Hodges Wins In First Vote Of Committee

Group Upholds Chairman In Okeying Power To Appoint Credentials Committee

Hodges Explains New Deal Slams

Says Many Of Things He Advocated Have Already Been Done

JACKSONVILLE, Jan. 20.—(AP)—Chairman J. H. Hodges of Lake City defended his criticism of some of the Roosevelt Administration policies before the state Democratic Executive Committee today.

Refusing to resign, Hodges read the committee a long explanation of his New Deal criticisms, and many of things he had advocated had been done and expressed the hope his statement would clear up the intra-party disagreement over his public utterances.

Several county committees had instructed their state committee men and committeewomen to seek Hodges' resignation or removal.

The first vote of committee members, however, was in Hodges' favor. The committee upheld him 79 to 19 in ruling that he had the power to appoint a credentials committee. It then upheld him 78 to 39 on his plan that he should have the power to appoint a Credentials Committee.

Officially the committee met to make plans for next May's Democratic primaries but actually the big issue was whether Hodges should remain at the helm.

Shot By Camp Guard, In Try To Liberate Friend, Craven Dies

JACKSONVILLE, Jan. 20.—(AP)—Herbert Craven, 29 year old desperado who escaped from the county jail on Jan. 12 and was shot down while trying to liberate a friend from the state convict camp near Inverness a few days ago, died here today.

Postal inspectors said he admitted he robbed at least eight rural postoffices in North Florida and south Georgia. He and two other prisoners, Hugh Horne and Hilliard Sanders, escaped the jail by covering the guards with an automatic pistol which had been smuggled in to them.

They armed themselves with two sawed-off shotguns and a machine gun before leaving the jail. The deputies said Craven did not give them any information about Horne and Sanders before he was shot. A woman, who claims to be Craven's wife, was arrested with him at the convict camp near Inverness.

Conference Is Organized For Junior High Schools

For the first time in the history of school athletics in this State, an athletic conference composed only of Junior High Schools has been organized.

The organization of the conference is the result of the initiative of Ira Foster, principal of the Daytona Beach Junior High School who has been trying for the past few years to organize a league for Junior High school competition. Mr. Schirard said.

The conference was officially organized when Junior High Schools from Central Florida met with the Daytona Beach principal recently and adopted bylaws and rules, similar to those of the Florida Athletic Association under which the senior high schools operate.

A basketball schedule for the present members of the conference has been completed. Mr. Schirard stated, adding that in addition to basketball arrangements are being completed for interschool competition for all the sports in which the senior high schools participate.

"Passing all schedule work for eligibility of a participant is stressed," Mr. Schirard stated, adding that the objective of the organization was to arouse the Junior high boys, including members of the seventh through the tenth grades, for later competition.

The local Junior High School team has already played two conference games joining a game to Oak Hill by 30 to 5, and taking a decision from Daytona Beach Saturday a score of 19 to 12.

Present members of the conference include Sanford, Daytona Beach, Seville, Oak Hill, Port Orange, New Smyrna, Deland, Turkeville and Ocoee.

Anti-Lynching Bill May Be Dropped

Texas Senator Shows Opposition To Measure Is Growing

TAMPA, Jan. 20.—(AP)—Traffic Chief A. E. Grantham said today a negro criminal assaulted a prominent white woman in the city suburbs here, shot her five times in the face with a pistol and later seriously wounded himself when about 30 policemen surrounded him at his home.

Hospital reports both the white woman and the negro man were in danger of death. Grantham said the negro carried a longshoreman's union card bearing the name of Moses Miller. After wounding the woman, the negro fled in her automobile. Police, directed by radio soon cornered him at his home.

Southerners have carried on a filibuster against the bill for 10 days. The bill has prevented Senate consideration of President Roosevelt's legislative program. Senator Connally, democrat, Texas, and other opponents of the bill contended they have been picked.

Sanior was booked by officials on charges of assault with the intent to commit murder, and lodged in the County Jail. He is awaiting a trial in the condition of Blackshear, who is still in the hospital in a critical condition from the knife wounds over his entire body.

Sanior was said to have attacked Blackshear as the latter was talking to his wife at the home of a neighbor and he had eluded law officers since the time of the incident until his arrest in Winter Garden.

Senate May Pry Into NLRB Ford Charges

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.—(AP)—Members said yesterday that a Senate Judiciary Sub-Committee soon might investigate action on the National Labor Relations Board in issuing an order accusing the Ford Motor Company of violating the Wagner Labor Relations Act.

The Judiciary Sub-Committee was set up this week to consider a resolution by Senator Burke (D-Neb) calling for an investigation of the board.

Members said Burke would make a preliminary statement to the sub-committee next week and would be permitted to suggest board activities which the committee might wish to review. They added that the Ford case was one which might come under committee scrutiny.

Conditional Aid Promised FDR By Business Leaders

Washington, Jan. 20.—(AP)—Fifty of the Nation's business leaders last night promised President Roosevelt their cooperation in combating the trade slump.

They specified that a limited wage-hours bill, a trade with public utilities, no general purge of holding companies and no further tinkering with the currency are necessary to aid in the struggle.

The conferees, all members of the Department of Commerce Business Advisory Council, spent an hour and a half with the President. Afterward Averil W. Harriman, chairman of the group, issued a statement which summarized the views of his colleagues and which was read to Mr. Roosevelt.

The statement said re-employment in private industry is the critical problem now before the country and that uncertainties that exist in "the hearts of men" must be eradicated.

"We wish to record with you our faith in the efficacy of the principles of democracy, and yet our grave concern over the possible far-reaching effects of our present situation," the statement concluded. "Tolerance and understanding must be used by all sections and interests in the country."

On leaving the White House some of the conferees went to the fashionable Mayflower hotel where they were seen in conversation with J. P. Morgan, famed international banker. Morgan said afterward that his presence had nothing to do with the Roosevelt meeting.

The advisory council touched on the most important parts of the New Deal's many-sided reform and recovery program. It recognized President Roosevelt's contention that there is a "new moral climate" in America and promised to join with the government in curing business and financial inequalities.

Plea Is Made On Home Exemption

The City and County Tax Assessors joined in a plea today urging Sanford and Seminole County home-owners to file their applications for home-occupied exemption early.

Sanford Doudney, the Seminole County assessor, reported that only 800 of approximately 2000 who are eligible have filed their applications for the exemption and City Assessor Frank S. Lamson reported considerably fewer than 150 have filed applications for exemption of taxes on homes in the city.

After applications are filed, the property is not entirely exempt of taxation, as the millage levied for debt service must be collected from all property. However, the amount levied for maintenance of City and County government is exempted if the applications are filed before April 1, the assessors pointed out.

Youthful Egyptian Monarch Is Wed In Moslem Ceremony

CAIRO, Egypt, Jan. 20.—(AP)—Egypt's boy King Farouk took dark-eyed, 17 year old Farida as his wife and queen in an orthodox Moslem ceremony which the bride did not attend.

Farida, daughter of an Egyptian high court judge, excluded from the ceremony by Moslem custom, watched it through a lattice work partition from an adjoining room in ancient Koubeh Palace.

Guns of the ancient citadel and chimes throughout the country crashed in a royal salute to tell the joyous Egyptians the King was wed. Farida's father and the bridegroom signed the Moslem contract which made her the wife of the 17 year old ruler of Egypt's 10,000,000 people.

The crashing of guns unleashed three days of celebration throughout the land of the Sphinx. Shaggy Bedouin horsemen, who slept all night in the streets, came confining to the city from the desert, plunged madly about, firing rifles into the air.

Drums throbbed. Daggars wriggled. Egypt's wine bowls overflowed. No women attended the wedding and the bride's only opportunity to display her $25,000 wedding gown with its 20 feet train was at an afternoon reception. Women in Egypt do not appear in public.

Anglo-Jap Dispute Nearly Ends In Clash

TIENTSIN, Jan. 20.—(AP)—A dispute between British and Japanese authorities at Tientsin, almost ending in a clash of armed forces, was reported today while Chinese said they had made "further successes" on the Hangchow and Wuhu front.

Authoritative British circles said a clash was narrowly averted Wednesday afternoon when Japanese army officers at Tientsin allegedly demanded that Chinese within the British concession be handed over to them.

The British refused, according to these sources. The Japanese then threatened to take the Chinese by force, and the British replied that they would resist. The Japanese let the matter there, at least temporarily.

A Real Bargain

If there were no newspaper in Sanford and you wanted to inform 8,000 families in this area that you had something to sell, the cheapest method would be to send your message through the Post Office. The Post Office would charge you five cents to forty dollars, but this wouldn't include the cost of paper and the envelope and the labor for printing. The same service can be rendered as cheaply as 25 cents in The Sanford Herald. That is why the wide news are taking advantage of this very low and economical advertising medium.

BIBLE VERSE FOR TODAY

Thou wilt show me the path of life: in thy presence is fulness of joy; at thy right hand there are pleasures for evermore.—Psalms 16:11.

ARISTOCRACY

And the Common People Said Mrs. Pluff, well garbed in silk, Well kept, well housed and fed on milk, 'Who's that strange cat across the street?

Now, really, did we ever meet? 'My dear, your eyesight must be poor; That short-haired cat before the door Is Mrs. Meow; she's not our style,' Said Mrs. Pluff, with catlike smile.

'I fear she's rather underbred, And common cats I really dread. She hobnobs with the butcher man And lunches from the old scrap can.'

'Dear me, of course, we needn't fall, She's really not OUR kind at all. It's not her fault, my dear, you see, She hasn't any P-E-D-I-G-R-E-E.'

Just then a mouse, a tiny thing, Across the pavement made a spring. Plain Mrs. Meow and Mrs. Pluff And, sad to say it, Mrs. Pluff

All made a rush, and such a blur Of cats and claws and mouse and fur; Which goes to prove that some fine day We find we're all of common clay.

Of course there isn't much doubt about the business recession, but it hasn't yet reached the point where a fellow can find a place to park—Sanford Herald, believe it or not, being unable to find a place to park it, as the Herald intimates, something to be thankful for.—St. Petersburg Independent.

It's rather noticeable how the New Deal brain trusters can only come from the public spotlight after their brief moment in guiding New Deal destinies. One can count a score of 'em in the past few years—Titusville Star Advertiser. With the obvious conclusion that no anti-monopoly drive is necessary against the brain trusters.

Some indication of the troubles in the world is seen in the recent death of a nine year old girl who was given an overdose of anesthesia by her mother who had planned not only to kill her daughter but also to take her own life. A prominent Miami physician, the woman succeeded in the former, failed in the latter effort, must now stand trial for murder. Trouble must be black indeed when one is moved to attempt such a thing.

Gov. Cane who recently jumped on J. B. Hodges for jumping all over the New Deal, now jumps all over the federal government himself for interfering in state affairs. And a few weeks ago the Governor said he would cut out the National Guard if necessary to rid Dade county of hoodlums, but now says it's necessary to have a National Guard in Dade county.

Senator McKellar of Tennessee, then quoted from the Illinois crime survey report, which said: 'There have been no convictions in gang murders in Chicago during the period covered by this analysis—1928-37. This immunity from punishment is apparently due in part to collusion between politicians and racketeers and in part to the fact that the underworld is a very powerful force in the state.'

Adjusting Back Taxes

The last session of the Legislature enacted a law which enables the City Commission to adjust delinquent taxes prior to 1934 in an effort to clean up all back taxes and restore property, which for many years has been delinquent, to the tax rolls.

Some progress has been made in this direction and a good many pieces of property have been returned to a tax-paying basis. Insurance companies and other mortgage institutions have been particularly active in settling old taxes and placing their property in a sound condition. A number of homesteads and houses for rent have had the taxes adjusted on them which in some cases had not been paid since the boom.

There still remains, however, considerable property on which the accumulated taxes are so heavy that even with the compromises which the City has offered, no settlement has been made. Particularly is this true of certain pieces of downtown business property which was excessively over-valued during the boom with consequent excessive taxes which have remained unpaid ever since.

In many instances these delinquent taxes, amount to as much or more than the present value of the property and the owner's equity is so slight, if any at all, that he has no incentive for paying even his current taxes, much less the large accumulations for years gone by.

And so the City loses a substantial revenue each year from these properties on which the current taxes undoubtedly would be paid if it were not for the delinquent taxes. The City has no authority to adjust taxes subsequent to 1934, but it could eliminate completely, if necessary, all taxes prior to that year, and it seems to us that such action would be a wise move on the part of the Commission in order to get all the property in the city on a current tax-paying basis.

It goes almost without saying that Sanford will not be in a position to build, expand, or go ahead commercially, until its real estate is placed in a sound condition and all these boom-time liabilities are either paid, compromised, or forgiven.

Mississippi Aroused

The State of Mississippi apparently is about to secede from the union over the threatened passage of the anti-lynching bill and the wave of sit-down strikes which have spread over the country.

Tuesday night a group of more than a hundred Mississippi farmers met and adopted resolutions in which they pledged themselves to renounce the Democratic party and join the Republicans if the anti-lynching bill is passed. And in Mississippi nothing could be more revolutionary than a shift in party allegiance.

Wednesday night the Mississippi House of Representatives now in regular session enacted a law by a vote of 97 to 21 to make sit-down strikes in that state unlawful. "If three or more persons conspire together," says the law, "with the intent forcibly and unlawfully to occupy... any land, store factory, mill, plant, garage... without consent of the management," it shall be called a sit-down strike, and the penalty is fixed at $1,000 and one year in prison.

Mississippi is one southern state which has finally realized that its ultimate destiny is not bound up in cotton alone and that if prosperity is ever to come to its people it must have industry to supplement its agricultural pursuits. To this end it has passed many laws during the past few years designed to attract investors with the necessary capital to erect factories and start the wheels of industry turning.

The move has been sufficiently successful so that Mississippians today are determined that they are not going to allow a group of foreign born radicals to come in, agitate against managers and property owners, until the owners conclude it is cheaper to close up than to continue to try to operate, and thousands of factory workers are thrown back on the welfare organizations of the individual counties and the WPA to support.

WASHINGTON DAYBOOK

By PRESTON GROVER

WASHINGTON—The anti-lynching bill is aimed at the south but the parts of the country suffering most from the filibuster against it are New York and Chicago, especially the latter.

Hardly a day passes but some of the southern senators reiterate that while in 1937 only eight negroes were lynched, the toll of gang killings in Chicago and New York in recent years is measured by dozens.

From The Herald Senator Russell of Georgia hunted out a crime report by J. Edgar Hoover, chief of U.S. marshals, showing Chicago in 1928 had 243 murders and "non-negligent" manslaughter, and 221 in 1936. New York had 363 in 1935 and 364 in 1936.

Just to help out, he read a paragraph from a news story saying that on New Year's eve in Brooklyn, which he described as "a part of greater New York," the "parishoners of the Church of the Holy Rosary celebrated their services an hour earlier than usual, and under the protection of a special police detail, on hand because of a long series of beatings and hold-ups in that section."

Senator McKellar of Tennessee, then quoted from the Illinois crime survey report, which said: 'There have been no convictions in gang murders in Chicago during the period covered by this analysis—1928-37. This immunity from punishment is apparently due in part to collusion between politicians and racketeers and in part to the fact that the underworld is a very powerful force in the state.'

AT SILVER SPRINGS

FAD VICTIM was the 15-year-old Jessie Stough of Latrobe, Penn., who on a recent visit to Silver Springs was swamped by a dozen camera addicts and shot more than a hundred times in less than an hour. Told she is "the perfect photo model" and that as such she should seek a career, the blonde beauty waved the photographers aside with a smile and told them "I'll finish school first."

"TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY"

By RUSSELL KAY

As we approach another election period we hear rumors of this or that individual becoming a candidate for such and such an office. The layman, concerned with the business of living, reacts to these rumblings in much the same manner as he responds to the familiar growl of distant thunder that foretells the coming of the storm.

He knows that clear and peaceful skies soon will be darkened by heavy clouds; blinding rain will dim visibility; the rumble of thunder will increase, the lightning will flash, raw winds will howl and there will be mud to contend with.

The tendency on the part of those of us who have no personal axe to grind, who seek no office, covet no special privilege, ask no favors but prefer to go about our business as ordinary citizens, is to seek shelter and—as far as possible—keep out of the political storm.

No matter which way the wind blows, we know it is pretty apt to be a cold one as far as we are concerned. We prefer the warmth of sincere friendship and the light of TRUTH and we have learned that these are rarely lost in the turmoil and torrent. The dimly mud annoys us; the fog and sleet blind us and make clear, sane thinking a problem.

The pledges and promises that drip like driving rain from the lips of eager office seekers, we know will disappear as the dew when calm returns and the storm has blown itself out.

We are asked to choose leaders authorized to think and talk and act for us in affairs of momentous import. On a bit of paper the politicians refer to as "The Sacred Ballot" we are urged to make a tiny cross-mark beside this or that name.

To all but a pitiful few the names appearing on those ballots will mean nothing. Listed there are names of men you and I never met—some we have never even heard of. Others, mayhap, we have been permitted to gaze upon from a distance as they waved their arms and extolled their virtues upon a stump.

Some of these names will appear under the caption "For United States Senate"—others beneath the heading "For Congress," "For Justice of the Supreme Court," "For Railroad Commission" and many other offices.

With the thunder clapping in our ears, the driving rain beating down upon us, the bitter opportunity for thought and reflection. We want to get it over with and as quickly as possible, so we make our MARK and go our way. Few of us stop to ponder over what the marks we leave behind us really mean.

If instead of the familiar captions listed above that under carried above these names the following statement, a lot folks would take more time and give more thought to their marking: "I, John Citizen, do hereby appoint: those designated below to act as my agents and clothe them with full and complete authority to regulate my life and that of my family, determine who I shall or shall not do under any and all circumstances, restrict my activities, mold my morals, share my earnings, throw me in jail, send me to war, question me at length on any subject, inspect my books, require that I pay various licenses, tax my income, determine my debt to charity, provide for my old age, educate my children, determine my mode, specify my hours of labor, regulate my place, my attire and my..."

for whom we make our mark. Regardless of what the candidates say about themselves or each other, ask yourself before you vote "Would I trust this man to care for my wife and child; would I share with him a joint checking account at my bank; will I follow blindly where he leads?"

Mrs. Galloway Tells Of Concert Selection

"The local artists committee of the Women's Club Co-operative Concert Association wishes to assure the members of the association that only outstanding artists will appear in Sanford this season," Mrs. Earnest M. Galloway, chairman, stated this morning.

"In making the selection of three concerts on Saturday night, this committee will take into consideration the popular demand of the masses, and promises not only entertainment of a high standard of merit, but also a demand for popular appeal. This committee feels that the music especially should hear and see the things they most desire, and on the other hand, the fastidious music lovers will be pleased because they will be given consideration also."

"As the campaign progresses the concert headquarters will be giving information and it is quite possible that one concert will be announced before Friday."

"We urge all in this county to join immediately and in that manner facilitate the work of the artists' committee. This committee must please everybody, and in making these selections will consider every one. The auditorium will be selected before Saturday night depending entirely on the membership secured. The following artists will be given serious consideration by the artists' committee:

"Rose Hampton, the leading Mezzo soprano of the Metropolitan Company, Miss Hampton is one of the world's greatest singers and her concert at the Rose Bowl in Hollywood, where she sang to thousands of people, was considered to be the greatest ever given by anyone in that auditorium. Miss Hampton made her debut in the Metropolitan at the age of twenty and is young and very attractive.

"Miss Rose Marie Brancato, soprano, radio and concert star. Miss Brancato is known to radio lovers as Rose Marie and has been featured as the leading singer in the Consolidated Gas Hour and the National Electric Company. Several years ago when Galli Curci, then with civic opera, was ill, Miss Brancato substituted for her and her debut was outstanding. It made her famous overnight.

"Miss Carolyn Urbanek, radio and concert star. This young at-

Visitors Are Honored At Thrasher Home

Mrs. D. L. Thrasher and Mrs. W. W. Wright entertained with a bridge luncheon yesterday at the home of Mrs. Thrasher on Grandview Avenue in honor of their guests, Mrs. Carl Fernan of Euclid, Mrs. Russell Snow, Mrs. Grace Fleming and Mrs. Maude Ronald of Cocoa.

The playing rooms were decorated with a profusion of gladioli and Spring flowers in attractive arrangements about the rooms. There were nine tables of players and at the conclusion of the games high score prize was awarded to Mrs. A. C. Fort, low score prize to Mrs. Walter Coleman and seven prize to Mrs. William Leffer. The hostesses presented the honorees with guest prizes.

An attractive artist is a star on the Seal Ten Hour. The critics all agree that Miss Urbanek will become one of the greatest singers of our day in the very near future. She is being sponsored and her career is being guided by Arthur Judson, manager and discoverer of Nelson Eddy and many other stars. Mrs. Judson believes that in Miss Urbanek, he has an artist of unusual merit.

In tomorrow's paper we will give other information regarding other artists.

Comedy Will Be At High School Tonight

"Good Gracious, Grandma!" a farce-comedy, will be presented tonight at the Seminole High School Auditorium at 8:00 o'clock. This play is being sponsored by the Salmagundi Staff of Seminole High School and the Lake Mary P. T. A.

The action takes place in the living room of Apartment No. 8, Lennon Apartments, in a Southern city. Henry and George Breckenridge cousins, find themselves temporarily—but definitely—in a state of financial embarrassment when their landlady, Mrs. Lennon, demands a deposit on long-overdue rent.

Available money arrives by wire when an old family friend telegraphs expense money for Henry's father to entertain the friend's two daughters over a weekend. But father is on a trip to Mexico, and the girls are arriving... and they need the money. The solution seems to be to pay a deposit on the rent and entertain the girls themselves. To keep them at the apartment, they must have a chaperon. This obstacle is overcome when P-Sun, the colored house-boy finds a grey wig and black dress. The articles cause the birth of "Grandma", otherwise George, the perfect chaperon.

The Concert Series

By SUSAN R. WRIGHT

It is with sincere interest that I am following the efforts of the Woman's Club to initiate a series of artists' recitals in Sanford. This cultural gesture is of a piece with the ideas and activities of the club which has always stood strongly for the best in our town, and deserves the support of S.S.A.'s of the town often appearing in the Herald as frequently seen in the town of parties going as far as Jacksonville to hear some favorite artist, and there are some of us who will never forget the witchery of Maud Powell and her violin, or Fritz Kreisler, just after the World War when he came playing himself back into the hearts of people who had sometimes failed to realize that music is something as far above human strife, as the blue sky is above a battle field. Sousa and his band, John McCormack, Calcutti, Curci Elman—we drove many miles through the dark to hear them to keep them as hearts' treasures.

The radio helps us to appreciate and understand the world's great music—the voice we hear is the better we have it. Unlike our response to the light and catchy which wears itself and us out with repetition, but the living presence of the artist grows our enjoyment, as belief will never die, so here's a sincere hope that we are soon to have that pleasure in Sanford.

Perhaps, as an old and close friend, I may add a word to the tributes Mrs. Noble and Mr. Braun have paid to "Miss Fannie"—that great spirit who has gone to join the choir invisible. The very thought of music brings Mrs. Manning to mind for it was indeed the very life of her and her sweet influence will go down to children's children of those who knew her as teacher and inspiring friend. It would be a wonderful memorial to her, if some plan for a recurring music festival in her name, could be worked out in Sanford. Perhaps we are about to the first step to it!

Aircraft Battle On Teruel Front

Insurgent Advances Reported In Wake Of Aerial Attack

Japan maneuvered today for a more complete control of her armed forces in an unusual peace-time move and Spain again was the proving ground for modern warplanes.

Lieut. Gen. Kenji Doihara, Whose Undercover Work Is Credited With Paving the Way for Japan's conquest of Manchuria and the invasion of China proper, was said to govern the Shanghai and Hankow areas.

The Chinese-Japanese war went on without any spectacular development but in Spain the insurgents again tested their power in the air after hundreds died or were injured in government coastal cities in two days of aerial warfare.

More than 100 planes fought all one time over the Teruel front. The insurgents reported their aerial operations had aided the infantry in fresh advances.

Revenue Collector Warns Deadline On Income Tax Nears

Although Mar. 15 the deadline may seem far removed at present, J. Edwin Larson, U. S. collector of Internal Revenue from Florida, yesterday issued a warning to individuals and business houses to begin work at once on their 1937 income tax returns.

This warning was prompted by the fact that the Commissioner of Internal Revenue states that extension requests may be granted this year only in exceptional and meritorious cases. In former years what appeared to be a reasonable excuse, such as illness, or as pressure of business, new employees, etc., was sufficient to gain an extension in time for filing income tax returns.

This year, however, a real legitimate reason caused by something beyond the taxpayer's control will be necessary to gain more time and in addition all applications for extensions of time for filing income tax returns must be submitted under oath on a prepared form, stating the reasons for the request, the collector pointed out.

Collector Larson also stated that tax returns may be filed at any time now and pointed to the availability of preparing and filing them immediately, if possible, rather than delay until the deadline nears.

A Real Bargain

If there were no news paper in Sanford and you wanted to inform your families in this area that you had something to sell, the cheapest method would be to send your message through the Post Office. The Post Office would charge you from twenty to forty dollars, but this wouldn't include the cost of paper and the cost of printing. The same service can be rendered as cheaply as 25 cents in The Sanford Herald. That is why the wise ones are taking advantage of this opportunity and economical advertising method.

Sholtz Tosses Hat Into Ring For Senate Post

Administration May Not Express Preference In Battle

DAYTONA BEACH, Jan. 21.—(AP)—Dave Sholtz, former governor of Florida, announced tonight his candidacy for the United States Senate seat now held by Claude Pepper.

"Well, boys, I'm in it," he said soon after arrival from Washington. "And I'm here to tell you about it. I wanted the story to break from Daytona Beach, where I made my home for so long and where I started out in my campaign for governor."

Sholtz entered a field already including Pepper, J. Mark Wilcox, congressman from the Fourth Florida District, and Finlay Moore of Lake City.

The former governor said he had learned from a high source in Washington the National Administration would not express a choice in the primary battle.

"The administration will take no position in this campaign," Sholtz said he was informed, "or in any of the coming campaigns in any of the States."

Sholtz who has been practicing law at Jacksonville and Washington since he stepped out of office last year, said he was making the race "because I received so many requests."

"So frequent has been the query 'why don't you run for the Senate, Dave?'" Sholtz said, "that I had a check made of the entire State, as a result of which I am convinced that a large majority of the people of Florida really want me to be their senator."

"Florida never let me down, and I never let Florida down."

The former governor has maintained his legal residence at Daytona Beach. He served at Tallahassee from January, 1932, until January, 1937.

Control Group Begins Plans For Prorate

Regulation Of Shipments May Be Commenced During The Week Of Jan. 31

Declaring that shipments of Florida celery may be too heavy during the week beginning Jan. 31, J. C. Hutchinson, local shipper and chairman of the Control Committee of the Celery Marketing Agreement, stated today that the first prorate period may be declared during that time "in order to maintain a satisfactory market."

Shipments during the first weeks of this month have been short of the State's total for last year, particularly from Seminole County. However, from all appearances there will be a large increase of Seminole County celery ready for marketing during the week of Jan. 31, and it is feared unless a period of proration is declared a decline in the market price will result.

"If the Control Committee decides for a period of proration after it is approved by the Secretary of Agriculture," Mr. Hutchinson said, "every farmer who wishes to ship celery during the week of Jan. 31 must file an application for an allotment. Otherwise he will not be able to ship."

In his statement regarding the probabilities of a period of proration being declared by the Control Committee, Mr. Hutchinson is quoted as follows:

"It appears that shipments of celery may be too heavy during the week of Jan. 31 to maintain a satisfactory market, and it may be advisable during that week for the Control Committee to put into effect control measures. With this in mind a meeting of the Control Committee is being called for Tuesday afternoon, Jan. 25 at 2:00 P. M. for the purpose of deciding whether to recommend to the secretary of Agriculture the establishment of a series of prorate periods beginning Jan. 31. Seminole County members of the Control Committee will meet at Room 200 in the Melch building and members of the Sarasota-Manatee district will meet in their office in Sarasota."

Throughout the conference telephone communications will be maintained between the two groups.

"In order to determine the exact amount of celery available for shipment during that week we are that the figures may be available at a following meeting of the Control Committee on Jan. 28, when Committee members will decide whether to call for the proration period, applications for allotments will be sent to all farmers who are requested to fill out these covering every block of celery ready for shipment during the week beginning Jan. 31."

"It will be necessary to have these applications in the hands of J. C. Lattice, secretary, not later than 6:00 P. M. Wednesday, Jan. 26 in order that estimators employed by the Committee may estimate the probable yield before the meeting of the Committee. If additional forms are needed, they may be secured at the office of the Control Committee which opens Monday, Jan. 24."

The movement of celery from Seminole County since the beginning of the current shipping season has been unusually light. To date only 87 carloads have been shipped to northern markets from the County as compared with 120 cars for the same period last year. The Sarasota district, however, has increased its early shipments by approximately one-third, shipping 337 carloads to date this season as compared with 230 for the same period last year.

The light shipments from this County are no indication that the crop is smaller this year than last, however. According to a recent report from the Bureau of Agriculture, Economics at Washington, D. C. the total acreage for the entire country this year is over 500 acres greater than for last year.

The total acreage in the State is estimated at 1,400, the highest on record. The Seminole County acreage has been estimated as follows:

Shriners To Sponsor Drive For Paralysis Foundation

At their regular meeting in the Valdez Hotel last night members of the Sanford Shrine Club voted to sponsor the drive in Sanford for collection of funds to be sent to the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, Frank L. Miller, secretary of the club, reported today.

Lloyd P. Boyle, who has been appointed chairman of the fund drive in this area, appeared before the club and pointed out that funds will be sent to the National Foundation from all over the country to create a financial reserve as ammunition to combat the dreaded disease.

The funds, Mr. Boyle said, will be used to carry on a national educational campaign, prepared under expert medical supervision, and the results of all scientific research conducted at the institution will be placed at the disposal of local doctors and health officers should the epidemic strike this community. In addition the foundation will rush supplies and equipment as well as funds in order to provide facilities for caring for those who have been attacked by the disease.

At the meeting last night, it was reported that the Shriners unanimously agreed that every dollar contributed will be sent to the foundation rather than promoting a banquet or dance, incurring a large expense which will lower the actual amount of the funds sent to the institution.

Mr. Boyle in commenting upon the drive said: "The public will be asked to contribute voluntarily to this cause and it should be impressed upon our citizens that every dollar contributed is the same as an insurance policy for our country against the possibility of the dreaded epidemic. If you—or your son or daughter—were suddenly stricken by this malady, what could you do? Where could you go for help? How long could you finance the necessary, specialized care?"

"The funds raised will be centralized, as in life insurance, but the benefits are local and individual. Seminole County, single handed, could not do much against this disease, but the United States, as a nation, can go far."

"I hope and trust that our people will do their individual part by cheerfully donating when contacted," Mr. Boyle concluded.

Hospital Meet Elects Board For New Year

621 Persons Treated In Institution During Year Of 1937; 557 Patients In '38

All officers of the Fernald-Lawton Memorial Hospital were re-elected at the annual meeting of the Hospital Board in the office of County Superintendent T. W. Lawton who was re-elected president for another year, yesterday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock.

According to reports presented at the meeting $19,682 was charged patients for services this year as compared with $19,761 for 1936. Collections this year were 88 percent against 94 percent for last year.

A balance of $2,229.18 was brought forward from 1936 and the final figure showed a balance at the end of this year of $1,332.72. The difference in these amounts, President T. W. Lawton credited to the "unusual expenditure" for equipment and general repairs during the year.

Officers re-elected were: T. W. Lawton, president; Mrs. Endor Gurley, vice president; H. C. Dubose, auditor; and Mrs. Cassandra Schuller, secretary.

Members elected to the executive committee were: Mrs. Endor Gurley of Geneva, Mrs. Hubert R. Tule of Lake Mary, Mrs. L. W. Coates of Chuluota, A. C. Connelly and H. C. Dubose.

Information presented on the annual report showed that 621 had been admitted to the institution during the year as compared with 557 patients in 1936.

Students At Tally Take Family Course

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., Jan. 21.—(AP)—Florida State College for Women students taking a "marriage and the family" course here want to maintain their future jobs as housewives and mothers on a 100 per cent basis.

In a proposed "budget" which each student made of the first five years of marriage, a majority said, as wives, they intended to work outside the home only on a temporary basis or in emergencies. They wish, they said, to devote their full time to household management.

Charles S. Hart Is Honor Guest At Main Speaker At Elks Dinner Here

Safety Campaign Is Given Impetus

"Ticket-Fixing Is Condemned As Main Cause Of Accidents"

Declaring that the dictatorships in Russia, Italy and Germany are but a result of the failure of the people of these countries to recognize the responsibility of citizenship, Charles Spencer Hart, Grand Exalted Ruler for the National Order of Elks, told a large gathering of Elks from over the State that the "Elks must do their part to stop Nazi and Fascist propaganda in this country."

As the guest speaker at the dinner held in his honor in the Mayfair Hotel last night, the National Elks head also discussed the Safety program of the Lodge and declared that "the most flagrant abuse in the field of traffic enforcement and one of the greatest threats to our ability to save lives on our roads is 'ticket-fixing' or favoritism."

Master of ceremonies at the dinner last night was O. K. Herndon, past Exalted Ruler of the Sanford Lodge. Many state celebrities including former Gov. Dave Sholtz, past Grand Exalted Ruler; District Deputy Grand Exalted Ruler, I.
