

North Orlando Sets Elections For March 16

By Margaret Cosby
Village Clerk and Supervisor of Registration Barbara Peters announces that the Village of North Orlando will hold its general elections on Tuesday, March 16.

Four council seats are to be filled, groups one, three and five for a two year period and group four for a one year period.

Mrs. Peters reports that the group four seat will be vacant for one year in order to complete the term of Mrs. Mona Grinstead who had been elected in 1964. Since Mrs. Grinstead left the village and found it necessary to resign last fall, Jay A. Wetz was appointed by the council to fill this vacancy until the March general election.

The village registration books are now open daily from 9 a.m. until noon, in the village office and on Wednesday evenings from 7 until 9. Books will remain open until Saturday, Feb. 27, at 4 p.m.

Any resident who has lived in the community for six months and in the state of Florida for one year prior to the election date is eligible to vote but must register during this period if he or she desires to vote in the coming election.

Persons interested in becoming candidates for office may secure necessary forms from the clerk after Feb. 1, filing dates for the forms are ten days, Feb. 17-27.

Blind Students To Appear Here

Seventeen boys and girls from the Florida School for the Blind, St. Augustine, will visit Sanford Wednesday to demonstrate first hand the accomplishments of the school.

The students have been invited to appear at the luncheon meeting of the Kiwanis Club at the Civic Center and members of the Rotary, Civitan and Lions Clubs have been invited.

The blind youngsters and their principal, Herbert D. Angus, will present a musical demonstration and a writing and reading demonstration, to illustrate the work of the school.

Hardy 'Scouts' Blaze Trails In 20-Degree Temperatures

By Jane Cassel
Who said America is soft?

We take our hats off to two stalwart Seminole County Girl Scout leaders, Mrs. Lois Lockyer of Troop 910, Casselberry, and Mrs. Anita McGinnis, Troop 472, Eastbrook, who endured 20 degree temperatures and rain to take advanced camp and back packing training at Camp Ticochee near Barberville.

With 26 other brave souls, they left their base camp to hike into the wilderness carrying on their backs all equipment necessary for setting up a primitive camp, including tents, sleeping bags, water, food and cooking pots.

When these two gals were loaded down with full packs and other miscellaneous gear they found it difficult to stand, much less walk, but they trudged gallantly on to their destination.

They were allowed only two pots with which to prepare their "tasty" dehydrated food. Anita was confronted with a sticky problem indeed, when after mixing biscuit dough with her hands she found there was no water to rinse.

They retreated to the relative comfort of Adirondack shelters that night but found it difficult to crawl out of their cozy sleeping bags the next morning into the below freezing temperatures.

Any less hardy souls, who might have been tempted to leave for home and electric blankets, would have found it impossible as car radiators were filled with icy slush and batteries failed to respond.

Congressman A. S. (Syd) Herlong will soon be mailing a questionnaire to each citizen seeking advice on such things as Medicare, foreign aid, aid to education program and the like and he will be seeking cooperation of all persons. The congressman says he'll mail a postcard-type questionnaire to each city delivery patron, boxholder and rural route patron.

If Capt. and Mrs. Chandler W. Swanson (he's the CO at the Naval Air Station) appear to be walking taller these days it's because of the news about their daughter, Elizabeth. She's been named to the Dean's List by the faculty of the College of Arts and Sciences for the fall semester. Elizabeth is attending the college at the University of Kentucky.

Power Halted, Schools Close Due To Storm

United Press International
A fast-moving storm swept from the Southern Plains across the Mississippi Valley today, spreading heavy snow, rain and sleet.

Blizzard conditions diminished during the night in western Kansas, but the weather bureau described the storm as critical in eastern Kansas, northern Missouri and southern Iowa.

Snow fell from the Lake Superior region to the Texas Panhandle. Up to three inches of fresh snow fell during the night from northeast Iowa to eastern Kansas and was blown into drifts by strong northerly winds, Lamoni, Iowa, measured four inches of snow.

Thunderstorms rode out ahead of the storm center. The threat of falling temperatures raised the spectre of more ice for hard-hit northern Illinois. About 20,000 homes and businesses were still without electricity in the Chicago area Monday night. Ice-encrusted power lines were being mended by power company workers from Illinois, Indiana, Wisconsin, Michigan, Missouri, Minnesota, Iowa, Pennsylvania and Colorado. A 100-man crew arrived from Minnesota Monday night with 23 fully equipped line trucks.

Schools remained closed north and west of Chicago, where Monday's sleet thaw did little to ease the heavy burden of ice. Nearly 80 per cent of Elgin, Ill., was without electric power.

The Chicago-area storm damage, which started during the weekend, had soared by today to nearly $2.5 million. The rotating storm center was drawing mild temperatures far northward ahead of its path. Headings were in the 30s at midnight as far north as central Illinois and Indiana.

County Denies Plant Petition

Plans to build an asphalt plant in Seminole County were squelched this morning by the County Commission as the members upheld action of the Board of Adjustment.

The board's decision was appealed by Atty. Kenneth McIntosh, counsel for the builders, Henry L. Douglas and James R. Morgan. They proposed to build the plant off the Longwood-Markham Road and about two miles from Sanlando Springs.

County commissioners also backed the Board of Adjustment in other matters concerning location of trailers in restricted areas. These were appealed by the persons involved, but in each instance the appeal was denied.

Late Closings Seen For Bars

Sanford bars with a 200-seating capacity and complete kitchens may be permitted to operate through 2 a.m. Mondays through Saturdays, should the City Commission follow up action taken Monday night.

The commission directed City Atty. William Hutchinson to draft a proposed ordinance for first and second readings next month.

Commissioners made their decision to amend the present midnight closing after studying the prevailing situation in neighboring counties. Commissioners M. L. Raborn and Joe Baker presented their findings and proposed the late hours to permit city bars to compete with county and area establishments.

'Cut Costs,' Say Council

By Dottie Austin
Fitting Sanford's waterfront development program into the city's financial structure in a way that will keep it feasible but still make it an outstanding attraction requires further study and discussion, city commissioners decided Monday after hearing a report on financing possibilities.

At the request of commissioners, Loomis Leedy, the city's fiscal agent, outlined several plans of financing the waterfront development, with franchise revenues based on figures presented by the Maurice H. Connel engineering firm.

Commissioners concluded that the $17 million figure presented by Leedy as an estimate of costs and financing of the plan was "too high" and asked that it be refigured in a lower base.

"All these figures are too high — if we want to build it, we can find a way to do it and do it for a whole lot less than $17 million. Our franchise money is earmarked for capital improvements such as this," Commissioner Earl Higginbotham insisted.

City Manager W. E. Knowles pointed out that cost estimates as presented by Connel could be shaved as much as $100,000 to $200,000 by careful study, if further problems of the bottom of Lake Monroe prove that suitable fill is available in quantity.

"Use of city equipment and labor for construction could help cut costs and shaving of construction costs will reduce engineering, bonding, legal and financial fees in proportion," he noted.

Leedy noted that the franchise revenue alone would finance a $1 million issue, but would still handicap the city in making other capital improvements such as water, sewer, lighting, fire protection and municipal construction for the next 30 years.

"If you can find a way to lower the size of the issue, it would be easier all the way around," Leedy said.

He pointed out that to levy or use ad valorem taxes for capital improvements would require approval of taxpayers by means of a referendum.

"Lying up our franchise money for 30 years is not a wise thing to do; the public is not aware of other capital improvements that will be needed," Commissioner J. V. Baker protested.

Commissioner M. L. Raborn pointed out that "the Connel" figures of $12 million do not include creation of the mall area, acquisition of off shore land, engineering costs and operating costs. It only includes the first increment of the land fill cost. Those are part of the overall cost.

In line with further study, commissioners made tentative plans to tour other marina areas during the first week in February.

State Pays Tribute To 'Mr. Ed'

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — J. Edwin Larson returned to the Capitol for the last time today, to be in state with his friends and associates paying him honor.

The bronze metal casket holding the body of the late State Treasurer and Insurance Commissioner, was carried through the big double doors of the Capitol at 10 a.m. followed by the members of the Cabinet who served with Larson.

National dignitaries, wearing white gloves, stood at attention as the casket was placed in a bower of fresh flowers and potted plants facing the State Seal on the floor.

The first person to walk slowly by the open casket, partially covered by a black cloth yellow roses, was Frank Stinson, chief assistant to Gov. Haydon Burns, who was sick at the mansion with flu and unable to come.

Then came Cabinet officials, Supreme Court Justices and their wives, legislators and state employees, some of whom had worked for Larson for two decades.

The funeral services were grand and a hush fell over the many people gathered along the halls. All state employees, except in the treasurer's office, reported for work today, but the office doors were closed during the 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. hours of the lying in state.

More than 100 persons filed by during the first hour. These were not just state officials and employees gathered to pay respects to a colleague. Most were long time friends and neighbors, who had known Larson during all of his 24 years on the job.

Stetson Gets $1.1 Federal Loan

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Stetson University of Deland will get a $1.1 million federal loan for construction of a science building.

The money will be loaned under the Higher Education Facility Act.

The new building will contain laboratories, lecture rooms and faculty offices.

First meeting of the Lake Monroe Development Committee will be held tonight at 7:30 in the Seminole Chamber of Commerce's conference room. The meeting has been called by Dr. W. V. Roberts, chairman.

Sir Winston Embarks On Last Journey

LONDON (UPI) — Sir Winston Churchill today embarks upon his last journey which will carry him from the scenes of his glory to a rural grave.

Some time after dusk his body will be taken to Westminster Hall and placed atop a 10-foot catafalque shrouded in purple.

The Union Jack will cover his coffin and on it will be Churchill's regalia as a Knight of the Garter, one of Britain's oldest orders of chivalry.

The Archbishop of Canterbury will speak a prayer over the body tonight, and Wednesday morning the doors of Westminster Hall will be thrown open 23 hours a day to enable the public to file by for a last salute.

On Saturday morning the same naval gun carriage that carried the body of King George VI will take Churchill's coffin to St. Paul's Cathedral for a state funeral.

Churchill, a commoner, is getting the elaborate funeral usually reserved for royalty.

The funeral cortege will include two Royal Air Force bands, three bands of the foot guards, two Royal Marines bands, the mounted drum corps and state trumpeters of the household cavalry, the Royal Artillery band and 60 brass bandpipers.

Every once in a while for 30 minutes a gun will be fired to mark the years of Churchill's life.

Royal Air Force planes will fly past the cortege in a salute to the man who once landed British flies by saying never in the history of human conflict have so many owed so much to so few.

PALEM DESERT, Calif. (UPI) — Dwight D. Eisenhower, America's most beloved old soldier, will make a sad pilgrimage this week to England to see the site of his World War II glory, for the funeral of Sir Winston Churchill.

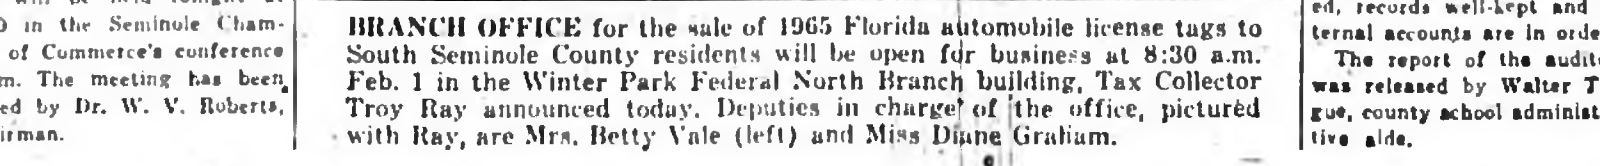

The wartime leader of the Allied forces in Europe, who went on to become the 34th President of the United States, disclosed that he would pay final tribute to his "dear and close friend."

Robb Company Wins Contract

LeRoy C. Robb Construction Company of Sanford has been awarded a $2,700 contract by the Navy to construct a shop addition to Building 255 at Sanford Naval Air Station.

The project calls for the construction of a 40-by-100-foot pre-fabricated metal building addition to an existing metal building.

Completion date for the job has been set for March 10.

BRANCH OFFICE for the sale of 1965 Florida automobile license tags to South Seminole County residents will be open for business at 8:30 a.m. Feb. 1 in the Winter Park Federal North Branch building, Tax Collector Troy Ray announced today. Deputies in charge of the office, pictured with Ray, are Mrs. Betty Vale (left) and Miss Diane Graham.

County Schools Given All A's

The state auditing department has reported that the Seminole County school system's bookkeeping is in "good condition."

The audit which covers the past three years states that the auditors "find the county used good business practices, that expenses are held within resources, that budgets are properly prepared and followed, records well-kept and internal controls are in order."

The report of the auditors was released by Walter Teague, county school administrative aide.

Ground Control Has 'Birthday'

Swanson, station commanding officer; Capt. J. J. Mayo, commander of Reconnaissance Attack Wing One; Cdr. T. L. Conder, operations officer; Lt. Cdr. H. Unger, officer-in-charge of the unit, and other crew members.

The unit, made up of three officers, five chief petty officers and 10 enlisted men, "talk in" planes during bad weather or when instruments have gone bad in an aircraft.

The 50,000th approach was part of a training mission. "We can pick up a plane on our radar as far as 50 miles away and guide it to a land- ing in almost any kind of weather," says Chief Air Con- trolman Paul W. O'Krimsky.

The unit, which is manned around-the-clock, works closely with the Federal Aviation Agency in Orlando. There is a direct telephone line between GCA 45 and FAA.

In atypical approach, the FAA, which has longer range equipment, pinpoints the San- ford-bound plane on radar, giving range and bearing. When the craft shows up on radar at NAS Sanford, the pilot is talked in by the ground control approach crew.

Britons In Earnest Chasing Robbers

(EDITOR'S NOTE: In the United States authori- ties have been dismayed by the reluctance of some citi- zens to get "involved" when they see a crime being com- mitted. But in Britain by- standers have started chas- ing robbers and fugitives with an enthusiasm that has raised the problems reported in the following dis- patch.

It started when Bacon called a news conference to reas- sure the capital that a wave of four killings and nine violent attacks — double the average for the holiday period — was under control.

Someone asked what advice he had for members of the public who saw gunmen carrying out a raid.

"The first advice I will not give is to stand still and get out of trouble," he said. "This is a difficult question and depends on how you are placed and the circumstances at the time.

"If you can have a go, have a go."

ATTACKED FOR STAND
 Bacon had scarcely finished talking when he came under furious attack from Graham Spiers of the British Safety Council. Spiers said the advice was "madness" and "suicidal." Bystanders who tanged with criminals might even hamper police besides need- lessly risking their lives, he said.

"You are not being a coward if you keep out of this and let the police deal with it," Spiers said.

Scotland Yard spokesmen discreetly explained that Bacon actually intended to limit active participation in capturing criminals to those who had the physical equipment and happened to be so placed at the time that they could intervene with reasonable safety.

"An enormous lot depends on the interpretation of 'have a go,'" said Arthur Evans, secretary of the Police Fed- eration. "It might be possible for, say, a driver to swerve his car or lorry (truck) and distract criminals in some way. Anything which distracts a desperate man can often be invaluable in foiling crime."

"Anyone who decides to have a go in the face of a sawn-off shotgun must be a lunatic," said another expert, James Tye.

LEGAL DANGERS
 Martin Ennals of the National Council for Civil Lib- erties warned that there were legal dangers in tackling sus- pects. He told of a friend who beat off a man attacking his brother — and was himself ar- rested and fined for assault.

The Sunday Citizen in a front page editorial charged Bacon was "encouraging un- armed and untrained citizens to tackle gunmen."

"The odds against the citi- zen getting away alive are high," the newspaper said, "against escaping unharmed are higher, against making a dent in the crime statistics graph astronomical.

"And what happens to the citizen's family if he is killed or injured? If a citizen injures an innocent man by tack- ling him he could be sued for damages and he could expect no help from the police."

The newspaper said citizens had a duty to help a police- man under attack but in other cases they would be wiser to take cover and make accurate notes. It pointed out that banks instruct their clerks never to be foolishly brave against a gunman.

Nevertheless in the first ten days of January after Bacon's press conference there were several outstanding examples of public help against criminals.

RAID BANK
 On Jan. 4, a carload of six bandits armed with a shot- gun, revolver, hammers and iron bars raided a bank. Bill Smith, 43, a passerby, threw bottles through the front and rear windows of the getaway car while another pedestrian, Brian Corneleous, hammered at the driver with a wrench.

Only expert work by the driver — he kept moving the car backwards and forwards — saved him but his accom- plices broke off the raid after scooping up only $2,240.

As the bandits piled into the car little Linda Phillips, 12, who hurried over to see the excitement with her 10-year-old sister, Pauline, picked up a beer bottle and aimed it at the wheel of the car in the hope, she said, of puncturing its tires.

"I read about the Scotland Yard appeal to help people being attacked," said Linda, "and I just had a go."

Said their mother, Mrs. Irene Phillips: "I'm very proud of my girls."

Two days later escaped convict John Marson, with a hea- tage in his stolen car, scream- ed into the capital at 130 miles an hour pursued by police. He was reversing out of a police trap when yacht designer Al- fred Myline, 46, rammed him with his new Ford Corsair and brought him to a halt.

"I knew I was going to wreck my new car," Myline said, "but you don't often get a chance like that."

Marson hid in the arway of a nearby building and shot two policemen. Residents leaped out of the windows of houses overlooking the area- way and pelted him with bot- tles and furniture until he was captured.

The British public has been given high praise for "having a go." Home Secretary Sir Frank Soskice said it was "a striking reminder of the way in which we are all in the bat- tle against crime together."

MAYOR DAVID Wentworth and Mrs. Onnie Shomate, city clerk, display the new Longwood license plates being distributed by the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce.

Barracks 1197, Auxiliary Have Combined Meet

By Mrs. John Leone
DeBary Barracks 1197, World War I Veterans, and its Auxiliary met Jan. 19 at the Community Center at which time the charter was draped in memory of departed comrades, Albarn C. Rector and Homer A. Barbeau.

It was announced that members of both groups have been invited to attend a meeting, Feb. 4, 7 p. m., at the center when a medal will be presented to the widow of Cdr. Cornelius Nolte who lost his life in the recent crash of a Navy Vigilante in the community.

Members were requested to help make DeBary a community of flying flags by displaying their flags every day. Birthdays of members were recognized and attendance prize was awarded to Irving Jacobs.

It was reported that Mrs. Fred Kammerer is a patient at University Medical Hospital, Charleston, S. C., William Joyce is in Lake City VA Hospital and Harold Theurer is ill at home. Members were asked to remember those on the sick list with cards of cheer.

It was requested that calendars be marked for Tuesday, April 27, when a card party is planned at the Community Center.

Next regular meeting will be Tuesday, Feb. 16, at noon for a covered dish luncheon before the business.

GOP To Elect Officers Tonight

By Jane Casselberry
Seminole County Young Republican Club will hold the annual election of officers at 8 p. m. today at the office of Allen Pyle on Highway 17-92 in South Fern Park near the county line.

The program will consist of tapes recorded excerpts from President Johnson's State of the Union message, each followed by response and analysis by Congressman Ed Gurney.

Plans will be announced for the Lincoln Day banquet scheduled for Thursday, Feb. 11, at the Windjammer Restaurant.

Methodist Men Set Meeting

Methodist laymen of the DeLand District will meet at 6:30 p. m. Thursday at the Daytona Beach Community Methodist Church for their quarterly business meeting and dinner. Reservations should be made promptly with Rev. R. T. Richardson, host pastor, 616 Harvey Avenue.

Hap Carr, president, will conduct the business meeting. Guest speaker will be Robert S. Grisetti, Apollo Program Manager for General Electric.

Heady Birthday

CAMBERLEY, England — (UPI) — Sir Paul Dukes, a former British secret agent, will celebrate his 76th birthday this week by standing on his head in a public demonstration of yoga.

SGT. Z. V. SMALLWOOD, of Florida Highway Patrol, receives a plaque of commendation for his "safe driving" assistance for Sanford Naval Air Station personnel from Cdr. J. W. Akins, acting commanding officer of RVAH-3. (Herald Photo)

VFW Auxiliary Hears Reports At Meeting

By Mrs. John Leone
Reports on the recent visit of National VFW Auxiliary President Mrs. Marie Kulig in Orlando were given by Mrs. Myrtle Hill, president of Auxiliary Unit 8093, DeBary at the January meeting.

The Orlando sessions were attended by Mrs. Hill, Mrs. Mae Zeller and Mrs. Alice Beinert of the DeBary unit.

Gifts to the Lake City Veterans Hospital, reported by Mrs. Francanna Howard, included hard cover and paper back books, two men's overcoats, two pairs of new shoes, shirts and socks and two hats. The items were delivered to the hospital through courtesy of Mrs. William Joyce whose husband is a patient there at this time.

Mrs. Greta Denning, urged and means chairman, urged the women to save articles for the rummage sale to be held early in the spring and Mrs. Alice Beinert asked that unused eye glasses, in any condition, and ceiling stamps be turned in for the collections.

The treasurer, Mrs. Teresa Smith, reported 100 per cent membership and Mrs. Babs Reilly, trustee, advised that quarterly audit found the books to be in good working order. Mrs. Howard was social hostess for the meeting and it was announced that next month's hostess will be Mrs. Frances Hackle of Deltona.

A district eight meeting was reported for Feb. 20-21 in Melbourne with Mrs. Nora Gillespie of Edgewater presiding.

Post To Meet

South Seminole VFW Post 8207 will meet at 8 p. m. today at the Post Home on the old Dixie Highway north of Longwood. Commander John McManus will conduct the meeting.

GOP Charge 'Gimmicks' In Money Bill

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Republicans said today President Johnson is talking poor but spending rich.

They said an emergency money bill up for House action exposes his hand.

Most Democrats praised the $997 billion budget Johnson sent Congress as one neatly balanced between needed economies and necessary outlays, including more for public welfare and a little less for defense.

But key Republicans derided this view. "In the interest of a clear understanding, we ought to dispel the myth about this budget being below $100 billion," said House GOP leader Gerald R. Ford, Mich.

Rep. Frank T. Bow, Ohio, senior Republican on the appropriations committee, said Johnson's bookkeeping appears loaded with "gimmicks" such as the one which made today's money bill necessary.

The bill was brought up in response to Johnson's request last week for $1.7 billion to pump up the revolving fund from which farm price supports are financed.

Bow said the reason the fund has to be replenished so urgently is that both Johnson and the Congress imposed paper cuts on it a year ago to make the fiscal 1965 budget look better.

According to the GOP view, Johnson "saved" $375 million of the total by simply not including in his request all that was needed to repay the fund for money already spent on price supports for dairy products, wheat, cotton, corn, rice, peanuts and other crops.

Congress has itself often used this gimmick in looking for ways to "cut" the President's budget. And it responded by making additional cuts of its own, of the same kind.

Bow and other Republicans said today's money bill was just replacing what was cut out in this false show of saving last year.

Bow said he will name shortly a Republican economy task force to ferret out such gimmicks, and to find other possible savings, in the budget Johnson sent Congress Monday.

"I'm sure we'll find places to cut several billion dollars out of it," he said, pending a detailed study which probably will take several weeks.

Chunk Of Ice: Two Lost Fares

NEW ROCHELLE, N. Y. — (UPI) — A chunk of ice fell from the top of a New Haven railroad train at the station here and broke the nose of a commuter waiting on the platform.

The railroad lost two fares, however, because a second commuter who went to the injured man's aid fainted at the sight of blood and had to be assisted home.

Navy Expresses Appreciation To 'Understanding' DeBary

Letters from Capt. Chandler W. Swanson and Capt. James Mayo, of Sanford Naval Air Station, in response to a resolution from the DeBary Civic Association were released for publication today by Earl Morrill, association president.

The resolution, adopted Jan. 12, commends the manner in which SNAS officials handled aftermath of the Dec. 23 crash of a Vigilante in DeBary and cites the pilot, Cdr. Cornelius Nolte, who lost his life in the crash, and the navigator, Lt.(jg) Paul E. Stokes, who was injured.

The letter from Captain Swanson, Naval Air Station commanding officer, expresses appreciation and gratitude for the resolution and commends the "citizens of DeBary for understanding and constructive spirit when faced with surprise and accidental destruction from the skies."

Captain Mayo commander of Reconnaissance Attack Wing One, states, in part: "While we of the military establishment understand that such unfortunate accidents do, from time to time, occur, it is rare indeed to encounter such a fine spirit of understanding among our civilian counterparts. This is doubly impressive in view of the personal injury sustained by the members themselves.

Your resolution serves as yet another gratifying example of the excellent rapport enjoyed by myself and members of my command with all the surrounding community. It is this outstanding community climate that makes NAS Sanford one of the best and most rewarding duty stations in the nation."

Original copy of the resolution was given to the family of Nolte, the second copy to Stokes and the third is retained in Naval Air Station records.

Coffee Clubbers Meet Thursday

Coffee Club of Seminole Chamber of Commerce will hold its first meeting of the year Thursday at 9:45 a. m. at the Chamber building.

New members, as well as members present for the first time, will be introduced. Co-chairmen of the Chamber's long range planning committee, C. Vernon Mize Jr. and Byron H. Kimball, will speak on the proposed Seminole County junior college.

Choir Social

The choir of DeBary Community Methodist Church held its monthly social and business meeting following rehearsal last Thursday night. Hostesses for the evening were Gertrude MacNaughton and Rose Fidler. Howard Green conducted the business session. Twenty-two members were in attendance.

More room for getting in

More power for getting away

Corvair for '65 is wider across the shoulders. And the increased entrance height makes it all easier to get at.

So ease yourself into the cockpit of a new Corsa. Scan the instrument cluster—tachometer, trip odometer, pressure and temperature gauges. Watch what happens when you hook it all up to a standard 140-hp Turbo-Air Six.

For more powerful fun, order the 180-hp version. Turbo-Chaarged!

Put that on top of Corvair's improved 4-wheel independent suspension and a wider front and rear wheel tread and you'll enjoy the kind of ride some sport cars charge you up to $6,000 more to get.

Come on in and test drive a '65 Corvair. We bet you'll begin to think that the car you're now driving will never give you any satisfaction again.

But you'll be wrong. You'll be more than satisfied with the liberal trade-in allowance we'll give you for it.

Investors Told To Stand Pat Until February

Wall Street Chatter
NEW YORK (UPI) — Oppenheimer, Newborg & Neu believes there is a good chance the present upward move has not exhausted itself but advocates selling on further strength for accounts that are heavily committed.

Analyst James Dines advises investors to stand pat but believes traders should lighten up. He says late February should provide some attractive buying opportunities and adds that both investors and traders should accumulate some cash reserves for exploitation.

The International Statistical Bureau says the market will be supported in the coming weeks by continued favorable earnings reports for 1964, further gains in the economy and legislation favorable to securities.

Weathersfield Names Fund Committee

By Maryann Miles
Weathersfield Civic Association set up a 10-member committee of the 54 attending the January meeting to collect donations toward the $648 utility bill which must be paid in March to keep street lights burning in the area.

A sizeable part of the total needed already has been donated by Cecil R. Cummings, Winter Park builder who handles sales of repossessed homes in the community.

Tentative plans also were made at last week's meeting to organize a Woman's Auxiliary for the association.

Next meeting was scheduled for Feb. 2.

House Entered

Theft of money from her purse was reported to police Sunday afternoon by Mrs. J. E. Baker, of 1600 West First Street. She said she was away from home at the time and entry was made through a rear door. She reported some change was also taken from a teapot.

MARCH 1 has been set by Bill Rogers of Sunland Estates for his solo flight in the J13 Piper Cub he has been rebuilding at his home since 1963. Rogers and his wife (in the plane) are shown here checking out the cabin seating space.

Pilot Rebuilding Own Plane

Bill Rogers of 2107 Watts Drive, Sunland Estates, has set a March 1 date to complete and solo the J13 Piper Cub that he has been rebuilding in his carport and backyard since November, 1963.

Rogers has put 363 hours labor in rebuilding the aircraft, which he periodically tests up in his backyard, and now lacks less than 200 hours labor to complete the job.

A licensed pilot for eight years and employed as a civilian engineer at Sanford Naval Air Station, Rogers acquired the 1940 model aircraft 14 months ago for $150 and has updated it to a present estimated value of $2,000.

He has stripped down the fuselage to the frame, sand-blasted it, checked and rewelded all joints, and covered it with 1/8 inch aluminum and 25-cent electrical and hydraulic systems, fabric work, sheet metal, welding and painting, and all completed with the exception of one wing.

Funds Requested For State Parks

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Johnson Monday asked Congress for funds to aid southern states develop and repair national historical sites during fiscal 1965-66. The projects included in Florida:

- Castillo de San Marcos National Memorial, $18,300, buildings and utilities; Everglades National Park $101,000, buildings and utilities; Fort Caroline National Memorial, $12,000, buildings and utilities; Fort Jefferson National Memorial $10,000, buildings and utilities.

'Peace Pursuit' No. 1 On Agenda

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Johnson believes that the "pursuit of peace" is the No. 1 item on the nation's agenda, but that the spread of nuclear weapons poses grave dangers to this goal.

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A scientific panel today proposed a 10-year research program "to chart the invisible and still largely unknown interior of our planet."

Doubled Senate Eyed To Meet Court Demands

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — Members of a special Senate committee are quietly at work on a solution to legislative reapportionment, and if the chairman speaks for the majority their answers might be a Senate double its present size.

Sen. Dewey Johnson, of Quincy, chairman of the committee named 10 days ago, said in an interview the committee will keep its discussions informal for a while.

"We do not want to formulate any concrete proposals that might snarl up the regular session of the legislature that meets in April," said Johnson.

"Right now, members are discussing, by telephone and correspondence, various philosophies and approaches." The legislature has been given a July 1 deadline by the federal courts to agree on a plan that meets the Supreme Court mandate of representation in both houses based on population.

Gov. Haydon Burns has promised to call a special session the first week in June.

"I very definitely feel the legislature can meet the court deadline," Johnson said. "I think it can be done in 10 days. The membership realizes it is their job and feels it can develop and do a more satisfactory job in the eyes of the people than can the courts."

Johnson said his own view is that enlargement of the present 41-member Senate to 80 or 90 members might solve the problem.

"The thing behind legislative representation is that it should be close to the people. To keep from getting too far removed from the people back home we must increase the number of members," Johnson said.

He said that to keep such a large body from becoming unwieldy, the Senate could adopt rules to handle committee assignments on a continuing basis based on seniority as congress does, instead of naming complete new committees each session.

He said the congressional system of making floor speeches by pre-arrangement would help in smoothing operation of the Senate.

Budget Averages $507 Per Capita

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The federal spending envisioned by President Johnson's fiscal 1966 budget averages out to $507.89 for each man, woman and child in the United States.

This per capita spending figure is obtained by dividing Johnson's budget total — $39.7 billion — by 196:300,000.

That is the Census Bureau's estimate of the U. S. population on Jan. 1, 1966, midpoint of the 1966 fiscal year.

Builder Wins Argument With Commissioners

Harold Logan, builder of St. Johns Village homes west of Fifth Street, won a compromise from City Commissioners Monday in an argument over who is to install a six-inch water line from First Street to his building structures.

As planned and approved by the city in June, 1956, the agreement called for the builder to pay for the costs of installing the line.

Logan has contended through his attorney, Mack Cleveland Jr., that he was not aware of this when he purchased the property from Sam Lawson, original designer and builder.

The city has contended that "ignorance is no excuse." In action Monday, commissioners agreed to assume two-thirds of the cost of installing the line, with Logan to pay one-third. Total cost is estimated at $3,724.

Col. Sandusky Honor Guest At Surprise Party

By Frances Westler
Col. and Mrs. Harry Sandusky of Lake Mary have been having house guests all through the holidays and still have with them Col. Sandusky's brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Barry, who plan to stay on during the winter season. Others visiting them were their oldest daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. John Worrell, from Columbus, Ohio, and their youngest daughter, Mrs. Mary Morin and her son, Mark Morin.

Most recent were Mrs. Sandusky's cousin, Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey Shuster, from Crawfordville. One special event that happened during their stay was a real surprise party for Col. Sandusky in celebration of his birthday. The group congregated at the Sandusky home on the evening of Jan. 18th. His birthday was on the 13th so he was surprised. Mrs. Joe Smathers made an elaborate and unusual cake for the occasion. There were thirteen guests attending and they presented the honoree with clever and humorous gifts. A happy time was had by all.

Mrs. Little Huggsberg, house mother at the Florida Methodist Children's Home was the guest of honor at a coffee given by the staff at the home Thursday morning. Mrs. Huggsberg was presented a gift by the group prior to her retirement. She plans to make her home with her daughter in Winter Park.

Mrs. Verna Keene returned last week to her duties as house mother at the Children's Home after having spent the past two months with her daughter in Richmond, Virginia.

Mrs. D. J. Parker returned last week from a visit with her daughter in San Francisco, California. She made the trip out by jet the last of December as Jean, who teaches school there, could not make the trip home for the holidays. Jean and her mother enjoyed many of the sights and visited many interesting places in that area. She had a wonderful visit and returned by train.

Andrew Evans spent several days in the southern part of the state including a visit with friends in Wildwood on the way down, a visit in St. Petersburg and Ft. Worth.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Dunn, Miss Helen Snodgrass and Mrs. B. Mueller attended the board of directors meeting and dinner at the Paul Hunter Restaurant in DeLand Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Lawson and Mrs. Senkie Lawson returned Wednesday afternoon from a trip to visit relatives and friends in Virginia. The most unusual thing they got snowbound in Marion, Virginia and were not able to get in or out for two or three days. Imagine Floridians getting snowbound—but Margaret says 'twas fun anyhow.

Fashions And Diamonds Highlight Beta Sigma Phi Luncheon

Colorful creations combined with dazzling diamonds created an enchanting atmosphere during an elaborate luncheon at the Capri Saturday as all five chapters of Beta Sigma Phi sorority combined forces for the annual event. Mrs. R. C. Steck served as narrator with detailed descriptions of the fabulous fashions furnished by Janet Bonder of Playgirl. The fashions featured casual and afternoon attire in an assortment of sleeveless dresses to three piece ensembles. The "at home" costumes were sensational with capri sets and jump suits created from colorful cotton, richly glowing velvets, sparkling metallic brocades and sheer feminine lace.

Veterans Pension Topic Of Friday Supper Meet

The ladies auxiliary will serve a covered dish supper on Friday, Jan. 28, 6:30 p.m. for the Veterans of World War I at the American Legion Home on Highway 17-92, approximately one mile south of Sanford.

Guest speaker will be Harold H. Harrison, representative of the Veteran's Administration, who will speak on all features of the new pension law no. 88-664 and answer any questions.

It is imperative for all veterans to understand the new pension law in order to protect their rights and pension. All veterans, their wives, widows and orphans should attend.

Woman's Club Fashions, Cards Slated Tonight

The Woman's Club of Sanford will be the setting tonight for a fabulous fashion show and card party, with the proceeds from this worthwhile benefit going towards a film on child molesting for the general public to view.

The program will get under way at 7:30 p.m. as members of the club will model the very latest in spring fashions from the wide selection of fashions from Playgirl. Cards will follow with interesting prizes awarded and refreshments will be served.

The lovely Mayfair home of Mrs. Ernest Southward was the setting recently for a stork shower in honor of Mrs. C. O. (Joyce) Jones. Mrs. Ted Williams and Mrs. Marshall Nichols were co-hostesses.

Beautiful floral arrangements of pink snap dragons decorated the party area and the honoree was presented a corsage cleverly created from a baby's rattle.

The guests participated in an advertising game with the winning prize awarded Mrs. Joe Alexander.

Gifts were presented to the honoree in a lovely blue bassinet adorned with pink and blue ribbons.

Party refreshments of sandwiches, cake, nuts and coffee were served to 40 guests. (Soc. Ed.)

Mrs. Dixon Wins Top Honors Among L. Mary Club Women

Mrs. Edith Dixon took top honors at the Lake Mary Woman's Club's annual Dress Revue held Thursday at the Capri, wearing a lovely spring ensemble of pink rayon. The talented seamstress who has not bought a dress since 1933 fashioned a dress which featured a decorative flower of the same material, round neckline, three-quarter length sleeves and a matching jacket. The outfit was topped with a full length flared coat of sheer white wool.

A veritable parade of talent impressed the club as fellow members, Mrs. Robert Mohn, Mrs. William Shattuck, Mrs. Dixon, Mrs. Curtis Green, Mrs. Marshall Werner, Mrs. Olan Boutwell, Mrs. William Yelneck, Mrs. Jo Smathers, Mrs. Jane Harman, Mrs. Paul Poor and Mrs. Alvin Kilpatrick, modeled the many dresses. Jackets and coats they had made for this occasion.

Mrs. Paul Poor, program chairman for the day, introduced the models wearing her own creation, a soft aqua dress of tailored lines. Mrs. Mohn chose a perky red two-piece dress with the popular overblouse, while Mrs. Green modeled a slim black wool jumper with a white and black polka-dotted blouse. With Easter in mind, Mrs. Marshall Werner wore a beautiful shade of aqua acetate made into a bloused top dress with a tie belt, and Mrs. Boutwell selected a slate gray striped material for her sheath dress.

A black and white combination was again chosen by Mrs. William Yelneck, however, her dress was of stripes with a straight black sleeveless coat featuring jet black buttons and large patch pockets. Mrs. Smathers wore a patterned drip-dry dress of varying shades of yellows and tans made into a gathered skirt with full blown bloused sleeves. A matching hat created by Mrs. Harman complemented her sheer wool red dress made with full pleats, front and back. A sports ensemble of lavender and white wool was modeled by Mrs. Kilpatrick, who also displayed a car coat she had made of an avocado green water resistant material, lined in a leopard patterned cloth.

Mrs. William Shattuck, who will head the club's delegation to the District Seven meeting next Wednesday in Kissimmee, was a standout in her outfit fashioned of black double knit wool dress topped with a smart black and white plaid cape. Mrs. Dixon will accompany Mrs. Shattuck to the meeting to compete with other club winners in the District art and craft festival sponsored by the Florida Federation of Woman's Clubs. Judges for the local revue were Miss Ellaloe Kirchhoff, Mrs. Joe Wright and Mrs. W. H. Duncan. Other guests included Mrs. Patrick Gallagher and Mrs. Luther Hobby.

During the business meeting conducted by President, Mrs. J. O. Gregory, the club decided that hereafter dues for new members will be pro-rated on the nominating committee: Mrs. Mohn, chairman, Mrs. Don Smith, Mrs. Vola Sloan, Mrs. J. G. Osburn, Mrs. Werner and Mrs. Harry Sandusky. Mrs. Frank Leons and Mrs. W. C. Hopkins reported on the cerebral palsy meeting they attended and asked for volunteers for the Telethon to be staged Feb. 6 and 7. Mrs. Leons also spoke of the hopes the group has for the Auxiliary now being formed and the future creation of a clinic for Seminole County.

Pale pink orchids grown by Mrs. R. C. Martin were featured by Mrs. C. J. Moss in her arrangement for the luncheon table.

Supper Fetes Mrs. McClain

By Jane Casselberry
Mrs. Marvin McClain of Casselberry was guest of honor at a late supper Sunday night celebrating her birthday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Donald MacLeod on Oakhurst Rd., Altamonte Springs.

She was presented with a lovely birthday cake decorated in shades of purple and topped with a spray of artificial orchids.

The hostess served a delicious variety of cheeses, sliced meat, relish tray, salads, hot chili, and pie.

In addition to the hosts and the honoree those present included Marvin McClain, Rex Mr. and Mrs. Delmas Copeland, Mr. and Mrs. Blynn Reiker, Mrs. I. G. Reuter, Mrs. Philip Casselberry, Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Messick and Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Casselberry.

she was presented with a lovely hot buffet tray by the girls of Eleven. Her husband, Cdr.
D. F. Munday is being transferred to Three where he will become executive officer.

Jan Beat will soon be leaving for VQ-1 in Japan. Her husband, who has been acting XO has received his orders and they were feted with a farewell party at the Orlando AFB Friday. More about this later.

SUE JAMISON of Eleven, just back from a visit to the frozen North says she and husband Kermit stopped to see Jan and Ted Bean in Norfolk and heard that plans were in the making for a "bunch" of Sanford people who were to get together there for a party. We're sure they will have many good memories to recall.

Both Sue and Sandy were volunteered to make the posters for the event.

Hostesses for the squadron luncheon on Feb. 11 at Creighton Gardens Restaurant will be Betty Stokes and Mary Lois Wetster.

MARGE HARVEY, new president of RVAH-13 Enlisted Wives was officially installed last week by Mrs. Maggie Nolta, widow of the squadron's former skipper, Cdr.
Tony Nolta.

Mrs. Nolta presented Marge with a new gavel at the luncheon held in the NAS Ballroom.

The next meeting of the group will be held in the new Naval Wives Meeting Room in the Ballroom building.

Hostesses will be Alice Ruff, Ann Meyer and Terry Bramwell. Marge says there will be a long agenda of business to be handled.

EDITH POUNDS who was re-elected to head the RVAH-13 Wives recently, conducted her first meeting of the new year with Mrs. Kenneth Enney, wife of the CO and Mrs. Robert Hendrickson, wife of the XO, as special guests.

The club voted to donate money toward the purchase of lamps for the wards at sick bay and Mrs. Robert Hodges asked the group to donate good used children's clothing for the welfare project.

Mrs. Pounds appointed new committees for this term including Betty Whitmore, membership; Billie Johnson, hospitality; Lois Layer, historian; Gail Tombs, decorations and refreshments.

The telephone committee will be made up of Pam Papson, Helen McCardle and Nell Schwartz.

Edith herself will serve on the airlift committee along with Rose Brewer and Peggy Stringer.

Bevmettes are forming a bowling team with lessons to be given on Thursday at 9:00 a.m. at Jet Lanes. Interested Seventettes are instructed to call Betty Bussard.

Next meeting is Feb. 16 at 7:30 p.m. in the Navy Wives meeting room.

North American headquarters in Columbus, Ohio and Lt. G.
J. Bowler, quality control officer will assume new duties at Oceana, Va.

Both Sue and Sandy were presented farewell gifts by Kathy Russell, wife of Five's commanding officer. Also presented were Cdr. and Mrs. Paul Werner, as well as wives of the squadron.

Dear Abby:

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: The letter from the wife who was embarrassed because her husband insisted on telling
"old jokes" took me back many years. My father, rest his soul, was a great one for repeating the same stories to his guests. They would all listen politely, giving no sign that they had heard the story before. Daddy's eyes would twinkle as he talked, and over and over again. I know how that woman must feel, because I used to be in the same situation.

Every time my husband would start telling one of his old jokes, I'd wince with embarrassment. After 40 years of marriage, he is gone. And now I would give anything if I could hear him tell one of his old jokes again.

GENERAL TENDENCIES:

Only by refraining from making those direct and bitter remarks that now come to your lips will you be able to really accomplish and achieve the right results that are essential if you are to have the success that you desire. Being thoughtful and considerate of others takes away opposition.

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) Being sure to please partners and show loyalty is better than being influenced by new contacts. Carry through with agreements made. Treat those problems with the calm and reserve of a doctor.

TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20) Being sure to pay your bills will certainly clear up any possible annoyances by scheming people. Have a smile on your face. Do not permit others to see that you are at all worried.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) Instead of wavering at every new idea that comes your way, be steady with loyal associates. Maintain poise with that formidable opponent. Then win wisely by showing cleverness.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) Don't permit fellow workers to lead you to wards losses, but carry through with thoroughness, wit. Improve your health by taking exercise, etc. Then all goes much faster, better.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21) With all the opportunity for having fun around you, be sure you do not neglect your mate. Use those fine capabilities to get rid of obstacles that stand in your way. Be businesslike.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) Be courteous instead of using sarcasm with him or you do not have to be so strict. Be more attentive to fundamental matters. This is the only access to getting ahead now.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 23) Important you take care in motion of any sort today and avoid accidents, loss. Think carefully before you speak, also. Gather the data you require quietly and efficiently.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 to Nov. 21) Don't be tempted to jump into situations that could mean much loss to you in many ways. Keep within your budget. Learn to economize more instead. Stay secure.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) You are in a somewhat restless mood, but it behooves you to remain steadfast to present course of endeavor. Look after personal affairs. Then this becomes a productive day, evening.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) Get those personal matters attended to so that you get rid of the obsolete conditions in your life. Assist that person who comes to you for help. Be generous, gracious.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) Showing your most human qualities is wisest with your friends at this time. Meet their expectations. It's fine to get out socially, but be sure to remain poised and calm.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) Getting into civic affairs and making others happy is a good idea today. Be sure to safeguard your credit. Don't annoy bigwigs with some wrong action, or words.

IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN TODAY, there will be a very great love for travel in this chart for cultural and educational purposes, but you must early teach that books are fine substitutes until such time as sufficient education is absorbed and philosophy of life set. Give plenty of sports as well as religious teaching so that enormous problems to be met in this lifetime can properly be solved.

"The Stars Impel, they do not compel." What you make of your life is largely up to YOU!

Domestic Help For Citrus Crop Pledged By U. S.

LAKELAND (UPI) — The U.S. Department of Labor is sending domestic laborers to help Florida citrusmen to harvest the crop, but citrus officials say this may not be the answer.

The Labor Department said its Bureau of Employment Security has recruited domestic workers to help pick fruit in Florida, and more than 500 workers are due in Florida by the end of this week.

Sen. Spessard Holland, meanwhile, informed Florida Citrus Mutual that Labor Secretary Willard Wirtz told him the department will turn down Florida's request for permission to import an additional 500 foreign workers for the harvest.

State officials asked for the offshore workers last week, explaining that the unusually mild winter has hastened the maturing of early and mid season fruit and that if it is not picked, more of it than normal will be lost through droppage and growers also will lose money because of a decrease in the pounds-to-loads ratio.

Holland, however, said Wirtz indicated the government will pay part of the cost of on-the-job training for inexperienced pickers, making up the difference between what a worker might get and the federal minimum wage of $1.25 per hour. A good picker can make double this.

Robert W. Rutledge, Mutual executive vice president, said the lack of training of domestic workers would slow down the picking too much.

He sent a telegram to Wirtz stating, "We still need an additional certification of 500 offshore laborers on a temporary basis."

The Great Society LBJ Launches War On Poverty

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Johnson Monday proposed to pump $1.3 billion into the fledgling war on poverty, his own plan to help poor Americans reach the Great Society.

The President's proposal to quadruple first-year anti-poverty expenditures was the highlight of an $8.3 billion spending plan for health, labor and welfare activities in the year starting July 1. This is an increase of $2.1 billion over current spending.

The nation's progress "is aimed at improving the quality of our life," Johnson said in his budget message to Congress.

"And it is aimed at insuring that all Americans share in this way of life."

To do this, the President recommended: —A fourfold increase in spending for war on poverty programs including community action projects, the job corps, the neighborhood youth corps and other self-help plans for needy citizens. The plan calls for some type of help for 600,000 persons.

—Hospital insurance for the elderly, and larger Social Security benefits.

—A new network of regional medical centers to combat major health hazards, including cancer, heart disease and stroke. More federal aid for medical and dental schools, hospital construction and modernization, mental health centers and health services for children.

—Increased federal assistance for projects to combat air and water pollution.

—Larger federal payments for workers displaced by automation, standardized unemployment compensation programs and extended jobless benefits for veteran workers who lose their jobs.

—Increased federal sharing in public assistance payments, plus new programs of medical care for children in welfare families and needy aged patients in mental and tuberculosis hospitals.

The big increase proposed for the war on poverty, which now is operating at a $347 million level, would be designed to increase community action projects from 410 to 600; bring another 15,000 youths into the 25,000-member job corps; raise the neighborhood youth corps from 175,000 to 290,000; help 101,700 needy students and 112,000 unskilled adults find work; boost the adult literacy program from 37,500 to 70,000; double the number of low-interest loans to needy rural families; and increase via the poverty war's version of the Peace Corps, from 3,500 to 5,000 volunteers.

REV. FITZSTEVENS

Troubled Land Of Viet Nam To Be Discussed

A first hand report on current problems of the troubled land of Viet Nam will be given by Rev. John Fitzstevens, missionary, during the annual missionary conference at Sanford Alliance Church, Park Avenue and 14th Street. Meetings are scheduled for 7:30 p. m. Thursday and Friday and for 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. on Sunday.

Rev. Fitzstevens began his work in Viet Nam under the Christian and Missionary Alliance foreign board in 1952 and presently is at home with his family in Fort Worth. Mrs. Fitzstevens, daughter of Alliance missionaries, grew up in what today is North Viet Nam, occupied by the Viet Cong.

During their first term there, they spent two years in the heart of Viet Cong territory where the fighting is now raging. They were stationed for one year in the mission's business office in Saigon and, while there witnessed the first government overthrow as it unfolded in front of the mission home.

During the past five years they have served on the staff of the school and home for children whose parents are missionaries in southeast Asia. The conference is open to the public.

Rocket On Pad Being Readied For Space Trip

CAPE KENNEDY (UPI) — The United States, for the first time in 20 months, has a rocket standing on a launch pad being readied to make a manned space flight.

The Titan-2 that is scheduled to orbit Gemini astronauts Virgil I. Grissom and John W. Young in April was set on its concrete and steel firing stand during an all-day operation Monday.

The 7,000-pound spaceship that will make the three-orbit mission will be hoisted atop its booster late next month after engineers put the Titan-2 through a long series of tests. The 4½-hour flight will be America's first manned shot since astronaut L. Gordon Cooper circled the globe 22.9 times May 15-16, 1963, in a Mercury capsule.

Grissom and Young were scheduled to fly to the cape today for three days to practice in a Gemini simulator.

They will return to the launch area next week for more dry runs. Plans for their flight received the go-ahead last week after the suborbital flight and recovery of an unmanned Gemini capsule that is now undergoing detailed study here.

Charles Mathews, Gemini program manager, said the space-ship's heat shield, vital for the safe return of astronauts from space, "is in exceedingly good condition" despite the higher-than-normal re-entry heating it encountered.

Fire Drill

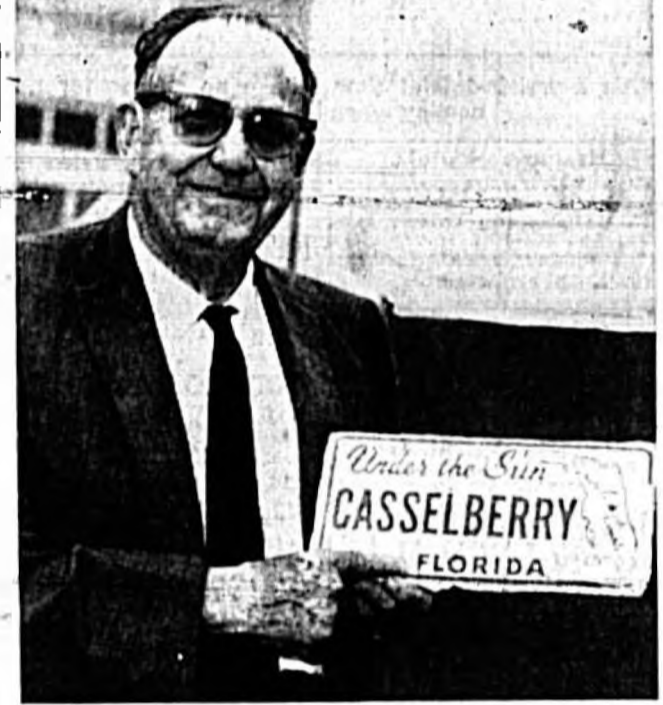

A drill for DeBary Volunteer Firemen has been announced for 7 p. m. Thursday by Chief Jack Lambertson who urges that all men of the department attend to learn more about pump and hose operations to prevent water waste. The siren will be sounded Thursday night at time of the drill meeting.

Giant Dust Clouds Blot Out Sun

LUBBOCK, Tex. (UPI) — Giant clouds of dust screamed across the Texas south plains on 78 miles an hour winds Monday, blotting out the sun and bringing ground and air traffic to a halt.

Denuded fields, picked almost bare of cotton and parched by lack of rain, sprang up in dirt clouds of blinding dust. Visibility was sliced to a half-mile from the Texas-New Mexico border eastward to the central portion of the state and in some areas the visibility was down to zero.

The Texas Department of Public Safety issued a special warning for motorists to use "extreme caution" in driving.

No deaths were reported on west Texas highways, but two persons died in a freak accident near Roswell, N.M.

Winds that gusted to 75 miles an hour shut down the Lubbock Airport. Flights out of Lubbock were cancelled and planes coming into the city were diverted.

The highest winds recorded in the state came at Denver City where a 78 mile an hour gust was gauged. A weather observer at Denver City reported zero visibility.

The dust was bad enough, but the wind did more damage.

Hundreds of roofs in the west Texas towns of Muleshoe, Seminole, Plains and Morton were lifted by the howling winds.

High power lines were down in the area and cotton trailers lay in disarray about the fields.

System Beats 1-Arm Bandits For Aussies

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (UPI) — The Australian slot machine "syndicate" has proved once and for all that slot machines can be beaten by a "system."

The "syndicate" took this gambling mecca by storm with the "system" that yielded the group $200,000 in slot machine winnings last year in Australia.

At club after club the four Sydney men were asked to leave, sometimes before hitting a single jackpot, and having dropped but a few coins into the machines.

In the brief span of four hours, "system" inventor George Clappett and fellow player Keith Jennings hit eight jackpots for a total of $277.50. The largest payoff was for $100. There was one for $35, three for $25, one for $50, one for $10 and the smallest for $7.50.

"We just had to prove ourselves," said Clappett with a broad grin. "We knew we could do it here in America, but we just had to bloody well prove it once and for all."

Up until this time, it was held that the slot machine player was a sure loser.

The group won $200,000 in a year playing slots in their home country, the funds financing their trip to this country.

Ladies Auxiliary To Give Dinner

By Donna Estes
The Ladies Auxiliary of the First Pentecostal Church of Longwood will sponsor a fried chicken dinner Thursday from 4:30 until 7 p. m. in the annex of the church on Orange Avenue.

Included on the menu with the chicken will be peas, potato salad, cole slaw, hot biscuits and butter, cake coffee and special drinks for the children.

Tickets are available from any member of the auxiliary or may be purchased at the door. Reservations and arrangements for delivery service may be made by calling Mrs. E. Ruth Grant.

Spinsters Starve Selves For Pets

COCKERWOOD, England (UPI) — Two elderly spinsters here starved themselves to provide food for a swarm of pets. It was reported today.

John Hanson, an inspector for the Royal Society for Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, said Ellen Ware, 63, and Gwendolyn Morgan, 70, had 40 cocker spaniels, four terriers, a St. Bernard, seven goats, a pony, four geese and a cat.

Hanson said he found Miss Ware and Miss Morgan semi-conscious in the trailer which was their home.

"The two women are great animal lovers," Hanson said. "Though they seemed to be suffering from cold and malnutrition, with one or two exceptions all the animals and the birds appeared to be well cared for and well fed."

Wayfarers To Meet

By Mrs. John Leone
DeBary Wayfarers will meet at 2:30 p. m. Monday at the Community Center for the monthly business meeting. Twenty-five Masonic anniversaries will be recognized.

Guest speaker will be Capt. Chandler Swanson of Sanford Naval Air Station.

All members are requested to wear their name tags.
