

New City Playground Opens

Ronald W. Perry, director of the City Recreation and Parks Department announced today the opening of another new park-playground area within the City. The site as yet unnamed lies between Bay and Willow Aves., north of 25th St.

Being developed as part of a master plan designed by the Department, the site now has a junior baseball-softball field laid out, open area for other athletic activities, and the beginnings of a playground apparatus area. Installed this week were two swing sets, one for tots and one for older children. Future plans for this area include continued additions of playground equipment such as slides, merry-go-rounds, see-saws, sand boxes and a spray pool.

Twenty oak trees have been planted for future shade. Extensive landscaping will be done to follow the development already achieved at Lake Gem Park. A picnic area, rest room facilities and two tennis courts round out the area's development program. This brings five as the total number of areas now having playground equipment, exclusive of school sites, in the City Recreation and Parks system. The next area that is planned for development is the 24th St. landfill area west of French Ave.

This 10 acre site will be one of the most extensive in the City with ball diamonds, play areas, archery range and tennis facilities.

Reporter Describes New Found Censorship Freedom In Russia

EDITORS NOTE: Henry Shapiro, who has been in the Soviet Union since 1934, is the dean of foreign correspondents in Moscow. In the following dispatch, he describes his new-found freedom to file an uncensored story from the Russian capital.

MOSCOW (UPI) — This dispatch was written at midnight from the comfort of my apartment, home of United Press correspondents for almost three decades.

I am free to pick up the receiver and phone my story to London or New York without an invisible censor looking over my shoulder. Or I can send it down to the Central Telegraph Office where a friendly, cheerful girl receptionist inserts it into a pneumatic tube to an upper-floor operator for immediate transmission.

By force of habit, my worried wife — who because of the peculiarities of local working conditions has no known normal existence for more than 20 years — asks if I will disappear for a night-long vigil to the "sweat-shop," as the foreign correspondents call the Central Telegraph.

It seems too good to be true that what comes out of this typewriter will reach the outside world almost as fast as I punch the keys — and without a single deletion.

UPI headquarters, one of the few foreign residences outside the so-called diplomatic ghetto, is no longer a graveyard of untold stories.

First Aid Course Set For Ministers

C. W. Beach, pastor of Sanford's Seventh-Day Adventist Church, will attend a four-day concentrated first aid training course in Orlando next week.

All of Florida's Seventh-Day Adventist ministers are enrolled for the sessions which will be in charge of a Red Cross instructor from the Atlanta headquarters.

Easter Lily Ball Scheduled Saturday

The Easter Lily Ball, scheduled Saturday in the ballroom of the Mayfair Inn, will be the last big social event of the current season.

This third annual benefit is staged jointly by the Society for Crippled Children and Adults and the Sanford Pilot Club. The Society is an affiliate of the National Easter Seal Society, and 75 percent of the proceeds from the ball will remain in Seminole County to care for crippled children and adults here.

The dance will begin at 9 p. m. to the music of the Pete Buker Orchestra, and good entertainment is promised in the talented dancing and singing of Miss Jeri Wheatland and the magical tricks of the famous "Mr. Magie."

Some lucky guests at the ball will win the door prizes that have been donated by Sanford merchants, with the first prize being a handsome hooked rug made and donated by an Altamonte Springs lady, Mrs. Robert Bradford.

Mrs. O. A. Payne is the president of the Pilot Club and Dr. Vann Parker is the president of the Society of Crippled Children and Adults. Reservations may be made by phoning them, or by calling the ticket chairman, Mrs. Shirley Schlike.

Music Vesper Service Sunday

An all music vesper service titled "Choruses from Great Oratorios" will be held at the First Presbyterian church Sunday at 5 p.m.

The Chancel choir will sing the service, Mrs. George Touhy directing. The annual Easter season hour of worship is open to all who wish to attend, said the Rev. Grover C. Sewell, Jr., minister.

The order of service is Prelude-Cantabile in B (Cesar Franck) Mrs. Touhy; And Then Shall Your Light Break Forth; He Watching Over Israel (The Elijah-Mendelssohn); How Lovely Is Thy Dwelling Place (Requiem-Brhms). Offertory — Lord Hear My Voice (Bach).

Crucifixus (Mass in B Minor-Bach); Behold the Lamb of God; Surely He Hath Borne Our Griefs; The Hallelujah Chorus (these three choruses from The Messiah-Handel). It is requested by church officials that those attending the service be seated prior to the 8 p.m. starting time, thus avoiding distracting interruptions.

Better Watch What You Write In Magazines

By DICK WEST
WASHINGTON (UPI) — If I were in the business of giving advice to college professors, I would feel constrained to offer the following admonition:

Be careful what you say when writing magazine articles. An alumnus of your college may become president some day and your words could come back to haunt you.

A situation such as this developed this week in the case of a Harvard law professor named Stanley S. Surrey, whom President Kennedy has appointed assistant Treasury Secretary for tax policy.

Surrey went before the Senate Finance Committee for his "confirmation hearing," a function that sounds like a religious ritual but is somewhat similar to a packing house operation.

Appointees are herded on the hoof, into a committee room and, if found to be free of contamination, are stamped "U. S. Senate inspected." Now and then, one of them may get butchered.

Surrey spent two days before the Finance committee and he must have felt like he was being carved into pieces about the size of a 49-cent lamb chop.

His troubles stemmed from some magazine articles he wrote several years ago suggesting that Congress, in enacting tax laws, had sometimes given favored treatment to certain groups of taxpayers.

Several of the committee members were offended by this. They took Surrey line by line over his published opinions and demanded to know whether he still felt that way.

The professor, who probably was wishing he had never seen a typewriter, assured the senators that he would keep an "open mind." But that may not have been the right thing to say.

Some senators seem to think that an open mind means the same thing as a hole in the head.

At one point, Sen. Clinton P. Anderson, (D-N.M.), asked Surrey something about fringe benefits in labor contracts. Sen. Wallace F. Bennett, (R-Utah) thanked Anderson for bringing this up.

Bennett said he had been trying throughout the hearing to think of some way to work "surrey" and "fringe" into the same sentence.

As senatorial puns go, Bennett's wasn't bad, and it got a big laugh. It was particularly appreciated by Sen. Robert S. Kerr, who lives in Oklahoma.

I thought, however, that the finest utterance was Sen. Carl T.

published opinions and demanded to know whether he still felt that way.

Attorney Denies Peel Boast Of Judge's Death

FORT PIERCE (UPI)—An attorney denied today that Joseph A. Peel Jr. ever boasted to him about getting rid of prominent Circuit Judge C. E. Chillingworth.

In an angry exchange with the prosecutor Phil O'Connell, attorney Frank Maynard also denied that Peel ever "scared" him by telling him: "Anybody who knows anything about the Chillingworth case don't live."

Maynard, from Lake Park near Palm Beach, took the witness stand for the defense as Peel's murder trial went into its fourth week.

Defense attorney Carlton Welch put Maynard on the stand to answer earlier testimony by Mrs. Edna Trepp, a secretary who testified for the state that she overheard Peel tell Maynard in 1956: "We got Chillingworth—now we got to get Phil O'Connell."

Maynard denied Peel ever made such a statement to him.

O'Connell then charged that Peel had told Maynard that anybody who knows anything about the Chillingworth case "don't live," and that Maynard had become "so excited you never discussed the case with Joe again."

Maynard said that what Peel actually told him was that "in his opinion, anyone who knew anything about the Chillingworth case, their life wasn't worth a plugged nickel."

As the session opened, Judge D. C. Smith announced that he had planned night sessions tonight and Tuesday to bring testimony to a conclusion as quickly as possible. The case would be in the hands of the jury by the latter part of the week.

The handsome Peel, a municipal judge in West Palm Beach at the time the Chillingworths vanished, took the stand last Friday and dramatically denied he was involved "directly or indirectly" in the murders.

Recalled Saturday by O'Connell for cross-examination, Peel admitted he plotted with James Yenser to kill "Lucky" Holzapfel. But said he wanted the ex-convict killed because Holzapfel had threatened his family. Yenser, Peel learned later, was acting as a state agent in the investigation of the Chillingworth case.

O'Connell had charged that Peel wanted Holzapfel assassinated because he feared he would "turn state's evidence in the Chillingworth case," Peel denied this.

Home Exemption Deadline Nears

Tax Assessor Mary Earle Walker today warned residents that Friday is the last day for filing homestead exemption applications this year.

Mrs. Walker said that on Jan. 1 applications were mailed out to all those who filed for exemption for 1960. She said that "if you still own your property and are living there and making the same your permanent home, you should sign the application and file your tax return forms, both tangible and intangible, before Friday. This can be done by mail."

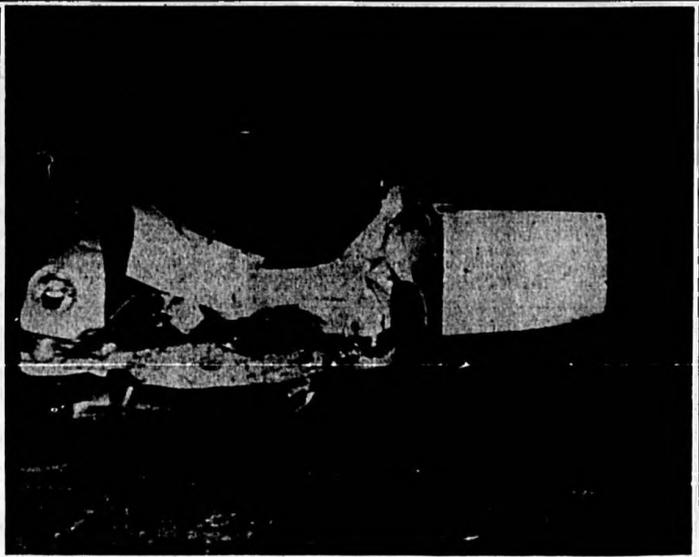

Mrs. Walker explained that for new owners who are applying for the exemption for the first time, it is necessary that they come into the office and bring their deed in order that proper application may be filed.

The assessor's office is open each day—Monday through Friday from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. to assist anyone wishing to claim exemption and file tax returns.

Social Security Benefits Okayed

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The House Ways and Means Committee today approved legislation that would boost cash benefits for 3,673,000 persons on the Social Security rolls, effective this summer.

The measure also would permit male workers to retire at age 62 and draw permanently reduced cash benefits. Under present law they must wait until age 65.

Sanford Man Dies, 3 Hurt In Traffic As Weekend Damages Near $5,000

A Sanford man died, three persons were injured, one seriously, and a cow was killed as a result of five traffic accidents during the weekend, law enforcement officers reported today.

Damage in the five accidents totaled close to the $5,000 mark, officers added.

A 47-year-old Sanford painter was killed and his wife was seriously injured in a two-car collision Friday night at Second St. and Myrtle Ave.

Howard Upchurch of 201 Maple Ave. died of injuries at Seminoles Memorial Hospital after the accident, police said. His wife, Ann Upchurch, received severe head injuries, but was taken off the critical list today at the hospital. Hospital authorities said she was in good condition at noon.

Robbie Dean Barnes, 20, of old Sanford Naval Air Station man was charged with manslaughter, careless driving and driving while intoxicated as a result of the accident.

3-Ton Elephant Stamps Trainer

EAST MEADOW, N. Y. (UPI)—A 31-year-old animal trainer was in fair condition today with multiple injuries received when his circus elephant whipped and stamped on him before 3,000 spectators.

Eric Prodellus, the trainer, was treated for numerous broken bones and a head injury after the incident Saturday when he was attacked without warning by Jewel, a bull elephant.

News Briefs

Five Die On Roads
TALLAHASSEE (UPI)—At least five persons were killed in weekend traffic accidents in Florida, the State Patrol reported today.

Stocks Fairly Active
NEW YORK (UPI)—Stocks met mild support at the opening today in fairly active trading. Wall Street is counting on rising federal deficits and increasing steel production to help set the market in forward motion following two reactionary sessions at the close of last week.

Rebels Kill Nine
ALGIERS, Algeria (UPI)—Rebel violence in Algeria over the weekend left at least nine dead and 50 wounded today. Apparently following the line laid down in Tunis by Rebel "premier" Ferat Abbas that negotiations with France do not necessarily mean peace, rebel forces carried out at least 12 widely separated attacks in the past 48 hours.

Liz Flies Home
LONDON (UPI)—Elizabeth Taylor left the London Clinic today, blinking in the bright sunlight of an English spring day, and headed for California for a long rest. The dark-haired movie star smiled wanly from a green-leather wheel chair as she was rolled out to a waiting car surrounded by about 50 eager admirers and newsmen.

Geologist Probed
TALLAHASSEE (UPI)—Gov. Farris Bryant's new Administrative Investigative Division is investigating reports that equipment owned by the State Geological Survey has been used to drill private water wells. Charles Bateman, a Florida State University student, said he paid state geologist J. A. Lavender $10 to drill a well for him and Lavender used state equipment on the job.

Tourists Change
JACKSONVILLE (UPI)—Winter business activity in the winter of 1960 was nine per cent above that of the summer, the State Chamber of Commerce reported. The chamber said the seasonal variation was the greatest since the early 1950's. "To difference points a finger toward the need for increased summer tourism," the chamber said in its weekly business review.

Reds Have Might
WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Soviet army has at least four times as many modern weapons as the U. S. Army, according to a top Pentagon officer. Brig. Gen. Lawrence J. Lincoln, director of plans and material, said Sunday the United States had developed many weapons that were equal or superior to Soviet versions. But Russia excels in some fields and in practically all areas has a greater supply of up-to-date weapons, he said.

Florida State Bank Opening Set

Florida State Bank employees will move into their new half million dollar building next Monday.

Assistant Cashier Mrs. David Gatchel said that Friday after the regular business hours are over, heavy equipment will be moved to the new quarters located on W. First St.

Mrs. Gatchel emphasized that the bank will be open for business at its new home April 3.

Officials will hold a press preview of the new bank April 3 and a big promotion will start the week of April 10 lasting through April 24.

During that time more than $2,500 in gifts will be given away. The grand formal opening of the bank will be held April 22.

Women Democrats Get Invitation

The Democratic Woman's Club of Seminole County has received an invitation from the Democratic Woman's Club of Orange County, to attend a luncheon April 8 in honor of Mrs. Edwin Ivy, vice president of the Democratic Women's Fifth Congressional District organization.

The luncheon will be held at the Orlando Country Club at noon and reservations must be made by April 6. For further information and placing of reservations, members are asked to call Mrs. Tom Gallagher or Mrs. W. A. Reynolds.

Board To Study Proposal For $9 Million Drainage System For Whole County

The County Commission Tuesday will consider application to the government for planning funds for a $9 million county-wide water control and drainage program.

The commission met with Reynolds, Smith and Hill, Jacksonville engineers, Friday and went over preliminary cost estimates of the massive plan.

The firm has said that the only preliminary cost estimates totaled $9 million and call for the installation of canals and control structures on all land-locked lakes, the Econlockhatchee River, Howell Creek and the Little and Big Wekiva Rivers.

The Jacksonville firm was authorized to conduct the study late last year.

The firm has said that the only solution to the water control and drainage problems in the county is a series of canals and structures.

The county can apply for planning funds under the House and Home Finance Authority.

However, it must pay back this loan if the project is carried out, County Engineer Carlton Bliss said today.

At the same time, the commission will discuss the setting up of drainage tax districts in the county by enabling legislation.

Bliss two weeks ago outlined the need for a special act to relieve flooding in the county.

The commission is studying an Orange County bill which would establish drainage tax districts.

At the last meeting County Attorney Mack Cleveland Jr. warned commissioners to study the sample bill "very carefully" as he feared there were not enough safeguards in the proposed legislation.

SEATO Agrees On Laos Arms

BANGKOK, Thailand (UPI)—The Southeast Asia Treaty Organization nations were reported agreed today to take military steps if necessary to keep the Communists from taking over Laos.

Informed sources said France was the only one which showed reservations about the possible use of force in a joint SEATO action in Laos if the Soviet Union does not agree to an immediate ceasefire there.

However, an editorial in the Soviet newspaper Pravda indicated the Russians were ready to end the Laotian crisis peacefully. Press reports quoted Pravda as saying the Russians favor "peace talks."

Observers interpreted this as a hopeful sign, although it was not clear whether it meant the Soviet was ready to accept the idea of a cease-fire.

News of the Pravda editorial reached the ministers during their opening session in secret. The group recessed a short time after the word reached here, although it was learned that the Pravda editorial was not discussed officially in the meeting. The ministers convene again Tuesday.

President Kennedy, backed by new Allied unity, today was expected to urge Russia to quit fueling the fires that threaten an independent neutral Laos.

Kennedy met at the White House at noon with Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko who asked for the appointment to deliver a message from Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev. There was strong speculation that before the stern-faced Gromyko enters Kennedy's oval office, Russia would have delivered to Great Britain a reply to the recent British call for a cease-fire in Laos.

The American president carried into the meeting an enthusiastic agreement from British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan that "the situation in Laos cannot be allowed to continue to deteriorate." Macmillan and the President met for the first time Sunday at the sunset U. S. naval base at Key West, Fla.

After their three-hour conference, they issued a short communique on their strong, joint hope that Russia "will make a positive and constructive reply" to the British cease-fire proposal.

Laotian military sources today claimed that Pathet Lao rebels are on the retreat near Vang Vieng, some 65 miles north of this capital city.

An American military transport plane missing in Laos since Thursday was apparently shot down deep in Communist-held territory, officials said today.

The C-47 transport, with eight persons aboard, belonged to the office of the air attaché at the American embassy in Vientiane.

The nature of the mission was not disclosed, but the plane has been used before to check on Soviet airlift operations.

Chief American delegate Arthur H. Dean declared the Soviet veto demand is unacceptable.

He did so at the 27th meeting of the 24-year-old conference, as part of a detailed outline of the minimum controls and international inspection of the West demands Russia accept as the price for an East-West treaty to ban nuclear weapons test for all time.

Russia made its veto proposal when the conference resumed last Tuesday. Although several months ago it agreed to a future test ban control organization to be headed by a single administrator.

The Soviets reversed themselves and demanded a three-member administrative council.

Dean said that even if there is agreement here as to the maximum number of inspections which would be made each year in any country, the system would be useless if the administrator's office was so established that no suspicious rumble ever would be certified as qualifying for inspection.

Four To Represent County At Meet

Two Slavia youths and youngsters from Geneva and Lake Mary will represent the county in the district 4-II Club land judging contest scheduled next week.

The four named were winners in the county contest held Saturday.

They are Nancy Jiminez, Lake Mary; Owen Cammack, Geneva and Jerry Arndt and John Jakubcin, Slavia.

Representing the County Future Farmers at the district meet will be Buddy Sheehan, Pauls; Carlton Prevatt, Geneva; Eddie Kosky, Sanford and George Freeman, Lake Monroe.

Twenty boys competed in the contest Saturday.

Upcoming

The City Commission will meet at 8 p. m. today and a look at the agenda discloses plenty of business.

The Sanford Lions Club, meeting at the Sea Shell Restaurant at noon Tuesday, will see a film, entitled "The Lure of LaNo-Chee," which concerns the Boy Scout camp near Rustle. Tom Albert, Scout executive, is the program chairman.

Tavern Burglarized

The Cut Rate Beer Garden of W. 15 St. was broken into sometime early this morning with $30 and a case of beer taken, police reported. Entry was gained by breaking a window on the side of the building.

If you notice a full grown goose running around town it belongs to County Agent Cecil Tucker.

Tucker was given the goose at Christmas time by a relative and the county agent reports she is getting acquainted with the community.

"Lucy" as the goose is called by the Tucker family, is given free access to the Tucker property and Tucker says he'll probably take it for a walk downtown one of these days.

Did you know that 50 years ago Sanford's police department was a law enforcement body of just six men. The average age of the men was 40 years of age and the chief was named Greene Smith—although in those days we called our chiefs City Marshals.

Just for the record, the six man force was comprised of Smith, J. D. Siferd, Tom Davis, Conner Williamson, Sam Williams and R. R. Whittier.

Look for the Chamber of Commerce to adopt a resolution in the very near future backing up sportsmen protesting any commercial sealing in the St. Johns River. Chamber officials are very upset over the proposal. We wouldn't even be surprised to see the county take some action protesting the plan.

Some drainage relief is in sight for Loch Arbor residents. District 5 County Commissioner John Fitzpatrick will urge the board, probably Tuesday, to take immediate action in the purchase of pipe to relieve the drainage problem.

Fitzpatrick had it on his agenda last week but the board never got that far as it adjourned in the early evening hours.

Women Democrats Get Invitation

The Democratic Woman's Club of Seminole County has received an invitation from the Democratic Woman's Club of Orange County, to attend a luncheon April 8 in honor of Mrs. Edwin Ivy, vice president of the Democratic Women's Fifth Congressional District organization.

The luncheon will be held at the Orlando Country Club at noon and reservations must be made by April 6. For further information and placing of reservations, members are asked to call Mrs. Tom Gallagher or Mrs. W. A. Reynolds.

Small Audience Enjoys Symphony

By D. HIGGINBOTHAM

A small and exclusive audience enjoyed the performance Friday of the Florida Symphony Orchestra at their second appearance in the City of Sanford.

There were only a few more listeners in the vast empty auditorium than there were on the stage, in the orchestra.

However, the audience of music lovers were enthusiastic and made up, with vigorous applause, for what they lacked in numbers.

The Florida Symphony Orchestra, under the baton of young and talented Henry Mazer, performed as if they were playing to a packed auditorium, with well-handled classical numbers and sparkling arrangements of contemporary music from Broadway shows.

Commenting on the situation, Conductor Mazer said, "We appreciate the presence here of all of you and we thank you for your enthusiasm. We hope that this unfortunate situation will not prevent you from asking us to come back again."

Recreation Department officials were at a loss to explain the regrettable lack of enthusiasm shown for this top-flight entertainment, which last year played to a packed house, both at the children's free concert in the afternoon and the formal evening show.

Southside Lists New Improvements

Southside School P-TO meeting of Thursday night was highlighted with a report of the project committee given by the chairman, Dr. J. F. Darby.

Dr. Darby, in announcing the proposed plans, stated that they would be carried out to completion with funds derived from the annual school Halloween Carnival in cooperation with the Seminole County School board.

Items listed by Darby included improvement of the four rest rooms with mirrors, shelves and coat hooks, plus installation of deep sinks with adequate drains for art work; painting of the draperies; correcting low water pressure at the school; and purchase and installation of an inner-com system with two way speakers.

Also, the committee plans to barricade the back entrance to the school so that vandals may not enter the school yard while students are outside. Other items to be purchased include four cold water fountains, permanent Christmas lights, artificial plants for the auditorium and lunch room, and new lumber for carnival booths.

Other members of the project committee who met with Supl. of Schools R. T. Milwee include Mrs. W. L. Kirk, Mrs. J. C. Mitchell, Mrs. Verona Hardin, Mrs. D. G. Walton, Mrs. Albert Jarrell, Miss Margarita Dolson, H. W. Rawls and Don Sales.

6,000 Collegians Scrap For Beaches, Beer

FORT LAUDERDALE (UPI)—An exuberant mob of college students, here for their annual Easter vacation roistering, hurled beer cans, firecrackers and words at police Sunday night because two of their favorite beaches were closed.

Unsympathetic officers turned back the two-hour demonstration with fire hoses, kept the beaches off limits and, for good measure, closed the bars early.

It started as "kind of a sit-down demonstration to get the beaches open," one student said. "They weren't angry or anything," said city jailer Albert Franco.

The city, swollen by thousands of pale-faced Northern college students seeking vacation sun, started jumping about 10 p.m. The junction of Las Olas and Atlantic Blvd. the principle beach-front intersection was described by one policeman as "the Times Square of this college invasion."

Today's speaker will be Rev. Joseph Stock of the Congregational Christian Church. Rev. David Brooks of the E. Orlando Christian Church will speak on Tuesday and Rev. Ernest Bolick of Sanford's Good Shepherd United Lutheran Church will lead Wednesday services.

A Maundy Thursday candlelight communion service will conclude the Holy Week observance and on Friday the church will join others of the Sanford area for the three-hour services from noon until 3 p.m. at the First Presbyterian Church.

with fire hoses, kept the beaches off limits and, for good measure, closed the bars early.

The melee was apparently touched off by newly-imposed restrictions on nearby Jade and Dania beaches, favorite spots of the students at night because they are unlit. Jade has been closed entirely and Dania is now closed at night.

"We want beaches... we want beer," the students shouted, when police tried to break up the demonstration they were pelted with beer cans and firecrackers.

One student attempted to re-store order through the police loudspeakers. He was driven back by chants of "traitor... traitor... traitor."

A small sports car was overturned by one group of students. They made an attempt to upend a police squad car, but were unsuccessful, beer cans being no match for fire hoses.

U. S. Must Repent, Graham Declares

MIAMI BEACH (UPI)—America must "repent or face judgement," Evangelist Billy Graham told 10,500 listeners Sunday night as he concluded a 21-day crusade at Miami Beach Convention Hall.

The throng brought total attendance at the three-week meeting to 248,300 persons. Crusade officials reported a total of 7,948 "Decisions For Christ."

Graham, introduced by Sen. George Smathers, spoke on the question, "Will God Save America?"

"God often has allowed a Godless, atheistic nation to bring judgment to his people," the evangelist said.

"All we have is at stake and military power is not enough," he warned. "We must have spiritual and moral power through faith in God."

"We're almost ready to receive God's judgment," Graham predicted. "Our only alternative is national revival."

Graham resumes preaching Tuesday with appearances at Cape Canaveral, Patrick Air Force Base and West Palm Beach Wednesday, Vero Beach Friday, and at Peace River Park near Bartow for an Easter Sunrise service.

SANFORD — The City of opportunity — the City with an assured future. The first of the year (1961) Florida Kiplinger Letter said that the Sanford-Dania area showed the greatest promise for moving forward—even a small boomlet.

The strength and vitality of the economy of this area is apparent. Both the growth of Sanford and Orlando area are truly amazing. A drive between the two cities will reveal that the two cities are growing together. The recent announcement that the fabulous Disneyland type Circus Land just at the south side of Sanford should herald the growth of this area beyond any conceivable proportions.

The Naval Airbase and other industrial installations provide this area with an assured incoming population and ready cash payroll. Located on beautiful Lake Monroe and near other outstanding streams, Sanford is provided with matchless beauty and some of the State's most desirable fishing spots. The St. Johns River flowing through Lake Monroe gives this area an outlet for Central Florida to the coast.

This, and many other attractions, give Sanford natural appeal that assure its continued growth and rising economy. COME LIVE AND INVEST IN SANFORD! !

Jacobson Buys Hill Building On First St.

A Sanford landmark, the old Hill Hardware Building on the southeast corner of First St. and Palm-etto is going to be the latest location along the First St. Business district to get a face-lift.

The building has recently been purchased by Manuel and Hannah Jacobson, at an undisclosed price, from Mrs. Ada Newman. The sale was handled through the St. John's Realty Company of Sanford, with George A. Speer representing legal counsel for the purchasers.

Jacobson plans extensive remodeling and repairs of the two story building, which contains some 14,000 square feet of floor space. "It will be entirely remodeled in the latest modern style, both inside and out," said Jacobson. "After that, space will be available for lease."

The large building, which most recently housed the Hill Hardware Company, has been a familiar sight in the town for many years. The building was constructed before the turn of the century, in the late 1800's and has been variously used for a clothing store, a jewelry store and others. At one time, the upstairs was rented out in apartments, and later was used by the Elks for a club. When Hill Hardware took over, they converted the upstairs into storage space. Since then, Hill Hardware moved out and consolidated their interests with the Hill Implement Company and the building has stood empty for about three years.

School To Sponsor Art Fair April 15

In connection with this the P.T.O. will sponsor a supper, a movie and other means of entertainment to raise funds for landscaping the school grounds, the principle said.

P.T.O. president, Donald Jones, presided over the meeting that was opened with a flag ceremony and a devotional by the Rev. V. H. Grantham.

Hemphill advised that if reservations have not been made for the meeting those wishing to attend should contact the church office or George Stine.

A Warning

The County Commission will consider Tuesday an enabling act to set up drainage districts in Seminole County.

We agree with State Rep. Mack Cleveland Jr. when he cautioned the board last week to "study the sample Orange County bill very carefully" before reaching any decision on a local bill.

We believe the citizens of the county should have all the proper safeguards on any bill especially one that may not give the people a chance to vote on whether they will have to get a raise in taxes.

WORRY CLINIC by Dr. G. W. Crane

Archie is a boss who found himself out on a limb. Since nobody had showed him a tactful way out of his predicament, he started at his employees and made himself hated. Now he is well liked!

CASE 11-443: Archie M., aged 37, is a factory foreman.

"Dr. Crane, Archie is a very talented man," his personal manager informed me, "but he doesn't get along well with his employees."

"As a result, the efficiency of his department is greatly reduced. Just because of this psychological factor."

"Archie's men are well trained. They have the proper tools. But output isn't up to standard, for there isn't harmony between employer and employee."

"Archie seldom says a word to anybody, and when he does, it is usually some sarcastic criticism. How should we handle such a man?"

A person who is caustic and sarcastic, usually has an inferiority complex. So he may compensate by being a bully.

You can often spot a head-watling child, for example, by the fact that he suffers from a social inferiority complex. He feels humiliated, so he tries to belittle other children to an ever lower level of ego inflation.

Similarly, sarcastic husbands usually feel belittled in some realm, often the sexual, so they try to browbeat their wives into a fearful state of dejection, thereby enabling these sadistic husbands to feel superior, by contrast.

So look at Archie in the same light. If he only speaks to people when he can find fault or deflate their ego, then maybe he, in turn, is afraid that his ego isn't sufficiently superior to theirs.

Being a boss, however, he feels that he ought to stand out head and shoulders above his men in order to hold their respect.

If he thus fears he doesn't stand out sufficiently, and if he knows no other constructive way to gain in psychological stature or executive prestige, then he will whittle down the self-confidence of his employees.

For if you can belittle those around you, then by contrast you feel you appear bigger.

At least, that's the insidious reasoning of millions of men and women, but especially of men.

Wives, if your husband is chronically fault-finding, it probably means that he is deflated in his ego while in your presence. Do you act frigid and uninterested in his amative advances?

Do you ritz him by flaunting your superior family ancestry or your college diploma?

Do you always remind him of his faults and show him up regarding bad business judgment?

If so, his sarcasm is only an attempt to regain psychological stature by deflating you to an even lower level than his own.

I had a talk with Archie in private. I employed the sandwich method of criticism in which I inserted the meaty layer of criticism between two layers of honest compliments.

I told him I had heard that he was one of the most talented men in the whole plant. Then I tried tactfully to suggest that some of his men seemed to misunderstand him.

Hungry for a word of praise now and then they would react with delight if he, as a superior trained engineer, would only give them a verbal benediction.

So I described my "Test for Employers," based on the frank comments of some 1,300 workers in all occupations.

Archie gladly rated himself thereon and started an immediate change of personality, for he was basically a smart man.

Send for a copy, enclosing 20 cents and a stamped return envelope. Many factories are using it routinely.

All employees prefer to be popular but many don't know how maybe. They've been trained to handle machines but not people.

(Always write to Dr. Crane in care of this newspaper, enclosing a long 4 cent stamped addressed envelope and 20 cents to cover typing and printing costs when you send for one of his booklets.)

THE SPAT FAMILY

CROSSROADS OF THE WORLD By William Drury

Tomorrow, I shall arise early, totter into the bathroom, peer blearily at the mirror, and croak: "Happy birthday to you, diddle de dum, diddle dum dum, happy birthday to you."

Not myself, you understand. To my mustache.

Tomorrow will be a great day in the life of that mustache. Tomorrow it will be 21. Tomorrow it will come of age.

Twenty-one years ago, when the war between Adolf Hitler and Great Britain was but a few months old, I was an apple-cheeked subaltern in His Majesty's Royal Air Force.

Few would believe that such a beardless boy could be a fearless leader of men. When I climbed into my cockpit to do battle in the clouds, fatherly corporals would pat me fondly on the head and say: "Isn't he cute?"

The R.A.F. even issued me little knitted flying booties made of blue wool.

Something had to be done to prop up my drooping dignity. Obviously, I had to get older very suddenly.

So, in March of 1940, I grew this mustache, thus giving rise to that now famous line: "As mad as a March hare."

In its infancy, the mustache gave me a rather dashing look that was the envy of many. Errol Flynn was much in vogue then, and I did not fall to so-

WASHINGTON by Ed Koterba

POTOMAC, Md. It was almost dusk and I'd been working on the yard, reflecting how people take the good of life for granted. It was calm, like the calm before a storm, but if there was an uneasiness in the air, I wasn't aware of it.

What brought on this mental theme was a spring poking out of the front lawn—a young minnow. I had just transplanted the tree and recalled how it had come from a seed two years before.

Our boy, then seven, I remembered, came rushing in with the seed which had dropped from a neighbor's tree. "I'm going to plant this," he gazed, "and someday I'll have a tree I can climb."

That spring is now three feet tall, growing as fast as that kid. And I got to thinking about him. He'd been gone for two hours—playing somewhere in the neighborhood, I presumed.

A tug of remorse came over me for having taken so little time with him lately. I thought of how I'd been scolding him for naggy little things but overlooking that meaningful pat on the shoulder for the good things he'd done.

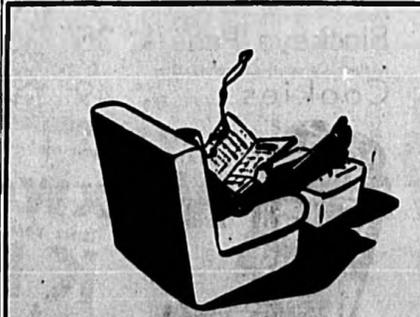

I was aware, in this reflection, of my surprise over how well that boy had been doing in school—all 100s on his arithmetic papers, just a word or two wrong in spelling tests, and he'd been reading like a demon.

Nearly every morning he gets out of bed at 8:30 to do his hour's piano practice before breakfast. And I remembered this morning how well he played his newest number, "Londonderry Air"—"Danny Boy." It was melancholy, and he had a feeling, a musical soul.

As I worked on the shrubs I got to thinking: "I must spend more time with him, encouraging him, guiding him, playing with him."

Perhaps there was uneasiness in the air. I hadn't heard his Indian yells since I'd been out here. And it was getting late. Usually, he comes romping in about now, tugging at me "Hey, Dad, how about a game of ping pong?"

POLITICAL NOTEBOOK

By Peter Edson

TOKYO—(NEA)—An American impression that Japan is politically unstable, rapidly veering toward the left and therefore unreliable as an ally in the Far East was born out of the street riots against ratification of the security treaty with the United States last May.

Those "demonstrations," led to cancellation of President Eisenhower's visit. Relations between the two countries fell to a post-war low.

This had impression has been heightened by subsequent events. There has been some agitation for closer trade relations between Communist China and Japan.

Japan's organized labor movement actively supports Japan's Socialist party, which opposed ratification of the treaty.

All Japanese language and all but one of its English language newspapers were highly critical of the Liberal Democratic party which backed this treaty.

Japanese leaders in all walks of life insist that this impressionist picture of Japan today is wrong.

Spokesmen for Japan's Federation of Economic Organizations—somewhat similar to the U. S. National Industrial Conference Board—point out that no reputable business firms back more trade with Red China. They have been burned too often by cancellation of orders.

Though Japan's Socialist party opposed the defense treaty in the last election, the Socialists did not win. The Liberal Democratic party, which backed the treaty and is really a conservative party, won the election of Japanese voters, electing 80 per cent of the Diet (Congress).

An interview with Seiichi Katsumata, spokesman for the Socialist party and a member of its executive committee, reveals a dedicated Marxist. He has been a member of the Diet from the Mt. Fuji district since 1947 and has been chairman of his party's foreign policy board. He has been to the United States once, to Red China four times, calls himself a moderate.

He says now that his party favors gradual nationalization of industry, abrogation of the Japanese security treaty with the United States, withdrawal of all U. S. forces from Japan, gradual transformation of Japan's defense forces into a national labor force for public works, and closer relations with Red China.

Responsible analysts believe the Socialist's program is completely unrealistic and unacceptable.

The Socialists have support from intellectuals and student groups as well as Japan's major labor organizations. But they cannot win more than the 30 per cent of the Diet which they now

Are you covered by the nation's workmen's compensation law? Should you be covered? How does this insurance coverage work? What is the significance to workers?

This is what J. M. Switzer, president of Employers Mutual of Wausau, Wis., whose company was the first ever to write a compensation policy in this country—back in 1911. He has all the answers.

About 80 per cent of all workers in every state are covered and so should you be unless you are self-employed or work in an industry that has its own coverage such as the railroad and maritime workers.

Check your coverage by asking your company's personnel officer. You should report to him any on-the-job injuries. The amount of compensation you will receive depends upon the type of injury sustained and the rate set for that industry. Different rates apply in different states.

If you are a new employer, perhaps a small businessman, and have overlooked getting such coverage for your workers, don't delay any longer for you could be sued in the event of an accident. You could be sued to the extent of losing your business and your personal wealth.

Your state industrial commissioner can tell you how to arrange coverage which is written by private insurance companies. The rate charged by any company writing workmen's compensation is the same. Because of greater efficiency, however, one company might offer better service than another.

Unlike social security the cost of workmen's compensation is borne solely by the employer, running about 1 percent of his payroll. The compensation he offers is adequate under the law, but not of such magnitude that you should feel you do not need extra insurance protection. Figure how much disability you would get via workmen's compensation for an imaginary injury that would prevent you from working for a stated period. Would this be enough?

"Actually the term 'compensation' insurance is confusing," Mr. Switzer told me. "It probably should be termed 'accident prevention insurance' since the main goal of the law as applied today is to reduce industrial accidents. Work accidents cost the nation more than $4.3 billion a year; plus an approximately $1.8 million for temporary disability."

The laws help prevent accidents because a high accident rate forces the employer's insurance costs up. Therefore, it becomes good business to promote safety and eliminate possibly unsafe work situations.

Little Majors To Extend To 10

Sanford's Little Major League Baseball program which started two years ago with six teams and 90 players held tryouts last week that attracted 135 new players.

The program was expanded last year to eight teams and after hold overs left only 40 positions open for 1961.

As a result two additional teams have been organized bringing to 10 the number of Little Major League teams. This allows an additional 30 boys to play in the 1961 season which begins with practice sessions today.

The teams, coaches and location of first team practice is printed below. (Boys listed should report at the first practice, over 75 boys are on a waiting list desiring to be placed on a team. Lack of attendance to practice sessions will mean being dropped from a team so others may get a chance to play.)

Super Foam Top Choice In Featured SOKC Eighth Race

That hard-running Super Foam moves another notch up the grade ladder tonight at the Sanford-Orlando Kennel Club and will probably be the odds-on favorite at post time in the Grade B eighth race.

Fred Whitehead's 55-pound red brindle who won't be two-years-old until May, has won three straight races in jumping up from the maiden class and hasn't yet shown her full potential.

In only four starts, Super Foam has three wins and one second-place finish. If the speedy juvenile wins tonight's race, she will be one of the few greyhounds ever to progress straight from maiden class to feature competition in consecutive starts.

In the featured ninth, Hobby Hour Ranch's Earnhart gets a chance to win his ninth race. After a set-back to Grade B competition, Earnhart jumps back into the main event after winning his last start.

Wayne Roberts, who has won seven times, will also be one of the favorites. Rounding out the field for the feature will be Erma Eastman, Arlene Nug, Quick Fortune, Kinvara, Saraband and Super Chapple.

Britain's oldest manufacturing industry is the production of wool cloth.

Lyman Slams Ocoee; Seminoles Lose

Lyman catcher Roy Lisk belted two home runs to pace the Lyman Greyhounds to an easy 9-0 victory over Ocoee Friday while Winter Park slammed Sanford, 9-3.

It was Lyman's fourth straight win of the season and the third defeat for the Seminoles.

Pitching for Lyman was Charles Prescott who hurled a one hitter.

Lyman didn't waste any time as they pounded out two runs in the first frame, came back with one in the second and six in the next two innings.

Lyman collected eight hits in picking up the victory.

At Sanford, Dutch Riser couldn't get started for the locals as Winter Park opened up the game with a first inning one run surge.

Sanford came back in their half of the first scoring two runs but the Parkers got to Riser in the fourth as they scored two runs.

Perides relieved Riser. Sanford got only five hits in the game while the Parkers collected 12.

Sparks Led Oviedo Cagers In Scoring During Season

The Oviedo High cagers completed their 1960-61 season with a record of nine wins against 12 losses.

High scorer for the varsity was Kenneth Sparks with 292 points, closely followed by Jerry Arndt with 226. Both boys are seniors. Roy Walright, a junior, and Jimmy DeShazo, a freshman, tied for third place with 185 each.

In addition to the two seniors named above Coach Mikler loses Jerry Urey and Jerry Belhorn. Coach Jim Palmer is proud of his junior varsity. Their season was a 9-9 record, with many of their opponents being juniors or seniors whereas Coach Palmer's team was composed of mostly sophomores with a couple of eighth graders thrown in. In fact, Jimmy Courier, one of his high scorers for the season is an eighth grader.

Jimmy Jones led the scoring list with 277 points.

Jimmy Courier was second with 180 while Johnny Jakubcin was third with 178.

In summing up the basketball season Coach Marguerite Partin's girls cannot be left out. They had only five games during the season, two with Umatilla, two with Taylor High and one with Bunnell.

The game with the Tavares girls was rained out and another date was difficult to set. The Oviedo girls won all five encounters.

Pierson Tops Oviedo, 7-3

Oviedo lost their first baseball game to Taylor High School of Pierson by a 7-3 score.

Coach Mikler used three pitchers, starting with Kenneth Sparks, a senior. He was relieved by Johnny Courier, a junior.

With the bases loaded, John was relieved by his younger brother, Jimmy, an eighth grader.

The visitors did not get a single hit off Jimmy Courier and he struck out four men. John Courier struck out one, Sparks struck out six. Robert Olliff was the catcher for Oviedo.

THROUGH THE PAGES of the Animated Magazine presented by the Sanford Woman's Club, the rich history of our American Heritage was unfolded in their annual presentation this year.

A beautiful, descriptive picture, designed and painted by Gretchen Lewis Crowell, served as the cover of the magazine. On a pale blue background of draperies was depicted some of the objects which indicated the facets that enrich our life and make it worth living.

A stack of books, a few pages of sheet music, and a violin were shown, with a bust of Washington, a painter's palette and brushes and a Bible open to the Hundredth Psalm nearby. In the foreground were a prayer book, paper, and a pen and in the midst of it all, a baseball.

The decorated pages of the magazine were turned by the chairman of the American Home Department, Mrs. John K. White. An invocation in song was sung in meditation by Mrs. H. C. Echelberger. This was followed by the scripture lesson by Mrs. J. Winston Pearce, noted lecturer from DeLand.

Mrs. S. J. Nix, editor-in-chief of the magazine presentation, was introduced to the audience.

A surprise feature was the dedication ceremony for Mrs. George Wells, who was escorted to the stage by her two daughters and the three of them, in their Easter bonnets, made a lovely picture as Mrs. Wells was presented with a beautiful white orchid corsage.

Mrs. A. W. Woodall, president of the Woman's Club gave the welcoming address in behalf of the club. A stirring editorial by Judge Volle Williams Jr., told of the things that have made our American heritage and of the great men, living and dead, from whom we have drawn national strength and character. He quoted from the Constitution, from Washington's inaugural address and from the words of Robert E. Lee, as well as the immortal words of Abraham Lincoln.

Some lighter moments were enjoyed by the audience with the presentation of the "Easter Parade." Easter bonnets were worn by members of the Woman's Club and many delightful creations were modeled by their creators. Some hats were authentic, real Easter bonnets. But some were purely for fun and were made up of Easter basket straw and decorations, Easter eggs, chicks and bunnies and flowers of every sort, even very realistic-looking birds. These drew admiration and applause from the amused and appreciative audience.

The presentation of Mrs. Joy Postle, with her glamor birds, flamingos, cardinals and egrets, was an artistic triumph. Mrs. Postle sketched rapidly and effortlessly to create lovely pictures of the beautiful birds, singing all the while and accompanied and assisted by her husband. The violin solos of Mrs. R. H. Fine, who was accompanied by Carl Whitehead, were executed with sure skill and precision and the knowledge of a talented artist and the repertoire of Broadway show tunes sung both in solo and duet by Paul Lewis and Margaret Echelberger were greatly enjoyed and heartily applauded by the audience.

A humorous monologue by Mrs. S. G. Harriman, who is so well-known for her delightful little sketches that never fail to amuse and entertain, was entitled "At the Baseball Game."

Mrs. Robert Drabick, attractive young professor at Rollins College, concluded the program with her presentation and comparison of the "Great Debates" of Abraham Lincoln and Stephen Douglas, when they were running for Congress. She compared these and the audiences they reached in those days, with the recent Nixon-Kennedy debates which were heard by about 85 million people.

Her talk was accompanied with slides of old photographs and sketches of the places where the debates of Lincoln and Douglas took place, and she filled in much of the historical background connected with these events. She was assisted by Mike Roberts, a Seminole high school student who handled the projector to show the slides.

MRS. GEORGE WELLS

MOST INTERESTING was the acrostic, using Mrs. George Wells' name which was worked out by the honoring committee. Using her first name, BEULAH WELLS was spelled out with the following adjectives: B, beautiful; E, earnest; U, useful; L, likable; A, attractive; and H, honest. W, willing; E, eager; L, learned; L, lady-like; and S, social. All of these attributes fit Mrs. Wells, who is a past president of the Woman's Club, a former vice president, former chairman of the Fine Arts Department and also of the Social Department and for 14 years she has been a member of the executive board.

She is also on the executive board of the Family Counseling Service, vice president of the local Red Cross Chapter and a deaconess in the Christian Alliance Church, as well as secretary of the church's official board.

Her four lovely daughters, besides the well-known Florence, (Mrs. Douglas) Stenstrom and Mildred (Mrs. Bill) Stamps, -- Violet, who lives in Ormand Beach and Gladys in West Palm Beach.

Her hobby is sewing and her favorite social get-together is her Canasta Club, a group of six congenial couples, who meet once a month for play and sociability.

THE WOMEN of the Sanford Woman's Club have done their share to add to and enhance the finer things of life for the community and to promote pride in our incomparable American heritage. And that heritage grows a little more as each passing day fades into history and takes its place in the background of our lives.

Dear Abby:

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I am married to a man who has a very ugly temper. The first time he hit me I was four months pregnant at the time.

His father used to beat his mother up so bad she would land in the hospital. He has a brother who slaps his wife around, too. Is this a sickness that runs in their family? I never thought I could put up with the beatings I have taken (and ever absolutely nothing). I don't want to raise our three children in a fatherless home, but what is a wife supposed to do when she is afraid to open her mouth for fear she'll get her teeth knocked out?

LIVING IN FEAR

DEAR LIVING: (This is living?) No man's worth more than one sock, and few are worth that. Let him send the support checks in the mail. If there is anything worse than a fatherless home, it's a home ruled by a coward who punches women.

DEAR ABBY: I have a friend whom I dearly love, but she is the most selfish, egotistical person I have ever known. I try to overlook these faults because I have plenty of my own, but lately I find myself resenting her more than ever. She is a very unimaginative cook, whereas I delight in preparing fancy dishes. Whenever she has the women's club or bridge, she asks me to make her refreshments. This entails shopping for the ingredients, preparing them single-handed, and lending my best china for the occasion. I don't mind this, but she has the colossal nerve to take all the credit. Am I childish to feel hurt?

DEAR USED: No. But you are foolish to repeat these favors and see the with resentment.

DEAR ABBY: Marv and I have been going together for a year. I am 19 and so is he. All the while I had long hair. I told him I was going to cut it and he said if I did he didn't want to see me again. So I gave up the idea of cutting my hair.

Then last Saturday night he stood me up on a date. His excuse was he "forgot." I got mad and had my hair cut. When he saw me he said we were through. I can't make my hair grow out overnight, Abby. I am sorry I cut it and I want Marv back. What is your advice? SORRY NOW

DEAR SORRY: A young man who (1) dictates the way to wear your hair, (2) refuses to see you again should you ignore his command, (3) stands you up on a date with a feeble excuse that he "forgot," is not worth worrying about. Your hair will grow out. In the meantime, if your boyfriend doesn't grow UP, forget him unless you like the punishment he is so good at dishing out.

Television Happily Married? Yes --- Years Ago

By FRANK JOHNSON

HOLLYWOOD — (NEA)—Hollywood and Grapevine: The movie fan magazines forever are being caught with their editors down on the happy home life of film stars who have long since separated. But there's nothing like the mass revival of busted marriages currently on display in an old rerun of "I Love Lucy" stanza. Everyone now hates everyone. As a surprise party for Lucille Ball on their 15th wedding anniversary, Desi Arnaz invites a flock of big name stars.

The five years or so since the film was made has taken its toll. Divorced are Lucy and Desi — and so are all the guests mentioned: Esther Williams and Ben Gage, Dick Powell and June Allyson, Gary Grant and Betsy Drake, and Liz Taylor and Mike Wilding . . .

Comes now "Almost Authentic Folk Songs," an album by Dolan Ellis and "The Inn Group." Two of the songs are "Solitaire"—the tale of a dancing girl who is out of joint with the times, and "Jamie-O," unsuccessful attempt to dodge the draft in pre-Crusade England.

Well, they're almost hits . . . A Brazilian-produced movie, being filmed in English in Rio de Janeiro and starring Jean-Pierre Aumont, is much more eyebrow-lifting in the title department than "Pillow Talk." This time it will be "The Sleeping Partner."

The appearance of two low-cost movies for which situations, dialog and locations were improvised and shot off the cuff is creating a lot of industry talk. It is the answer, perhaps, for young would-be moviemakers denied entrance to major studio gates while theater owners lament a shortage of film.

But let's not halt the improvisation idea as something new. The Hollywood film industry was built on the improvisation of the old silent.

Mack Sennett's Keystone Kops, his cross-eyed western heroes and his bathing beauties ad libbing situations and locations all over Southern California in the days when there was a Castle Rock at Santa Monica, an orange grove on Hollywood Blvd., and a western ranch house at the corner of Santa Monica Blvd. and La Brea . . .

Did the honorable Hollywood Director expect difficulty in staging combat scenes for "Marines, Let's Go," on location in Kyoto, Japanese jawmen asked director Raoul Walsh.

"No," replied Walsh. "I've been married twice." . . . Sid Caesar is turning author for a suspense novel about Hollywood, "Seven Takes for Death." Random House will publish . . . Grocery millionaire Huntington Hartford is putting up the loot to produce "Meet Eydle and Steve," a musical revue starring Eydle Gorme and Steve Lawrence . . .

Bob Mitchum slips it when he's asked, "What is the quality in women you find most attractive?" "Proximity," he replies . . . One-time Paramount press agent Bill Cunningham can't get it out of his mind, even though he knows it's later than he thinks. As the unit man on "A Place in the Sun," filmed in 1951, he was forever knocking on the door of an on-the-set schoolroom — to check out questions with Liz Taylor. She was 18 and just completing her senior year high school studies.

Negro Students To Be Recruited

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Civil Service Commission announced today that one of its top officials would tour southern Negro colleges this spring to recruit students for federal government jobs.

Thousands Set To Draw Benefits From New Bill

DETROIT (UPI)—Thousands of unemployed workers are expected to draw benefit from two sources because of the new jobless pay bill just passed by Congress.

The federal legislation itself provides up to 13 weeks of extra state unemployment compensation benefits to jobless workers who have exhausted their regular benefits.

In many cases, the bill will mean another 13 weeks of supplemental unemployment benefits to laid-off members of the United Auto Workers Union.

We The Women:

By Ruth Millet

A California wife was recently granted a divorce on the grounds that her husband was so engrossed in trying to make his mynah bird talk that he couldn't be bothered to talk to her.

So far as I know this is the first time a mynah bird ever broke up a marriage. But every once in a while I see by the papers where a wife has sued for divorce on the grounds that her husband preferred his cats or his dog to her.

Now why in the world do you suppose a woman ever forces the issue of whether she comes first among her husband's interests? Isn't that always a risk?

Whether it is his work, his hobby, a mynah bird or a faithful old dog that captures a husband's interest, a sensible wife never suggests that the job or hobby, the mynah bird or the dog is more important in his scheme of things than she is. Instead, she makes friends with her competition. She doesn't force the issue.

She shares his interest in his job or hobby, instead of complaining. If he considers old Sport his best friend, she makes friends with the dog. If he finds trying to make conversation with a mynah completely absorbing, then she gets on chatty terms with the mynah, herself.

No man is going to decide on his own that he enjoys the company of his dog or cats or his mynah more than the company of his wife, unless his wife comes right out and accuses him of it.

If she doesn't press the issue of who—or what—comes first, then her competition becomes her ally.

Ewell Settles Down To Security In New TV Family Series

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Actor Tom Ewell comes from the blue grass country of Kentucky and has an avid horse-player, but when it comes to riding he'll let the jockeys do the work.

Ewell has settled down to comparative security as a television star on, oddly enough, "The Tom Ewell Show" (CBS-TV Tuesday nights) and he can afford to drop a few bucks at the race tracks. But it was not always thus.

Now he says, "It's a nice way to spend an afternoon. Some day I may come back with a buck. It hasn't happened yet."

He remembers with a grimace some years back when he left the University of Wisconsin with a state of $200 to make his mark on Broadway. He stopped enroute at Belmont Race Track, dropped $100 on the out-burners and arrived on the Great White Way with exactly $7 in his jeans. In a long up-and-down career, he survived, bloody but unbowed.

28 flop shows during 14 years. Coffee-and-doughnut money came hard during some of those years and he took any acting job available.

He even made a cowboy movie in Hollywood although he is not a rider by any means—despite his Owensboro, Ky., birthplace.

It was back in 1937 at Republic Studio, he recalled in an interview. "The picture was 'The Kid From Kansas,' and Don Barry was the star.

"A writer friend of mine, Dick Murphy, got me a part. He asked me, 'Do you ride a horse?' Without answering directly, I said, 'I'm from Kentucky' and then I raced out to Griffith Park and enrolled in a riding academy. On the eighth lesson they took us out of the paddock, or whatever you call it, and my horse threw me. I was really banged up. They took me to an osteopath and then to a doctor. They bandaged me up so I could report for work. When I limped onto the set the director looked at me and almost cried. They got a guy to ride for me — he was Sally Rand's husband . . . 'Turk' something or other . . . and a champion cowboy. They lifted me on a horse a few times and finished the picture. I was a real do-or-die Texas Ranger. I'd walk on the set once in a while and say, 'Somebody stole my horse' . . . the comic relief."

Tom has made a number of movies since then, including "Mr. Music" with Bing Crosby in 1946 and "Up Front" in 1951, but he actually achieved stardom on Broadway. Such hits as "The Tunnel of Love," "Seven Year Itch," and "Thurber Carnival" hoisted him to the pinnacles of his profession.

He left "Thurber Carnival" to fulfill his television contract and found himself working in the same studio where he made "The Kid From Kansas," many years ago.

He likes working on TV for Four Star Theater. "I enjoy what I'm doing," he said. "It's not really nerve-wracking (as some people say). The scenes are over in 10 minutes — not like a legitimate show."

Never Too Old To Join P-TA

CLEVELAND (UPI) — Even if you're 97, it's not too late to join the P-TA.

Arthur C. Spear attended his first P-TA meeting recently and drew some surprised looks.

"I was the only one there with gray hair. They probably wondered why I came," he said. The members didn't wonder long. Spear paid his dues and has attended meetings regularly. While the others are interested in their children, Spear is keeping an eye on Olive Hildebrand, his nine-year-old great granddaughter.

British Intentions Cloud SEATO Meet

By PETER FINSON
 TOKYO—(NEA)—When U. S. Secretary of State Dean Rusk sits down to the Southeast Asia Treaty meeting in Bangkok today, one of the most important factors—under the table if not on it—will be British intentions in the area.

The British made this certain by their recent decision to support UN discussion of Red China's admission to the world body. The question cannot be brought up at the present UN Assembly session, but will come up again at the September session.

The recent Commonwealth Prime Ministers meeting in London also discussed the matter of Red China and the UN. And although Australia has officially sealed that any Commonwealth-wide decision was taken, it is regarded as likely that London will have support from some of the other members.

The Anglo-American difference on this question is regarded as creating the worst break between the Allies since the Suez crisis in 1956.

When the question is raised at the UN, the future of SEATO will be at stake, in the opinion of experts here who watch every development affecting Communist China.

There are other evidences cited here of British intentions to make accommodations with the Communists. The motives are not clear and can only be a subject for speculation. But all moves center around two known British desires:

First, their hope "not to arouse the tiger"—the Peiping government.

Second, their desire to let the U. S. "handle" Southeast Asia, writing off, if possible, some of their own responsibilities. Then, the British could give more attention to Africa where their holdings are larger and more valuable.

As evidence of the British desire to accommodate Red China, some sources here point out recent British bank actions. Communist China's financial situation has been deteriorating. The Peiping government has not had ample funds to buy foreign wheat, badly needed to relieve food shortages after two crop failures.

Beginning last September, the Hong Kong and China Bank, privately owned by British interests, has extended credit to the Chinese Communists for the purchase of Australian and Canadian wheat. A first credit of six million pounds sterling has been extended to unlimited credit.

In another area of direct interest in Southeast Asia, the British have been fostering an agreement on a Pan-Malayan Confederation. It would include Malaya, Singapore, Sarawak, Brunei and North Borneo. Bringing these possessions and former colonies into a confederation would benefit them all.

A further factor is that such a consolidation might greatly reduce total British contributions of support.

All these factors, plus failure of SEATO to take stronger action in support of Laos, were in part responsible for recent Philippine efforts to form a new Southeast Asia organization.

This move got no place. But the British preference for trying to solve the crisis in a way that could lose Laos its independence threw a real scare into the smaller, weaker SEATO powers.

It was responsible for some fears that the British were ready to write off Southeast Asia and scrap SEATO.

The result would be to leave the United States solely responsible for the security of the entire Southeast Asia area.

These developments put considerable strain on the SEATO meeting, where Secretary Rusk will make his debut at an international conference. This collective security alliance has never been too strong. Complete failure over Laos could mean the end of the organization, with only the United States left to pick up the pieces and try to put them in the bag it would be left holding.

Commuting Actor's Wife Must Keep House On Both Coasts

NEW YORK (UP)—"People who know me wonder why I'm not running around stark naked," she said. "We have all that stuff in California, and I'm trying to figure out whether to have it shipped here. But if anything happened to it, I'd die. Maybe I'll just go down to Macy's and buy something."

That's show business these days for countless theatrical housekeepers whose jobs and/or husbands make them virtual commuters between movies and television in Hollywood and theater and TV in New York.

"I wish you could see the silver—two forks and one teaspoon," she said. "We have all that stuff in California, and I'm trying to figure out whether to have it shipped here. But if anything happened to it, I'd die. Maybe I'll just go down to Macy's and buy something."

Miss Montgomery, a green-eyed, brown-haired young woman in her late 20's with a dimple in her chin and an elusive resemblance to her famous father, Robert Montgomery, has indeed called off some of her own acting career to cope with the situation. She settled in for a long run of Young's Broadway play, "Under the Yum-Yum Tree," and furnishing a rambling apartment on E. 86th St. for him to come home to.

but her double job on two coasts would shatter most well-organized housewives.

stay put," she said. "I might, when we're settled, make a quick trip to California for a TV show, but no long separation. That may have been one of the troubles about my first marriage — we weren't together enough. But it goes back, too, to my childhood. I had a feeling of being pulled from place to place. It's not true, really. I spent the school year in California and went East or to Europe in the summers, and it was fun. But there's still something in me that wants roots somewhere."

There also may be a memory of the constant partings — she saw Young off and then cried—in a two-year courtship.

And Miss Montgomery also is a lady in love.

'I'm Sorry,' Finch Tells Carole As Jury Finds Them Guilty

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—"I love you, Carole. I'm sorry."

The speaker was Dr. R. Bernard Finch as he approached his mistress, Carole Tregoff, only seconds after they were convicted Monday of murdering the surgeon's wife.

He grabbed her, forced her into an embrace—and then suddenly, tears streaming down her face, she withdrew coldly and walked out of the courtroom without saying a word.

Their worlds—their 15-month fight for freedom through three trials—had collapsed.

The once-wealthy surgeon, now broke at 43, today faced the gas chamber or life in prison on a first-degree murder conviction.

Carole, 24, was convicted of second-degree murder by the 10-man two-woman jury.

Both also were found guilty of conspiracy to murder. Although Carole's conviction carries an automatic five years to life sentence on the second-degree charge, she technically also could be condemned to the gas chamber for conspiracy.

Conspiracy to murder carries the same penalty as first-degree murder. And Prosecutor Clifford Crail immediately announced he would seek the death penalty for both lovers.

"It's unlikely Carole will get the gas chamber after a second-degree conviction," a legal expert said. "The conspiracy was important to tie in with Finch's first-degree conviction—to point up the premeditation."

The jury, which was sent home, reconvenes Monday to hear further arguments and evidence before deciding on a sentence.

The end came suddenly for the couple, accused of the gunshot killing of Finch's socialite wife, Barbara Jean, 33, on July 18, 1959.

Two juries in previous trials lasting 7½ months had been unable to agree on a verdict. The present jury had deliberated 21 hours since getting the case last Wednesday.

Officers Guests
TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — The state will host 20 military officers from foreign countries Thursday when they visit the Capital. The officers, training at the Jacksonville Naval Air Station, are from Denmark, Norway, the Netherlands, Korea, Italy, Greece, Japan, Sweden, Venezuela and Burma.

Typhoid Feared
CHICAGO (UPI) — Emergency medical teams inoculated hundreds of residents of a two-block West Side area Monday night in an attempt to halt a suspected typhoid outbreak. Eight children, members of two families, were taken to Cook County Hospital with fevers and doctors detected a typhoid fever pattern.

Booby Trap Explodes
MIAMI (UPI) — One man was injured today when a car, apparently booby-trapped with a bomb wired to the ignition, exploded in the driveway of a home in South Dade County.

The man, his legs injured, was pulled from the car by two neighbors and rushed to a hospital. He was tentatively identified as H. I. Fischbach, an attorney.

Ad Firm Named
TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — A company that handled much of Gov. Farris Bryant's campaign advertising and a St. Petersburg firm were hired Monday to take charge of the advertising accounts for the State Development Commission, Louis Benito of Tampa and Alfred Lino Associates of St. Petersburg were selected from seven Florida agencies competing for the business.

Stocks Irregular
NEW YORK (UPI) — Stocks staged an irregular advance in fairly active dealings at the opening today. The list submitted grudgingly to sell pressure Monday and although prices were off on average, the advancing issues outnumbered the declines by a fairly wide margin. Most brokers feel the market may continue to mark time until after the Easter weekend.

Car Kills Owner
TAMPA (UPI) — James P. Fontana, 68, struck and dragged 90 feet by his own car, died in a hospital Monday. Officers said Fontana had left his car Sunday to mail an Easter card. They said the car began to roll forward and his wife, Philomena, stepped on the accelerator while trying to reach the brake pedal. The car lurched forward and plowed him beneath it.

Prayer Home Area Annexation Okayed
The City Commission Monday night agreed to annex the Prayer Home area east of Sanford Ave. and west of the Sanford Naval Air Station.

The board authorized Attorney William Hutchison to advertise the annexation proceedings.

Minutes before the commission took action on the area, Commissioner Earl Higginbotham criticized the board for its "indecision" on the annexation discussion.

The board had tabled action on the annexation Feb. 13, Feb. 27 and Mar. 13. The board wanted more time to study the feasibility of bringing that area into the city because of the needed capital improvements.

Explorers Heads Back To Earth
WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Explorer X satellite hurtled back toward earth at 24,000 miles an hour today from a distance about 112,500 miles from this planet.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration said the satellite, launched Saturday from Cape Canaveral, reached its maximum distance Monday.

Firemen To Drill
Lake Mary's Volunteer Firemen will meet at 8 p. m. today in the Fire Hall for a regular training drill.

Water Franchise Proposal Favored

The County Commission today authorized County Attorney Mack Cleveland Jr. to draw up enabling legislation to grant a franchise to a utility company that plans to install a $4 million water and sewage plant south of Lake Mary and north of Longwood.

Commissioners hailed the proposal as the biggest step taken by this county to boost that area.

A representative of First Florida Utilities Inc. said that as a start the plant would serve an area with a minimum of 3,000 acres and in the future could take care of the needs of more than 10,000 acres.

Commissioner James P. Avery said that the proposal is a giant step and would help bring new industry into the county.

Once the franchise is issued the plant would be located in the Spring Hammock Subdivision, James M. Simmerman said.

In other business, the commission agreed to offer the General Service Administration $61,245 for the Osceola airport site for future industrial development.

The board authorized Cleveland to negotiate with the GSA to pay $25 an acre for sub-marginal land on the site and $85 per acre for the 600 other usable acres.

The board said that the county would put a down payment of $20,000 and set aside funds out of future budgets to pay the remainder over a three year period.

Members of the Committee of 100 of the Chamber of Commerce asked the board to purchase the property before the April 16 deadline.

The board also tabled action on a request by the Altamonte Springs Council to reclassify Maitland Ave. from a rural road to a village road.

A delegation of members of the Altamonte Council and Attorney S. J. Davis asked the board to reconsider the classification because of the importance of the road to the town.

Laos Hopes Up

By PHIL NEWSOM
UPI Foreign News Analyst

Hopes rose today for a diplomatic settlement of the Laotian crisis.

But, while Washington sources took on a mood of cautious optimism, the U. S. and its SEATO Allies meeting in Bangkok also were acting to prevent Soviet foot-dragging on Western demands for a cease-fire in the strategic Southeast Asian kingdom.

Diplomatic sources in Bangkok said the eight Southeast Asia Treaty Organization members would go ahead with plans for military intervention because of continued Soviet silence and in the belief the Communists might be stalling to consolidate their military position. Partition of Laos was believed to be their ultimate aim.

Plans Asked For Civic Center Stage Extension

The City Commission Monday night authorized City Manager W. E. Knowles to make cost estimates and plans to extend the stage at the Civic Center to make room for a dressing and rest room.

The suggestion was made by Commissioner Al Wilson.

"We don't want anything fancy—no stars on any door," Commissioner Earl Higginbotham said.

In other business, the commission agreed to vacate the 11th St. right-of-way from Bay Ave. to Mellonville to make way for a new Joppar Academy. There was no opposition at the public hearing.

Turned down a request for a no parking sign on the east side of Elm Ave., between First St. and Commercial Ave.

Agreed to install a street light at Celery Ave and Sanford and at 28th St. and 28th Place on Sanford Ave.

Agreed to allow no parking on Celery Ave. east of Mellonville Ave.

Approved final reading of an ordinance annexing 78 acres west of Crooms Academy.

Peel, Holzapfel 'Like Brothers'

FORT PIERCE (UPI) — The state rested its case in the murder trial of Joseph A. Peel Jr. today after a final barrage of testimony that Peel and confessed killer Floyd (Lucky) Holzapfel were "just like brothers."

Circuit Judge D. C. Smith said the case would go to the jury of 12 men Thursday morning after final arguments Wednesday by the prosecution and defense.

Judge Smith denied a motion for a directed verdict of acquittal from defense attorney Carlton Welch, who charged that "any verdict of guilty returned by this jury must be based only on suspicion, conjecture and guesses."

Smith also turned down two motions from Welch for a mistrial during this morning's short-session.

The state's final testimony today came from Harold Gray, who worked for Peel in Peel's West Palm Beach law office. Gray testified about the close relationship between Peel and Holzapfel.

Last week, Peel testified the relationship was a strict business affair. But Gray said Holzapfel came to Peel's office in 1958 "almost daily" and Peel spoke frequently of being out at night with Holzapfel.

Year's Honors Awarded At Future Farmer Fete

The annual Parent and Son Banquet of the Future Farmers of America, Seminole High School Chapter, was held at the high school cafeteria with about 75 parents and sons attending.

Don Adams, state director of agricultural expansion for the Florida Power Company, was the speaker for the event and he outlined to the boys the opportunities available in the field of agriculture.

Four Seminole County men were presented with honorary chapter degrees, for their service to the community.

The four were E. L. Douglas, director of adult vocational education in Seminole County; Leo Butler, manager of the State Farmers Market; Ronald Muirhead, secretary of the Seminole County Farm Bureau, and Morris Hanson, citrus grower of Paola.

The four Future Farmers who received awards were Star Farmer, Carlton Prevatt, of Geneva, who received the coveted Gold Medal, from vocational agriculture teacher, Bill West. This is the highest award and is presented by the National Foundation to the best farmer in each chapter.

The award for the best improved project went to Bill Hall and was awarded by the Farm Bureau.

The scholarship award was won by Dana Rotundo of Geneva and was presented to him by Douglas.

Bob Howard was presented the leadership award by Hunt's Tuxedo Feed Store for his three years of outstanding work in the local chapter. All the awards were $25 savings bonds.

The girls home economics classes under the supervision of Mrs. Barbara Ruprecht, served the banquet.

12 In Family Die In Blaze

CLARKESVILLE, Tenn. (UPI) — All twelve members of a family of "fine neighbors" were believed to have been killed by a fire which razed their five-room farm home early today.

Authorities said eight bodies were found in the smoldering ruins of the home and officers were searching for others. Cause of the fire was not known.

Officials said apparently no one discovered the "leak" in time to remove any members of the Alex Whitehead family, ranging in age from nine months to 61 years.

Rivers, Weather Plague Midwest

By United Press International

Turbulent rivers today drove 1,000 persons to high ground ahead of roaring crests in the upper Midwest.

Emergency conditions were declared in eastern Iowa and southwest Wisconsin. Water lapped at the tops of gasoline pumps at Soldiers Grove, Wis., and authorities at Evansdale, Iowa, appealed for sandbags and dump trucks.

"We haven't got anywhere near enough sandbags," an Evansdale official said. The Cedar River continued to swell over a predicted 17-foot crest Monday and "without them we're helpless," he said.

In southwest Wisconsin, the Kickapoo River flowed in torrents over a dam at Soldiers Grove and poured on to Gays Mills eight miles downriver. Truckers brought drinking water from nearby Reasstown.

The newborn spring unleashed a tornado that shattered a tiny settlement on the east Texas plains Monday and combined with hail to terrorize Shreveport, La.

Two persons were killed at Appleby, Tex., when a twister hurled a house into a water-filled ditch. The tornado left holes where other buildings had been.

Indiana winds whipped a television antenna from the hand of a Columbus father. It fell on a 75,000 volt power line and electrocuted his wife and 13-year-old son, who were assisting the installation 28 feet above ground. The father and his daughter, 11, were seriously injured.

Evacuations mounted throughout the night in the flood-racked upper Midwest. More than 500 persons left their homes as Charles City, Iowa, National Guard, Red Cross and state officials counted hundreds of homeless at Mason City and Waterloo, Iowa.

Board Applauds Recreation Work Listed In Report

The Recreation Department's program was given a vote of approval by the City Commission Monday night after Director Ronald Perry submitted a comprehensive report of the department's activities.

Perry, who is resigning April 16, was authorized to submit the report after the commission asked two weeks ago to see where the taxpayers' money was going.

Mayor Joe Baker said after the report was presented "We're getting our money's worth out of the program" and thanked Perry for the job he had done.

At the same time, the commission tabled action on finding a replacement for the recreation director who has accepted a position with a swimming pool firm in Alabama.

The recreation report covered from Aug. 1, 1959, to July 31, 1960. It showed that total attendance for the recreation and parks program totaled 260,645, with 140,742 participants and 119,903 spectators.

The biggest complaint from the commission concerned expenses at the zoo.

During that period of time, the cost of operating the zoo totaled $16,070. Commissioner Earl Higginbotham questioned the costs but agreed that "there is nothing we can do about it."

City Manager W. E. Knowles said that it cost $5,300 to feed the animals last year.

County Stands Firm On Contractor Law

The County Commission today stood firm on its previous decision to get enabling legislation calling for the licensing of all building contractors despite protests from 20 contractors and Commissioner James P. Avery.

Avery asked the board to rescind last week's action approving the special act saying that it would "make a closed shop out of the building trade."

Avery's motion died for a lack of a second.

The delegation, headed by Vernon Myers of Oakland Shores, said that the proposed law would stifle free enterprise and called it "freeing socialism."

"We have enough protection from our building code," Myers said.

Myers said that under the present law only a licensed contractor could build a home and a private citizen couldn't build his own home if he desired.

However, Zoning Director Robert Brown said that a special clause was put into the law making it permissible for private persons to build their own homes.

Iman Escapes

ADEN (UPI) — Police today questioned scores of suspects about the attempted assassination of the Imam of Yemen who narrowly escaped death when gunmen opened fire on the ruler's automobile. The Imam was returning to his palace Monday after visiting a hospital at the Red Sea port of Hodeidah when he was attacked.

City Asks Check Of Water Outlets When Moving

The city requested today that families moving in or out of a home make certain that all faucets and water outlets are turned off, both inside and out.

The Water Department has noticed when workers turn on the water at a home that water would be running from inside and outside spigots. City personnel can turn off the outside spigots, but not the inside faucets. Therefore, if no one is at home, it means several return trips before the water service can be safely turned on.

If these return calls run into after hours or weekend trips, there is an additional charge of $3 for connecting the service. Everyone's cooperation is urged to avoid wasted time and added costs.

Precinct Workers Form Committee

Residents of voting precinct 12 who have been working on organizing the precinct met for further work Monday at the W. D. McGinnis home on Lake Forest Dr. in Forest City.

Representatives present for Forest City, Oakland Hills, Lake Harriet Estates and Lake Brantley voted to divide the precinct into nine districts with exact boundaries to be set following a population study. This is being done in order that those residents living outside a designated subdivision will have an equal voice in individual and group matters brought before the organization.

A committee, under direction of Allen Forward of Forest City, was appointed to draft an outline of constitutional by-laws for the group and each member was asked to bring an additional representative from his area to a meeting at the McGinnis home next Monday at 8 p. m.

Smathers Urges Fast Cuba Action

MIAMI BEACH (UPI)—U. S. Sen. George Smathers urged Monday the only hope to block Russia's efforts in Cuba is through a strong stand such as President Kennedy took on Laos.

Smathers said the United States has "six or eight weeks" to act on the Cuban situation or "it may be too late."

He said the United States had proof that a missile base was under construction in Cuba, that a landing strip had been completed that could handle Russia's most modern planes.

British Intentions Cloud SEATO Meet

By PETER FINSON
 TOKYO—(NEA)—When U. S. Secretary of State Dean Rusk sits down to the Southeast Asia Treaty meeting in Bangkok today, one of the most important factors—under the table if not on it—will be British intentions in the area.

The British made this certain by their recent decision to support UN discussion of Red China's admission to the world body. The question cannot be brought up at the present UN Assembly session, but will come up again at the September session.

The recent Commonwealth Prime Ministers meeting in London also discussed the matter of Red China and the UN. And although Australia has officially sealed that any Commonwealth-wide decision was taken, it is regarded as likely that London will have support from some of the other members.

The Anglo-American difference on this question is regarded as creating the worst break between the Allies since the Suez crisis in 1956.

When the question is raised at the UN, the future of SEATO will be at stake, in the opinion of experts here who watch every development affecting Communist China.

There are other evidences cited here of British intentions to make accommodations with the Communists. The motives are not clear and can only be a subject for speculation. But all moves center around two known British desires:

First, their hope "not to arouse the tiger"—the Peking government.

Second, their desire to let the U. S. "handle" Southeast Asia, writing off, if possible, some of their own responsibilities. Then, the British could give more attention to Africa where their holdings are larger and more valuable.

As evidence of the British desire to accommodate Red China, some sources here point out recent British bank actions. Communist China's financial situation has been deteriorating. The Peking government has not had ample funds to buy foreign wheat, badly needed to relieve food shortages after two crop failures.

Beginning last September, the Hong Kong and China Bank, privately owned by British interests, has extended credit to the Chinese Communists for the purchase of Australian and Canadian wheat. A first credit of six million pounds sterling has been extended to unlimited credit.

In another area of direct interest in Southeast Asia, the British have been fostering an agreement on a Pan-Malayan Confederation. It would include Malaya, Singapore, Sarawak, Brunei and North Borneo. Bringing these possessions and former colonies into a confederation would benefit them all.

A further factor is that such a consolidation might greatly reduce total British contributions of support.

All these factors, plus failure of SEATO to take stronger action in support of Laos, were in part responsible for recent Philippine efforts to form a new Southeast Asia organization.

This move got no place. But the British preference for trying to solve the crisis in a way that could lose Laos its independence threw a real scare into the smaller, weaker SEATO powers.

It was responsible for some fears that the British were ready to write off Southeast Asia and scrap SEATO.

The result would be to leave the United States solely responsible for the security of the entire Southeast Asia area.

These developments put considerable strain on the SEATO meeting, where Secretary Rusk will make his debut at an international conference. This collective security alliance has never been too strong. Complete failure over Laos could mean the end of the organization, with only the United States left to pick up the pieces and try to put them in the bag it would be left holding.

Commuting Actor's Wife Must Keep House On Both Coasts

NEW YORK (UP)—"People who know me wonder why I'm not running around stark naked," she said. "We have all that stuff in California, and I'm trying to figure out whether to have it shipped here. But if anything happened to it, I'd die. Maybe I'll just go down to Macy's and buy something."

That's show business these days for countless theatrical housekeepers whose jobs and/or husbands make them virtual commuters between movies and television in Hollywood and theater and TV in New York.

"I wish you could see the silver—two forks and one teaspoon," she said. "We have all that stuff in California, and I'm trying to figure out whether to have it shipped here. But if anything happened to it, I'd die. Maybe I'll just go down to Macy's and buy something."

Miss Montgomery, a green-eyed, brown-haired young woman in her late 20's with a dimple in her chin and an elusive resemblance to her famous father, Robert Montgomery, has indeed called off some of her own acting career to cope with the situation. She settled in for a long run of Young's Broadway play, "Under the Yum-Yum Tree," and furnishing a rambling apartment on E. 86th St. for him to come home to.

stay put," she said. "I might, when we're settled, make a quick trip to California for a TV show, but no long separation. That may have been one of the troubles about my first marriage — we weren't together enough. But it goes back, too, to my childhood. I had a feeling of being pulled from place to place. It's not true, really. I spent the school year in California and went East or to Europe in the summers, and it was fun. But there's still something in me that wants roots somewhere."

There also may be a memory of the constant partings — she saw Young off and then cried—in a two-year courtship.

And Miss Montgomery also is a lady in love.

'I'm Sorry,' Finch Tells Carole As Jury Finds Them Guilty

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—"I love you, Carole. I'm sorry."

The speaker was Dr. R. Bernard Finch as he approached his mistress, Carole Tregoff, only seconds after they were convicted Monday of murdering the surgeon's wife.

He grabbed her, forced her into an embrace—and then suddenly, tears streaming down her face, she withdrew coldly and walked out of the courtroom without saying a word.

Their worlds—their 15-month fight for freedom through three trials—had collapsed.

The once-wealthy surgeon, now broke at 43, today faced the gas chamber or life in prison on a first-degree murder conviction.

Carole, 24, was convicted of second-degree murder by the 10-man two-woman jury.

Both also were found guilty of conspiracy to murder. Although Carole's conviction carries an automatic five years to life sentence on the second-degree charge, she technically also could be condemned to the gas chamber for conspiracy.

Conspiracy to murder carries the same penalty as first-degree murder. And Prosecutor Clifford Crail immediately announced he would seek the death penalty for both lovers.

"It's unlikely Carole will get the gas chamber after a second-degree conviction," a legal expert said. "The conspiracy was important to tie in with Finch's first-degree conviction—to point up the premeditation."

The jury, which was sent home, reconvenes Monday to hear further arguments and evidence before deciding on a sentence.

The end came suddenly for the couple, accused of the gunshot killing of Finch's socialite wife, Barbara Jean, 33, on July 18, 1959.

Two juries in previous trials lasting 7½ months had been unable to agree on a verdict. The present jury had deliberated 21 hours since getting the case last Wednesday.

MIAMI (UPI) — One man was injured today when a car, apparently booby-trapped with a bomb wired to the ignition, exploded in the driveway of a home in South Dade County.

Stocks Irregular

NEW YORK (UPI) — Stocks staged an irregular advance in fairly active dealings at the opening today. The list submitted grudgingly to sell pressure Monday and although prices were off on average, the advancing issues outnumbered the declines by a fairly wide margin. Most brokers feel the market may continue to mark time until after the Easter weekend.

Car Kills Owner

TAMPA (UPI) — James P. Fontana, 68, struck and dragged 90 feet by his own car, died in a hospital Monday. Officers said Fontana had left his car Sunday to mail an Easter card. Prayer Home Area Annexation Okayed

The City Commission Monday night agreed to annex the Prayer Home area east of Sanford Ave. and west of the Sanford Naval Air Station.

The board authorized Attorney William Hutchison to advertise the annexation proceedings.

Minutes before the commission took action on the area, Commissioner Earl Higginbotham criticized the board for its "indecision" on the annexation discussion.

The board had tabled action on the annexation Feb. 13, Feb. 27 and Mar. 13. The board wanted more time to study the feasibility of bringing that area into the city because of the needed capital improvements.

Explorers Heads Back To Earth

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Explorer X satellite hurtled back toward earth at 24,000 miles an hour today from a distance about 112,500 miles from this planet.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration said the satellite, launched Saturday from Cape Canaveral, reached its maximum distance Monday.

Firemen To Drill

Lake Mary's Volunteer Firemen will meet at 8 p. m. today in the Fire Hall for a regular training drill.

Water Franchise Proposal Favored

The County Commission today authorized County Attorney Mack Cleveland Jr. to draw up enabling legislation to grant a franchise to a utility company that plans to install a $4 million water and sewage plant south of Lake Mary and north of Longwood.

Commissioners hailed the proposal as the biggest step taken by this county to boost that area.

A representative of First Florida Utilities Inc. said that as a start the plant would serve an area with a minimum of 3,000 acres and in the future could take care of the needs of more than 10,000 acres.

Commissioner James P. Avery said that the proposal is a giant step and would help bring new industry into the county.

Once the franchise is issued the plant would be located in the Spring Hammock Subdivision, James M. Simmerman said.

In other business, the commission agreed to offer the General Service Administration $61,245 for the Osceola airport site for future industrial development.

The board authorized Cleveland to negotiate with the GSA to pay $25 an acre for sub-marginal land on the site and $85 per acre for the 600 other usable acres.

The board said that the county would put a down payment of $20,000 and set aside funds out of future budgets to pay the remainder over a three year period.

Members of the Committee of 100 of the Chamber of Commerce asked the board to purchase the property before the April 16 deadline.

The board also tabled action on a request by the Altamonte Springs Council to reclassify Maitland Ave. from a rural road to a village road.

A delegation of members of the Altamonte Council and Attorney S. J. Davis asked the board to reconsider the classification because of the importance of the road to the town.

Laos Hopes Up

By PHIL NEWSOM
UPI Foreign News Analyst

Hopes rose today for a diplomatic settlement of the Laotian crisis.

But, while Washington sources took on a mood of cautious optimism, the U. S. and its SEATO Allies meeting in Bangkok also were acting to prevent Soviet foot-dragging on Western demands for a cease-fire in the strategic Southeast Asian kingdom.

Diplomatic sources in Bangkok said the eight Southeast Asia Treaty Organization members would go ahead with plans for military intervention because of continued Soviet silence and in the belief the Communists might be stalling to consolidate their military position. Partition of Laos was believed to be their ultimate aim.

President Asks $2 Million Added Defense Funds

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Kennedy asked Congress today to vote a $2 billion increase in defense funds, most of it to produce a "formidable deterrent force" of Polaris submarines in the next four years.

Declaring that "the money they are on station, the safer we will be," Kennedy called for assembly-line construction of the Polaris subs until they reach a one-year production rate by June 1963.

He proposed increases in all missile programs which would arm the nation with more than 1,300 ballistic missiles by 1965.

Kennedy's budget called on Congress to vote nearly $13 billion in "new obligations authority" for fiscal 1963—funds that would be voted in the next fiscal year but spent in future years.

This compared to the $11.5 billion proposed by Eisenhower, thus accounting for the proposed $2 billion boost.

Kennedy said his defense program would make the United States so strong that if it received a surprise nuclear attack it could retaliate "with devastating power."

Plans Asked For Civic Center Stage Extension

The City Commission Monday night authorized City Manager W. E. Knowles to make cost estimates and plans to extend the stage at the Civic Center to make room for a dressing and rest room.

The suggestion was made by Commissioner Al Wilson.

"We don't want anything fancy—no stars on any door," Commissioner Earl Higginbotham said.

In other business, the commission agreed to vacate the 11th St. right-of-way from Bay Ave. to Mellonville to make way for a new Joppar Academy. There was no opposition at the public hearing.

Turned down a request for a no parking sign on the east side of Elm Ave., between First St. and Commercial Ave.

Agreed to install a street light at Celery Ave and Sanford and at 28th St. and 28th Place on Sanford Ave.

Reappointed Edward Lane and B. L. Perkins to the board of adjustment.

Agreed to adopt a resolution to the County Commission for support on the Pump Branch Creek project as a joint participation basis. The county tabled action on the project pending further study.

Road Investigation Shifts To Brevard

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — Sen. Scott Kelly has called a meeting of his roads committee in Cocoa Thursday to hear testimony from Road Department officials concerning alleged "improprieties" in a Brevard County bond issue.

Kelly said Monday Brevard County may be eligible for a $163,000 refund from the Road Department in connection with a four-lane section of U. S. Highway 1.

Brevard requested the investigation after state right-of-way agent John Bees, now retired, told the committee he was connected with a corporation in the county that sold property to the state for right-of-way. Committee investigator Quillian Yancey told Kelly he had information that items which should have come out of regular state funds were charged to the bond money.

Peel, Holzapfel 'Like Brothers'

FORT PIERCE (UPI) — The state rested its case in the murder trial of Joseph A. Peel Jr. today after a final barrage of testimony that Peel and confessed killer Floyd (Lucky) Holzapfel were "just like brothers."

Circuit Judge D. C. Smith said the case would go to the jury of 12 men Thursday morning after final arguments Wednesday by the prosecution and defense.

Judge Smith denied a motion for a directed verdict of acquittal from defense attorney Carlton Welch, who charged that "any verdict of guilty returned by this jury must be based only on suspicion, conjecture and guesses."

Smith also turned down two motions from Welch for a mistrial during this morning's short-session.

The state's final testimony today came from Harold Gray, who worked for Peel in Peel's West Palm Beach law office. Gray testified about the close relationship between Peel and Holzapfel.

Last week, Peel testified the relationship was a strict business affair. But Gray said Holzapfel came to Peel's office in 1958 "almost daily" and Peel spoke frequently of being out at night with Holzapfel.

Year's Honors Awarded At Future Farmer Fete

The annual Parent and Son Banquet of the Future Farmers of America, Seminole High School Chapter, was held at the high school cafeteria with about 75 parents and sons attending.

Don Adams, state director of agricultural expansion for the Florida Power Company, was the speaker for the event and he outlined to the boys the opportunities available in the field of agriculture.

Four Seminole County men were presented with honorary chapter degrees, for their service to the community.

The four were E. L. Douglas, director of adult vocational education in Seminole County; Leo Butler, manager of the State Farmers Market; Ronald Muirhead, secretary of the Seminole County Farm Bureau, and Morris Hanson, citrus grower of Paola.

The four Future Farmers who received awards were Star Farmer, Carlton Prevatt, of Geneva, who received the coveted Gold Medal, from vocational agriculture teacher, Bill West. This is the highest award and is presented by the National Foundation to the best farmer in each chapter.

The award for the best improved project went to Bill Ball and was awarded by the Farm Bureau.

The scholarship award was won by Dana Rotundo of Geneva and was presented to him by Douglas.

Bob Howard was presented the leadership award by Hunt's Tuxedo Feed Store for his three years of outstanding work in the local chapter. All the awards were $25 savings bonds.

The girls home economics classes under the supervision of Mrs. Barbara Ruprecht, served the banquet.

12 In Family Die In Blaze

CLARKESVILLE, Tenn. (UPI) — All twelve members of a family of "fine neighbors" were believed to have been killed by a fire which razed their five-room farm home early today.

Authorities said eight bodies were found in the smoldering ruins of the home and officers were searching for others. Cause of the fire was not known.

Officials said apparently no one discovered the "leak in time to remove any members of the Alex Whitehead family, ranging in age from nine months to 61 years.

Anti-U.S. Feeling High Among Latins

"We are in serious trouble in Latin America," Col. O'Neill Kane, from the Business Administration Dept. of Rollins College told the Rotarians, Monday.

"Each day the manifestations of Anti-Americanism increases in that area, and many panaceas are being recommended," said Kane.

The retired Army officer, who served as editorial representative for the Journal of Commerce in Lima, Peru, blames the present problems on the renunciation of the Monroe Doctrine, and the adoption of policies on non-intervention and recognition of de-facto governments in 1948. These acts, in effect, permitted the present dictatorships to arise, as long as they did not oppose the political and economic aims of the U. S.

By our lack of intervention, the U. S. therefore has created a vacuum into which the Communists have quickly moved, says Kane.

In dealing with the problems of stemming the tide of Communism and regaining American influence in Latin American countries, Kane posed the questions of Latin American needs, how they can be met, what is the basis for their opposition to a rational economic program and what kind of cooperation can we expect?

In answering any of these questions the U. S. is confronted with a choice between the economically desirable and the politically possible.

Some of Kane's suggestions included the greater use of the large and influential groups of American citizens living in Latin America, and the expansion of American news media there.

Visits to the U. S. sponsored by the State Department could be effective and scholarships for Latin American colleges have been proved to be extremely beneficial.

The proposed Freedom Academy could be a potent force in this direction, by training foreign anti-communists to work with the American colonies in foreign lands.

Encouragement of a small but growing group of young and progressive businessmen, who are members of a common cause economic approach was also proposed, as these people will be tomorrow's leaders and generally speaking, they understand and accept modern American capitalism.

Greater investment by private American capital, to prevent the possibilities of "take-over" through political control of aid funds, was another suggestion.

Whatever means are used toward solution of the Latin American problem, Kane emphasized that the consequences of our failure to win the cold war there, will result in the communication of all of Latin America, leaving the U. S. tightly restricted in civilized intercourse to what would be the few remaining free areas of the world.

Kane was introduced to the Rotarians by Bob Lamont.

New members of the board of directors were voted upon and elected were Bill Bentley, M. L. Raborn Jr. and Ben Wiggins.

An honor guest at the luncheon meeting was former district governor of Rotary, Kenneth Wacker of Winter Park.

SOUTH SEMINOLE BANK STOCKHOLDERS were issued shares and elected officers, including E. G. Banks, standing left, president, and A. G. Bush, standing right, chairman of the board.

Chattanooga Sets Mixing Move

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn. (UPI)—The Chattanooga School Board told federal court Monday it is ready to begin grade-a-year desegregation of city schools in September.

The board's new desegregation plan ordered by Judge Leslie R. Darr who had rejected an earlier plan calling for desegregation at the beginning of the 1962-63 school year.

GOP Losing Bid To Stop Kennedy's Depressed Plan

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Republicans appeared to be losing ground today in their attempts to use a substitute bill to derail President Kennedy's program to aid depressed areas.

House Republicans, without the backing of much of the GOP—Southern Democrat coalition that employed the same tactics to hand the administration its first setback Friday, apparently lacked the votes to push their measure through.

Debate on the Senate-passed, $394 million bill was expected to begin late today, with voting Wednesday.

On the theory that you can't lick something with nothing, Republicans decided to try to knock out the administration bill with a substitute carrying a cheaper price tag.

This was the strategy used successfully to defeat Kennedy's minimum wage bill by one vote on the House Floor late Friday. The House then passed the conservative-tailored measure by a wide margin.

But Republicans, anxious to provide a big program of federal aid, drafted a $275 million substitute and predicted it would win overwhelming GOP support.

The Republican substitute carried a bigger price tag than any of the modest area redevelopment programs recommended by President Eisenhower, who twice vetoed Democratic bills.

Its size made it less than attractive to conservative southern Democrats opposed to tapping the Treasury for any such program.

Five Kids Thrown Out Of Window

GLASGOW, Scotland (UPI) — James Haining, 45, had just returned home from work when he heard two sickening thuds outside his first-floor apartment on Toryglen Street.

"I looked out and saw two kiddies lying there," he said. Haining rushed out to the street, looked up and saw another child plunging towards the concrete pavement from a fourth floor window.

"I half caught him on my shoulder before he fell to the ground—but before I could do anything else, I looked up and saw two more kiddies on their way down," Haining said. "I felt so helpless. There was nothing I could do."

Four-year old Marjory Hughes—her fair hair matted over her face, her gym slip and coat splattered with blood—was dead. Marjory's four playmates lay motionless nearby—all seriously injured. Danny McNeill, 7, was rushed to a hospital unconscious. Doctors may have to operate for brain injuries.

The other children were Margaret Lennon, 5, her brother, Frank, 7, and Thomas Devenny, 4. All the children live on Toryglen Street, but not at the building where the tragedy occurred.

A middle-aged woman whose identity was not disclosed by police was arrested late Monday night and charged with murder and attempted murder. Police said she threw the children out the window. Police gave no details on why the woman did it.

Shortly before 6 p.m. Monday the group of youngsters broke off a game of marbles and went into the building "to look at some newborn pups." Moment later the youngsters hurried one by one and in quick succession 40 feet from a fourth-floor window.

Seminoles Cop 4 Team Meet

The Seminole High thinclads captured seven first places, broke an old school field mark and picked up their second straight track meet victory in a four team meet held in DeLand Monday.

The locals racked up 108 1/2 points followed by 96 1/2 for Florida Military School; 23 for Bunnell and seven for Father Lopez of Daytona Beach.

Spahn Proves He's Pretty Good With Bat Also

United Press International
Warren Spahn is just like any other pitcher—he'd rather brag about his hitting.

"Just call me slugger," the Milwaukee Braves' ageless south-paw chuckles whenever he gets a hit, which isn't often. He collected only 14 safeties in 96 at-bats last year for a rather anemic .16 average but three of those hits were homers.

Even in spring training, Spahn's spends almost as much time in the hitting cage as he does on the mound. And this devotion to his "slugging" paid off in a 1-0 victory over the Chicago White Sox Monday.

Spahn, who will be 40 next month, drove in the only run in the seventh inning with a sharp single to right off Bob Shaw to gain credit for his third victory of the exhibition season. He and Lew Burdette, who worked the first four innings, blanked the White Sox on five hits.

Herb Score pitched six fine innings for the White Sox, stopping the Braves on three hits before giving way to Shaw, who made his first appearance of the spring after a long holdout siege.

Wally Post and Steve Bilko, a pair of legitimate sluggers, also struck key blows for their teams. Post unloaded his sixth home run of the Grapefruit League season following a two-run poke by Yada Pinson to give the Cincinnati Reds an 11-9 victory over the Detroit Tigers.

Bilko drove in four runs with a homer and a bases-loaded double as Los Angeles turned back the Cleveland Indians, 9-7. Johnny Antonelli staggered through the first five innings for Cleveland, giving up eight hits and seven runs.

The Kansas City Athletics whipped the New York Yankees, 5-2, in 10 innings. Dick Ellsworth cut the route for the Chicago Cubs in a 7-4 victory over the San Francisco Giants, the Minnesota Twins gained an uphill 12-9 triumph over the Baltimore Orioles, and the Los Angeles Dodgers downed the St. Louis Cardinals, 11-2, in other exhibitions.

Tony Sulzizio broke the shot put mark for Seminole High with a throw of 48 feet and 10 1/4 inches. Bobby Barbour paced the local runners as he took three first place events and ended up the afternoon with a total of 17 points.

Barbour took firsts in the 120 yard high hurdles, 180 yard low hurdles and broad jump.

Richard Walker of the Seminole grabbed a first place in the mile run with a time of 5:5 and Charles Fox was first in the discus throw.

The Seminole mile relay team also grabbed a first. The team is comprised of Chip Crawford, Vic West, Richard Walker and Mike Champion.

The next track meet for the locals will be next Wednesday against Winter Park.

Pitching Ace Out For Month

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (UPI)—St. Louis pitching ace Larry Jackson, enjoying the finest spring of his career, received the news today that a freak accident would sideline him for at least a month.

The hard-throwing right-hander was working against the Los Angeles Dodgers in an exhibition game at Vero Beach Monday when Duke Snider of the Dodgers hit a broken-bat dribbler back to the box. As Jackson stooped to field the ball, the barrel end of Snider's bat crashed against the lower left side of his jaw. Jackson fell to the ground, bleeding badly.

Following emergency treatment, Jackson was brought to the Cardinal base here and X-rays indicated two cracks in his jaw. Dr. Grover Austin, a plastic surgeon, wired the jaw shut and estimated Jackson would be out of action at least a month.

A solidly built 190-pounder, Jackson has been the Cardinals' most consistent pitcher in the last few years. He had an 18-13 mark in 1960 while working 282 innings, and was anxious for a fast start this season to attain his 20-game goal.

Hole-In-One Surge Continues
The hole-in-one epidemic continues at the Mayfair Country Club.

Deane Raine got one Sunday on the No. 16 hole—a distance of 147 yards.

Starts Army Hitch
FORT JACKSON, S. C. (UPI)—Oscar Robertson of the Cincinnati Royals reported to Fort Jackson Monday for a six-month Army hitch.

NBA Completes College Player Draft

ST. LOUIS (UPI)—The National Basketball Association completed its annual draft of the nation's top eligible college basketball players and all that was left today was to sign them.

The nine league clubs met here Monday and made their draft choices. However, this year the NBA will have to woo the prospects from the newly formed American Basketball League, which begins play next season.

The ABL held its draft meeting in Chicago March 19 and many of the big names at Monday's meeting were prominent at the Windy City draft.

Chicago, the newest entry in the NBA, was given first choice in every round and surprised no one when they opened by picking 6-foot-11 Walt Bellamy of Indiana.

Then, the other eight teams in the league got a pick and Chicago was given five consecutive choices. In the five, the Chicago franchise was able to grab York Larese and Doug Moe, both of North Carolina. Moe and Larese had been touted as first round picks before the meeting.

The New York Knickerbockers came out of the draft conference with some good young players. The Knicks picked up the rights of the services of Tom Stith and Whitey Martin, both of St. Bonaventure, in the first two rounds. In the third and fourth round, they got Tony Jackson of St. John's and George Blaney of Holy Cross.

Other first round picks: Cincinnati, Larry Siegfried of Ohio State; Detroit, Ray Scott of Portland; Los Angeles, Wayne Bates of Memphis State; Syracuse, Ben Warley of Tennessee A & I; St. Louis, Cleo Hill of Winston-Salem State College; Philadelphia, Tom Meschery of St. Mary's; Boston, Gary Phillips of Houston.

In its second round selections, Chicago picked up rights to John Turner of Louisville, Jerry Graves of Mississippi State, Larese and Moe, Don Kojis of Marquette and Jeff Cohen of William and Mary.

Other second round choices: Cincinnati, Bob Wiesenhahn of Cincinnati; Detroit, John Eagan of Providence; Los Angeles, Fred Sawyer of Louisville; Syracuse, Chris Smith of Virginia Tech; Philadelphia, Ted Luckenbill of Houston; St. Louis, Ron Horn of Indiana; Boston, Al Butler of Niagara.

Leader in the Seminole County Businessmen's Bowling League is the LeRoy Benton Contracting team with a total score of 70 games won.

Right behind them is Sanford Electric with 68 and Linc-Inn Bar closing in with 67 wins. Southern Bell is fourth with 64.

Linc-Inn won the team high singles in the last game with a 933 and also the team high series with a 2681.

Highest individual game was Desroloph's score of 241 and the individual high series went to Pentacost who made 624 points.

Wins Annual Poll
NEW YORK (UPI)—Harry F. Guggenheim, owner of the Cain Hoy Stable, today was selected as the man "who did the most for racing" in 1960 in the annual poll of the New York Turf Writers Association.

Two nine pound bass were the prizes of Mrs. Edward Walthal Jr. of Memphis, Tenn., who took the advice of guide John Peele about where to catch the big ones out of Lemon Bluff Camp. These two were among an increased number of large bass reported the past week in the St. Johns and in the lakes.

East West Pro Cage Game Slated Tonight

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (UPI)—The East's shooting will be pitted against the West's height tonight in the 10th annual Shrine East-West basketball game.

Nineteen of the nation's finest college basketball players will be assembled on the same floor. The East starting lineup will average 6 feet 4 inches, and the West 6 feet 6 inches.

Probable starting lineups:
East — Forwards, Tom Stith of St. Bonaventure and Bob Wiesenhahn of Cincinnati; center, Doug Moe of North Carolina; and guards, Larry Siegfried of Ohio State and either York Larese of North Carolina or Tony Jackson of St. John's (N. Y.).
West — Forwards, Cedric Price of Kansas State and Bill Bridges of Kansas; center, Walt Bellamy of Indiana; and guards, Gary Phillips of Houston and Tom Meschery of St. Mary's (Calif.).

The East team will be coached by Eddie Donovan of St. Bonaventure, while Sharm Scheuerman of Iowa will tutor the West club.
Proceeds from the game go to the Shriner's crippled children's hospitals.

Ewbanks Rated Top Choice In Consolation Derby

Carl Tracy's A. R. Ewbanks will be the odds-on favorite tonight at post time when the greyhounds break in the Consolation Derby.

The swift 67-pound brindle will be looking for his 10th victory of the year as he runs against the dogs who failed to qualify for the 26th annual Central Florida Derby which will be run tomorrow night.

Ewbanks, a fine distance runner, had tough luck on the break and couldn't make up the ground he lost when he stumbled from the starting box.

Paul Boone's Gesto also had trouble at the start and recovered well enough to finish sixth in his heat. Ewbanks finished last.

Other greyhounds set for the 44th mile are Turnaround, Jim Brown, Discoverer, and Suzy Gay in the seven-dog race.

If their last names start with the M through the rest of the alphabet they are to come out Thursday at 4 p. m. Vejar Calls It Quits In Ring

NEW YORK (UPI)—Eleven years ago, Chico Vejar launched his professional boxing career by knocking out Danny Rubino in the second round at Brooklyn's old Eastern Parkway Arena.

Monday night and 116 fights later, the former welterweight contender from Stamford, Conn., announced his retirement after punching his way to a unanimous 10-round decision over Canada's Willie Greaves at St. Nicholas Arena.

Vejar, who weighed 160 pounds to Greaves' 159½ made a short speech from the ring following the fight advising the fans to continue to support boxing.

"Don't be influenced by the few rotten apples who get into boxing from time to time," said the ex-New York University student.

Vejar wound up his ring career with 93 victories, 20 losses and four draws.

Inter-City Play
The Dubsread Golf Course of Orlando defeated Mayfair 66-42 in an inter-city match Sunday. Low gross was awarded to Max Earle with a 66 followed by Jean Witzell with a 70. Low net was grabbed by Harry Cushing with a 77-11-60.

Majorettes Stage New Type Show In 'Twirling Fantasy'

A highly entertaining show and something quite different was the "Twirling Fantasy" presented by majorette teams from Central Florida at the Fleming Memorial Gym, Saturday.

Paced by the state champion Boone High group from Orlando, and the second-place winning Seminole High Majorettes, ten corps of high-stepping junior high and high school girls gave a crowd-pleasing performance.

The most outstanding individual performance was given by a deft, sure-fingered twirler from Eustis, diminutive Nancy Breedon. She performed both with one baton and then with two, with equal dexterity and precision.

Many of the numbers were done in different and very colorful costumes that added greatly to the eye-appeal of the show.

One well-applauded number which was presented by the Boone High group, clad in polka-dotted outfits was to the tune of "The Yellow Polka Dot Bikini," which was played in march cadence.

The Black and White Pom-Pom Dance was done by the Seminole High group, as well as several other attractive numbers.

One corps was clad in colorful Scotch plaid outfits, complete with kilts and sashes.

The show was put on by the ten corps to help boost the funds needed by the Seminole High Band and Majorettes for their coming trip to Washington, D. C. and the Cherry Blossom Festival parade.

The entire production was under the supervision of Mr. and Mrs. Merle Smith, baton and twirling instructors for all the girls in this area.

School Board Cuts Legislation List

The County School Board has decided not to ask for any special acts raising the salaries of board members from $50 to $75 per month, Supt. of Schools R. T. Milwee said today.

Only two special acts have been authorized for Board Attorney Douglas Stenstrom to draw up. They are a raise in salary for Milwee from $2,000 to $10,000 and an act covering group insurance policies for all teaching personnel in the schools.

However, the school board is asking for repeal of 15 general laws pertaining to this county that are not applicable anymore.

Most of the laws are obsolete as they pertain to a county of a smaller size.

Milwee also reported today that the board will hold a special session at 10 a.m. Thursday.

'Orphaned' Team Finds Home

The "orphaned" Little League team in a Monday's Herald story that was without a sponsor, coach or practice site has now been fixed up.

The sponsor is Monroe Harbor, the coach is Patterson and the practice site is at the Junior High ball diamond each Tuesday, Thursday, and Saturday at 4:30 p.m.

Dairy herds of Wisconsin produce about one-seventh of the milk output of the United States.

Easter Lily Ball Raises Funds To Aid Crippled Children, Adults

The Third Annual Easter Lily Ball at the Mayfair ballroom Saturday was highlighted by the appearance of "Mr. Magic," the well-known magician, who appears in an area television show. Though Mr. Magic is his stage name, he is in reality a former Sanfordite, Harry Wise. His services were donated for the benefit of the crippled children and adults.

During his fascinating show of magic tricks, he used several members of the audience to help him in his acts, among them Ernest Southward, no stranger to the world of magic and sleight-of-hand himself; Dr. Jack Morrison, local dentist, and Lisle Reese, state president of the Crippled Children's Assn.

Singing and dancing for the social crowd at the ball was pretty and talented Jeri Wheatland, a young Sanford miss, who was gownned for her songs in a ballerina-length white dress, with a tiered skirt scalloped in royal blue. She returned for a dance number, clad in black silk leotards trimmed with black silk fringe. Pete Bukur's orchestra accompanied her singing numbers and played for the ballroom dancing.

Master of ceremonies for the ball was Ken McIntosh and hostess was Mr. O. A. Payne, president of the Pilot Club, with host, Dr. Vann Parker, president of the Society for Crippled Children and Adults.

The ball is sponsored each year by the Pilot Club in association with the Society and more than 75 percent of the proceeds from the benefit remain in Seminole County for the care of crippled children and adults here.

The grand prize, a large hooked rug, made by hand by Mrs. Robert Bradford of Allamonte Springs was won by Mrs. Edgar Bruce.

Ceramics Teacher To Visit Club

Ceramics instructor Eva Yelton will be a special guest at the weekly meeting Wednesday of Chuluota's Hobby Craft Club members in the Community House at 9:30 a.m.

Interest in ceramics was stimulated at last week's meeting when Mrs. Rose Muska displayed a piece of green pottery she is making and was bargained with questions concerning the craft. A committee of two members was appointed to visit the instructor to arrange her visit and, if enough interest is shown this week, arrangements will be made for a class in Chuluota.

Two comedy shows and a cartoon carnival have been scheduled for entertainment plus an intermission concert by the band. Regular admission prices will prevail, with the entire receipts to be turned over to the band fund by Hugh Prince, theater manager. Advance tickets are available from the band members.

Lyman Seniors Elect President

Jimmy Dosier has been elected president of the Lyman High School Senior Class to fill the vacancy created when Eileen Marsh moved to another town.

He has been a Lyman student for the past six years, was president of the Junior Class last year and is vice president of the Spanish Club and 1961 annual editor.

Longwood P-TO To Meet Today

Final plans for the Spring Carnival at Longwood Elementary School will be made at today's P-TO meeting in the school at 8 p.m.

A bake sale, sponsored by the sixth grade students and mothers, will be held during the meeting and refreshments for the social period will be in charge of third grade mothers.

Students Continue To Flout Law In Fort Lauderdale

FORT LAUDERDALE (UPI)—Thousands of devil-may-care college students, their leader rallying them on from atop a traffic signal light, whooped it up again Monday night and early today in this embattled resort city.

They urged police to "bring on the National Guard" when the harried officials threatened to call out reinforcements.

The students, at least 15,000 in number, have swarmed into Fort Lauderdale for their annual spring vacations. Irked because police imposed a nighttime ban on beer and oceanfront necking the students and hangers-on have battled police two nights running.

The demonstration began shortly before midnight when the mob swarmed in from beaches to protest Mayor Edward Johns' threat to call out the National Guard if the students didn't settle down. They urged police to do just that.

Theodore Dalluge, 22, of Mankato (Minn.) State College, scaled a traffic signal pole, performed some acrobatics and led the chanting students in "The Star Spangled Banner," a few college songs and several rousing cheers.

Earlier in the day, Johns and Police Chief J. Lester Holt rode along the beach pleading with the students to behave "like ladies and gentlemen."

Dalluge, later charged with inciting a riot, ignored police entreaties to descend from his lofty perch. A power and light company truck was dispatched to the scene and a deputy sheriff dragged him down and away to the already crowded jail.

His followers deluged the estimated 350 police officers on duty in the town with beer cans, firecrackers and shouted insults.

At one point police removed tear gas bombs from a squad car but did not use them. The riot ended when students retreated to the nearby beaches when many of them sleep during the Florida vacation.

Brevard Woman Cleared In Death

TITUSVILLE (UPI) — Mrs. Esther Delaney, who shot her husband to death and kept his body in a box for 17 months, was cleared of first degree murder charges Monday by the Brevard County grand jury.

She was freed immediately after the jury refused to return an indictment against her.

Mrs. Delaney told police she shot her husband, Thomas, in self defense at their home at Merrit Island. She said she did not report the slaying because she was afraid. She later moved here and brought the body with her.

Sheriff's deputies found the body in her garage two weeks ago while tracing the source of a "musty" odor of which neighbors had complained.

Survival Course Is Completed

The third Personal Survival Course to be conducted by instructor Tom Richey, Seminole High guidance counselor, for Sanford residents was concluded Monday.

Completing the course held in the Administration Bldg. of Seminole High School were F. Joe Crane, R. J. "Jack" Hickson, Mrs. Madeleine Fialle, Elizabeth L. Spencer, Helen K. McClusky, Oran L. Walker, Bernice S. Hughes, Sara M. King, Rebecca C. Tillis, Lawrence V. Downs, Mae P. Downs, Willadine Hensley, William L. Hensley, Alvin P. Hittell Jr., James E. Holloway, James H. Benton, Leslie Padgett, William Edward Flowers, Irvin R. Sefried, R. E. White Jr., Carl C. Smith and Arnold S. Williams.

Movieland Joins In Band Benefit

All proceeds from tonight's show at the Movieland Drive-In Theatre on Hwy. 17-92 will go to the Seminole High School Band in their drive to raise sufficient funds for their scheduled trip to the Cherry Blossom Festival in Washington, D. C.

Two comedy shows and a cartoon carnival have been scheduled for entertainment plus an intermission concert by the band. Regular admission prices will prevail, with the entire receipts to be turned over to the band fund by Hugh Prince, theater manager. Advance tickets are available from the band members.

Housing Boost Bill Proposed

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Kennedy sent Congress today a $3.2 billion housing bill to spruce up older cities and help low-income and elderly families get better quality homes.

The money would be spent over 40 years, but most of it by 1970. For fiscal 1962, which starts July 1, it would add about $300 million to the $728 million in housing outlays budgeted by former President Eisenhower. Housing Administrator Robert C. Weaver said the Kennedy bill "would emphasize the improvement of our existing housing supply instead of relying primarily on new housing construction for better homes, as we have been doing."

It also would remove the present dollar limit on the insuring authority of the Federal Housing Administration, instead imposing an Oct. 1, 1965 cutoff date. The limit is $38 billion and the agency is not yet pressing it. The cutoff date was meant to satisfy congressmen who like to have some control over FHA.

Only $140 million of the $3.2 billion was requested as appropriations. For the balance, the bill proposed letting the housing agency go directly to the treasury for funds, bypassing the economy-minded committees of Congress.

Other key items: A two-year experiment in making FHA-insured 40-year no-downpayment mortgages available to families of modest incomes. The present general mortgage ceiling of $9,000 on a one-family house would be retained but the ceiling allowed in high cost areas would be raised from $12,000 to $16,000.

A new program of low-interest FHA-insured loans for rental and cooperative housing projects for families earning too much to qualify for low-rent public housing but who cannot afford to buy a house even on the 40-year plan.

The Jaycees are really going all out this year in preparation for the election scheduled April 20. Thus far three candidates have announced for the presidency to succeed John Alexander. They are Jack Wilber, Bud Stewart and Hamilton Polk. At least two more candidates are expected to qualify.

The Seminole High Band was a big success at the Drive-in Tuesday night. Thanks to Movie-land officials, a special cartoon show was held with all proceeds going to the band. The band earned $2,500 for their efforts and drew a big hand (honking of horns) from the large crowd.

The City zoning and planning board will meet at 7:30 p.m. Thursday to discuss supplemental plans by George Simons on his comprehensive zoning plan for the city.

Speaker for the Jaycees noon luncheon meeting Thursday at the Civic Center, will be Rene J. Buford of Mt. Dora, who will talk about "Flying Saucer Reports."

Road Supt. J. C. Lavender said that the pipe would cost approximately $10,000 and would be installed in about two weeks.

Investigators searched the wreckage of a Soviet-built Czechoslovakian airplane early today for possible evidence of sabotage. All 52 persons aboard died in the fiery crash Tuesday night.

"We cannot rule out the possibility of an explosion aboard the plane," State Police Inspector Paul Assman said.

Zoning Director Robert Brown asked the board to drop the measure until the 1962 legislative session.

Brown said that the zoning board and attorney had not had enough time to draw up "enough safeguards" in the proposed bill and added that now the bill could be "vicious" unless those safeguards are included.

The commission, by a 4-1 vote approved the measure last week. Voting against the bill was District 3 Commissioner James P. Avery.

In other legislative matters, the board gave its whole endorsement to the proposed county code legislation.

Avery said the proposed bill would be the first step in putting the government "back in the hands of the people."

He added that with a county code, the legislature would save two weeks' hashing over the many local bills needed by the 67 counties.

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Agriculture Secretary Orville E. Freeman has ordered a study of the possibility of eliminating racial segregation in the federal-state extension service program. The move followed a White House directive to promote equal job opportunity for Negroes on government contracts.

THE BLUE STAR MEMORIAL HIGHWAY marker erected by the Florida Federation of Garding Clubs was dedicated as a tribute to the Armed Forces in ceremonies held by Mrs. C. R. Mayes, left, state president, and Mrs. Eric Vihlen, president of the Sanford Club, at a landscaped island on Hwy. 17-92.

The face lifting on W. First St. got another boost this week.

Atlantic Coast Line officials informed City Manager W. E. Knowles that they will take steps "as soon as possible" to clean up and remodel the front of the ACL warehouse next to the Burpee Seed Co. on W. First. The ACL may even tear down the present building and put up a new one.

Youngful Sanford Attorney Harold Johnson will have a big job during the next 90 days. He will take over the chores as county attorney while State Rep. Mack Cleveland Jr. is in Tallahassee in the Legislature. Johnson has been sitting in at the recent meetings in preparation for the job. One thing he better forget about is making any plans for Tuesday afternoons — for the second week in a row the board meeting went past 6 p.m.

U.S., Allies Vow To Preserve Laos Freedom

BANGKOK, Thailand (UPI)—The United States and its SEATO Allies today promised to take whatever steps may be necessary to preserve a united, independent and sovereign Laos. They condemned continuing Communist intervention in Laos as a "flagrant disregard" of the 1954 Geneva Treaty.

The statements were contained in a strong eight-point resolution and a communique published as the foreign ministers of the anti-Communist alliance ended a three-day meeting—the most critical in SEATO's seven-year history.

Delegation members said the resolution was approved unanimously but the key paragraph omitted reference to join military action—meaning individual members could act even if others did not wish to do so.

The United States, which had urged a strong stand, and France, which balked at committing itself to possible military intervention in Laos, both appeared satisfied.

Secretary of State Dean Rusk said the meeting had "reaffirmed our unity." He warned that all of Southeast Asia is threatened by communism and said "we shall meet that threat."

French Foreign Minister Maurice Couve de Murville said he was satisfied the resolution "puts the emphasis . . . on a political settlement. Military intervention has never settled a political problem."

The other nations of the Southeast Asia Treaty Organization are Britain, Australia, New Zealand, Thailand, Pakistan and the Philippines.

The resolution said SEATO favored an independent and sovereign Laos and was pleased with present efforts to secure a cessation of hostilities in the jungle kingdom. But it stressed that SEATO would not shirk its responsibility to protect those nations threatened by Red aggression.

The resolution did not place a deadline for a Soviet response to a U. S.-supported British proposal for a cease-fire in Laos to be followed by a political settlement. Britain submitted the proposal in Moscow Thursday.

County Asks Flood Plan Grant

Seminole County took a step Tuesday toward solving its water control and flooding problems as the board of county commissioners agreed to apply for federal planning aid.

County Attorney Mack Cleveland Jr. was authorized to apply to the Housing and Home Finance Agency for a $30,000 planning grant.

Representatives of Reynolds, Smith and Hill, Jacksonville engineers, reported on a study authorized by the commission late last year, recommended the project be undertaken in four phases.

The initial phase in the long range $9 million program was estimated Tuesday at $3,620,000. The entire program would take up to five years to complete, according to the availability of funds.

The first phase would include solving flooding problems in landlocked lakes in the county while other phases would include widening existing channel and canals at Howell Creek, the Little Wekiva and the Econlockhatchee River. The engineers said that the study would start "with the critical area first."

Engineer Norman Bryant explained that if the application is approved, the first step in the study would start in about 30 days and construction—if funds are available—in 60-90 days.

County Postpones Housing Code

A minimum housing code for Seminole County will have to wait until 1962 after the County Commission Tuesday afternoon rescinded its request for enabling legislation to set up the regulation.

Zoning Director Robert Brown asked the board to drop the measure until the 1962 legislative session.

Brown said that the zoning board and attorney had not had enough time to draw up "enough safeguards" in the proposed bill and added that now the bill could be "vicious" unless those safeguards are included.

The commission, by a 4-1 vote approved the measure last week. Voting against the bill was District 3 Commissioner James P. Avery.

In other legislative matters, the board gave its whole endorsement to the proposed county code legislation.

Avery said the proposed bill would be the first step in putting the government "back in the hands of the people."

He added that with a county code, the legislature would save two weeks' hashing over the many local bills needed by the 67 counties.

Good Friday Services Ministers Are Chosen

Members of the Sanford Area Ministerial Assn. who will lead Good Friday services from noon until 3 p. m. at the First Presbyterian Church in Sanford were announced today.

Included in the group which will speak on the Seven Last Words are Rev. I. W. Justice of the Church of the Nazarene, Rev. Clyde Dollar of the Free Methodist Church, Rev. Richard Clark of the Salvation Army and Rev. Cecil Seal of the Christian and Missionary Alliance Church.

Rev. Hugh Booth of the Ebenezer Methodist Church will conduct the benediction and music for the three-hour service will be provided by choirs of the association churches.

Cleveland Assures 'Suitable' Bill

State Rep. Mack Cleveland Jr. assured the County Commission Tuesday that a "suitable" drainage act that will fit Seminole County and its citizens will be drawn up by the legislative delegation.

Cleveland said he was "not sold on the Orange County drainage bill because there were not enough safeguards for the people."

The legislator, who also serves as county attorney, said that he and Rep. Gordon Frederick will work on a special bill that will fit the needs of the people.

Cleveland made these remarks after the commission authorized him to draw up enabling legislation on drainage so the board could set the wheels in motion to start on a $9 million water control project.

Cleveland said that he and Frederick will leave for Tallahassee Sunday and work throughout the week going over the Orange County sample bill—which calls for the establishment of drainage districts—and make needed changes to protect the people.

Cleveland emphasized that the Seminole drainage bill will spell out that no drainage tax will be levied without a referendum by the people.

Altamonte Gets Road Reclassified

Altamonte Springs won its battle with the County to reclassify SR 427 (Holland Ave.), in the city limits from a rural road to a village road.

A delegation from the town council headed by Attorney S. J. Davis and Mayor Wilbur Hawkins spent almost two hours in the morning Tuesday and one hour in the afternoon arguing the merits of the reclassification.

At noon, the board went over the road and agreed to reclassify it, adopting a resolution to the State Road Dept. to that effect.

Davis pointed out that under a rural classification there would be open ditches on the road and no gutters or sidewalks. A village road would include underground drainage, sidewalks and curbing.

Supt. of roads J. C. Lavender said that the reclassification would cost about $50,000 and would mean a delay of the work on the road from 30 to 60 days.

Repeal Of Law Alloting Race Funds Is Asked

County Attorney Mack Cleveland Jr. Tuesday afternoon was authorized to draw up a resolution asking the legislature to repeal an existing law turning over $50,000 of state race track funds to the county school board.

District 3 County Commissioner James P. Avery, who proposed the repeal, said that he felt that the money should be turned over to the county's road and bridge fund.

If the law is repealed, it would take effect during the 1961-62 fiscal year, Cleveland said.

Avery said that before re-assessment the school board was entitled to that money as "an emergency measure. Now that is no longer necessary."

Avery added that he would like to see all road and bridge funds come only out of gas tax money and race track funds.

In other business, the commission agreed to purchase two air conditioning units for the County

State Cabinet Gets 'New Deal'

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — Gov. Farris Bryant has handed the Cabinet Trustees of the Internal Improvement Fund a "new deal" in the administration of public lands in Florida.

Bryant, who ordered a complete inventory of the state's 417,452 acres of land available for development, also suggested the trustees dredge and fill some of the state's property to boost its market value.

Lions Fish Fry Scheduled Friday

Plans are complete for the big Lions Club sponsored Fish Fry at the Farmer's Auction Market on Hwy. 17-92 Friday, starting at 5:30 p. m. and serving as long as people want to eat.

Despite the hospital confinement of Chairman Cecil Carlton, the preparations are being taken care of, and Deputy Slim Galloway and his crew will be handling the frying of the fish, with Constable Bob Carroll superintending the production of the cole slaw and Bill Livingston seeing to it that there are plenty of baked beans.

The Fish Fry is the result of the Lions Club promise to help the Seminole High School Band and Majorettes raise money for their trip to Washington to march in the Cherry Blossom Parade. Although all the band members and majorettes have been working hard all year to accumulate the necessary funds, which amounts to about $70 apiece, they are still a little short of the necessary cash to finance the trip.

The local band and twirlers are one of only two bands in the state chosen to represent Florida in the National Festival, when the famous Japanese cherry trees burst into their pink and white clouds of bloom in the Capitol city.

Tickets are on sale from any members of the band and from any Lions Club members.
