India's Commies Start Terror Reign

By B. K. TIWARI
United Press International

NEW DELHI (UPI) — India's Communists, who won the southern Kerala state in a peaceful election 18 months ago, now are trying to consolidate their control with a reign of terror.

This is the disturbing conclusion reached by top-level officials of the Congress Party, the majority party in India.

Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru himself has declared that "an atmosphere of fear" grips the 12,000,000 inhabitants of the state. He has called for an impartial probe into Kerala's affairs to determine whether the state government is responsible.

Complex To Blame
As far as some of the top men in Nehru's own Congress Party are concerned, however, there is no question that the Communist government of the tropical state bears full responsibility.

U. N. Dhebar and Srikanth Narayan, president and secretary of the party respectively, warned after a recent on-the-spot inquiry in Kerala that non-Communist leaders would be wiped out or forced to flee if the terrorism continued.

The Communists walked into the 15,000-square-mile state in March, 1957, after ousting both the Congress Party and the Praja Socialist Party (PSP) in an election.

They had promised sweeping reforms under a "non-violent democratic policy."

But opposition was intense during the Communists' rule and a crackdown followed. There was a wave of political murders, assault or threats on Congress and Socialist party members. Non-Communist party members were beaten or threatened.

Terrorism in Kerala
Several officials who did not toe the Communist line found themselves out of jobs. A judge was sacked after he issued a ruling against a Communist law-breaker. A magistrate was transferred because his decisions were a bit too impartial.

India's parliament has rung during the last few months with charges of misrule and terrorism in Kerala. The Communists, however, insist that the Congress and Socialist parties are deliberately inciting violence to discredit their regime.

Chief Minister E. M. S. Namboodripad maintains that the state is functioning normally. But congressmen charge that Namboodripad's recent release of 1,360 prisoners and his commutation of death sentences for another 220—mostly Communists or pro-Communists—is not designed to insure normalcy.

Sainthood Is Possibility For Pope Due To Visions

VATICAN CITY (UPI) — Pope Pius XII may someday become a saint.

An unprecedented vision of Christ and a vision of the "Fatima miracle" of the revolving sun have been the only supernatural events in the Pope's life announced by the Vatican. However, there has been insistent mention of the Pope bringing about two miraculous healings as well.

Visions do not in themselves enter the cause of canonization, but they often speed the cause. Vatican circles believed that the cause of beatification of the Pope might be introduced shortly. Unofficial Catholic quarters said a dossier of "miracles" attributed to Pius XII had already been collected.

Beatification is the first step toward sainthood, and both beatification and canonization can take centuries before completed.

The Pope's first vision came on three successive days in the Holy Year 1950.

Federico Cardinal Tedeschini told a crowd of pilgrims in Fatima in 1951 that the Pope saw the sun revolve on three separate occasions — Oct. 30, 31, and Nov. 1, 1950. He said the vision came on each occasion while the Pope was walking in the Vatican gardens, each time at 4 p. m.

The vision was the same which three little shepherds had in Fatima, Portugal, on Oct. 13, 1917. The vision of the shepherd children climaxed a series of apparitions of the Virgin Mary they had seen earlier, starting May 13, 1917 — the day Eugenio Pacelli was consecrated archbishop in the Sistine Chapel in Rome. A vision of Christ came to the Pope at dawn on Dec. 2, 1954, just 12 hours before an attack of gastritis and hernia raised fears for his life, the Vatican City newspaper Observatore Romano said.

In addition to these officially announced visions, the Pope has been credited by Italian newspapers and magazines with bringing about the miraculous cure of a girl stricken with tuberculosis and giving sight to a blind child.

WASHINGTON — Associate Justice Felix Frankfurter of the U. S. Supreme Court in denouncing Arkansas officials for maintaining integration of schools in Little Rock would set off violence:

"Violent resistance to law cannot be made a legal reason for its suspension without loosening the fabric of our society. What could this mean but to acknowledge that disorder under the aegis of a state has moral superiority over the Constitution."

How To Enjoy Entertaining

WESTFIELD, Mass.—UPI—Enjoying your own party is as much an art as seeing that guests have fun, says Miss Catherine L. O'Brien.

As president of a firm which relies on parties for sales (Stanley Home Products, Inc.), she has found these tips helpful:

So you won't be upset by an expected guest—or those who failed to do so—allow about 10 per cent leeway in food. Tell in your invitation when you expect guests to arrive and leave. They can plan on baby sitters, and you can plan ample refreshments.

Arrange the party schedule beforehand so you know exactly what to do, then relax. Don't clean house the day of the party. Frantic last-minute cleaning only leaves you tired and grouchy.

Don't introduce every newcomer after the first few persons have arrived. Leave that to the guests.

Invite a congenial group, but don't omit someone because a few guests don't get along with him. A comedian once said there should be someone at a party that everybody hates, just to keep things interesting.

Among the decorative coverings easiest to apply—even for teenagers who are all thumbs—are those with adhesive backing. One such covering called Marvalon has a durable plastic coating—just the thing for easy cleaning.

This same particular covering comes in a wide variety of colors and patterns that will delight the young lady of the house. One of the newer patterns recently added to the line is called Patricia and has a free-form motif utilizing tiny gold and foil squares in relief with gold foil threading. It is available in four background colors—turquoise, white, pink and yellow.

Double Sessions Discussed

The pros and cons of double sessions were discussed by a panel of teachers and parents at the Tuesday night meeting of the Pinecrest Elementary School PTA.

The panel was moderated by Carlton Dudd, program chairman. The panel pointed out that one of the less desirable features was that the children are left with much time on their hands. Teachers suggested that parents contact them for suggestions for supplementing their education at home, thus putting the spare time to good use.

Mrs. S. A. Tindall, chairman of the ways and means committee, reported that plans are underway for a carnival to be held at the school Oct. 17. Plans are progressing for an enjoyable evening of supper and fun, she stated. Special attractions will be featured and will be announced at a later date.

EMOTIONS CAUSE HAIR BLEACHING

This is the second of three dispatches probing the reasons why an estimated three of every four unretired women bleach, dye or rest their hair.

NEW YORK—UPI—Better take a look at your psyche if you're considering a bleach or dye job on your hair.

A prominent psychiatrist says that frequently the woman who makes the change from nature is suffering from emotional immaturity.

"To change the hair often is to be changing the personality," said Dr. David Abrahamson, teacher, writer, practicing psychiatrist, and consultant to the department of Mental Hygiene, state of New York.

"Yet only the hair changes. The basic emotions and feelings which have directed the woman's life remain unchanged."

I pointed out to the Norwegian-born psychiatrist that if this were so, then a lot of us girls are emotionally immature for the National Association of Hairdressers and Cosmetologists estimates that 75 per cent of American women now are sampling hair dyes, tints or tints at one time or another.

Abrahamson said there are other reasons for change—in job, for instance, where "the accent is on youth" and a woman wants to conceal her age; or in show business, where success may in part depend on a girl's looking different.

Dr. Abrahamson patiently explained that, before he got the whole beauty industry in his hair, he wanted to emphasize he was all for any woman doing every thing possible to improve her physical appearance. But she just can't stop there.

"This thing of looking pretty to attract the opposite sex is a basic female trait," he said. All of us have it "either consciously or unconsciously."

America Lost Friend When Pope Pius Died

The death of Pope Pius has saddened religious leaders of all faiths. Pope Pius was a staunch friend of America. He was a bitter foe of Communism.

Perhaps the best testimonial to his fight against Communism was furnished by Communist leaders on the day of his death. Moscow Radio, the official voice of the Soviet Union, carried no news of his illness until a very short time before he died.

Communists in England lampooned the Pontiff soon after news of his death was broadcast.

Pope Pius was more than just the head of the Catholic Church. He was dedicated to freedom and spent much time and effort in behalf of world peace.

His feelings about Communism were best expressed, perhaps, in a remark during a visit to America in 1936. It was a time when the seeds of unrest were being promoted by the Communists, Pope Pius said:

"The time is coming, in my opinion, and it is not far away, when all members of religious orders will have to stand together, regardless of creed, to meet the menace of atheistic Communism." At the time the Pontiff made this remark 22 years ago, he was a Cardinal, three years away from the position as head of the Catholic Church.

Pope Pius opposed Hitler and Mussolini. Opposing the latter brought threats of burning the Vatican. But the Pope refused to give up his crusade against dictatorship.

The Pope's efforts in behalf of mankind were not limited to members of his own faith. Refugees from many European nations, of many faiths, were given aid as a result of orders from Pope Pius.

Despite his station, Pope Pius had the one quality found in all great men: humility. He truly was a friend of man. He will be missed, greatly, by all peace-loving peoples.

Support United Fund

The Seminole County United Fund now stands at about 10 per cent of the total needed to finance the activities of participating agencies for the next year.

Goal for this year's drive is $36,000. UF officials yesterday reported total contributions to be approximately $3,500. This is fine progress, but the campaign must speed up if the goal is to be reached by the end of this month.

October is one-third gone. Only 10 per cent of the goal has been achieved. At this rate, the UF would have only one-third of its goal by the hoped-for deadline of Oct. 31.

The public is aware of the work of the UF. This agency combines the drives of many organizations into one campaign. This eliminates the many drives of former years. Supporting the UF is the most "painless" method of contributing to worthy causes.

UF president Harold Kestner yesterday urged an immediate response to campaign solicitation to lighten the work of the volunteers "who are pledged to make the drive successful."

Everyone is aware of the work done by the seven agencies which participate in the UF. Give generously and promptly so that this campaign might be completed on schedule.

Deserter Who Hid 14 Years Is Free

MONT D'ORIGNY, France (UPI)—American GI Wayne Powers, 37, of Chillcotte, Mo., who hid 14 years from the U.S. Army to live with his French sweetheart, walked out of an Army stockade a free civilian today.

The one-time Missouri farmer said the first thing he would do now that he is free is to marry Yvette Blesse, who bore him five children during his long years of desertion from his army unit just before the 1944 Battle of the Bulge.

Powers, 37, of Chillcotte, Mo., finished the last hours of a six-month prison sentence in the Stockade at Verdun this morning. He became a civilian just before noon when the army gave him a dishonorable discharge.

The tall, balding former private had been given the sentence after pleading guilty to the charge of desertion from his army unit just before the 1944 Battle of the Bulge.

-NEW PASTIME OF THE NUCLEAR AGE

Washington Window

By LYLE C. WILSON

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Richard L. Maher, the astute political expert of the Cleveland Press, believes Ohio voters are about to come up with another union labor shocker like their whopping 1950 reelection of Sen. Robert A. Taft. The shocker this time would be approval of a constitutional amendment forbidding the union shop in Ohio. This is a right-to-work proposal which organized labor is trying mightily to kill.

Taft's re-election in 1950 by a margin of 400,000 votes made the senator Mr. Republican to one and all and almost propelled him into the White House. The Republican politician who stands to benefit the most if Ohio goes for right-to-work next month is Gov. C. William O'Neill, 42, a Phi Beta Kappa and a Baptist.

O'Neill got his reelection campaign off the ground some weeks ago with a public endorsement of right-to-work. The blast-off was so successful that it enabled O'Neill to gain and, so far, to hold the campaign offensive.

Major Ohio issue

That is the report of Ohio observers who, like the late Sen. Arthur Capper (R-Kan.), are credited with the ability to keep both ears to the ground at the same time. They report, further, that the mail and telephone returns to O'Neill on his endorsement of right-to-work have been impressively favorable.

So the young governor has made that his major campaign issue. He tells the voters that right-to-work combines an affirmative position on man's fundamental freedom of choice and on the anti-corruption issue as it relates to organized labor. There is evidence that the issue is popular and that O'Neill may overcome the Ohio political tradition against re-electing Republican governors.

O'Neill's Democratic opponent is Michael V. Disalle, one-time chief of the federal Office of Price Administration. Mike Disalle was one of the most attractive and politically adept of the many able men brought into Washington during the Roosevelt and Truman administrations. O'Neill liked Disalle in 1956 for a two-year term. His vote bulge was nearly 430,000.

The contest now is for Ohio's first four-year term. There can be no fluke about it if O'Neill defeats Disalle and if right-to-work carries. Mike is an able campaigner, although now thrown off stride by O'Neill's surprise opposition to the union shop. The unions are making a real fight to defeat the amendment.

Ohio seems to be a fairer test of right-to-work sentiment than is likely to be had this year in California, where the Republican

Snow Flurries Hit U. S. Midsection; Temperatures Drop

United Press International

Wintery winds of up to 45 miles an hour drove across the nation's midsection today, dropping temperatures into the 20s and 30s and scattering snow flurries.

The cold Canadian air slammed into a flow of mild winds from the Gulf of Mexico, erupting into a line of severe rain and wind storms.

Two tornado funnels snaked over three south-central Wisconsin counties Thursday and threatening funnel clouds accompanied by "extremely" high winds hovered over much of Indiana.

Earlier, gusts raked Iowa and Missouri, killing a housewife, 55-year-old in northern Illinois caused one death when a tree toppled onto a car.

The squall line early today extended from the lower Great Lakes to the southern plains. Rainfall along the system ranged from one-fourth to three-fourths of an inch with Fayetteville, Ark., receiving 1.03 inches.

Gusty winds whipped the Dakotas and upper Mississippi Valley. Early morning readings in the 20s were reported in the northern plains and temperatures in the 30s produced snow flurries in the Red River Valley region.

Mostly clear skies, mixed only by a few scattered showers in New England, prevailed in the Atlantic and Southeast states as warm air drifted ahead of the cool air moving in from the west.

Scattered showers were to mark the advance of the cool air with showers extending to much of the Atlantic seaboard by evening. A few scattered showers also were expected along the Gulf Coast, but the rest of the country was promised mostly clear skies.

Florida To Become Teamsters' Target

MIAMI BEACH (UPI)—Teamster President James R. Hoffa arrived here Thursday and hinted the truckers union will begin an all-out organizational drive in Florida.

Hoffa, accompanied by Dusty Miller, the Teamsters' Southern Council chairman, said "if the Teamsters are going to make progress in the South, we're going to have to take over Dade County first."

Hoffa met for four hours with the heads of Dade's two largest non-union concrete companies, Acme and Monah Park Block Co. in a closed door conference. Acme president Paul Jacobs said earlier he would "never sign with the Teamsters."

Teamster organizer Joseph W. Morgan, North Miami Beach, said the Fifth Amendment before the Senate Rackets Committee last year when questioned about a $50,000 dynamiting at Acme in 1955.

After the meeting, Hoffa said "we had a very pleasant discussion. It was a satisfactory exploratory meeting." Hoffa said he expects to leave the area Saturday.

The Teamsters also announced investment of $2,300,000 of Teamster pension fund money in two Dade County apartment projects. Earlier, they disclosed that $1,500,000 of the union funds was loaned to a motel owner in Miami Beach.

Capitol Building 'Sag' To Continue

TALLAHASSEE (UPI)—Rep. Malloy Horn of Leon said Thursday the next Legislature will not be asked for funds to replace the sagging center portion of the state Capitol Building.

Horn said the appropriation will have to wait another two years because of more pressing needs and the state's curtailed spending program. But he indicated the Legislature might be asked to make a small appropriation to plan future remodeling of the Capitol.

Catholics Watch Stovepipe For News

VATICAN CITY (UPI)—With the death of Pope Pius XII, a small, black stovepipe, hastily erected atop the roof of the isolated, walled-off Sixtine Chapel inside the apostolic palace, will become the Catholic world's most important news source.

By ages-old tradition, the progress of the balloting of the Sacred College of Cardinals, whose responsibility it is to name a successor, will be announced to the world in this whisp of smoke coming from the chimney.

Thousands of Roman Catholic faithful, solemnly waiting in St. Peter's Square, will keep a vigil as the cardinals cast their ballots.

A puff of white smoke will inform the world that the college has elected a new supreme pontiff to sit on the throne of St. Peter.

The apostolic constitution provides that the selection of the Roman Catholic pontiff shall be made "only and exclusively by the cardinals of the Holy Roman Church who will be free from any and all influence from any other ecclesiastical dignitary or lay power."

The election must be held within 18 days of the death of a pope. Fifteen days, plus an optional additional three days, are permitted for the arrival in Rome of cardinals not present in the city at the time of his death.

Great precautions are taken to insure that the work of the conclave shall be carried out in absolute secrecy. All rooms and corridors adjoining the chapel are walled off—some with boards nailed to doors and others with bricks.

Small iron beds, kneeling stools and simple chairs are placed in a few rooms of the walled-off area, against the possibility of a prolonged balloting process.

Sworn to secrecy

All assistants to the cardinals, their special confessors, doctors and a surgeon and pharmacist, are solemnly sworn to secrecy, on pain of excommunication, and are pledged to reveal nothing by word or sign which they learn in their outside enclave of what transpires within the chapel itself.

Seated on plain wooden seats, lined along the chapel walls, painted in fresco by celebrated Italian artists of centuries past, the cardinals will prepare to cast their first ballot.

Mass is recited and the cardinals repeat the "Veni creator spiritus." They renew a solemn oath to elect as pope the cardinal whom they deem to be most worthy, and to guard the secrecy of the conclave. Three cardinals are appointed to supervise the counting.

Each cardinal is given a ballot on which is written in Latin "Eligo in summum pontificem Rev. Mum D. Meum, D. Card. (I elect as high pontiff my Very Reverend Signor Cardinal...)"

Quotable Quotes

United Press International

COLUMBUS, Ohio — Judge James G. Stewart of the Ohio Supreme Court on the appointment of his son, Potter Stewart, to the U. S. Supreme Court:

"I know that Potter will take it as a great challenge. He never has had a swelled head, but has a good mind, is modest, has integrity, industry and a fine American point of view."

WASHINGTON — Vice Adm. Charles R. (Cat) Brown on the controlled use of nuclear weapons:

"I'm limited war, I would personally recommend the use of any atomic weapon, no matter how small."

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. — Curtis R. Mahris, district director of the Internal Revenue Service, in saying the revenue agent who tried to tax Gov. Orval Faubus for a gift automobile and for use of the governor's mansion did not use good judgment:

"Governor Faubus is completely right in his statement that if he had to pay tax on those things, he could not afford to be governor."

NEW ORLEANS — Alabama Gov. James E. Folsom in favor of a return to the presidency by Harry Truman in 1960:

"Lots of folks in Alabama besides me are for old Harry."

Relatives and friends of many of the new Marines were on hand to witness the graduation ceremonies.

The 12-week training schedule included drill, bayonet training, physical conditioning, parades and ceremonies, and other military subjects.

Three weeks were spent on the rifle range where the recruits fired the M-1 rifle and received instruction in basic Marine infantry weapons.

Comeback Typical Of Yankee Teams

Yankees Dethrone Milwaukee

By LEO M. PETERSEN
UPI Sports Editor

MILWAUKEE, UPI — It's the New York Yankees on top of the baseball world again.

They got back there Thursday when they beat the Milwaukee Braves, 5-2, in the final and deciding game of the 1958 series. They picked themselves off the floor and did it the hard way. It marked the first time in 31 years that a ball club had been down three games to one in a World Series and come back to win it. Pittsburgh did it against Washington in 1925.

"This was the hardest one ever," said a grinning Casey Stengel, who won his seventh series championship in nine tries. "Yesterday we were the Yankees, like we used to be," he added. "But let me tell you, it took a lot of doing."

Here they were in the home of the Braves, who had beaten them in seven games last year, and again the same two pitchers were going for the Yankees and Lou Lison for the Braves and Lee Burdette, who won it last year 3-0, for the Braves.

This time Burdette couldn't quite make it.

"But he pitched a helluva ball game and would have been all right if we could have gotten him some runs," Milwaukee Manager Fred Haney observed. "Give those Yankees credit. We aren't alibing—they beat us."

They did it in the eighth inning. Burdette, who had outlasted Larsen, was even at 2-2 with

By RAY W. DOHERTY
MILWAUKEE (UPI) — The comeback New York Yankees retained baseball's world title from the Milwaukee Braves Thursday with a 5-2 victory in the seventh and final game of the World Series.

The Yankees, down three games to one last Sunday, won their third straight game and the title in typical fashion.

They bombed Lee Burdette — the man who beat them three times a year ago — with four runs in the eighth inning, while Bullet Bob Turley was stopping the Braves with only two hits in 6 2/3 innings of relief pitching.

It was a 2-2 game in the eighth with two out when the Yankee's Yogi Berra rattled a double off the right field fence for only the fourth hit off Burdette. But it was the beginning of the end for the 1957 hero.

Elston Howard whipped a single through second base to send Berra home with the tie-breaking run. Turley got Red Ford, who had replaced Jerry Lumpe at third base, followed with another hit. And then up came Bill Skowron, the former footballer from Purdue. He lined a home run into the left field stands to dethrone the Braves for sure.

The Braves rallied feebly in the ninth when they put two base Steadman to line out to Mickey Mantle in center field to end the game and make the Yankees only the second team to modern series history to win the title after being down three games to one.

Turley, making his third straight appearance, gave up a homer to Del Crandall that tied the score in the sixth and a single to pinchhitter Joe Adcock in the ninth. The Braves had only one other baserunner off Turley — except for Crandall's homer — until the final inning. And then it was too late.

Frank Torre erred twice on grounders in the second inning to allow the Yankees to load the bases. Skowron then drove in Berra with a ground out, and Tony Kubek scored the other with a sacrifice fly.

Three times the Braves had hitters up with the bases loaded in the first and third innings and all they could get was one run. Crandall struck out in the first with the bases full, after Wes Covington had scored Schoendienst with a ground out. Again in the third, Crandall grounded out with all bases occupied to end the inning—this time against Turley.

Muff Scoring Chances

Milwaukee muffed two big opportunities to score in the early innings off Don Larsen. And infielder Larry gave the Yankees their first two runs without benefit of a hit.

Ironically, it was the man they call the "glove" of the Braves who set up the Yankee run, lining—this time against Turley.

Seminoles, Georgia Seek 'First' In Saturday Tiff

By JAMES C. WARTERS
JACKSONVILLE (UPI) — Florida State and Georgia Tech will be gunning for firsts in Saturday night's football contest: in the Gator Bowl.

State is after its first win over a Southeastern Conference team. And Georgia is seeking its first win of the season.

The odds-makers are giving the Bulldogs a four-point edge over FSU, but Coach Tom Nugent's Seminoles are more than a sentimental favorite in their home state after last week's surprising 27-24 defeat of nationally-ranked Wake Forest.

Nugent, one of the most imaginative coaches in the business and inventor of the "I" formation, would like nothing better than to see Florida State in the SEC. And to show what his teams are made of, four SEC squads were scheduled this season.

"Breaks" May Decide

The boys from Tallahassee have already tangled with Georgia Tech, holding Bobby Dodd's contingent to a 2-3 halftime tie before the Yellow Jackets pulled out with a 17-3 win.

The Seminoles won handily from Tennessee Tech and Furman and really showed their colors in their come-from-behind win over Wake Forest last week.

Nugent knows his predominantly sophomore team has the potential to stop Wally Butts' Bulldogs. "The game will be interesting," he says, "and if we get the breaks, we may win."

Stengel Confirms Trade Winds Blow

MILWAUKEE (UPI) — The triumphant Yankees can start counting their lion's share of the World Series today but they'd better not begin counting their chickens for next year because some of them may not be back.

Even before they beat the Braves to win the World Series Thursday Casey Stengel revealed that he will make a special trip back to New York to "listen to a lot of trade offers people have been making."

General Manager George Weiss confirmed that there may be several changes in the Yankees' playing personnel before 1959 rolls around.

"We're always in the market for a deal," Weiss said, "and there is a good possibility we might make a deal of them this winter."

That would mean, of course, that some of the Yankees who helped Stengel to his seventh World Series victory will be serving with other clubs next year.

Stengel had profound words of praise for practically every one of his Yankees immediately after Thursday's clincher. But that was in the first flush of victory. Upon re-valuation, he is sure to be a bit less excited about some of their performances, particularly during the last month of the regular season.

Frank Torre Gets 'Top Goal' Honors

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (UPI)—The World Series produced nearly enough "goals" to stock a cheese factory, but the unhappy horns have to go to the Milwaukee Braves' part-time first baseman, Frank Torre.

It was Torre who made two errors in the second inning of the seventh game, when the world championship hinged on victory, to give the Yankees the lead with two unearned runs and put the Braves in a hole from which they never escaped.

Torre didn't accept the booby prize without defense.

"Both of the throws had the runners beat," he said. "Why was it my error? I don't mind taking the rap for being the goat, but I fielded both balls clean. Both times the runners were beat by the ball and the throw was good. They should have been caught."

While the Yankees added their big four runs in the eighth, manager Fred Haney declared the unearned markers put the defending world titleholders "in the hole" and changed the entire course of the game.

Elston Howard Won It, Skowron Says

EDITOR'S NOTE: Bill Skowron hit a three-run homer in the eighth inning Thursday that proved the crusher in the Yankees' 5-2 World Series win over the Braves in the following dispatch, he tells his impressions of the game.

By BILL SKOWRON
Written for UPI

MILWAUKEE (UPI) — Elston Howard deserves all the credit, not me.

He really won the ball game for us with that eighth-inning single of his that put us ahead, 3-2. My home run was secondary, even though I hit it with two on.

Don't get the idea I'm pushing my homer. I hit the ball good and I was tickled to see it go over the fence in left-center. But fair is fair, Elton won the game. I just added a little bit to the victory.

I certainly have no kick coming. Remember the World Series last year? My back gave me an awful time. This time I played in all of them and I feel I owe any good luck that came my way to the good Lord.

Seabreeze Edges Pinecrest, 21-19

Spotis 28 Seabreeze Edges Mary Seabreeze Junior High was able to add three extra points here last night to defeat the Pinecrest Junior High football team 21-19.

The local squad did a fine job and looked much improved since the 28-0 defeat suffered at the hands of the same team last week.

Quarterback Leon Lawson was the star of the evening and showed a great deal of talent with his ball handling and punning. He ran for all three Sanford scores and passed to end McShane for the single point after TD. Lawson also had a lot of help from halfback Butch Riser and fullback Paul Coleman who did some fine running.

Boyd And Becham Paired In Rematch

CHICAGO (UPI)—Bobby Boyd and Jimmy Becham, one a knockout puncher and the other a speedy boxer, met tonight in a nationally televised rematch that is pegged as an even fight.

Becham won their first meeting, Aug. 27, at Miami, Fla. with a 10-round decision, putting Boyd on the canvas once for a mandatory eight count. Since then Boyd, who could be starting another of his frequent "comebacks" has turned to get another shot at the Miami fighter.

Seabreeze Edges Pinecrest, 21-19

In the forward wall for the Pinecrest team, Richard Stires, Mike Corrigan and Tommy Smith did outstanding jobs. These young lads hit hard and did a lot to hold the fast Seabreeze squad to three touchdowns.

It looked as though the local lads had the game in the bag as they were driving down the field, deep into Seabreeze territory, during the fourth quarter. But things took a turn about A. fast Seabreeze defender stole one of Lawson's flat passes and went all the way for the game-winning score. Seabreeze passed for the point and that was the end of the scoring for the evening.

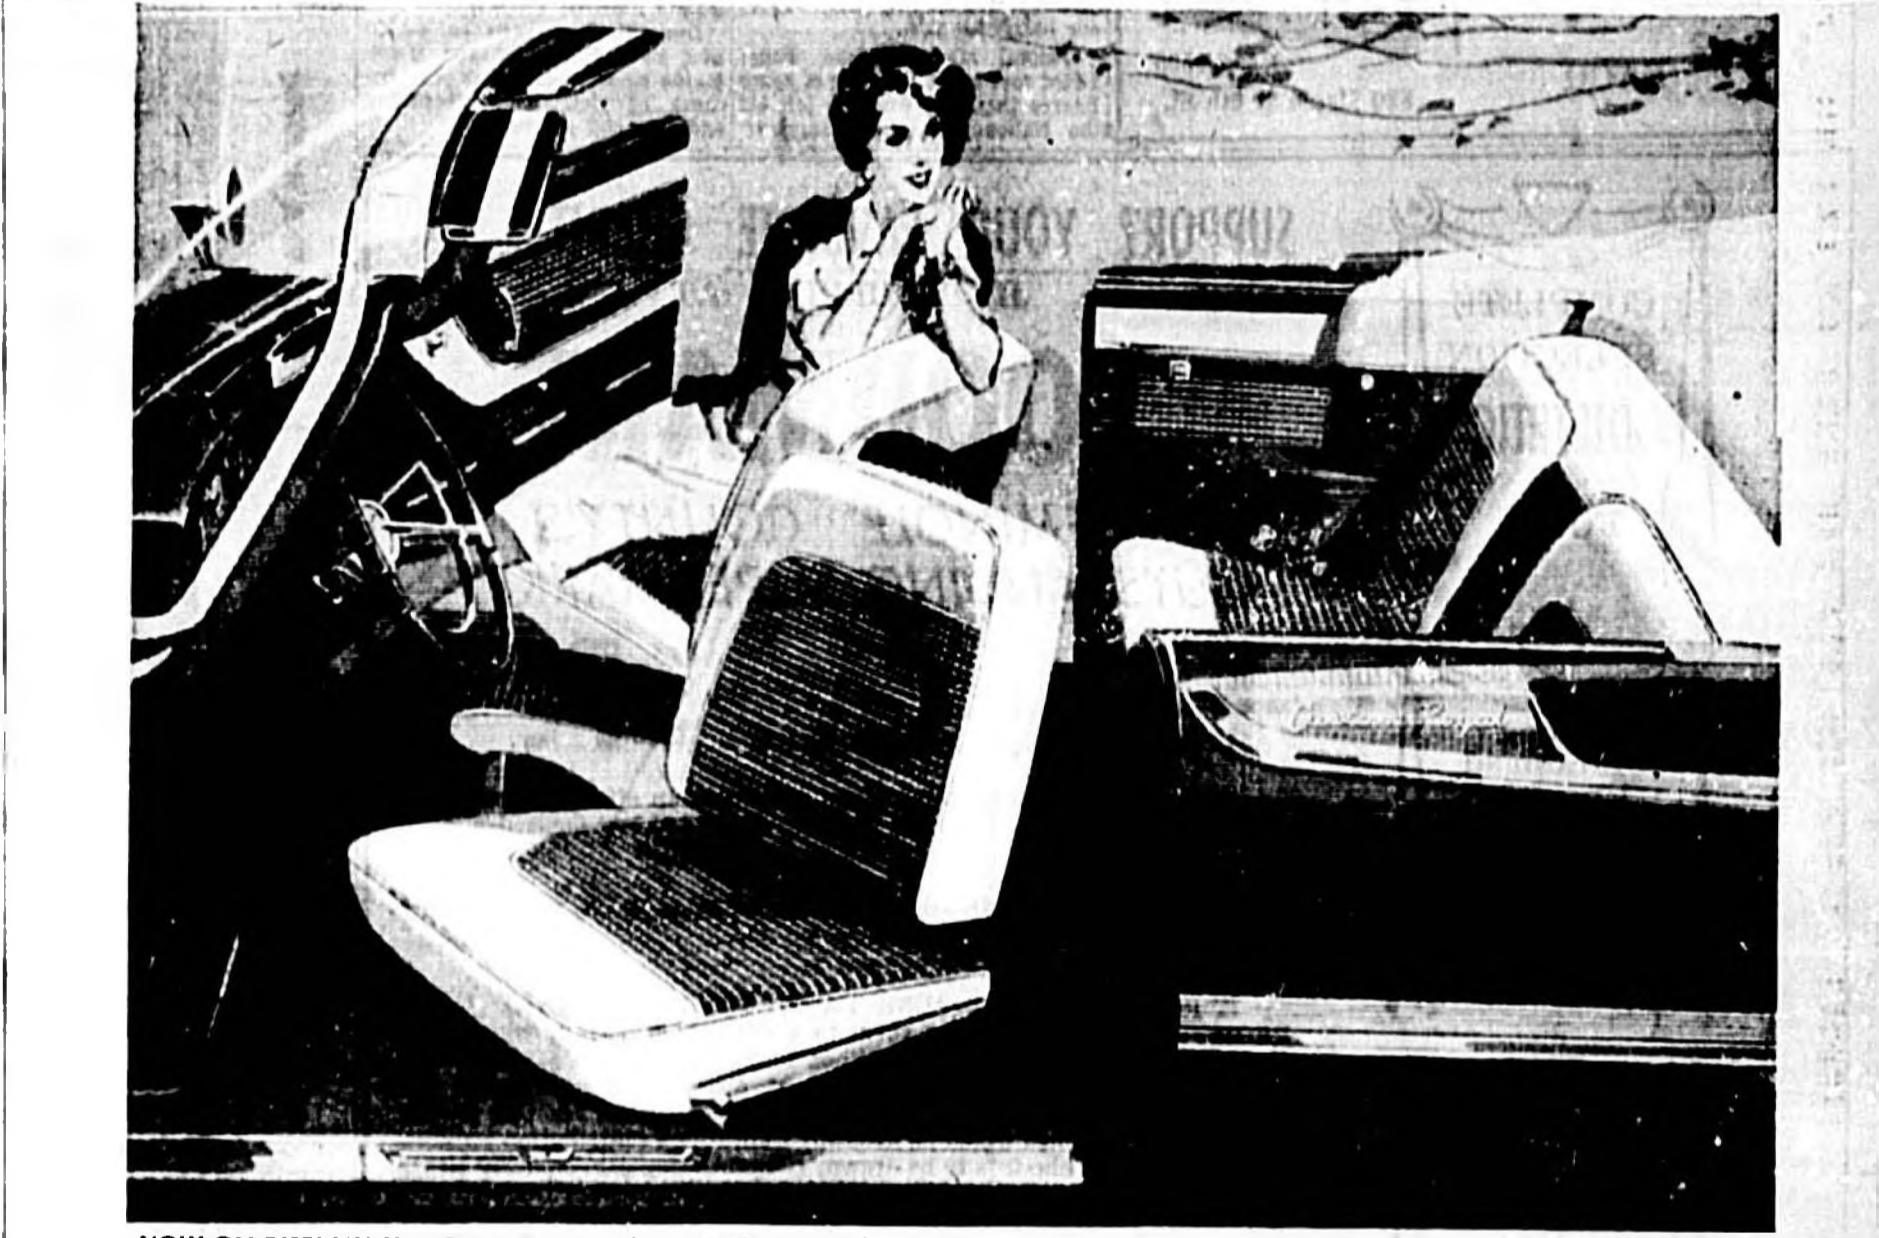

The young lads supplied a fine night of offensive football and the crowd received many thrills. Coaches Howard Gordie and Pete Schirard feel that they have many future stars on their junior team.

Ketterlinus To Invade Tonight

By Jerry Covington
The Sanford Seminoles will face their biggest test here tonight when Coach Jim Pigott sends his charges against powerful Ketterlinus of St. Augustine.

It will be the third home game of the season for the Seminoles and the locals will be out to put on a show for the home fans. All the excitement of the World Series will be forgotten as these two old rivals face each other for the first time in four years.

This contest was the best on the schedule in seasons past. The Seminoles haven't defeated the Yellow Jackets since the early 40's. Local fans and the squad are looking forward to renewing the old rivalry.

The Ketterlinus squad has been very impressive thus far in the season. It has the same old winning form that St. Augustine teams have enjoyed for many years. The Jackets have racked three opponents without tasting defeat thus far. They have shown power to carry them to another fine season.

While the Jackets are confident, and are rated as definite favorites, the Seminoles' power is not to be denied. They have great potential but as of yet the offense hasn't "jelled". The defense has done a good job by holding the opponents to 13 points, while the offense has piled up 20. The entire 20 points came against Lyman in the opening contest, so the offense is yearning for a chance to break loose with some scoring.

The squad is well-rounded offensively with a good passing combination of Cecil Dandridge to Allan Swain and Gerald Jones and the combined running efforts of Harold Stone, Vernon Kirk and Lin Risner. If these boys get to working together tonight, the Sanford squad should be able to give the Jackets a real tussle. The backs are not exceptionally fast, but they all run hard and are tough to stop.

The defense has shown steady improvement during the first part of the season and should be tough to crack tonight. Kelly Lake is the only regular who is a doubtful starter. It is possible that he will be ready to pair with Dave Stanley at the guards.

Utility man Duke Schirard has been called upon to run the offensive guard spot for Lake if he isn't ready to go. Center Tommy Butner will be back in the lineup tonight after sitting out the game last Friday night against Apopka. Other than Lake, the rest of the forward wall is ready.

The defensive backfield will be composed of Cliff McKibbin, who did such a fine job in stopping the fast Seahorse squad, John Lovelace and Ray Lundquist. These lads also have proven to be very effective in the offensive backfield and could be a big help there tonight.

This should be a game in which anything could happen. The Seminoles are definite underdogs, but if things start to click the outcome could make local fans very happy. Kickoff at the stadium tonight is 8 p. m.

Braves' Brass Hints Trades Looming

MILWAUKEE (UPI)—The Milwaukee Braves, dethroned as baseball's world champions, completed the season-end chore today of cleaning out their lockers at County Stadium and in the minds of several was a big question: "Will I be back next year?"

This undercurrent of doubt began in the dressing room when the Braves quietly filed in after their defeat in the seventh and pay-off game of the World Series. It was hard to alibi the loss after they had the Yankees down three games to one and the Braves didn't try to alibi.

"To the victor belongs the spoils," said Manager Fred Haney, "so give them all the credit. They beat us. They deserved to win, and they came from behind to do it."

"We had our chances and we just didn't make it. Pilechers dominated the series on both sides and I've got no complaints on our pitching. The turning point was in our bats," he said.

General Manager John Quinn added fuel to the thoughts of some Braves that they could be left off the National League champions' roster when spring comes.

"We'll make changes necessary to keep us strong," he said, indicating possible trades with other teams and promotions from the Braves farm system to keep the club on top.

Haney left no doubt about where he wants his team to finish next year when he made the longest walk in many a season to congratulate winning Manager Casey Stengel in the Yankees' dressing room.

"All I have to add," said Haney, after telling the Yankee skipper he beat the Braves fair and square "is let's get together again next year."

Probation Lifted

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (UPI)—Two-year probation against Washington University at Seattle and the University of Louisville were dismissed Thursday by the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NCAA).

Louisville had been on probation since May, 1956 and Washington since August that year because of violation of recruiting and financial aid rules.

George Montgomery Tackles Television In Series

By VERNON SCOTT
UPI Hollywood Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — George Montgomery, who has lived in the shadow of his famous wife (Dinah Shore) for the past six years, tackles television himself this week in a new Western series.

George wins — as do all movie-land husbands — when he is referred to as "Dinah Shore's husband."

As the bouncy singer's star rose to the video heights, George's movie career began to wane. But if there ever was any resentment, Montgomery never gave a hint of it. He is as proud of Dinah's success as if it were his own.

While Dinah entertained millions every Sunday night, George was busy with his furniture business and designing the couple's new home, much of which he helped build.

Now, however, the big handsome guy will become a TV star in his own right. Saturday night he makes his debut in "Clamrion City," an hour-long horse opera on NBC — the same network Dinah toils for.

Saddle Role Is Familiar
"It's back in the saddle for me," Montgomery said during a lunch break.

"I got my start back in 1937 in 'The Lone Ranger' movie serial with five other guys who were playing the same role. They killed me off in the sixth episode.

"Since then I've made 43 pictures, half of which have been Westerns.

"Clamrion City" will be an 'adult Western.' The character is the son of one of the city founders who tries to keep law and order as part of his duties as mayor.

"He's not a lawman, though. With 'Gunsmoke,' 'Wyatt Earp' and a flock of others there's too much competition in the badge-wearing department.

Enters Overcrowded Field
"Doing an hour show a week is too much, so I'll alternate with John Smith." He plays a deputy sheriff in a more heroic role than I play. Audrey Totter is a regular member of the cast, too. She plays a gal who runs a boarding house. Montgomery admits his Western field is overcrowded, but he believes the show will endure.

"I'll get out before the wedding process begins — if I don't believe in the show," he said. "I'm a partner in the production company and I'll be in a position to know."

In addition to his TV series, Montgomery recently completed a swashbuckling starring role in MGM's "Return to King Solomon's Mines."

It looks as if George's career is in the ascendancy again. And who knows, maybe some day soon Dinah Shore will be introduced as "George Montgomery's wife."

Reds Extend Cease-Fire

Energetic Oldster 'Granny Of Year'

CHICAGO (UPI) — A silver-haired oldster with teenage energy is the "grandmother of the year."

"Grandmother" is Mrs. Charles B. Clark, Chicago, a noted clubwoman, civil leader, writer and traveler whose busy life once prompted a doctor to tell her to "walk like a lady instead of a rocket."

She was named Sunday at the national Grandmother Clubs of America convention here. Her crowning came on "Grandmothers Day," which federation officials hoped would emancipate grandmas from the rocking chair stereotype into a world of activity and current affairs.

"It's time grandmothers did some living of their own," said the federation's president-elect, Mrs. Edith Waddell, 55, Corpus Christi, Tex. "We spend too much time baby-sitting."

Four Gunned Down On Beirut Streets

BEIRUT (UPI) — Street assassinations and bomb explosions today ushered in the bloodiest fourth week of an anti-government strike. Lebanese leaders work anxiously for political compromise to avert civil war.

At least four persons — among them a nephew of ex-President Sami Solh — were gunned down in Beirut streets before noon today.

With the followers of ex-President Camille Chamoun threatening an even stiffer strike, President Fouad Chehab called in Premier Rashid Karami and Christian Phalangist leader Sheikh Pierre Gemayel in a new attempt to bring a violence — ending political compromise.

Air Force Rocket Floated In Space

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A top scientist said today that for more than two hours America's lunar probe rocket virtually floated in space when it reached a historic altitude of more than 79,000 miles and slowed to a stop.

Air Force figures bore out the scientist's statement by showing the rocket was at about the same altitude between 4:47 and 6:47 a. m. e. d. t. Sunday striking at 79,120 miles, it rose to 79,212 and then fell back to the 79,120-mile level.

American Officials Think Indefinite Truce Likely

WASHINGTON (UPI) — American officials said today it appeared likely the Formosa cease-fire will drift into an indefinite truce if so, they said the United States will try to persuade Chiang Kai-shek to reduce substantially his garrison on the Quemoy and Matsu islands.

But officials cautioned that easing of the war tension over the offshore islands would not erase the basic dispute between Communist China and this country — the fate of China Kai-shek's Nationalist stronghold of Formosa.

Churchill Resting

NICE, France (UPI) — Sir Winston Churchill was back on the Riviera today, resuming his vacation after a visit to England.

Salmon Turned Red

Blackmail Charged To Chinese After Radio Broadcast

TAIPEI (UPI) — The Communists, in an anti-American gesture regarded by newspapers here as a ploy to "political blackmail," promised today they will extend the uneasy truce in the Formosa Strait for two weeks.

Peiping Radio announced the extension of the cease-fire at 1:30 a. m. a half-hour after it was to have ended. The announcement said the Reds hope their action will cause disension between the United States and its Chinese allies.

It said also that the Communists will resume their bombardment of Chinese Nationalist offshore islands immediately if U. S. ships or aircraft are seen flying in the area.

Review Is Denied On Use Of Troops

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Supreme Court in a new rebuff to Arkansas Gov. Orval Faubus, today refused to review federal court actions forbidding him to use National Guard troops to keep Negroes out of Little Rock Central High School.

Technically, the high court rejected Faubus' request that it review an April ruling of the 8th U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals which upheld a district court injunction against Faubus and his National Guard garrison.

ATLANTA (UPI) — City, state and federal agents, joined by several bomb experts, staged an all-out hunt today for a mysterious "Confederate underground" believed responsible for a wave of dynamite terrorism against Jewish institutions in the South.

The latest bombing in what some officers said followed a definite pattern blasted out a wall of a fashionable Jewish temple on Atlanta's famed Peachtree Road before dawn Sunday. President Eisenhower demanded a full, first-hand report from the FBI.

Protestant, Catholic and Jewish leaders over the South expressed "shock and distress" shortly after the Atlanta blast. A rabbi in Miami received a "cut and abrupt" anonymous call that a synagogue would be bombed. Police put all available men on a standby watch at some 30 synagogues in greater Miami.

Police in Knoxville, Tenn., also reported they were guarding a Jewish temple against a threatened bombing. No one was hurt in the explosion here.

Land Is Purchased From Railroad At Cost of $100,000

The Florida State Bank of Sanford today announced purchase of property for construction of a new modern building, cost of which will be announced.

The new building will be erected on property purchased today from the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad. The property is located along First St. and Railroad Ave. and extends to the lake. Deed stamps indicated that the purchase price was $100,000.

Construction of the new building is scheduled to start in the near future, T. E. Tucker, bank president, announced this afternoon.

Tucker announced purchase of the property following negotiations with ACL officials this morning. Negotiations for the property began about a year ago.

The decision to spend more than $100,000 for property on which to construct the new bank was based on two factors, Tucker said. These are: 1. Obtaining quarters adequate to serve the bank's customers and (2) elimination of a bottleneck to the growth of Sanford.

Tucker said the property transaction was made possible by the policy of the new ACL president, W. T. Rice, other ACL bank and city officials.

Of the new quarters to be constructed, Tucker said: "This is an indication of our faith in the future of Florida's growing economy." He added that the bank, when completed, will be among the nation's most modern. It will contain drive-in and walk-up windows and adequate parking facilities, he said.

For purposes of the sale, the city has been divided into five zones. Teams will work in the residential and business districts until all bulbs are sold, according to H. W. (Buddy) Rawls, president.

The bags contain bulbs from 40 to 100 watts and are being offered at the regular retail price, Rawls added. No definite time limit for the sale to be completed has been set. Rawls said "we'll just work until we have sold them all."

Didn't Ask Favor, Dunn Says; Predicts Write-In

Street and Prairie Lake Drive "never had been stabilized" and that Lake Drive, near Casselberry, "wasn't stabilized until the county started working on it a short time ago."

The Longwood Citizens League today released a copy of a letter to Dunn, written by Joseph E. Rogers, League president, demanding to know if an "underground campaign" is being waged in Dunn's behalf for the November election.

The letter said: "We are a league dedicated to promote good government. In the primary election, you lost to Mr. Vernon Dunn. Mr. Dunn is the people's choice. Rumors have reached us that there is an underground campaign to have a write-in for you in the November general election and that you are urging it.

"Is this the truth? If so, kindly make a public statement, print it in our paper, as we are an organization striving to get the facts before the thinking public in order to have intelligent voting and quell that because of your 8 1/2 years in elective office that you will be happy to declare your stand about these rumors as no doubt you do not condone underhanded methods after the people have spoken."
