Ex-President Eisenhower Is Dead

WASHINGTON (AP) — Dwight D. Eisenhower, commander in World War II of the mightiest armed monia complications. force ever assembled and former president of the United States, died today.

The announcement of the general's death was made in a somber voice by Brig, Gen, Frederic Hughes Jr., commanding general of Walter Reed Army Hospital who said that Eisenhower had "died quietly at 12:25 p.m. EST after a long and heroic struggle," and that he had died peacefully. The 78-year-old five-star general, known as "lke" throughout the world, was hit by congestive heart failure March 15 and again last Monday while re-

Rolling Homes!

Homes, it appears now, are joining the increasing numbers of words that have new meanings in this spage age where mobility appears to be king! Yes, we are referring to the trailer-turned mobile home. More than that we are cocking an eve to our waterways where the house-boat in new and most attractive design is making waves of its own. What sparked this comment is an article in the April Readers Digest about the mobile home, land-bound. And was given an extra fillup as we drove along our highways and saw the mobile-home "developments" which are becoming more and more numerous in Seminole and our adjoining counties.

But for those who would like some facts and figures we would furnish the following information from the Readers Digest:

"Last year more than 130,000 young couples went to a lot or salesroom, selected a model, made a down payment and sat back to await delivery. New car? No. New home-a mobile home, one of about two million such units in the Unit-

And on weekends, you best sign up a week in advance. It must be progress, for all realize that to be successful a course needs a good deal of play. We only hope that this same progress will not regress the play of the course to such extent that it will not be enjoyable. The new players have brought the green stuff to make the fairways lusher with the new watering system and regular feedings of plant food. They bring a lot of new business, but they also bring :

new type of slow play. This last week we saw three fivesomes on the course on Saturday, and on the same nine several twosomes. "Charly," starring Cliff Robertson and Claire Bloom, was produced and directed by Ralph Nelson whose previous film achievements have included "Lillies of the Field" and "Requiem for a Heavy-tation in collaboration with Robertson Associates is a love story that begins with an incredible experiment. Now showing at Sanford's Plaza Rocking ngagements, "Charley" has received unusual critical acclaim and the praise for Cliff Robertson's performance in the title role has been unanimous. He has received the nomination for an Academy Award as Best Actor of the year. Based on a screenplay by Stirling Silliphant, who won the Academy Award for his script for "In the Heat of the
