Congregational Church To Get New Pastor

The Congregational Christian Church of Sanford at its Annual Meeting yesterday recalled with much praise the work of Dr. J. Bernard Root as the pastor through Sept. 12, 1959. Dr. Root had been the pastor here for one-third of a century, following a brief previous pastorate of only four years. Now the church has chosen a 35 year old senior from the Vanderbilt University School of Religion at Nashville, Tennessee.

The Rev. Joseph E. Stock will begin his responsibilities as the new pastor on June 19. This will be his first pastorate. His home was originally at Interlachen, where his forebears were early homesteaders. His father is a teacher. Several brothers manage a large poultry farm.

Before attending Vanderbilt University Joseph Stock was graduated from the University of Florida. He is married to a Tennessee girl who at present is laboratory technician for three Nashville physicians.

Thanksgiving Sunday 1959 marked the first occasion that Mr. Stock was heard by the Sanford Church. The congregation was much taken with the Stocks. After hearing him preach and upon the recommendation of the pulpits Supply Committee of the church he was invited to be the new minister. When the Stocks arrive in Sanford they will live at the church parsonage 211 Palmetto Ave.

Alliance Elects Officers For '60

Last Sunday evening the young people of the Alliance Youth Fellowship elected officers to serve for the coming year. Re-elected to serve full terms since they had been in office for only a part of the year, were: Leo Watson Jr., Coordinator; Steven Van Felt, Secretary; and Jimmie Lantz, Treasurer. Linda Webb and Arlene Smith were elected to serve as Missions Correspondence Secretaries.

The A. Y. F. of the Alliance Church has recently been inaugurated with a new program promoting more active training and participation for the youth of the church. Several adult sponsors have been appointed, leaders for four teams entered in competition for points in a contest which includes Bible study, attendance at the youth meetings, church services, and community service to come to the youth services.

WHY DO WE SING IN CHURCH?

Most of us take hymns for granted—until the organ mist of a dull note, "Why do we sing in Church?" And then we have to grope for the right answer ...

It isn't that God prefers singing to other kinds of worship. We know He is concerned with singing, not with it.

And we don't sing simply because we are happy. In trouble and sorrow we have turned to a favorite hymn for strength.

We do sing in Church merely because we like to sing. That would seem a self-evident fact of worship.

We sing because several kinds of beauty, feeling, recreation, it is a fitting expression of our faith in God. And we sing because the message of a hymn reaches the soul of the singer and the heart of his neighbor—as well as the theme of God.

Women on the Go

By JEANNE WARNE

IN THE "WHAT'S NEW" department is Master Brent McCall, newly arrived at the Glenn McCall household, who soon should be making his debut "about town" in an aqua stroller presented to his mother at the Clyde Robertson home. Co-hostesses were Mrs. Ann (Ralph) Cowan, Mrs. Joan (Dora) Batten and Miss Jeannette Woffler. Along with the stroller was a heaping array of brightly wrapped gifts from the many well-wishers present.

A DINNER PARTY Saturday evening brought together a group of hunters and their wives. Hosts were Jane and Glenn Lingle at their Loch Arbor home, and places were set for Mr. and Mrs. Mason Wharton, Dr. and Mrs. Jack Morrison, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Wright, Mr. and Mrs. Charles LaGette and Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Moreland Jr.

BALMY WEATHER has Eleanor and Pete McFarney "pool-testing"—but all that tempting blue water in their back yard still registers 65 in spite of the warm sun!

BACK IN SANFORD are Dr. and Mrs. M. Lipian who spend winters in their lovely home on the corner of Melrose and 20th St. When not here they call Long Island, N. Y. home.

MRS. MUNSON

THE PHONE IS RINGING almost constantly at the Leonard Munson residence now that Loretta is amid all sorts of interesting plans for the forthcoming Heart Fund drive. Most noteworthy now is the special events show on the agenda for January 30 at the Civic Center. It, of course, stars Bette Davis and Barry Sullivan and has been described as "pure stage artistry."

Bouquets to the Heart Council for bringing such entertainment to Sanford. (They recently were told by a state representative that they are one of the most active councils in Florida.)

The 37th should be the glamour evening of the month since the Elks are staging their Charity Ball that night. What could be nicer? Theatre at 8:30 and then dancing at the lavish Mayfair Inn.

IT HAS BEEN HINTED that Miss Davis might be seen socially after the show. Some Sanfordites still cringe to think about last year when Victor Borge was left alone to munch on a hamburger at a local drive-in. Seems his press agent failed to pass on the word that we were bubbling with southern hospitality. But Borge left affably enough since he said so many kind words about our Civic Center, especially the excellent acoustics.

Sorority Plans Sale

The bi-monthly meeting of the Zeta Xi chapter of Beta Sigma Phi was held at the home of Miss Joan Wright, 445 Elliott Ave.

Mrs. Lloyd O. Swain, president, presided at the business session and received routine reports. A ways and means project of buying a gift and having a white elephant sale at the next meeting was approved by the group.

It was also decided that a raffle will be conducted at each meeting to provide funds for the "Sunshine" fund. Members approved the by-laws presented by Mrs. Swain.

Mrs. Leon M. Swain Jr. gave a program entitled, "Drama Into Music And Dance." Refreshments of cakes, cookies and soft drinks were served by the hostesses to the following members present:

Mrs. R. A. Wesson, Mrs. Wallace Tyre, Mrs. James Lyons, Mrs. Leon Swain, Mrs. Lloyd Swain, Mrs. Wendel Springfield, Mrs. Robert Reaves, Mrs. Harvey Wilkinson, Mrs. Sam T. Skelton and the Misses Beatrice Nelson, Betsy Ann Carter, Marianne Strickland, Barbara Chambers, Nicki Hall, Sonja Montfort, Mary Ann Wright and Joan Wright.

THE BANQUET at the Mayfair Inn Wednesday night was for department heads of Florida Experiment Stations. Local residents, mingling with the 35 out-of-town guests, were Dr. J. E. Darby, Dr. and Mrs. P. J. Westgate, Dr. W. T. Scudder, Dr. H. L. Rhodes and Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Wilson.

A YOUTHFUL CROWD congregated at the home of Beth (Mrs. J. O.) Gregory Saturday morning. And they came prepared with palette and brush to begin instructions to start them on the way to becoming members of the Junior Art Assn. Beth will give instructions each week for the junior crowd (seven-ish to 15) and she says, "I'm enthused about working with these children and it will be especially well worth the effort if I find one with real talent."

Skip Celebrates Sixth Birthday

Skip Faulkner celebrated his sixth birthday with a Wild West party at his home in Loch Arbor.

Several tribes of cowboys and Indians were on hand to make it a memorable occasion. Games were played outdoors and Ted Ashton, David Terwilliger, Susie Ray and Melanie Howard won prizes for pinning the gun in the cowboy's holster. Refreshments were served and later a battle with water-guns ensued.

Annual Planting And Care was the topic chosen by Mrs. J. D. Woodruff, Sr., when she spoke at the January meeting of the Lake Mary Home Demonstration Club.

Mrs. Woodruff told of preparing annual flower beds and suggested a "liquid fertilizer" to minimize shock to plants during the transplanting process. She also told of various plants that do well in sandy soil and mentioned glorioxa daisies, poppies and moss roses. Now is the time to divide perennials and she gave as an added hint the use of a pinch a nitrate of soda in a circle around annuals that need a boost to grow.

Miss Myrtle Wilson, Home Demonstration agent, gave a talk on Frozen Food during which she recommended not using cheese or milk cartons for storing in the freezer as they give an off flavor to food.

During the business session, Mrs. Carl Moss, president, reported that a total of $37 was realized from the recent bake sale and will be used to buy tables for the firehouse.

James Avery will speak on "Care And Cleaning of Jewelry" at the February 9th meeting.

The Oviedo Garden Club will meet Tuesday afternoon at 3 p. m. at the home of Mrs. C. L. West on Lake Charm Circle with Mrs. R. F. King as co-hostess for the occasion.

The theme for the occasion will be the making of individual hats of unusual description, each member modeling her hat. It promises to be an interesting meeting.

Robert O. Cohen, Army Specialist Fourth Class, has returned to Germany after a 30 day leave at home with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Cohen.

HUGH ANSEL

The program "Experiments in Education" featured in Time, Life Magazine, New York Herald Tribune and various other periodicals, will be presented by Hugh Ansel, a graduate of Stetson University. Mr. Ansel will tell of a seven-week experiment he conducted while a 9th grade Civics teacher at Glenridge Jr. High School in Winter Park.

The "Traditional Education Experiment" (T. E. E.) as it was called, was to find out why Russians have become so far ahead of the Americans in Education. The class was formed following the launching of the Russian Sputnik and all the talk of how Russia had gained over the U. S. in education. The class followed the same "20 Commandments" which each Russian child must memorize and follow upon entering school.

Under the Russian System no time is lost in the classroom, discipline is strict, students put all their time in on their subjects, and the teacher is not called on to "waste" his time in unnecessary work and talk. During the 7 weeks of study the grades of the students rose 25%.

Hostesses will be Mrs. W. L. Kirk, Mrs. Robert Kuhn, Mrs. R. A. Smith, Mrs. A. O. Roberts, and Mrs. Jimmy Wright. All members of the Woman's Club are invited to attend this informative program.

Old stains on tea towels and napkins usually can be removed by soaking in a warm mild bleach solution, then washing.

Brilliantly colored bell-shaped nasturtium flowers can be used to brighten canapes and salads.

How About That Basketball Team

A lot of things have been looking good around here lately and it seems consistent with them that the Seminole High School basketball team is sporting a perfect season record, with six games won and none lost.

The long-legged Mr. Gerald Covington, who reports the sports events for The Herald, points out two factors in the Sem team's success so far: good basketball players—and demonstration of increased interest by fans.

Crowds attending basketball games here in recent seasons have been on the scant side, but they picked up right off this season, he says. This is a good indicator that our folks are getting interested in more and more activities and that means they're getting interested in each other.

And that's what makes a community.

We hope the Seminoles keep on winning basketball games and we hope the gymnasium won't hold the crowds.

Many Problems Face India's Ruling Party

By PHIL NEWBORN
UPI Foreign Editor

India's ruling Congress Party began its annual convention this week, with Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru under criticism for his tardy recognition of the Communist danger from without, and the party facing the threat of a damaging defeat by the Reds at home.

There was, however, no danger to Nehru's party or national leadership.

Even his opposition agrees that so long as Nehru is around, there can be no effective opposition party.

And even though his reaction to the Red Chinese menace had been tardy, there was a general belief that only he could deal with it.

But Nehru had been a critical part of this week party convention, and the party's founding in 1947 was one of its most critical moments. Nehru's political and industrial and agricultural development had not kept pace with the progress of Red Chinese aggression, and the party was in a quandary as to how to handle the situation.

At a time when millions were on the verge of starvation, a full party was more important than a political convention.

But high on the convention agenda would be a reorganization plan for a party that some of its members charged that some of its leaders were "too fat and too fat" in the face of joblessness and famine.

The issue of Red Chinese aggression against India's borders was an added starter to other long-range problems with which Nehru and his leadership must deal in the coming year.

On Jan. 5, an election will be held in Kerala, the first in India since 1957. It became the first in disa state to elect a Communist government. It lies at India's southern tip, far removed from the Communist threat to the north. Literacy is high and income low among its more than 15 million people who blamed the Congress Party for their hardships.

Last July, the federal government ousted Kerala's Red regime after a series of crippling strikes and unruly demonstrations.

United Press International Correspondent R. Tiwari reported from New Delhi that three months ago, no one would have given the Reds a chance to repeat in Kerala.

Now even Congress Party workers refuse to predict the outcome. The Communists are on a door-to-door campaign and have managed to overcome much of the stigma brought on by the Red Chinese aggression by proclaiming their support of Nehru in the dispute.

They promise "equal opportunity for all" and a workers union.

The opposition slogan that Communism is a menace is met by the Indian equivalent of "So what's new?"

Two years ago Nehru and his lieutenants realized that India's development toward the democracy depended upon the government's ability to develop an economic program to feed the population. They sought massive investments, India's greatest problem, still is people and still more people.

Long, Long Ago
NEW YORK (UPI) — Small home machines for paring and coring apples and peaches and for taking pits out of cherries were regular in the United States from 1880 to 1920.

Assignment Washington

BY ED KOTERBA

WASHINGTON — A New York garden editor set out to do a simple story about some gift trees from Russia, and he ended up shaking his head at a new adage: From little Red seedlings great bureaucratic oaks grow.

The editor called his Washington office and asked his man to please get the identities of the plants which Nikita Khrushchev had sent to President Eisenhower.

The correspondent picked up the phone, called the White House. Assistant press secretary Ann Wheaton didn't have the answer, and Jim Hagerly wasn't around.

The reporter called the Department of Agriculture. The call was passed around from one bureau to another until one gentleman suggested: "Get in touch with our experimental branch at Beltsville."

This newsmen was interested in a lot of trees, not experimental branches, so he went to the root of the story and phoned the Russian embassy.

The agricultural attache suggested politely: Why not try getting the information from the man who has it, a low-school employee in the United States Department of Agriculture.

Back to Agriculture went the newsmen. This time they told him to check with quarantine. And he wondered what was in quarantine—the trees or the facts?

As it turned out, the man in quarantine had the answers.

But, alas, the information was secret. The explanation was that a department ruling prohibits disclosure of information about any imported plants. This keeps sure-rymen from learning what their competitors are bringing into this country.

The reporter brought that neither the President Eisenhower were in the nursery business. But the Ag man pointed out that rules were rules and to please proceed to the department's press information officer.

The reporter had the correspondent under a tree long enough. He went back to the beginning—and called Ann Wheaton. He had her call the press information officer, and between them they finally cut the red tape and released the secret to the world.

The facts are: There were 120 plants—16 Norway maples, six hybrid mountain ash, five cork trees, six chokos cherries, 13 little leaf lindens, 16 maple, six lilac, 14 European white birch, 11 Siberian pine, 14 Siberian larch and 15 Scotch pine.

To obtain this innocuous information, it took the newsmen 18 phone calls that ate up nearly half a day.

The seedlings were apparently taken from the personal acreage of Nikita Khrushchev's country estate and comprise a personal gift for the President's Gettysburg farm. However, the President will not be permitted to plant them there for another year—until after he is out of the White House.

Under Federal law, the import of seedlings will now be questioned at the Agriculture Department's farm in Beltsville, Md., for a full growing season.

Even the President of the United States is not exempt from this law.

Inez Robb Says

BY INEZ ROBB

If I had enough money to worry about, I would now be in search of two items to help me preserve it: (1) a tin can in which to squirrel it away and (2) a shovel. I would need the latter to dig a hole under the rose bush in the back yard where I could stash my money until the current signs and portents, so reminiscent of '29, have passed.

What's worrying me about my current two cents worth is not the sudden hedging of so many financial experts about the Big Rock Candy Mountains in the 'Sixties. Right down to the tape of the 'Sixties, these experts were predicting that all gold and American citizens had to do to be rich in the present decade was sit still and pick up the manna as it fell.

Now a great many of these experts seem to be a little queasy. They are not quite so certain of a sudden of every man his own Morgan. They are delicately hinting of a recession in the present year, maybe a declining market before the election and other sinking spells in this decade that only months ago they were promising would be all gold and a mile wide.

No, it is not this signaling that bothers me. What has me troubled is my distinct memory of the life and times of the 'Twenties that preceded the debacle of '29. The same signs and portents that showed a sudden of every man his own Morgan. They are delicately hinting of a recession in the present year, maybe a declining market before the election and other sinking spells in this decade that only months ago they were promising would be all gold and a mile wide.

No, it is not this signaling that bothers me. What has me troubled is my distinct memory of the life and times of the 'Twenties that preceded the debacle of '29. The same signs and portents that showed a sudden of every man his own Morgan. They are delicately hinting of a recession in the present year, maybe a declining market before the election and other sinking spells in this decade that only months ago they were promising would be all gold and a mile wide.

When I diagnose financial trends, I get down to brass tacks. First, there is the recent $230,000 ball given by a Detroit motor monarch for his debutante daughter. Even allowing for inflation, this tops the $75,000 debutante ball at which Barbara Hutson made her debut in 1930 just before the financial ceiling really fell in on the nation.

However, my real uneasiness began last autumn when the fashion writers began to cross over "daytime diamonds" and list the ladies who wear them with their turtle neck sweaters and Hoover aprons. I remember only too well the winter of 1929-30 in Palm Beach when one belle never appeared on the beach without both her bathing suit and her diamond necklace, a classy parlay for that day.

Well, then as has 'em wears 'em. And I might have worried along with daytime diamonds on women. But daytime diamonds on dogs is too much! Oh I am all for the affluent society, but when I read in a New York paper of a poodle whose jeweled collar is set with a nitrate-bitty watch, (so his mistress can see time running on and on, rather than out), my impulse is to head for the cyclone cellar.

But the news that really raised the hackles is that women across the nation are eagerly snatching up nylon lace stockings at $45 per pair!

And this in a nation that cannot afford to ante up the money to meet the Russian challenge in missiles and space exploration! Debutante parties at $250,000 a throw we can afford, and daytime diamonds, and jeweled watches for dogs, and lace stockings at $45 per pair.

But not the money that would put us at least even with the Soviets in the missile and space age! Just the money for daytime diamonds. For dogs.

Ah, well, enough of this gloom and doom. Let us eat, drink, wear daytime diamonds and be merry, for tomorrow we may die. And flat broke at that, as my fortune cookie crumbles.

School Funds Go Into Expenses

The $215,315 in recalculation funds released by the state to Seminole County Tuesday will be used for teacher's salaries, student transportation and the current expense fund which covers any school operation.

County school finance officer Mrs. C. R. Gilbert said Wednesday that she won't know how the money will be divided until the county gets the three checks about the end of the week. Recalculation funds were given to counties that had a student increase of more than five per cent during 1959. Seminole County had a 16.31 per cent increase.

Mrs. Gilbert said that the county school system usually expects some of these funds and may get more, possibly in three or four installments. The total amount earmarked for recalculation distribution by the cabinet was $2,521,132 but the rest of the money won't be given out until later. Thirty-six other counties got some of the funds. County Supt. R. T. Milwee was not available for comment since he and director of instruction Stewart Gatchell are at a state-county county superintendents' meeting in Gainesville.

Citrusmen Hear 'Glowing' Report

LAKELAND (UPI)—The Florida Citrus Commission heard a glowing report on the results of frozen concentrate advertising and also decided to allow the product to be mixed with canned juice in retail containers.

Vice President Frederic C. Berner of the Market Research Corporation of America reported to the commission that the campaign financed by 22 Florida concentrate last fall accounted for 80,000 new buyers from the first of September to the last of November.

Later, in dealing with another matter, the commission voted to allow concentrate to be added to single strength juice for canning. In the past, this has been forbidden. The action was taken at the urging of the Florida Citrus Assn.

The new regulation will be effective Saturday.

Kennedy Raps Ike's Methods

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Sen. John F. Kennedy today said today that next president must bring a "fighting mood" to the White House and not just issue "writing manifestoes . . . from the rear of the battle."

Without saying so specifically, the senator's criticism for the Democratic presidential nomination left little doubt that he felt he was the man for the job.

Government Sets Rocket Start

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The government today ordered an early start on ultra-powerful upper stages for the Saturn rocket designed for missions to the moon and planets.

The upper stages will be powered by liquid hydrogen and liquid oxygen, the most efficient rocket fuel yet developed. The Saturn, being built by the Army Ballistic Missile Agency at Huntsville, Ala., is an eight-engine booster capable of generating 1,500,000 pounds of thrust.

Here's Store With Shoes, Philosophy

By DICK WEST
WASHINGTON (UPI) — Franz Richey, as far as I know, runs the only philosophical shoe store in America.

The shoes I can't vouch for, having never been a Richey customer, but the philosophy seems sound enough. It falls into a category, or chain, somewhere between Schopenhauer and Edgar A. Guest.

Richey displays his philosophy along with his shoes in a shop window on 15th Street about a block from the White House. Passers-by can see it chalked on a blackboard over a pair of sturdy brown oxfords or black pumps.

If they pause for a moment, they can read such pithy messages as "The man who rows the boat seldom has time to row it."

Then they can go on about their business feeling uplifted, or perhaps sear.

Richey conceived the idea of imparting sidewalk philosophy to potential customers and the world at large about five years ago. He began the venture by investing a cent in a pocket-sized book of quotations, including such gems as "The less men think, the more they talk."

Almost before Richey could say "Aristotle," strangers started dropping into the store to nominate their own favorite axioms and maxims for appearance on the blackboard. Some even bought shoes.

Richey had to axe many of the axioms because they didn't meet the minimum for a maxim. For example, "Hate is a prolonged form of suicide" was rejected as unfit for shoe store philosophy.

But he soon acquired so many acceptable contributions, such as "People believe anything if you whisper it," that he was able to put away the quotation book and depend entirely on volunteers.

Even changing the blackboard message every week, he has enough entries to last for two years.

Harry Van Pelt, store manager who helps Richey select the philosophy of the week, said they were not wedded to any particular school of thought. They just let their fancy be their guide.

Possibly because of the store's proximity to the U.S. Treasury, they lean toward monetary themes — "Fun is like life insurance, the older you get, the more it costs." "A rich man is nothing but a poor man with money."

"Another favorite is the matrimonial maxim, "Why is it that success comes much faster to the man your wife almost married?" "One good thing about being married, you can't make a fool of yourself without knowing it."

Happiness Through Health
(By DR. F. LEO KERWIN)

Pains In Joints May Be Rheumatic Fever

The seriousness of rheumatic fever (inflammatory rheumatism), especially in children, cannot be overestimated. This time of the year when one is exposed to cold and dampness there is more danger of having the disease. The condition can start with a mild to a severe sore throat followed by very painful joints. The symptoms may be mild and go unnoticed. The danger here lies in that case that are not carefully cared for may develop a serious heart disease known as rheumatic endocarditis. Symptoms of the heart involvement may not show up until some time later.

After other methods have failed, many try Chiropractic as a last resort. Yet many of these more difficult cases get well. If any of the above symptoms occur, don't hesitate but call in a chiropractor immediately. Quick action may save a life or prevent a disabling heart.

One of a series of articles published in the public interest to explain and illustrate the practice of scientific Chiropractic, written by Dr. F. Leo Kerwin whose office is located at 261 E. French Ave. and his telephone number is FA 4745.

Golden Gate May Really Be Golden

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — The Golden Gate Bridge in San Francisco may have its color changed to gold.

The bridge is presently orange, but James Adam, its manager, has agreed to test a new paint for its resistance to sun and fog damage.

In 1917, when the Golden Gate Bridge was built, no gold paints were able to withstand corrosive elements. But now, Charles E. Cole of Harmon Colors says the pigment has been used successfully on automobiles and could be used on a bridge.

Because of the fact that we are moving from Florida, we recently advertised our home for sale in your paper.

The house was sold the night of the first day the ad ran, so the next day we requested that the ad be withdrawn. However, we not only were flooded with calls the day we sold the house, but for many days afterwards.

We want to express our appreciation to you for this service, and tell you that we think you have a fine newspaper in a fine town. It is indeed with regret that we leave Sanford.

Covington Covers Sports

By JERRY COVINGTON
Tonight is the night! The Seminoles have moved to the peak of the basketball season and their perfect 6-0 record will be at stake when they face the undefeated Winter Park Wildcats.

In pre-season predictions the Wildcats were highly touted in the Orange Bell Conference but there was little mention made about Sanford. For years they have battled to get out of the cellar but to no avail. But all this has changed this year. The Seminoles have come out to be a strong contender for the OBC title with an impressive record and tonight's game is rated as the best in central Florida.

The Wildcats have keyed their attack around big Mike Mosher who will be at the pivot spot. The husky youngsters, who has signed a football contract with the University of Florida, is barely over six feet but he is strong and aggressive. He is a great rebounder and fine shot so if the Seminoles can stop him, they should be able to take the tilt.

The Seminoles will be relying heavily upon high scoring Jim Gracey to pump in the points along with Ray Lundquist and Terry Christensen. Gracey is the leading scorer in the OBC with a 20 point per game average and Lundquist and Christensen are also established point makers.

Cowboy Oravatz will get the starting nod at the center spot and it will be up to him to top Mosher in the rebounding department. This is probably the key to the game.

Since playing conditions are so poor at the local gym, the Seminoles have scheduled several of their games on the road. Both of the games with the Wildcats are scheduled in Winter Park and tonight's game goes to Sanford, so plan now to make the trip and support this fine ball team.

The Wildcats are very tough but, as for me, I'm going with the Seminoles. Their overall speed and the new fire that they displayed, should carry them a long way.

SEC To Consider 2 More Entries

BLOXNI, Miss. (UPI) — The Southeastern Conference was to decide today whether to open its doors to two more teams, but it appeared virtually certain the proposal would be rejected.

Presidents, or their representatives, from the 12 colleges in the conference were to meet in closed session to consider the expansion request and several other, mostly non-controversial, items on the agenda.

The session was expected to be completed late this afternoon ending the annual winter meeting of SEC coaches, athletic directors and presidents.

University of Florida proposed that the conference be expanded to include two teams, Florida State and the University of Miami. But the coaches and athletic directors voted against it in closed session Thursday.

The expansion could be accomplished by constitutional amendment, requiring approval of three-fourths of the schools.

SEC Commissioner Bernie Moore pointed out to the coaches and athletic directors have no official say in the voting, but it was unlikely any of the schools would go against the wishes of its athletic staff.

Kentucky Athletic Director Bernie Shively was to present the feelings of his group to the presidents.

Subjects also to be considered today included: Postponement of the date for the annual winter meeting by one week to avoid conflict with committee meetings of the National Collegiate Athletic Assn.

A change in the dates of the annual SEC track meet from the third Saturday in May to the Friday and Saturday nearest May 15.

Setting March 1 as the earliest signing date for grants-in-aid to high school basketball players.

Raise football officials' pay from $100 to $125 a game.

Raise basketball officials' pay from $64 to $75 a game.

Donate $6,000 of the SEC treasury, with credit for $500 from each school, to the Olympic games.

A rule against institutions announcing the intent of high school players to attend the schools before grants-in-aid are signed.

KC Track Meet Slated Tonight

BOSTON (UPI) — The second to competition of high jumper John Thomas in Friday night's Knights of Columbus track meet at the Garden is expected to more than offset the absence of miler Ron Delany.

Delany won't make the first major meet of the 1960 indoor season—and probably none of the others to follow—because of an ailing Achilles tendon. However, it's believed the Dublin, Ireland, runner, who holds the indoor record with a 4:01.2 1,000, is staying out on purpose to train for the Olympics at Rome next summer.

But the 18-year-old Thomas, winding up his freshman year at Boston University, should pack 'em into the 34th K of C meet.

Nation's Two Remaining Unbeaten Cage Teams Face Rough Weekend

By United Press International
California's NCAA champions face two easy week-end games beginning Friday night while the nation's only two remaining unbeaten major college fives prepare for week-end games that could leave the country without a perfect record team.

California (12-1) takes on Washington State (7-8) tonight and Washington Saturday night in what shapes up as a routine set for the Darrall Imhoff-led Bears. It could even be a week

Jordan Slated To Defend Title

NEW YORK (UPI) — Welterweight champion Don Jordan of Los Angeles has agreed to defend his title against ex-champion Carmen Basilio at the Syracuse (N.Y.) Auditorium, June 10, promoter Norman Rothchild announced today.

Rothchild added that Basilio of Chiltonago, N. Y., has tentatively agreed to the fight.

Jordan agreed, the promoter explained, because he is getting 35 per cent of all net receipts. Rothchild expects a gross gate of $175,000. He said a television fee of $75,000 already has been guaranteed.

Attorney Says Interests Hold Up New League

NEW YORK (UPI) — Attorney William A. Shea of New York charged today that completion of the Continental League's eight-team circuit is being delayed by "organized baseball interests" who oppose the formation of a third major league.

"Something's going on that's slowing things down just as things went on in Dallas-Fort Worth and Minneapolis during our negotiations," said Shea. "Some people apparently are trying to stop formation of a Buffalo franchise in the new league—and it seems to me those people could come only from organized baseball."

Shea said the delays have rekindled interest in Montreal as the Continental League's eighth franchise and added, "Commissioner Ford Frick may or may not know about these pressures but it certainly is something he should investigate."

McCovey Gets Big Pay Boost From Giants; Other Signings

Willie McCovey picked up a "World Series share" today, which is quite a trick considering the San Francisco Giants never got in it.

McCovey's "share" was in the form of a $5,000 pay boost that will bring his salary in the neighborhood of $12,000 for 1960.

"The Giants were very kind to me," said the 22-year-old first baseman. "They gave me a good deal."

McCovey, who almost led the Giants into the World Series with his sensational slugging, certainly earned it.

Called up from Phoenix of the Pacific Coast League on July 30, McCovey broke in with four hits in his first game against the Phillies. Two triples were included.

He finished the season with a .358 average in 52 games, hitting 13 homers and driving in 34 runs to win the National League's Rookie of the Year Award hands down.

Along with McCovey, who is ticketed to play first base again next season, the Giants also announced the signing of 21-year-old southpaw Mike McCormick.

The Milwaukee Braves announced the signing of three of their players, making a total of six under contract so far. Latest signees were first baseman Frank Torre and rookie pitchers Tony Diaz and Dennis Overby.

The Chicago Cubs added eight signed players within a 24-hour period and now have a total of 30 under contract.

Infielders Jerry Kindall and Sam Drake, outfielders Billy Williams and Lou Johnson and catcher Moe Thacker all agreed to terms with the Cubs shortly after they had also satisfied catcher Earl Averill Jr. and pitchers Seth Morehead and Ben Johnson.

Two new members of the Cleveland Indians — Bubba Phillips and John (Honey) Romano — want more money than they have been offered and General Manager Frank Lane said they'll get it.

"I'm in sympathy with them," Lane said. "I offered both a boost the first time but have added a little more now. I don't anticipate any trouble."

Hope's Alaska Show Is Same Old Face

By FRED DANZIG
NEW YORK (UPI) — Perhaps it's still a little early in the year for a Christmas TV show, but I think it's safe to assume that Wednesday night's Bob Hope holiday show is going to hold us at least until November.

The NBC-TV hour offered a familiar TV ritual: Filmed footage of Hope's annual Yuletide trek to American military bases. This time, his traveling companions—besides Jerry Colonna and Frances Langford — included Jayne Mansfield, Nellie Adams and Steve McQueen.

Because we've seen this sort of show so many years, it has become something like watching "Amahl and the Night Visitors" on TV. We know just what to expect.

The major sketches Wednesday night found Hope and McQueen portraying Japanese soldiers ignorant of the war's end and the entire troupe in a turnabout sketch about sailor girls out on the town. The jokes dealt with glib, crazy servicemen, Army show, the weather — it's cold in Alaska — airplanes, girls and officers, just as they've been doing for the past 20 years.

Yet, while Hope's service format remains unchanged, unassuming and often unimpaired, I don't want it to go unappreciated. The show still manages to convey a warmth and a satisfied feeling because — well, let's face it — you can't knock a routine that brings laughter to lonely men. Even if the lighting is bad, the sound is poor and the camera work one-dimensional, we forget that this is a TV show and regard it as a public affairs document.

One thing about CBS-TV's Steel Hour: When they put on a comedy adaptation by Bob Van Scoyk, we can expect some good laughs along with some odd situations.

Wednesday night, it was "Queen of the Orange Bowl," a Van Scoyk adaptation of a Roger Squire play, starring Johnny Carson and Anne Francis. Miss Francis played a loony gal trying to lead Carson away from his mom's apron strings.

The highlight came when Miss Francis, while visiting Carson's mother with him, arranged for

Quotable Quotes

United Press International
WASHINGTON — Sen. J. F. Kennedy, Democratic presidential hopeful, alluding in a speech to a recent controversy over parts played by his father and Vice President Richard M. Nixon in settlement of the steel strike: "I would have brought my father today, but he's out in Chicago settling the railroad strike."

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. — Lorenzo McCall who refused to testify against a cohort in a narcotics case: "I refuse to testify on the ground that it might tend (sic) to intimidate (sic) me."

MIAMI — Robert M. Bader, Miami attorney who served a term in a reformatory as a boy for car theft and now campaigns to cure juvenile delinquency: "I'm not proud that I was in reform school, but I'm grateful for the experience."

Railroad Merger Derails Pet Dog

VICTORIA, Va. (UPI) — Merging the Norfolk and Western and Virginian Railroads has forced a pet dog to change a habit of 12 years.

The dog, a pet of Virginian workers, used to be between the rails but ahead of the chugging engine for locomotive pulling in here to change crews.

But somebody forgot to tell the pooch that trains wouldn't be stopping there any more. The day after the two lines combined, an angry worker called N&W General Superintendent W. S. Clement to tell him:

"You've got to do something about our dog. This morning one of your fast freights came through here at 80 miles an hour and nearly killed him."

The pet was tied up after that.

Heavy Attack Squadron Returns Home After Cruise

Heavy attack Squadron VAH-1 returned to Sanford today from a two-week deployment aboard the USS Independence.

In addition to conducting carrier landing practices and ship based radar scored bombing missions, VAH-1, as a component of Carrier Air Group Seven, participated in "Operation Highwire", a strike exercise in which the independence based air group made simulated strikes against targets on the east coast.

Another exercise conducted by the air group was a simulated raid against the Second Fleet. President Eisenhower's Limited War Panel came aboard the Independence Jan. 10. The Panel observed the nuclear and conventional weapons capabilities of carrier based aircraft in two fire power demonstrations staged by the air group Monday and Tuesday. VAH-1 demonstrated the loft method of nuclear weapons delivery, low level aerial mining, and low level conventional weapons delivery.

Seminole High To Participate In 'Project Talent'

Seminole High will be one of about 1,000 United States schools to join in "Project Talent" this March.

The two day tests will aim at a national survey of high school students aptitudes and adaptabilities. Besides trying to find out what talents our teenagers have, the tests will try to find what abilities and interests are best suited to different college courses and careers.

Sea Drama At Movieland Sunday

"The Wreck of the Mary Deare" starring Gary Cooper and Charlton Heston comes to the Movieland Drive-In Sunday.

The "Mary Deare" is a powerful drama of conflict and suspense set against the spectacular backdrop of storm-swept seas, shipwreck, mutiny and murder.

Others in the cast include Emyln Williams and Alexander Knox.

The other feature on the program is "Ask Any Girl", starring Shirley McLaine and David Niven.

On Thursday and Friday "Beloved Infidel" and "5 Gates To Hell" will play. Three features will highlight Saturday's attraction. The three are "The Buccaneer", "La Parisienne" and "Top Gun."

Marathon Race Highlights Dog Track Action

Sanford greyhound enthusiasts who like those long encounters will be on hand for tonight's 10th race at Sanford-Orlando Kennel Club, a Grade-T (mixed) three-eight-mile contest including some of the finest distance specialists.

The fast marathon race will be the highlight of a swift 10-race program opening at 8:10.

Favored to nab laurels in the 10th is Willing Widow, who drew the fourth starting position. Also highly regarded is the hot nightcap Get Shocked.

In the featured ninth race, O. R.'s Medium is considered best by meeting late odds of 5-to-2. The 62-pound reddish-tinted mis is making her second start with an after posting a 31.39-second clocking over the five-sixteenth-mile course. She's also placed once in four starts against top competition at the local speed circuit.

Another top bound in the headlining 10th is the 62-pound 3-to-4 shot by early figures. This 7-pounder gets the popular (web) for the feature.

Also in the ninth are Jerry Lane, Elegant Miss, Reggel's Joy, Ed's Money, Chip, Artistry and Rocky McGinty.

Young Gladie, probably the best pup to ever appear at the local club, is slated in tomorrow's 10th race on the mallines slate. Ed's Silver Pully is rated favorite of the afternoon's Grade-A 1/4 mile races. Action will start at 3 p. m.

Ike Sends Congress Giant Spending Program Budget

Urges New Postal Hike

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Eisenhower sent Congress today a "pay our own way" budget geared to the biggest tax collection year in history and the fastest Treasury surplus since 1948.

He proposed a $79,816,000,000 spending program which envisioned —

- A boom year for business and personal income.
- No tax cut this year, but a $4,184,000,000 surplus he hoped could pave the way for tax relief later — possibly in 1961.
- A new half-cent a gallon boost in gasoline taxes.
- New postal rate increases including a five-cent letter and an eight-cent airmail stamp.
- Doubled space spending with a hope of rocketing the first American into space in 1961.
- A $4 billion dollar defense program, with the accent shifting to missiles.

In the teeth of a Democratic Congress in an election-year mood to expand programs, Eisenhower proposed whittling a number of federal social welfare activities.

He phrased his philosophy this way:

"I believe our people have the determination to meet expenditures in check, to pay their own way without borrowing from their children, to choose wisely among priorities, and to match sound public policy with private initiative."

Here is how the budget for the 1961 government bookkeeping year that begins July 1 stacks up against estimated spending in the current 1960 year, in billions of dollars:

| | | |
|----------|------|------|
| Receipts | 1960 | 1961 |
| Spending | 78.6 | 84.0 |
| Surplus | 78.4 | 78.8 |
| Deficit | 0.2 | 4.2 |

Biggest single spending item is defense — $41 billion dollars.

The national objective — "peace with justice for all peoples."

"Our hope," the President said, "is that the heavy burden of armaments on the world may be lightened."

"But we should not delude ourselves. In this era of nuclear weapons and intercontinental missiles disarmament must be safeguarded and verifiable. The problems in achieving this... are tremendous. Yet we must face up to these problems for the only alternative is a world living on the edge of disaster."

Health Center Gets OK

The Florida Development Commission and Public Health Department today gave their approval for the construction of the new $100,000 health center on French Ave.

Architect John Burton reported this morning that bids on the project will be opened Feb. 16 at 8 p. m. in the courthouse and work will start within two weeks after the bid letting.

The health center will be located between Eighth and Ninth Sts. on Hwy. 17-92.

The county's new health director, Dr. Clyde Brothers will be on hand for the bid opening.

Brothers was named to the $8,500 a year post by the board of county commissioners at their meeting last week.

State Governor's Race 'Thickens'

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — Senate President Dewey Johnson and Ku Klux Klan leader Bill Hendrix are expected to announce for governor this week bringing the field for the Democratic primary to 10.

Two former state house speakers, C. Ferris Bryant of Ocala and Ted David of Hollywood, announced their candidacy Saturday.

Johnson, of Quincy, has said he will declare his intentions Wednesday or Thursday. Friends have predicted he will run. Hendrix, of Ocala, said he will announce his candidacy at a Klan rally in Arcadia Saturday.

Others who had announced for governor before the weekend were State Sen. Doyle E. Carlton Jr. of Wausatch, Fred O. Dickinson of West Palm Beach, Harvie Belser of Bonifay, former circuit judge John McCarty of Fort Pierce, Jacksonville Mayor Hy-Gon Burns, and the Rev. George A. Downs, Winter Park.

Winter Festival Slated Feb. 6

Plans for the All-Souls Catholic Church Winter Festival will be discussed at a meeting of committee chairman tonight at 7:30 at the new parish house.

Committee chairman for this year's festival to be held Feb. 6 are Mrs. Helen Constantine, Robert Cremer and Betty Callan.

Board To View Plans For Jail

Winter Park architect James Gamble Rogers will present plans for the new county jail to the County Commission tomorrow.

Gamble, who conducted a preliminary study on county jail needs early last year, was selected by the board to submit plans in contract form.

Cost of the jail is expected to be approximately $700,000.

The commission also will select a board of medical examiners for the county at its regular meeting tomorrow.

Arson Hinted As County Hit By Rash Of Fires

Fires raged throughout the county over the weekend and arson is suspected in two of them.

Casselberry Mayor W. M. Benson said town marshal Gus Sawyer suspects arson in two Casselberry fires that flared up about 11 a. m. and 2:30 p. m. Saturday. Sawyer is still investigating their cause.

Flames roared 70 feet high in the Casselberry fire Saturday afternoon. The blaze between Seminole Blvd. and Sunset Dr. burned 14 acres of woodland and smoke billows were visible 10 miles away. Six fire trucks from Longwood, Altamonte Springs and Casselberry fought the blaze which scorched half the tall pines in the area.

Ranger Robert Leverett said the blaze was one of the hottest he had ever fought. Several times the flames jumped a 30 yard swath.

No sooner was this fire under control than Casselberry's fire truck rushed across 17-92 where another column of smoke was rising.

While these two fires were going on a Lake Mary Fire Dept. crew was stamping out another four acre fire-up on 17-96 just behind Movieland Drive-in. The Lake Mary volunteers earlier answered two calls on brush fires which burned about two acres in Ravenna Park.

Leverett came to the Casselberry fire after fighting a blaze that burned about 30 acres near Forest City. Leverett said he knew children set Wilt Bro. County ranger Robert Gray also put out a three acre fire on Highway 46 Saturday.

High winds and dry vegetation spread flames over 20 acres south of Longwood's Markham Rd. Sunday. Forest rangers fought the blaze with a tractor and water tanker. They are still investigating the cause.

Missing Boys Found By Deputy

Two boys reported missing from Oakland Shores Sunday were picked up by a deputy who remembered seeing the boys and their dog.

Deputy L. J. Kris got the description of Gary Garoche, 677 Magnolia Ave., and Leo McIntosh, Highland Ave., both 9 1/2.

Kris remembered seeing the advertisement three times on route 17-98 near the Movieland Drive-In. He drove out and picked them up near Ocala.

Lake Mary Gets New Reporter

Mrs. Birger Wester will replace Mrs. Ida May Johnson as Lake Mary correspondent for The Sanford Herald.

Mrs. Wester, who received journalism training while attending school in Lakeland has been a resident of Lake Mary for the past six years.

Mrs. Johnson resigned as correspondent due to business demands.

Lake Mary residents with news items are asked to call Mrs. Wester at FA 5-2834.

The Florida Symphony Orchestra under the direction of Henry Mazer will conduct two concerts in Sanford tomorrow.

Mazer was conductor of the W. Va. Symphony for 11 years. He will lead the orchestra in a youth concert at the civic center at 3:45 p. m. and "pop" concert at 8:15.

Both concerts are jointly sponsored by the Sanford-DeBary Entertainment Assn. and the City Recreation Department.

The Florida Symphony Concert tickets are the only reserve tickets available. Mutual concert tickets will be honored at the door but will not give the Mazer holder a reserved seat.

Chester Renick, co-chairman of the Entertainment association also announced today that members of the group will elect officers for 1960 at the concert Tuesday night.

Other programs to be presented by the entertainment association will be the Rollins Players Feb. 3 and the Joan Green dance company, Mar. 25.

At the evening concert tomorrow, the orchestra will play a varied selection of classical and semi-classical works ranging from Orléans to Mozart.

Florida Symphony Conductor Henry Mazer
