World's Largest Statue Of Christ Stands Near Denver

DENVER, Col., Aug. 22.—(AP)—The world's largest statue of Christ, overlooking the Santa Maria camp for children in South Platte canyon, 64 miles southwest of Denver, was formally dedicated recently with impressive ceremonies attended by high officials of the Catholic Church.

The statue was first molded in life size in clay, famous religious pictures being used for models. Molds were taken from the clay figure. Terra cotta blocks were cast and burned at high temperature to form a cream-white glaze porcelain, said to be capable of resisting the weather of centuries.

The figure weighs 75 tons, is 30 feet tall and rests on a base 22 feet high. It stands 1,500 feet above the floor of the canyon.

PREPARE NOW FOR WAR SAYS MUSSOLINI

Il Duce Says Nation Should Become Militaristic, Even War-Like In Temper

BOLOGNA, Aug. 24.—(A.P.)—The idea of war "floating in the air" and it behooves Italy, in preparation for any development to become "militaristic, even a warlike nation," Premier Mussolini said today in an address to 5000 officers and military attaches at the conclusion of Italian Army maneuvers.

"No one in Europe wishes war," he said, "but the thought of it is all around us. At the end of July an unforeseen situation developed which was similar to that which prevailed in 1911. If we had not sent our divisions to the frontier complications might have resulted that could not have been averted except by the voice of the cannon. It is not necessary to be ready for the war of tomorrow but for the war of today."

MUNICIPAL HEADS ADOPT POLICY ON DEBT SITUATION

Speed Listed As Prime Need In Any Review Of City's Problem

ORLANDO, Aug. 24.—Expressing the view that "the interests of municipalities and their bondholders will be conserved by speedy adjustment of the defaults upon a sound workable basis," representatives of municipalities from every section of the state in conference here yesterday afternoon adopted a declaration of principles "necessary to be observed in negotiating such adjustments."

The action was one of the features of the closing session of the conference, held in the San Juan Hotel under the sponsorship of the Florida League of Municipalities. The declaration in full follows: "1. Every adjustment should be preceded by, and predicated upon, a thorough survey and analysis of capacity to pay, by competent and disinterested authority. It is essential that the adjustment should place the debtor upon the sound basis of immediate solvency under which fixed refunding obligations would command a fair market price."

"2. Capacity to pay is necessarily limited to reasonable taxation, inasmuch as excessive taxation is uncollectible and defeats its own purpose, what is a reasonable tax depends in large measure upon what other like property, in comparable locations, usually pays."

"3. The calamity of a recurrence of a Florida boom within another generation being most improbable, the sound value of the enormous surpluses of subdivided lots and vacant lands must be determined by calculations based on the cost and investment principles. Substitution of land far in advance of any normal demand for utilization has created no value for urban purposes and has destroyed any previously existing value for other purposes. The enormous surpluses of such lots at boom prices was the basis for the excessive debt."

U. S. TRADE COMMISSION TO SPEED UP WORK

Board Seeks To Show Ability To Act As An Agency Which Can Help Business

WASHINGTON, Aug. 24.—(A.P.)—The federal trade commission yesterday pressed up and speedily changed its procedure as another step designed to show its ability to act as an agency for the supervision of the nation's business and industry.

In a move motivated at least in part by difficulties over NRA matters, the commission slashed days off the time given both itself and defendants to act in cases involving the anti-trust acts. The new rules were aimed at "red tape" traditions that had previously bound the commission.

At the same time it was learned authoritatively that commission officials are informally conferring on proposals which may be submitted to President Roosevelt, whereby the commission could absorb many of NRA's functions. The commission's actions take on added significance in view of the disputes surrounding the reorganization of NRA on a permanent basis.

The commission's enabling act is somewhat similar to the National Industrial Recovery Act, and, some officials believe, it could be made to serve as the nucleus for a new NRA. In the matter of speed the commission yesterday ordered that hearings on complaints shall be held within 30 days instead of 40 after issue of the commission's complaint.

WORLD LEAGUE OF JEWS GIVEN CONSIDERATION

Group Would Operate Actively For Defense, Help Of Race

GENEVA, Aug. 24.—(A.P.)—A world league of Jews, operating permanently for the benefit and defense of Hebrews in all nations was envisioned last night at the World Jewish conference here drew to its close.

At the same time American delegates to the conference replied in sharp fashion to the American Jewish committee, which was reported to have discovered the work of the present conference. While leaders of the conference drew plans to convert the World Congress of Jews, called for 1935, into some permanent organization resembling in its functioning the League of Nations, and the conference itself busied itself with resolutions, the American delegates called the American Jewish committee that they were "profoundly shocked" at its statement.

DILLINGER AID IS KILLED IN ST. PAUL ALLEY

Homer Van Meter, Ace Thug, Falls Under Girl's Spell, Hail Of Machine Gun Slugs

ST. PAUL, Aug. 24.—(A.P.)—Once more a woman has led a Dillinger gang to the end of the outlaw trail.

Homer Van Meter, John Dillinger's ace gunman, walked into a police trap last night and fell full of lead in an alley.

Dillinger himself was spotted again July 22, baited to his death in an alley, too, by a woman. Van Meter, sixth of the Dillinger mob to die, was betrayed on a wittingly by his interest in a woman. Her name is being withheld.

Police said Van Meter had been "going around" with his men that relatives of the woman, suspicious of him, had gone to the police.

A check satisfied officers that the man was Van Meter, and some full plans were laid for his capture, dead or alive.

For two weeks the hunt went on secretly.

ST. PAUL, Aug. 24.—(A.P.)—A pretty St. Paul girl who had been seen with Homer Van Meter, slain Dillinger gangster on several occasions when the desperado made the Twin Cities his headquarters last March was under arrest here today. The girl, called here only a few hours ago, when Van Meter was shot last night, was charged with killing Calton and three other men reported, and it is believed that he may have been arrested for her home at the time he was shot down. Police are reluctant to discuss their prisoner.

Last night the Law and Van Meter met, and Van Meter, quick shooting gunman in most a foray against society, was shot down. The end of the Van Meter hunt came near a downtown district.

In answer to a command that he surrender, Van Meter whipped out a pistol and fired twice harmlessly.

Three policemen, headed by Chief Frank Cullen, opened fire with a rifle and machine gun.

Van Meter's body was perforated with about 50 slugs after he had scuttled from a street level section not far from the downtown district when ordered to halt by the police officers who surrounded him as they were strafed in a squad car.

In his pockets was found $200 in cash, mostly in 10 and 20 dollar bills. In his hand, hand, men, legs and back were tattooed.

Found with the money was an extra clip of cartridges for an automatic and an Illinois motor vehicle license registration card issued to a "Henry Adams."

It was the permanent killing in connection with the slaying of (Continued On Page Four)

A New Hospital

Late last week the announcement was made in Washington that a $320,000 loan had just been granted by the FWA officials for the construction of a new hospital building in Miami together with all necessary equipment, and laboratories, as well as a nurses' home. The building will be six stories high, and will contain about 175 private rooms for pay patients.

Further, it will include administration offices, permanent record quarters, a dental clinic, pharmaceutical department, medical library, cardiographic clinic, as well as a large kitchen and dining room. Built in conjunction with the present Jackson Memorial Hospital, it will require about eight months to complete, and will be financed entirely by the government loan which will be repaid in equal annual installments over the next thirty years at four percent interest.

About eight or ten years ago there was considerable agitation in Sanford for the construction of a new hospital. As we recall it, an issue of $100,000 worth of bonds was voted by the people in order to pay for the proposed hospital. Later it was decided that $100,000 would not build a hospital good enough for this city, and another $250,000 was voted, but before the hospital could be built something went wrong and the hospital was never built.

It occurs to us that if it is possible for Miami to obtain a loan for $320,000 for a hospital, when rather extensive hospital facilities already exist there, it should be possible to secure a loan of say $50,000 for a hospital in Sanford. A sum so small as $50,000 a few years ago would probably not have been regarded as sufficient to accomplish much in the way of hospitalization, but today we feel differently about such things. Today a great deal of good could be done with $50,000 judiciously expended by a wise hospital board.

We understand that most of the original grants to the PWA have been practically exhausted and that innumerable projects are waiting for the small sum which still remains. However, we are confident that as time goes on other funds will be provided either by administrative action, or if not, then later when Congress meets again. This much, at least, is certain: the Public Works program is not over.

And so it might be possible, if it is sufficient pressure is applied in the right place, to obtain a loan for a hospital. It is a possibility, at least, which seems to us to be worth looking into. It is perfectly apparent that those communities are getting the most appropriations which go after them the hardest.

Wooden Pistols

William Bryant sat in his Louisiana penitentiary cell a few months ago and read of the miraculous escape from jail which John Dillinger made with the aid of a little wooden pistol carved during idle hours in prison from a little piece of wood.

It all seemed so simple to Bryant. Dillinger had done a fairly good job of carving. The "pistol" looked very much like a real pistol. The lights were dim in the prison corridors. Of course the guards would stick up their hands and surrender when a bad man like Dillinger ordered them to at the point of something which looked like a gun. Any guards would.

Bryant decided to try the scheme for himself. He enlisted the aid of a fellow convict. They would take no chances. They would carve two wooden pistols, so that the guards would be doubly frightened. Just as they had read that Dillinger did, they took the guards unawares, waved their wooden pistols and cried "Stick 'em up!"

But something went wrong. Something had been left out of the newspaper account which Bryant had read. Something that was sorely needed if an attempt to escape from prison by means of a wooden pistol was to be made successful. Something which in all his wanderings and dealings with prison authorities, Dillinger never overlooked.

Bryant had forgotten the "fixer." He had neglected to see the right party. He had forgotten to grease somebody's palm. He had thoughtlessly overlooked the necessary. The guards simply laughed. Raising their sawed-off shotguns, they cut loose, and when they had finished Bryant was dead. So was his companion, and five or six other convicts, who happened to be in the wrong place at the wrong time, were wounded.

Wooden pistols are all right in their way, but you've got to have the right kind of ammunition to make them work.

SANFORD TWENTY YEARS AGO

A most enjoyable meeting of the town committee and other members of the Women's Club was held at the home of Mrs. J. T. Brady, Friday afternoon with sixteen present. With sixteen pairs of busy hands at work the roses grew as if by magic, making a fair start on the fifteen hundred roses to be used at the City Beautiful Ball in the fall. The afternoon passed quickly in pleasant social intercourse; the discussion of plans and arrangements for the new club house and improvement of Mrs. Brady's dining room hospitality. Refreshing luncheon was served throughout the afternoon.

Mrs. Frances Lohr and daughter, who have been spending the summer delightfully at Millers, N. C., will leave the group of friends at Washington, D. C. A little son arrived at the home of Mrs. J. W. Miller, 215 E. Chestnut Street, and will be called J. W. Miller, Jr.

Mrs. J. W. Miller, accompanied by Mrs. Frank Miller and Mrs. F. J. Gonzalez returned over to Daytona Sunday. Mrs. Miller and Mrs. Gonzalez will remain for several weeks.

VEGETABLE TARIFFS

MIAMI DAILY NEWS

Florida winter vegetable growers are in grave danger of becoming the innocent victims of a national conciliation program of trade expansion with Latin America.

The trade agreement about to be signed with Cuba, in its original form, contemplated a 50 percent reduction in tariff protection now existing on domestic vegetables and domestic grown crops of the winter market. Florida growers have fought doggedly for years to protect this differential as the minimum permitting them a reasonable return on their labor and investment.

They have renewed their vigorous protests at the hearings on the Cuban treaty, but this time they find themselves confronting the mandates of a national policy in which the rehabilitation of Cuba is but a step in the direction of far-reaching trade agreements with a half-dozen or more countries of Central and South America. Withdrawal of the tariff from Haiti was another phase of gesture toward the South that took definite shape under the former administration when President Roosevelt made his good-will tour of Caribbean waters.

It has long been apparent that trade instead of tariff protection is the key to Cuba's rehabilitation. The new treaty aims at a complete elimination of the island republic that will make the island, instead of the rifle, the favorite implement of the new Cuban industry. Cuba's greatest need, of course, is tariff encouragement for its sugar exports, and this could be granted without prejudice to the large winter vegetable industry of our southern states.

Miami and South Florida is vitally concerned with the success of any national policy looking toward the growth of commerce with its southern neighbors, but it would be an empty boast if it were made possible at the expense of our own growers.

Representative Wadsworth, Republican, New York, executive committee member of the league along with Democrats Alfred E. Smith and John W. Davis, said "it seeks to arouse the general public to the character of the attack being made, by implication at least, on the Constitution."

There long has been talk of "conservatives" and "leftists" struggling to influence President Roosevelt their way, both with and without the Administration. Some policies have been construed as definitely favoring one side or the other.

Roosevelt himself has evidenced no concern, taking the position that the new deal direction is "straight ahead." He said there would be no going back to "the old methods."

For SWEETENING YOUR SOIL

Use KAL-CITE
A POTASH-CALCIUM MIXTURE

Use KAL-CITE to correct and improve soil conditions in your vegetable fields and citrus groves. It is safe, dependable and economical. At this season, vegetable lands are being prepared for fall and winter crops. Florida Aches are commonly used for soil improvement. KAL-CITE is a much superior product to use for this purpose. It is a balanced soil base mixture built up with selected forms of calcium and potash in which are included added sources of the less common elements that have proved by recent experience to be so effective as soil amendments. It contains twice as much lime and potash as does hardwood ash and is applied on that basis.

Use COPPER KAL-CITE to correct ammonification and black in citrus trees. COPPER KAL-CITE is KAL-CITE to which Copper Sulfate has been added. It is an excellent tonic for both the soil and the tree.

ATLANTA, Ga., Aug. 24.—(AP)

Solicitor General Hollis Fort yesterday announced the Taylor county grand jury had indicted J. W. Jordan, former cashier of the closed Bank of Talbot on a charge of violating the state banking laws.

Complete Isolation Of Capone Promised

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 24. — (AP) — Complete isolation of Al Capone, former Chicago gang chief, and other newly arrived convicts on Alcatraz Island, was announced yesterday by Warden James A. Johnston. The move is to break any possible contact of the prisoners with their former underworld confederates.

"They are not even going to have an opportunity to know what goes on outside," Warden Johnston declared. "Those men were sent here because the government wants to break their contacts with the underworld. That is going to be done."

There isn't even a radio on the island, Johnston added, and the prisoners will not be permitted to read the newspapers.

Dawson Uncovers Data On Vegetable Production In State

 He stated that both Mr. Rhodes and Secretary of Agriculture Nathan Mayo now are in Washington in conferences which will no doubt result in an announcement that work on the market may start within three weeks.

First reporting that the State has no funds for use in fighting the mole cricket pest, and that there are no federal or FERA funds available for this purpose. Mr. Dawson then launched into a discussion of the data which covered the three-year period of 1930, 1931, and 1932.

Stressing again and again that Florida growers are neglecting "tremendous opportunities," Mr. Dawson pointed to one outstanding fact as taken from the data.

"During the three years 1930, 1931, and 1932," he said, "California shipped 12,342 solid carloads of carrots into 10 leading markets, and Texas shipped 3695 solid carloads. Isn't it astounding to think that during those three years Florida shipped only 10 carloads into those markets?"

He next presented the data as it related to cauliflower, a product which filled 13,401 solid carloads from California during the three year period, and only one carload from Florida.

"You growers who are casting about for a crop to raise for sale through the new market," he said, "need look but little farther than the list which I am reading. The opportunity is offered you to become a far more potent power in the vegetable producing game. If you will but grasp it, let me urge that you give this list serious consideration, and plan your winter crops accordingly."

Here are the facts as gathered by Mr. Dawson, and presented at the meeting. The figures cover total carload shipments for a three year period into 10 leading Eastern markets, including New York:

Anise seed, which can be grown from November through April: California 98, Florida none, Texas 17.

Parsley, growing season November through June: California 192, Florida two, Texas 719.

Garlic, can be grown all year: California 374, Florida none, Mexico 22, Spain four, Chile 24.

Kale, growing season December through May: Virginia 2132, Florida none, Louisiana two.

Radishes, growing season, December through May: Arkansas 196, Alabama 42, Texas 539, Florida none.

Shallots, growing season November through May: Louisiana 775, Texas 14, Georgia three, Florida none.

Turnips, growing season January through May: California 46, Florida 23, Texas 96.

At the time he resigned Mangham said he could not continue as highway chairman and "keep my self-respect."

Last night in a long promised elaboration of the cause of this break with Talmadge, Mangham said in a statement read over the radio:

"To have remained as chairman of the highway department, it would have been necessary for me to shut my eyes, close my mouth, stop up my ears and sign my name in order to get along with Gene Talmadge."

Mangham is now one of the principal supporters of Judge Claude Pittman who is contesting the gubernatorial nomination with Talmadge and E. A. Gilliam in the primary which is to be held on Sept. 12.

His statement went into detail in giving what he said were illustrations of his charges that Talmadge dictated the highway awards and contracts in favor of Whitley, LaGrange contractor.

Orchestra Leaders To Clean Up Song Lines

NEW YORK, Aug. 24.—(AP)—Five prominent orchestra leaders organized a campaign Wednesday against obscenity and double meanings in the titles and lyrics of popular songs.

They explained their move was precautionary to forestall possible outside censorship such as the League of Decency has imposed on motion pictures.

Paul Whiteman was made chairman of the "committee of five for the betterment of radio." Other members are Rudy Vallee, Guy Lombardo, Abe Lyman and Richard Rogers.

MONUMENT TO BE WASHED

WASHINGTON, Aug. 24.—(AP)—Workmen began erecting 600 tons of steel scaffolding Wednesday around the Washington monument, which will be washed in its first thorough scrubbing.

For 160 days the giant shaft will undergo the beautification process, costing some $100,000 of Public Works funds.

Improved business conditions in Australia are causing marked stimulation of clock and watch exports into the commonwealth.

Silver Currency Is Getting Into Trade

WASHINGTON, Aug. 24.—(AP)—The Treasury revealed last night that less than a quarter of the $20,000,000 in silver certificates issued under the Administration's new monetary policy have found their way into actual circulation.

The remainder, after making allowances for whatever amounts may be in transit, has gone no farther than the vaults of the federal reserve system.

This was disclosed by a comparison of Treasury and federal reserve figures, showing a net increase of $18,000,000 in money in circulation since the silver plan was inaugurated, with a jump in federal reserve notes outstanding supporting for $8,414,000 of that total.

Science Changes Little Crippled Girl Into A Normal Man

KITTANNINGTON, Pa., Aug. 24.—The new science of ductless gland treatments last night was gradually changing crippled little Clara Schraibengott, 2 to a normal man.

The mysterious pituitary gland located at the base of the brain was responding to treatment and Clara, or Clarence, as he now is called, was rapidly becoming masculine.

Clara was baptized a girl, and until a few months ago his father and mother believed him feminine.

The family physician, however, discovered that the actual reproductive glands buried deep in the abdomen were masculine.

Physicians emphasized that they could not change the patient's sex. But they gave pituitary injections which started the pituitary gland function normally.

The pituitary, in turn, stimulated the male glands in the abdomen to greater activity.

The child, improperly developed at birth, was sent to West Penn hospital last month for an operation. Dr. Donald Cameron performed an abdominal operation which changed the position of internal organs permitting proper sexual development.

Dr. Ivan N. Boyer, attending physician, meanwhile gave Clarence pituitary extracts by hypodermic injection which produced prompt results.

The boy is not only growing, but is assuming gradually nearly normal sexual organs.

Helena Jenson, the Metropolitan Opera's new soprano, will be that institution's blondest blonde.

Officials of the corps here said the enrollment of 50,000 men in the Mid-Western drought area
