WASHINGTON, Mar. 26.—The Senate today adopted a resolution to impeach Harry Sinclair, former secretary of the interior, for alleged negligence in the management of the national oil reserves.

COOLIDGE NAMES COMMISSION TO SAVE OIL SUPPLY

WASHINGTON, Mar. 26.—Appointment of a commission to ascertain the best means of conserving the nation's oil supply was announced Tuesday by President Coolidge.

The commission will be entrusted with review of the situation in each of the naval oil reserves and will ascertain whether it would be possible by assignment of additional public land, transfers, trades, purchases or otherwise to create larger or better protected reserves than at present.

The commission will consist of George Otis Smith, director of the geological survey; Rear Admiral Hilary P. Jones, U. S. N., president of the general board of the U. S. fleet; and D. B. Rush of the bureau of mineralogy of the state of California.

The president announced appointment of the commission in the following statement:

"The purpose for which the naval oil lands were set aside was to provide reserves for the future. In order to do this in the best manner the oil should be, wherever possible, retained in the ground. However, it should be retained in tanks above ground. This oil is an important part of the national inheritance.

"At the present rate of production there is estimated to be but 20 years of oil supply within the limits of the United States. When this is exhausted we will be dependent upon foreign sources for our supply. In time of war such supply will certainly be jeopardized, therefore, the navy has conservatively in this country sufficient oil wherewith to fight a war, our national security is seriously endangered.

"The general board of the navy, which has made a careful study of the problem of national defense, has recommended a presidential commission to give more careful study to the fuel question. In view of present conditions, I have decided to appoint this commission now. This commission will have the same access to data and information contained within the governmental department as was granted to the United States coal commission.

"This commission will have as its mission the general study of this problem, but specifically it will review the situation in each of the navy's reserves and endeavor to ascertain whether it will be possible by assignment of additional public land, transfers, purchases, or otherwise, to create larger or better protected reserves than those existing at present. This not only pertains to the United States proper, but, in addition, to such oil lands as might exist in Alaska.

EXPERTS CAN'T FIND BALES OF LOST COTTON

Committee Appointed by Hoover Report After Three Weeks' Work Elusive Bales Can't Be Found.

WASHINGTON, Mar. 26.—The special committee of statisticians appointed by Secretary Hoover to trail its last alleged discrepancy of 579,604 bales of cotton in the census bureau's annual supply and distribution report, has failed after three weeks' work to locate all of the elusive bales.

The committee, composed of B. W. Kilgore, dean of the North Carolina Agricultural College, Raleigh; L. J. Dublin, president of the American Statistical Association, New York; W. S. Rossiter, former president of the latter organization and W. F. Wilcox, professor of economics, Cornell University, reported Tuesday they found the cotton supply for the cotton year ending July 31, 1923, to have been 13,189,042 bales net, while the distribution was 13,536,510 bales, after making deductions for re-exported domestic cotton, bleshed linters exported as lint, and duplication in reports of mills and warehouses.

"The committee has been able to make material corrections in the August figures," the report said, "but a difference of 358,868 bales, about three-fifths of the original difference of 579,604 bales, remains unexplained. It is impossible to determine just how the understatment of stocks and carry-over at the beginning of the year or to further duplication in mill and warehouse stocks. The important point is not to bring this discrepancy between the figures of supply and demand into relief. The committee, therefore, recommends that in future statements of the census bureau no attempt be made to balance the figures of supply and distribution. The census bureau should issue figures which show the result of enumerations, avoiding estimates."

Disatisfaction with the report of the committee was expressed by Col. H. G. Hoster, secretary of the New Orleans cotton exchange, in a telegram to Senator Ransdell, Democrat of Louisiana. Col. Hoster said the south was entitled to a better explanation of the 358,868 bales discrepancy or else that quantity should be deducted from the country's statistical carry-over as of July 1, 1923.

Census bureau officials assisted the committee in its investigation in every way possible but they pointed out Tuesday they had nothing to do with the preparation of the committee's report. A statement was issued Tuesday night by Mr. Kilgore, head of the special committee taking up certain points raised by Col. Hoster. "The figures in the August 1923 census report referred to by Col. Hoster," Mr. Kilgore said, "were 579,000 bales entered in the part of the report containing the items of supply for cotton under the head 'to balance distribution.' These figures were reduced by the committee to 358,868 bales with the statement that they might contain further duplications or be subject to other corrections which the committee had not found in the time it had for the investigation. These 358,868 bales figures were transferred to the distribution part of the statement under the heading of excess of reported distribution over reported supply.

"The committee further reported as the result of its investigation that it considered the statistics reporting the supply of cotton more reliable than those for distribution because of the methods used in collecting the two sets of figures, thus placing somewhat more weight on the reliability of the statistics for supply. The committee fully realizes that the distribution cannot exceed the supply when two sets of figures are entirely accurate.

Revenue Bill Is Laid Aside As Finance Committee Strives To Solve Mysteries In Estimates

WASHINGTON, Mar. 26.—The dispute over the cost of the proposed soldier bonus bill which provided for more than $3,000,000,000 between estimates by veterans bureau and treasury avaries drew fire from all sides Tuesday as the senate finance committee temporarily laid aside the revenue bill and attempted to solve the estimates mystery.

Representative Green, Republican, Iowa, chairman of the house ways and means committee which framed the bill, and Senator Walsh of Massachusetts, a Democratic member of the finance committee, issued statements assailing the estimates of Joseph McCoy, treasury secretary.

Pointing out a series of "fundamental and glaring errors," Mr. Green declared "the treasury estimates on the cost of the bonus are wrong as usual."

S Senator Walsh said the theory on which Mr. McCoy based his estimates was "absurd," and asked if it was "another attempt to juggle figures on the cost of the adjusted compensation bill, and attempt to mislead congress and the people of the United States?"

Explaining the means by which he arrived at his estimates, Mr. McCoy told the finance committee he had figured the government would have to pay interest on all money appropriated to pay for the insurance policies under the bonus bill.

H. P. Brown, veterans' bureau secretary who figured the cost of the insurance alone would amount to

ANDERSON NOW NUMBER 75,745 IN SING SING

Former Leader of Anti-Saloon League Begins Serving Time For Third Defree Forgery.

OSING, N. Y., Mar. 26.—William H. Anderson, former head of the state Anti-Saloon League, once a powerful figure in the political life of the Empire state, Tuesday became "Number 75,745" in Sing Sing prison.

Convicted of third degree forgery in altering the books of the league, his application for a certificate of reasonable doubt denied Monday, the former dry crusader surrendered in New York Tuesday morning to Sheriff Dooling. He was brought here by train Tuesday afternoon to begin serving his term of from one to two years.

Anderson was far from downcast. "I am a prisoner of war in the hands of the enemy," he said in a statement handed to the sheriff.

"After the damage I have inflicted on the liquor traffic," said the statement, "I should not begrudge the wets and their defectors any satisfaction they can extract kicking when he is down the one they could not whip in a fair fight."

Three Religious Denominations May Assume Control of Rollins College

An important meeting is to be held this afternoon at Rollins College when leading representatives of the Congregational Church, the Northern Presbyterian Church and the Southern Presbyterian Church will meet to discuss the acquisition of that institution by those three denominations and to discuss plans to raise more money to serve as addition to the endowment fund.

Rev. E. D. Brownlee of this city is general chairman of the church organization which proposes to acquire Rollins College. In speaking of the matter this morning before the meeting at Winter Park, Dr. Brownlee stated that in all probability the plans will go through and that the foundation will be laid to start the campaign for funds in behalf of the school next fall.

At present Rollins College is owned and controlled by a board of directors. The land together with the buildings and equipment is valued at approximately $750,000 said Dr. Brownlee while it has an endowment fund of approximately $600,000. The money received from this fund has never been sufficient to run the college as it should be and it is generally believed, said Dr. Brownlee, that if was made a denominational school and a larger endowment fund provided, that it would soon take its place as one of the leading educational institutions in this part of the country.

FIREWORKS SET OFF IN SENATE LAND SCANDAL

Threats are Made by Senator Hefflin to Carry Fight to the Floor of Senate for the "Unfair Treatment" During Investigation of Land Frauds in Texas Valley.

WASHINGTON, Mar. 26.—Another display of fireworks was set off in the committee, were held in the hearing Tuesday before the special senate committee investigating charges of land frauds in the Texas Rio Grande Valley.

Threats by Senator Hefflin, Democrat, Alabama, in the role of committee "prosecutor" to carry to the senate floor his fight on alleged unfair treatment of the senator, who indicated he would await further developments.

The committee adjourned during the final clash between Senator Hefflin and Chairman Moses, of New Hampshire, over the admission of evidence, to meet again tomorrow.

Chief Postal Inspector Rugh D. Simmons was on the stand through Chairman Moses to inquire exchanged between James R. Page, a Kansas City attorney, who is assisting Senator Hefflin, and George Hill, attorney for R. B. Gragor, Republican national committeeman from Texas, who is named in the senate resolution as being implicated in the alleged frauds.

Mr. Hill, by questions directed through Chairman Moses to Inspector Simmons, put into the records that "James R. Page was a fugitive from justice in Texas; that disbarment proceedings had been taken against him; that he had solicited people alleged to have been defrauded and that he had been indicted."

Senator Hefflin protested against what he called "the cross-examination of the witnesses." He threatened to carry his fight to the senate floor. Mr. Moses denied there was any "arrangement."

Replying to Mr. Hill's charges, Mr. Page declared "it is absolutely untrue that I was a fugitive from justice."

"I admit I was indicted down there," he said. "They got out an injunction against sending a petition protesting against land fraud sales through the mails. We will show that Mr. Gragor himself caused the Hidalgo County Bar Association to start disbarment proceedings."

The clash between Chairman Moses and Senator Hefflin during the afternoon session, which broke up in a row, arose over the admissibility at that time of a newspaper clipping and letter, which alleged that a lawyer was beaten up by two land agents in the Rio Grande Valley within the last 10 days. Chairman Moses held that Mr. Page should proceed in the regular order with his evidence and introduce testimony of more recent date later on.

Senator Hefflin held that it should be inserted then.

On a vote on the issue, Senator Hefflin lost by three to two, Chairman Moses, by proxy, voted for Senator Edge, of New Jersey, and Oddie, of Nevada, Republicans, while Senator George, Democrat, of Georgia, stood by his colleague.

"If this committee cannot investigate, I'm going to ask the senate to appoint five members," the Alabama senator declared. "Here is the chairman showing a hostile feeling and also this position. The reference was made to John H. Edwards, formerly solicitor for the postoffice department."

DUTTON ASKS TO RESIGN POSITION

Head of Directors of Florida Vegetable Corporation For Resignation of Position Following Monday Night—Wash. Appointed to Successor.

F. F. Dutton is no longer sales manager of the Florida Vegetable Corporation, according to R. B. Chapman, head of board of directors of the company who stated Wednesday that Dutton had been asked to resign his position following a meeting of the directors held on Monday night.

"I have been asked to resign position, but so far I have not done so. I have no intention of handing it in under the circumstances, therefore I am still sales manager of the Florida Vegetable Corporation," was a statement made by Mr. Dutton when asked about the matter by a representative of The Sanford Herald.

Meanwhile, the board of directors have placed H. L. Walsh as the head of the general sales department. Mr. Dutton's place was taken by Mr. Magruder, of Federated Growers of New York in an special assistant to Walsh.

Following a session of the directors on Monday night, which lasted until 5 o'clock Tuesday morning, rumors came current that a new manager had been selected by the corporation and that he had assumed his duties Tuesday.

When asked for a statement Wednesday in regard to the matter, Mr. Chapman said: "Dutton was asked to resign his office on Monday night. His resignation has not been accepted, but a new manager has been put in his place. Mr. Dutton was asked to sever his connection with the corporation, but he declined to do so. He is still the best interests of the corporation."

Mr. Chapman said that he did not contemplate any trouble over the matter, but stated that should Mr. Dutton refuse to sign and still attempt to exercise his authority, that he would receive no co-operation from any of the other officials or managers of the association.

Mr. Dutton declared that he did not want to make a statement, adding that he believed that the matter would be settled amicably within a few days. However, he maintained that he was still manager, as he had not handed in his resignation.

Asked if he had a three-year contract with the corporation, Mr. Dutton declared that he had signed a contract for three years, but that it was going to be terminated by mutual agreement to its full extent.

"I have an iron-clad contract which calls for a certain monthly salary and also calls for the payment of a certain sum of money for the good will which I had and for the clients which I brought with me to this association," he said. "I am not prepared to forego any of that. I have no intention to resign under any such circumstances," he further declared.

Mr. Dutton further said that he might resign under some circumstances, but would not do so while it was apparent that he was not being paid for his services, and he refused to do so without some redress of any kind. He further requested that no publicity be given on the matter, but when informed that it was a common rumor of the street and that something must be printed on the subject, gave out the above statement.

The Florida Vegetable Corporation is barely over six months old, having been organized last July. At that time a large number of growers, including some of the leading growers of Seminole and counties, organized and secured the services of Mr. Dutton as sales manager at a salary said to be $12,000 a year in addition to a bonus of $3,000, which was to be paid if his services were satisfactory.

In securing the services of Mr. Dutton, the new association was (Continued on page 8)

Market News Blood and Onions Makes a Healthy Man

'Champion Blood Merchant' Eats Eighteen Onions a Day To Replenish Blood He Gave To Save Lives Of Others

BY STEVE HANNAGAN
NEA Service Staff Writer

NEW YORK, March 22—Thomas Kane, 39, a night watchman, and the father of three husky children is the world's greatest blood merchant.

Physicians have tapped his veins for 39 pints of rich, healthy blood, to save the lives of others in 59 transfusions during the past ten years.

Eating 18 to 20 raw onions each day, together with other vegetables keeps the Kane blood reservoir filled. "He eats very little meat."

Only one of the 59 people to whom Kane has given his blood has died. All the others regained their strength and health, aided by the coagulants from his sturdy red blood filtration plant.

"I got started in the blood business in 1914," he says. "A doctor advertised for a blood donor and among 20 others I answered the ad and had a sample of my blood taken."

"A few hours later a telegram informed me that I had been chosen as the one with the best blood. Ever since then I have been in constant demand. Now I give all of my available blood to private cases."

The least blood Kane ever has had taken from his veins was one-half pint; the greatest amount a full pint. He has been paid variously from $25 to $150 for each quantity of his blood he has had taken from his veins.

Twenty minutes is the shortest time Kane ever has spent on an operating table during a transfusion—but once it required one hour and 40 minutes.

"I lose about two pounds each time they take a pint of my blood. But I regain my strength in a few days. Within ten days I have given blood three times, suffering no ill effects," Kane says.

Kane stands 5 feet 7 1/2 inches and weighs 175 pounds. He never is ill. He has been married ten years—and there are three little Kanes, Jams, 7; Agnes, 6; and Lillian, 4. The children never have been ill.

Kane's arms bear scars of the blood transfusions—for each time he gives blood it is necessary to make an incision in his arm. Once it was taken from a foot—because both arms had been cut only a few days before.

"I don't mind it a bit," concluded Kane, "and it helps suffering humanity as well as helping me to raise my family and see that the children get an education."

EXPOSES THREE FINANCIAL FAKES

Politicians Mislead Public Regarding Corporations, Credit, and Railroads, Says F. N. Shepherd.

FALLACIES MET WITH FACTS

Declares People Will Make Short Shrift of Those Who Occasion Them When Aroused to Truth of Own Interests.

Three great misrepresentations, by which certain politicians have advanced their own interests at the expense of public welfare, were recently declared by F. N. Shepherd, Executive Manager, American Bankers Association, in an address at Kansas City, Missouri, to be the oft-repeated statements that "Wall Street" owns the corporations, that the Federal Reserve Bank discriminated against agriculture and deflated the farmers, and that there are seven billion dollars of "water" in railroad capitalization and rates should be reduced accordingly.

What Facts Tell
 In regard to the alleged ownership of the corporations by "Wall Street," Mr. Shepherd showed that the securities of American corporations are very widely held by the people. The Union Pacific, he pointed out, has over 50,000 stockholders and the Pennsylvania Railroad 147,000 stockholders, 67,000 of whom are women, with an average ownership of 47 shares each. The American Telephone and Telegraph Company has 200,000 stockholders, 120,000 of whom are employees, and the United States Steel Corporation has 174,000 stockholders. According to a recent report of the Interstate Commerce Commission, he said, Class 1 railroads have a total of 777,132 stockholders, there being, therefore, practically as many owners of shares as there are employees.

"The real capitalists of America," continued Mr. Shepherd, "are these and the bondholders whose funds are invested in securities through their thirty million savings accounts, and through their ownership of over 71 million life and industrial insurance policies. Once aroused these people to the fact that it is their interests which are being attacked through these misrepresentations and they will take short shrift of those who deceive them.

Truth About the Federal Reserve System, instead of its discriminating against the farmer, exactly the opposite is true. During the period of greatest decline in the value of agricultural products, about which there has been so much loose talk, discounts with Federal Reserve Banks in non-agricultural districts actually decreased by 25 per cent, but in agricultural districts discounts were actually increased by 56 per cent. The Federal Reserve Banks of the big cities of Boston, New York, Philadelphia and Cleveland poured into other Federal Reserve Banks in agricultural districts literally hundreds of millions of dollars.

"As to the alleged seven billions of 'water' in the railroads, a physical valuation of the railroad properties has been under way for the past ten years, as a result of the La Follette Act, conducted by a body of unprejudiced, non-political experts by whom the valuation has been placed at $18,500,000,000. Although it has been officially stated, and reiterated, that, in arriving at this figure, no consideration whatever was given to capitalization, politically-minded men are still deceiving the public, and particularly the farmers, about the 'water' in the railroads. Railroad stock today is not watered. Any possible fair scheme of valuation today proves that our railroads are worth from one to two billion dollars more than their capitalization.

No Railroad Income Guarantee
 "Further, demagogues are telling people that the railroad income is guaranteed. The Esch-Cummins Act does not guarantee any return to railroad stockholders, as the demagogues constantly assert. By its terms the Act simply provides a yard stick for rate making, which is that a fair railroad rate is one which would show a return of 5% per cent upon the actual value of the property used in transportation in a given territory.

"This provision bears no relation whatever to railroad capitalization and, moreover, no relation to individual railroads, some of which might show earnings under such a rate-making provision in excess of six per cent, and some much less. No consideration whatever is given in the Act or in the administration of the Interstate Commerce Commission to railroad capitalization or any return upon it."

MIDDLEMAN'S PROFITS

Words of objection on the part of the farmer against the middleman often are in vain, but the farmer who raises on his own acres all that his table requires, the year round, places himself in a position where he is largely independent of the middleman. Often the remedy for many objectionable conditions lies in our own hands.

A few days ago in Brooklyn four young men were sentenced to death for murder. In cold blood and after long deliberation these young men had murdered and robbed two bank messengers in a Brooklyn elevated railroad station.

They are all young men, three of them being but little more than twenty-one years of age, and the fourth is only a few years older. Two of them had previously served terms of imprisonment, and the other two are said to have had long association with criminals.

Murders are becoming almost every day affairs. Hardly do you pick up a newspaper but that an account of some murder is seen. And at times there are several in one day.

"Most of the criminals are boys and young men. To be exact, over eighty per cent of them are less than twenty-five years of age. If the people of Brooklyn ask why so many youths become criminals, I can tell them. A dozen years of investigation and experience in these matters have demonstrated that the vast majority of all the youthful offenders committed crime because they had had bad associates and were not under the proper influences in the years when boyhood was turning into manhood—between the ages of twelve and eighteen.

There is good cause for alarm in the moral conditions which exist among large groups of young people. There must be a check made in the mad pace. The young people themselves must be brought to a realization of the folly of their careless indifference to things really worth while.

With a shock such crimes as that committed by the Diamond brothers makes us realize the lack of moral sense to be found in certain sections and groups. These young men had little early training and were brought up in the wrong way.

The sooner we realize the importance of right living, high ideals and Christian training and influence, the sooner will crime be lessened and conditions bettered.

Co-Operation and Choice Celery Did It. The manner in which Sanford celery growers solved the problem of supply and demand recently is causing favorable comment in other parts of the state and now some papers are suggesting that growers of citrus fruits try to get together and co-operate in an effort to put only first class fruit on the market and to ship as the consumer needs it.

HIGGINBOTHAM AGAIN. A revival of the Tabert case and a reiteration of the evidence in that case which was so damaging to the state of Florida, even though the state was not at fault, may result from the hearing before the Supreme Court in which Higginbotham, the whipping boy, is asking for a new trial. Higginbotham was found guilty of the charge of second-degree murder in connection with the death of the North Dakota youth in a convict camp in the northern part of the state, and was sentenced to twenty years' penal servitude.

As skull which excavators unearthed near Los Angeles the only one said by paleontologists to be a relic of the original man roaming the wilds of California no less than a hundred years ago. There is an opportunity here to approve the evolutionary theory. Is it a human skull, or a monkey skull?

MR. SINCLAIR, the oil man, tells how Theodore Roosevelt, the second Assistant Secretary of the Navy, asked him to hire his brother Archie, and he adds that he tried young Archie, in almost every department of his business, giving him a salary as high as $15,000 a year, "but Archie never made good in anything."

MR. SINCLAIR should know that business is vulgar and that Roosevelt is not expected to "make good" in such pursuits. That is especially showing their teeth in office. Make Archie or Theodore the Second—President and the story will be different. Business is awkward, because you actually have to deliver something.

WHAT IS Mr. Sinclair thinking of when he says, publicly, of young Roosevelt's statement, "I publicly brand these statements as false and malicious and worse than a lie?" Does Mr. Sinclair not know that such remarks addressed to a Roosevelt, even if true, call for blood? The end of all this is not yet, or the real Roosevelt will rest uneasy in his grave.

THE REV. DR. FOSDICK says the poem about "Greenland's Ice Mountains, India's Coral Strands, etc." is now in vogue, especially in the verse: "What though the spicy breezes, blow soft o'er Caylon's Isle, Though every prospect pleases, and only man in vile."

ITALIAN MOTHERS feed their children more intelligently than many others. They give them food that needs CHEWING. Not soft pulp to be swallowed whole. The Italian inherits the teeth of Caesar's soldier that carried raw wheat and chewed it as they marched. Their skeletons dug up today show perfect teeth.

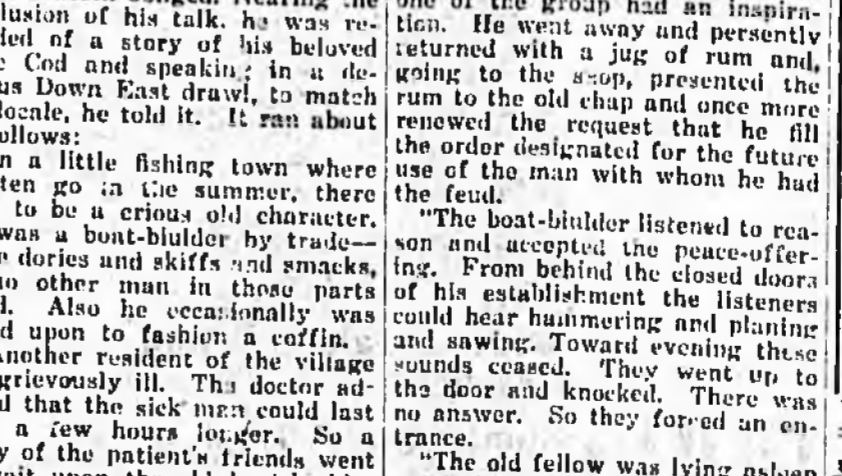

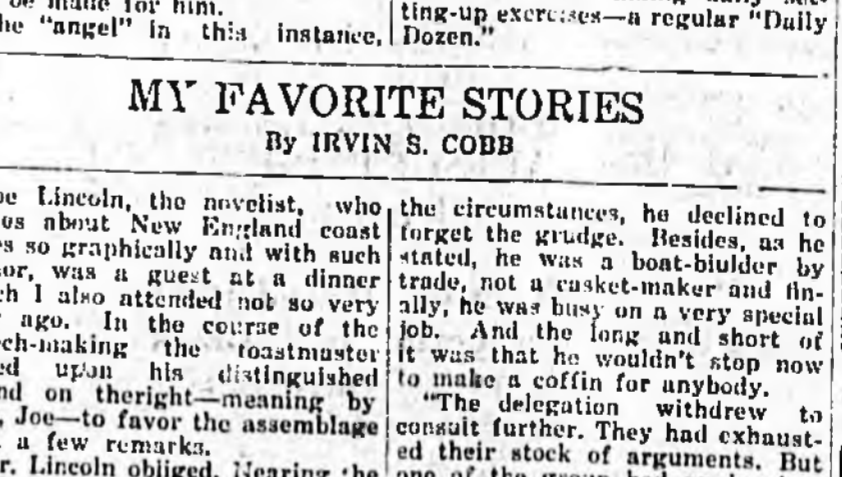

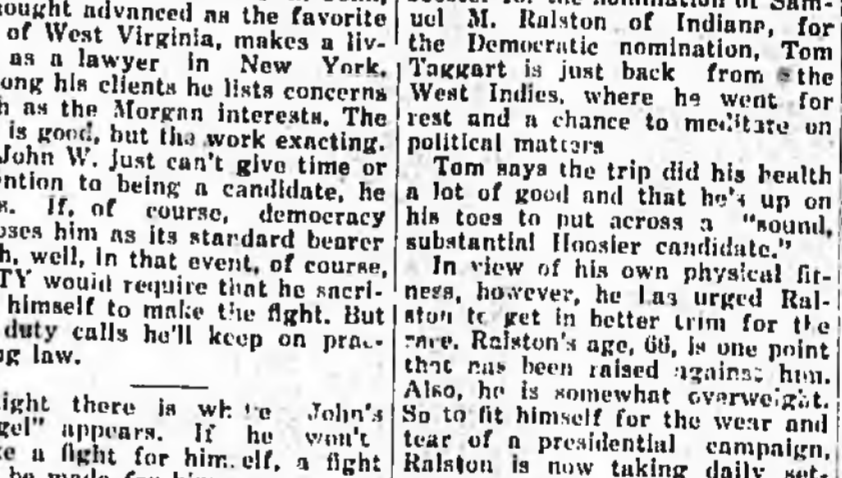

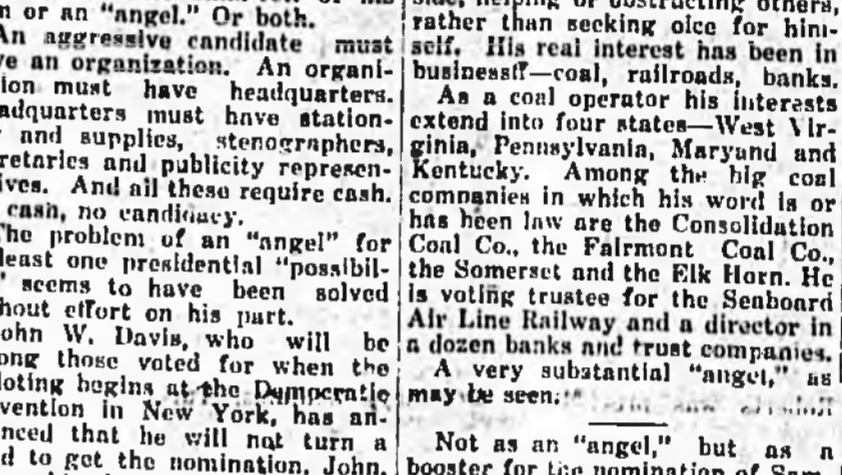

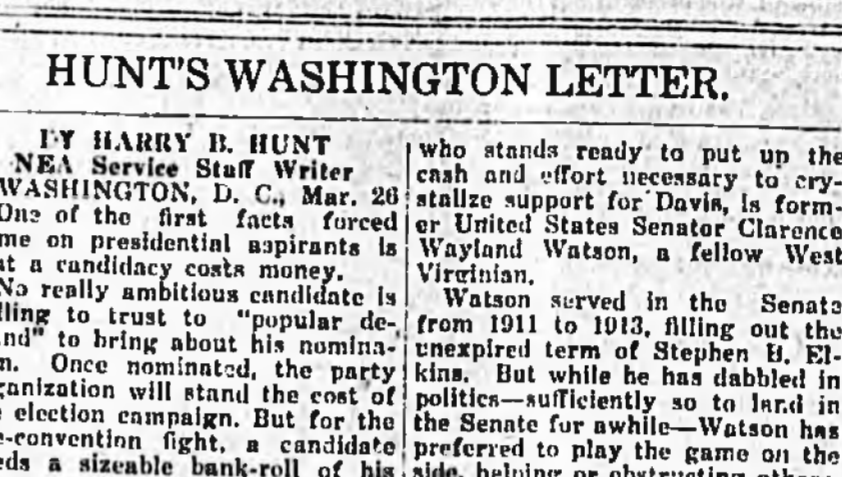

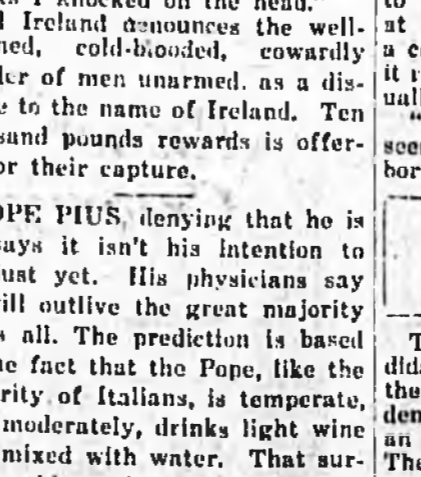

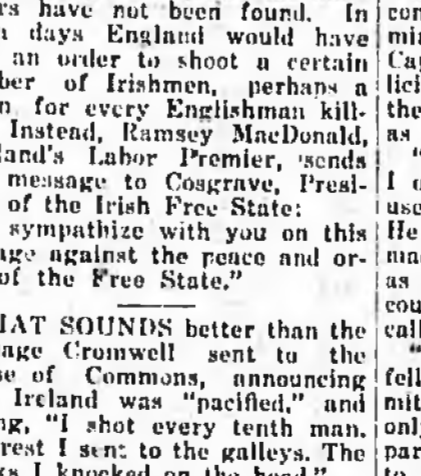

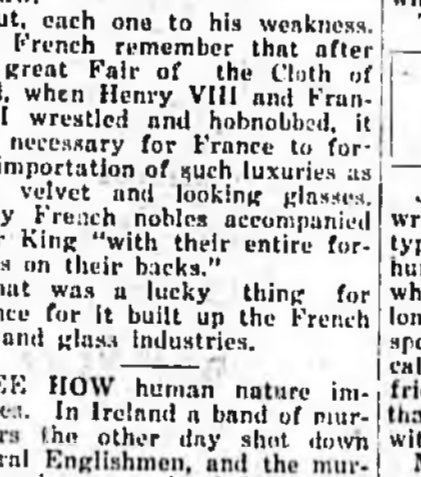

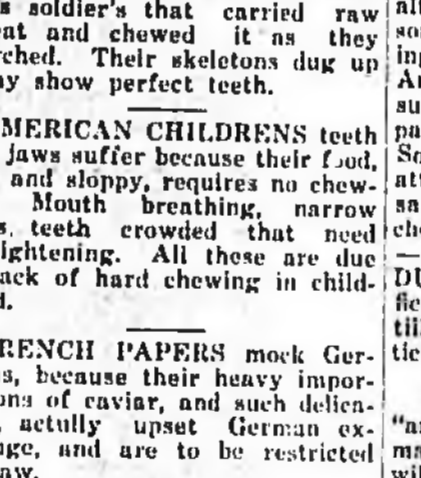

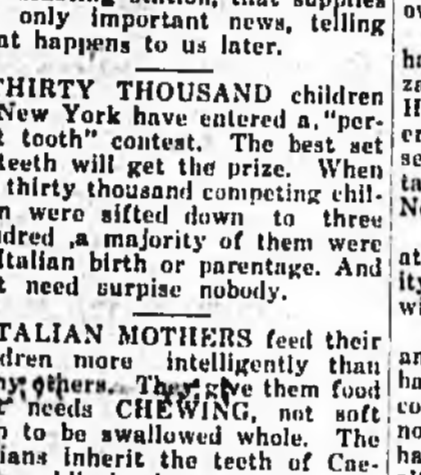

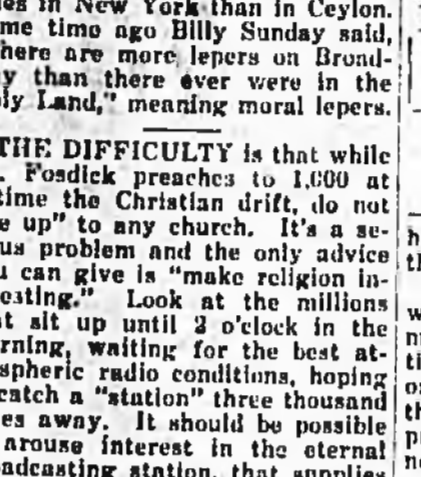

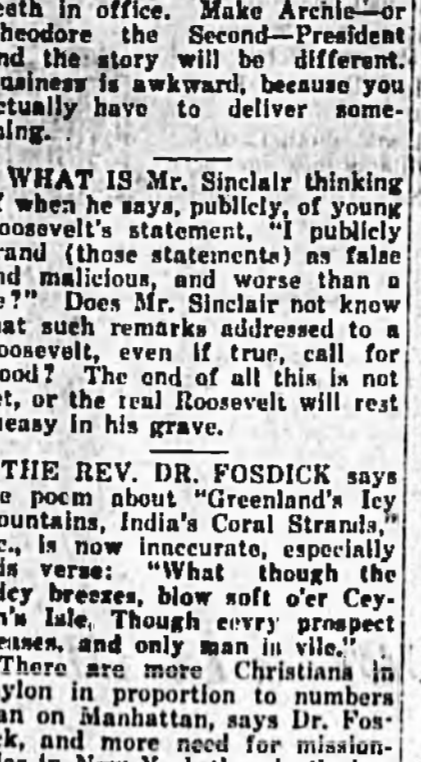

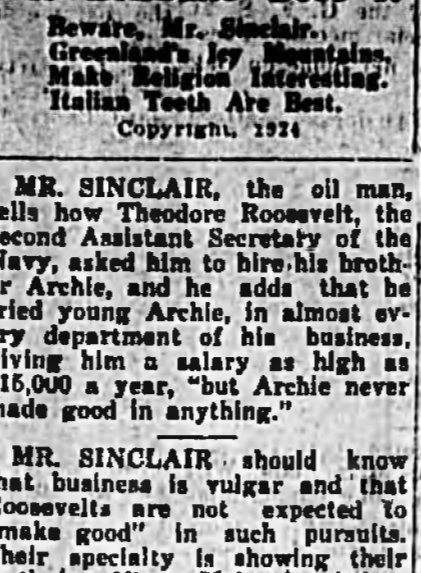

AMERICAN CHILDREN'S teeth and jaws suffer because their food, soft and sloppy, requires no chewing. Mouth breathing, narrow teeth crowded that need straightening. All these are due to lack of hard chewing in childhood.

FRENCH PAPERS mock Germans, because their heavy importations of caviar, and such delicacies, actually upset German exchange, and are to be restricted by law. But, each one to his weakness. The French remember that after the French Revolution of the Cloth of Gold, when Henry VIII and Francis I wrestled and hobbled, it was necessary for France to forbid importation of such luxuries as silk, velvet and looking glasses.

SEE HOW human nature improves. In Ireland a band of murderers the other day shot down several Englishmen, and the murderers have not been found. In olden days England would have sent an order to shoot a certain number of Irishmen, perhaps a dozen for every Englishman killed. Instead, Ramsey MacDonald, England's Labor Premier, sends this message to Cosgrave, President of the Irish Free State: "I sympathize with you on this outrage against the peace and order of the Free State."

THAT SOUNDS better than the message Cromwell sent to the House of Commons, announcing that Ireland was "pacified," and adding, "I shot every tenth man. The rest I sent to the gallies. The monks I knocked on the head."

POPE PIUS, denying that he is ill, says it isn't his intention to die just yet. His physicians say he will outlive the great majority of us all. The prediction is based on the fact that the Pope, like the majority of Italians, is temperate, eats moderately, drinks light wine mixed with water. That surprises this prohibition nation, but so it is. The late Pope Leo the Thirteenth, who wrote a very nice Latin poem in praise of light red wine, and used it with the greatest moderation all his life, lived to be

If Henry Ford ever gets Muscled, he should intend to say his cheap fertilizer will make the south rich. Woman in Birmingham, Ala., fractured her husband's skull with a monkey wrench, indicating a pistol shortage in Birmingham.

HUNT'S WASHINGTON LETTER.

BY HARRY B. HUNT, NEA Service Staff Writer. WASHINGTON, D. C., Mar. 26. One of the first facts forced home on presidential aspirants is that a candidacy costs money. No really ambitious candidate is willing to trust to "popular demand" to bring about his nomination. Once nominated, the party organization will stand the cost of the election campaign. But for the pre-convention fight, a candidate needs a sizeable bank-roll of his own or an "angel." Or both.

Not as an "angel," but as a booster for the nomination of Samuel M. Ralston of Indiana, for the Democratic nomination, Tom Taggart is just back from the West Indies, where he went for rest and a chance to meditate on political matters. Tom says the trip did his health a lot of good and that he's up on his toes to not across a "sound, substantial Hoosier candidate."

THE ART OF BEAUTY

BY B. M. DOUGLAS

THese certain types of beauty are the ones that attract the eyes of the men and who are spotted by suggestion of sophistication. Such a type is the beauty who inherits her blond hair, blue eyes, tall, vigorous and from some Nordic ancestry, a daughter of the gods. Tall and most divinely fair, her complexion is of a ruddy type, and as one has pointed out, the gods of old were almost all described as blonds and it would be to imagine a Greek artist as a brunette. So the modern beauty has a distinct history to draw upon, and if true to her inherited attributes and keeps herself fit by plenty of outdoor exercise, she will need very little artificial aids to beauty. As picture a Viking with heavy brows and a cupid's bow as one of these splendid types heavily rouged and lipped, it is true that under the natural conditions of modern life it is sometimes necessary to help Nature, but the goddess should choose her beauty aids discrimination and use them with discretion.

Her fair skin is a powder-soft and delicate texture such as java, and prey in the nature shade, in the indoor months, if a color is needed in the cheek new day-light rouge may be found to blend with the color of the skin hair.

The attractiveness of these beauty-let me repeat, is health and vigor, the inheritance of Viking forebears, so that it is vital to get plenty of fresh and vigorous exercise. Great brunettes may sit by

In summer, she may swim, row, and play tennis to her heart's content. It will not only add to her health but to her beauty. Of course she will acquire sunburn or tan, as this type very easily does; in this case, poaches, an outdoor powder with a tannish shade may be used to blend with the warmer tone of the skin.

SOCIAL DEPARTMENT BRIDGE PARTY

The members of the Social Department of the Woman's Club were most delightfully entertained Tuesday afternoon at bridge at the club house with Mrs. S. S. Baum as hostess.

The large lounge presented a lovely springtime picture with its dainty decorations of sweet peas, roses, geraniums, and nasturtiums artistically arranged in pedestal baskets, bowls and vases.

Scores were kept on tallies done in dainty cut-glass and fashioned in amethyst and CMFWM! SHREDLU maidens, and the card game proved most interesting. When scores were counted the prize for high score, a string of lovely blue beads, was won by Mrs. A. J. Richardson. The consolation, a string of crystal beads, fell to the lot of Mrs. R. S. Keeler.

At the conclusion of the card game, the hostess, assisted by Miss Ruba Williams, Mrs. Reg. Holly, and Mrs. John McNamara served delicious refreshments of creamed chicken in patties, stuffed celery, hot rolls, olives, and hot coffee. On the tables were miniature pink baskets filled with mints which were enjoyed during the game.

Ever Have 70,000 Farmers Give You A Guarantee

THIS is an unusual question. Yet it is an unusual fact that back of every can of DAIRYLEA Brand Evaporated Milk you purchase is the combined guarantee of 70,000 progressive farmers.

WHY is this interesting to you? You may rightly ask, because the answer concerns every thinking woman in America.

These 70,000 farmers, who ship and sell you DAIRYLEA Brand direct from their farms, have built up the largest organization of its kind in the world.

This is the now famous Dairymen's League Cooperative Association. Every month it does business of over seven million dollars. Because this immense business is owned and operated by themselves, your DAIRYLEA Brand Evaporated Milk will always remain these 70,000 farmers' own property from cows they themselves own.

THESE farmers want you to have a rich creamier evaporated milk, with a flavor like that is why DAIRYLEA contains more nutritious fats and solids.

DAIRYLEA Evaporated Milk is the concrete wholesomeness of the purest fresh milk, is produced in New York State where milk laws are most stringent. It is exactly the same milk which U. S. Senator Copeland, when Head of the Milk Commission of New York City, called "the best in the world."

Merely ask your grocer for DAIRYLEA to get this rich delicious milk:

By GEORGE McMANUS

Partly To Blame For Crime.

A few days ago in Brooklyn four young men were sentenced to death for murder. In cold blood and after long deliberation these young men had murdered and robbed two bank messengers in a Brooklyn elevated railroad station.

They are all young men, three of them being but little more than twenty-one years of age, and the fourth is only a few years older. Two of them had previously served terms of imprisonment, and the other two are said to have had long association with criminals.

Murders are becoming almost every day affairs. Hardly do you pick up a newspaper but that an account of some murder is seen. And at times there are several in one day. But the worst part of it all is the fact that most of the criminals are young men, less than twenty-five years of age.

People are waking up to the realization that something must be done to stop this way of life. The government must take steps to prevent the commission of such crimes.

As Brisbane Sees It

MR. SINCLAIR, the oil man, tells how Theodore Roosevelt, the second Assistant Secretary of the Navy, asked him to hire his brother Archie, and he adds that he tried young Archie, in almost every department of his business, giving him a salary as high as $15,000 a year, "but Archie never made good in anything."

MR. SINCLAIR should know that business is vulgar and that Roosevelt is not expected to "make good" in such pursuits. Their specialty is to make Archie or Theodore the Second—President will be different.
