DISTINCTIVE FEATURES OF SANFORD CELERY DELTA

The individuality of a section is the base of its distinctive qualifications. A locality that is in no way different from other localities, is destined to come and go, unannounced and unnoticed. Not so with Sanford. Why?

First. Because we have made a reputation that is being used by all parts of the state in the sale of worthless land to homeseekers whose intentions are good and hence should be respected and not trampled upon.

Second. Because the flowing artesian wells in the Sanford Celery Delta, flow now, not next week nor next year, but right now.

Third. Because, the natural flowing wells of the Celery Delta, of which there are 2700, are not of the salt variety which are to be had on the western edge of Volusia county and Lake Harney. Our wells have been tried for a dozen years and by their use we produce bumper crops. We have the wells to show, 2700 of them.

Fourth. Because this is a proven section. We do not have experimental farms nor demonstration patches. We do not need them. We have 2400 acres in the Celery Delta, tilled, irrigated and in cultivation, thus showing that this section has passed out of the experimental stage.

Fifth. Because we do not have to hold any other locality up to the would be purchaser to induce him to purchase land in the Celery Delta. We show him what has been done and the operations now going on and his exclamation is "This is more like business than anything I have seen in Florida."

Sixth. Because all the land in the Celery Delta is susceptible to drainage as well as irrigation.

Seventh. Because we have a hardpan at the proper distance beneath the surface which retains applied fertilizers and irrigating waters.

Eighth. Because the vegetable growing industry of the Celery Delta has grown to such proportions that a hundred ton capacity ice plant is kept running at full blast during the shipping season and the output is used to refrigerate Sanford vegetables alone.

Ninth. Because we have both water and rail transportation, making a competitive combination that will never be removed and insuring to this section freight rates of the most equitable degree.

Tenth. Because all the accessories necessary to the intelligent cultivation and marketing of the crop are to be had here.

Eleventh. Because the basis of our Sanford is its agriculture and agriculture is the salt of the earth.

Twelfth. Because there is little good land in Florida and those who are fortunate enough to secure a piece of the Sanford irrigable stuff should concede themselves very fortunate.

Thirteenth. Because the Sanford Celery Delta does not have to ape nor smirk after any other section of this or any other state to induce good intending persons to purchase its lands.

Fourteenth. Because Sanford Celery Delta real estate men do not have to stretch the truth nor plagiarize any other community to induce homeseekers to purchase what little irrigable land they have left.

Fifteenth. Because Sanford Celery Delta land is selling for $150 to $1750 per acre when land on the Volusia county side of the river goes begging at $20 an acre.

Sixteenth. Because Sanford is a progressive community and has all modern facilities necessary to such a community.

Seventeenth. Because Sanford is not a "colony scheme" perpetrated by land fakirs to flimflam innocent people out of their hard earned savings.

Eighteenth. Because Sanford does not have to tell you about what it intends doing, but can point out to you, what it has already accomplished.

Nineteenth. Because Sanford has become famous throughout the nation for devoting and working out the most scientifically poised system of sub-irrigation that has so far been given to the use of man.

Twentieth. Because the Department of Agriculture at Washington through its trained experts who have been sent here from time to time to study the effectual-ty of the Sanford system of sub-irrigation have pronounced it to be perfect.

Twenty-first. Because the copious flow of artesian water, always impregnated with sulphur will permit of the same area being planted to the same crops year in and year out with any injury to the soil or quality of product.

Twenty-second. Because a Sanford Acre has produced seventy tons of vegetables in a single growing season. This is the record production for the whole earth.

Twenty-third. Because the health of Sanford is good during the winter and summer and the climate is perfect the year round.

Twenty-fourth. Because the waters of Lakes Monroe and Jessup and the St. Johns river furnish most excellent means for enjoyment that cannot be had in inland locations.

Twenty-fifth. Because our soil is so light and loamy that it can be worked by hand.

Twenty-sixth. Because we begin planting our crops here about the time our northern cousins get out the hard coal burner and begin to prepare for their winter siege of bad colds, pneumonia and attendant disorders.

Twenty-seventh. Because the saving here in the matter of fuel and heavy clothing as compared with the north, is sufficient to take care of a good majority of the grocery bill.

Twenty-eighth. Because people come here in poor health which they regain, buy vegetable farms and become permanent citizens.

These are a few of the distinctive reasons that give character to Sanford and its Celery Delta. Great men are known by their personal attributes, and thus it is with Sanford. Our city is known by its ability to make good.

NOT A CANDIDATE

Hon. D. L. Thrasher Will Not Make the Race for Mayor

The following letter has been received by The Herald from D. L. Thrasher who is in New York buying his fall stock of goods: Editor Holly, Sanford, Fla.

Dear Sir:

I noticed in the last issue of the Herald the notice that Mr. Underwood was the only candidate so far for Mayor of Sanford, but that it was rumored that I would be in the race.

With due deference to the confidence and good will of a few friends, I emphatically decline to make the race. I realize the gravity of the situation just now; that Sanford is in the beginning of the construction period and that she needs a level head, honest heart and steady hand to guide her on in her progress, perhaps as never before. I believe Sanford has much of such material, not yet tried. Give such as will make the race a chance and let the citizens of Sanford make their choice.

Another reason I have to offer for declining to make the race, is that at present I am a councilman and my term will not be finished until Dec. 1911. I love Sanford for her shady streets and flowing wells, her churches and schools and her people, and most of all because Sanford is my home.

I believe in a standard pride and a sentiment of decency and order that must characterize the citizenship of every community that reaches a very great degree of perfection, hence this word of explanation, for my attitude and action, which I hope no one will misunderstand or be so unkind as to misconstrue.

Yours truly,

D. L. Thrasher.

Killed in Automobile Accident

A bursted tire caused a touring car in which five men were riding to turn a somersault last Sunday on a part of the Grand Prize race course near Savannah, and almost instantly killed Mike Jones, a well known retail furniture merchant in Savannah. The four other men were badly bruised, but not seriously hurt. Jones was picked up by an automobile which had followed the party and was hurried to a hospital, but died just as he reached the building. He was the owner of the wrecked automobile and was at the wheel when the accident occurred. The machine was torn to pieces. It was stated that Jones' head was caught by the steering wheel as the car turned over and his neck was broken. Otherwise he was not even very badly bruised.

Mr. Jones was the senior member of the Jones-McLaughlin Furniture Co., of this city. W. W. Abernathy, the manager, was called to Savannah by wire and attended the funeral which occurred at Statesboro, Ga.

Welborne—Murphy.

Tuesday afternoon at 5 o'clock an interesting wedding occurred at the Oakland Heights Presbyterian church, Rev. Clarence G. Reynolds, D. D. officiating. Mrs. Ethel F. Welborne of DeLand, Fla., and Hugh K. Murphy, M. D. of Mulberry, were the bride and groom. Miss Purdon, the sister of the bride, played the wedding march to which the bridal party entered.

The bride was attractively attired in a white chiffon broadcloth suit, and chiffon cloth waist, a becoming hat trimmed in blue and white completed the toilet.

The wedding was a very quiet one only the immediate family and a few friends being present, among them being Mrs. D. H. Purdon of DeLand, mother of the bride, Mrs. W. E. Tucker and Mrs. E. J. Sheffield of Jacksonville, Mrs. E. H. Dudley of Mulberry, Florida, and Miss Gertrude Purdon.

Dr. Murphy, who is a prominent physician of South Florida, together with his wife will spend a week in the mountains then go to Washington and Baltimore. At present they are registered at Margo Terrace.—Aahville Gazette-News.

Geo. H. Crafts presented a statement and asked for extras in connection with the new bridges, and it was moved and seconded that no extra money be paid.

Moved and seconded that vouchers as per bills attached as signed by the president pro tem of city council and approved by the financial committee be paid.

Moved and carried that council adjourn till 7:30 p. m., Wednesday, Sept. 7th.

FAKE LAND SCHEMES

Investors in Florida Lands Should Investigate.

BLAME UNSCRUPULOUS DEALERS

Florida Editor Finds That Many People Are Buying Gold Brick Properties.

Little by little the truth is coming out about various fake land schemes in Florida. The Herald sounded the note of warning several years ago and was denounced by several papers for being a "knocker" of prosperity. The text of The Herald was for every purchaser to see the land first. The following from the editor of the Live Oak Democrat will open the eyes of the prospective buyers of Florida land:

"The editor of the Democrat returned a few days ago from a ten days' visit to his old home in Missouri, and while there learned that thousands of acres of Florida Everglades lands has been sold in the city of St. Louis and Jefferson county. We were surprised to learn that the citizens of the "Show Me" State would buy upon the representation of agents without first seeing the property they were paying their good money for. The drainage of the Everglades is in its infancy. It will be years before they are drained—if ever, and even if the work of drainage shall ever be completed there will be large areas of the land absolutely worthless. Acre after acre of land or water, miles from the drainage canals, that may be of but very little value, is being sold, we are informed, at prices ranging from $50 to $200 per acre, and it could not be sold to a resident of the state, at all, except for speculative purposes. In fact, a native Floridian would not accept as a gift a deed to the property if he had to live upon it. The signs are not wanting that land sharks are seeking by deliberate misrepresentation to work off large bodies of so called reclaimed land, much of it worthless, upon uninformed people at the North and West, and as investors thus bitten are sure to make a row, the result will be that desirable Florida lands seeking a market will be blacklisted; many who would otherwise invest will be scared away, and all legitimate land enterprises in the State will suffer."

"There will be some good Everglades land reclaimed by drainage, but the poor man who buys a body of this land on the installment plan will hardly get that kind. A city on paper near the center of the Everglades, is also being worked on the unsuspecting, so it is reported, and it is said that large numbers of worthless lots are being sold at from $50 to $300 each."

"Why people will buy property in Florida or any where else without first investigating is more than we can understand. There are millions of acres of good land in Florida for sale that is high and dry, and the price asked for it is very reasonable. Property in Florida is advancing in price every day, and land purchases made almost anywhere in this State outside the Everglades are, in our opinion, good and safe investments; but our advice to all prospective purchasers is to come to Florida and see the land before buying. We believe there is land in Florida that will produce crops of a greater money value per acre than will the lands of any other State in the Union, but, like all the other States, we have some waste lands, and these waste lands are sometimes placed upon the market and sold in the West and South at very high prices, while good wild lands can be purchased for from $3 to $15 per acre, and improved farms for from $10 to $35 per acre."

"Florida is the best State in the Union, but the wild-cat land schemes now being worked will do the State no good, and when the reaction which is sure to come, sets in, it will do us harm."

Advertising Florida Cities.

The advertising appropriation of Bartow city council recently authorized will be devoted to the issuing of an illustrated 32 pages and cover booklet and magazine. The committee this week closed a contract with Vyle's Advertising Agency, for both booklet and advertising and Mr. Vyle spent the first few days of the week in Bartow taking photographs and collecting data.

The magazine advertising of DeLand Business League is also in charge of Mr. Vyle.

Isn't it about time Sanford got busy along the same lines?

DISAPPEARED AT SANFORD

Jacksonville Man Missing From His Home for Several Weeks.

Aaron K. Basham, ex-city councilman formerly connected with the Hunter Lumber Company, but recently a retired citizen and independent speculator in real estate, has disappeared, and it is feared that he may have met with foul play.

Basham left the city about the middle of August for Sanford, and vicinity to investigate a celery land proposition. He carried on his person about $1,000 in cash. And he was heard from last in a letter dated August 21 and addressed to his wife.

It has been learned that Basham contemplated taking a trip with two unknown men whom he met on the train on his way to Sanford to examine some land. The three were to leave Sanford in a launch. If the trip was taken the result of it is shrouded in mystery, as nothing has been heard since of the Jacksonville man.

On Friday Mrs. Basham, alarmed over her husband's silence, visited the office of Sheriff R. Fleming Bowden, and appealed to the county officers to locate, if possible her missing husband. A photograph of Basham and other information has been forwarded to Sanford, and Deputy Sheriff Lee of that place has been urged to make a thorough investigation.

Basham left Jacksonville for Sanford to look over a proposition with the Florida Home Land Company had put before him, and it was his intention to meet the company's agent in Sanford. That he ever appeared at the company's Sanford is not known.

The letter written by Basham to his wife was dated August 21, and was written on the stationery of the Sanford House. In the letter he mentioned the two men whom he had met on the train, neglecting to give their names, and stated that on the next day the three were to take a lunch ride to look over some celery land.

At Mrs. Basham's request on Friday, the sheriff's office immediately took the matter up, and a letter was written to Deputy Sheriff Lee of Sanford, asking him to make a thorough search for Basham. Up to a late hour last night no reply had been received from Sanford.

The fact that Basham has always closely attended to his correspondence, the fact that he had a large amount of money on his person when he left Jacksonville, and the further fact that he contemplated a launch trip with two unknown men are taken as reasonable grounds for the fear that he has met with foul play.

"He may have been assaulted, robbed and thrown into the river from the launch," was one speculative bit of gossip heard at police headquarters last night. In the meantime the sheriff's office is doing its best to secure information of Basham.

As an ex-city councilman, as being long connected with the Hunt Lumber Company of this city and as a real estate speculator, Basham has a wide acquaintance in Jacksonville. Basham formerly resided at 1127 East Duval street, but recently he moved to South Jacksonville.—Times-Union.

Deputy Sheriff Lee has investigated the case and finds that Basham left the Sanford House on the night named with his baggage saying that he would return in a few days and nothing has been heard of him since. The officers can find no boat that was used that night and the whole affair is shrouded in mystery.

Mrs. C. G. Malm.

Mrs. Clara G. Malm, surrounded by her husband, mother and three daughters, passed over the river in the Great Beyond Tuesday morning at eight-thirty o'clock at the home of her son-in-law, H. E. Tolar, in Sanford. She had suffered greatly at times during the past few months she had been in Sanford, and though her death was a severe blow to all her loved ones it was the only balm that could rest her wearied body.

Wednesday the remains were taken to Upsala on the afternoon train and there in the little Lutheran cemetery were laid to rest beside her father, who predeceased her over a year ago. Rev. A. E. Housholder, of the Methodist church and a former preaching elder in this district, conducted the services.

Mrs. Malm leaves of her immediate family her husband, mother and eight children, and they have the deepest sympathy of their many Wauchula friends.—Wauchula Advocate.

Children's Party

Sanford lays claim to having more children and healthier children than any city of similar size in the south. Anyone visiting Sanford the past week and noting the children's parties would have been struck by the same thought regarding our young hopefuls.

By a happy chance the birthday of Mildred Holly and Harry Woodruff fell upon the same day and reading near each other their parents decided to give the little tots a dual birthday. Their little friends were summoned by the following invitation:

Born on the Third of September
Harry Woodruff and Mildred Holly
Have cause this day to remember
And with little friends will be jolly

On Saturday next is the date
Woodruff home, corner Sixth and Oak
So mark it down on your slate
There will be fun for the little folk

About thirty were present and enjoyed the occasion as only children can. The home of Mrs. Woodruff was decorated in red and green and each little guest was presented with a pretty basket filled with candy. There were two lovely birthday cakes with four tiny candles on each, and they were the source of much merriment, as the children cut for the dimes they contained. There were games on the lawn, after which dainty refreshments were served, and an afternoon of real pleasure that the children will not soon forget was brought to a close.

On Monday afternoon little Thelma Newlan was seven year old and her friends were invited to help her celebrate the occasion by the following dainty invitation:

September fourth, 1903
I came this beautiful world to see
As my birthday this year comes on Sunday
I will entertain on Monday
So come little friends that may
Celebrate my seventh birthday

Many games especially designed for the occasion were enjoyed by the little folks and after refreshments were served they departed wishing Thelma many more happy birthdays.

KITTY NICE PERLE DROWNED

Well Known Operatic Star Goes to a Watery Grave

Kitty Nice Perle, leading lady in the Manhattan Opera Company, and her husband, Louis Perle, a pianist in the same troupe, were drowned in Lake Quinsigamond at Worcester, Mass., Sunday night. The leading lady and her husband were in a flat bottom boat and in changing seats, Mrs. Perle lost her balance and fell overboard. The husband jumped in to save her and called for help. Before those ashore could reach them they sank from sight. When the bodies were recovered both were lifeless.

Mrs. Perle was well known in Sanford where she appeared last winter in Olivette, Chimes of Normandy and several other operas with the Manhattan Opera Co.

Killed in Skin Game.

While several negroes were engaged in a game of skin at Markham last Sunday night James Reeves was shot in the back by Robert Bradford and instantly killed. Judge Stringfellow held a coroner's inquest and on evidence brought forth, the negro Bradford was brought to Sanford by Deputy Sheriff Lee and will be given a preliminary hearing tomorrow.

Broadwater in Town.

C. M. Broadwater, the popular fertilizer man has decided to make Sanford headquarters. He is representing the G. W. Sanders Fertilizer Co., of Jacksonville, and expects to meet his old friends and new in the Celery Delta and other parts of the State.

Fred Lovell, the genial manager of the Clyde Pharmacy is taking a vacation at Daytona Beach. Dr. Humphries of Jacksonville is presiding at the Clyde during Mr. Lovell's absence.

CURBSTONE GLEANINGS

A Budget of Opinion "Just Between You and Me"

EVEN THE GATE POST NOT IN IT

A Chief is Among Ye Taking Notes, and Faith, He'll Prent 'Em'— So Says Saunterer.

Special Correspondence to The Herald.
 Upon several occasions I have spoken my mind freely upon the question of Sanford people sending out of town for material that can be bought here but I am deaf and dumb hereafter. The very men who are getting their living in Sanford and keeping stores are the worst out-of-town buyers that we have and I was literally astonished the other day to see the large shipments of goods coming addressed to home merchants, stuff that could have been purchased here. Of course you can get goods cheaper in New York and Chicago and there is no use in denying the assertion. When it comes to that you can buy anything to eat, wear or furnish your house cheaper in the large cities of New York and Chicago than you can in Florida. Just keep up this business a while longer, Mr. Business Man and you will be forced to go to New York and Chicago to live. There is no law to prevent this buying from the mail order house but a list of the business men who are doing this would make most interesting reading, and sometimes I feel that such a list ought to be published. Money should be left in Sanford if Sanford people expect to continue doing business and the present system of buying out of town will mean the death-knell to all of us if it continues.

My friend, C. H. Leffler, announces for Clerk, Treasurer and Assessor this week and with R. C. Maxwell and M. W. Lovell, this promises to make a pretty three cornered race. This office seems to be very popular just now and the other positions are going begging. Of course these gentlemen know what they are doing, but for my part I would sooner be condemned to live in Orlando for six months than to hold the job of Clerk in any city. Of all the positions that drives a man to Chattahoochee this is the worst and there is no real money in it. As I say, these gentlemen probably want the job and they are welcome to it. The one that gets it will be a second Stephen, and if he don't get stoned to death by public opinion he can die happy.

We are passing too many laws. I believe that the American people are government sick. Nowadays a man doesn't need to have a conscience. He must merely live by law. Our legislatures have given us so many laws that every citizen of the state, from the governor to the ignorant negro, may unconsciously break a law every day, never know it and do no harm. We are lawed from cradle to grave. I have no objection to political law, but in recent years the Puritanism of ancient days has broken out upon us and we have legislated upon economic and moral questions until a man has no legal right to enjoy his individuality, or even experience personal liberty—there is a special statute for his every act, and his life, politically, economically, and morally, is prescribed for him. I cannot admit that civilization is not progressing, and I believe that as it progresses written rules of conduct should decrease in number. We should stop manufacturing our laws. But how are we going to prevent the passage of more and more laws as long as we permit legislatures to meet. Our brilliant law makers must make records to show to the folks at home and if each one does not display several bills presented, the expectant constituents will feel that they were not properly represented in the legislative halls. It seems to me that after one more meeting of the legislature, during which some of the dead timber in the way of enactments could be thrown on a bonfire, we could do without another gathering of the wise ones for ten years or more. But enough of this. I am dealing in ideals. We can only hope that Hon. Forrest Lake and Hon. Samuel Robinson, our newly elected legislators, can get through some good bills for Orange county—bills that will really do us some good and let the fool bills die in the pigeon holes where they should be relegated. But give us only what we really need.

There is much complaint these days regarding the complexion of the city water. When people want water to bath in they do not want chocolate, and when they want water to drink they do not want to spread it on their bread. It makes but little difference about the city water for every family has a pure, flowing artesian well for drinking purposes, but we do want to take a bath once a month whether we need it or not, and when one looks upon the water when it is brown, the hankering to plunge in grows less and we compromise by using a wash tub filled with artesian water. If the people are obliged to pay water rent they should get clear water, and the water works plant ought to get busy and clean out the pipes or whatever it is that makes the otherwise good water look like the raging Mississippi after a spring freshet.

My friend D. L. Thrasher positively refuses to make the run for Mayor and it begins to look like they are all afraid of W. H. Underwood. Maybe it is because Mr. Underwood is so large and strong that he has them all bluffed. But if no one else comes out Harry Underwood will make just as strong a race for he does not believe in going to sleep at the switch and he is watching every move in the political game. He may not be a politician and does not particularly care for the office but since he has announced he will prosecute his campaign with the same vim and energy that characterizes

An exchange has the following comprehensive tribute to the long-suffering telephone girl:

The telephone girl sits still in her chair and listens to voices everywhere. She hears all the gossip, she hears all the news, she knows who is happy and who has the blues; she knows all our sorrows, she knows all our joys, she knows every girl who is chasing the boys; she knows of our troubles, she knows of our strife, she knows every man who is mean to his wife; she knows every time we are out with the boys, she hears the excuse each fellow employs; she knows every woman who has a dark past, she knows every man who's inclined to be fast; in fact, there's a secret 'neath each saucy curl of that quiet, demure telephone girl. If the telephone girl would tell all that she knows it would turn half of our friends into the bitterest foes; she would raise a small wind that would soon be a gale, engulf us in trouble and land us in jail; she would let go a story (which gaining in force) would cause half our wives to sue for divorce; she could get all the churches mixed up in a fight, and turn all our day into sorrowing night; in fact, she could keep the whole town in a stew if she'd tell the tenth part of the things she knew. Now doesn't it make your head whirl when you think what you owe the telephone girl.

There should be some restrictions placed on the noise privileges to be accorded motorcyclists. Some of the riders of these machines appear to have no idea of the proprieties. They go right through the busiest streets with their machines wide open, permitting noise of deafening nature. Such is not at all necessary for the proper operation of a motorcycle and it accomplishes no good whatever. It is time for the city council to take steps to better regulate operators of these machines. They pay absolutely no attention to the speed regulations and the noise produced by them is very annoying.

Every night or so I drop into the Imperial and watch the moving pictures. They never grow old and there is no better way to pass a pleasant evening at a small expense. One can easily imagine why the moving picture business is becoming so popular all over the United States. Moving pictures are the main American amusement of today. In New York City, the moving picture center of the world, 250 "shows" against only 78 regular theatres. Some of the latter include moving pictures on their bills. The chief combination of manufacturers produces 20,000 feet a week of new films—of which eighty copies apiece must be made. Mr. Edison's royalty, begone only recently, amounts from this source to an income of $8,000 a week. The middlemen or "exchanges" pay manufacturers $9,000,000 for films, which the former rent at about $18,000,000 a year to the actual exhibitors or showmen. They in turn collected nickels and dimes in 1909, at their 10,000 ticket-windows, amounting to $57,500,000. And these audiences numbered more than two and a quarter million souls per day—three times the audiences of all the regular theaters in America put together!

Has a Fine Launch

Capt. Pagenhart has overhauled his launch, "Mamie," put in a new engine, new plush cushions and other improvements and now has a boat of which any one would feel proud. On Sunday the genial Captain took out a party to try the new boat and a delightful trip up the river was enjoyed by all. The Mamie will be more popular than ever this season.

A FEW WORDS ABOUT OUR COLONY

There isn't a thing in this world done by anybody that hasn't its critics. Really too it's a good thing because publicity is the great agent in correcting all evil. The greatest agent in this line is the country paper because it appeals to people with a conscience. We offer this preface to a few remarks: First we have good land, we offered 10,000 acres at $25 an acre, paying railroad fares to buyers and other concessions. Why? because we've got 60,000 acres of land and we want 1,000 families to settle on our land before January 1st, 1910.

Well, then what? We have sold now, September 1st 8,550 acres of the 10,000 and we've just begun. That's pretty good isn't it, from July 5th. That means a lot of people close to Sanford who will be
People of Florida

We don't care for the fellow with the anvil and the hammer. He does no good for his own proposition or the city of Sanford. We know we are going to bring a lot of people to Sanford's vicinity; that's enough.

We want at Celery City, now listed as a station on the Florida East Coast Railway, a lot of business people. We want grocery and general store; hardware and agricultural implements, lumber yards, portable houses, tent dealers, men with teams for plowing, carpenters, small trades of all kinds. We will give a lot free for one year to anyone putting in a business place in Celery City. We need a new hotel, a big boarding house, and a lot of things that people want NOW. We offer these opportunities to Sanford first.

Don't wait until to-morrow. Opportunity comes but once. A community, brand new with money ready to pay at your doors. Branch houses for furniture, hardware, and all sorts of goods will pay. You may have to loaf a few days but you'll be there ready to sell. Write us today.

October 1st, all our propositions for concessions, low prices and special rates close in accordance with our previous statements.

This is the inevitable thought that comes from a consideration of the South.—Collier's August 5, 1910. Early in his official career as head of the U. S. department of agriculture, Secretary Wilson once took occasion to say that the Delta of the Nile does not rival in richness of soil the Hammock lands of Florida.

Compared With Sanford

Mr. C. C. Howard, Vice-President of the Howard-Packard Land Company, has recently returned from an inspection of the irrigation systems in use in California, Oklahoma, Colorado and other western states. Mr. Howard is a former resident of the west and so knows the west and western farming methods thoroughly. In writing of his visit, he says:

"In order to appreciate Sanford and its vicinity, as to her climate and her advantages as an irrigated district, one should visit the widely advertised districts of the West and Southwest, where fruit, truck, grain and forage crops are raised by means of irrigation. Upon riding through these districts one can but remark concerning the beautiful alfalfa fields and orchards, yet, if you stop and investigate the source from which they secure their water, the method used in irrigating, together with the trouble and uncertainty, to say nothing of the cost, it will make a man think more than ever of Sanford as the garden spot of this country. Where artesian wells are found they are obtained usually at a very great depth and at an enormous expense. I was told that in the Pecos Valley twenty to forty per cent of the wells had gone dry this summer, and in many other places, where they depend upon saving up the rainfall in reservoirs, they either lacked sufficient rain or as in some cases, had got it in such quantities as to wash out their dams and gates, wasting the water and destroying crops. Ditches must practically be built every year, from $5 to $35 an acre must be paid to the water companies for the water supply, and then when the streams are low there is often trouble over the proper distribution of the supply: If one of the head gates should wash out or break, as has happened in Southern California, farming in that vicinity and perhaps for miles distant is at an end for another season or more. Anyone taking the trip from here to the Pacific coast at this time will undoubtedly find that Sanford has the most delightful climate of all. All these things tend to make one more enthusiastic over the Sanford District, and to think that of all irrigated districts Sanford is, and should be, second to none in the United States."

Farming in Florida, at least the kind of farming that brings the money, consists of small tracts intensely and diversely cultivated. Five acres of our Eureka Hammock irrigated with one flowing well, (which we will guarantee to drill for you for not exceeding $65) will readily yield two, three and four crops a year with proper care and attention. These crops, based on past year's conservative figures, average, for instance:

Lettuce $800 Celery $1,000
Strawberries $500 Tomatoes $300

EUREKA HAMMOCK will grow nearly everything listed in a seedsman's catalog, and grow it better and earlier than it can be grown in any other state in the Union, and yield a financial return which has made Sanford lands the greatest wealth producers per acre of any land in the world.

Eureka Hammock is Sanford Land

We want you to remember this. Sanford is the famous Celery Delta, the famous Celery Delta is Sanford, and therein you have in a nut-shell why EUREKA HAMMOCK is offered at $150 an acre.

Eureka Hammock is Right in the Heart of the Celery Delta the richness of which is not rivaled by the Delta of the Nile. Eureka Hammock is at the end of Sanford Avenue, Florida, and borders the north shore of Lake Jessup. The Atlantic Coast Line railroad runs through the north-west corner and our townsite of Clyde. Sanford and Everglades railroad is being extended from Cameron City to Clyde. Hard paved roads between Sanford and Orlando (the two largest cities in Orange County) is planned to skirt Eureka Hammock on the north.

Eureka Hammock at $150 Per Acre

1/2 Cash, 1/2 One Year, 1/2 Two Years is distinctly a higher grade farming and investment proposition than the usual run of Florida lands. Our contract, too, is exceedingly liberal.

We will Give you Your Money Back with 6 per cent Interest One Year after Completion of Your Payments if you Ask Us

We will write this in your contract together with our guarantees of flowing well and title to the land.

Ask for further details on the coupon. Also ask us about Homeseekers' Excursion Rates from your town to Sanford. We want you to look at Eureka Hammock first hand

HOWARD-PACKARD LAND COMPANY, Inc.
Peoples Bank Building Sanford, Florida

The method of securing water in the irrigated belt of Sanford Celery Delta is the simplest in the world, drill into the earth and upgushes a stream of clear, sparkling water. These wells are guaranteed on EUREKA HAMMOCK tract at cost of not exceeding $65 each, and one well is ample to irrigate five acres. To guide the water where it can do its principal work, tiles are laid in rows a few feet apart and deep enough not to interfere with ploughing. The rows of tiles are connected with each other by small reservoirs, or pockets as they are known in Sanford, and the flow of water can be regulated into any one pocket and any one row, or rows, of tiles.

The second mission of the tiling is draining. The system in vogue here not only irrigates in dry seasons but drains the lands in wet seasons, so that the tracts have always that measure of moistness calculated to be the best for the crops on the land. In other words, an owner of a tract at EUREKA HAMMOCK is independent of conditions of rainfall.

EUREKA HAMMOCK now has sixteen strong flowing wells tapped at a depth of from 100 to 140 feet. Not one of Sanford's flowing wells has ever run dry. There is no waste of water or overflow. Control of each well is by valve. No rebuilding of ditches because ditches are not used. No rental to water companies. After the well is drilled, and drilling paid for, the water is yours for all time with no tax, rental, privilege or prior rights to anyone.

We have published a book on the Sanford Celery Delta containing views of these fine natural flowing wells and also a diagram of the system used in laying the tiling. It is a mighty interesting book to anyone desirous of comparing the expensive and enormous irrigation systems in the west so troublesome to the farmer and a continual tax on his crops, with the simple and practically free system of irrigation in use at Sanford. This book is free to all who write for it on the coupon. Address your envelopes to the.

VIRGINIA OF THE AIR LANES

A Romance Of Flying

By HERBERT QUICK

Copyright, 1909, by the Bobbs-Merrill Company

If Craighead's easy flow of speech was somewhat impeded by his sense of the uncertainties, not to say dangers, of his position, it was worse when he and Mr. Waddy and the handsome, sympathetic Mrs. Graybill returned from the plantation, having elicited from the reluctant Chloë the information that Mr. Theodore, his machine, his niece and his niece's companion were at Harrod's camp on the beach, which was "off" that way. They just went down the river, through a narrow channel, and then they were there. She didn't know about aerones, but Mr. Theodore was a pro-jectin' around with some flyin' machine. She reckoned the canal at Palmetto Beach was the one, but she didn't know. This information, Mr. Craighead declared, made everything clear, but on returning to the Mrs. Waddy hired a local officer to guard Mr. Craighead's room and began taking thought of having a warrant issued against him for something. Mr. Waddy was not quite clear for what. Craighead was trapped, lost, betrayed. He sat in his room chewing a cigar and calculating the distance to the ground. It looked feasible to get down a pillar of the veranda and into the woods. Carson was an impostor, they were guilty of fraud, there was no aerone, and the Air Products company would collapse at Mr. Waddy's defection.

Ting-a-ling-ting-ting-g-g-g!
His telephone rang. Was his good angel Mrs. Graybill on the wire? She was.
"You know who this is?"
"Know, these tones?" he gushed.
"Why, were I in deepest hades through geological depths of burning marl and lignite and other carboniferous deposits I'd know them! What is it, fair one?"
"Oh, nothing! Only I have just learned at the postoffice that Mr. Carson is back a few miles, through a lagoon, and the man will get us a guide with a boat to take us through those narrows in the morning. Is that all right?"

"You are— My God, Caroline, you have saved me from you know what! I shall love you, love you, love you!"
And the telephone was hung up. They went through the canal in great style. They skimmed the black waters of Freshwater lake and landed at the shelly hummock. While the boatman searched for the path to the gulf beach they sat on the shell mound, fascinated by the strange landscape. The expanse of black pools and reedy marshes between them and the line of surf, which they could hear roaring beyond the dunes, was dotted with clumps of tall pines and spotted with scrub oak thickets.

"Those pines," said Mrs. Graybill, "are like palms. Why, what's that?" exclaimed Mrs. Graybill.
Rising from beyond the dunes, as if from the sea, there soared a great something which moved like a bird. It swelled like a magic ship as it neared them, sailing low and dominating the sky like a cloud. It came with the most amazing speed, like an eagle in mid-woop, so swift, so light, so facile that all impression of weight was abolished, and the huge thing filled the mind with the notion of levity—like a humming bird.

"Oh, of course," said Craighead, his hands trembling, his face white, "this man Carson is a fraud! Oh, yes, we knew it all the time! But you see that his aeronef has gone through the empty form of eventuating, all the same. Flying like a frigate bird! Shayne, charge! Roll over, Silberberg, and don't dare move till I say so! Oh, this is rotten—rotten! I've got to kiss some one! Hurray!"

Mrs. Graybill was running along the path after the guide, Mr. Waddy puffing along behind, hopelessly unplaced.
"Did you see Carson?" said Craighead. "And there was a girl with him."
Emerging from the dunes, they saw the airship skimming off along the line of beach foam. Down the beach stood Mrs. Stott and Captain Harrod, looking after the airship in amazement and delight. Then, turning like a frightened heron, she swept seaward, and came down the wind like an arrow, Virginia waving an American flag over the rail and Theodore swinging his hat.

Suddenly as she passed them with a maneuver so astounding for aerial craft that they could scarcely believe their eyes she stopped. The sharp whirr of the beating wing sections told of the sudden reversal of their stroke and of the unprecedented phenomenon of the almost instant arrest of such a machine in midair. It was an unnecessary strain, thought the captain.

He saw the reason, however, a moment later. A black slimy nose—the nose of the Stickleback—poked itself above water right ahead of the Virginia. A boat that looked stove and sinking drew away from her, with a struggling, gesticulating figure in it waving a signal of distress. The slimy nose sank, and the apparent castaway was left as if to perish unless rescued by the Virginia.

Accepting the humane task, lower, lower, lower sank the aeronef, until its car appeared almost to touch the waves. The man in distress seemed to throw something like a lasso over the nacelle of the airship, and the great bird rose slightly, as if to be safe from the billows. The Stickleback again peeped above the waves, her manhole opened, and the castaway of the stove boat went down into the submarine.

It was absolutely beyond the power of any one looking on to guess what was taking place. Why had the man made the signals for help if the submarine was standing by? If the coming of the submarine to his rescue was unexpected, why had he not cast off the line from the aeronef? Why— And suddenly they all felt that something sinister, something devilish, was taking place. They heard a shout from Theodore, a scream from Virginia. The submarine had come awash again, and from her open manhole came the crack of a pistol—a pistol aimed at the airship. Then she sank again, and the airship was drawn downward by the line. Struggling toward land, hanging by the fatal thread, like a trapped bird, she strained at her tether, while the grim submarine, like a devilish which had thrown a tentacle about a waterfowl, made seaward, out into the gulf, out into deep water, with a purpose as manifest as it was deadly.

CHAPTER XIII.

DEVILISH VERRON BIRD.

WHEN the aeronef was run out on her ways by the long shed in which she had been built there was a flutter of expectancy among those so deeply concerned in her flight.

"The first mate always sails with the ship, uncle," Virginia suggested.

"Would you really go on the trial trip?" he asked.

"Try me," said she. "I want to."

"You'd be worth a dozen of Captain Harrod's," replied Carson. "He hasn't the faintest idea of the principles of the Virginia, while you could fly her in a week."

"I could now," asserted Virginia.

"The Virginia is a simple, manageable little thing, like her namesake."

"If she shows all her namesake's sweet traits"—began Theodore.

"Then I'm to go?"

"Captain," cried Theodore, "here's a girl that wants to ship as first mate! Make sail, captain. We're going."

But Virginia seated herself beside Theodore, wearing a dress of soft white wool, a close fitting little cap on her head and carrying a jacket over her arm.

"Now, shall I keep the manometer readings? Oh, you haven't any! Well, then, the altimeter, statorscope?" she suggested.

"It's self registering," said Theodore.

"Really there's nothing to do except in emergencies, and"—

"And there'll be no emergencies!" she cried. "Throw in the clutch, admiral of the circumambient Inland! You do the work, and I'll play lady! We're off!"

"Are you willing," said he, turning to her, "to forgive me for this and everything I may ever have done, whatever happens?"

"Whatever happens or doesn't happen, I forgive you!" she cried. "Throw in the clutch before the gyroscopes stop and the Virginia gets brain fag—or shall I?"

"Just for luck," said Theodore, "you throw it in."

She threw over the lever, and the wing sections started like 40,000 boys' "buzzes." The big bird rose perpendicularly from the ways and fanned the ground no more. Theodore turned on a little more speed, put the rudders apart to bring her head to the light seaward wind, and as she mounted higher and higher he tried her control. He pushed over the lever that determined the thrust of the driving blades, and she shot in over the dunes like a wild thing until he headed her

THE SANFORD HERALD

Published Every Friday Morning at Sanford, Fla.
R. J. HOLLY, Editor and Proprietor

Subscription Price, $2.00 a Year in Advance

Entered as second-class mail matter August 22nd, 1908, at the Postoffice at Sanford, Florida, under Act of March 3rd, 1879.

Office First Floor in the Bishop Block, First Street Telephone No. 148.

The Herald has over 2000 paid subscribers. That is why an advertisement in this "country weekly" pays

The Pensacola Journal states that Frank Clark's career will be "watched." How awfully, awfully nervous poor Frank must feel.

We give the speakership to Eugene S. Matthews. That photo and pen picture in the Miami Metropolis by Jayhew Reese simply puts all others in the discard. And then we favored Gene. Matthews any way on general principles.

We unintentionally overlooked the birthday of the Sanford Herald last week. Bro. Holly didn't notice it as so many bouquets were tendered. The Herald is one of the best weeklies published and for a two year old can't be beaten.—Ft. Myers News.

CANNOT UNDERTAKE THIS TASK
The Metropolis is in receipt of a letter, which will likely be duplicated many times, reading in part as follows:

"I am a subscriber of the Metropolis and am greatly interested in the attached editorial. I own several farms in the Everglades and had thought of coming down this winter, and begin the development of the land as would be allotted me. Can these lands be tiled this winter, and would you advise me to come or wait a year?"

This is not all of the letter, but the gist of it is given, showing how difficult it is to answer such questions and how unacquainted the buyers of lands in the Everglades are with the location of their properties.

This buyer is evidently not able to point out on the map the location of his lands, and it would be impossible for anyone to tell where it lies until the allotment is made, and it will be impossible to tell whether it is wise to attempt to settle this winter until after a personal examination of it is had.

The Metropolis is unable to answer the question of its correspondent, for obvious reasons. The best that we can do is to repeat the warning that we have sounded to the purchasers to make a personal investigation before pulling up stakes and moving.

We want to see the county grow and develop, but we want to be reasonably sure that the people who are coming here with their hard earned savings shall not make the expensive mistake of coming before they are able to make a living on their land.—Miami Metropolis.

Hill-Howard.

One of the prettiest weddings of the season was that of Miss Alberta Hill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Hill, and Mr. Walter Howard on Thursday night of last week. The Methodist church had been tastefully decorated in green and yellow, the ferns and palms making a most pleasing effect enhanced by the yellow ribbons in festoons from the altar to the pews. Mrs. Munson assisted by Messrs J. A. Davis and Cecil Butt rendered an enjoyable musical program while the guests were being seated.

Promptly at 8:30 to the strains of the beautiful "Bridal Chorus" the party entered the doors of the church. The bridesmaids and ushers preceded singly and met at the chancel as follows: Miss Mabel Bowler, Mr. Nixon Butt, Miss Flossie Frank, Mr. W. A. Leffler, Miss Gelsie Butt, Mr. W. M. Braddy, Miss Peachey Leffler and Mr. J. D. Roberts.

Mrs. Houser, the matron of honor, followed by little Erminia Houser as flower girl came down the middle aisle followed by the bride and her maid of honor, Miss Mamie Hill.

The groom with his best man, Meade Fox coming down the right aisle met the bride at the altar where the beautiful wedding ceremony was performed by Rev. A. E. Housholder. As the beautiful Mendelssohn Wedding March burst forth from the organ the entire party left the church and an informal reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hill followed.

The happy couple left on the midnight train for Ohio where they will make their future home.

Mrs. Hill was assisted in entertaining her guests by Mrs. B. A. Howard, Mrs. Denn Turner, Mrs. Beattie Hill, of New York, and Miss Hannah Stokes, of South Carolina; Miss Linda Leffler and Miss Sadie Williams presided at the punch bowl. As the bride ascended the stairway to prepare for the wedding trip she tossed her bouquet, and Miss Gelsie Butt was the lucky one to catch it.

The wedding was greatly enhanced by the many beautiful effects both in dresses and the general color scheme. The bride was lovely in a white crepe meter, made entrain, trimmed with rare lace and pearls and carried a bouquet of roses and lillies. The tulle veil was caught up with orange blossoms. The maid of honor was very pretty in a dainty costume of white silk mouseline, and carried a bouquet of white asters. The bridesmaids were dressed alike in yellow silk, and carried white asters. The matron of honor, Mrs. Turner Houser, was charming in yellow mouseline, and carried Marchell Neil roses. The little flower girl, Erminia Houser, was lovely in a dainty white chiffon. The bride's going-away gown was gray cloth made coat suit, hat and gloves to match.

The bride is a daughter of Sanford and has a large circle of friends who love her for the many good traits with which she is endowed. Mr. Howard spent last season in Sanford being connected with the Armour Fertilizer Co., and made many friends and acquaintances by his unfeeling good humor and manly traits.

The best wishes of every one go with these young people in their journey through life.

Notice to Voters

You are probably aware of the fact that the County Commissioners of Orange County have called a special election to decide the question of issuing bonds in the sum of One Million Dollars for building brick roads in Orange County. This bond issue will provide the Celery Delta with a fine system of permanent hard roads, without increasing our tax assessment one dollar, as is demonstrated by the literature upon the subject which will soon be in general circulation, and the figures in this literature are absolutely vouched for by the entire Board of County Commissioners. This being the case, we assume that every citizen of the Celery Delta is in favor of this bond measure. Our election laws provide that every elector must be registered and he must pay a poll tax also, as a pre-requisite to voting. Every one, in order to qualify, must have been a resident of the State one year and of the County six months. The law makes some exceptions as to the payment of poll taxes, but none as to the registration: First, all persons over fiftyfive years of age are exempt from poll taxes. All new residents of the State, who came here subsequent to the first of January, 1909, and yet have been in the state one year, can register and vote at this election without paying poll tax, and all young men who have come of age subsequent to January 1st, 1909, come under the same regulation. There are two Precincts in the Sanford District. If you live east of Park avenue, or a projection of the line of Park avenue, to the election district limit, you will register at the office of Capt. R. H. Marks, who is the Registration Officer for this Precinct, known as No. 3. If you live west of the above line, you can register at the office of Mr. G. R. Calhoun, and Mr. Calhoun is also the Deputy Collector of taxes for this District and will receive your poll tax, if any is required. All citizens who have changed their residence from the east to the west side of Park avenue, or from the west to the east side, should remember that it is necessary for them to have their names transferred on the poll list, and either of the above Registration Officers will do this. Saturday the 10th. of September, is the last day upon which electors can legally qualify for this bond election. Remember this if you want good roads.

H. A. Hill.

One of the West Side's most loyal citizens and business men passed away this morning when H. A. Hill died at the Wichita hospital. He had been a Wichita business man for more than a score of years and was one of the best known men in the city. His death came after two year's of gradual failing health. Funeral services have not been announced but they will be in charge of the Masons and G. A. R. Interment will be made in Maple Grove cemetery.

In 1887 when Wichita was suffering from inflated values, Mr. Hill came here from Ft. Scott. He opened a boarding house and boarded many of the eastern capitalist who came here to reap millions. In 1887 when the bubble began to burst he abandoned the boarding house and opened a second hand store on the West Side near the bridge. Because of his hustling and trustworthiness this small establishment grew until he had a large hardware store. He then rented a room in the Palace block, Seneca and West Douglas avenues. At that time he had the largest and best equipped hardware store in the city. At that time also, the West Side was being talked of as the real Wichita to be.

Two years ago Mr. Hill moved to 1003 West Douglas avenue where he had a hardware store. His health began to fail and he sold out to G. Brees. Mr. Hill and family went to Sanford, Fla., where it was thought he might regain his strength. He came back to Wichita several months ago in a weakened condition. He had been in the hospital since late in June.

Mr. Hill was always active in city service. Ever since he painted his boarding house sign in 1886, he had tried to help Wichita. He served on the city council for eight years. He was an excellent councilman. It was the common saying that there was nothing narrow or petty about Mr. Hill and that he always came out fair and square on issues. He was a charter member of the Sunflower Lodge, A. F. and A. M., No. 86. He was a loyal worker in the I. O. O. F. organization, No. 345. He was a G. A. R. man and proud of his copper button.

Beside a widow Mr. Hill is survived by the following children: Miss Olive Hill, who is a prominent local musician; Mrs. Katherine Hill-Hardy, of Philadelphia, who has achieved quite a success as a concert soloist; Herman Hill of Sanford, Fla., and A. M. Hill of this city. Mr. Herman Hill arrived Sunday from Florida. Mr. Hill was 65 years old.—Wichita Bee, con.

Will They Last 50 Years.

To the Editor of The Herald: I have read with much interest the various arguments pro and con on the question of bonding the county for good roads and it seems to me that the real point of the matter has been but lightly touched upon. The point is the length of time the road will last. If good vitrified brick roads will last for fifty years there should be no hesitancy in voting the bonds as a matter of economy, for the county expenditure for road purposes for the next fifty years will certainly not be less than $40,000.00 a year, which would amount to $2,000,000 and not give us the present benefit of the brick roads. If, on the other hand, good vitrified brick roads will not last for more than twenty or twenty-five years, it will be unwise to vote the bonds, as the bonds do not become due until the expiration of fifty years and the funds applicable to road work will have to be applied to the interest of the bonds and thus leave the county practically without a road fund, as well as without roads, after the expiration of twenty or twenty-five years. The roads should be constructed of the best vitrified brick and expert testimony should be procured and laid before the people by the board of county commissioners, or other responsible authority, showing the length of time that the best vitrified brick roads will last under conditions of medium use and travel. If the proof shows that the roads will last for fifty years or more the bonds should be voted. If, on the contrary, the proof shows that the roads will last for a less period than fifty years the wisdom of voting them is exceedingly doubtful. The burden of proof is upon those advocating the bonds and it is up to them to get to work and make it. I am heartily in favor of the bonds if it can be proved that the roads will last for a period of fifty years or more, otherwise I am against them. The people of Orange County know a good thing when they see it, but will not go in debt for a million of dollars on chances. Let those interested in and working for the bonds, get the evidence from proper expert and official sources and present it promptly to the people so they can come to a wise and just conclusion on this important matter. Thomas E. Wilson.

STREET CAR TO YOUR DOOR

Sanford & Everglades Railroad runs street cars through the Thermal Belt of the Sanford Celery Delta. From the car windows are seen the famous sub-irrigated celery and lettuce farms that have made "Lucky Sanford," world famous, and leaves unchallenged the claim that larger yields have been made here in crops and dollars than any other place on earth. What more can be desired to make this the ideal place for a Home and Farm? Frequent street car service is constantly maintained. Side tracks for loading are placed every half mile or less, so that vegetables are loaded in refrigerator cars without delays or exposure to sun and wind. The nominal freight to Sanford being less than cost of hauling from many other farms. Rural Free Delivery of Mails. Numerous homes are occupied by good families and are in hailing distances, Churches are being built, several stores are in operation between Sanford and Cameron City.

The Railroad is graded from Cameron City to Palm Villa, in Palm Hammock. Machinist Pic-Nic

Seminole Lodge No. 280 of the International Association of Machinist gave a Labor Day excursion and picnic to Lemon Bluff about 15 miles up the St. Johns river, a beautiful place for a days outing.

The machinists and their families and a large number of invited guests and enjoyed the launch ride and sumptuous dinner which was prepared by an experienced corps of cooks and assistants. The dinner consisted of chicken perlieu, boiled ham, bread, coffee, pickles, cheese and last but not least fried fish and corn bread. Everybody was full of dinner and fun. A general good time and good dinner was what every one in attendance said they enjoyed. Admiral Pagenhart carried the excursionists up on his launch The Mamie, towing another launch astern also filled with members of the Machinist and their families. The Admiral has just recently overhauled his trim launch The Mamie and it is a thing of beauty. Installing a new gasoline engine, new upholstery and in fact everything new.

From the number of empty beer bottles strewn around at Lemon Bluff the fishermen on that part of the river certainly can't be tea totalars.

Some of the young single men complained that the old married men had the most fun. To all those the writer would say, boys your time is coming, but just now you are not foot loose like we old uns.

CELERY AVENUE NEWS

Special Correspondence to The Herald:

Fred Dorner is back and he didn't come on the Hog either. He came on two large trailers which he bought in New York for his brother, A. Dorner.

Quite a number of Celery avenue people, also Celery Delta folks, took advantage of the excursion from Sanford to Tampa run by the A. C. L. R'y Tuesday of this week.

Mr. T. I. Hawkins was called home to Commerce, Ga., on account of the illness of his father, whom we learn is quite ill with typhoid fever. Mr. Hawkins' father is an old Confederate Veteran and old-time Southern gentleman. We truly hope that his recovery may be speedy and complete.

We look every week for the Cameron City budget and are quite disappointed when we see it not. I looked to see a good item about the dance given there some time since, as the little city doesn't do things by halves.

We are glad to see Mrs. H. H. Chappell and daughters back home from their summer vacation.

A chicken pillau was given Tuesday night of this week at Moore's Station for the benefit of the Pine Grove Union Sunday school and church.

There are lots of new houses going up here and there throughout the Celery Delta. Among the largest one for Mr. Speer on Beardall avenue. Mr. Braddy, who purchased the McBride property, has made wonderful changes, clearing all the land and putting it in thorough condition and fencing it all, using wire fence and square pine posts, painted white. It certainly sets off this part of the avenue. It seems that panics and off years don't retard the progress of the Celery Delta, not even rotten roads.

Now Mr. Editor we would like to see the Proposed Bond Election for Brick Roads called off in the interest of economy, as there is no doubt, from the opinions expressed on all sides, that the bond issue will be so completely snowed under that never again will it be brought before the public while the present bond exists, and as we are all in favor of good roads and then those roads kept up, that we fear if the road issue goes to an election it will set back good roads 25 years. Remember that when we get through paying for these roads at the end of 50 years they will have cost $32,500 per mile, and possibly at the expiration of 50 years there will be little use for these roads only for lighting places for flying machines.

Looking Backward was all right and I suppose was handed out to us to cause us to look ahead. You had better look out for the present and get the past go and anticipate the future. Labor Day is fast approaching and should be fittingly celebrated. There are few values that would be values at all if it wasn't for the product that the farmers' labor produces and he is echered out of the lion's share of his labor's product by what we term "The Market."

Yours for good roads and everything else that's good for the whole people.
A FARMER.

Planet Jr.

Planet Jr implements are the greatest time-savers and labor-savers ever invented for the farm and garden. They frequently do six men's work, and do it better than by ordinary methods. Over two million farmers and gardeners have found this out by actual use. You can't afford to be without a Planet Jr.

No. 17 Planet Jr Single-Wheel Hoe is a most handy and effective tool for garden cultivation. A fine tool for working close to crops, especially in late work.

New No. 81 Planet Jr Horse-Hoe, Cultivator and Farrower is a great implement for cultivating and hilling crops up to 4 feet apart. Compact, strong, and steady-running. Does just the kind of work you want.

Come and see our full line of Planet Jr labor-savers.

LAKE MARY MELANGE

Special Cor. to The Herald.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel McBride spent Tuesday in Sanford shopping.

Rev. Henry Kegwin, pastor of the Presbyterian church at Glenwood, Fla., was guest of Rev. J. F. Sundell for several days. He preached two very helpful sermons in the Presbyterian church here, to well attended services. Rev. Mr. Kegwin has been in the ministry for over fifty years, half of that time spent in Florida, and has been "onto the job" and has "made good." May he have many more days to labor. He says, "Florida for him."

Mrs. W. N. Webster and grandchildren Donald, Ada, Ralph and Irene McDonald have gone to the coast to spend a few days. We hope they will enjoy it and come back and tell us "what the wild waves say."

The telephone linemen are camped here and have a very comfortable looking camp. Makes one want to get out into God's open country and leave man's civilization behind.

School opened Monday with Miss Loretta Arnott of Longwood in charge. We look for good school year; may the young Americans help to make it so.

Mrs. B. Overstreet entertained her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Irven Stenstrom, and her brothers Will and Howard Wynn of Clyde on Sunday. It did us all good to see new faces in town. Come again.

PAOLA POINTS

Special Correspondence to The Herald:
We are having for a change some delightful weather, clear and cool, east breezes and moonlight nights in the near future.

Mrs. E. R. Curteas made a flying visit to her Paola home last week, having returned to Sanford from Atlanta and points north, not long since.

Mrs. W. D. Zachery has been quite ill but is now able to be about again.

Mr. J. E. Bona has been in town paying a weeks end visit in the family of Mr. A. A. Hicks.

Mr. W. H. Taylor spent Sunday in Paola.

On Friday evening of last week a most enjoyable surprise party was given by the young folks of the neighborhood chaperoned by Mrs. B. W. Smith, to Miss Lara Smith and Miss Frances Pearson at the Pearson home, near Twin Lakes. It was a complete surprise, delicious refreshments were served and a delightful evening was spent in games.

Miss Smith left Saturday for Chuluota, where she has been assigned as teacher and Miss Pearson, Sunday, for Jacksonville to attend Massey Business College.

GENEVA JOTTINGS

Special Correspondence to The Herald:

Miss Eva Taylor left last Friday for Pinecastle to begin her duties as principal of the school at that place.

Misses Nellie Gelger and Olive Taylor also left for Ocoee and Fort Christmas respectively to begin their schools.

A card from Mrs. Fulz and daughter, Mrs. Robinson, who are summering in Chicago, announces their intention of returning to Geneva in a short while.

Mrs. Grant and daughters, Misses Callie and Lola, returned home last Thursday from a visit of some weeks in Georgia.

John Huddleston is again at home after a pleasant stay of a month in Jacksonville.

The county gang will begin work this week on the road between Geneva and the dock. This is a wise move as there is more traveling over this road during the fall and winter than over any other around here, and certainly the road needs attention.

Miss Lois Coffee of Madison, Fla., will be with her aunt, Mrs. Homer Nicholson, during the winter and will attend the Beula school.

Miss Ollie Peters, who holds a responsible position in Jacksonville as a stenographer, is spending her vacation with her parents, arriving last Monday.

Mrs. W. H. Howard visited Sanford and Orlando this week. Mr. Howard has recently returned from a trip to Georgia and reports some improvement in his health.

Messrs Leo Rheblinder and Carrol Culpepper are assisting in the construction of that new railroad. We feel sure they will not forget that Geneva is on the map and trust they will take this long looked for road by the horns and steer it thru our town.

Miss Mabel Daniel is in Titusville where she expects to take the examination for teachers.

Mrs. Henry Baker is suffering very much from a severe attack of neuralgia; we hope to soon see her out again.

Miss Sallie Taylor, who is a nurse in Dr. Person's offices in Orlando, is visiting her mother for a few days.

Mrs. O. R. Nicholson of Daytona Beach, and niece of Sanford, visited relatives in Geneva last week, returning home on Monday.

The people of Geneva, one and all, were glad to welcome Rev. E. Lee Smith of Longwood back to Geneva last Friday after an absence of five months spent by him on beds of suffering in the hospital in Orlando and at his home in Longwood. On account of his condition he could not conduct the revival services as expected, but filled his regular appointment on Sunday and preached again on Tuesday night. Mrs. Smith and son, Jesse B., also accompanied Rev. Smith and were very welcome indeed and we hope to soon have the pleasure of enjoying their society again. Mrs. Smith is a musician of note, having had a class of forty pupils in the Winter Garden high school last season and was elected to the same position for the coming term. Several friends were entertained by her piano recital Monday morning at the home of Mr. and Mrs. I. T. Peters.

Bonds school was opened last Monday by the faithful teacher, Mrs. Rheblinder.

Good Roads

The Orange County Citizen of Orlando of August 30th, says: "No stock should be taken by the open minded citizens in a general knock at the proposed roads or bonds." It is too bad that the intelligence is all on one side. What this country most needs at the present time is more open minded citizens. By it would come better laws and less grafts.

"Tis the easiest thing in the world to just kick. Some two footed animals just can't help kicking. They are built that way, but it doesn't follow that all two footed animals need to kick a good thing. Lend yourself to the cause of progress." Dear writer of the above words: First, let me inform you that the above animals you speak of never kick a good thing and are always found on the side of progress. When things are properly put before the people and on sound business basis, and all citizens get their full dues, but we are not for a few against the masses.

If we are now "paying more than the interest on a million dollars for washed out and worn out clay roads," who are we to lay the sad condition of affairs upon for said condition of roads? Certainly not on the kickers you speak about. What assurance have we that the same thing may not occur again? As we are not used to handling such large sums of money, and as we are yet only in our infancy, in the road business, is it not better to be called "kickers" and "two footed animals" and be sure we are right, than to act hastily and then repent. What proof have we that clay between the bricks and the curb may not be another wash out and soon a worn out road condition to keep up and a greater debt on our hands. What harm would it do to specify in exact terms when and where the roads are to be built and how they are to be built, then the voters could vote intelligently on this use and not before.

It seems to some of us that the commission are asking most too much from the people under the present condition. Let matters be presented in more of a banking system of doing business. You know they go slow, but are sure footed. We are for good roads and for progress, but let us go slow and think long and carefully before we act; and be sure that our parts of the county get their share of the good roads. No more do we "kickers" want, but we are for the masses first and all the time, and for these matters to be specified exactly where each road is to be and when it is to be built and how it is to be done. ROSE.

J. T. Allen has bought the property at the corner of Laurel avenue and Seventh street, of R. L. Jones, consisting of an eight room house and large lot. We hear that Mr. Allen will greatly improve and beautify this property, expending several hundred dollars on improvements, as he expects to use it as his residence in the near future.

The truck growers can help our city many fold by selling everything at home. Is not our produce as good as that raised in far off states? They don't send their apples, potatoes, etc. here to be sold on commission.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

At the earnest solicitation of my friends I have consented to announce my candidacy for the position of Mayor of Sanford at the primary to be held in November.

Respectfully, W. H. UNDERWOOD

For City Clerk, Treasurer, Assessor.

BERMUDA CELERY.

Former Salt Marshes Now Yield Crops of Good Quality.

Washington, Sept. 6.—Consul W. Maxwell Greene, of Hamilton, reports the successful efforts to reclaim marsh lands in Bermuda by growing celery for the American market.

The salt marshes of Bermuda, consisting of large tracts distributed well over the lowlands of those islands, have hitherto been considered as worthless. They yield a coarse sedge grass and weeds useful only as bedding for cattle. Experiments in the last year or two prove that by a simple method celery of a high grade can be raised in large quantities and at a good profit. The surface is cleaned and ditched, the excavated muck being thrown on the soil and the ditches filled with loose rubble and stone, the area then ploughed and leveled before seeding. The result has been so successful that rapidly these marshes will largely be reclaimed and devoted to this special culture. Bermuda celery is well known in New York and promises remunerative business for local growers. Other crops have been fairly successful, onions markedly so, owing to the late distributions from Texas. Bermuda planters, by shipping early, receive higher prices, in fact, prices were favorable throughout the season.—Fruit Trade Journal.

Is this to be regarded as a menace to Sanford's chief industry? If some careless person should leave the tariff gate ajar, now that Senator Aldrich has retired, there is no telling what might happen. You know Bermuda is sore at us for persisting in using the name Bermuda in connection with a most excellent variety of onion to which she claims exclusive right.

Now whether celery grown on salt marshes is better than that grown elsewhere may not be apparent, but the association of the two words may cut quite a figure in popularizing Bermuda celery.—Fla. Produce News.

Stetson Quartette at Sanford.

One of the most unique public attractions in connection with the discussion of any live issue before the public has been hit upon by the Florida Anti-Saloon League in their College Students Campaign Club. The boys composing this organization began on the 1st of July a three month's tour of the entire state of Florida, their first engagement being at DeLand. They are speaking every day and will continue to do so during the remainder of the campaign.

The boys composing the quartett are all Florida boys, as follows: Doyle E. Carlton of Wauchula; H. C. Garwood of Green Cove Springs; A. Y. Millam of Jacksonville, and Frank Wideman of DeLand. They are musicians and orators of the first class. They will appear at Park band stand on Monday, Sept. 19, at eight o'clock.

Their coming to this city signalizes one of the most attractive entertainment programs to be given here during the entire pending prohibition campaign. The boys discuss the liquor question from the moral, economic, legal and criminal standpoints. Their orations are all well worth hearing, and when it comes to their work as a male quartette they are not excelled by anything the people of Florida have yet heard.

They spoke in DeLand to fully 750 people and at Wauchula, on the Fourth of July, to an audience of fully 3000. The Volusia County Record says of them:

"These young men, among the brightest in fair Florida, begin their three months' campaign over the State with an appointment at the Court House tonight. Wherever these young men appear, they should be given fine audiences. They are not only singers but orators as well. They have good songs for you, a good story to tell."

The DeLand Supplement says: "The several hundred people in the audience applauded again and again the entertaining musical numbers and the various addresses. The arguments were concise and logical and presented in an entertaining manner."

The Wauchula Advocate says that their addresses are "among the ablest and most convincing we have ever heard."

The DeSoto County News states that at the Wauchula Fourth of July Celebration; "They were the heroes of the day. Their arguments are pitched on a high plane

LETTER NO. 1.

A Letter of Loving Kindness

From a Wise Old Gentleman to His Son in the Big City Who Manifested a Hunger for a Piece of Florida Sand

My Dear Son:--

If you have fully decided to give up your position and come to Florida, I am pleased to know it, if you are sure you have saved enough money to begin the business of vegetable growing properly.

My Residence of Forty Years in Florida

Fits me in position to render you service that you could not purchase with all the money you have, because there are few who have traveled the State as I have and there are still fewer who would tell you the truth about the various qualities of land as I shall do. Remember my boy

There is a Great Difference Between a Booster and a Capper

The first usually has a thing of merit and rests satisfied after he has told the truth about it, while the second is usually a cheap promoter or schemer, his entire capital being invested in his collars, cuffs and neckties. The CAPPER will make you the very statement you want him to make you, regardless of whether he has arid acres or scrub land to sell, so you will do well if you are careful and

Weigh Every Statement the Capper Makes

And then make him prove his assertions. When he has done this then drop him like you would a

Hot Shot

And hunt up a reliable real estate company to do business with.

Do Not Bite Off the First Hunk of Sand that is Offered You

There is no state in the Union that has so much land that needs to be sold as Florida has. And there never was as m

Suckers Being Taken in and Separated From Their Hard-Earned Money

By the Florida land Capper as there are at this time, so it will

Behoove You to Have a Care

And let the wise one with his gilded tale go plumb to—. Then you must remember there are two kinds of land in Florida, namely

The Good and the Bad

The good variety is what we know here in the Sanford Celery Delta as IRRIGABLE LAND. The other kind, of which there are millions of acres, is just Florida Sand.

The Irrigable Land

In this section has been pronounced the best on earth by the Department of Agriculture at Washington, because of the combination of warmth from Lake Monroe, the hard pan or subsoil, the natural flowing artesian wells and the Sanford System of Subirrigation. These four elements

Have Conspired to Make a Sanford Acre

Produce SEVENTY TONS OF VEGETABLES in a single growing season, making it the BUMPER ACRE ON EARTH.

This Irrigable Land is Cheaper at $150 an Acre

Than the Sand Dune acres that are being sold at $20 an acre. The reason is, because the land here is in a proven section. Sanford is no Colony Scheme to rob innocent MAIL ORDER PURCHASERS. We are not in an experimental state here. We have all the facilities for the proper handling of winter vegetables in large quantities. Our shipments last season amounted to

One Million, One Hundred Thousand Packages

Which is equal to 3,375 solid car-loads. No other point in the whole State, or South for that matter, can equal this production.

We Do Not Have to Tell You About What We Are Going to Do

But can point you to what we have already done. This is different

From What the Sand Dune Dealers

Are able to put out. This last named gentleman is filled with verbose rantings and in order to keep his hemorrhage of words from wilting his collar, he purchased one of the CELULOID NON-MELTABLE kind and now goes at his task with the nonchalance

Of a Porch Climber or Gum Shoe Man

He does not live in the State and as soon as he gets his mits on enough coin to keep him in the OLD MEN'S HOME the balance of his days he will hike for unknown climes. This gives him great leeway in making a noise with his face.

Have a Care My Boy

And I will write you next week. Don't buy land until you hear further from me, and in the mean time send to the Title Bond & Guarantee Company for their "THESIS ON FLORIDA LAND." They will send it to any part of the world for the asking. It's a soaker to the fellow with a sandy club up his sleeve, and carries a message of value to you.

The entertainment given by these boys is characterized by that vim which college boys are so thoroughly masters of. It must not be thought for a moment that the orations they deliver are merely schoolboys' talks for they have been most carefully prepared and they present the arguments for prohibition in a telling, conservative and entertaining manner. It is well worth the while of any man or woman, no matter what his opinions may be about the liquor traffic, to hear these boys.

CULLED FROM THE STATE PRESS

An Epitome of the Week's Most Important Happenings in the State's Domain.

The Island Grove Truck Growers' Union has gradually, yet surely put itself on a right good working foundation. The leaders in the movement are pushing ahead and promise that great good will result. The union has so far been successful in securing seeds at a great reduction over prices of former seasons, when individuals were buying separately. It is estimated that the profit in seed buying alone has equaled 20 per cent.

Encouraging travel to Florida in such measure as it has never been encouraged before home-seekers' rates to this state from the north and west are to prevail the year round. This news will bring gladness to the heart of every well wisher of Florida, whether the Floridian profit directly or indirectly from it.

Capt. George R. Spalding, Col. Dan C. Klingman and Capt. E. M. Adams are holding a meeting in the offices of the United States engineers, in this city today, the result of which will be of great importance to the people of this state. The three army officers have been appointed by the government to formulate plans whereby the United States government will be able to work in conjunction with the state in the drainage of the Everglades and the improvement of rivers and canals, says the Jacksonville Metropolis.

The first guns of the most important political campaign ever waged in the state of Florida were officially fired in Jacksonville, which will undoubtedly be the central firing line, yesterday when the Prohibition party met for the purpose of electing a new chairman and arranging for the campaign, and the Local Optionists assembled at the Aragon hotel, at noon, preparatory to forming a state organization, whose duty it shall be to fight for the preservation of Article XIX of the state constitution.

The Tampa Times suggests a unique plan for settling the strike of the cigar-makers. This plan the Times outlines briefly as follows: "While we are talking about a settlement of the strike, what objection is there to calling a vote among the cigar-makers, full, free and incapable of manipulation, in which the whole body shall pass upon the question of returning to work? Such an election, held without suspicion of undue influence on one side and perfectly free of coercion of the other, would have one of two effects. Either the men would return to work or the public would be convinced that they are honestly for what they think are their best interests and are not unduly influenced by the men who profess to represent them."

Mrs. Arthur Griffin killed, Mrs. Nellie Fernandez, seriously injured, and a young man named Calhoun also injured as the result of a joy ride in Jacksonville last Sunday night.

The members of the Pennsylvania State Editorial Association, who have been enjoying a trip through the South for the past few days, arrived in Jacksonville Monday morning via the Merchants and Miners steamship Quantic. The visitors were met at the docks by several members of the local Board of Trade, and were taken to the Seminole Hotel, where they breakfasted. They then left for St. Augustine over the Florida East Coast where they spent the day returning home on Wednesday.

Jacksonville has been selected as the next meeting place for the annual convention of the United National Association of Postoffice Clerks, to be held Sept. 5, 6, 7 and 8, in 1911.

Another big cigar factory is being opened in Palatka. The managers, Jose Escalante & Co., from Tampa, have leased the Athletic Club rooms. The Board of Trade is responsible for this removal. The new factory will employ about three hundred men.

Fire last Monday night damaged the business houses of the Pfifer-Morris Co. and Gainesville Hardware Co., in Gainesville to the amount $10,000, originating in the store first named. But for prompt and effective work on the part of the fire department the entire block would have been destroyed.

CHANGE DATE OF ELECTION

Will Vote for Good Road Bonds on December 7, 1910.

The County Commissioners of Orange county met in special session Tuesday morning. President Lee in the chair and Commissioners Overstreet, Tilden, Vaughan and Merrill present. After an error made in advertising the election had been fully discussed, for which purpose the meeting had been called, the following resolution was adopted and ordered printed:

Whereas, On the 5th day of July, 1910, it was resolved by this Board that it was necessary to issue the bonds of Orange county for the purpose of raising money for constructing hard surfaced roads of brick; that the amount of bonds to be issued was $1,000,000.00 the bonds to bear interest at the rate 4-1-2 per cent. per annum, and the principal of said bonds to be due and payable fifty years from date of issue; and it was further ordered that an election be held on October 4th, 1910, at which it should be submitted to the voters of Orange county, Florida, the question whether such bonds should be issued; and it now appearing to the Board:

1st. That owing to the fact that the registration books and lists for the general election for the year 1910 will under the existing law remain in the hands of the District registration officers until Oct. 8, 1910, and therefore could not be used for the said bond election;

2nd. That it appears that in some papers of the county the bond election has not been properly and legally published.

Now it is ordered that said resolution fixing the date for bond election be reconsidered and rescinded.

It is further ordered that said election be held on Wednesday, the 7th day of December, A. D., 1910, and that a proper call for said election be made and published.

J. H. LEE, Chairman.

Attest:—
B. M. Robinson, Clerk.

Notice of Election

It is ordained by the Board that the following resolution be published for four consecutive weeks in The Orange County Citizen, The Reporter Star, The South Florida Sentinel, The Sanford Herald and The Florida Recorder:

Whereas the Board of County Commissioners of Orange County, Florida, deem it expedient and in the best interest of the county to issue county bonds of said county of Orange for the purpose of constructing hard surfaced roads to be made of brick;

And whereas the Board has ascertained that it is necessary to construct at least one hundred miles of such hard surfaced roads to be constructed out of brick, and that it will require one million dollars worth of bonds for such purpose to bear interest at the rate of four and one-half per cent. per annum, principal of said bonds to become due fifty years from the date of issue, interest payable semi-annually on the first day of January and July of each year after issue;

Therefore, be it resolved by the Board of County Commissioners of Orange County that it is necessary to issue the bonds of Orange County for the purpose of constructing hard surfaced roads of brick to the amount of one million dollars, to bear interest at the rate of four and one-half per cent. per annum, principal of said bonds to be due and payable semi-annually on the first days of January and July of each year after issue.

Probably one can never again get so much for the money as Sanford offers today in celery land. It is better than any other in the state, all points carefully considered.

BASHAM CASE DEEPENS

Body Found at Snake Creek Will be Exhumed.

TEETH MAY PROVE IDENTITY NOW

Seems to Be No Doubt in Minds of Family About Fact that Basham is Dead

No trace has been found of Aaron K. Basham the missing real estate dealer who disappeared from this city three weeks ago. Basham came to Sanford and registered at the Sanford House leaving the same night about ten o'clock after writing to his wife that he intended taking a launch trip with two strange men. About a week afterward the body of a man was found in Snake Creek near Miami. Both hands had been cut off and the body had been in the water for some time. The sheriff of Dade county viewed the remains and afterwards stated that the description did not fit that of Basham. In order to satisfy all doubt regarding the body it will be exhumed today and the mouth examined for false teeth as Basham wore an upper set.

If the dead man found in Snake creek had an upper set of false teeth they will be sent on to Jacksonville for identification. Not only are the teeth to play an important part in revealing the identity of the corpse, but a truss as well. When Basham left home he wore a truss. The officers working on the case at Jacksonville have wired Sheriff Dan Hardie, at Miami, to disinter the body, and if the teeth and truss are found upon it to answer at once. If the articles are found on the corpse it is safe to assume the dead man is Basham. The descriptions of the dead man found in the creek with both hands severed and the one sent out of Basham have differed widely, still the authorities feel the search is not complete until it is known positively whether the dead man has an upper set of false teeth or not.

New light was thrown on the actions of the missing man while in Sanford in a letter received today at the sheriff's office, written by W. H. Reams, a nephew of Mr. Basham. The letter is as follows: Winter Garden, Fla., Sept. 13, 1910. Sheriff's office, Jacksonville, Fla.:

Gentlemen—Perhaps the following information may be of interest to you, while looking up the Basham disappearance case. Basham being an uncle of mine, I have been watching developments with interest. One of the letters written at the Sanford House on the night of the 20th was to me. These letters were left at the hotel and sent down to the train, which was No. 82, by the night clerk. If Basham went to the train himself we do not know, but do not think that he did.

The letter to Winter Garden contained the information that he would be here on the following Wednesday, the 24th, and to telephone W. H. Roberson that he was coming to take up his place. This property has been priced to him while here in January last at $1,200. He also expected to go fishing while here. This is the woods trip he intended taking. He had no idea of going further from Sanford than where the celery land was situated, and he had stated that he would not consider land more than twenty-five miles from Sanford. Basham had taken two sheets of paper and an envelope from the Sanford House and intended, evidently, writing to his wife next day.

Basham told Mr. Driver that he would be back on Tuesday to Sanford. The present East Coast Railway train service would not have permitted him going to Ojus and getting back in this time and have time to see any land. If the body found in Snake creek should prove to be Basham, we believe he was carried up to the head of the St. Johns river in a launch and tramped across the country the balance of the way, or he may have been murdered and carried across to the creek. But it is evident he did not go that distance from Sanford intentionally or willingly. It was not Basham's way of doing to put pleasure before business.

Festival Postponed

The ladies of the S. I. A. regret the necessary postponement of the Harvest Moon Festival to have been held at the city park on Tuesday evening, Sept. 20. The zest and interest of the ladies has by no means abated and the public may expect the announcement of another date in the near future.

HAND ROBBED AGAIN

Same Old Safe Robbed in the Same Old Way—Probably By Same Party.

The safe at Will Hand's restaurant in the Welborn Block was robbed again last Friday night. The robbery occurred in the same old way only this time the offender had a narrow squeeze as the officers were close behind him. About two o'clock Friday morning as Officers Tillis and Whitten were on their way to the station they heard a noise in Will Hand's restaurant and upon investigation discovered the door was open. As it was train time there were several people near the scene and they all went into the restaurant to intercept the burglars.

Officer Tillis was standing at the side door watching all openings when someone chased down the alley yelling "here he goes". Officer Tillis called upon him to halt and thinking the burglar was getting away fired a shot near the ground. The supposed burglar fell and upon investigation was found to be Joe Fernandez. Being a Spaniard and excitable by nature Joe had joined in the search as he explained afterward and thinking he saw the burglar going down the alley started after him. Officer Tillis claims he saw no one but Joe and not knowing who he was fired the shot to stop him.

The real burglar was not apprehended as yet and he has $176 of Will Hand's money. This is about the third time that Mr. Hand has suffered a loss in the same manner and the work is evidently being done by some one familiar with the surroundings.

Criminal Court Grind.

Criminal Court convened Monday morning with Judge Beggs on the bench, Prosecutor DeCottes present to look after the county's interest. Fully twenty-five cases have already been disposed of, a number being found guilty. Those tried up to the hour of going to press were as follows:

- Ed. Woods, grand larceny, 6 months.
- B. D. Henry Beerman, selling liquor, $500 and costs or 12 months.
- Dennis Mosley, assault without intent to kill, $100 and costs or seven months.
- Marlow White, carrying pistol without permit, $10 or sixty days.
- Ed McKinney, aggravated assault, $20 and costs.
- Henry Davis, bigamy, $150 and costs or one year.
- Sidney Matthews, assault with intent to kill, $150 or seven months.
- Willie Thomas, concealed weapons, $100 and costs or six months.
- Gus Williams, concealed weapons, $100 and costs or five months.
- Jim Matthews, desertion of wife, discharged on payment of costs.
- Ed McKenzie, assault, sixty days.
- E. R. Ratcliff, assault and battery, $15 and costs or sixty days.
- Ephraim Russell, petty larceny, five months or $100 and costs.
- Annie Williams, bigamy, put in care of officer to November term.
- Sam Joiner, carrying pistol without permit, $10 and costs or sixty days.
- Jake Brown, entering without breaking, not guilty.
- Jim Switzer, selling liquor, at Sanford, guilty.
- Frank Blairs, selling liquor at Sanford, guilty.

Surprise Party

The friends of Eddie Carraway surprised him last night at his country home. A number from town, chaperoned by Misses Jeanie Carraway and Alma Malm, were present. Refreshments were served and a good time enjoyed by all.

Those present were Misses Anna Americk, Lottie Heard, Marie Holmes, Daisy Betts, Ruby Betts, Mabel Granger, Jennie Carraway and Alma Malm; Messdames Holmes, Lord, Telford and Mr. and Mrs. Carraway and Messrs. Eddie Carraway, Douglas Holmes, Burnett Americk, Lex Carraway, Ray Newton, Brite Carraway.

Baptist Church

Services will be resumed in the Baptist church next Sunday. Preaching at 11:00 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. by the pastor, Rev. J. W. Wildman. Prayer meeting Wednesday evening at 7:30. All are cordially invited to attend.

We learn that the road near the St. Johns ferry, south of Osteen, is so bad that it has been abandoned by auto parties from Orange county. We went the road to Orange county via Thrasher's ferry, crossing the river at or near the mouth of Lake Monroe. It is a much shorter route, too.—DeLand Record.

HAPPENINGS DURING THE WEEK

Here the Readers Will Find a Brief Historical Spring Flowing For Hurried Readers

The Federal grand jury which has been investigating Chicago packers on Monday returned indictments against ten high officials of Swift, Armour and Morris concerns. There are three indictments against each combination, conspiracy and illegal monopoly. The men indicted are: L. F. Swift, president of Swift & Co.; Edward Swift, vice president of Swift & Co.; Chas. H. Swift and Francis A. Fowler, directors of Swift & Co.; Edward Tilden, president of the National Packing Co.; J. Ogden Armour, president of Armour & Co.; Thomas Meechler, general manager Armour & Co.; Thomas J. Conners, superintendent of Armour & Co.; Edwin Morris, president of Morris & Co. and Louis H. Heyman, manager of Morris & Co.

If fearless criticism is calculated to benefit the army, then Uncle Sam's soldiers should profit much by the comment upon their condition and abilities contained in the annual report of Inspector General Carlington just made public. One inspector points out a whole battalion of artillery starting for the Philippine service without a single field officer and one of the batteries commanded by a second lieutenant of less than two years' experience. An inspector general declares that this absence of captains from their commands is "the most fruitful source of professional disease in the line of the army today."

Maine went Democratic last Monday. It elected Frederick W. Plaisted of Augusta, a Democrat, as governor, upset the hitherto solid Republican Congressional delegation in at least two, and possibly all four of the districts, and to the surprise of the political leaders, Democratic as well as Republican, the returns indicated the possibility that the next state legislature will be Democratic. The Senate will surely have a Democratic majority.

Addressing the bank supervisors of the twenty-five states who gathered in convention at Washington last Monday, Lawrence O. Murray, comptroller of the currency, declared that the results under the banking laws of this country were in a large measure unsatisfactory. The reason he did not attempt to explain, though he intimated the fault might be in a weak administration of the law.

United States Senator Lorimer is to be the guest at one of the biggest dinners that has been given in Chicago in many years. The occasion is to furnish a rebuke by the friends of the Senator to Col. Roosevelt, who recently declined to sit at the same table with Senator Lorimer, and in order to accentuate the disapproval with which the friends of the Senator regard the action of Colonel Roosevelt, they intend to ask President Taft to sit at the head of the table.

Presbyterian Church

The usual services have been resumed at the Presbyterian Church. In view of the very warm weather a good congregation was present last Sunday. The pastor, Rev. J. F. McKinnon will preach next Sunday morning and evening. All are cordially invited to attend. The Sabbath school has been kept up during the summer and the attendance has been forty-five per cent better than for the same period last year.

Now Have a Flagman.

The railroad company pursuant to instructions from the city council has supplied a flagman for the railroad crossings on First street. This should obviate any more accidents in the future. Now the people will kick because the flagman makes them wait for the trains to pass which he has full authority to do.

Joseph A. Ettell, for many years owner of the Brown House at Gainesville, died last Monday after suffering two weeks from typhoid fever. Few Floridians were better known than Mr. Ettell, who numbered among his felons hundreds of traveling salesmen and public men of the State.

Sanford should celebrate her next birthday with a barbecue.
