 6-foot-3 and 6-foot-2. Dallas Brown, 6-foot-1, and Richard Settle, 6-foot-2, are football players expected to come out for the four team. They both started for the junior varsity last year.

On the other hand, the Greyhounds will have their team at full strength, as their football season is over. Headlining the team is Paul Crouse, 6-foot-11 forward and Billy Means, 6-foot-10 center. Means is a 5-foot-11 forward and Rose is a 5-foot-9 guard.

But the key to that attack, Larry Kears, is now making points for the Seminole Junior College Raiders, and the new faces will have to take over. The Seminoles have a 25 game schedule ahead of them including a Christmas Tournament.

last year, but both were hard-fought battles which didn't come any too easy for the local quint. The Seminoles are coming off a record-setting season in which they posted 20 wins.

Florida's Football Fans Find Little To Cheer For

By R. E. PORTER
Special Correspondent

Well, how did your Monday morning quarterbacks come out on your games this week? Both Florida State Seminoles and the Florida Gators fans should have had a field day, what with the Tally Tribe taking a 28-12 lead to the half time dressing room, and then blowing the "cinch" 33-21. Houston racked up 41 second half points to the Seminoles zero.

The armchair quarterbacks watching the fray on TV, especially those in the Sanford area, did everything but call Coach Bill Peterson on the phone to tell him to change the lineup. It wasn't possible to know why, of course, but observers started calling after the second half, telling Coach Peterson that Warren, the "needle-threading" pass thrower had "gone wrong." The rifle-shot flaps that banged into the receiver with certainty suddenly were not in the repertoire. Instead, some of them were hanging like flies in a night bombing raid. Receivers had time to come yards to play the ball, where in the first two quarters they were "out of the play" if they were even ONE yard away from the receiver.

Next SHS Target: Edgewater Eagles

By GREY BOYLES
Herald Sports Staff

The "Year of the Shotgun" was just that as the Seminole Seminoles finished the regular season with a 10-0 record, the first ever for Seminole High. There were many factors in the "Year of the Shotgun." Among them, and most important, was the great team spirit and tireless hours on the practice field. The coaches worked together in great harmony and the student, faculty, and school leaders gave the team great support along with the tremendous support of the community.

The Seminoles have a wealth of senior leadership and there has always been someone to pick up the team when they were sluggish. Many school records were set by this year's edition of the Seminoles. It was Quarterback Tommy Barks 20 touchdown passes. The offense averaged over 40 points a game and the defense never allowed a drive for a touchdown in all ten games and only gave up two on the ground. Opponents gained only seven touchdowns all year by the average of 1.7 touchdowns per game.

The Seminoles have one more game and it is against the Edgewater Eagles this Saturday night in the Sentinel-Star Bowl to be played at the Tangerine Bowl at 7:30 p.m.

The Eagles of Edgewater are a powerful team with great team depth and experience. Coach Bob Dale appears to feel that it is a let down to face the Seminoles in a bowl game and flatly stated that the Eagles are ops in Central Florida and further stated that the Seminoles will really get hit in the first quarter of the game. This writer feels he may be in for a shock as it is apparent that he has never faced the Seminoles. The name of the game is hitting and on this score the Seminoles bow to no one. There is no doubt that the Eagles will be favored as they rank sixth in the polls while the Seminoles rank only 16th but Saturday night will prove who ranks where.

Move one win, along with the grandstand play-caller, to the closing minutes of the game. The ball in Florida's possession was on the 12 but about a half minute was all that was left on the clock.

And here's where even the signal callers in the stands were having trouble thinking up the winning play. "Pass to Durrance," came the cry. This short pitch, almost impossible to defend, had worked many times before. Maybe Dickey heard them. Anyway, that was the play. Tommy Durrance had it — and then dropped it! "Impossible! he never drops that pass!" But there was the ball back on the 15 yard line.

Now there WAS confusion in the signal callers on the 10 yard line seat! "Go right back with the same play. It worked just now, and Tommy will NEVER drop the ball the second time. He'll die to redeem that honor!"

But from other grandstand huddles came "Call that X type pass play. Carlos crossing and taking two defenders with him, light end crossing right behind him in the space just opened up by Alvarez' drive — and BOOM! a winner!"

Why, even some of the "old grads" went with the call that came on the field — kick that short field goal. "That line will hold a day. Jim Getzen will make 25 yards all day long. With that wall of granite up front that deadly toe, that short distance — what else could it be but a field goal to win?"

BUT — the kick didn't go. The ball was upright. The clock showed time for only one more play — and that one to be made by the Hurricanes who just wonched a game by kicking up one more tally in the win column.

Oh, in case there is any doubt, an entire game of some expert grandstand quarterbacking the games went into the records.

Tampa Defensive Back Just 'Does It For Mom'

By HERBERT MIZELL
Associated Press Sports Writer

TAMPA, Fla. (AP) — Tampa defensive assassin Sammy Gellerstedt harassed Florida A&M quarterback Steve Scruggs all night and then said his momma made him do it.

"I did it for mom," Gellerstedt explained. "She came to see me play against Vanderbilt and she wouldn't let me. She came back tonight. I had to do good."

The 200-pound Gellerstedt was tied up in Southeastern Conference red tape Nov. 21 when Vanderbilt edged the Spartans 26-28, the lone mar on Tampa's 1970 season.

Since Sammy had transferred from another SEC school, Alabama, he was kept in chains for the Commodore battle. Coach Fran Curci swears it cost Tampa the game.

Gellerstedt was back Saturday night and the Spartans closed their brilliant season by thrashing Florida A&M's proud haters 49-7 at Tampa Stadium.

Scruggs, a slender southpaw, hit Alfredo Sykes on a 79-yard bomb for the haters' only score. Gellerstedt kept him down the rest of the night.

"Gellerstedt is the only difference between Tampa this year and the Spartans we beat 28-28 last season," said Scruggs. "He kept me from getting set. Every time I looked around, there was No. 41 after me."

Offensively, the Tampa hero was — as usual — running phenom Leon "All the Way" McQuay. He romped for 150 yards in 23 carries and scored three touchdowns.

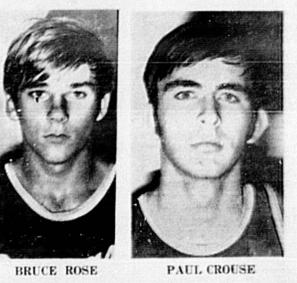

McQuay, a brilliant pro prospect, now has 3,044 career yards at Tampa with a season left to play.

Amid all the happiness of victory, Tampa followers wondered if the 23-year-old Curci would be back to coach Leon and the Spartans in 1971.

It's all rumor until now, but Miami is supposed to have high regard for Curci in the Hurricanes' search for a new head coach. Fran was a prep ace at Miami Curley High School and performed brilliantly as a Hurricane quarterback.

And, Curci's name may be injected into other situations where schools are seeking coaches — like Virginia and Virginia Tech.

New Coach For Lyman; Host Of Hounds Return

BRUCE ROSE PAUL CROUSE

By CLAY HARTSOE
Herald Sports Staff

Lyman's new head basketball coach, Bill Moore, will be trying to start a new trend in Greyhound basketball: winning. Lyman has had two straight losing seasons, 10-11 in 1968 and 7-13 in 1969.

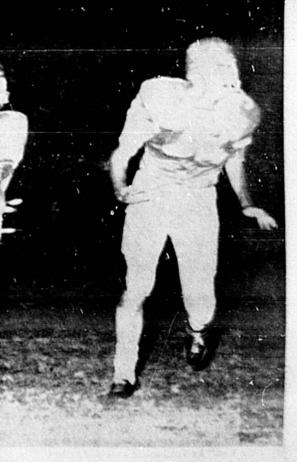

Moore has several things going for him in his first year. He will have seven letterman returning from last year's team, with most of them being starters last year. Returning lettermen are Paul Crouse (center), Ed Stafford (guard), Mike Funk (guard), Richard Dunn (forward), Billy Means (forward), Bruce Rose (guard), and Ray Smith (center). Two of the starting positions on this year's team will, however, be filled with transfer students. Steve Nelson comes from Largo, Fla. and will probably be starting at one of the guard spots. Rick Hunter comes from Ohio and will be starting at one of the forward positions.

The Hounds will be playing a full Metro schedule for the first time this year, and unlike the football team, will be eligible to win the Metro Crown. Moore may get his wish.

The Greyhounds will be trying to get on the right track tomorrow night when they face county arch-rival Sanford Seminoles.

Moore is hoping to get the Greyhounds back on the winning track this year, and keep them there. An unusual fact is that both his IV and sixth grade teams will have a greater average height than the varsity. With a little luck, Moore may get his wish.

Concerning Lyman's strong points Moore said, "We're not particularly tall, but we are quick. Due to our quickness we should be tough on defense. We may not win every game this year, but everyone we play will know they have been in a ball game." Moore added, "Although our overall height will not be that great, Crouse (6-

Bo Goaly Lacks Attention Despite

By BOB GREEN
HILLTOP HEAD ISLAND, S.C. (AP) — Bo Goaly won but for the third time in as many years—the attention centered elsewhere.

The stocky steady veteran won the 1968 Masters when Roberto de Vicenzo was disqualified from a tie for first by signing an incorrect scorecard, and de Vicenzo got the 1969 title.

Goaly won the 1969 Robinson Open, the same weekend that Lee Trevino blew a five stroke lead and Billy Casper won the rich Alcan.

Trevino-Casper-Alcan got the attention.

And Sunday the grey-eyed 39-year-old Goaly won by a final round 66, five under par on the double tough Harbor Town golf links, and finished with a 72 hole total of 206 for his 10th victory.

From then on, it was all Goaly. But it was the first time since Jim Grant took second in the 1964 Hartford Open that the amateur had finished so high in a regular tour event.

And there seemed to be little doubt that Withlens, who is attending school on a scholarship furnished by Arnold Palmer, will eventually, turn pro. He has a year to go in school.

UCLA Tops Voting In Cage Poll

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The No. 1 national ranking in college basketball is logical says Coach John Wooden who quickly adds: "Being evaluated on the top is nice, but only playing keeps them there."

The Associated Press' preseason poll Sunday of championship and sports writers nationwide made the Bruins, seeking an unprecedented fifth straight NCAA championship, the over-the-hill team in the new season that opens Tuesday.

"With four returning starters from our NCAA championship team of last year, it is logical we should be picked again. A number of other teams, however, are exceptionally strong but most years the vote will go to the defending champions," Wooden says.

"I'm very pleased with our poll but there is no way actually evaluating the comparative strengths of teams before they have been played."

NCAA playoff contests Friday night here against Baylor.

Twenty-two of 28 first-place votes and a total of 340 points went to the Bruins.

South Carolina is second with three votes for first and 274 points.

One first-place vote went to Kentucky, Marquette and Villanova.

Rounding out the Top Twenty, in order were Pennsylvania, Utah State, Duke, Kansas, New York University, North Carolina, North Carolina State, Western Kentucky, Western Kentucky and Drake.

Is Wooden concerned that such acclaim might make his team overconfident?

"I don't think so," he said. "Subconsciously, they might think they're the best, but being forewarned is being forearmed and I do everything in my power to forewarn them."

Sidney Wicks, a coach for 20 years, leads returning Bruins. UCLA has lost only four of its last 120 games and has won 24 straight NCAA playoff contests.

Rounding out the Top Ten here are Kentucky, Jacksonville, Notre Dame, Marquette, Southern California, Villanova, Western Kentucky and Drake.

63rd Yaw, No. 66 Price 10 Cents

By JOHN A. SPOLSKI

Those Tangerine Bowl tickets are going awfully fast, folks. Speaking of this Saturday night's head-bonking session between the Fighting Seminoles of Sanford and the Orlando Edgewater Eagles.

We'll be sitting across from the press box at the Tangerine Bowl... it's the East side. No doubt that there'll be a huge delegation in the thousands from Seminole County cheering on our boys.

And along about 10 p.m. . . . after we've won the game . . . look for a figure wearing a fur hat . . . crossing the field to serve "crow" to Coach Whatshinname.

We're not good enough to play against his boys, are we?

And then up to the press box for the second serving of "crow" . . . to a certain TV sportscaster, who while interviewing the aforementioned "Whatshinname" concluded the talk with, "Regardless of who you'll be playing, we hope you'll win!" (This was before the announcement that they'd met representing this district in the state play-off.)

Not just wishing him the best of luck, etc. . . . but that his team win! (Funny, but I thought that Channel 6 was designed to serve all of the many counties in Central Florida . . . and not be limited in its scope to that suburb south of Seminole County called Orlando???)

Oh well, time will tell . . .

About those duck hunting rules . . . "They're For The Birds!"

The only purpose they'll serve is to make most of us either quit hunting entirely, or else, break the law by shooting more ducks than the 90 points presently stipulated in the law to be his asstine to get up around 4 in the morning . . . go out and bring down one duck (some of which are worth 99 points each), and then be expected to retrieve your decoys, etc., and return home.

For the good of the sport . . . and the support of those hunters which the Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission will need in the future, then this law had better be repealed.

Secondly, if they really want to protect the ducks and the sport, then they'd do well to create a new law prohibiting air boats from the St. Johns River during hunting season. Not only are they completely destroying the natural feeding grounds and forcing the birds to evacuate the area with their reckless abandon to the sport generally, but many of these "culprits" have been seen to fire at the birds from their boats. A VIOLATION OF THE LAW IN TRIPLE!

Camel Bruce, supervisor of elections, called to tell us that the absentee ballots are available for those planning on using same for the upcoming Sanford City Elections.

It is better for one to do his own task as he may, even though he fail, than take tasks not his own, though they seem good.

Housing Complex For Elderly
Bram Towers Funding OK'd

By BILL SCOTT

A 14-story high-rise apartment building to be located in downtown Sanford has been funded for construction to be started within the next 90 days.

This was disclosed today by John Krider, board chairman of Bram Towers, and Rev. Loren D. Spicer, president of the elderly housing complex, named in honor of Bishop Martin J. Bram, of the South Florida Episcopal Diocese.

In a prepared statement delivered to news media by Krider, it was disclosed that the feasibility letter funding the $2.6 million project had been received from the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD).

Occupancy for qualified elderly in one of the 160 apartment units is expected to occur during the early part of 1972, according to the information contained in the news release.

Krider said the apartments is expected to range from $75 to $100 monthly with all utilities furnished to persons on a first come-first serve basis.

Additional equipment to be included in the complex will consist of refrigerators, stoves, kitchen exhaust fans, carpets and air-conditioning.

Combined Port Board Is Favored

At least one of the five Sanford City Commissioners favors combining the Seminole Port Authority with the proposed Sanford Airport Authority to form a joint air-river port operation with members appointed by both the city and county commissions.

City Commissioner Gordon Meyer said this morning, upon his return from a Monday visit to Jacksonville for a tour of combined air-sea port operations, that he believes a county-wide board for both ports would be good with a number of persons appointed by the city-county commissions to the authority board.

School Girl, 13, Is Raped

Sheriff's deputies today are probing the reported rape of a 13-year-old student of Sanford Middle School Monday afternoon.

County Depts. L. J. Kris and Tony Calogianis are investigating a report involving the girl, which was relayed to county authorities by Sanford police after it was determined the girl's father had no conclusion in a county patrol area off Grapeville Avenue.

According to Sanford Det. William Lykens, the girl telephoned her mother after a man followed her as she walked home from school.

The girl asked the mother to meet her on 10th Street but, when the woman arrived, her daughter was nowhere to be seen. According to reports of bystanders, the girl was pulled along by a heavy-set man who looked to be 20 years of age.

Lykens records indicated the woman's daughter had been missing an hour before she finally arrived home and told her mother she had been sexually abused. A doctor's examination determined that the girl had been sexually abused.

Lykens confirmed that the girl had identified the man who is reported to have molested her but, according to county authorities, the mother has not yet taken out a warrant.

Casselberry Is Looking To Future In New Laws

By KATHY NIBLACK

CASSELBERRY — Casselberry is moving day by day toward becoming a truly modern city, if the agenda of a public hearing held last night is any indication of things to come. The hearing was held to give citizens a chance to speak out on proposed ordinance changes which have been drawn up by the council.

A big step ecology-wise will be taken if the addition to the sanitation ordinance is adopted. This particular addition is concerned with the filtration of surface water in shopping center parking lots, and requires that this water be filtered through a rock purification system before it enters the city outfall waters.

This will curb to some extent the contamination of city water and sub-surface water by grease, oil, and other impure materials. The council also instructed Mayor Curtis Blow to look into the feasibility of the application of this legislation to subdivision drainage systems. The city is growing larger, and several things within the city are growing larger—or will be if several changes in the Zoning Ordinance are duly adopted. Several new changes were presented at last night's hearing. The council has suggested an amendment to the ordinance concerning the elimination of side setback requirements in C-1 commercial districts. The present requirement is that buildings be set back 7 1/2 feet from side lot lines.

This amendment, if adopted, will eliminate this setback, allowing the first occupant of a parcel of land to build up to his property line. The occupant adjacent to him, however, would be required to allow 48 inches between his building and the first for fire protection purposes.

ZONED DISTRICTS

Changes are also provided for on side setback requirements in R1AA (residential)

Killed In Building A School

By JANE CASSELBERRY

A Sanford resident, who died of a heart attack while preaching to a group of people in a church in Haiti, was buried Tuesday in La Victoire, a village 100 miles into the interior of Haiti.

Pastor Edward Blaine Schoolcraft, 77, of Riverview Avenue, Sanford, died Nov. 24 from a skull fracture and chest injuries three hours after he fell from a scaffold while finishing a school building.

The natives worked through-out the night to build his casket and carefully dug his grave between two trees outside his mission home. Thousands of the people who returned the love he had given them came through the night and the next day to pay their respects, bringing wreaths of native flowers, some having walked five hours.

A native pastor preached the funeral message and said other zoned districts. The proposed change increases the side setback from 7 1/2 feet to 10 feet in an effort to provide more open air breathing space, ecological and esthetic improvement. This change will only affect newly platted lots.

Also nearing adoption are changes in B1AA (residential) preachers Pastor Schoolcraft had trained served as pallbearers. They were joined by Catholic and Protestant missionaries in the area representing several nations.

Born in Iowa on Feb. 12, 1893, he served parishes in Spring Valley and Beaver, Mo.; Gravette, Ark.; Miami and Dewey, Okla., and Wichita, Kans., as a minister of the Church of God (Holiness) and was president of the board of directors of Gravette Bible School for 18 years. He also supervised for three years a Bible school near Phoenix, Ariz., before coming to Florida "to retire."
