That Summer Afternoon

I'll never forget the day we took this picture. The sun was shining brightly and we'd gone for a ride in the country, my husband Tom, Thelma and I. We came to this field full of daisies and we stopped, and I braided a crown of flowers for Thelma's head. She was wearing a brand new dress and she had a new little parasol too. I thought she looked like just about the happiest and prettiest little girl alive.

How thankful I was! For our Thelma had just weathered her first serious illness, and for several weeks there had been days and nights of incredible anxiety and heart-rending prayer.

Now, watching Thelma in her new-found health, I thought of our church. Not only our minister, but members of the congregation, people whom I scarcely knew, had rallied to our side during Thelma's illness.

Just having them — just knowing that they were adding their prayers to ours, had meant so much. And now, I knew, they were sharing our jubilation.

How sorry I feel for people who don't go to church. For they miss one of life's great truths — the knowledge that if you have the Church, you can never again be alone.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL - ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are few sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Let us go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

The Sanford Herald

Zip Code 32771

WEATHER: Fair through Tuesday except for local thundershowers; high today 88-93; low tonight in 70s.

VOL. 56 United Press Lensed Wire Established 1908 MONDAY, AUGUST 8, 1964 SANFORD, FLORIDA NO. 247

Jaycee membership chairman Tommy Speer has come up with a first rate prize for the winner of the Jaycee membership drive. It's a three day all expense paid trip to the West Inn in the Bahamas, for two. A prize to be coveted, and we predict there is going to be a lot of new faces in Jaycees soon. Deadline is Aug. 31.

About 25 guests joined the Jaycees Thursday to see the space film on John Glenn's flight and our space race. It is a very thrilling film and was secured for the Jaycees by Dr. Kenneth Wing, who was formerly John Glenn's personal physician. Dr. Wing also showed the film for the Civitan Club Thursday night.

Day students at the Sanford Naval Academy were guests at a pool party at the school last week, enjoying a refreshing swim and a supper of hot dogs and all the trimmings. There is no vacation for Col. Furman and the school staff, who are hard at work preparing for next year. In true Navy tradition, everything that doesn't move is being painted.

If you plan to attend the Jaycee luncheon panel discussion on the waterfront development plan Thursday, don't forget to call Mrs. Chapman at Jaycee office and make a luncheon reservation.

"Man's best friend" has found an active friend in the Sanford area. A DeLand woman, Mrs. Ruth G. Beaudette, has been reading of the plight of area dogs discarded by their owners and has offered to help in formation of a local Humane Society should the interest be found here. She's president of the Animal Rescue League, 218 S. High St., DeLand, and asks those willing to get the ball rolling to contact her.

A popular Sanford Naval Air Station captain of yesterday, Capt. James D. Ramage, has been relieved of command of the USS Independence, a Forrestal-class carrier, and assigned as staff commander of the Naval Air Force, Atlantic Fleet, in Norfolk, Va. Capt. Ramage last visited here in March for the 10th annual Bombing Derby.

Successing him as C. O. of the Independence is Capt. R. W. Windsor. Ceremonies were held Friday morning aboard the carrier which is tied up at Norfolk. Capt. Ramage was commanding officer of Heavy Attack Wing One at the local station from June, 1958 to 1960. Incidentally, the Forrestal is home away from home for members of VAIL of Sanford.

New students in the Sanford area who plan to attend Seminole High School in the 10th, 11th or 12th grades this fall should report to the school Thursday at 8:30 a.m. This is only for students who have not been previously scheduled in classes.

Meeting Delayed
North Orlando Village Council announced today that because of vacation and previous business commitments there will be no council member quorum available on Tuesday, Aug. 4, for the monthly council meeting. The meeting will be called at a later date.

Apopka Shot
An Apopka man identified as David Smith was shot in the left shoulder over the weekend in a South Seminole skirmish with another Apopkan, Corrado Travino, and was treated at an Orlando hospital.

7th Fleet Patrol Of Red China, North Viet Nam Coasts Pushed

PETITIONS WERE PRESENTED at the Registrar's Office in the courthouse for an election of freeholders in the Lake Monroe area to set up a fire district. The campaign is being staged by the newly-formed Westside Volunteer Fire Department. More than 200 signatures are to be checked prior to placing the issue on the November ballot. Accepting the petitions is Mrs. Camilla Bruce, county registrar. Presenting it are, from left, Drew Warren, Nathan Stripling and George Bell, department president. (Herald Photo)

Waterfront Development :

It's City's Move

How did the marina complex plan come about and why was it proposed?

This honest question deserves an honest answer.

The executives of Sanford's three major financial institutions began to realize that the economic situation in the downtown area was in a serious state of affairs and easily could become critical.

So these financial leaders did something that highly competitive firms normally do not do.

They banded together and made a joint study of the general economic situation in this area, decided that the development of the city's lakefront properties was the answer and then went about looking into the aspects of financing such a venture.

This latter study revealed that for approximately $500,000 in a capital outlay program, a marina complex which would accommodate 200 pleasure craft could be made a reality. The expenditure — as far as the City is concerned — could be financed out of franchise fees received from the Florida Power & Light Company.

These funds are already earmarked for capital outlay purposes.

The studies made by these financial institutions revealed that if the City would develop the piers, the land fill, the bulkheads and supports, other facilities would follow.

This was not a guess. They employed a representative who called on major hotel and motel executives and heads of major oil companies — the same corporations who have placed facilities at salt water marinas in other areas of the state and nation.

All of them expressed a definite interest. One major motel developer has already flown to Sanford to discuss not only if they would build a motel but HOW BIG an operation would be needed.

Local financial leaders are more confident than ever that if the City will build the marina the rest of the facilities will be leased immediately by major corporate interests, perhaps before construction is completed.

And they are convinced that this project will make Sanford a major fresh water attraction for its share of the nearly 500,000 boatmen in Florida alone, not to mention the hundreds of thousands of boaters from other states.

But this isn't all. Downtown business firms need to spruce up their stores. This was pointed out in a recent series of articles in The Herald. Some merchants have expressed concern. The local banks have devised a plan whereby tenants and property owners can finance redecoration of exteriors and interiors.

But unless such a program can be supported by the City's willingness to make a capital outlay expenditure to motivate downtown business the financing of remodeling programs is not feasible.

Therefore, future renovation of the downtown area depends upon a capital outlay expansion program.

The Herald is convinced that the time has come for the City Commission to display spirit and aggressiveness in approving the expenditure of whatever funds are necessary to make Sanford a marine attraction which we have already shown will revitalize business in the downtown section and make this area the inland marine capital of Florida.

Will this affect the city tax structure? Since the City's $500,000 expenditure will be repaid from Florida Power and Light Company franchise fees, the marina project will have nothing at all to do with ad valorem taxes.

Further, the fees from the private power facility are already pledged by the City for capital improvements.

Due to the decrease in business volume the County recently authorized reassessment of downtown business properties. Downtown values, the reassessment revealed, were depreciating rapidly and adjustments were needed.

The marina facility, financial and business leaders agree, will stop this downward trend.

This is no attempt to downgrade downtown Sanford business property values. But it's a matter of record that business men asked for relief due to diminishing sales. As a result, the City has been studying reassessment of downtown properties for about a year.

One Commissioner recently said that he thought the City should use the County's assessment rolls to determine municipal assessment values.

We imagine it is true that — in one sense of the word — the marina project could affect city taxes.

One last point in this series. The Herald talked to these financial leaders, the bankers especially. We wanted to know whether they thought enough of their own plan to provide the financing.

The answer was yes. This convinces us. Now, it is the City Commission's turn to display the confidence they have in themselves and in their judgment.

Now, it is up to them to act!

Sanford's Proposed Budget Balanced Without Burden

By Dottie Austin
City Editor

A balanced proposed budget, requiring nearly $5,000 less than last year, yet providing for progress, improvements and capital expenditures on a cash basis, was completed and sent to the City Commissioners today by City Manager W. E. Knowles.

Total of the proposed budget is $1,291,863. Included is a debt payment of $317,063, which is double the provisions made ten years ago.

In presenting the 1964-65 budget Knowles commented, "This is one of the strangest ever received, in that it is balanced; requires less money than last year; requires no millage change or overall revaluations; yet provides for progress, improvements and capital expenditures on a cash basis."

"The remarkable improvement in the City of Sanford's financial position has been given notice and brought favorable comment from bankers, fiscal agents and others in the field of finance," Knowles noted in his report, which accompanied the budget proposal.

Over $177,000 of requested improvement projects are included in the proposed budget, indicating a year of major development for Sanford, with a street construction program in Goldboro area totalling more than the combined city-wide programs for the last five years.

Among the improvement items listed for next year are the following provisions:

Air-conditioning of the library and the living quarters of the Central Fire Station;

Funds for engineering fees for preliminary work on the lake front development plan;

Extending city-owned street lights on Hwy. 17-92 to Onora Rd., pending annexation;

The position of tax assessor added to the finance office;

Construction and lighting of a baseball field at Pinehurst Park on W. 24th St.;

Two more firemen;

Supplemental instructors in the year-round recreation program;

Renovation of finance office and commissioners conference room;

Electrical circuits for Merchants Division Christmas lighting decorations;

Construction of W. 13th St. and city-county project to rebuild S. Southwest Rd.;

Resurfacing of seven and a half miles of existing pavements;

Purchase of a truck-tractor unit in the street division;

Replacement of large refuse pumper;

Providing private payments on three leased owned downtown parking lots;

Perpetual care funds on cemetery lots;

Canopy over sidewalk from First St. to Commercial Ave. on parking lot walkway;

City to assume expense of preparing grounds at stadium for football season with partial repayment from schools.

Redevelopment of the Sanford lakefront will be discussed by the Sanford Merchants Association when it meets Tuesday at 3 p. m. in the Seminole Chamber of Commerce Building.

B. L. Perkins, association chairman, asks a full turnout so "we may have an expression from a majority of our members."

Kennedy 'Glad' To Campaign For LBJ

BOSTON (UPI) — Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy, but added that "no determination" had been made on his specific role.

Kennedy talked with newsmen outside New England Baptist Hospital here following a 2 1/2 hour visit with his younger brother, Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass., who is recuperating from a broken back suffered in a June 10 plane crash at Southampton.

Asked to comment on President Johnson's decision to eliminate him as a running mate, Kennedy said: "I think the people understand the convention would want to have the President's choice. No one runs for vice president."

The attorney general also brushed aside the possibility that he might consider running for the U.S. Senate in New York state.

"I have nothing to add to my statement of six weeks ago," Kennedy said in reference to a statement last June 23 that he would not be a senatorial candidate from any state.

Firemen Answer 2 Weekend Calls

City firemen responded to two alarms over the weekend, both fires occurring in bedrooms.

Lightning struck a wire leading to a radio in the bedroom of the home of Mrs. D. L. Thrasher, 424 Grandview Ave., Saturday at 3:53 p.m. The radio exploded, firemen said, and set fire to a bed. Damage was reported heavy but confined to the bedroom.

Protests Heard On Assessments

Persons seeking relief from taxes assessed on their properties were heard this morning by the County Commission sitting as a Board of Equalization.

About 10 persons filed requests for a re-study of their taxes and the board members took each under advisement. The board was checking the tax assessor's chart this afternoon and will reconvene Tuesday morning for formal action on the requests.

Commission Chairman James P. Avery said properties needing an on-sight inspection of the board would receive it today so that the information will be available at tomorrow's meeting.

Group Hears Discussion On Smoking

Dr. Wing told a joint assembly of Junior, intermediate, young people and adults that cigarette smoking is a major cause of lung cancer. He explained that lung cancer is a respiratory disease and strikes many more cigarette smokers than non-smokers. "Recent studies show that cigarette smoking is a factor in such crippling lung diseases as chronic bronchitis and emphysema," Dr. Wing said. "In emphysema, the lungs lose their elasticity and hold in too much air. Victims endure a daily struggle to keep their lungs working," Dr. Wing explained and emphasized that more and more Americans are being crippled or killed by this disease.

Flight May Be In Vain

In addition to hearing Dr. Wing's talk, the more than 100 persons at the assembly saw slides on smoking and health shown by Mrs. Graham.

Double Ranger Attempt To Probe Mars Set For November

PASADENA, Calif. (UPI) — American scientists today announced plans for a double attempt to probe the secrets of Mars, where some form of life might exist. Scientists at California Institute of Technology (Caltech) here were jubilant over last Friday's success of Ranger 7 in hitting the moon and sending back 4,316 television pictures of the lunar surface. Their triumph in capturing the first close-up pictures of the moon's face, spurred plans for sending two unmanned spacecraft—Mariners 3 and 4—more than 60 million miles on a fly-by mission of the red planet in November.

The Talent Show held at Longwood Elementary School Monday as part of the summer recreation program was enthusiastically received by the approximately 50 students attending. Five acts were awarded ribbons.

Lester Dorne, Richard McGough, Danny McGough and Alvin Dorne, who pantomimed "I Want to Hold Your Hand" and "She Loves You," were presented with two ribbons as the most professional and the best prepared. Props used in their performance included two guitars, a foil-wrapped drum made of a cardboard box on a pole mounted in a Christmas tree stand and two microphones made of wood and foil.

Others given ribbons, and their routines, were Lynn Anne and Mark Stevens who presented a duet of "May Day," best performance; Patty See for her rendition of "Take Me Out to the Ball Game," most original. There-

High government sources said the Mars expedition by the identical Mariners also might have military implications. They would not elaborate on this.

Plans called for the Mariners to be launched within a few days of each other in November.

Two Mariners would still be travelling through space on their eight month long missions when scientists launch Ranger 8.

Ranger 8 will be a repeat of Ranger 7, except it will aim at a different target on the moon. Ranger 8 is expected to be hurled aloft on its four-day 228,000-mile mission early next year.

Ranger 9 will follow. This is to be the last shot in the lunar-picturing-taking program, budgeted at about $270 million, and aimed at preparing for landing astronauts on the moon by 1970.

Persistent Pawnshops

A sign of the times is the announcement that proprietors of pawnshops in New York City are concerned over their public image and are going all out to improve it.

For the benefit of the more affluent, a pawnshop—or hock shop, to use the cruder term—is a place where a man in need of a little ready cash can take a personal possession of marketable value and deposit it as security for a quick loan.

If the borrower fails to repay the loan on time, he loses whatever he left as security. And the impression has prevailed that pawnbrokers can be quite insistent on punctual payment.

The New York pawnshop people have hired a public relations counselor to help dispel such notions and to class up the business. To this end, they are even considering fancying up the traditional pawnshop symbol of three golden balls—a centuries-old signal to the financially broke that "here it is, come get it."

It is nice to know that businessmen such as the pawnbrokers want to serve their customers to the limit. But you have to wonder if they may not be unduly concerned over their public image.

Anyone entering a pawnshop to get a few bucks probably is more interested in cash than in charm. And as for the opinions of those too rich to need pawnshop service—to hock with 'em.

Warren Stifling News?

WASHINGTON, D. C. — Down in Dallas, a lone reporter and a friend of mine, Hugh Aynesworth, has fired a shot of warning across the bows of the Warren Commission.

He is telling the board, headed by Chief Justice Warren, to come clean with all its information on President Kennedy's assassination—or be exposed as a news manager. Anything that the commission emits, Aynesworth will publish.

Nothing is more salutary in public affairs than for the press to know more than Congress, a court or a commission wants it to know. The Warren group has been taking a multiplicity of testimony, but has been releasing only what it decides to release. Even if its motives are pure, the methods are suspect. The chief justice has a reputation for rendering decisions that fit his preconceptions.

Aynesworth writes me that he has been conducting a parallel investigation of testimony, affidavits and ballistic reports. There is circumstantial evidence which strongly suggests that the reporter has a news source inside or near the commission. He is positioned to wield a whip hand over the most portentous investigation in American history.

Aynesworth recently startled the commission with a story that was based on a hitherto unpublished journal kept by Lee Harvey Oswald, the alleged presidential assassin, while in Russia. Oswald's own words show him in his vacillating loyalty, swinging to the Communists, and then swinging back to his native country. When he was pro-Russian, he took money from the Soviet secret police. When he was pro-American, he was able to raise money for homework passage at the American Embassy.

Because Aynesworth's articles are copyrighted by his paper, the wire services have used them charily. Some of his revelations have not reached other parts of the country, but he has sent them to him in full form. One of his dispatches cites a source "close to the Warren Commission" saying that the FBI knew Oswald to be a potential assassin. An FBI agent is quoted as telling the Dallas police on November 22nd:

"We knew he was capable of assassinating the President, but we didn't dream he would do it."

Since the FBI is almost sacrosanct in Washington officialdom and in the capital press, any criticism of its security methods is unusual, and yet of prime importance in reconstructing the tragedy and the mind of the alleged killer. In an exclusive interview with Mrs. Marina Oswald, the alleged killer's widow, Aynesworth tells of Oswald brandishing a pistol before his wife and saying:

"I am going to see Richard Nixon."

Aynesworth gives the story significance by noting the incident took place only a few days after Oswald had slunk from ambush at General Walker, whom Oswald termed "a Fascist" and compared with Hitler. The reporter highlights the threat to Nixon by noting that shortly before it was made, the Dallas Morning News printed bold headlines on a story:

"Nixon Calls for Declaration To Force Reds Out Of Cuba."

Cuba's Castro was Oswald's Communist "hero." As an avid newspaper reader, Oswald may have seen the headline. He may have seen a similar story on the same day in which Castro was blasted by Governor Connally, who was wounded by the same gun that slew President Kennedy.

The mind of the alleged killer comes into focus in these detailed stories. It looks like the same picture of a hate-driven, politically-radical Leftist which is emerging from the small amount of news put out by the Warren Commission. If the full report follows the expected line, Oswald will be shown as a homicidal maniac, a notorious hound, Communist-oriented but not Communist-believing for the cruel deed it is believed he performed.

The Warren Commission has invited skepticism because it has worked very much in secret, perhaps necessarily so. If its account jibes with that of Aynesworth's independent research, credibility will be added to its findings. If the Warren reports, which is due within a matter of days or weeks, does not coincide with the reporter's findings, there will be some explaining to do. It is a healthful situation of check and double-check.

Study In Semantics

UPI Foreign News Analyst Webster's dictionary defines semantics as a study of word meanings.

In Washington last week the 20 members of the Organization of American States (OAS) wrestled with a delicate problem in semantics.

At one and the same time they sought to condemn Cuba for aggression against Venezuela, but in such language as not to offend at least four of the members opposed to decisive action and without revealing a deep split within the organization.

The result was certain to be satisfactory to no one, except possibly to Fidel Castro.

An interesting accompanying fact was that among the 20 there was not one but that agreed that Communist Cuba had indeed committed aggression against Venezuela.

This occurred last fall when the Cubans landed a three-ton cache of arms on a lonely Venezuelan beach to assist Communist efforts to overthrow the regime of President Romulo Betancourt.

Venezuela is demanding mandatory sanctions against Cuba, including a break in diplomatic relations, suspension of all trade except for food and medicines and suspension of all communications by land, sea or air.

To do less, according to the Venezuelans, would be to make a mockery of hemispheric solidarity as defined in the 1945 "Act of Chapultepec" and strengthened in the "Rio Treaty" of 1947, the "Declaration of Washington"

In 1951 and the "Caracas Doctrine" of 1954.

The last two specifically declared against international communism as a concept incompatible with American freedoms.

Since Castro's rise to power on New Year's Day, 1959, four attempts have been made to deal with the Cuban problem on a basis of hemispheric solidarity.

Although the American states were shaken by Castro's declaration that he is a Marxist-Leninist and momentarily were unified by the Cuban missile crisis of October, 1962, none of these efforts has been satisfactory.

The Rio Treaty provides that hemispheric action may be taken and is binding upon all if approved by a majority of two-thirds. Venezuela, as the complaining nation, cannot vote in the current deliberations so a majority vote of 13 is required.

It was the hope of the United States that as many as 19 might be mustered.

Although even tough sanctions would have little further effect on Castro, there were several hitched.

Probably the best that could be obtained would be a series of recommendations which member nations would accept or reject.

And the end result would be an interesting study in semantics.

On October 8, 1971, while the Chicago fire raged to the south, a forest fire began at Peshigo Wis., and destroyed 1,200,000 acres, many buildings and took the lives of 1,152 people, 833 more people than were lost in the Chicago fire, which destroyed 2,000 acres in the heart of the city.

Dr. Crane's Worry Clinic

Cathy's prayer may sound amusing but it is also a valuable bit of child psychology. Scrapbook this case and send for the 200-point "Rating Scale for Good Parents," for most adults have forgotten the outlook of youngsters and often expect too much of them.

CASE T-437: Philip is our oldest son and an American history professor at Bradley University.

He and Ariens have had four daughters at almost yearly intervals.

Cathy, aged 8½, is the eldest, followed by Susanna, 7½; then Jenny, 1½, and Rebekah Caroline, who is the new baby.

During their prayers before they retire for the night, Cathy and Susanna ask God to bless the various members of the family.

When they reach "God bless Susanna," then Susanna will interrupt and say, "Oh, girl!"

The other night when this occurred, Cathy grew a little irritated at the interruption and exclaimed: "Sure, you're a girl, but you have to have a name!"

Then Cathy continued her prayer for Jenny, but for the baby, Cathy always insists on saying:

"God bless Rebekah Caroline Crane!"

Only Rebekah is thus honored by having her full name included in Cathy's evening prayer.

But the point I wish to focus on is Susanna's comment, "Oh, girl!"

At the age of 2½ years, Susanna thus identifies herself as a girl but Cathy, aged 3½, has the extra mental age to remind her that even though she belongs to the feminine sex, she still needs an individual name, which is Susanna.

This distinction may seem trivial to the casual onlooker but to a student of child psychology, it denotes a milestone in mental distinctions.

At the outset, a baby sees only a blurred general impression of the world around him.

Then he gradually makes distinctions between immovable objects, such as chairs and tables or trees vs. animate creatures such as dogs and cats, plus human beings.

He also calls little folks "Baby" but he still does not make any distinction between little boys vs. little girls.

In fact, a child of normal I.Q. must be three years old in order to tell whether it is a little boy or a little girl.

Qualitative differences, such as blue eyes vs. brown or blonde vs. brunette, obviously come later.

For objects (nouns) usually catch a child's attention before adjectives.

And the normal youngster must be six years old to distinguish between "left" vs. "right."

Furthermore, a normal 4-year-old can copy a square with a fair degree of accu-

acy. But he can't copy a diamond, though it also has four sides and appears to us adults as simply a square with two ends pulled into acute angles.

Nor can a child of 8 or even of 6 years copy a diamond! No, it requires 7 years mental age before he can copy a diamond!

And it isn't till he is 6 years old that he can even tell the difference between "morning" vs. "afternoon," so don't expect deferred rewards to be very effective.

What does "next week" or "next month" mean to him when he still doesn't know if it is morning vs. afternoon? So send for my "Tests for Good Parents," enclosing a long stamped, return envelope, plus 20 cents.

To The Editor

Editor, The Herald:

I have not met your associate editor, Julian Stenstrom, in person, but his articles in The Herald have been very interesting.

I want to thank you for the fine coverage your newspaper has given the athletic program of all 3 Seminole County schools.

Ben F. Ward Jr.

Editor, The Herald:

Your attention is called to the activities of the Forest City Community Association.

This Association was organized not for profit but to render leadership and assistance in the development of the community.

The Seminole County Commissioners decided this Association 3½ acres of land located on the edge of Lake Harriet Estates. Access to this property from Highway 436 has been donated by an interested neighbor.

The long range plans include developing the entire area for recreational activities such as swimming, tennis, shuffle board, baseball, Little League, picnic and cook-outs.

The immediate project is to erect a club house which may be used by various civic groups, scouts, women's clubs, and classes, as for First Aid. It will also provide facilities for political gatherings and a place for voting.

Any of your readers who desire further information or who may wish to help with the plans for building a better community are urged to contact the Building Chairman, Mr. Adolph Juhl, TE 8-2388 or the other officers.

Negro Registration In South Put At 38.6 Percent

ATLANTA (UPI) — The Southern Regional Council said last night that a half a million Negroes have been added to voter registration rolls in the South.

But the council added that the total only comes to 38.6 per cent of the Negroes eligible to vote in the South, leaving more than 3 million still not registered.

Council spokesmen said that "good-sized" increases in Negro registration can be expected to continue up until the November elections.

"If the presidential election is a close one within the southern states, the increased Negro vote could have great significance," said Wiley Branton, director of the council's non-partisan voter registration program.

Branton put the number of Negro voters in the 11 southern states, as of April 1, at 1,937,892.

At the same date, white registration was estimated at 13,600,000, or a Negro-white ratio of nearly one to six.

The increases, which the council said exceeded expectations, ranged from 28,500 in Mississippi to 375,000 in Texas. The council said "harrassment has been heavy" in Mississippi.

Branton pointed out the importance of the Negro vote by citing the performance of Richard M. Nixon in Florida, as an example, in the 1960 presidential race.

He said Nixon carried Florida by 46,766 votes. Negro registration in Florida since then has been more than 53,441.

He noted that John F. Kennedy carried South Carolina by 9,571 votes in 1960. Since that time, 32,130 Negroes have been added to the voter list. The Southern Regional Council has sponsored voter registration activities by local independent groups and by five major Negro civil rights organizations—the NAACP, Congress of Racial Equality, National Urban League, Southern Christian Leadership Conference and the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee.

The council said that between 1952 and 1962 there was a net increase of Negro voters of not more than 350,000 in the South.

It said its program since the spring of 1962 resulted in the registration of 551,328 persons as of the April 1, 1964 date. All but 50,000 of these—in Texas—were Negroes, the council added.

Service Men Get Advice On Waivers

Active duty personnel in Florida have been warned that keeping in-service premium waiver on their government life insurance could be detrimental to the interest of dependents should they become beneficiaries.

The warning was sounded by M. T. Dixon of the Florida Department of Veterans Affairs.

Beneficiaries would be unable to receive dependency and indemnity compensation under the law if the insured died while the waiver is in effect, Dixon said.

Individual cases differ, he added, and each serviceman should check to see how his family will be affected. Inquiries can be made at the veterans county service office or by writing him at Post Office Box 1437, St. Petersburg.

Sleepers Aid Sox Bid; Rookie Posts Giant Win

Skowron, Mossi Shine In Sweep Of Doubleheader

By Curt Hock
UPI Sports Writer

The Chicago White Sox may have negotiated two of the best "sleeper" deals of 1964.

Manager Al Lopez decided to take a chance with veteran southpaw Don Mossi in spring training although the grapevine was saying his arm was dead. Then three weeks ago the Pale Hose acquired first baseman Bill Skowron in a waiver deal that involved four players.

Both figured in Sunday's 3-1 and 3-1 doubleheader sweep of Washington that moved Chicago to within one-half game of New York and Baltimore in the tight American League pennant race.

Mossi appeared in both games in relief and worked a total of two hitless innings. Lopez, noting the southpaw's history of arm trouble and age of 34, has been using Mossi sparingly. In 28 games he has pitched only 80 innings with an earned run average in the 2.50's and walked a total of six men. Along with Hoyt Wilhelm, he has been a late inning stopper for Lopez.

After a disappointing year in the National League, Skowron was sent to Washington and last month moved on to Chicago. In the past three weeks he has driven in 13 runs and sports a respectable .278 average.

His third inning single in the first game scored Al Weis with what proved to be the winning run as Joel Morin picked up his eighth win in 14 decisions, allowing only three hits in 7 1/2 innings.

Elsewhere in the American League, New York blanked Minnesota 2-0; Baltimore edged Kansas City 8-7; Cleveland tripped Detroit 6-1 and 2-1 and Los Angeles beat Boston 2-1.

HE CAME TO PLAY

Tacoma Recall Notches Initial Victory In NL

By United Press International

For John Pregrener, the adulation preceded the accomplishment.

The Giant's 6-foot-5, 220-pound righthander, recalled from Tacoma last week, celebrated his 29th birthday Sunday with his first major league victory, a 2-1 decision over Pittsburgh in relief that moved San Francisco to within 1 1/2 games of National League leading Philadelphia.

Pregrener, from An-tioch, Ill., was the subject of nationwide publicity at the start of the 1963 season when Novella O'Hara of San Francisco organized the John Pregrener Fan Club.

It seems Miss O'Hara was amused that a professional ball player could be purchased for $100, which is what the Giants gave Pocatello for Pregrener in the fall of 1962. The attractive Irish lass countered with an offer of $125 to General Manager Chub Feeney for her hero but the San Francisco executive felt the joke had gone far enough. How wrong he was.

The fan club, which includes politician Pierre Salinger, blossomed and when Pregrener was sent to the minors after a brief trial at the outset of the 1963 season, his admirers didn't desert him. They toasted him with a concoction called the John Pregrener cocktail, two parts gin and one part tears. And a sign hung in the window of the club house reading, "You'll be back, John Pregrener."

The wine, rather, the Pregrener's, flowed Sunday night in the City by the Bay, hailing the return of a friend.

Duke Snider's eighth inning single scored Chuck Hiller from second as Pittsburgh's Bob Friend absorbed his 11th loss in 20 decisions.

In other National League games, Los Angeles defeated the Phillies 6-1; St. Louis edged Cincinnati 5-4; Chicago stopped Milwaukee 5-1; and Houston downed the Mets 9-7 in the first half of a doubleheader, but dropped the nightcap 4-3.

U.S. Stars Crack 9 World Records

LOS ALTOS, Calif. (UPI)—The United States will take the greatest aquatic team in history to the 1964 Olympic games in Tokyo this fall in the wake of record-shattering performances in the National AAU combined men's and women's swim meet over the weekend.

American athletes shattered nine world standards, and Australia's veteran Murray Rose chipped in with another during the four days of competition.

Don Schollander of Santa Clara, who set two world marks and captured three freestyle titles, was voted the outstanding male athlete of the meet. Sharon Strouder of City of Commerce, Calif., who shattered two world marks herself, was named the outstanding female swimmer.

Here are the world record-breakers:

Don Schollander, 1:57.4 in the 200-meters freestyle, and 4:18 in the 400-meters freestyle.

Dick Roth of Santa Clara in the 400-individual medley at 4:48.6.

Murray Rose, Australia, in the 1500-meters at 17:01.8.

Patty Caretto of City of Commerce, Calif., in the 100-meters at 1:17.8.

Hornung Returns To Fold In Style

United Press International

Paul Hornung, the one-time golden boy of the Green Bay Packers, isn't completely satisfied with his progress this year.

Not that he's not on schedule. He is. In fact, Coach Vince Lombardi says "he's in the best condition he's been in since I've been here."

Lombardi is starting his sixth year with the Packers and last year was the only year he was without Hornung, the running, passing and kicking star of the National Football League. Hornung, together with (wide) Alex Karras of Detroit, sat out the 1963 NFL season after being suspended for gambling. Both are trying to come back strong this year.

Hornung made his first start before the home folks in two years during the weekend and led the offense to a 16-9 win over the defense in the Packers' annual intra-squad game. The first time he carried the ball he galloped for 22 yards and when he came back to the huddle he received a standing ovation from the 20,000 fans on hand.

The ovation was even louder later when he kicked a 47-yard field goal and when he sparked the offense on a 70-yard drive by catching two of the three passes he caught in the game, the stands exploded.

"It felt pretty good for the first time out," said Hornung. "I've always been a slow starter. I've always had to work to get in shape. The only way to get in shape is by contact. I hope to get better."

The Chicago Bears worked for 1 1/2 hours in 100-degree heat on timing and passing plays Sunday. After the workout Coach George Halas announced that the Bears would practice only once a day in preparation for Friday's game with the college all-stars.

Quarterbacks Johnny Unitas and Gary Cusumano hit on 25 of 33 pass attempts at the Baltimore Colts readied themselves

Ft. Lauderdale Tops Seminole All Stars, 6-1

By Jane Casselberry

With the state crown almost within their grasp the Seminole Little League Senior All-Stars lost to Fort Lauderdale 6-1 Saturday afternoon at Timber Field in Orlando in the final game of the tournament.

Catcher Floyd Williams of Altamonte Springs was taken to the hospital when he was injured in the fifth inning when a batter swung hitting him in the neck. He was replaced by Ricky Dunn of Casselberry.

Steve Simpkins pitched for the Seminole All-Stars in Saturday's game.

In Friday's game Seminole defeated Tarpon Springs 6-0 when hurler Charlie Newell of Altamonte Springs pitched a four-hit shutout. Hits were jogged by Floyd Williams, 2, Don Paulsen, Larry Baker and Steve Simpkins.

Petty Wins Nashville 400 Grind

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (UPI)—Richard Petty, of Randleman, N. C., won the Nashville 400 stockcar race Sunday with an average speed of 73.20 miles per hour.

Petty, NASCAR leader, led every lap in his race to victory in a 1964 Plymouth.

Track officials said no record was set Sunday, but Petty qualified Saturday with a record speed of 80.33 miles per hour.

David Pearson, of Spartanburg, S. C., driving a 1964 Dodge, was in second place. Jim Paschal, of High Point, N. C., in a 1964 Plymouth, was

Australian Defeats Arnie In 'Canadian'

By Dick Bacon
UPI Sports Writer

MONTREAL (UPI)—Arnold Palmer, the man who invented golf's garrison finish, has been out-charged again, this time by Australian Kel Nagle.

Palmer, the 34-year-old four-time Masters champion who "really wanted" a repeat in the Canadian Open golf championship that brought him his first pro victory nine years ago, instead found himself a bridesmaid for the fourth time this year as Nagle closed with a rush Sunday to capture the $50,000 tournament.

The 43-year-old Australian, who won the 1959 British and 1960 Australian titles, pocketed $7,500—his biggest single pay-day—by following up Saturday's record-equalling 66 with a four-under-par 67 to "kangaroo hop" over the U. S. fairway king by two strokes.

The victory, pushing Nagle's tour earnings this year to more than $22,000, was his first in a PGA-sponsored event and also made him the oldest Canadian Open winner in the 60-year history of the event.

For Palmer, it was another setback in a year that has seen him victimized several times by the closing charge he made so famous.

Palmer, who began the final day tied for the lead with ex-Marine Bill Collins and 21-year-old sophomore pro Ray Floyd, "got started" with three holes. By then, however, he needed a shadow garrison finish to offset an earlier slump and recapture second place from Floyd and Dan Sikes Jr.

Palmer, who had earlier rounds of 71-67-71, wound up with a one-under 70 over a rugged 7,000-yard Pinegrove layout for a 72-hole count of

279. That was one better than Floyd and two up on Sikes.

Nagle, who was seven and six strokes back after opening rounds of 73-71, closed to within one shot with Saturday's 66—a tournament low tied only by Billy Casper—and then took command with five more birdies Sunday before he missed his first green in 35 holes and took a bogey on the 17th.

Tied for fifth place at two-under 282's were Jack Nicklaus, the leading money winner on the PGA tour with more than $93,000; Jay Hebert who closed strongly with rounds of 69-67; Gary Player of South Africa; Collins, the second and third-round leader and Casper, one of several U. S. pros whose maiden victory came in Canada.

12-Camera Care

By Bill McCormick
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Usually, the better the camera, the more delicate it is and the more protection it needs — especially around boats and water. Precautions, however, are simple.

Salt spray or water, being very corrosive, can be most damaging to a camera. It can get metal fittings, rust parts that should be free-working and damage lens surfaces. When you take your camera afloat protect it with a plastic bag. A common grocery store variety will do nicely.

Jarring and bumping natural in a boat can shock delicate shutter timing mechanisms. Protect your camera from this by wrapping it in a beach towel or cushioning it on a life preserver. It is a good idea to stow your camera equipment either forward under decking or on a seat, safely secured to prevent falling overboard in rough water.

Beach pictures are almost a must on a boating picnic. When you take your camera ashore to shoot them, be sure sand does not find its way into parts that might be damaged.

Always remember that film is sensitive to heat and keep PROTECT shutter timing mechanisms by wrapping camera.

It out of direct rays of the sun.

A camera carried aboard and ready for instant action can capture scenes and incidents on your cruises, exploration and sightseeing trips that can never be relived. Be prepared.

Chiefs Sweep 5 To Take IL Lead

United Press International

The Syracuse Chiefs rose to the occasion over the weekend as they swept a five game series from the stunned Jacksonville Suns and exploded into first place in the International League pennant scramble.

The blazing sunset ended Sunday with the high-riding Chiefs dumping Jacksonville 6-4 and 5-1, placing them firmly in the league lead with two games to spare.

Solo homers by Mack Jones and Willey Horton proved the margin of victory in the first game as relief hurler Al Pehanick finally registered his first victory.

John Ryan's fifth inning grand slam, his third homer of the year, sparked the Chiefs to a 3-1 series cleanup in the nightcap.

The Toronto Maple Leafs also swept their doubleheader from the Columbus Jets 5-1 and 5-4, John Anderson posted his third win in 11 decisions in the opener and Ron Piche boosted his record to 12-3 in the second game.

In other action, Richmond swept Buffalo 6-2 and 3-0 and Atlanta split with Rochester, winning the first game 7-4 and dropping the second 3-1.

Mrs. James Robson, Jr. Hostess To Bridal Tea And Reception In Honor Of Miss Judy Ludwig

A festive bridal atmosphere was predominant in the lovely James N. Robson, Jr. home on Scott Avenue in Mayfair at an elegant bridal tea honoring Miss Judy Ludwig, popular bride-elect of Glynn Hodges.

The reception rooms featured an abundance of floral arrangements of superb splendor with the bride's colors of yellow and white carried out in the decor. Aesthetic arrangements of spider lilies, roses, daisies and logan leaves embellished the reception area.

In the foyer two large silver wedding rings were hung on the wall accented by a bride's candle centering a table to the side. The candle was encircled with pearls on a pedestal of orchids, net and lilies of the Valley. Above the fireplace a large wedding bell created from wire impended, which was centered with three small white bells with white satin bows and dainty net. Two love birds perched on the wire bell.

The table, covered in an exquisite imported cutwork cloth, was picturesque with silver trays and compotes offering attractive assortments of dainty tea sandwiches, petit fours and miniature cakes all in yellow and white. An antique silver epergne at one end of the table held an ornate arrangement of yellow shasta daisies with tall yellow tapers in the three branch candelabra. Sparkling bridal punch floating a nosegay of yellow daisies edged in frilly lace and net was served from the opposite end of the table from a handsome antique silver punch bowl with matching silver cups.

Mrs. Edward S. McCall, Sr. and Mrs. Marion L. Robson, Jr. capably assisted Mrs. Robson as co-hostesses. Mrs. Robson received the guests in a smart white jersey pleated frock with a square neckline. Mrs. Robson was attired in a beautiful blue embroidered sheath with Mrs. McCall in a colorful print.

Judy received in a pastel blue empire style and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Donald Ludwig, wore a royal blue tuckled skimmer. Mrs. M. G. Hodges, mother of Judy's fiancé, wore a smart pink linen sheath. The hostesses presented the receiving line with corsages of yellow and white daisies.

Mrs. H. B. McCall assisted at the door and Mrs. Francis Meriwether and Mrs. John Eick presided over the punch bowl.

Assisting at the charming tea were Miss Susan McCall, Miss Jeannie Robson, Mrs. Robert L. Johnson, Mrs. Reuel F. Robson and Mrs. Paul Johnston.

By Mildred Haney

The many new friends of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Davis who visited Deltona a few weeks ago were happy to learn of their safe arrival in Japan. After an interesting but extremely strenuous trip, they arrived home on a CAT airplane from Travis Airfield, Calif.

They had given lectures on their Japanese Art and Flower Arranging in twelve different cities. They were enthusiastically received and graciously entertained by all.

Among the many letters waiting for them was the Deltona News which they appreciated more than ever, because now they recognized many familiar faces of people they had met while in Deltona. Mrs. Davis will share her knowledge of the "Japanese Tea Ceremony," one of the arts she had learned.

Mrs. Davis extends her greetings to their new neighbors and all those who were so cordial to them while they were here.

Pink Ladies Of SMH Auxiliary Enjoy Luncheon

The Pink Ladies of the Seminole Memorial Hospital recently assembled at the Hamilton House for their quarterly business meeting and luncheon.

A pink color scheme was carried out in the decor of the dining room honoring the volunteers of the auxiliary and creating a festive atmosphere. The tables were covered in pink linen, centered with pastel pink roses accented by tall pink tapers.

Mrs. Chester Reierick presided over the business meeting and a delicious luncheon was served to the Meses. Mel Dekle, James McKee, C. Brumley, I. Batten, C. Cole, A. Ferber, A. F. Hunt, W. Kirchoff Jr., H. Monroe, J. Munger and L. Stafford.

Also to the Meses: T. Taylor, L. Trued, H. Gilhuly, H. Wilkins, C. Wilhelm, E. Gilmarin and the Meses Barbara Ruprecht and Rebecca Stevano.

A special guest was Mrs. Esmer Nelder, and Mrs. Chorpene did not attend due to the fact that she worked the desk on the day of the luncheon.

Fashionettes

At one time the necktie was considered a lethal weapon, says Don Loper, Beverly Hills tie maker. He said ties could have been a convenient facility for strangling a man in some dark cobblestone lane of yesteryear. A study of early and middle-age paintings shows that functional costumes meticulously avoided any such item which might have been converted to some similarly dangerous purpose. Contemporary ties, meanwhile, are influenced by women's fashion. Loper said neckwear designers carefully consider coordination between men's and women's wear when creating neckwear designs, especially in compatible colors.

Watch for the elegant fur cape, headed for the fall and winter fashion scene. Sable, mink and Russian broadtail capes—street and floor length—showed in Coopchick-Forest's new collection. A new treatment in sleeves was noticeable in bracelet lengths and dolman cut, whether the peits were worked in "V" or circular fashion.

Subtle elegance, achieved through skillful manipulation of textured fabrics and new fabric combinations, will be the key to fall fashion, according to Robert Strong and his designer, Mr. August. At the press showing of Strong's new line of daytime, cocktail and evening wear recently, the womanly look dominated. Among the fabrics used were textured silks, French mohairs and brocades, cobwebby wools and wool and silk worsteds. A favorite, after dark fabric: jet-beaded velvet.

The poorly dressed man is merely the over-dressed man. The best taste in men's wear, very similar to that of the lady's, borders on the simple and understated, observes Ron Postal, director of the National Council of Men's Fashions.

One ancient treatment for ulcers, medical historians report, called for the ingestion of figs and sweet beer.

Dear Abby: By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I am sick and tired of having my parents on my back all the time. I would like to know when I can leave home.

HAD IT

DEAR HAD IT: Moreover, your parents have probably "had it," too. If you are able to pay for your own lodging, food, transportation, doctor and dental bills, insurance and entertainment, and bail yourself out of trouble of any kind—then you may leave home. (But take a key to the back door when you go.)

DEAR ABBY: My problem is between my husband and me over a dog we don't even have yet. We've been married for two years and we have no children. We both work five days a week. I leave for work at 7 a.m. and he leaves at 7:30. We both get back about 4:30 p.m. All of a sudden my husband decides he wants a puppy. I say he's crazy. Who is going to take care of it? Believe me, I am not going to. Our furniture is brand new and I've seen what a puppy can do to things. Besides, it will tie us down and we like to go away for weekends occasionally. He says, "We'll manage." Can you help me?

MRS. K. A.

DEAR MRS. K. A.: You seem to have all the answers, and they sound sensible to me. Personally, I pity the poor pooch that's brought into a home where he is unwanted by half the household, and left alone all day. (Who will feed him and walk him?) Don't give an inch. If your husband wins this one, it shouldn't happen to a dog.

DEAR ABBY: What do you think of parents who tell their children that ours are adopted? We had not intended to tell our son that he was adopted until he was ten years old, and able to understand, but the parents of other children have told their children, and, of course, they went ahead and told ours. These people are relatives or we would never speak to them again. Please print this so other parents won't be hurt the way we were.

CRUSHED

DEAR CRUSHED: I am not defending the parents who thoughtlessly told their children that yours were adopted. But adopted children should be told that they are adopted as soon as they are able to understand what the word means. (Ten is too late.)

DEAR ABBY: What is the proper way to address a wedding invitation to a man and woman who are living together but are not married? Each is using his own last name.

GETTING MARRIED

DEAR GETTING: Anyone so disdainful of holy matrimony could hardly be a wedding fan. But if you must invite them, send each an invitation at his only known address.

Jacoby On Bridge By Oswald Jacoby

South "A" analyzed the lead and "B" viewed the bidding. He decided that West held both missing aces. This left him with one sure loser in clubs and two losers in spades, provided East got a chance to lead spades or South had to play them himself.

When South arrived at "11" (How can I make this hand?) after "Counting the cards, he had completed the code word "ARCH" and he saw two potential lines of play. If West held exactly three clubs, South could let the jack of clubs hold. Later, he would be able to discard one of dummy's spades on his own fourth club. South's review of the bidding indicated that West would hold six diamonds and work. He took the first club and led a heart to dummy's king. Then he led the three of clubs from dummy. His plan was to duck this trick around to West, whereupon West would have to lead either a diamond or spade and allow South to get away with the loss of only one spade.

Unfortunately for South, Sally Johnson of Westport, Conn., who sat East, had other ideas. Sally also assumed that her partner had opened a doubleton club. If his second club were a low one, South was going to finesse against her queen anyway; if his second club were the 10, Sally could avoid all trouble by playing her queen of clubs. She played it and South's dream was shattered.

We The Women: By Ruth Millett

What do women dislike most in other women?
1. I can give you the answer to that question because a great many of the women who recently answered the question, "What qualities do women admire most in other women?" went a step further and also told exactly what traits they didn't like in other women.

When one woman dislikes another it may very likely be for one of these reasons:
1. She turns her children loose on the neighborhood—and doesn't care where they are or what they are doing, so long as they aren't bothering her.

2. She is rude to her husband in public, or belittles him behind his back.
3. She thinks she is "too good" for the neighborhood she lives in and refuses to have anything to do with her neighbors.

4. She's changeable—friendly one day and distant the next.
5. She's a joiner, but never a worker.
6. She has a sharp, critical tongue.
7. She brags. She's a name-dropper, a label menter, a price-tag reporter.
8. She's lazy.
9. She is careless about her appearance—the kind of woman who wears hair curlers to the supermarket.
10. She talks and talks, but never listens.

Judging from my mail, any woman who wants to be admired by other women would do well to check herself on those 10 items.
Any one of them can make her thoroughly disliked by other women.

6th District Legion Speaker Stresses Americanism

American Legion Post 19 of Orlando, was host recently to Legionnaires and Auxiliary members of the Sixth District.

Auxiliary members attending the school of instruction from Sanford Unit 53 were Mrs. Paul Pexold, president; Mrs. Charles Webster, member of the department of Florida board of education and scholarship committee; and Mrs. Theo Stiles, unit and district community chairman. A joint session, at which religious services were held was presided over by Sixth District Commander Carolyn M. Frid.

The guest speaker was Department Commander William Edwards of Daytona Beach. Edwards stressed Americanism and reminded the American Legion was born after World War I to preserve peace and freedom as their goal. He also stated that the American Legion was one of the strongest organizations teaching Americanism in America today. To teach and practice loyalty to our country and Americanism is the only way to defeat communism, he said, adding, "we are a wealthy and intelligent country and we must keep it that way."

The instruction session for Auxiliary members was presided over by Mrs. John I. Brown, Sixth District President. The welcome was given by Mrs. Josephina Marsh, president of Orlando Unit 19.

Mrs. E. A. Roberts, Department of Florida president, was guest speaker and she spoke on different phases of Auxiliary activities.

On Americanism, Mrs. Roberts said that to live and teach children the meaning of loyalty to our country and respect for the flag should be the main objectives.

On national security, Mrs. Roberts stressed use of the many films available and of good speakers at the meetings and that the Auxiliary should invite the public to participate in the programs. She also urged an alert lookout for subversive literature in schools and community.

Speaking of Foreign Relations, she said all was not well south of the border, and urged that each Auxiliary make a study of at least one Pan American country during the coming year.

Members were reminded that Child Welfare is not limited only to the Veterans child, but to all children, and that the material, physical, and spiritual needs of all children should be considered and especially the needs and welfare of the delinquent children in communities.

On Civil Defense, Mrs. Roberts said, "We should try to live prepared always for any disaster. That in times of disaster there are two kinds of people: The ones who need and the ones who can and will give help. She urged members to prepare themselves to be the ones who can and will give help."

The purpose of the past president's parley is "The Care of the Disabled Ex-Service Women." Its members are past unit presidents. The Sixth District past president's parley has adopted a woman veteran in Bay Pines Veterans' Home. She is sent gifts of money and clothing at Christmas and throughout the year.

Once each year we have a Poppy Day. These Poppies are made by disabled veterans. When persons are asked to wear a Poppy the free will offering you give is distributed to the veterans that make them, to the three Crippled Children's hospitals in Florida and to local Child Welfare. The offerings cannot be used for any other purpose.

The Auxiliary's Rehabilitation program makes comfort articles for veterans in hospitals at Bay Pines, Coral Gables and Lake City. Each member furnishes a gift for the Joy Shop at Christmas for these three hospitals. Workers at these hospitals can choose what he wants to send each member of his family. The workers then wrap the gifts and send them in time for Christmas to families of the veterans.

Dorothy Webster, member of the board of education and scholarship committee, reported this year two scholarship awards had been made by the Department of Florida to Seminole High School graduates in Sanford.

Social Security Facts Vital, Says Patton

"A little knowledge is always a dangerous thing. When it comes to social security, it can also be very costly," said Colonel Byron H. Patton, manager of the Orlando social security office. He explained that many people pick up just enough information to cause trouble. In many cases, it causes them to lose money.

Colonel Patton pointed out that some people think they need birth certificates to draw social security. Others think social security checks are figured on the last five years of work before retiring. Still others say they can't draw social security if they make over $1200.

"There's just enough truth in these things to cause trouble," said Colonel Patton. He explained that a birth certificate is not required to draw social security, but there must be some record of the person's age. The last five years of work under social security are considered in figuring the check, but they may or may not be used.

The monthly payment is based on an average of a number of years, after dropping out five of the lowest years. And, contrary to popular belief, it's possible to make well over $1200 in a year and still get some social security checks.

"These are just a few of the things folks don't understand about social security," said Colonel Patton. He suggested that the way to get the facts is to call or visit the social security office at 2520 North Orange Avenue in Orlando. The telephone number is 425-2581.

Waterfront Forum Set

Clyde Long, president of the Sanford-Seminole Jaycees, announced last week that his club would sponsor a public presentation of the waterfront development plans, at an open meeting at noon at the Civic Center Thursday.

Long said today plans have been made by Radio Station WTRR to broadcast the entire program, beginning at 12:32 p.m. In charge of the live broadcast will be Bill Reck, local radio announcer, and a member of the board of directors of the Jaycees.

"Because of the great interest shown in the proposed waterfront plan and the open invitation that has been extended, we urge that all persons planning to attend the luncheon make reservations before Wednesday noon by calling the Jaycee Information office on French Ave. Our caterer will need to know how much to prepare. Charge for lunch is $1.50," Long said.

The presentation will be made in the form of a panel forum with the proposers of the plans present to answer questions, provide explanations, and enlarge upon details. Moderator will be Jaycee Tommy Speer.

Sitting on the panel will be T. E. Tucker, president of Florida State Bank; Howard Hodges, president of Sanford Atlantic Bank; George Touhy, executive vice president of First Federal Savings and Loan, and John Burton, IV, architect.

"In the public interest we have opened the meeting to all interested persons and have invited members of the City Commission and area news media," Long said.

"We particularly urge members of other civic clubs and organizations to try to attend, for it is apparent that putting these plans into effect will have a great effect on the future of all of us, and it behooves us to learn all that we can about it," Long added.

"We urge that everyone be on time, so that we can finish lunch if possible before the broadcast begins. We will begin serving promptly at noon," Long noted.

In showing the letter to a Clock Watcher, Art footnoted it with: "Mr. Buckman was speaking primarily of Martha (Telford) Vihlen, I, too, am proud of the staff in this office and feel that each is well trained, able and courteous." We agree. We agree.

Julian Stenstrom, associate editor of The Herald and author of the crisp, penetrating editorials on the lakefront marina, is vacationing with his family in Louisiana.

Sanford on a Sunday morning: A parking meter with time still left on it; tourists driving slowly along city streets, hunting for an open restaurant and breakfast before hitting the road again; boatmen pulling their trailers into the municipal parking lot after putting their boat in the water; an American flag still flying, apparently forgotten the night before; sailboat enthusiasts stowing gear and refreshments aboard prior to hoisting sails for a quiet day on Lake Monroe; the little dog and its master standing at the corner of First and Park, a daily happening.

Last week it held at a firm high of 74 degrees; this week it willed somewhat to a high of 72 degrees. We're speaking of the clock at First and Park. But today timepiece technicians performed an operation and the time-temperature apparatus returned to normal. Almost a shame — seemed cooler when it recorded a daily high in the 70's.

A bit of advice: You can learn first hand just what the proposed lakefront marina will involve if you attend the Jaycee luncheon Thursday at the Civic Center.

The rebuilding of the Dearborn Electronic Laboratories plant on U.S. 17-92 south of Sanford was the subject of an article appearing in the July issue of "Florida Trend," a magazine of Florida business and industry.

Let's Get Started, Is Merchant's Plea

B. I. Perkins Jr., proprietor of a men's wear store on East First Street and which bears his name, declared today that Sanford must "get started" in developing a lakefront marina.

Perkins noted that "we have talked about" such a development for "as long as I can remember." He called for prompt action on the proposal as it will "do much to stabilize our downtown area."

The local merchant's statement follows:

"We have talked about developing our lakefront for as long as I can remember. I feel that it is important that a program should be adopted now so that this great natural asset of ours can be fully utilized.

"It is my thought that a marina and all the activities that go along with it will bring countless people to Sanford and that this will do much to stabilize our downtown area located only two blocks away. This cannot be accomplished in a day, a week or a year — but it must be done. Let's get started."

B. I. PERKINS JR.

ARCHITECT'S DRAWING of the proposed Sanford Garden Club building is shown above. Plans call for a $40,000 structure located about two miles south of Sanford on Hwy. 17-92. Meeting rooms, kitchen and rest rooms will be in the left half of the building and a large auditorium on the right. Parking to match the capacity of the auditorium is in the plans but not shown in the drawing.

High Priestess 'Dead Or Alive'

LUSAKA, Northern Rhodesia (UPI) — Troops scoured the non-infested bush of Northern Rhodesia today under orders to take "high priestesses" Alice Lenishina dead or alive.

Members of Mrs. Lenishina's Lumpa church went on a rampage in the east Monday, burning and ransacking at least 18 villages and killing at least 150 persons. Reports said many victims were burned alive in their blazing huts.

The government said the new massacre raised the official death toll in the Lumpa's two week "holy war" to 221. Premier Kenneth Kaunda banned the church for 30 days—the legal maximum—and ordered Mrs. Lenishina brought in "dead or alive."

He also warned all tourists out of the area—site of Northern Rhodesia's best game parks — and advised them to travel in convoys.

The attacks, he said, were "obviously the acts of madmen."

Mrs. Lenishina is a plump housewife who claims she died 11 years ago and was reincarnated to serve a "black god." Since then she has signed up an estimated 100,000 followers through a potent mixture of religion, mysticism and pageantry.

But 150 policemen kept the teenagers from congregating and forced them to keep moving whenever they tried to loiter. They broke up small scuffles and arrested 59 Mods and Rockers.

They pleaded no contest to some of the counts and were judged guilty by Federal Court Judge Emmet Choate, who called for an investigation by the U. S. Probation Department and set sentencing for Aug. 28.

Herman, founder of the Herman J. Heidrich and Sons Citrus and Peach Packing Co. of Orlando, was found guilty on two counts of failing to report gross additional income amounting to $102,375.45.

Strengthened Fleet Watches Red Coasts

SAIGON, Viet Nam (UPI) — The U. S. Seventh Fleet said today it strengthened patrols off Communist North Viet Nam today with orders straight from President Johnson to kill if attacked.

The destroyer USS Maddox, which repelled an "unprovoked attack" Sunday by three Russian-built North Vietnamese PT patrol torpedo boats was joined on patrol station in the Gulf of Tonkin by the destroyer USS C. Turner Joy.

Previously, the job of observing Communist shipping in the Gulf had been handled by one destroyer at a time without continuous air cover.

Today, by command of the President, the two destroyers were screened by a combat air patrol from the carrier USS Ticonderoga, on station 200 miles to the south. This was 100 miles closer than its previous position.

U. S. warships were under new and stronger standing orders. Before Sunday's apparently unprecedented incident, they were expected to repel any attack but not to pursue the attackers.

But Johnson said that from now on they will "attack any force which attacks them in international waters . . . not only with the objective of driving off the force but of destroying it."

Meanwhile, 3 miles north of Saigon, a U. S. Army enlisted man was shot and killed today in a Communist ambush.

He was the 175th American killed in action in Viet Nam. Four Vietnamese soldiers riding in a jeep with the American Special Forces man also were killed.

The five were killed when Communist Viet Cong guerrillas opened fire with automatic weapons on their jeep as they headed home from a morning of work on a project helping Vietnamese villagers clear land for crops.

Zoning Session Rescheduled
Monday night's public hearing before the Casselberry Zoning Board on a request to rezone the former Gelsler property on Lake Concord from residential to commercial was rescheduled for next Monday night's regular meeting of the Casselberry Board of Aldermen.

Request for the change is being made by George H. Rackensperger of Winter Park, new owner of the property, who proposes to locate an estimated $100,000 Bavarian type restaurant and play house on the site.

Objections to the change in zoning have been registered by Joseph I. Laird and Walter Dittmer, who own property across the lake, although residents living less than 500 feet from the area in question have joined in support of the change.

Auditorium To Seat 350

By Dottie Austin City Editor

Mrs. Auburn Rector, president of the Sanford Garden Club, and Mrs. D. K. Dorman, past president, have announced plans for a $40,000 Garden Center to be built by the organization.

The long-planned center will be constructed on land donated to the club by Brailey Olham, builder, on Highway 17-92 near the north entrance to Sunland Estates, about two miles south of the city limits.

Mrs. Rector and Mrs. Dorman said the building will contain about 6,200 square feet of floor space and will have a seating capacity for from 250 to 400 persons. The plans for the auditorium are complete with a stage and dressing rooms in the wings.

The central lobby which will feature a polished brick floor has been designed so that it can be opened to accommodate extra seating if necessary.

The architectural plans for the building and grounds were drawn and donated to the Garden Club by Joseph Shifalo of Winter Park. They feature concrete block construction with a mica stone decorative front, and terrazzo floors.

Also included in the plan of the modern center are four meeting rooms, a kitchen and restrooms.

Working toward the construction of the building for several years have been the 13 circles of the Sanford Garden Club, which has approximately 277 members.

Purpose of the building is to facilitate the needs of the Club for meetings, luncheons, card parties, flower shows, bazaars, and all functional activities of the garden clubs.

In addition, Mrs. Dorman and Mrs. Rector said the building could be rented to civic groups for various events.

Defining the building as a "horticultural and educational center," the Garden Club officials indicated that it would encompass the work of the junior gardeners, garden therapy classes and work shops.

Bids for the construction of the building have been let, and will be opened Sept. 15.

After a bid is selected, the club will decide whether to begin construction immediately or wait until they have secured all the necessary funds.

At present the group has in its treasury some $31,000 and estimates they need $10,000 more.

They plan to raise the money through various fund raising events such as bazaars, shows, parties.

"We also hope that persons interested in gardening and beautification will want to help build the center by donating money toward the building fund," said Mrs. Dorman.

"We have already had many private donations, and hope that we will get more," said Mrs. Rector.

The officials said that they would release the names of donors for publication, shortly.

Banks Act To Shake Loose Hoarded Coins

The present shortage of coins has reached such proportions in most parts of the country that the American Bankers Association is moving to do something about the situation, it was revealed today.

Letters were received by all banking institutions from William F. Kelly, president of the ABA, informing them of action, to inform the public of the seriousness of the shortage.

The ABA hopes to persuade coin hoarding Americans to put that change back in circulation by exchanging coins for currency.

They also hope to prevail on retail merchants to rely on normal channels of circulation and refrain from hoarding.

Bankers are urged to do all in their power to impress their customers, both individuals and commercial firms, to allow all coins to circulate freely. Coin collectors share the blame, too.

President Howard Hodges of the Sanford Atlantic Bank said today that his bank has been experiencing shortages of pennies, nickels and half dollars. Orders to the Federal Reserve Bank for more coins are only partially filled and in some cases weeks pass before orders are received.

At the Florida State Bank, President T. E. Tucker reports that they have a fair supply of pennies, but nickels and half dollars are running short.

The U. S. Treasury Department has announced an intensified program to double the nation's rate of coin production within a year and raise it by 75 per cent during the next six months.
